INSIDE SPORTS REPORT

By JULIAN STENSTROM

The Leesburg Lions Club have originated an idea Twelve Players for a campaign designed to keep Florida athletes in the state. Fred Turbyville has joined the crusade to aid in the promotion of the idea.

Turbyville is rated among the leading sports writers in the United States. He recently moved to Leesburg for his health and plans to make the Lake County city his home.

The other day Turbyville wrote to Pete Norton, sports editor of the Tampa Tribune and reported what he had to say during a recent Lions Club meeting in Leesburg about keep Florida boys in our own state. Here's is what Turbyvills says about the subject, as reported by Norton in his column "The Morning After."

"Southeastern Conference schools spend from $15, 000 to $25,000 a year recruiting players. And most of this is spent outside the state in which the school is located.

"If Florida could keep its high school stars at home, then the state school could spend that recruiting money at home—and not away.

In fact, by developing friendly and close relations with all Florida high school coaches, it wouldn't be necessary to have a lot of talent scouts. The Lions cuubs can do a lot to promote good relations between local coaches and U. of Ed Levy-Whitner who has indicated that he will probably handle workout at the Municipal Par-

Wally Butts, Bobby Dodd, Carl Voyles, Frank Thomas and Eddie Cameron have been regular visitors to Florida. Four pitchers participated in game Vacations, they said. But I suspect they were also looking the drill. They were Carroll the Indianapolis Indians, also of for players. Maybe they come only once or twice a year—Blanc, Jim Schantel, Jerry Dvorak the American Association. The but their many assistants come much oftener.

"Arnold Tucker and Bruce Smith would look good frently living in Sanford and form with the Indians, who walloped in Florida uniforms this Fall—but they're at West Point and Annapolis. We don't mind furnishing officer material and is from Longwood. However, to the Army and Navy—but we suspect Army and Navy it has been reported that Payne will surely feel his weight behind were more interested in football material.

"If the F'orida coaches could depend on getting the cream of the crop of Florida high school stars, then the state school could suspend talent scouting in other states. Then we could have Florida-manned teams at Florida.

"Sell these outside coaches oranges, grapefruit, good shape already.

"Keep our boys at home TO Advertise Florida." The principal of the thing is good. No one in Florida wants better Florida football teams any more than this corner. However, we see only one possible flaw in the corner. However, we see only one possible flaw in the ceiving assignments while Sharpe, Levy-Whitner asserted the corner. whole scheme. Does the University of Florida actually have $15,000 to $25,000 a year to recruit players?

We're more interested in seeing th university, if it working behind the plate. Both players should report shortly, he has that kind of dough, use its money to better the school's boys are said to be consistant hopes that intra-squad games may hitters and both will be of great value to the organization in handing the school instead of having to be "paid" to attend. We're more interested in seeing th university, if it educational standards, and you have no better reason for They were Perry Arrowood, a highly rated athlete from Marguery afternoon starting at 1:00 o'clock the Florida scene, we have one more shall. the Florida scene, we have one more subject to the Florida scene, we have subject to the Gainesville or Orlando? We've seen many good Rollins feotball teams, and any day in the week Jack McDowell can put an eleven on the field that will give any Gator machine a fight for its life.

Centra' Florida taxpavers help to pay for the Florida ranged. Could it be that the University wants to play some other club in Gainesville and draw 12,000 to 15,000 fans? If that's the reason, it's silly. Even a contest in Orlando would draw about 10,000 or faybe even more. Why tan't our state university football team play another school in our section?

Todays' Sports Laugh

The late Chinese bantamweight, Ah Wing, was a popular and colorful San Francisco fighter years ago. He was the object of many a joke because he wore a oigtail, Fans still remember the night he fought Cocky O'Brien.

During a between-round rest, a prankster in the first row tied Wing's pigtail to the ring post. Ah Wing leaped to his feet at the bell and nearly yanked his head off.

Today's Sport Oddity

A Insetall fan at the Pittsburgh Pirate training camp in California wanted to know how the team acquired its nickname. Some of the newer Pittsburgh players didn't know. So the veterans were called upon to supply the information. In 1888 the National League and the old American Association had a working agreement. No club was permitted to reserve more than 15 players at the close of the season. The Philadelphia Athletics of the American Association wanted to hold on to sixteen. So the A's didn't list the name of second baseman Louis Bierbauer. They figured no one would notice the omission and they would sign Bierbauer the next year as a new player. Manager

Horace Phillips of Pittsburgh spotted the deception. Bier-bauer was not on the official list. That situation made the second baseman a free agent able to mke a deal for himself. Phillips obtained Bierbauer's signature on a contract and he played many years for Pittsburgh. The anger-of the Philadelphias knew no bounds They called the incident an act of piracy on the baseball seas. The phrase struck and Pittsburgh bas been known ever since as the Pirates.
