BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

DO NOT ACT FOOLISHLY. WISDOM IS FOUND IN FOLLOWING DIVINE GUIDANCE: For he hath no pleasure in fools.—Ecc. 5:4.

According to the American Medical Association a child born today can expect to live to 100 years old.

Andrei Vishinsky accuses Charles de Gaulle of being a Fascist, the better than Hitler. Yet it was Premier Paul Reynaud, whom Premier Klamazir is now trying to get to form a new government.

In Chicago the other night a 30 year old draftsman on his way home after a binge mistook his neighbor's home for his own. His neighbor, a 29 year old ex-service man, mistook him for a burglar, let him have it, two .22 bullets in the neck from which he died.

General Clay reveals that the Russians have received 80 percent of the 90,000 tons of reparations shipped out of Germany's U. S. zone so far.

The American people, although earning more money now than ever before, are not saving as much as they did before the war.

One of the wisest moves this country has made since the war ended, was the reduction of tariffs, as announced last night.

The Senate investigation has not uncovered any sensational scandal with respect to Howard Hughes, but it has revealed some evidence of corruption which needed to be revealed in connection with Air Forces procurement.

The Duke And Duchess

Some Americans, it is said, have been incensed at the omission of the Duke and Duchess of Windsor from the guest list for Princess Elizabeth's wedding.

The Duke and Duchess themselves have reacted differently. Arriving the other day in New York aboard the Queen Mary the two were immediate targets for queries of reporters about this wedding invitation business.

This duke, who sat so briefly on the English throne, and his duchess have conducted themselves with similar reticence and dignity through the long years since the world's spotlight was turned on their every move.

Kansas Likes Them Old

He is 82, but thinks he has long years of intellectual and physical vigor ahead of him. This alone could explain the decision of Senator Arthur Capper of Kansas to run for a sixth term when his present term expires in 1948.

Kansas evidently likes aged senators. Capper's colleague is 76-year-old Clyde Reed, whose term does not expire till 1951.

Pan American Accord

Despite very real accomplishments, much work still lies ahead of the Pan American Union. The need for establishing inter-hemisphere good will and common defense strategies is generally accepted by citizens of the United States.

This was brought out in a recent survey by George Gallup's Institute of Public Opinion. For example, less than half of the persons interviewed, including college graduates, could locate accurately the South American republics.

It is clear that both primary and secondary schools as well as colleges throughout the United States must put added emphasis on South American subjects of every sort.

Is There An Emergency?

"Housing is no longer in an emergency status," says Norman P. Mason, president of the National Retail Lumber Dealers Association.

The hundreds of thousands of veterans and others who have been desperately trying to find any kind of home without spending every cent they have, will believe Mr. Mason when these houses materialize and at reasonable prices.

Big Wheat Crop Possible In Spite Of Seeding Delay

By OVID A. MARTIN WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—(AP)—A bumper wheat crop is still possible next year despite a serious seeding delay in the Great Plains, agriculture department officials said today.

The report said seeding has progressed well, however, on what now appears to be an increased acreage in all other important producing areas.

Officials said that assuming next year's production in the six drought-affected states is only one half this year's, it still would be possible, on the basis of present prospects, to harvest a total crop of at least 1,000,000,000 bushels.

THE WORLD TODAY

By DEWITT MACENZIE
All Foreign Affairs Analyst

As this is written, there is beside my desk two piles of current news reports—one batch dealing with the Communist effort to gain control of the French and Italian governments by force and intimidation, and the other, recording President Truman's message calling on Congress not only to put our own economic house in order but to provide economic aid for the stricken countries of western Europe.

There we have sharply defined the contrast of methods and aims in the conflict between American Democracy and Bolshevism. The first is premised on the belief that we should so conduct ourselves as to take a phrase from the President's message—"That men and women of all the world can move out of the shadows of fear and war into the light of freedom and peace."

Of course the U. S. A. isn't solely altruistic in its efforts to help the outside world, although we like to believe that we would offer our aid in any event.

The future of the free nations of Europe hangs in the balance. The future of our own economy is in jeopardy.

Mr. Truman not only asked Congress for limited wage and price controls and rationing authority at home, but called for $597,000,000 emergency winter aid for France, Italy and Austria.

The immediate future would seem to be the most critical period for western Europe. The French and Italian governments are fighting for their very lives against the powerful Communist parties which are trying to wreck them by strong-arm methods.

It would be rash to predict that the two countries would come through without civil strife. However, the consensus of observers is that both can weather the storm.

R. A. F. PILOTS WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—(AP)—Only 20 percent of the small force of R. A. F. fighter pilots in the battle of Britain ever shot down a German plane, Comdr. Noel Gayler, of the U. S. Navy's Special Devices center, said today.

The 80 percent remaining are fighting their way outside economic help and the rest of western Europe is able to stand firm.

"Scotty" To Make 19,000 Mile Trip For Love Of Cats

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK.—(AP)—Men do strange things for love, and William G. Martin wants to make a 19,000-mile journey—because of love for his three cats.

It is a great dream. But like all great dreams it has a problem. "I would go through hell for them cats, and I want them to have good homes in case anything happens to me," he said.

"Scotty" Martin is a five-foot-plus-Scotchman, who has nothing to show for his thirty-five years in America but the three cats he loves. For more than a third of a century he has earned his way with a clothesline, letting people tie him up at state fairs and in bars and pool halls.

"I used to do good business," he said. "I been tied up by lots of famous people—Gyp The Blood, Ty Cobb, Stanley Ketchel. Three times I tried to get Harry Houdini to tie me up. He wouldn't. It was professional jealousy. He knew I'd get loose."

But life has been lonely for the grizzled little man. He never married. And people weren't always kind to the queer roustabout who gave imitations of Harry Lauder.

I've taken abuse for thirty-five years," said Scotty. "Things like tough guys punching me when I was all tied up—so I must be a real Superman in still be alive."

Two years ago the human stray began to pick up stray cats to have something on which to spend the love dammed up in every heart. For while the hotel let him keep his three cats in his pet room, but the manager some months ago told him this violated board of health rules.

Scotty took the cats to a pet shop which charges him $1.50 a day to board and keep them. He's currently $9 in back to the pet shop, and he said he can't go up to see the cats unless he pays something on the bill.

"I have a great love for my cats," he said. "I worship them. I put better on them than people are to their babies."

Worried over their fate if anything befell him, Scotty evolved his great dream.

"If I can just find good homes for my cats until next Spring so I won't have to keep paying the veterinarian I'll be all set," he said.

"Then when the weather warms up I can go across the country and perform with my cats. I'll have 15,000 postcards printed and sell them. That'll give me the rest of the money I need."

"I'll sail from San Francisco for Australia and leave one cat with my sister who lives at Googee, near Sydney.

"Then I'll go on to New Zealand and leave another cat with my sister who lives there. And then I'll sail for Scotland and leave the last cat with my brother who is a pawnbroker in Dumbarton, near where I was born.

"I figure the trip will be 19,000 miles. Who ever went that far before to give cats away?"

"But I'm broke now. I've got to find a decent home for my cats until Spring. I don't mind if there's children in the home. And I wouldn't bother the people. I only would come to see the cats once a week."

The gray-haired little man knotted his small white fists. "I'd slave for my cats," he said. "I'd cut off my right arm for them. They've shown me ten thousand times more love and affection than I ever got from human beings."

Scotty hasn't written his relatives about the cats. He wants to surprise them.

Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 18 (AP)—Victor Mature, former Peck's bad boy of Hollywood, is on the brink of marriage.

Victor Mature, who has eschewed night clubbing and publicity grabbing since his return from the Coast Guard, apparently has gotten over his torch for Rita Hayworth and has found the girl he wants to marry. She is Dorothy Berry, a nonprofessional from Pasadena. Vic says this "it's the knot 'if she'll have me."

The actor is the pride of 20th-Fox these days due to "Kiss of Death," after "Ballad of Furnace Creek," he's set for "The Chair For Martin Home," "Strictly Dishonorable" and "Road House." The former "beautiful hunk" is now a changed man.

Ingrid Bergman says "Under Capricorn," which she'll make for Alfred Hitchcock after "Joan," will be filmed in England. After that she has planned nothing. Having concluded her Selznick pact, she is happy to be free of contractual demands.

Charles Korvin plans to tour the coast in "Pursuit of Happiness" after he finishes "Berlin Express." He may join Luise Rainer, Karen Morley and Albert Dekker in "Christ in Concrete," which will be filmed in Italy. The story takes place in New York! Then why go to Italy, you ask? The answer has something to do with the thawing of frozen funds.

June Haver is preparing for "Sweet Sue," a 1910 musical with Alan Young at 20th-Fox, as well as "Silver Lining" at Warners. As part of the latter deal, she will do a yearly film for Warners in the next three years. Dan Dailey, Jr., is still being sought for the Jack Donaghy role, but Robert Hutton may take over.

The Bergman "Joan" (you can bet that won't be the final title) is expected to run up a bill of over $7,000,000 by the time it reaches the theaters. Director Victor Fleming's seven-day illness added $200,000 to the amount, making it the most expensive low-grade infection in history. The company figures the film will have to bring back $10,000,000 to RKO before it shows a profit. That means about $30,000,000 at the box-office, in case you didn't think the movies are a big business.

Rosalind Russell says her next after "The Velvet Touch" will be a comedy—or else. That's what she said after her last three dramas, but this time she'll probably get her wish. Virginia Van Upp, a comedy expert, will produce her next at Columbia.

Robert Ryan, who scored as the anti-Semite in "Crossfire," will address a meeting of the National Conference of Christians and Jews in Chicago Nov. 29. Then he heads for New York and a public whirl. Ida Lupino sold her house to Carmen Cavallaro.

Vincent Price is sparking a drive to establish a museum of modern art here.

Janis Paige will marry Frank Martinelli, Jr. Jan. 4. He's a San Franciscan, but they'll settle here. Clyde Rogers is deserting the Freddy Martin band to tenor on his own. Jack Carson finished "April Showers" and starts, he hopes, a 12-week vacation from films. "Hot," he added, "I'll probably be back to do 'Two Guys From Hong Kong.'"

The Panthers will be fighting a revengeful battle when they invade the local field tonight since they were soundly trounced in a 27 to 6 contest by the Baby Seminoles in Eustis several weeks ago.

Coach Fred Ganas has been prepping his charges for the contest and has set up special defenses against the "T" formation employed by the Panthers. Coach Ganas has also been running the Baby Feds through additional plays in an attempt to give the boys a more rounded offensive attack for the contest.

The Baby Seminoles will employ the double-wing formation on the defense, the same as is used by the varsity combine.

Coach Ganas will probably start Gene Smith and Britt Yates at the ends, Edison Meyers and Ed Yarborough at the tackles, Bobby Meyers and Bill Howard at the guards and George Dugas in the center of the forward wall. Floyd Sparkman will start the contest at quarterback, Cedrick Dunham will open at left half, John Kroling or Dan Betton will start at left half and Charles Anderson will begin at the spinnerback.

The co-captains for Sanford will be Gene Smith and Britt Yates, the two flankers.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18 (AP)—Joe McCarthy never has quite succeeded in living down that tag of "push button manager" that Jimmy Bynes hung on him, but he ever thought he could push a button to start the trade machinery working so quickly?

Vern Stephens and Jack Kramer should be a big help to the Red Sox in the 1948 pennant race.

Speaking of the Army coaching staff, Andy Gustafson says, "We think Arsenal Galtiff is going to be a great quarterback before he gets through at West Point."

then he adds, "We think Penn's Chuck Bednarik is one of the greatest centers we have ever seen."

Marie Douman, the New Orleans lightweight who has made a great record on the west coast, has cooked up the idea of taking some California cormorants back to Louisiana and training them to fish for him.

Marie hopes some day to own a large fleet of fishing boats.

Ever hear of a football game that stretched over two months? Well, here it is now.

On Oct. 31, a negro high school team from Bluefield, W. Va., started by bus to play a night game at Hinton, 60 miles away.

Halfway there, they encountered a washout and the bus returned.

Winton officials, advised by phone, told the Bluefield coach to bring his boys by a longer route.

The game finally got under way at 11:00 P. M. and finished about 1:00 A. M. the following day, Nov. 1.

COMMENTS from the SIDELINES

By ARTHUR BECKWITH, JR.

Glands
The New York Giants' tryout camp is being set for the first of February, and from all accounts they are really planning on an outstanding group of prospects.

They are advertising the camp in the Sporting News, the Chicago Tribune, the Detroit Free Press and the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Giants conducted a school in Palatka last year and had over 900 candidates to report. They signed 40 players from the 200.

This year they have a much larger camp in view and expect 500 men to attend.

The bulk of the Giants scouting staff will be in Sanford to assist with the camp. Carl Hubbell, all-time pitching great, will supervise the school personally. He will be assisted by Clarence (Bubba) Jensen, supervisor of all the Giants' lower classification clubs, John H. Lane, Robert Tom, Rouben, Eddie Montague, Bill Harris, George Mack, Nick Shinkoff, Jerry Monte, Gene Romasheus, Hal Gruber and Dick Bowman, trainer. Others may also be here.

We would like to see a number of Central Florida athletes enroll in the camp. In the event that they should want to do so, they are requested to write Mr. Carl Hubbell at 100 West 42nd Street, New York, N. Y.

The Giants are interested in getting men between the ages of 17 and 23 years of age. When the applicants write to Hubbell they are requested to give their age, height, weight, playing position, how they bat and throw, and full baseball experience as well as their full home address. High school students or American Legion juniors are requested not to file applications to attend the school.

There is no entry fee or tuition of any kind, but all candidates have to pay their own transportation costs as well as their room and board. They will be housed in former officers' barracks at the Sanford Municipal Airport. The housing and feeding will be $20 per week. Players who are signed to contracts will have their transportation and living expenses refunded to them.

President Trautman Wipes Slate Clean On FSL Ump Case

SILVER SPRINGS, Nov. 18 (Special)—Except that "evidence of their unfortunate and thoughtless error will be forever preserved on their record cards, the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues plans no additional penalty against former Florida State League Umpires Al Bellack, Kerry Davis and Ross Herlong, it was announced here today at league headquarters in a letter from Association President George Trautman.

The umpires had been discharged when League President Syd Herlong learned that they had played poker with the members of the Gainesville club while they were in Moultrie for the annual inter-league play-offs with the Georgia-Florida League winner.

In closing the book on the case, President Trautman said in part, "This office did not feel it necessary or advisable to make penalties in this particular case. These umpires were the employees of, and were under the supervision of, the Florida State League, and on the basis of an investigation conducted by this office, in which it was disclosed that the three umpires, together with Gainesville ball players, the Gainesville bus driver, and the clubhouse man engaged in a poker game, which surely this office does not condone, and as a result of which the President of the Florida State League, discharged the umpires."

Continuing, Mr. Trautman said, "It was and is the opinion of this office that the penalty imposed sufficiently befitted the crime. Official notice of the discharge of the umpires has never been given in this office. However, some of the umpires of the Florida State League were reserved, therefore all are free agents. The record cards of the three umpires . . . carry the evidence of this unfortunate and thoughtless occurrence."

President Herlong explained yesterday that he had not signed official release blanks because he had been awaiting final action, if any, by Mr. Trautman. Mr. Herlong added that it is not unusual for the league did not reserve any of the season staff for the directors often have authorized the president to start with a "clean slate."

That an entirely new staff of umpires will start the 1948 season was indicated during the week when President Will Hardidge of the American League announced that he had assigned Umpire Bill Summers of his staff to conduct the Florida State League's second annual free umpire school at Orlando Jan. 15 through Feb. 11, 1948.

League director John Gansel of Orlando now is completing all details in connection with the school, and an official announcement as to such details as housing and so on is expected within the week.

Al Kasulin, powerful running University of Miami tailback of pre-war days, is one of the main cogs in the 1947 Hurricane offensive. Kasulin will run from the all important tailback post when Miami meets Florida in the state championship battle, Nov. 21st, in the Orange Bowl.

Russians Request Right To Compete In Olympics But . . .

NEW HAVEN, Conn. Nov. 18 (AP)—Russia wants to compete next year in the Olympic games, says Robert J. H. Kiphuth, Yale's director of athletics and head U. S. Olympic swimming coach, provided.

Kiphuth last night told the Junior Chamber of Commerce here that Russia had applied for the first time in history to compete in the Olympics but there are certain restrictions.

He identified these "stipulations and conditions" as requests that Russian be made an official language of the games; that a Russian be placed immediately on the Olympic governing board, and that representatives of all Fascist countries be excluded from the games.

Gators, 'Canes Meet In Ninth Tiff Friday

CORAL GABLES, Fla. Nov. 18 (Special)—No championship beyond the state title will be at stake Friday night Nov. 21 when the Universities of Miami and Florida clash in the ninth game of their series that has cost some 30,000 Floridians, though it'll be enough.

Neither team has had an impressive gridiron record this fall but Miami has fallen much farther below expectations than have the Gators and what looked like a show-in for Miami back in September, now looms as a tight battle. Florida's wins over North Carolina and Furman are more impressive than the victories Miami gained over George Washington and Rollins College.

However, it doesn't take comparatively even records on the part of these teams to make it a close game—only once has the margin of victory been greater than two touchdowns—that coming in 1940 when a Gator team at its peak took the Hurricanes at their nadir in a 45-6 duel. Two touchdowns margins were recorded by the winner in each of the other five games of the first six. In 1945, Miami won by a single point, in 1946 the Hurricanes won by seven points.

Of the eight games played, each has won four. However, the Gators grabbed three of their wins in a row, from 1939 through 1941 and have earned the winner only once since as Miami won three times to even the series.

In 1943, Florida had no team, this bringing the only interruption in the series. Florida, by virtue of its 1940 scoring spree, leads in the series scoring, 112 points to 64.

Six of the eight games have been played in Miami, Florida winning four and losing two while the Hurricanes have taken both the games played in Gainesville and each time the Hurricanes scored three touchdowns. They have never topped the 14 point mark in the Orange Bowl against Florida.
