30,000 Dead Chinese Seen In Flood's Wake

WASHINGTON, July 25.—A report that 30,000 bodies of flood victims had been picked up in the Yangtze valley alone Wednesday was a grim measure of the toll of the disaster.

The Yangtze, which has been swollen by the melting waters of the Han and other rivers, continued struggling to break through its banks, which are being washed down by the sea, crushing its barriers to the great stretches of farmland.

AAA Boss Denies Real Estate Racket

WASHINGTON, July 25.—The AAA boss, already frayed by weeks of court and legislative troubles, firmly denied Wednesday that he was a real estate racketeer.

In the midst of several suits of varying nature for sale, they read:

"Dandy way to make money, buy this 12 acres for hog raising. Sign up with the government to get more, say 'I beg it will pay you $1000 that will pay for the acres and have some left.'"

Chester C. Davis, AAA's outspoken boss, quickly denied the AAA was promoting a real estate racket in Missouri or elsewhere.

U. S. Being Forced Into Real Estate By Defaulters

For Sale Signs Soon May Appear On The Homes In America

WASHINGTON, July 25.—"For sale or rent" signs are being placed on many homes in many parts of the country. The government is being forced into the real estate business by an increasing number of defaulting borrowers from the Home Owners Loan Corporation.

Up to July 15, it became known, the corporation had instituted 212 foreclosure proceedings against home owners who had failed to meet their obligations. The government has granted them a 90-day extension of time to pay their debts.

Such notices are being filed at the rate of more than 40 a week.

The total number of foreclosures in significant numbers is the number of Home Owners Loan Corporation loans for an aggregate amount of $2,665,512.25.

Already 104 homes, actually have been foreclosed and are now in the hands of the HOLC. In this position to date, the corporation has created a surplus of property, many of which are being sold at public auction.

England Sends Troops To Protect Ethiopia's Legation

The department has notified 25 American consuls in Ethiopia that they should be on guard for their legations and that it will be impossible to find them protection in the event of trouble.

Night attacks on legations are with little doubt and appear instead of bullets will be the actual maintenance of Ethiopia's legations if Italy should be enabled to capture them.

Each of these legations is located here in the Italian territory and will be under British protection.

Home of the British legation in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, is a small building which is being guarded by British troops.

Full Over-Hauling Of Government Of Oklahoma Offered

The report recommended:

1. Abolition of numerous offices in state and county governments and creation of new centralizing agencies.
2. Shifting of the tax burden by increasing inheritance, income, gross production and motor license levies, and possibly repealing the 1 percent sales tax, 3-cent cigarette tax laws and decreasing property taxes when the other increases are effective.
3. Reorganization of the legislature.
4. Consolidation of counties.
5. Abolition of county boards, with transfer of their duties to county commissioners and county controllers.
6. Operation of schools on a county unit basis with county superintendents being appointed by county boards instead of being elected, and with the state paying for the operation of schools.

Feds Drop 8 To 1 Decision To Reds As Hurlers Falter; Bonner Beats Cocoa, 4 To 3

By PETER REHAAR
Falling on a final Chalk Bonner and an overworked Melvin Artry in the seventh inning of a Central Florida Baseball League game played in Orlando yesterday afternoon, the Orlando Reds scored an 8 to 1 victory over the Sanford Celerys to make it nine victories in 11 games between the two teams this year.

The Reds scored until the seventh inning before they found out that Bonner had started the job of hitting. In the eighth they got a run on a walk and a hit by Artry.

Table with columns for teams and statistics: Celerys, Reds, Runs, Hits, Errors, etc.
