New Apportionment Plan Eyed By Legislators

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — A special 18-member House committee which may draw up an entirely new reapportionment plan was formed today as sentiment grew stronger in the special legislative session for another plan.

Lawmakers were faced with the task of drawing up a defense of the 1966 reapportionment plan for the courts, or making a new one—or attempting to do both.

The House of Representatives recessed after a 25-minute session this morning shortly after 10 a.m.

Dr. W. Vincent Roberts, chairman of the Senate County Democratic executive committee, told The Herald today: "It would be premature for the committee to make any plans at this time to assist possible Democratic candidates for the Legislature."

"We do not know if and when there will be a special election for the seats in the Legislature," he pointed out. "The committee will hold its regular monthly meeting at 8 p.m. today at the courthouse."

After Speaker Ralph Turington named the special select committee and told members:

"It is my hope the committee will bring out in tabulated form a possible (reapportionment) plan and have it available and ready by 10 a.m. tomorrow."

He said such a plan would be an entirely new one, Turington told the Associated Press he is looking for a "constitutional approach" and may take a "two-pronged" approach to the reapportionment issue.

Support grew in the Senate for not only defense of the 1966 plan, but creation of a new one.

"This may be the last bite in the apple," said Sen. Robert Askew of Pensacola, who said the lawmakers are obligated to defend the 1966 reapportionment plan in federal court in Miami.

And Sen. Robert L. Shevin, Edmund J. Gong and Tom Spencer, all of Miami, said the Legislature should prepare a new reapportionment plan and have it ready to submit to federal court should the old one be rejected.

The House of Representatives was to reconvene at 10 a.m. the Senate at 11 a.m., at which time special legislative committees were expected to report on their deliberations over what to do next.

The lawmakers are faced with the possibility of having the state apportioned at large by federal court into a unicameral legislature.

Evans came quickly Wednesday.

First, a three-judge federal panel in U.S. District Court in Miami set a Jan. 25 hearing on the 1966 reapportionment plan. Then, Gov. Claude Kirk—who had called the Legislature into special session for constitutional revision—asked the legislators to put aside that matter and concentrate on clearing the "fog" gal cloud" hovering over apportionment. "This ended three days of uncertainty which followed after the U. S. Supreme Court in Washington tossed out the 1966 reapportionment plan, particularly striking variations in certain districts which the high court said were not justified.

Constitutional Revision work was completely called off in the Senate. The House slowed down most of its work on revision, also, but some committee hearings reportedly will go through.

"There can be no doubt in my mind that the court absolutely means business on this thing (apportionment)," said Sen. John E. Matthews Jr. of Jacksonville to the upper chamber after Kirk's announcement. Matthews is chairman of a special three-member legislative committee which has the task of preparing a defense of the 1966 apportionment plan and presenting it to the Senate.

The Senate has a legal counsel. Tallahassee attorney Joseph Jacobs, who is drawing up a detailed brief aimed particularly at justifying apportionment variations in certain districts.

The House has a similar group. Both committees planned to meet together regularly.

Mathews expressed confidence that the 1966 apportionment plan could be justified and successfully defended.

The ultimate result of the chambers' studies and legal preparations will be submitted to Florida Atty. Gen. Earl F. Faircloth. However, legislative sources said that, somehow, the Legislature hopes to have its own representative when the apportionment plan comes before federal court in Miami Jan. 25.

"We've got to get our counsel somewhat into district court," said Sen. John McCarty of Fort Pierce, a member of the special legislative group in the Senate.

"We're not defendants in the suit," said committee chairman Matthews. "I hope what the attorney general wants is what the Legislature wants him to submit."

Sen. Askew said that the possibility of the federal court apportioning the state at large should put fire behind the lawmakers.

"The flag can't get any redder than mentioning running at large," Askew said. He said he left the present Legislature better apportioned than the one which drew up the 1966 plan.

Erika's Kin Proud Of Governor's Fiancee

BRREMEN, Germany (AP) — "She was always very energetic and enterprising," the future brother-in-law of Florida Gov. Claude Kirk said today of his sister, Erika Matzfeld.

Kirk announced last weekend that he and Miss Matzfeld would marry soon.

Erika, one of six children of Bremen house painter Heinrich Matzfeld, left the modest family home 10 years ago, when she was 22. Her father told the newspaper Bild Zeitung she said at the time: "I wasn't made to clean up the dirt of other people. I want to be a lady myself."

"I always knew that what Erika set her mind on, she would achieve," the father added. He said Erika after leaving home worked first as a waitress in several German cities, then as a hotel office manager in Zurich, Switzerland. There she met her first husband, Carlos Dolabella, of Rio de Janeiro.

"Their marriage was very happy," her father said. "Erika lives in seven heavens. It was after five years, when she was 27, that she died."

Matzfeld told Bild Zeitung his daughter explained on a visit to Germany last year she had left her husband because of his interest in other women.

Erika's brother Hans, a painter like his father, said the engagement had finally become known.

"Now at least my friends will believe me," he said. "When I told them a little while ago that an American governor would be my brother-in-law, they thought I was bluffing."

Erika's father told Bild Zeitung he hoped soon to visit his daughter in Florida.

"I don't know whether I'll fit in those distinguished circles," he said. "After all, I am a poor and modest man. But if my daughter was able to marry a man who shouldn't succeed in coping with distinguished surroundings?"

Viet Cong Camps Uncovered By Yanks

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — American jet bombers pulsed the "iron triangle" with repeated strikes today while on the ground, Army and U.S. troops uncovered more Viet Cong base camps and large caches of enemy rice.

At the war's biggest ground sweep carried through its fifth day, U.S. headquarters reported the count of Communist dead rose to nearly 200 with 40 prisoners taken in the drive to clear the jungles 20 to 30 miles north of Saigon.

The U.S. air offensive over North Vietnam continued at a low pace because of persistent bad weather and ground action in South Vietnam also subsided into small and scattered clashes, except in the iron triangle.

Official weekly casualty reports released today showed drops in American and Vietnamese killed or wounded for the first week of the new year. U.S. headquarters said 67 Americans were killed in combat in the week ending last Saturday compared with 128 the previous week.

The U.S. command also reported that American troop strength in South Vietnam climbed by 6,000 last week to reach a high of 395,000 as of last Saturday.

In the massive sweep of the iron triangle called Operation Cedar Falls, U.S. F106 Super Sabre jet pilots reported striking runs against Viet Cong snipers concealed in trees.

Other Air Force jets mounted 59 bombing runs on the triangle during the day to raise the total air strikes in the operation to 488.

On the ground, a task force from the 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment pushed deeper into the jungle. U.S. spokesmen reported. These troops along with others in the surrounding region seized 508 tons of enemy rice Wednesday and today to bring the haul so far to 1,306 tons. Also seized were 217 weapons.

Ground forces reported uncovering five more Viet Cong base camps and destroying 16 bunkers in the last 24 hours. U.S. spokesmen reported that evacuation of the triangle's Vietnamese peasants and villagers was continuing with 3,250 civilians already moved to resettlement centers.

The objective of the operation is to render useless the jungle headquarters and staging area from where the Viet Cong has menaced Saigon and vicinity with guerrilla attacks and terrorist activity.

Thrown into the operations were major elements of two U.S. infantry divisions, two more brigades, an armored regiment, massive artillery battalions and several South Vietnamese infantry battalions—a total force estimated at more than 3,000 men.

Jaycee Week

Next week will be Jaycee week here in Sanford and it might be a good idea to take a look at what "our young men" have done for the community.

The Jaycees have accomplished quite a good deal and they deserve the thanks of the entire community for sacrifice, many hours to assure completion of designated projects.

We might mention the many community development programs, staging of the annual Christmas Parade and many other activities that help make Sanford a better place to live.

The local club will highlight its week of activities with the annual distinguished service award banquet a week from Saturday night. At the dinner the club will reveal the name of the young man who has contributed much during the past year toward the betterment of the community.

Many young men in Sanford between the ages of 21 and 35 will be approached soon and invited to join the Jaycees. We urge these individuals to seriously consider membership in the organization. They will find many hours of hard work, but they are blended with recreational and social activities that will make their stay in the Jaycees a memorable one.

Thought For Today

"I loathe my life; I would not live for ever. Let me alone, for my days are a breath." — Job 7:16

Your world, the world you live in day by day, is just about what you make it. It will be no better or bigger or finer than you are yourself. — Norman Vincent Peale, American clergyman.

One That Didn't Get Away!

James Marlow

Analysis Of The News

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, bouncing back from months of comparative idleness, is as full of energy and ideas as ever, which would seem to wash out any guessing that he won't try for a second term in 1968.

There was a time, earlier in his presidency, when Johnson kept himself almost constantly in the public eye with speeches or pronouncements. He did it almost completely about face on that in the last months of 1966.

But his State of the Union message Tuesday night, delivered to Congress in person and taking up almost one hour and 10 minutes of national television and radio time, was like his three previous messages, starting in 1964.

It dripped with proposals and promises to get on with unfinished business. In domestic affairs alone the President dipped into at least 21 different fields with recommendations made then or to be made.

Yet, there was a difference between Tuesday night's talk and the previous State of the Union messages, both in what he said and the way he said it.

There was the extensive use of facial expressions as he explained the problems and made his points. He was straight.

Worry Clinic

Dr. Crane's

Philip's case shows the value of giving your sons strong names with a dramatic, virile "image." Mothers, please have a heart and give your sons solid names that create a virile, masculine "image" among modern youth. And beware when using surnames as first names. One of my relatives was named Crane after a prominent educator in the community.

But "craven" means "cowardly," so he dropped that name when he was old enough to realize its basic meaning.

For his older brother had been christened George Washington Crane.

And Philip was greatly impressed by the prestige and glamour attached to George Washington.

But he felt that the name Philip had no such dramatic flair.

So I then told him dramatic stories about the father of Alexander the Great.

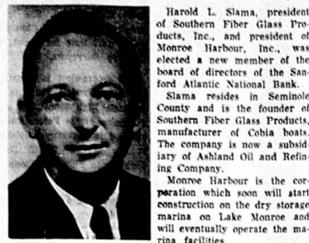

And I brought in tales of King Philip, the New England Indian chief.

These helped raise his respect for his name somewhat, but the final clincher occurred when we entered the name of Alexander the Great.

Sanford Atlantic Deposits Up 10%, President Says

H. L. SLAMA

Harold L. Slama, president of Southern Fiber Glass Products, Inc., and president of Monroe Harbour, Inc., said today that deposits in the Sanford Atlantic National Bank have increased 10 percent in the last year.

Slama is a member of the board of directors of the Sanford Atlantic National Bank. Slama resides in Seminole County and is the founder of Southern Fiber Glass Products, manufacturer of Cobia boats. The company is now a subsidiary of Ashland Oil and Refining Company.

Monroe Harbour is the corporation which soon will start construction on the dry storage marina on Lake Monroe and will eventually operate the marina facilities.

Howard H. Hodges, president of the bank, called attention in his report to the stockholders, to the record high in deposits in the Sanford Atlantic. As compared to Dec. 31, 1966, this represents an increase of over $1 million or about 10 percent.

Slama said that the increase in deposits was the highest in any one year in the history of the bank.

Lani Bird 2 On Course OK

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Communications Satellite Corp. said today its newest spacecraft, Lani Bird 2, appears to be in a satisfactory transfer orbit.

This means that the craft's looping course once around the earth every 11 hours may place it in the proper position to be propelled into a synchronous orbit 22,300 miles above the earth at the equator.

At the proper time late Friday morning, the spacecraft will be fired to kick Lani into a velocity matching the rotational speed of the earth.

If this and other maneuvers succeed, Lani Bird will provide a communications link between North America and the Far East.

Withdrawals

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Wednesday was a bad day for the U.S. National Bank in the Lennox District of Los Angeles.

Police said a gunman made off with $170 during a holdup shortly before noon. Three hours later, another gunman made off with $12.90.

Marathon

MARATHON (AP) — Federal agents held three lobster fishermen for questioning today after a gun battle on the high seas over lobster territory off Cuba. A crewman was killed and a captain injured.

The three were whisked away by federal agents after a Coast Guard cutter brought them ashore.

The incident in the area of Dog Rocks near Cay Sal was another among Florida's lobstermen who guard their traps with devotion and almost uncanny accuracy.

The wounded skipper, lean, tanned 35-year-old William A. Brantstover, said the dispute had been brewing for days because another party had set traps in his domain.

As The Crow Flew

SALZBURG, Austria (AP) — A hunter near here aimed his rifle at a crow sitting on a high-voltage line but hit the power line instead of the bird, police reported recently. The area was without light for a while.

Pancakes From Civic Center To Herald

Folk with an appetite for pancakes and good deeds will have the opportunity of indulging them both on Feb. 25 when the Sanford Kiwanis Club will hold its annual pancake breakfast and conduct a public auction.

Highlight of the meeting was the awarding of the J. Newton Lummus cup for "club bulletin excellence" to Ralph A. Smith, club secretary.

In accepting the award, Smith paid tribute to the active club membership: "If I didn't have something constructive to write about we wouldn't have this bulletin. I've had an assist from every single one of you." This award was presented by Rupert Strickland, lieutenant governor of Region 6 in 1966, who paid tribute to the records which the Sanford Club has made.

The Kiwanis Club is aiming for a $2,700 goal on pancake auction day. This is the sum which the club needs to implement its work primarily designed to help education. For instance, there will be about $300 to contribute to the active club membership: "If I didn't have something constructive to write about we wouldn't have this bulletin. I've had an assist from every single one of you." This award was presented by Rupert Strickland, lieutenant governor of Region 6 in 1966, who paid tribute to the records which the Sanford Club has made.

To Tax Or Not To Tax...

By JOHN CUNIFF

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — President Johnson has given in the fiscal matters of dollars, taxes and budgets that belie the common feeling that there is little drama in such things.

The controversy of tax or not to tax has raged for many months now. Because of the President's recommendation Tuesday for a 6 per cent income tax surcharge, the controversy will continue for many more months.

Nearly one year after pressure developed for a general tax increase, the President made his move. Pressure came first from critics, later from some economists of his own persuasion and then, presumably, from his inner circle.

At first, Johnson did not act with any grand sweep. He promised to cut spending and he suspended the 6 per cent investment tax credit on new equipment that capital expansion was becoming inflationary. He also made tax payments.

He made no move, however, toward a general tax increase aimed at cooling an inflated economy. He retained his flexibility of action. He refused to be committed to rigid new tax laws that could not be applied sensitively.

The present economy, though still strong in some areas, has slowed considerably. One economic indicator after another shows this.

All this revolves around the same core question: Why are our times are, they say, some parts of the civilian economy very unlike that of a year ago. An increase now, the critics say, might worsen an economy that has lost much of its vitality. In fact, no matter how good our times are, they say, some parts of the civilian economy

Letters

Editor, Herald:

Some time ago I wrote requesting that you place an ad for me concerning help for the Vietnam living in the Home of Trill Rhim (Nuc/Mon). I want to thank you sincerely for your help, and would like, via your paper, to personally thank all of the people in and around Seminole County for their contributions.

I have lived with these people for quite some time and have grown to really appreciate the fact that "I AM AN AMERICAN!" I also appreciate the fact that I have been fortunate enough to be able to help them in helping these people to know the meaning of Freedom.

I will be returning to the States sometime in the latter part of January and intend to spend the majority of my leave time there at home. (Sanford) You can surely expect to see me as I would again, like to see your paper, to personally thank you for the personal thanks you give.

I sincerely hope you and your staff had a very Merry Christmas, and a Happy New Year.

Hal Boyle Says:

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the worst things that can happen in life is the retreat of memory.

What a salvation, a glory and a citadel memory is to mankind! How meaningful it makes the march of existence. In the midst of present wonders, it reminds us of the wonders before.

But, of course, memory isn't just the prisoner of the elderly. The first fierceness of a child's groping is to find something worth remembering and coming back to.

And you probably have the flavor of my dear memories in your own heart if you can look back and remember when:

Homes were built so that everybody kissed each other good night on the ground floor and then they went to bed upstairs.

No one could pretend they were older or younger than they were because their birth date was written down in the family Bible, the big book with the dust on it.

The only people who came into the house through the front door were encyclopedias and men or insurance collectors. At that time, for 10 cents a week, you could buy good insurance to bury a child but not to educate him.

I was now a housewife, and I found the training I received in 4-H invaluable. The help I have been able to obtain from our Home Demonstration Agent has been a boost to family economy, and has made for happy family living.

In any big town in America you could give a nickel and the street car conductor and anywhere that was worth going to.

The height of sophistication was to see a vaudeville comedy

Hal Boyle Says:

an a year after the first time you saw him, so that you could chuckle at the start of his familiar joke.

Old men, after the labor of their manhood was done, would sometimes turn their restless fingers to the intricate making of quilts—anything to do that kept them busy and proudful.

Most arguments in America were about the interpretation of the Bible and what the weather would be next.

You could always be a local intellectual if you spread the rumor around that you were taking a correspondence course in any subject. If you got a lot of mail, even the mailman had a higher opinion of you.

One of the ways a homey girl got attention was to tell fortunes through hand-reading. So often her partner was enamored by the judgment of the outstretched male palm.

In every block in America there was a mentally unbalanced person, by birth or later circumstance, but everybody else in the block knew he was, and that was part of life, and it was better to keep him at home where he was known than to send him away to where he wasn't known. He belonged to the neighborhood.

The greatest family fun was to sit thoughtfully before the fireplace and hear mother play the piano while sister sang a lovely old song, such as "Come Where My Love Lies Dreaming."

Miss Phillips, Thomas Wade Scott Married In Impressive Ceremony

Miss Georganne Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Roy Phillips, and Thomas Wade Scott, son of Mrs. Berta Mae Scott and the late Taylor Scott, were united in holy matrimony Dec. 29 at the Cross Memorial Seventh-day Adventist Church in Winter Park.

Pastor Ralph LaFave officiated at the impressive ceremony before an altar flanked by baskets of white gladioli and daisy chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Charles E. Steele, organist, presented a program of nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. David F. Groves, soloist, who sang "God Give Me You." During the pastoral prayer, Mrs. Groves sang "The Wedding Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a lace sheath gown fashioned after princess lines and embellished with pearls and brilliant. A sleeveless coat of silk peau de soie, trimmed with lace was held at the shoulder line by two Dior bows and flowed into a chapel train.

Her radiant veil of silk illusion was attached to a cluster of tulle petals trimmed with pearls and crystals and she carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and lilacs—the valley, centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Barbara Rae Rainer, of Washington, D. C., was matron of honor and bridesmaid and maid were the Misses Billie Jean Hinson and Sandra Milano and Mrs. Isabel Meeks. Miss Milano is a niece of the groom. Elaine Phillips, a cousin of the bride, from Cocoa Beach served as junior bridesmaid and Debbie Young, of Forest City, was flower girl.

Jeffrey Milano, a nephew of the groom, was best man and others were Eddie Meeks and Russell Ryser.

All of the bride's attendants were attired in formal lengths of white with pink accents and featuring Empire beaded waists. Worn over the gowns were long opera coats with sleeves of brocade trimmed with Dior bows at the shoulders.

MRS. THOMAS WADE SCOTT

They carried hot pink pom-pom reception was held in the Social hall of the Church. The following the ceremony, a bride's table, overlaid with white linen cloth, was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with delicate pink roses.

A huge wedding bell was suspended from the ceiling over the refreshment table with ribbon streamers attached to the four corners. Colorful pink punch, nuts, mints and cake were served to the guests. Mrs. Groves added an appropriate touch in song as the receiving line was formed in the center of the hall. She sang the story of Ruth, "Entreat Me Not."

For traveling the bride wore a light blue knit dress with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations. When the couple returns from a wedding trip, they will make their home at 122 N. Hamilton St., in Longwood.

Out of town guests included the bride's aunts and uncles, "Aunt and Mrs. Thomas Blair, from Alabama, and Mr. and Mrs. Willie Phillips, of Cocoa Beach.

Homemaker's Corner

By MRS. H. L. JOHNSON

We have a request for a quick hollandaise sauce. Hollandaise is a basic French sauce made of egg yolks, lemon juice and butter or margarine. It is generally made in a double boiler or over a very low heat. Should the sauce be overcooked or the heat is too high, the sauce may curdle. To restore it add an ice cube and stir rapidly, then remove partially melted cube. Leftover sauce may be stored in the refrigerator. When you serve it, stir in 1 tablespoon hot water.

HOLLANDAISE SAUCE
2 egg yolks
2 tbsps. lemon juice
1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 cup margarine
Blend together egg yolks, lemon juice and salt in saucepan or top of double boiler. Add margarine. Place over very low heat or hot water bath. Stir constantly until mixture thickens. Remove from heat and continue stirring until sauce thickens to desired consistency. Makes about 1/2 cup.

GRAHAM CRACKER CRUST

MEDICAL NEWS

The traditional method of bathing baby may be outdated, a report in the British Medical Journal suggests.

Four researchers have observed that the old-fashioned soap-and-water way takes too long. Also, it makes the baby slippery (which leads to another slip and tension in the mother who fears that baby may fall on his head).

And, there is the risk that soap will get into his eyes (and this could turn him against all baths — if not for life, at least during infancy). Finally, it leaves a ring around the tub.

Researchers suggest that a mixture of hexachlorophene and allantoin in the bath water does away with the need for soap, and acts to prevent colonization of the skin by possibly harmful organisms.

Two American physicians, Dr. L. Gluck and Dr. F. Wood reported in the New England Journal of Medicine on the results of bathing 966 infants daily with hexachlorophene soap as controls.

The BMJ article cites other physicians who have even advocated that newborn babies should not be bathed at all.

Little boys, and some not so little, have been doing their own research for a long time, trying to find a substitute for the routine daily bath.

Although it is doubtful that a no-bath society will ever become popular, even for babies, it is very possible that a soap-less cleaner like phosfene will — at least with mothers, and baby's older brother.

Light-up the Field, Boosters

Plans for additional lighting at the baseball and track fields were recommended by the Seminole High Boosters Club at their meeting last night.

The Boosters Club collected approximately $1,000 from this year's activities including the sale of club memberships, concession stands sales at the football games and other projects throughout the season.

However, it was noted that this amount wouldn't be sufficient to cover the entire cost of the proposed lighting program.

Athletic Director Ralph Stump suggested a fish-py at another means of complementing the nearly depleted club treasury. The fish-py was staged at the high school, preceding the Colonial-Seminole High School basketball game on Friday, Feb. 10 and open to the public.

Seminole High School Principal Andrew Brackm offered a detailed comparison report on the 1965-66 football season. In '65, which was noted as an "off-year," the grand total in attendance of both varsity and JV games was 11,770.

For the season just completed this figure dropped to 2,162 for a grand total of 9,617.

The financial decrease between the two years was $2,267.26 with only $5,170.81 collected in 1966 as compared to $10,438.07 in '65.

The total number of spectators for the varsity games for the year was 8,961 including 2,553 students. The total attendance for the four rounds in the 72-hole event on April 6-9, which was swelled by 450 including the adult students.

There was a total of $12,678 in expenditures this past season.

Hull - He's Back On Target

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Bobby Hull is back on target and that means trouble for National Hockey League goalkeepers.

Chicago's Golden Jet fired three goals Wednesday night, leading the Black Hawks to a 6-1 romp over Detroit that moved Chicago into a tie for first place with the New York Rangers.

In the only other game played, Hull scored with less than four minutes left, giving Toronto a 2-1 decision over Montreal.

The last trick was the first this season and 18th of his career for Hull. It gave him the NHL lead in goals scored with 22 and seven in the last four games.

Hull set NHL records for goals with 54 and points with 97 last year but until the last week, he had not approached that kind of production this season with a hip injury causing him considerable trouble.

Masters - And Now Comes Higher Prices

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Fewer spectators and higher prices will be the rule for the prestigious Masters Golf Tournament in 1967.

The Augusta National Golf Club says the number of admissions credentials will be cut sharply and that series badges, good for the four rounds in the 72-hole event on April 6-9, will be limited to patrons—persons on the club's mailing list.

Chairman Clifford Roberts of the Masters Tournament Committee said the price of series badges will be raised from $15 to $20. He said the badges will not cover practice rounds.

No tickets will be available to the general public for the tournament, the club said, unless patrons fail to fill the spectator quota, which was not disclosed.

The possibility that patrons will fail to exhaust the supply is unlikely, Augusta National reported that 90 per cent of the returned requested series badges last year and closed out the supply a month before the tournament began.

Roberts said if the quota is not filled a certain number of daily admission tickets will be sold to the general public.

Meanwhile, in a separate announcement, the club said it is partially lifting the 25-mile television blackout of the final two days of the Masters by allowing a Columbia, Ga., station to carry the action.

Roberts said the viewing at Columbia, nearly 200 miles from Augusta, will be an experiment to determine if ticket sales would be hurt. He said if the club determines that admissions are not bothered by television, the viewing blackout may be completely or partially lifted.

Roberts said practice rounds for the Masters will be open to the public at $2 a person daily.

The tournament, considered one of the world's great golfing events, annually draws the top national and international amateurs and professionals on an invitation basis.

Perry Inks Giant Pact

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Right-hander Gaylord Perry, a 21-8 performer with the San Francisco Giants in 1966 with his best season, has signed a 1967 contract at an estimated $40,000.

Perry, the first pitcher to win 20 games last season, earned a raise of about $10,000. The Giants boosted his pay last season when he posted his 20th victory Aug. 20.

Only three major league hurlers won more games in 1966 than Gaylord, lanky 25-year-old North Carolina son of writer and sportscaster Ernie Perry and William Tom. They were Sandy Koufax with 27, and the Giants' Juan Marchand and the Minnesota Twins' Jim Kaat with 25 each.

Salukis Play Rough

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Southern Illinois is not considered a major college basketball power. Convicted Texas Western and Louisville.

The Salukis from Carbondale, Ill., 59-54 conquerors of Texas Western, the defending major college champion, upended previously unbeaten Louisville 62-50 Wednesday night.

Southern Illinois has a higher national ranking than either Texas Western or Louisville, but there is a difference—the Salukis top the Associated Press small college rankings while Louisville is No. 2 and Texas Western sixth among the major schools.

As for rankings, Coach Jack Hartman of Southern Illinois said after the latest victory, "We don't put anything on the scoreboard."

Well, they do put the score on their 12th victory in 13 games. Bob Lewis led North Carolina with 25 points, and Rusty Clark and Larry Miller chipped in with 20 and 16, respectively. Dick Braucher's 34 led State.

A brief fight broke out just after the final buzzer at Chapel Hill when fan exchanged blows with State's Robert McLean. Order was restored quickly.

In the game at Carbondale, Southern Illinois built up a 27-16 lead in the first half only to see Louisville cut the margin to 29-26 at intermission. With 4:33 left in the game, Southern Illinois led 46-46, then after the two teams exchanged baskets, Prazier wrapped it up with his free throws.

All About Ernie

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Heavyweight champion Cassius Clay says his title bout with Ernie Terrell in the Astrodome Feb. 6 is the "battle of the champ and the so-called champ."

Terrell is a one-handed fighter. Clay said, "Everybody knows that. All he's got is a left jab. Since he stole half of my title, I call him 'the one-armed bandit.'"

Clay began training for the fight Wednesday by going two rounds each at the Astrodome with sparring partners Mel Turnbow and Jimmy Ellis.

Terrell, recognized as heavyweight champion by the World Boxing Association, arrives in Houston next Monday.

The fight will be Clay's second at the Astrodome. He successfully defended his title by stopping Cleveland Williams last Nov. 14 in the dome structure's first boxing match.

Clay listed potential future opponents if he gets by Terrell as Zora Folley, Thad Spencer and Joe Frazier.

Test Of Small Titans Slated

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Super Bowl football game is the big event coming up on the nation's sports schedule in 1967.

The game will be the first of the basketball-minded folks of Ovensboro, Ky., and Carbondale, Ill.

That's because next Monday night in Ovensboro, Southern Illinois of Carbondale and Kentucky Wesleyan, the No. 1 and No. 2 teams in The Associated Press' small-college basketball poll, meet for the first time this season.

Southern Illinois took over first place from the Panthers in the latest poll. The Salukis, though, lead by only two points.

In the balloting by a national panel of 19 sports writers and broadcasters, Southern Illinois collected 171 points and Kentucky Wesleyan 169 on a basis of 10 for a first-place vote, 9 for second, etc. The Salukis were named the top team on nine ballots and the Panthers on seven.

Southern Illinois beat Indiana State in its only game last week, by a 6-2 mark, while Kentucky Wesleyan, unbeaten in eight games, downed Evansville and Tennessee State.

There were no changes in the next three positions with Chesapeake State moving three places to sixth, Indiana State, San Diego State, Tennessee State and Lincoln of Jefferson City, Mo., complete the Top Ten in that order.

The Top Ten, with first-place Ovals State Farm in Florida has made its college eligible for the 1967 Grand State, a 5-year old race to be at the Cherry Hill, N. J., course next November.

LIQUOR FOR LESS

That's a Lotta Pride, Man!

Open the "muff" book 'cause we just have to add this one to the list.

I'm referring to radio and TV bloppers, but in this particular case, the blotto was nothing less than perfect. That's why I almost dropped my can of beer when I first heard the TV announcer say it.

Quote — "These boys aren't going into the Super Bowl just for the money. No sir, it's just the sake of being on the team and the pride riding on the outcome of the game."

Unquote — "BALONEY, BROTHER . . . and that's with a capital 'B'."

When someone's going to get approximately $15,000 for less than four hours of work and they're not really interested in the money . . . why didn't he really just say "Like maybe I'd have believed it would snow in Sanford in July . . . but NOT INTERESTED IN THE MONEY!!!! And these 'boys' are professional . . ."

However, if there's anyone who should feel the pang of this big money it would be Buddy Parker, longtime NFL coach, who played for Detroit in the 1953 championship game. He received $28 as his share and also got $100 a game during the season as his salary.

"So I made $1,480 for the year," says Buddy. "But then I keep thinking I paid only $88 for a brand new Plymouth . . ."

There'll Be Action Galore . . .

The National Professional Soccer League met this week in Atlanta and covered plans for the ten team league's 22-game schedule, starting April 16. CBS will televise 15 Sundays on the "Game of the Week" series.

In the meantime, you can get your fill on hockey. It doesn't matter whether the team's in first or last place. They still have S.R.O. signs at their home games.

It must 'cause people just like to see a sport where there's lots of body contact. Look at this shot and you'll see what I mean.

DOODLES FROM THE NOODLE . . . Perhaps you missed it in Monday's Herald. Randy Erstie, eighth-grader of All Soul's Basketball team brought the crowd to its feet when he rifled the ball from one end of the court to the other . . . and it zipped right through the basket without touching the backboard or the rim of the basket. It betcha that there are lots of "us" who can't even heave a softball that far, much less a bulky basketball . . . Seminole County has reason to be proud of all their local basketball squads. Winning streaks being enjoyed by most of them with the JV's at Seminole High showing the highest win-loss percentage. And how about their scoring 95 points in one game. Yikes! . . . Sanford has lots of good basketball references. I wonder "how cum" some of the fellows get a couple of games a week since the season began . . .

After watching Oviedo on Tuesday night, I've just got to say it — "Boy, those Lions sure have some kind of a team!"

The Simon Harper-Wally Jamison combination is more than adequately assisted by Ted Janson, Joe McMillan, Rex Coats and Phillips Walker. Harper tried this season has approached the school's individual performance record set by Carl Fabry back in '56 with 26 wins and 10 losses. By the way, the wally occasions . . . and he's only a Junior, you know. By the way, the All Time High at Oviedo belongs to mah good buddy Johnny Jones with 48 points in tournament play back in '55. A salute to Dick Prater and the Oviedo Lions for another outstanding basketball season . . . Nice to see such a large turnout at the Seminole-Titusville game that same night. Betcha they have to post S.R.O. this Saturday when the Seminoles host the Lyman Greyhounds.

Ho Hum . . . They Got Drubbed Again

Give me a nibble and POW they're on the hook. The unbecoming combination of Cooke-Spittski have done it again, TWICE!

This dynamic duo sank Mike Weheler and Harry Penicott in bowling two weeks ago, was challenged to a golfing match (with the same delicious results, thank you) and again on Monday evening repeated another bowling victory. I just don't have the heart to print the scores, but I do have a word for my illustrious partner, though.

The next time you roll a 99 game in bowling, Cooke, I know of a couple Junior bowlers who are going to get an urgent call.

Seriously, Sanford has the makings of a real golf pro in writer Tom . . .

us, he finished with a 70, including four birdies, two eagles. Too bad they had to lose . . . EVEN WITH A SCORE LIKE THAT, HUH?

Rumor going around that they'll next try to beat us at softball or something like that.

I Heard This Little Voice . . .

During the course of instructing our two new Seminole Junior College bowling classes, a great deal of emphasis was spent on delivery, timing, terminology, etc.

And after 20 minutes or so of these cold statistics, prior to actually going out onto the lanes and rolling the ball, I asked if anyone had any questions.

The conference room got awfully quiet and then this voice from the back of the room brought down the house with, "Mr. Spolski, would you like an equal amount of time to explain what happened to you?"

(I hope he gets a 7-10 split for saying such a nasty thing.)

NCAA Ruling---Sports And The Scholar

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—The new president of the National Collegiate Athletic Association said today he felt the NCAA and Eastern objections to the 16 minimum academic rule could reach an understanding.

The large collegiate body re-buffed Eastern college efforts Wednesday to eliminate the one-year-old rule which requires a student-athlete to maintain at least a 1.6 minimum on a 4.0 grading scale to be eligible for athletic participation. A 1.6 is the equivalent to a D plus average.

Dr. Marcus L. Plant of the University of Michigan said after his election as president of the 52-member organization that the NCAA is strong internally and with "no deep fissures."

"We are not without our problems," he said. "We never have been and we never will be."

Although the Eastern College Athletic Conference, comprising 146 NCAA members, got late convention support from the Southwest Athletic Conference and the Atlantic Coast Conference, it was unsuccessful in securing approval of any of six amendments designed to alter the present 1.6 regulation.

The objectionable content of the rule violates institutional autonomy and is not applicable in their case because they do not have student athletes.

John Wilkin of Colby College, in presenting the ECAC case, said the academic rule "tries to equate factors that are not equitable." At the request of a delegate to have a public statement on how the NCAA Council stood on the 1.6 issue, Everett D. Barnes of Colgate University, retiring NCAA president, said he was for retention of the present rule.

"The general conviction on the part of the majority is to give the 1.6 rule a chance to function another year," Plant said. He added that coming from the Big Ten Conference, which has a higher minimum standard, he favors it.

The 1968 convention will be held on the 1.6 issue, Everett D. Barnes of Colgate University, retiring NCAA president, said he was for retention of the present rule.

He said 11 institutions indicated an intention of complying, including only three members of the eight school Ivy League—Yale, Harvard and Pennsylvania.

Ivy identified the other eight institutions as Williams, Thiel, Tufts, Swarthmore, Rochester, Oberlin, Johns Hopkins and Middlebury.

"There is no stigma on teams in conformity with the 1.6 regulations," Barnes said. It means only they cannot compete in an NCAA championship event or postseason bowl game sanctioned by the collegiate body.

In other action at the closing session of the 41st convention, the delegates:

- Rejected a proposal to permit freshmen to compete in all varsity sports except football and basketball.
- Approved exempting benefits under the GI Bill of Rights from grants in aid to student-athletes.
- Voted down a move to limit scholarships in one or two years, with renewals. Grants-in-aid now may be given for four years.
- Tabled a motion to extend the period of preseason football practice.

NBA Adds San Diego To Roster

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—The National Basketball Association has added San Diego to its roster, raising to 12 its entries for the 1967-68 season.

Roberts said the team is owned by San Diego Sports Enterprises, which operates the new San Diego International Sports Arena and owns the San Diego Gulls of the Western Hockey League.

Robert Breitbard, president of Sports Enterprises, will also head the new NBA club, which will play in the International Sports Arena.

The corporation paid $1,750,000 for the new franchise, approved Tuesday in San Francisco, Kennedy said.

The team will obtain its players in a draft from the present NBA rosters. Each of the 10 existing teams will give up three players, with San Diego and Seattle filling 15-man squads.

New Lion Coach Makes A Promise

DETROIT (AP)—Joe Schmidt, the new coach of the Detroit Lions, says he'll try to lead the club back to National Football League power with a number of trades and a massive injection of free.

"I definitely feel we have to make some trades," he said after signing Wednesday. "I have a free hand. I can do anything in the line of trades. Naturally," he added, "I won't go off half-cocked." His center with General Manager Russ Ford and owner William Clay Thomas before 10 days.

"At one time," Schmidt said, "this team had a lot of pride. I intend to re-install that pride in this team."

Schmidt said that a team with a lot of pride plays better and pulls together better.

Schmidt, 34, was a linebacker for 12 years for the Lions. He joined them as a seventh draft choice from the University of Pittsburgh in 1953. He was named to the Pro Bowl squad 10 times during his 12 seasons, captained the Lions nine straight years, was voted to the NFL All-Pro team on eight occasions and was named the Lions' most valuable player four times.

He retired after the 1965 season and served last season as an assistant manager, working with the linebackers.

Schmidt replaces Harry Gilmer, fired last week after four firing seasons, the latest a 4-9-1 mark.

Taxation Topic Of Address To DeBary Club

An overflow audience listened attentively Tuesday night as Robert B. Weaver, chairman of the DeLand Chamber of Commerce education committee and member of the Florida State Chamber of Commerce education committee, spoke before the DeBary Civic Association on the subject of taxation.

Explaining the increased interest in taxation, Weaver said "One of the most important committees in the Legislature is the one on taxes. A number of research studies have been prepared concerning the entire tax structure and where additional money can be obtained. An expanding economy with new development in the state would be one solution and would bring an influx of money in payrolls and taxes. Money must be obtained in the state world program in Florida," he pointed out.

In closing remarks, the speaker stated, "I believe home rule always is the best form of government since each town and city knows best what its needs are."

He stated "Something must be done for the local taxpayers... some form of a program must be presented soon. These taxpayers are our future members and citizens."

By LARRY VERSHEL FRIDAY THE 13TH BLUES - Got only one angry phone call yesterday. Someone called from Lake Mary saying that won't be a billiard parlor at Sanford Plaza but a "Recreation Center."

People complaining about why the city doesn't pave West Second Street from French to Maple. The reason - property owners don't care to pay share.

One of our friends in Casselberry mentioned to us that the Democratic Executive Meeting last night lacked a quorum.

Speaking of informal meetings, the city plans one this Monday to discuss the industrial use of the Naval Air Station.

Here's one way the city can get additional revenue. Ever realize our many fraternal clubs and organizations are exempt from taxes and these organizations or lodges, rent out their facilities?

Why don't certain fee offices ask for less money from the County Commission and turn in less excess fees? Eh?

When the city ever gets around to getting that ordinance on motor scooters and motorcycles it will be mandatory for all riders to use crash helmets.

Don't forget the South Seminole Jaycees will hold their Distinguished Service Award banquet Monday night at 7:30 at the Trade Wicks.

Let's hope Sanford doesn't forget about its proposed new club once the "Free Reserve Vacates the present facility."

Wheatley Named Mayor

Schools Make Push For Major Building Program

School Board action here Thursday afternoon placed in the hands of the State Department of Education at Tallahassee the start of an enlarged building program in Seminole County.

The School Board sent to Tallahassee an approval of a bond sale and an approval of the master campus plan for Seminole Junior College for state OK.

The bond sale by the state will be for $125 million - to be repaid from capital outlay funds derived from automobile license tag sales - to commence the new Oviedo High School, new Lyman High School and new Sanford Junior High School next year.

School officials also approved application for federal impact funds in an amount of approximately $200,000 for this year. This is to supplement local funds for the schooling of children of military personnel stationed here.

The Woes Of Running A School Lunchroom

Seminole County school lunchroom program is facing some difficult problems but an optimistic outlook was expressed by Mrs. Charlotte Whitmore, supervisor, to the School Board Thursday afternoon.

Student participation is 62 per cent, down eight to 10 percent as compared to last year. Mrs. Whitmore said, but pointed out that schools throughout the state and nationwide also are experiencing financial troubles.

She reported the deficit was caused by an increase in lunchroom prices, bringing down participation, and a revision in the rate of pay for personnel.

However, Mrs. Whitmore felt that student participation will increase by the end of January, increasing revenue. The food inventory will help balance out the deficit - use of food on hand resulting in curtailment of purchases. She pointed out, too, there is less USDA food distribution to the schools.

On the whole, Mrs. Whitmore concluded, the lunchroom program has problems but an improvement is in sight.

"If anything, we've improved our attendance figures. Little Ole Lyman has just started to win its share of sporting events. We have everyone excited about our teams from the kids, to the teachers to the administrators and the families of the students."

"... now they know where we are," added Whitmore.

Principal E. L. Blackbeare had almost the same story for Crocus High School, which also indicated $1,000 less in total receipts, but it was also for one less game this year as compared to five home games in '65.

Oviedo High School reported a total of $2,000, which is approximately the same as for the previous season's total. Principal C. W. Holder said, "Seminole County is just a little bit spoiled because they've always had so many good teams at all of the area's high schools that the fans expect an annual winner. It's unfortunate because it's difficult for the smaller schools to try to compete with the larger schools in the state."

"The situation for Seminole County is so much more critical this year when their first three games ended in losses. Meanwhile, at the other three county high schools another picture was being painted. Although Lyman's three games showed approximately $872 less in total receipts for '66 as compared to '65, Assistant Principal Richard Silvers hastened to note, "there were only four home games this year as compared to six in '65."
