GERMAN DELEGATES MADE NO REPLY AT NOON TODAY TO LLOYD GEORGE DEMAND

That They Either Withdraw Russo-German Treaty or Stay Out of Conference

GERMANS ARE DIVIDED ON THE ISSUE AND NO REPLY EXPECTED BEFORE NIGHT

(By The Associated Press)
GENOA, April 20.—Lloyd George today said the German delegation had agreed to accept the conditions of the Allies not to participate in further discussion in regard to Russian affairs, the result of their having signed the Russo-German treaty Sunday. Political commission will meet tomorrow to consider the Russian reply to the allied proposals that were transmitted to the Russians last week.

GENOA, April 20.—The German delegation at noon made no reply to Lloyd George's ultimatum that they either withdraw the Russo-German treaty or accept the penalty of disbarment from the conference discussions of the Russian question. The Germans are divided on the issue and no reply is expected before night. Russians say the treaty must stand.

PARIS, April 20.—Instructions sent by Premier Poincaré to the French ambassadors in capitals of the Allies and fully approved by the cabinet, are to insist that energetic measures be taken and penalties applied to Germany if the Russo-German treaty is not abrogated, regardless of what the Genoa conference may decide.

PARIS, April 20.—Prime Minister Lloyd George is reported in Genoa to have informed Dr. Wirth, the German chancellor, that there were only two possible solutions of the present deadlock.

The first was that the Germans must cease to be admitted to the discussion of Russian affairs at the conference.

The second was that they must tear up and scrap the treaty made with the Russians.

Chancellor Wirth, the messages stated, while regretting the severity of the latter alternative, did not refuse to take it under consideration and is reported virtually to have accepted it in principle.

The German delegation is active among the other delegates, said these advisers, in an effort to obtain a repeal of the allied decision pronounced against them yesterday. The Germans were particularly insistent in pointing out to the Italian delegation that the departure of the German delegates from Genoa would greatly compromise the conference.

The German delegation was reported to be divided on Mr. Lloyd George's proposal that the Russo-German pact be scrapped, with Dr. Wirth accepting it in principle and Foreign Minister Rathenau, opposing it.

GENOA, April 20.—The German delegates and experts have not yet been able to find a formula whereby to compromise with the entente powers, without sacrificing the Russo-German treaty, although they were in session to a very late hour last night. Efforts are being made to have the conference formulate a Russian policy in which the Russo-German treaty can be absorbed, thus giving it the stamp of conference approval and removing the cause of hard feelings.

The plain language of Premier Lloyd George to the German statesman yesterday over the treaty incident, which at one time threatened to disrupt the economic conference was believed to have cleared the political atmosphere, but as neither the German reply to the allies nor the Russian reply regarding acceptance of the conditions for the restoration of Russia was forthcoming, the situation is still considered critical.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The House Ways and Means Committee today favorably reported the Fordney resolution authorizing the loan of five million dollars to the Republic of Liberia.

SEMENOFF AGAIN FINDS FREEDOM—BAIL FURNISHED

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, April 20.—A demonstration typical of his turbulent Russia, greeted General Gregorie Semenov, Cossack chieftain, as he left Ludlow street jail yesterday afternoon.

Released in $25,000 bail furnished by his friends, the Cossack ataman, appeared at the jail door and surrounded by a detachment of police got into his coat collar as the jaws of thousands fell upon his ears.

Ludlow street was black with the crowd, which had stood in a driving rain for several hours awaiting Semenov's release. When his friends, accompanied by the sheriff hurried into the building carrying $20,000 in currency and $5,000 in Liberty bonds, the crowd sent up a howl and moved closer to the entrance.

Extra details of police were ordered to preserve order. Hundreds of persons stood on roofs of tenements and hung on fire escape ladders. They were driven off by the police, who feared bomb throwing.

Semenov betrayed nervousness as he descended the jail steps. He kept close to his guards and quickened his step as the crowd, breaking through the police line at one point, gathered around a taxicab at the curb.

He entered the cab, accompanied by several policemen and his friend, George Kroupsky, his former military aide in Siberia, and was whisked away through a line in the crowd made by mounted patrolmen.

General Semenov was arrested here two weeks ago in connection with a civil suit involving the theft of a trans-Balka in 1919 of goods valued at $475,000, the property of the now bankrupt You-eta Home and Foreign Trading Company. He was released that night on bail furnished by a bonding company. This company later recalled the bond and the general was taken to jail. In the meantime members of the Siberian expedition of the American army preferred charges against him in Washington, claiming that he caused the murder of soldiers in the American expedition.

SANFORD GOLF COURSE IS ASSUMING FINE SHAPE, FIFTY MEN AT WORK

Fairway Being Cleared and Links Will Be Among the Best in the State

The golf course at the Sanford Country Club is rapidly being constructed under the able supervision of Cameron Trent, formerly of the Winnetka, Ill., and Bartow, Fla., golf clubs. With the funds available it will be possible to complete a nine hole golf course, and there are now fifty men and teams clearing the fairway. To date, the work has progressed to the extent that the first five holes are practically completed and any of our local people who are members of the Club and anticipate becoming golfers will be able to practice over this short course by the first of May. The fairway will be sown with Bermuda grass which has proven the most practical for golf courses in Florida. Everyone knows that golf was born and nurtured on the sandy seashore of Scotland where nature has provided sloughs, sanddunes, and sandpits around which the original golfers played. These features will also be found on the Sanford course and with the arrangement as laid out by Mr. Trent every hole calls for real golf; each player will find use for every shot in his bag. While the natural hazards are somewhat difficult, the duffer will find that he too can play without being punished to such an extent as to destroy the interest of his game. No two holes, and no two greens are alike on the Sanford course. There will be one or two waterholes which will possess unusual conditions adding to the zest of the game.

Although present plans are but for a nine hole course, the property of the club is of sufficient area to provide for an 18-hole course and which will gradually be built as finances permit. Mr. Trent states that the Sanford course will be amongst the best in the state when completed. In fact, it would be difficult to find any Florida course that is superior in those things which appeal to the professional golfer. A number of Sanford people motored out to the Country Club last Sunday and returned very enthusiastic. The building on the grounds which is now being renovated for the Club House was formerly a fine old residence. It is now being wired and when the improvements are completed will be a Club House that the members can well be proud of. It is prophesied that some of our prominent fishermen within the not far distant future will forsake their old love for the fascinating game of golf. Mr. S. O. Chase is still energetically working to complete this project which he fathered as chairman of the Golf Course Committee of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce. F. P. Forster is still efficiently discharging the duties of fiscal agent until such time as the organization receives their charter and sufficient members to put it on a paying basis.

Anti-Saloon League is Not Satisfied With Gen. Nutt and Forces

(By The Associated Press)
JACKSONVILLE, April 20.—Rev. C. W. Crooke, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Florida, declares he discovered some flaws in the methods Col. Nutt and assistants in their conduct of war against liquor violators at Miami and that he was going to have some of what he termed inefficient and unfaithful federal agents removed. Crooke did not detail defects. He said he just returned to Jacksonville after six weeks tour of Central, South and West Florida "organizing for the June primary campaign looking toward dry and dependable candidates getting into the face for county offices and the legislature."

FOUND FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH IN FLORIDA

(By The Associated Press)
NEWARK, N. J., April 20.—Marshall Burns Lloyd, wealthy manufacturer of Nonominee, Mich., advertises his baby carriage business with this verse:

"This is no chance, no destiny, no fate,
Can circumvent or hinder or control,
The firm resolve of a determined soul."

With this sentiment Mr. Lloyd approached his three score years and ten, firm in the conviction that romance would enter his life.

Today he asserted that his conviction had proved correct. Yesterday he announced he had married, in the brick Presbyterian church in New York, Mrs. Tourlette Pollen, of Orange, N. J., whose courtesy had won his attention when she waited upon him in a novelty shop in Florida this winter. After a honeymoon in California, the couple will live in Nonominee.

Mr. Lloyd said he recently had sold his business for about $3,000,000.

ORGANIZE FOR BAND WEEK DATES ARE MAY 1 TO MAY 6 WHEN A BIG FUND RAISED

NEWBERRY IS TO BE ISSUE IN MICHIGAN

(By The Associated Press)
GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., April 20.—The Democratic attack on the seating of Senator Newberry was carried into Michigan last night by Chairman Hull of the Democratic National Committee, through a message read at the state wide meeting of party leaders.

Chairman Hull, in his message, discussed at length the Newberry case, which former Governor Cox touched upon in an address here Tuesday night, and which Chairman Hull last night declared "sharply raised the clean cut issues of whether seats in the United States Senate are for sale."

Republican leaders had answered the issue affirmatively, the chairman said, adding:

"This means that any office is for sale and that the corrupt use of money to influence any governmental agency for any purpose, no matter how selfish or sordid, is a part of the political practice of those who are today in high places in Washington."

The Democratic chairman then went on to say that the Newberry case, "had as it is in every odious sense," is not "within and by itself that which constitutes the greatest danger, but as a symptom or outcropping sign it reveals startling evidence of the frightful underly system of political bargain and sale under which old guard Republican leaders are today conducting the Republican party and the affairs of our Government as well."

Three classes of Republicans exist today, Mr. Hull said, naming them as "the old guard, the progressives, and the Newberry Republicans."

"The Newberry brand is now in control of the Republican party," he added.

Chairman Hull presented to the Michigan Democrats a declaration of the principles and policies for which the Democratic party stands, asserting in this connection:

"The Democratic party is traditionally in favor of economy in Government expenditures. . . . the Democratic party holds fast to the doctrine of 'equal rights to all, special privileges to none.' . . . It clings fast to all the fundamentals of the founders of Democracy and of popular government. . . . Democrats are loyal and consistent friends of the ex-service men. . . . Democrats believe that every one is entitled to a living and that every industrious, able bodied person should have at least a living wage or a full day's pay for a full day's work." The Democratic chairman referred to the coal strike, saying:

"It does seem to me that the least the operators could do would be to confer with the miners, according to their written agreement. Their course may compel a complete reorganization and readjustment of the coal industry. I imagine that if the miners were at fault the national administration would be active in an effort to settle the strike."

GOVERNMENT SHIPS NEW SEAPLANE TODAY TO PORTUGUESE FLYERS

(By The Associated Press)
LISBON, April 20.—The new seaplane to be shipped by the Government to St. Paul Rocks, will enable the Portuguese aviators to resume their trans-atlantic flight, which was interrupted by the destruction of at least two weeks before SHIRLU their machine while landing at Rocks. It will be at least two weeks before the airman can resume the flight.

MUST LEVY TAXES TO MEET DEFICIT OF OUR GOVERNMENT

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 20.—The levying of additional taxes will probably be necessary to meet the deficit of more than three hundred and fifty million dollars, forecast for the fiscal year of 1923, by Secretary Mellon, it was said today at the Treasury.

For Benefit of the Finest Musical Organization in the State

KEEP MONEY HERE

SANFORD'S BEST CITIZENS ARE PROUD OF HOME BAND AND WILL RAISE MONEY FOR YEAR'S FUND

May 1st to 6th—Band week. This was definitely decided at a meeting of representatives from all local civic organizations called by the Sanford Chamber of Commerce. The entire week will be devoted to raising funds so that Sanford can have a band for the remainder of the year. The appropriations made by the Chamber of Commerce and the City have been expended and it will now be up to the citizens to say whether they want the band to continue. Tentative plans agreed on last night were to divide the city into districts, assigning to each civic organization a district. These districts will be known as Woman's Club District, Rotary District, Kiwanis District, etc. Each person in Sanford will be asked to contribute one dollar and if the total amount is raised, so that the band can play the full year, the cost per person will be a fraction less than 25 per cent. Those contributing will be given a badge certifying that they have contributed, and the Committee intends to see to it that everyone in Sanford wears one of these badges.

This is a project which should receive the hearty support of all in Sanford. The Band under the leadership of Mr. Ball, has reached the point where it is, without exception, one of the best aggregations of local musicians in the state. Every concert they play adds to their proficiency and it would indeed be regrettable if this musical organization were permitted to disband at this time. The Band is also a valuable publicity adjunct to Sanford and in addition to providing recreation for our citizens during the summer months will attract a great many people from other towns.

By keeping the band together it would be possible to put on community singing which has been planned by the Chamber of Commerce for the near future. Sanford has experienced what it means to be without a band and the support of every citizen in Sanford will insure its becoming a permanent institution. Failure to support the band at this time will mean that the great amount of work put in by Mr. Ball and the members of the band will be for naught and a re-organization will require them to go through the same hard work in order to again bring the band back to its present proficiency.

BE A BAND BOOSTER, May 1st to 6th, inclusive, and help the civic organizations of Sanford to finance the band.

A FLOWERLESS MOTHER'S DAY

The International Association for Mothers' Day asks that no flowers be worn on the second Sunday in May. The reason is little less than the suggestion.

According to Mrs. Max Hostetter, president of the Nebraska branch of the association, there has been a good deal of "false propaganda" to the effect that "any flower will do for the occasion," though the carnation is the accepted emblem. "We are asking that no flowers be worn," said Mrs. Hostetter, "because of the vast number of complaints coming from persons who wished to wear carnations last year, but who were unable to pay the price."

Apparently the movement is intended as a check upon florists who profited by the softened public heart to raise the price of the chosen flower and get rid of their general stock. If there was such profiteering it deserved to be checked and mother can be remembered in other ways. But there is this to be said in the florists' behalf.

Even sentiment cannot alter the laws of supply and demand. When there is a run on carnations they become scarce, and what is scarce is high.

TO THE VOTERS OF SEMINOLE COUNTY

(Paid Political Advertisement) Sanford, Fla., April 13th, 1922

In announcing myself as a candidate for the office of representative I feel that the voters of Seminole County, should know what I stand for especially on several of the more vital issues that are now confronting our State and County.

First: I am in favor of the reapportionment of our State, according to the constitutional amendment to be voted on in November.

Second: I am in favor of and will bend every effort towards the separation of State and County, taxation, and after studying this from every angle, I favor the State deriving its revenue from a flat tax per acre on land, leaving each County to assess their improvements to meet their requirements. The land is nature's gift, and the improvements is the result of individual effort.

Third: I am in favor of and will work for any measure that will give relief to the present financial condition of our school funds, and will favor any measure that will raise the standard of our school system, realizing as we all must that the student of today will be the citizen of tomorrow.

Fourth: I am in favor of a fish and game law that will protect the game of our forest and the fish of our lakes and streams, and will support and work for any measure either local or of general nature that is recommended and endorsed by the Seminole Fish & Game Protective Association.

Fifth: I am in favor of a State wide no-fence law with referendum clause, but would favor only such a bill as would give the cattlemen of our state ample time in which to prepare themselves for the enforcement of the law.

I consider the above measures of vital importance to our State and County, but also realize that many other important matters will come before the coming legislature I will assure you that I will use my very best judgment and ability in the consideration of the same, but will be governed by the wishes of the majority of the peoples of the County that I would represent, if possible to get an expression from them.

I want to assure the voters of the County that there is no man that will appreciate their support more than I and I will promise them that if elected to this position will use my very best judgment and ability in the conduct of the affairs of the office.

In conclusion I will say that I am not prompted to enter this race from any personal reasons, as I have no enemies to punish or friends to reward but have only the best interest of the State at heart. The State and County have been good to me, but six years experience as a member of the Board of County Commissioners of Seminole County and contact with other boards has brought forcibly to my mind some very important matters for the proper development of the State, which will or should be brought before the next legislature. O. P. SWOPE.

HOW THE OLDEST OIL COMPANY MADE THE NEWEST DISCOVERY ABOUT FORDS

The most interesting announcement of recent years in the oil industry has been made by Wm. C. Robinson & Son Company—the oldest oil company in America.

It tells of the discovery of a new lubricating oil, which will not carbonize, and thus glaze the transmission brake band lining of Ford cars, causing what is commonly called "chatter."

It has been tested and approved by 1615 authorized Ford dealers and reliable service stations.

TESTED BY THOUSANDS

Every drop of this oil, to which the name of "F" Autoline was given, has been sold under the guarantee of this 90-year-old oil company, that it will assure perfectly smooth transmission and braking, or money will be refunded upon request.

Any Ford owner is invited to fill his crank case with "F" Autoline Oil from the Frank Akers' Tire Company, on the promise that his money will be immediately refunded by them if his brake and transmission do not operate smoothly.

STAR THEATRE BUILDING WILL BE TORN DOWN FOR NEW AMUSEMENT HOUSE

Manager Herndon Will Occupy Princess Theatre During Interim

Sanford is destined to have a new Star Theatre where the old Star Theatre stood for so many years and where it has outlived its usefulness. Manager O. P. Herndon has decided that it would not be profitable to even attempt to rebuild the old theatre and make the necessary repairs that would be required by the building inspector and he has made all arrangements to move his material and machines to the Princess Theatre and will probably move Wednesday or Thursday of this week.

The old Star Theatre is one of the ancient landmarks of this city and will be torn down immediately, the lumber in the building being for sale now and it is thought that within the next sixty days Manager Herndon will have the old building out of the way and the new building can be started.

This will be good news to the theatre-going public and means that Sanford is getting in the big city class with new theatres and new business blocks and new hotels and everything needed to make up a first class city.

Mr. Herndon is moving his picture machines and will try and give the patrons a show in the old building up to the time he leaves for the Princess Theatre. He is arranging new fans and new seats and many other improvements for the convenience of his patrons and will make them comfortable in the Princess until such time as he can have the new Star ready for them. The plans for the new building have been drawn and approved and will be given in the Herald in the next few days and all who have seen them pronounce the plans as being as near perfect as a theatre along modern lines can be made.

TRAMMELL GRATEFUL TO HIS MANY FRIENDS FOR THEIR SUPPORT

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Senator Park Trammell upon being asked today if he desired to make a statement regarding the positive announcement of Hon. W. J. Bryan that he would not be a candidate for the Senate said:

"I am naturally very thankful that Mr. Bryan declines to become a candidate and appreciate his decision. For a number of years I have been a friend of Mr. Bryan and our position on many public questions have been thoroughly in accord and for these reasons I would have regretted a contest with him."

"From personal assurances and a great number of letters, I feel confident that very large majority of the voters of my state are favorable to my election to a second term. I have worked with all the energy and ability I possess in the interest of Florida during the five years I have been in the Senate. In many undertakings for the good of the people of my State I have accomplished favorable results and it is quite gratifying that most Floridians approve of my public service. With my experience and the friendships I have made in Washington I hope to be of greater service in the future."

To the ten of thousands of Democrats of Florida who feel that my services merit for me a second term, I am deeply grateful."

Florida East Coast Has New Fast Freight Making Improvements

Will Soon Build Parallel Line Oklawaha City to Palm Beach

(By The Associated Press) KEY WEST, April 18.—The Florida East Coast Railway already is having its hands full moving potatoes from the Hastings district and other vegetables from the territory further South, but the beginning of a new fast freight movement which will further tax the capacity of the line is underway. The first shipment of pineapples from Cuba has been forwarded here and hundreds of carloads are expected to move north within the near future. The Cuban pineapple movement through Key West this season is expected to amount to 1,500,000 crates.

The railroad within the last few days announced that it has placed an order with the American Locomotive Company for three switch engines and seven Pacific type engines for passenger and fast freight service, to be built at the Richmond plant of the company. It is understood the road also in the near future will begin construction of the line between Oklawaha City and West Palm Beach, a distance of seventy miles. This would give the Flagler System two routes north between West Palm Beach and New Smyrna and would greatly relieve traffic congestion.

NONE OF OFFERS FOR SHOALS FOUND TO BE ENTIRELY ALL RIGHT

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 18.—Members of the house military committee concluded yesterday their first exchange of individual opinions on the four private proposals for developing the government's projects at Muscle Shoals, Alabama, and adjourned until Wednesday. At that time it was announced by chairman Kahn the committee will begin boiling down the testimony heard during the investigation of the offers to reach the outstanding features of each proposal to be considered as a part of the reports to be drafted for the house.

Sentiment among the committeemen, it was said, had not yet reached the stage where any of the existing proposals had received preferential consideration.

While hopeful that the final endeavor of the committee to report "a constructive program for development of Muscle Shoals to the house" would receive the full approval of the twenty-one members on the committee, Chairman Kahn said he was unable to predict what the final decision would be or which of the existing offers now under consideration would be recommended in whole or in part.

Members who attended the executive committee sessions while the exchange of the opinions was in progress said today the indications were that important modifications in the existing offers probably would be insisted upon by the committee before it submitted a report to the house. None of the proposals, it was explained, was entirely acceptable to the committee, if the opinions already voiced by the members could be accepted as reflecting the attitude of the twenty-one members.

A strong insistence prevailed among the committeemen that the proposal of Henry Ford should be modified so as to eliminate the steam plant at Gorgas from the properties he proposes to purchase and lease, it was said. Another point in that offer not altogether satisfactory according to some members, was the 100 years lease period. A reduction to 50 years was preferred by several members.

If he writes a letter, it is too long
If he sends a postal, it is too short.
If he edits a pamphlet, he's a spendthrift.
If he goes to a committee meeting he's butting in; if he stays away, he's a shirker.
If the crowd is slim at a meeting, he should have called the members up; if he calls them up, he's a pest.
If he duns a member for his dues, he is insulting; if he does not collect them, he's not on the job.

FIFTY LIVES TAKEN

ILLINOIS, INDIANA AND OHIO SWEEP BY MOST DISASTROUS TORNADO OF YEARS

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, April 19.—Sweeping northward through the middle western states the storm which originated in the Rocky Mountain region Sunday had passed over Ohio today leaving death and much destruction in its wake. The loss of nearly fifty lives is attributed to the storm, which developed considerable energy as it passed over Illinois and Indiana, taking in many places the form of tornadoes. Damage to property will mount into the millions. Twenty-one persons are among the known dead in Indiana, the greatest death list being in Central Illinois.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 18.—Electric and wind storms passed across Indiana yesterday, leaving ruined farms and isolated villages in their wake.

Communication difficulties and washouts have caused delayed or suspended service on many railroads. Tornadoes were reported as having visited six Indiana towns yesterday. Hedrick and Sloan suffered worst according to early reports. Summitville, Gaston, Matthews and Wheeling, northeast of here also reported storms.

The property damage at Wheeling and Gaston is reported heavy although no lives are believed lost.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., April 18.—Two women were killed and an unidentified man probably was injured in a tornado which struck Newton county late yesterday.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 18.—Heavy rainfall accompanied by high winds resembling winter gales and considerable lightning continued last night to make flood conditions in Indiana grave. Fair weather prevailed for a few hours in many parts of the state yesterday but with night fall the storms resumed.

Families living in the lowlands, amply warned, are safe in most Indiana river bottoms. Cloud burst yesterday killed stock and blighted orchards and spring crops. Indiana farmers have been able to accomplish little spring planting.

Indianapolis was declared beyond danger last night by the weather bureau officials. Leaves in all parts of the state were reported holding.

CHICAGO, April 18.—Twelve persons are known to have been killed, more than a hundred injured and thousands made homeless by tornadoes and floods which swept over the central west yesterday.

Tornadoes were reported in a score of Illinois, Indiana and Arkansas towns. Homes were demolished, wire service crippled and livestock killed.

Throughout the area from Ohio on the east to Kansas and Nebraska on the west, heavy downpours swelled flood waters of streams already out of their banks, and inundated thousands of acres of rich farm land in addition to the east tracts already under water.

While snow and sleet covered Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri and Iowa were pelted with heavy hail storms which smashed windows and caused much damage to crops. Several inches of snow were reported from Denver.

FRANCE IS SORE

AND OTHER NATIONS WILL GET THAT WAY WHEN DETAILS OF TREATY ARE KNOWN

(By The Associated Press) PARIS, April 18.—A Havas dispatch from Genoa says the Allies are drafting a note to the Germans and Russians notifying them it will be impossible for the Germans and Russians to continue participation in sessions of Russian Affairs Commission of conference if they persist in maintaining the Russo-German treaty.

GENOA, April 18.—Consternation caused by the German-Russian coup in concluding the treaty of Rapallo supplanting the Brest-Litovsk pact showed up signs of abating as the economic conference continued its deliberations today. People who predicted at the outset of the conference the result in great good or disaster to Europe were inclined today to take the view the conference was headed toward disaster which only the coolness of Lloyd George and other conference leaders could prevent.

GENOA, April 18.—The signing of a treaty between Germany and Russia which nullifies the Brest-Litovsk treaty and re-establishes full diplomatic relations between these two countries on a basis of equality has caused profound astonishment and resentment among the allied delegations. The ministers of the powers which convened the conference decided at a meeting held last night to have a committee of experts examine this treaty this morning, to determine whether it conflicts with the Cannes resolutions or the Treaty of Versailles.

Subsequently the convening powers will meet with Poland, Czechoslovakia, Rumania and Jugo-Slavia to ascertain the view of the lesser powers and deal with the report of the experts.

The British and French delegates declared last night that they considered the British and French delegates declared last night that they considered the signature of the treaty a disloyal act. Apparently, it may imperil the conference.

It is stated that the signing of the treaty, which took place at Rapallo Sunday, was unknown to the allied leaders, when Lloyd George, Barthou, Schanzer and Theunys met yesterday afternoon to consider the reply which the Russians might make to the conditions imposed on that country, but as soon as the delegates learned of the treaty, their program was changed and the situation, which is considered extremely grave, fully discussed.

M. Barthou, head of the French delegation, is seeking further instructions from his government at Paris and declared that he would not sit beside Russians in semi-official meetings.

The actions of the Russians and Germans on first announcement, had an almost stunning effect on the allies. Premier Lloyd George said he knew these countries had been negotiating for months, but was not aware they had signed a treaty until late yesterday afternoon.

The situation is so critical that the most prominent delegates are reserving their opinions until after the experts examine the new document.

The treaty provides for renunciation of war expenses, damages and expenditures incurred through war prisoners, renunciation, also of all claims of German individuals or the state itself against the soviet republic. Resumption of consular and diplomatic relations is to take place immediately; commercial relations are to be regulated on the most favored nations principle and the rights of the nationals of both countries in the territory of the other are to be conserved.

The two governments will assist each other in their economic difficulties, and the German government declares itself ready to facilitate economic contracts between private enterprises in the two countries.

JUDGE JOE EARMAN HOLDS SOME COURT WEST PALM BEACH

(By The Associated Press) WEST PALM BEACH, April 18.—The municipal court in Jacksonville, presided over by Judge J. J. Beckham, formerly a conductor on the Seaboard Air Line Railway, is said to be probably the most interesting tribunal in the state, because of the original manner in which Judge Beckham runs it, but the local court presided over by Judge Joe L. Earman apparently is running it a close second. Judge Earman several days ago taxed a defendant in a liquor case $500 and then turned loose an automobile speeder and gave him money out of his pocket to buy something to eat.

William Rumbaugh and his wife, were arrested for speeding through the city limits at 30 miles an hour. Brought before Judge Earman, Rumbaugh said all the money he had was $1.70, but that he had enough gasoline in his car to take him to Jacksonville where he expected to obtain a position and make enough to carry his wife and himself on their way to their home in Cleveland, Ohio.

"When did you have breakfast?" Judge Earman asked.

"We have not eaten yet, for we left Miami at 5:55 a. m., and were arrested before we had breakfast," was the reply.

"Well, you cannot travel far on the money you have and if you spend it for breakfast you will have none left for lunch. Here, take this," said the Judge, handing the couple $2. "Go out and get your breakfast and be on your way."

BAPTIST PREACHER RECOVERED STOLEN CAR HAD PLENTY OF NERVE

(By The Associated Press) PLANT CITY, April 18.—Friends here of the Rev. Mr. Griffin, pastor of the Baptist church at Winter Haven declare that the minister has nerve far above the average. Mr. Griffin was working in his orange grove at Winter Haven several days ago when three men in a car stopped and asked for information about the road. Suspecting the car was a stolen machine, the minister, after receiving unsatisfactory replies to several questions told the strangers he was going to take them to Winter Haven for investigation. He ordered them to drive ahead and followed in his own car. Shortly after starting, the strangers speeded up their machine and abandoned it.

It developed the machine was stolen from a garage here several days previously and the owner had offered a reward of $50 for it.

Mr. Griffin said one of the strangers had a pistol while he was unarmed.

SECRETARY PEARMAN WRITES SONG HIT ABOUT FLORIDA

The words are very catchy, the tune is most entrancing and it will not be long ere the boys and girls will be humming the new song all over Florida and in many other states. The new song is bound to make a hit everywhere and Mr. Pearman will enjoy a nice royalty from the song. The music was arranged by Will Donaldson and the arrangement by Chas. The many friends of Mr. Pearman in this city are extending congratulations to him and they appreciate greatly his efforts to advertise Florida in many different ways. As a publicity man Mr. Pearman is one of the finest in the business and he has placed Sanford on the map in many ways.

SUCCEEDS "DEATH NOTE" AT INQUEST

LAKELAND, April 17.—A long, rambling "death note" was introduced at the coroner's inquest Saturday into the suicide of L. R. Hursthouse, once a captain in the British army, whose body, face down, was found in a woods near here Friday.

In the letter, Hursthouse, who came here three years ago from New Zealand, stressed his financial difficulties, but said that he did not owe more than $4,000. He said he blamed only himself for "the mess" he had made of things, and expressed appreciation for the kindness of his wife, who is a Fort Meade school teacher, and his friends.

The funeral services were held Saturday afternoon. The inquest was recessed at noon.

"Plans for building a bridge across Indian River at Wabasso are being discussed by the citizens of that section, and it is reported that interest in the proposition is growing daily," says the Fort Pierce News-Tribune. The newspaper, telling that the project would not be difficult of accomplishment, as the river is less than a mile wide at the point indicated and not very deep, adds that "the bridge would be useful to a great section of country, as the people on both the north and south parts of the island would be able to use it to advantage, while the construction of a road to connect with the Vero bridge would be of benefit to travelers as well as those who live on the island."

The Republican senators have agreed to pass the soldiers' bonus. However we would not advise the soldiers to start spending the money yet awhile.

The Jacksonville Metropolis wants a "league of friendly towns." All right, Quimby, old fellow. Put Sanford in the bunch. We are nothing if not friendly here.

The state equalizer rescinds his orders to increase the taxes. Seminole county will accept the increase. Now just what does that mean, we would like to know. Why should we be the goat?

The Herald does not favor a special session of the Florida legislature. In fact we do not favor a session of the Florida legislature at any time. We would all be much better off if the legislature would not meet in ten years.

Bob Holly in his Sanford Herald intimates that he has read Shakespeare in his younger days. Commenting on the fact that manicurists are not a recent development of high society, he mentions the fact that many, many years ago the great poet wrote these lines: "There is a divinity that shapes our ends."—Lakeland Telegram.

Attempts were made last night to burn the two wooden bridges connecting Daytona with Daytona Beach according to the DeLand News. The people of this part of the state have stood for the high priced toll bridges about as long as they can be expected to stand and they will probably assert themselves from this time forward. Volusia county is surely cursed with the toll bridge malady.

The edict of the Chief of Police to kill every dog found on the streets without a license tag may seem hard hearted but it is the law and the chief of police is neglecting his duty if he allows any dog on the street without a license tag. The law says they shall pay a tax every year and there is no reason why some owners should pay and others should not pay. And then dogs should not be allowed to roam the streets at will regardless of whether they have tags or not. Strangers in Sanford have often remarked about the droves of mangy flea bitten curs that are allowed to roam the streets at will. They are not allowed this privilege in any other city and there is no reason why they should be allowed it here. They ever take up their residence at the picture shows and in the churches and other places of gathering of the people where they leave a trail of fleas and otherwise make themselves obnoxious. Dogs are all right in their place and we all love them but their place is not on the streets.

"More than half a million dollars have already been taken in," says a headline in the Hastings Herald. The story is about the Irish potato crop, now being harvested and shipped from that section, and the suggestion is made that while the prices are low the growers are realizing well and are busy and happy in contemplation of the success of the season. Several hundred carloads of fine potatoes have been shipped from Hastings this season, and the average returns are said to have been $1,500 per car. The market opened a short time ago at $10 a barrel and dropped steadily to about $6, at which price the growers will realize something above the cost of production, and they are not complaining. It seems probable that prices will advance somewhat again. The estimated returns for the season are in the millions. The Herald had some pictures showing busy scenes around the railroad yards, where potatoes were being loaded, and also scenes in the potato fields.—Times Union.

SPEAKING ABOUT WATER RATES

The Lakeland Star had a lot to say the other day about Palatka and Sanford and Tampa and other cities asking the aid of inland cities to keep up the preferential rates and that the port cities should take care of themselves and take their medicine. It was silly stuff and failed so utterly to score a point in favor of the people getting better rates that the Herald did not reply to it. However, the Tampa Tribune and the Palatka News did reply and the replies are given in this issue. It seems strange that any one in Florida should ask the port cities to fight against their own people and against the water rates when since the world came into being, port cities have always enjoyed a lower rate and always will enjoy it despite the railroads. And were it not for the fact that ports do enjoy this rate inland cities would be at the mercy of railroads sure enough. The present move of the railroads to abolish the preferential rates will not help the inland cities but will simply raise the port cities rate on the railroads and the port cities will immediately put on boat lines and cut the railroads out entirely. Water is our God given right and we intend to take it.

GOT IT ALL WRONG

Some of the papers in the small "inland towns," as they speak of the place of their issue and abode, are waxing mighty wrath because the "port cities" want the water competition rates for freight retained. They charge that the "port cities" are "fighting a square deal and the rights of inland cities" and demonstrate plain narrowness.

We believe it was Josh Billings, or Bill Nye, who said "It is better not to know so much than to know so much that is not so." Likewise, a man who preceded these old proverb-making philosophers said something about a little learning being a dangerous thing. All of them were right if competitive port rates are abolished not a thing is gained by the "inland cities." They will get no lowering in the way of freight rates. If competitive port rates are maintained, the "inland cities" will not have lost a thing. On the contrary, if through joint bills of lading, also being fought for by the "port cities" are gained, "inland cities" near "port cities" will get a much lower freight rate than they are now getting, or will get, from any all-rail, long haul in the state based on a through rate to Jacksonville plus local rates to destination in Florida.

To illustrate: Rates all-rail from New York to Lakeland are lower than rates via water to Tampa plus rail from Tampa to Lakeland; while the rate via water to Tampa from New York is so much lower than the all-rail rate from New York to Tampa that there is hardly any comparison that can be justified, and the distance from Tampa to Lakeland is only 32 miles.

Now, suppose, instead of printing that all-rail propaganda, the papers of the "inland cities," force the retention of the water competitive rate and also get the through joint bill of lading that most other ports than Tampa have, wouldn't the business men and the shippers of all the "inland cities" within the sphere of the Tampa influence be more benefited than if they are left bottled at the mercy of the all-rail rates?

Get a straight line on what the fight by the "port cities" is for, before you challenge their motives, and accuse them of "injustice, and demonstrating plain narrowness."—Tampa Tribune.

AVOID FANATICS URGES LECTURER

Social hygiene, like every other advance movement, has its "lunatic fringe," its self-appointed advocates, earnest, well-meaning men and women who lack nothing but discretion, a sense of proportion, and a conception of what to say and what not to say. For this reason, the American Social Hygiene association does not give credentials to every person who wishes to enroll as a social hygiene lecturer, and unauthorized lecturers are not to be taken as representing the ideas and carrying out the plans of the association. The sincere lady who forgets that high school girls are not third-year medical students and that intimate details of vice are no help to a young mother, the excited gentleman who gathers statistics from the surrounding air and uses them as thunder-bolts, the alarmist, the extremist, the half-informed, the radical, all those worthy but educationally unhelpful folk are kindly and politely discouraged by the association, which chooses its lecturers with the greatest care. At present most of the educational lecture courses given by the association are carried through by Dr. Eugene LeForest Swan, a physician of twenty years' practice, a sociologist and a member of the high council of the Boy Scouts; Dr. Edith Hale Swift, who has charge of the personal welfare of college girls but is the mother of two charmingly old-fashioned little daughters, and Miss Elizabeth Bain who has taught class after class of high school girls and boys.

"The successful social hygiene lecturer must possess four things," a member of the association says in speaking of the lecturer trio: "The first is a thorough knowledge of the subject and the other three are perfect taste in handling it. You may despise taste as you please but the official association definitions of it is, 'The power to present a subject in such a way that no essential phase will be left out and no hearer left displeased.'"—Tampa Times.

PROSPEROUS FARMERS MAKE PROSPEROUS CITIES

If the returns of prosperous conditions in this country is dependent upon the prosperity of the farming community, as is so often asserted, with much truth, then we can no longer claim that the goddess of good fortune is "just around the corner." She has turned the corner and is here with us today, a living, breathing, revivifying presence. All we have to do is to recognize the fact, forget the gloomy past, clear our shelves of the remnants of high priced stocks which we have been holding in the vain hope that some one would be foolish enough to buy at 1920 prices, stock up with new and seasonable goods at present values, and face the world with renewed hope and courage.

Here is the ground for our optimism: Stockmen and grain farmers are worth $1,046,000,000 more than they were ninety days ago. They have got this great addition to their wealth through the upturn in market values. So says President E. C. Brown, of the national live stock exchange. He has just returned from a trip through Iowa and Nebraska, where he found a new feeling of confidence prevalent. Let's see on what this new confidence is based. An advance of $4.50 per cwt on hogs since the last week in December, accounts for some of it; an upturn of $1 per hundred on cattle, and an advance of $2.25 on sheep in the last 90 days have helped the good work along. The increased value of live stock in farmers' hands amounts to the snug sum of $561,000,000. That helps some, but that is not all. It is only the beginning. The grain farmers have shared with the stock men in the general advance of farm values. Wheat has advanced 40 cents, corn 25 cents or more, and oats 20 cents per bushel. The advance in these three staples has put $485,000,000 on the right side of the farmers' ledgers. But even this is not all of the story, and as it should be, is that the purchasing power of the farmer's dollar is 50 per cent greater than it was in 1920. That makes the purchasing power of the farmers' billion dollar advance in commodities which they have to sell, equivalent to a billion and a half in those which they have to buy. No wonder the farmers are happy and optimistic.

What of the farmers of Florida? They are more independent than those of any other section because they enjoy a natural monopoly in their incomparable climate, and can place fresh fruits and vegetables on the markets when they are not obtainable elsewhere, and so command the highest price. Nature has been kind this year, the crops have been large, and prices have been good. We have not yet finished sending 13,000,000 boxes of oranges to our friends of the north, and they will send our growers something like $50,000,000 in exchange. One shipping point in the state has received more than half a million dollars for strawberries, and the total from the state will probably exceed a million. Of the vast amounts that have been received for celery and lettuce, beans and cucumbers, peppers and potatoes and other vegetables we have no record, but they have been sufficient to put our truckers on Easy street, and clog the local banks.

Why should we pull long faces and cry "hard times?" It is time we forget that pessimistic howl. There is increasing employment on every hand, in manufacturing, in railroad-ing, in farming. Before we realize it we shall be crying for labor. The future is bright and promising. It is time to forget the dismal past and look forward to a glorious future. Let's go.—Tampa Times.

THE MILK CAMPAIGN

Under the auspices of the Woman's Club last week a Milk Campaign was put on in Seminole County. This work was most ably directed by Mrs. John Leonard and her corp of workers. Miss Mae Morse, State Dairy Specialist from the State College for Women at Tallahassee assisted with the educational work as well as Miss Webster, District Home Demonstration Agent.

The purpose of this campaign was to bring to the attention of the boys and girls, the fact that milk is a perfect food that contains all of the feed elements needed to build the body and keep it in good health. The message of "Milk the Perfect Food" was carried to about 1500 children in nine schools in the County. The appeal was made in most schools thru a fairy story about "The Good Health Fairy and the Milk Bottle."

Through the courtesy of a number of the business houses interesting window exhibits were displayed. These not only attracted the children but the parents as well. Yowell featured the total solids contained in a gallon of milk; The Milk Elves visited Bowers and Roumillats; The Star showed two milk slides afternoon and night; the Milk Fairy and her elves pointed the way to health in Thrashers and Garners; Ball Hardware Company pastured a herd of thoroughbred cows in their window during the week; Newberry's window presented a graphic picture of the effect of food on the body as proven in the feeding of three white rats.

PORTS AND PREFERENTIAL FREIGHT RATES SCORED

In a recent issue The Lakeland Star printed an editorial reference to the proposed efforts of Florida port cities to join with inland cities in fixing the basis of rates for the proposed enforcement of the interstate commerce commission's fourth section order, which indicates that The Star didn't understand what it was talking about. We produce the editorial in another column. The plan is to make the basing rate as low as possible automatically keeping all other classifications at an equally low level.

The Star's mistake was interpreting what The News said as to Palatka's opportunity to maintain its present rate by turning to water traffic. It was not selfishness, narrowness or unfairness that prompted the admonition in The News. We emphasized the possibility that Palatka would suffer from loss of its preferential rate unless it made provision to take care of its freight shipments on a basis of water rates, which it has always enjoyed, which every port has enjoyed, and which always will be enjoyed as long as it is possible for independent boat lines to operate in competition with the railroad-owned lines.

It is fair to assume that if Lakeland was located on tidewater The Star would feel it its duty to encourage establishment and maintenance of water freight service, giving Lakeland an advantage over Hartow. This would not be selfishness, but the natural law of taking full advantage of environment. The Star may not know it, but if there were no ports in Florida Lakeland would probably not be on the map, rail freight rates into the state would be prohibitive except to those points where the railroads themselves might wish to develop Lakeland wholesalers find an advantage in shipping by water from New York to Tampa thence the short haul by rail from Tampa.

The Star need not be alarmed that Palatka, like other Florida ports, will not continue to enjoy certain advantages by reason of its facilities for obtaining water hauls on wholesalers' supplies. If Lakeland wants to enjoy preferential rates for the encouragement of the wholesale industry Lakeland should move to a seaport.—Palatka News.

AN INSTANCE OF WEST FLORIDA AUDACITY.

A citizen of Holmes county writing to the Advertiser warns the people of west Florida that the sentiment for capital removal is assuming alarming proportions, and that unless west Florida is awakened and organized to fight they may soon have the inconvenience and expense of a long trip when it is necessary to visit the capital.

There you have the attitude of the average citizen of West Florida. That county is credited with 12,850 population by the last census, a gain of 1,493 since the previous census. There is but one county intervening between Holmes and Leon, the county in which the capital is located. And yet this small group of people have the presumption to set up as an argument against the removal of the capital that it would be an inconvenience and an expense to them to have to travel a longer distance of the capital is moved to the center of population.

There are a number of towns in south Florida which have a larger population than the entire county of Holmes. In Holmes county there are ten times as many people as there are in Holmes county, and the volume of business is easily thirty or forty times as great. Compare the time and expense of a trip from Tampa, or any point in south Florida, to the capital with the time and expense of a trip from Holmes county, or any point in west Florida, and bear in mind at the same time the immensely larger population in south Florida and the greater volume of business. Any fair-minded man making this comparison must at once concede that the people of South Florida are fully justified in their demands—either that the capital be removed to the center of population, or that the state be divided.—Tampa Times.

EQUALIZING THE TAXES

Equalizing the taxes would be all right if they could be equalized as the word signifies, "Equally," but the present method of making the various counties pay a blanket raise of ten or fifteen or twenty as the case may be is not equalizing the taxes at all. It is simply making the ones who are now paying more than their neighbor keep on paying more and it gets no one anywhere. The same property that has been over assessed the future and the people who never have paid enough will still be paying less than they should. Therefore, the counties of south Florida and many other counties in the state protested against the raise and the action of the state Equalizer was rescinded. Seminole county commissioners at the request or rather the demand of the State Equalizer raised the taxes ten per cent or rather agreed to the raise of ten per cent and then forgot about the matter when the question came up before the governor and the state equalizer the other day. Seminole was the only county in the state that did not kick on the raise. Of course, Seminole does not want to pay any ten per cent raise unless it is to become state wide for Seminole county people are paying enough taxes now. We do need equalizing of the individuals but not a flat raise of ten per cent and there lies the danger. It is to be hoped that since the matter has been called to their attention the board will act or the people will act for there is no sense in Seminole paying what other counties have refused to pay. We have not seen where the railroads and other public carriers have been raised in the general round up.

THERE'S A REASON

Why is it, D. L. Thrasher's business continues to grow, and sales, the first three months of this year are bigger than during the same length of time in 1921? There's a Reason. He sells for cash only. Everybody knows they can buy cheaper for cash and the buying public is spending its money with the store that sells for cash only. Good reasoning, you will agree. If you have not been trading with him, he invites you to his store, with the assurance of his greatest effort to please you, by serving you in the most courteous manner and giving in exchange for your money, its value. D. L. THRASHER.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

USE GRANDMA'S SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR RECIPE AND NO BODY WILL KNOW.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out of date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.—Adv.

McLAUGHLIN TALKS ON ADVERTISING

Norfolk, Va., April 13, 1922.
R. J. Holly, Editor,
The Sanford Herald,
Sanford, Fla.
Dear Holly:
I am taking the liberty to call your attention to an editorial, on page No. 12 of the Country Gentleman, April 8th, 1922, which is in memory of Mr. G. Harold Powell, who recently died in Pasadena, Cal. I did not know him personally but came in contact from time to time with quite a good deal of his work, and he is very well known by his accomplishments. What he has done is of great interest to me because most of my work is along similar lines, and particularly for the advancement of Florida.
All of Mr. Powell's work and this editorial on his death emphasizes the importance of selling rather than complaining, and it emphasizes particularly the importance of selling in volume, a practice common to all department stores.
It is very much better for us to sell all of our products at a reasonable profit, rather than try to sell a small portion of what we produce at a large profit, and let the other part of the crop remain unmarketed. If the volume is moved it will give employment to everybody familiar with any branch of industry—it not only helps the producer of some special commodity, but it helps all the individuals and business men in the state. The way to move the volume is by advertising, because that is the only way you can bring goods to the attention of the public. The producers of California advertise nearly everything that is produced in the state, whether they have considerable competition or whether they have none at all. Some people think, I have no doubt, it would be foolish to advertise watermelons if they were advertised, who do not eat them now. Take celery and lettuce as an example—you do not see that advertised any place—it is put on the market and bought by people who happen to think about it. Celery certainly isn't a necessity, and anything that isn't actually necessary will find a wider market if properly placed before the people.

The California people, as far as I have been able to learn, disregarded sentiment entirely and looked at advertising as a plain business proposition. Recently I asked a Florida enterpriser why the Curtis publications were not used last season, and the reply was that there were too many restrictions placed around the advertising contracts by the Philadelphia office. I have not been able to understand what restrictions could have been referred to, because the California people were using the Ladies' Home Journal, and I am reasonably sure the Curtis people would not make any special arrangements with any advertiser. I have no reason for mentioning the Curtis publications to you other than the interest I feel for my home state. Even though I do not spend any money for the advertising that goes out of Florida, there is no good reason why I should not be interested in it.

While I was in the southern part of the state in March, I mentioned this matter to a prominent business man south of Tampa, and he replied the Curtis publications are not fair. They may not be fair from some people's point of view, but is it good business to keep away from the greatest number of eating people because you don't like some fellow's paper or his disposition?

Yours very truly,
C. O. McLAUGHLIN.

NEW YORK'S EASTER PARADE WAS BIG SUNDAY EVENT— PERIWINKLE BLUE WAS IT

NEW YORK, April 17.—Manhattan's famous Easter parade was set in step yesterday to a sartorial symphony—the Periwinkle Blues.

The new shade was the dominant note in the color melody that filled brilliant French avenue, from Central park, down to the shadow of the Washington arch.

As to color, the Easter parade was a veritable crescendo, with the pleasingly soft periwinkle blue everywhere in dominance. There was no group complete without it. Its choice was confined to no one age or class or even complexion. Occasionally creations of one or the other of the more sombre hues were invariably lightened—on the hat, the bodice of the skirt—with a touch of the shade that seemingly claims milady's sole allegiance of the moment.

The parade was in progress most of the day, but it didn't really start of course, until the churches of the avenue dismissed their morning congregations shortly after noon. A kindly providence did its bit in providing a day of blue and silver, shot through with gold—a perfect Easter day.

Many were the paraders—the flappers as well as their older sisters—who knew full well the value of the sedate cathedral and church entrances as back grounds to their brilliancy, and these austere doorways framed the naive peacocks of thousands as a prelude to the march up and down the avenue. They left the churches slowly lingering in their frames for just the proper time to register an ef-

THREE BIG PACKING PLANTS WILL FORM NEW MERGER, FIVE HUNDRED MILLION

Firms Involved are Said to Be Armour, Wilson and Cudahy

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, April 18.—Informal negotiations for the merger of three of the Big Five packers into a $500,000,000 corporation have been conducted by J. Ogden Armour, head of Armour & Co., says the Herald and Examiner today. The firms involved are Armour, Wilson and Cudahy. Armour and Edward Cudahy flatly denied a merger was contemplated, and Wilson was out of the city.

fect, before they joined the gay cavalcade.

There were many striking costumes, and quite an array of colors under the overlordship of periwinkle blue. Long fringed capes of black many of them lipsticked red, or surmounted by hats of rough straw of the new or orange, of dull gold emerald green, with here and there a vagrant wisp of jade, seemed second in popularity to tailored suits of the new shade. It seemed that fully a third of the paraders were caped, many of the periwinkle blue suits having capes of the same material attached.

Beads were very much in evidence. All manners of gowns were relieved, in beads, many of them in rather fantastic array. The tailored suits for the most part, were almost severely plain, with long lines suggesting dignity but avoiding any hint of austerity. Beaded gowns of satin and crepe, in pearl gray, encampagne brown, taupe or fawn, were striking features.

No one authority had indicated the length of the skirts. They were of all classes,—or brevity. Any deficiency in skirt length was made up by flashes of silken hose, in which champagne, pearl gray, flesh, black and periwinkle blue predominated.

Three of the family of furs held favorite place about the feminine neck—platinum fox, stone marten or squirrel. Strings of pearls ruled as gem ornaments, with wanging earrings very much to the fore.

Hats for the most part, were brilliant in color, though those who claim to know declared them to be rather mediocre in design. That is, there was seemingly little imagination on this score. But what they lost in original shapes, they made up in daring colors.

It is understood, of course, that those who don't really need the bonus will decline it as a matter of patriotism.

BAKHIMATEFF IS IMMUNE FROM COURT APPEARANCE

—IS RUSSIA'S AMBASSADOR

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 18.—Boris Bakhimateff, last accredited ambassador from Russia to the United States, recognized representative Russia and as such enjoys diplomatic immunity Secretary Hughes declared today in a letter transmitted to the Senate. The labor committee had subpoenaed Bakhimateff appear at its Semenovoff hearings.

GOMPERS SAYS WILL NOT MIX EXTRA PARTY

SCORES TAFT AND THE INJUNCTIONS AGAINST LABOR UNIONS

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 17.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, launched a vigorous attack against the "interests opposed to organized labor" in an address at an open forum session of the Connecticut Federation of Labor here yesterday.

Mr. Gompers scored Chief Justice Taft when he referred to a "recent decision of the United States Supreme Court." He said the decision "practically annulled the Clayton act." He said the courts which have been issuing injunctions against striking labor organizations are "courts of inequity" instead of courts of equity. He declared that organized labor is "asking for more and would continue to ask for more." He recommended that organized labor strive for modification of the Volstead act instead of trying to repeal the eighteenth amendment. He described the congressional farm bloc as a "financial bloc."

The railroad brotherhoods, which are not affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, had delegates present who asked about the policy of the A. F. of L. relative to the recently organized Non-Partisan party being fathered by the railroad brotherhoods. Mr. Gompers answered that the A. F. of L. "would follow the policy laid down by our convention of electing our friends and defeating our enemies," and would have no part in any party campaign.

The chambers of commerce, and especially the United States Chamber of Commerce, were scored by Mr. Gompers for an alleged attack upon the workers of the country "in an effort to destroy organized labor."

On the bonus question, Mr. Gompers said that "the A. F. of L. believes that the men who offered their lives, gave up their jobs to do so and are now out of work, should be compensated. To do so would put them in funds, whereby they could get a new start, business would be revived, an enormous amount of money would be put into circulation, and honest business thus would benefit. While the public at large would be affected financially very little if congress passes a just taxation act."

TITUSVILLE IS DOING THINGS—SHIP CANAL TO SANFORD IS NEXT

At its regular weekly lunch last Friday the Business Men's Club had as its guest John Winthrop Winslow, who has recently purchased a beautiful home in this city and several miles of ocean frontage adjacent to Titusville.

Mr. Winslow expressed his belief in the great future of Titusville and mentioned the bridge and road to the ocean, the road to Allenhurst, the road to Orlando, the road to Sanford, the road to Orsino, all Titusville projects, as some of the reasons for his belief in the future of Titusville.

In response to requests for a speech President W. B. Dobson said the next big thing for Titusville to go after is a ship canal from Sanford to Titusville via the chain of lakes between the St. Johns River and the Indian River. Connecting Florida's two greatest rivers will provide a deep water ship canal from Jacksonville to Miami.

The Club has 18 members and all but two were present at last Friday's lunch. Regular weekly lunch will be at the Arlington at noon today.—Titusville Advocate.

CONGRESSMAN SAYS HE WILL INDICT THE ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Representative Tinkham, Republican, Massachusetts, said in a statement yesterday that charges recently made by him in the house that the anti-saloon league of America had failed to comply with the corrupt practices act "are now before the department of justice and will be acted upon in due season. The cases against the league," he added, "are complete with the evidence necessary for indictment and conviction when presented to a grand jury and federal criminal court."

Reiterating his charge that the league had failed to report all contributions, in the statement filed "under protest" by Wayne B. Wheeler, in 1920, Mr. Tinkham's statement said:

"The anti-Saloon League of America has not denied one of the charges but last Friday issued a characteristic propaganda statement in relation to prohibition and the anti-Saloon League's well known formula of "anarchy" and "nullification" as if it alone were interested in protecting the United States from anarchy and nullification. In this propaganda statement it had the audacity to appeal for law enforcement when the anti-Saloon League itself was charged with serious crimes.

"The anti-Saloon League controls the congress-of the United States has dictated executive appointment and by recent disclosures here in Washington, is shown to have attempted to dictate judicial appointments and the administration of justice."

INCREASE APPROPRIATIONS FOR BUREAU ENGINEERING AND ORDINANCE DEPTS.

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 18.—The House members who put through an amendment to the naval bill increasing the enlisted personnel, at the last moment today decided not to offer amendments increasing appropriations for the Bureau Ordnance and construction and repair.
