

GERMANY STANDS ALONE; AUSTRIA CAPITULATED UN-CONDITIONALLY YESTERDAY

AMERICANS MAKE GAINS; GERMANY GOING FAST. Washington, Nov. 4.—Terms of armistice under which the land and sea forces of what once was the Austro-Hungarian empire have laid down their arms were announced today simultaneously in Washington and the allied capitals. They accomplish complete surrender and open Austrian and Hungarian territory for American and allied operations against Germany.

From this drastic document, it can be stated, may be gained an accurate outline of the conditions bearing completion in the supreme war council at Versailles under which Germany may have a cessation of hostilities.

The Italian front ended today with a central U. S. demobilization of troops, surrender of artillery and pillage of occupation by American forces.

Several Recent Changes in Sanft Bank Forces. In Sanford banking circles many changes have recently taken place.

Mr. Deas has been with the Peoples Bank for several years and has been elected to the position of vice president.

Influenza Subsiding. The influenza epidemic is very nearly a matter of history, so far as Sanford is concerned.

It is probable that the schools will be opened on Monday, although no formal announcement has been made to that effect.

Mrs. J. V. Wicks of Geneva spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. David Speer.

Will Meet Next Sunday. The Wesley Brotherhood, Class will meet for the first time since the epidemic of influenza interrupted our Bible study, next Sunday in the class room at 9:30.

ELECTION TODAY IS QUIET IN SEMINOLE

NO INTERESTS HOWN ONLY IN AMENDMENT. The general election for 1918 is being held today in every section of the United States.

Interest in Florida is centered more particularly upon the vote on the two constitutional amendments, one for the maximum ten mill school tax and the other for the ratification of the prohibition amendment.

The amendment relative to school tax is being championed by educators all over the State.

COMMISSIONERS MEET. The Board of Commissioners met today to discuss the report of the various departments of the county.

The mother, wife of Lemuel Calhoun is in receipt of advices from the army headquarters that according to the provisions of the government she will receive some $6,000 on account of this death.

The government is providing protection to all who enter the service in this way and a certain number of days is given in which the soldier can apply for insurance.

In the loss of Mrs. Pevyhouse, Sanford loses one of her best women. Well known as a Christian character, of a sweet, gentle and mild disposition.

Mrs. J. T. Brady is here from Jacksonville visiting friends.

NEW HEAD TO FLA. COUNCIL DEFENSE

JUDGE WHITFIELD ELECTED TO THIS OFFICE. Florida State Council of Defense has enlarged the scope of its activities until it has become necessary to hold meetings of the advisory committee almost weekly.

It was also arranged to hold a meeting of the Florida State Council of Defense at the Florida State Capitol on the 15th instant.

logical sequence. The picture holds many thrills—patriotic, emotional thrills—that react in wild bursts of applause, and hold the audience intensely interested. It is a drama, as absorbing to contemplate as its plot is big, and there was never a plot more striking or more complex. An evening's entertainment, one should see the picture to satisfy himself that one understands what has been going on in the world the last few years, and the picture viewed in its combination is one of the best war pictures yet shown.

The American said: "Chronologically correct and pictorially bewildering is 'Crashing Through to Berlin,' the latest war film to be presented at the Broadway Theatre. The invasion of Belgium by the Germans, the entry of France, England, Italy, Japan and the United States, war in the Holy Land and the submarine atrocities are all presented in a manner that makes 'Crashing Through to Berlin' a mine of information. Last night's audience included officers from the Brooklyn Navy Yard and the Department of the East at Governor's Island and members of the Committee on Public Information."

The Globe said: "'Crashing Through to Berlin,' a remarkable picture dealing with the first four years of the war, opened last night at the Broadway for an indefinite run. The picture was warmly received by the critics and is expected to pass judgment, as well it might have been, with some of the most thrilling scenes ever shown projected on the screen."

The Morning Telegraph said: "The film takes in picturesque actions of the war from the funeral of Archduke Ferdinand to the recent American victories at Chateau Thierry and Cantigny. Complete and accurate in its attention to detail and with a deep, patriotic appeal, a well-balanced series of pictures."

Letter From Ensign Carlson,
Naval Air Station,
Pensacola, Fla., Oct. 29, 1918.

Dear Mr. ...

Since I received your very welcome letter which has kept me from answering as soon as I intended to. For awhile I was taking additional training in qualifying as pilot on what we call the "big boats," and they well deserve the name, being flying boats of 97 feet wing spread, weighing, fully equipped, about 7 tons, using two 400 H. P. Liberty motors. But they are easier to fly than some of the smaller planes we have here. They carry five men, ten machine guns and fuel for seven hours. Then I went on leave the first of this month, spending two very enjoyable weeks in the mountains of Pennsylvania, and in Washington. I was feeling rather nervous and run down before my vacation, but came back full of "Peep" and I enjoy flying now more than ever. While I was in Washington I saw Mrs. Walker and Miss Claire for a few minutes. They were both well.

I came back more eager than ever to get across and after a lot of kicking finally got the consent of the powers that be to put me on the list of those available for foreign work. I will go as a night bomber, as I think in that capacity I will see the most active service possible for a naval aviator. The night bombers fly large land planes, both for night and day bombing, and some of them fly single seater scouts for the protection of the bombing planes as they go over the lines.

It may be a month before I leave this station, as it takes a long time for the orders to go through. I will go to Miami for a few hours flying on land planes, as we have none here. I have been trying for a week to get in the five hours of night flying required, but on account of the bad weather I have only had one short hop. I was down at the beach tonight, but the water is too rough for landings at night.

I am writing this at the office of the gunnery squadron to which I am attached. My work the past three months has been that of a gunnery pilot driving a plane in which a student gets practice operating a machine gun in the air, or preparing with another plane for camera gun practice. I in this the student aims at the other plane which maneuvers back and forth, and with a camera attachment to the guns takes pictures at the rate of 200 per minute of whatever the gun is aimed at. When the film is developed the number of "hits" on the other plane are counted, and mistakes in aiming are corrected. This work is very interesting. The planes we fly are very good for quick maneuvering and stunting, and the pilots are all fine fellows. On the days when we are short of students we go up a few thousand feet and pull off a lot of stunts and that's the best of all.

I am living at the Navy Yard now, and while it is not as pleasant as the "home" I had in Pensacola it is very convenient and far better than I expect when I get on the other side.

I hope to see you in Sanford before long and will be glad when I can be home for a few days. Remember me kindly to all my friends.
Very truly,
Harry F. Carlson.

EPIDEMIC INFLUENZA

Statement Made by the State Board of Health

There are indications that the present epidemic of influenza in Florida is abating, although it is still a most serious matter. The Florida State Board of Health, working in conjunction with the United States Public Health Service is taking far reaching measures to fight the epidemic. Physicians are being sent to the communities which are in need of them.

Every phase of the problem of dealing with the epidemic is being closely studied by physicians and scientists. The length of time between such epidemics, however is so that the last one most nearly resembling this being the grippe epidemic of 1889-94, that the problem presented is in many ways an entirely new one. Many of the most important factors are unknown.

Experiments have been made with serums and vaccine. Apparently the results are beneficial, but the experiments have not been carried on long enough or on a sufficiently tested scale for a positive verdict to be given. For instance, there is question of the possibility of a relapse if vaccination again is attempted.

id and smallpox. The same positive position cannot be taken in regard to influenza vaccines. At the severity of the epidemic tends to wane, it is of the utmost importance that a firm guard be maintained against possible relapse. Quite a large proportion of the fatal cases have been those of patients who seemed to have temporarily recovered, have left their beds too soon, perhaps returned to work only to relapse. The danger of complications seems greater in the case of a relapse than with the original illness. Under the direction of the State Board of Health authority was given health officers and local officials throughout the state to close schools, churches and theaters and forbid public meetings wherever such measures seemed advisable. This was a necessary precaution, even if it did involve a certain amount of public inconvenience.

There are features about the exact mode of the transmission of infection in influenza which are not yet known with absolute certainty. It is certain, however, that it is transmitted from person to person and that the danger of infection is increased by public gatherings. In many communities in the state the quarantine order was promptly followed by a decrease in the severity of the epidemic. The question is sometimes asked, why one member of a family will be a victim of influenza, while another apparently as much or more exposed will not be affected. It must be remembered that there is a great difference in the susceptibility of various persons to infection. It is almost impossible to avoid entirely the germs which cause influenza at a time when an epidemic is prevalent.

Some persons have high resisting powers and seem little affected, while others are quick victims of infection. Exercise, pure food and air, hygienic living, tend to raise the resisting powers. It is also only common sense to avoid crowds and other situations where the danger of infection is increased. Medicine should be taken under the direction of a competent physician. It should be remembered that this disease is rapid in its onset and no time should be lost in obtaining medical advice.

Guards Resume Drills

The Seminole Guards will resume drill this week with "Non-Com" school tonight and regular drill Friday night.

The following order of Lieut. Turner has been issued:
Headquarters Seminole Co. Guards

Masons Attention

Sanford Lodge No. 62, F. & A. M. will resume labor on Tuesday evening, Nov. 5th (please note the time) promptly at 7 o'clock.

Thereof and govern themselves accordingly.

Death of C. C. Lee

Mr. C. C. Lee of this city died yesterday at his home in West Sanford from an attack of pneumonia brought on by influenza. The deceased had at one time sufficiently recovered from influenza to return to his work with the Sanford Light Company but it is thought that he went to work too early after the first attack, not realizing the danger of the prevailing epidemic and pneumonia was the result. Funeral services were held this morning at the Lake View cemetery. He leaves a wife and several children.

Florida Council of Defense

Tallahassee, Nov. 4 Special.—The Florida Council of Defense has opened a campaign looking to the conservation of live stock killed on railroad tracks of way. During the year 1917 it is estimated that approximately seven thousand head of meat animals were killed in this manner. Fully three million pounds of meat were completely destroyed, to say nothing of the loss in leather. Food sufficient to feed an army of 2,000,000 men one day, or 200,000 men for a week, was needlessly destroyed and wasted. As a food conservation measure, the Council of Defense will ask the cooperation of every owner of livestock in Florida, in this great movement.

The War Industries Board will hold an important conference with the State Councils in Washington, November 11, 12, to consider non-war construction now handled in the different states by the State Councils. Justice J. B. Whitfield, chairman of the State Council has appointed Hon. Jno. W. Henderson, member advisory committee, and Hon. H. S. Howard, executive secretary as delegates to attend this meeting.

The State Council has been advised from Washington, that more than ten thousand additional nurses will be needed for the Army Nurses Corps by the first of January, and that another twenty-five thousand will be needed by the first of June, 1919. The impression has gone out that no more nurses are needed in military hospitals and it is very desirable to correct this impression immediately.

A recent order from the Adjutant General requires that training camp commanders report names, addresses of all deserters and men absent without leave, to the State Council of Defense, and the various State Councils of Defense are rendering assistance in apprehending these men. Major A. R. Small, of Lake City is in charge of this department of the work of the Florida State Council of Defense.

The State Council of Defense will assist in the United War Workers' Campaign and has called upon county and community councils to cooperate with the state director of the campaign.

MORE SUGAR NOW

New Ruling Allows Increase of One Pound per Person
The pounds of sugar per person per month.

An increase of one pound over the past ration.

That is the new allowance made by the United States Food Administration to become effective immediately.

Through the exceptional co-operation given the Food Administration in conservation of sugar, supplies have accumulated in this country that make possible the increase as noted above.

The official notice of this increase is given out from Washington as follows:

The rapid manufacture of the new crop belt of sugar in the West and the new crop of Louisiana cane sugar in the south, together with the freer railway transportation conditions and the reduction of sugar in the manufacturing trade, together with patriotic conservation by the people, in the past four months, enables us to increase the household allowance from two pounds per person per month to three pounds per person per month, with the same ration for public eating places, from November 1st. This makes good our promise to increase the household allowance of sugar at the earliest possible moment that our supplies would justify, and makes it possible for the household to more freely use the apple, cranberry, and grapefruit products and to use the fruits canned during the summer without sugar.

The regulations are also revised to the extent that any person may purchase his whole monthly allowance at one time if he so desires. That is, any family may purchase a month's supply for the entire family in one purchase from the retail trade.

This relaxation of the sugar allowance is another proof that the Food Administration is consistently and continually studying the best interest of the people of this country, and makes a most emphatic denial to any statement, or hint, that the Food Administration is acting contrary to the interest of the people.

The new regulations should be appreciated by every person and should win from all their further efforts for conservation along other lines.

WELD SEVEN WAR WORK AGENCIES INTO RELIEF ARMY

Great Organizations Which Are Helping to Keep Up the Morale of Fighting Millions Unite in Campaign for $170,500,000.

With millions of American men on war fronts, in training camps and on the seas and with thousands of American women on foreign soil, all engaged in the stupendous task of making the world safe for democracy, a great duty devolves upon those who remain in the United States,—the duty of sending home to those who have put home behind them for the period of the war. The agencies through which this can be accomplished are joined in the United War Work Campaign.

From being given the cigarette or chocolate bar, with which he stays his hunger in the fury of battle, to the theatrical entertainment or the athletic games, which relax him into normal comfort after weeks of torrid combat, the American fighter is dependent upon the continued efforts of the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the National Catholic War Council and K. of C., the War Camp Community Service, the Jewish Welfare Board, the American Library Association and the Salvation Army. To carry on this work the combined welfare organizations are seeking a fund of $170,500,000.

The Y. M. C. A. provides 538 huts in American training camps and more than 800 in the war zone as centers where the fighters can use as clubs, schools, theatres, stores, churches, libraries and writing rooms. More than 7,000 men and women had been sent overseas and approved for overseas work by early autumn and 3,822 were serving in American camps at home.

The Y. W. C. A. huts are the centers of the American Expeditionary Force and are the theatres where the American entertainers, sent over by the "Y," appear. Noted American public men and clergymen speak in the huts. Classes are conducted there. Millions of letters are written there on paper provided free by the "Y." Physical directors of the "Y" teach and spread fitness athletics, using material furnished free by the organization.

The Y. W. C. A. does similar work for thousands of American women in war work overseas—signal corps telephone operators, nurses and French munition workers. It provides cafeterias, rest and recreation centers, entertainment and reading for these women and girls.

The Y. W. C. A.'s outstanding contribution to soldier welfare work in training camps was the establishment of Hostess Houses, where the soldier or sailor may receive his mother, wife, sister or sweetheart in the surroundings and atmosphere of the best homes.

The National Catholic War Council co-ordinates all Catholic welfare work in support of the government and through the K. of C. provides club-houses for our fighters in all American training camps, as well as having twenty-five centers in France and three in England. In their huts the K. of C. provides entertainment, movies, boxing bouts, educational work, religious services, free stationery, reading matter and writing rooms.

In France their rolling caissons accompany the American army, their secretaries march with the troops, giving away cigarettes, cookies, chocolates, soap and towels.

The K. of C. had 300 workers in France at the beginning of autumn, with 450 more passed by the government and 260 others signed up. At the same date they had 408 secretaries in American training camps, 150 buildings, fifty-six more in the course of erection and contracts let for fifty more.

War Camp Community Service functions exclusively in America, its special mission being to "surround the camps with hospitality." In place of leaving the soldier or sailor to the promiscuous companions and diversions formerly his lot, the organization obtains for him the best to be had in communities adjoining camps or through which he passes.

books contributed by the American people the association bought 60,000 books, mostly technical, of which 108,297 were sent overseas. More than 15,000 books of all kinds have been assigned to libraries in Y. M. C. A., K. of C. or Salvation Army huts in the war zone, a smaller number being distributed in American training camps while half a million are on warships or transports. The association has erected and operates forty-one library buildings.

The Salvation Army, with 1210 workers, principally women, overseas, has won the affection of the fighters. Its 501 huts, rest and reading rooms are popular gathering places for the soldiers. The doughnuts from the Salvation Army huts in the war zone and given to the men have become famous around the world. The Salvation Army gave forty-four ambulances to the American and Allies' armies and in many other ways gives constant unselfish service.

58 JEWISH WORKERS GOING "OVER THERE"

Col. Barker Bids Godspeed to the Graduates of Training School.

The wholesome co-operation between the seven great organizations working for the happiness and welfare of our soldiers and sailors was recently illustrated at the graduation exercises of the tenth class of the Jewish Welfare Board's Training School in New York. Col. William S. Barker, who went to France representing the Salvation Army with the first contingent of our troops and has been "over there" fifteen months, was the principal speaker and wished the fifty-eight Jewish workers of the class Godspeed. While Louis Marshall, the prominent Jewish attorney and philanthropist of New York, lauded the work of the Salvation Army among the boys at the front.

"What our fighting boys need in inspiration and heart and character in those who are there to help them," declared Col. Barker. "You will represent in the camps and overseas the ideals and standards of the Jewish faith, and it is up to you above all things to be consistent in your religious practices. Practice what you preach. That I am sure has been the secret of our own success. If you live up to the principles of your faith and give what you have to give from a heart big with love, the boys will respect you, whether they be Protestant, Catholic or Jew."

The newly graduated field workers will make a total of 260 men doing field work at our camps and garrison training stations under the auspices of the Jewish Welfare Board. The Board has about fifty "huts" in the various camps and maintains centers in all large cities where soldiers and sailors of all faiths are welcomed. A headquarters has recently been established here for overseas work. There are now nearly 125,000 Jews serving in the army and navy.

Her Hubby Also Had Pen Name—Hedley Jones. "Who knows my husband's pen name?" said the wife of a soldier, "and I don't know it at the house." "And it often comes out in the cook's," "My husband has come up in the pen they call him 'George'."—Judge.

Ink Eradicator—To take ink stains from skin or wooden material scrub with spools of twine or brush with pointed sticks. Stand for several days between washings. Wash with texture of the material.

To Remove Paint. To remove paint from common wooden chairs, scrub them with a strong solution of washing soda.

Uncle Eben. "I has noticed," said Uncle Eben, "dat de munn dat sho' nuff does big things abn' got very much time, foh 'em 'de rig."

First Oil Pickle. Robert had her first oil pickle recently. The next day at school Miss Bass had her little pupils paint a doll. A few days later Robert said: "Mother, was that a doll oil pickle I had?"—Indianapolis News.

Will Do Better Next Time. "I don't know," said the reporter, "why he keeps on alive and in 2007 he'll be here, but by gum if ever I have any use to live over again I'll bet I had one good widge to shoot at it."—Kansas City Star.

Rapidity of Wireless. It takes but one-twentieth of a second for a wireless signal to pass from Washington to San Francisco.

800 WOMEN NEEDED BY SALVATION ARMY

Commander Evangeline Booth Says War Relief Work Must Be Extended.

Commander Evangeline Booth, leader of the Salvation Army in the United States, has been suddenly called upon to furnish 800 additional war work women for France. The request is contained in a report just received by her from Col. William A. Barker of the Salvationist forces, whom she sent to France over a year ago to establish a bureau and general war relief work with the American troops.

"We will do all we can to fill this demand," said Commander Booth when discussing the approaching United War Work Campaign. "and the need itself should impress the American public all the more with the absolute necessity for sustaining and enlarging the war relief work of the seven organizations, besides the noble Red Cross, now merged for a drive for funds. Each is a vital cog in a vast machine for human relief, and each is indispensable, serving its particular elements in its own way."

"The Salvation Army was born in hardship, reared in privation and trained to every phase of human misery and how to cope with it. Perhaps that accounts in some degree for the success our work has attained and for which we are thankful."

"We are of the common people, and we tell on a practical basis. We learned the lesson of how to do it in the Boer war, when we stood at the side of British troops and weathered it out to the end. We have been tried by fire, and the mothers and fathers of America, as in other countries, trust the Salvation Army to do the thing they had the chance."

"With 1210 trained workers at the front, operating from 420 huts and dugouts, the Salvation Army is doing, has done and will continue to do its best for the cause of humanity and Liberty."

CURE FOR BLUES NEAR THE CAMPS

Community Service Takes Place of Mother, Friends and Home for Soldiers.

Ten young officers of the Student Army Training Corps of the University of Detroit recently applied for a furnished house and a housekeeper who would not be a servant, but, as one young officer expressed it, "the sort of woman to whom the boys can call out 'Hello, mother!' when they come in the front door."

Homemakers in the main for which War Camp Community Service supplies innumerable cures. "We've got your number," says the W. C. O. S. to the homesick boy from camp with leisure to spend in any one of the three hundred towns scattered over the country. While he's wondering what on earth he'll do with himself when he gets there, not knowing a soul in town and with a limited percentage of his "merry men" in his pocket, along comes a friendly oriented card from the local branch of his own lodge announcing a reception that night on behalf for soldier members. By the same mail the Methodist church sends an announcement of all its meetings, addressed to him, with This Means You printed at the bottom. How did they know he was a Methodist?

He had forgotten about the little "Personal Card" he made out at the adjutant's request during his first day in camp when it was only one of the endless details in the round of dentists and doctors and general confusion. The W. C. O. S. had not only his number, but his name and address, his home town, the name of the school he'd gone to and a good bit about the things he was fond of doing—each fact written into a little blank on the card especially for it.

Work Must Be Respected. Any painter will tell you that the sketch he begins carelessly, with a slovenly scrambling of paints, ends by disgusting him and is frequently left unfinished. Any embroiderer will admit the same expence. Work to be a pleasure must be respected. It must be approached as a dignified and an honorable affair.

Tragic Fate of Queens. France has had seventy-seven queens. Eleven were divorced; two legally put to death; nine died young; seven were widowed early; three cruelly treated; three exiled. Most of the rest were either poisoned or died broken hearted.

Optimistic Thought. A man may usually reveal from an unjust ruler.

Paper First Used in Asia. Paper was brought from Asia to Europe by the Arabians. In China paper and been manufactured from an ancient or from silk. When Sumatran was conquered by the Arabians they supplied cotton in the place of silk in paper making.

UNITED WAR WORK CAMPAIGN
NOVEMBER 11th-18th

MERCY MUNITIONS NEEDED IN TRENCHES

Lieut. Coningsby Dawson, Fighting Author, Makes Stirling Appeal for Y. W. C. A.

Lieut. Coningsby Dawson, who wrote "Carry On," says of the war work which the Y. W. C. A. is doing: "You at home cannot fight with your lives, but you can fight with your mercy. The Y. W. C. A. is offering you just this chance. It garrisons the women's support trenches, which lie behind the men. It asks you to supply them with munitions of mercy that they may be passed on to us. We need such supplies badly. Give generously that we may the sooner defeat the Hun."

What Lieut. Dawson says of the Y. W. C. A. he might have said of all the national organizations which are coming together for the biggest financial campaign that organizations have ever headed. All the $170,500,000 to be raised by the seven great national organizations the week of November 11th will be used to garrison and supply the support trenches behind the lines. They are the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the National Catholic War Council, Jewish Welfare Board, American Library Association, War Camp Community Service and Salvation Army.

American girls in various uniforms mingle strangely, with picturesque Britanny costumes in France. The American Y. W. C. A. has a hostess house in Britanny where the Signal Corps women live and a hut where the nurses spend their free time. Both these centers are fitted with many of the comforts and conveniences of home.

"At a tea given at the nurses' hut one Saturday afternoon," writes Miss Mabel Warner of Salina, Kansas, Y. W. C. A. worker there, "there was an odd gathering—one admiral, a bishop, a Presbyterian minister, a Roman Catholic priest, a doctor, an ensign, one civilian and myself."

were busy everywhere. We found Battalion Army lassies making doughnuts for the boys and K. of C. secretaries giving help. Books furnished by the American Library Association were to be seen on all sides.

"Hearing firing at a distance, we drove down the road and found a score or so of men at machine gun practices. The officer gave the men half an hour recess to buy goods.

"At another place we came in sight of a lieutenant drilling a platoon. I said to the lieutenant: 'How soon before you dismiss the company? We have Y. M. C. A. goods for sale.'

"He said: 'Right now. Sergeant, dismiss the company!'

"And ten seconds later the company was in line waiting to buy goods from our traveling 'Y.' Grateful is no name for it. The men can't do enough to show their gratitude."

Why You Should Give Twice What You Did Before

The government has fixed the sum needed for the care of the men in the service at $170,500,000. Unless Americans give twice as much as ever before our soldiers, sailors and marines in 1919 may not enjoy their

- 3,000 recreation buildings
- 1,000 miles of movie films
- 100 stage stars
- 2,000 athletic directors
- 2,000 libraries supplying 3,000,000 books
- 85 hostess' houses
- 15,000 "Big Brother" secretaries
- Millions of dollars of home comforts

Give to maintain the morale that is winning the war now

"No American May Refuse," Cardinal Gibbons Says

James Cardinal Gibbons, the leading Catholic cleric in America, has issued a strong appeal in support of the United War Work Campaign.

In his American occupation, he said, "the appeal is one that no American may refuse. America's greatness is not in her military and naval armaments, but in her moral force and her power to lead the world to peace and justice."

First Victory Boy's Work.

"Say, I'm glad to see all right," a Western Union messenger boy while perched on one of the box-cars of the United War Work Campaign in the New York headquarters. The operator's desk had only just been moved in and the messenger boy had had his first experience.

"I'm onto your stunt," the boy went on as he swung himself out of the box-car and down the stairs. "I don't think you can do it. You'll get a chance to earn an eye to look up in a few days when you go up to the front."

It's Marvelous You Can Hear So Distinctly

"No, I am not visiting in the city. I am at home almost five hundred miles away. We have just had a Bell Telephone put up and I couldn't resist calling you by Long Distance. It's marvelous that we can hear each other as distinctly as though we were in the same room, and the Long Distance rates are so reasonable!

"I really don't see how we ever managed without a Bell Telephone. All the merchants and every one we know uses the Bell. It has saved me thousands of steps and hours of worry already.

"It's worth the cost simply to be able to sit at home and visit with friends hundreds of miles away."

Every Bell Telephone is a Long Distance Station.
