

Seminole High Grid Players Face Tough Going With DeLand

Game Tomorrow Will Be First Real Test Of Sanford Outfit

By Peter Schepel
Balked in their first three attempts to register a win over what should have been easy opposition, Coach Hugh Wheelchell's Seminole High grid players will face DeLand tomorrow morning for DeLand, where they will meet Coach Cecil Beck's rip-roaring Bulldogs in what is expected to be the hardest battle of the season. It will be the first real test that the local squad have had of their ability to more than hold their own against a team in many ways superior to their own, and tomorrow's game holds more than the usual amount of speculation as to the outcome.

A number of factors contribute to the belief that Sanford will enter the fray as the underdog, and that only by hard fighting on defense, and a surprise showing of offensive strength can the men expect a victory in this important struggle. DeLand has shown much power in winning over New Smyrna, Julia Landon High of Jacksonville, and Palatka, and in holding the powerful Leesburg outfit to a 7 to 0 defeat, they proved their worth against heavy opposition.

Coach Beck has brought a brand new style of play to that city with him, and most important of all, he has the support of the entire team, not to mention the student body and teachers. Football spirit is at its greatest height just now in DeLand, and the games there have been attended by record crowds.

Another item to be considered is the fact that Paul Causey at full back, the Bulldogs have one of the most dangerous of high school players in the state. While not a great player, he is a veteran line, and he is a schied what along the lines of Jennings, Leeburg's crack full back, who more than any other player whipped Sanford here last Thursday. Causey has yet to be stopped this year, and with a trio of running mates like the speedy, Bill Mickle, Bill Martin, and Austin Hiers, DeLand's offensive strength has the edge on Sanford's big about 75 per cent.

As for DeLand's line, they have one which is going to make the giant 187 pound forward wall of ours hustle. From end to end, it is a veteran line, and we expect to see a real battle in the line. Ed Enfield will have his hands full in taking care of Captain Pete Tatum, who plays opposite him at right end, but we predict the Tabern will not be the rocky football player he has tried to be earlier in the season. Ed Enfield will easily take all of that idea out of him, and if you intend seeing tomorrow's game, don't do it, miss the fun which should be seen on the right side of the Sanford line.

Captain Vanev will also have plenty of opposition in top Bear Davis, 240 pounds of gravel, and because our full back is a rather easy going chap who fails to "open up" until someone gets him all battered, we feel sure that Bob will be opened up right from the start, but we think Davis has a way of trying to get an early goal until the opponent gets naturally tangle to aggressiveness and wants to beat the Davis person into the earth. Whoever plays left end for Sanford will also have some plain and fancy excitement in store for him because DeLand's right end is just about the meanest looking, and hardest fighting boy on the team.

And in Thursday and Whitman, tackles par excellence, Coach Beck feels that they can't be beaten. That means Hollis and Aycock will have to extend themselves too. All in all, it looks as though it's going to be a tough struggle, and if our line can outplay DeLand's, everything will be all right. All that will be necessary then is for Wheelchell to tell the boys to get loose with some of those new elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the crocose goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Cremulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (ads.)

Squeeze Out Atlantic Coast Line Outfit By Three Runs

By J. M. Sinciper
The West Side Farmers added another game to their column of victories Tuesday night when they squeezed out a 21 to 18 win over the Atlantic Coast Line. It was anybody's game right up to the last out as the Coast Liners threatened to snatch the lead any minute.

Wheelchell and Bender lead the attack for the West Side, Wheelchell getting two singles and two doubles while Bender collected two doubles and a home run. Muse and Thurston hit safely twice, each getting a double and a single.

M. M. Ye was the hitting star for the Coast Line, getting a double, a triple and two homers out of four times at bat. Piery and Standifer each batted out three hits while Harris, B. Tillis and B. M. M. Ye each got two safe blows.

The West Side jumped into the lead in the first inning and held it by a small margin all the way. Although the Coast Line got two more hits than the Farmers, their hits were well scattered while the West Side bunched their hits in the first, second and fifth innings.

Collegiate Athletics Are Scored In Report Issued By Carnegie Foundation

By Davis J. Walsh International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Rocked giddily upon its pedestal by the report of the Carnegie Foundation, specifically condemning the conduct of sports in 81 of the 112 institutions surveyed, collegiate America today was rallying with denials of the party charged against it, college presidents whose institutions were named in tones of approbrium were not slow to deny the existence of conditions such as the foundation's committee claimed to have found, deans and athletic heads were being quoted at length and in the same vein.

But in the midst of the denials, the foundation's report remained in black and white, a 383-page document that stood as a scathing indictment of sport in the American college at large. It did not level its attack in terms of vague generalization, either, the result of what is purporting to have been 13 1/2 years of intensive study. It attacked specifically, the names of some of the most revered of our institutions being bandied about indiscriminately. At told, 112 colleges, appointed geographically, were visited since the survey began back in 1925, only 28 could be given a clean bill of health, the report said. The immaculate 28, of which not more than a half dozen are major institutions, follow:

Bates, Bowdoin, Carleton, Chicago, Cornell, Dalhousie (Canada), Emory, Illinois, Laval (Canada), McGill (Canada), Massachusetts Agricultural College, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Queen's (Canada), Reed, Rochester, St. Lawrence (Canada), Toronto (Canada), Trinity, Tufts, Tulane, U. S. Military Academy, Virginia, Wesleyan, Williams, Wooster College and Yale.

These 112 in the field represented just 25 percent of the colleges visited and seven of them were Canadian colleges, at that.

Of the rest, some were openly condemned and at others a finger of scorn was pointed. The charges ranged from undue influence in the obtaining of campus positions for athletes to the actual maintenance of these men in school without visible means of support. And the schools at which athletic systems did not meet, wholly or in part, with the committee's favor were named without apparent reluctance.

PAPAYAS

The papaya, a tropical food, is grown more or less in southern Florida. The fruit is engaging the attention of the health seeking public and the medical profession.

It is claimed that the papaya contains a considerable quantity of natural, vegetable pepain, vitamins, rich body builders, and should be eaten the same as cantaloupe with a little lime or lemon juice over it, or as a salad, or may be cooked like a squash, or candied, just as you like it. Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified crocose that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs crocose is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to crocose, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the crocose goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (ads.)

The Marvels Of Today

Truth is stranger than fiction, they say. Where can the marvels of the vaudeville stage exhibit the marvelous magic which we find occurring about us in real life every day? Where can the movie producer conceive the ideas which startle and puzzle as much the daily events of the streets? The world itself is stranger than any story teller can make it. Two marvels of modern science, says the Miami Herald, "were reported from New York on the same day."

"The use of the inhalator is not new in resuscitation measures," continues our contemporary, "but this method was applied for nine hours to bring back to life Harry S. Black, the 'world's greatest landlord,' who had fainted in the bath tub, and apparently drowned. His death had been announced through the press. But the emergency squad kept at its work until it succeeded. If it had stopped after one hour or eight hours, Mr. Black would have passed from this life. As it is he can now read his own obituaries."

"When a person sinks so far into eternity does he catch a glimpse into the hereafter? Does the soul begin to depart? Or what? The case of Mr. Black will give rise to interesting discussions along these lines. While it also arouses the hope that ultimately science will be able to retain or restore the breath of life in man after death, unless he is smashed to pieces."

"The other marvel was entirely different. This was the brief address delivered by Capt. A. R. Brooks while flying 4,000 feet in the air. He spoke from an airplane to the annual convention of the Telephone Pioneers of America at Minneapolis, 1,300 miles away."

"How can the circus with its gorgeous feats expect to compete in thrills with the realistic achievements of today?"

They All Come Back

The other cow's grass always looks the greenest, some wise cracker has said. That may be the reason why a few Florida people, who have found the going rather hard during the past few years, are leaving for other states. Business conditions seem to be better elsewhere. They have seemed to be good in New York where stocks have been skyrocketing, but the crash has come. Families which moved from Florida will come back.

"The Wright family," says the Fort Lauderdale News, "is back in Fort Lauderdale to stay. In 1926 following the hurricane they said, 'Friends, good-bye forever. We are going back to Ohio where they don't have tropical storms,' and away they went to a land where they have 'flu'."

"The Wrights, one after the other, caught it and fought it during one whole winter. 'Flu' in Ohio is worse than flow and blow in Florida—decidedly worse. Ask the Wrights about it!"

"Any man or woman who spends a winter in Southern Florida, taking into his system the delights of its climate, can not be contented anywhere else in the world. William Jennings Bryan in his Sunday lectures at Royal Palm Park in Miami always told his audiences that he had looked the world over for a climate; but did not find it until he came to Florida."

"Mr. Wright was Wrong when he left here to avoid Florida windstorms, but he could not be convinced of that fact until the 'flu' upset the Wright system and plan. The same conditions that brought him and his family back to us will bring many thousands next winter."

CONFIDENCE IN THE continuation of American prosperity was expressed in the eighteenth annual convention of the Investment Bankers Association of America, held during last week. Heavy rate of earnings in most branches of business enterprises to get cash for current operations that trends in the stock market, which does not appear to be a greatly disturbing factor in current business affairs, except, possibly, insofar as excessive amounts of money on call loan in Wall Street make it more difficult for legitimate business enterprises to get cash for current operations that are of a necessary and productive character. Florida Times-Union.

HOTEL CONSTRUCTION alone in Florida amounted to $457,185 for the month of September, according to Hotel Commissioner Bostain. Of this amount, the southeastern section of the state had $284,400. Growth, not growth!—Tampa Tribune.

THE FIVE-POWER NAVAL CONFERENCE

Ever since the consultation here and the sending of the invitations from London for the five-power conference, there has been a strong effort to get those who are opposed to any agreement or plan for world peace to throw into the proceedings some discord. The five nations most interested having all agreed to send representatives to London next January it is apparently deemed necessary by the opponents of adjustment or understanding to cast suspicion on the honesty of the powers accepting the invitation. Hints and broad assertions, which, however, are not backed with much detail, are published presumably emanating from French or Italian sources, implying doubt as to the possibilities of the conference. First, France is said to have made very serious reservations, when accepting the call and then Italy is indicated as being much opposed to the plans of the gathering, as suggested in the invitation.

Prominent among the protests that are brought forward are suggestions that the reference to a possible adjustment to better understanding of the submarine's place in defense would likely cause a sturdy protest on the part of France and Italy. It is remarked, however, by those who have read the invitation and understand its import and proposition, that there is no real cause for distrust or opposition in the call. The statement that both the American and British governments were in favor of adherence to the attitude already adopted in regard to submarines should have allayed any argument along this line. It is rather well understood that the policy referred to was embodied in a statement which forms a part of the Washington treaty of 1922. The paragraph relating to submarines read as follows: "The signatory powers recognize the practical impossibility of using submarines as commerce destroyers without violating, as they were violated in the recent war of 1914-18, the requirements universally accepted by civilized nations for the protection of the lives of neutrals, and non-combatants, and to the end that the prohibition of the use of submarines as commerce destroyers shall be universally accepted as a part of the law of nations they now accept that prohibition, as henceforth binding as between themselves and they invite all other nations to adhere thereto."

There can be no reasonable denial of the inexcusable of nations making improper use of submarines as was remarked during the World War. The submarine is a weapon of defense that is not like the majority used; it is a sneak, and a hit and run proposition, defeated by the fair-minded, but its usefulness in warfare, in defensive operations, may never be overlooked or dismissed. That so-called civilized nations of the world could well agree to frown upon the use of the submarine as a commerce raider must be admitted. The crimes committed by those giving orders for assault upon helpless and unprotected neutrals and civilians stand out as black holes upon the pages of history.

Answers from four naval powers received at London are thought by the lobby to be sufficient to promise great and lasting results. France, Italy and Japan appear at least to be vitally interested in the outcome of the conference, and whether these nations have something "up a sleeve" or

THE EUROPEAN UNION

Comment upon the proposal to bring the various states of Europe into some sort of economic union persists in making the assumption that such a union would be directed against the United States. That is carrying over into the realm of trade certain outworn but not yet discarded ideas of statecraft which made each power jealous of the growth of any other power and made it appear the chief aim of governments to inflict mutual damage.

Certain statements in France, Germany and some of the smaller countries of Continental Europe have looked about them. They have noted that while their countries have been fighting the old battles and contending over little strips of territory, such as Alsace-Lorraine, countries of a new order of size and industrial capacity have been coming to the front.

The United States is simply the first of these to combine well rounded industrial development with the natural resources and agricultural production of a vast area unhampered by commercial barriers of any kind. The result is a material prosperity such as Europe has never known, or seems likely to know under existing conditions.

The European statesmen and business leaders have pride and a natural desire to see their people as prosperous as those in any other quarter of the globe. They know that modern civilization arose in Western Europe, that its scientists and inventors have contributed largely to every phase of industrial development.

It must be willing to realize that Germany first developed the internal combustion engine that France was an early leader in making automobiles, yet today no European automobile manufacturer can compete with American machines in an open market and we have most of the world's motor vehicles.

These up and coming leaders realize that what Europe needs today is less harking back to the past and a clearer view of the present. It is ridiculous for nations, in an area little larger and with smaller natural resources than those of the United States, to expect even to approach our prosperity if each goes at it alone and sets up barriers against the others.

European states have their choice of federation or mutual obscurity and poverty. The day has gone by when areas which, with the sole exception of backward Russia, are smaller than Texas can expect to remain first-class powers. There are men in those states who face the facts and favor federation, difficult though its accomplishment may seem.

WRAP YOUR BOOZE TAMPA TRIBUNE

Wrap, wrap, wrap. With care; wrap for confusion of the official.

If you buy a bottle of whiskey, be sure to have the package carefully wrapped. The court held that the officer had no right to search the car or to pick up or investigate the package, because it was wrapped, and the officer could not know that it was contraband before he examined it. Therefore, a warrant was necessary; and, in the absence of a warrant describing the particular package or vehicle, or person, anyone is legally authorized to have or carry liquor provided it is concealed from view by a wrapper.

So, the policeman having committed no offense and being entirely within his rights whatever his package contained, and having been suspended from the force because of his arrest, and the car, the property of the city, seized by the strong arm of Uncle Sam, the just thing to do is to reimburse him in full authority and honor, apologize to him for considering him a suspect, and make known to all sellers, possessors and consumers that the liquor that is wrapped is above, beyond and outside the law.

not there, must be something painful for the world peace, when the aims and purposes of each have been set forth and discussed.

The people of no nation on earth are for war. They are sick and weary with caring war's burdens, and will welcome any adjustment of world affairs that will mean a long season without armed conflict. Pacifists, jingoes, militarists and militarists will not be pleased if the January conference in London brings forth an adjustment such as will allow for the reasonable limitation of armaments, but they are in a woeful minority, regardless of the noise they make, and their opinion is not worth worrying about.

THE SHEPHERD SAVES

For the Lord God; As a shepherd seeks out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep...

PRAYER: "Spirit of Grace, with heavenly aid, Come to the souls, Whom Thou hast made."

If you can smile now, you'll laugh this winter.

Wonder what a wet congressman who votes dry would do if he didn't have a brother-in-law.

J. F. Ditzman tried to do a Landberg but pulled a Nungesser and Coli.

Now that skirts are getting longer, we suppose the only decent thing to do is to call them limb caps.

I would gladly dye for you, said the manager of the cleaning and pressing establishment as he called upon the lady of the house.

If the Gainesville Sun knows anything about it, a silk stocking sometimes gives tone to an inharmonious calf.

We never have been able to understand why it is that accounts are always frozen hardest in the summer time.

Speaking of the Gram-Michaelson case, the Tampa Tribune believes that "every man's trunk should stand on its own bottom, leak or no leak."

A Japanese scientist is trying to develop a method by which he can transform Orientals into Caucasians. Must be trying to make it hard for our immigration officials.

Barron G. Collier has made arrangements to buy seven large Florida hotels which have been in more or less embarrassing financial straits. No, nothing was said about his taking over the Forrest Lake.

One fellow wanted to know why the Herald was giving two free trips to New York for first prize instead of only one. The thought apparently had not occurred to him that should a woman win it she would probably want to take a husband with her.

Out of one hundred and twelve colleges studied by a committee from Carnegie foundation looking for traces of proselyting and subsidizing in connection with athletics, only twenty-eight were given a clean bill of health. Of these only Chicago, Cornell, West Point, the University of Virginia, and Yale are large schools.

Herbert Hoover Jr. does not make the headlines as often as does the Prince of Wales, but he has received some publicity lately as an aviator and parachute jumper at Cressy Field in San Francisco where he was recently assigned for two weeks, active military duty. The President's son is said to be quite an airman.

Barron's Financial Weekly points out in a recent issue that the demand for bonds in comparison with stocks is increasing. This does not mean necessarily municipal bonds, or even Sanford's bonds, but it does indicate that the investing public might more quickly than formerly absorb a refinancing issue of Sanford bonds provided a big enough discount were taken by the present bond holders.

For practically one hour Wednesday afternoon stocks in Wall Street crashed with such rapidity that paper profits were wiped out at the rate of more than fifty million dollars a minute, or three billion dollars in the course of an hour. Such a slump as that makes the Florida real estate crash seem as if it had a parachute on.

The Herald is going after more circulation. It already covers Sanford like the dew, but it wants to cover Seminole county and central Florida in the same way. The Herald is the only paper in Seminole County and there are people living in Oviedo, Chulasta, Geneva, Longwood and other Seminole County towns who do not take the Herald but who should be sold on the idea.

Spun Glass Dress Is Worn By Film Star In Film "Naughty Baby"

Spun glass for dress material isn't likely to prove generally popular, but is great in the movies.

The most striking spun glass creation turned to date is Alice White's evening gown in "Naughty Baby." First National comedy drama, in which the dynamic little star is co-featured with Jack Mulhall. The picture is at the Milane Theatre Friday and Saturday.

In addition to its being flexible, the dress is covered with glass scales, some of them backed with mercury like tiny mirrors. It is proof against the bad man's eye, however. It isn't transparent, even in the strongest light. It is a lot translucent and is ideal for film purposes because it reflects a higher ratio of light than any other fine-spun, irregular surface without causing halation.

Equally stunning gowns are worn in this picture by Thelma Todd, Doris Dawson, Frances Hamilton, Natalie Joyce and a half dozen other beauties who have parts in the picture, to say nothing of scores of beautiful bathing girls in beach scenes and "society" extras in other scenes.

Literary Group Has Meeting Wednesday

The literature department of the Woman's Club met on Wednesday afternoon in the club rooms with Mrs. S. O. Shenbrot presiding over the business meeting. At this time plans were made for the Fall program which is to be given at the municipal pier on Saturday, Nov. 2. Candidates were appointed to have charge of the affair and much interest was said to be displayed by all present. A meeting of the department was then called for Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the hall.

At the conclusion of the business session Mrs. Stella P. Arrington read a paper on the "Pallas" incident in "Cerberus and the Curies." Refreshments were then served by the hostesses, Mrs. W. A. Zachary and Mrs. J. C. Mitchell.

Mrs. Vaughan Hostess At Bridge Benefit

For the benefit of the St. Agnes Guild of Holy Cross Episcopal Church, Mrs. Alexander Vaughan, assisted by Mrs. W. E. Watson, Mrs. C. J. Rumph, Mrs. S. A. Houston and Mrs. J. R. Stewart, entertained with a bridge party on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Vaughan, 2060 Park Avenue. During the afternoon several prizes were awarded. Mrs. Vaughan was the high score prize and Mrs. Allan Stone received low score prize.

Vases and bowls of yellow cosmos and daisies were placed about the living rooms of Mrs. Vaughan's home to develop the Halloween color note of black and gold. Lat in the afternoon refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Those present were: Mrs. A. P. Connelly, Mrs. J. E. Brouse, Mrs. B. A. Newman, Mrs. George D. Bishop, Mrs. Howard C. Hoag, Mrs. John Meisch, Mrs. George Davis Hart, Mrs. Harry Heeren, Miss Mary Louise Berkebile of Somerset, Pa., Mrs. Allan Stone, Mrs. George Herring, Mrs. Monroe B. Hutton, Mrs. S. O. Chase, Jr., Mrs. B. F. Whitler Jr., Mrs. W. Charles Hutchinson, Mrs. B. E. Baldwin, Mrs. Roland Sutton, Mrs. Mortimer Glover, Mrs. John Garloway, Mrs. E. B. Lawrence, Mrs. Roland Road, Mrs. Grant Wilson and Mrs. Sanford Dobbins.

Persons

J. Lelloy Hardin of Orange City spent Friday morning here.

W. D. Hoffman left Friday morning for Green Cove Springs where he is stationed with the National Guard.

Mrs. Hugh Torrance and Mrs. Jane Torrance motored to Jacksonville Friday afternoon where they spent the week-end.

N. A. Colbert and E. T. Field, formerly of this city, are now connected with the Florida Department of Agriculture at Clearwater.

Mrs. Claude Howard left Friday for points in California where she expects to make her home. She will be met there by Mr. Howard in two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Scott returned Thursday evening from Miami where they have been spending the past week visiting friends and attending to business interests.

Mrs. Quinton Brown, Mrs. A. J. Peterson, Mrs. J. C. Mitchell, Miss Sadie Hunter, Mrs. Ruth McCants and Miss Low Turner were among those from here who attended the teacher's meeting at Orlando Friday.

Mrs. R. E. Talar, and the Misses Mary Elizabeth Talar, Alice Windham, Margaret Torrance, Marjorie Dulles and Patsy O'Connor were among those from here attending the Sanford-DeLand football in DeLand Friday afternoon.

Hallowe'en Party Is Given Last Thursday

A Hallowe'en party was given Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Althea Club room of the First Baptist Church by Miss Alice Hoff and Miss Ruby Campbell for the members of the Girls' Auxiliary of the Baptist Church. The Hallowe'en idea was emphasized by the imitation pumpkins, and real apples which were placed in various places about the classroom.

During the evening various games and contests were enjoyed by the little guests and Miss Julia Bell McClelland, who presided in the Hallowe'en contests, received a prize. Miss Allie Horn received a gift from the councilor, Mrs. Francis E. Holt, in appreciation of her assistance.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses to the following: Mrs. Francis E. Holt, the Misses Doris Boskov, Annabelle Brown, Ellen Pett, Annie Biers, Esther Lawson, Evelyn Sharp, Allie Horn, Blanche Cunningham, Eva Cunningham, Nellie Cunningham, Minnie Stroner, Inez Thompson, Virginia Lawton, Mary Manning, Caroline Biggers, Jewel Turner, Ruby Nell Campbell, Maternal Campbell, Pat Garrett and Julia Bell McClelland.

Missionary Society Has Meeting Monday

The program meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society was held last Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the church with the Nannie H. Gaines Circle, Mrs. J. E. McClelland, chairman, in charge of the meeting. Mrs. W. P. Bahman gave a talk on the devotional topic, "A Tribute from Theology" after which Mrs. J. P. Hall presented a short discussion of Chinese homes. The program topic for the afternoon was "Oriental Homes," and in keeping with this subject, Mrs. J. E. Courier presented a description of "Korean Homes."

At the conclusion of the program a social hour was enjoyed with refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. J. M. McCaskill, Mrs. J. P. Hall and Mrs. J. E. Courier.

Score Of 16 To Eight Gives Victors Their Fourth Straight Win

By J. M. Silvephier
The Business Men continued their fast pace in the Diamond Ball Association last night by defeating the Florida Power and Light Company by the score of 16 to 8. It was their fourth win without a reverse.

Moore, pitching for the Power and Light Company, was nipped for eight hits in the first two innings. These, together with four walks and an error moved the Business Men 12 runs. In the third inning Moore was replaced by Hodges, who finished the game, yielding only two hits and four bases on balls which were good for the other four runs.

Palmer went the route for the Business Men and gave up only four hits, but issued 13 free passes.

McCall hit the only circuit drive of the game which came in the first inning with one on base. Lane was the heavy hitter for the Power and Light team, getting a pair of three-baggers.

Millions of Miles of Constant Testing

to maintain the outstanding quality and dependability of The Chevrolet Six

In spite of the fact that a million Chevrolet Sixes have already been placed in the hands of owners, and have proved their performance and stamina by billions of miles of service over every type of highway the nation affords—

—the Chevrolet Motor Company continues to take new Chevrolet Sixes from the assembly line at the factory and subject them to pitiless testing on the roads of the General Motors Proving Ground!

This passion for proof—this consistent refusal to accept any tests as final—is one of the fundamental reasons for the overwhelming popularity of Chevrolet cars. For in no other way is it possible to make the Chevrolet Six so sound in design and materials—so dependable in performance—and so economical to operate!

If you are considering the purchase of an automobile, come in and see the new Chevrolet. You will find that it is more than a Six in the price range of the four. In every way it is a finer car than you ever thought possible in the low-price field!

Football Menu Tomorrow Has Many Attractions Of U. S. Title Significance

By Davis J. Walsh
 International News Service
 Sports Editor
NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Confronted with the awful truth about college football, I don't suppose that more than one and one-quarter millions of people will go out there to the fields of the nation tomorrow nor that more than 10 millions will wish to further identify themselves with this unworthy object by watching its progress via the scoreboard, the newspaper, the radio and the telephone. No, Lorrillard, now that the Carnegie Foundation has discovered that American colleges are anxious to put his finger on the winner today, so closely does this pair
 "handicap." California, of course, still has a chance out there. The Chicago-Purdue affair, coupling the two of the Big Ten bellwethers, also has distinct possibilities of a championship nature. The old bromide, "Stagg fears Purdue," is on this time with a vengeance. If Stagg doesn't, then Purdue may offer a few suggestions shortly after the opening whistle.

Probably as great a pair as the entire country offers will settle an old feud at Pittsburgh with the meeting of Carnegie Tech and Notre Dame. A tie on the latter won't deceive you. The Rockne entry was knocked off by Tech in one of the startling reversals of 1928 and last year Tech flattened them like a roller, and the percentage is with Notre Dame. Likewise the class. Rockne has quite a football eleven.

Missouri and Nebraska, arch-rivals always, will have the Big 8 title riding with the winner and it is entirely possible that an eastern champion will survive the Harvard-Dartmouth affair, both being undefeated. The Army, tied by Harvard, will have to take Yale to stay in the class and it ought to do just this. However, much depends on how well the Army survived its brannigan with Harvard, Princeton and the Navy have

Carnival Will Be Featured On Nov. 2 At Municipal Pier

An old-fashioned carnival, beginning promptly at 4 o'clock in the afternoon of Nov. 2, will take place on the municipal pier. The proceeds of this affair will be used to bring talented lecturers here for the high school students. The tenure of the day's program will be two performances of a minstrel show, which is under the direction of Ed Lane, Sanford business man.
 The sponsors of the occasion provide everything that goes to make a carnival, including a sample to be given at the Yacht Club Tea Room on the night of Nov. 1 and 2. An added attraction to the supper will be the presence of masked balls, clothed as pygmy, who will entertain the guests by telling their fortunes.
 Among the concessions will be fortune tellers, "The Chamber of Horrors," the "World's Greatest Gully," a "Japanese Tea Garden," which is a beautiful place for a 4 o'clock tea, and the "Soft Shop," expected to furnish many surprises for its visitors.

nothing of championship proportions. The long Fordium is playing another unbeaten team in Davis-Ellis and reputed to be a good one at that.

Illinois and Ohio State are playing important games only in the sense that they must stay in the conference race. The Illinois yards better than Michigan and the Buckeyes apparently are considerably more than inches better than Indiana. The Wisconsin Elva game completes the Big Ten list.

LOSE TARIFF PRAY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.— (INS). The Republican majority lost another tariff battle this afternoon when the Democratic-insurgent coalition defeated a proposal of Republican leaders to raise the tariff on thin transparent cellulose sheets used in the manufacture of non-shatterable wind shields from 45 to 50 cents.
 Twenty-one Republicans joined with Democrats to defeat the proposal 30 to 48.

The production of wheat in the U. S. in 1928 amounted to 620 million Winchester bushels.
