Idyllwilde student Holley Weaver, 7, of Sanford, enjoys being waltzed around by SICO the robot.

Robot Antics Cheer Patients

Central Florida Regional Hospital had an unusual celebrity visitor today — the highly technical 6-foot 2-inch tall space-age robot SICO.

SICO brought smiles to patients, both young and old, during his hour-long visit and also greeted a group of youngsters from Idyllwilde Elementary School in the hospital cafeteria.

"We have a 14-year-old patient, who has been quiet and withdrawn, but smiled when the robot came in," said Joyce West, head pediatrics nurse. "We have seven in Pediatrics today and the others responded well, too."

SICO's sophisticated design and construction and scientific approach to psychology enables him to successfully communicate with hospitalized children. His countless visits to hospitals worldwide has won him fame and touched the hearts of thousands.

Developed by International Robotics, Inc., SICO is an international traveler and often startles other passengers when he arrives at airports using his own credit card to pick up his ticket and boarding pass. He then proceeds to the gate and boards the plane to occupy a seat as any other passenger, meanwhile he is telling the public where he is going, why, and on behalf of what client.

On arriving at his destination he gets the celebrity treatment and often holds press conferences before being driven to his hotel and checking into his room. SICO's patented design incorporates full mobility on most surfaces, hands and arm animation, a very sophisticated life-like head movement in all directions and a passenger or product carrying platform. The robot personality is controlled by two professional actors/technicians, who mix with the audience and completely animate the robot with advanced and miniaturized electronic devices invisible to their audiences for an "out-of-this-world" effect.

$1m Bond Reduced For Suspected Drug Dealer

Bond has been reduced from $1 million to $100,000 for Jeffrey Scott Lang, 33, arrested Tuesday in Altamonte Springs' largest-ever drug bust.

Seminole County Judge Alan Dickey reduced the Lang's bond at a hearing in the county jail courtroom Wednesday afternoon.

Lang remains in jail today in lieu of the $100,000 bond.

Altamonte Springs police estimate they confiscated $1.5 million in cocaine, $20,000 worth of quaaludes, and $1,000 of marijuana when they searched a storage locker early Tuesday evening. The locker also contained approximately $35,000 in wads of $100 bills.

They arrested Lang two hours later at his home at Apt. 40, 100 Douglas Road, and charged him with trafficking in cocaine, trafficking in methamphetamine and possession of more than 20 grams of marijuana.

City Plans Storage Facility To Meet Growth Needs

By Donna Estes
Herald Staff Writer

A $253,000 ultra-modern elevated water storage facility will be built by Sanford to meet growth needs.

The elevated water storage facility is to serve the southwest section of the city.

Its probable site is city owned property on Art Lane, north of Lake Mary Boulevard, city manager W.E. "Pete" Knowles, said today.

The tank is of "peculiar design," he said. With a 200,000-gallon capacity, the concrete tank will be lifted by hydraulic jack as the pillar beneath it is constructed section by section.

"It will be much more esthetically pleasing than the old fashioned steel tanks with spidery legs," Knowles said.

The facility will serve Seminole Community College, Hidden Lake, Ramblewood and the growth along U.S. 17-92.

As a building boom has hit the city, planning is underway to meet the needs of the city's more than 10,000 water users and 9,000 sewer customers.

The building boom is concentrated on housing, with more than 900 units, valued at $52 million, either under construction or in the definite planning stage. And an industrial construction boom may be in the wings.

Announced earlier this week were plans to build a $6 million food processing, distribution center and offices in the Silver Lake area for a new chain of restaurants to be built in the state.

A shopping center at the intersection of Sanford Avenue and County Road 427 is in the talking stage.

At the same time planning has begun for another elevated water storage tank in the Silver Lake Road industrial area for construction in the 1987-88 fiscal year. The city already owns a site in that area for the facility.

'The water and sewer service is the first and most vital service provided in a city.'

"Growth has a lot to do with building new storage facilities," Knowles said, noting that with a cost of $253,000 each, the city doesn't just go out and drop storage tanks around haphazardly.

Improvements and expansion of the city's water and sewer utility system is a never ending process, Knowles said. The system itself, valued at about $20 million, is Sanford's major asset. In the improvement and expansion process, the city will spend about $85,000 in the 1983-84 fiscal year in addition to the elevated water tank to complete the loop of the utility transmission lines on Airport Boulevard.

"This will reinforce the entire system, keep pressures high and keep high flows," he said. Each time a new subdivision is added to the system, there is another potential loop that must be done. "It is a never ending program because dead ends cause pressure drops."

"There is a certainty about the water system in particular," Knowles said. "Any government could shut down any particular service for 24 hours and residents might be only discomforted, except for the water and sewer systems which people must have to live. The water and sewer service is the first and most vital service provided in a city," Knowles said.

The city of Sanford has two water plants and it's not likely an additional one will be built in the next few years, Knowles said.

"We have an excellent water system as a matter of fact. It is one of the very few municipal systems in the state that during very dry years has not had to limit the use of water," he said.

Report Details Needs Of Center For Handicapped

While education for mentally handicapped children in Seminole County has made significant strides in recent years, it's not enough. And a special study group thinks there ought to be some changes made.

A report from a committee formed in mid-March to study the Rosenwald Exceptional Child Care Center in Altamonte Springs, the only such facility in the county, details a list of desired improvements. But the report, presented Wednesday night to a group of parents with children enrolled at Rosenwald, made no mention of how much its 'wish list' would cost or where the money would come from.

The report will be forwarded to a task force studying Rosenwald's future. One of that group's jobs will be to explore all possible funding sources and report to Seminole School Superintendent Robert Hughes by Feb. 1.

While Rosenwald is slated for a $370,000 addition which will include five new classrooms, a physical therapy lab and a full kitchen, the report outlined several other needs.

Among them were: an inside play area for use by the profoundly mentally handicapped, an indoor therapeutic swimming pool, a vocational education wing, enhanced facilities for occupational and physical therapy, vision, speech, and guidance, a gymnasium or gym/auditorium combination, a vocational food service facility, a horticulture facility for on-the-job training/work experience, a covered area for wheelchair storage, county-provided transportation for after-school extracurricular activities (parents are currently responsible for getting their children to these activities), and air conditioned school buses, necessary, the report says, because of the "heart, allergy, respiratory and other medical problems that accompany mental retardation."

The report also recommended formulation of a revised staffing formula "in order to decrease the student-teacher ratio." Rosenwald Principal Ruby Hendrix said current ratios are 1 teacher for every 3 students in the profoundly handicapped program, 1 to 6 for the younger trainable students and 1 to 8 for the older trainable students. The report did not list a desired student-teacher ratio.

A recent trend in educating the mentally handicapped has been mainstreaming — integrating the students into "normal" schools. "After much deliberation," the study committee concluded "that since the negative aspects outweigh the positive, we do not recommend a pilot program until the task force" studies such questions as to whether:

• Rosenwald students would be housed in a wing of the receiving school or in isolated classrooms.

• They would share in vocational education, physical education, music and art classes "or just have isolated use of these facilities."

• There would be "integrated or isolated use of the cafeteria."

• Restroom facilities would be "adequately adapted to the special needs of our population...and whether they would be shared or available in each room."

• There would be "adequate support services: speech, occupational and physical therapy, vision, nurse, guidance...according to individual needs."

The report also suggested some criteria be designed to determine who will select which students are mainstreamed and on what basis, how the program will be evaluated, and "by whom the future needs will be determined in the event the pilot program is not successful."

Members of the study group also recommended a greater emphasis be placed on vocational education with actual work experience "for students who have reached the job-entry level of performance."

Rosenwald presently serves 225 mentally handicapped students ages 3 to 21. — Britt Smith

Rev. Book

Rev. Book To Give 'Distress' Flags To Senators

Rev. John Butler Book, pastor of the Northside Church of Christ in Altamonte Springs, is in Washington today to deliver American desk flags turned upside down in the distress mode to the 100 members of the U.S. Senate along with a recommendation that all aid to the Soviet Union be cut off.

While in the nation's capital he also plans to visit the Russian embassy and deliver a "care package for the leaders of a nation who do not care," he said Wednesday.

The package includes a half-burned flag of the Soviet Union. It was burned in a ceremony at the church's Christian School last week, commemorating the 269 passengers and crew of the Korean Air Lines Flight 007 shot down by Soviet military aircraft two weeks ago.

Book said the package will also include the biblical passage warning it would be better that a millstone be tied about ones neck and he be thrust into the sea rather than harming a child. Several children were among those killed in the crash. Book said the package provides the rope and millstone and a cover letter advises the Russian leaders to provide their own sea.

Other items in the "care package" include a telegram from Mrs. Kathy McDonald of Georgia whose congressman husband was killed in the crash and a letter from Sen. Jesse Helms, R-North Carolina, verbally thrashing the Soviet Union for barbaric action in attacking an unarmed civilian aircraft.

Students from the school were to see Book off on his journey from the Orlando International Airport.

Book said costs of the trip are being paid for from donations given for the purpose. — Donna Estes

Sanford Working On Sign Law

A Sanford merchant who complained to city officials that mobile signs placed in front of the permanent sign at his business, blocking it from clear public view, has brought about a proposed change in city ordinances.

When city officials investigated the complaint, they said they found a combination of five permanent ground signs and portable signs lined up in a 200-foot-long space at a local shopping center.

And when Gary Winn, city building official, went out to look at the problem, he said the combination of so many signs gave a cluttered appearance, and did infringe on some permanent signs. He recommended an ordinance to control the problem.

The city commission has given preliminary approval to the new law requiring that a distance of 150 feet be maintained between advertising signs at businesses whether they are permanent signs or mobile signs.

"We had an ordinance saying there had to be a distance of 150 feet between permanent advertising signs in business areas," said Winn, Sanford's building and zoning official.

But, the problem was that a portable sign could be put next to a ground sign and actually block the view of the permanent sign, he said, and the merchant complained.

The city more than two years ago in an attempt to halt the location of an excessive number of signs adopted an ordinance limiting the use by a business of portable signs. A business wanting to use a portable sign must get a city permit to use such a sign for 60 days. After the 60 days, there is a six-month waiting period before a new permit can be issued.

Winn doesn't anticipate any problem with the proposed new ordinance, scheduled for public hearing and final approval at the Sept. 26 meeting of the Sanford City Commission.

"We are not taking any time away, we are only requiring a distance," he said.

The new ordinance, Winn said, will require a distance to be maintained between ground signs and portable signs or any combination of the two of 150 feet.

"A business won't be allowed to stick a mobile sign in and block a permanent ground sign belonging to someone else," he said.

The city currently issues permits for 40-to-50 portable signs per year. These signs are generally used by new businesses just starting out, he said. — Donna Estes

Shared Parenting Topic Of 'Divorce Experience'

Who's to say that two adults can't continue to be decent parents to their kids in spite of separation or divorce? Parents are forever.

Shared parenting— before and after divorce— will be the topic of a "Divorce Experience for Moms and Dads" sponsored by the Task Force on Children of Divorce Sept. 24 in Sanford.

The free seminar is for those contemplating divorce, recently divorced, going through divorce or single parents.

It will be held from 8:45 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in Room 422 in the Seminole County Courthouse.

The Task Force has been deeply involved in bringing about change in the law that now allows divorce with less pain and offers a road to relief. The Task Force invites those experiencing this pain to attend the seminar and learn about shared parenting and mediation. Your kids will appreciate it.

NATION

IN BRIEF

Congress Vents Anger At Soviets For Attack

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Congress is shaking its fist at the Soviet Union, and Senate leaders have their hands full preventing conservatives from striking a diplomatic blow.

The House, which lost a member among the 269 killed in the downing of Korean Air Lines flight 007, vented its anger Wednesday by passing a resolution of condemnation 416-0 after two hours of emotional, angry name-calling.

The Senate scheduled debate on a similar resolution today. And conservatives, led by Sen. Jesse Helms, R-N.C., proposed a tougher resolution.

Helms and Sens. Steven Symms, R-Idaho offered a resolution urging the recall of the U.S. ambassador to Moscow, cutting the number of Soviet diplomats allowed in the United States, and linking arms negotiations to the Kremlin's willingness "to abide by international law."

It also would declare Poland in default of its international debts, would clamp down on high technology exports to the Soviet Union, and curb Soviet imports.

Thief's Fiancee Jailed

WEST HARTFORD, Conn. (UPI) — The fiancee of a Wells Fargo guard accused of stealing $7 million has been arrested on charges of withholding information about the second largest robbery in U.S. history.

Anne Elizabeth Soto, 21, of Hartford was being held today on a $7,500 bond for her arraignment today in West Hartford Superior Court. Police and FBI agents arrested Miss Soto Wednesday on charges of hindering prosecution and making a false statement to investigators.

A nationwide search was under way for her boyfriend, Victor Gerena, 25, of Hartford. Police said Gerena, a former high school football star, turned on two co-workers Monday night, bound them at gunpoint and then looted a West Hartford garage vault and an armored car of more than $7 million in cash.

Police refused to say what led police to arrest Miss Soto.

WEATHER

United Press International

Much of the nation got an early taste of fall but the Midwest was still reeling from the ravages of the Summer of '83. The severe drought that has crippled Midwestern farms forced the closing of an Iowa bank that survived the Depression.

Temperatures Wednesday were cool nationwide but for the Southwest and the interior valleys of California, which have baked under triple-digit readings for three straight days.

The high hit 103 at Red Bluff, Calif., 102 at Stockton, 101 at Bakersfield and Fresno and 100 at Sacramento.

Gusty thunderstorms roared through the Rockies and the Plains, whipping 50 mph winds through Denver and Grand Junction, Colo.

EXTENDED FORECAST:

— Today variable cloudiness with a 60 percent chance of thunderstorms. Highs in the mid to upper 80s. Wind variable mostly westerly 10 mph. Tonight partly cloudy with a slight chance of showers or thunderstorms. Lows in low to mid 70s. Variable light wind. Chance of showers 20 percent. Friday partly cloudy with a 50 percent chance of thunderstorms. Highs mid 80s to near 90.

It's Official: Menachem Begin Resigns

JERUSALEM (UPI) — An ailing Prime Minister Menachem Begin formally quit today, sending an aide to carry his letter of resignation to Israel's president and paving the way for Foreign Minister Yitzhak Shamir to become premier.

"The prime minister wanted to do this himself but because he is still forced to remain in his home, he asked that I fulfill this task," Cabinet Secretary Dan Meridor said, handing over the letter to President Chaim Herzog.

The brief ceremony took place inside Herzog's official residence, repeated three times for the press.

But Begin's ill health almost overshadowed the end of an 18-day delay since his announcement he intended to resign.

"Begin's doctors say he is not physically ill but is sinking before the eyes of those close to him," columnist Yoel Marcus wrote Thursday in the Ha'aretz newspaper. "His face is stubbled and his gauntness and weakness have prevented him from going to the president or appearing in public."

The Israeli leader has stayed in seclusion inside his official Jerusalem residence for the last eight days, visited only by close aides, friends, family and doctors.

The Government Press Office carried an announcement from President Chaim Herzog's bureau that Cabinet Secretary Dan Meridor would deliver Begin's formal letter of resignation at 7 a.m. EDT.

Begin's illness kept him from following tradition by personally delivering the resignation letter to the president.

Israel Radio quoted Begin's spokesman, Uri Porat, as saying the premier has a skin rash and did not want to appear personally at the president's residence.

"The condition is not new and has cropped up before," Porat was quoted as saying.

Unless Begin takes a leave of absence, he will remain caretaker prime minister until Israel's parliament approves a new government.

Faced with a signed agreement by Begin's coalition partners to join a new administration led by Shamir, Herzog is expected to ask the foreign minister to form the new government.

"The question asked with great concern by Begin's friends and his rivals is 'Has Begin decided to kill himself,'" wrote Marcus, one of Israel's foremost political analysts.

"I am not a doctor and I don't want to go into details but I do know something about the media and the only diagnosis about the story that Menachem Begin is trying to kill himself is that it is nothing more than media sadism," Porat said.

Begin's aides have said the prime minister is greatly saddened over the death last November of his wife, Aliza.

Ha'aretz quoted one Begin associate as saying with tears in his eyes, "He not only has withdrawn into himself but apparently his physical existence no longer interests him."

Shamir, 68, has said he will carry on the Begin government's hardline policies on the Palestinian issue and Lebanon.

A former pre-state Jewish underground leader, the diminutive Shamir favors increased Jewish settlement in the occupied West Bank and Gaza and leaving Lebanon only when the Syrians and PLO do.

A spokesman for Herzog said that after Begin resigns, the president would, according to Israeli law, start consultations with the leaders of Israel's political parties on designating a candidate to form a new government.

Menachem Begin

With the signed coalition agreement already in hand, the consultations were expected to be just a formality.

Man Gets 12 Years For Sexual Battery

A 47-year-old Oviedo man who pleaded guilty to sexual battery of an 11-year-old girl has been sentenced to 12 years in prison.

Walter Art McGee pleaded guilty to the attack on the girl which occurred in Oviedo in March 1983.

Circuit Judge Robert B. McGregor also recommended that McGee receive psychiatric treatment during his prison stay under the state's Mentally Disordered Sex Offender program.

McGee pleaded guilty in July after the state attorney's office agreed to dismiss five other charges of sexual battery in exchange for the plea.

The same girl was the victim in all the assaults which she said took place between September 1982 and March 1983.

TOOL BOX TAKEN

A tool box containing tools worth $250 was stolen from the unlocked utility room of a Sanford man's home between 5 and 11 p.m. Saturday.

Alec Blair, 58, of 108 Pinecrest Drive, said his garden hose was also cut and someone removed a section of the hose and a nozzle.

BIKE TAKEN

A 20-inch bicycle was stolen from the yard of a Sanford woman's house between 4:30 p.m. and 5:30 p.m. Monday.

Michelle Muncie, 26, of 803 Oak Ave., said the bike was worth $50.

MOWER STOLEN

Someone stole a red Snapper lawn mower, valued at $350 from the shed of a Sanford woman's home at about 10 a.m. Saturday.

Joan A. Perdreaux, 49, of 117 Rosebriar Drive, said the thief also took a bag of pool supplies worth $10.

TAILGATE TAKEN

A tan tailgate, worth $200, was stolen from a 1981 Dodge pickup truck parked at the Flowers by Gaynelle florist, Sanford Avenue at Ninth Street, between 6 p.m. Saturday and 8:20 a.m. Sunday.

Edward L. Hendrick, 61, of 121 Harrogate Court, Longwood, owns the truck.

PURSES LOST

Two Sanford women lost their purses and a total of $103 in separate incidents at the Sanford post office.

Mrs. Kay Turner, 24, of 615 Riverview Ave., told Sanford police she visited the post office at about 10:10 a.m. Saturday and after she left she noticed that her purse was missing.

She returned to the post office and a postal clerk handed her the purse and explained that two women had found the purse lying on the floor and had turned it in to the clerk.

Mrs. Turner said $100 in cash was missing from the purse.

Kathy A. Stamm, 24, of 850 Grove Manor Drive, told police she parked her car at the post office at 11:50 a.m. Saturday, left her purse in the car and entered the post office.

When she returned to her car five minutes later, the purse, which contained $3 in cash, was gone.

COSTLY SNOOZE

A Sanford man told police that someone stole $90 from his wallet while he was sleeping alongside U.S. Highway 17-92 between 12:10 and 12:30 a.m. Sunday.

James Andrew Sills, 22, of 2951 W. Fifth St., said he had been drinking and had a difficult time staying awake, a police report said.

So, Sills said, he went to sleep on the shoulder of the highway near Lake Mary Boulevard. While he was asleep, someone cut a leather strap that secured his wallet and took the money, the report said.

FUND BOX STOLEN

A man walked into a Casselberry convenience store, grabbed a Jerry Lewis muscular dystrophy donation container and ran out the door.

The clerk at the Cumberland Farms store, 604 U.S. Highway 17-92, said the man entered the store at 5:23 p.m. Friday and bought a soft drink.

She said that as he left, he grabbed the donation container and ran down the road. The container held about $25 in change that customers had donated to the fund.

WINDOW BROKEN

Vandals broke out a southeast window at the Seminole Community Co-op, a food cannery at 504 Celery Ave., between 1 p.m. Tuesday and 11:30 a.m. Wednesday. No damage estimate was available.

Inmates Sued For Rioting

OKLAHOMA CITY (UPI)

Authorities have filed precedent-setting lawsuits seeking $4.8 million in damages from inmates to make them pay for a riot and two disturbances at state prisons.

Corrections officials Wednesday filed three civil lawsuits for damages in an Aug. 29 riot at a prison in Hominy and recent disturbances at two other prisons in Lexington and McAlester.

"Rioting inmates will be held financially responsible throughout the rest of their lives for their few hours of destructive behavior," Corrections Director Larry Meachum said.

Meachum said the precedent-setting action would show inmates they cannot destroy state property with impunity. The total sought in the suits is $4.8 million.

"We simply cannot afford the irresponsible and criminal destruction of state property," Meachum said in a prepared release.

Correctional spokeswoman Joyce Jackson says officials believe they will profit from the action.

"Believe it or not we really honestly think there is a chance of recouping some of our money," she said. "Inmates work while in prison so they receive wages."

Officials say criminal actions also are being pursued against the inmates.

Corrections department general counsel Michael Avant-Pybas said the state should be able to secure individual judgments against each inmate. He said the state will garnish future wages.

IN BRIEF

Security Check Grounds 2 Would-Be Hijackers

MIAMI (UPI) — Police thwarted an attempted hijacking before it ever got off the ground when they intercepted two Latin men armed with bottles of gasoline and a toy gun at Miami International Airport, officials said.

The suspects, identified as Elio Eacaro, 35, of Yonkers, N.Y., and Antonio Nigil-Montez, 25, of Brooklyn, N.Y., were arrested late Wednesday as they prepared to board a Piedmont Airline flight bound for Tampa.

A routine security check at a boarding gate revealed one of the men carried a bottle of flammable liquid in his sock. The other had a bottle taped to his ankle and carried a black plastic toy gun, Metro-Dade County police said.

Both were charged with attempted air piracy, police said.

The Plot Thickens

FORT LAUDERDALE (UPI) — A teenager who once told police he was comic book character Raven Darkholme has announced a new identity — this one apparently taken from a series of mystery novels.

The boy now says he is Thilo Deveruauix, an orphan from Sweden who became entangled in an international drug ring with his stepfather. He escaped to America, where he has supported himself through prostitution, he told Circuit Judge Robert Scott.

The mystery began July 29 when the youth was approached by police at the Fort Lauderdale bus depot and told them the Raven Darkholme story.

He said he had led a transient life with an adopted mother, Amanda Stewart, and had learned to read by examining the books she bought for him. The story turned out to be straight out of X-men comic books.

The boy is being held in the mental ward of the Broward Medical Center until the state can decide what to do with him.

Moratorium On Key Development Sought

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Cabinet may use a controversial development planned for North Key Largo to pressure Monroe County into declaring a moratorium on large-scale construction projects.

The Department of Community Affairs on Wednesday recommended Cabinet approval of a settlement that would end a year-long dispute and allow the construction of a fashionable housing development to be known as the Carysfort Yacht Club.

The department found itself opposed by the Florida Audubon Society, which wants the developers, Key Largo Investors, Inc., prohibited from ever building on part of the Carysfort tract, a 45-acre section west of State Road 905.

Community affairs officials have been fighting the proposed project for years, afraid of environmental damages and a further strain on Monroe's already overburdened public facilities.

They decided to try to work out a settlement after a Department of Administration hearing examiner ruled earlier this year the state has no basis upon which to refuse to issue the necessary development permits.

DCA general counsel Nancy Linnan said Dr. John DeGrove, the department's director, is satisfied with concessions being proposed by the developers and he also sees the project as an opportunity to put further pressure on the Monroe commission for the moratorium.

DCA is trying to get a moratorium on multi-family developments, except for Carysfort and a handful of other projects already given preliminary approval by the county commission, until Monroe develops a land use map, a comprehensive plan and the necessary implementing regulations.

The commission has a moratorium in effect now, although its legality is questionable, and it has promised to establish a better one, probably at an Oct. 14 meeting.

Miami Gives Up Title As Most Dangerous City

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Odessa, Texas, is the nation's most dangerous city — barely beating out Miami for the title, the National Coalition to Ban Handguns reports.

According to a survey, four Texas cities were among the 10 most dangerous in country in 1982 and eight Texas cities were ranked in the top 25.

The coalition, analyzing the recently-released FBI Uniform Crime Report for 1982, said Odessa "narrowly beat out perennial champion Miami for the title of most dangerous metropolitan area with 29.8 homicides per 100,000 residents."

The coalition said Miami homicides dropped from 34.5 murders per 100,000 in 1981 to 29.7 in 1982. Odessa jumped from 22.5 per 100,000 residents in 1981 to the top of the list in 1982.

The coalition credited the drop in Miami crime with a 40 percent decrease of handgun sales in city during the year.

"Gun-loving Alaska was the most lethal state with 18.5 homicides per 100,000, with Texas and Louisiana in a tie for second at 16.0," the report said.

It said the national murder rate was 9.1 per 100,000. The coalition said 9,035 Americans were killed with handguns in 1982 — about 43 percent of the 21,012 homicides recorded during the year.

"It's always good news when fewer Americans are dying by violence, but remember that this 'improvement' is a case of going from the horrendous to the merely horrible," said Michael Beard, president of the coalition.

Beard said his group had determined from unpublished FBI statistics that only 200 criminals were killed by handgun-owning civilians.

"Stacked against 9,000 handgun murders, 12,000 suicides and 800 fatal accidents, you don't have much justification for allowing handgun toting to continue," he said.

American cities with the highest number of homicides per 100,000 residents were:

1. Odessa, Texas, 29.8
2. Miami, 29.7
3. Houston, 28.2
4. New Orleans, 25.3
5. Longview-Marshall, Texas, 21.6
6. Jackson, Miss., 20.3
7. Las Vegas, 19.8
8. Stockton, Calif., 19.5
9. New York, 19.1
10. San Antonio, Texas, 18.5

High Tech And The Mass Mind

The fallout from the Three Mile Island nuclear accident spread across the country — not radioactive fallout, because there was very little, but emotional fallout, which continues to rain down.

The Wall Street Journal, in a recent examination of the problem, said the press is being thrust or is thrusting itself into the controversy by its almost daily coverage of mishaps or near-mishaps or threats of mishaps at nuclear power plants.

News coverage of the San Onofre nuclear power complex, largest in the West, has been subject to the same tendency — saturation coverage of minor matters, tending to increase public fears.

In a wider view, the whole world of high technology is experiencing the Three Mile Island effect. Computers are feared like the runaway HAL in the film "2001 A.D." Those who work at Video Display Terminals (VDT) are apprehensive of side-effects of their vision or their ductless glands.

Speaking of the fundamentally conservative nature of the popular mind, the French sociologist Gustave Le Bon wrote in his book, The Crowd: "Their unconscious horror of all novelty capable of changing the essential conditions of their existence is very deeply rooted. Had democracies possessed the power they wield today at the time of the invention of mechanical looms or of the introduction of steam power and of railways, the realization of these inventions would have been impossible, or would have been achieved at the cost of revolutions and repeated massacres. It is fortunate for the progress of civilization that the power of crowds only began to exist when the great discoveries of science and industry had already been effected."

That was published in 1895, long before the discoveries of nuclear energy, computers, VDTs and DNA, discoveries made despite the apprehensions of the multitude.

Le Bon was too pessimistic. Our country is one of the most democratic in the world, yet it has led the worldwide scientific and technological revolution. Only the development of civilian use of nuclear power, which is associated in our minds with nuclear war, has been heavily retarded by popular opposition. It has been brought almost to a halt by public fear, while it continues unhesitatingly in authoritarian countries like the Soviet Union.

The Frenchman exaggerated, as French authors are prone to do. But he was onto something. Tomorrow's headlines will prove that a populist horror of new technology continues to grip the mass mind.

Prolonging Justice

Chief Justice Warren Burger rarely misses an opportunity to complain about the endless cycle of appeals which the courts are allowing to delay final judgment in criminal cases. To his catalog of flagrant examples he can now add the case of Jimmy Lee Gray, who was recently executed in the Mississippi gas chamber for a murder committed in 1976.

Gray was convicted of sexually abusing a 3-year-old girl and then drowning her in a mud puddle and throwing her body off a bridge. At the time, he was on parole from a sentence in Arizona for murdering a 16-year-old girl.

Defense lawyers kept Gray's case shuffling through the state and federal court system for seven years. It was reviewed by more than 50 judges and went before the U.S. Supreme Court four times. The appeals were based on issues of law and procedure. At no time was there any dispute over whether Gray had done what he was accused of doing.

Now, what do we make of a judicial system that involves 50 different judges in the process of convicting and punishing a criminal and takes seven years to do it? Toward the end, even Gray's mother was urging state officials to let the death sentence be carried out.

The Bill of Rights calls for speedy trials in criminal cases, and forbids cruel and unusual punishment. There is reason to question whether our indecisive criminal justice system is capable of meeting its constitutional responsibilities.

Want to "get back to nature"? Wekiwa Springs State Park will offer weekly ranger guided walks beginning Saturday, Sept. 17. Wildlife observations and natural history interpretation will be part of the experience. Walks will begin at 10 a.m. each Saturday morning and last approximately 45 minutes. Check in at the Ranger Station to find out the exact starting point for the walk.

If you have trouble remembering the names of Florida's flora and fauna you will have the opportunity to accompany a Park Ranger on a field trip centered on identification on the first Saturday of each month at 12:30 p.m. beginning Nov. 5.

Wekiwa State Park is ideal for natural discoveries, so grab your binoculars and field guides and enjoy its natural beauty.

For the more adventurous, a 3-4 hour extended day hike will be offered every third Saturday at 12:30 p.m. This ranger led trek will take you into the seldom used areas of the park where you may see deer, otter, bobcat, or grey fox as you hike some of Central Florida's most natural and beautiful terrain. So, get your daypack, put on some comfortable shoes and hit the trail.

The park is located on Wekiwa Springs

Road in southwest Seminole County and northwest Orange County and can be reached from State Road 434. For further information, call the ranger at 889-3140. All programs are on a first-come first-serve basis with a maximum of 25 persons per outing, so they advise that you come early.

If you are in good shape and really want to make a statement for conservation you can take a 775-mile nature awareness walk like dedicated Tallahassee conservationist Billy Kahn is doing. His "Journey for natural Florida" will begin Oct. 1 at the State Capitol and will end Nov. 27 at John Pennekamp Coral Reef state Park in the Keys.

Purpose of the two-month walk is to increase awareness of Floridians that we are all part of the ecosystem. Included in his itinerary will be Wekiwa Springs State Park and Rock Springs State Preserve and Rock Springs Run. Kahn, 29, is inviting persons concerned with preservation of our natural gifts so that participants, the media and prospective supporters can call attention to the need for protecting natural areas and endangered species. He estimates he will walk an average of 15 miles a day.

Ghosts, goblins and things that go bump in the night are needed to help the Sanford Jaycees build their first "Haunted House." Any young men 18-35 interested in helping build the Halloween project, or anyone willing to donate materials, may call Steve Kohler at 321-6242 or Les Balogh at 323-6036 after 6 p.m. Anyone can get more information by attending a Jaycee meeting on the second and fourth Thursday of the month at 8 p.m. at the Jaycee Clubhouse on French Avenue at Fifth Street.

"A Divorce Experience for Moms and Dads," a seminar on the new divorce law and shared parenting, will be sponsored by the Task Force on Children of Divorce on Sept. 24 from 8:45 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in Room 422 of the Seminole County Courthouse in Sanford.

Judge Dominick Salfi, lawyers, therapists, and mediators will speak on what happens to a family psychologically as the result of divorce, the legal process involved, effects of the new law, and how divorcing couples can think about doing the best thing for their children.

The discussion will be general and will not deal specifically with individual cases pending. The seminar is free to the public.

Peace Keepers, Part II

Well, I was wrong — in part.

Back in February, I warned of the likely dire consequences of the confrontation in Beirut between a pistol-wielding U.S. Marine and an Israeli tank. The incident could be read as a clear signal of more trouble ahead.

Washington and Jerusalem might see their long-term interests in the Mideast as compatible, but in Lebanon there was a short-term divergence that at best was subjecting the alliance to severe strain and at worst could produce incidents with disastrous potential.

Strain there certainly has been. But disaster has been avoided, in no small part because the Israelis, so recently euphoric at possibilities seemingly within grasp, decided to cut and run, settling for their original objective of a sanitized zone along their previously vulnerable northern border.

Washington and Jerusalem can again posit a high degree of compatibility in their policy making, although a certain studied civility persists in communication between the two capitals.

But that still leaves the American — and French and Italian and British — peace-keeping forces on the spot in Lebanon. A very hot spot, as it has developed. And that brings us to another point raised in my February comments which events are only too alarmingly substantiating.

And that is the basic problem with peace-keeping forces which, as they have evolved in the post-World War II decades, are misnamed and subject to misuse. These international levies are not meant to use "force" or even to "keep" a peace.

Let me quote myself: "They are symbolic evidence that the world, or at least some meaningful portion of it, has taken cognizance of a crisis situation and assumed some degree of collective responsibility for preventing the development or continuation of hostilities."

"They depend for their effectiveness on the willingness of the... hostile parties to accept them and respect their function. They are a way of saving face for both parties, permitting them to disengage without either appearing to back down...."

"If they aren't mutually accepted and respected, their presence not only does nothing for peace but can be an added irritant."

On these terms, peace-keeping forces have at times been reasonably effective, as between Egyptian and Israeli forces in the Sinai.

Pills, Shots May Become Obsolete

By Jan Ziegler
UPI Science Writer

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Last year, Joseph Ludden thought he had the flu — but instead of getting better, he got worse. It turned out to be cancer.

The cancer had started in the colon and spread to his liver, and the prognosis for a long life, Ludden said, "wasn't very great." He said he was told he might have a year to live.

Then he went to Duke University for a new form of cancer treatment. He had a pump and medicine reservoir about the size of a hockey puck surgically implanted near his rib cage, with tubes to direct anti-cancer drugs directly to the tumor.

"Once it's there, you can feel it very definitely inside your body," Ludden, 54, of Wilson, N.C., said of the pump. "But it doesn't create any discomfort. What it does is give you a feeling the disease you have can be put into remission."

Ludden is one of an estimated 5,000 people who have had pumps implanted for cancer chemotherapy and other treatments in a high-technology revolution that may make pills and shots obsolete for some ailments.

Doctors can now give patients a drug-dispensing patch to wear over their heart or behind the ear. Other

Banks Wreaking Havoc

WASHINGTON — Congress has voted a massive $8.4 billion transfusion into the International Monetary Fund for the incredible purpose of saving the big banks from their own reckless greed.

The banks have been laying out high-interest loans to Soviet-bloc and Third World nations that have neither the will nor the wherewithal to repay them. When things go wrong, the bankers simply come to Congress, silk hats in hand, begging for help to overcome the predictable results of their greed.

The bailout money is funneled through the International Monetary Fund, which has assured Congress the $8.4 billion will be enough to save the impoverished countries and the banks that back them from financial collapse.

But in its internal papers, the Fund acknowledges that more money will be needed. States one document, stamped "Confidential": "It would appear necessary for the Fund to increase its recourse to borrowing. Further borrowing would appear necessary for the two-year period after the quota increases...."

The big banks, meanwhile, have become governments unto themselves, with financial tentacles and political allegiances that extend beyond any national boundaries. So great is the financial power of these multinational, multibillion-dollar banks that their decisions can have drastic effects on the world economy.

One banking giant — Citicorp — at least is evenhanded in its contempt for national governments. It has engaged in questionable transactions, which have cost some Western governments millions of dollars. Yet no government has laid a restraining hand on the bank.

Citicorp officials deny any widespread violations of national banking laws, and claim they took active measures to prevent abuses. But evidence gathered by my associate Donald Goldberg from Securities and Exchange Commission reports, congressional files and Citicorp's own records, paints a different picture. Here's the story:

In 1976, a Citicorp employee named David Edwards discovered that the bank was maneuvering around European currency regulations by "parking" huge amounts of money with the Citicorp branch in Nassau. The profits from this were enormous, if of dubious legality.

Citicorp denied Edwards' allegations and fired him. He took evidence to the SEC, but despite a staff recommendation for enforcement action, the commission declined to take on Citicorp.

During the various investigations, Citicorp withheld significant evidence, including 1977 legal opinions by its own lawyers in Europe.

The bank's attorney in Switzerland, for example, wrote: "The shifting of profits by transactions which are not normal arm's-length transactions may constitute a violation of Swiss tax legislation, particularly if it results in a reduction of taxable profit in Switzerland."

Order, Discipline Are Crucial

By Patricia McCormack
UPI Education Editor

Down with spitballs, passing notes behind teacher's back and all manner of tomfoolery in the schoolhouse.

Up with order and discipline. The dictum is part of a prescription for putting the nation's schools together again after the see-sawing of students and curriculum during the late 1960s and early '70s.

Richard H. Hersh and his associates, Bruce R. Joyce and Michael McKibben at the University of Oregon in Eugene, package the advice in a new report, "The Structure of School Improvement" (Longman, $15.95).

In going over 20 years of research on education, they set out to find characteristics common to schools that succeed.

Hersh is dean of the graduate school at the University of Oregon and associate provost for research. Previously he was a professor of education and director of the Center for Moral Education at Harvard.

Hersh and associates found the attributes always present in the most effective schools. In addition to order and discipline, they include:

- Clear academic and behavioral goals for students.
- Teachers who believe in their own talents.
- Teachers and administrators who care about students.
- Parental and community involvement in schools.
- Public rewards and incentives for students.
- More work time.
- Frequent and monitored homework.
- An organized curriculum.
- Variety of teaching strategies.
- Opportunities for student responsibility.

Hersh said it would take a poor school two to five years to attain those goals. He put the price tag at about $100,000 a year for the average school to make the switch from not so good to fine.

The average school, he said, includes 800 to 1,000 students and about 50 teachers.

Hersh advocates reasonable order and discipline, not the oppressive brand of bygone academic eras.

The educator believes order in the classroom slipped out of hand in the late '60s and early '70s when students were thought of as little adults.

"It was the students-know-best era," he said.

months, but Akwara has seen patients who have survived "much longer, even without treatment." Ludden said one liver patient with a pump has been living normally for six years.

What the pump definitely does, besides improve drug therapy, is allow a patient to live a more normal life and give patients more cause for optimism, Akwara said.

"It's a good thing to be optimistic about life," Akwara said. "If technology permits people to live the way they normally live, then it's a good thing."

The reservoir in the Minnesota model is refilled every two weeks by injection through a valve in the unit's surface. The pump runs indefinitely, using pressurized gas which expands in body heat to force the drug out. In contrast, chemotherapy often requires hospitalization.

Ludden said that under traditional chemotherapy, he suffered nausea and fever and had to miss work often. With the pump, he is back on the job and the only problem he's noticed is that he needs more sleep.

"The only thing we tell our patients is not to participate in contact sports," because any blow might split the skin above the pump, said Thomas Rolde, a microbiologist and coordinator of the implantable pump project at Minnesota.

The average prognosis for people with Ludden's type of cancer is three to six

No Guest Slot For This Wag Despite Embarassing 4-5-1

Contrary to popular belief, I am not scheduled to make a special guest appearance on the television special, "Life's Most Embarassing Moments." Last week's disastrous 4-5-1 record is the worst of Fearless Fister's entire career of picking football games (three years). It was definitely not a wag's delight. It could have been even worse if USC had converted the extra point and beaten the Florida Gators. Instead it wound up a 19-19 tie.

I could lay some heavy excuses on you like: (1) I wrote the column in a hurry because I wanted to get in my car and get to the gas station before prices went up. (2) I was upset because I shot a man in Reno just to watch him die. (3) I changed some of my picks because I was getting too close to Soviet airspace.

The fact is, I screwed up. So what am I going to do about it? Take a quaalude or hit myself in the head with a hammer? (they both have the same affect.) No, I don't think so. Turn to the more effective method of picking teams who have the best looking helmets? Could be, but no. I'll just have to go back to the old drawing board.

If that doesn't work — how cold is it in Siberia?

SOUTHWEST MIAMI AT SEMINOLE
I don't think Southwest Miami is coming all the way to Sanford with anything more than winning on its mind. Tribe coach Jerry Posey has had nothing more than winning on his mind for the last 12 games, so give the Seminoles the edge in which team wants this game the most. Going through an entire season without a win is a lot worse than going all the way back to Miami with just one loss. Seminole by 2

LAKE MARY AT DELAND
The Rams lost a whole lot of speed in both the backfield and kickoff returns when running back Patt Murray was lost for the season with a cracked bone in his shoulder. Still, if the Rams defense holds up, this one will go down to the wire. Containing running back Terry Nettles will be the key, and if the Rams can do that they will come away with the victory. Lake Mary by 3

OVIEDO AT EUSTIS
The Lions will be glad to go from playing a 4A team to playing a 2A team. The 4A Melbourne Bulldogs were just too big and strong for Oviedo in the season opener last week. The 2A Eustis Panthers will be the first victim of the Lions in '83. Oviedo by 6

SPRUCE CREEK AT LAKE HOWELL
If every team that Bishop Moore plays holds them to minus 22 yards of total offense, then you can say the Lake Howell Silver Hawks are a fluke. But, I don't think that's going to happen. Lake Howell dominated the Hornets in every way last week, but it will have a much tougher opponent in Five Star Conference foe Spruce Creek. The Hawks have a lot of weapons on both offense and defense though and will be powerful enough to cruise by Spruce Creek. Lake Howell by 20

LYMAN AT LAKE BRANTLEY
The first inter-county matchup of the year should belong to Lake Brantley's Patriots in a game that will be played Saturday at Lake Brantley. Putting Lyman's inexperienced offense up against Brantley's tough defense is like throwing the Hounds to the lions. Lake Brantley by 13

UCF AT SOUTHEASTERN LOUISIANA
Southeastern Louisiana beat UCF by just 10 points a year ago. Now, it is a year later and UCF is a lot tougher under first-year coach Lou Saban. The Knights will turn the tables on Southeastern Louisiana Saturday and run their record to 3-0. UCF by 10

INDIANA STATE AT FLORIDA
The Gators are taking the Sycamores pretty seriously and that means only one thing, a rout. Florida by 35

FLORIDA STATE AT TULANE
Tulane might be tougher than the Seminoles expect. FSU does not know what a good defense looks like after giving up 81 points in its first two games while scoring 87 and winning both games. With Auburn and Pitt in the near future, don't expect the Seminoles to keep winning if the defense doesn't patch up its holes. FSU by 17

Sports Calendar

Thursday's sports schedule is made up of cross country, junior varsity football and volleyball.

At Trinity Prep, the Edgewater Invitational will be the biggest cross country meet of the year, thus far. Lyman's Doug McBroom and Lake Howell's Ken Cheeseman will duel in the 4A race at 8:30 p.m. McBroom beat Cheeseman for the first time last Saturday in the Greyhound Opener. Lake Mary's fine freshman Sue Kingsbury and Lake Brantley's Kathryn Hayward battle at 6 p.m. in the 4A girls.

Seminole, Lake Mary, Oviedo, Lake Brantley and Lyman teams are all in action. Seminole goes to Lake Brantley, Lake Mary hosts Oviedo while Lyman travels to Apopka. Junior varsity action begins at 4 p.m.

In football, the Lake Mary JV's entertain Lake Brantley, Lake Howell hosts Bishop Moore while Oviedo entertains St. Cloud. All games begin at 7:30 p.m.

'Stale' Rams Are Ready To Hit DeLand

Other than to heal some preseason injuries, the extra week of practice for Lake Mary's Rams only made coach Harry Nelson's team that much more anxious to get the season started. The Rams, idle in the first week of the season, open Friday night at 8 at DeLand.

"Other than healing a few wounds, the extra week didn't do much of anything for us," Nelson said. "We're stale, we need to play somebody and to get out there and hit someone."

Although the extra week gave the Rams a chance to heal some wounds, Lake Mary lost one of its top prospects to an injury, possibly for the entire season. Junior running back Patt Murray could miss the season with a cracked bone in his shoulder. Murray had played with an injured shoulder for most of the '82 season. "We're hoping to have him back," Nelson said.

"He's a great kid. He has a high threshold of pain and had been playing hurt from the start."

Starting in Murray's place Friday will be senior Neal Wellon. "He can be as good as he wants to be," Nelson said of

Prep Football

Wellon. "He has tremendous tools."

Along with Wellon in the Lake Mary backfield will be junior halfback Charlie Lucarelli, junior fullback Scott Underwood and sophomore quarterback Ray Hartsfield. Lucarelli was impressive in the jamboree, reeling off several long gainers. Hartsfield's top two targets will be starting ends Donald Grayson (junior) and Byron Washington (sophomore).

Providing the protection for Hartsfield and opening holes for the backs will be senior Ned Kolbjornsen at center, seniors Ed Ades and Cornell Young at the guards and juniors Jay Gilliland and Mike Galvani at the tackles.

Defensively, the linemen include ends Don Meyer (junior) and Walt White (junior), tackles Marty Hopkins (sophomore) and Jeff Reynolds (junior) and middle guard Darrin Washington (junior). The linebackers include senior Jeff Hopkins and juniors Bill Caughell and David Hornyak. The defensive backs are seniors Reggie Anderson and Tim Curtin and junior Todd Beauchamp.

DeLand opened the season with a 14-0 victory over Daytona Beach Seabreeze in which running back Terry Nettles picked up 95 yards rushing.

For a preview of Friday's game and a run down on DeLand's key players, see Friday's Evening Herald. — CHRIS FISTER

Casals At Sabal Point

Rosie Casals will be one of champions to participate in the Tiger Balm Women's Tennis Classics at the Sabal Point Country Club in Longwood tonight. Casals will play Françoise Durr immediately following the Pam Teegarden-Sharon Walsh match at 7 p.m. Billie Jean King, Virginia Wade, Nancy Richey and Kerry Reid will also play in the week-long, eight-woman singles and doubles tournament. Reserved seat tickets for tonight and Friday are available at Select-a-Seat outlets for $7. Tickets at the gate are $9.

Auburn, Texas Go Head-To-Head

United Press International

Two of the leading contenders for this year's national collegiate football championship go head-to-head Saturday when the 4th-ranked Auburn Tigers host the 3rd-ranked Texas Longhorns.

Auburn opened its season last week with a 24-3 victory over Southern Mississippi, but Coach Pat Dye insists the Tigers still had the preseason death of fullback Greg Pratt on their minds and "will" have to improve offensively and defensively if we are to win against a team like Texas."

Texas goes into its opener a 2-point underdog after losing its No. 1 quarterback, Todd Dodge, last week when he suffered a shoulder separation during practice.

"It concerns me that they have the advantage of having played a game where we have not," says Texas coach Fred Akers. "Further, losing Todd Dodge jumbles our quarterback situation and we haven't had a lot of time to solve that problem."

Dye said from the outset that the biggest thing standing between Auburn and the national title is the Tigers' schedule that also includes 7th-ranked Georgia, 9th-ranked Florida State, 11th-ranked Alabama, 15th-ranked Florida and 19th-ranked Maryland — four of those in a row at the end of the season.

In other regional action Saturday, Georgia visits Clemson; Florida State visits Tulane; Alabama hosts Ole Miss; Florida hosts Indiana State; Kentucky hosts Indiana; LSU visits Rice; Mississippi State plays Navy at Jackson; Vanderbilt hosts Iowa State; Miami of Florida hosts Purdue; Memphis State hosts Virginia Tech; and Southern Miss hosts Louisiana Tech.

Wise, Clayton Set 2 Marks Apiece

Lake Mary Juniors Scott Wise and Sheri Clayton each set two individual records as the Ram swimmers opened their season with a second (boys) and fourth (girls) place finishes in a quadrangular swim meet Wednesday at the Sharidan Aquatic Club in Longwood.

In the boys' competition, Lake Mary was second to Trinity Prep by nine points. Trinity totaled 125, the Rams had 114 while Bishop Moore scored 108 and Lake Howell added 78. In the girls' competition, Jenny Pence led an easy Trinity victory. The Lady Saints totaled 142 points to Lake Howell's 105. Bishop Moore had 97 and Lake Mary notched 90.

"I was relatively pleased with our times for the first meet," said Lake Mary coach Walt Morgan, who co-coaches the Rams along with Clyde Hayes. "Wise had a strong effort for the boys and Sheri Clayton stood up well against Pence and (Lake Howell's) Nina Aspenwall for the girls."

Wise had three first places including his relay. He broke the 100 butterfly mark by almost 10 seconds. He recorded a time of 55.86 which shattered the old mark of 1:05.22 by Todd Stebbins. Wise also erased the 100 backstroke standard with a clocking of 1:00.32. The old mark was 1:06.71 by Kyle Kilger. The Rams quartet of Wise, Brian Cook, Stebbins and Trey Seibold clipped nearly six seconds from the 200 middle relay mark with a time of 1:51.44. The old mark, held by Kilger, Cook, Seibold and Tim Orange, was 1:57.5.

Orange, a junior, broke Cook's record in the 40 freestyle with a time of 24.54. The old mark was 25.66.

Prep Swimming

Orange finished third. Richard Kurtz had a third in the 100 freestyle in 57.91 while sophomore Stebbins added a third in the 100 butterfly in 59.57. Mike Montovani was third in the diving and the team of Kurtz, Kilger, Scott Bowers and Orange swam to a third place in the 400 free relay in 4:00.5.

In the girls' meet, Trinity's talented trio of Pence, Susan Suwalski and Rachel Weightman were just too tough for the rest of the teams. They combined to win six races and one relay.

Lake Mary, which had just five girls out last year but doubled its participation this fall, won the 200 medley relay, took four seconds and a third. Teresa Prince, Sheri Purkerson, Clayton and Amy Maher break the old record in the relay with a clocking of 2:04.79. The old standard was set by Kelly McKeel Purkerson, Maher and Jill Buddenhagen in 2:09.86.

Maher picked up a pair of seconds in the 50 freestyle (27.34) and the 100 freestyle (59.98). Clayton set a new mark in the 500 freestyle in 5:27.41 which shattered the record of 6:00.03 by Maher. Clayton also broke a mark in the 100 butterfly in 1:04.23, also Maher's old mark at 1:08.61. Purkerson was second in the 100 breaststroke.

Lake Mary travels to New Smyrna Beach for a dual meet next Wednesday before returning for a rematch at Trinity Prep on Wednesday, Sept. 28.

GAINESVILLE (UPI) — The Florida Gators football team got in its first fullscale practice of the week Wednesday following two days of rain that forced them inside.

Pointing out that Tuesday was only the third time in four years that the team has worked out in the gymnasium, head coach Charley Pell commented: "The weather has affected what we want to do in practice... a great deal. We aren't used to it."

But Pell said he was pleased by Wednesday's two-hour practice. "We got a lot done," he said.

Pell had freshmen Frank Neal, Ricky Nattiel and sophomore Curtis Stacey working on punt returns. He said Lorenzo Hampton will now concentrate on returns and running at halfback.

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Coach Bobby Bowden put his Florida State football squad through a rough, full contact, full speed practice Wednesday in preparation for the Tulane game in New Orleans Saturday.

"We got some boys knicked up and I hate to see that, but it's part of it," Bowden said.

Bowden said the Seminoles will face a Tulane offense similar to their own.

"They are a pro-type offense and they throw a lot more than we do," he said.

The Seminoles will hold a light practice Thursday and leave Friday for a workout in the New Orleans Superdome.

Johnson-Less Bengals Take On Browns; Zoeller Fires 63

CLEVELAND (UPI) — When the Cincinnati Bengals line up on offense against the Cleveland Browns tonight, their rushing game will be watching at home in front of a television set. Kickoff is set for 9 p.m. on ABC-TV, WFTV channel 9.

The winless Bengals are discovering just how valuable the power back is to their running game as Pete Johnson sits out the suspension handed down by NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle for violating league drug policies.

Cincinnati heads into Cleveland tonight sporting the weakest ground attack in the league, gaining just 138 yards rushing in losses to the Los Angeles Raiders and Buffalo.

"They are a much better football team with Pete Johnson when he's running for 100 yards," says Browns' coach Sam Rutigliano. "And if they get inside the 5-yard line, forget about it. You might as well put a Caterpillar (tractor) back there because he's going to get into the endzone."

As a result, the Bengals have been forced to put additional strain on their passing game, and even that could destruct at any time. Quarterback Kenny Anderson left last week with a recurring neck injury, and one tough sack tonight might send the AFC's No. 3 passer to the sidelines.

The Browns, behind the reliable legs of Mike Pruitt, have their ground game working at peak efficiency. Cleveland topped Detroit 31-26 last Sunday as Brian Sipe fired four TD passes and Pruitt gained 137 yards — many of them on power sweeps resurrected from the Browns' playbook.

Rutigliano credits the renewed running game to the crisp blocking of back Johnny Davis and tight end Harry Holt, both backups.

"Johnny is an outstanding blocker and so is Harry Holt," he says. "I mean he (Holt) is really strong. We've just improved immensely in that area because of Johnny Davis and Harry Holt. I might add that Ozzie (Newsome) is a much better blocker than he has been in the past, which has helped us."

In Sunday's 10-6 loss at Buffalo, the Bengals were unable to score late in the game despite a 1st-and-goal from the 4-yard line. Rutigliano said Charles Alexander and rookie Larry Kinnebrew are good backs, but Johnson is the best in the league near the goal line.

"Plus he's not a bad guy coming out of the backfield catching the swing pass," Rutigliano adds. "He looks like a runaway beer truck. A lot of backs go 'Ole.' You get him."

In Sunday's games, the New York Giants are at Dallas, Kansas City at Washington,

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — Everyone seemed more excited about the 63 Fuzzy Zoeller shot in the opening round of the $750,000 Las Vegas Celebrity Pro-Am than he did.

"It's a pretty nice way to start a tournament," Zoeller said of the 63, which gave him a one-shot lead over unknown Mark Wiebe and the 1,038 other players in the huge field. "but you have to keep these things in perspective."

"We have four more rounds left to play and with a field like the one there is here you have to post a low score everyday if you expect to win."

Zoeller's rationale aside, the 63 was quite a round when you consider all the distraction of playing with four amateurs, a sore back and on a course he had never seen before.

"I've been in Las Vegas only once before in my life," said Zoeller, who has won $278,000 on the PGA Tour this year. "but maybe it's just as well. Sometimes you can know too much about a golf course."

"Besides, I had my caddy to rely on, and he is a pretty reliable guy. Heck, I think he could have played for me."

Zoeller, of course, is a great kiddler, so what he says has to be taken with a grain of salt. His round included seven birdies and an eagle. Two of the birdie putts were from 20 feet and all the others were from inside 10, except for the 17th hole where he canned a 15-footer for his eagle.

Meanwhile, Wiebe, playing in obscurity on another course, shot a 64 to lay a shot off the lead and two ahead of Bob Gilder, Lou Graham, Hale Irwin, David Graham and Lindy Miller.

Another shot back at 67 were Ron Commans, Mark McCumber, Peter Oosterhuis, Bill Rogers, Ed Flori, Wayne Levi, Terry Diehl and J. C. Sneed.

Thirteen players were tied at 68, among them third leading money winner Calvin Peete, while 22 were deadlocked at 69, including Lee Trevino, fourth leading money winner Gil Morgan and U.S. Open champ Larry Nelson.

NEW YORK (UPI) — World Boxing Association lightweight champion Ray Mancini needs no extra incentive for tonight's title defense against Peru's Orlando Romero.

A victory over Romero, the unbeaten No. 1 contender, will set the 22-year-old champion up for megabuck paydays with Bobby Chacon, the former World Boxing Council super featherweight champion, Hector Camacho, the current WBC super featherweight champion, and WBA junior welterweight champion Aaron Pryor.

"I've never been keyed up more for a fight," said Mancini, who is returning to the ring after a seven-month layoff due to a broken collarbone. "I know when I win Thursday it will open the floodgates for the big money. Every time I hear Aaron Pryor say he wants to fight me, I hear the cash register ring. On Thursday, I'll be fighting for financial security for myself and my family."

"I'll be looking to get this guy out of there as fast as possible, then we can look to the future and wait for the big money offers."

Mancini, who suffered the injury in a sparring session while getting ready for a title fight last May, faces the unbeaten Romero, 30-0-1 with 12 knockouts, in a 15-round title bout at Madison Square Garden.

Morrow, Merchant Lead Oviedo Frosh To 1st Victory Over Patriots

Prep Football

Quarterback John Morrow and running back Mark Merchant each scored a touchdown Tuesday night in leading the Oviedo Lions freshman football team to a 14-7 victory over the Lake Brantley frosh at Altamonte Springs. It was the first time Oviedo's freshmen had ever beaten Lake Brantley.

Oviedo jumped out to a 6-0 lead in the first quarter on a four-yard TD run by Merchant. The extra point was blocked and the Lions kept the 6-0 lead into the second quarter.

Lake Brantley came back to take a 7-6 lead in the second quarter on a 30-yard scoring run and a successful extra point. The Patriots clung to its one-point lead at halftime, but it didn't last for long.

Oviedo took the second half kickoff and marched 80 yards for a touchdown to take a 12-7 lead. There were no big breakaway plays as it was a nicely sustained time-consuming drive. The drive took up almost nine minutes and the Lions didn't make any mistakes. Morrow completed the drive when he plunged into the end zone from one yard out. Morrow then hooked up with Tony Belflower for the two point conversion and a 14-7 Oviedo lead.

The Lions defense then took over and held the Patriots back for the rest of the game. Oviedo takes its 1-0 record on the road Tuesday night as it goes up against Lyman's freshman at 7:30.

Liberty Gets Breaks, Outpaces Australia II

Sailing

NEWPORT, R.I. (UPI) — Liberty's skipper Dennis Conner, thankful "the breaks went our way," won the opening race of the America's Cup finals with intense combat practice overcoming the technology behind Australia II's winged-keel.

"One race does not an America's Cup victory make," a smiling Conner said after Wednesday's 1:10 triumph over Australia II. "We need three more before we get excited."

The burgundy-hulled Liberty, the 25th cup defender, stretched a 35-second lead rounding the fifth mark to the huge winning margin by capitalizing on Australia's broken steering block.

Aussie skipper John Bertrand, jokingly claiming he "let Dennis off the hook," said the broken equipment forced the winged-keeled yacht to lose 1:22.

Compelled to rely on the trim tabs for 10 minutes until the steering mechanism was fixed, Bertrand said, "That's the way it goes."

The contest in gusty 18-knot northeasterly winds on choppy seas was so close prior to the equipment breakdown the lead had changed several times.

Acknowledging the clash with Liberty "was the tightest race we've had so far this summer," Bertrand said, "We're good learners. We'll come back stronger" today in the next round of the best-of-seven series on the 24.3-mile triangular course in Rhode Island Sound.

With the National Weather Service predicting the lighter winds in which Australia II excels, Bertrand said the sleek white Twelve "will come out the stronger."

Liberty earned a 1-0 record in the international yachting world's most prestigious contest and took a leg up in the effort to maintain sports' longest winning streak — the 132-year American hold on the Victorian silver trophy.

"The breaks went our way," said Conner, the successful 1980 defender. "Australia II looked awfully good. We didn't see any lack of experience. We'll take the win and be glad to have it."

Conner found the summer-long tight races that gave him the 25th defender's nod pay off against Australia II's mysterious keel. The Australians, who led their foreign opponents by large margins, vowed to hone their close-order racing tactics.

Although Australia II maintained a narrow lead at the start and kept it on the first two legs, Conner clipped the Aussie advantage and finished the third leg 16 seconds ahead.

"We were a bit faster," Conner said. Australia "fell back, and that was that. Things went well for us the rest of the way."

About 500 spectator craft ranging from an ocean liner to speedboats sounded a chorus of horns as Liberty streaked across the finish line and crewmembers waved.

Phils Sweep Expos; L.A., Braves Lose

Steve Carlton

Marty Bystrom

United Press International
When Nick Esasky and Phil Garner stepped to the plate in the seventh inning of their respective 2-2 games Wednesday night, it spelled trouble for the Western Division's two top contenders while Philadelphia trimmed Montreal twice to take over first place in the Eastern Division.

Esasky, a rookie, hit a grand slam to break the 2-2 tie in Cincinnati and lift the last-place Reds to a 6-4 victory over the Atlanta Braves and Phil Niekro. Meanwhile, in Houston, Garner's two-run homer backed Joe Niekro, who scattered eight hits, and led the Astros to a 4-2 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Los Angeles remained four games ahead of second-place Atlanta in the West with 17 games to play for the Braves. The third-place Astros moved to within 7 1/2 games of the Dodgers.

"We're hurting Atlanta right now, but we hope to hurt some other clubs later," said a beaming Esasky. The Reds play the Astros this weekend. "We may be in last place, but we're still working hard."

Atlanta manager Joe Torre, who said, "We've been down this road before," was not too dismayed by the results.

"We just don't want to let the Dodgers get too far ahead of us so we have to rely on other teams," he said. "We've got to keep plugging away and anything is liable to happen."

With two out in the seventh and the Reds trailing 2-1 to Phil Niekro, Eddie Milner and Gary Redus walked and Dave Concepcion singled to score Milner with the tying run.

Niekro then walked Dan Driessen to load the bases and was relieved by Steve Bedrosian. Esasky greeted Bedrosian by slamming a 2-and-2 pitch over the right-center field wall for his 11th home run of the year and first career grand slam.

Dale Murphy accounted for all four Atlanta runs with a pair of two-run homers, his 33rd and 34th home runs of the season. Cincinnati also scored a run in the third on a solo homer by Milner.

Garner's 14th of the season came off Bob Welch, 14-12, and followed a one-out walk to Ray Knight. Joe Niekro, also 14-12, pitched his eighth complete game of the year and second against the Dodgers. He struck out six and walked one.

Los Angeles took a 1-0 lead in the first inning, when Steve Sax led off with a single, stole second and scored on Pedro Guerrero's two-out single. The Dodgers made it 2-0 in the third, when Sax again opened with a single and came home on another RBI hit by Guerrero.

Phillies 9-5, Expos 5-0
At Philadelphia, the sweep lifted the Phillies into first place in the East, one game ahead of Pittsburgh, 1 1/2 ahead of Montreal, and 2 1/2 ahead of St. Louis. Mike Schmidt homered in both games, giving him 36 and tying him with Jim Rice of Boston for the major-league lead.

Steve Carlton won the 298th game of his career in the opener and in the nightcap, Marty Bystrom pitched a five-hitter in his first appearance since Aug. 20. Tim Lincecum was one for eight in the two games and drove in one run. He needs five RBI to be the first player to steal 70 bases and drive in 70 runs in baseball history.

Pirates 6, Cubs 3
At Pittsburgh, John Candelaria allowed six hits over six innings and Jim Morrison went 3-for-4, including a two-run double in the fourth inning, to pace the Pirates. Candelaria, 14-8, is 15-4 lifetime against the Cubs.

Cardinals 2, Mets 1
At New York, Darrell Porter homered in the sixth inning and four pitchers combined on an eight-hitter to lead the Cardinals. Starter Neil Allen, 11-12, went the first 5 2/3 innings and allowed five hits to his former teammates. Mets starter Tom Seaver, 8-14, gave up six hits in seven innings.

Padres 7, Giants 4
At San Diego, Tony Gwynn hit safely in his 22nd straight game, the longest streak in the majors this season, and right-hander Eric Spivey posted his 14th victory against 10 losses. Gwynn got three singles in the game. Pitcher Mike Krukow hit the third home run of his career for San Francisco.

Orioles 5, Red Sox 0
Dennis Martinez had a run of luck earlier this season — bad luck, that is, and lots of it.

But like everybody else on the Baltimore Orioles these days, Martinez has felt a bit of good fortune.

Martinez, 7-14, pitched six scoreless innings Wednesday night in his first start since Aug. 6 and Gary

WEEKLY AWARDS

The Burger King Football Players of the Week committee, comprised of Altamonte Recreation Director Bill James, Altamonte attorney Gerald Rutberg, Amoco Oil mogul Frank Tibbitts, Seminole Sentinel sports editor Henry Cush and Evening Herald Sports Editor Sam Cook, have selected Lake Howell's Darin Slack and Troy Quackenbush as the first two award winners.

Ironically, Quackenbush and Slack were both vying for the quarterback position prior to the first game. Slack tossed two TDs and ran for another during the first half in Howell's 44-0 rout of Bishop Moore to earn him the offensive citation. Quackenbush, playing strong safety, made four solo tackles and knocked down a pass. Two of the tackles resulted in fumbles.

The players are nominated to the Burger King panel by their coaches each week. Other nominees included fullback Jay Robey (Lake Howell), tackle Jim Royal (Lake Howell), halfback Allen Armstrong (Lake Howell), halfback Phil Germano (Lyman), tackle Mike McFadden (Lyman) and tackle Robert Maier (Lake Howell) on offense. Defensive nominees were nose guard Rick Pugh (Lake Howell), linebacker Kurt Marn (Lake Howell), rover Scott Horwitz, tackle Tyrone Simpson (Lyman), defensive back Scott Salmon (Lake Howell).

All players who are selected for the honor are eligible for the offensive and defensive players of the year award picked by the panel and the coaches at the end of the year. Lyman linebacker Mike Hill, whose now at the Air Force Academy, and Robey were the winners last fall.

After Seminole's tough loss to Titusville Astronaut, he wasn't in much of an award-giving mood, but he did name these weekly Tribe winners. Bryan Debose, who had three sacks in the first half, was the Optimist Player of the Week. Headhunter (defensive prowess) awards went to defensive back Deron Thompson (nine tackles) and Mike Debose. Guard David Linton and halfback Cliff Campbell picked up the offensive Hatcher awards. Punter Rob Cohen, who bailed the Tribe out of danger several times, and Vince Williams earned the Savage awards for strong special team play.

In cross country, Lake Mary's freshman phenom Sue Kingsbury and Lyman's Doug McBroom picked up the Athletic Attie-Seminole County Track Officials Club award. Kingsbury is currently ranked fourth in the state among the 4A runners while McBroom upset Lake Howell's Ken Cheeseman in the Greyhound Opener Saturday. The county runners return to action today when they compete in the Edgewater Invitational at Trinity Prep. First race is at 4 p.m. with the 4A girls beginning at 6 p.m. and the boys immediately after.

POSTAL EXAM

The Sanford, DeBary, Orange City & DeLand Post Offices will be accepting applications from the general public for the Rural Carrier Exam thru Friday, September 16.

The starting salary varies depending on the size of the route carried, and can go as high as $26,000 a year plus excellent benefits. When positions become available the individuals with the highest scores are hired. You should not miss your chance to fill one of these highly desirable and competitive positions.

STUDY GUIDE BY POSTAL EXAM PREPARATION CENTER

The study guide by P.E.P.C. was researched and written by the foremost authority in America on how to gain employment with the Postal Service. The author, Mr. McNally has the following qualifications.

1. Former postal employee.
2. Currently a Ph.D candidate in education.
3. Averaged 96% on two of the strictly scored Rural Carrier Exams.

Mr. McNally who averaged 100% on 7 out of 7 of the various Postal Exams stated, "The Rural Carrier Exam is by far the most difficult of the 5 exams commonly offered to the general public. For this reason proper preparation is essential to obtaining one's maximum score."

PROPER PREPARATION PREVENTS POOR PERFORMANCE

The Rural-Carrier guide includes, 3 complete tests, Tips to make you "testwise", words from actual exams and more... You may purchase a copy of the Rural Carrier Guide by mailing a $12.00 money order (includes postage and handling) to High Scores, Inc. P.O. Box 522, Long Beach, MS 39560.

WORLD IN BRIEF

Lebanese Air Force Back In The Skies

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — Lebanese warplanes, grounded since the start of mountain war, flew over Beirut and adjacent hills today where government troops fought pitched battles with Syrian-backed Moslem Druze militiamen, military sources said.

The planes did not attack, the sources said. They said the Lebanese army fought back several assaults on its positions in Souk El Gharb, a key defense position southeast of Beirut, and Dahr al Wahsh to the east overlooking the capital.

The overflights came hours after U.S. envoy Robert McFarlane returned to the capital from Damascus in the latest move to end Lebanon's civil strife.

The sources declined to say from where the two early-model Hawker Hunters took off.

War Takes 2,000 Lives

United Press International

Nicaragua's Sandinista junta coordinator Daniel Ortega said nearly 2,000 government troops, civilians and U.S.-backed rebels have died in the stepped-up fighting in the Central American nation this year.

In the first confirmation of a rebel claim, the Nicaraguan leader said CIA-trained insurgents last week sabotaged and damaged a crucial underwater pipeline that carries the country's petroleum from the Pacific coast to refineries in Managua.

The coordinator of the three-member leftist junta said Wednesday U.S.-funded rebel forces have killed more than 800 Nicaraguans since January, while government troops have slain 1,081 insurgents.

Weapons Rushed To Lebanese

Soviets Say No To Missiles

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union says even a partial deployment of Pershing-2 or cruise missiles in Europe would be unacceptable in any U.S.-Soviet arms accord and ruled out compromise on the issue of French and British missiles.

"Those who entertain these hopes are in for a disappointment and not at the 11th hour, not five minutes to midnight and not two minutes after midnight," First Deputy Foreign Minister Georgi Kornienko told a news conference Wednesday.

He said Western speculation the Soviet Union would alter its stance on an arms control agreement following the downing of a Korea Air Lines jet or for any other reason was "wishful thinking." The Soviet position "remains unchanged," he said.

West German Foreign Minister Hans Dietrich Genscher said last week following talks with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko in Madrid the Soviets may be prepared to drop their insistence on including the 162 French and British forces. Kornienko said Genscher had misrepresented the Soviet position.

"Such conclusions are what we call in Russian wishful thinking," Kornienko said.

"There is nothing behind such suggestions as far as our position is concerned. We believe that counting the British and French nuclear systems in the overall count of medium-range NATO missiles is mandatory ... they have not so far been included in any agreement. Therefore, there would be no basis to take them outside the framework of the Geneva negotiations. This position of the Soviet Union remains unchanged."

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — As Syrian-backed Moslem rebels attacked Lebanese army units near Beirut, the United States rushed ammunition and weapons to Lebanese army units north of the city and work crews converted part of the coastal highway into a landing strip to be used to bring in more U.S. supplies if necessary. "They are being re-supplied as quickly as possible, and very quickly in the case of ammunition," U.S. Embassy spokesman John Stewart said.

U.S. envoy Robert McFarlane returned to the capital from Damascus in the latest move to end Lebanon's civil war.

"I'm usually too excited to sleep when I go on vacation. But, the seats were so comfortable, I couldn't help it!"

25 Past Miss Americas Spotlited

It's a salute to an all-American ideal — the Miss America Pageant telecast. "Go For It All!", airing this year on Saturday, Sept. 17, at 10 p.m. EDT, on NBC.

Gary Collins, host of the "Hour" show, returns for his third year as host of the pageant. Collins, who enjoys his role as the lone male on the stage, brings something extra to his role. His wife, Mary Ann Mobley, was crowned Miss America in 1958 and has given him an insight into the competition from the contestant's viewpoint.

Joining Collins in the telecast will be the reigning Miss America, Debra Sue Maffett, former Miss California Deanna Fogarty, who also marks her second year as a principal singer on the telecast, and stunning Susan Powell, Miss America 1981. Powell has electrified audiences at the Seattle Opera Company, the National Opera of the Philippines and most recently sang the lead role in "Promises, Promises."

A special feature of the telecast will be the introduction of 25 past Miss Americas, commemorating the Silver Anniversary of the Gillette Company's sponsorship of the Miss America telecast.

Though the 50 state winners are always the stars of the show, this year's telecast will provide a wonderful look back at the accomplishments of a very unique group of women who will always be remembered as "Miss America."

Anniversary

Couple Married 33 Years

Mr. and Mrs. H. Wayne (Betty) O'Neal of South Sanford Avenue, Sanford, are celebrating their 33rd anniversary today.

The couple have been residents of Florida for the past 19 years. He owns and operates Electric Motor Service on Magnolia Avenue in Sanford.

The O'Neals were married Sept. 15, 1950, by the Rev. Everett Chandler in Columbus, Ind. They are the parents of three living children who make their home in Sanford: Vicki,

Jeff and Teresa Hill, along with her husband, Ron Hill, and three grandsons, Darrell Wayne, Brandon

Mr. and Mrs. H. Wayne O'Neal and Michael Hill. The celebration will include a family dinner when the clan gathers at the home of the honored couple.

Back Off, Dad, And Let Son Paddle Own Canoe

DEAR ABBY: I am a businessman with grown children and young grandchildren.

Recently I learned that my son's former girlfriend gave birth to a child conceived while they were living together. Neither of them has mentioned this to me, so if the child is his, apparently they have agreed not to acknowledge it. I am quite certain that he is not providing any financial support.

My estate will not be large, but it seems only fair that this new child, if indeed it is my grandchild, should share in what there is. Yet I cannot find out more without meddling in my adult son's affairs.

My attorney suggests I leave my will as it is, providing in general terms for my children and grandchildren. But I fear my son would face a messy situation should the child's mother claim a share of the estate.

My son would be furious — and justifiably so — were I to approach the girl to "negotiate" at this time. If I questioned him, he'd probably deny paternity and refuse to discuss it further.

I don't want to be a meddler, but a grandchild is a grandchild. What do you think?

CONCERNED FATHER

DEAR CONCERNED: You come across as a kindly, generous, farsighted man, but you'll get no medals for meddling, so listen to your attorney. You son is a big boy now. Let him paddle his own canoe.

DEAR ABBY: I never thought I'd be writing to you, but I need help. I don't know if there's a word for what I have, but I have a fear of telephones.

In my job I have to use the phone a lot, and it's making a nervous wreck of me. When I talk on the phone, my throat closes up, I run out of breath and my voice changes. I can't seem to get the words out. I have no trouble talking to people in person, but when I talk on the phone, I fall apart.

Do other people have this problem? Or is it just me? If you have a solution, let's hear it, please. Think up a name, but don't use mine.

PHONAPHOBIC

DEAR PHONAPHOBIC: You are certainly not alone. Make one more phone call — to someone who practices behavior modification therapy. If your physician can't recommend one, consult your local mental health facility.

DEAR ABBY: I went on vacation for three weeks a couple of months ago and fell in love with a man in Portugal. It was love at first sight for both of us. I've been in love before, Abby, but never like this.

The problem: We want to get married and he wants to live in the United States, but I need to find a job for him first. There are no jobs here, and it's worse in Portugal.

I love him so much, Abby. I don't know what to do. Please help me. If I don't find a job for him, I will lose him!

IN LOVE AND CRYING

DEAR CRYING: I can't help you find a job for your new love. But I can give you something far more valuable — some advice: If you will lose this man unless you find a job for him, what you think is "love" is just a summer romance.

Dear Abby

Go slowly. If he is unable to come here and find his own job, your marriage doesn't have a chance.

DEAR ABBY: I have a friend who is 75 and a widower. (I'll call him "Paul.") He lives alone, and I am just a neighbor he's known for quite a few years. I'm 54 and a bachelor. Paul's health has been failing the last few years, so I've been looking after his needs, such as buying his groceries, providing transportation to his doctors, etc. He says I am his best friend, and he's told me repeatedly that he is leaving everything he has to me.

Paul says he has a handwritten will in his drawer. He has no children, but he does have a younger brother in town who is a prominent attorney, but Paul doesn't plan on leaving him anything because he thinks he is a snob. Paul says his handwritten will is as good as one drawn up by a lawyer. He didn't want a local lawyer to draw it up because he says lawyers talk and he doesn't want his brother to know what's in it.

Is it true that a person can make up his own will without a lawyer or witnesses?

PAUL'S PAL

DEAR PAL: Yes. It's called a "holographic" will. It must be entirely written, dated and signed in the handwriting of the maker. No witnesses are required, and no printing or typing may appear on the paper.

Holographic wills are legal in most states, but not in all.

Woman, 60, Seeks Relief For Swelling

DEAR DR. LAMB - For the last few years my husband and I have taken trips overseas. During the last three trips I have experienced considerable swelling in my ankles and lower leg. I have tried in-place exercises during flight, getting up as often as possible and taking walks between flights and I still have the problem.

foot, ankle and lower leg the less likely there will be any swelling there. Of course if you could elevate your feet it would help but that is usually not possible.

DEAR DR. LAMB - What happens to people who stop exercising? I mean if exercise is good for you and protects you from having heart attacks, will you still get any benefits from the exercise you did if you stop?

Whenever there is an increase in pressure inside the capillaries - the small vessels that form the network of connections between the arteries and veins - fluid tends to seep out into the tissues and is not readily sucked back into circulation.

Normally fluid which contains nutrients and oxygen does leave the circulatory system to bathe the tissues but it is sucked back into the circulation at the venous side.

When you are sitting you put pressure on the back of the thighs and this can compress the veins making matters worse. That may be part of your problem.

Increasing the pressure in the tissues decreases the accumulation of fluid outside the circulation. That is why compression is used.

I approve of your present measures but if you continue to have the problem you might consider wearing some form of pressure stocking during flights or when you must sit. The more you compress the

DEAR DR. LAMB - It is just like going off your diet. You start rapidly losing all the benefits you obtained. A study reported at the last scientific sessions of the American Heart Association showed that within three weeks after a person stops running the blood loses its ability to clear fatty-cholesterol particles.

Exercise increases the small fatty-cholesterol particles called "good" cholesterol that seem to help clear the blood. But you need to keep it up regularly to get the best results. Off and on exercising just won't do it for you.

I do think that after you've developed a good capacity to exercise it is easier to regain it than if you had not exercised at all.

People who stop exercising but who keep eating the same way they did when they exercised tend to gain body fat. That also tends to raise the "bad" cholesterol and the blood pressure.

HOROSCOPE

What The Day Will Bring...

YOUR BIRTHDAY SEPTEMBER 16, 1983

Your circle of social contacts will be greatly expanded this coming year, but it will be wise not to become involved in commercial dealings with your new-found friends.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

If you have to make a choice today between associating with persons you like or those to whom you feel obligated, choose the former. Virgo predictions for the year ahead are now ready. Romance, career, luck, earnings, travel and much more are discussed. Send $1 to Astro-Graph, Box 489, Radio City Station, N.Y. 10019.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23)

Activities which will please you today may not be equally appealing to your mate. It would prove wise not to try to foist them upon him or her.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

Take time to relax and enjoy life today, but don't do it to the extent where it may cause you to neglect responsibilities needing attention.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

Gains are likely to come to you today because you'll be both industrious and clever, although yielding to extravagant whims could diminish your profits.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

Keep your

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19)

People will do things for you today just because you're you. If you decide to bring in outsiders, your benefactors may back off.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20)

In negotiations today, lay a solid foundation but don't attempt to close the deal. If you move too hastily, you might jeopardize its potential.

ARIES (March 21-April 19)

To achieve important objectives today, you may have to disengage yourself from associates who lack your ambition and drive.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20)

You should do rather well in competitive situations today, provided the game is more important to you than the score. Play it loose.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20)

Joint ventures hold promise for you today, but there is also a possibility of complications. Strive to maintain harmony with those involved.

CANCER (June 21-July 22)

Unless you and your mate are in accord on major issues today, little of collective value will be achieved. Each must have the other's full consent.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22)

Left to your own devices, you have the ability today to add to your resources. However, negative companions may convince you not to try.

WIN AT BRIDGE

Bridge hand layout showing North, South, West, and East cards and dealer information.

honors that constitute a doubleton. Thus a singleton ace, king, queen or jack is given just one distributional point, not two, and such doubletons as A-K, K-Q, etc., get no distributional points at all.

In today's hand East opens with a weak two diamonds. It is passed around to North, who scrapes up a takeout double. South jumps to three no-trump and the 10 of diamonds is led.

South has to win with dummy's ace. He comes to his hand with the ace of hearts and leads the nine of clubs toward dummy. If West is smart enough to hop up with his king of clubs, South is down two.

Now change the hand a trifle. Give North the five of diamonds and South the five of clubs. Now three no-trump makes easily since South ducks the diamond lead in both hands. Diamonds can still be cleared, but East can't get in to run them and South makes an easy game.

Mike doesn't explain how North-South will bid to that easy game, but maybe North can still scrape up that double with 4-4-2-3 distribution.

By Oswald Jacoby and James Jacoby

Mike Lawrence devotes a full chapter of his book on hand evaluation to show the weakness of honor cards unaccompanied by spot cards.

We have stressed that point for years and have recommended that you take away one distributional point for any singleton honor or for two

Dole Pushing Tax Credits For First-Time Homebuyers

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Before the year is out, Congress may consider a bill to grant a federal tax credit to first-time homebuyers.

Senate Finance Committee Chairman Robert Dole, R-Kan., outlined his proposal during his panel's initial review of the mortgage subsidy bond program that expires Dec. 31.

The administration and a host of private witnesses embraced Dole's plan with varying degrees of enthusiasm.

The House Ways and Means Committee has not yet acted on the mortgage subsidy bonds that must be reauthorized by Congress or die at the end of the year.

Under the much-criticized but strongly supported bond program, state and local governments are permitted to issue a limited number of bonds to finance mortgages for middle- and low-income first-time homebuyers. But the program is considered inefficient, with at least one-third of the money going to bond issuers and other financial middlemen.

"If Congress is committed to finding a way to help first-time homebuyers, then Congress should endeavor to subsidize home purchases with the most efficient subsidy mechanism possible," Dole said in defense of his bill.

Under his proposal, state and local governments would have the option of exchanging some or all of their mortgage bond authority for authority to issue tax credit certificates.

'The greater cost-effectiveness of tax credits would enable state and local governments to provide the same benefit to homebuyers at a lower total cost to the federal government.'

—Assistant Treasury Secretary John Chapoton

Each mortgage credit certificate would enable a homebuyer to obtain a mortgage from a lender or developer and then claim a federal tax credit for a specified percentage of his mortgage interest payments, effectively reducing his mortgage rate.

Assistant Treasury Secretary John Chapoton said although the administration opposes the mortgage subsidy bond program, it was likely to be extended anyway because of strong congressional support.

If it was extended, Chapoton said, the administration would support the mortgage credit proposal as an alternative to the mortgage subsidy bond program. He added that he would prefer it as a replacement of the existing bond program.

"Tax credits would bypass the intermediaries who now reap a substantial portion of the benefits of tax-exempt financings," he said. "The greater cost-effectiveness of tax credits would enable state and local governments to provide the same benefit to homebuyers at a lower total cost to the federal government."

However, Chapoton added, the administration would oppose the bill's provision that would make the tax credit refundable if the credit exceeded the homebuyer's tax liability.

Joe Morris of the U.S. League of Savings Institutions called the mortgage credit proposal "a more efficient and equitable way to make home ownership possible for Americans."

Bad Food May Be Behind Most Prison Riots

ANAHEIM, Calif. (UPI) — Lousy food is the issue behind 90 percent of all prison riots, results of an eight-year study show.

Judy Wilson of the Washington-based Commission of Public Health said that poor nutrition and sanitation "have been a contributing factor in violent outbreaks in penal facilities."

"In fact, I estimate that wherever there is prison unrest, food will be one of the issues 90 percent of the time."

Miss Wilson noted that an Aug. 29 disturbance near Hominy, Okla., broke out when cooks ran out of hamburgers for the last 35 inmates at the evening meal. One inmate was shot to death during the riot, 19 others were injured and three guards were hurt.

"Food is important to all of us," said Miss Wilson. "But the condition of confinement is that movement is restricted and food is the one pleasure inmates have to look forward to."

"When the menu says fried chicken and you get to the front of the line and the last piece of chicken is gone, you're going to be very upset."

Another brawl in Oklahoma broke out last weekend at the Joseph Harp Correctional Center in Lexington when inmates felt that portions of food were unfairly distributed. Two prisoners were hospitalized.

A similar incident occurred in September 1975 at a Tennessee State Prison when the kitchen ran out of pork chops and served bologna. One inmate was killed and 39 others were injured.

Miss Wilson began the study of prison food services in six states after a flurry of human rights suits were filed on behalf of inmates complaining of poor nutrition.

Better planning by more qualified staff is necessary to improve prison food service, and reduce inmate violence, Miss Wilson said. One remedy would be to pay inmates who work in the kitchen wages comparable to those who work in industrial prison jobs.

Common problems in prisons are lack of dairy products and fresh fruits and vegetables, Miss Wilson said.

While one incident can sometimes dramatically explode into violence as in Oklahoma and Tennessee, more often it is a series of problems that lead to trouble, Miss Wilson said.

"Usually these are things that are cooking for months and then they reach the blowing point. The only way to handle it is through prevention."

LEGAL NOTICE BUDGET HEARING ON GENERAL REVENUE SHARING

The County of Seminole will hold a Public Hearing at 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday, September 20, 1983, in Room 200 of the Seminole County Courthouse, North Park Avenue, Sanford, Florida. The purpose of the hearing is to receive written and oral comment from the public concerning the Proposed Annual Budget for fiscal year 1983/84 and the use of Revenue Sharing funds as contained in that proposed budget, summarized below. Final adoption of the budget is expected to occur following public hearing.

General Revenue Sharing (GRS) is a program of general fiscal support from the federal government to state and local governments with only limited federal requirements about how the money should be spent. Decisions on the use of these funds are made at the local level, by the government and people closest to local problems. The revenue sharing regulations require a hearing on the use of these funds in relation to the overall budget.

All interested citizens, groups, senior citizens, and organizations are encouraged to attend and to submit comments.

NOTICE OF TAX INCREASE

The SEMINOLE COUNTY BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS has tentatively adopted a measure to increase its property tax levy by 1.3 percent.

All concerned citizens are invited to attend a public hearing on the tax increase to be held on September 20, 1983, at 7:00 p.m. or as soon thereafter as possible in the County Commission Room, Number 200, Second Floor, Seminole County Courthouse, Sanford Florida.

A FINAL DECISION on the proposed tax increase will be made at the hearing.

Americans Stranded In Moscow

Soviets Find Wreckage?

By United Press International

A Soviet ship was spotted today lowering a deep-sea exploration craft into the Sea of Japan, touching off speculation the Soviets located the main wreckage of the downed Korean Air Lines jet.

The agency said a red and orange buoy was dropped in the area where the ship was seen lowering the craft, in international waters about 20 miles north of Moneron off Soviet-held Sakhalin Island near where the KAL jet was shot down Sept. 1.

It said 21 Soviet ships, including a 12,000-ton rescue ship, were sighted in the area, where a U.S. Navy tug searched for the plane's "black box."

An urgent meeting of the International Civil Aviation Organization was scheduled in Montreal today to press for condemnation of the Soviet Union for shooting down the jet, which carried 269 people on a flight from New York to Seoul via Anchorage.

In Moscow, more than 300 American and British citizens were stranded today, caught in a crossfire of sanctions between the West and the Soviet Union, but a charter flight was expected to carry them out of the Soviet Union Friday.

After President Reagan issued an edict barring passage to anyone with connecting tickets on Aeroflot flights, Moscow's state-run airline retaliated Wednesday by rejecting all airline tickets issued by U.S. carriers.

NATO nations, with the exception of Turkey and Greece, began a two-week boycott of the Soviet airline Aeroflot today. Travel through Russia already was disrupted by a 60-day boycott of the International Federation of Airline Pilots Associations began Monday.

In a rare display of bipartisan unity in Washington Wednesday, the House voted 416-0 to approve a resolution condemning the Soviet Union for the attack. The Senate was expected to take up similar action.

Rep. Larry McDonald, D-Ga., was among 61 American victims aboard Flight 007 when it was shot down after straying into Russian airspace.

Officials in Japan said today the tug Navy's USNS Narragansett, scanning the floor of the Sea of Japan for the downed Boeing 747's "black box" had not detected any signals presumably still being emitted from the crash-resistant box.

Joint War Powers Compromise Plan Set

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate leaders were looking to President Reagan today to see if he would accept a proposed compromise plan that could clear the way for U.S. Marines to remain in Lebanon with congressional approval.

Senate Democratic leader Robert Byrd revealed the proposed joint resolution Wednesday following a meeting of Senate Democrats at which the Democrats called on Reagan to acknowledge that the war powers act has been triggered by the fighting in Lebanon.

The Democrats unanimously took the position that Reagan must specifically ask Congress to authorize the continued deployment of U.S. troops in Lebanon, say how long he wants them there, and explain "with precision" the troops' mission.

The proposal sent to Reagan was prepared at the suggestion of Senate Republican leader Howard Baker. It was drafted by staff representatives of Byrd, Baker and White House chief of staff James Baker, Reagan's spokesman in the negotiations with Congress on the war powers issue.

Secretary of State George Shultz met with congressional leaders of both parties Wednesday morning and later with members of the House.

He told reporters "very active discussions" were under way on the war powers issue.

"We're trying to work out something that allows us to express our common concerns and support and also is as satisfactory as possible on all of the necessities of the war powers act," Shultz said. "I hope we will be able to come to a good solution and do so promptly."

House Foreign Affairs Committee Chairman Clement Zablocki, D-Wis., arranged to meet with James Baker.

"The hangup or the problem we have is the cutoff date," Zablocki said.

Some members say Congress should not authorize the Marines to remain in Lebanon longer than six months. Others, however, have said they would agree to a resolution allowing the Marines to stay as long as 18 months, Zablocki said.

Kennedy Jr. Treated For Drugs

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Robert Kennedy Jr., admitting he is under hospital care for drug dependency, says he is determined to beat the problem and apologized to the "many Americans who admired my parents and the Kennedy name."

Kennedy, 28, the third child of Sen. Robert Kennedy, who was assassinated in 1968, and Ethel Kennedy, revealed that he was hospitalized for a drug problem in a statement released by the office of his uncle, Sen. Edward Kennedy, D-Mass.

Kennedy became ill on a Republic Airlines flight to Rapid City, S.D., Sunday.

Authorities obtained a search warrant for contraband and controlled substances and confiscated his flight bag but described the investigation as routine. Officials said they would announce their findings by early next week.

Attorney John Fitzgerald, representing Kennedy in the Rapid City case, said Kennedy's admission to a drug treatment program will not have any bearing on that investigation.

Both Fitzgerald and Sen. Kennedy's office refused to comment on the probe or say where Kennedy is being treated.

"You have to accept the young man's statement that he needed help now," Fitzgerald said. "I think that was an honest, candid statement."

"I have admitted myself to the hospital for the treatment of a drug problem. With the best medical help I can find, I am determined to beat this problem," said Kennedy, who has said he wants to make a career of public service in the tradition of his father and two uncles, President John Kennedy and Sen. Kennedy.

Globe-Trotting Congressmen Cost Pentagon Over $14 Million A Year

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Members of Congress, cashing in on lavish Pentagon services and gratuities, are tapping the U.S. treasury for well over $14 million a year for their journeys to see the world.

At least 21 senators and 60 House members returned to Capitol Hill Monday fresh from forays abroad during the summer recess.

In August, eight House and Senate groups crisscrossed the Far East, each on an Air Force plane far more expensive than commercial flights. Two of the House members visited China and Thailand respectively for a second time this year.

Also on the 23 trips in August, including 17 that strained the limits of the Air Force's 17-plane 89th Airborne Division, were 80 staff members and 42 spouses. The congressmen and senators — and even congressional aides traveling alone — were escorted by one or more officers from the military services.

Aides to congressional panels that set up the latest round of overseas trips are quick to defend them, noting their committees need to meet foreign leaders, visit military bases and refugee camps and discuss foreign trade.

But a study by United Press International and the civic watchdog Better Government Association found members of Congress travel with few controls to limit expenditures, avoid waste and duplication or prevent abuses.

UPI and the BGA, in a review of soaring costs of official travel abroad, found no central reporting of expenditures, but learned:

—As many as 100 congressional trips overseas each year are aboard planes of the 89th Airborne Division, the Air Force's Military Airlift Command that includes Air Force One. In the last six months, the Army sponsored 45 congressional trips, mainly on airlift planes, and the Air Force 18. Records listing passengers are destroyed semi-annually, Pentagon officials confided, to avoid bad publicity. The Navy reported that in fiscal 1982, the only period for which it released figures, it sponsored 22 foreign trips on Air Force planes.

Figuring conservatively, if congressional groups took 85 trips in which the plane flew an average of 25 hours (a roundtrip to Hong Kong takes at least 40 hours) at an average of $4,500 per hour (a median price for planes in the 89th Airborne), the Pentagon this year paid $9.5 million to transport congressmen.

—Buried in a public law, Congress in 1978 gave itself permanent and unlimited travel funds for lodging, meals, transportation and other items on trips abroad.

In the last 11 months, the State Department has drawn more than $2.82 million from the treasury for House and Senate foreign travel expenses.

—Despite requesting these funds for their own travel, and filing claims for per diem expenses, congressmen commonly let military escort officers pick up costs of their food, lodging and transportation. Pentagon officials confirm. This year, escort officers will pay nearly $1 million for such services.

It is difficult to pinpoint costs, but the price of Congress' foreign travel will easily exceed $14 million in 1983 and probably approach $20 million.

Returning in recent days from his second trip this year to China, Chairman Melvin Price, D-Ill., announced he and other members of his House Armed Services Committee met with military leaders of Korea, China and Thailand.

An aide said there was a full schedule, but declined to release an itinerary. In Peking, a UPI correspondent watched Price, his wife, Rep. Marilyn Lloyd, D-Tenn., and others in his delegation spend an afternoon shopping.

An aide to Rep. Robert Badham, R-Calif., said he wanted to visit China, and it was coincidental the trip took him to Thailand for a second time this year.

During the same period, seven other groups traversed the Far East, led by House Majority Leader Jim Wright, D-Texas; Budget Committee Chairman James Jones, D-Okla.; Sen. Jake Garn, R-Utah; Sen. Orrin Hatch, R-Utah; Sen. Warren Rudman, R-N.H.; Sen. Henry Jackson, D-Wash., who died days after his return; Rep. Joseph Addabbo, D-N.Y., who heads an appropriations subcommittee, and Agriculture Committee Chairman E. Kika de la Garza, D-Texas.
