Lookouts Get All Three Tallies In First Stanza

Davis And Schmidt Play Excellent Defensive Game For Sanford Nine; Langston Undergoes Operation

Collecting their only runs in the first inning, the Sanford Lookouts defeated the St. Augustine Saints 3 to 2 here Monday night and gained revenge for the 11 to 7 trimming they suffered at the hands of the Ancient City crew Sunday afternoon.

Allowing nine hits which he kept well scattered, lanky Sid Hudson led his mates to victory in the shortest game to be played on the local diamond this season. The game lasted only one hour and 40 minutes.

Splendid support was given Hudson both in the infield and the outfield, only one error being committed by the locals during the entire contest. Davis on first base turned in a good performance, handling a total of 13 put outs without a single miscue. Schmidt in left field also brought words of praise from the fans for the way he conducted himself in the outer gardens.

With two men on base in the eighth inning, Schmidt fielded three long, high flies to end the inning and prevent the runners from crossing the platter.

The most spectacular performance was turned in by Otero, Saint first sacker. His agility and the way he handled the ball brought many favorable comments from the local fans. He, too, handled 13 putouts without a single miscue.

The Lookouts opened up in the first inning to grab three runs but were held scoreless during the remainder of the contest. Moore flied out but Davis singled

Gainesville Increases Lead To Nine With Gon Victory

The league leading Gainesville G-Men increased their lead over the second place Gondoliers in Leesburg Monday night by defeating the Gons 6 to 2 while the Orlando nine racked up another victory over the Azaleas in Palatka by a score of 4 to 1 and the seventh place DeLand Reds pounded out a 5 to 2 decision over the Islanders in Daytona Beach.

Retaliating after suffering defeat at the hands of the Gons last night, the G-Men increased their loop lead to nine games and blasted Hardee from the mound in the second inning when they scored all six of their tallies. Hardee was replaced by Lane who blanked the G-Men for the remainder of the contest. Helms, hurling for the victory permitted the Gons only five safeties.

In the Azaleas City Pete Mihalle's homer with one on base gave the Senators a lead which was never relinquished. Hal Conn, Orlando hurler, allowed the Palatka nine seven hits off his offerings but kept them well scattered.

Porter, hurling for the Reds in Daytona Beach, shut out the Islanders until the ninth inning when they pushed two markers across. It was Homer Rice's circuit clout in the first stanza with one on base that started the DeLand nine on the road to victory.

Locals, Islets Play Two Games In Costal City

Lookouts Will Strive To Add Two Games To Column Of Wins

Nosing out the St. Augustine Saints last night, the Lookouts hope to add two more games to their win column at the City Island Park in Daytona Beach today.

The local crew meet the Islets this afternoon at 3:15 o'clock and again tonight at 8:15 o'clock.

Two wins over the Costal City crew would greatly assist the lookouts in their "get out of the cellar" drive. If the locals win both games the Islanders would most likely drop from the third position they now hold to fourth place.

No information as to the starting hurlers could be obtained.

Citrus Producers Form Association At Oviedo Parley

Growers Of Seminole Name Fred Forward As President At Organization Meet

BURTON OUTLINES GOALS OF GROUP

SAYS PURPOSE IS TO ASSIST IN RIDDING INDUSTRY OF ILLS

With about 25 bona fide growers signifying their interest in a growers organization, the Seminole County Citrus Growers Association was formed and officers elected Tuesday night in Oviedo. The meeting was held at the Future Farmers of America Building.

Action was taken after an address by W. L. Burton, acting secretary of the state organization of growers, in which he reviewed the problems facing the grower and urged the organization in order to better combat the problems.

Fred Forward of Forest City was named permanent chairman of the board of directors and president of the group.

Mr. Burton spoke in the absence of Senator A. W. Young who was originally scheduled to deliver an address but was unable to attend.

Pointing out that the interests of the shipper and grower have been separate, Mr. Burton declared that in the new organization nothing but bona fide growers are considered as eligible for membership. By limiting the membership to this group, he said, there will be no conflict in purposes as has characterized former organizations in which both shipper and grower have been admitted to membership.

With growers operating under the previous system of individual marketing, he asserted, growers had no authoritative voice in the actual marketing of their fruit. They were at the mercy of the shipper. But, he added, under the system of organization now going into effect in a number of counties, the grower will be protected by his own organization. Each individual grower will have the power of the entire citrus industry backing him.

The purpose of the new organization is not merely to form a marketing pact and declared that there were many other matters to consider such as limiting size of boxes, selling of frozen or green fruit, and the selling of oranges by weight rather than by size. Expanding on the latter, he said Florida would benefit.

AAA Restrained From Collecting Tax On Tobacco

Florida Judge Adams Grants Injunction Asked By Growers

LAKE CITY, July 27.—(AP)—Circuit Judge Hal W. Adams today granted a temporary injunction restraining the Agricultural Adjustment Administration from collecting a tax on all tobacco marketed in excess of quotas.

The injunction was requested by several hundred north Florida growers headed by Dr. R. B. Harkness of Lake City.

Judge Adams has not set a date for hearing arguments on making the order final. The tax will be paid into the registry of the court here to be held until a final decision on the disputed levy.

The tobacco auction season in north Florida and south Georgia opens tomorrow morning and hundreds of growers today were bringing their weeds in warehouses here, at Live Oak and at several Georgia cities.

AAA quotas are imposed on each grower and 50 percent tax levied on all tobacco sold in excess of the quota. The total quota for Florida is 11,000,000 pounds for this season but the crop is expected to run about 18,000,000 pounds.

State Court To Be Asked To Re-Open Marble Game Case

TALLAHASSEE, July 27.—(AP)—Lawyers today to ask the supreme court today in an extraordinary petition to reopen the case in which it declared marble boards and pin games are unlawful in Florida.

The court denied a rehearing petition yesterday, but attorneys said they expected to file another move today. The results will be to delay, at least temporarily, the court's final mandate authorizing sheriffs and other officers to seize the machine.

The rehearing will be sought on the ground the 1937 anti-slot machine law did not repeal a 1935 law which licensed marble boards and pin games. The lawyers said this point, and some others of a technical nature, were overlooked by the court in its original decision.

Jim Farley Gets Shave On Sunday

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 27.—(AP)—Affable and accommodating (also a Republican), William H. Hovshaw might have gone to jail because he shaved Jim Farley, the Democratic chief, on a Sunday morning.

William Jeffers, president of the Union Pacific railroad, recently wired ahead to Cheyenne and asked Hovshaw, a friend, to meet a westbound train and give Farley a shave so that Farley could attend church here. All the barber shops were closed and a city ordinance provided a fine of from $5 to $50 for any barber who opened up and went to work on Sunday.

Nevertheless Hovshaw obliged. Next day a rival barber attempted to file a complaint against Hovshaw and accused him of violating the Sunday closing order. Police discouraged the rival.

Hovshaw said, "It wasn't a matter of business, merely a friend who had a friend who needed a shave, even if he is a Democrat."

Police Chief Has Light Installed As Safety Measure

A traffic light has been installed at the intersection of French Avenue and Seminole Boulevard, Police Chief Roy G. Williams announced Wednesday.

In conjunction with the light is a neon sign directing truck drivers down French Avenue in order to prevent their going through the downtown section, Chief Williams said.

At the foot of French Avenue between the boulevard and the intersection a barrier will be erected as a safety measure. It is a concrete structure, City Architect Frank Williams drew plans for the barrier which will be 24 feet long and about four feet high. Two-by-four timbers will be used in construction.

Chief Williams pointed out that the intersection has long been considered a danger for motorists.

At present, that section of French Avenue between Commercial Street and Seminole Boulevard is being repaved. With the aid of WPA funds, a new lane has been laid out to the west, the repaving has been completed.

Body Of Ward Is Unclaimed After Plunge

Rescue Attempts Futile As Unemployed Bank Teller Leaps 200 Feet To Death

NEW YORK, July 27.—(AP)—No one claimed the body of 26-year-old John Ward who leaped 17 stories to his death last night after landing on an 18-inch ledge of a hotel for nearly 11 hours.

Thousands of curious New Yorkers watched the young unemployed bank teller as he stood on the lofty ledge apparently debating whether to jump or heed pleas of police, his own mother, his sister and others who tried to persuade him to climb back into the hotel room.

Police said the youth had 26 cents in his pocket when they picked up his battered body after its 200-foot plunge.

As rescuers drew up a net in hopes of thwarting his threats, Ward made several attempts to jump from his perch he leaped out into Fifth avenue.

The hurtling body struck a marquee on its way to the street, fringed by horrified thousands.

Other hundreds, remaining in their neighboring offices after work to await the outcome of the long siege, screamed over the eerie climax.

The body plummeted straight downward for a split second, then began to spin crazily.

The scene below was alight with flares of motion picture cameras.

A great massed crowd arose from the milling thousands.

Mingled with the mass as it died away was the crash of glass as the body hit the edge of the marquee and bounced off, falling then straight downward in a battered mass, face down.

U. S. Observer In Refugee Problem Begins Operations

BERLIN, July 27.—(AP)—The United States' official refugee observer arrived in Berlin yesterday and started work on an assignment which German officials said would involve first of all an attempt to win freedom for Jews in concentration camps.

The observer, George Brandt, a consul in the American foreign service, spent a large part of the day conferring with Ambassador Hugh Wilson. He said he had no statement to make, as his mission was private.

German officials, however, believed Brandt would try first to win liberation from the concentration camps of those thousands of Jews arrested since the new violent antisemitic wave started early in June.

Officials seemed displeased to grant this freedom provided the prisoners first obtain foreign immigration visas. Germans believed it was Brandt's problem to arrange these visas, but they pointed out that many foreign countries were unwilling to make room for German Jews if they arrive at their frontier penitentiaries.

National Relief Activities Cost $4,000 A Minute

20 Billion Dollars Have Been Spent In U. S. Since '31

By MORGAN M. BEATTY

WASHINGTON, July 27.—(AP)—To a destitute family, a relief check may be manna from heaven—or it may represent a life without hope.

To a politician, the relief check may be a perplexing problem in government—or it may provide visions of votes.

Those things are debatable. But there is no question but that the treasurer of the United States and his subdivisions, the relief check is a pain in the neck.

For the relief check is more than the public budgets can chew. It is red ink on the public books—red ink that's going to stay on the books for a long time to come.

In seven years, relief of the unemployed has cost at least three and one-half billion dollars. First cities, counties, and states started spending. Then in 1932 Uncle Sam jumped in. Since then the federal government has far outdistanced the states, cities—forking over ten billions, while the states have chipped in three and a half billions.

Thirteen and a half billions is a lot of money.

In the kind of money anybody can count, relief is costing nearly $4,000 a minute. And the rate of spending is going up. That $4,000 a minute includes some forms of so-called permanent relief.

He later taught at the University of North Carolina and edited a journal of industrial and engineering chemistry.

His proved newprint could be produced from southern forests much cheaper than imported paper.

Palatka Voters Turn Thumbs Down On $250,000 Lighting Plant Project

PALATKA, July 27.—Palatka voters turned thumbs down on a municipal plant here yesterday, nullifying a $250,000 PWA grant already authorized in a record smashing total of 1901 votes cast.

The final tabulation found a majority of qualified voters opposing the ratification of an amendment or ordinance which declared "It is expedient to construct and maintain a plant for the manufacture and distribution of electricity—for such of its inhabitants as may require and pay for same."

A total of 833 voters expressed themselves against the ordinance while 788 signified approval.

The vote, the greatest ever cast in a municipal election here came as a culmination of three weeks of intensive campaigning with the city commission heading the municipal plant proposal and the Florida Power and Light Company opposing it.

The issue in the election was sharply drawn between supporters of Florida Power and Light Company, which has a franchise to serve the city with electricity until 1940, and proponents of a municipal power plant headed by Mayor John W. Campbell.

Proponents claimed that a municipal plant would result in a 25 percent reduction in rates with no debt burden on taxpayers. Opponents stated electric rates would suffer from increased rates necessary to pay off government loans by which the new plant would be financed.

They said Palatka's rates were already lower than many municipal ownership towns and cities and cited the record of 43 percent decrease in company rates, since 1932.

Proponents had been assured of a government gift of 45 percent of cost of a new plant. Fifty-five percent of the cost was said to be available from PWA loan to be secured from revenue certificates, payable over a long period of years. Voters turned down the proposal because they believed services to be secured from a municipal plant would be inferior to the service they now have, rates were fair, and that competition with the private utility already in the field would be detrimental to the success of the municipal enterprise.

Escaped Florida Convict Cuts Way Out Of Jail Cell

Felon Prefers Death Rather Than Return To State Road Camp

PHILADELPHIA, July 27.—(AP)—An escaped Florida convict sawed his way out of a police station cell today after saying he would kill himself rather than go back to "those Everglades" to complete a life sentence for slaying a Miami policeman.

He was Leonard Zabulsky, who previously had escaped from prison at Duval, Fla., and Lawtonville, Tenn., after his original escape from a Florida road camp four months ago.

He was arrested here on a robbery charge and was to have been given a hearing today.

Five Bombs Drop On Vessel Without Loss Of Life In One Of Series Of Attacks

MADRID, July 27.—(AP)—The British cargo ship Dellwyn was sunk in the port of Gaudia by a seaplane which attacked at dawn. It was the second attack on the ship in three days. Two bombs dropped Monday but they did not explode.

Five bombs hit the ship today, sinking her. There were no loss of life. The attack was one of a series along the Spanish coast.

Spanish government dispatches asserted government militiamen had fought their way into the streets of Gaudia, a key city of southern Catalonia and birthplace of headquarters for the district. Small advance groups forced their way into the city, dispatches said, while the main battle raged on the outskirts.

Insurgent advisers insisted that only a few government troops had managed to cross the Ebro River and that those were annihilated. Government dispatches reported a Spanish advance in three days.

Whatsoever gains the government made on the front, however, seemed more than offset by the 18-mile insurgent advance in Extremadura province southwest of Madrid. Insurgents said they had captured 11,000 prisoners.

In China, Japanese naval units pressed rapidly up the Yangtze River toward Hankow after occupation of Kiating, 135 miles downstream from the provisional capital.

Dispatches from Hankow said the Chinese foreign ministry had closed offices there and had moved 500 miles further inland to Chungking.

Insurgent forces unleashed a savage aerial counterattack against the ground forces in an effort to break the movement.

The campaign settled down to a conflict between government infantry and the insurgent planes with government troops holding the upper hand so far.

The troops crunched in trenches and underfires as insurgent raiders came overhead and then resumed the push.

All towns in the path of the offensive on the west bank of the river, including Aso, Mora de Ebro and Hensonten were occupied.

In the triangular area covered by government lines, staff officers said between 5,000 and 6,000 prisoners, all Spanish, were taken. About 2,000 more insurgents wandered in the hills, shut off from the main force.

Wage Cuts In Steel Industry Forecast

WASHINGTON, July 27.—(AP)—A forecast of wage cuts in the steel industry was made yesterday by Ernest S. Ballard, spokesman for the Inland Steel company of Chicago.

Ballard was a witness at a government hearing called by the public contracts board to determine the minimum wages which steel employers must pay while executing government contracts.

Spokesmen for the "little fellows" in the steel industry, echoing in part Ballard's view of steel conditions, pleaded for the establishment of wage differentials to compensate for the economic advantages of mass production and raw materials possessed by the big producers.

A Southerner Views The South

The best answer to President Roosevelt's recent statement that the South is the nation's "Number One economic problem" comes indirectly from a book just off the press written by Jonathan Daniels, editor of the Raleigh News and Observer, and son of Josephus Daniels, present ambassador to Mexico and World War secretary of the navy.

The book is called "A Southerner Discovers the South" and is a clear indication that even to those of us who have lived in the South all our lives there is much about it which we do not know. In order to find out, Mr. Daniels left his work in Raleigh, travelled through South Carolina, Florida, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, Tennessee, and Virginia, and talked with all manner of people from the tenant farmers and cotton pickers in the fields to the governors in the various capitals and the professors in the universities.

The big question in Mr. Daniels' book is "What deficiencies actually exist in the South?" And to another question he seeks to find the answer, "What can be done about them?" He finds that there is considerable impoverishment in the South not only among the negroes but also among the whites. He finds certain counties, and a good many of them, where the average income is less than $100 a year, the lowest in the entire United States. He finds too that educational facilities, hospital and medical care, and many other necessities of modern civilization in many instances are lacking altogether or are entirely inadequate.

But his answer to this problem is not the careless charge that Southerners are lazy or inefficient, or that the selfishness of a few among them makes for the impoverishment of the many. He does not even attribute it to the negro problem which has too often been the excuse of many Southern apologists. He goes to the root of the trouble which originated when the South lost the Civil War, and the North, like any other conqueror, proceeded to exploit it to her utmost advantage.

"The South is accused of inordinate laziness—and there may be something that breeds inertia in the climate," he writes. "But if every man, woman and child below the Mason-Dixon Line cultivated cotton assiduously from dawn to dusk from March to November, the South would be no better off. For no decent general standard of living is possible here until cotton sells at 20 cents a pound, and that day is highly improbable. King Cotton has been as much a traitor to Southern advancement as the Northern protective tariff and the scandalously unfair Northern-made freight rates have been open enemies.

"Renters or sharecroppers, hired choppers and pickers can never hope to live anything but a miserable, half-starved existence as long as they hitch their aspirations to a cotton wagon. And landlords themselves will become more deeply bogged in debt and mortgages year after year. Today both landlords and tenants are far less prosperous than in my childhood. And as the soil erodes and its strength is exhausted by false allegiance to one-crop the future looms darker and some unborn sharecropper children face a future more dismal than their heritage.

"Yet the fault lies not altogether with cotton, climate, nor the people themselves. 'Don't forget,' the Governor of Alabama said, 'this freight business is the heart of the whole Southern problem. It explains nearly everything—poverty, low wages, bad housing. We can't move until we get free.' The cruelest aspects of conquest were not involved in reconstruction but in the use of national power to entrench sectional advantage elsewhere over the South. Strangely, the men who had come down to set slaves free had gone home with victory to make the whole South economically inferior and dependent. . . . The tariff did at least as much damage in Dixie as Sherman and Grant together in making it poor and keeping it poor.

"Cato the Elder was no more implacable than the Brahmins of Boston who came after the Abolitionists with considerably cooler heads. The South was not plowed up and planted with salt, as Carthage was. If no more generous, Bostonians (citizens of a region and an attitude and not a town) were less wasteful. They recognized that the South, kept in its place (a place in the nation geographically similar to that of the Negro in the South), might be useful and profitable. It was. And as a Southerner at the end of discovery, I ask now only that they recognize the poverty of the South as a part of the same civilization as Harvard and, in a measure, as the creation of the same people. Cato did not ride through Carthage on the train and blame its conditions on the Carthaginians. That much only I ask of the Yankees."

Facts Of Life

Illness is the largest single contributing cause of poverty.

One out of each four persons suffers from some sort of illness each year.

One out of each ten persons will enter a hospital for attention within the year.

There are 27,400 persons in their homes today who will be in hospitals on tomorrow.

Accidental injuries cost an average of $101 for each person injured in 1937. And there were 9,400,000 persons injured.

Last year there were 106,000 persons accidentally killed. Automobile accidents claimed more than one-third of these lives, but 32,000 were lost in home accidents.

Sporadic drives and campaigns against illness or accidents create more noise than otherwise. Constant reminders, day-by-day suggestions that there actually is an economic loss when you are careless or reckless with your life or the life of anybody else, are counted the most effective.

That is the reason that you can't pick up a publication of any sort that does not lay stress on the waste that comes with accident, waste of life, waste of time, waste of property, and waste of cash.

You can help to stop it by being careful.

INTERNATIONAL OPERA...

Derby Line, Vermont, situated on the U. S.-Canadian border, is the half way point between Boston and Quebec City. This community, strange as it seems, boasts of an opera house with its stage in one country and the audience in another!

Built in 1901, with funds supplied by Mrs. Martha S. Haskell, philanthropist, it has a seating capacity of 464. The international boundary line, which runs through the building, separates the stage and audience in such a manner that about two-thirds of the persons sit in the United States to witness a play produced in Canada.

THE ABSENT PRESIDENT...

After dedicating four years of his life toward securing the independence of his country from Austria in December, 1914, at the Czechoslovakian patriot, on November 14, 1918, was awarded the honor of becoming that republic's first president.

Yet, strange as it seems, Masaryk was 4500 miles away from Czechoslovakia at the time of his election. He had escaped from the Lansing declaration of sympathy with the cause of the new Czechoslovak National Assembly at Prague on November 14, 1918. Masaryk was unanimously elected the first president while he was in the United States. He did not return to his country until after the end of the war.

France, England, Italy, Russia and the United States on behalf of his people.

He went to the United States in May, 1918, and the result was the Lansing declaration of sympathy with the cause of Czechoslovak and Yugoslav independence. At the first meeting of the new Czechoslovak National Assembly at Prague on November 14, 1918, Masaryk was unanimously elected the first president while he was in the United States. He did not return to his country until after the end of the war.

'READING, BITING, AND ORGANIZATION' are three up-to-date "B's" by students of Good Workers Organizing Committee school at Camp Davis in Sumner county, Pennsylvania. Chair's covered by "Labor Unity," "Union Struggle," and "How to Conquer a Local Campaign" hang from the walls, while the tables are covered with educational literature. The men were to spend a week "in school," with a swimming pond handy for recess time.

The Sanford Forum

To whom it may concern: I read in last night's Edition of The Sanford Herald that Cotton Mather, head of the Mather Furniture Co., had written to the City Commissioners requesting that since the County and State had reduced tax assessment on McLeander Avenue, the City should also reduce its tax on the building.

It is stated that if the City would do this that he would in all probability, buy the structure around it and make his Florida headquarters in Sanford. The Herald further stated that the Commissioners, after a long discussion, decided that since nothing could be gained they would not reduce assessment.

Chickens May Be Dumb But Are Not Suckers

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., July 27.—(AP)—If you think a chicken is "awful dumb" revise your estimate. They're smart enough not to eat poisoned grasshoppers.

F. E. Whitehead, entomologist at Oklahoma A. & M. college, experimented to determine if poisoned bran, fed to grasshoppers, had ill effects on fowl that might consume the "hoppers."

"A pen of chickens learned quickly that the 'hoppers' we attempted to feed them were poisoned and they would eat only the legs of the insects," he said.

"When the rations were changed again and unpoisoned 'hoppers' were fed to them, the chickens ate them with gusto."

The most expensive saddle, made of handworked leather and chased with silver, sold for $200 to $250. A California man recently paid the record top price of $2,000 for a saddle.

National Relief Activities Cost $1,000 A Minute

Continued from page one... national relief activities cost $1,000 a minute. The federal government is spending $1,000 a minute to provide relief for the unemployed.

While the federal government has carried out aggressively its vast work program, the states, counties, and cities throughout the country have NOT done their share. Local governments are the ones that employ and pay the wages of the unemployed.

Relief people do not receive equal treatment. They receive checks, cash or groceries and live in varying amounts, depending on the type of relief they get, the county and state they live in, and the standard of living on which a given kind of relief is based.

First, let's look at federal relief pay the aristocratic pay in relief society. It is wages received for work especially designed so a destitute citizen can feel he has a job, and say he is "working for the government."

These federal relief workers receive an average of $25 a month. It costs the taxpayers $25 a month to give each one of these workers a job. Here's where the money goes:

Wages of WPA workers $25.00
Material & equipment 25.00
Spec. labor hired locally 2.70
Administrative cost 2.30
Supervision of work50

Total $55.50
The administrative cost is the money it costs to see that every body gets his check, that projects are approved, etc., including generally the cost of managing the business. The special-labor item is the labor cost of a WPA project assumed by the city or state sponsoring the project.

To show for this, the taxpayer has, according to WPA director Harry Hopkins, a vast amount of wealth and welfare. He lists page after page of road work, school buildings, swimming pools, and lighter work, such as sewing, hand-painted book covers, plays by unemployed actors, and the like.

Lookouts Trounce Daytona Beach 21 To 2 In Nightcap.

Locals Split Twin Bill By Losing Matinee 2-1

Sanford Crew Unleashes Big Guns As Five Islander Moundsmen Are Pounded For 19 Safeties

Although losing the matinee to the Daytona Beach Islanders by the narrow margin of 2 to 1, the Lookouts showed what they could do in the nightcap by blasting out 19 hits off a veritable parade of hurlers as they chalked up their largest score for a single game this season and downed the Islets 21 to 2.

In the second game of the double header the local nine unleashed its big guns and tightened the defense as the completely demoralized Islander crew dropped the game all over City Island Park.

Behind the five hit hurling of Joe Shroba, the Islanders limited the Lookouts to a single run in the eighth in the first game while Day crossed the plate for the Islets in the second and again in the eighth for the winning tally.

The Islanders tallied their first marker as Tex Steen singled and was forced at second by Day. Tuck McWilliams popped to second and Shroba singled to second and Day went to third as Moore was slow in returning the ball. His relay went through DeRamus for an error and Day scored. The winning tally came in the eighth as Day connected with his second hit, stole second and crossed the plate as McWilliams pulled out a ground loper to right field. DeRamus scored the Lookouts only tally in the eighth as Bob the big one for the Lookouts as they pushed nine runs across the plate. Stefani walked the first batter, an error by Javet gave the second life. Jeter struck out but DeRamus bunted over Day's head to bat in the first run of the inning. Moore walked and Schmidt hit to short to bat in another run. A wild pitch brought in DeRamus and the Islanders pilot sent Shroba to the mound.

Shroba walked Bob Pitman to fill the bases and Ed Davis singled to score Moore and Schmidt. Adv walked to fill the bases and Hudson fled out to center to score Pitman. Stith walked to fill the bases again and Jeter walked to force in Davis. DeRamus singled to score Stith. Stan Charkut was sent in to take over the hurling duties. Moore grounded to third to force Jeter and end the inning.

In the seventh the Lookouts added two more counters and in the eighth Sally Morton came in from left field to blank the Lookouts in the eighth.

The local nine got loose again in the ninth, however, as a walk to Pitman started the parade around the bases. Successive singles by Davis and Adv, a pair of wild pitches, an error, a walk to Hudson, a single by Stith, scored three runs for the Lookouts before the first out was made. Jeter grounded out but Moore came to pole out another triple and score Stith, making a total of five runs for the inning.

The Islanders rallied to get one run in the ninth on a double by Turecki and a single by Charkut. Moore lead Sanford's hitting attack with two triples, a double and a single in five trips. DeRamus blasted out a triple and two singles in six trips while the remainder of the crew all took advantage of the hitting spree to boost their batting averages. Jeter hurled for the Lookouts, allowed the Islanders eight hits during the contest which he kept under the loss for the Islanders.

Lookouts To End Islet Series In Tilt Here Tonight

The Lookouts will attempt to duplicate the 21 to 2 thrashing they gave the Islanders in Daytona Beach last night when the nine from the coastal city invade the local ball park for a loop game tonight at 8:15 o'clock.

Blix Donnelly is scheduled to pitch the final game of the three-game series between the two clubs for the Islanders while Manager Bill "Raw Meat" Rodgers has not announced his starter but has guaranteed to entertain the invaders with the best selection of fast balls and curves on hand.

Law Drafted As Bases For Sudeten Peace

Nation's Administrative Organization Would Be Modified By Czech Proposal

No Comments Are Made By Germans

Hodza Offers Statute As Basis For Discussion With Mediator

PRAHA, Czechoslovakia, July 28.—(AP)—The government transmitted today to its autonomy-seeking Sudeten German minority a draft of law laying down a bases for territorial self-administration.

The proposal would modify the country's administrative organization for provinces, districts and communes. Oral explanations accompanied the transmittal of the draft, details of which were kept secret. Beyond acknowledging receipt of it, leaders of the Sudeten Germans made no comment.

It was learned, however, that the highlights of the draft's provisions provided:

1. All nationalities within the state to have equal rights, regardless of nationality, race or religion.

2. Minority representation in all national and local administrations on a proportionate basis, thereby giving the Sudetens 22 percent of the posts in the government.

3. Use of German and other minority languages, as well as Czech, in postal and railroad correspondence and publication of laws in German, Polish, Hungarian and Rutenian languages as well as Czech.

4. Any person can reject his parents' nationality and profess another upon reaching the age of 18.

5. Any group of 50 deputies or 25 senators can call on the court of the constitution to decide whether any law is constitutional.

Premier Milan Hodza and the government were criticized for permitting publication of such an "insufficient answer" only a day after announcing that Viscount Runciman, former president of the British Board of Trade, and advisor in the Sudeten-Czech minority dispute that still holds a smouldering threat of hostilities.

The government's minority statute, approved late Tuesday by the inner political committee of the cabinet, was offered by Hodza as the basis of next week's scheduled negotiations with Helmlein in the presence of Lord Runciman.

Fire Of Unknown Origin Destroys Novelty Works

The Sanford Novelty Works was completely destroyed by fire of an unknown origin this afternoon. The works, one of the largest in central Florida during the peak of its operations, was owned by V. P. Collier but had not been in full operation for some time.

A strong wind from the south was all that saved the homes on First Street and the intense heat of the conflagration even then threatened.

The building contained a large amount of equipment and lumber but it could not be estimated at the time the exact extent of the damage.

The blaze, one of the largest in several years, drew thousands of onlookers but lasted only a short time since the fire spread rapidly and the dry lumber on the interior burned like kindling.

Because of the intense heat and the rapidity with the flames spread, the fire department, however, were unable to do much to halt the fire.

"Europe's Surgeon"

Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain, above, in a recent parliamentary utterance, portrayed Great Britain in the role of surgeon for Europe's ills and intimated a desire that the United States become a consultant at the operating table.

Word Received From Hepburn Allays Fears

Anxiety Had Been Felt For Premier And Air Touring Party

WHITE ROSE, Yukon Territory—July 28.—(AP)—A message received here today said that Premier Mitchell Hepburn and his air-touring party had landed safely at Carcross, Yukon Territory.

Anxiety for the Premier and the party which included Bernard E. ("Boll'em Ben") Smith, New York broker, mounted as hours passed and the party was unreported.

The plane took off from here at 5:12 P. M. yesterday for Juvvasu, Alaska about an hour's flight. Delay in hearing of the landing was caused by lack of communications facilities in this far-north country.

The party were reported to be awaiting weather reports at Carcross before continuing.

Gene Wagner Killed In Auto Collision

Friends in Sanford of Gene Wagner, 13, will regret to learn of her death in an auto collision near Jasper, Fla. on Sunday night. Three other persons were hurt in the accident.

The Wagner auto collided with a car in which two men were riding. These were identified as the pair previously holding up a nearby filling station.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wagner and a sister, Francis were taken to Valdosta where they were treated for their injuries. They were removed by ambulance Wednesday to their home in Gainesville.

Mrs. Wagner was born and reared in Sanford and was formerly Miss Lettie Harrold.

Tax Assessment On Arcade Is Reduced

In Tuesday's Herald it was erroneously reported that the City Commission refused to take action on a request by Colton Matheson, head of the Mather Furniture Company, to reduce the tax assessment on the McLander Arcade building which he said he proposed to purchase if the Commission saw fit to reduce the assessment.

The Commission decided to reduce the assessment from $85,988 to $34,008, indicating that this would be comparable in line with others on First Street.

Bar Group Not To Ask Review Of Black Case

Resolution To Query Court On Eligibility Of Former Senator Is Turned Down

CLEVELAND, July 28.—(AP)—The American Bar Association's resolutions committee today refused to approve a resolution which would have the organization ask the United States Supreme Court for information on the "eligibility" of Associate Justice Hugo L. Black.

The committee also disapproved a proposed resolution sharply attacking Nazi Germany for "discrimination" against "law-abiding citizens" solely because of their race, religion or political opinions.

The committee said the Supreme Court already had refused to rule on Black's eligibility and added that the resolution against Nazi Germany "is not within the purview of the association."

A committee of the American Bar Association last night described the New Deal's Social Security Act as "improperly drawn" and said the National Labor Relations Board and its subsidiary boards "must be regarded as the partisans of one class against the other and the result must be to intensify class antagonism."

The committee on labor, employment and social security in its report said the labor act is "the deliberate embodiment of a new social policy," in which the government "has departed from the traditional role of mediator and arbiter."

The house of delegates failed to complete its agenda and presentation of the report was delayed along with the controversial constitutional committee on administrative law, which were attacked by Commissioner Jerome N. Frank on the Securities and Exchange Commission as "infamously."

Frank has asked that the committee withdraw what he described as a "lurid" on Chairman William O. Douglas of the SEC.

The labor committee said the labor board's procedure "is such that it cannot command the confidence of the public" and suggested amendments which would "observe the traditional requirements of fair play, guarantee an impartial hearing, and give to the employer and employee alike the right of presenting complaints."

One of the directors (Hoffman) is shown as he prepared to take the witness stand.

Pepper Pledges Support To New Hospital Plan

Housholder Advised Project Will Get Closest Attention

A telegram has been received from Senator Claude Pepper, County Attorney E. F. Housholder stating that while the PWA hospital project for Seminole County has not yet been received by the Washington office, he expected there within the next week.

Senator Pepper promised his office would give the project the attention possible and that himself, would give the project his personal attention.

Mr. Housholder declared that he had also received notice from the Atlanta headquarters of the PWA that the hospital project had been received and would be given the closest attention possible before being forwarded to Washington for approval.

A field representative from the Atlanta office of the PWA visited Sanford a few days this week on behalf of the project.

Mr. Housholder stated, adding that he urged the County to prepare other worthy projects and submit them for approval.

It is contemplated that an election of the freeholders will be called just as soon as approval is given the project.

Declaring that he expected the PWA to render a favorable decision, Mr. Housholder pointed out that no objection had been raised and, therefore, the chances are good the project has been viewed favorably.

Maturity Of Nation Seen As Cause Of Depression

By MORGAN HEATY
WASHINGTON, July 28.—(AP)—I have just been reading in the Times of our Justice Department's new report on the high-unemployment rate of 1929, which would have been stated:

For we have known that our way within our lifetime one factor of the worklessness of the nation would be the high-unemployment rate. We would have received a series of the United States' aptitude with every advance marked by a standard measure of transfered population.

We might have predicted that our Congress, our state legislatures and our city council would be spending borrowed money of the day of two billion dollars a year to care for jobless millions.

I might have done no good to recognize them but nevertheless, facts and figures showing us that a million of us had known how to interpret them as some people who held on the other day in a hope of a better day.

We began having cities by the mystery of unemployment and relief. Here they are:

1. U. S. territorial expansion was rapid and varied.
2. The railroad industry grew like a sunflower, then never grew another such.
3. A nation essentially agricultural became a nation basically industrial.
4. Automobile manufacturing appeared, raced into mass production, and tapered off to a steady grade.

Brown Forsees Townsend Victories In Indiana Congressional Election

CHICAGO, July 28.—(AP)—With the endorsement of six candidates in as many districts in Indiana who oppose six incumbents for election to the United States Congress, Townsend National Headquarters has opened the way for a Townsend victory which will attract the attention of the whole Nation, according to B. J. Brown, national representative for Indiana, confident that the Indiana Townsend organization is now numerically strong enough to elect a full Townsend slate to the United States Congress. Townsend National Headquarters has gone on record as endorsing the candidacy of six men, all of whom are pledged to support the Townsend legislative program.

The endorsement of these six candidates was made official by a special bulletin sent to all clubs in the Districts concerned with these candidates and all Club members were urged to spare no effort to insure the election of the men named. They oppose incumbents who, it has been determined, cannot be won to support the Townsend Plan.

MONEY FOR HEART

WASHINGTON, July 28.—(AP)—The Internal Revenue Bureau decided yesterday that William Randolph Hearst, the publisher, had been over-assessed $242,750 in capital gains for 1930. The bureau said the gain reported in the tax return had been found to be over-stated erroneously and the amount of the over-assessment was credited against taxes for another year.

Prompt Evacuation Of Civilians From Hankow Is Ordered

Buddhists And Moslems Clash In Burma City

Six Killed, 100 Hurt As Violence Rages In Rangoon Streets

BEIJING, Chinese, July 28.—(AP)—The Japanese government ordered today the prompt evacuation of civilians from Hankow.

An evacuation plan was issued today which ordered the Japanese troops to leave Hankow by July 31. A total of 145,000 civilians were reported to have been evacuated. The Japanese recently had ordered from Manchuria, France to discharge a cargo of sugar and coffee. The ship itself contained only slight damage. One of those killed aboard the Kallawa was Albert Møller, Danish agent of the European Non-Intervention Committee. The other was the ship's Chinese cook. The Kallawa is owned by the same company as the freighter Dalway which was sunk yesterday by a lone airplane of the British operated post of Formosa, south of Valencia.

It was reported that a Japanese plane had been shot down by British forces in the vicinity of the city. The plane was carrying a cargo of supplies. The pilot was reported to have been killed.

The evacuation of civilians from Hankow, China's industrial capital, was ordered as Japan's war machine moved steadily closer to the population area. In Spain, meanwhile, the surprise government counter-offensive in Catalonia apparently still was far from ahead in its fourth day.

The command that civilians leave those Yangtze River cities, Hankow, Wuhan and HanYang, showed a Japanese shift in the area and a desire to avoid a long, unprofitable war. The Japanese ordered Japanese provinces to be involved in the war.

High Tribunal Again Rules On Adjustment Act

LUXEMBURG, July 28.—(AP)—The Supreme court today ruled today that property owners who had opted for themselves of the 1913 law of 1913 may also opt for the law of 1925 to clear up tax delinquencies.

It was a 4-2 decision. Chief Justice Ellis and Justice Barends dissented with the controlling decision by Justices Tervelt, Wilhelms and Chapman. Justice Barends did not participate.

The fact that a property owner has started installing a system of development taxes under the Dutch law did not prevent him from proceeding under the later Murphy Law, the three justices said.

Justices Ellis and Barends said this holding "violates an impliedly and discrimination in taxation which violates" the Constitution.

The Dutch Act provided for taxes delinquent prior to 1925 to be paid in equal installments over a period of years if current taxes were paid in full. The Murphy Act provided for all delinquent taxes to be settled by the high bid at a public auction of tax certificates held by the State.

E. H. Leuthar, as clerk of the Circuit Court in Dale County, appealed here from an order directing him to issue receipts to the Somerset Company for 1925 and 1928 taxes, after a Murphy law sale.

Lieut. Hoffman Is Given Recognition

The rank of First Lieut. Wilbur D. Hoffman, commanding officer of Headquarters Company, 124th Infantry, Florida National Guards here, has been recognized as valid by the War Department, according to the Associated Press.

The recognition, which followed fitness tests by boards of the regular army and national guard officers, gave those recognized the dual status of commissioned officers of the military force of Florida and officers of the United States National Guard.

Other officers gaining the recognition were First Lieut. Eugene D. Simmons, 255th Coast Artillery, Jacksonville, and Capt. James A. Fort, Jr. Lake Wales.
