Congratulations..... Had a woman call to tell me that "perhaps your safety reminders about driving with the headlights on," is starting to work. She said that from her home in Pinecrest, a distance of approximately 5 miles, all of the oncoming autos did have their headlights on... not a single one without lights!

And a special thank you to all of those concerned citizens who did in fact pitch-in and offer their aid at the tragic accident this past Saturday, on highway 17-92 near Lake Monroe.

According to FHP Dan Lawrence there were numerous deeds of personal heroism including one gentleman who backed his truck up to the other burning truck and pulled it away from the damaged auto in which some of the passengers were still trapped inside; of the young man who offered mouth-to-mouth resuscitation, plus heart massage to one of the victims; to those who used their fire extinguishers in trying to put out the flames (one unit which is in the possession of the Florida Highway Patrol and waiting for it to be reclaimed).

All of these people are heroes...and we're certainly proud of them. They didn't turn their backs as has been reported in other parts of the country, here-of-late.

More "plaudits"...this time to the Seminole County Board of Commissioners...at tomorrow's meeting they have all good intentions of approving the minutes of previous meetings of August 22 and 29, as well as Sept. 5, 12, 19 and 26.

Thought that these are normally approved at the subsequent meeting, and not permitted to drag on?

For the record...received another call this morning by a Lake Mary resident who said "those were NOT Lake Mary residents at our chamber of commerce meeting Thursday night" who offered their opposition to the Heathrow project.

Curious...then where did they come from?

Had my ride in John Kader's Rolls Royce this past Friday. In order that you don't feel too badly about not getting a chance to also say "I rode in one, etc." Kader will be giving "free" rides to anyone who's interested today and tomorrow. Just meet him in front of his store on Park Avenue — downtown Sanford.

"Quote of the Week"...and "credit" this one to Secretary of State William P. Rogers: He has a $400-a-day suite at the Waldorf he doesn't even sleep in. But his aides say "it is an excellent investment for the taxpayers."

Anybody wanna try and explain that do-do to me, please?

Four-hundred bucks a day...?

I have another one for you to ponder...It comes from the lips of Dr. Frank E. Colav, St. Charles, Mo., schools superintendent: "If only one point of view is to be taught concerning controversial issues, whose viewpoint should be used?"

Two persons were killed and one man seriously injured in a fiery Saturday afternoon collision on U. S. 17-92 west of Sanford. Both lanes of the busy road were blocked for nearly an hour (top photo). Trooper Dan Lawrence praised the actions of the many individuals who

Traffic Crash Kills 2

By GARY TAYLOR

A fiery collision on U.S. 17-92 west of Sanford Saturday afternoon claimed the lives of two people and left another in serious condition. The accident, termed by many officers at the scene as the "worst of 1972," boosted the Seminole County fatality count to 15 for the year.

Alfred S. Henley, 24, of 143 Mayfair Circle, Sanford, was dead at the scene, after efforts to revive him for a third time failed. Twice his heart stopped beating, but he was revived through mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and heart massage. After the third time, he would not respond to either effort.

According to Troopers D. S. (Dan) Lawrence and E. W. (Ernie) Jacobs of the Florida Highway Patrol, Henley was west-bound on U.S. 17-92 and came around a curve at a high rate of speed. He locked his brakes to avoid hitting the back of a slower car, and he skidded out of control nearly 200 feet in his 1967 Chevrolet pickup truck before going across the center line and was struck broadside by a 1971 Cadillac.

Waymon R. Willoughby, 71, of 492 S. Beach Street, Ormond Beach, was the driver of the Cadillac and is in serious condition at Florida Hospital, where the accident victims were taken by "Lifesaver One," Herndon Ambulance's helicopter. His wife, Clara C. Willoughby, 67, was dead on arrival.

According to Lawrence, the first law enforcement officer on the scene, the pickup truck burst into flames with Mrs. Willoughby still inside the car and the two vehicles together. An unidentified passer-by used a private vehicle and a chain to pull the burning truck away from the other wreckage, and an engine company from the Sanford fire department responded since a life was in danger.

Wreckage blocked both lanes of the busy road for nearly an hour. A large section of the truck body broke loose from the frame and was tossed along the edge of the roadway.

L. L. R. Rice, Sgt. Roy Hughey and deputy Doug. Huth handled traffic at the scene for more than two hours, permitting Lawrence to handle the investigation.

Black Terrorists Linked In Murders Of 9 Whites

CHICAGO (AP) — Sheriff Richard J. Elrod says eight members of a black terrorist gang charged in the recent murders of nine persons were apparently "roaming the countryside looking for someone to kill."

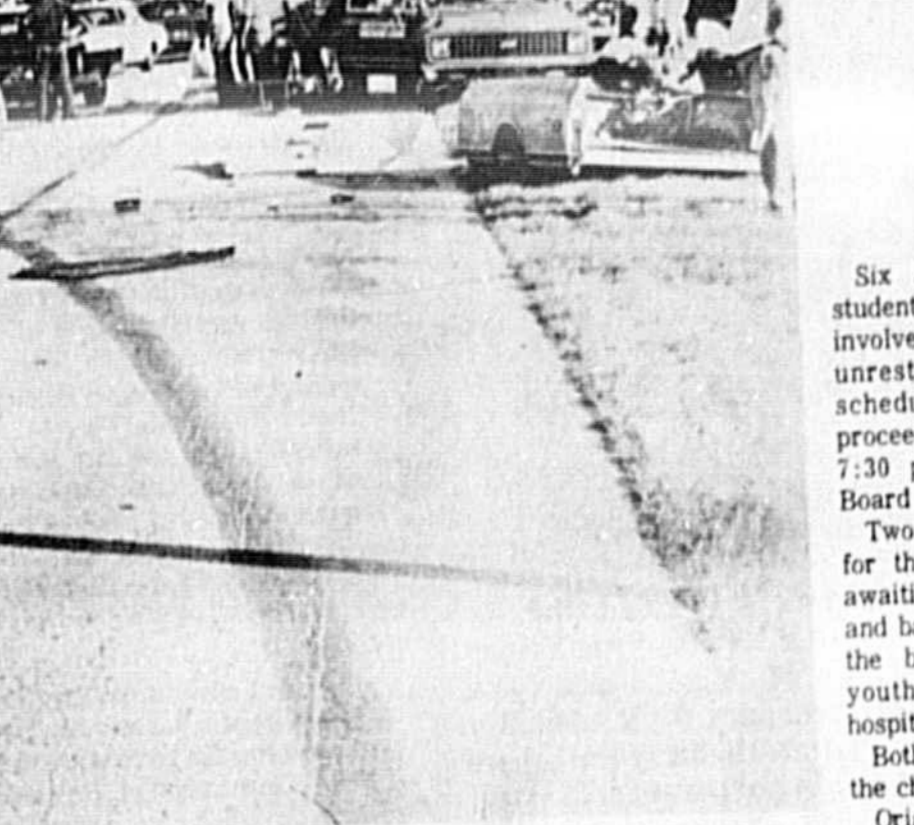

Authorities said apparently not all of the eight men charged had participated in all slayings. Elrod told newsmen Sunday the nine white victims, including the members of two separate families, apparently were randomly selected by a Chicago street gang which he said called itself "De Mau Mau."

When asked about possible racial motivation, Elrod said, "I can see no other apparent motivation."

Six men are being held without bond, two others are still being sought.

Elrod, the Cook County sheriff, said the De Mau Mau organization apparently was founded several years ago by

Lawrence also spoke highly of the Herndon Ambulance attendants, who worked with the victims until they were removed by "Lifesaver one," a helicopter ambulance. (Gary Taylor Photos)

Six Students Scheduled For Expulsion At Tonight's Meeting Of Seminole County School Board

Six Seminole High School students, said to have been involved in the recent student unrest at the school, are scheduled for expulsion proceedings during tonight's 7:30 p.m. Seminole County Board meeting.

Two of those to be expelled for the rest of the year are awaiting court action on assault and battery charges arising in the beating of two Sanford youths who required hospitalization.

Both have pleaded innocent to the charge.

Originally scheduled for a week ago, action on the expulsions was delayed after only two of the five member School Board showed up for the regularly scheduled meeting.

New PUD Concept Planned

A new building concept in planned unit developments (PUD) is ticketed for the east side of U.S. 17-92 on a 20-acre tract, an official with Royal Line Builders, developer, divulged today.

Norman Shiff, with Royal Line Builders of Winter Park, said today his company Design Group Planning, Inc., of Winter Park, in planning a revolutionary concept in PUD on the site, just outside Sanford.

Shiff declined to discuss the new idea of his concept, explaining his desire to await the reaction of the City of Sanford when it is presented to the City Commission at today's 4 p.m. work session.

"We expect to have preliminary plans ready by the first of the year," Shiff added.

With a note of optimism, Shiff said he anticipated no problems with the new plan imposed by the state water and air pollution board prohibiting any further sewer hookups to the city plant,

For Sheriff's Deputies Polk Seeks Pay Hike

The sheriff said the appeal to the Jacksonville office had been turned down and, if a regional appeal is not successful, then the next step would be to Washington.

Wage board has allowed no more than $2.75 per hour salary for the sheriff's employees. Other than the deputy increases, only two other employees would be affected, Polk said. These are the sheriff's bookkeeper and secretary, who were slated to receive $2.77 and $2.78 per hour, respectively.

Ashby Jones, deputy court clerk, said the county may be involved with the appeal, since on the whole the county had submitted a 10.6 average wage increase. However, most increases were six and seven per cent, Jones explained.

Request for $114,000 to cover deficits for the last year was made to the Seminole County Commission early this afternoon by the board of trustees of Seminole Memorial Hospital. The trustees requested and received $54,000 for the same purpose last year.

Yesterday's high 89 low this morning 64. Generally fair through Tuesday. Highs mid and upper 80s. Low tonight mostly mid and upper 60s.

A wave of unseasonably cold air settled into eastern half of the nation today chilling most of the Mid Atlantic, the Atlantic Seaboard, Gulf Coast states and the Southern Plains.

Winter Springs Votes Dec. 5 Election Law OK Seen

By MARION BETHA
WINTER SPRINGS — With all five council seats and the mayor's office up for grabs in the Dec. 5 municipal election, City Council, at a 7:30 meeting tonight, will adopt on second and final reading an election ordinance.

The ordinance establishes the qualifying period for candidates from Oct. 15 through Nov. 1. The qualifying fee has been increased from $5 to $10. The ordinance also provides for the qualifications of an elective office as being a qualified city voter, and a city resident for six months preceding the qualifying date.

Further, in addition to filing the qualifying fee each candidate is required to file a petition signed by 10 registered voters of the city with the city clerk between Oct. 15 and Nov. 1.

Council will also consider on second and final reading of an ordinance vacating and abandoning certain roads and streets in Gardina Farms.

Second and final reading will also be held upon an ordinance which grants an exclusive franchise to the Winter Springs Development Corporation for water and sewer service. The corporation will serve the Winter Springs subdivision developed by William Goodman.

Council will formally ratify a resolution establishing a base pay of $6,000 annually for city policeman. The issue was approved by straw vote last week by council at a workshop meeting.

Mayor Granville Brown told council he had transmitted a letter in June to the Department of Revenue, indicating the city wished to abide by standards set forth in the revenue sharing act. However, Donald Fish, bureau chief of the Police Standards Board, advised the standards Board of the agreement by council.

The resolution stipulates that the 1972 Florida revenue sharing act is desired to be participated in by Winter Springs, with all funds to which the city is entitled. In order to qualify for the revenue sharing funds for 1973-1974, it is necessary that the city certify all city policemen meet the qualifications of the Police Standards Board of the state, and that none are remunerated in an amount of less than $6,000 annually.

Council advised the city has met these provisions and resolved the information be forwarded to the Department of Revenue, and that the city desires to participate in the Revenue Sharing Act of 1972.

In what promises to be a lengthy meeting, council will also act upon an insurance program for municipal employees.

Last week, representatives of three firms discussed their proposals with council and Mayor Brown appointed a committee to appraise the proposals and make a recommendation. The committee met last Wednesday in a public meeting to consider all of the proposals.

Chairman Robert Daehn commented that the board has no right to legislate. "I think you want to go bankrupt, that's their business."

The applicant said he wished to erect an office facility, but there was considerable opposition from property owners in the area.

Approved was a request for a zoning change by made by Sam Slomovitz from light industrial to multiple family on property located on Jessup Street and Seminole Avenue.

A representative said density was 13 units per acre, water and sewage is available and garden type apartments are planned.

George Nader for a zoning change from residential to restricted commercial on property located on SR 404 and Little Wekiva Drive.

Morrison said a convenience type store is planned. A resident objected with the notation there are three such stores in the area.

Continued until next week is arraignment of William Srobooda, charged with possession of a narcotic drug.

Also docketed for the week of Nov. 27 is the trial of Arlene Gerstein, charged with possession of drug paraphernalia. The defendant pleaded not guilty.

Continued until Oct. 24 is arraignment of Roy Washburn, charged with breaking and entering with intent to commit a felony and grand larceny.

Richardson, there is a question of whether the annexation petition will be certified by the tax assessor by tomorrow but will anticipate that it will.

AN UNOCCUPIED residence was destroyed by flames and an adjacent beauty shop damaged Friday night. Two engine companies and a tanker from the Sanford Fire Department responded to the blaze at 1404 W. 18th Street at 11:18 p.m. According to the fire department, the buildings were owned by Christine Coleman of 49 Castle Brewer Court, Sanford. No cause has been determined and the blaze is still under investigation.

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS — Second and final reading of an ordinance which redistricts the city will be heard by City Council at a 4:30 meeting tomorrow.

Mayor Lawrence Swofford has stated that the ordinance is of the utmost importance in qualification for the upcoming December municipal elections.

Police Chief Justus East should have a report for council upon a survey of the streets in the Spring Oaks subdivision. Last week, a delegation requested the city to post a 15 mile speed limit on all streets in the subdivision.

Horse Show To Benefit Place

Sanford resident Richard Place will benefit from a horse show taking place at Country Quick arena in Oviedo on Sunday, Nov. 5, and sponsored by the Greater Oviedo Jaycees.

With the assistance of Oviedo grocer and horseman, Tom Bowser, the Jaycees are putting together a 14-event show with the grand entry slated for 2 p.m.

Place was critically injured this summer when he was on a July 4 outing with friends in Massachusetts. Following three major operations, the Vietnam veteran, son of Oviedo assistant Police Chief Wesley Place, bills exceeding $12,000. Having just been discharged from the service, Place had no medical insurance.

To date, the Oviedo Jaycees have raised $1,200 through contributions and Sanford residents have raised an equal amount.

Upwards of 100 riders from Seminole County and the Central Florida area are expected to compete for the 107 ribbons and trophies to be awarded at the show. Competition will be in three classes including senior, junior, and beginners who have not participated in more than four shows.

A high point trophy will be awarded in each class to riders scoring the highest number of points. A trophy buckle and six ribbons will be awarded in each event.

Highlighting the show will be a costume event in which riders will costume both themselves and their horses to parade before the audience and a parade of judges. Competitors will also vie in barrel races, polebending events, hairpin races, spear-throwing and a western pickup, which is an open event.

The Oviedo Jaycees group also will have a raffle for a 16 gauge shotgun and a number of other prizes. Refreshments will be available on the grounds.

Sewer Grant Doubled

By DONNA ESTES

LONGWOOD — The city's sanitary sewer system will be in operation within 18 months, Mayor Kenneth Brown predicted at the regular meeting of the City Council.

Brown's prediction, with agreement from city engineer William Palm, came after reports from the consultant that federal funding in the form of grant should be received by the city by Dec. 15.

The engineer said grant application forms have been approved by various agencies in Tallahassee and Atlanta and have been forwarded to Washington. Palm said he was told in conferences in Tallahassee early last week that federal grants for 75 per cent of the cost of the sewer treatment plant will be received rather than the 50 per cent originally applied for.

There is no up-to-date information on the amount of grant moneys which will be forthcoming for distribution lines, the engineer informed, and no information on the disposition of loan applications for the system. An application to the division of state planning for a $244,800 loan for the system has been found to be in compliance with all rules and regulations, the engineer said.

In other business council authorized city attorney S. Joseph Davis Jr. to prepare a contract form for fire protection agreement for out of city property owners wishing the service. At the same time Mayor Brown informed officials of Dynatronics and Debern Electronics plants located on 17-92 near the city limits are discussing with Fire Chief Carl Lommier the possibilities of either annexing to the city or contracting for fire protection.

The expenditure of $1,800 for office furnishings for the city hall addition was approved. It was also agreed to spend $615 to paint both the city hall, fire house and police station.

Rezoning Request Beats Opposition

By MARION BETHA
VEHEMENT opposition was voiced at Wednesday's meeting of the county Planning and Zoning Commission by a resident of the Bear Lake area to a rezoning request.

The request, by Davis Fishback, was for rezoning from agriculture to light industrial on property located on 20 acres Seminole County line. The resident said homes ranging from $60,000 to $70,000 were located in the area, and the industrial zoning would depreciate property values.

County Planner David Farr said Zoning Director Robert Brown recommended the change, suggesting a buffer area.

Developer Wilson Knott told the board that plans are to erect buildings of a type compatible with the surroundings as much as possible.

The rezoning was approved for recommendation to the County Commission with the proviso that a 100 foot buffer be erected.

However, the board denied a request by Fortunato Pantano for a zoning change from agriculture to wholesale commercial on property located east of SR 406 on the north side of Mickler Road.

The Ancient Virtue Of Neighborliness

The cartoon printed on this page today depicting the "Spirit of '76" with its famous drummer boy, resolute "embattled farmer" and wounded, courageous fife is not alone a play on patriotism or reminder of things past.

It is an artist's concept of the simple virtues which have the United States its strength and the practice of which brought this nation into its present position of perilous world leadership in material power.

Indeed this is a theme which has been emerging from the most thoughtful commentators and writers as the paradoxes of the 1970s are critically outlined against the promises of the 1770s.

For what has been overlaid by the admittedly successful implementation of a better life for the many are the losses as family and religious ties have been weakened and the moral fiber has been sapped in a most dangerous way.

Here in Seminole county the changes which place a perfect example of the changes which these trends have brought about. Fantastic growth with all the controversies and all the benefits which it bestows cannot be accepted without a danger of some loss.

This is not at all a less of something material, such as proper roads, water supply and sewerage disposal or the chance to earn good wages and take risks with high dollar rewards more than probable.

It is, in an oversimplification, the loss of the old neighborliness or the acceptance of "my brother's keeper" responsibility as a normal duty.

Yet the strength of this county, or any county, must rest on the character of its residents. And one of the measures of such strength is taken every year as the United Fund of Seminole County's one month, once a-year appeal for funds to help provide community-wide human services takes place.

This week the 1972-73 drive for $82,000 comes to a close. The statistics as this comment is written on Oct. 13th are not at all encouraging. Yet the past record shows that the goal will be reached.

Of course it should be surpassed. It will be if all the residents of the county will ask themselves a simple question and think what this community would be without the human services the approved agencies render.

No one who has been closely associated with these UF drives, as we have, can fail to be impressed by the time and talent the volunteer workers contribute.

For this is an army without banners, no fife-and-drum corp shrills out the tune and beats the cadence. But these workers keep at it because the same old-time virtues of concern for one's fellows and belief in the innate generosity of the brotherhood keep them at it.

Are the people living in Seminole county lacking compassion? Are they so occupied with their own affairs that they cannot spare some time and some dollars for those who cannot take care of themselves?

Of course not! What will be reported at the noon luncheon of the UF workers today in Altamonte Springs will give an indication of just how much support this campaign with George W. Foster as chairman has received.

But this is not the end. If, for some reason or other you have not been asked to contribute, accept this as such a request from the campaign organization and send your check to the United Fund of Seminole County, P. O. Box 144, Sanford.

Try it to the tune of "Yankee Doodle" and let your heart, if not your feet, keep time in '72 to the patriotic beat of the 1770s!

A Changing World

Divided Panama Approach Harmful

By JOHN PINKERMAN Editor, Copley News Service

The United States has a problem concerning continued operation of the Panama Canal and, as is true in so many similar situations, a sharply divided approach is damaging the American position.

This particular lack of unity concerns differences in the reaction to Panamanian strongman Gen. Omar Torrijos' move toward renunciation of the original treaty concerning U.S. rights in the Canal Zone and possible seizure of what has been an American "island" since 1803.

The State Department takes the view that U.S. sovereignty in perpetuity, as agreed in the Treaty of 1903 and restated in 1955, may not be "realistic" any longer.

Many members of Congress, however, led by Rep. Daniel J. Flood, D-Pa., insist that a treaty is a permanent agreement and should not be abridged or softened.

Normally, such differences might simply be a part of the exercise of the democratic process, but two developments serve notice that a divided approach is a weakened approach in settling the canal control question satisfactorily.

The strong leftist philosophy of the Torrijos government has developed to the point where Panama's Assembly of Community Representatives, 56 in number and including two that Panama claims represent the U. S. - controlled Canal Zone, has urged that the Panamanian government reject the annual U.S. "rent" of $1,950,000. This, in effect, would make U. S.

presence "illegal."

U. S. negotiators, seeking without success since 1962 a new treaty satisfactory to both sides, have been silent, according to Flood, "in asserting our just rights, power and authority for which we have solemn treaty obligations."

The State Department stand, which some charge is a soft approach in the face of a Communist threat in Panama, is reflected in the words of Deputy Assistant Secretary State Robert Hurwicz, spoken to a House subcommittee last year in a discussion of the future of the 647-square-mile Canal Zone.

He said: "I am not sure that the United States is in a position to take a hard line with Panama. It is a Communist threat in Panama, and we are not sure that we can take a hard line with Panama."

As for Miscues, Dig That Shriver

By BRUCE BOSSAT

In Philadelphia, U.S. Rep. William Barrett introduced R. Sargent Shriver at a street rally as "The most handsome vice-presidential candidate we've ever had."

It was an agreeably irrelevant comment, yet it said a lot about the kind of campaign Sen. George McGovern is running. The effort, fast-talking Shriver does provide some of the zest we reporters say has been missing from this campaign. The trouble is, most of his utterances are not taken seriously because he's so outrageously careless.

The effort, fast-talking Shriver does provide some of the zest we reporters say has been missing from this campaign. The trouble is, most of his utterances are not taken seriously because he's so outrageously careless.

Over a span of years, he miscalled the name of a famous song, gave the wrong date for McGovern's big Vietnam speech, mistated the number of men under arms in that speech, misquoted the Declaration of Independence and the Star-Spangled Banner.

So when he gunged out "facts" about the alleged sins of the Nixon administration and other matters, it registers as great good fun but doesn't seem to have much to do with governing the United States.

He comes across, then, mostly as a showman, something like a movie matinee idol dashing about trying to promote one of his films by joshing with the customers.

Don't imagine, though, that the folks don't enjoy the Shriver as usual was rattling off food and other price increases to hammer home the perils of continuing inflation. He shouted:

"Why, chickens have gone up 15 per cent. And Nixon is taking pig's feet away from us."

A puzzled reporter heading for the press bus asked another: "What are pig's feet now? Fifty cents a toe?"

Whatever he is, Shriver plunges on. At a ministerial alliance in a Baltimore church, he said:

"Funeral expenses are up. You can't afford to die under Nixon... diapers are up 18 per cent. You can't afford to be born under Nixon."

In Shriver's book, President Nixon is to blame for everything bad that has happened anywhere in the world in the past four years—but mostly for "blowing things up" in Vietnam instead of building up Baltimore, or for taking all the tax money down to Washington and sending it overseas instead of to places like Philadelphia.

Shriver says that under the President, unemployment has doubled, welfare roles and costs have doubled. Maybe, but with so much error in his daily spate, who can be sure? It would take the General Accounting Office six months to run an accurate test on Shriver's gunged-out statistics.

This it all comes back to simple good fun. Reporters keep track of the number of times he says "thank you" when he's introduced. When I left the entourage, the record was 15. They replay tapes of his more outrageous—and hence hilarious—comments.

There's no doubt, of course, that his heart is in the right place. In his rare calm moods, as at a big Pittsburgh rally, he begins to make real points. And there's no doubt, either, that this Kennedy brother-in-law is a genuine charmer. At a Philadelphia garment factory, he had the working girls in a dither of shouting, giggling, and giggling. They loved him.

But the question lingers: "Is this a real run for high office?"

He said: "I am not sure that the United States is in a position to take a hard line with Panama. It is a Communist threat in Panama, and we are not sure that we can take a hard line with Panama."

One-Man Art Show At SJC

A series of recent drawings and photographs by Dorothy Kannon are being featured in the Seminole Junior College Exhibition Gallery Oct. 16-27.

The drawings, many of which are circular in composition, frequently depict plant forms and other nature motifs. Media utilized includes pen and ink and white, silver and gold leaf pencil on black paper.

Steve Lotz, chairman of the art department at Florida Technological University, has said of Miss Kannon's work, "Kannon's drawings, usually intimate in scale and employing a round format, describe masterfully luminous and organically dynamic scenes."

They are lovingly crafted, compulsively finished, and surprisingly framed artifacts which, by their richness and intimacy, demand our close and sustained viewing."

A native of Winter Garden, Miss Kannon now resides in Seminole County. She is coordinator of graphics for Florida Technological University. Prior to assuming this position in 1968 she worked at the University of Hawaii, Florida State University, Florida Atlantic University, and the Jacksonville Children's Museum. She is a fine arts graduate of Florida State University.

One Man's Opinion

No Fun If You Have to Do It

By DON OAKLEY

The normal child has an unflagging curiosity. He explores everything. He learns, and learning excites and delights him.

Yet by the time he has had one year of "education," he is likely—if normal—to complain that he doesn't like school and having to "learn stuff." And after serving his time in school, he may give up reading books entirely.

Why? Psychologist Edward L. Deci, assistant professor at the University of Rochester, thinks he may have some of the answer. It involves the distinction that psychologists take between intrinsic and extrinsic motivation.

When a person does a thing solely for the pleasure of the activity, such as working for hours on a jigsaw puzzle, we say that he is intrinsically motivated. The activity is its own reward.

By contrast, when a person does something for an outside reason—money, the avoidance of punishment, etc.—we say he is extrinsically motivated.

Deci first established that working on a three-dimensional puzzle called Soda was intrinsically interesting to college students. Then in one experiment, half the student subjects were told they would receive a dollar for each correct solution.

Money made a difference, he reports in Psychology Today magazine. Students paid to work the puzzle spent significantly less time with it when they were alone than did those who had done the same thing for free. To an extent, the paid students had become dependent on the external reward.

In another experiment, students who were threatened with an unpleasant blast from a buzzer for each failure to find a solution were also less interested in the puzzle later.

It is a long leap from the psychology laboratory to the "crisis in the classroom" and boredom on the assembly line, but it seems a legitimate one.

"When people demonstrate and when they speak out angrily, that means that they still have hope that something can be done to change their lives," she said. "But when they can do nothing and do nothing, I think that means, most of all, nothing can be done. They've despair. They're giving up."

He said: "I am not sure that the United States is in a position to take a hard line with Panama. It is a Communist threat in Panama, and we are not sure that we can take a hard line with Panama."

Brown Drops Out Of Mayor Race

By DONNA ESTES

LONGWOOD — "I will not be a candidate for re-election in December," Mayor Kenneth H. Brown Jr. told The Herald.

"There are two ingredients a mayor must have in order to give the citizens of Longwood sufficient representation in the city government," the popular Channel 2 sports director said. "I am short on both."

"I hope the man or woman who enters the mayoralty race will understand the full aspect of the job is not an easier one than it appears to be. The person must become completely dedicated to the job and must be prepared to work a full day in the office, seven days a week."

"Longwood is growing up and it is my hope the caliber of representation will grow up along with the growth. The fun and games are over — we must have a solid, impartial representation in all offices," the mayor declared.

"I have given the mayor's job the best shot I know how this past year. I have had an excellent Council to work with and

Israelis Pound Guerrillas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Israel made five air strikes Sunday against guerrilla bases in Lebanon and Syria. A top Israeli official said they signaled a new policy of "no longer waiting for the guerrillas to hit first."

guerrillas since the Sept. 16-17 sweep into Lebanon by Israeli army units. There has been relative quiet on the borders since then, but Gen. Haim Herzog, the former intelligence chief, said in a broadcast commentary: "From now on the very presence of sa-boteurs" in Syria and Lebanon "is to be regarded as a provocation." "This is the operative phase of our pledge to hit the terrorists wherever they are, and they are in Lebanon and Syria," another high-ranking military source said.

CONTROVERSIAL millionaire Glenn W. Turner spent all last week in the courtroom at Clearwater (related story below). Sunday was his only day off and he spent the time with his family while relaxing around his "Castle" in South Seminole County. Turner (left) went for a ride on his house boat, and is shown piloting it around Bear Gulley Lake. He also went riding on motorcycles with two of his children, and is shown doing a "wheelie" as he takes off (right).

Clearwater Case Continues Turner Facing Two Trials

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP)—Business tycoon Glenn Turner, on trial here for allegedly violating Florida's securities law, apparently won't be able to keep another trial date in Jacksonville on similar charges.

State Atty. Don Nichols said "he will be in court" in Jacksonville today for a scheduled trial of Turner on charges of securities violation and deceptive trade practice. But at that time a six-member jury is due to resume hearing testimony in the five-day-old trial of the Orlando millionaire in Pinellas County Circuit court.

The flamboyant Turner is charged in Clearwater with 43 counts of selling unregistered securities in sales of "Dare To Be Great," a motivational course, and another 43 counts of failing to register as a dealer. Codendant David Bauman, 25, of St. Petersburg, is similarly charged on 36 counts. Trial judge Robert Williams said he will decide today whether to send three Turner employees to jail on contempt citations.

Nancy Gilliam, Turner's secretary; Jack O'Brien, a former Dare To Be Great coordinator; and Leroy Beale, a company consultant, were cited for contempt Friday after refusing to testify under subpoena.

A one-time company accountant testified that in 10 months, sales of Dare To Be Great motivational courses totaled nearly $25 million.

Anthony Lopez said records showed the firm took in upward of $26 million in 10 months ending May 31, 1972. Only about $1 million came from the sale of course materials such as cassette tapes and recorders.

The state claims the motivational courses constitute an investment-type contract of profit sharing agreement and, as such, are securities. Turner's lawyers claim this is not so.

Reds Cut Off Supply Road To Saigon

By GEORGE ESPER Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP)—Three of the four major highways leading out of Saigon were reported unsafe today due to continued harassment by communist forces. U.S. troops were advised to stay off them.

Sources said Highway 1 was cut near the district town of Trang Bom, 30 miles northeast of Saigon, and enemy fire was hampering crews trying to repair a blown culvert. The closing of the highway cut off the supply of vegetables from Delat to Saigon.

Highway 13 remained closed about 21 miles north of Saigon, although government troops have claimed they reconquered the cluster of hamlets in that area which the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong seized last week.

A third highway, Route 15 to the resort town of Vung Tau, was reported open only to essential traffic along a 20-mile stretch where the enemy sprang two ambushes last week. South Vietnamese officials ordered all vehicles to travel with guards. U.S. officials ordered American vehicles that must travel the road to move in pairs and to be equipped with weapons and radios.

The North Vietnamese and Viet Cong kept up small-scale attacks north of Saigon. Heavier fighting was reported along the Cambodian border, 75 miles west of Saigon, and along the northern coast between Hue and Quang Ngai, 125 miles to the south.

U.S. B52 bombers kept up heavy pressure on the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong.

176 Die In Worst Crash
By ROGER LEDDINGTON Associated Press Writer
MOSCOW (AP)—In the worst civil air disaster in history, 176 persons were killed when a Russian jetliner crashed Friday night while trying to land in bad weather at Moscow's international airport, a reliable Soviet source reported.

A day later, a British jetliner turned back from the same airport because the instrument landing system on the ground was not working, a British European Airways spokesman said in London.

Foreign embassies in Moscow said they were told 28 Chilean tourists, five Algerians, a Frenchman and a Briton were aboard the Russian plane. The American Embassy was not notified that any U.S. citizens were involved.

The source who reported the crash gave this account: Coming from Leningrad, the Ilyushin-62 made three landing passes over Sheremetyevo airport. It was raining and the visibility was poor. On the fourth try, the big jet plowed into the ground and exploded in a section of rolling hills and woods three miles from the runway.

The Soviet news agency, reported on Saturday that an airliner en route from Leningrad to Moscow had crashed near the airport but did not specify that it was a Soviet plane. It reported all aboard were killed but did not give the number.

This is in line with customary Soviet policy of minimizing news of civil disasters. The Ilyushin-62 is a four-engine jet and the largest plane operated by the Soviet airline. It began flying international routes about five years ago.

Another such plane crashed two months ago shortly after taking off from East Berlin, and 156 persons were killed.

The Founders Day ceremony was presented by June Haston, Elizabeth Sharon, Linda Parrott, Shirley Pflueger, Mildred Ulrey, Carol Dudley and Ollie Reese Whittle. Refreshments of punch, coffee and hors d'oeuvres were served from beautifully appointed tables overlaid with white embroidered cloths. Few Gains Recorded For Working Women

STAELENE, Nev. (AP)—The status of women in employment has degenerated during the past decade, the past president of the Interstate Association of Commis-sions on the Status of Women says. Dr. Kathryn Clarenbach of Wisconsin told the Interstate Conference of Employment Security Agencies that between 1968 and 1971 women increased their share of managerial and professional-technical jobs by less than two per cent. The United States is the only industrialized nation without maternity leave benefits, she added, and pregnancy in most cases is "no more voluntary than a broken leg from skiing. But the broken leg merits disability benefits." Dr. Clarenbach told the delegates from state agencies and private industry that women now make up about 38 per cent of the labor force in the United States but still fill about 75 per cent of the clerical jobs and only 14 per cent of managerial positions. She said unemployment rates in all groups and races are higher for women than men. Dr. Clarenbach also said the income gap between men and women is widening. "Today the average female worker earns 59 per cent of what the average male worker earns while 15 years ago it was 64 per cent," she said.

Lose Homecoming Tilt Hounds Still Struggling, 7-6

By HEIKY CUSH

The opportunities were there. The Boone Braves saw to that. But the puny Lyman Greyhounds could not take advantage of the chances and were dealt their third straight loss Friday night, 7-6, before a large homecoming game crowd.

Obviously distressed at his team's failure to convert the chances Coach Dick Copeland attributed most of the failure to lack of experience. And in addition to the inexperience, many mistakes.

The final score does not really indicate what kind of game it was. The Greyhounds dominated play from midway through the first period. In fact they controlled things all but for the first minute when the Braves scored.

During the second period the Hounds ran off 26 plays to 12 for the Braves. And nearly the entire period was played deep in Boone territory. Three times the Hounds penetrated inside the Boone 20 but could not get much further.

So much did the Greyhounds control the game Boone could not cross midfield after their opening period score. But all the effort went for naught as the Braves were tough when they had to be.

Boone opened the game by kicking off but it was an onside kick which the Braves recovered after it went in and out of a Lyman's player's grasp.

Advancing quickly the Braves used only 59 seconds to score with senior fullback Bob Hair bolting the final seven yards to paydirt. The Braves moved to the five in two plays with Hair, the top ground blower. After a two yard loss Hair blasted into the end zone and Tom Martison added the extra point which few people figured would be the margin of victory at this stage of the game.

Neither team was able to generate much in the way of an offensive attack the rest of the period. Lyman gave up possession on two punts and Boone punted once and lost the ball on a fumble late in the period.

After that first Boone fumble the Hounds kept the pressure on the Braves the rest of the half. Rich Stokes intercepted a Boone aerial midway through the second period to put the Hounds at midfield.

Lyman picked up two first downs and moved to the 24 but the next two plays lost 14 yards and the Braves took over. Near the end of the period the Hounds were moving again but time ran out and Boone had a 7-6 lead at the half.

At the start of the third period Lyman halted the Braves and began their most serious threat to this point. They moved to the Boone 24 where they had second and eight yards to go. Halfback Al Cleveland started around end and was met quickly by the official blew his whistle to signal an end to the play and on a second effort Cleveland fumbled and the official ruled it a loose ball, killing the Boone drive.

Lyman then recovered its onside kick but three straight pass attempts fell incomplete and on fourth-down Constantine was dropped by the Boone defense ending any hopes the Hounds might have held.

Saints Cop 4th Victory

Class A ranked Trinity Prep knocked off bigger Class AA Jacksonville Episcopal, also statewide recognized, 6-0 in a defensive struggle in Jacksonville Friday afternoon.

Trinity scoring leader Lawrence Cleveland crossed the final white line to cap the Saints' only productive drive of the afternoon on a short three yard blast in the second quarter. The 15-play drive covered 62 yards and accounted for almost half of the total offense produced by Trinity.

Both sides appeared even throughout the contest, Trinity concentrating on their highly effective running attack and throwing only on rare occasions, while Jax Episcopal tried 18 aerials as compared to the Saints' four.

Three Episcopal passes ended up in Trinity hands, thwarting several attempts to generate life in the faltering Jacksonville machine. It was the fourth win without a loss by the Preppers.

Lake Brantley Rips SNA By 42-6 Count

By J. RICHARDS
 Herald Sports Staff

A smaller, less experienced version of the Lake Brantley Patriots than that which started the gridiron battles this year humbled winless Sanford Naval Academy at Lyman Field Saturday night, 42-6.

A rash of injuries to key linemen had Brantley head coach Bill Duty concerned all week about a possible SNA scoring machine that lost a few important pieces in a bruising loss to a physically stronger Tampa Temple Heights team a week before. The Middies, who scored the first time this season, on a Steve Odegaard sneak, weren't up to a tenacious Brantley defensive unit, however, and fell to their third straight loss. The Patriots, now 2-1 on the varsity scene, are 4-1 overall.

Despite several minor mistakes by over-eager and inexperienced youngsters, the Brantley ground game clicked for more than 300 yards and six touchdowns. Jeff Hammond, who racked up 102 yards on seven tries crossed the goal twice, as running partner Craig Davis, who picked up 65 yards on 11 trips. Freshman runningback Ricky Garza, starting his first game, scampered 86 yards on 10 carries for one TD, while quarterback Dan Dan Anguilli put together a 15 yard burst for a Patriot score.

The defense produced the first two golden opportunities for Brantley scores.

Bob Hoppood's quick defensive reactions snared the Middies' 12 yard line in the 1st quarter, after a stalled Brantley drive. Davis and Anguilli advanced the pigskin for four yards before halfback Jeff Hammond burst through for the TD.

A few plays later, Brantley standout David Arnett broke through on a Navy punt and blocked the kick on the SNA 38 yard line. A 14 yard Anguilli Pass to Hargis and two runs by fullback Davis set up Anguilli's 15 yard run to daylight for the score. Anguilli passed to Garza for the two-point conversion.

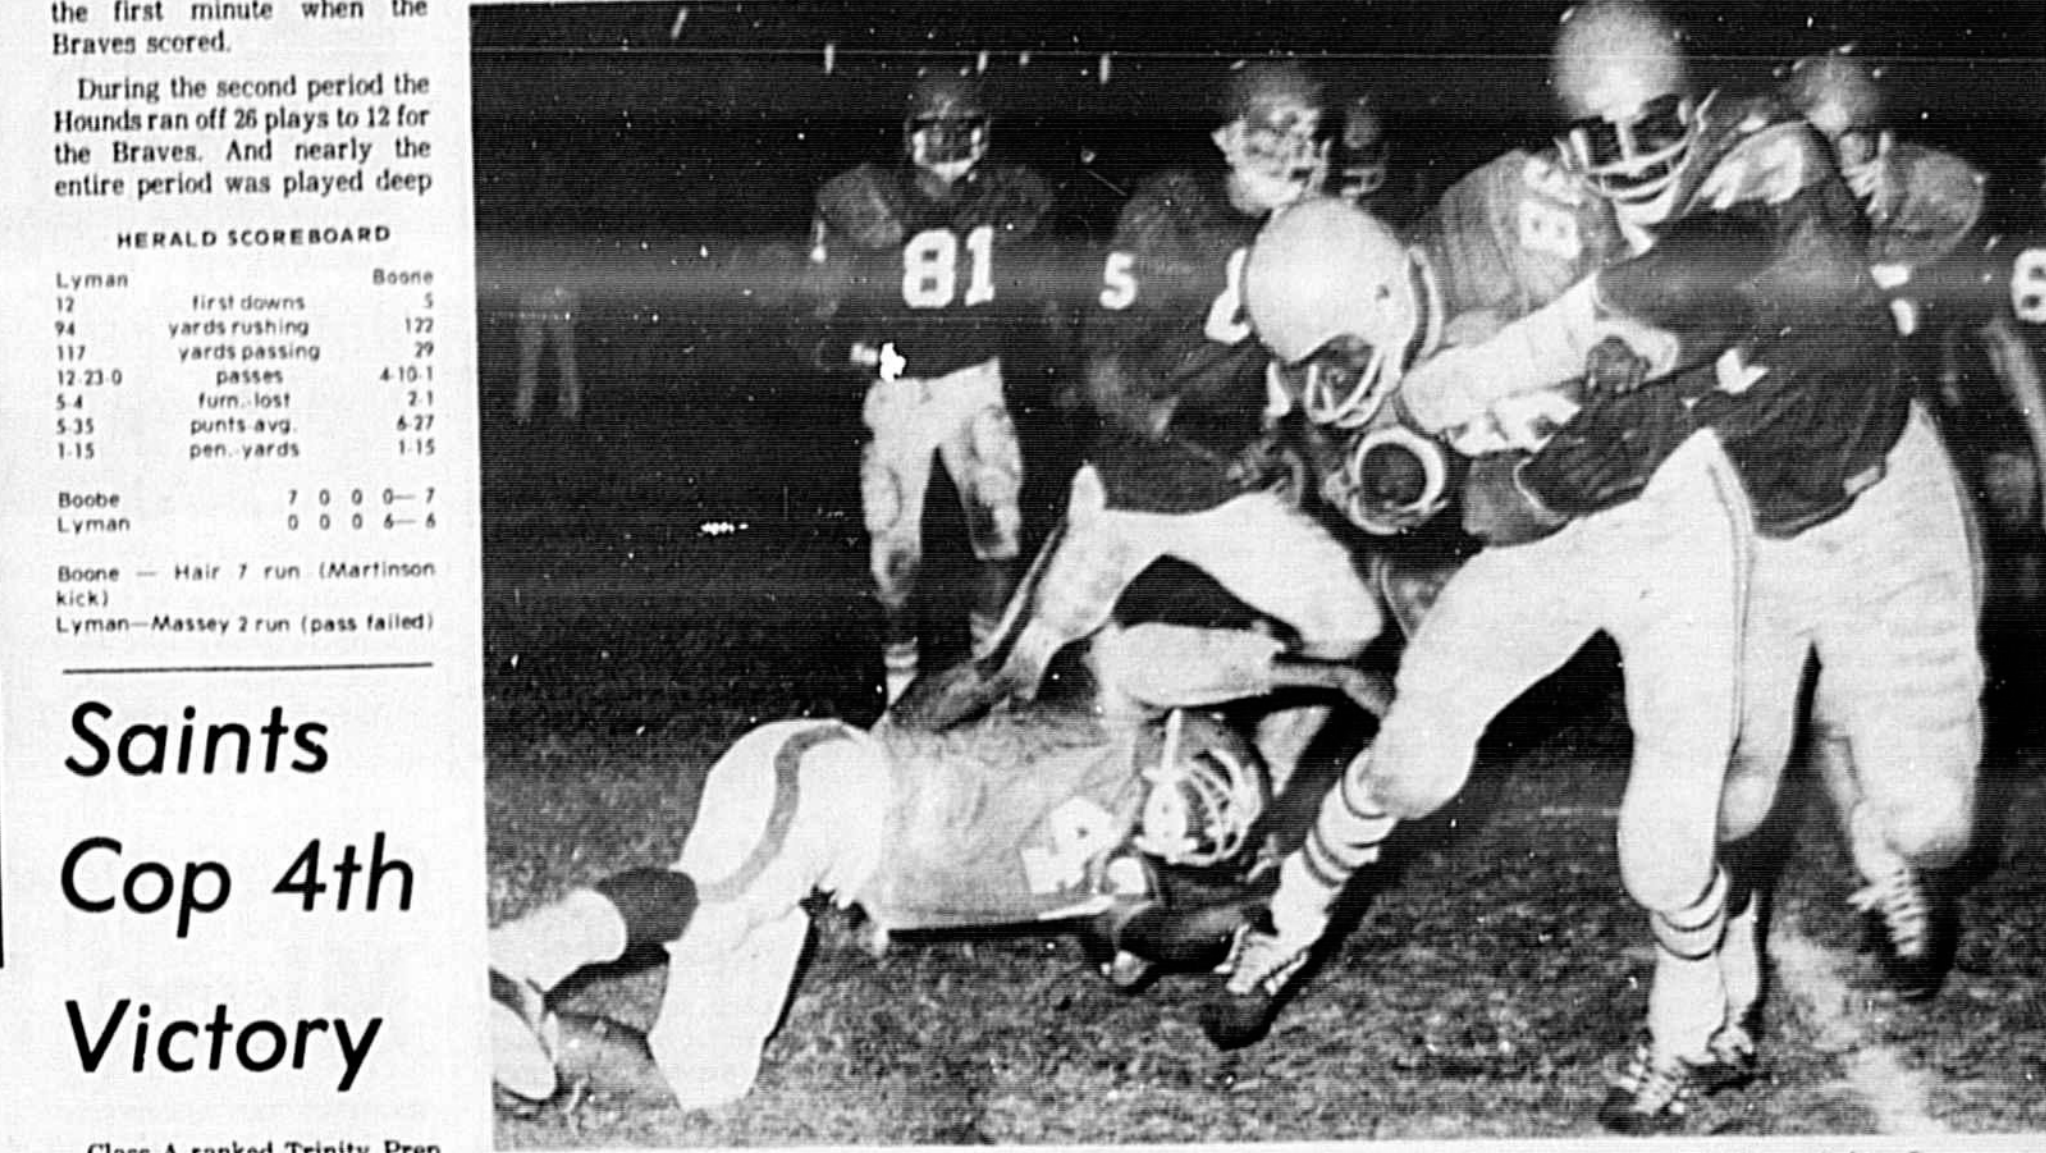

Covering 63 yards in 10 plays, sparked by a 25 yard Steve Odegaard pass to John Tuma to the Lake Brantley four yard line, Sanford Naval Academy scored on a one-yard sneak by quarterback Odegaard.

Brantley came back ball hawking in the second frame, matching the Middies' score with a nine yard scoring blast by Davis. Two-way star Hargis produced a fumble recovery on his own 31 yard stripe, and aided by a long penalty, 21 yards from Garza on two runs and a 13 yard Hammond jaunt, Davis carried the ball over from the nine.

Opening the second half, Garza, who Coach Duty calls, "a tremendous all-around football player, who runs, blocks, catches and does everything well," scored on a 20 yard dash that "just out-ran everyone."

Hammond opened up the fourth frame's scoring on a 23 yard option sweep after Sanford Naval again coughed up a fumble on their own 25 to Hargis. Hammond's jaunt came after Garza's first crack for two yards. Anguilli passed to Hargis for the PAT.

Prior to that series, two Brantley scores were called back, a 30 yard run by Davis and a 45 yard break-away by Hammond.

PUTTING THE BEARHUG on Lyman's Tom Gooch (86) is Boone's fine defensive tackle Eric Smith who came up quickly to halt the Greyhound runner for no gain. The 230-pound Smith proved to be one of the deciding factors in his team's 7-6 triumph Friday night. Lyman lost its third straight game before a large homecoming crowd. (Bill Vincent Photo)

Mistakes Costly Seminoles Drop 4th In Row

By GARY TAYLOR

ORLANDO—Oak Ridge made the best of some costly Sanford mistakes Friday night as they posted a 26-0 win over the Fighting Seminoles. The loss left Sanford with a 1-4 record, while Oak Ridge boosted its mark to 2-3.

Both teams turned the ball over on fumbles five times, but Oak Ridge was able to capitalize on the situation, while the Seminoles were never able to keep a drive moving.

Will McCoy opened the game at quarterback, but he gave way to Brent Carl early in the third period. Carl got a couple of good drives going, but the attack stalled each time.

In the final quarter, Carl reinjured his knee and had to leave the game. Carl had missed one game with the knee injury, and head coach Bill Young had hoped that he wouldn't have to use the junior signal-caller much Friday night, in an attempt to let the Sanford's second fumble of the first period gave the Pioneers the ball on their own 47 yard line. It took then a dozen plays to push the ball across the goal line. Donald Hill scored on a four-yard run with 3:34 left in the second period. The kick failed and Sanford trailed 9-0.

Sanford took the kickoff, but on the third play from scrimmage fumbled again. Oak Ridge took over at the Sanford 34 yard line and on fourth down, Earl Carr ran over from the 20-yard line. Phil Adair kicked the PAT and Oak Ridge led 13-0.

Sanford took the kickoff and a 16 yard return by Tommy Thompson pover the ball on the Sanford 11 yard line. A first down pass fell incomplete. McCoy then connected with Thompson on a short screen pass, and the sophomore broke loose for 83 yards. Sanford picked up another first down and had the ball with a first down and goal to go on the four yard line. But Thompson tried to score on the first down play and fumbled, with Adair recovering for the Pioneers. Sanford got the ball back a few minutes later on another fumble, but the first half ended without another score.

Oak Ridge's next scoring opportunity was set up by a back snap on an attempted punt. Frank Sloan was back to punt after a Sanford drive stalled at their own 17 yard line. The snap sailed over Sloan's head and he retrieved it and made it back to the three yard line before he was met by a host of tacklers. Jim Clemens scored from the one yard line to put Oak Ridge ahead 19-0 after a two-point conversion try failed.

The Pioneers put their final score on the board less than two minutes into the fourth period. Carl fumbled and Mark Repasky recovered, racing 72 yards for the touchdown.

Next week the Seminoles will return home, where they'll face Maitland in a Big Eight Conference tilt.

Florida Gulf's Red Tide May Not Be So Bad

By TOM RAUM
 Associated Press Writer

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—The red tide, which littered Florida Gulf Coast beaches with hundreds of tons of rotting fish last year, may be more of a friend than a foe to the area's ecology, says the state's chief marine scientist.

Ed Joyce, chief of the state Bureau of Marine Research, said his agency is curtailing efforts to find ways of controlling the proliferating organism after spending more than $2 million on red tide research in the last 30 years.

"Major red tide blooms have been occurring every two to four years in Florida for decades," said Joyce. "They've been recorded as far back as 1844. They occur naturally and we might as well learn how to live with them," said Joyce.

According to principal Jack Redding, no surgery will be required and there is no paralysis.

Trotline Hearing Was Meaningful

By BOB ORRELL Herald Sports Staff

Thunderous applause rocked the rafters of the Sanford Civic Center Friday afternoon as speakers presented the plight of local commercial fishermen to members of the Florida Game and Fresh Water Commission.

The hearing was requested by the commercial fishing group to ask for removal of the ban on trotlines during daylight hours.

Ed Sanders, president of Save Our Hunting Association, Deland, had a few choice words to say in favor of re-instating the trotlines.

Howard Odum, acting chairman for this meeting, called for spokesmen from the sports fishermen, explaining that the reason for the regulation prohibiting trotlines in Seminole County is stemmed from numerous complaints that the lines interfered with use of the waterways.

Mrs. Alice Howell, the only one in the crowd of approximately 175 present to identify as strictly a sports fisherman, stated that she owed her life to commercial fishermen, and although on the opposite side, she said she always experienced a feeling of safety when she heard the motors of the trotlines early in the morning.

Delbert Euga, identifying himself as an independent lobbyist, asked Chairman Odum if these laws were passed by legislative action. Odum answered, "No, they were made by changes in the code book."

Delbert Euga continued, "Then this is not a result of legislative action but rather by administrative action." Another round of applause followed Euga's remarks.

Mich Donaldson noted that commercial fishermen and sportsmen by removing tremendous numbers of rough fish from the waters, thereby protecting spawn laid by game fish.

State Representative Gene Mooney spoke briefly, advising the group that he will recommend to the game and fish commission that the rules be lifted.

County trotline ban has so far reaching that even pro-foot ball star Johnny Unitas became indirectly involved. Unitas is part owner of the St. Johns Crab Company in Wakala and was represented at the hearing by Randy Thomas, manager of the crab company.

In closing, Odum advised all fishermen present to write to the other members of the game and fish commission before next Friday's meeting in Tallahassee letting them know their feelings.

Indications are that Odum and other members of the commission in attendance will try to get an immediate change in the trotline ban at the Oct. 20 meeting in Tallahassee.

Ed Sanders, president of Save Our Hunting Association, Deland, had a few choice words to say in favor of re-instating the trotlines.

Howard Odum, acting chairman for this meeting, called for spokesmen from the sports fishermen, explaining that the reason for the regulation prohibiting trotlines in Seminole County is stemmed from numerous complaints that the lines interfered with use of the waterways.

Delbert Euga, identifying himself as an independent lobbyist, asked Chairman Odum if these laws were passed by legislative action. Odum answered, "No, they were made by changes in the code book."

Delbert Euga continued, "Then this is not a result of legislative action but rather by administrative action." Another round of applause followed Euga's remarks.

Dolphins May Lose Griese For Season

By BRUCE LOWITT Associated Press Sports Writer "The mark of a good football team," Miami Coach Don Shula said, "is what it can do under adverse conditions—and we can't get more adverse than having a quarterback out there lying on the field."

In games involving no more than four downs per series, top-rated Southern Cal trounced California 42-14 as Mike Rae, Sam Cunningham and Charles Young each scored twice; Ruenper Oklahoma scored on two big defensive plays—a blocked quick kick by Derland Moore, which Luscious Selmon recovered and a pitchout which Gary Baccus batted into the end zone, where Moore fell on it—

But it wasn't easy. The Cavaliers wiped out a 23-point deficit for a 21-1 tie in the last quarter before the Lakers went "in."

Ohio State, ranked fourth, trimmed Illinois 26-7 as freshman Archie Griffin ran for 192 yards and sophomore Harold Henson scored three times. Michigan, No. 5, used Mike Lantry's 22-yard field goal in the second period and Gil Chapman's 36-yard dash with less than nine minutes remaining to beat Michigan State 10-0.

Wilt Chamberlain scored only six points while getting 13 rebounds. Austin Carr led the Cavs with 26 points.

Atlanta wrapped the New York Knicks 109-101 and Phoenix downed Baltimore 107-98 in Sunday's other NBA games.

San Diego edged Dallas 106-104 in the only American Basketball Association game scheduled.

Lou Hudson and Pete Maravich combined for 60 points as the Hawks handed the Knicks their first defeat of the season in Atlanta's new sports facility, the Omni.

Hudson scored 32 points and Maravich 28. Nine of them were points in the last two minutes to hold off a late Knick rally. Bill Bradley and Dave DeBusschere each scored 21 for New York.

Neal Walk scored 27 points and grabbed 21 rebounds to lead the Suns over the Bullets. He scored several key baskets to hold off the Bullets, who trailed 17-16 at the end of the first half.

A's Up Two Games

Anderson Not Ready To Panic.. Yet

By KEN RAPPOPORT Associated Press Sports Writer OAKLAND (AP) — The Oakland A's were home today with a 2-0 lead in the 1972 World Series with hopes of polishing off the Cincinnati Reds with the same combination of pitching, power and fielding expertise that won the first two games.

Gene Tenace's slugging and Vida Blue's golden arm in relief won the opener of the baseball classic 3-2 in Cincinnati Saturday. And the upstart A's made it two straight Sunday with a 2-1 triumph behind Jim Hunter's right-handed brilliance and a sparkling defense.

"I'm not ready to panic yet," said Cincinnati Manager Sparky Lyle. "The American League team was favored to beat the American League champs. 'I'm close, though.'"

It was Bob Griese who was lying out on the Orange Bowl's artificial turf Sunday, the victim of a Deacon Jones tackle that resulted in a fractured leg and dislocated ankle which will likely keep the Dolphin quarterback out of the rest of the National Football League season.

The crowd of 80,000 was silent as the stretcher was brought onto the field to carry off Griese. But it was cheering wildly a few minutes later when backup quarterback Earl Morrall, doing the kind of thing he's been paid to do the last few years, threw two touchdown passes to carry the Dolphins to a 24-10 victory over the San Diego Chargers.

In Sunday's other games, Dallas defeated Baltimore 21-0, Pittsburgh beat Houston 24-7, the New York Jets blasted New England 41-13, the New York Giants slipped past San Francisco 23-17, Los Angeles walloped Philadelphia 34-3, Washington slammed St. Louis 33-3, Cincinnati stung Kansas City 23-10, Chicago humbled Cleveland 17-0, Minnesota overhauled Denver 23-20, Oakland defeated Buffalo 26-16 and Atlanta topped New Orleans 21-14.

In tonight's game, the Green Bay Packers face the Lions in Detroit.

Morrall completed eight of his 10 passes, two of them for touchdowns of 18 yards to Howard Twilley and 19 yards to Paul Warfield. Before he'd had traded field goals and safeties, John Hadto-Cid Edwards pass in the fourth quarter.

Craig Morton of Dallas had what he called "my best day in quite a while" as the Cowboys smothered the Colts.

He completed 21 of 30 passes—10 of them in a row in one stretch—for 279 yards. Among them were touchdown strikes of 17 yards to Calvin Hill and 44 yards to Ron Sellers. Hill also punched over from one yard out for a touchdown.

Pittsburgh found itself trailing Houston 7-0 thanks to Ward Walsh's blocked punt, which he recovered for a touchdown. Then Franco Harris cranked up the Steeler machine.

"Franco did some things on his own that picked us up," said Houston Coach Noll after the rookie fullback ripped through the Oilers for 115 yards, one of them good for the go-ahead touchdown.

He tried to ram the ball down our throats—and that's exactly what New York did. Emerson Boozer and John Higgins combined for 318 yards and four touchdowns on the ground, outdoing the Patriots' entire offense.

In the NBA Saturday night, it was New York over Los Angeles 125-100, Houston over Buffalo 121-113, Kansas City Omaha over Detroit 113-101, Boston over Chicago 96-88, Phoenix over Portland 121-119 and Milwaukee over Golden State 81-77.

Continuing their long climb that will hopefully end at the top, the Trinity Prep Saints soared to 12th in the Florida Sports Writers Association Class A-AA poll football poll this week.

Pt. Pierce Central is ranked number one in the Class AAA-AAAA poll, just ahead of Merritt Island and Tallahassee Leon. Gainesville moved up to fourth on the week's poll, while Winter Park is ranked eighth, while Edgewater is in a four-way tie for 19th.

On Fifth Down? Miami Finally Wins... Maybe

By HERSHEL NISSENSON Associated Press Sports Writer Seven of the nation's eight top teams remained unbeaten over the weekend but the big question in the college football world is whether the University of Miami has really won a game.

Well, er, yes... uh, that is, maybe. And while such powers as Southern California, Oklahoma, Alabama, Ohio State, Michigan, Nebraska, Notre Dame and Louisiana State argue over who's No. 1, the magic number as far as Miami and Tulane are concerned is five—as in fifth down.

The scoreboard at the Orange Bowl read: "Miami 24, Tulane 22" Saturday night after Ed Carney threw a 29-yard touchdown pass to Witt Beckman with 45 seconds left. The only trouble was that it came on an illegal fifth down after a fourth-down pass fell incomplete.

This was the strange sequence of events: With a first down on Tulane's 18-yard line, Miami's Chuck Foreman gained two yards and Carney threw an incomplete second-down pass. On third down, Carney passed to Foreman for an 11-yard gain but the Hurricanes were penalized five yards for illegal procedure, putting the ball back at the 21.

On the third-down replay, Carney was nailed for an 11-yard loss and on fourth down he threw an incomplete pass. But the officials ruled that Miami still had one more down—in reality, fifth-down and 24—and this time Carney connected with Beckman.

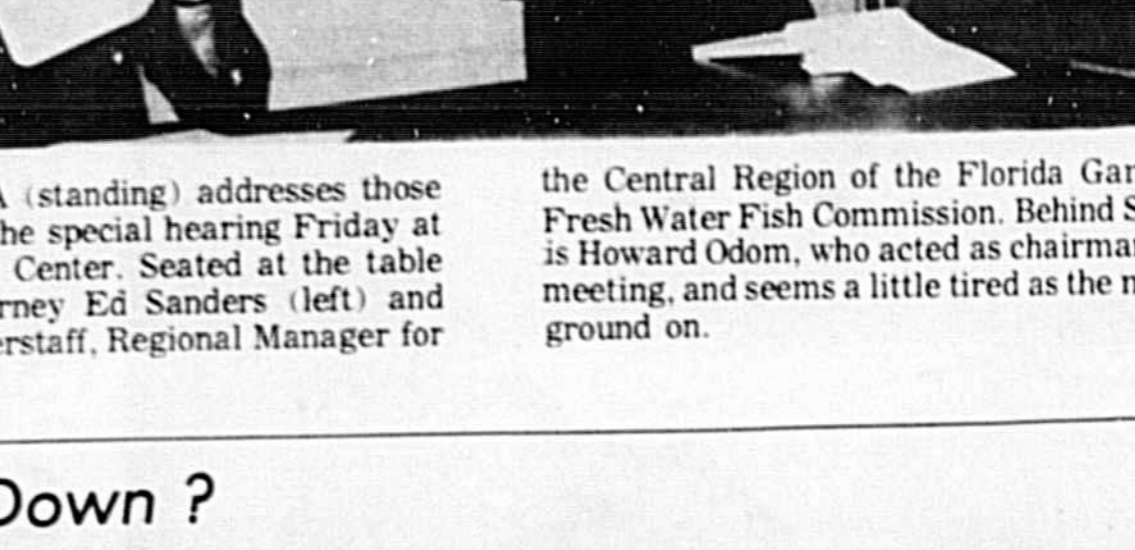

"At the time the play was run we thought it was illegal," said Tulane Coach Bernie Ellerder. "We were holding up five downs with our fingers. All of our defensive players and all of their offensive players had come off the field."

Miami Coach Fran Curci, whose team had dropped its first three games, said he was "glad we got the extra play" and quarterback Carney added:

and then outran the secondary to the goal line. The Lions went for two points but the attempt failed. Oviedo had closed the margin to 21-12 and the team was running high.

But neither team could move into striking distance again and when the final gun sounded Lakeview had emerged as victor.

Oviedo led in all statistical departments but one, the score. It was a heartbreaking defeat for a team that had made so much improvement in only one week. The Oviedo defense performed tremendously and the offense finally began to move the ball both on the ground and through the air. It looks as if the tide may have changed for the Oviedo Lions.

230 pounder made perfect open field tackle on Washington during Oviedo's 21-12 loss. It was the fifth straight setback for the winless Lions.

Lakers Having Problems

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS The champion Los Angeles Lakers are having problems in the National Basketball Association these days.

Beaten by the Boston Celtics on Friday and by the New York Knicks on Saturday, they managed a 95-83 victory over Cleveland Sunday in their third road game in as many nights.

But it wasn't easy. The Cavaliers wiped out a 23-point deficit for a 21-1 tie in the last quarter before the Lakers went "in."

Ohio State, ranked fourth, trimmed Illinois 26-7 as freshman Archie Griffin ran for 192 yards and sophomore Harold Henson scored three times. A nurse by any other name is still a nurse

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a registered nurse, and my pet peeve is one that is shared by many in my profession. It is being called "NURSE."

We all wear name pins. Why can't people take the time and trouble to look at them and call us "Miss Jones" or "Mrs. Smith"? A nurse would never call a patient, "Patient," or a visitor, "Visitor."

Please print this. It might penetrate. Thank you.

IRKED IN N. J.

DEAR IRKED: I found it difficult to believe that the majority of nurses shared your feeling, so I conducted a poll. Here are the results:

The Cleveland Clinic, Cleveland:

"We questioned approximately 300 nurses, and

"[a] More than 90 per cent were 'not irked' by being called nurse. While they all wear name badges, many patients are not wearing their glasses, others are preoccupied with their illnesses, and some never even notice the name badge.

"[b] Virtually all of our nurses would be 'irked' by being called by their first name unless it was by a patient who happened to be a friend.

"[c] The nurses would prefer not to be called 'Miss or Mrs.'"

"[d] Our conclusion is that nurses are proud of being called nurse, a title which designates a high level of achievement and respect."

Century City Hospital, Los Angeles, Cal.:

"We asked 40 nurses how they felt about being called 'nurse,' only three said they didn't like it, two said they preferred to be called 'Miss or Mrs.' and 35 said 'NOT 'Miss' or 'Mrs.' unless their last names were included. One said, 'I don't object to being called 'Nurse' if it is said gently, but when someone shouts 'NURSE' as the he's a drill sergeant commanding a back private, I bristle.'"

Mount Sinai Hospital, Minneapolis:

"Not one nurse said she would be irked if she were addressed as 'Nurse.' It is preferable to 'Blonde,' 'Red,' 'Girly,' or 'Honey.'"

"We regard nursing as a noble profession, and since it required a great deal of time and effort to attain that title, it's inconceivable that a nurse would be irked when addressed as 'Nurse.'"

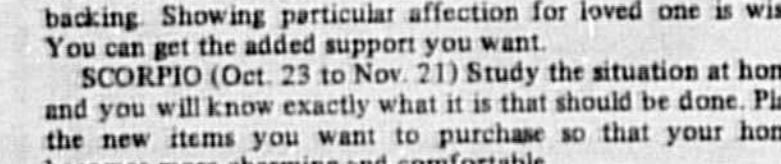

Saint John's Hospital, Santa Monica, Cal.:

"Only one nurse 'polled' was 'irked' when someone called her 'Nurse.' The consensus was that 'Miss' or 'Mrs.' was a close runner-up for irritating names. Almost all wear name pins on their uniforms, but a surprising number of patients and visitors do not seem to notice them.

"Most expressed great surprise that any nurse would be irked at being called 'Nurse.' Of course, since St. John's has many nurses who are also nurses, one would be more apt to address a nursing sister as 'Sister' than 'Nurse.' They answer to both cheerfully."

Problem? Trust Abby. For a personal reply, write to ABBY, BOX 6708, L. A., CALIF. 90028 and enclose a stamped, addressed envelope.

Highlights

TV Time Previews

8-9 CBS, Gunsmoke, "The Sarah." Marshal Dillon finds himself uncomfortably a member of an outlaw gang that's planning to steal a gold shipment. He unwittingly rides into the gang's hideout, where he meets up with an old flame, Sarah, played by Anne Francis. To protect him, Sarah tells everyone Dillon is her husband and he's "convinced" to join the gang.

8-9 NBC, Howan and Martin's Laugh In. Jack Benny, James Farentino and his wife, Michelle Lee, are among an unusually large number of guests. Benny wanders into the studio by "mistake," carrying his violin and a lunch bag — looking for Dean Martin's show. Also wandering in and out during the hour will be "Hollywood Square's" Peter Marshall, Hugh O'Brian and Charles Nelson Reilly.

8-9 ABC, The Rookies, "Time is the Fire." Exciting finish to a kidnapping drama, as viewers learn the Lieutenant Hyker died, leaving her $50 million. John Vernon, Jackie Coogan, Patrick O'Neal, Lila Kedrova and Barbara Bouchet are featured.

9-10 CBS, The Doris Day Show. Doris doesn't believe what she preaches, especially when it comes to the affairs of her own heart. She writes an article about unfaithfulness, advising that a girl friend should forgive and forget if the boy friend strays. But when she suspects her beau (Peter Lawford) is straying — that's different.

10-11 CBS, Country Music Association Awards. Bill Cosby is preemted to make room for a live broadcast of the sixth annual awards in country music. Telecast from the Grand Ole Opry House in Nashville. Glen Campbell will host the show, as the names in the country-music field perform.

9-11 NBC, World Premiere: "Cool Million." The film introduces Jefferson Hayes as a private investigator who only accepts cases for $1 million fee, and serves as the forerunner for another part of the NBC Wednesday Night Mystery Movie set. In the two-hour film, Hayes takes on the search for a missing heiress whose father

Abortion Price Dip Seen

By PAT HARVEY
Associated Press Writer
TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Florida officials say that the cost of having an abortion will drop more than $250 when abortion clinics open in the state. Women who have family coverage hospitalization policies may have to pay only $75-$150 for an abortion in a clinic.

Hospital Requests $114,000 - In Red?

By BILL SCOTT

Seminole Memorial Hospital trustees at a Monday session approved a resolution asking the Seminole County Commission to fund the $114,328 deficit incurred by the hospital for its fiscal year operations, ending Sept. 30. Hospital auditor Jack Greene listed total cash receipts at $3,903,272, and disbursements at $4,017,601 for the past 12 month period.

Major reason for the deficit appeared to be the lateness of Medicare receipts from the U.S. government plus costs not covered by Hill-Burton for the hospital renovations, although Seminole Memorial received $63,495 in Hill-Burton money.

The hospital, in its funding request to the County Commission a year ago, asked for $51,000, cost of paying off the medical facility's bonded indebtedness.

Greene explained the hospital is not operating at a loss, since money was spent for planned improvements and more than $200,000 had to be utilized from the hospital's own funds.

"The main purpose for getting this information to you today is to allow for consideration in preparing a budget for submission to the County Commission in its annual request for funds," the auditor informed.

Robert Besserer, hospital administrator, said he felt the board need not ask for any additional funds, than previously used to pay off hospital bonds, unless the trustees want to consider spending money for more hospital improvements.

"If we want to remain status quo, we will need no more money," Besserer said.

He further explained his reasoning, "Last year we first sent in a budget request for $198,000 but we received $170,000 in Medicare funds later, so we revised our request."

Chairman John Schirard advised, "In the past, we have asked for more than we needed to protect ourselves, then reduced it later."

He stated the board should make the request for the amount of deficit in view of the situation.

Greene suggested that money for any hospital improvements or additions should be in the form of a special request to the County Commission.

Speaking In Daytona Jackson Urges St. Johns Study

In Seminole Schools Unwed Mother Info

By BILL SCOTT

A member of the Seminole County School Board tried unsuccessfully Monday night to prevent a counselor to unwed pregnant high school girls to be given information "on campus."

Dr. Stuart Culpepper objected to a request from a member of the state-wide Children's Home Society that its representative be allowed to visit pregnant school girls to offer help in placing the child for adoption or in keeping it.

Culpepper, who later told news media he is an advocate of legalized abortion, based his objections on the grounds that the agency in question does not offer "other alternative" abortion.

Ivan Bowers, pupil personnel director, told the board the counseling service from the Children's Home Society would be available whether or not its representative is allowed to visit the county schools to talk with girls.

"There were 59 girls dropped last year from school for reasons of pregnancy, and there were more who dropped out of school for the same reason but did not divulge it," Bowers explained.

Culpepper voiced strong objections to proposal unless, as he said, "other points of view are also being considered." This prompted Ray Slaton to query Culpepper over his position on sex education in the schools.

"Are you advocating sex education?" Slaton asked. "You're darn right," said Culpepper's reply.

He explained the board, by its action to approve, would be fostering a decision based on certain information. "But this is not all the information," Culpepper added.

The board member went on to explain he is not interested in what happens to the offspring but is concerned with the rights of the pregnant girl.

Finally, the board voted three-to-one to allow the representative from the Children's Home Society to counsel at schools.

Culpepper cast the one "nay" vote and promised he would have more to say on the subject at future meetings.

A F. Keeth, board chairman, speaking to Bowers, said Culpepper had "made some good points," and school guidance people should look for additional ways to supplement the school girl pregnancy counseling program.

After the session, Culpepper admitted to news reporters he favored legal abortions but stressed that other board members should also be polled on their position.

Since A. P. Buie Jr. was absent, The Herald questioned the other three board members relative to their abortion stand, and found all believed that abortion should be considered in certain cases.

Jean Bryant, vice chairman, said she felt the question should best be answered by a woman and her doctor but said she favored abortion in some cases.

This view was also expressed by Slaton and Keeth, but all stopped short of advocating abortion on demand.

Crime's 'Top Hq.' Bared

NEW YORK (AP) — A dirty gray and blue junkyard trailer, surrounded by discarded auto wrecks and often frequented by Cadillac, has been unmasked as organized crime's "summit headquarters" for the New York City area.

A sweeping dragnet, involving issuance of subpoenas to more than 600 reputed organized crime figures, was announced Monday by Brooklyn Dist. Atty. Eugene Gold, who called it the biggest underworld probe in history.

A sweeping dragnet, involving issuance of subpoenas to more than 600 reputed organized crime figures, was announced Monday by Brooklyn Dist. Atty. Eugene Gold, who called it the biggest underworld probe in history.

Gold disclosed that three telephones had been bugged and an eavesdropping device had been installed last April in the 40-15-foot trailer in Brooklyn which is surrounded by barbed wire and guarded at night by dogs.

Conversations recorded over the past seven months and a gallery of still and moving pictures revealed "the comings and goings of prominent members of the five organized crime families of New York City and other people," Gold said.

Included in the range of crimes said to have been discussed in the trailer were narcotics, counterfeiting, labor racketeering, auto theft, insurance fraud, prostitution, gambling, loansharking, burglary and arson.

"All the top members of organized crime had been in the trailer," Gold said.

An estimated 100 policemen were also understood to have been issued subpoenas.

On First Reading 179-Acre Annexation Ok'd

CASSELBERRY — After many months of discussion and negotiation, City Council finally adopted on first reading an ordinance annexing 179 acres on SH 426 to the Orange County line.

Known as the Kasik-Woodley-Peterson tract, the parcel (actually four parcels) will not be officially annexed until this ordinance is read for the second time.

Thomas Greene, one of the principals involved in the property, reported to the council that the developers of the property are presently working with the developers to hook in to Consumer Utilities, and will be decided to the city.
