Swofford Raps SRD 'Politics'

"Politics in the state road program" was charged today by County Commissioner W. Lawrence Swofford as the deciding factor in the inclusion of U. S. 17-92 from the present four-lane to Interstate 4 in the extra funds program of the State Road Department.

"Some politician in Volusia County wants that road and that's why it's been included," Swofford declared. "We certainly don't want it four-laned at this time. It doesn't have criteria of large traffic volume and that area doesn't look like it is going to develop."

The State Road Department and the governor have said they are going to four-lane 17-92 and you cannot tell them you are not going to buy rights of way for it," County Commission Chairman John Alexander told Swofford. "They can hold up other programs."

If the right kind of affirmative action was taken by this board to delete the 17-92 project from the program, the $400,000 for the project requested by the Lake Monroe Beautification Committee of the Seminole Chamber of Commerce "due to the uncertainty of 17-92 construction and due to the precarious position of secondary road funds."

"Lighting of the highway 'would be highly desirable,'" Commissioner John Fitzpatrick said, "but it would restrict the county's secondary funds for road building."

"If we do this lighting, what about SR 46, SR 434 or SR 436, they all have higher traffic counts," Commissioner W. Lawrence Swofford stated.

In other business, the board authorized the county attorney to take legal action to require Bruce Daniel, owner of a bait shop near Geneva, to comply with zoning regulations and remove junk cars from his property.

Accepted the bid of Strickland Morrison for a tractor truck for $10,114.

Requested recommendation of the county attorney and zoning authority to stop issuance of building permits on unimproved subdivisions.

Agreed to cooperate with the school board on creating five acres on the junior college site for possible use for an athletic field and parking lot.

Woman Hurt In Mishap

Mrs. Mildred Johnson of County Club Manor was injured in a mishap in a recent accident on Sipes Ave. in the Florida Highway Patrol report.

Mrs. Johnson, apparently lost control of her car and slammed into a fence at the Naval Air Station. She was taken to Seminole Memorial Hospital and treated for cuts and a broken left foot.

Engineers Get OK On Port Plans

Engineers were given the "greenlight" this morning to proceed with the drafting of construction plans for the Port of Sanford on the St. Johns River, immediately north of Lake Monroe.

No protests or appeals against the validation of $900,000 worth of revenue bonds had been received by the deadline this morning.

Engineers of Spartanburg, S. C., to proceed with the drafting of construction plans. This was in keeping with the Port Authority members' instructions of last week to proceed after the deadline.

Lockwood Greene representatives previously had reported that the bid for construction of the port is approved. The Port Authority already holds title to 45 acres of the port site and will go to court in condemnation proceedings in October to acquire an additional 80 acres. The site is on the St. Johns across from the Florida Power and Light Company plant.

With completion of building plans, bid for construction will be advertised. Construction will be financed with bank loans until the port is approved. Three-fourths of the amount, when $900,000 in bonds will be offered for sale.

Office of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) already has committed itself to purchase the bonds at 4 1/2 percent interest.

Roumillat also today was seeking to resolve a directive from HUD that it would require the port to obtain water and sewer services from the City of Sanford. The administrator said he believes "this to be a mistake—HUD apparently doesn't realize the port is four miles or more from the city."

Actual construction of the port—when once started—will require six to nine months.

Board To View Junior Hi Plans

The County School Board will meet in special session tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. to look over plans for the new $500,000 Sanford Junior High School.

At the same time, the board has scheduled an inspection tour of all 27 portable classrooms in the county.

Francis Roumillat

Mr. Roumillat, board attorney, today terminated the 20-day appeal period after the bonds were approved for sale by the court.

Roumillat telephoned this morning to Lockwood Greene Jr., bond attorney.

"Two 16-year-old juveniles broke into a home in Eustis Estates the other morning. . . . That was at 4 a.m. . . . What did the authorities do? Why turn them over to their parents (as usual). . . . It would be interesting to know how come these kids were allowed out at that hour. . . ."

Sanford will get the word soon to switch from a primary treatment plant to secondary. . . . State cracking down. . . . Cost will be around $200,000 to switch.

City Rips To Shreds Fire Department Budget

The City Commission at its first budget meeting last night literally tore to shreds the Fire Department's proposed $218,399 budget knocking out close to $40,000 in requests.

Commissioners struck out two additional men to the tune of $8,608; A 760 GPM pumper at $23,000, panel truck for $14,325 and assorted expenditures from a bathroom at Station No. 1 to tables, chairs and beds.

The board also tentatively took a slice out of the police budget which had been proposed at $236,334 — A Lie detector for $1,000 and a bathroom at $100 for scheduling of the operator; movie projector at $510 and two new desks.

However the board did leave in the budget Chief Ben Butler's request for another Negro police officer at $4,010.

While they were cutting funds from these two departments, commissioners agreed to raise the salary of Municipal Judge Vernon Mize from $2,640 to $3,000 per year.

RULED out seven office chairs, adding machine and two metal cabinets for the finance officer.

Commissioners plan another budget whacking session next Monday night.

The proposed 1967-68 budget to operate the government is $1,060,202 with anticipated revenue at $1,216,000. Millage from ad valorem taxes has been proposed the same as last year — it is five more for debt service.

However, when the commission last year agreed to a reappraisal of property they stipulated a "proportioned decrease in millage for the 1967 year."

Indications are the commission will cut the budget to the "bare bone." As one commissioner said at the outset — "10 per cent cut in each department."

Editorial Comment
A Forgotten Pledge

You would think the Mayor of a community would be leading the fight to raise a city out of the mire into the forefront of economic development? Shouldn't the Mayor of a community be the one to roll up his sleeves and fight for progress—to make a city successful?

It appears not to be the case in Sanford.

If there was one progressive step that had the wholehearted endorsement of the people of this community it is the Marina complex.

If there was one project that "lighted the spark" for development it would be the lakefront complex.

Would Wim-Dixie had taken a chance on Sanford Ave. without this development?

Would Jens Paulsen had bothered with us?

How about Russell Firestone?

Everything tied together—and everyone looked toward the Marina complex . . . and everyone looked toward the LEADER of this community and in Sanford it is the mayor.

Let's take a brief look at the mayor's record:

On March 15 of last year he voted against the lease agreement saying "it wouldn't return enough revenue to the city."

Early this year he declined to give the bid to a local contractor on the community facilities building because it was $3,000 higher than the low bid of an out-of-town firm.

And that night—

He said he could not justify spending $12,000 for a little old parking lot.

In this the aura of progress we look for in a mayor?

The developers of the Marina complex from Howard Stann to the Holiday Inn people have "acted in good faith" to make us proud of their project.

The mayor under the mayor's leadership appears to be lagging way behind.

Is this what we look for in a mayor?

Is this how he looks after our growth potential? Is this the same mayor who on April 20 said at the Holiday Inn groundbreaking:

"This has been a long uphill battle to get this complex and we (the City Commission) stand behind these people all the way."

It appears Mr. Baker has forgotten his words . . . and his pledge.

Top Prizes Set For Jaycee Fishing Derby

Prizes galore are stacking up for the Sanford-Seminole Jaycees 17th Annual Fishing Derby, Carl Smith, chairman, reported today.

The event is scheduled from 2 until 4 p.m. Saturday at Lake Cavata in Fort Marion Park.

Prizes will be awarded youngsters catching the largest and most "impressive" three age groups, one through three years, four through six years, and seven through nine years.

Children wishing to compete are requested to bring their own case pole rigs as the Jaycees have only a limited amount of gear on hand, Smith said. Worms will be provided. All age groups will fish at the same time with catches to be registered at specified tables. Refreshments will be served by the Jaycee wives.

It is encouraged that a parent, or parents, accompany children through six years old to the Derby, although activities will be closely supervised by the sponsors, Smith advised.

'Wait And See' Policy City Holds Off Paving

For the second time in seven days, the City Commission last night refused to consider paving a 190 car parking lot on the multi-million dollar marina complex until they get into their budget.

Spokesman for the Chamber of Commerce and Holiday Inn officials, the board said they would consider the $200,000 request the same as any other to the city.

Commissioners Earl Higginbotham and Dr. W. J. Roberts attempted to ramrod a tentative okay for the project but, were outvoted 3-2.

Al Wilson emphasized that he favors paving the lot but "I have to justify it and see if we can come up with the proponent's funds."

Phillips Indicates He Favors Shifting Of $$$ Burden To State

Approval of the Florida Senate proposed constitutional amendment shifting almost the entire financing of education to state government was indicated today by Seminole County School Superintendent William J. Phillips.

Asked to comment on the Senate action, Phillips said "I am in favor of additional state support in the education program. However, I do think we want to leave room for the local people to have improvement programs if they desire."

"An adequate financing plan for capital outlay and new building construction must be provided. In counties with rapid rates of growth such as has been predicted for Seminole, we are going to have to have funds available to keep up with building requirements."

The plan has brought strong criticism from State School Superintendent Floyd Christian who is against any loss of local control and of "any proposal which would shift financing of school operations to sales tax collections."

President Trapped In Vietnam Dilemma, Solon Avers

Six U. S. Planes Lost To Commies

SAIGON (AP) — One of the heaviest attacks of the Vietnam war on the Hanoi-Haiphong area cost the United States six warplanes Monday, including two jets lost in Red China trying to escape Communist MIGs and surface-to-air missiles, the U.S. Command announced today. The raids were among the war's costliest for U.S. Air Force and Navy pilots, but the rewards may have been large. Plans approved planning two railroads choked with 170 barges and engulfing the Hanoi power plant, 11 miles from the center of the North Vietnamese capital, with flames, steam and billowing smoke. Communist broadsheets claimed eight American planes were shot down, five of them in attacks on Hanoi. The ground war in South Vietnam flamed up with a battle just below the demilitarized zone in which 109 Communists were reported killed and with other sharp attacks which the U.S. Command said cost the enemy 130 dead. The command reported seven Americans killed and 51 wounded. U.S. headquarters also reported the downing of two U.S. jets in South Vietnam in the past 23 hours due to "unknown causes." The loss of the six planes in the North raised to 652 the number of U.S. combat planes reported downed since the start of the war against North Vietnam. While a U.S. spokesman declined to say that the raids Monday were heavier than any previously included, he said they probably included "more aircraft on major targets."

Christian Urges Teachers' Aid On State Level

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—Teacher contract agreements such as the one in Hillsborough County Monday do not remove sanctions or avoid the need for a special education session of the Legislature, said State School Supt. Floyd Christian. "Getting these people back (to the classroom) is a stop-gap measure until we can get some thing on the state level," Christian said. "It just gives us more time." The state's top school official said, however, he felt the continuing teacher contracts are binding on both the school board and the teacher. Most counties, he said, employ teachers on the basis of last year's salary schedule with the understanding that "it can't go lower but could go higher." Christian said he had advised school officials they "might well pursue locally with the courts" a legal determination of whether local proposals would be "contract jumping." "We do not have what I'd classify as a statewide walkout," he said, noting that the proposal already have gone back to work in a few counties. However, he said, he did not know whether the current tension situation would develop into a statewide walkout in the future. "The only way we (the state) would be involved is if there were a call for a walkout at all teachers at the state level. We might become involved because it would not be local then," Christian said.

City Holds Off Paving

Local financing is drastically as has been proposed, you also are moving local control — and ultimately local interest." Christian said the proposal "could lead to the wrecking of the cooperative state-county school financing relationship." The plan later was rejected by the school board for formal action tonight. His remarks came at a White House ceremony at which he presented a Medal of Honor to Marine Gunnery Sgt. Jimmie E. Howard for valor in Vietnam. Johnson made no reference to the Navy's earlier announcement that two of its attack planes were missing and presumed downed in Red China. That announcement also brought little comment from senators who last week complained that teachers at 100 miles of the border were in increasing risk of Chinese intervention. But Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said the straying of the planes over Red China was "most unfortunate and very ominous." "They're so sure China won't intervene," Fulbright said. "I don't know how they can be so sure when they shoot down warplanes of ours over their territory."

City Holds Off Paving

Last week the commission, by the same 2-2 margin, voted to stabilize the area with shell City Manager W. E. Knowles. In a memo to the commission, said a report to the town of $45,000. Bud Merrill, one of the co-workers of the motel, emphasized that he and his partner, "acted in good faith" with the city putting up a first class motel. This brought an angry response from Mayor Joe Baker who said he felt so did the city. "We had a chance to sell the parking lot across the street to Howard Johnson and refused to do that not acting in good faith," he said. Dr. Roberts said another $12,000, certainly would break the city while Elgin-botham said he would never vote to "have a sandlot out there."

'Sabras' Bring New Life To Middle East

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — You can't visit Israel after her great military triumph without feeling that the Middle East will never be the same again. The impression comes not alone from the devastating blow this nation of 2 1/2 million struck against the Arab enemies, but also from the vital, determined society evolving in this 19-year-old country. A new generation born on Israeli soil is coming forward to take the place of the immigrants. These are the Sabras, named after the fruit of the cactus, apparently to denote toughness, prickly exterior and a warm, soft heart. They are eager and confident and this is the only home they know. Gen. Moshe Dayan, defense minister, and Labor Minister Yigal Allon are the only Sabras in the present Israeli Cabinet. Both look like possibilities for the post premier. The top army officers and many of the soldiers are Sabras. They are prominent in Israel's advanced scientific community, in industry, the trade union movement, the theater and the arts. More than 40 per cent of Israel's population was born in the country. This is a different kind of Jew, robust, toughened on the Israeli kibbutzim and trained to defend his homeland with modern weapons. When the fighting ever returns to his desk, his farm or his machine to build Israel. Although they refuse to present even to consider peace with Israel, the Arab countries, by the magnitude of their defeat and the strategic advantages they have surrendered, must eventually negotiate or fight again. The Israelis view their victory as an opportunity to achieve some measure of the security they have lacked on their frontiers with four Arab States. There is no intention here to keep Israeli troops permanently entrenched in the sandbanks along the Suez Canal, but there is also no intention to return to the prewar situation in which Israel was excluded from the Arab world. In violation of international agreements, according to the Israeli view. In its conquest of Jerusalem, Israel is adamant. The city has been unified, Israel has promised that the holy places will be protected and respected under the supervision of the churches involved, and there is no intention to restore the barred area of the city and to allow Arab and Jewish pilgrims to attend regular services. The school offers speech therapy, training in language development and instruction in the activities of daily living, such as table manners and every day social adjustments. Classes will be in session, 9 until 11:45 a.m. Monday through Friday, and will follow the public school holiday schedule. Mrs. Asia Sires, who has been associated with the school for the past seven years, will continue as teacher. Mrs. Edna Murray, assistant teacher, has been working with mentally retarded children for the past four years. "The children's happiness and their capacity for learning are our main concerns," she said.

TEACHERS and aides at Monroe-Wilson School this year will be (top, from left) Mrs. Eliza Pringle, Mrs. Judith Apple, Mrs. Mary Walter, Mrs. Jane McCarthy; (back) Mrs. Nancy Foy, Mrs. Idalee Trawick, William Watt, Mrs. Jessie Perkins, Mrs. Pauline Kirkpatrick; (bottom) Miss Melouise Cherry, Mrs. Fay Gaines, Mrs. Elizabeth Horton, Miss Sharon Jackson and Mrs. Jeanne Edmonds. Rupert Jenkins will be principal.

Medal Of Honor Given Marine

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson Monday awarded the Medal of Honor for heroism in Vietnam to Marine Gunnery Sgt. Jimmie E. Howard and decorated what he said is the all-ministry's intent to keep the medal in the family. Meetings of the Ladies Auxiliary of the association will be resumed at 10 a.m. Sept. 21, at the Community Center. Rev. Rudolph A. Ruiz, Lutheran pastor of Deltona, was appointed to serve as publicity chairman. Nine new members of the group were introduced. Following the meeting, those attending enjoyed lunch with Mrs. Howard at the home of Mrs. Howard. Announcement was made that Arnold Doid was named chairman of a street lighting committee. Telephone company will be contacted regarding installation of public booths at several corners in the area. It was reported that shooting of firearms within the populated area is prohibited by law and that violators will be prosecuted. Announcement was made that 150 tickets, at $1 each, on the labor front to be given away Labor Day, with money to be turned over to the Volunteer Fire Department. ## Monroe Wilson School Ready For 'First Day'

By MRS. H. L. JOHNSON This is for the kiddies who will be attending Monroe Wilson School this year. Some of you will be entering the first grade and some of you are new students who have moved to this area recently, and still others of you will be "old timers." Your correspondent visited the school Monday morning when teachers reported for their "first day." How nice everything was. The floors have been varnished and the smell of fresh paint was everywhere. The custodian, Miss Arlie Mann, was "fitting in and out" putting the desks in order, checking the blackboards to see that there were erasers and chalk and taking care of other details. School secretary, Mrs. Helen Stapler, had prepared each teacher's teaching kit and commended them on the state of the room as it was being prepared. Teachers for the Monroe building will be Mrs. Idalee Trawick and Mrs. Jeanne Edmonds, first grade; Mrs. Eliza Pringle, fourth grade; Mrs. Pauline Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Mary Walter, fifth grade; and William Watt, sixth grade. At the Wilson building will be Mrs. Idalee Trawick and Mrs. Jeanne Edmonds, first grade; Mrs. Jane McCarthy, second grade; and Mrs. Nancy Foy, third grade. Now isn't that a nice state of teachers for your school? You bet it is.

Full State Support Of Schools Is Urged

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Senators have stamped approval on a proposed constitutional amendment which would shift almost the entire burden of financing education to state government in a coming drive for from State School Supt. Floyd Christian. The action, on a 20-0 vote, came Monday as legislators reconvened for the start of an other—their sixth—special session, and their third on constitutional revision. The Senate vote wrote into the proposed new state constitution a measure which says that counties can levy up to 1 mill from ad valorem taxation for education purposes, but no more. Beyond that, the burden is on the Legislature to come up with the funds. "Virtually, it means the state will take over the costs of education," explained Senate President Verie Pope, D-Sat. August 14. While the Senate debated ad valorem taxation relief, the House moved to shrink Florida's tax base through constitutional revision by extending the homestead exemption to condominiums and doubling it for the over-60 group. By a 60-22 vote the House approved an amendment to extend the present $2,000 exemption to condominiums and cooperative apartment dwellers. At Monday's hearing on an aggravated arson charge, Hoskins, 30, demanded a preliminary hearing, which was set for Sept. 7. Bond was not posted and the defendant was returned to Stearns County jail.

Howdy there, good fishin' buddy. How's the fishin' been doin' for the past two weeks, while I was away? I hope it was better than mine.

I was up in Georgia at Ft. Stewart first "two forties" at R. C. Man, it sure isn't like about at equal with a 22 gauge.

Back to the fishin' part. A new big thanks to my right hand Mr. SRS Spauld. He sure can be a life saver when you get in a pinch. The bass have been hittin' in the St. Johns from the east shore line of Lake Morra. Lake Jessup.

The small white or black popper fly is pretty good with a lot of whippin' action on the fly rod along the shore very close. There is some real action going on in Lake Jessup up around Billy's Cove. Our good fishin' partner, Pinky Hart, called and reported that he's catchin' from 30 on up to as much as 80 specks and he's been to the boat fishin' with some poles and a net.

Buddy Burton landed another nice bass in Lake Morra. Buddy has landed some real trophies out of the lake this past summer with the help of his fishin' partner, Charles Bremer.

Buddy Burton

Where are you going to fish when the summer sun turns the water so hot you can't catch a thing? You need a place to fish that's shaded, cool, and has a good current.

Even shallow waters have their own spots, and that's exactly what game fish seek. They're usually to be found in big floating "flats" of duck weeds or lily pads. Under this protective shade, the water is cool and clear.

Cast your favorite spoon and perk combination beyond projecting stumps and drag across the top of the sunlit growth. Don't retrieve too fast, but be ready for an explosion when a fish sees what he thinks is a tasty frog swimming across the top of his lot.

Work over every inch of duck weed and lily pad methodically, placing each cast about three feet to the side of the previous one until you've thoroughly panned up the green carpet. This produces more fish and fish that are another technique during hot weather.

TALLAHASSEE - When you buy a fishing license you actually purchase more than the privilege of fishing in Florida's fresh waters. A license fee may be classified as a contribution toward conservation of an investment in the future of Florida's future fishing, according to U. F. Frye, director of Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.

A fishing license is not a tax, but a user's passport to healthy recreation, a key to outdoor recreation, and dollar for dollar one of the greatest values of funds. For three dollars, a resident can fish 24 hours every day, all year round. There is no closed season and no size limit on fresh water fish. Best of all, fisherman can fish with the freedom of speckled salt water trout.

ART MAHEW and Alex Sarreth with a string-fall of speckled salt water crumpan can fish with the knowledge that his license fee is working to produce better fishing. A good fisherman observes the fishing rules and regulations, obtains a proper license, keeps it as a mark of distinction, and displays it with pride.

A Break For Taxpayers?

By the time you read this editorial most of some 6,000 residents will have received post cards informing them of increases in valuation on the 1967 tax assessment roll.

The City fathers approved a complete revaluation last September in the hopes of equalizing all property in the city and back into the millage this year.

As a matter of fact in the resolution adopted by the City Commission in a September they put that stipulation when they okayed the revaluation.

There are, of course, other departments, too, which must be responsive to a growing Sanford and it is easier to justify spending more, rather than less money.

In between this rock and a hard place there has to be a compromise outside of the easy way, which would be to say: "We can't cut anymore, so we'll have to raise taxes."

Probably the biggest cuts of all will have to come from Mr. Knowles capital improvement program which totals some $764,000.

A City Hall is out — we certainly can't afford $400,000. Zoo relocation—probably for this fiscal year.

As the city fathers start their budget talks we're sure there'll be cuts, whacks and chops in every department except the roads. We feel the city and each of its departments should make an extra effort this year to see the taxpayers get every possible break.

Analysis Of The News

WASHINGTON (AP) — In its whole history the United States never got into a fix like Vietnam. It's the old story of the one thing left to another.

President Johnson's aim and the U.S. forces are in South Vietnam to enable the people to choose their own destiny. Self-determination, he called it.

This is a little bit different from the little too pure. The United States also has a self-interest in trying to prevent communism from taking over.

And that's where the story began. President Harry S. Truman gave the French billions of dollars in aid, starting in 1950, to help them stop the Communists in Indochina.

That was the start of American involvement. In 1954, when the French were defeated and driven out, an international conference at Geneva arranged, at least temporarily, to divide Vietnam into two separate governments, North and South.

The United States began to aid the non-Communist government in the South. This was under President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

In 1959 this country had also entered into an agreement—the Southeast Asia Treaty—with other nations in the area to help them in the event of Communist aggression.

At first the United States gave South Vietnam economic help and weapons, then sent in military advisers, and still later sent troops to fight the Communists.

At various times between 1954 and 1960 Eisenhower said things like this: "A Communist takeover in South Vietnam would endanger the rest of Southeast Asia and set in motion a 'crumbling process that could, as it progressed, lead to grave consequences for us and for free men.'"

This was the so-called "falling domino" theory. It said that if one American ally were to fall, other American allies would be next.

The war was on in earnest. Pretty soon this country will have over 500,000 men in South Vietnam. Already about 15,000 American lives have been lost.

The end is not in sight. The fighting grows more bloody, protests for one reason or another increased in this country, and some of the "doves" in Congress, particularly Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., denounced the whole business.

Finally, Morse proposed to the Senate that it repeal the Gulf of Tonkin resolution. There it came out. The little girl named John F. Kennedy said that those who wanted to "reverse" the 1964 resolution because they had "changed their hearts" should go ahead and vote that way.

The Senate lifted the alarm prior to the vote by asking it. One of the few voting against talking was Sen. J. W. Fulbright, chair of the Senate's Foreign Relations Committee. He is now a change of heart.

It was a big change. He was with other nations in the area to help them in the event of Communist aggression.

Nicotine, can again become a man's ally. There are several ways by which tobacco can produce this reduced erotic desire in males.

For example, the blood vessels in the extremities contract when a person smokes, thus producing a temperature drop of almost 20 degrees in the fingers, toes, etc.

This reduced blood supply can be a possible physiological cause for the tobacco-intolerance that afflicts smokers.

But there is another vital psychological factor which I'll explain tomorrow.

Meanwhile, send for my booklet "How to Prevent Platonic Marriage," enclosing a plus stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents.

At a national dental convention a few years ago, I mentioned that platonic husbands are more likely to be heavy smokers!

Then I cited several cases where men in their early 40's were totally impotent, yet their older brothers in the 50's were still virile and romantic.

Upon closer medical analysis, we found that the older men were not smokers.

Yet they had the same anatomy, so that platonic nature of the younger brothers was not due to inheritance.

Moreover, the wives of the impotent men were very pretty and seductive.

As a double check on this situation, we urged the younger men who were tobacco addicts, to cut out their smoking.

And within a matter of a few weeks, their erotic vigor began to perk up very strikingly without an hormonal "boost."

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I was hit at my father's car the other day when I saw a paperback book on the floor, face down. I picked it up without looking at the front, and started reading it. It was "FURY!"

I was doing an errand for my father at the time. I went back into the house as if nothing happened.

Abby, I can't look at my father without almost hating him. Should I tell my mother I have tried to reason with myself, but it doesn't work?

It is this way. I am the only one I can turn to. Please answer soon as I've worried myself nearly sick.

DEAR WORRIED GIRL: MIND YOUR BUSINESS: You do how old you are, but from your handwriting I would guess your age to be about 12 or 13.

First, let me explain that I don't let you judge a book to be "filthy," doesn't necessarily mean that it is. Even the Supreme Court cannot agree on that. (By those standards, parts of the Bible can be considered "filthy.")

Don't tell your mother. Don't "hate" your father and remember that just one swallow doesn't make a summer, neither does one book reflect the entire social scene.

Horoscope Forecast

GENERAL FORECASTS: Until mid-afternoon you feel very held down to some new plan you thought was going to be just great but which you now find has some obstacles in it. However, the later afternoon and evening find a new attitude on your part as well as that of those about you and you are able to start afresh to get the things you want.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19): You had better wait until mid-afternoon before expecting others to carry through with what you wish of them. Day hours may be quite annoying, but later you can advance quite the more social.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20): A day to rid yourself of petty annoyances and in P.M. you may be as romantic as you like. Keep steadily at work. Try to be all sweetness and light to those who annoy you. Don't worry that you may have.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21): A day to start your impersonator who is pretending to be a scientist and unfortunately eats the cheese at a luncheon. He is excellent as a loyal huncher as a Thrush agent.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 23): Finding some new system by which you can command great success is wise and by evening you should have it rolling nicely. Excellent new contracts come during day, though.

American Motors Unwraps New Car

NEW YORK (AP) — American Motors today takes the wraps off a sporty, new car which it hopes will reverse the downward trend of its auto sales.

The newcomer, named the Javelin, has virtually the same appearance and specifications as the Ford Mustang and Chevrolet Camaro with which it will do battle in the 1968 car market. Prices were not announced but indications were that Javelin would be the lowest priced car in its field.

AMC officials told newsmen at a national press preview Monday night that they were confident AMC fourth largest of the nation's automakers, would do better in 1968. The firm's sales sagged in 1967 and it went deep into the red.

The two-door hardtop Javelin, rushed through in a crash program by AMC engineers and stylist, was expected to be the answer to critics who said AMC's products had too much of the "granny look."

Said William S. Pickett, AMC vice president for sales, "This will be the kind of car grandmothers will want to drive but grandchildren will be around bragging it from her. It is youthful and peppy."

The AMC 1968 preview is the first held by any U.S. auto company.

Board Chairman Roy Chapin Jr., confirmed that the cars

Milady's Shoppe Offers Fine Array Of Goods

Celebrating their fifth anniversary as Milady's Shoppe of Fine Fabrics at 100 South Park Avenue, Caroline and Dick Holtzclaw, are ready with a brilliant array of goods and services to make the next five years even more successful.

It was on Aug. 6, 1962, that the Holtzclaws opened the doors of their establishment and offered a complete stock of fine fabrics, patterns and notions to help those who wanted to create their own original, individual wardrobes.

The second location across Park Avenue from the Sanford Atlantic National Bank and is just a short walk from the public parking area on the corner of Park and First Streets. This allows the patrons to enjoy a bright picture, "Fall fabrics and patterns are exciting," said Mrs. Holtzclaw.

"We have a splash of colors. The brocades are ready for the glittering glamour of the new season." In talking with the proprietors it was evident that both are keenly interested in continuing to have the success of the shop on "service."

Holtzclaw, a noted housewife of national fame, is away on concert and grand opera engagements from time to time. But when at home his interest is on the shop and its operation. But it is Mrs. Holtzclaw who has studied, talked with consultants and prepared herself to help patrons who need help. This is the intangible asset which is found in every sale.

The present popularity of home-made attire has, Mrs. Holtzclaw pointed out, invaded the teenage world. Making your own clothes is very much in vogue.

Foreclosure Sale In North Orlando Thousands Of Acres Up For Bid

Twenty-two to twenty-three thousand acres of property in the Village of North Orlando will go on the auction block Sept. 7 to satisfy a mortgage held by Securities Credit Corporation, according to an order issued by Circuit Judge Volle Williams Jr.

The extensive holdings currently in the name of North Orlando Company is valued at $1 million. Auction was ordered in foreclosure on the numerous parcels to bring to a close court action which was filed in July, 1966.

Original mortgage of the properties totaled $700,000 but it spiraled to the $1 million mark with court costs, interest and back taxes.

Not included in the foreclosure is the water and sewage system in the village which is currently in the name of North Orlando Water and Sewerage Corporation, a company controlled by GAC Commercial Corporation.

Public sale of the foreclosed properties has been scheduled for 11 a.m., Sept. 7, at the front door of the courthouse by County Clerk Arthur H. Beck with Jr.

Necessary to execute the sale will be $1 million in cash. The North Orlando Company will be able to redeem the property until Sept. 6 by paying the mortgage debt.

Securities Credit Corporation is a corporation based in Colorado.

North Orlando Company is owned by Silver Creek Precursor Company of Silver Creek and Buffalo, N.Y.

Officials of the company were not available for comment today on the extent of its remaining holdings in the Village following the foreclosure.

WRECKAGE OF FATAL TRUCK FIRE

Trucker Dies In Blazing Crash

Edward Black, of Apopka, was burned to death this morning when his tractor-trailer overturned on Hwy. 46 one mile east of Mims bridge, in Volusia County.

This was the second area traffic death this week. Troopers Tommy Tomlinson and J. S. McKinnon said Black apparently lost control of his vehicle at a "drop-off" in the road. The truck left the highway and overturned in a ditch, catching fire.

Black was trapped in the cab of the flaming vehicle. Edward and Clarence Colley and Louis Davis, all of Sanford, witnessed the accident and made a vain attempt to rescue Black. They were burned in their rescue efforts and were treated at Seminole Memorial Hospital.

Black was employed by the Howard Fertilizer Company, of Orlando. A company spokesman informed The Herald that Black, "had been employed by the firm for many years and was a good worker."

Contract for purchase of a new $22,882 fire truck for the Longwood Volunteer Fire Department is expected to be authorized by a vote of 3-1 at the special meeting of the City Council scheduled for 7:30 p.m. today.
