The manager politely explained that he did not feel any need for additional books at the present time, that he did not have time to read them, could not afford to buy tooks now and that in the final analysis he did not want these particular books anybow.

The book salesman, being of the high pressure type, would not take "no" for an susper. He insisted that no sufficient person could afford to be without these books, that everybody of any standing in the community whatever was buying them, and that if the manager could not afford them, perhaps they could make other arrangments.

He then stolained that if the manager would give him a letter of endorsement—that is, if the manager would write in a letter that he had read these rather voluminous books (though he hadn't read them, and undoubtedly never would) and that he had found them interesting informative and essential to every intelligent individual, he would be given a set of the books free of charge.

Now probably there was some catch even in this proposition. Probably, if the manager had agreed, it would next be explained to him that there was a small charge of 18 cents a day for the particular kind of Mosuco hindings in which the books came, or that a government tax would necessitate the paying of four dollars a month for 36 months, but that is not the point we wish

At various times during the last two years Congress half passed acts facilitating compromises between debtors and creditors. A characteristic of them is that speaking loosely, when a debtor can arrange a compromises with two-thirds of his creditors, the compromise is binding upon the compromise is compromise in the farmer in required to pay the far remaining third. This is, in reffect, giving two-thirds of a group of creditors the power to compel the remaining one-third to get in line.

The early measures merely enabled a debtor to make a compromise with two-thirds of his creditors and then to have that compromise binding upon the one-third. In the bill passed during the closing hours of last Monday, however, there was nothing of empromise. # "I got the recipe from an advertisement in yesterday's paper

COOKING is a science in which discoveries are constantly being made. Even the most colorless food staple is liable to have the spotlight turned upon, it, Take salt pork for example—wouldn't it surprise you to know that it is a wonderful basic ingredient for a savery tomato sauce?

It is not necessary to buy cook-books to keep up with new culinary secrets and recipes. By means of newspaper advertisements, they come to you regularly from the kitchens of food manufacturers and distributors. And because these recipes are tested over and over again before they are released to the public, you can follow their instructions with complete confidence:

As you study these recipes you will be impressed by these facts they are appropriate for the time of the year in which they appear; they call for inexpensive ingredients; they are in harmony with modern rules for health and nutrition; and finally, they are not difficult to follow.

Yes, it pays to read food advertisements for the facts they contain. It pays to read the recipes for new ideas. You'll be wise if you cut them out for your recipe file. But above all you'll be delighted if you try one of those recipes right away.

Against all Road Hazards

To THE millions of satisfied users of Firestone Tires, this new guarantee will have no particular significance. They are familiar with the satisfaction, safety and care-free service given by Firestone Tires, which mean more than any written guarantees which lie behind them. But to those who have never had the safe and satisfying experience of driving on Firestone Tires, we are announcing this all-inclusive guarantee in order that they may be assured beforehand of the satisfaction and safety which they will experience afterwards.

The greatest guarantee of all is the time-established guarantee behind every Firestone Tire which comes from the unequalled performance records of Firestone Tires. The fact that every one of the 33 drivers at the Indianapolis 500-Mile Sweepstakes chose and bought Firestone High Speed Tires, speaks for itself. Guarantees mean little to them. They must have the safety and protection in tires that actually guard their lives. The greatest tire guarantee for you is the extra quality, strength, safety and dependability built into every Firestone Tire.

Call on the Firestone Service Dealer or Service Store in your community and equip your car with Firestone Tires today. Get the absolute protection of our guarantee for 12 months against all road hazards,* for life against all defects, and for safety, economy and greater service through the extra quality built into every Firestone Tire. Don't delay. You will save money at present prices because crude rubber has advanced 412% and cotton 190%, and tire prices cannot remain at present low

When used in commercial service, these tires are guaranteed for six months.

What YOUR Vote Next Tuesday Means

Your Vote for Claude Pepper Tuesday, June 26th, will be a vote for clean and honest politics... it will be a vote against machine and professional politics... it will be a vote to end demogogery... vote-dodging... fence-straddling... spineless representation in Florida's Junior Senate Seat.

Your vote for Claude Pepper will be a vote against all that professional politics stands for... a vote against misrepresentation... a vote against deception... a vote against trickery and cheep campaign tactics beneath the high and honorable office of a United States Senator.

a United States Senator.

Claude Pepper has avoided even the appearance of mud-slinging and misrepresentation or falsities which have characterized Senator Trammell's campaign . . . Claude Pepper has religiously avoided even the SEMBLANCE of deception.

Senator Trammell's campaign of desporation has failed to register with the people of Florida . . Everywhere such tactics and tricks are being met with a sincere feeling of resentment . . They fael that it would be infinitely more in kasping with the great dignity of the office if Senator Trammell would explain to the people of Florida what he proposes to de for them. His campaign utterances have been totally lacking in this respect.

The people of Florids are living for the present and future... So many are trying to forget the past... Claude Pepper has discussed Trammell's past record and has presented courageously and honestly a constructive program of action... Senator Trammell has only stressed the past.

The people of Florids will go to the polls next Tuesday determined to elect a colleague to Senator Fletcher strictly upon the basis of merit... They will not be influenced by the tricks of the professional politician, all of which are new and unknown as well as repulsive to Claude Pepper, as they are to the good men and women of our citate.
