Again climbing towards the second division Sanford trounced
Gainesville G-Men decisively yesterday by a score of 15 to 1.
Smooth pitching of Al Ket-ley's score made by the G-Mens was in the ninth inning

when the team had 10 men die out during the game. The G-men, though they had 15 men on the bases, still had 11
left on the bases at the end of the frame.

The home run to be smashed
by any Sanford player this year was made by McRaney.
He four times up he scored
one, batted in four runs,

Agricole Out Of Derby As Entries Shrink To Eleven

Dispose Runs Fast Trial To Regain Place In Favorites

By SID FEDER

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 1.—(P)—The nose-powdering and primping which annually converts Louisville into a "Derbytown" started full blast Wednesday as the field for Saturday's sixty-seventh running of the Kentucky Derby shrank to 11 probable starters.

Holiday bunting and pennants broke out on all main thoroughfares, hotel lobbies were jammed and food and drink prices began their yearly climb into the upper brackets as the vanguard of the expected crowd of 100,000 poured into the city on every conveyance from airplane right down to "pounding the pavements."

Williams, shortstop, collected the most hits of the game, getting four out of six trips to the plate. He batted in two runs from a double and three singles.

The Sanford's hits were so effective and the runs were pouring across the home plate so fast after the first three innings that the G-Men called four pitchers to the mound during the game. Cason, lead-off pitcher, allowed 14 hits in six and one-third innings before he was replaced by Barnes who gave up one single in the ninth. Stephen's came up to pitch in the tenth but was driven off the mound by the Sanborn bingles and was replaced by the fourth Gainesville pitcher, Martin.

Ho! Hum!

The young soldiers stationed at the Orlando Air Base have almost literally been struck dumb by the ravishing beauty of Central Florida girls. Col. Thomas S. Voss, commandant of the base, says there is a regular marriage epidemic going on and if something isn't done about it pretty soon he doesn't know what he is going to do.

Looking at it purely from a cold-blooded military point of view, Col. Voss says most of these young privates don't make more than $21 a month and that isn't enough to support a wife and family. He says that the Army General Staff never considers a soldier sufficiently well off financially to be able to marry until he has reached the rank of technical sergeant.

But all this is a mere technicality to the handsome young soldiers in their bright new uniforms and Orlando's beautiful high school girls. What do they care about how much a buck private makes as compared with a technical sergeant? They are not marrying for money: Love is the thing with them. Can't the Colonel understand that?

"Yeh," Col. Voss goes on, "But we have exceedingly limited facilities at the base for such marriages and consequently can do little for the young man or girl who marry on insufficient pay. Just because a young man gets into such a jam we can't get him out of it. We try to caution our young men drawing such salaries not to get married prematurely, but you must remember, many of them are only 18, 19 and 20 years old and have not yet learned to shoulder the responsibilities of life."

They may be old enough to fight the Germans but when it comes to these high school girls they are just babes in arms. They run up a flag of truce at the first smile and unconditionally surrender at the first contact with enemy arms. Who cares about $21 a month? Why be so mercenary? Two can live as cheaply as one. And the course of true love never runs smooth.

This is the real thing! And besides, it's Spring.

Children In Europe

The children of Europe are in far better health than might be expected in view of war conditions, according to a bulletin from the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. However, despite every precaution, children of these lands may not escape harm as the war is intensified, because the adverse effect of the war on children's health will be felt, in varying degrees, in practically every European country.

"Particularly in the occupied countries," the bulletin declares, "the war will leave an indelible mark on children as a result of inadequate nutrition, insufficient heating of homes, and insufficient clothing. Moreover, the welfare of literally millions of children is further affected by the disruption of normal home life."

Air raids, which caused the death of 2,487 children or about one-ninth of all fatalities from that cause; influenza which struck a heavy blow among the infant population during the early months of the year; and cerebrospinal meningitis, with the greatest increase in the death rate of any disease characteristic of childhood, were the major handicaps which the English people experienced in their effort to maintain child health in 1940.

But in many respects English children fared well, since the incidence of the common childhood diseases was comparatively low in 1940. Much of the credit for this lies in the policy of evacuating children from endangered areas.

"For the first nine months of 1940 the infant mortality rate in Germany—as constituted prior to 1938—was 56 per 1,000, according to a recent semi-official report. If this report is at all accurate," the bulletin says, "infant mortality has improved markedly in that country.

"In Paris, infant mortality up through March 1940 was comparatively low, but we have no facts since that date. An official statement for the unoccupied area of France, however, reports a significant rise in mortality among newborn infants in recent months."

As for the occupied areas of Europe, the bulletin says that while accurate mortality records are not available, "there are indications, from reliable sources, that child health in many of these countries has already been seriously affected and will deteriorate even more during the coming months."

Reduce Drowning

Vacation time will soon be here, and, judging from the experience of other years, 3,500 lives will be lost by accidental drowning during the next few months. This represents only one-half of the total number of people drowned each year but they are crowded in the three summer months.

The annual death toll in the United States from drowning grows larger each year. More than one-half of those dying in this manner are young persons under twenty-four years of age. The largest single age group of persons drowned is the group of youths between fifteen and nineteen years of age.

Every vacationist should be careful this summer. A period of rest and relaxation from work is fine and necessary but carelessness should not accompany it. To venture too far in the sun or to take chances in a swift current means running the risk of drowning. Swimmers should be extremely careful.—Bunnell Tribune.

Committee Approves
Tax Upon Road Signs

TALLAHASSEE, May 2—(AP)—The garden club bill to lay taxes and heavy restrictions on billboards along Florida's rural highways was approved yesterday by the Senate finance committee.

It puts regulations of billboards outside city limits under the chairman of the State Road Department and provides that revenue from licenses shall go to administer the act. If any is left, it may be used for road-building.

The general plan calls for a sort of "shuttle" system under which the tankers—flying the American flag and manned by American crews—will haul oil from South America to United States Atlantic ports where the cargoes will be transferred to British tankers for the perilous transatlantic voyage.

Agreement for making the 50 tankers available came after Maritime Commission Chairman Land asked the cooperation of shippers. He told them they were aware that if separation were not forthcoming the government had the power to regulation.

The tankers will not be transferred to Britain or British registry. One source explained they will operate on a sort of rental basis. It was not revealed whether the United States or the British government would compensate owners for such use. It was possible such payment would be made under terms of the lend-lease program, since the ships also will be used to fill United States needs.

The tankers will not enter the war zones, but they could enter

Bermuda, Halifax, or Greenland. It was pointed out that under the shuttle system, the Americans would be operating the neutral patrol.

Junior Garden Club Given Poppy Plants

"Let us care for and love our plants," said Mrs. Henry McLaulin Jr., speaking to the children of the junior Garden Club of the South Side Primary School Wednesday afternoon, as the tiny plants which were grown from seeds of poppies in Flanders Field and distributed to the school by Mrs. C. L. Park, junior advisor of the Sanford Garden Club.

"Let us recall the story of this brave little flower that grew and covered the ugliness of Flanders with its glorious crimson blossoms," Mrs. McLaulin continued.

"Let it remind us of the value of Liberty—and let us take pride that Americans have ever held Liberty dearer than life!"

The meeting was presided over by the chairman of the Boy Scout Adams and minutes of the last meeting were read by Mary Ann Galloway. Plans were made for a picnic to be held some time in May.

Following the presentation of the plants, the children potted them and received instructions from Mrs. McLaulin on the care of them, who explained that good drainage, moderate watering, sprinkling lightly the foliage of the plants, and bi-monthly application of plant food were recommended.

There were 30 members in attendance, including the faculty advisor, Mrs. Emma Owen and Mrs. Park.

Legislators Will Dine With F. S. C. W. Girls

TALLAHASSEE, May 2 — (Special) — Members of the Senate and the House of Representatives, as well as cabinet officials and representatives of the press and their wives will dine Tuesday night, May 6, with students of Florida State College for Women.

"Parent's Day" Is Slated At State College

TALLAHASSEE, May 1 — (Special) — Final big pre-commencement event of the year at Florida State College for Women will take place this week end with observance of the fifth annual "Parent's Day."

It marks the first time "Parent's Day" has ever been held in Spring.

Not only fathers and mothers of students now in college are invited for this special occasion but the Governor and his cabinet, State Board of Control, legislative officials, and others.

Opening events of May week will take place tonight when the freshmen will give a garden party in the sunken gardens of Jenkins-Murphy Hall from 7:00 o'clock to 8:30 P. M. for the visitors and faculty, and the University of Florida Club will give a concert in the college auditorium at 8:30 P. M. followed by regular college "play night" at the gymnasium. A small admission will be charged to the Glee Club concert.

Climate of the May weekend will come tomorrow with crowning of the May Queen, Miss Constance Watson, of Tampa, in a ceremony at 5:00 P. M. on the athletic field. Identity of her 10 attendants, mostly local girls, will be revealed later.

The Fairview Club, which has prepared an evening program with entertainment Rock, Paramount News and Metro-Goldwyn Mayer's "Song of the Way," will be held at 8:30 P. M. on the gymnasium stage.

The Journal May Day dance will take place from one o'clock to 1:30 P. M. Saturday night at the college gymnasium where parents are invited to sit in the balconies.

Another big event on May 1 will be the annual photomaton breakfast at 7:00 A. M. in the cafeteria of the dormitory building. The students will be given a short course in hygiene and for the most nearly perfect known. And yet there are many Florida farms without a church.

Since national defense has taken up the percentage of the country's young men who are selected for military service because of physical defects have given emphasis to improving the people's home duty cow has been added to the curriculum. We are learning to clean our home and to make the most of having cows.

To get the most kind of cows, the breeders are using all methods of raising them, the best method being the artificial insemination.

The club, which consists of first-year students, has made Bunkie, the British milking goat, a member of the family.

Seminole Offense Sags As Red Hats Win Shutout 2-0

Burnes Holds Sanford Men To Four Scattered Hits While Facing 31 Batters

Sanford's offense sagged last night as Burnes, Deland hurler, limited the Seminoles to four scattered hits in a shutout game won by the Red Hats on lone tallies in the eighth and ninth innings.

Both pitchers, Hudson and Burnes, were working hard on the mound and the Seminoles scattered five men while giving up only eight hits. Burnes wiffed four men in the nine frames and gave only one base on balls.

A double error in the eighth inning set up the first run for the Red Hats when Hudson and Skipper McAllister mishandled an easy ground ball hit by Cates. Cates then got it up for a bad toss to first, allowing the runner an extra base. The next man up hit a single, advancing Cates to third where he was batted in by first baseman Sterling on a single. Sterling tried to make an extra base when the ball was fielded to home plate but Kirk took a throw to second and caught him for a putout.

In the ninth inning Madjeak, first man up hit a long triple to right field and scored on a single by Trammel. Trammel went to second and to third on the plays on the next two batters and died there on a putout of the last batter.

With the 400 fans on edge and yelling for victory the Seminoles went to bat—three up, three down. Booth hit into a ground ball from second to first. McAllister lined out and Cates grounded into a first base hit. A putout by the first baseman was followed by the last cover-up by the last cover-up pitcher.

41 Cars Entered In Indianapolis Memorial Race

2 French Speedsters Will Qualify For Automobile Derby

INDIANAPOLIS, May 2.—(AP)—Forty-one cars, including two French-sponsored speedsters, had been entered in the Indianapolis motor speedway Memorial Day 500-mile race as the midnight coining time approached last night.

Speedway officials said a few more entries postmarked before the midnight deadline might be received today.

They announced yesterday that qualifying trials for the annual classic would begin May 17. Only 33 cars can start the race and the ones showing the fastest qualifying time for 10 miles will be permitted to face the starter on May 30. All cars must qualify at a speed of at least 110 miles an hour.

Heading the list of entries were three cars sponsored by Mike Boyle, Chicago sportsman, which included the Italian Maserati in which Wilbur Shaw of Indianapolis has won the last two races. Shaw again will pilot the sleek midget speedster. The other Boyle entries will be driven by Chez Miller of Detroit and George Connors of Los Angeles.

The two foreign entries were cabled in by René Legeay of France, who drove in last year's race, and Jean Trevaux also of France. Legeay nominated himself to drive one of the cars and the other will be piloted by Trevaux. The cars, eight-cylinder Talbots, now are in Portugal awaiting shipment to the United States.

Mostow, started his first game of the season against Georgia Tech last week and turned in a very creditable performance. He ended up on the short end of 4 to 1 count but showed plenty of form.

The Gator record so far this season is far from impressive, but there are high hopes on the campus that the boys will bounce back in the coming Auburn series. They have won one game and lost five in the conference while taking two decisions and dropping one to state rivals.

Gator 9 Winds Up Bad Season Against Auburn

GAINESVILLE, May 2.—(Special)—The University of Florida bulldozers closed their Southeastern Conference season here this weekend with a two-game series with the Auburn Plainsmen.

The first game, scheduled for 1 o'clock Friday afternoon, will no doubt find big John Clover, senior hurler, on the mound for the Gators.

Clover is the only pitcher on the Florida nine who has been able to turn in any victories so far this season. He has beaten Tampa, Rollins, and Georgia Tech once each, while dropping decisions to Georgia and Alabama.

For the Saturday game Coach McAllister's choice will probably be between Nat Mostow, a find of the recent road trip, and Bus Gates, a boy who is a good pitcher, but one who had hard luck throughout the season.

Joe Louis' program of one-month title defenses was extended another notch Thursday, when Promoter Mike Jacobs announced that, after meeting Buddy Baer in Washington, D. C., on May 23, the heavyweight champion would take on former light-heavyweight titleholder Billy Conn of Pittsburgh at the Polo grounds June 18.

The Conn date, of course, is predicted on the Brown Bomber's success against the younger of the Baers.

The June date with Louis was the one wanted most by all four of the main contenders—Basi, Conn, Abe Simon and Lou Nova—and their managers, since that's always a profitable month for heavyweight title bouts.

With Ray and Conn now presumably satisfied, the most vociferously disgruntled party was James J. Johnston, Simon's manager. Jimmy maintained with great indignation, that Mike Jacobs was running out on a Louis Simon rematch (they went 19 rounds at Detroit in March); that it had been set first for May 9, then May 26, then for June and now "maybe" for July.

The U. S. Navy must spend more time training a pilot than is required to manufacture the plane he flies.
