CONGREGATIONAL

Hollows have secrets that they keep for their children like the present Rick plans to give Dad on his birthday. But mothers also have secrets of their owa ... dreams of what by have their children will become. And weren into the fahric of every mother's dream are threads of descenter, morality, courage, faith. The threads are there, but manne-simply part of the finished design; a son or daughter to be

But in such dreams we should study the threads and realize the loom on which they must be woven. The qualities that give magin and beauty to a life come from thorough religious train-

So a mother's dream should not remain a secret. It must be her huband's dream, too. For together, with the guidance and help of the Church, they can provide the Christian home so necessary to the fulfillment of their hopes.
