Two arrested for Lake Brantley fire

Two Lake Brantley High School students were arrested on Thursday for setting a small fire at the school, causing $250 in damage in a men's restroom.

Matt Treadaway, 16, and Nathan Nault, 18, were pulled out of class and arrested Thursday for attempted arson, tampering with fire suppression equipment, and false alarm.

The fire occurred shortly after 1:10 p.m. Wednesday in the first floor men's room of Building 8. It was confined to a small area around the sprinkler head. As soon as the fire started, the fire sprinkler activated, quickly extinguishing the fire.

"The (fire) alarms did go off, but it was under control quickly," said Alan Harris, a spokesman for the Altamonte Springs Fire Department.

Investigators said the students wrapped toilet paper around a sprinkler head in the bathroom and ignited it with a cigarette lighter.

School officials said that more than 3,000 faculty, students and staff were evacuated shortly after the incident. Classes were dismissed because it was close to the end of the school day.

Pan Am begins service to Chicago

By Bill Kerns
Staff Writer

SANFORD — Pan American Airways will begin service between Sanford and Chicago on Wednesday of next week.

Pan Am will offer daily service between Sanford and the Chicago-Gary Airport on Wednesday. The airline already offers service between the Orlando Sanford Airport and Portsmouth, N.H., which is 50 miles outside of Boston.

Airline will offer 6-day service to Chicago-Gary Airport starting at $84

The first flight from the Chicago-Gary Airport will arrive in Sanford on Wednesday at 12:30 p.m. The flight will depart Sanford for Chicago at 2:20 p.m. Pan Am's service is six days per week, except on Tuesdays, and fares start at $84.

Pan Am's service in Sanford began in October with flights six days per week between Sanford and Portsmouth. The first scheduled passenger flight for Pan Am since February 1998 provided Sanford's airport with its first regularly scheduled domestic service.

"A lot of folks at the Chicago-Gary Airport are very enthusiastic about service to Orlando," said John Nadolny, senior vice-president of Pan Am.

Next year, the airline is considering adding service from Sanford to perhaps four more cities. However, no decisions have been made on which cities will be added.

Service to Canada may begin in as soon as January with destinations to either Montreal, Toronto or Halifax.

Final Veterans Day of the Century

SANFORD — Janice Leombruno and her sheep dog "Lucky" stood at the corner of First St. and Park, observing the Veteran's Day Parade on Thursday.

"Good morning," Leombruno called to three veterans in wheelchairs, "What a good morning it is."

There were veterans on horseback, veterans marching, veterans like 94-year-old Leander Dimpsey from DeBary riding in open convertibles.

Student JROTC units marched, as did Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts.

The Over the Hill Vets band from American Legion Post 53 played from a mobile bandstand pulled by a Sanford Parks & Recreation vehicle.

At 11 a.m. on 11/11/99 - the last Veteran's Day ceremony of the 20th century, a brief program began at Memorial Park. Several hundred people and Lucky the dog attended.

It was so warm that a half dozen or more youngsters in the marching units peeled over. The veterans, as always, fared better.

"This is the greatest American holiday of them all — better than July 4," Sanford Commissioner Brady Lessard told the assembly. "I've always thought so. There would have been no July 4 if not for our first veterans — the farmers, sailors, leaders provoked into war. "It always gives me chills to stand here before you veterans on this special day," said Lessard, who was substituting for Mayor Larry Dale. "There are more here today than last year. I hope we can get more of the school kids next year.

Work nearly complete on Seminole High pool

By Bill Kerns
Staff Writer

SANFORD — Work on Sanford's community pool at Seminole High School is nearing completion.

Construction is scheduled to be finished in December. The pool will open for public use in January or February, according to city officials.

The pool by Seminole High School for practices, swim meets, and as a place to teach swimming safety. In addition, the pool will double as a community swimming pool, when not in use by Seminole High School.

"So many people and organizations have worked hard on the pool," said Seminole High School Principal Karen Coleman. "People used to say we couldn't do this, but we have."

Sanford, Seminole County and the school-district are sharing the costs of constructing a $1 million pool at Seminole High School. Sanford is paying $500,000 toward construction of the pool, while the county and school board are splitting the remaining $500,000 for construction.

The cities Altamonte Springs and Orlando have also worked with local school-districts to construct a community swimming pool. A swimming pool being constructed at Seminole High School will be similar to the pool already in use at Lake Brantley High School.

Chubby, Lee Roy, C-Note headline 2nd Annual Sanford Heritage festival

Downtown Sanford will be the venue for a huge street party celebrating Sanford's rich heritage Nov. 12 through 14.

The event will be "three days of non-stop fun and musical entertainment featuring Lee Roy Parnell, Chubby Checker, C-Note and a special appearance by Backstreet Boyz the tribute" said Ron Rose, executive director of the Sanford/Seminole County Chamber of Commerce.

In addition to rock & roll, country/blues, and pop, the festival will offer six stages of entertainment throughout the three-day event, as well as jazz music performances at Magnolia Square and Rand Alley.

Other musical entertainers include The Local Girls, Eddy Rivers, Double Vision and the Funk Gang Island Band. There will also be a Bahamian Marketplace, the Chipman Dancers, musical performances by Sanford-area schools, local bands and solo acts, jugglers and unicyclists, a Seminole Public Schools student art exhibit and the Central Florida Zoo Animal Experience.

Festival hours are Friday, Nov. 12, 3 p.m. to 1 a.m.; Saturday, Nov. 13, noon to midnight; and Sunday, Nov. 14, noon to 10 p.m.

Three-day passes are available for $10 at all central Florida Huntington Banks as well as the Sanford/Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, 400 E. First Street. Admission is $5 per day for adults with children 12 and under admitted free.

The event also includes mid-way thrill rides. Festival-goers can ride all rides Friday night during "Moonlight Mania" from 10 p.m. to 1 a.m. for $5. Sunday is Family Day, when you can ride all rides all day for $10.

Trustees from the Seminole County Jail assist stage crews in setting up for this weekend's Sanford Heritage Festival.

Schools work to boost scores

By Bill Kerns
Staff Writer

SANFORD - The six Seminole County elementary schools that received "D's" on the state's accountability report are taking steps to improve test scores and other areas where the state said the schools are weak.

Wicklow, Hamilton and Midway elementary schools have the lowest Florida Comprehensive Assessment Test (FCAT) scores in the district in both reading and math. Pine Crest Elementary School received a "D" based on its FCAT scores for reading and writing.

Idyllwilde and English Estates received "D's" based on Florida Writes! test scores.

Five of the six schools with "D's" in the state report are located in Sanford, while English Estates is in Fern Park.

In August, a school-based

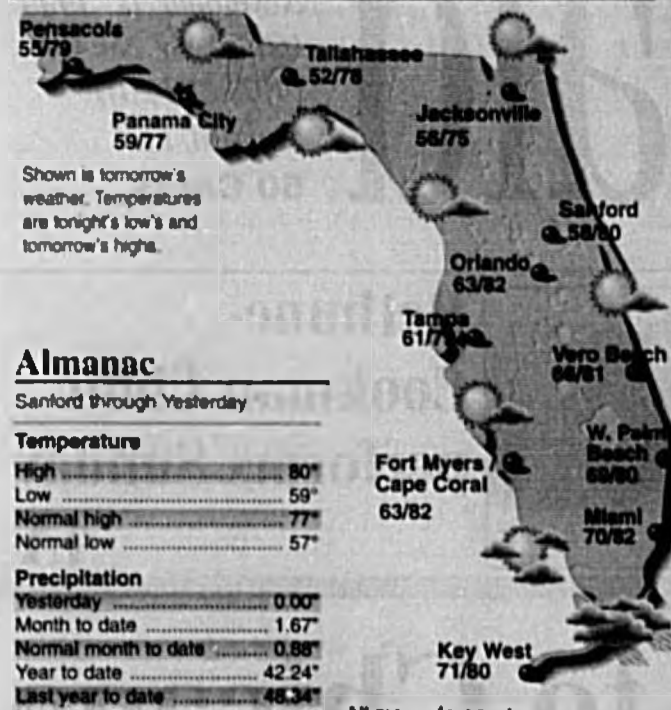

After School Extended Day Program was developed for four of the six schools that received "D's." Several days per week, students receive tutoring from the time school ends until 5 p.m. The school district provides students with transportation to their homes.

The schools participating in the extended day program include Wicklow, Hamilton, Midway, and Pine Crest elementary schools. See Schools, Page 2A

Pan Am

"It will probably be a couple of months before we make another announcement about expansion," said Dan Fortnam, director of marketing for Pan Am.

Other cities that Pan Am is looking into serving next year include Atlanta, St. Louis, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, as well as San Juan and Aguadilla, P.R.

Nadolny said that Pan Am will expand into smaller airports such as the Chicago-Gary airport and the Orlando Sanford Airport, where passengers will face less commuter traffic.

"There are a lot of opportunities for growth, and a lot of under-utilized airports out there," Nadolny said.

Sanford's airport handled 1.2 million passengers in 1998, primarily from British charter flights. This represents fast paced growth from the 50,000 passengers served in 1996. This year, despite the loss of several charter carriers, the airport is expected to serve 1 million passengers.

The airport served as a Naval Air Station from 1942 to 1946, and 1951 to 1968, and regular international service began in 1996.

The success of Pan Am is key to efforts by airport and Sanford officials to attract additional domestic service.

Pan Am began local service with flights departing Portsmouth at 8:30 a.m. and arriving in Sanford at 1:10 p.m. The flight then departs Sanford at 1:20 p.m., and arrive in Portsmouth at 4 p.m. Fares to Portsmouth begin at $84.

Pan Am established a maintenance facility at Sanford's airport in March. The airline's Clipper Class flights are reconfigured 727's with the total number of seats reduced from 173 to 149.

Pan Am is owned by Guilford Transportation Industries, a New England railroad operator and owner of paper mills.

The original Pan Am filed for bankruptcy in 1991, and the second Pan Am also filed for bankruptcy. This is the third incarnation of the airline.

Pan Am was founded in the 1920's by Juan Trippe.

For one year after acquiring Pan Am in June of 1998 and relocating the headquarters from Ft. Lauderdale to Portsmouth, Guilford Transportation operated Pan Am as a charter service.

"We're going to grow it very deliberately, slowly and prudently," Nadolny said.

more parent involvement in the FCAT and Florida Writes, and this is what the workshops are for," said Marion Dailey, executive director of instructional support services for the school district.

schools are struggling with high poverty levels, absentee rates, and with a large portion of students that are mobile, moving in-and-out of school during the school year.

Four of the schools — Midway, Hamilton, Pinecrest, and Wicklow — have poverty levels above 70 percent. Idyllwilde and English Estates elementary schools have poverty rates of 48 percent.

Wicklow Elementary School has a 60 percent mobility rate, which reflects the number of students moving in-and-out in a year. The remaining five schools with "D's" all have mobility rates ranging from 30-to-36 percent.

"When you have a highly mobile student population and a high poverty rate in a school, those are very difficult barriers," Dailey said. "It's not impossible, but it is difficult."

The six schools with "D's" also have high absentee rates. For instance, 20 percent of Pine Crest Elementary School students were absent for 20 days or more last year. The state's is 8.7 percent.

Hamilton, Wicklow and Midway elementary schools have absentee rates ranging from 10.4 to 11.7 percent. English Estates has an 8.3 percent absentee rate, while Idyllwilde has a 7.1 percent absentee rate.

The final Veteran's Day program of the century was over.

Those hazy Navy days of yesteryear

I'm almost 60 now. It has been 42 years since I went into the Navy. Did boot camp at Bainbridge, Md. Took a summer cruise on a destroyer escort - the U.S.S. Decatur. Served with the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean. High-lined from ship to ship at sea before dawn one morning. Was part of a critical Marine landing at Beirut, Lebanon. My mind was wandering Thursday during the Veteran's Day program at Memorial Park. Insignificant wandering. Being the lead hose guy fighting a fire at boot camp. Working radar on a fleet oiler - The U.S.S. Missisquoi. The captain caught a glimpse at a small fishing craft that escaped radar. I got chewed. We almost hit the thing. "What are you guys doing down there?" the captain barked. During the Lebanese crisis of 1959, I was aboard the U.S.S. Des Moines, the flagship of the Sixth Fleet. Nikita S. Khrushchev said he could make the Fleet's ships caskets of molten steel. Admiral

Charles Randall Brown, the Fleet Commander, said Mr. K a two-word reply to the threat: "Good Grief." A tough cuss, Cat Brown.

Later at Naples, a Naval reserve officer on two weeks duty came into the office where I worked as a Navy Journalist. His name: Edward R. Murrow. Lt. Edward R. Murrow. When the Over the Hill Vets band played "Anchors Aweigh" on Thursday, I felt proud about being in the Navy for a short while. Just a kid. Away from home for the first time. Spending time in Harm's Way during the Cold War. But never engaged in combat. Most of the veterans I saw Thursday were battle-tested sailors, soldiers, airmen, marines. Three spun their wheel-chairs down First Street. Eleander Dimpsey, a 94-year-old ex Navy man, rode in a convertible. He joined the Navy five years after the armistice was signed ending World War I.

Russ White

Sanford Commissioner Brady Lessard, who did Army Reservist duty, told the assembly Thursday that he considered Veteran's Day to be the "Greatest American Holiday." Lessard gave a good speech. The veterans applauded him. So did I. Especially when he said that more school kids ought to attend future Veteran's Day programs.

Something else I wanted to do Thursday was call Dick Shaw, The Whistler who lives in Apopka. Shaw was 74 on Veteran's Day. He grew up in Germantown, Pa., thinking that the big Nov. 11 parade was for him. "I hated finding out it wasn't," Shaw said. One year, Shaw remembers that John Phillip Sousa came to Germantown to conduct the marching band on Armistice's Day as Veteran's Day was then called. Shaw remembers marching along with the band, whistling American tunes. A few of us vets were whistling Thursday. It seemed the American thing to do.

Bethune-Cookman choir to perform

Trinity United Methodist Church, 526 N. Sanford Ave., will observe their 120th church anniversary, 3 p.m., Sunday, Nov. 14, at the Sanford Civic Center in Lakefront. Dr. Oswald P. Bronson, president of Bethune-Cookman College in Daytona Beach, will be the guest speaker. The Bethune-Cookman College Choir, under the direction of Dr. Rebecca Stelle, will provide the music. The Rev. Eddie J. Rivers Jr. is the pastor.

First Baptist Church of Longwood Christmas Project is in the works

First Baptist Church of Longwood is doing something different for Christmas this year. In the past, First Baptist Church has watched churches sponsor various events that incorporate the unique talents and gifts of a few people. For instance, a Christmas cantata, living Christmas tree or live manger scene.

While these events were always well-attended and very much appreciated by those who looked on, they actually directly involved only a small portion of the church: those gifted with musical abilities. Attendance was limited to those who could fit into the building.

This year will be different, unique, interesting, appealing.

The church will sponsor a "Walk Through Bethlehem" again this fifth year. In essence, it involves building a replica of the city of Bethlehem on the church grounds with 32 different stations or scenes. It will be inhabited by Bible characters who live out various scenes that may have occurred at that first Christmas. The inhabitants of this Bethlehem will be church members and friends, not strangers or actors, but the church family. Because the original Bethlehem had babies, children, young adults and seniors, so will this one. Everyone in the church family can have a part.

The church is now preparing for a visitor list of people who will walk through Bethlehem, and is now estimating between 12,000 and 20,000 people from the Orlando area will pass through the gates of the city.

As visitors are guided through the city in small groups they will hear the story of the birth, life, death and resurrection of Bethlehem's most famous citizen, Jesus. Evangelism teams will be prepared on hand to lead any of the Bethlehem guests to faith in the Christ who was born nearly two thousand years ago.

Construction and costume preparation has already begun. The city will be in place by early December and open to visitors for two weekends. Dates and time are as follows:

Weekend One:
Dec. 3-Friday 6 to 9 p.m.
Dec. 4-Saturday 3 to 9 p.m.
Dec. 5-Sunday 3 to 9 p.m.
Weekend Two:
Dec. 10-Friday 6 to 9 p.m.
Dec. 11-Saturday 3 to 9 p.m.
Dec. 12-Sunday 3 to 9 p.m.

Paradis is new editor of The Florida Catholic

By Russ White
Staff Writer

Readers of The Florida Catholic shouldn't be surprised that 34-year-old Steve Paradis has been named the newspaper's new editor/general manager.

Paradis succeeds Deacon Henry Libersat, who retired in July.

The Florida Catholic, home-based in Orlando, is an award-winning publication that has the largest circulation of any U.S. Catholic diocesan weekly. Florida's Catholic Christians serve the Lord, keep holy the Sabbath and read their diocesan newspaper.

"God has given us this great medium of a Catholic newspaper," Paradis said. "Let us pray that the Holy Spirit will use our efforts to further the kingdom of God."

Unlike large secular newspapers, who tend to sadden readers with an abundance of bad news, papers such as The Florida Catholic are more apt to gladden with an abundance of good news. All the while, The Florida Catholic, is a lively well-written, well-edited, well-designed publication that Steve Paradis says will get even better.

Paradis, a resident of Fern Park, leads a central staff of 20 and works with six bureaus to serve readers in the Catholic Archdioceses of Orlando, Miami, St. Petersburg, Palm Beach, Venice and Pensacola-Tallahassee.

Currently, finishing work on a master's degree in religious education from Loyola University of New Orleans, Paradis began working at The Florida Catholic in 1985 as an intern. At that time, he was gaining a journalism degree from the University of Central Florida. Naturally, the two degrees will serve him well.

Matthew, Mark, Luke and John were hand selected to write the Word of the Lord in Scripture. Paradis was hand-picked by an Executive Board headed by Bishop Robert Lynch. There was a lengthy selection process. Paradis had impressed the board as the paper's managing editor since 1996.

More than this, he exhibited the spirit of Pope John Paul II to be able "to go to many places and to enter many hearts." In his "Reflections" column in the Nov. 4 issue of The Florida Catholic, Paradis emphasized what the Holy Father said: "We cannot be afraid to allow the Holy Spirit to help us and those around us to know Christ."

Paradis said that he was thankful to Libersat for laying the foundation for The Florida Catholic and for supporting his efforts at the newspaper.

Libersat gained the respect of the large community of Florida Catholics - laity and leaders of the clergy. This required deep faith and professional commitment.

The American way of life allows - and encourages - religious newspapers, TV and radio programs to spread the Word of God. Throughout the nation, churchgoers subscribe to a number of weekly newspapers and monthly magazines. They read stories, columns and see pictures that are not carried in the major dailies, or in Time or Newsweek.

For $17 a year - subscription cost, The Florida Catholic is a good deal. The paper also has a daily updated web site: www.thefloridacatholic.org.

Church Bulletins

St. Paul hosts clothes distribution through Nov. 28

The St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church in Sanford will host a Free Market to distribute clothing every Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday through Nov. 28. Clothing in a variety of sizes for children, youth, men and women will be available.

Distribution times on Tuesdays and Thursdays is noon to 3 p.m.; and Sundays from 1 to 2:30 p.m.

For more information, call (407) 323-1601.

Chanukah celebration set for Dec. 4 in Orlando

Chabad of Greater Orlando will host its Grand Menorah Lighting and Chanukah Gala at Church Street Station, in the Church Street Market Courtyard, Saturday, Dec. 4, at 8 p.m.

In years past, Chabad has held a Grand Menorah Lighting at the Altamonte Mall. After last year's event, it was evident attendance had grown too large for the mall's capacity. Statistics have shown American society has become more understanding and accepting of Chanukah as a recognized calendar event.

"With that in mind, it seems most appropriate to host such an event in the open arena of a public city street where all people can celebrate together," said Jeff Bander, one of the chairmen on the Chanukah committee.

The event will include a Menorah lighting, greetings from dignitaries, donuts, hot latkes, dreidels, balloons, live music, Chassidic and traditional dancing, Chanukah getti, Grand Menorah Display and Israeli entertainer Yoel Sharabi.

For more information, call (407) 644-2500.

First Baptist Sanford to hold Educators' Appreciation Day

The First Baptist Church of Sanford will host Educators' Appreciation Day Sunday, Nov. 14. Ken Scrubbs, former staff member of Seminole High School, will be the guest speaker. Marian Cummings, principal at Wilson Elementary, and Lori Keiter, teacher at Seminole High, will also participate.

All principals at Sanford public schools are invited, as well as school board members and their families.

For more information, contact the First Baptist Church at (407) 322-6041.

New Life Tabernacle hosts first Prayer Breakfast

The New Life Tabernacle and Pastor Lorraine Ward will host its first Prayer Breakfast from 9 a.m. to noon, Saturday, Nov. 13 at Denny's Restaurant, State Road 46, Day's Inn Hotel.

Patricia Sayles, pastor of the Temple of Peace, Army of Light Ministries, will be the guest speaker.

Contact Pastor Lorraine Ward at (407) 324-5595 for more information.

Sanford Christian Worship Center hosts quartet singing

Quartet singing will be offered 7:30 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 13 at the Sanford Christian Worship Center, 1509 W. 13th St., Sanford.

Entertainment will include: The Sunshine Singers of Winter Park, The Faithful Two of Orlando, The Dove of Faith of Apopka, Florida Nightingales of Sanford, Wings of Joy of Sanford, Gospel Train and Loretta Williams of WTRR Radio, South Wind of Sanford, and Tommie Toulter and the Saviors of Orlando.

Praise Celebration at House of Refuge is Nov. 24 - 26

House of Refuge will hold its annual "Praise Celebration" 7:30 p.m., Nov. 24 through 26 at 1001 Celery Ave., Sanford. The guest speaker will be Pastor Samuel Nelson of West Ghana, Africa.

Mission Conference at River Oaks is Saturday and Sunday

River Oaks Church will host a Missions Conference, Nov. 13 and 14. Events on Saturday will include a prayer vigil, 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the community center, and a potluck supper and missions presentations from various missionaries from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Attendees are encouraged to bring their favorite foreign food recipes.

Sunday's events are a 10:30 a.m. presentation on world missions by Dr. Roger R. Nicole.

For more information, contact Adam Davidson at 786-6136 or Wes O'Quinn at 328-8596.

Italian Feast is Saturday

Lake Mary Woman's Club members prepare for an Italian Feast. Wanda Santoro is in charge of salad, Sandi Moodie is in charge of the meat sauce and Rosemary Traeger is in charge of the pasta. Once a year, a delightful Italian restaurant opens up in the heart of Lake Mary. But it's for one night and one night only. Saturday night is the night. The 12th Annual Italian Feast and Craft Sale will be from 4 to 7 p.m. at the Community Building in Lake Mary. The event is sponsored by the Lake Mary Woman's Club. Forget about cooking on Saturday. For just $5 per person, you can enjoy delicious pasta, fresh salad, crunchy garlic bread and a great dessert. While you're enjoying your feast, you can feast your eyes on the wonderful holiday crafts. The Woman's Club has been working for months on handmade ornaments and holiday decorations. The club will also be raffling off some beautiful gift baskets. You can spend your money knowing it's for a good cause. Funds raised at the feast go to support such things as the Lake Mary Woman's Clubs' SCC Scholarship.

Fossil Fair coming this weekend

The Florida Fossil Hunters, a non profit organization, will hold a fossil fair Nov. 13 and 14 at the National Guard Armory, 2809 S. Ferncreek Avenue in Orlando.

The hours will be 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Saturday and 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Sunday. Admission will be $3 for adults and $1 for children.

There will be a fossil pit for the children to dig for fossils and keep what they find. There will also be displays based on the theme of Florida's Fossil Reptiles and there will be dealers selling fossils, minerals, gems and artifacts.

On Friday, Nov. 12, the Fossil Hunters will host an education day. There will be about 300 children from various schools and a group of home schooled children. There is no cost to the children, and they will receive tickets to come back for the fair on Saturday or Sunday. There will be four stations set up for them to spend time at and learn about different topics.

The Brevard Zoo will be bringing Reptiles and there will also be discussions on Florida Native Americans.

For more information, contact Valerie First at 699-9274 or 327-4607.

Auditions for Mama's House are Nov. 14, 15

Auditions to appear in the religious production, "Mama's House," will be held from 3-8 p.m., Nov. 14 and 15. Auditions will be held at the Inner Peace Christian Worship Center, 2921 Orlando Drive, Suite 180. "Mama's House" is a drama about awareness and salvation in a world without Christ. Actors, actresses, singers, musicians and stage crews are needed.

For more information, call "Mean Gene" Gospel Hour at 407-323-2807.

Stars set to shine at Homestead

Special to the Herald

HIALEAH - The stars will shine this weekend for the long-awaited debut of NASCAR Winston Cup Series racing in South Florida.

Just like a Hollywood premier, Sunday's Pennzoil 400 presented by Kmart and Saturday's HotWheels.com 300 at Miami will be attended by many sports and entertainment celebrities.

Legendary golfer Arnold Palmer will be the Grand Marshal for Sunday's inaugural event. Television star Jay Leno will drive the pace car, leading the field on the parade lap.

On Saturday, "King" Richard Petty will give the command to start engines for the 1999 NASCAR Busch Series finale. Waving the green flag will be his son, Kyle Petty.

Enjoying the racing from pit road from the world of baseball will be Orlando "El Duque" Hernandez, star pitcher for the World Champion New York Yankees, and his brother, former Florida Marlins World Series MVP, Livan Hernandez. The duo will be following the debut of the Hispanic Racing Team, along with veteran Indy Car driver Roberto Guerrero and his brother, 2000 HRT driver Jaime Guerrero.

Famed professional fisherman Hank Parker, host of an angling show on TNN, will be rooting for his son, Hank Jr., in Saturday's HotWheels.com 300. Joe Gibbs, who coached the Washington Redskins to a pair of Super Bowl victories, will be in the pits overseeing his two NASCAR Winston Cup teams in the Pennzoil 400 presented by Kmart.

A limited number of two-event tickets are still available by calling (305) 230-RACE. Speedway officials, along with local and state law enforcement agencies, are requesting that people with tickets plan to arrive early and review the traffic plans for alternate routes.

For additional information, visit the Speedway's new official web site, www.homesteadmiamispeedway.com.

1967 pace car attracts fans to DAYTONA USA

Special to the Herald

DAYTONA BEACH - Motorsports enthusiasts can get up close to a piece of racing history this weekend at DAYTONA USA, the Official Attraction of NASCAR.

The 1967 Pontiac Firebird GT that served as the honorary pace car for Daytona International Speedway that same year is on display in the lobby of the "Ultimate Motorsports Attraction." Fans can see the car free of charge.

In addition to being a significant historical icon of racing in Daytona, the car bears the signatures of some of racing's greatest stock car and motorcycle riders. Even the late Bill France, founder of NASCAR, scrawled his signature prominently across the car's hood.

Guests will find Paul Goldsmith's autograph on the 1967 Pontiac. Goldsmith is the only racer to win a motorcycle race and auto race on the sands of Daytona Beach and also win an auto race at Daytona International Speedway. He won a cycle race on the beach in 1953, won the last stock car race on the beach in 1958 and won a qualifying round of the Daytona 500 at the Speedway in 1966.

Indianapolis 500 Champion Parnelli Jones signed the car. Jones won the Paul Revere 250 at the Speedway in 1967 and competed in the 24 Hours of Daytona sports car endurance race.

Youth lacrosse tournament to be held at Sylvan Lake Park

Special to the Herald

SANFORD - Over 200 boys and girls youth lacrosse players will gather at Lake Sylvan Park west of Sanford for a lacrosse tournament this weekend.

Nineteen games will be played from 9 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, November 13th.

In only its second season, youth lacrosse has seen rapid growth. Last year only 80 boys participated in an experimental season. In addition to the 200 youth lacrosse players in Seminole County, there were over 90 youth players in Orange County in their inaugural season.

Last year it was only boys. This year the girls have picked up sticks and joined in the fun. Rock Lake, Greenwood Lakes, and Teague middle school students dominate the field in Seminole County.

However, these teams also include students from Indian Trails and Jackson middle schools as well.

In Orange County, Maitland and Glenridge middle schools are the most active.

Next year, there is already discussion of adding middle school programs feeding Lake Mary, Lake Howell, Oviedo, Seminole, Winter Springs, Bishop Moore, Boone, Colonial, and Cypress Creek high schools.

This Saturday's tournament will be augmented by a speed shot contest for the boys and an accuracy contest for the girls.

Teams from Rock Lake and Teague (two teams each), Greenwood Lakes and Flagler will make up the boys field and play throughout the day, while girls teams from Rock Lake, Teague and the Independent Rob's Girls will play on Field A between 11 a.m. and 12:30 p.m.

For more information about Youth Lacrosse, contact Chuck Scales at 862-8502 or United States Lacrosse-Orlando at 841-1550.

Metalade increases lead in Industrial

By Dean Smith

SPORTS EDITOR

SANFORD - For the second consecutive game, Metalade widened its lead in the City of Sanford Recreation and Parks Department Fall Industrial Slow Pitch Softball League at Pinehurst Park last Friday night, knocking off Kemco for the second straight time.

The game was close until the fourth inning when Metalade exploded for seven runs and went on to an 18-7 slaughter.

The Wayne Densch B-53's put themselves back into the thick of the race by sweeping a doubleheader, 18-9 over Briar/BBM Corporation and 14-4 over Invacare.

Metalade improved to 5-0 and now leads the Wayne Densch B-53's, who improved to 4-2. Kemco fell to third with a 3-2 record, with Briar/BBM Corporation (1-5) and Invacare (0-4) following.

The league plays a tripleheader every Friday night at Pinehurst Park starting at 6:30 p.m.

Providing the offense were:

Wayne Densch B-53's: three hits - Jon Christian (two runs, two RBI); two hits - Trey Brasseur (grand slam, triple, two runs, six RBI); Wayne Kelly (triple, two runs, RBI); Cory Mann (two runs, RBI); Kelly Pettit (run, RBI); Howard Sorg (two runs); one hit - Ron Plummer (double); Robert Villiana (run, RBI); Jerry Rohr (two runs); Mark Shepard (RBI); Michelle Carroll (run); one run scored - Daniel Vaughn.

Briar/BBM Corporation: two hits - Ruben Garcia (triple, two runs); Howard Stout (two runs); Keith Latz; one hit - Chuck Harley (double, two runs); Billy Prevesk and Bill Elliott (one run scored and one RBI each); Don Baldwin (run); Bo Myers; one RBI - Mike DeLapas.

Wayne Densch B-53's: three hits - Jon Christian (run, two RBI); two hits - Michelle Carroll (run, two RBI); one hit - Mark Shepard (double, run, RBI); Kelly Pettit and Daniel Vaughn (one run scored and one RBI each); Robert Villiana (two runs); Howard Sorg (run); one run scored, one RBI - Trey Brasseur; two runs scored - Cory Mann, Ron Plummer; one run scored - Jerry Rohr.

FIRST SIGNINGS AT WINTER SPRINGS

WINTER SPRINGS - History was made at Winter Springs High School on Thursday as Mary Lou Johnston and Amanda Pingston became the first athletes to sign NCAA Division I National Letters-of-Intent to play collegiately next fall.

Johnston (seated, top photo), a star guard in basketball, inked a grant with Ohio University with coach Betsy Hughes (standing, left to

Longhorns pulls even for lead in Thursday Softball

By Dean Smith

SPORTS EDITOR

SANFORD - The fog is starting to clear in the City of Sanford Recreation and Parks Department Men's Fall Thursday Night Slow Pitch Softball League.

Because of several book-keeping problems, some of the results from Pinehurst Park have not been reported, making it a guess as to the standings.

But with the recovery of another game from October 21st, the standings are starting to take shape.

In that game from October 21st, Clancy Wallace's two-run single in the top of the seventh inning proved to be the difference as Longhorns handed Stenstrom Realty Incorporated their first loss of the season, 14-13.

Last night at Pinehurst Park, Longhorns and Stenstrom Realty Incorporated kept pace, with Longhorns rolling to a 14-4 run-rule victory over the R.S.C.-Regulators and Stenstrom Realty Incorporated scored seven runs in the bottom of the seventh inning to escape Wolfys, 17-16.

In the other game, Smith Equipment finally broke out in a big way, collecting 30 hits in a 31-14, five-inning slugfest with Celeste Industries.

The standings (as close as we can be with information available at this time) are: Longhorns and Stenstrom Realty Incorporated (both 5-1), Smith Equipment (3-3), Wolfys (2-4) and Celeste Industries and the R.S.C.-Regulators (both 1-4).

Next Thursday at Pinehurst Park, the Smith Equipment challenges Stenstrom Realty Incorporated at 6:30 p.m.; the R.S.C.-Regulators take on Wolfys at 7:30 p.m.; and Longhorns faces Celeste Industries at 8:30 p.m.

Providing the offense were:

Budweiser takes lead in Lake Mary softball

By Dean Smith

SPORTS EDITOR

LAKE MARY - Rallies were the story of the night and they had a definite bearing on the standings in the City of Lake Mary Parks and Recreation Department Men's Fall Friday Night Slow Pitch Softball League at the Lake Mary Sports Complex.

Marcus Bullock's two-out, two-run single in the top of the fifth inning capped a three-run rally as Budweiser/Signal Zero came back from a 13-11 deficit to edge Gaylon Black Ford, 14-13.

Budweiser/Signal Zero had taken early leads of 6-1 and 11-5, but found itself trailing after Gaylon Black Ford plated eight runs in the bottom of the fourth inning.

In the nightcap, Nice 'N Easy took a 10-3 lead after three innings but never scored again as Hill's Gang rallied for nine runs over the final three innings and claimed a 12-10 victory on RBI singles by Sean Turner and David Stemberg that broke a 10-10 tie in the top of the sixth inning.

The other game ended in a forfeit with Blue Haven Pools getting a 7-0 gift from Lunch Box Bagels.

The decisions jumbled the top of the standings for the first time this season as Budweiser/Signal Zero took over first place by itself with a 5-1 record.

Nice 'N Easy not only fell out of at least a share of the lead for the first time this season, but tumbled all the way to third with a 4-2 record after losing its second game in a row.

Blue Haven Pools used the gift to move into second place with a 5-2 record, just a half game behind Budweiser/Signal Zero.

Completing the standings are Hill's Gang (4-3), Gaylon Black Ford (1-5) and Lunch Box Bagels (0-6).

Tonight at the Lake Mary Sports Complex located on Rantoul Lane off the extension of Country Club Road and south of CR 46-A, Blue Haven Pools battles Hill's Gang at 6:30 p.m.; Lunch Box Bagels plays Gaylon Black Ford at 7:30 p.m.; and Nice 'N Easy challenges Budweiser/Signal Zero at 8:30 p.m.

Mann and Cal Rayborn photographed the historic pace car. Mann was a back-to-back champion of the Daytona 200 in 1970-71. Rayborn was a consecutive Daytona 200 champion in 1968-69.

ARCA 200 Champion Iggy Katona signed the car. Katona won the ARCA 200 in 1985, 1971 and 1974.

Guests will find the signatures of Daytona 500 winners Bobby Allison (1978, 1982, 1988), Junior Johnson (1960), Marvin Panch (1961) and competitors Sam MacQuagg, Ramo Stott and Dick May. Johnson was also the owner of the car. Cale Yarborough drove to victory in the Daytona 500 in 1976, 1977 and 1978.

Another reason to make a trip to the "World Center of Racing" this weekend is the Richard Petty Driving Experience. This is the last chance in 1999 for guests to strap on a helmet and experience a high speed, three-lap thrill ride - right from the passenger seat of a specially designed stock car. The Richard Petty Driving Experience costs $99 and runs today through Sunday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., weather permitting.

DAYTONA USA is open daily from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Adult Admission is $12, seniors 60 and over are $10, children 6-12 are $6 and children under 6 are admitted free with a paying adult. For more information call (904) 947-6800 or visit w.daytonausa.com.

NEW SMYRNA SPEEDWAY

By Hank Sanders
Special to the Herald

SAMSULA - New Smyrna Speedway will be the site this Saturday for regular heat and feature action in all of the divisions.

There will be no Demolition Derby this week. The next Derby will be CRASH-A-RAMA November 26th at Orlando Speedworld.

Pit gates open at 4 p.m. with grandstand gates opening at 6 p.m. and racing beginning at 7 p.m. every Saturday night.

Cost is just $10 at the front gate for adults, while children 11-and-under are admitted free to the track located 10 miles south of Daytona Beach at the corner of Highway 44 and SR-415, between 1-4 (exit 56, east) and 1-95 (exit 84, west).

Also you are invited to tune in to Daytona's WNCB-AM 1150 every Monday night at 7 p.m. to hear all the updates. The radio show is brought to you by New Smyrna Speedway and XIR. Call in 904-239-0033 and tell us what you think!

In action from November 6th: Late Model - With the 1999 racing season over, many teams and fans decided to take the night off.

The lack of cars and fans didn't prevent an excellent feature race between David Rogers #11 TM Ranch Monte Carlo and Bobby McClelland's #99 Fairway racing Chevy. Rogers took the lead on lap 1 and led every lap, but McClelland was putting tremendous pressure on the veteran Orlando driver at both ends of the track.

"David is a great driver and I am happy to be able to run with him," said McClelland after the race.

Jeff Emery placed third ahead of rookie Travis Kittleson and Boaty Boatwright...

Limited Late Model - David Logan's In-Fab Chevy easily won the four car, 10 lap race. Brent Chilson was second, with Russ Antonucci and Jeremy Fitch rounding out the field...

Modified - The Korpe/Walker #112 driven by Mike Fritts and Tank Tucker driving Gary Frosh's #29 put on a great race for the first few laps until contact put the #112 out and Tank to the rear.

Young rookie Jason Boyd driving Bobby Judkins #2x assumed the lead and never looked back. Tucker would have been a factor, but ran out of laps coming from the back. Wayne Parker put his Cadillac into 2nd, with Tucker, Scott Miller and Chris Hardecastle taking the other top five paying spots...

Sportsman - Randy Newby put Jason Boyd in his #54 Daytona Beach Hilton Monte Carlo and he car to Victory Lane.

Boyd was super excited as he got two big wins in one night. Bob Andrecheck fought hard for second ahead of Jon Nusbaum, Don Bouslog and Jeff Stockstill at the line...

Mini-Stock - Five cars only, but none of them were good enough to catch Ted Vulpius' #71 black Pinto Bob Doxie claimed the runner up spot followed by #55 Rick Tumeys, Pat Wells and Martin Pierce...

Bomber (Super Stock) - The Chevy guys got a break as Jim Winterstein's Olds stayed home. Charlie Merz showed he had the best Chevy as he put the Florida Plumbing #57 out front and went on to get the win over 48 time winner Rick Clouser's Olds. These two were followed by Ed "high side" Zikowski, Mike Soukup and Richard Richards...

Strictly Stock - This was the usual exciting, swerving, crashing, smoking crashfest. Mark Martin's #6 tried desperately to catch Richard Bolton's beautiful fully equipped #3 but no luck.

But that all went for nothing after the top two cars were disqualified after post-race inspection.

Doug White was declared the winner in a successful debut for his #17 with Eddie Fitchett and Dean Price moving up to second and third...

Be sure to state your Zodiac sign.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 31)
Your impulsive nature may again cause you to spend foolishly on things that aren't essential to your practical needs. Strive to maintain tight financial reins today.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)
If your attitude is not willing to go all the way today, you're apt to perform far below your capabilities and potential. Set your sights on victory and don't do things in half measure.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)
In matters that have a direct effect upon your career, you could sadly let erroneous hunches or perceptions override your logic at this time. Don't let daydreams get out of hand.
PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20)
Should your partner in a joint venture be inept, she or he might fumble the ball for you where an important opportunity is concerned. Keep an eye on what's going on.
ARIES (March 21-April 19)
Before making any major or important decision, be sure to weigh all sides of the issue carefully. If you don't take the time to analyze the alternatives, an error in judgment is likely.
TAURUS (April 20-May 20)
Instead of banking on what you hope tomorrow will bring, plan and work today for that which in reality you're able to bring into being. That's what will give you immediate satisfaction.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20)
Don't assume that a matter that has thus far been running smoothly will always continue to do so. If it is left to fend for itself today, some serious problems could arise.
CANCER (June 21-July 22)
People will hold you accountable for promises you make to them at this time. Be careful not to make any hasty commitments today just to get somebody off your back.
LEO (July 23-Aug. 22)
No matter what your good intentions might be today, you could spend massive amounts of time and energy on projects if you're not organized and methodical in your methods and planning.
VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)
In order to not have any regrets concerning an inclination to spend way beyond your means today, you'd be wise to curtail your shopping and watch your every outlay.
LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23)
Although you may consider projects you leave half-finished today as a fait accompli, those who are depending upon you won't be as generous in their assessment of the facts.

Win at Bridge

Can the unnatural become natural?

In a letter to his wife Abigail, John Adams wrote, "There is something very unnatural and odious in a government a thousand leagues off." Some bridge players feel like that, except that the government is only four or five feet away, across the table.
The winning play in this deal would be considered unnatural by those who are not used to adjusting their thought processes to the situation at hand. South's three-diamond rebid was a priori a game-try, looking for diamond help to reach four spades. North was, of course, happy to jump to game. But now came some cue-bidding (or control-bidding, as it is becoming known). When South bid five spades, he made it plain that he was staring at two heart losers. With that ace, North moved toward six, cue-bidding in case seven was on. That was an excellent sequence, but

South's play didn't match the bidding. After winning with dummy's heart ace, he drew two rounds of trump with honors from hand. He continued with a diamond to dummy's ace, a diamond to his king, and a diamond ruffed low in the dummy. East happily overruled and returned a heart to his partner's queen: one down. Prime Minister North wasn't happy. "Ruff the third diamond with my spade king," he suggested. "But my diamonds still aren't established, and East overruffs next time," protested South. "No. After playing a club to your ace and leading a diamond, discard dummy's heart loser. Then, you can ruff your heart safely, when there is no risk of an overruff."

Chiropractor and Coumadin: bad combo

DEAR DR. GOTT: Because I have atrial fibrillation, I have been prescribed Coumadin. Last summer, because of pain in my right arm, I visited my chiropractor who gave me a rigorous spinal adjustment. A few hours later, my shoulder hemorrhaged and I spent four painful days in hospital, during which I required a transfusion. My whole right side turned black and blue. Now I am back to normal but still have shooting pains in my arm. My GP is not sure how to proceed but I am afraid to return to my chiropractor. What should I do?
DEAR READER: See an orthopedic surgeon. Your continuing arm pain could be caused by a shoulder problem such as bursitis, or by a pinched nerve in your neck. The specialist will probably order a CT or MRI scan to discover the reason for your pain. Then, with a firm diagnosis, she will be able to suggest therapy. I agree that you shouldn't return to the chiropractor — at least for this particular problem. While he did nothing wrong, his manipulation probably caused the hemorrhage. You were susceptible to such a complication because of the Coumadin, which is an anti-coagulant. I can't prove it, but I suspect that you got into trouble because you were over-anticoagulated. As you know, patients taking Coumadin must have periodic blood tests (prothrombin times) to measure the speed of clotting and enable doctors to adjust the dose of medicine accordingly. I'll wager that your prothrombin time hadn't been determined in several weeks and that it was too high, marking you for the predictable consequences of hemorrhage. Unfortunately, the chiropractor was at the right place at the wrong time. So, see an orthopedic specialist. And, more important, follow your doctor's advice about how best to monitor your use of Coumadin. To give you related information, DEAR DR. GOTT: My husband has suffered from rectal fissures for years. He uses over-the-counter unguents and creams. Despite this, he continues to experience severe pain with occasional bleeding. He is against surgery, so is reluctant to see a doctor. DEAR READER: Reluctant or not, he should seek medical attention. Rectal fissures are actual tears in the lining of the rectum and anus. In most cases, these lesions heal in a matter of weeks. I am concerned that your husband's fissures have continued to trouble him for years. I can understand his wish to avoid surgery. But does he really want to live his life this way, in constant pain? His disability must have profoundly affected your life together and your activities. In my opinion, a medical evaluation is necessary, and I would be prepared for the fact that surgery may be suggested as an option. Whether or not your husband accepts this course of action is, of course, his decision. But I, for one, can't conceive of maintaining this quality of life.

Standard Thanksgiving Day Questions and Answers

From first timers to seasoned pros, cooks of all levels may experience anxiety over preparing the Holiday Turkey Dinner. In the next two weeks I'll address the top commonly asked questions at this time of year.

refrigerator or cold water.

- Keep thawed or fresh turkey in a refrigerator.
- Prevent uncooked juices from dripping onto other foods in the refrigerator by placing packaged turkey on a tray.
- Thawed turkey may be kept in a refrigerator up to four days before cooking.

turkey's skin while it roasts will not make the meat juicier. The liquid penetrates only about 1/8 to 1/4 of an inch beneath the skin and most of the juice will run off into the pan. Opening the oven door periodically to baste a turkey can interrupt roasting and may possibly lengthen the roasting time.

Before roasting, lightly coat the turkey's skin with oil, shortening or vegetable cooking spray to prevent the skin from drying.

What's the proper way to stuff a turkey?

Generations of Americans have been enjoying turkeys — stuffed and unstuffed. Whether you choose to stuff your turkey or cook stuffing in a casserole dish is a matter of personal preference. As with any preparation involving raw food ingredients, it's important to carefully follow proper food safety and handling procedures to ensure a safe turkey every time. For consumers who choose to stuff their turkey, we recommend the following four guidelines:

- Prepare stuffing just before placing in turkey. Use only cooked ingredients in stuffing — sautéed vegetables, use only cooked meats and seafood (oysters), and use pasteurized egg products instead of raw eggs. Place prepared stuffing in turkey just before roasting. Do not stuff the turkey the night before roasting.
- Stuff both neck and body cavities of completely thawed turkey. Do not pack stuffing tightly in turkey.
- Return legs to original tucked position, if untucked for cleaning or stuffing.
- Always use a meat thermometer. The turkey is done when the thigh thermometer reaches 180 degrees F on a meat thermometer inserted into the thickest part of the thigh next to body, not touching bone. Move the meat thermometer to the center of the stuffing; temperature should be 160 degrees F. When the stuffed turkey is done, remove turkey from oven and let turkey with stuffing stand 15 minutes. This stand time allows the stuffing temperature to reach 165 degrees F for an added measure of safety.

- When the turkey is cooked on an outdoor grill, water smoker or by fast cook methods where the turkey typically gets done faster than the stuffing, it is recommended that the turkey not be stuffed.

- If using an instant-read meat thermometer, do not leave the thermometer in the turkey during roasting.

It is necessary to baste a Turkey? No. Basting the skin during the roasting process is not necessary. Pouring juices over the Should I buy a fresh or frozen Turkey?

Selecting a fresh or frozen turkey is your choice. Fresh turkeys need no thawing and are ready to cook. Frozen turkeys can be purchased weeks in advance, but require several days of thawing time before roasting.

Barbara Hughes

Fresh, non-basted Butterball Turkeys are all natural. The breast meat of frozen Butterball Turkeys has been deep-basted for juiciness and additional flavor.

What's the best way to thaw a Turkey?

Refrigerator thawing is recommended. However, if short on time, submerge the turkey in cold water. Thawing the turkey at room temperature allows bacterial growth and is not recommended.

Refrigerator Thawing:
Thaw breast-side up in its unopened wrapper on a tray in the refrigerator.

Allow at least one day of thawing for every four pounds of turkey.

Cold Water Thawing:
Place breast down in its unopened wrapper in cold water to cover.

Change the water every 30 minutes to keep surface cold. Estimate minimum thawing time to be 30 minutes per pound for whole turkey.

How do you recommend handling a Turkey so it's safe to eat?

Follow these food safety guidelines. Refer to specific categories for additional directions.

College classmates reunite

When four college classmates reunite after 40 years, watch out. Nancy McMillan (second from left) was hostess at her Sanford home to a gathering of her college friends who attended East Tennessee State University at Johnson City. Joining the festivities (from left) were: Dorothy Wiles, McMillan's sister from Bluff City, Tenn.; McMillan, a Sanford resident since 1955; Chris Couch, Orlando; Martha Kitchell, Dayton, Tenn.; and Evelyn Hill and her mother, Gladys Garland, both of Titusville. The group had lunch out on the town and spent the rest of the day reminiscing.

Frank talk should end free ride for freeloading friend

DEAR ABBY: I was surprised at your response to "Used in the Northwest," whose college friend and family visited without offering to defray expenses.

Your response, to charge $60 a day, seemed harsh. "Used" may lose a friend.

I would suggest a few alternatives:

1. "Used" and her family could reciprocate by visiting her college friend's family;
2. "Used" could suggest that the two families meet someplace where each would pay their own way;
3. "Used" could level with her friend, saying that the visits had become a financial strain, but that the visits might continue if they could agree on how to resolve this.

PHYLLIS STAHL, COLUMBUS, IND.

DEAR PHYLLIS: Your suggestions are good ones. However, "Used" stated that after 15 years, she and her husband felt taken advantage of, that the visits were no longer enjoyable, and she and her husband had dropped countless "hints" that were ignored. Therefore, I concluded that her college chum had the hide of a rhino and knew full well that she was taking advantage.

You are not the only reader who felt that my answer was too harsh. Read on:

DEAR ABBY: Your suggestion that "Used" charge her friend $60 a day to "cover the cost of feeding them, the additional water, electricity and telephone charges" is guaranteed to cost her the relationship with her friend. I'm from the Southeast, and such a demand would be considered extremely rude.

Why didn't you suggest that "Used" simply talk to her friend? She could inform her that the annual visit makes it difficult for her family to maintain their somewhat strained weekly budget. She could suggest that, perhaps, they go grocery shopping together and then simply ask her friend to pay for part. If they run out of milk or need a video, she could ask her friend to go to the store for it. By being up-front with her friend, she may appear to be struggling financially, but her friend should appreciate her honesty. Following your advice, she will appear rude and cheap.

USED TO SOUTHERN HOSPITALITY

DEAR USED TO SOUTHERN HOSPITALITY: Please re-read my answer to Phyllis (see above). Read on:

DEAR ABBY: After 15 years of silently taking the abuse from her visitors, the chances of "Used" being able to say that she is going to charge them is slim to none. I suggest she send the following note to her friend:

"Dear Jane and Family: We're delighted to hear that you and your family are once again going to be in our area. As you know, our little home gets really crowded and uncomfortable with so many of us under one roof. But I'm delighted to tell you that I have found a delightful motel close by that is very reasonable and comfortable. It is the Cozy Inn on Main Street.

"We know that you'll find it to be the best place in town for only $60 a night for you and your family. Since it's so close, we'll be able to spend all the time together that you're able to give us. Looking forward to seeing you again."

JOANN MABEL, BROOKLYN CENTER, MINN.

DEAR JOANN: I like your style. You have a deft touch.

DEAR ABBY: Your advice was good, but I'd go still further. How about informing this "friend" that since she is jobless, she has started a "bed and breakfast" business and that her rates are $100 a day for four persons, with a maximum of six days? This would shorten or eliminate the stay and/or recoup the previous losses to a small degree.

I'm amazed that "Used" and her family would tolerate such an imposition for 15 years. If I were her husband, this deal would have stopped years ago with a frank discussion and a firm goodbye!

JOHN LANDFRIED, ROCKWALL, TEXAS

DEAR JOHN: I agree!
