

Curley Wins Post As Mayor Nominee In Comeback Race

By JAMES F. KING
 BOSTON, Sept. 23—(AP)—Staid old Boston today saw one of the nation's last big city political "bounces" fighting in an attempted comeback—in the role of an underdog.

The 77-year-old James Michael Curley, four times mayor of this historic city, won one of two nominations in a non-partisan mayoral primary.

But "the old man"—as he's known among supporters—trailed Mayor John B. Hynes, seeking a second term, by more than 30,000 votes—a clear majority in the four-cornered preliminary race.

The 54-year-old Hynes, a little known clerk at the City Hall during Curley's regime, rolled up 103,438 votes to 77,011 for the man he once served under.

The final showdown comes in the Nov. 6 election. Two years ago Hynes edged out Curley by 13,000 votes.

Still confident even though the records show Hynes made inroads into his one-time stragglers, Curley told his workers:

"Now there's just two of us. The road is now clear, the issues are clear, and we start working tomorrow morning for our success in November."

Hynes, who first came into the political limelight when he sat in the "rotting mayor" while Curley served a five months term in a Federal penitentiary for fraud, declared:

"I have always believed that if you do right by the people, the people will do all right by you. The preliminary election confirms my belief."

Curley was convicted of being a member of a group which took $60,000 from clients on a promise of helping them get war contracts—eve though the court conceded there was no evidence he profited personally.

President Truman gave him a pardon—clearing his record on this and a previous conviction early in his political career when he was accused of taking a civil service position in the name of another man.

About 60 percent of the registered voters turned out—almost twice as many as usually go to the polls in a primary. The Hynes machine pinned their hopes on a heavy vote while the Curley camp counted on the solid bloc he has always got.

While the primary was non-partisan, Hynes won the endorsement of most of the Republican leaders in this traditionally Democratic stronghold. Both Hynes and Curley are registered Democrats.

Party politics played no direct part in the campaign, however.

Joseph P. Timilty, wealthy financier and a former police commissioner under Curley, ran a poor third—polling only 15,748 votes. The fourth candidate in the field—Thomas J. O'Brien, a political unknown who did little campaigning—polled only 1,409 votes.

 build labor unity—seemed to leave out only a few left-wing unions, AFL leaders said it was not their intention to begin any unification effort with John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers.

Many said unification with the mine workers "is not within the present plans and intentions" of the AFL.

Lewis, in walking out of the AFL convention here four years ago, called AFL leaders "fat and staidly asleep" and in a year later he "disaffiliated" his 600,000 men unit from the AFL.

Standing ovations were given Green and Meany. Also re-elected unanimously as vice presidents were:

William L. Hutchence, carpenter; Matthew Well, photo-engraver; George M. Harrison, railway worker; Daniel J. Hobin, teamster; Harry C. Bales, bricklayer; W. C. Brightwright, barber; William Dubinsky, ladies garment worker; C. Doherty, letter carrier; David Charles J. MacGowan, boiler-maker; Herman Winter, baker; Dan Tracy, electrician; W. L. Feltz, building service worker; and James C. Petrillo, musician.

The convention closed after approving resolutions approved by the resolutions committee. Stands were included:

Putting the AFL on record in favor of a national labor daily newspaper; civil rights; rent control; (provision) controls allow building service workers (see page 5 shows); higher wages for U. S. bonds; the Central Airplane Project; defense bonds to be placed only in union hands.

Opposing the AFL's opposition to the filibuster in the Senate; standard wages and hours for Puerto Rican workers.

APME President L. R. Blanchard, managing editor of the Rochester, N. Y., Democrat and Chronicle, pointed up the importance of the Oatis case, because of its bearing on the free gathering of news, to editors throughout the nation.

Blanchard told interviewers "I think we should get tough with the Czechs."

The Oatis committee report went farther.

Signed by J. R. Wiggin, Washington Post; George Corliss of the New York Herald Tribune who was unable to attend, and John Hempel of the University of Indiana Daily Student, it will advise those who retain William Oatis in prison continue in their disregard of every plea of humanity, in their indifference to every consideration of justice and in their defiance of every demand for the protection of the citizen of a friendly power, the most serious measure must be contemplated.

Announcement was made by the president, Mrs. V. C. Messenger, of the official visit of the Lt. District Governor, Miss Marion Lippman, of St. Petersburg on Oct. 8.

Each committee chairman was reminded that annual reports should be made in quadruplicate and turned in at that time.

Miss Ruth Mitchell, a recent member, was initiated with appropriate ceremonies performed by the president and Mrs. R. C. Maxwell. The Code of Ethics was read by Mrs. Ruth Scott.

Announcement was made of the rummage sale which will be held at Puckett and Royal Furniture Store on Sanford Avenue on Saturday, Oct. 13. All members were requested to come to the Yacht Club on the evening of Oct. 10 in order to mark the articles to be put on sale.

Mrs. Messenger urged as many members as possible to attend the Civic Luncheon on Friday which is being sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's Club.

There were 22 members present at the meeting.

Iranian Oil

 Iran. Britain has planes, ships and troops within easy striking distance of the refinery city, which is on an island in the Shatt-el-Arab River dividing Iran from Iraq.

The British protest to Iran warned that the decision to expel the oil men "must have a grave effect on Anglo-Iranian relations."

The protest was delivered orally in Tehran.

The Foreign Office spokesman declined to amplify on what Shepherd meant about possible "consequences" of the expulsion order.

If Britain takes a more forceful line toward Iran it would pose grave international problems for all the North Atlantic pact allies.

Iran has a mutual defense treaty with Russia, signed in 1921, that entitles Russia to send troops into Iran if Iran is invaded. This must be taken into account in the reckoning on whether force should be used at Abadan.

Britain contends Iran's oil nationalization amounts to appropriation of British property and that the expulsion of personnel would violate a recent ruling by the International Court of Justice at the Hague.

The court held that neither Iran nor Britain should "aggravate or extend" their dispute and that "no measure of any kind" should be taken to hinder the oil operations.

Iran refused to accept the court's opinion. Britain closed down the oil operations some time ago when storage were filled. British tanker ships were called to get service last summer during a dispute over who owned the oil from the refinery—Iran or the British.

Britain hoped to have some sort of respite from the White House in Washington in time for discussion at a full cabinet meeting in London tomorrow.

Truman Secrecy Order Blasted As Ill Advised

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 23—(AP)—One of America's leading newspapermen today said President Truman's new clampdown on information is "ill-advised and poorly executed."

James S. Pope, chairman of the American Society of Newspaper Editors' Committee on Freedom of Information, issued a statement questioning whether the order will aid security.

President Truman ordered civilian agencies handling matters affecting the defense program to classify certain matters as "security information"—top secret, confidential or restricted.

Pope, managing editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, said: "It is impossible for any committee to challenge a genuine effort to protect military security. However, we do not believe that the President's order will protect security much better than another legitimate information about the operation of government."

The Kentucky editor, in San Francisco for the annual meeting of the Associated Press Managing Editors' Association, added: "The greatest security of this country is full understanding and knowledge by the people who are intended—under our Constitution—to run it."

Pope listed these as his committee's chief objections to the presidential order:

1. Every civilian who is the head of any sort of government bureau, department, or agency is encouraged to "classify security material."

2. There is absolutely no definition of security and it is a very difficult technical subject for any civilian to comprehend.

3. There is no authority constituted in this order to which the newspapers can appeal, except in those same government officials who created the order.

"In other words, the entire government of the United States is being encouraged by this order to seal off so-called security information without any real education on what this is."

Boyle Probe

 Siskind said there was "not one case" that Boyle or the Democratic National Committee had referred to him since Boyle sold the law practice.

In an often stormy session, Siskind insisted to a Senate investigations subcommittee that the account of American Lithofold Corp. was not among those he purchased from Boyle. And he declared that Boyle acts as part of a $500-a-month retainer he now receives from Lithofold.

The senators are looking into a $565,000 government loan to American Lithofold, a St. Louis printing firm, and the question of whether Boyle exerted political influence to get the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to make the loan.

The loan was made in 1949 when Boyle was the company's lawyer here. He has said he had nothing to do with it. Boyle became Democratic chairman that same year and announced he was giving up his law practice.

Boyle is to take the witness chair tomorrow.

Siskind testified that he had no part in getting the government loan for Lithofold. He said too that he never solicited government business for the company.

When Boyle retired from law practice, Siskind related, he purchased some of Boyle's law practice for an agreed price of $150,000.

"Since May, 1949, I have paid Mr. Boyle approximately $99,000 which represents term payments on the indebtedness of $150,000," he continued. "About $50,000 is still due on this account."

He said he succeeded Boyle as legal counsel to American Lithofold but insisted the Lithofold account was not one of those he purchased.

Siskind said he and Boyle were never law partners as popularly believed but were "associated" in law practice.

Several senators demanded that Siskind produce a list of the clients he took over from Boyle.

The declaration came as a climax to Italian Premier De Gasperi's three-day talks with President Truman and Secretary of State Acheson in Washington.

The accompanying communique said the Prime Minister and Acheson agreed that a solution to the question of returning Trieste to Italy would "greatly strengthen unity of Western Europe."

No mention was made, however, as to whether Yugoslavia's Italian subjects of this ethnic problem was necessary before the Italian treaty could be changed.

The Italian-American announcement also reported the signing of agreements under which:

1. De Gasperi has pledged Italy's "determination to lend cooperation fully" to present Western plans for bringing West Germany into North Atlantic defense forces.

2. The United States has given "assurance" to help in giving priorities to Italy's requests for equipment needed to boost electric power and steel output.

Rules Committee Decides Senator Smith Qualified

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23—(AP)—The Senate Rules Committee decided today that Senator Margaret Chase Smith (R-Me) should be seated from Congress.

Mrs. Smith had asked the committee to decide her qualifications to sit on an investigating subcommittee because she said McCarthy had accused her of being prejudiced against him.

The rules subcommittee has before it a resolution by Senator Benton (D-Conn) calling for a Senate investigation to determine if there are any grounds for expelling McCarthy from the Senate.

Chairman Hayden (D-Ariz) said the committee "express its feeling that Mrs. Smith is well qualified" to sit on the resolution.

Hayden, said there were no dissenting votes.

McCarthy had suggested earlier that Mrs. Smith disqualify herself, but said he opposed her "forcible removal" from the subcommittee. In a letter to the full rules committee today, McCarthy declared that nothing the subcommittee does will curb his Communist-in-government charges.

The group has before it a resolution by Senator Benton (D-Conn) calling for a Senate inquiry to determine whether there are any grounds for ousting McCarthy from the Senate.

Senators Defeat Move To Increase Corporation Tax

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23—(AP)—The Senate today voted down, 54 to 33, a proposal to make corporations pay higher taxes on all of their 1951 income.

The vote sustained the Finance Committee in fixing Apr. 1 as the effective date for higher corporation income levies in the Senate's $5,500,000,000 tax bill. Senator Lehman (D-Lib-NY) had sought to make the increase retroactive to last Jan. 1 as in the House measure.

Lehman estimated the Apr. 1 date would save the corporations $500,000,000 in the first year's operations under the new tax schedule.

"This is not time for mollycoddling—either ourselves as individuals, our people or our corporations," Lehman declared.

The House, in passing its $7,300,000,000 tax bill, set Jan. 1 for the start of the five percent rate increase in the corporation law. The Senate Finance group went along with that boost but shifted the effective date.

The Senate vote was a defeat for a bloc of 15 senators trying to raise the tax boost to the $10,000,000,000 level sought by President Truman. It was the first of 10 amendments sponsored by their group to be called up.

Lehman called the Apr. 1 date "a special favor to corporations" at the time they are making the highest profits in history.

Senate Democratic Leader McFarland of Arizona, backed Lehman, asserting that "our country is in an emergency and we need the money."

But Chairman George (D-Ga) of the finance committee contended the U. S. now has "the highest corporation taxes in the world" and should try to levy them as equitably as possible.

The present rate of 47 per cent would go up to 52 per cent in both the House and Senate bills, George pointed out. There also is a 30 per cent excess profit tax rate on top of the regular corporate tax.

Specialist Sees Labor Scarcity Facing Growers

HASTINGS, Sept. 23—(AP)—Florida's vegetable growers are now faced with a labor scarcity. Dr. F. S. Jamison of the University of Florida told some 100 vegetable producers yesterday.

There will be a shortage of durable goods during the coming year and Americans consequently will buy more food, said Dr. Jamison who is vegetable crop specialist of the university's Agricultural Extension Service.

But this increase in demand will be neutralized by higher labor and other vegetable production costs, he added.

He advised the growers present from Clay, Flagler, St. Johns, Alachua and Putnam counties to consider reducing their vegetable production along with other Florida growers by 7 1/2 per cent this year.

The meeting was sponsored by the university's Agricultural Extension Service and its Agricultural Experiment Stations.

Dr. A. H. Edkins of the potato investigations laboratory, Hastings, told of "root club," a new disease affecting cabbage, while Entomologist Walter Thames of the Everglades Station, Belle Glade, discussed wireworm control.

Use of rubber-coated picking baskets can reduce potato picking loss from 12 to 2 1/2 pounds for each 100 pounds, according to Dr. R. E. Green of the Experiment Station at Gainesville.

PRISON ESCAPE

BUFORD, Ga., Sept. 23—(AP)—Heavily-armed searchers early today rounded up four hungry, desperate fugitives from Georgia's "Little Alcatraz" prison.

Still evading the posse, for the time being, were two of six white-fled Murrells from the new $1,000,000 rock quarry prison. Those were Wiley and Joe Murrell, long-term robbers and burglars.

Leaders of the manhunt said they believed they had these two pocketed near a farm home, only a short distance from Buford. More than 100 men with packs of bloodhounds moved to close in on them.

Senate Curbs Tax Exemption For President

Big Tax Bill To Include Ban On Exemptions, On Expenses Of Officials

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27—(AP)—The Senate voted 77-11 today to wipe out the tax exemption on expense allowances of the President, Vice President and members of Congress, effective Jan. 3, 1953.

The amendment, described by its sponsors as in effect a salary cut, was tacked on to a bill to increase taxes an estimated $5,500,000,000 a year. The bill calls for an 11 per cent boost in income taxes for most persons.

Senator Williams (R-Del.) sponsor of the amendment to remove the tax-free privilege on the expense funds, originally planned to make it effective Nov. 1, this year. That is the scheduled date of the boost in personal income taxes.

But Williams told newsmen he could not get enough votes to put it over without changing the effective date to 1953.

The amendment is not in the House—passed $7,200,000,000 tax increase bill and thus would be subject to action in conference between the two branches.

If the amendment sticks, the (Continued On Page Six)

Hearings Begun On Nomination Of Jessup To U. N.

McCarty Brands Ambassador As Being Close To Communists

By MARYVIL L. ARROWSMITH
WASHINGTON, Sept. 27—(AP)—Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) today produced copies of a batch of documents which he said support his contention that Ambassador-at-Large Philip C. Jessup has an "unusual affinity for Communist causes."

McCarthy took the material, bound with a cover sheet in deep pink color, before a Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee standing President Truman's nomination of Jessup as an American delegate to the United Nations. Jessup, a top advisor to Secretary of State Acheson, has served previously as a delegate.

The difference in the number of people killed between this year and last year, Kirkman said, is so small the miracle drugs might have been responsible for it.

Warren addressed the first general session of the conference in the layfront auditorium. Kirkman spoke a short time later.

Warren noted that in the first five months of 1950, 25 had been arrested on charges of lottery offenses.

State Attorney Murray Overstreet of Kissimmee declined to discuss the nature of the hearing. Asked of the presence of alleged lottery operators before the grand jury was an indication of a number of arrests, he replied, "I know your own conclusions."

The state attorney said he would issue a statement regarding the grand jury session within a few days.

Italy And Yugoslavia May Divide Trieste Territory Between Them

By ALEX RINGLTON
BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Sept. 27—(AP)—Responsible diplomatic sources here reported today that the United States, Britain and France have agreed to divide the Free Territory of Trieste between Yugoslavia and Italy.

Trieste, most important of the North Adriatic seaports, and its surrounding territory were set up as an independent region under the Italian peace treaty, with one half of the area administered by the British and the Americans, the other half by Yugoslavia.

These unofficial reports say Italy will receive the part of the territory including the big port of Trieste itself, now under Anglo-American jurisdiction, and known as Zone "A," while Yugoslavia will get the balance, Zone "B."

The report follows a meeting between Premier Alcide De Gasperi of Italy with President Truman and Secretary of State Dean Acheson, and a conference between Yugoslav Ambassador Vladimir Popovic and Acheson in Washington.

De Gasperi with whom Trieste's future is a burning issue, has expressed his disappointment that De Gasperi has not receiving with a solid guarantee that the area would be returned to Italy, although the other terms of the

Publishing Of Incomes Asked By President

Military Men, Party Workers Would Be Included In Proposed Legislation

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27—(AP)—President Truman asked Congress today to require its members and all top government officials—including generals, admirals and judges—to give a public accounting each year of their total income.

Mr. Truman said legislation along that line would help prevent "improper conduct" and "unfounded suspicions."

In a lengthy message, sent to the Capitol in the midst of a Senate inquiry into charges of political influence in government loans, the President said:

"In operations as large as those of our government today, with so much depending on official action in the Congress and in the executive agencies, there are bound to be attempts by private citizens or special interests groups to gain their ends by illegal or improper means."

Truman said he would favor including "the principle that national party officials and employees be among those persons required to file annual statements."

The President's own party chairman, William M. Boyle, Jr., was before the Senate's investigating subcommittee at the moment.

Specifically, the President recommended to Congress the prompt enactment of a law which will require all full-time civilian presidential appointees, including members of the Federal bench, all elected officers of the Federal government, including members of the Congress; and all other top officials and employees of the three branches of the government—pay those receiving salaries of $10,000 or more, plus flag and general officers of the armed services—to file annually a statement of their total income, including amount over and above their government salaries, and the sources of this outside income.

Consideration should be given, the President said, to require that government employees making less than $10,000 should make such statements if their outside income exceeds $1,000 a year.

He added:

"Some items which are not ordinarily counted as income, such as gifts and loans, should be included in the statements filed under this statute."

"Penalties for willful violation of this statute should be equivalent to those for violation of the laws relating to the filing of income tax returns."

The President declared the statements should be accessible to the public, asserting it would "help to prevent illegal or improper conduct and at the same time (Continued On Page Five)

Boyle Admits Big Fees In U.S. Cases

Denies Anything Was Wrong In Representing Clients While Acting Chairman

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27—(AP)—William M. Boyle, Jr., acknowledged today that he accepted eight law cases involving government agencies with fees estimated at $158,500 while serving as "acting chairman" of the Democratic National Committee.

From the witness chair of a Senate investigations subcommittee, Boyle heatedly disputed, however, suggestions by Republican senators that it was improper for him to do this.

He said he was a practicing lawyer at that time and had a perfect right to represent any client before any government agency or in any court.

"I never asked a favor from a government agency in my life," Boyle declared.

The cases in question were prior to August, 1949, when Boyle, former Kansas City lawyer, formally became the Democratic National Chairman.

The senators turned to these cases after hammering questions first about Boyle's statement that he had his law practice in 1949 to Max Siskind, Washington lawyer, for $150,000.

Boyle insisted the sale was entirely proper and swore he had never used his political power for personal profit.

Leaving across the table separating them in the crowded hearing room, Senator McClellan (D-Ark.) told Boyle nevertheless that the way the law accounts were transferred to Siskind, without any formal sales contract, "implies that there was an arrangement that you were to receive fees" in the guise of installment payments.

McClellan said, too, that it could "give rise" to the belief that it was an arrangement for Boyle to do the work and for Siskind to do the work and for Boyle to be the nominal chairman to get $150,000.

Boyle said it wasn't that way at all.

Handily, he told the senators at one point that he didn't believe anyhow that government agencies yielded to political influence.

Senator McClellan (R-Ind.) shook his head at that. He said he had just a different idea from the testimony he has heard before congressional committees.

He acknowledged that he did make an appointment for H. J. Dunlap, president of the St. Louis printing firm, to see RFC Chairman Harley Hise about the loan on Feb. 28, 1949.

But Boyle said he saw nothing improper in that. He added:

"If a person seeks an appointment with an official of any governmental agency or with members of the Senate or House of Representatives, it is not only proper for the staff of officials of the Democratic National Committee to make such appointments, but it is their duty to do so."

Boyle was the climax witness at hearings by the Senate investigations subcommittee on charges that he brought political pressure to get the loans for American Littoral after the RFC (Reconstruction Finance Corporation) had turned down three applications. (Continued On Page Five)

Both Iran And Britain Told America Stands Ready To Help Find Solution

LONDON, Sept. 27—(AP)—Britain will stand firm in Iran in the hope that Tehran will bow to President Truman's request to cancel an order expelling British technicians from the Abadan refinery, informed sources said today. The British cabinet was reported to have reached this decision after Prime Minister Aitchison received a personal message from President Truman urging caution in the potentially explosive Iranian situation. With the crisis over Iran's oil nationalization building to ominous proportions, the U. S. President appealed to the Iranian government to back down on its ultimatum, and told both Britain and Iran the U. S. is ready to help them to find a peaceful settlement.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27—(AP)—The United States has appealed to Iran to cancel its order for expulsion of British oil experts from Abadan, the great Iranian refinery center.

The State Department, disclosing this today, also said the United States has advised both Iran and Britain that it stands ready to render any assistance it can in helping them to find a settlement of the Anglo-Iranian oil crisis.

Moscow dispatches said the Soviet Union was watching the Iranian developments closely. The Russians have a treaty with Iran providing for Soviet intervention in the case of foreign intervention.

With Iran's forces in Khuzestan province, site of the Abadan refinery, placed on an alert, rumors floated that British might land forces to fight nationalist troops in Tehran to a fever pitch.

Premier Mohammad Mossadegh barred by a maneuver of opposition deputies from a speaking in parliament, addressed about 500 of his followers who gathered spontaneously as he left the Parliament building. They shouted "Down with the British."

"Don't say that," the Premier cried. "Only pray that God will guide the British."

"Give us permission to start bloodshed and kill the opposition," shouted a speaker.

Mossadegh, who was appealing for public support in his move to oust British technicians from Abadan did not reply but brushed away as a speaker. Then he said: "We only want to recover our just rights and get more money for the prosperity of the country."

Mossadegh said he came to parliament through the support of the people. He said though his National Front Party had only seven seats in the Mollis, lower house of Parliament, his party was responsible for pushing nationalization of the Iranian oil industry.

Unless there is a vote of no confidence in the cabinet, the government will not quit but will continue its struggle as hard as ever to recover the rights of the Iranian people," Mossadegh declared. (Continued On Page Six)

Warren Disagrees With Kirkman On Accident Record

MIAMI, Sept. 27—(AP)—Governor Fuller Warren and Col. H. N. Kirkman, director of the Florida Department of Public Safety, added up the State's highway accident problem today and got widely different answers.

They used separate sets of statistics in addressing the third annual Governor's Highway Safety Conference.

Warren, comparing 1950 and 1951 data, said there had been a "spectacular improvement." Kirkman looked at the overall picture of dead and injured and asserted that the situation is "getting worse every day."

Lottery Probe

ORLANDO, Sept. 27—(AP)—A full-scale probe into the numbers racket was apparently under way here today as 25 witnesses were summoned to appear before the Orange county grand jury.

Sheriff Dave Starr said many of the 25 had previously been arrested on lottery charges.

State Attorney Murray Overstreet of Kissimmee declined to discuss the nature of the hearing. Asked of the presence of alleged lottery operators before the grand jury was an indication of a number of arrests, he replied, "I know your own conclusions."

The state attorney said he would issue a statement regarding the grand jury session within a few days.

Democratic Women Told Truth Is Best Weapon Of Party

By H. HAROLD OLIVER
WASHINGTON, Sept. 27—(AP)—President Truman today tagged his opponents as "enemies of progress" and said world peace and human welfare are "two persons to be made the footballs of party spin doctors."

These two points, he said in a five-minute talk prepared for broadcast to Democratic women's club gatherings across the country, must not be monopolized by men who are careless with the truth.

"When we face such solemn decisions as those which now confront our country," he said, "we must act on the basis of facts, not fables."

Mr. Truman addressed 15 paragraphs of his speech to all the women of the nation. The four evening paragraphs to reserve for the women of his own party who today are observing the 21st anniversary of women's admission to the executive committee of the Democratic National Committee.

Greenberg Puts Finger On Lopez For Improved Cleveland Showing

By FRANK ECK
AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor

NEW YORK—Hank Greenberg, the self-made first baseman and general manager of the Cleveland Indians, was standing in the wrong side of the Yankee Stadium dugout looking like he owned a department store and feeling chipper about a baseball team from Ohio.

He grabbed a large brown envelope from the bench and pulled out a picture tainted with age. It was a 1935 shot of Al Lopez and Casey Stengel when Al caught for Casey and the Brooklyn Dodgers.

"Can you put your finger on the one big reason why the Indians have been a better team this year?" Greenberg was asked.

"You're looking at his picture now," said Henry without batting either his black eyebrows "It's the same ball club we had last year so it must be the manager."

Hank walked off, feeling satisfied that nobody would give him an argument.

Though Greenberg and Lou Boudreau, the man who piloted the Indians to the American League pennant and world championship in 1948, parted on unfriendly terms this was not meant as a rap against Boudreau. But getting a real honest-to-goodness boost for Lopez, the Indians of '51 are much the same men Boudreau brought home fourth in 1950, some six games behind the Yankees, Tigers and Red Sox. Only second line men like veterans Lou Bristow, Eddie Tefelt, Sam Chapman, George Strinewels, Merrill Combs, Barney McCosky and Paul Lehner and rookies Harry Simpson, Bob Chabales and George Zvernick have been added.

Being the boss of a winner is getting to be old hat with Lopez, Tampa, Fla. This is his fourth year as a manager. In his first he led Indianapolis to the American Association pennant and in the last two years his teams finished second.

At first, it seemed like all Cleveland protested Greenberg's releasing Boudreau and getting Lopez. But now, reports from Cleveland have it that Lopez could run for mayor. He'd probably win, too.

Saddler, Pep Fans Find 4 Times Enough

By MURRAY ROSE
AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Unless they take their act on the wrestling circuit, the Sandy Saddler-Willie Pep featherweight series is over today with slashing Saddler still the champion.

Four times enough—and to many fans too much—for this furious feud between the ring's best 126-pounders. A battered, bleeding and disgusted Pep quit on his stool after the ninth round at the Polo Grounds last night to give the skinny Harlem Negro a nine-round technical knockout and a 3-1 edge in the series.

It was almost a duplicate of last year's battle between the two. That one ended when the one-time great Hartford, Conn., veteran claimed a dislocated shoulder after the seventh round.

"My eye is bothering me and I don't want to go on. The pain is killing me."

That's what the sad-eyed, dark-haired ex-champ said before he fled to the hospital. He had a bad fall over to Willie's corner after the ninth to warn him to cut out his holding and wrestling tactics or face disqualification. Both gladiators had been warned repeatedly by Miller to stop the rough stuff and get back to boxing.

Willie, who studied holds with a wrestler, tried something new in the seventh—and lost the round partly because of it. He coiled his left leg around Sandy's left leg and the fighters and the referee all went down.

Willie was done after that. Saddler swept the next two rounds. "I intended to fight a clean fight," said Saddler, "but he started the rough stuff. I got a little mad when he heeled me and thumbed me in the eye and stepped on my toes. I felt he was weakening in the sixth round. I noticed him say 'ah' when I hit him in the body."

"If he wants another fight, I'll take him on if the money is right," said Saddler.

But enough's enough, fellers. The gross gate was only $75,211 but $110,000 was paid for the theatrical and movie rights.

Saddler weighed 128½ to Pep's 126.

Houston-Birmingham Open Dixie Series

HOUSTON, Tex., Sept. 27.—(AP)—Houston and Birmingham start the fight for the baseball championship of Dixie tonight.

It's the opening of the Dixie series between Houston, Texas League pennant-winner, and Birmingham, which won the Southern Association play-off. The Southern awards the pennant to the club finishing first over the full season route. The play-off winner gets into the Dixie series. In the Texas League, the play-off winner is the pennant winner.

A crowd of 10,000 is expected to turn out tonight for the start of the best four-out-of-seven series. Wilmer Mizell, Giant right-hander with a 16-14 record for the season, is expected to be Houston's starting pitcher. Mickey Heather, former major league left-walker for Birmingham, is a left-hander with a 10-7 record.

The club play here tonight and tomorrow night, travel to Birmingham Saturday and resume the series there Sunday. They will play three games there, then return to Houston to wind up the series if those games are needed. It will be the twenty-ninth Dixie series. In the previous 28 the Texas League won 10 and the Southern Association 12.

Southeastern PGA —Boasts 145 Entries

BIRMINGHAM, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Seven sub-par contenders led a tremendous field into opening rounds of the Southeastern PGA open golf tournament today.

Eighteen hole rounds will be played daily through Sunday, including pro splitting $5,000 in cash prizes. The champion will walk off with $600.

Harold Sargent, SEPGA president, said that the 145 entries in his area's rivalry set a record, as far as he knew.

Ewing Pomeroy of Columbia, Tenn., and Charles Harper of Ft. Henning, Ga., fired the low rounds in yesterday's pro-am doublet. The 68's—three under par. Both are money players.

Their foursomes didn't take first place in the two-low-ball team battling, however. A steady combination sparked by amateur Walter Wood of Gadsden, Ala., and Seaudy Horner, Mont-

Hatters Polish Offense To Meet Naval Air Team

DELAND, Sept. 27.—(Special)—The Stetson Hatters polished off their offense and ran through some new plays under the lights Wednesday night on Hulley Field as Head Coach Joe McMullen readied his team for the game Saturday in Jacksonville when they meet the Jacksonville Naval Air Station in the station stadium.

The evening's program started with a movie season in which Coaches McMullen and Jay Pattee pointed out good plays and faults of the Patrick AFB game last Saturday.

After the offensive drill and the new plays, the first string Hatters went on the defense with reserves using JAS plays.

McMullen is pleased with the offensive polish applied so far this season. "This season is in the end zone and separate from the regular student section."

Commenting on the charge, Chancellor Robert House said the UNC administration could not be held responsible for the segregation of the Negroes. He said the UNC Athletic Association handled the seating arrangements in the stadium and "is not an educational organization."

Club Owners Offer Presidency To Giles

CINCINNATI, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Warren C. Giles, Cincinnati baseball man, today accepted the presidency of the National League.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—(AP)—It was up to Warren Giles today whether to accept the $40,000-a-year job as National League president, and the prestige that goes with it, or continue on in his well paid position as president of the Cincinnati Reds.

National League owners all want the 55-year-old Giles for a successor to Ford Frick, who a week ago was elected baseball's commissioner after Giles stepped out of the running. Frick, National League president since 1934, succeeded A. B. Chandler to the $65,000-a-year commissioner-ship.

League Vice-President Phil K. Wrigley, who is owner of the Chicago Cubs, disclosed yesterday that all League clubs had authorized him to ask Giles to take over as League president.

Fishing Champ

Seven-year-old Jimmy Williams is the family fishing champ. Fishing for bass off the mouth of the Wakiva yesterday Jimmy pulled in a five and a six pound bass while his father Ted Williams and his little sister Linda Sue didn't get a thing.

Jimmy's only competition was from his mother who hooked a two and a three pounder. The family was fishing from a row boat with shiners. Mr. Williams says they got at least a nibble on every shiner they put out but the fish weren't so easy to hook.

Negro Segregation Charge Is Leveled At North Carolina

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Sept. 27.—(AP)—A charge of "discrimination" has been leveled at the University of North Carolina for allegedly segregating Negro students at home football games.

A spokesman for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People charged here yesterday that the University violated a federal court order by segregating the students. The spokesman, NAACP Attorney C. O. Pearson of Durham, said court action would be sought to end the "discrimination."

Pearson asserted that the university refused to issue athletic pass books to five Negro students now attending the UNC Law School. He claimed the Negro students are issued separate tickets for home games and are required to sit in a section labeled "colored." This section is in the end zone and separate from the regular student section.

Commenting on the charge, Chancellor Robert House said the UNC administration could not be held responsible for the segregation of the Negroes. He said the UNC Athletic Association handled the seating arrangements in the stadium and "is not an educational organization."

NEW YORK.—Lawrence Peter Berra—the Yogi of the Yankees—is recognized as best all-around catcher in the American League. Certainly his worth to the New York team is beyond measure. Without him the Yanks would never have been in a pennant race.

The colorful backstop led the Stengeleers in home runs, runs-batted-in, hits and runs scored.

Behind the plate Yogi was a tireless performer. Because of his hitting prowess Manager Casey Stengel was forced to use Berra almost every day. That meant the 36-year-old stubby guy from St. Louis had to catch both games of double headers, too.

For the last Cleveland series Stengel made a momentous switch in his lineup—and a tribute to Berra batted fourth and Joe DiMaggio, the Yank cleanup man for many years, was dropped a notch to fifth.

When asked what he thought about the change to DiMaggio, "Yogi deserves it. He's been hitting the ball hard all year and I haven't."

In the first inning of the first game Berra tripled to drive in a run. The Clincher in the number five spot, hit a two-run triple in the fifth inning to clinch the game.

Yogi's eminence in the mask and mitt department has come about rapidly within a few years. When he first came up to the Yankees from Newark at the tail end of 1946 Berra was a rare combination of a catcher outfielder. During the '47 and '48 seasons he devoted his time between catching and patrolling the outfield—method of which he performed with electricity.

When Casey Stengel assumed the managerial reins of the Bronx Bombers in 1949 he decided that Berra would be a full time catcher and a double.

Gov. Rivers Tells Of Ownership Of Radio Stations

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Former Governor E. D. Rivers, Sr., of Georgia, and members of his family said today their extensive radio holdings in the South are owned and operated by three wholly unrelated companies.

The commission noted that the three Rivers now own or control seven standard stations, which under FCC policy is the unofficial limit for common control of standard outlets.

Former Governor Rivers proposes to buy WMBE at Miami, Fla., from Arthur B. McBride and Daniel Sheerby, of Cleveland, O., and their associates.

At the suggestion of Senator McCarran (D-Nev.), chairman of the Internal Security unit, the Foreign Relations Subcommittee has agreed to study the McCarran Group's records dealing with Jessup.

The Ambassador's name has cropped up frequently during its inquiry into whether the Institute of Pacific Relations (IPR) exercised any pro-Communist influence on the shaping of American policy toward the Far East.

McCarthy added that "after the evidence (which he set forth) was brought to the attention of the President, he gave Jessup top secret clearance to all atomic and hydrogen bomb information and appointed him as U. S. delegate to the United Nations."

Iranian Appeal

With the 317 remaining British technicians at the first Abadan refinery given until Thursday to get out, Britain appealed to the President of the United States last night for help. President Truman's reply came today and was rushed to 10 Downing Street where Attlee was meeting with his cabinet on the delicate issue of whether to send British troops to protect its oil men in Iran.

The cabinet meeting lasted about three hours. There was no official announcement on what decision was reached. Some sources hinted that the cabinet might meet again before finally reaching a decision.

Opposition leaders also were called to meet with Attlee. Conservative Leader Winston Churchill looked grave as he hurried to 10 Downing Street. He probably would be Foreign Secretary if the Conservatives won the election next Oct. 25, arrived shortly afterward.

The British ambassador in Tehran arrived in London for a conference with Attlee and said Iran was "making it physically impossible for the British people to continue in Abadan, by drying them stores, housing and so on."

"What happens next," he said, "must depend on what the cabinet decides here and on the Anglo-American consultation."

The U. S. and Britain are reported to be in agreement on the crisis. The critical question before Washington is whether the U. S. give diplomatic support to the possible use of armed force by Britain to keep what is left of the British position at Abadan?

Diplomatic informants in Washington said the extreme oilmen were facing the British government are either to "walk in or to walk out." Attlee and his cabinet they mean, must decide whether to send troops or to order their technicians to leave Abadan.

President Truman expressed the American point of view in a personal message to British Prime Minister Attlee which was delivered through the American Embassy at London today. It replied to an Attlee appeal to the President yesterday.

Only 3 Days Left For Drivers Licenses

More than 8,000 drivers licenses have been sold at the office of County Judge Douglas Steinström, and only three days remain in which to secure them, he announced this morning.

The licenses will be on sale all day Saturday from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. They may be secured also on Monday, Oct. 1.

After Monday, tardy applicants will be required either to take a drivers' examination or to pay an extra dollar as a delinquent fee. This extra money goes to the State, said Judge Steinström.

The cabinet meeting lasted about three hours. There was no official announcement on what decision was reached.

The State Department said the American views were given to Premier Mohammed Mossadegh. TEEN TALK

By VIVIAN BROWN

When kids go back to school after a summer vacation, working members of the family and friends offer a sigh—the usual comment is, "Gosh, I wish I was a kid again, and had nothing to do but go to school."

If the schoolgirl lives with her family her plight is even duller. Although she probably arrives home from school only an hour or two before the working members of the family, and most weekends in studies before or after dinner, it is taken for granted that she is a lady of leisure, and therefore should be satisfied with as many odd chores as possible.

While it is true that every young girl should be acquainted with the routine duties of the household a knowledge of which is said to be necessary for the day she sets up her own home—even the school girl deserves some recognition. Many parents wonder why their children are poor students, yet often a young girl finds it difficult to concentrate on her studies when she is disturbed to carry out orders every few minutes.

Parents could be more considerate of their teen-agers. If Mom would outline daughter's chores in advance, then the girl would know where she is. Also it is much nicer for a parent to speak pleasantly when requesting daughter to do a chore, instead of issuing commands.

Any girl can outline household chores to the satisfaction of her advantage in leisure time. A recent survey by the Tide Washing Clinic which sampled teen-agers in 715 communities including farms, showed that 70 per cent of teen-agers do household chores regularly, 85 per cent do their own laundry and 66 per cent help Mom with the family wash.

The survey found that most of the kids felt that it is the attitude taken toward the chores which makes them seem light or burdensome. The girls agreed that tasks are easier when Mom is cooperative. But in any event just as well be cheerful and happy about things that have to be done instead of griping.

Some girls set aside one hour each day to do chores. Others like to do them on certain days. But the survey did prove all girls like to know what they have to do specifically, so they can make plans.

Here are some systems employed by the girls to help make tasks easier: Iron harder pieces first, do dishes right after eating, prepare equipment before starting, have a designated time for laundering, have dusting materials upstairs as well as downstairs, divided chores among sisters, rotate tasks each week to break the monotony, wash clothes every night and they won't accumulate.

A Massachusetts girl suggests having a small reward such as a lemonade or candy after each task. An Idaho girl claims she likes to plan a big event right sure to make work seem lighter.

Congressman Asks Cut In Salaries For Law Makers

By FRANCIS J. KELLY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26—(AP)—A congressman with no pockets in his pants today advocated a salary cut for the nation's lawmakers, rather than a raise.

It's not that Rep. Clare E. Hoffman (R-Mich.) couldn't find a place for extra money—he does have pockets in his coat. He argued, however, that the senators and representatives would be doing the country a real service if they themselves took the first step toward getting back to what he called a "rational" price level.

Members of both houses now get $12,500 a year plus a $2,500 tax-free expense allowance. With inflation, there has been considerable moaning in the cloakrooms that the $15,000 total isn't enough.

Rep. John W. McCormack of Massachusetts, the Democratic leader, has come out openly for an increase to $25,000 a year. But Hoffman advocated: "Cut us to $10,000."

After bleeding the first economy dollars personally, he counseled, the congressmen should start whacking away at other expenses of government, including the pay of its civil service employees. The goal, he told a reporter, should be to get the cost of living within reach of every individual.

"This business of raising wages and then raising them again won't do it," he said. Hoffman said he is drawing twice as many dollars now for lawmaking as he did when he came here in 1935, and is worse off financially.

"And," he added, "I don't gamble, smoke, drink, or patronize the race tracks, and have virtually no social activities. I try to live the old-fashioned way."

The slender, sharp featured lawyer from Allegan, Mich. is confident there would be plenty of competition for seats in the House and Senate even at cut rates.

"Nobody drafted me," he recalled. Further, he doesn't think that $25,000 a year would hire better lawmakers. "All sorts of motives bring Jupiter has 11 moons."

National Newspaper Week To Be Observed This Year On Oct. 1-8

AP Newfeature
 "Your Newspaper Lights The Way to Freedom."
 That is this year's slogan for National Newspaper Week Oct. 1-8. The point was vigorously stressed recently by Kent Cooper, Executive Director of The Associated Press, at the 100th Anniversary banquet of Reuters, British News Agency, in London.

Reuters now is owned by English newspapers, just as The Associated Press is composed of The Sanford Herald and hundreds of other American newspapers working in cooperation.

Control of the collection and dissemination of news by newspapers rather than by opportunists or by governments, assures that the public will receive truthful news, Mr. Cooper said.

"The Associated Press of America has endured," he declared, "As the first of the world's news cooperatives, I say for it with humility that if the world ever has gotten from my country any practical, ethical standard to embrace, it consists of a method by which the people assembled can get the truth while freedom lasts. This method is the control of the collection and dissemination of the news by the newspapers themselves rather than by opportunists or by governments.

"The principle is a simple one. Each widely distributed sponsorship of a news agency by newspapers means it is supported by a large group of individuals who hold diversified views and thus decisions on every proposal under the sun. Yet they unanimously agree that their own news agency shall truthfully report all sides of every question. Obviously no other procedure could possibly be acceptable to all of them.

"The beneficiary of this diversified field ownership, however, is the public which thus is assured truthful news.

"The development is of profound importance since all people can best advance the welfare of their home lands with vigorous loyalty if through the safeguard of the method they get the truth in its fullest illumination. By the method they naturally will better understand the problems of the people of other nations if they are not blinded by half truth which breeds prejudice and hatred, where the whole truth develops tolerance and fraternity.

"Antagonism toward this principle is a danger to the world."

...truthful news exists only where the power to suppress the truth is refused to accept these statements as facts and a barrier to such acceptance is that power which suppresses truthful news in power in fear in its flight it cannot even comprehend what is best for its own interests. So it fails to realize these three things which, with all my heart, I wish were better understood:

"First, confidence and loyalty thrive where the people have the right to know;

"Second, there is no greater urge for patriotic achievement by any people than that which springs from their own convictions based not upon a vulnerable, unilateral propaganda line but on full information on all sides of every question;

"Third, power backed by a force thus intelligently engendered is unshakable because it is based upon a respect for the individual, a policy which stands for human justice in its finest flower.

"On the other hand, rejection of these axioms has invariably led great masses of people and their leaders to disaster—unnecessary and agonizing disaster. We do not have to go farther back than the last war to recall that truly and honestly informed peoples prevailed over those constrained to live in countries not on favored. And not one of the latter countries then rose in its history had been served by a national news agency owned by the newspapers."

"When the Nazis decided to enlighten Germany through party propaganda in the news, they did not purchase all the German newspapers to effect their purpose. Instead they quietly bought that country's great, privately owned news agency, which was the main source of information upon which those newspapers relied, and promptly perverted its news. It might have been different if that agency had been owned by the newspapers. At least it could not have been done secretly. For the more proposal would have developed some newspaper opposition which would have barred the iniquitous step and delayed, if it did not frustrate it.

"As it was, no other factor than that secret purchase or, suddenly, and an violently developed the Nazi spirit of aggression. Exactly the same thing occurred in Italy. The people of both countries found the truth was not to be had. With out the truth they could not think straight. And when they faced their fate in darkness, freedom's light being gone!

"I emphasized what happened in Germany and Italy to prove there is less likelihood of encroachment upon the right of the people to be served honestly by the press if newspaper owned agencies constitute the method by which the truth is obtained.

"It is a rewarding method. Instead of being harmful to those in power, it is helpful. Public knowledge of the truth never set back a just cause or a just power. On the other hand, it has contributed to national unity and the resolution of government error.

"These are no small accomplishments in which newspaper-owned agencies have contributed. They justify every nation having its own newspaper controlled agency, with all of them linked in mutual association, each secretly adhering to the code of ethics, can think of no stronger force that would so certainly develop a world wide spirit of fraternity which alone can create the kind of international understanding by which peace can endure."

R. L. Polk & Co. Begins Work On New Directory For Sanford

R. L. Polk & Co., of Richmond, Va., have set up a field office in the Florida Hotel this year from which six enumerators will work out of gathering the information for the new Sanford City Directory.

Frank H. Lewis in charge of this year's survey, states that the job will be completed in not more than four weeks.

Every house and store will be canvassed and the following questions will be asked of all people: What are the names of the people living at this address over the age of 18 years and for whom do they work and what do they do? Does the owner of the property live on the place and, if there is a telephone in the house, what is the number? The enumerator will ask for the wife's name and middle initial. This was pointed out as so important in a person's name as their last name itself because it helps to identify an individual from another person.

If a woman is divorced, or if the husband is deceased, they will want to know. They do not show the divorced husband's name but the deceased husband's name will show in the directory. This will also help to identify an individual.

There will be at least two slips with the same name when a person is employed because many times a position has been changed by the employer and the individual fails to notify any one at the home. Then again many wives or mothers will say that their husband or son own the business when in reality they are an officer of that firm and so from the firm the Company will secure the correct occupation at from the home they will secure the dated data that is not taken as the business place such as who else lives at the home.

Mr. Lewis stated that this year the canvass limits will be south of the city for three miles and west to the city limit line on the extreme north along the lake front and the same limits that were canvassed in the previous book.

The new book will also show a compiled list of rural routes and an added feature in the new book will be the numerical listing of the telephone numbers given to the enumerators on their calls.

It was pointed out by Mr. Lewis that there is no charge for a person's name appearing in the Directory and that every person living or working in the City of Sanford should have his name inserted in the proper place.

When an enumerator makes a call at a house and no one is at home to answer the call, the enumerator will be forced to make as many calls as necessary to secure this information and the second call a prepaid post card will be left at the door and this card should be filled out with proper information and returned to the local office.

In describing the new Directory, Mr. Lewis stated that it would be a book containing six major sections in one book, as follows:

Section one, a complete statistical review of the City as prepared by the Chamber of Commerce.

Section two, a complete alphabetical listing of every person or

Gov. Warren Sues Colliers Magazine For Million Dollars

Article Linking Governor With Chicago Gambling Interests Forms Basis Of Suit

TALLAHASSEE, Sept. 28.—(AP)—Fla.'s Governor Fuller Warren today filed a million-dollar libel suit against Colliers magazine for an article he said falsely accused him of conspiring with big campaign backers to protect gamblers or manipulate placing of state business.

The suit, filed in U. S. district court here, followed by five months the Governor's formal demand on the magazine to retract four specific statements he said were false in its article, "The Secret Mr. Big of Florida." The magazine has not retracted the statements.

Warren's suit said the article had defamed him as a law-abiding citizen and a constitutional officer, contributed to filing of impeachment articles which were rejected by the State House of Representatives and "greatly damaged" his reputation, both personally and professionally.

He asked for both actual and punitive damages. There was no indication when or where the suit might be brought to trial before a jury. Colliers has 20 days to file an answer to Warren's complaint.

The Collier's article was built around connections of William H. Johnson, Florida and Chicago racing operator; Louis E. Wolfson, Jacksonville and Washington financier; and C. V. Griffin, Howey-in-the-Hills citrus grower, with Warren's 1950 campaign.

Warren's 1950 campaign was administered by John Johnston, "The Secret Mr. Big of Florida." The bill of complaint was filed by Weldon G. Barry, Tallahassee lawyer and close friend of the Governor.

Warren said the Collier's article "falsely stated" that direct statement, inference and implication that the big three campaign backers—Johnson, Griffin and Wolfson, or their nominees, in violation of the law and to the detriment of the state.

V. A. OFFICE

Mayor Fred Dyon today received a letter from Carl R. Gray, administrator of the Veterans Administration, pointing out that it had been decided not to move the V. A. Administration office from Van-A-Grille to any other Florida location.

Among the reasons given by a committee appointed by Mr. Gray to look into the matter is that retaining the present location is better because there is plenty of office space there, much trained personnel would be lost by moving, and that it is undesirable in view of government building restrictions.

Civic Building For Local Clubs Planned By Elks

Action Begun To Finance Project At Close 25 Thousand

Plans for the erection of a new building for local civic and service clubs, and located on the lot north of the Elks Lodge building, were made last night at the weekly meeting of Sanford Elks, held at the Elks.

The Elks will finance the project which is estimated to cost approximately $25,000. The club directed its building committee to confer at once with Elton J. Moughton, architect, on plans for the building which will be of the one story, concrete block type.

The committee includes Earl Higginbotham, chairman; Al Cook, G. G. Killip, L. L. Hedding and Jesse C. Lodge.

Excited ruler R. P. Sharruck appointed the following to work with the building committee: Herman Jacobson, Charles Morrison, John Williams, Carl Williams, Merle Glinder, R. W. Casubie, John Cameron and M. L. Ralston.

Tentative plans for the project include an assembly hall, a stage and dining room, a completely equipped kitchen, and rest rooms.

With the Navy using the Chamber of Commerce Building, and the possibility that the townships may use the Yacht Club where most civic clubs meet at present, it was pointed out by Mr. Sharruck that the proposed building would be the center of much activity.

Plans of the Sanford Post, 58, the American Legion, to build the Legion Department of Florida to hold its mid-winter conference here during December were announced by Joe Field. The Elks offered their facilities for a chicken barbecue during the meeting.

A letter from Grand Exalted Ruler Howard R. Lewis was read stating that the Elks will again look in observance of National Newspaper Week, Oct. 1-8.

It was announced that Willis V. McCall, Elk district deputy, Florida northeast would visit the following dates: Leesburg, Oct. 1; Daytona Beach, Oct. 2; New Smyrna Beach, Oct. 3; Orlando, Oct. 10; Ocala, Oct. 11; Palatka, Oct. 12; and the local lodge on Oct. 25. Motorcades to the various meetings are now being planned.

DODGERS FINED

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—(AP)—President Ford Frick of the National League fined three Brooklyn players—Jackie Robinson, Roy Campanella and Preacher Roe—for causing a scene in front of the umpire dressing room after yesterday's controversial Brooklyn-Boston game in Boston. Dodgers players kicked at the door of the umpire's room after the game.

Frick, newly elected commissioner of baseball, took no action against Catcher Campanella for his argument with Umpire Frank Diaco in the eighth inning which led to Campanella's ejection from the game.

Robinson and Campanella were fined $100 each and Roe was fined $50.

STORM DAMAGE

Minor damage to electrical installations in Sanford resulted from the lightning this morning, said H. H. Coleman, local manager. Only one service wire had to be replaced. The adding of lightning rods to the building is being considered.

The Fire Department answered a false alarm this morning during the storm when a resident on Tenth Street mistook a lightning flash for a fire. The alarm was on the street, said Fire Chief E. M. Coleman.

Grand Jury Hits Road Department For Carelessness Charges Were Made For Machinery Not Actually On Job

MADISON, Fla., Sept. 28.—(AP)—The Madison county grand jury said today the Florida State Road Department was "flagrantly careless" in checking on expenditures for building a road under an equipment rental contract of a type that has since been outlawed.

It said "we find that a charge or charges were made and collected upon certain road machinery and equipment when in truth and in fact said road machinery was not actually on said job or even in Madison county."

The grand jury reported its investigation of work under a contract with B. McCormick and Sons of Jacksonville Beach for construction of a road from Madison to Mosely Hall.

It said it found records of the project "had been tampered with, altered or doctored and not properly preserved and therefore not legally admissible in evidence in a trial."

The grand jury said it had engaged an auditor and a handwriting expert but because of the inefficient manner of keeping records and confusion on the job they were "unable to determine facts sufficient to warrant an indictment."

Senator Raps McCarthy On Deceit Count

Benton Testifies In Possible Ouster Of McCarthy From His Senatorial Seat

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—(AP)—Senator Benton (D-Conn.) today accused Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) of "perjury and deception of the American people" in pressing his Communist-involvement charges.

Benton made the accusation under oath at a public hearing on his resolution looking toward the possibility of ousting McCarthy from the Senate.

He said his testimony would help a Senate rules subcommittee decide whether McCarthy "has committed perjury and whether he has practiced calculated deceit on both the U. S. Senate and the American people."

The Connecticut Senator called the attention of the subcommittee to 10 "case studies" of persons attacked by McCarthy on loyalty grounds.

He declared: "All these 10 cases fit into my general charges against Senator McCarthy of perjury and deception of the Senate, and though his role as a Senator, deception of the American people."

Benton said that if the subcommittee holds his charge that McCarthy has committed perjury, he wants the case referred to the Justice Department for prosecution.

"I consider this a very serious resolution asking for his expulsion from this body because somewhat academic. After all, a senator's job is to represent his constituents," he said.

McCarthy also suggested that the Senate should call for a report on the activities of the Communist Party in the United States.

The June 14 speech said McCarthy was connected with a vast conspiracy against the American people.

Benton declared: "I submit that this is a towering lie, miles from the realm of honest or honestly intended interpretation and analysis."

"If Senator McCarthy does believe these extraordinary charges, the inquiry of this committee could take a very different turn from that which I have anticipated."

"We have had one instance in Senate history of an expulsion proceeding against a senator thought to be of sound mind."

Curran Charges AFL Split Labor Votes

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 28.—(AP)—Joseph Curran, president of the National Maritime Union (N.M.U.) charged today the American Federation of Labor has "split right down the middle" a labor vote of 15,000,000 in next year's presidential election.

The recent action of the AFL Executive Council in walking out of the United Labor Policy Committee will result in the AFL going in one direction and the CIO in another," Curran told the annual convention of the Virginia CIO Council.

The CIO, he said, has concluded there are two factors that caused the AFL to suspend its cooperation with the CIO:

"The AFL powers that be are afraid of our own jobs because of signs of a united labor movement."

"The fine hand of the Republican Party is buried in the situation. The Republicans had a part in causing this split."

Revolt Is Launched In Argentina Against Government Of Peron

Reds Can Knock Us To Our Knees, Moriarity Says

B. And P. W. Is Congratulated By Local Clubs

Seminole Teachers Club Addressed By Defense Director

"The Soviet Union can at this time knock us to our knees, and I doubt if we could stagger to our feet," Brig. General James C. Moriarity, director of civil defense for the Central Florida area, told members of the Seminole Teachers Club at a meeting last night at the South Side Primary School.

Mrs. J. C. Mitchell, principal of the school served as program chairman.

The primary objective pointed out in that event of Russian conquest all freedoms, savings, investments, and property would be confiscated, not by the Russians, but by members of the Communist Party here in this country. He termed them Stalin's henchmen.

Civil defense is nothing new, he stated. Men, women and children had plans and posts in defense against Indians. The Civil Defense program is part of the defense of the United States equal to the armed forces.

Florida, he said, is divided into five different regions with plans and organizational set-up pending completion.

The mission of Civilian Defense is mutual support between towns and areas to maintain the will to fight and to prevent or minimize internal attack. He said that the defense of the United States is a job for all.

Stalin rules the greatest areas every conquered without a shooting war, he asserted and pointed out that the Communist Party of Florida has distributed pamphlets at Orlando High School in an effort to effect a "Know Your Enemy" program.

An organized minority can control an unorganized majority.

A B. Peterson requested a virtual volunteers for the program. Other speakers were Miss Ruth Hand, M. N. Cleveland, Jr., and Supt. T. W. Lawson. Harold Heckenbach of Lake Mary was elected vice-president of the Teachers Club.

Prof. T. W. Lawson pointed out the value of stronger school-community relationships and emphasized the need for reading daily the moral truths found in the Holy Bible.

Civil War Breaks Out But State Radio Announces It Was Quickly Put Down

By FRED L. STUEBNER BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, Sept. 28.—(AP)—The official state radio announced today a revolt was staged by two former army generals against the government of Juan D. Peron and was swiftly put down.

The radio, a short time after announcing civil war had broken out in Argentina, declared the government quelled the rising headed by former general Arturo Rawson and former General Benjamin Menéndez. Rawson was a leader of a 1943 rebellion which placed him in the presidency just two days.

There was no information available from other sources. The capital has been closed down tightly, with business establishments shuttered.

There were many rumors of troop movements, but these, too, could not be confirmed.

No fighting was observed in the streets of Buenos Aires except for sporadic fist fights. But a large crowd was pouring into the Plaza de Mayo in front of Peron's offices, shouting "a vida por Peron" (One lives for Peron).

In Washington observers close to Argentine affairs said the revolution may have been a home tide one, but could have been a staged affair to whip sentiment for Peron in the forthcoming Nov. 11 elections in which he is a candidate for success himself. However, there have been many reports of army dissatisfaction with the regime.

Rawson overthrew the government of President Ramon S. Castillo in 1943, and was president for two days before he was ousted.

Rawson was arrested, ousted from the army and sent to prison for six months on a charge of being an enemy of the state. He was released in a short time as a result of the Córdoba massacre in September, 1945.

The general Confederation of Labor, backbone of the Peron regime which has held undisputed rule of this country since 1946, first announced a revolt by "some military men and (continued on Page Eight)

Vets Hear Methods On How To Raise Sealand Cotton

Practical methods of growing Sealand long staple cotton were outlined last night to members of the Veterans-On-The-Farm Training Unit by Henry Thurston, president of the Sanford Sealand Cotton Growers Cooperative at Leesburg, and to visit his farm to see the cotton growing.

Dr. John W. Wilson, entomologist from the Central Florida Experiment Station, John Peterson, president.

Mr. Thurston, who has 36 acres of Sealand cotton on his farm west of Sanford, told of methods of selecting cotton seed, of preparing the land and giving figures on yield and cost of production. He invited the veterans to see the complete outfit of the Central Florida Cotton Growers Cooperative at Leesburg, and to visit his farm to see the cotton growing.

Dr. Wilson told of the importance of spraying cotton plants to control the cotton boll worm and the boll weevil. He showed specimens of weevils preserved in alcohol and pointed out how they hatch and breed. He stated that no small bugs such as cotton strainers, or red spiders had been found here this year.

W. E. Whelan showed a motion picture of cotton growing on the Thurston farm.
