On the other end were trays of open aced sandwiches, nuts, mints, and stuffed dates. In the center was a large white sheet cake with red letters saying "Merry Christmas, Homemakers." The novel napkins and -plates were made by the hostesses. The plates were centered with a red poinsettia and a name tag was tied to the plate with green ribbon. The napkins were held by a wreath made from discarded Christmas cards. Coffee, ice cream punch, cake, sandwiches, nuts and mints, were served by the hostesses for the affair, Mrs. C. E. Hunter, Mrs. Joanna Dubois and Mrs. H. L. Johnson.

Exchange of gifts was enoyed by Mmes: Val Van Scoy, Marion Lee, Marion Bethea, Rubj Sjoblom, Juanita Pent, Thelma Emerson, Margaret Pearson, Ella Stone, Hazel Gardner, Pauline Hob-by, Gwen Muse, Ruby Ander-son, Edna Rice, Betty Black-welder, Lorena Tindel, Louise Rushlow, Phyllis Sills, Mabel Brown, Mildred Standifer, and the hostesses. the hostesses.
