Growing OLD GRACEFULLY

It isn't automatic — this growing old gracefully. Worries seem to accumulate with the years. And there is often the gnawing sense that opportunities once brimming with promise lie empty where we tossed them... along a road without return.

But these later years are not meant to be a burden. There is much to suggest that God intended them to bring reward.

He gave us the blessing of memories, so precious moments of joy may be lived again and again.

He gave us the gift of love, so we can experience new adventures of youth, the achievements of maturity, in the lives of our children and grandchildren.

And He gave us a Way of Life, revealed in the teachings of Christ. So that every today... when it has become yesterday... will be another graceful stone in the arch of Tomorrow.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL - ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor in the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

'Alive For '65'

There's work to be done in Seminole County so let's get on with it. And that's US with a CAPITAL YOU. Each of you can have a part, must have a part in helping Seminole County grow like it never has before. There's much to be done. This county's leaders have started a number of projects, all of which are designed to build the community into a solid organization. The titular head of such an effort is the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce. Through the efforts of that co-ordinating body, much has been done. But you won't find the Chamber looking back and feasting on past laurels. The Chamber's 'alive for '65.'

We know about the Beautification Project to attract tourists. We know about the increased industry in the area. All of these are in motion. But they need the energy of every man and woman in the community to keep them in motion. That's where we come in. The Chamber is poised to begin its membership drive for '65. It kicks off Tuesday morning with a breakfast in the Civic Center. Every business man and woman in the community should avail themselves of the opportunity to keep Sanford on the move. None of us is too small to help—from the smallest grocer to the largest supermarket operator and everyone in between. Undoubtedly you'll be contacted by one of the recruiting team members in the next few hours. If not, look them up. It's as simple as this: Look to the future and look to the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce. You'll be helping yourself by joining the Big Team which is dedicated and destined to lead Seminole County to the brightest future in its history.

Chamber Looks To Increase In Members

ROBERT BESSERER

A. H. BECKWITH JR.

Annual Seminole County Chamber of Commerce membership drive opens Tuesday morning with a kickoff breakfast in the Civic Center. Co-chairmen of the campaign are Robert Besserer and Arthur Beckwith. A host of prizes will go to workers who sign up the greatest number of members. Chamber officials expect a 25 per cent increase in total membership and dues this year as they strive for 500 members. This would put the Chamber in the "saturation" class, they said. The Chamber has an energetic program in the works for this year as it strives to make it the most productive in Seminole County history. Considered of paramount importance are the Metropolitan Telephone System, the Riverport Marina, the Port Authority, Junior College and location of additional industry in the county.

The telephone tie-up would link all of Seminole County instead of having toll charges exist now between the Sanford and Deland areas. The marina project is classified as the most energetic in the history of the Sanford area. A feasibility report has been issued and it points to a profitable undertaking by this city and county. Special committees are at work in pushing for early completion of the endeavor. The Port Authority program will be given a sharp push Thursday afternoon when a feasibility report will be given to the Chamber's engineering for the work. Also to be heard will be the final legislative action necessary to set up the authority. The Junior College has been given an official sanction of the State Junior College Board and legislation is being drawn now by Sen. Mack N. Cleveland Jr. and Rep. Joe Davis. It will be submitted at an early legislative session when that body convenes in April. Additional industries will be sought in this area during the approaching year as the Chamber strives to keep the county progressing in the economic field. Tomorrow's breakfast will be for all membership drive workers. It is hoped the drive will be completed in one day. Two additional days have been allowed for "cleanup work" by the canvassers.

Six Die In Area Car Crashes

Seminole '65 Traffic Toll Totals Three

Six persons are dead as a result of a series of accidents this last weekend in area highways. Four were killed in Volusia County and two died as a result of accidents in Seminole County. Seminole's 1965 traffic toll now totals three. Four died in a grinding head-on collision of two cars on Interstate 4, northeast of Deland, at 2:30 a.m. Saturday.

Dead are Paul Raymond Kirkland, 18, of Deland, the only person in one of the cars; James Parker, 39, of Deland, and Clifton McClary, 38, and Curtis Phillips, 37, both of Sanford.

A nine year-old boy was struck and killed by a hit-and-run driver Friday night as he walked along the shoulder of Beardsall Avenue. The driver, identified by Trooper J. L. Sikes of the Florida Highway Patrol, was Willie Lee Lester, of Route 2, Box 105.

The driver faces charges of manslaughter and leaving the scene of an accident involving death. "A Deltona resident," Mrs. Anna Rose Sullivan, 49, died Friday at Seminole Memorial Hospital of injuries received Wednesday in a crash at the intersection of Florida 434 and 419.

Mrs. Sullivan was a passenger in a car traveling on Route 434 when it went out of control, struck the Gee Creek embankment and plunged into the creek, according to Trooper L. D. Harrell.

The Interstate 4 fatal crash occurred when a car driven by Phillips was speeding south in the northbound lane and crashed head-on into one driven north by Kirkland.

Senators See $1 Billion Aid For Appalachia WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate leaders hoped to give President Johnson his second "Great Society" legislative victory of the new session today by passing the $1 billion aid program for Appalachia. Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, Mont., scheduled an early Senate session to clean up debate and action on amendments to the measure for rehabilitating the state region which runs from northern Pennsylvania to northern Alabama. A final vote was scheduled for mid-afternoon. The Senate opened debate Friday on the Appalachia bill, a key stone of the President's economic program for the nation. No votes were taken, however. The six-year Appalachian program is designed to rejuvenate the economically depressed area through a variety of federal aid plans. The area includes 355 counties in Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Maryland, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia and West Virginia. Although the Appalachia measure had a broad base of general support in the Senate, many members felt that other regions were equally deserving of help. Several proposals already are in the works for dealing with other depressed areas.

Legislative Meet Slated Tuesday Seminole County's legislative delegation will hear a host of proposed actions when it convenes Tuesday at the County Commission rooms starting at 9 a. m. Among the proposed actions will be the establishment of a water conservation program in the county. This was discussed Saturday morning at a special County Commission meeting. Specific times have been allocated to various delegations as they offer their proposed legislative acts. Hearing the proposals will be Sen. Mack N. Cleveland Jr. and Rep. Joe Davis.

Situation 'Stagnant' In Moonport Strike OFFICIALS of the Cape's building and trades unions were meeting in Cocoa Beach today to consider a proposal made by a presidential commission offering to hear both sides of the construction workers' issue if work is resumed. In another development, a contract between a steelworker's union and an Ohio firm expired at midnight last night, threatening to interfere with work on a large rocket-carrying crawler at the Space Center. A Space Agency spokesman said if a new steelworkers' contract is not signed today, crawler work could remain idle even if the construction workers decide to return to work tomorrow. The Army Corps of Engineers said today about only 500 of 4,300 building tradesmen reported to work today. It was the third work day lost by the crippling building trades disputes. "The situation is stagnant," said J. L. Berlin, a project engineer at the vast Project Apollo moonbase.

Winter Tourism Should Boom, Wright States TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Industrial Commission says Florida's winter tourist season this year should be a booming one—and they've got some employment figures to back up the prediction. Chairman J. D. Wright Jr. said that 86,100 persons unemployed in Florida during December was the lowest figure since December, 1957. The significance of these highly optimistic year-end employment figures is that they are strongly indicative of a good tourist season in the offing, Wright said.

Blizzard Blankets North; 20s Here

By United Press International A massive road-closing blizzard stranded hundreds of skiers in the Colorado mountains today, pushed down across the plains and dumped heavy snow eastward into Ohio. Temperatures sank to the 20s as far south as Florida. Winds up to 60 miles an hour whipped the snow into deep drifts from Iowa and Nebraska to the Texas Panhandle. Nearly all mountain passes were closed by snow in Colorado and Wyoming, where police warned motorists not to travel except in emergencies. Pueblo, Colo., was slugged with three inches of fresh snow in one hour during the night and Milwaukee, Wis., picked up five inches in six hours. Snow was falling from the Rockies to the eastern Great Lakes states. The weather bureau said blizzard conditions were occurring through parts of Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri. Roads were clogged with snow throughout the storm area. Hazardous driving warnings calling for snow, rain and sleet were extended eastward into Tennessee and West Virginia. The storm was expected to push into New York state with up to six inches of snow by tonight. Roads out of nine Wyoming cities were declared impassable because of the drifting snow. The blizzard caused an 11-car traffic accident south of La Salle, Colo., Sunday, injuring 19 persons. A six-car accident in northwestern Wisconsin blocked the highways as the storm started to ride in. Three persons died when their light plane crashed in a heavy snow storm near El Paso, Ill. Out West, the threat of tragedy on the rain-swollen Wilson River near Tillamook, Ore., was eased when the river cut a swath around one end of a massive mud slide that had created a lake three miles long. About 800 residents of the area had been urged to leave their homes in fears the dam would burst under the pressure of the river.

There was a flurry of activity on 25th Street some months back, getting ready to four-lane the SR 46 from French Avenue to Melvilleville. Survey stakes were put down, buildings razed or removed, and then things came to a standstill. Early in 1964 announcement was made a contract would be let in August. That was last August.

Plans afoot for a major building project on Onora Road. Announcement due early next month, according to the promoters. Speaking of Onora Road: Wonder whatever happened to that sidewalk which was supposed to be built from Sanford Avenue to the Navy base? HLH gave ground and Navy agreed to furnish the material.

$1.5 Billion Budget Faces Cut By State

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The state Cabinet resumed hearings Monday to figure out how to finance $1.5 billion in proposed spending with $1.07 billion in income and still meet the state's essential needs during the coming biennium. Florida's chief promoter, the State Development Commission headed a group of 25 agencies that were presenting their spending proposals to the Cabinet Budget Commission. The Development Commission is asking for $27 million to cover its expenses for the coming two years. The commission says $11,265,000 of its anticipated expenditures would come from the state's general fund. This is a 63 per cent boost over current commission spending. The commission says it has planned a major campaign to convert central and mid-western state farmers to Florida vacationers, instead of California travelers. With only $1,071,000,000 revenue expected to flow into the state coffers during the next two years, the cabinet must pare about $450 million out of the budgets before it presents its recommendations to the Legislature, which has final say on the matter. Gov. Haydon Burns said that "it seems obvious that it will not be possible to recommend all of the requests that will be heard." But Burns promised that essential needs would be met.

Scout Saves Sister With Quick Action By Julia Barlos Quick action and previous Scout training of a nine-year-old Fern Park Cub Scout, Ernest Pinkard Jr., 506 Prattle Lake Drive, today was credited with saving his 12-year-old sister, Betty, from what could have been fatal burns when her gown caught fire as she stood in front of the fireplace. Betty is in Winter Park Memorial Hospital today with second degree burns over at least 20 per cent of her body. It is reported she would be in much worse condition if it hadn't been for Ernest, who quickly snatched her body in a blanket to kill the flames. A seventh-grader at South Seminole Junior High, Betty is in Room 241 at the hospital.

Bank deposits were up 6.77 per cent with the 1963 figure listed at $49,158,687 compared with the 1964 reading of $52,489,130. That's being healthy.

Lake Monroe Jottings

By Mrs. H. L. Johnson
Well, it was just too good to be true. About the wonderful weather I mean. So it had to turn cold. But here it is February so maybe it won't get any worse. Hope not anyway.

Have to wish both Claude and Rena Hawkins a very Happy Birthday. They were both a year older last week. Claude and son Sid look Rena out for dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Marler of Crescent City drove down to see Claude and Rena and had a bar-b-que supper a few night ago. Claude is famous for his bar-b-que sauce. We are very sorry to hear of the sudden passing of Mrs. Ruth (Hugh) Gowan's mother in Kentucky. Ruth and Hugh left at once for there. Their daughters stayed here with friends.

Jimmie Carroll has joined the U. S. Army and has gone to Jacksonville where he will be sent out to New York. Our sympathy goes out to the family of James Dunn Mr. Dunn was a retired city employe. He will be missed by his many friends and relatives here in Lake Monroe. Want to congratulate Diane Clause and Don Harvey on their recent marriage. Diane resided with her grandparents, Mr and Mrs W. C. Clause Sr. on Narcessus Avenue. Diane was the honor guest at a shower recently given by Maria Rowland and Judy Lavender. She received some very beautiful gifts. Clarence and Lydia Hittell and children spent a recent weekend here with Claude and Mary Hittell. When they returned home to Jacksonville, Claude and Mary's daughter Linda went home with them for a short visit. Congratulations to Lavie Banwell and Duane Burk on the announcement of their engagement. They have set a date in April for the big day. Little Mike Edwards, son of the Richard Edwards of Jewetta Lane, fell and broke his collarbone the other day while playing little Mike is just three so he will have to be very careful and let it heal properly. Also Kathy Sirrianni of Grapeville Avenue let a clothesline pole fall on her which caused several stitches to be taken in her head. Darlene Collette was a very happy gal the other evening. She received a phone call from Kenny who is stationed in Cannes, France. I bet they were very short minutes to them both. I think she said they talked 10 minutes. Anyway Darlene was very happy. Darlene's parents, M. O. and Audrey Hojiers, celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary last week. Congrats to them and many more happy years. Another recent wedding was that of Pat Brantley and Kelly Lake. We wish them much happiness and the best of every thing in their future life together. Seven members of Marie Mae's 4th Girls Club met Thursday at the Community Building. They have received their new food books and will start preparing foods. They also are making their skirts and houses. Keep up the good work girls. It has been wisely said that we cannot really love any body at whom we never laugh.

GOP Endorses Removal Of 'Phone Barrier'

By Jane Casselberry

Improvements in state election laws is the aim of the Seminole County Republican Committee. Former Rep. Jan Fortune, committee chairman, was directed to contact appropriate state officials and legislators to promote improvements during the April session of the Legislature.

The committee endorsed efforts to unite Seminole County by the removal of the telephone barrier in interest of convenience, progress, and boosting the economy within the county. William Medcalf of Altamonte Springs was named to contact officials to offer the cooperation and support of the group.

Due to the low ratio of registered voters in the county the committee agreed to request that the county take every action possible to encourage and facilitate voter registration by making it possible to sign up at other offices other than the registrar.

22 Have Received Gift Of Sight

Twenty-two persons have received the gift of sight through the kindness of former Seminole County and DeBary citizens, Mrs. Frank Woodruff, director of the Seminole Hospital Eye Bank Association told members of the Nursing Advisory Council.

"These 11 persons, now deceased, were among the hundreds in the area who have pledged their eyes after death to SHEBA that others may see," Mrs. Woodruff pointed out.

The speaker, who was instrumental in founding the eye bank here several years ago, told The Herald today that she had a list of 485 names of persons who pledged their eyes. After the council meeting, five more persons signed the pledge, making a total of 500. This means that 1,000 persons will eventually be able to see. (Only one corneal transplant is made at one time, so that one pair of eyes serve two persons.)

Mrs. Woodruff reported that she has spoken at meetings of many clubs and organizations in the past years and after hearing what can be done, donations usually increase. Mrs. Woodruff, said she is always available to give talks and show the film, "Boy With A Blindfold," in behalf of the eye bank organization. Her home is in DeBary.

Seminole Memorial Hospital has facilities for the removal of the eyes of donors after death. They are then rushed to the J. Hillis Miller Medical Center in Gainesville, the blind recipient notified and the operation to give sight takes place within a few days," Mrs. Woodruff noted.

The work of the eye bank is sponsored by the Sanford and Casselberry Lions Club. Rev. E. P. Richards of Longwood is chairman of the board of SHEBA.

'Aqua Varieties' On TV Sunday

"Aqua Varieties" is sponsored here by Florida Power and Light Company, as one of the nation's investor-owned electric utility companies.

MATHER OF SANFORD 203-09 E. 1st ST. PH. 322-0983

Toward 2000 A.D.

President Johnson remarked the other day that we are now closer to the year 2000 than to 1929.

His point was that we had just about moved out from under the long shadow cast by the disastrous business crash of that year.

The wars, the altered power structure of the world, all the changes in our economic life, labor-management relations, the size and role of government which have taken place since then are now an irreversible part of history.

Like gravity, no historical event ever stops operating with distance, but like a spaceship passing from one planet to another, we are coming under new influences. We are beginning to feel the pull of the 21st century, with its automated, leisured, much more crowded society that we are well on the way toward building.

Much needs to be done, of course, to free ourselves of the last dragging problems hanging over from the early part of this century, lest our children find that the glittering future we envision for them is but a tarnished reflection of the past.

The overriding issue is that of peace. If that can be kept as well or as poorly as it has since 1945, perhaps that will be considered a successful accomplishment.

But continued peace depends on many other things besides this country's nuclear strength and vigilance.

A fundamental question is whether the scores of emerging nations—as well as many of the old but underdeveloped ones—can achieve democracy and begin to earn a fair share of the world's wealth for their people.

To do this, they must be helped to lick the related problems of poverty, ignorance and runaway population growth.

At home, automation is the genie let loose from the test tube of science which promises so much, both of good and ill. Here the question is no longer one of unionization and strikes but of how we are to learn to live with the thinking machines with a minimum of human suffering and dislocation.

To solve this problem will require, not bargaining shrewdness, but wisdom and statesmanship on the part of both workers and employers. Given that, we may enter a Golden Age of free enterprise that Karl Marx or the Utopians never dreamed of.

The recent four-year agreement between the Longshoremen's Association and Atlantic and Gulf shippers may be a token of this. The new contract at long last calls for gradual reduction in work crew sizes, made possible by automation and made necessary by rising costs.

The same situation must eventually be resolved on the railroads and in steel and other important industries. There are also serious challenges to be met in the areas of education, poverty, crime, urban blight.

It is an uphill journey to 2000 A.D. But when we look back and see how far we have climbed since 1929, or even 1909, it takes a real devotion to pessimism to be able to say it was better yesterday than it will be tomorrow.

Thought For Today

Your bars shall be iron and bronze; and as your days, so shall your days, so shall your strength be. — Deut. 33:25.

Great works are performed not by strength but by perseverance.—Samuel Johnson.

Phil Newsom Says . . . Water Is Life

UPI Foreign News Analyst
Usually the war between Israel and the Arab states is a cold war of words, only occasionally flaring into border violence.

But there was a sense of deadly earnestness in the words of Israeli Premier Levi Eshkol when he told his Arab neighbors:

"Think twice before engaging in dangerous adventures . . . We will fight for water because it is life itself for us."

Prompting Eshkol's warning was the meeting of Arab premiers in Cairo at which it was decided to push ahead with plans to divert the Jordan River and its tributaries to prevent their use by Israel.

According to Arab announcements some work on the project already has gone beyond the planning stage. It is a two-pronged operation, involving on the one hand expensive engineering projects and on the other a united Arab military force to fight what both sides agree would be an inevitable war.

On her side of the border, Israel already has completed a series of pumping stations, pipelines and reservoirs to carry waters of the Jordan River to the arid Negev.

The Arabs fear that the project will increase Israel's ability to absorb migrants and thus increase her military potential.

But as usual among Arab agreements, the Cairo meeting also produced disagreement, this time with Lebanon in the middle.

For Lebanon the catch was a plan to build a pumping station on the Wazzani River on Lebanese soil. The Lebanese had wanted the station built on the Banyas River in Syria. Both are headwaters of the Jordan.

The Lebanese were overruled when it was pointed out that a station on the Banyas would lie within easy range of Israeli artillery.

But for the Lebanese there also were other serious problems.

Militarily she patently is no match for the Israelis. Yet to invite other Arab forces onto her soil would require approval by parliament, a doubtful prospect. Further, as bankers of the Middle East, the Lebanese have less interest than other Arab states in pushing the quarrel with Israel.

Also coming out of the Cairo meeting was a threat that the Arabs might recognize Communist East Germany if West Germany continued its aid to Israel.

The West Germans gave the threat the back of their hand. They have been giving Israel military aid and have trained some Israeli forces. But they also have given the Arabs more than $200 million in economic aid.

Despite the Arabs' brave talk, a combination of politics and economic reality seemed likely to delay if not put off forever their water diversion scheme.

Barbs

By Walter C. Parkes
An author whose recent book advocated legalizing bigamy, was hanged in effigy on Boston Common by college students. Youths probably consider one marriage had enough.

Wreckers tear down buildings in our big cities at such a rate that few structures last long enough to become landmarks.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Mary and Carol actually had more fun because they combined the game of "bar-bain hunting" with their enjoyment of the carnival. Teach all children this valuable game, for it helps prevent divorce and even our soaring federal debt! Send for the booklet below and use it on your children by the age of 5.

CASE V-401: Mary and Carol, aged 12 and 10, were visiting their Aunt Mildred.

A carnival was being held in town, so the girls wanted to attend.

In such a situation, children will usually run up to their parents or adult chaperones asking:

"May we ride on the roller-coaster, or the merry-go-round, etc?"

"Dr. Crane," their Aunt Mildred told me, "I decided that to better bargain hunters if we gave them a fixed amount to spend.

"So I gave each girl $1.25, telling her that sum was to buy ice cream and pay for their rides.

"But I warned them to walk all around the carnival first, so they could be sure whether they wanted to spend their money on the Ferris Wheel, or whatnot.

"Then I turned them loose. But I watched them from afar."

"They would observe the people on the Ferris Wheel because of the angles and screams of the riders, the younger girl immediately decided she wanted to buy a ticket for the Ferris Wheel.

"But her older sister would caution her to wait till they had inspected all the other amusements.

"As a result, they surveyed the entire list of tempting attractions. "Then they finally purchased tickets for the Ferris Wheel. "After they got off, they counted their remaining money and then decided to try the merry-go-round.

"They bought themselves ice cream cones.

"By the time we were ready to head for home, they were quite happy and they still had 15c apiece left over from their original $1.25 which I had given them.

"But they had combined fun with some practical experience at budgeting their money.

"Don't you think this is the better way to handle children at such a carnival or amusement park?"

Yes, indeed, so we salute Aunt Mildred for her superb use of psychology.

If she had simply indulged the girls with tickets to every amusement device they had wanted to ride, she could have spent $5 per girl and still they wouldn't have had as much lasting fun.

For the very act of seeking bargains can become a fascinating game.

Moreover, it serves as excellent insurance for happy marriage later on.

"Money Management" is still the greatest blindspot in modern education.

So parents and dotting adult relatives should be sure they help train youngsters in the fun of budgeting.

Start out, too, by having the kiddies earn their own spending money for then they realize that money symbolizes sweat and elbow grease and blisters on one's palms, plus even deprivation of some free play time!

Between you'n'me

By MURRAY OLDERMAN
Sports Editor
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

If you catch Vince Lombardi, the coach of the Green Bay Packers, around a race track, there's a family interest. His godfather, out of the same Sheepshead Bay section of Brooklyn that spawned Vince, is nonagenarian Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons. Vince once caught the famous trainer during a Santa Anita meeting and said, "Give me something." "Bet," answered Sunny Jim, "Eddie Arcaro."

Tony Lama

"Actually," revealed Eddie, "I'm more Spanish. I went to Italy a couple years ago and couldn't find a single Arcaro in the phone book." . . . The wind which whipped Tony Lama out of the lead at the Bing Crosby shindig was nothing compared to the breeze at St. Andrews last year when he won the British Open. "If Chi Chi (Rodriguez) had been there," Tony recalled, "he would have drowned. The wind would have blown him right out to sea." . . . Tony doesn't consider the British win the big one for him in '64. He says he played his best golf at the Bulck Open. . . .

There's only one play in basketball which bugs Gail Goodrich, the driving guard of UCLA's top-ranked team. "When a guy goes underneath as I'm going for the basket, he's not playing the ball; he's playing me." And besides, it's dangerous. . . .

Beaver Falls, Pa., is going to have a lively rooting interest in all of New York pro football this year. Besides Joe Namath of the Jets, there is also Joe Walton, making his comeback as a tight end with the Giants after a shoulder operation. Walton used to play ball with Namath's older brother, Frank, and remembers watching young Joe pitch Little League baseball. . . .

There's a publicity man in Hollywood out a job. He's the guy who dreamed up the hoax that Vince Edwards (Dr. Ben Casey) would star in the "Harold Connolly Story." . . . And Vince, who wasn't having any part of hammer-throwing, canned him when it broke. . . . When Johnny Keane, the new manager of the Yankees, signed his first baseball contract, it also meant his first suitcase. It was in August, 1930, and he was playing for the United AC in the University League in St. Louis. The owner, whose name he can't recall except that "he was a nice Jewish fella," bought him that first suitcase to report to Waynesboro in the Blue Ridge League. And when Johnny opened it to pack, he also found it full of a whole new wardrobe. . . .

Babe Parilli, who married a Green Bay girl when he was with the Packers, has finally moved away from the Wisconsin city, where he made his home all these years in pro football, and bought a house in Boston. Which should cement his future as a coach with the Boston Patriots when and if he gives up quarterbacking. . . .

Idle matter: What gets Paul Neumann, the backcourt man who represents the only sold acquisition by the San Francisco Warriors in the Wilt Chamberlain trade, is that when the college basketball season started in December he had already played 28 games—the equivalent of a varsity season. . . . Will Joe Namath, who wears red underwear, now switch to Jet Green? . . . Is Charley Trippi out as an assistant coach with the St. Louis Cardinals?

Between you'n'me, how long can it remain a secret that one of this country's brilliant sports stars, an Olympic hero, has been on probation for armed robbery?

Eli Quarterback Dies In Crash

BRIDGEPORT, Conn. (UPI)—Yale quarterback Ed McCarthy, who "represented everything we want in athletics," according to his athletic director, was to be buried Tuesday.

The 21-year-old football player was killed Saturday when the car in which he and two other Yale students were riding hit a snowbank and slammed into a tree at Greenfield, Mass.

The three had planned a skiing weekend in Vermont.

Champ Loses PGA Match

PALM BEACH GARDENS (UPI)—Professional golfer Bob Fraley will probably have nightmares about thousands of sand traps for a long time to come. He was in 14 traps on the first 18 holes of the 36-hole final Sunday in the $10,000 PGA National Golf Club match play championship.

As a result, Fraley lost out to Chuck Malchanski, 35, of Addison, Ill., in his attempt to repeat as tourney winner.

SS Hurricanes Out On Top In 'Sudden Death'

By Jim Bacchus
Herald Sports Writer

It took the South Seminole Hurricanes four periods, two overtime periods, and one sudden death playoff to do it but they maintained their undefeated record with a 50-48 triumph over Tampa's stubborn Dons at Lyman Friday night.

Brant Rose's layup was the deciding factor in the game, coming after the 'Canes had overcome a large Tampa lead with a brilliant second half. The Dons with superior height jumped off to an early lead and held a 27-21 lead at intermission.

But a fired up South Seminole squad returned to the court for the second half determined to keep their hard earned record. Led by Bruce Sturt and Jim Lucas, the 'Canes steadily ground out the Tampa team until the final buzzer which came with the two schools tied up at 44-44.

Then came the two overtimes. Tampa took the lead but two point plays by Jim Lucas and Dennis Garrett kept the 'Canes in the contest.

In the third overtime period, a sudden death, forward Mike Hargis stole the ball and went down the court and shot. He missed. But teammate Brant Rose was there and made the winning goal.

The championship games between South Seminole and Sanford will be played at Lyman Thursday night.

Scoring for South Seminole was Stuart with 14, Lucas, 10; Rose, 8; Matt Hickok, 3; Hargis, 2; Mike Rickett, 2; Dennis Garrett, 2; Tony Dutierrez got 17 for Tampa while Gary Crimm got 14.

Rick Barry refuses to get lost in the shuffle of top-ranked teams and his scoring determination may make others sit up and take notice of Miami.

Barry poured in an astounding 51 points against Oklahoma City University Saturday night in blossoming his national scoring lead to 38.2 points a game.

The 6-7 Hurricane hustler also set a school rebound record when he hauled down 29 caroms against the Oklahomans.

Top-ranked UCLA, which has been grabbing most of the headlines this college basketball season, bounced back from a Friday night Iowa upset to crush Loyola of Chicago 85-72.

Gail Goodrich netted 36 points for the Uclans and Freddy Goss pitched in with 22 more against the Ramblers.

Wichita, third-ranked, recuperated from sharing a double bill upset with UCLA by walloping Louisville 98-74 for a 5-0 Missouri Valley Conference lead.

All-American Dave Stallworth ran out his six semesters of eligibility in this game and exited with 40 points. He received a standing ovation from home town fans as the first Wichita player to attain national honors.

Second-ranked Michigan eased to a 5-0 Big Ten Conference record with a 98-81 victory over Purdue as Bill Huntin led the Wolverines with a 25-point production.

St. Joseph's (Pa.), ranked fourth, displayed a balanced attack in whipping Xavier of Ohio 93-78. Tom Duff scored 23 points, Matt Goukas had 20 and Cliff Anderson 19.

Davidson, 7th ranked, tied a pair of records in subduing Wake Forest 78-71. The Wildcats equalled school and Southern Conference marks by recording their 15th consecutive triumph.

Greyhounds Top Indians 42-39

Lyman Greyhounds downed the Seminole High School squad 42-39 Saturday night in a closely fought contest in Longwood.

Joe Asher, Lyman's outstanding guard, led the Greyhounds with 25 points, his highest per game total of the year. Mike Sterling contributed eight while playing an excellent defensive game.

Ron Hinson hit for 18 and Gary Loyd 70 for the losers. Seminole 9 7 8 15-39 Lyman 8 10 11 12-42

Tennessee, Gators To Tangle Tonight

ATLANTA (UPI)—The tenacious Tennessee Vols and the towering Florida Gators, a pair of toughies who specialize in defense, tangle tonight for the runnerup spot in the Southeastern Conference basketball race.

Tennessee, 5-1 in SEC play and 12-2 over-all, will have the home court advantage over Florida (6-2 and 12-4) and is expected to continue as the leading contender to the frontrunning Vanderbilt Commodores (6-1 and 14-2). Lions Coast To Landslide Victory Over Hustlers

Patterson 7-5 Over Chuvalo

By Jack Cuddy
NEW YORK (UPI) — Former two-time world heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson and Canadian champion George Chuvalo, both very aggressive contenders, will collide tonight in jammed Madison Square Garden for a 12-round elimination fight.

But the betting is 8-5 that the bout does not last the 12 frames, regardless of who wins.

Because of his superior speed, 30-year-old Patterson is favored at 7-5 to beat the 27-year-old slugger from Toronto, whom champion Cassius Clay calls "the white hope."

Cassius will be doing the between-rounds commentary for theater-television.

Last week Patterson, of Great Neck, N. Y., was favored at 2-1; but big, brawny Chuvalo's apparently better condition in the closing stages of training pared down the betting price.

Each will get a big purse from this richest non-title fight in ring history.

The complete sellout of 19,100 tickets, including those for 700 standees, will bring a "live" gate of about $160,000 at the Garden.

In addition a gross of about $600,000 is expected to be paid at theater-television locations in the United States and Canada.

The live gate plus the theater-television gate should produce a total gross of about $760,000, says Lester M. Malitz, theater-television producer.

The richest previous non-title gross was $509,115, attracted entirely "live" by heavyweight's Luis Angel Firpo of Argentina and Harry Wills of New York of Jersey City, N. J., Sept. 11, 1924.

Tonight wealthy Patterson gets 32 1/2 per cent of the total net gate; Chuvalo, 20 per cent. Floyd is guaranteed $50,000; Chuvalo, $30,000.

When the fight starts at 10:30 p. m., Floyd and George will ostensibly be contending for the right to a shot at the winner of Chicago's March 5 fight between Ernie Terrell of Chicago and Eddie Machen of Portland, Ore.

Terrell and Machen are fighting for the vacant World Boxing Association (WBA) crown that was stripped from Clay last September for announcing a forbidden return fight with Sonny Liston in November at Boston Clay's emergency Hernia operation post-pone that fight until May.

Terrell and Machen have guaranteed that their winner will defend against tonight's winner in 90 days.

Blue Darters Cop 2nd Place In Orange Belt

Apopka Blue Darters leaped into second place in the Orange Belt Conference Friday night as they took the measure of Lyman's Greyhounds 42-37.

The Blue Darters thus gained revenge on the Longwood five after they had dropped an early season 59-57 decision to Lyman in a double overtime period.

Joe Asher and Eddie Long hit the hoop for 12 points each for the Greyhounds while Bruce Altman and Rick Fly scored 11 and 10 points respectively for the Blue Darters.

A tight man-to-man defense was used by Apopka to hold down the shooting of the Greyhounds. Lyman got only three points in the first period while Apopka hit for 13.

Slalom Champ SEEFELD, Austria (UPI)

The world professional giant slalom was captured by newcomer Francois Honlieu of France, who maneuvered the 1,600-meter course in a two-heat time of 1:02.99 seconds before 7,000 fans. Hans Lietzner of Austria was second and France's Andrien Duvillard finished third.

Bubbles Popped For 2 Teenagers

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Nancy Roth and Maureen Crum, with experience and a pair of hot putters in their golf bags, popped the bubbles of two teenagers in the finals of the Women's International Four-ball Championship.

The two Florida women defeated Roberta Albers and Rhonda Glenn two-up in the grueling 36-hole final.

chalked up a 1-11 fourth quarter score over the Lions.

The Lions hit well all evening but the outside shooting, especially in the first two periods, was particularly deadly.

Al Holz, Mike Newquist, and Pete Bostic were high for the Hustlers with 14, 13, and 12 points, respectively.

Oviedo also took the junior varsity contest, 33-32.

Oviedo 22 32 24 18-96

MELBOURNE, Australia—Wimbledon champion Roy Emerson of Australia beat Davis Cup teammate Fred Stoli 7-9, 2-6, 6-4, 7-5, 6-1 to win his third successive Australian singles championship.

Archer Captures $57,500 Lucky

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Long George Archer is a hometown boy who really made good in his hometown.

The six-foot-six native San Franciscan captured his first pro golf tournament, the $57,500 Lucky International, and won $8,500 right in front of his friends by holing a nine-foot birdie putt to edge New Zealand's Hob Charles in a playoff.

While a partisan gallery shouted, "come on George!" the 25-year-old tournament sophomore, on the circuit only 13 months, scored the biggest victory of his career.

Caius Julius Caesar was the first Roman to have his portrait on coins in his own lifetime.

Goalie Out

BOSTON (UPI) — Boston Bruin goalie Ed Johnston will be sidelined for six weeks by a broken hand suffered in a 6-1 loss to the Toronto Maple Leafs in National Hockey League action. Johnston played most of the game with what he thought was only a broken finger.

Mr. Visiting Businessman PLEASE NOTE!

Florida owes a debt of gratitude to Thumgog, the thinker

We'd like to say, "Thanks" to Thumgog or whoever the unhonored, unknown Neanderthal genius was who invented the wheel. His brainstorm keeps the Sunshine State rolling along.

Thumgog would beam happily if he could see all the highways and railroads we have put under his wheels. 70,786 miles of roads and streets; 7,246 miles of railroad track. Not bad for a state that ranks only twenty-second in area!

This tightly-woven network of highways and railroads connects the many interdependent industries of Florida. And it offers the assurance to new firms of swift, efficient, economical transportation to and from market.

It will do the same for your firm, Mr. Businessman.

Think about that for a moment. And think about how much Florida living, with its year-round Springtime, can do for you and your family. Then, think about your employees — and what an irresistible attraction Florida is to qualified personnel, skilled, semi-skilled and executive.

So, why not look around for your opportunities in Florida? Who knows — you might become one of our big wheels.

Unborn Child Sex Possibly On Way By Simple Test

Dr. W. J. Rawlings of Melbourne, Australia, may be on the way to devising a simple, practical test to determine the sex of children before birth. He has discovered that the amount of the hormone, pregnanediol, found in the urine of the mother seems to give a clue to the sex of the baby she is carrying.

Working with 245 pregnant women, the doctor found that twice as many more boys than girls were born to mothers with high hormone excretion rates, and that many more girls than boys were born to those with low pregnanediol levels.

It will be a while, though, before the tests can be made widely enough to be of real significance. Until then, there's not much to do except what mothers, fathers, grandparents and friends have always done: Wait, guess, and make sure baby has some pink, some blue in its wardrobe!

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I have just learned that my daughter, who had a beautiful church wedding, was more than two months' pregnant at the time. What is the best thing to do?

(1) Say the baby is premature?
(2) Come out with the truth and return all the wedding gifts?
(3) Urge my daughter and son-in-law to give the baby up for adoption?
(4) Brazen it the whole thing out and pretend we see nothing wrong with it?

I can't eat or sleep and I'm afraid I will lose my mind. Answer in the paper, but please don't use my name.

NAMELESS

DON'T say the baby is "premature." DON'T return the wedding gifts. DON'T urge that they give the baby up for adoption. And DON'T pretend you see nothing wrong with it. The truth will be apparent soon and you will fool no one. There is no reason for you to feel guilty or offer apologies. You didn't know of your daughter's condition at the time of her wedding. And perhaps this is the time for me to impel brides who find themselves in this predicament to spare their parents the kind of heart-ache and humiliation this mother will have to endure.

DEAR ABBY: How can a girl hang on to her youth?

PATTI
DEAR PATTI: Don't introduce him to her pretty girl friends.
DEAR ABBY: I have a mad crush on my study hall teacher. You wouldn't believe it. I've never had a crush like this before in my life. There is no reason for it, either. It just happened. This teacher is extra nice to me, which I wish he wouldn't be because it just makes me like him all the more and there is no future in it. Please don't put me in the category with women who think their doctors are in love with them. I know this teacher doesn't care a thing about me. I just want to know how to get over this feeling.

GOT A CRUSH
DEAR GOT: As long as you recognize a crush as a crush, yours is not a serious problem. Crushes (such as the one you describe) are normal. And they have a way of fading away. The less time you invest in day-dreaming about it, the faster it will fade.

DEAR ABBY: That letter from Susan's mother sure hit home with me. I've been a beauty operator for 16 years and I used to have the same problem with freeloading friends and relatives who expected anything from a free eyebrow arch to a full permanent after I had already put in a day's work at the shop. I finally got smart and when anyone even hinted that I should accommodate them with free beauty service after hours, I would say, "If YOU worked in a laundry all day, how would you like it if I brought my clothes over for you to iron?"

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

"It is a normal condition for all of us to have periods when life is not entirely beautiful." That comforting comment on the mild feelings of depression that most human beings experience from time to time comes from one of the nation's leading psychiatrists, Dr. Nathan S. Kline, recent recipient of a $10,000 Lasker Award for his pioneering work on cheer up drugs.

That comment should be especially reassuring to housewives. Not that housewives are more prone than others to fall victim to a spell of the blues, but because the average wife and mother feels it is her duty as a homemaker to keep all members of the family happy and cheerful.

When her husband or one of her children is noticeably "down," a conscientious homemaker somehow feels it is her fault.

She starts to wonder what she has done wrong. She wonders if her neglect of some particular thing is responsible for her husband's or child's unhappiness.

Her mind goes to work, trying to determine how to make things right again for the member of the family who is going about with a long face. If the homemaker will just remember Dr. Kline's reassuring statement that life doesn't lose beautiful all of the time to anybody, perhaps the burden of her husband's or child's temporary unhappiness won't weigh so heavily on her conscience.

After all, no woman should demand of herself that she dish out instant happiness to her family.

If she will just try to keep herself in a happy frame of mind and create as happy a home as she can, then she shouldn't worry too much or feel like a failure everytime one or another member of the family seems less than happy. With that load off her mind, the housewife ought to have fewer feelings of depression, herself.

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

Every East player in the 1963 World Championship team trials had to enter the bidding at the five level or take the coward's course and pass. Some South players opened with four spades; others had opened with three and been raised to four by their partners.

Eight East players took a deep breath and bid five hearts. The other one passed and wound up losing a well-deserved 13 International Match Points.

Each West player managed to raise his partner to six and four were allowed to play that nice laydown contract. One actually was doubled by North, which shows that experts make just as bad doublies as anyone else.

The North-South players who let six hearts play gambled that they would defeat that contract which actually did depend on a club finesse. The hardest luck was that of the East-West pair who first reached six hearts through fine bidding, then found perfect defense to beat six spades four tricks only to wind up losing six IMPs anyway. The defense wasn't too difficult but it is worthy of note that two East-West pairs failed to find it.

The defense starts with East opening the nine of clubs. West cashed two club tricks and shifted to his singleton diamond. West took his ace and gave his partner a ruff whereupon East led a third club and thereby insured a trump trick for his partner.

The early AM is not good for yielding to a feeling of being confused by persons or conditions about you, but later you are able to gain much benefit by a more practical approach to the problems facing you and by adding a note of humor, pleasure, or joy to your speech, actions or manner of delivery. Be gay.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Some important individual is observing you with the thought of some big job, advancement. Be very efficient, at your very best. Then all works out to your favor and benefit.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Bringing those novel ideas to the fore will give you much pleasure and increase prestige with others. Write to those who are out-of-town. Show that you have a delicious sense of humor, too.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Gain the admiration of real experts in your line of endeavor by understanding their ideas, views. Put them in operation quickly. Be very thoughtful and you get encombrances behind you.

MOON CHILDREN (July 22 to July 21) Let written statements show the degree of your efficiency and how fine and expert you are, so that success increases. Then get into new outlets as well. Be very studious.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Plan what it is you have to do in order to come to a truer understanding with partners. Know what it is they expect of you. There can be a great success possible in the early future.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Getting tasks performed cheerfully is the best way to gain the good will of co-workers and increase production appreciably. Get about socially tonight. Show that you are very affable.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Getting together with colleagues happily makes this a most enjoyable day or evening. Get into the recreation that is mutually enjoyed. Find success from worry, restores energy.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Try to be more co-operative with those who dwell under your roof and see about making practical improvements, too. Buy little thoughtful gifts. Show that you are in their corner, as it were.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) With all the varied items of data before you, by adding them together you can accomplish a good deal now. Increase profits. Communications are best media for rising in your career.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) If you have not contacted experts who can be very helpful in your line of endeavor, this is the day to do it. Get holdings safeguarded, increased. Make your decisions quickly.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Thinking over personal aims is important before taking any action to attain them. Then full speed ahead. Evening is best devoted to making your mate happy, going along more with his or her ideas.

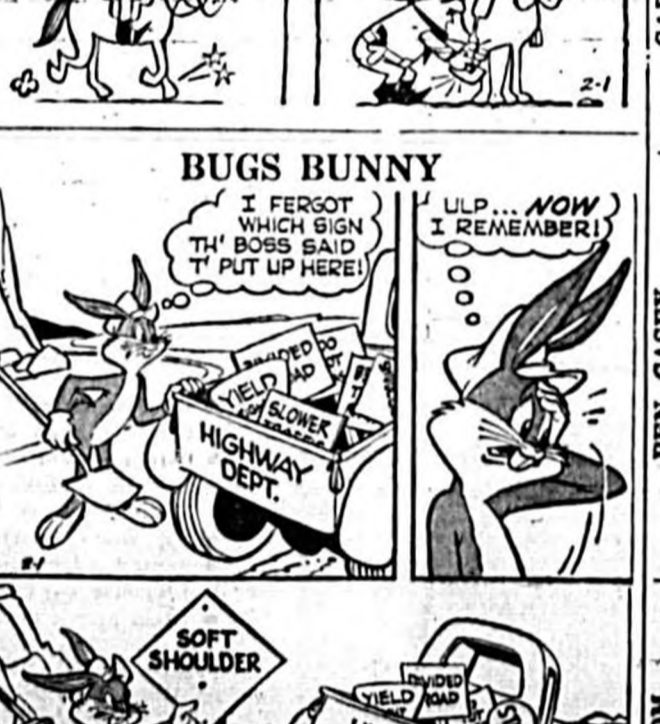

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) By conferring with individuals who think seriously, you can get a wonderful slant on modern ideas. Get out socially tonight. Garner the data you need from friends at the same time.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY, he or she will find it natural to understand whatever deals with the emotional as well as the practical, which can be pretty well camouflaged by the constant running after what is most modern and dealing with the humanities. An ideal chart for the entertainment world or some connection with the government where clear thinking and ingenuity are nicely combined.

Oppression Told By Refugee To Church Girls

By Donna Estes
Miss Gloria Morales, 19-year-old Cuban refugee presently making her home in North Orlando, was guest speaker at a meeting of the Junior and Intermediate Girls Auxiliary of First Baptist Church of Longwood.

Miss Morales told the girls of the oppression suffered by her people in her native land during both the Batista and Castro regimes and said that although freedom was limited under Batista, it completely disappeared under the Castro government.

She told of the desecration of the churches and of the abuse suffered by the clergy and the nuns. School students were instructed that love of country was more important than love of parents and they were encouraged to inform on their parents if they deviated from government policy. All phases of private life for citizens, from the size of their homes to the amount of money they were permitted to have, were supervised by the government.

She related her own family's experience when, after it was decided their home was too spacious, it was confiscated and they were put out into the street to find other living quarters. Persons were permitted to earn from investments no more than $500 per month and to have savings of no more than $1,000. Money above these limits had to be turned over to government and to make sure the regulation was carried out, currency was often changed so that any hold-outs would be of no value.

Throughout the most interesting talk, Miss Morales answered questions from the girls, explaining the way of life of the Cuban people from their food habits to their Christmas customs. Most explanation demanded by the younger ones, concerned the Christmas customs since in Cuba gifts are not brought on Dec. 25 by Santa Clause but by the Three Kings, Gaspar, Melchior and Balthasar, on Jan. 6.

Following Miss Morales' talk refreshments were served to the capacity attendance by the leader, Mrs. Becky Leftwich and Mrs. Patricia Lindsay, wife of the pastor.

Community-Wide Drive To Aid Longwood Accident Victim

By Donna Estes
Representatives of the civic and church organizations of Longwood met at the invitation of the Longwood Volunteer Fire Department and Auxiliary at City Hall last Thursday evening to discuss and make plans for a community-wide effort to raise money to assist Mrs. Kenneth Brabazon and her family.

Mrs. Brabazon, a member of the auxiliary, was severely scalded, receiving second and third degree burns over most of the front of her body, in an accident at the Longwood Children's Christmas Party Dec. 10.

Since that time she has been confined to Florida Sanitarium and Hospital and her release is not expected for some time. Although her condition is reported as good she still is in considerable pain and burns have not healed sufficiently to permit skin grafts, it was reported.

Mrs. Jenn Willis, auxiliary president who conducted the meeting, explained that funds would be needed by the Brabazon family, following her release from the hospital, for necessary aftercare.

Present for the meeting were Mrs. Willis, Mrs. Marguerite Unstead and Mrs. Judy Snow, Firemen's Auxiliary; Chief Claude Layo, John Farina and Hank Snow, Fire Department; R. C. Carlson, B. L. Helms, Carl Lommler and Percy White, City of Longwood; Mrs. Elizabeth Hill and Mrs. Elena Shaw, Civic League; Mrs. Mary Hartley, and Mrs. Lenn Hammond, Extension Homemakers Club; Rev. Jack Lindsay, Mrs. B. R. Gray and Mrs. Ellen Dudley, First Baptist Church; Mrs. JoAnne Haman and Mrs. Pauline Stevens, Christ Episcopal Church; Mrs. Jennie Fox and Mrs. Donna Estes, Church of the Nativity, and Mr. and Mrs. David Williams, Longwood Tourist Club.

Workers End Moonport Walkout

Seminole County on the St. Johns River "The Nile of America"

Presidential Commission Investigates

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — Construction workers returned to America's new Project Apollo moonport today, ending a three-day walkout that idled $200 million in key space building.

Work on the 45 space agency projects that were affected by the 3,800-man strike began a slow return to normal.

Building tradesmen, directed by union leaders Monday night to end the walkout, began to pour into the vast base before dawn, backing up traffic on roads that had been nearly deserted since Thursday.

Clifford Baxley, co-ordinator of the Brevard Building and Trades Council, predicted by the end of the day that about 90 per cent of the 4,300-man work force would be back with a 100 per cent turnout Wednesday.

The walkout, fifth to hit the vast space center within a year, had kept more than $200 million worth of vital space construction at a standstill since Thursday.

Baxley said the back-to-work decision was made by the officers of the council's 18 member unions after a presidential commission agreed to investigate the unions' grievances.

The main dispute that touched off the strike involved a contract between the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) and the Marion Power Shovel Company of Marion, Ohio.

The firm is building an $8 million crawler that will carry huge Saturn-5 moon rockets to launch pads.

Under terms of the contract, Marion Power Shovel Company uses steelworkers imported from Ohio.

The local building tradesmen claim they, rather than steelworkers, should have the job.

Baxley said the President's Missile Sites Labor Commission also will hear six other union complaints that "are very serious as far as we are concerned." He did not elaborate.

The hearing is set for Feb. 9 in Washington.

Did, Didn't He? So You Decide

By Dottie Austin

If there were any groundhogs in Sanford today, they were bound to be mightily confused.

According to ancient legend, today is Groundhog Day. Traditionally, if the little animal (also called a woodchuck) pops out of the ground and sees his shadow, spring is a long way off.

Intermittent sunshine and showers in this area today would have made the little fellow wish he had "stood in bed."

Since it is unlikely that there are any groundhogs this far north, Sanfordites will have to take the prediction of the one which was observed in Punxsutawney, Pa. today.

The actions of that one indicated to members of the Punxsutawney Groundhog Club that the country can expect a mixture of everything miserable until at least March 16 — including rain, wind, extreme cold, snow and sleet. If he had not seen his shadow, an early spring would be indicated.

Standing in the snow, club members saw the groundhog pop out of his burrow at precisely 7:27 a.m. EST. He took a look around, saw his shadow distinctly and scurried back to his hole to wait for spring.

Club members said that this was the 79th consecutive year that the groundhog has made an accurate forecast of the weather the country could expect for the remainder of the winter.

Longwood Residents Oppose Raceway 3-2

By Donna Estes

Longwood City Hall was filled to overflowing for a public meeting by the city council Monday night to hear opinions of townpeople, and particularly property owners, regarding the proposed stock car speedway in the southwest section of the city.

Owners of properties immediately adjacent to the Joyce brothers' proposed stock car stadium were opposed to the track, with the exception of one, and overall opinion of the audience was 3-2 against the venture.

Residents who favored the raceway argued that business and entertainment will be brought into the city by the stadium while those opposed were unanimously concerned about the noise and depreciation of property which might occur.

Council Chairman R. C. Carlson explained that the problem in question is "not what the council may or may not wish to do, since according to legal advice received, council cannot refuse to issue a building permit as the properties for the proposed race way are already properly zoned."

A portion of the zoning ordinance pertaining to the situation was read which states that "properties zoned light industrial may be used for commercial purposes unless defined as obnoxious, offensive, noisy or odorous."

While many in the audience pointed out that, in their opinion, the track would be "noisy and odorous" Carlson further explained that the courts could settle the matter after the track is built.

He stated that one of the main purposes of the meeting was to "impress upon the promoters of the track the feelings of the people."

Following the hearing, one of the Joyce brothers told The Herald that he "is undecided" at this time, as to whether he and his brother will continue with the project.

Bitter Cold, Snow Sweep North

Mercury Hits Below Zero; Death Toll 39

United Press International

The remnants of one of the winter's worst storms dumped fresh snow on New England today while bitter Canadian air pushed temperatures below zero southward through the Ohio Valley.

The mercury stood at least 25 degrees below zero in North Dakota, and sub-zero readings were common across the snow-covered plains and Midwest.

Cold wave warnings were extended into Arkansas, northern Mississippi and western sections of Kentucky and Tennessee.

Snow fell during the night throughout New England.

The death of an Air National Guard pilot in an airplane crash near Granby, Mass. during a snowstorm and the death of a six-year-old Shelton (Conn.) boy in a traffic accident raised the storm death toll since Friday night to at least 39.

Binghamton, N. Y., picked up four inches of new snow and Syracuse, N. Y., reported three to more inches on the ground.

Four inches fell Monday night at Crossville and Bristol, Tenn., London, Ky., and Beckley, W. Va.

Hazardous driving warnings were posted because of the snow and strong winds in the eastern portions of Kentucky and Tennessee and for sections of the southern Appalachians.

Showers and thundershowers swept the southeast Gulf coast, with the Air Force base at Ozark, Ala., reporting one-half inch.

West of the Mississippi, skies were clear except for snow flurries in central Montana and fog along the Pacific Coast.

Great Falls, Mont., picked up two more inches of snow during the night.

Appalachian Aid Final OK Pictured Soon

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate backers of President Johnson's $1 billion Appalachian aid program today predicted final passage of the key "Great Society" measure by the end of the month.

Sen. Jennings Randolph (D-W. Va.), who engineered the bill through the Senate Monday on an easy 62-22 victory, said, "I think we can expect final action late this month."

Randolph said he had talked to Rep. Robert E. Jones Jr. (D-Ala.), about the measure's chances in the House. Jones is chairman of a special subcommittee set up to speed action on the bill.

"Bob Jones assured me the bill would have clear sailing in the House," Randolph said. Jones planned to call his subcommittee into executive session today to discuss the House version of the bill. Three days of hearings on the measure begin Wednesday.

In a statement praising the Senate action, President Johnson said the vote "indicates national concern over the special problems of an 11-state area which has not shared fully in the nation's general economic growth and progress."

Johnson said past experience — particularly in the Tennessee Valley area — has demonstrated that "when a large region of the country can be helped to help itself, the benefits extend to the entire nation."

The area for redevelopment under the bill covers 355 counties in Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Maryland, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia and West Virginia.

11th Bomb Derby April 5-10

Eleventh annual Reconnaissance Bombing Derby will be held April 5-10 by Reconnaissance Attack Wing One at Sanford Naval Air Station.

The Derby is considered one of the most comprehensive air readiness exercises in the U. S. Atlantic Fleet.

Its professional events, scheduled each day of the meet, attract many of the defense officials most concerned with evaluating the Navy's air strike potential.

This year special emphasis will be placed on aerial photographic and electronic reconnaissance competition in contrast with past derbies when bombing was the top event.

The increased emphasis on reconnaissance has resulted in changing the name of the exercise from "Bombing Derby" to "Reconnaissance-Bombing Derby."

Social events, including a golf tournament and reception, will bring the military and civilian communities together on Friday, April 9.

A carrier armanship demonstration the following day will attract the same guest list plus thousands of Florida residents as the air station holds open house. An estimated 10,000 witnessed the air show last year.

The purpose of the six-day event, as outlined by Sanford's Capt. James O. Mayo is "to provide training for squadron personnel through participation in various competitive exercises, thereby enhancing the overall readiness of Reconnaissance Attack Wing One."

Mayo, wing commander, is responsible for keeping seven squadrons of heavy attack bombers and reconnaissance jet aircraft ready for moment's notice deployment in critical areas around the world.

The importance of such a force was made evident only last summer when a squadron was sent to the still troubled Far East.

With this deployment Sanford became the joint Atlantic-Pacific Fleet headquarters for the RA-5C, latest in North American Aviation's Vigilante series.

Most of the week's events will stress the versatility of the Navy's carrier-based reconnaissance and bomber aircraft with Vigilante, A3B Skywarrior bombers and other planes competing.

Among the events will be a defensive electronic countermeasures exercise which will consist of seeking out and pinpointing "enemy" radar stations by electronic means.

Also scheduled are a night photographic reconnaissance mission with the RA-5C Vigilantes using wing flasher units, a tactical mission involving both photographic and electronic gathering equipment, and a reconnaissance exercise consisting of gathering information about beaches and roads in an area where an imaginary landing party plans to "hit the beach."

The total aerial reconnaissance system, with all its components operating in unison, is capable of giving a tactical theater commander a complete up-to-date intelligence report minutes after the plane returns from a mission.

The week of strenuous operations and its preceding days of preparation will not be unrewarded ones for participants. More than 15 trophies are being offered as incentives to win the various events. They range from a mammoth engraved punch bowl for the overall squadron champion to smaller odd trophies for individual winners.

State Budget Faces Cuts - To $1 Billion

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Gov. Haydon Burns and other state Cabinet members were scheduled to study and possibly cut their own individual office budgets Tuesday in a windup of hearings on proposed record state spending of $1.5 billion over the next two years.

Sitting as the state Budget Commission, the Cabinet and legislative appropriation committees have been going over the budgets of different agencies since last Monday.

The budgets eventually will have to be pared either by the Cabinet or the Legislature in April—to just over $1 billion, the expected income figure for the state through 1966.

Tuesday's session, the last one in the current series, was to include budgets of Governor Burns, Agriculture Commissioner Doyle Conner, Atty. Gen. Earl Faircloth, Comptroller Ray Green, Treasurer Broward Williams, Education Director Thomas Bailey and Secretary of State Tom Adams.

J. D. Wright, chairman of the State Industrial Commission, submitted a $209 million spending request, of which he said the state will provide only $3.4 million.

The rest of the funds would come from the federal government since the commission administers the workmen's compensation and unemployment compensation programs for the state.

Rain Dampens Fair Opening

Seminole Flying Ranch, a new public airport at Chuluota will be ready for operation near the end of this month, it was learned today.

A spokesman for Tuck said a 4,200-foot runway has been installed. The airport is located on SR 419 two miles from Chuluota toward Orlando, in Seminole County.
