Repeal Of Gross Receipts Levy Is Voted By House

Source Of $2,000,000 School Revenue Is Voted Out Despite Deficit For ecasts Voters To Decide On 7th Justice Proposal To Keep Cattle Off Roads Is Virtually Killed

TALLAHASSEE, May 26.—(AP)—The House voted 64 to 23 today for repeal of the one-half percent gross receipts tax which produces $2,000,000 a year for public schools. Predictions of a public treasury deficit running as high as $10,000,000 annually were cast aside in the House vote which came after a 49 to 23 defeat of the proposal to repeal the entire state tax which carries a gross receipts levy up on all stores and a graduated scale of license taxes against chain stores.

The repeal vote was on an amendment to the Senate bill exempting farm implements and farm product containers from the gross receipts tax. The legislation will be completed until the Senate vote in the House amendment but this appeared to be only a matter of legislative routine.

The Senate joined the House in submitting to the voters the question of adding the proposed amendment to the ballot in the 1940 general election. The proposed constitutional amendment will be on the ballot in the 1940 general election. The House approved a general appropriations bill, calling for an expenditure of more than $10,000,000 a year for the operations of the State government, will be taken up in the Senate Monday morning.

The suggested constitutional amendment to keep livestock off the highways was virtually killed in the House which sent it back to an unfriendly subcommittee. The Senate in an executive session confirmed 23 appointments made by Governor Coe.

Supervisors of House-approved bills 901 and 902, which would limit county participation in gasoline tax revenue and state road maintenance, were referred to a subcommittee. The Senate subcommittee took no action on the proposed amendments.

St. Johns Canal Bill Given Okey By State Senate

Governor Signs Measure To Enlarge City Boundaries

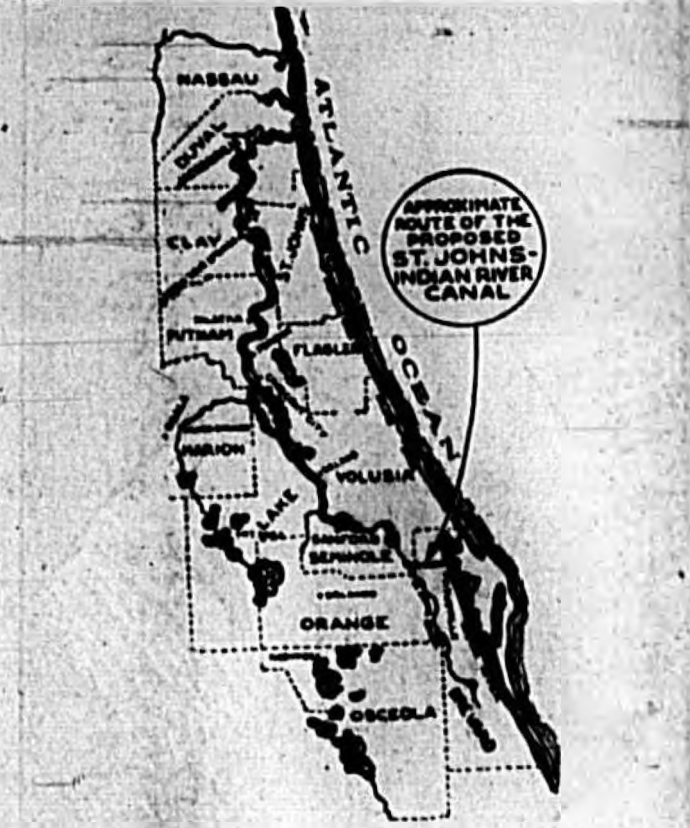

The Senate approved the bill which authorizes the Seminole County Commission to purchase rights-of-way for the proposed St. Johns-Indian River canal. The bill was passed by the Senate last night and needs only the signature of Governor Goetz to become a law. It will become a law after five days without the Governor's approval.

The bill was introduced by the proponents of the waterway to the East Coast, with the permission of the Board of County Commissioners, in lieu of reviving the old Upper St. Johns Navigation district which was formed for the purpose of building the canal with funds raised from taxation.

Governor Goetz also affixed his signature to a measure providing for the enlarging of the boundaries of the City of Sanford. The bill, introduced into the House by Representatives H. J. Lehman and John H. Leary at the request of the City Commission, brings within the limits of the city certain improved property which receives city services but which was not within the city boundaries when drawn several years ago.

The Senate also passed a bill sponsored by Seminole County Representative W. J. Tigron which would exclude him from a provision of a special law passed by the St. Johns county delegation in 1935 requiring the registration of voters in the county. St. Johns-Indian River Canal Route

St. Johns Group Delegate To Canal Plans For Hearing On Canal To Coast

Officers and directors of the St. Johns River Improvement Association met this afternoon to discuss plans for a hearing on the proposed canal project. The group is preparing information to present at a hearing on the project in Washington June 26.

The recommendation that the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce send a special representative to the hearing before the Board of Engineers for rivers and harbors in Washington, June 26, on the proposed St. Johns-Indian River canal was given the endorsement of the Executive and Finance Committees at a regular meeting of the group in the chamber building last night.

The representative of the local trade body would join representatives from other sections in the St. Johns River valley and Central Florida who will appear in body at the hearing to present arguments in favor of the proposed waterway in an effort to secure a reversal of the unfavorable report of the U. S. Division Engineer, Col. J. J. Bain.

The committee passed a resolution expressing appreciation to the Holy Cross Episcopal Church for the excellent handling of the affair.

Townsend Plan May Get Action On Wednesday

Rules Committee Dispatches Measure To House To Accept Or Reject As It Stands

WASHINGTON, May 26.—(AP)—The Rules Committee today dispatched the Townsend bill to the House floor for vote, probably next Wednesday. It approved a procedure by which the bill cannot be changed and must be accepted or rejected as it stands.

The Senate Appropriations Committee cut a budget of flood control and rivers and harbors project money from the House-approved bill appropriating for civil functions of the War Department, reducing the total to $25,190,000.

By a 10-1 vote, the Senate approved legislation yesterday that would place domestic water carriers under the same government controls now imposed on railroads.

The final roll call gave little evidence of the four days of debate over the bulky 200-page transportation act, which now goes to the House. The dispute was climaxed with a strenuous but futile effort to free waterways from the terms.

Senator Bailey, Democrat, North Carolina, chairman of the committee, protested that putting water carriers under the interstate commerce commission would foster a monopoly without doing the railroads any good.

The speaker and her hands were presented at city hall park by Tim M. Miller and were honor guests at the aquatic sports, a baseball game and a performance cutting at VanHorn Gardens during the afternoon.

There was a street dance last night, when Mrs. Allenton, of 1939, queen, received her crown from the queen of 1938.

Latest British Plans For Pact Sent To Russia

Red Army Chief Also Given Invitation To View Maneuvers Of Britain's Army

Moscow OK's Huge Sum For Defenses

Fund For Arms Is 50 Percent Greater Than Last Year's

Great Britain today sent Russian her plans for bringing the Soviet union into a British-French front and invited Marshal Klement E. Voroshiloff, Soviet war commissar, to attend the British army maneuvers.

The dispatch of the British formula advanced the projected British-French-Russian assistance accord still further toward a reality. The surprise invitation to the Red army chief was seen as a move aimed to strengthen the bloc through a display of friendliness between London and Moscow.

The British expected Russia's approval of new proposals, at least on the main points. The Russian government newspaper Izvestia announced the Soviet union would insist on postponement of examination of the League of Nations proposal to fortify island islands. It held the plan, proposed by Finland and Sweden, involved Russia's defense on the Baltic Sea.

Wilkinson Gives Ring Equipment For Newest Recreation Committee Project

B. M. Hardaker, City recreational director today announced the donation by S. A. B. Wilkinson of a 14x11 foot canvas floor covering for a boxing ring, two layers of padding to go under the covering, and two ring ropes for the same size ring, to the newly formed boxing club now being organized on the bottom floor of the Old Catholic Rectory located at Oak Avenue and Eighth Street.

Mr. Hardaker stated that the large ring will be erected first, possibly this afternoon, with a smaller ring which will be turned over to the smaller boys, to be erected as soon as the necessary canvas is available for the preparation of this ring.

Hope Abandoned For 26 In Submarine After Water Is Found In Rear Hold

FORTSMOUTH, N. H., May 26.—(AP)—A navy diver peered into the deep-sea hold of the submarine U. S. S. Squalus early last night and back through 60 feet of Atlantic water sent word which dimmed flickering hope that some of the 26 men still trapped in the submarine might be alive.

He found the aft torpedo room of the Squalus flooded. Soon after this discovery it was learned that Rear Admiral Robert H. Bell, commander of the Portsmouth navy yard, had ordered 30 mines sent to the yard.

Two divers went down to the Squalus in the repaired diving bell which had brought 26 lucky men to the surface. They went down because the navy did not want to let even an infinitesimal possibility escape that some men still might be alive.

Blackwelders Go On Trial For Lynching

DELAND, May 25.—Everett and Earl Blackwelder, 29-year-old Daytonians accused of the lynch slaying of Lee Seal, negro taxi driver, appeared in Volusia circuit court at 9:30 o'clock this morning to stand trial for murder in the first degree.

Seal had been accused of manslaughter for the auto accident death of brother Benny, early Saturday morning, Apr. 25. The negro was being transported to the county jail in Deland by Constable James M. Durden a few hours later when Everett and Earl allegedly blocked the Constable's car, then shot and killed his prisoner.

Mr. and Mrs. Britt Are Hurt In Crash

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Britt were severely shaken up, and Mr. Britt had two ribs broken when he drove the car in which they were riding early last evening over a curb and into a tree at the corner of Mellonville Avenue and First Street to avoid, investigating officers were told, colliding with a car traveling east on First Street.

They were taken to Fernald-Laurigh Memorial Hospital from which they were dismissed a short time later.

BUT WHAT OF SONG?

(From Spirit) Scorn a boon, or beg a boon. But what of grief, of grieving?

So on supplicating knee, Or hurry by unheeding;

One thing we could never understand about women; no matter how old they get they never over thirty.

The Key West Citizen defines a politician as an aerostat who can straddle a fence while keeping one ear to the ground.

Today's best paragraph: "It seems that the bigger the WPA appropriations get the more men they cut from the payroll."

The French was damned by Senator Vandenberg and ditched by the senate.

Bergdoll's Return

Members of the younger generation whose only knowledge of the World War comes from history books—war babies, we believe they are called in Europe—may be surprised over the uproar occasioned by the return of a certain prominent American from Germany and justly ask the question, "Who is this guy, Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, anyway?"

If they do they may learn that Bergdoll was Public Enemy No. 1 back there in 1918 and '19 before such designations for public enemies had ever been coined.

Bergdoll didn't want to go to war, and some of our younger generation may say, "Well, you can't blame him for that!"

He was a draft-dodger. That means that when his name was called along with the millions of other American boys of about the same age, he refused to go.

Oh, how the public hated him in those days! He was a coward! He was a traitor to his country!

He finally escaped to Germany where he has continued to live for the past twenty years.

Now he wants to come back. He is willing to serve out his sentence in prison for the opportunity of spending his last years in the country which he deserted in its hour of need.

War, "Now Or Never"

Winston Churchill's comments on the importance of aviation in connection with the numerous recent surrenders to Hitler by the democratic powers of Europe, would interest Arthur Brisbane if he were alive today.

Refusing to predict either peace or war in Europe, Mr. Churchill says in the current Collier's that if Europe survives the present year without war, the chances for continued peace are excellent.

"The main reason why Herr Hitler has been able to overawe France and England while he has been breaking his treaties and overrunning his weaker neighbors," Mr. Churchill writes, "is the fears—or perhaps it would be truer to say the uncertainties—about the power of the air arm."

"Both the British and French governments, through their incomprehensible slowness in developing air power and air defensive measures, were particularly sensitive lest they be exposed on this score, but a more robust feeling is now growing on both sides of the channel."

"The British are conscious of very rapid increases in strength and efficiency; already the British air force is far stronger than in September and all the arrangements for enduring air attack have been advanced."

"One may say, therefore, that a year's improvement in the German army will be more than overmatched by a year's improvement in the British air force."

"To sum up the argument, it seems that unless some change of heart or change of regime takes place in Germany in the near future she will deem it in her interest to make war, and this is more likely to occur in the present year than later on."

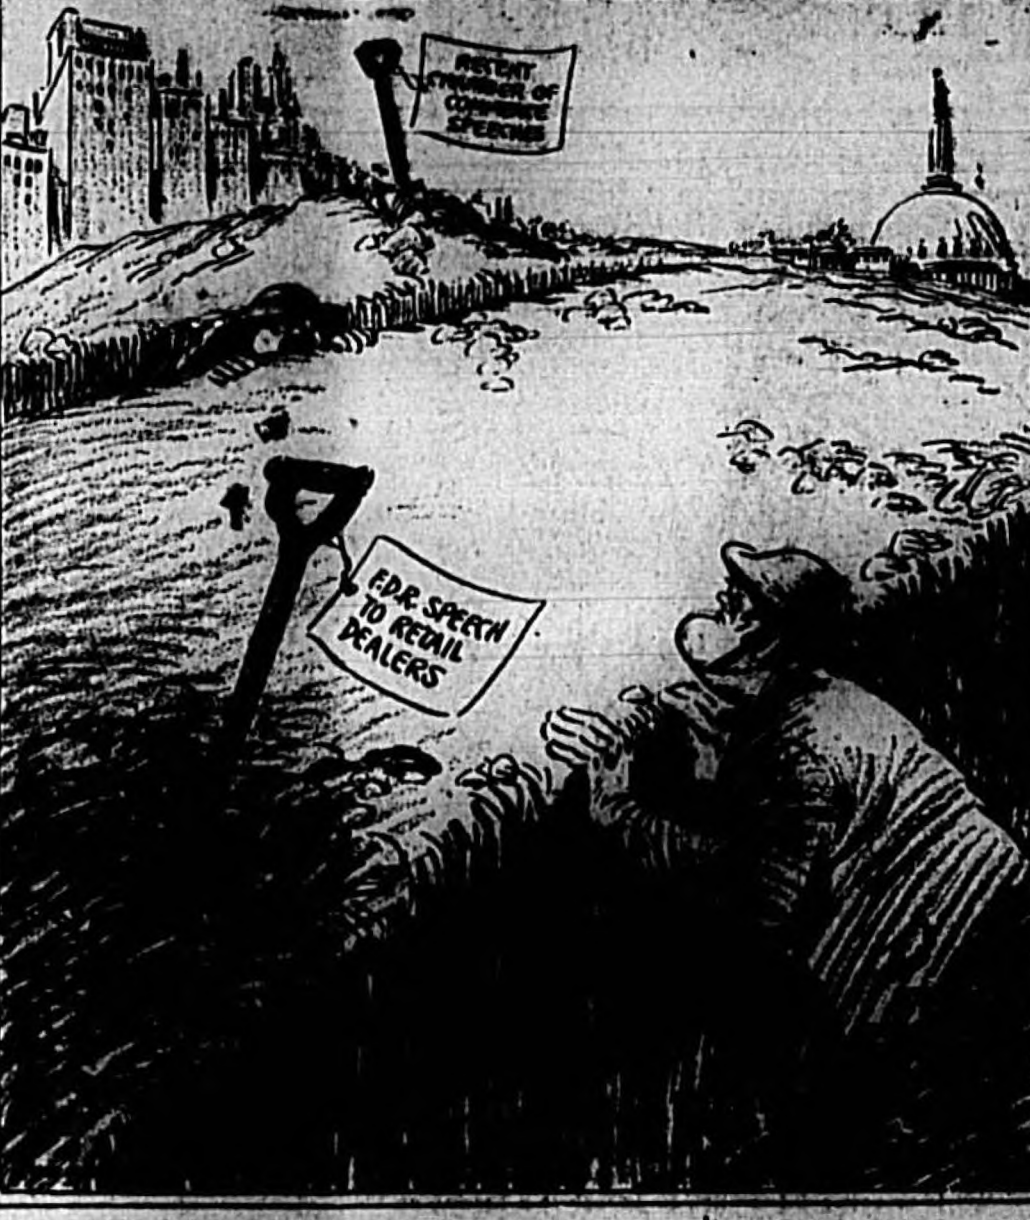

Missionary Writes Of Winter In China

BOSTON, May 25. (AP)—Burning old books to keep warm and pasting paper over bullet holes in windows, American missionaries in North China write home that their work is greater than ever because of war.

DIGGING IN FOR THE BALANCE OF THE TERM

DISPELLING THE FOG

BY CHARLES MICHLSON

President Roosevelt told the Navy to go ahead and buy its canned corn beef wherever it was best and cheapest.

Whether the average, run-of-the-mine Representative needs another secretary assistant any more than he needs a third leg, as some familiar with Congressional responsibilities seem to think is beside the issue, and perhaps involves the question whether the up-building of his political machinery at home comes under the head of public necessity.

By and by, the bills, for these increases have to be paid. There being insufficient revenue provided, it means much larger deficiency appropriations.

Obviously the agricultural bills in the Senate, and the sectorial bills in the House must show up either in the form of a still larger national deficit, or the imposition of higher taxes to pay the bill.

Well, this being a political year, too much censure of the Republican defamations is perhaps not justified.

Every time a Republican orator opens his mouth he expresses his belief of Roosevelt extravagance. Directly we will come to the era of statistics and the monumental figures will be presented, coupled with a check that the President makes no more toward cutting down the expenses of administration and relief.

The message will written the day before the Chinese New Year's but Miss Murphy, a visitor of 20 years in China, said, "Misses and in an effort for consolation, the mood is out of quiet desperation to take it on the chin and keep on keeping on."

The question was not of the Government but of the Government's action. It was not of the Government but of the Government's action.

The Government has no right to be proud when it is not so. It is not of the Government but of the Government's action.

Fritz Kuhn Is Nabbed By Dewey On Theft Counts

NEW YORK, May 26. (AP)—Fritz Kuhn, leader of the pro-Nazi German-American Bund, was arrested yesterday by New York detectives in Krumville, Pa., to answer a hastily returned indictment charging larceny and grand larceny involving $14,589.59.

The New York county prosecutor disclosed that three detectives shadowed Kuhn all day, planning to take him into custody as soon as the 12-count indictment could be filed.

The detectives telephoned for instructions at 5:45 o'clock and made the arrest within a few minutes. They told Dewey they trailed Kuhn and three other men in a motor car to the Pennsylvania town.

Asked whether he believed Kuhn was trying to escape, Dewey replied "it looked that way."

The indictment detailed the alleged theft of $8907 from the Bund and charged misappropriation of funds from a bund rally at Madison Square Garden last Feb. 26—a meeting which resulted in only one minor disorder while virtually the entire police force stood ready to quell any trouble.

Two counts of the indictment charged the theft of $4424 from funds raised to defend bund members who were convicted at Riverhead, N. Y., of neglect to file with the state records of their official personal.

The detectives told Dewey that Kuhn's car stopped at Krumville for gasoline. Dewey said traveling bags had been picked up at three separate stops in New York earlier in the day by Kuhn and his companions, identified by Dewey as Thomas Dixon, New York; Gustave Elmer, Hoboken, N. J.; and Gerhard Wilhelm Kunze, New York, the latter one of Kuhn's bund lieutenants.

Dewey, declaring conviction on all counts could result in maximum terms totaling 50 years, said he would ask that bail be fixed at $10,000 when Kuhn is taken before a magistrate in Hamburg, Pa., to determine extradition proceedings.

Buy Clothes That Can Be Used After Trip Is Advice Of Expert

By ADELAIDE KERR
Trousseau advice to June brides:

Chart in advance the places and engagements at which you are going to appear from the moment you start on your honeymoon; then see that you have a costume suitable for each one. Stick to one basic color, such as navy blue, gray or green, for your daytime wardrobe and choose most of your frocks to harmonize with it.

When you find a certain costume you've dreamed of is out of your reach, stop fretting about it. Your husband may never know it's missing, but he'll know if it ruins your forehead.

Though trousseaux vary widely according to the locale of the honeymoon, a well-rounded one should generally contain these items: a simple, knee-length, plain-striped or dotted in white, designed with white lingerie accents or a white blouse. A light or colorful hat.

At least one lightweight wool coat (neither too sporty, like nor too formal) which will see a number of dresses in the trousseau.

A simple afternoon frock of plain or printed crepe or a sheer dark hot-weather town costume with frothy white somewhere in its makeup. One of the smartest is a white-dotted navy blue crepe dress fastened with white daisy buttons and a belt.

A home-moored travel costume, festive and gay in keeping with the wedding day spirit—a sheer wool suit, a colorful print dress with a harmonious lightweight wool coat, or a sheer dark costume plain-striped or dotted in white, designed with white lingerie accents or a white blouse. A light or colorful hat.

convention of the Dozens of South Florida recently held in Sanford which was said to be one of the largest and most outstanding events ever held in this city.

A bill relating to non-profit corporations was endorsed at the request of the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce, and provisions of existing acts authorizing the organization of corporations "not for profit" not mention Chambers of Commerce, Tourist and Convention Bureaus, Social Clubs and other organizations of that character, and some question has been raised as to the validity of charters issued to such organizations in view of the fact that they are not specifically named, it was pointed out. The bill prepared by the Jacksonville chamber, if passed, will make lawful any non-profit corporation which is organized for a purpose other than a monetary profit.

The committee opposed a House bill entitled "An Act for licensing and taxing each and every individual seating unit in each and every enclosure or building used for public assembly in the State of Florida where admission is charged; to provide for the collection of the tax imposed by the Comptroller; excepting certain buildings and enclosures from the provisions of this act and providing certain penalties for its violation."

This bill was pointed out, will greatly affect various baseball clubs throughout the state and it was thought that it will be unpopular with northern clubs that train annually in Florida.

Other legislation acted upon was a U. S. Senate bill introduced by Senator Styles Bridges of New Hampshire which will exempt Chambers of Commerce from payment of the 3 percent tax on payroll as now requested by the 1935 Social Security Act, in the present time Chambers of Commerce with eight or more employees listed as officers are required to pay the tax even though officers are without compensation.

At the request of the Daytona Beach Chamber of Commerce a resolution was adopted favoring a proposed change in the air mail schedule at Daytona Beach which will expedite the handling of air mail from Sanford.

President Benjamin F. Haines presided over the meeting which was attended by the following members: J. L. Dean, H. H. Coleman, W. L. Inley, W. L. Tunncliffe, H. B. Pope, and Ralph F. Bagwell.

St. Johns Canal Bill Given Okey By State Senate

Hendricks who has handled arrangements for the hearing and will join proponents of the waterway in presenting the case at the hearing.

Following a discussion with Col. Wheeler, chief of the board, Congressman Hendricks declared "I am convinced that we can persuade the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors to reverse Col. Bain's decision on the Sanford to Titusville canal."

The Congressman stated that the unfavorable report on the project was based on the assumption that this was purely a drainage and not a flood control project and told local proponents that their problem is to convince the board that the project is not one of drainage but one of flood control.

The Congressman also pointed out that Col. Wheeler showed interest when he advised him the waterway connection between the St. Johns River and the Indian River would link the two channels at a point near the proposed air base basin on the Banana River and also at the proposed Port Canaveral.

Three years ago Jessie Simpson of Hackensack, N. J., was "Miss New Jersey," a beauty queen. A railroad accident took both her leg, and since then, she has won fame for her courageous fight against the handicap. Fate dealt a similar hand to Monte Stratton, Chicago White Sox pitcher. He lost a leg in a hunting accident, but is carrying on as coach of the team. These two are pictured at a New York hotel, where, meeting for the first time, they found each one's courage had inspired the other.

Lookouts Take 13 Inning Affair From DeLand 6-5

Dean Takes Slight Edge Over Kerr In Overtime Mound Duel

"Little Dizzy" Gives Up Nine Bingles In Full Route While Teammates Collect 11 Safeties Off Red Tossers

"Little Dizzy" Dean last night held the DeLand Red Hots to nine hits in a 13-inning pitcher's duel at the Municipal Athletic Field while his mates, trailing for part of the game, came from behind with a last half of the final inning, slip the skids under the visitors 6-5.

After the visitors had shoved across one run in the first of the 13th following three scoreless innings of play, the Alex-men came back to load the bases with none away. Skeen, center-fielder, lifted a well placed, short fly over short to score Marion and Campbell with the tying and winning runs.

DeLand broke the ice in the first of the fourth, when the game finally got underway, after being held up for 45 minutes by showers, by showing across two runs on Gearty's single and a walk to Williams, and smother's single into right.

The Lookouts trailed along until the last half of the next inning before collecting two tallies to knot the count. These came as result of Marion's bunt and a pass issued to Campbell which advanced Marion to second, from where he galloped on down to third when Dean struck out, coming on in to score on a pass ball. Campbell in the meantime advanced to second when Marion took third and then hot footed to third when Marion came through with a freak single, when he bounced one into the dirt and then tagged first for a single before Beck could grab the rebound and wheel it to first. Langston scored when Campbell slapped a grounder down to short.

The tying run came across for the Lookouts in the last of the seventh when Skeen drove a hot liner down to Williams and beat out the throw to get on first. He stole second, and then advanced to third when a pitch got on a fly from Beck and bounced off Umpire Newman's chest protector, from here he scored when Langston parked a single over third. There was no more scoring then until the first of the 13th when DeLand collected one tally on a walk to Newell, who stole second and scored in late's drive over Barnett into right.

The Lookouts came back to fill the bases on a walk to Marion, before Kerr was replaced on the mound by Hoffer, a south-paw, off whom Campbell doubled down left field foul line advancing Marion to third. A walk to Hudson, who replaced Dean, filled the bases for Skeen's exceedingly timely, and well placed blow over short to score two runs for the game.

Standouts for the local club, who incidentally collected 11 bingles, included, Skeen who covered plenty of territory efficiently, in center, as well as driving in three runs including the tying and winning tally. Marion gave a good account of himself hanging out three hits in five appearances, one of these good for two bases.

Dean hurled the full 13 innings, giving up nine hits over the route. Kerr on the hill for the visitors was banged for nine blows before being replaced by Hoffer who was nicked for two hits and the loss.

The red bonnets again dabbled on their war paint in the last of the sixth and gathered together two runs on singles by Valci and Smathers, followed by a freak single which Taylor slammed into the mound and bounced over short scoring the two men.

In the last half of the same inning Langston drew a pass, went to second on Lane's single over third, and then rambled on down to third when Marion came through with a freak single, when he bounced one into the dirt and then tagged first for a single before Beck could grab the rebound and wheel it to first. Langston scored when Campbell slapped a grounder down to short.

Leesburg Turns Back Orlando As Azaleas Lose Fray To Saints

Combining their eight safeties with men on base for tallies, the Daytona Beach Islanders trampled the Gainesville G-Men 6 to 1 in a Florida State League late in the coastal city last night. Although the G-Men got to Shiroba for nine safeties, they were unable to hit the ice-lander tosser in the pinches, thereby leaving 10 men stranded on the bags.

The second place team collected hits for runs off Childers, Gainesville tosser, in the second, fifth, sixth and seventh innings to breeze to victory.

At Leesburg, the Anglers turned back the Orlando Senators 3 to 1 in a game played as part of the Lake County Watermelon Festival program.

Although outbit 8 to 5, the Anglers combined the safeties off Kennedy, Orlando tosser, while the veteran Jake Bunch kept the Senator hits well restricted.

At Palatka, the St. Augustine Saints walloped the Azaleas 9 to 2 after pounding out 13 hits off the offerings Miller, Azalea hurler, Combs, tossing for the Saints, limited the cellar club to five safeties.

Lou Nova Makes Preparations For Bout With Baer

By DILLON GRAHAM

NYACK, N. Y., May 26.—(AP)—Lou Nova is mulling a great opportunity to settle that Man vs. Gorilla issue Gene Tunney brought up.

"Gorilla? Phooey!" retorts the California clouter. "I'm hunting Baer this summer."

But every afternoon as Lou eyes sparring partners with leader's lookings in the outdoor ring of the Clarkstown Country Club lawn here a bull champion in an adjoining cage bellows a thoury challenge.

Setting is Perfect There's a marvelous setting here for the crucial conflict. Nova is here. The chimpanzee, punch-hitter for a gorilla, is here. And the ring is here. All that's necessary is for someone to unlock the cage and yell: "Lay on, MacDuff!"

But Nova isn't any more cooperative than other heavyweights. "This is my summer to hunt Baer," he pants.

And when a heavyweight as big as Nova points, the same thing to do is to humor him. That's what they're doing at the training camp where he's conditioning for his June 1 skirnish in Yankee Stadium with Audack Maxie. Everyone, including ex-champion Jim Braddock, is helping him get his weapons ready for the Baer hunt.

Big game hunting is new to Nova. He's never stalked animals as ferocious as Baer. But this child of destiny is confident he'll get his Baer.
