CAMOMEL CAUSE OF SHEPARD'S SUDDEN DEATH?

DEFENSE TO TRY TO SHOW MEDICINE CHANGED TO POISON

MACON, Dec. 16.—Cross-examination of Dr. Everhart, Atlanta chemist, indicated here today that the defense in the Shepard "poison" case might try to show that the wealthy Houston county man died from use of camomel which a chemical change had turned to poisonous mercury product. Dr. Everhart, the first of 42 witnesses called by the state having testified that mercurial poison was found in the viscera of Fred Shepard, he was asked by John P. Ross of counsel for the defense, if druggists did not have to take precautions to prevent the sun and air turning camomel into corrosive sublimate of mercury. The witness admitted that unless care was taken the medicine might turn into a poisonous product. Counsel for the defense called only a few witnesses but indicated they would use a number of medical experts on their side.

Later Dr. Everhart stated it had never been demonstrated that chemical action of the body had turned camomel into corrosive sublimate. "Although," he added, "some authorities claim it does."

Counsel for the defense mentioned medical authorities by which they sought to uphold their theory of such a claim. It also was brought out by the witness that examination of the Shepard eliminative organs did not show poison, but that on the second examination of the body the poison was found in the intestines.

Possibilities of the "blind tiger" liquor causing death by poison were mentioned by Walter A. Harris, in cross-examination of Dr. Everhart. "I never made any 'blind tiger' liquor," the chemical expert replied, when asked if potash was not used in it. He admitted later he had made tests of such liquor on request of friends, but found no potash.

Mrs. Alice Crandall, Fort Valley, Shepard's sister, agreed to pay for the chemical analysis of his viscera.

Your Income Tax Returns The Latest Wrinkle in Nightmares Smoothed Out

Extensive plans for aiding taxpayers in filing their income tax returns for the year 1920 are being made by the Bureau of Internal Revenue. Revenue officers will visit every county in the United States to assist in making out the forms. The date of their arrival and the location of their offices will be announced through the press, or may be obtained on inquiry at offices of collectors of internal revenue and branch offices. The services of government experts heretofore offered to city experts will be continued.

Forms for filing 1920 returns of income tax will be sent by collectors to persons who last year filed a return. Failure to receive a form, however, does not relieve a person from his obligation of filing a return within the time prescribed. Copies may be obtained from offices of collectors of internal revenue, branch offices, postoffices and banks, and are expected to be available on or before January 1st.

Revenue officers assigned to the work of assistant taxpayers also will be supplied with forms, concerning which, and the various items of income to be included, they will be prepared to answer any and all questions. It has been demonstrated, however, that many questions may be eliminated of the taxpayer, before seeking the assistance of a revenue officer, will carefully study the instructions on the form.

The period for filing returns is from January 1st to March 15, 1921. The tax this year as last, may be paid in full at the time of filing the return or in four installments, the first of which is due on or before March 15th, the second on or before June 15th, the third on or before September 15th, and the fourth on or before December 15th. The first installment must accompany the filing of the return.

Persons whose individual net income for 1920 was $5000 and less should ask for Form 140-A. Those whose individual net income was in excess of $5000 should ask for Form 1040.

The Bureau of Internal Revenue is urging taxpayers not to delay in the filing of their returns. Merchants and business men are casting up their accounts for the calendar year 1920. With the facts and figures necessary to make a correct return free his minds, the taxpayer in filing their income tax returns out of a form soon after January 1st will be an easier task, the bureau points out than if delayed.

The requirements of the revenue act relating to returns for the year 1920 are the same as those for the year 1919. Every single person whose net income for 1920 was $1,000 or more and every married person whose net income was $2000 or more must file a return. The exemptions are $1000 for single persons and $2000 for married persons and heads of families, plus an additional exemption of $200 for each person dependent upon the taxpayer for chief support if such person is under 18 years of age or incapable of self support. A single person may claim an exemption of $2000 as the head of a family if he is the sole support of one or more relatives living in the same household with him, and if he exercises control over household affairs. Deductions from gross income to which the taxpayer is entitled in arriving at net income are fully explained in the instructions on the forms.

The bureau is emphasizing this year that the requirement to file a return rests solely upon a person's marital status and the amount of his or her net income for the year 1920. Single persons whose net income was $1000 or more and married persons whose net income was $2,000 or more must file a return regardless of whether their incomes are non-taxable by reason of their exemptions.

The normal tax rate for 1920 is 4 per cent on the first $4000 of net income above the exemption, and 18 per cent on the remaining net income. The surtax rate, which is computed without the benefit of the exemption, ranges from 1 per cent on the amount of net income between $500 and $600 to 65 per cent on the amount of net income in excess of $1,000,000.

For the information of taxpayers in filing their returns, there has been prepared by the Bureau of Internal Revenue a series of short articles on the income tax laws and 1920 regulations, the first of which will appear on January 22d. Errors heretofore made have been noted, and the taxpayer is told how this year they may be avoided.

SANFORD DAIRIES SCORED BY STATE BOARD HEALTH INSPECTOR, D. P. OSBORNE

Dairies of Sanford Received Official Score Yesterday

SOME IMPROVEMENT

EVERY PLACE THAT SELLS MILK MUST SCORE 60 PER CENT TO GET A PERMIT

Pinehurst Dairy, P. M. Keely, owner, 95 per cent. Few better dairies anywhere. A credit to any city. G. W. Spencer Dairy, 75 per cent; very good and will be better. Mrs. R. L. Garrison's Dairy, 63 per cent; some improvement. Mrs. M. F. Barnes' Dairy, 60 per cent; some improvement. Roseland Dairy, J. C. Staple, owner, 58 per cent. C. E. Henry's Dairy, 42 per cent; improvements being made.

The State Board of Health requires a percentage of 60 per cent before recommending issuing of permit to sell milk in the city. Mr. Osborne states very plainly that it makes no difference whether the dairy has one cow or several hundred, they all come under the same rulings of the State Board of Health. In order to sell milk, butter milk or butter, whether it be to private families, hotels or stores, a permit from the city clerk is necessary. Such permits not to be issued until the Dairy is scored at least 60 per cent. Mr. Osborne not wishing to put anyone out of business has suggested that a temporary permit be issued to those who are showing some disposition to put their dairies in first class sanitary condition. However after he returns, which will be in a few weeks, no one will be allowed to sell milk or other dairy products in the city unless their dairies come up to the required 60 per cent. All persons furnishing hotels or boarding houses, cafes, drug stores or private families with dairy products please take notice and be governed accordingly.

Mr. Osborne was highly pleased with the improvements some of our dairy owners had made since his last visit and says that there's no reason why they all can't get higher scores.

COLLECTORS OF TAXES IN OCALA

TAX COLLECTORS OF FLORIDA HAVE GOOD MEETING AT OCALA

The Tax Collectors' Association of the State of Florida assembled in annual session in Ocala, Fla., December 14th and 15th, and was well attended. Hon. J. Will Yon, State Auditor, was present by invitation and gave the tax collectors many valuable suggestions for the handling of their work; he expressed gratification at the good condition of the accounts of the tax collectors of the state and his appreciation of their co-operation with his department, he stated that the accounts of the various collectors are better kept and in better shape now than at any time in the history of the state. The State Auditor is arranging to install a bookkeeping machine in his office, and send each collector a statement of his accounts each month, which will be greatly appreciated by the collectors. As a matter of fact a resolution was passed two years ago by this association recommending that the State Auditor be given a sufficient number of assistants to enable him to make a thorough audit of each tax collector's account at least once a year and this was done by the last legislature.

Among matters of interest brought before this meeting was the question of a better revenue law, it being the belief of the tax collectors that those who have to administer and enforce the tax laws are in a position to make suggestions to our lawmakers in regard to improvements and changes that are badly needed, and a committee for this purpose was appointed, consisting of W. W. Stripling of Marion county, W. E. Martin of Orange county, Jno. D. Jinkins of Seminole county and W. G. Long of Lake county.

It was the unanimous opinion of this association that the time for the payment of licenses and taxes should not be changed, as the tax paper generally throughout the state receive their returns for citrus fruits, vegetables and farm products in the fall and spring, and at present they can pay their taxes at any time from November 1st to March 31st, or by paying the slight cost of advertising can take until the first of June before the land is sold for taxes, making seven months of the year in which taxes can be paid. Any change in these dates would be a grave error and would result in endless confusion and hardship on the part of the tax payer.

The tax collectors present expressed their unqualified approval of the action of President Murphree in his endeavor to stamp out the practice of hazing in the State University at Gainesville.

Resolutions of appreciation were adopted for the courtesies extended this association by the press of the state, the mayor and people of Ocala,

TRANSPORTATION COMMITTEE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HAS IMPORTANT MEETING

Railroad Officials and Shippers Will Work Plan FOR BETTER SERVICE

AND MORE KNOWLEDGE REGARDING PLACING OF CARS FOR SHIPPERS

(From Saturday's Daily)

The meeting of the Traffic and Transportation Committee of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce was held in the Palm Room of the Valdez Hotel yesterday evening. This meeting was called particularly to settle the various transportation problems confronting Sanford shippers. Mr. D. C. Marlowe, chairman of the committee, presided and the following members representing the northern produce houses were also present: A. N. Bahamm of James Tozzi & Co., New York; T. C. Ginney, Thos. Fornataro with Frank Gargiulo, New York; J. C. Hutchinson, manager Sanford Truck Growers; W. B. Ahern, Ahern Brokerage Company, Chicago; J. G. Michael, secretary and treasurer of Southern Truck Growers; W. E. Lewis, J. L. Culvert, Philadelphia, Pa.; Geo. W. Tull with R. E. Cochran, New York. Mr. Ball and Mr. Deas represented the Board of Governors of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce at the meeting. Mr. T. L. Dumas, superintendent of the A. C. L., attended the meeting and was given an opportunity to hear the various expressions of those present relative to the subjects under discussion. The committee took up the matter of delays in transit and detailed instances will be submitted by the committee to the railroad. The question of extending the loading and unloading time was discussed and it was decided to leave the matter as it now stands. The committee has received numerous complaints from shippers regarding their inability to secure satisfactory information relative to the time they can expect the placing of cars and a motion was adopted to the effect that the A. C. L. be requested to allocate some particular man to give this important service. The question of issuing diversion confirmations in bill of lading form promptly upon surrender of original bill of lading on cars destined to diversion points was discussed and Mr. Dumas agreed that this should be done and will take the necessary steps to see that the shippers receive this service. Mr. Dumas assured the committee that the A. C. L. is desirous of extending the fullest possible cooperation to Sanford growers and shippers and that it has always been his policy to work along these lines. Mr. Marlowe, on behalf of the committee, assured Mr. Dumas that the committee desired to co-operate with the transportation company along the same lines, but said that from the numerous complaints which the committee has been receiving, believes that the growers and shippers have not had the service from the railroad that the business from this section warrants.

The secretary is still waiting for the members to return committee questionnaires. Please do not delay this any longer that possible.

NO TEN DAYS OF GRACE ON FOURTH INSTALLMENT OF INCOME TAXES

James M. Cathcart, Collector of Internal Revenue, Sends Out Timely Notice to all Interested.

JACKSONVILLE, Dec. 11.—With Wednesday of next week, December 15, as the last day for the payment of the fourth installment of the income and excess profits taxes due this year, James M. Cathcart calls attention of all who have such taxes to pay, to the fact that while heretofore the government has allowed ten days of grace as provided for in the 1917 Act, that this grace period was removed by the 1918 Act, and, therefore, no extension of time can be granted for payment of these taxes when due.

"I have just received the notice from the treasury department," said Mr. Cathcart yesterday. "As there may be many who thought they had the ten days of grace allowed as heretofore, I wish to call their attention and also that of all others interested, that the grace period will not be permitted this time. The tax must be paid on or before December 15.

To avoid penalty the tax must be in the Office of the Collector of Internal Revenue or branch office, or mailed, by midnight of December 15.

"Inquiries reaching my office indicate a belief that taxpayers have ten days of grace on this installment. Such provision was contained in the 1917 Revenue Act, but was removed by the Revenue Act of 1918.

"Payment of the fourth installment may be made in cash or by money order or check. The Bureau of Internal Revenue requests that whenever possible payment be made by check and thus avoid congestion at the cashier's window. Check or money order should be made payable to 'Collector of Internal Revenue'."

"Bills," said Mr. Cathcart, "will be sent to taxpayers who owe a balance, but failure to receive the bill does not relieve the taxpayer of his obligation to pay on time."

Postoffice receipts for November, 1920, in the city of Tampa, showed an increase of $13,200 over those of November, 1919, in spite of the various factors tending to hold down the figures on all fiscal records.

If you convince a man against his will you may have to do it over again next day.

PUBLIC DEMANDS THAT BUSINESS ADVERTISE

Modern business depends upon many things; the most important of which is advertising was not essential to commercial success, today it is, because the leading concerns throughout the country have adopted it as the most satisfactory and economical method of reaching the public, and the smaller concerns have been forced to follow the lead of their progressive competitors.

The art of advertising has been developed to such an extent that the buying public is suspicious of an organization that does not advertise. Maybe this is fair, maybe not; but it is a cold fact.

"Flare advertising" attracts, although consistent advertising is the most profitable in the long run. Recently we heard this conversation, which is illustrative of the point: "If you inherited ten million dollars and decided to buy your wife the finest diamond ring on sale, where would you go to purchase it?" asked one man of his friends.

Without hesitation the friend named a jewelry establishment in New York.

"Why?"

"Well, in the first place, it is the only large jewelry concern I know anything about."

"What do you know about it?"

"Oh, I have been reading its advertisements for years!" and he considered that proof enough of its business integrity.

A soft drink concern started out in Atlanta with a capital of $50,000. It advertised regularly and attractively. It kept its name constantly before the public eye. It overlooked no opportunity to reach the people. In a recent statement it was disclosed that it had increased its assets by $1,370,000 since the previous statement, and it is now worth $6,572,647. It has $3,283,000 in real estate and a surplus of $2,924,898.

An automobile corporation reports increased sales of over $13,000,000 for the past year. Credit is given to advertising. A cereal company which advertises extensively reports a gain of $1,356,972 in gross earnings. This is an increase of sixty-seven per cent in two years.

A biscuit company last year decreased its advertising appropriation. In one year profits shrank from $731,172 to $422,371.

Truthful advertising is being demanded more and more by the public, and advertisers realize the advantage of honest representation. The fake advertiser is fast becoming a type of the past. He cannot compete with the houses that have proved repeatedly their policies of rigid adherence to the facts.

Experience's answer to the old question, "Does advertising pay?" is in the affirmative. It does pay. Furthermore, it is absolutely essential. The public demands it.—Jacksonville Metropolis.

CHANCE FOR US

A Paris caterer has opened up a new scope of employment for men with bald heads.

He uses them as perambulatory advertisements for his restaurant, the name of which is inscribed in bold letters on their hairless pate.

The late Sir George Newnes of Tit-Bits, very early in his career, hit upon this idea, and advertised for eight bald-headed men to sit in the front row of the stalls of a London theatre with the title of his journal imprinted on their craniums.

It would have been a first-class publicity stunt, but out of consideration for the bald-headed men the scheme was abandoned.

USE SLOAN'S TO WARD OFF PAIN

You can just tell by its healthy, stimulating odor, that it is going to do you good.

"If I only had some Sloan's Liniment!" How often you've said that! And then when the rheumatic twinge subsided—after hours of suffering—you forgot it!

Don't do it again—get a bottle today and keep it handy for possible use tonight! A sudden attack may come on—sciatica, lumbago, sore muscles, backache, stiff joints, neuralgia, the pains and aches resulting from exposure. You'll soon find warmth and relief in Sloan's, the liniment that penetrates without rubbing. Clean, economical. Three sizes—3c, 70c, $1.40.

Truthful advertising is being demanded more and more by the public, and advertisers realize the advantage of honest representation. The fake advertiser is fast becoming a type of the past. He cannot compete with the houses that have proved repeatedly their policies of rigid adherence to the facts.

Experience's answer to the old question, "Does advertising pay?" is in the affirmative. It does pay. Furthermore, it is absolutely essential. The public demands it.—Jacksonville Metropolis.

POSTMASTERS HOLD OVER

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 11.—Appointment of W. L. Straub as postmaster of St. Petersburg for another term of four years came as a severe jolt yesterday to several Republicans who were grooming themselves for the job. It was the general impression here that Mr. Straub's time would not expire until next summer, when the new president assumes office, and several leaders in the newly organized Republican party here were making a place to get the federal job. When they learned from The Tribune this morning that Mr. Straub had been appointed to another term there was consternation. Mr. Straub was appointed July 21, 1916, but did not take office until Sept. 6 of that year. Technically, the office had been vacant since July 21 last, so the appointment which was made yesterday was expected. R. S. Hanna, Republican postmaster here, held office for three years and six months after President Wilson went into office, so that now the Democratic appointee will hold for nearly four years of a Republican administration.

ROD AND GUN CLUB ORGANIZED LAST NIGHT WITH 76 MEMBERS SIGNED

Voted to Purchase Property on Lake Front

WILL INCORPORATE

AND START BEAUTIFUL BUILDING AT ONCE WITH BASIN FOR BOATS

(From Tuesday's Daily)
At the organization of the Rod and Gun Club meeting held in the court house last night 76 members had enrolled their names as stockholders in the corporation. The Rod and Gun Club has been fostered by the "13" Club who sent out committees last week and had set the figure at 100 members but as it was near holiday time and many of the prospective members were out of town they have not been seen and the meeting last night looked like 150 members will be enrolled by the time the club is ready to operate. Col. G. W. Knight, chairman of the "13" Club presided at the meeting and stated the object and then called for an election of officers which resulted as follows:

Dr. S. Puleston, president; Judge E. F. Housholder, vice-president; W. M. Haynes, secretary and treasurer. The following board of governors or directors were elected:

R. C. Bower, Geo. W. Knight, F. Eugene Roumillat, A. R. Key, Edward Higgins and G. D. Bishop.

The governors were instructed to proceed with the organization and incorporation and as soon as this is accomplished the work of construction of a fine building and boat basin will be begun on the property recently purchased of J. D. Hood and for which the deal was closed last night by paying cash for the lot. This property is on Chapman avenue near the John Russell home and has several hundred feet on the water front that will be bulkheaded into a boat basin and a fine club house will be erected on the lake shore for the tourists and visitors and for a general assembly and meeting place for home-folks. This is one of the most important moves that has been made in this city in many years and means that at last Sanford will take advantage of her fine water front and make it an inducement for tourists to come to Sanford with their fine yachts and where they can not only have hundreds of miles of good water for boating and fishing and hunting but they can be assured of a safe harbor at all times of the year for their boats and in fresh water where the insects that ruin their boats on salt water do not abound. In fact Sanford offers and will offer more to the pleasure-loving tourist with this new Rod and Gun Club than any city in Central Florida. It is already recognized as the sportsmen's paradise and all that was needed was the club house and boat basin and now that these are assured this city will become the mecca for the tourists who want to see the real Florida by boat.

"BILL" HEALEY DEAD; BURIED AT LONGWOOD

W. R. Healey, for many years an employee on the train service of the Florida East Coast railroad and one of the best known conductors on the road, died Sunday morning in the railroad hospital in St. Augustine, where he had been a patient for several weeks. Mr. Healey had been in poor health for about two years, and though his death was not unexpected, the announcement that the end had come came as a shock to his many friends here.

Affected with lung trouble following a severe cold, Mr. Healey went west and spent nearly a year at Colorado Springs, returning to New Smyrna much improved in health. Not long after his return, however, the old trouble returned and he made several trips to North Carolina and was finally removed to the railroad hospital.

The remains were taken from St. Augustine to his old home at Longwood, Fla., accompanied by his widow and his father and mother, the funeral services were held at Longwood Tuesday afternoon. The services were attended by a number of friends from this city, among them being Dr. D. Forster, D. P. Smith, K. Hildreth, F. S. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bowdon, Mrs. K. Lepold, Misses Annie Pattillo and Corolla Smith. The services were in charge of the Elks lodge of Sanford, of which the deceased was a member.

The deceased was 34 years of age and was born in St. Thomas, Ontario, but had been a resident of Florida for a long time, having accompanied his parents to this state many years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Healey, Sr., came originally from London, England, and settled in Canada when they first came to America. Holding the position of conductor on the Florida East Coast railroad, the deceased was well known up and down the line. Mr. and Mrs. Healey, Sr., are now making their home in Miami, and Mrs. W. R. Healey will reside with them. She came over to New Smyrna after the funeral Tuesday and is the guest of Mrs. A. I. Proser for a time.—New Smyrna News.

TO ENTERTAIN IN HONOR OF THEIR DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. Fores Lake, of Sanford, have issued invitations to a big dance to be given in honor of their charming young daughter, Miss Sereta Lake, who arrives the first of the week from her college in the North. This dance is to be held at the Valdez on the night of the 22nd, and as many Orlando young people are included in the invitation list, the excitement here is almost equal to that in Sanford over this event. It is planned that most of the girls and boys here who are going shall go by auto, and Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Brshaw will chaperone as man yas their car can carry.

As this dance is only one of several functions planned in honor of Miss Lake, her home-coming will be made a very merry one.—Reporter-Star.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Donegan left for points West. After January 15, 1921, they will be at home to their friends at Orlando, Fla.—Reporter-Star.

The New Life In Florida

During the past week, eight or ten automobile parties passed through Charlotte from states North and West bound for Florida to spend the winter. With but two exceptions all were provided with camping outfits. Camp life is the new wrinkle developed in the wake of the automobile, but it is different from the old ideas, because, through the ingenuity of American inventive talent, it is characterized by all the comforts of home. One of the machines passing through the city was owned by a millionaire from Michigan, who was accompanied by his wife and family of three children, and who, explaining the detail of his accoutrement in comfort, showed that with a few turns of the hand he could construct alongside his automobile and attached to it, a very comfortably fitted-up sleeping room and kitchen, all under canvas, which, in its compactly-folded form for transportation gave some idea of its possibilities for convenience. This tourist also talked of Florida's enterprise in taking advantage of the new methods of tourist life. He had made arrangements in advance for his "parking" place in a small Florida town. Arriving there all he will have to do will be to drive into the square assigned him, put up his tented home and adjust his affairs for the winter season. Not only is the ground given him free, but he has free use of water and electric light. There are no charges for garage accommodations. All he has to do is to pay for what gasoline he may use and make himself at home. It is developed that all through Florida these camping grounds for tourists have been established. Every town has its plot of ground set aside for the purpose, the plot being equipped with water and light, which is a free asset for the visitor. In most cases a vacant lot is utilized for the purpose, but some towns make a specialty of the tourists camping ground and lay it out in the shape of city blocks at some desirable location in the suburbs.

This is one of the methods adopted by the people of Florida to overcome the hotel congestion and to open the way to the tourist world in general, and that the idea has proved popular is proved by the tremendous increase in the Florida tourist traffic. The people are flocking there this season from every state in the union and the winter automobile population of the Land of Flowers has far surpassed that going there by train. That many people prefer the automobile and the tented home to the train and the hotel is indicated by the popularity of the former life over the latter by the millionaire class. Many people abundantly able to pay their way on Pullmans and at the most expensive hotels are choosing the greater freedom of life in the open. And this great influx of automobile tourists reveals another story in that it shows what the developments of good roads is doing for the country.—Charlotte (N. C.) Observer.

Ford Agency in Sanford Has Most Complete Building in State

Important announcements are being made in all the state papers about the new Ford policy that allows dealers to sell everywhere with no more restrictions as to territory and in this respect Edward Higgins the live wire local agent for Fords in this city had big advertisements in the state papers yesterday and is taking a half page in the Herald today calling attention of the public to the fact that he will now sell Ford cars everywhere and they can be had at any time. Mr. Higgins is among the pioneers in the Ford line in the state and is now in a position to take care of the patrons as never before. He has recently opened up one of the finest garages and sales rooms and machine shops in the state of Florida occupying three big rooms formerly used for stores on the ground floor and all the second floor over them in the building on First street long known as the Stone-Grove building that has been converted into the Ford headquarters for this section of the state. The office is fitted up in one of the rooms that opens into the department for traction and Ford car parts and containing a complete line of accessories and it takes a large space to hold all the accessories for trucks, tractors and cars but Higgins has them in profusion. The sales rooms are also on the ground floor and storage room and a place for quick repairs to cars that do not need any major operations in the operating room on the second floor. The first floors are given over to the business end of the concern and an up-to-date elevator service takes the cripples to the second floor where there is 5,000 square feet of floor space for the most up-to-date machine shop in the state. There are overhead trolleys for transporting the cars from one part of the shop to the other, a hot cleaning acid tank in which to dip parts of cars and everything to repair a Ford car, tractor or truck all model-

DRASTIC LEGISLATION TO MEET ALLEGED EVILS OF THE COAL COMBINE

"Coal profiteering, especially following priority orders of the Interstate Commerce Commission, continues unchecked by the Department of Justice and is a national disgrace," the report said. It added "It is the duty of the government to take reasonable and practicable steps to remedy every injury."

Fordson TRADE MARK THE FORD ONE-TON TRUCK A S A MATTER OF FACT we might almost as well call it a Three-Ton Truck, for it very rarely carries a smaller sized load. The owners of the Ford truck take advantage of the high qualities of materials which are known to be put in the Ford car, take advantage of the high quality of Ford workmanship which characterizes Ford cars and they overload to the limit. Well, the Ford truck has never broken down with any of these overloads. It delivers expectations and double expectations, so far as carrying capacity is concerned, and while that is not fair to the truck, still the owners are satisfied. But the Ford one-ton truck, with its aluminum bronze worm drive, its greater weight and strength of frame and its incomparable power plant, is without a reasonable competitor in price, in service, in cost of operation. It is the lowest priced truck on the market, of equal capacity. No other truck on the market operates so economically and we believe there is no other truck that will give as satisfactory and profitable results. Our allotment is limited. Better leave your order without delay. Edward Higgins DEALER

 CRIPPLED

BUT WILL BE PUT IN FIRST CLASS SHAPE BY THURSDAY

(From Monday's Daily)
 George Wright, the aviator had trouble with his engine at the aviation field yesterday and in order not to disappoint the crowd he tried to go up regardless with the result that he fell some distance and tore a hole in one of the wings and otherwise damaged the plane. He will have everything all right by Thursday upon which date he will make flights over the city and will also try some stunt flying and the plane will remain at the field for some time.

There was a large crowd at the aviation field yesterday and many of them expected to go up but the engine had been giving trouble all the way over from St. Augustine and barely reached the field when it gave out altogether.

"Peggy" Dornier kept the crowd amused with his stunt flying in the Ford automobile and the promoters of the aviation field wish to announce that next Sunday there will be no collection taken up and the stunts will be pulled off free and passengers will also be taken up after the plane has been put in first class condition for flying.

The seaplane on the lake front also is doing a big business carrying up passengers and it looks like holiday weeks with the planes of all kinds, with the Million Dollar Band and many other attractions will be one big week and many people will be attracted to Sanford as a consequence.

Mr. Fred White says, "Don't Idle Because You Only See One Rat."
 "I did, pretty soon I found my cellar full. They ate my potatoes. After trying RAT-SNAP I got 5 dead rats. The rat later. They pass up the potatoes to eat RAT-SNAP." If there are rats around your place follow Mr. White's example. Three sizes, 35c, 65c, $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by Ball Hardware Co.

READER HAS FAITH IN ONION POULTICE
 CURE FOR PNEUMONIA

The following clipping has been handed into the Herald for publication:

John McLean, a Times reader, residing in Sugar Grove, has so much faith in the onion poultice as a cure for pneumonia that he thinks many deaths would be prevented by its more generous use. Mr. McLean suggests that the recipe for making it be published for the benefit of those who may now or later become seriously ill from this insidious disease. He writes the Times as follows:

Warren Times,
 Mr. Editor, Dear Sir:
 I am enclosing herewith a remedy for pneumonia, it was tried out here a year ago when pneumonia was so prevalent and in every case that used it they came out O. K. and was well in a short time, it certainly should be published.

Yours truly,
 JOHN MCLEAN.

Remedy for Pneumonia
 Published by Health Board of Little, Wash., a few years ago.

Easily prepared. The formula is as follows: Take six to ten onions, according to size, and chop fine, put in a large spider over a hot fire then add about the same quantity of rye meal or ground flaxseed, and vinegar enough to form a thick paste. In the meantime, stir thoroughly, letting the mixture simmer five or ten minutes. Then put into a cotton bag large enough to cover the lungs and upper part of the chest as hot as the patient can bear it. In about ten minutes apply another and then continue by repeating the poultice and in a few hours the patient will be out of danger. Usually three or four applications will be enough, but continue always until the perspiration starts freely from the chest. The remedy was formulated many years ago by one of the best physicians of New England.

The first woman jury in Brevard county convicted a fisherman in county judge's court of "hunting out of season." As the charge made by the county game warden was "killing a duck" and as the verdict did not agree with the charge, the case was dismissed.

SMOOTH FORGER HERE
 PASSED WORTHLESS CHECKS ON MANY MERCHANTS

Took the Rounds on First Street Saturday Night

HAS BEEN CAPTURED

BEFORE HE COULD GET AWAY WITH HIS BOOTY

(From Monday's Daily)
 A smooth individual passing under the name of Bailey, passed a bunch of worthless checks on various merchants Saturday night under the signature of G. W. Bailey. He must have been here for the past week looking over the situation for he knew the various merchants and many of the clerks and called for them by name upon going into the stores. The list of those who cashed his checks is so long that this paper was unable to get them all but it seems that he hooked every merchant on First street and played no favorites lest he make some of them mad by not patronizing them. He had all the clothing and shoes and other goods that he could carry and the balance of the checks in cash in his pocket when suspicion was aroused about the checks and Officer Walker ran him down at the station where he was ready to board the train and fit to pastures new.

He is now reposing in the county bastille where he will face Judge Housholder Wednesday morning and tell wherein he conceived the idea that he could fleece our merchants and get by with it.

At the jail today he said his name was George Quick and he came from Georgia. As to whether he came from Georgia or not is a mystery but he is certainly "Quick" all right and many of the merchants will bear witness to that fact. About the holiday time when all the merchants are busy in the time when these gents get in their work and everyone should be very vigilant about watching all kinds of strangers in the stores and on the streets. They may be forgers, thieves or otherwise.

Chautauqua in Santord
 For An Entire Week

REDPATH HAS BEEN BACKED BY SANFORD CITIZENS FOR WEEK'S ENGAGEMENT

Sanford is a city that appreciates the finer things in the way of amusements as well as it does shows and carnivals and while the city has been having plenty of all kinds of amusements this season there has never been a time here in the past ten years when a Chautauqua seemed to be needed badly enough to make it pay.

This was not altogether because Sanford does not appreciate the higher class amusements but probably on account of the fact that the people have never entered into the Chautauqua spirit as evidenced by other cities and those of our citizens who want a Chautauqua think that Sanford should have a week of this sort and that when a week is given to the people with the best of everything in this line that the idea will become popular enough to have a Chautauqua every season.

Imbued with this spirit the Redpath Chautauqua has been contracted for a week here either the last of March or the first week in April and as the weather is ideal at that time and many of the winter visitors have not gone North and many of those farther South are journeying North by easy stages and stopping over in Sanford en route North the Chautauqua will be liberally patronized by many out of town people. Twenty public spirited citizens have signed the contract for this week's engagement of the best that Redpath puts out and the Chautauqua will be put on and given a thorough trial and with Dr. George Hyman as publicity man, assisted by all the other pastors in the city, backed by the Chamber of Commerce and every other organization in the city the Chautauqua should prove a big success and bring many people to Sanford for that week. Later announcements will be given in the Herald and everybody is expected to get behind this movement for the public good and assist these twenty men in putting it over.

It's difficult to convince a man that his money isn't a sure thing until after the race.

HAD YOU EVER THOUGHT OF THIS?

Why don't the editors of these smaller dailies give us the big, brainy powerful editorials that we read in the larger papers?

That question might be asked, and probably is, every day by readers of the smaller city newspapers.

And perhaps the ordinary small town editor might have a difficult experience in answering the query to his own satisfaction and that of his readers. But here's an answer all ready made, as it appeared in the Fourth Estate, a magazine published in the interest of editors and the makers of newspapers:

Out in Iowa the other day Congressman Bois asked the editors at Sheldon why they did not write more editorials.

John W. Carey, editor of the Rock Rapids Review, formerly editor of the Sioux City Journal, answers him in the Review.

Mr. Carey says that before he became a country editor he wrote editorials on a city paper—and only editorials.

He worked at a desk from which he didn't have to rise from one end of the day to the other, except to go to lunch. Silence and calm were in the air, and callers were mighty few.

When he decided to become a country newspaper man, his first feature he mapped out in his mind was his editorial page, and it was to be a pocket edition of the city newspaper on which he had put in half his life.

But—what a difference between the dream and the reality, Mr. Carey writes.

It soon dawned on him that writing editorials with nothing to think about but the job in hand was different from writing editorials with a thousand and one things on one's mind—with advertisements to solicit, bills to collect, books to keep, subscriptions to solicit, committee meetings to attend as a "prominent citizen," news to write, callers to entertain, sale bills to make out, bank book to maintain in the approved greenback color scheme, employees to keep on the job, linotype machines to keep running, mechanical problems of all sorts to solve and so on almost ad infinitum.—St. Petersburg Times.

DEATH OF MRS. GODWIN

Mrs. Lamanda Godwin died at Jacksonville on Monday, November 29th, and was buried at the old home of deceased in Americus, Georgia, on December 2nd. Mrs. Godwin had lived to the ripe old age of 82 years when death claimed her and was well known and beloved by a large circle of friends in Georgia and Florida.

Mrs. Godwin lived here in Sanford many years ago, leaving here with her son, C. W. Godwin, about fifteen years ago to make her home in Jacksonville where he was connected with the Clyde St. John river line and making Jacksonville his headquarters.

The many friends here of the deceased extend their sympathy to the relatives in the loss of mother and friend.

Mrs. C. W. Godwin of this city attended the funeral and returned here this week.

FAKE AND REALITY.

That there are numerous "fakes" pulled off in Florida, occasionally by natives but more often by visitors, does not discredit the legitimate business of the state in the slightest degree. This state has an excellent "blue sky" law, which goes as far as any law can to guarantee the soundness of corporate investments. Florida corporations are safe, in the sense that they are supervised by law, and based upon sound assets. Of course no law can guarantee the management of a corporation, nor its final success. Therein, the investor must look out for himself.

But the "fakes" occasionally offered here are of a character which ought not to fool any man of fair intelligence. They are wire tapping tips on stock markets, racing or other sporting tips, confidence games of various characters, (not one of which is new)—and the regular "grist" of things by which the sucker is singled out from his fellow men and added to the string of the crooked fisherman.

No person who desires to make a legitimate investment in any of the Florida enterprises need have the slightest fear. Florida today offers the safest field for investment to be found anywhere in the United States. —Lakeland Telegram.

The Herald has warned the people against investing their money in fake gold mines, fake oil wells and other outside fakes that have taken a lot of good Sanford money out of town never to return. We have advised the investment of your money here in city property, in the Building & Loan Association, in local concerns, in farms and farm lands and orange groves. Can anyone here tell us of a man that made any money from the gold mine, from an oil well, from any of the investments that they have made that will compare with the money made right here in the celery delta?

If they can we will quit harping about keeping your money at home.

FOR HEADACHE, LIVER TROUBLE

Black-Draught Is The Best Medicine This Lady Ever Used. Says It Is Only Medicine She Gives Her Children.

Cherry Village, Ark.—In telling of her experience with Theodor's Black-Draught, Mrs. Lottie Ellis, R. F. D. No. 1, this place, said: "I used Black-Draught as a laxative, also for headache, torpid liver and indigestion. It is the best liver medicine I have ever used and is the only medicine I give my children. "I feel like it has saved me a lot in doctors' bills, for when the children complain of feeling bad or have a cold, I just give them a good dose of Black-Draught and they soon get all right. It certainly cleans the liver and clears up the skin and they are soon out, well again. I wouldn't be without it for anything."

Seventy years of successful use has made Theodor's Black-Draught a standard, household remedy. Every member of every family, needs, at times, the benefit that Black-Draught gives in helping to cleanse the system and to prevent or relieve the troubles that come from constipation, indigestion, and a lazy liver.

To keep well, your stomach, liver and bowels must be in good working order. To help keep them that way, take occasional doses of Theodor's Black-Draught. Thousands of homes are never without it.

For sale by all druggists.

The genuine has the name, Theodor's, on the label. Insist on getting what you ask for.

A FLORIDA WOMAN

Editorially, the Miami Herald tells the interesting story of how a Florida woman made good at the art of farming:

Under the caption, "Woman Farmer Retires," the New York Times tells the story of Miss L. M. White, who made a fortune on 14,000 acres in Florida. Miss White is more than a farmer, and the fact that she has retired does not mean that she has ceased being active. She is now devoting her time to the National Federation of Business and Professional Women, of which she is both state president and a national vice-president.

Beginning when only a girl, Miss White expanded her experiments in practical farming until she finally controlled 14,000 acres around St. Augustine. When she is praised for her achievement, she is always resentful that at least a part of the praise is based on her sex.

The attitude is characteristic among many women who are administering affairs or filling positions and deserves commendation. On many sides there is a cry that women anxious to gain equal privileges with men are loath to accept equal responsibilities. There may be instances where this is true, but for the most part the women who have stepped into fields formerly reserved for men ask no favors.

In an interview, Miss White stated that women are as capable as men and that she disliked being congratulated merely because she is a woman. "It is silly to treat us as though we were precocious children," she said.

This protest is justified. The patronage displayed toward successful women merely reflects on the person doing the patronizing. It is not in this spirit that Miss White should be called a remarkable woman. She is remarkable not alone because she was a successful farmer, but also because during the war she was superintendent of the work among women in the largest powder plant in Virginia and because she continues active in still another field although she has retired. How many men farmers are there who present an equally active record?

Florida claims some just pride in being the home state of Miss White, whose quality of leadership brings it credit. The greatest share, however, belongs to what, for lack of a better phrase, can be called the modern woman.

Take Our Advice and Build Now.

DO NOT WAIT TOO LONG

Materials in all building lines are now at a lower mark than they have been for years, and are at a lower level than they will be in a few weeks hence, if all indications point true.

Conditions in the lumber market are such that every indication points to an early rise in the price of building materials. The simple law of supply and demand, if there were no other influences, is such as to indicate that the present low prices cannot long prevail.

For the past 60 days prices have maintained the unprecedented low level and still remain at that point, but it's not a safe proposition to expect them to remain at this point long.

At the present low prices an opportunity is offered the prospective builder for a tremendous saving in building materials. BUT IN ORDER TO GET THE FULL BENEFIT OF THEM IT WILL BE NECESSARY TO START NOW. SO DON'T DELAY.

Can It Be Possible That There Are No More Childless Homes In Florida?

For several months past The Children's Home Society of Florida which is doing a state-wide and undenominational work for the orphan and homeless children of the entire state providing for OVER TWELVE HUNDRED such children EACH YEAR, has found it exceedingly difficult to find good family homes for its homeless children, especially children from SIX to FIFTEEN years of age. As a result its receiving home in Jacksonville is crowded to its utmost capacity, children sleeping two on a little cot in many cases.

The question therefore arises: Are there no more childless homes in Florida? Are there no families who have one child who want another to be a little brother or sister? Are there no more generous hearted people in the state who will perform the greatest service that can be performed on earth—that of giving a good home to one or more homeless children? There is no difficulty in finding plenty of homes for wee babies and children up to five years of age but above that age it seems hard to find folks who will take children and give them a square deal. WE DO NOT

James Bldr., Jacksonville, and secure full particulars in regard to the matter, and give some child or children a permanent place in your home for Christmas or New Year's. You will never regret it. The above is a picture of just a small part of the big family of HOMELESS CHILDREN at the receiving Home of the Children's Home Society of Florida at Jacksonville. No finer, sweeter, brighter or more lovable children can be found anywhere on earth. Try one or two and see for yourself. field secretary, and Miss Lola Lawler as elementary superintendent. The preachers' relief fund reported nine superannuate homes valued at $20,000; new homes built at Orlando and Miami valued at $8,000. Rev. B. K. Thrower of Tampa was reappointed agent. The quotas recommended by the commission on finance for the several districts as follows: Bartow, $19,316; Gainesville, $11,415; Jacksonville, $10,524; Miami, $10,455; Ocala, $10,246; Orlando, $11,223; Tampa, $10,743; Tallahassee, $12,278; Latin, $370. Assessment for orphanage, $10,000. The total askings made by the mission board total $30,000. Six hundred dollars were appropriated for the summer training school, and $21,000 for expenses of conference missionaries at the summer school. The trustees of Southern College reported that for ten years the school had been listed by the general board as an institution of accredited college grade; that Southern is the only institution in Florida that must submit itself to an interstate board of classification, but it stands the test. The graduating class last year was the largest in the history of the school. Fifty-two students are enrolled for life service, six volunteers for missionary service, and thirteen are preparing for the ministry. The enrollment is 45 per cent greater than last year's. Increased dormitory facilities were made and still for days before

WAR RISK INSURANCE LIMIT UP

SEE THE HOME SERVICE SECTION OF THE AMERICAN RED CROSS.

Have you allowed your War Risk Insurance to lapse? If so, we want to remind you that the month of December is the last month in which you will be able to reinstate this insurance without medical examination. This insurance is one of the greatest benefits any government ever conferred upon its service men, and the rules under which reinstatement may be obtained are the most liberal ever offered. Insurance is protection to you and your loved ones against the three great enemies of your earning capacity, disability, old age and death. The government offers to ex-service men a policy that is:

- 1.—Payable in a lump sum, if desired.
- 2.—Exempt from taxation.
- 3.—Exempt from creditors.
- 4.—Incontestable from the day it is taken out.
- 5.—You can borrow 94 per cent of the cash value of your policy after the first year.
- 6.—A liberal total disability clause in every policy without additional cost.
- 7.—25 per cent to 30 per cent cheaper than old fire insurance.

As stated, this is the last month in which you will be able to reinstate your lapsed government insurance without medical examination, and the amount necessary for reinstatement is only two monthly premiums, if you have not been out of the service more than eighteen months.

We have on hand a full supply of reinstatement applications, and if you will call at this office we shall be very glad to give you any information you may desire about this insurance, and to assist you in filling out the reinstatement form.

Yours very truly,

DR. WALKER HAS BEEN RETURNED TO SANFORD

The best news that the Sanford people have heard today is that Dr. S. W. Walker has been returned to the Sanford church for another year by the Methodist conference in meeting at Tallahassee. There was but little doubt about his being returned the only chance for his being taken away was that he was slated for several positions higher up but the Sanford people, Methodists and every other denomination, would not listen to Dr. Walker going away just when he had become entwined in the hearts of the people here and his coming back to us is greeted with enthusiasm all over the city. Mrs. Walker, who has been very ill for several days is improving today and this is also good news to the many friends of the Walker family here and elsewhere. Dr. Walker had the misfortune to lose his fine watch presented him by the Elks of West Virginia when the burglar broke into his home the other night and as a mark of the esteem in which he is held by his congregation a collection was made up in a few minutes on Monday morning and a fine new watch given to him. It is this spirit that makes churches and makes the pastor and his family feel that they have not labored in vain.

BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW BANQUET

At Parish House was held last Sunday, Dec. 4th. After the banquet there were speeches and a general good time. Then the service of the Brotherhood was held which made all those who had been probationary members throughout the year, real regular members. Tables decorated with red ribbons, cut flowers, ferns, etc. Dinner served in old English style. The table was arranged in the shape of a "T" with a whole roasted pig with an apple in his mouth, at each end. Thirty-five members present. Beautiful flowers furnished by one of the members, Mr. Stewart.

NEW ROAD SIGNS

The Lake County Chamber of Commerce has gotten out nine splendid new road signs for use on the principal highways leading into and through Lake county. These signs, which are 9x12 feet, show a clear and true road map of the county and placed, as they will be, at the prominent intersection of roads, will be of great aid to motorists and should be appreciated by the traveling public.—Quinta Lake Region.

Mr. Day is one of the largest manufacturers of chemicals in the north and makes his home in Michigan but for many years has been coming to Sanford to visit his old friend John Russell and be here with his fine yacht where he can have all the pleasure of boating and fishing and hunting. Mrs. Day is just as fond of the outdoor life as Mr. Day and now that we have the Rod and Gun Club we will have more of their kind. The Herald long ago named Mr. and Mrs. Day the "Happy Days" for they are always in the best of humor and meet the world each day with a smile and a pleasant word for everyone. A hundred more such "Days" would be fine for Sanford. Mr. Day has also looked kindly upon the winter vegetable business and recently purchased the Leach place on the west side and has a fine crop on it.

LETTUCE ON LOW NO PRICE

TOO MUCH BEING SHIPPED AND PRICE IS WAY DOWN
YONDER

(From Wednesday's Daily)
The lettuce market is off.
It is not only off but off so far that it looks like "curtains" for any more of it this season. Many things have conspired to work against the growers who had such a wonderful crop of holiday lettuce this year. The first lettuce that was anything but prime stuff brought a wonderful price. This stimulated the growers everywhere to ship everything they had and they did. They shipped all the leaves and scraps and even went so far as to paint the crates green with the idea that maybe some of the Yankees would get real hungry and eat the crates at a higher rate. But like the growers who shipped green oranges and grapefruit early in the season and chortled in glee over what they were doing to them, the laugh was rudely shattered and that fateful day, the market, turned on them and the result is the cellar for lettuce and fruits at present. Fruit may and undoubtedly will come back later in the season but it looks as though lettuce was doomed for this season as there is so much of it in California, coming right along with our crop and our crop is larger than ever. In order to find out what the prospects were John Russell wired to the representatives of Smith & Holden in California for a lone on the lettuce situation and received the following reply:
"Los Angeles, Calif.,
"Dec. 14, 1920.
"John Russell,
"Sanford, Fla.
"Acknowledging receipt of your night lettergram dated the 13th, replying would advise this state is in position to ship beginning January first an average of one hundred cars of fancy lettuce a day until April first, providing markets can be found.
"SMITH & HOLDEN."

LAKELAND SECTION VOTES $200,000 TO BUILD MORE ROADS

LAKELAND, Dec. 15.—Lakeland precincts and those north of this city yesterday overwhelmingly voted a bond issue for $200,000, the money to be used in building a hard-surfaced highway to the Lake county line. This city voted 264 for bonds, 39 against. Kathleen voted 34 for bonds, 85 against. The bonds will be used to complete the road north of Lakeland to join with the Lake county line, to widen the road that is already constructed north on Florida avenue from nine to fifteen feet, and to complete the road in the Sorcum and Foxtown sections.

COX'S BROTHER TIN-CAN TOURIST

Arriving in the city Monday evening by way of the auto route and camping at DeSoto Park, enjoying the hospitality of the Tin Can Tourists' club, is no less a personage than Wm. Cox, a brother to the Democratic nominee for president. Mr. Cox is about 50 and made the trip from Dayton with his family in a large touring car, especially fitted for camping purposes. Mr. Cox is delighted with the Florida atmosphere and especially with the warm welcome received. They expect to remain in the city for several weeks and arrived in time to help the Tin Can Tourists celebrate the World Convention of Tin Can Tourists. While visiting the various spots of interest in and around the city they will maintain camping headquarters at the park.—Tampa Times.

ICING MANY CARS

The Southern Utilities Co., are icing more cars this year than ever before in their history. This is being made possible by the large number of cars of vegetables going out at this time and also by the Southern Utilities Co., being in shape to supply the ice when it is needed. It has been a big season for this time of the year and is taxing the ice company and the railroad company to keep up with the procession, but they are doing fine so far and working day and night to give the best of service.

FIRE TODAY

An alarm of fire called the department to the Presbyterian Manse today about two-thirty where it was discovered that the roof was on fire, supposedly from the chimney. LONE SCOUT ORGANIZATION
A good many people have the idea that the "Lone Scouts" are the same as the Boy Scouts. Since several have asked me about the Lone Scout organization, I will endeavor to show the difference between the two.

The Boy Scouts of America was organized by W. D. Boyce, while he was in England, and this organization proved a great success. But he soon saw the need of another organization for boys who could or would not join the Boy Scouts. Therefore he formed the Lone Scout Organization.

One good feature of the L. S. organization is that the official organ, "Lone Scout," is entirely written by boys, and points are given for each article or story published. A total of 100 points gives the aspiring author a bronze merit medal, the second 100 points gives him a silver medal, and the third a gold medal. After winning 100 more he is presented with a handsome gold quill pin, which is the highest honor that a Lone Scout can win, and entitles him to sign the titles, L. S. C. Q., after his name. Even though this magazine is entirely written up by boys, it is by far the most interesting boys' magazine published.

When six or more boys in a city join the Lone Scout organization, they may, if they wish, form a local tribe (similar to Boy Scout patrol) and then go camping, hiking, etc. There are seven degrees for the members to pass, the whole seven contained in three lodges. Five medals are awarded for these degrees, and upon completion if them he may sign L. S. D. 7 after his name. The tribe formed may also get out a tribe paper (like FLORIDA ASCOUT, which I publish) which should contain the report of all the meetings, and be written up by members of the tribe. This is the original idea, but now tribe papers are formed without a tribe, and they circulate all over the United States.

"FLORIDA SCOUT" is not at present representing any tribe in Sanford, for the reason that there is no tribe here, but if a tribe is organized, it will become the official organ of the tribe.

If any Lone Scouts of this city would like to form a tribe here, please communicate with me.—Lone Scout Willard N. Lumley, Sanford, Florida.

STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS HERE
B. B. Lane, president of the Educational Association; Miss Clem Hampton and Prof. T. J. Kirk, of the Board of Examiners for the state of Florida, are here giving the teachers examinations. It is estimated that about one hundred teachers will take the examination while the board is here. Miss Clem Hampton has many friends here who are glad to see her again.
