

Downtown Office .Is Rented By SIC

Sanford Industrial Commission director David Kelley is getting a new office downtown in Lakeview Plaza.

be in the "center of things."

Kelley explained that present Sanford Airport quarters are cramped and since he wanted to develop other industrial areas, along with the airport, a downtown office would be

$2,000 a year with an additional $45 monthly charge for utilities.

It was estimated by A. K. Shoemaker, SIC chairman, that an additional $600 would be required for installation of office improvements to the structure. Southward indicated he would install carpets at no charge to the SIC. On a motion by W. E. Knowles, Florida Federation of Art will introduce the May Exhibit, "Rediscovering Florida - Past & Present" at DeBary Hall, with a reception on Sunday at 2-5 p.m. Misses Dorothy and Mildred Kaucher, Lake Wales, will host the reception. Hampton Dunn, Tampa, wellknown through his syndicated newspaper column, "Photo-Touring Florida," will give a slide-illustrated lecture at 3 p.m. entitled "Florida from the Huguenots to the Astronauts!" Dunn is a member of such historical groups as Florida Historical Society and the Florida Association of Southern Florida. He is a regular contributor to "Florida Trend Magazine" and other publications, and has recently written a book, "Rediscover Florida", which he will be happy to autograph on Sunday at the Hall. This book is illustrated with photographs and vignettes of interest to all Floridans and prospective or part-time Floridans.

In keeping with May's theme, "Rediscovering Florida," Charles Phillips, gallery chairman, is preparing a representation of Florida's history. Artist members have painted pictures lepicting historical scenes and attempted comeback in the ring. After a five-year absence he fielder, Bill Cameron, slammed a single to left field. began his comeback Monday night with the first of a series of Bill Webber walked, and after the pitcher, Bruce Kom-

The site was the Eustis Armory, The exhibition followed an amateur card presented by Sanford promoter R. G. Kon-Z dracki. McTier fought six rounds of exhibition. Three were with Sanford's Gary Fryer and the other three were with Tiger Brown of Orlando.

McTier started out slow. He admitted that the first two rounds of his exhibition didn't please him. "I got my second wind after those first two rounds," he commented. Then he added, "By the time the sixth was over I wanted to go 10."

In the final of the three rounds with Fryer, McTier came alive. He pounded Fryer till the Sanford heavyweight lost his head protector. Fryer retaliated and caught McTier with a good one, causing him to lose his mouthpiece.

They slugged it out until the bell with both men staying on their fect at all times. Afterwards, McTier commented that he thought Fryer had a lot of potential. "With some work that boy could be a fighter. He's got the size and he certainly hits hard enough."

Then McTier, fighting strong for a 38-year-old, went to it with Brown. McTier, who tips the scales at 225 pounds, was fighting like the out-of-condition fighter he was, but was looking better as the sparring session progressed.

The first two rounds with Brown were nothing more than ly he came alive. Brown came out of his corner with out his head protector. McTier, not to be out-done, stopped the fight long enough to remove his. Then the two went through the wildest slugfest of the night.

McTier commented that if he had known that his agent's scout was in the crowd sooner, he would have fought like that all night. "If it had been a real fight, you wouldn't even had

After a few more exhibitions, McTier would like a fight with Willie Betmonoff. In the real near future, McTier hopes pion. "He's 38 too, so we'll be fighting for Medicare," laughed McTier. But he added that he would have to be in good enough condition to knock him out, explaining that in England they don't use a points system, only a single referee.

McTier is a former sparring partner of the likes of Rocky Mariciano, Cassius Clay, and Floyd Paterson. He concluded, "I was just coasting tonight; anyone that would get in the ring with the "Rock-buster" has got to be ready."

In the real near future, Kondracki hopes to bring similar bouts to Sanford. There is a good possibility that McTier would fight another exhibition then.

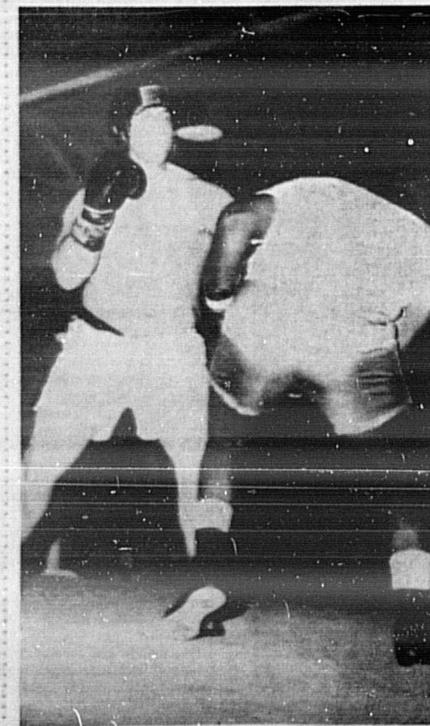

Eustis Monday Especially impressive was Victor Perez. Coming into the ring the first time in three years, the 21-yearold from Lake Mary upped his life-time record to 16-1-1. Victor weighs in at 153 pounds. He took the match over Oliver Thomas of Daytona Beach on a split decision of the -judges. Thomas had a reach advantage over Victor.

Sanford to set up a ring, he plans to bring fights here. It was a rather disappointing crowd in Eustis, though there were several people there from Sanford. It was raining Hinson, who didn't fight Monday, goes to SJC.
