Three Vessels Sink And Others Periled As Winds Hit State

Florida's Coastline Feels Effects Of Storm From Gulf Moving Eastward

MIAMI (AP)—Three vessels have been sunk—two reportedly with men aboard—and ten other craft were in distress off Florida coast today as heavy winds raked the area. Coast Guard headquarters, busy dispatching search planes and rescue vessels, listed the vessels thus: The 69-foot fishing vessel Sea Farer sank off Palm Cape, near Cape Canaveral, with seven men on board. No survivors reported. The Grouper, 32-foot pleasure boat, blown on the north jetty at Ft. Pierce and destroyed by waves. Perry Lee Felton and P.C. Phillips, both of Miami, swam ashore.

Money Needed To Make Campaign For A Hospital

Business Firms Are Asked To Lend Aid In Promoting Issue

Plans were made to enter funds for the promotion of the hospital campaign at a meeting of the Citizens Hospital Committee held in the offices of the First Federal and Loan Association yesterday afternoon, it was announced today by George Touhy. The Citizens Committee of which Mr. Touhy and Judge Douglas Stenstrom are co-chairmen, has been operating without funds and an effort will be made to have those interested in this issue subscribe any amount they feel inclined to give. Business firms, all of which will be affected by the hospital facilities here are expected to lend financial assistance in bringing the facts before the landowners of the county and in getting out a large and favorable vote, according to the announced plan.

The Manchester Guardian, one of the most famous newspapers in Britain, recently began devoting its first page to news rather than to classified advertising.

Most Americans would object to such a practice, contending they buy their newspapers for news, not for ads.

This view of our present system is by no means a reflection upon the election officials in Florida but is a criticism of the antiquated custom of election procedure.

This is not an institution of higher learning but a meeting of the individuals whom you select as Florida's electors.

Both political parties are split on a geographical basis. The Southern Democrats are at odds with their Northern brethren, and the Eastern Republicans with those of the West.

The disturbed partisans who wonder if this will ever end will find consolation if they look at Democratic past history. In the 1890's and through to 1912 the party was torn between East and West.

Such a change would have a profound effect on elections and campaign techniques. One major result — and one which will bring opposition to this proposal is that the franchise of democratic government will be broadened to cover all of the people.

While the victims have always been conscious of their misfortune, specific attention to arthritis as a cause is comparatively rare. A generation or so ago the illness was lumped under the general heading of rheumatism.

First I wish to thank you for all the publicity you have given our church and our circles and other church gatherings. We do appreciate your kindness, and realize that it is a service you very seldom get thanks for.

Washington Letter

By Senator George Smathers

WASHINGTON (Special) — When you cast your ballot for president on November 4, will it have very much weight when the President actually is named by the Electoral College in January?

The answer is "no" if your choice does not "carry" Florida. It will carry much more weight if your candidate wins in the state, because he will get all of the states electoral votes.

This view of our present system is by no means a reflection upon the election officials in Florida but is a criticism of the antiquated custom of election procedure.

This is not an institution of higher learning but a meeting of the individuals whom you select as Florida's electors.

I am convinced that democracy demands that proportionate representation in the Electoral College be given to the candidates, based upon the total number of ballots cast.

I also expect on the opening of Congress to seek action which will insure the maximum weight be given every ballot cast in a national election.

Such a change would have a profound effect on elections and campaign techniques. One major result — and one which will bring opposition to this proposal is that the franchise of democratic government will be broadened to cover all of the people.

Florida Notes: I am grateful to the many individuals who have called or written me kind messages about my stand in the present presidential race, even though many of us are supporting opposing candidates.

would have little or nothing to say. One of the quick and sure ways for each landowner to satisfy himself on this is to look at his last tax bill.

Citizens of Lake Mary undoubtedly will have an opportunity in the near future to add their voices of approval to the bond issue.

The directors of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce and the Junior Chamber of Commerce put their stamp of approval on the plan early in its development.

Knowing that over-confidence often leads to inaction, they are urging each landowner to take advantage of the privilege of casting his ballot in favor of the bonds and not "leave it to the other fellow."

THE WORLD TODAY

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON — The American Communist party will be in the news awhile in connection with the government's effort to prove it's a Russian stooge.

The government is proceeding against the Communists in two ways under two different laws: (1) against the leaders and (2) against the party as a party.

In 1950 Congress decided to spotlight the party itself and give the government various controls over it. It passed the Internal Security Act.

Congress said there is a Communist conspiracy to take over the world, directed by a "foreign power," meaning Russia, which sets up "action" and "front" organizations in other countries to carry out its plans.

Then, the law said, all Communist "action" and "front" groups must register with the government, with the "action" organization revealing the names of its members.

The Supreme Court upheld their conviction. Given this encouragement, the government took out after-and is continuing to do so—other Communist leaders from coast to coast. More than 80 have been indicted and more than a score convicted.

and where it gets its money. If the American Communist party registered, it would be admitted to be a Russian agent, under the language of the act. No one expected it to register. It didn't. Anticipating this, the law provided for what follows.

Altamonte Springs Councilman Quits Over Street Issue

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS — A two-week-old dispute over Alderman H. G. Fuller using a 20-foot pathway to reach the driveway of his home flared into new fury at town council meeting last night with the council accepting Fuller's resignation from the group.

The council voted three to one two weeks ago to prohibit anyone from using the pathway which connects two sections of State Road 438. Fuller dissented. He had been named as the one who took a barrier across the pathway and was making use of it to reach his home.

Fuller's father, H. E. Fuller, got into the dispute last night when a letter was read from his attorney demanding that the town remove its fire fighting equipment from a tin garage he said belongs to him.

Several aldermen claim the garage is on town property. It was built 12 years ago when the elder Fuller was fire chief.

W. Lawrence Swift, council member, said the building was built by town funds but "it is not worth making a fuss over."

"We cannot turn the fire equipment out into the weather," he maintained, suggesting that the other members of the council inform Fuller that a new fire station is to be built soon and that the truck and equipment will be moved out by Jan. 1.

Council last night also accepted the resignation of Alderman Byron Kimball, and set a special election from 7 to 8 p. m., Nov. 10, to elect replacements for the two resigning members. Kimball's resignation has been pending for four months.

Sparkman Is Laid Up By Throat Infection

WASHINGTON — Sen. John Sparkman, Democratic vice presidential nominee, entered a hospital today for treatment of laryngitis and what his physician termed a mild respiratory condition.

Sparkman had been scheduled to leave on a campaign trip into the South. The Democratic National Committee said it was arranging for other speakers to fill his engagements.

Sparkman went to Bethesda (Md.) Naval Hospital, Dr. J. W. Hagan, commanding officer of the hospital, reported he would be treated for a respiratory condition. He is expected to be discharged in a few days.

An oil barge en route from Tampa to Sarasota went aground when it tried to pass through the Cortez Draw connecting the Main land and Anna Maria Island.

All this happened in the general area where 39 Sunday School children and 14 adults were stranded on a grounded pleasure boat in the mouth of the Manatee River Sunday night.

The motor vessel Junonia out of Tampa radioed it was bobbing on one engine off Sarasota and requested towing help from the Coast Guard.

The Janie, ferry boat between Pass A Grille and Mullet Key is in distress. No details are known and there is no report on the number of passengers aboard.

The Coast Guard at St. Petersburg also reported a steamer is aground off Egmont Key at the mouth of Tampa Bay. No details are known.

The Capt. Alfred, a shrimp boat out of Ft. Myers, sank in 100 fathoms of water off the Campeche fishing banks near Mexico. The crew was removed by the Katic. Waters of Tampa Bay were so rough Coast Guard planes were having trouble taking off to search for missing craft.

Leonard Pardini, meteorologist in the Miami Weather Bureau, said the strong winds resulted from the passage of a large area of high barometric pressure to the north and the low over Florida.

Pardini termed the winds a northeaster. He said the disturbance over the state would move out to the Atlantic during the day, and strong winds would move southward to blanket most of Southeast Florida with winds up to 50 miles an hour spreading over the area.

Small craft warnings were in display all the way from St. Marks, on the Gulf coast south of Tallahassee, around the Peninsula and northward to Cape Hatteras, N.C.

The unsettled weather brought torrential rains to some parts of South Florida. Okeechobee reported more than five inches late Monday and Wauchula had 1.03 inches earlier in the day.

Heavy rains also were reported in West Palm Beach, Indiantown, Jupiter and Sherman Monday.

Ammon McTollan, publisher of the Okeechobee News, said growers of 1,800 acres of tomatoes in the Kissimmee River Valley already had lost 25 per cent of their crop because of heavy rains.

Many South Florida stations reported heavy rains over the week.

Blues In The News By BOB ANTHONY

The members of the Communication Department about the station are still talking about the fun they had at their department picnic which was held last week. Ben-Lando Springs was chosen for the picnic site and the water was fine for swimming. In fact, the water was so tempting that a certain party went swimming clothes and all. How about it, Rich? Chicken and potato salad were on the menu and a game of softball helped make the picnic a huge success.

Those attending the affair were: Chief and Mrs. Julian, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hutchinson, Mr. and Mrs. William Deal, Mr. and Mrs. Bill DeLaverne, John Fox, Bob Kilgore, Richard Tester, Roy Remsey, and Carpenter Hart.

The water on Lake Monroe was very hot on Sunday. Sunday and Monday night, Walter and Runday's little creek was all in a day's work. From the time they started their work at water-asking on the rough waters and he didn't mind taking the snail because when he was under water, he didn't get wet from the sun like the rest of the fellows. Oh well, just so you all had a good time.

The most recent newcomer to NAAR is Robert Hayes, Communication first class. Bob reported about yesterday from a tour of sea duty. He has been assigned to the Bureau Department. Welcome aboard, Bob. Here's hoping you'll have a fine tour of shore duty here in Sanford.

Joe Calista returned to duty with NAAR yesterday after completing a course of instruction at the Motion Picture Operator's School in Norfolk, Va. Joe is now a qualified Motion Picture Operator.

While he has been assigned to the Special Services Department where he will get a chance to use his newly acquired skills.

Another NAAR man that has been away at a navy school reported back.

Lions Meet

Mr. Garling, who is currently making a lecture tour of the Lions Club in District 6, said that 750 American servicemen were blinded in the Second World War and 28 more in the Korean War.

"While we couldn't get an accurate count of the number blinded in the First World War, we estimated that between 800 and 900 lost their sight," he recounted.

In explaining how the plan to help for the blind and partially-sighted restored by operations paid for by this group. The surgeons donated their services and the Council merely paid the hospital expenses.

Mr. Garling then gave two pointers for people wanting to assist a blind person. "Don't grab a blind person by the arm and take him across the street. That throws him off balance. Instead, offer your arm to him and he will walk a half a step back of you so that he can tell when you climb the curb or are going down a step. And remember when you shake hands with a blind person, you have to grab his hand because he can't see yours."

Mr. Garling was introduced by Burton Brown, deputy district governor of Leesburg. He was then introduced by Henry Witta, Jr., program chairman and district governor of Sanford.

Other guests from the Leesburg chapter were Andy Miller and former Sanford Lion, Randall Kleber.

Bill Martin, director of the Rehabilitation, also was a guest. He told the club that his new show will be back next Sunday in not an even better program than last Sunday before the rain and wind "got him in between the show," he began to holler. Alex Oakes and Nancy Coe were with us this Sunday, too. They were unable to make it last week," he explained. "Next week we will try and put the platform closer to the shore if the hyacints are not jamming up the bulkhead. I want to compliment Clarence Welsh and his committee for their show for last week. They did a wonderful job. You fellows get out there and sell some more tickets for next Sunday and we will give them a real show."

Clarence Ramsey, chairman of the ticket sales, reported that they sold $617.10 worth of tickets last week netting $252.10 after taxes and expenses.

Seven high school football games were postponed Friday night because of rain.

Morse was one of the original Eisenhower-for-president supporters but since has withdrawn his support on the grounds that the general has embraced policies and candidates he cannot accept.

Eisenhower made no mention of Morse in his remarks at Manchester, but he appeared in the note of this development as he said he was still a "No Deal" man.

He also ripped into the administration again with accusations of leaders are "appearing" a coalition of 500,000 that a Republican victory would mean another great depression.

Eisenhower gave no indication he was ready to accept President Truman's statement that no (Truman) had not accused the general

Again he spoke out at Manchester and Nashua against "lies" and "blatant" he said had been spread against him—and said he was grateful that Jewish and Catholic friends had come to his defense.

Eisenhower promised to help small business to provide diverse industries for localities—and thus ease economic pressures. This statement came in an area that has felt the loss of textile industry to the South with some resulting unemployment.

nominee told a cheering crowd estimated at 5,500 persons in Springfield, Ill., Monday that his bid for the presidency "is going well." Friends and neighbors turned out before the rally for a torchlight, horn-blowing parade to bid the governor goodbye.

Asserting that he was having trouble "getting my opponent to talk sense about the issues," Eisenhower said Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower is "saying one thing" while Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio "means something else."

"While the galaxy of political followers ride off in all directions, the general struggling mightily to keep from falling off the thrashing elephant, the expediency of it all is showing through—no policy, no program and no real faith in the future of America," Stevenson declared.

A VITAL MESSAGE TO MOTHERS OF GROWING CHILDREN

Most of us take it for granted that our children are well nourished... we give them enough food to fill their stomachs and assume they are getting enough nourishment as well.

But recent studies of child nutrition have come up with facts that challenge all our complacency about our family diet.

Children in all income groups partially undernourished

Over the past several years many nutrition studies have been made by private, state and federal agencies... including medical examinations of thousands of school children.

These studies showed that—even with the world's finest food supply—more than half our children are not getting all the nourishment they need for peak health. Serious nationwide nutritional deficiencies occur regardless of family income... largely because of our poor eating habits.

Bone weakness and tooth decay prevalent

Two of the most widespread problems are bone weakness and tooth decay.

Skeleton X-rays showed that a high percentage of the children had bones that were not as hard or strong as they should be—many even had some bone malformation. In thorough dental examinations most of the children were found to have tooth decay.

U. S. diet needs more calcium

These findings indicate that large percentages of our children are not getting enough of the calcium they need to build strong bones, and teeth that resist decay. Calcium, as you probably know, is found chiefly in milk and milk products... it is absolutely essential to growing children.

Yet nutritionists report the American diet is more lacking in calcium than in any other food element.

Bread research finds help for problem

As bakers of bread, our most universal food, the makers of Enriched Tip-Top Bread were in a natural position to help supplement the American diet with needed calcium. And that is exactly what they have done—after a series of careful experiments and consultations with health authorities.

Bone-building element doubled

The bakers of Enriched Tip-Top Bread have now doubled the bone and tooth building calcium in every loaf of New Tip-Top.

From now on when your children eat the New Tip-Top Bread they will get twice as much as before of this element so vital to the nourishment of strong bones and teeth.

New bread helps build up daily quota

Good whole milk, of course, is the first and foremost source of bone and tooth building material—children need at least a quart daily. But the fact is that many children do not drink that much.

Now—by serving the New Tip-Top Bread—you have a pleasing, effective way of reinforcing the essential element, calcium, in your child's diet. Eight slices of this new bread contain bone and tooth building calcium equal to a full glass of milk.

Most children eat that much bread daily as a matter of course. If you make sure your children eat the New Tip-Top Bread, you will automatically help them build up their quota of bone-building, tooth-building nourishment.

ESPECIALLY IMPORTANT TO CHILDREN—ADULTS PROFIT, TOO

In addition to calcium... New Tip-Top Bread brings you added milk nourishment with important minerals and high-quality protein essential to strong building in the young and tissue repair in the adult. The new loaf not only gives you increased nourishment but even more delicious, home-baked flavor.

The added calcium in the New Tip-Top Bread is of benefit to everyone. For children it increases the supply of bone- and tooth-building material while they are still growing and developing and is an insurance for later years.

For adults, both men and women, the New Tip-Top Bread provides additional calcium to help keep the bone structure strong.

Expectant mothers must have sufficient calcium to protect both themselves and the child.

Extra calcium is conducive to a feeling of well-being at all ages.

The situation really is a very peculiar one. The Cincinnati Negro has proved on occasion that he comes close to being a great fighter. Actually, he won the crown back from Jersey Joe Walcott at their last meeting at Philadelphia.

The second session of the convention on Saturday afternoon was taken up with reports from the vice-president of each district and committees.

And now, such a short time later, Charles finds himself on the outer fringe, striving desperately to get back in the running. A purely personal hunch here is that no matter what he does, Ezzard will never get a shot at Marcelino.

A legal report was given at the Sunday morning session by Edward R. Kirkland of Orlando, Florida, attorney.

2 Candidates Give Views On Foreign Issue

Eisenhower And Adlai Reveal Positions In Forum Conducted By New York Tribune

NEW YORK (U-P)—The two major party presidential candidates say the United States must continue to help the free world and lead in the struggle against communism. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Republican, and Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson, Democratic candidate, addressed the New York Herald Tribune Forum last night. Their speeches were carried nationally by radio and television. Eisenhower, who spoke directly to the forum session here, urged a "new economic alliance of free nations" to confound Kremlin predictions of economic doom for the free world. Stevenson, who delivered his address from Chicago, said America should lead in developing a "coalition of free nations strong enough to remain the masters of their destiny" and meet communism's threat. He said such a coalition could not be built without full-time American participation. The two candidates had a 15-minute (Continued On Page Four)

Ike Takes His Campaign Into Harlem Area

Tells Throng That He Doesn't Intend 'To Bring Before America An Evil Tongue'

By DON WHITEHEAD WITH EISENHOWER OF eight thousands carried by the 10th Army, the president-elect took his campaign into Harlem for the first time in his campaign today. Addressing more than 250 Harlem civic leaders and 250 members of a choral group at a breakfast gathering in the Hotel Tebena, the GOP candidate declared, "I do not intend to bring before you or before America an evil tongue. An evil tongue is found only in disappointed men. I'm no politician. I don't have all the answers."
