

Claims Filed For Damages In Meat Packers Conflict

KANSAS CITY, Kas., Apr. 22.—(AP)—Damage claims totaling $123,000 were on file today with Kansas City, Kas., as the result of a fracas involving the city's police force and striking C. I. O. packing house workers.

The 70-man police force, wielding billy clubs, raided a union hall last Friday. They were under instructions "to get tough if necessary" to halt mass picketing at the Cudahy Packing Co. Ten persons were hospitalized.

Twenty-seven claims for $103,000 were filed yesterday by an attorney for the United Packing House Workers of America. Two claims for $10,000 each were filed earlier.

The claims said the injuries were inflicted on union members by police "acting illegally and entirely outside the scope of their authority." The actions were based on the Kansas mob statute which makes a city liable for violence committed by a mob of five or more persons.

C. I. O. President Philip Murray has called for a federal investigation of the incident.

Tallahassee's Drive For First Place In G-F Loop Is Rewarded

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Tallahassee's drive for possession of the Georgia-Florida league leadership was rewarded last night when the Pirates beat Valdosta, 6-1.

The Pirates battled Albany for the lead for several days before Thomasville moved in to take over the top spot. Since then, it has been touch and go. But last night's results also included a 6-2 loss for Thomasville, at the hands of Waycross. That broke the Tigers' grip on first place, but left them leading third place Waycross by a game and a half.

Moultrie beat Albany, 5-1, and Cordele handed Americus the key to the cellar by shading the Phillies, 11-1, in a wild affair at Americus.

Americus outthrew the visitors, 12 to seven, but made seven errors. Cordele made five.

The other games were more or less routine affairs. Carey of Moultrie, and Gormish of Tallahassee each allowed their opponents only five blows. Waycross rallied twice to beat Thomasville, and was the only club in the league to play errorless ball.

Tallahassee led Valdosta, 6-0, going into the top of the seventh but the visitors got to Gormish for their lone run in that inning to thwart his shut-out attempt.

Cordele and Americus battled all the way with at least one team scoring in every inning except the fourth. Americus rallied in the bottom of the ninth to score twice, just one short of tying the score.

The teams are all paired again tonight.

...military training program and a peace time draft, he declared that there would not have been a World War II if this had been done in time before.

He told of the hundreds of those wounded in the last war who are slowly dying in hospitals and of the 500,000 men who made the supreme sacrifice in both world wars, and said that every American should have to visit the hospitals to realize the sacrifice made by those now living.

The American Legion, with 17 thousand posts and three and a half million members, including 50,000 in Florida is being looked to for a peace time program in teaching citizenship to the foreign born, and Americanism in the schools, he said.

In this connection he told of Eddie Gong, Florida boy of Chinese extraction, who was elected president of Boy's State, sponsored last year in Tallahassee by the Legion, and as president of the National Boys Forum in Washington, D. C. and of Jimmie Grant, 17 year old Orlando high school boy who won the national American Legion oratorical contest, and was presented upon his return to Orlando with a Legion $4,000 scholarship.

Cowdr. Caton then played on a portable phonograph a recording of his introduction of Jimmie Grant, and of the latter's prize winning oration as delivered in Orlando. In summing up Communist activities, Comdr. Caton told of how FBI research resulted in removing a Russian born speaker from the program of the recent FEA teachers' convention in Miami. He also suggested that a certain Florida senator is in the same class as Henry Wallace.

up constitutionally and it certainly will put a crimp in the activities of Communists in America."

The Communist Party would have to register with the Justice Department within 30 days after the bill became law. It would have to file a list of names and addresses of all persons who were members in the preceding year.

Communist affiliates also would have to register in the same period. They would not be required to submit membership lists. But these would have to be kept available for inspection.

The committee agreed not to expose members of fronts on grounds some of them have been lured innocently into the affiliate organizations.

After the first registration, both the party and fronts would have to re-register with the government by Feb. 1 each year.

In addition, they would have to label their printed propaganda and broadcasts to show its source. Leaders of the party as it now exists would be subject to prosecution on criminal charges of conspiracy to overthrow the U. S. government. The maximum punishment on conviction would be 10 years in jail plus a $10,000 fine.

The measure is the first legislative step ever taken by the committee to combat Communism in America.

The new program also would ban their employment in any non-sensitive federal job. Forbidding Communists to apply for passports or use them.

The top punishment for violation registration provisions would be a $5,000 fine and 5 years' imprisonment.

Some members of Congress have wanted to outlaw the Communist Party. The committee voted against that, partly because it doubted the constitutionality of such a step.

IDEA OF FAMILY AS A UNIT-GAINING GROUND IN FARM COMMUNITIES

One very helpful thing which has come out of the maze of adjustments in farming necessitated by the stringencies of recent years is a tendency towards planning operations of the farm with both immediate and long-time objectives in mind. There has come a realization that the family is a unit. All members must be considered in making and following programs which will result not only in benefits to the family but also to the soils on which future the mark but incomplete reports indicate there will be at least 75,000 negro Democrats.

If they all voted and cast their votes:

1. To help women and other members of the family to understand what is an adequate standard of living for rural families;
2. to help the whole family work toward that standard;
3. to develop better health for rural families;
4. to help women to work out their home problems so that work with rural people realize that all members of the family must participate actively in the management as well as in the work of the place. Home demonstration agents, especially, have had some objects about like these:

generations must depend for a living.

Instead of direction by one person, be he head of the family or not, there is coming more and more a farm family direction. All members of the family are members of the board of directors and share in both responsibilities and benefits from the farm. This tends to give an equalization of opportunities for the farm family, more satisfaction, often larger income, and very often a much wiser expenditure of available funds.

engo spokesman said he was speaking for J. P. Shields, first assistant Grand Chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; C. H. Keenan, vice president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and C. E. McDaniels, vice president of the Switchmen's Union of North America.

The Cleveland announcement said the statement to be issued here would contain details of how the strike would be put into effect.

The strike would paralyze the country's transportation system by pulling locomotive engineers, firemen and enginemen and switchmen off the job. Two years ago a strike cut off rail service for two days until President Truman intervened.

What legal steps might be undertaken to head off the crippling walkout remained a question. The wage dispute between the unions and nation's class one railroads has passed through all steps of machinery set up under the National Railway Labor Act.

Railroad workers are excluded from coverage by the Taft-Hartley Law. Hence the government cannot ask for an anti-strike injunction as it did recently against John L. Lewis' coal miners.

There was no immediate word from the White House whether Mr. Truman might step into the dispute as he did in May, 1946.

This, senators said, would both save money (by eliminating the costly UMT training act) and give teen-agers better training.

A number of House members do not agree. Leaders there insist that any effort to combine UMT and draft will torpedo both projects.

No meeting was planned by the Senate committee today but legislative experts were busy writing the newest UMT-Draft plan.

President Truman Compromises On UMT And Draft

Says It Was Best He Could Get From GOP Hits Short Terms For Atomic Board

WASHINGTON, Apr. 29.—(AP)—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, emerging from a conference with President Truman, told newsmen today that this "is not the proper time" to ask whether she favors his nomination.

Further, she said, "that is a question I think no one should ask."

In quick replies to reporters' queries, Mrs. Roosevelt said:

1. Will not attend the Democratic convention;
2. Will not take an active part in political campaigns;
3. Is not answering political questions (she was asked whether she will be for Mr. Truman after the convention);
4. Is not resigning as a delegate to the United Nations, where she is chairman of the U. N. Human Rights Commission.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 29.—(AP)—President Truman said today he accepted proposals to combine a temporary draft and a universal training program because it was all he could get out of Congress.

The President told a news conference the idea of blending the draft and universal training was an acceptable compromise.

Then he added that it was because it was all he could get, it was, he said, a step in the right direction.

Mr. Truman asked Congress for a temporary revival of the draft to expand the armed forces now. He also asked a universal training program under which all physically fit 18 year olds would be trained as a reserve.

"Is the compromise plan acceptable?" a reporter asked.

"That's all it is, acceptable, he replied adding: It is the best we can get. It's not what I want, but it's a step in the right direction."

Mr. Truman said the government's conciliation service is working to prevent a rail strike. He said he thinks it will have good luck, at least he hopes so.

Asked if he might appoint a board to inquire into the Boeing Aircraft strike at Seattle, he said he does not believe he could under the law because the strike could not be classed as a national emergency.

Month Old Strike Of Stock Exchange Workers Is Ended

NEW YORK, Apr. 29.—(AP)—A month-long strike against the New York Stock Exchange, marked by numerous strikes and one major clash involving lay-off workers picketing in the street, ended today.

United Financial Employees (AFU) voted at a special meeting to return to work and accept the Exchange's offer of wage increases pending a city investigation of that remaining issue.

M. David Keefe, union president, announced that it was expected employees would return to work today. He said the vote to return work by a show of hands and "a majority of the workers voted for it."

Union estimates placed the number of Stock Exchange employees affected at 950.

Stock Exchange strikers were aided in their picketing by members of the Seafarers International Union and Sailors Union of the Pacific (AFU).

Picketing clashed with police a number of times. Their most spectacular demonstration was staged when pickets lay down in front of the Stock Exchange entrance in their efforts to prevent workers from entering the building. There was a short battle with police and a number of arrests.

McCarty Proposes State Cooperation On Link Highways

Points To Need Of Relief For Cities' Congested Traffic

There will be a meeting of the Dan McCarty-for-Governor club tonight at the City Hall at 8:00 P. M. All friends and supporters of Mr. McCarty for governor are urged to be present.

Dan McCarty, Ft. Pierce gubernatorial candidate, in his second appearance here within a month, yesterday stated that he "recognizes the financial problems confronting our cities" and pledged his support to a program of state cooperation in the construction of "connecting link" highways and roads.

He was introduced by George A. Speer, Seminole County prosecuting attorney, who recalled the days when as boys they had attended a Blue Ridge camp, and declared that Mr. McCarty had established himself as an outstanding citizen, legislator and leader in civic, fraternal and religious affairs.

During the Holland administration, said Speer, Mr. McCarty became the Speaker of the House of Representatives at the age of 29, the youngest in the history of Florida, and has secured the active support of many legislators.

Colored Voters League To Defer Any Endorsements

TITUSVILLE, Apr. 29.—(AP)—Secretary Harry T. Moore of the Progressive Voters League said today his statewide negro organization will "defer any definite endorsement of state candidates" until after the first Florida Democratic primary election next Tuesday.

"Since the present field is so large, it was felt that more unified response can be made by the colored voters for the second primary," he said. However, "the league is sending out information with regard to records of some leading candidates," Moore did not name them.

Hert Bethune, president of the State Negro Elite Association, said the Civil Liberties Committee of his group will meet in Tampa tonight to draw up a list of candidate endorsements.

Both statewide organizations have announced plans to make an effort to get as many as possible of the negro registered Democrats to the polls next Tuesday. Negroes make up less than a tenth of the Democratic registered vote.

Royal Urges Increase In Army's Size

Secretary Of Army Says Nearly 300,000 More Men Are Needed For Defense

WASHINGTON, Apr. 29.—(AP)—Secretary Royal testified today the Army needs 837,000 troops instead of the 790,000 called for in the Administration's "compromise" program. The Army's present force is about 540,000.

The Army Secretary testified before the Senate Appropriations Committee. He said 837,000 is a minimum "based upon present world conditions." He also said the Army needs -- but is not asking -- an extra $2,100,000,000 during the next year if it is to be prepared "to deal with the initial phases of a war."

The Senate committee is considering a $3,198,000,000 House-passed bill to expand the air forces to 70 combat groups. Chairman Bridges (R-NH) said he hoped to have a bill ready for the Senate floor by nightfall.

Royal said it plain that while not opposing the extra funds for the Air Force he is supporting a compromise plan for all three services advanced by Secretary of Defense Forrestal. It calls for 66 air groups.

From Royal's testimony and that of earlier witnesses, this general picture shapes up: Military men are agreed the United States should have a larger military establishment than is proposed in the so-called "compromise" plan.

The compromise is intended to work toward that larger establishment, but by degrees. The argument is that a faster expansion would take too much production from consumers and run up prices.

Royal said an 837,000 man Army would include 12 fully equipped regular combat divisions and six partially equipped National Guard divisions.

"If we wanted to equip them at once it would take 13 1/2 billion dollars but we know we can't get 13 1/2 at once so we work it out on a phase basis over three or four years," he said.

The compromise program contemplates that all defense spending -- for Army, Air Force and Navy -- will total about $14,181,000,000 in the 12 months beginning next July 1.

Russians Threaten To Shoot U. S. Flag

VIENNA, Apr. 29.—(AP)—A Russian threat to shoot the American flag from a Danube excursion steamer was reported by American authorities today. The American-leased steamer, Stadt Passau, broke an oil line and grounded at a point where the Danube separates the American and Russian zones of occupation. American authorities said a Russian naval party came aboard, and demanded the U. S. flag be lowered. The American sergeant in charge refused to lower the flag. The Russians then threatened to shoot it down but withdrew their demand and threat after discussion.

Hope Growing For Accord In Rail Dispute

Leaders Of Railroad Brotherhoods Meet With National Rail Mediation Board

CHICAGO, Apr. 29.—(AP)—Federal mediators and railroad labor chieftains met today in sessions which President Truman said he believes will settle the railroad strike called for May 11.

In Washington Mr. Truman told his news conference the Federal Conciliation Service is working heroically on the prolonged dispute. He said he thought and hoped it would be settled.

At the end of the two-hour morning conference with leaders of three Railroad Brotherhoods, Chairman Frank Douglas of the National (Railway) Mediation Board said he had no doubt that the unions would like to settle without a walkout.

Douglas said he and a mediation board member, Francis A. O'Neill, Jr., are prepared to stay in Chicago "as long as there is a chance to avert a strike." They came to Chicago this morning, Douglas said, of their own volition and not at the direction of Mr. Truman.

The morning session, he added, was devoted to reviewing the situation and determining what had been accomplished in direct negotiations between the Brotherhoods and the Class One railroads. "We have to determine first how far apart the two sides are," Douglas said. "We believe some progress has been made within the last two weeks."

He referred to meetings between the disputants which were reported as inadequate a proposed 15 1/2 cents an hour wage increase. This hike was recommended by a Presidential Fact Finding Board which investigated under protest (Continued on Page Five)

Tom Watson Tells Sanford Voters Of His Candidacy

Attorney General Tom Watson, in a talk this morning on the corner of First Street and Magnolia Avenue in behalf of his candidacy for governor, declared that some of the candidates for governor are now being supported by Governor Caldwell and the present state administration.

He named two of the candidates, Colin English and Dan McCarty, as being favored by the administration, but declared that English had been let down, as could be seen from the expression on supporters' faces when the fact of the let down was mentioned.

The State Beverage Administration, he stated, has quit work and is out campaigning.

On the citrus question, he asserted that present state laws favor large operators, and don't have much regard for the small grower, who takes "what is left." He declared that he could as governor, correct this condition.

He repeated his stand in favor of the open shop for labor, declaring that it receives workers of the tyranny of their leaders. He expressed confidence that he would win the governor's race, citing as his own a poll taken by James Oman's of Ft. Myers, who he said, "guessed right in 1944."

SERVICE EMBLEM

A 25 year service emblem was presented yesterday to Thomas Wilson, colored, of the Atlantic Coast Line in recognition of loyal service during the period, it was reported by ACL officials today.

United Nations Told To Accent Full Responsibility For Palestine Crisis

LAKE SUCCESS, Apr. 29.—(AP)—The Arabs today rejected a French proposal for an international volunteer police force for Jerusalem. The Jews, agreed to the proposal for a 1,000 man elite force to safeguard Jerusalem's holy places under a proposed truce but the Arab rejection dashed hopes for an establishment.

Annual session vice chairman of the Arab Higher Committee for Palestine told the United Nations Trusteeship Council the Arabs object to foreign troops being sent to our country. He said the term trusteeship also meant police.

LAKE SUCCESS, Apr. 29.—(AP)—The United States appealed to the United Nations again today for quick approval of the American plan for U. N. trusteeship over war-torn Palestine.

The American delegation did not refer directly to published reports that the U. S. was considering a new shift in policy.

But U. S. Delegate Philip C. Jessup told the 48 member political committee of the special U. N. Palestine Assembly there had been no change in the American position.

Jessup said he felt the American views could be summed up this way:

1. The United Nations must be prepared to accept full responsibility for Palestine when the British mandate rule ends May 15.
2. A temporary trusteeship appeared to be the proper way for the United Nations to discharge these responsibilities.

Earlier a spokesman for the U. S. delegation had denied the negative reports of a shift in Palestine policy. The reports, published in New York this morning, caused a number of delegates to approach the U. S. representatives for clarification.

The reports followed the appointment yesterday of Maj. Gen. John H. Hilldring as special assistant to Secretary of State Marshall in charge of Palestine affairs.

Hospital Group Is Presented Deed To Naval Property

The Fernald-Laughton Memorial Hospital Association was yesterday presented by the War Assets Administration with a deed to the real and personal property at the Sanford Municipal Airport.

Randall Chase, chairman of the Executive Committee of the board of directors of the Association, said the deed transfers to the Hospital Association the hospital building which it has occupied for a year and a half, two houses known as "quarters" A and "B" and 10 acres of land where the buildings are located.

Edwin Shinholzer, attorney for the Hospital Association, concluded negotiations in Jacksonville yesterday with the WAA, and received the deed. This gives the Association full use of the property for 10 years, if used for hospital purposes. After 10 years of occupancy, the hospital group will receive outright deed to the property. It has been holding an interim permit on the property, equipment included, for some time.

In behalf of the Hospital Association, Mr. Chase today expressed appreciation to Mr. Shinholzer for his "unlimited patience and careful handling of the deal" (Continued on Page Five)

County Judge R. W. Ware, who has occupied his post for the past 11 years, is carrying on his campaign for reelection for another term. John McMillan Is Found Guilty In Second Degree

Negro Is Convicted Of The Slaying Of Colored Preacher

After nearly three hours of deliberation, a jury in Circuit Court Tuesday evening, brought in a verdict of murder in the second degree against John McMillan, negro, who was on trial for the second time, charged with murder in the first degree in connection with the death of D. T. Sutton, negro pastor.

The first trial of John McMillan resulted in a mistrial when the jury, after long deliberation could not agree.

The courtroom was crowded during both trials with colored spectators. The Rev. Sutton died from wounds received when he tried to mediate in a quarrel between negroes in a negro garage on East Fourth Street.

The jury included H. L. Crooms, principal of the Crooms Academy, Judge M. B. Smith, Assistant State Attorney (Continued on Page Five)

Interest In Election Grows As Governor's Race Nears End

Florida's mailmen don't need any reminder of the approaching primary elections. And no one has to tell them the state has an extra-long ballot. They've been distributing the direct-mail appeals of candidates for many days. And the load is getting heavier as the May 4 primary date approaches.

Mailing lists are drawn from many sources. Sometimes a member of a club circulates his fellow members on behalf of his favorite candidate. Big groups with common interests—such as union members, farmers, college alumni and parents of school children get special appeals.

However, candidates put their principal trust in the direct approach. Their campaign speeches continued today with letter writing and circulating only a supplementary activity.

Colin English is scheduled to visit West Palm Beach and Miami. He told Broward county voters yesterday he will cooperate with federal flood control plans.

Jews Capture Beisan But Arabs Reported To Have Captured Jewish Settlement

JERUSALEM, Apr. 29.—(AP)—The British struck with artillery and diving planes today at the battered Mandelbi quarter of Jaffa, which Iqbal Zvi Leumi captured yesterday after four days fighting with the Arabs.

The promised British counter-attack developed as officials of Egypt and Iraq and large parts of their armies were moving on Palestine from Trans-Jordan.

The Jews claimed capture of Beisan, 15 miles south of the Sea of Galilee. Beisan is a way station for Arabs fleeing in from the east for the battle over partition.

The Arab Legion informed King Abdullah in Amman it had occupied Gusher, a Jewish collective settlement in the Jordan valley, and killed hundreds of Jews. The legion said the fight started Tuesday night when Jews killed a legion sentry near Trans-Jordan territory.

Egyptian Communications Minister Hosniel Abou Pasha said in Cairo large Egyptian army forces had been sent to the southern border of Palestine. Recent Abdul Halil of Iraq said in Amman his country's army had started (Continued on Page Five)

Hendricks Attacks 'Wright Delegates' In Daytona Talk

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
Another ally was fired today by the battle for leadership of Florida's delegation to the Democratic National Convention.

At Daytona Beach, Rep. Joe Hendricks (D-Fla.) candidate for delegate at large, assailed his support of General Dwight Eisenhower and threw a punch at Florida Democrats in an endorsement of the fifth district congressman, who is not running for re-election, said in a statement the "Loyal Democrats" group does not have "the exclusive right to intelligence and integrity."

He said "I am convinced that Hendricks would accept the Democratic nomination if it were offered."

State Rep. Charles E. Shennard of St. Augustine and Publisher Paul Hampton of the Fort Myers News-Boat, said in statements Sunday this week that the "Loyal Democrats" who are supporting a movement to draft Eisenhower for the Democratic nomination for president are getting their ammunition and inspiration from Senator Charles McNary (D-Fla.)

Interest In Election Grows As Governor's Race Nears End

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
Florida's mailmen don't need any reminder of the approaching primary elections. And no one has to tell them the state has an extra-long ballot. They've been distributing the direct-mail appeals of candidates for many days. And the load is getting heavier as the May 4 primary date approaches.

Mailing lists are drawn from many sources. Sometimes a member of a club circulates his fellow members on behalf of his favorite candidate. Big groups with common interests—such as union members, farmers, college alumni and parents of school children get special appeals.

IF WE JUDGED OTHERS AS CHARITABLE AS WE JUDGE OURSELVES IT WOULD HELP US TO ATTAIN PERFECTION.
-Cat. 3:14: Put on charity which is the bond of perfectness.
President Truman seems to be doing all right among the Democrats in Pennsylvania and points north.

A recent poll conducted by the Florida Political Survey shows Nathan Mayo leading for Commissioner of Agriculture, Ed Larson leading for state treasurer, Thomas D. Bailey for State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Dick Ervin for Attorney General, and only 34 percent of the Democratic voters of Florida for President Truman.

A telegram from Charles E. Sheppard of Jacksonville, chairman of the Florida Democratic Club, declares in reference to the question of where the various candidates for delegate to the Democratic National Convention stand. "The Wright delegates are pledged by formal resolution to support any true Democrat for President agreed upon by the Southern states."

An increase in Florida real estate values during the next ten years is predicted by the president of the Real Estate Corporation at the University of Florida. Florida will never have another boom, he says, but there will be a steady increase in values because the population of the state is growing and people are buying property, not for speculation, but for actual use.

There are two good men in the race for State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Thomas D. Bailey, formerly of Ocala and Tampa, and Robert C. Marshall of Jacksonville. The third man, Dolley of Miami, we understand, has not had much experience for the job he seeks. Bailey by virtue of his experience in the schools of Ocala and Tampa and his service as secretary for the Florida Educational Association, is probably the best qualified. Marshall has also been a teacher and school superintendent in Duval county.

There are going to be some people voting in the Democratic primary next Tuesday. The official total of registrations throughout the state as revealed by Secretary Gray is 895,309 which is 198,717 more than previous registration peak. In other words, there may be nearly two hundred thousand more votes in this state next week than ever before. How they vote is going to make a lot of difference in the outcome of a number of races. Particularly is this true when over a fourth of these new voters will be negro. Henry Wallace's People's Progressive Party attracted only 1,748, with 48,000 needed to get his name on the ballot.

The Florida Political Survey and Poll, which is probably the most reliable of any of the polls now being made in Florida, reveals in the last count which will be made before the primary that Dan McCarty will be in the runoff with Fuller Warren, and that Dan is steadily making greater gains than even the leading contender. Since Apr. 14 McCarty's share of the total vote has increased from 16 to 19 1/2 percent at the expense of all the others except Warren. "If the election were held today," this survey shows, "there is no doubt that Dan McCarty would get enough votes to be in the runoff." That is, if the primary were held for a week the result would be the same.

Tammany's Worst Foe

Tammany's most dangerous enemy is getting along in years. Samuel Seabury recently celebrated his 75th birthday. A lineal descendant of the first Episcopal bishop in the United States, Seabury was elected some 40 years ago a New York county judge, as a candidate on a Hearst ticket. He graduated in a few years to the court of appeals, the highest court in the state, and in 1916 ran for governor as a Democrat. That party allegiance must seem strange to him now, since for many years Seabury has been out of sympathy with the Democrats and the New Deal. His great achievement was his conduct of the legislative investigation in 1931-32 that revealed the corruption of New York City's Tammany officials. The tin box in which the sheriff of the day kept his ill-gotten gains has become famous in the city's history. Both the sheriff and Mayor James J. Walker were forced out of office, and the scandals elected the reforming Fiorello H. La Guardia mayor for 12 years. New York City was well launched on the path of good government, and for this the main credit must go to Seabury.

Food For The World

At a recent meeting of the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization, members of the International Emergency Food Committee gave warning to the 35 member governments that their work was striking political snags. International politics and national interests are threatening the allocation system, according to the committee's report. The work of this committee includes the allocation of world exports of scarce food supplies, which is handicapped by the fact that some nations participating in the program are making separate trade agreements, motivated either by political affiliations or by self-interest alone. It may take some time for the nations of the world who have hitherto been guided by self-interest alone (and this means all of them) to learn to see the world as a group of economically interdependent units who will stand or fall, eat or starve, live or die together in the future.

Five-Minute Rest Cure

Even a round-the-world cruise won't give you relaxation if you take your worries with you. Go about it properly and you can have intermissions of genuine rest several times during the day. Sit right where you are—at your desk, in your kitchen, or on a bus or train—and try this. 1. Search the muscles of your face, arms, legs and trunk for taut, strained feelings. When you locate them, relax consciously. Let the muscles smooth out. Even when you think you're calm you'll find sets of muscles tight, as if ready for action. 2. Stop directing your thoughts. Let them wander freely, as if you were drifting off to sleep. 3. Let yourself go limp for five minutes, physically and mentally. You need time out from nervous tension every few hours. But you'll have to try a five-minute rest cure yourself to believe anything so simple can be so refreshing. —Robert Tyson in Your Life.

The State Needs McCarty

The election of a governor imposes on the voter one of the gravest responsibilities of citizenship. Because of the high order of the office, its direct relationship to every phase of state government, because of the intimate influence the governor exercises on the progress and development of the state, voters at this May primary should cast their ballots after mature and searching consideration of the various candidates. As the winner at the Democratic primaries on May 4 and May 25 will shortly be a miracle to the contrary—the next governor of Florida, Dade County should consider well the situation. With a registered voting strength estimated at a quarter of all Florida, the voters of this county possess a great political potential. It rests in fact, on the decisive weight to balance the elections one way or the other. This power begets an obligation. We should use it to help the people of Florida select a governor for the coming four years who will be a worthy successor to Governor Caldwell, a man who will advance the state in every department and in every section from Pensacola to Key West. In these circumstances The Herald recommends that you vote for Dan McCarty of Fort Pierce. The times call for a governor of the native ability, capacities and youthful vigor and experience of this distinguished citizen. His family background is rooted in pioneer Florida. His grandfather established the citrus orchards which Mr. McCarty manages at Fort Pierce with his brothers. He's a man of the soil. His love of the good earth has sharpened his perception and appreciation of the great business which is all Florida, whether it be tourist, industrial or agricultural. Dan McCarty is not a professional politician. In fact, those who are handling his campaign are of the new political blood with which he has grown up. He is of that Florida youth that, while fighting itself manfully a few years ago for leadership, went to war and returned from the battle fronts fired with a zeal to devote the rest of their lives of peace in civic service to their country. The Fort Pierce farmer-businessman is an outstanding representative of the type of young manhood which we have been urging, when equipped, to get into public life, to rejuvenate the political system with the newness and the freshness of viewpoint and approach for which these troublous times call. Dan McCarty does not come to the voters of Florida inexperienced in the ways of state government. The record shows: In 1934 he was elected to the Legislature at the age of 24. He served three successive terms. His quiet, forceful character and his manifest ability were quickly sensed by his fellow lawmakers. The 1941 House named him speaker. Thus, at the age of 29 he was the youngest man in the history of Florida to hold this position, third-ranking officer in the state government. He was active in supporting legislation to promote the welfare of our public schools. He acted positively for the interests of agriculture, especially in the establishment of the highly successful state farmers' markets. The field of road safety found him fighting for creation of the state highway patrol. He was in the forefront of the 1939 legislative leaders who defeated sales tax legislation which came nearer to passage at that time than at any other session. Because of his service on Governor Caldwell's Citizens Tax Committee before the 1947 Legislature, Mr. McCarty is undoubtedly as familiar with Florida's complicated tax structure as any public figure in the state. It is significant that large numbers of legislators who served with him at Tallahassee are actively supporting Mr. McCarty. This independent, pressure-free Floridian has battled many of the hobbies that have such a powerful hold on the Legislature. It is an assurance that his administration as governor would be free from their influence. Mr. McCarty is endowed with a strong sense of public service. He believes that no man should go to the people and ask for the office of governor, without having first compiled a record of progressive, intelligent leadership in his own community. Mr. McCarty has such a record. The State of Florida would not suffer or be embarrassed should Colin English, William Shands or Fuller Warren be elected governor. Nevertheless, above all the candidates, The Herald believes that Dan McCarty has the preponderant qualifications, the abilities

Sanford Garden Club Presents Annual Flower Show At Episcopal Parish House

Against a background of deep green trees, bamboo and beautiful multi-colored flowers the Sanford Garden Club presented its annual flower show at the Holy Cross Episcopal Church Parish House yesterday between the hours of 12:00 and 9:00 P. M. The club under the direction of Mrs. A. W. Epps, president, and Mrs. W. A. Fitts, vice president, had created a veritable garden of loveliness in the church building.

Guests were met at the door by a member of the club where they registered and were presented with a small corsage and an attractive program which told of the classifications and points of judging. The cover design for the program was sketched for printing by Mrs. J. M. Moye. Down the center of the long room ran three long tables which held the displays of colorful arrangements. There were 325 entries in the show and 10 exhibitors.

At the end of the tables in front of the stage were entries of luncheon and coffee table arrangements which were entered for competition by the various circles. The stage presented a garden scene with wrought iron table and chairs and laced with small pine trees, bamboo, oleander, palms, Easter lilies, anemones, gardenias and many other beautiful blooms. The front of the stage was banked with white flowers and greenery.

At the sides of the room were displays of hall tables also entered for judging by the circles. The small class rooms were banked with greenery and were devoted to professional displays, dish and wall pictures, rose specimen, potted plants, fruits, vegetable and men's arrangements, perennials, miniature displays and flowering vines and shrubs. Also for the enjoyment of the guests was an educational table placed at one side of the room which displayed many articles for sale such as note paper and candy.

One section of the show was devoted to displays of the Junior Garden Club which included exhibits from all classes from the first grade through the eighth grade. Among the many unusual displays were flowering pomegranate, hemerocallis traveler's palm bloom and leaf or stralita and deep purple hollyhock.

Following the judging it was found that Mrs. Charles Vodopich had won the most number of ribbons. In the rose display Mrs. L. M. Tyre was presented with the blue ribbon, Mrs. C. R. Kirtley, red ribbon and Mrs. John Wilson, white ribbon. Perennials: Mrs. Sanford Doudney, first; Mrs. George McCall, second, and Mrs. A. W. Epps, third; flowering shrubs, vines and trees: Mrs. C. R. Kirtley, first; Mrs. C. L. Redding, second and Mrs. Charles Wilke, third; potted plants: Mrs. Frank Miller, first; Mrs. G. W. Bailey, second, and Mrs. J. C. Truman On UMT

(Continued From Page One) Atomic Energy Commission short new terms in office. He said that would delay atomic energy development. Present terms of the five commissioners run out next Aug. 1. Some Republicans are talking of giving them one or two years more in office instead of staggered new terms up to five years as provided by present law. They reason that a Republican president may take over next year and want to name his own commissioners. Mr. Truman read to a news conference a statement saying that to give the commission short terms would "restore the pall of uncertainty that surrounded atomic development for nearly two years after the Japanese surrender." "Such a proposal," he said, "would have an adverse effect upon the urgent business of pushing ahead in our knowledge and utilization of atomic energy both for use in our economy and for our defense. Asked about other Republican proposals to extend the special trade program for one year, instead of for three as asked by the Administration, the President said that is feasible.

policy and European recovery is based on a longer extension of that program. He agreed with a statement that failure to extend the trade act would make it impossible for Marshall Plan countries to repay that part of the program that is repayable.

Rail Tieup Feared Inevitable As No Accord Is Reached

Chairman Of Federal Mediation Board Says Both Sides Are "Unyielding"

CHICAGO, Apr. 30, (AP)—A federal mediator seeking to head off a nationwide rail tieup reported today both labor and management are "unyielding" in their positions on the wage dispute.

Chairman Frank Douglass of the National (Railway) Mediation Board issued a statement after a morning conference with management representatives. It was his first meeting with the railroads in the current last ditch attempt to avert a strike called for May 11.

"Both sides are unyielding," Douglass told reporters. "I don't know if we can get both sides together for direct negotiation. We might be able to, if we could narrow down the issues."

Before the conference Douglass said that if the strike is averted, it will be only through direct negotiation between the disputants.

"The big difficulty," he said, "is that the unions are demanding..."

Blast In General Electric Lab Hurls Man Thru Window

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Apr. 30 (AP)—An explosion of such force that it blew a worker through a window, rocked an entire floor of the General Electric Company's research laboratory building this afternoon.

The man hurled through the window was not identified immediately. Several others were injured.

The accident occurred shortly before 1:30 P. M. One report said it was on the top floor of the seven-story building, another that it was on the sixth.

The laboratory is engaged in extensive atomic research.

Cause of the explosion was not determined immediately. Neither was the extent of the damage.

All city police and fire equipment was rushed to the scene.

The structure was known as building 37.

Delegates To Lions Convention Named

King Lion W. O. Livingston, who made the announcement today at the meeting of the Sanford Lions Club at the Tourist Center, will serve as an alternate. No other alternates have been named to date, he stated.

Preliminary plans were discussed for a picnic to be given by the club for members of the Junior Baseball League, two weeks after the end of the playing season, and following the All Star game. Receipt of used baseballs donated by clubs training here and made available through the courtesy of John Krider, was announced, and Secretary Hisebe was directed to write a letter of appreciation to Mr. Krider for this service.

Air Secretary, Truman Agree On Defenses

70-Group Air Force Legislation Hits Snag As Several Senators Object

WASHINGTON, Apr. 30, (AP)—Secretary of the Air Force Symington said today there are "no differences" between him and President Truman over defense.

He made that statement when he left the White House after what he said was a "friendly conference" with Mr. Truman. Symington has plugged in Congress for a 70-group Air Force while the administration's defense program calls for a 60-group one.

At the capitol, House-approved legislation for the 70-group force ran into a minor snag in the Senate. Senator Wherry (R-Nebr.), acting Republican leader, said several senators objected to taking the bill up before tomorrow. Backers had hoped for action today.

The House Armed Services Committee made progress on another defense measure. Chairman Andrews (R-NY) said it had completed work on a bill to revive the draft temporarily and will take a formal vote Monday.

Under the bill, all men aged 18 through 30 would register. Those from 19 through 25 would be liable for two years' service. Most veterans would be exempt.

Andrews said the bill contains...

New Photo Studio Opens In Sanford

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Bremer, well-known photographers in Orlando and Winter Park, announced the opening of a studio in a suite of rooms in the Woodruff Building to be known as Perry Studio.

Mr. and Mrs. Bremer have bought a home at Lake Mary having come to Florida last June. At that time Mr. Bremer became operator of the Tooley-Myron Studio in Orlando, and Mrs. Bremer was operator for the Paramount Studio of that city.

Later they established their own business in Winter Park. Immediately they were chosen as official photographers for the Rollins College Year Book, which they have just completed.

The Perry Studio here offers a complete photographic service, including portraiture, commercial work, kodak finishing and a photo-station service of legal papers and documents. Prompt service and fine equipment characterize this new addition to Sanford's business district.

Law Against Office Seekers Speaking Near Polls Explained

The office-seekers can buttonhole you when and where they like through this weekend, but when you go to vote next Tuesday they're going to have to keep their distance.

Rigid laws designed to speed up the voting and discourage last-minute high pressure tactics govern Florida primary elections.

It is illegal to distribute any political literature or to solicit votes within 100 yards of a polling place on election day.

Anyone who hands out pictures or literature against any candidate "at or near" a polling place may find himself subject to a fine or jail sentence.

No one except voters and officials may come within 15 feet of any door or window of a polling place during the election. The same rule holds good while the votes are being counted, except that the election inspectors must allow as many as three persons near enough to watch and see that the ballots are being tallied correctly.

A deputy sheriff must be stationed at each polling place to help keep order, but—except when he votes himself—he may not enter the place without permission of two of the three poll inspectors. Neither may any other police officer.

Just to be sure the Army doesn't pull off a Latin American-style coup d'etat by taking over the polls, an old Florida law provides a fine for any officer who calls out the militia on election day except to stop an invasion or insurrection. However, a civil magistrate may request an officer to muster his troops for suppression of a riot or to keep general order.

So there isn't much chance that you will be lathered when you go to the polls on election day.

Anyway, at the rate candidates are moving, most of them are calling to muster his troops for suppression of a riot or to keep general order.

The candidates for governor are trying to make every minute count by concentrating their appeals in the larger cities and over the radio by look-up and transcription.

Don McCarty is in Pinellas county today. Last night at Tampa he said "as an employer I have a fair and impartial record toward labor in the legislature and in business. I will work to promote smooth and workable relations between labor and management."

21 Pan-American Nations Agree On Security Pledge

BOGOTA, Colombia, Apr. 30, (AP)—The 21 American Republics agreed to sign today a charter pledging united efforts to keep hemisphere peace and security.

They approved also other agreements, including pronouncements against Communism and colonialism. These are to be signed also at the final plenary session.

The delegates voted their unanimous approval of the charter by using a large crowd of spectators applauded the display of unity.

Eduardo Zuleta Angel, conference president, declared the charter "marks an epoch for Pan Americanism."

Helmeted soldiers with fixed bayonets guarded the chamber of the conference, which was interrupted three weeks ago by bloody rioting.

Most delegates agreed that the results of the month-long conference were satisfactory.

Eduardo Zuleta Angel of Colombia, conference president, declared the results "surpassed our fondest hopes."

William D. Pawley, U. S. delegate, told newsmen "I will be glad to challenge anyone who attempts to define this Bogota conference as anything but a magnificent success and a great achievement in the spirit of American solidarity."

Children's Board Discourages Picking Up Young Hitch-Hikers

TALLAHASSEE Apr. 30 (AP)—Giving rides to youngsters hitch-hiking from one state to another may not be an act of kindness. The Florida Children's Commission says many of them are runaways—in spite of the plausible stories they usually have on tap to tell generous motorists.

A child generally has what he considers a good reason for running away. But the commission's research is "of the opinion that the nearer children stay to their own homes, the better are their chances of receiving understanding help in solving their problems."

It's asking members of county children's committees whether they think classification of hitch-hiking as an act of delinquency would help to meet the problem it creates.

Densens of children thumb rides into Florida annually. Some of them aren't even in their teens. When they arrive in their destination—usually the big resort centers—they're frequently without resources. Too young in many cases to get jobs, they often get into trouble instead.

What's the solution? It's difficult to say. A Florida law covering the situation might be observed by Floridians. But the out-of-state tourists who most frequently are the ones to pick up hitch-hiking children probably wouldn't be familiar with Florida statutes.

A nationwide campaign against the practice might help to keep the children at home. But that in itself wouldn't be a basic solution.

What executive Secretary Sylvia Carothers of the Children's Commission would like to see is correction of the situation which makes youngsters want to run away in the first place.

"Nationwide concern about the welfare of our children is needed," she declares.

Italian Labor Asked To Buck Red Labor Grip

Socialists' Manifesto Says Labor Is Endangered By Identification With Reds

ROME, Apr. 30, (AP)—Italy's Independent Socialists called upon Italian labor today to revolt against Communist domination in the powerful General Confederation of Labor.

The anti-Communist Socialists issued a May Day manifesto declaring Italy's labor movement is endangered by its identification with the Communists and consequent opposition to the Marshall Plan for European Recovery.

The Independent Socialists, under Giuseppe Saragat, emerged as a strong force in Italy's national election, winning third place after the Christian Democrats and the Communist-led Popular Front.

"The attitude of the Communists and the Fascists (the pro-Communist Socialists under Pietro Nenni) has imposed upon Italian syndicates Communist hostility to the European reconstruction plan," the manifesto said.

"It is in the interests of the workers to accept this plan in order to be able to control its operation to the benefit of labor."

Since the Communist defeat in Italy's parliamentary election, the 5,775,000-member confederation has been threatened with a wide split over two issues: The Marshall Plan and the strike as a political weapon.

Giuseppe di Vittorio, Communist first secretary of the confederation, has conformed closely to Communist policy over the protests of non-Communist members. But after the election, Di Vittorio hinted that Italy's Communists might abandon opposition to the Marshall Plan.

Church Council Calls On Truman And U. S. To Check Forces Of War

WASHINGTON, Apr. 30 (AP)—The Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America today called upon President Truman and the nation to "check the forces that have pushed mankind to the brink of international conflict."

The council made its appeal in a statement—"A positive program for peace"—for presentation to Mr. Truman at the White House. The statement, prepared by a council committee headed by John Foster Dulles, was approved by the Federal Council's Executive Committee last Monday.

The statement condemned "complicity about war." It urged the American people to move toward specific goals for peace, including increased economic well-being throughout the world, and recommended that diplomatic avenues between Russia and the U.S. be kept open and used.

The church leaders said the 25 member denominations of the Protestant Interchurch Organization are determined to exert their combined strength to avert a new war.

National military strength, the statement said, is necessary while laying the foundation for peace, but "the American people in conformity with the principle of Democratic government, should not permit policy making to pass predominantly into the hands of those who think primarily in military terms as seems to be the

Western German State Is Planned By U. S., 5 Allies

DIPLOMATS SAY CONGRESS SIMILAR TO U. S. WILL BE ESTABLISHED

LONDON, Apr. 30, (AP)—Diplomats reported today the United States and the five nations of the Western European alliance have agreed to set up a Western German government this year. It would have broad control powers over domestic affairs.

Defense ministers of the alliance—Great Britain, France, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg—today started planning their action together should war but the split continent. British government sources said their secret agenda was based on the assumption of substantial support soon from the U.S.

The plan for Western Germany was reported tentative. Diplomats said a two-branch Congress, comparable to that of the United States, would be established by Sept. 1 to take over law making.

This would be followed by a gradual assumption of authority over internal affairs within Western Germany. The occupation powers, the U.S., Britain and France, would retain supervision over German foreign policy, exports and imports, the informants said.

Informed sources said, that in general terms, the defense ministers here will discuss standardization of arms, development of a network of air bases with common equipment, fixed quotas for training, and maintaining a de-

New Withholding Tax Rates Become Effective May 1

New withholding tax rates, reduced by the 1948 Revenue Act, become effective Saturday.

Internal Revenue Collector John L. Fahn said his office yesterday completed the job of mailing circulars to all employers in Florida explaining the new regulations and including payroll period tables.

The new schedule of exemptions for taxes becomes effective with respect to wages paid on or after May 1, the collector said, explaining that wage earners who receive their pay checks this Saturday are entitled to benefits of the new rates.

Although the withholding tax features of the revenue act is not effective until May 1, Collector Fahn said the reduced tax rates are retroactive to January 1 and said where overpayments are made during the year they will be recouped when final income tax returns are filed beginning next January.

The old W-4 forms, which employees execute to give family status, may remain in full force and effect unless the employee is entitled to additional exemptions because of age or blindness. Collector Fahn said. The act, he stated, provides added benefits for an employee if he or his wife (or her husband) will reach the age of 65 by the end of the year.

If additional exemptions are to be claimed for reason of age or blindness, a new W-4 form must be executed and Collector Fahn said such forms will be furnished by his office upon request.

Jews Penetrate Each End Of Strategic Quarter Dominating Southern Part

DAMASCUS, Syria, Apr. 10 (AP)—An Arab news agency report received here tonight from Amman said Arab troops of Iraq and Trans-Jordan entered Palestine at 1 P. M. No further details were available here.

JERUSALEM, Apr. 30, (AP)—Jews seized Arab strongpoints in the southern part of Jerusalem today in a bloody battle. An Arab military leader admitted to 30 dead.

Word spread that "the battle of Jerusalem is on," while other Jewish forces all but isolated the main Arab part of Jaffa.

The Jerusalem fighting still raged at sunset. The Jews penetrated in strength at each end of strategic Katamon quarter, dominating the southern part of the Holy City.

Haganah, the Jewish militia, said the Jews lost 15 dead and 37 wounded in the battle, and estimated Arab casualties at 50 dead.

The Haganah fighters, in control of St. Simon's monastery, said Haganah would guard the area and return it to the Greek Orthodox Church. But the communiqué added: "It must be pointed out, however, that the monastery in recent weeks was not a legitimate holy place but the headquarters of Arab fighters." The British and Arab leaders confirmed this.
