country, and one has to go by the place where the moonshine is

"Was your father ever arrested?" the desk sergeant asked the boy.
"Oh yes," he said. "He has been in twice, but he didn't stay in. He paid the guard and got out."
"Robert, who walked into the po-

Leopold And Loeb, Slayers Of Franks Boy, Are Eligible For A Parole In 11 Years

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Attention was directed today at Chicago's sensational criminal case when it became known that existing statutes might be construed as permitting the parole from Joliet of Nathan F. Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, when they had served 11 years and three months.
The legal twist under which the "thrill slayers" of Bobby Franks might be freed in 1935 was brought to the attention of State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe by Hinton G.
Clabaugh, newly appointed state supervisor of paroles, after he had checked over the records of inmates at Joliet.
The Chicago slayers were sentenced by Judge John R. Caverly to serve 99 years for kidnaping Franks and were given life sentences for murdering him, but Mr. Clabaugh said the jurist failed to specify whether the sentences should run concurrently or consecutively.
"Under the law," he explained,
"such sentences are concurrent until the judge specifies they should run consecutively."

Leopold And Loeb, Slayers Of Franks Boy, Are Eligible For A Parole In 11 Years

This, Mr. Clabaugh said, would mean that Leopold and Loeb would be eligible for parole at the end of 20 years and three months if the life sentence is considered the longer of 33 years if the 88 year term is held the longest.
With time off for good behavior and the merit system of awards Leopold and Loeb might automatically become eligible for freedom in 11 years and three months from the date of their commitment—or nine years and three months from this Sept. 11.
"Of course, I don't want to be misunderstood," Mr. Clabaugh said. "You may be sure that as long as I have anything to do with the pardoning or paroling of Leopold and Loeb they will be required to stay in the penitentiary for the very maximum of years legally possible.
"But, who knows what the situation might be nine years hence?"
State's Attorney Crowe said that he would not discuss the technicals involved at this time.

NATIONAL GUARD TROOPS ARE SENT TO STOP RIOTING

Manville Outbreaks End Last Night In Cuffs In Which 9
Are Injured; Strikers Lead
Fight Against New Workers

MANVILLE, R. I., Sept. 1.— National Guard troops rattled into Manville on trucks today to quell rioting which culminated last night in injury to nine persons during a clash between state police and a mob of 1,800 striking operatives of the Manville-Jencks Company, textile mills.
Thirty five men of the field artillery, accompanied by ambulance and medical corps detachments, reached the mill soon after midnight to support 14 police, state officers and deputy sheriffs who have guarded the plant since trouble started with the arrival of strike-breakers Sunday.
After a night and a day of disorders, during which an attempt was made to fire the mill, the trouble reached a peak last night when strikers gathered at the head of the Blackstone river bridge leading to the plant.
Police Use Night Sticks
One man, starting to cross the bridge, was pushed back by police.
The crowd wavered a moment, then rushed. The police met the advance with swinging night-sticks
but were forced to retreat before superior numbers and to resort to tear-gas bombs.
The bombs again checked the mob's advance, but another series of rushes finally brought volleys from riot runs and revolvers. Five strikers and sympathizers went down wounded with buckshot while Adam Auelair, 18, of Woonsocket, was struck in the face with a revolver bullet fired over the heads of spectators in a hillside overlooking the battle.
Deputy Sheriff Wounded
Deputy Sheriff Percy Butterfield of Providence was struck on the nose by a charge of buckshot.
Lieutenant John Baird of the state police was struck in the foot and one of the state police was cut about the face and head by stones.
Pleas for peace from leading citizens and the Rev. Eustace Magnan, curate of St. James Church, sent some of the crowd away, but the situation remained critical and Col. E. J. Chaffo, commander of the state police, called on Adjutant General Cole for troops.

FOUR MAY FACE TRIAL IN KILLING OF MOONSHINER

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 1.— Trial of a clergyman and three federal prohibition agents on a murder charge with state officials as prosecutors and United States attorneys acting for the defense was forecast by county authorities here today. C. T. Mc-Kinney, an assistant United States District Attorney, obtained release of the quartette without bail from a federal officer here last night after they had been charged in a state court with first degree murder in connection with the slaying of Emile Matsumoto, a French-Japanese moonshiner, in a forest near Orting, 18 miles from Tacoma, Monday.
The accused men are Dr. George
A. Seelye, Methodist pastor at Orting, and editor of the Orting Oracle; W. H. Kinnaird, in charge of the Tacoma dry office, Marty Croxall, and R. A. Lambert, two of his assistants.
The release of the men by the Federal order presents a unique legal situation. The case was thereby taken into jurisdiction of the federal court. Howard Carrothers, deputy prosecutor of Pierce county, in which Tacoma and Orting are situated, is expected to seek indictment of the men by a federal grand jury. United States attorneys of Seattle announced that if the indictment is obtained they will appear in court for the defendants.
Matsumoto was killed during a raid by the three federal agents and Dr. Seelye, their informant on the location of a still, which was ready to operate. William Hersel, a companion of Matsumoto, said he and Matsumoto were fleeing from the still when the fatal shot was fired. Kinnaird declared, however, that the moonshiner was shot when he fired at Lambert.
"Dr. Seelye had led us to the vicinity of the still," Kinnaird said. "Croxall and I were making our way along a small creek. Lambert was up on a ridge of the creek, and Dr. Seelye a little behind us."
"Lambert went down the other side of the ridge. We heard shots and Lambert called that moon-shiner had fired on him. And he had shot back. We found a dying man on the ground and another fellow behind a stump."

Alleged 'Key Man' In Holdup Of Ship Nabbed By Officers

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 1.—
Described as the "key man"
to the alleged hi-jacking of the British run schooner Hazel E.
Herman off St. Augustine several weeks ago, a man giving the name of B. L. Bowman, was arrested on a downtown street here today by government authorities. Within an hour he had posted a $10,000 bond.
Bowman's arrest was the latest made in an undercover investigation being made by government operatives assigned to the case upon Washington orders.
Federal men declined to discuss the case.
Two men were unofficially reported killed in an interchange of shots between the schooner's crew
and alleged hi-jackers.
Two of the Hazel E.'s crew however, were wounded and were taken to a St. Augustine hospital. Recently five arrests were made in connection with the case at St.
Augustine. One of the men was subsequently released, however,
and hearing on the others who are out under bond, has been postponed until October by the United States commission there. The date of the hearing has not been announced.

RECOMMENDS METAL RINGS HOYOKE, Mass., Sept. 1.—(AP)— Persons marrying for the third or fourth time should use rings of base metal instead of gold, in the opinion of Rev. J. Reid Christie, visiting Scotch Presby- terian. He says such rings are not entitled to call the unions mar- riages. As a matter of fact, most of them use platinum.

QUAKE FORCES POPULATION TO LIVE OUTDOORS

LARGE CRACKS APPEAR IN THE STREETS AND CITIZENS ARE AFRAID TO RETURN TO HOMES;
MOST OF HORTA IS DESTROYED
Ten Are Reported
To Have Been Killed
First Shock Felt At Eleven O'clock And Is Followed By Series More Terrific Shocks
LONDON, Sept. 1.—(AP)—The population of the island of Fayal, in the Azores islands lying about 800 miles off the coast of Portugal, is living out of doors, terror stricken after Tuesday's disastrous earthquake which measure despatch-ers describe as the worst in the history of the island.
In Horta, the chief city of Fayal, most of the citizens spent the night in public squares. Large cracks have appeared in the streets, and the people were afraid to return to their homes in fear of further shocks.
Most of the city was destroyed.
It has been impossible to learn the exact number of casualties, which are estimated at from fifty to 400
of the island's 25,000 population.
The Portuguese government, to which the islands belong, is rushing a relief expedition to the Azores. This included war ships with supplies, sanitary corps and engineers.
From Lisbon thus far received by way of Adishes, the island of Fayal is declared to be "a mass of ruins, especially the city of Horta."
This information was sent by the Mayor of Horta. He estimated the injured at 400, but made no mention of fatalities.
Lloyd's, however, reports that ten persons were known to have been killed in Horta. Neighboring islands in the Archipelago also were affected by the disturbance.
The small village of Felizera was swept by a tidal wave.
The first shock was felt at eleven o'clock Tuesday morning.
It was followed by a series of other shocks, some of a minor nature.
The message sent by the mayor of Horta to the authorities in Lisbon said the aspect of Fayal island and the suffering of the victims were terrible.
Greece also was shaken by a strong earthquake yesterday, but it is said the damage was not great and that no casualties had been reported.
Eight Killed In Quake
LISBON, Portugal, Sept. 1.— (AP)—Eight persons were killed and 200 injured by yesterday's earthquake on the island of Fayal in the Azores, the governor of Horta dispatched reported in a message today.
Four hundred of Flamenca was a series of short shocks.
Flamenca, the Labor district, was destroyed. There are 400 inhabitants in this district, which is named for the Flemish settlers who made their homes there years ago.
That only eight deaths are reported is attributed to the fact that the quake occurred late in the forenoon, after the inhabitants had either gone to work or to market.
Quake Felt In Chile
SANTIAGO, Chile, Sept. 1.—(AP)—
A strong earthquake was felt at 12:45 p. m. yesterday in the town of Valparaiso, northern Chile. No casualties are reported.
Valparaiso was the center of an earthquake in 1922 in which several hundred persons were killed.

Senator McKinley Is Reported Very Low

MARTINSVILLE, Ind., Sept. 1.—
(AP)—Senator Wm. B. McKinley, Illinois, was in a critical condition here today, with physicians holding out little hope for his recovery.
The senator was brought to the Hopelawn Sanitarium here from Washington about two weeks ago, suffering from neuritis and rheumatism, which had confined him to his bed since shortly after his illness during the primaries.
Last night he was in a semiconscious condition and sinking slowly, according to his physician, Dr. R. H. Egbert, who said there was little chance for improvement so long as he was unable to take nourishment.
Due to his somewhat advanced age and his condition, weakened from long illness, he is showing less resistance to his ailment than he has heretofore shown, Dr. Egbert said.

Major Contestants Still Without Decisive Victory In California Primaries

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 1.—(AP)— Decisive victory still eluded the major contestants in yesterday's state primary election as returns from about one third of California precincts were tabulated today.
C. G. Young, candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination was leading Governor Friend Richardson, by 8,910 votes and United States Senator Samuel M.

was almost 14,000 votes ahead of

BANK DEPOSITS INCREASE HERE, REPORTS REVEAL

Total Of Construction For August Is Less Than Total
For The Same Month
Of 1925, Figures Reveal

Sanford bank deposits show gains and building construction figures have decreased, a comparison of August with the corresponding month of last year reveals. Bank deposits showed gains in July in comparison with the same month of 1925.
All of the Sanford banking institutions report increases in deposits, the gains running as high as 50 per cent in deposits.
August, 1926, competed with the banner month of 1925 in building construction authorized by the City, and builders said they were not surprised that the permits for August of this year would total less than the figure for August, 1925.
The increase in bank deposits is "indisputable proof" of the growth and soundness of conditions here, local business men declared when shown the figures.
The Seminole County Bank deposits were $2,531,000 at the close of business yesterday as compared with $1,715 one year ago.
The First National Bank deposits totaled $2,876,736 yesterday
against $1,958,469 for August, 1925.
Building construction in August, 1926 totaled $109,218 as compared with $228,407 in August, 1925. The total for July of this year was $119,230.

Hawkins, Carl Rabun and T. J. Miller.

morning at the home of a son, W.
R. Robbins of Hollywood, Fla. She had been a resident of Florida since 1876.

Supervisor To Open Registration Books In Precincts Monday

The Seminole County registration books will be opened in the precincts next Monday according to H. C. DuBois, supervisor of registration. They have been open in the city since Aug. 2.
The registration books in the various precincts will stay open through Oct. 16, Mr. DuBois said.
All voters who registered in the recent June primaries do not have to register again.
The qualifications for voters in the November election are that they shall have been a resident of the state for at least one year,
a resident of the county six months, and of the precinct 30 days and must have paid poll tax two years previous to the year of the election.

Picking Up

Those who are in a position to know are broadcasting the fact that real activity in real estate sales has become very pronounced.
Many of those who are actually selling are using the classified columns of The Herald.
Honest values were advertised,
and the buyers were there.
The market is picking up.

Major Contestants Still Without Decisive Victory In California Primaries

world court rivals for the Republican nomination for the United States Senate.
In neither case was the lead
large enough to bring statements concerning defeat from either Governor Richardson, seeking a second term on an economy platform, or Mr. Clarke, whose candidacy has the support of Senator Hiram Johnson.
An interesting feature of these two major conflicts was the part played in each by Senator Johnson. Johnson stumped the state for both Young and Clarke, attacking Governor Richardson's administration as re-actionary and spendthrift and assailing Senator Shortridge for his pro-world court record in the Senate.
The returns early today were considered particularly indecisive
as they affected Senator Johnson, as the candidates he supported were both apparently winning and losing.
Somewhat similar indecisiveness prevailed in the Democratic gov-ernatorial and senatorial conflict, which together have been looked upon as a preliminary skirmish in the 1928 campaign.
John O. Elliott, who was endorsed for senator by William G.
McAdoo, was leading Isadore Dockweiler, whom he accused of complicity in a Tammany Hall plot to capture California democracy, 3,200 to 2,814.
But Carl Alexander Johnson,
San Diego, also having McAdoo endorsement, was trailing Justus Wardell in the gubernatorial race,
1,891 votes to 2,919.

JACKSONVILLE IS LEADING FLORIDA IN CONSTRUCTION

State Metropolis Has Permits
Last Month Totalling Nearly Three Millions; Miami Next
And Coral Gables Is Third

(By Associated Press)
Boosted by the August issuance of a $1,600,000 theatre building permit, Jacksonville again led into the lead into the state tabulation.
During the month which closed yesterday a total of $12,599,882 in building permits were issued in 26 cities of Florida.
Jacksonville's aggregate was $2,770,590 while Miami, with $2,- 088,025, was second; Coral Gables, third, with $1,615,000 and Tampa fourth with a total of $1,314,518.
During July, $2,353,415 in permits were issued in Jacksonville, for the month's highest total, as reports moved there as fast as possible, the laying of heavy rails on the Leesburg branch, the Trilby branch
and the start of work in laying
heavy rails on the line between
Winter Garden and Sanford.
Mrs. Emma Abbott Lyman of Altamonte Springs gave several
valuable selections during the luncheon.
The new passenger station at Tavares has been completed and the freight station at Eustis is being enlarged.
"Other outstanding improvements in the rail facilities throughout the state are the installation
of the new cooling station and cinder conveyor at Palatka; granting
authority for new rails on the Haines City branch, which are being moved there as fast as possible, the laying of heavy rails on the
Leesburg branch, the Trilby branch
and the start of work in laying
heavy rails on the line between
Winter Garden and Sanford."

Mellett Killing Probe Nears Final Stages

CANTON, Ohio, Sept. 1.—(AP)—
The Stark county grand jury investigating the murder of Don R.
Mellett, Canton publisher, settled today to what is expected to be the last day of its investigation of witnesses. Six witnesses were added to its list through yesterday's testimony and the work was further jammed, according to authentic reports, by additional witnesses of witness-intimidation.
Prosecutor McClintock still expects the grand jury to make its report Friday.

Half Holidays On Thursday Continued

Half holidays on Thursday will continue through the month of September until Oct. 1, according to an announcement today by officials of the Sanford Retail Merchants Association. That will give five more summer half holidays this year.
Due to various rumors on the subject, it was said, the association
decided to make an announcement of the holiday policy.

the Grandview Hotel of Eustis.
Mr. Minell will be assisted by

Construction Company Trying To Preserve Historical Oak Tree

The Lake Worth Construction
Co., engaged in building the Dixie Highway between Sanford and Orlando is trying to save a huge oak tree, said to have a historical background, which is on a line of the proposed road.
Officials of the company will consult with the engineers in charge of construction in an effort to find a way to build the road at this point without destruction of the tree.
The historical tree is about seven miles south of Sanford. The road will either have to be diverted slightly, or the highway split, if the tree is saved.

Spinal Meningitis Fatal After Paralysis Was Believed To On Way To Recovery

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—
AP—Lieut. Cyrus K. Bettis, army flier injured in a crash
in Pennsylvania last week,
died today at Walter Reed Hospital.
Death resulted from spinal meningitis which developed after the injured flier was believed to be on his way to recovery. He was brought to hospital several days ago in an ambulance-airplane from the front, Pa., near where his plane crashed.
Lieut. Bettis gained outstanding prominence as a flier by winning the Pulitzer air races in 1925, which time he set a record of 29 miles an hour. In capturing the trophy for the army that he defeated Lieut. Al Williams, navy flier, long holder of the speed record.
Entering the army during war, Bettis served with the can air corps in France, and its close participation in a
of prominent army air maneuvers. His work in the Pulitzer coupled with his record in space-time flying, resulted in selection as a member of the of fliers detailed for work

was his last assignment.
Leaving Philadelphia Army
company with two other plane-pilot, Bettis, Mich., he was sent to a top training school Western Pennsylvania and into Seven Sisters mountain.
was unconscious for an hour
a half after the crash.
Unable to summon assistance
later, to attract the attention planes sent to look for him, Bettis with one leg broken and both fractured, nipped and crawled several miles through the tangled country to a road near Bellfonte, Pa., where he was taken to a hospital in that town.
With the death of Bettis
the army and navy have lost one of their leading fliers within a week's time. Commander Rodgers of the navy who made the Hawaiian attempt, died from injuries received in a crash at Philadelphia last week and his burial
at Arlington National Cemetery
yesterday came at a time when Lieutenant Bettis' condition was taking the turn which brought death this morning.

LOCAL RAILROAD YARDS ENLARGED AND IMPROVED

A.C.L. Master Mechanic Tells Rotary Club of Extensions Including Six Tracks; Will Build Water Stand Pipes

"I do not think there is much possibility of a recurrence of the freight embargo this winter," H. R.
Stevens, master mechanic of the Atlantic Coast Line railroad said yesterday at the luncheon of the Sanford Rotary club. Mr. Stevens was the principal speaker on the program arranged by W. M.
C. Hutchinson.
"During the past six months almost $8,000,000 has been spent on rail extensions in this state alone, and the program of expansion and building is being rushed to completion as fast as materials can be brought to the centers of activity."
The capacity of the Sanford yards has been greatly increased by the addition of six new yard tracks with a capacity of 100 cars each. Other track extensions are planned soon. Another improvement in the local yards is the installation of the new water system with stand pipes.
"There are now twenty-two miles of double track between here and Jacksonville, with center passing tracks of 100-car capacity.
This alone will be of invaluable aid in the coming winter rush.
There are also side track extensions at Yukon, Green Cove Springs, Boatwalk, Orange Park, Walkill, Russel and Pomona, and extension of tracks in the Palatka yards that will take care of more than 300 cars. Extension tracks at Palatka and Glenwood and a new passing track at Longs will take care of 85 cars.
"More than $2,000,000 has been authorized for new shops at Ucata, Fla., of which more than $350,000 has already been expended in the erection of the buildings and other facilities.
"The new passenger station at Tavares has been completed and
the freight station at Eustis is being enlarged.
"Other outstanding improvements in the rail facilities through-
out the state are the installation
of the new cooling station and cin-
der conveyor at Palatka; granting
authority for new rails on the Haines City branch, which are being moved there as fast as possible, the laying of heavy rails on the
Leesburg branch, the Trilby branch
and the start of work in laying
heavy rails on the line between
Winter Garden and Sanford."
Mrs. Emma Abbott Lyman of
Altamonte Springs gave several
valuable selections during the luncheon.

Anti-Trust Cases Involving Clayton And Trade Body Furnish Fights In High Court

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31—(AP)—The law anti-trust cases, which need to furnish the most controversial reaching the Supreme Court, are being supported in large measure by litigation coming out of the Clayton Act Federal Trade Commission cases. Big and little business have noted a material change in governmental activities in recent years in the matter of regulating their affairs.

Harvester Case Revived
The anti-trust cases now upon the docket include a proceeding against the International Harvester Company, originally begun in 1912, which resulted in 1918 in the company dismissing its appeal and agreeing to obey orders issued by the court for the restoration of competitive conditions. The government contended without success in the lower courts that the company had not been obeyed.

Another is a proceeding brought by the government to have determined whether the American Tobacco Company entered into an illegal arrangement with the Wholesale Tobacco and Cigar Dealers of Philadelphia to control prices.

The court will also determine whether the Shipowners Association of the Pacific Coast, the Pacific American Steamship Association and other employers of seaman on the Pacific Coast are enforcing illegal employment requirements in restraint of trade.

Widespread Questions
Other cases question whether the Trenton Pottery and 40 other pottery companies have formed a combination in violation of the Sherman act; whether the agreement between certain manufacturers, contractors and members of organized labor in Ohio, under which union members refuse to install artificial limbs in open shops, violates that law; whether the Journeymen Stone Cutters Association of North America illegally combined to prevent the use in buildings of Indiana limestone, and whether actors and actresses are engaged in interstate commerce, making them who employ them subject to the anti-trust laws.

Numerous cases, presenting some of the greatest importance in commercial life, are pending under the Clayton and Federal Trade Commission acts. Included are the following:

The Clairo Furnace case, involving 21 other steel corporations, questioning the power of the Commission to gather information called for by Congress regarding their plant capacity, manufacturing costs and wholesale prices; That against the Eastman Kodak Company as to whether it Georgia concern is entitled to damages, because of its refusal to sell supplies;

The Pacific Paper Trade Association and others doing business on Pacific Coast and in the Rocky Mountain states, as to whether they are engaged in interstate commerce;

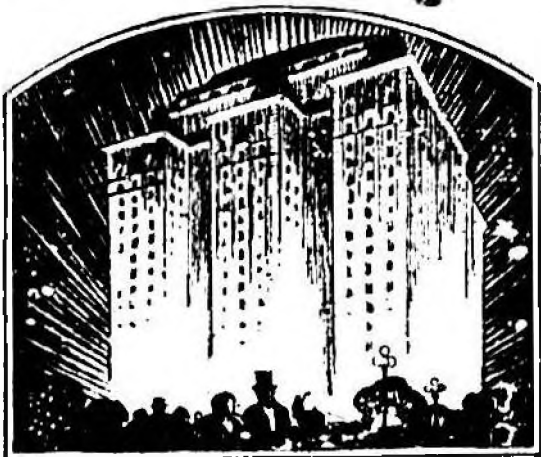

The Western Meat, Thatcher Company, and the Eastman Kodak Manufacturing Company, Swift & Company, as to whether in separate proceedings they can be required to sell the physical property and assets of companies which the government asserted had been illegally acquired;

KIWANIS IS PRAISED JUDGE WRIGHT

Club Is Active And Progressive, Jurist Says At Meeting Today; 2 Con- vention Delegates Chosen

W. W. Wright speaking before the Sanford Kiwanis club today emphasized the part that the club as a whole and the people of the city could do in rebuilding the state of the country in Florida. He praised the Sanford Kiwanis in their desire to work for the betterment of the city.

"The Sanford Kiwanis club has done a great work since its organization," said Judge Wright, "it has always been behind the progressive movement of the city, and the program of activity that it has carried out in the past year, and has planned for the coming months, is enough to prove that Kiwanis in this city will always stand for progress."

Announcement was made by Secretary L. C. Bebout that President Hamilton Holt of Rollins College will be the principal speaker at the meeting of the club on Nov. 14.

F. W. Lawton and L. C. Bebout were elected delegates to the convention in Lakeland Oct. 25 and 26. A gold and blue cap with Sanford on one side and the Kiwanis emblem on the other was adopted as the official headgear of the Sanford Kiwanians who attend the Lakeland convention. President E. F. Lane expressed the hope that the majority of the members of the club would be able to make the trip.

Mayor Forrest Lake, J. C. Bills, and Dr. Benjamin Caswell made short talks on their trips through the north. They were unanimous in their assertions that they were glad to return to Florida and all predicted one of the best winters in the history of the state.

George Brockahn, official pianist for the Sanford Kiwanis club was presented with a silver memento in honor of the birth of a son the other day.

Dr. E. D. Brownlee, past president of the local club, made a short address of welcome to the latest member of the club H. B. McCall Jr. The meeting today was the first attended by the new member of the club since his initiation.

The district bulletin issued from Daytona Beach every two months showed that the Sanford club was third in the entire state in the percentage of members present at the regular meetings for that period.

During the luncheon, Mrs. Victor Robinson gave several vocal selections which were enthusiastically received by the members of the club.

The committee on placing the signs ordered by the club recently met and the work was completed.

WORLD COURT MEMBERS HAVE PRIVATE MEET

League of Nations and is composed of men of high individual standing from all parts of the world and representing all systems of thought and law. The purpose of the court is to settle disputes on the basis of law and justice, rather than on political expediency.

Representatives of 18 countries are attending the conference to discuss the American reservations. It is the belief of representatives of the powers in the council of the league of nations that if the American reservations should all be accepted, such an arrangement would give the United States a privileged position as compared with members of the council.

It is pointed out that if members of the council were parties to a dispute their vote would not be counted on the question of whether an advisory opinion should be asked of the court, whereas the United States, not being a member of the council, would enjoy a perpetual vote.

By some of the prominent members of the court the opinion is held that, were the advisory opinion function of the court weakened it might prove disastrous to the court.

Cesar Huneez of Venezuela and Sir Francis Bell of New Zealand were chosen vice-presidents. President Van Eysinga announced that the Dominican Republic would participate and that Sir Cecil Burt would represent Australia pending the arrival of the Australian delegate.

The conference then voted that its sessions should be opened to the press and public. The proposal, made by the president, was warmly seconded by Sir George Foster of Canada, and unanimously adopted.

Professor Van Eysinga then sketched the history of the American negotiations concerning the court. He hailed the date upon which the United States had decided to adhere to the court as one of the most memorial in history.

He thought it impossible to exaggerate the importance of the American wish "to be one of us," and recalled the words of Sir Austin Chamberlain in the league council that it should not be difficult to give satisfaction to the United States.

On the motion of M. Rolin of Belgium, the conference adopted the first reservation.

Reservations 2 and 3 also were swiftly approved.

Rain Nearly Drains Out St. Petersburg

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 1.—(AP)—St. Petersburg was nearly drowned out last night by the rain storm—one of the heaviest for the time it lasted, in the city's history.

The squall that brought the rain lasted less than an hour; yet, in that time more than two inches of rain fell.

Some damage was done to paving work due to washouts on street newly paved or about to be paved. Hundreds of automobiles were stranded when ignition systems were soaked. There was a high wind and much lightning accompanying the rain.

Trammel's Change In Attitude On World Court Is Personal, Asserts Holt

ORLANDO, Fla., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Senator Park Trammel's change of attitude on the World Court was characterized here today by Dr. Hamilton Holt, president of Rollins College, and a prominent student of international policies and peace movements, as purely personal and in no wise indicative of a change of sentiment of his Florida Democratic constituency.

The Florida senator last week announced his intention of introducing a bill in the senate next December which would repeal the referendum measure passed by that body last January.

Dr. Holt, former editor of Independent, appointed by President Wilson to membership on his peace commission, and a strong advocate of the League of Nations and World Court, declared, while asserting his belief in the sincerity of Senator Trammel, that the latter's change could not even be attributed to pressure of electoral issues as he was not a candidate for re-election at this time.

"Nor can Senator Trammel's pronouncement be considered as a part of the national movement to rescind the senate's action," declared Dr. Holt, "despite declarations of Senator Gooding, of Idaho. Senator Gooding simply needs, and must have Senator Borah's support, and his stand is clearly political. Senator Trammel's action, on the other hand, seems to be personal.

"If it be true that the friends of World Court cause have lost two senate votes, if the matter again comes before that body, the irreconcilables also have lost one in Senator Fernald's death. Also, this is only the first of September, and by November, our national legislators will have had ample opportunity to sense anew the sentiment of voters who I am convinced are far more steadfast in their advocacy of the World Court than is the senator from Florida."

Cortez Descendant And An Englishman In Bloodless Duel

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 1.—(AP)—The Cortez stock is still a fighting stock. On the very ground where the great Spaniard battled five centuries ago in ending the rule of Emperor Montezuma, Prince Valerio Pignatelli, of Italy, descendant of Fernando Cortez, engaged in a bloodless duel with Eduardo Mole, of one of Mexico's most prominent families, who has English blood in his veins.

Mole challenged Pignatelli, alleging that the descendant of Cortez had been unkindly attentive to his wife. Pignatelli denied the allegation to Mole's second but nevertheless accepted the combat.

The Prince, who is said to be an excellent shot, named pistols as the weapons, and one shot at ten paces by each man. The duelists repaired to a spot just across the federal district boundary in the state of Morelos.

Mole, who also is said to be a good shot, fired and missed. With a calm smile Pignatelli slowly raised his pistol and fired into the air, bowed low to his adversary, and walked away.

Why are the American people so far ahead?

Wherever world-travelers come together, the amazing comforts of Americans are sure to come in for discussion. Why is it that the average American lives like a king?

To be sure, he has more money to spend than any other person in the world, but then he insists on spending it to bring better living to himself and family. Who knows what a subtle, but influential, part advertising plays in putting the American people ahead?

Advertising, by showing us new and better things, keeps us from being satisfied with "well enough."

Advertising, by making us want more, wakens the springs of action within us to get more. American advertising is a pretty substantial explanation of American advancement.

ern Scientist New Theory Discovering Ore

MINNAPOLIS, Sept. 1.—(AP)—A Minnesota scientist has discovered a new theory of the way in which minerals are deposited in the earth.

Dr. Emmerson, head of the department of geology, said that during 20 years of study he has been attracted to the theory of the American geologist and metallurgist, Prof. C. M. Moore, who has been a member of the Society of Economic Geologists.

Dr. Emmerson's theory is that mineral veins are formed by the upward movement of water bubbling up from the earth along the underground masses of hot magma.

Most Of Sanford Visitors Hail From Georgia New York Or Pennsylvania, Is Claim

Judging from the demand for out-of-town newspapers in Sanford most of the people who have come here recently to make their homes or are visiting in this city are from Georgia, New York, and Pennsylvania, as the large papers in those states are the only ones for which a reserved list is kept at Joe's Smoke House, the largest news stand in the city, according to H. E. Wagner, owner of the store.

"Most of our readers are Georgia people," said Wagner, "and we have very little demand for papers from any other southern state. Occasionally a customer will ask for an Alabama paper or a paper from one of the Carolinas. We have only one regular customer from Texas."

"As far as I can remember I cannot recall anyone ever asking for a California paper or in fact any paper west of the Mississippi except Texas."

"The Chicago papers and some of the Ohio dailies are somewhat in demand, but are asked for infrequently compared to those from other localities. The only large western paper we have a reserved list for is one of the Chicago dailies, and that is only on Sunday," Mr. Wagner said.

"Naturally the Atlanta papers lead all of the Georgia papers in the demand here, but we have requests from all over the state for copies of their home town journals from the smallest village to the state metropolis."

"The New York City papers and the Philadelphia papers are the big sellers to the people from those states."

"The people who buy the out-of-town papers here are natives of that particular locality and are not so much people who are curious to know the affairs of other states."

"The interesting fact," Mr. Wagner said, "is always noted in a newspaper. When he arrives he calls every day for his home town paper and seems vitally interested in the affairs back home. Soon, however, he calls more infrequently and sometimes the regular daily on tuesdays will become the Sunday buyer. This means that he is enjoying more and more interested in his life in Sanford and is forgetting his old home in the busy life of Florida."

"A couple of years ago the summer business in out-of-town papers was practically limited to two

War May Bring About The Development Of New Medical Science

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—(AP)—What the future day may bring about the development of an entirely new medical science, in the opinion of a veteran army surgeon.

Former Maj. Louis Scaman, who has served in every American campaign since the Spanish-American war, and in the armies of Japan and Belgium, sees in the development of chemical warfare a new enemy for the medical world to tackle. Soldiers' wounds in future wars, he said probably will be of nature little known today.

Six Michigan Convicts Escape From Jail By Chopping Down Wall

LANSING, Mich., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Ingham county officers who had been engaged with other state agencies in the search for convicts who escaped Saturday from the Ingham Reformatory today were diverted to the pursuit of six prisoners who chopped their way through a brick wall of the Ingham county jail at Mason last night and swung to freedom on a plank ladder.

There were 16 prisoners in the cell block from which the six escaped, but 10 of them made no effort to flee.

State police today continued their search for one of the prisoners who escaped from the reformatory Saturday.

An attempt of Gen. Enrique Estrada, former Mexican secretary of war, to smuggle arms into Mexico and start an armed revolution against the Calles government was foiled when U. Alabama Swimmer To Enter Gotham Event

MOBILE, Ala., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Challenging Gertrude Ederle and other swimmers, Bill Jackson, Alabama swimmer, has accepted an offer to compete in the race around Manhattan Island, New York this month. A purse of $25,000 has been offered to the winner.

Jackson claims to have established several records in Florida last winter. He swam around Davis Island, Tampa in two hours and 40 minutes, cutting almost an hour off the time of Helen Wright. Last week he swam ninety miles, averaging more than ten miles an hour. His time for the distance was nine hours and 20 minutes, swimming from Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., to a point five miles south of Mobile, Fla., in the Gulf of Mexico, fresh water.

But Blame The Blame On His Father

Lady Astor, in the United States for a visit with sister and other American kinspeople, says that it is unfair to assert that prohibition is not beneficial to this country. She says that nothing is proved by the pro-liquor advocates when they offer examples taken from fast sets, rich and poor, to show that prohibition does not prohibit.

The large majority of people in the United States are helped by prohibition laws. This Lady Astor knows. She has sense enough to observe that the people of this country are more prosperous and that the home life of the masses is happier than it was in the day of the open saloon and legalized rum traffic.

But Lady Astor is quoted with saying one thing that is considerably one-sided. She said: "If young girls have made mistakes and are too fond of cocktails, I blame the mothers and not prohibition."

Lady Astor being a mother, and said to be an exceptionally successful one, may feel that it is fair to put the blame for the wild-goings-on of a girl upon the girl's mother, but if it is cocktails or gin-fizz that take her fancy, how much of the blame does the girl's father get?

Occasionally there are fast girls from exceedingly "slow" homes. Occasionally a girl learns all she knows of wickedness from companions quite outside the social circle in which her family move. But a boot-legging father is likely to have a boot-legging daughter. A boot-legger's customer is even more likely to furnish additional customers in the persons of his daughters and sons.

Lady Astor is right, half-way, in her assertion that mothers and not prohibition are to blame for cocktail-drinking, fast-traveling youngsters of today. But the other half of the blame must rest upon the fathers of these same youngsters.

But, as Lady Astor says, the drinking set in America is not a majority by any manner of means. The drinking set is more spectacular. If they have money enough they are permitted to flaunt their law-violation as they flaunt their diamonds and their expensive automobiles. They are in the limelight, and they love that limelight. They think that all the populace stand off and admire and envy them.

If the drinking set has no money it still is spectacular. It furnishes jobs for policemen and excitement for the alleys and the dives. Like its brothers and sisters of the Society Set this class of law-violators have the limelight, too. And both rich and poor noisily try to stand for a national protest against the prohibition laws.

Lady Astor thinks that there will be no bad effects—on anything like a national basis—from the dissipation now going on among American young people. She knows, too, that the toppers of the old days are stumbling along to their graves.

Looking at America's great stand against partnership with the liquor traffic, Lady Astor is filled with admiration for the courage that undertook it, the persistency with which the laws are enforced.

Like all the rest of us, this American Englishwoman sees that it will take many years to make prohibition a gladly-accepted protection against hideous evils. Like all the rest of us, Lady Astor knows that it is up to the mothers and the fathers to keep daughters and sons from degradation.

They've Decided To Take The Dare

Conservative business men who make a practice of getting an accurate information as can be obtained before they make public statements are already predicting that automobile travel into Florida this fall and the coming winter will be much heavier than it was last year.

The American Automobile Association learns of a trek to Florida that promises to tax hotels and eating places along the main routes of travel to this state as they have never been taxed before. Inquiries are being made regarding road conditions and traveling accommodations that indicate remarkably extensive plans for travel this fall. And almost everybody seems to be wanting to set out for Florida along with the birds-of-passage.

Naturally, too, these early inquirers are few in comparison with the numbers that will want to ask questions of the motor clubs when the time actually comes for the journey south.

It looks as if all that alleged propaganda against Florida had turned out to a sort of "dare-you-to-go-and-see-for-yourself." And everybody is taking the dare!

Still Time To Do That Bit Of Kindness

There is still time before school begins for those Sanford Grown-Ups to get busy and provide a few days of pleasure for Sanford boys and girls who have not had anything "extra" in the way of vacation joys.

With a very little sleuth work a Big Brother in Sanford could discover a little boy, or say several little boys, for whom he could arrange a wonderful day.

The same opportunity is open for a Sanford Big Sister, too. Folks who are willing to go to a little inconvenience and expense to provide pleasure for other folks' children are the kind of folks that make life worth while. They are the world's Great-Hearts.

FURROWS

The Literary Digest quotes a "wise crack" from The New Haven Register to the effect that "those who are turning furrows in Florida are still turning profits." This brief sentence is packed full of truth and wisdom and the words contain the implication of the best advice that can be given to anyone at the present time in this state. The time has come to attend to the plain, everyday business that belongs to us, and to put aside any iridescent dreams which may have been hovering about.

Florida is full of potential wealth. This lies all about, urging exploitation by those who are willing to work. Wealth is never created except through effort. That out of which it may be made is available, but it does not work itself into forms that may be used by human beings. They must do the working.

Florida needs those who will turn the furrows. In the long run more wealth will be created by developing groves than by cutting streets through them. In the long run more wealth will be created by Everglades acres into truck farms and dairy farms and chicken farms, than by blasting down sites upon them.

Champion Hog Caller. When You Are Old and Poor. The Sultan Likes Us. Good Pay and Gratitude. BY ARTHUR BRISBANE (Copyright 1926, by Star Co.)

FRED PATZEL, champion hog caller of Nebraska, won the hog calling championship easily. Hogs will climb fences to reach him, when they hear his call, "poo-ewawlic." Stentor, according to Homer, had a voice as loud as the combined voices of 50 men, but Fred Patzel would not fear him. His voice can be heard two miles away.

OFFICE SEEKERS should listen to the wisdom of the champion hog caller: "You have got to have appeal, as well as power in your voice. You've got to convince the hogs you have something for them."

MANY POLITICIANS have power in their voices, but when the voters come, they have nothing for them. Consider the Republican party. It calls the farmers, and year after year they come running. When the election is won they are told: "Sorry, but we cannot interfere with the law of supply and demand."

That is poor comfort for hogs or men.

A POOR old woman found wandering by the police could not tell her name or age. "I think my name is Amelia Patterson, and I am between 50 and 80 years of age," said she. The hair under her knitted black shawl was snow white, her hands were wrinkled and callous from hard work.

The police wrote down "about 75 years of age, name unknown, white, female." And that is as much interest as the world takes in a woman, old and poor, and no longer fit for hard work.

THE SULTAN of Sulu is happy under Uncle Sam's rule. What's more, if we release the Philippine Islands from American control, the sultan says he and his Moros will fight the Filipinos to the last gasp. The sultan, who has his ways and his religion and carries a 15 automatic in his belt, undisturbed, was assured, confidentially, that he, a Mohammedan need not hesitate to deal with us, because the United States is a nation with no official religion. That is the assurance that Thomas Jefferson once gave to an earlier, more important Mohammedan sultan.

FRANK FARRINGTON represented union coal miners in Illinois for 12 years and got $5,000 a year. Now he leaves the union, goes to work for the Peabody Coal Company, with interests naturally opposed to the union, and he gets $25,000 a year.

CORPORATIONS PAY well, and are grateful. Unions and the public pay little and are ungrateful. That is why the ablest men, lawyers and public officials usually belong to corporations. A cynical corporation lawyer said "the only favor a little man can do me, is to get run over, so that I may defend the corporation that runs over him."

A GERMAN has now conquered the channel, the sixth man to do so, and his record beats that of Gertrude Ederle by more than an hour. Henceforth channel swimmer must find their reward in good exercise. The world will offer no special rewards of praise or publicity. Webb and Ederle will be remembered, the others forgotten. Someone said it was for a brave man that first swallowed an oyster. But subsequent oyster eaters could not expect praise.

IN NEW Jersey a bootlegger's still is found with a big supply of interesting whisky. Analysis shows it to be 100 proof, with one part of ether to four parts of alcohol. The ether causes prompt stupefaction. That particular whisky is called "undertaker's delight." Other bootleg whisky deserves the same name, and yet millions buy it and drink it.

FRAUDULENT bankruptcies, organized with special managers and a vocabulary of their own, cost the nation two hundred and fifty millions a year. Fraudulent stock, bogus deals, oil wells, mines, real estate and other get rich quick schemes cost the public more than a billion a year. Bootleg whisky takes another billion and many lives. The miracle is that any of the people have anything left for old age.

The cost of living has come down by three and four-tenths percent since November, 1925, according to the national industrial conference board. Have you noticed it? The change is due to cheaper food prices, which means that the farmers have made life cheaper by getting less for their work. Who can say what the cost of living is, or ought to be? Americans waste more than enough to feed and clothe 100,000,000 people in another part of the globe.

PRINCE CHICHIBU second son of the Emperor of Japan, amused himself and proved his prowess recently by climbing two great peaks in the Alps in one day—the Finsteraarhorn and the Scherckhorn, 14,000 and 15,000 feet high. A guide went with him.

When a Japanese mikado trains his boys in that fashion, you can imagine how the average non-royal Japanese is trained. It is a great nation and we are glad to be friendly with it.

GEORGE COHEN, energetic Chicago gang leader, fell among diamonds in New York City after selling $75,000 in diamonds from his own stock.

GROTESQUE MISCONCEPTION

Miami Herald

Here comes The Knoxville Journal with a long explanation of why Florida objects to the inheritance tax imposed by the federal government, and as an explanation, it has some interesting features.

It is interesting because The Journal has gotten its facts and figures so grotesquely twisted.

It arrives at the conclusion that Florida is objecting to the tax because it will, as it claims, force money into the state treasury and that it says, is what Florida objects to.

This is the first time that it has ever been intimated that Florida or any other state has objected to greater treasury receipts.

Evidently, The Journal has not read the internal revenue act. If it had done so it would have discovered that the federal government does not propose to return any of the inheritance tax money to Florida or any other state which does not, itself, impose an inheritance tax, and it would not have had itself open to criticism for an editorial that disposes the

THE HATED TRUTH

Baltimore Sun

Men do not desire the truth. They never have desired the truth. It is not possible that they ever will desire the truth.

Because men live and die in error the truth is ever an assault on the beliefs and faiths of the time, and therefore an assault on vanity.

When the first of moderns began to study the heavens through a glass and to proclaim the truths he discovered he lighted a fire under his feet. The world did not desire the truth. It desired only that its complement ignorance be left undisturbed. Before a man can learn he is ignorant. It is vanity that stands in the way of progress.

The Indiana supreme court, upholding a conviction for contempt, asserts that "the truth is no defense."

It is a tenet dear to English law. "The greater the truth, the greater the libel." To a man of reason the dogma will seem absurd, yet this same man will train his children to accept it and punish them if they do not.

SWALLOWS MIGRATING

Atlanta Journal

"When the swallows homeward fly," sung in a dozen languages, was a favorite song of an earlier generation, and the same sentiment has been expressed more modernly—and less romantically, perhaps—in a wish to "follow the swallows back home."

But both the ballad of yesterday and the dance song of yesterday had it all wrong. When the swallows and other migratory birds as well, begin to wing their way southward at the summer's end they are not going home but away from home. Home is where the nest is, and home, therefore, for most birds is with us.

How the migratory instinct arose among birds is hard to imagine. There are plenty of birds that do not migrate at all, both the gorgeous beauties that we have to travel to the tropics to see and the hardy citizens of our own colder regions, like the chickadee and the snowbird and the bluejay and the owl. The long migratory flights, some of them measured in more than a quarter the circumference of the globe, must make terrific demands on the strength and endurance of the birds, and they have to be repeated twice every year.

Most naturalists assume that the biennial trek of the birds is in response to the need for food. Supplies are naturally low in winter, and the birds that stay are either rapacious eaters, like owls, and hoarders of food, like some of the songbirds, or they are close and inquisitive investigators for cocoons in bark crevices, like the nuthatch.

Mrs. Raymond Key Is Hostess At Delightful Bridge Party Tuesday

Mrs. Raymond Key was the gracious hostess Tuesday afternoon when she entertained at the second of a series of bridge parties at her lovely home on Park Avenue.

Quantities of zinnias and Spanish love vines combined with ferns were artistically arranged in silver baskets. The colors of pink and green prevailed.

Quaint old-fashioned maidens wearing bouffant gowns of pink and green marked the tallies used in keeping scores for the interesting game of bridge. These were distributed by little Miss Adelaide Key, the winsome young daughter of the hostess, wearing a French frock of pink taffeta with scalloped hem trimmed with tiny French baskets over a slip of silk laces.

When scores were collected by Mrs. Deane Turner and Mrs. John Leonard, it was found that high score prize, a large plaque, had been won by Mrs. Edward Markell, while the low score prize, a green Venetian glass tea bell, went to Mrs. J. C. Bennett. In cutting for the consolation prize, two dainty guests towels, Mrs. Harry Herren was the fortunate one.

At the conclusion of the game, the tables were laid with hand made covers and refreshments consisting of an ice course with salted nuts and mints were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. W. D. Gardiner and Mrs. Fred Daiger. Punch was served during the progress of the game.

The afternoon was one of the exceptional pleasure, the cordial hospitality of the hostess being reflected in every detail.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller returned home Tuesday evening from New York where they spent several weeks.

ENGAGEMENT OF SANFORD COUPLE ANNOUNCED TUESDAY EVENING

One of the most delightful social affairs of the week was that of Tuesday evening when Miss Margaret Zachary entertained the members of her bridge club and a few extra players at bridge at her home on Magnolia Avenue.

The spacious living room where the guests assembled for play was beautifully adorned with crystal baskets and bowls filled with vivid-hued zinnias and other cut flowers combined with greenery.

In the dining room a prettily appointed punch table had been arranged and here throughout the evening refreshing fruit punch was served by Mrs. Dick Philyaw of Gainesville.

The tallies used for the card game were adorned with "flapper girls", and after several progressions, scores were added and prizes awarded. Mrs. Ralph Stevens holding top score, was given a string of beads. In cutting for the consolation prize, which was bath crystals, Mrs. Grant Wilson was the lucky one.

Just as the prizes were being awarded the guests were startled by the cries of a new-baby (Billie Thigpen) shouting "extras" "extras!" Upon investigation, they were found to be "extra" editions of the Sanford Herald announcing the engagement of Miss Lillian Shinholser to Earle Edward Jones.

The card tables were then laid with covers of newspapers, and refreshments of an ice course were served by the hostess assisted by her mother, Mrs. A. D. Zachary, Mrs. Dick Philyaw, Miss Marjorie Hand and Miss Marjorie Dempsey. The prizes were wrapped to resemble newspapers ready for mailing, and newspaper ideas were also carried out in other ways.

Miss Shinholser was lovely wearing a most becoming frock of forest green georgette two piece model.

Fashioned of floral georgette of beige over a self-toned satin slip was the costume worn by Miss Zachary.

The players were Miss Lillian Shinholser, Miss Mary Gresham of Arcadia, Mrs. Grant Wilson, Mrs. Ralph Stevens, Mrs. Dick Philyaw, Miss Marjorie Dempsey, Miss Marjorie Hand, Miss Ruth Bard, Miss Frances Hutton, Miss Fern Ward, Mrs. Sara Warren Easterly, Miss Ann Howard, Miss Ruby Hayne, Miss Margaret Cox, Miss Mildred Hand, Miss Emily Bailey, Miss Margaret Zachary.

French Swimmer In Channel Discussion

PARIS, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Another swimmer has entered the fast-growing of Channel aspirants. He is George Michael, winner of the latest "Cross-Paris Marathon."

His defection is issued to Mrs. Clemington Carson in particular, but it includes all, and he wants the channel crossed to meet him at the other end of the swim. He said the Seine offers a better test than the waters around Manhattan Island.

Azarian Members Are Entertained Tuesday By Mrs. C.A. Anderson

The members of the Azarian Class of the First Baptist Church were entertained Tuesday evening by Mrs. Charles A. Anderson, Jr.

Many summer flowers, used in decorating the rooms of the Anderson home for this evening.

A short business session was held during the evening, and was presided over by the class president, Mrs. Ruth Ludecke, when reports of the work done last month were read by the various chairmen.

After all business had been transacted, a social hour was enjoyed the hostess serving a delectable salad and ice course. About 25 members were in attendance.

NEWS OF WOMEN GLEANED FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD

By The Associated Press

Mrs. Baldwin Active
LONDON: The end of the social season in London does not mean rest for Mrs. Stanley Baldwin, the wife of the Premier. She is busy at work in her husband's constituency in Worcestershire, where she is opening fairs and flower shows and appearing at all sorts of summer fetes.

Will Forgive Enemies
LONDON: "I die as a Christian, thanking all those who have been good to me, and pardoning those who have done me evil and slandered me so greatly."

These words are from the British will of the Dowager Princess of Monaco, who was Miss Marie Alice Helno, of New Orleans, which disposes of $150,000 worth of property in Great Britain.

The dowager princess was the second wife of the late Prince Albert I, of Monaco, and was divorced by him in 1903. She was married to the duke to Richelieu, before her marriage to Prince Albert of Monaco.

Housekeeping a "Hobby"
LONDON: Housekeeping is the latest hobby of British girls. Mrs. D. Cottingham-Taylor, director of the Institute of Housekeeping and Domestic Science, says most of this talk about the modern girl caring only for pleasure is rot.

"It is true that a conspicuous few women give the impression that modern woman is highly frivolous," she said, "but you may be assured there never was a time when women were more keenly interested in the home and its problems."

Lady Oxford A Sheik
LONDON: Lady Oxford—better known to the general public as Margaret Asquith—was one of the most completely disguised dancers at the costume ball given by Mrs. Harry Brown, the American hos-

Defends South Sea Girls
LONDON: Beautiful half-caste girls do not run around in a very few clothes, charming young Englishmen down on the Gold Coast.

Princess Marie Louise, cousin of King George says the play, "White Cargo," is a "vernal libel, utterly false and untrue." The Princess recently visited the Gold Coast and letters about her trip which she wrote to her sister, Princess Helena Victoria, have just been published.

When Mary Clare played the role of Tondeloy in the first London production of "White Cargo" the censorship forced her to extend her costume very materially, but even in the more sedate apparel she won great favor and the play ran for nearly two years.

"Maidens" Change Name
TOKYO: The largest girls' organization in Japan, the Maidens' Society, which is semi-official and whose purpose is entirely patriotic, is preparing to change its name to the Young Women's Association. The society has a membership of 150,000, with 13,000 local bodies.

Exchange Bars Women
PARIS: The Paris Stock Exchange remains barred to women although so many these days are taking a direct interest in its operations. There was a time when they were admitted to the gallery, but in 1893, when anarchists were placing bombs in all sorts of places, the Stockbrokers' Association passed a regulation that no woman should be admitted, as it was feared that one might introduce a bomb, concealed in her clothing.

The regulation remains in force although the danger would seem to have been minimized if not entirely removed by women's clothing of today.

Miss Georgia Mobley Entertains Tuesday Afternoon At Bridge

A very pretty social event of Tuesday was the bridge party given by Miss Georgia Mobley at her home on Oak Avenue, honoring her house guest Miss Catherine Pittman of Tampa, and Miss Margaret Neal of Orlando, guest of Miss Maude Lake, Miss Rosa Gray of Laurens, S. C., guest of Mrs. Albert Pinckney Connolly, Miss Margaret Wight of Cairo, Ga., guest of Miss Claire Zachary, and Miss Louise Sarles of Virginia, the guest of Mrs. William Moore Scott.

The rooms where the card tables were spread were bright with baskets and bowls filled with zinnias and roses, the colors of pink and green predominating.

Marking the tallies were the various symbols and dainty girl heads, and after the usual number of progressions, scores were added and prizes awarded. Miss Helen Vernay received silk hose for having high score. The low score prize, Coty's bath powder, was won by Miss Le Claire Jones, while the cut prize went to Miss Olive Newman. Miss Mobley presented her guests of honor with dainty hand made handkerchiefs.

A delicious salad and ice course was served by the hostess assisted by her mother, Mrs. E. D. Mobley, at the conclusion of the game.

CELERYMEN DROP SECOND CONTEST TO SAINT

WITT HURLS STEADY GAME FOR BLOCKMEN

Third Inning Proves Wilson's Undoing; 3 Runs Being Scored; Locals Count In 6th

Bailey, Allen Lead Sanford Sluggers

Beasley Gets The Only Extra-Base Hit But Is Left On The Bag

By Pete Norton

Failure to hit the pinches and a big miscue in the field were the way for the 4 to 1 victory of George Block's Saints over the Celery-Foks Tuesday afternoon. This was the worst day the Celerymen have had in the field for some time. Locs' Crook's proteges have played brilliant ball field for the past month.

Johnny Wilson went the route of the Celerymen and pitched a game allowing eight hits and giving out six walks. His one run in the fourth inning proved a turning point on the game. The Celerymen's pitcher for St. Petersburg, although rapped for eight runs, kept them scattered and would have had a shutout except for Wilson's scratch hit in the third inning that scored Wilson's third.

Bailey and Allen were the leaders for Sanford, each getting a pair of singles, while Block Charley Allen each rapped off Wilson's fast ones into safe territory. Beasley scored the only extra base hit of the game when he doubled in the sixth.

The visitors opened the scoring in the first inning, but the Celerymen drew free transportation to start the inning. Bryan then laid down a hunt to Wilson and the local heavier couldn't find the pill, both threw to third on a double to catch the sprawling blockmen and the bases were full with one runner base show into the center of the base and into the center of the bases and Brown and Bryan scored. Ornelles was out on a double steal and Beasley doubled to end the inning.

Beasley opened the sixth inning for Sanford with a double to right, but was left stranded on second when Dumas popped to short. Dumas then popped to short. Dumas then popped to short.

With two out in the eighth, Allen took a base scoring a runner when Beasley knocked in the runner. Block asked to cross for the third out.

Sanford rallied strongly in the half of the eighth. Wilson cut a safe placement into center, Beasley walked, but was forced at second by Frisbie. Wilson took third on the play. Dumas walked to fill the bases with one gone. Crook's bunt was caught in a trap between Beasley and third and tagged out by Ornelles.

Jack Dempsey Has Made More Money Than Any Other Fighter In The Ring

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Jack Dempsey, assured the star-gazing sum of $175,000 for engaging Gene Tunney in defense of the world's heavyweight championship at the Yankee Stadium Sept. 16, is the richest of all boxers.

The title-holder already has earned more than $1,000,000 with his gloved fists, but mismanagement of enterprises in which he was interested cut deeply into his fortune. No matter if he loses his entire pile of money and holdings, he says he never will be an object of benefit.

This is because he has a $200,000 trust fund out of which he will receive $500 a month as long as he lives. No matter what happens, he will receive at least $200,000.

Dempsey is under tremendous expense. It cost him around $80,000 to live in Europe. This included an amount used to offset the deficit in operating his hotel at Los Angeles. Also the expense of maintaining homes for his mother and father.

The "Manassa Mauler" since knocking Jess Willard over and winning the title in Toledo, O., July 4, 1919, has engaged in five contests. Including the Willard fight, Dempsey has fought only forty rounds and has earned $1,044,000, an average of $27,000 per round or $9,300 for every minute in the ring.

The line-up of the financial statement follows: Victim Working Time Wages Jess Willard, Three rounds, $37,500. Billy Miska, three rounds, $62,000. Bill Brennan, twelve rounds, $75,000. Georges Carpentier, four rounds, $80,000. Tommy Gibbons, fifteen rounds, $240,000. Luis Firpo, two rounds, $400,000.

Cardinals Assume League Lead While Pirates Drop To Third Below The Reds

(By Associated Press)

The St. Louis Cardinals were strutting ahead of the crowd in the National League today. The Pittsburgh Pirates had been crowded from first to third place. The wildest upheaval of the week yesterday saw the Pirates beaten twice by the Cardinals. Cincinnati slumped into second place ahead of the Pirates, and Chicago down a step closer to the top. Today they had a three-point margin over Cincinnati and eight over Pittsburgh. Chicago was in point blank.

In the first game of the double bill at St. Louis, St. Louis held the Pirates in 2 hits while his mate, Philadelphian Al Simmons, rounded Al Simmons for 6 rounds. Pittsburgh's only run being a homer by Caylor. He made three hits, one a homer. Batey also smothered by the crowd.

The Pirates were paralyzed by Sotheron's out ball in the second. They got only three hits and lost 2 to 1.

Only One New Face To Appear Among The Coaches Of Big Ten Grid Teams

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—(AP)—To the ranks of Western Conference football coaches the 1926 season brings one new figure—that of "Pat" Page, who takes the reins at Indiana University.

Page, who has dispensed his gifts as a coach at the University of Illinois, will take his seat at the Big Ten table beside the dem of conference gridiron strategists, Amos Alonzo Stagg, who began coaching at the University of Chicago thirty-four years ago and who was Page's coach when the Indiana mentor was a student at the Maroon institution.

Runner-up to Stagg in length of service in western conference gridiron sidelines is Fielding H. Yost of Michigan, who celebrates this year his twenty-fifth anniversary as coach of the Wolverines. Bob C. Zuppke at Illinois and Dr. John W. Wilce at Ohio State are both beginning their fourteenth year of service.

Were you one of the fortunate to have windstorm insurance after the storm of Tuesday? This was just a collection of what the August and September winds will do. Cyclones seldom arrive on schedule. They usually happen before. Before you take it out today. After the blow it's too late. The premium isn't large, and the comforts might be. See the old reliable "Thighs" for solid protection. All classes of insurance written.
