U.S. Ships Aid Nationals To Make Landings

Virtual Civil War Is Said To Be Raging Between Kai-Shek And Chinese Reds

BATAVIA, Nov. 9 (AP)—Belgian planes dropped leaflets on Indonesian forces in Soerabaya today calling for their unconditional surrender, a move which may signal a general uprising by well-trained Indonesian nationalists throughout the entire island of Java. The struggle between them and the Dutch is so bitter now, however, only intervention by the United Nations or possibly the United States could bring a peace formula.

CHINWANGTA, Nov. 9 (AP)—Chinese nationalist troops transported by American ships have landed at this Hopen port and taken up positions facing Communist forces along the Great Wall. They were put ashore by U.S. amphibious forces under Vice Admiral Daniel Darby. All indications are the Communists are well dug in and sufficiently mobile to swing in either direction to combat any forced entry of Manchuria along the sector.

Chinese Communists who yesterday bluntly demanded that government troops withdraw from Red-dominated areas of North China, have captured the Shan-shi province railroad town of Chaucheng and begun "the massacre" of its civil servants and Kuomintang (Nationalist) party members. A Chinese dispatch reported Government defenders of the town, south of Taiyuan, the Shan-shi capital, withdrew last Saturday night after their ammunition was exhausted. It said the Chinese dispatched a "other party" of Shan-shi, the fighting continued with unabated fury with four towns under direct Red assault, the dispatch added. It said the Chinese were driven from two of the towns.

The Chinese government meanwhile gathered its military leaders today for an unheralded "high level" conference in Chungking, and Communists termed the phrase just another name for an all-out drive to liquidate all Communists.

Communists' demand that government troops withdraw from Red-dominated areas of North China.

1. Countered a Government "stay put, stop firing" peace plan with demands that all Government forces withdraw completely from Red-dominated areas of the North.

2. Demanded that Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, U. S. commander in China, apologize for American "intervention" against the Reds, and reserved the right to demand compensation.

3. Forecast a huge Government offensive for which, Red spokesmen at Yanan said, 60 divisions already have been massed in the North.

Increasing the tension were reports from Manchuria that no Chinese Government troops have been landed at any Manchurian ports. Russians withdrew suddenly from the Southern Manchurian ports of Ruluta and Yingkow, it was reported here today, leaving Chinese Reds in control and leaving Chinese Government troops still aboard their U. S. transports which would not attempt landings against certain Red opposition.

Next Week Known As National Art Week

Nov. 11 through Nov. 17 known as National Art Week and also as American Educational Week, will be observed in the Seminole County Schools by inviting the public to attend classes, by special chapel programs and by an art display of the Southside Primary School which will be shown in the window of the Florida Power and Light Company, it was announced today by Miss Ruth Sand, Educational Supervisor.

Parents are urged to attend the classes and programs of all the schools in order to obtain first hand information as to what is being done in the schools.

The art display will be sponsored by the Southside Primary School, Mrs. J. C. Mitchell, principal under the supervision of Miss Mildred Babcock, art instructor.

The posters displayed in Sanford requesting the parents to attend the schools were made by the art students of Junior High School.

Sanford Lodge No. 27, IOOF will meet at 8:00 o'clock Monday evening in regular session. The dues will be collected. All members and visiting brothers are invited to attend.

War Dead Honored On 'Missouri'

HERE IS A GENERAL VIEW of the quarterdeck of the U.S.S. Missouri as all-faith memorial services were held aboard the ship for Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard dead. The services were conducted by Lt. Paul L. O'Connor, Catholic chaplain of the Missouri; Comdr. Roland Faulk, Protestant chaplain; and Lt. Comdr. Joshua L. Goldberg, Jewish chaplain. Present were relatives of Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard personnel who gave their lives in World War II. (International)

Rep. Hendricks Addresses Lions On Capital Work

Sum Of 35 Million Authorized For Waterways In Florida

In a talk to members of the Lions, Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs today at the Hotel Mayfair, Representative Hendricks stated that he had introduced into the House a bill to repeal that provision of the Rivers and Harbors Bill which would prevent work of engineers starting on rivers and harbors, including deepening to 12 feet of the St. Johns River Channel, until six months after the President officially declares the war end something which has not yet been done.

He added that Judge Mansfield chairman of the Rivers and Harbors Committee had reported favorably on the bill, and stated they would try to get it through the House in order that engineers may go ahead on this sort of work. Rep. Hendricks was introduced by Mayor Edward Higgins, who in turn was introduced by King-Lion Clyde Ramirez of the Lions Club who presided at the luncheon.

The sum of $35,000,000 had been authorized for waterways work in the state of Florida, Representative Hendricks said, and mentioned among projects pending the St. Johns-Indian River waterway canal, and the program recommended by the committee.

He then told of his work on the House Sub Appropriations committee for war expenditures which totaled 24 billion dollars and of a two billion dollar appropriation given at the request of General Marshall for which they did not know the use. One of the subcommittee members went to Oak Ridge, Tenn. to find out for what the money was being spent and he denied admittance. He complained about it in Washington and was told by Gen. Marshall that it represented an international race in research that might win the war or if the enemy got it first, use it. Later, the atomic bomb secret was revealed.

Rep. Hendricks also told how he started on a flying trip on Aug. 6 on inspection of Army and Navy bases that took him around the world in 39 days going to the Pacific theater and Okinawa, through China, India, Iran, the Holy Land, Egypt, Italy, Germany and England.

He told of the desolated cities of Hamburg and Berlin he had visited, and cautioned against relying on the protection of the oceans in case of future wars in view of V-bomb and atomic bomb developments. "The United States cannot live in the future as it has in the past in this respect," he asserted, and declared flatly against an isolationist policy.

Opposes Quota Plan

The Florida senator, a long-time supporter of increasing his state's sugar output, told a reporter he believed, however, that re-establishment of sugar quota system in accordance with the 1937 sugar act "would probably have adverse effects on the natural development of Florida's production."

This sugar-producing state was limited under the Sugar Act to a quota of from 53,000 to 99,000 tons. It was only entitled to a quota of 11.31 per cent of the total United States, Puerto Rico and Hawaiian sugar output, or 6.24 per cent of the total domestic sugar consumption.

Andrews said he was willing to give his support to any movement seeking a higher quota for Florida if this system is re-established.

85,000-Ton Crop

Despite acute labor shortages, Florida promises to become one of about 85,000 tons of sugar in 1946 he declared.

Puerto Rican sugar producers have repeatedly stated that Florida promises to become one of the most important sugar cane areas of the United States. Its good land and reasonable labor wage rates, they have said, can be helpful in expanding its output to more than double of what

Little Hope Seen For Early End To Sugar Rationing

Senator Andrews Predicts Florida Will Become Sugar Bowl

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 (AP)—There's little hope now that sugar rationing will end before 1947, Secretary of Agriculture Anderson said yesterday.

Rationing of butter, margarine, lard and shortening may have to continue into the Spring, and possibly Summer, of 1946, he added. A hot meat may go off the ration list early in 1946.

Anderson gave this picture at a news conference at which areas of Europe and French had announced the United States has allocated liberated North Africa 50 per cent more food for the October-December quarter than in the previous quarter.

The allocation totaled nearly 4,000,000 tons from a fourth quarter supply of 37,000,000 tons.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 (AP)—Senator Charles O. Andrews (D-Fla.) expressed confidence yesterday in Florida's eventual development as one of the principal United States "sugar bowls."

He said his state had proven a natural source for much of the sugar consumed in the United States after successful experiments in sugar cane cultivation in recent years.

Andrews expressed this opinion while commenting on the flow of prominent Puerto Rican cane farmers to the United States, particularly in the Lake Okechobee region in South Central Florida. These farmers have purchased hundreds of thousands of acres of land in that area and have organized a bank in Miami to finance their operations.

Four Sanford Men Qualify At Eustis

There will be no drill for Co. Florida State Guard, at the Camp Monday night on account of the Armistice Day holiday, Capt. John Galloway announced today.

A recapitulation of scores turned in at the shoot held last Sunday at Eustis revealed, Capt. Galloway added, that two Sanford men had qualified as sharpshooters and two as marksmen. W.W. Tyre with a score of 318 and Cpl. Martin Stinephor with a score of 313. Cpl. D.R. Ulrey qualified as a marksman with 292 and Pvt. B. M. Reel as a marksman with 285.

G.M. Declares Lewis' Charge Unjust, Absurd

Strike Vote Set For Nov. 28 By 50,000 CIO Steel Workers; Lewis Bangs Murray

WINDSOR, Ont., Nov. 9 (AP)—An estimated 330,000 members of the Canadian Labor Congress were alerted today for a dominion-wide walk-out unless the Ford Motor Co. of Canada strike here is settled "within 48 hours."

The deadline was set by Congress officials as Canadian Labor Minister Humphrey Mitchell said he expected further work today with Henry Ford, with whom he conferred Thursday in Detroit.

By Associated Press

National Labor disputes have 275,000 in total today. General Motors termed as "unjust and absurd" the charge of the CIO United Auto Workers that it violated the Wagner Act by refusing to bargain collectively with the union on its demand for a 30 per cent wage hike. U. S. Steel told the NLRB it will cooperate with the Nov. 28 strike vote among some 50,000 CIO employees. The NLRB set Dec. 6 as a tentative date for the strike vote by thousands of CIO workers of General Electric, Westinghouse and GM Electrical Manufacturing work demanding a 62-n-day wage increase.

Washington, Nov. 9 (AP)—John L. Lewis last night denounced as "feeling and mumbo-jumbo" a wage resolution offered the National Labor-Management Conference by CIO President Philip Murray.

Revealing a deep rift in the labor delegation, Lewis declared Murray's proposal would "negate" wage advances of American workers to advances in the cost of living.

The CIO resolution, the United Mine Workers' president told reporters, would "perpetuate Government control of prices and profits and the fixation of wage scales" and urged immediate action to end the "unjust and absurd" resolution.

The Murray resolution, still held in the conference's executive committee, would put the conference on record as urging immediate and full collective bargaining within the framework of Mr. Truman's broadcast which said wage increases were "imperative" within the limits of inflation control.

Wants No Limits

Lewis, receiving reporters in his spacious UMW office, declared labor should not be limited in its bargaining. He said competition would take care of prices when peacetime production gains.

He partly verified reports that today's closed session of the executive committee was a stormy one, marked by an exchange of change between Lewis and Murray.

Asked if there were sharp words, Lewis smiled: "Perhaps."

The UMW chief said Murray became so "emotional and agitated" that he, Lewis, would not attempt to report what reply the CIO president had made to him.

Murray, who held a news conference on the United Steelworkers' wage demands and Steelworkers' States Steel, did not elaborate on the dispute in the committee session.

He stated, however, that his resolution merely asked for collective bargaining, which he declared was now bogged down in many important industries, and that such bargaining should recognize "the imperative need of American workers for wage increases."

Whereas, the Campbell-Lossing Post of the American Legion will hold a memorial service at the Pier in Sanford at 10:45 A.M. on Monday the 12th day of November, 1945, for the gallant men who made the supreme sacrifices for their Country in the First and Second World Wars;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Edward Higgins, as Mayor of the City of Sanford, Florida, do hereby request the people of Sanford to attend the above mentioned memorial services in honor of our war dead and to commemorate their gallant services to their Country in time of its peril.

Lieut. Teague was a flight engineer in a wing of B-29 planes, the first of their type to attack Japan. The attack was on Yawata, the "Pittsburg" of Japan was made from China bases at night and knocked out the vital coke plants that supplied most of the Japanese steel mills.

The planes, he said, had been based in India and had to fly their supplies "over the hump" or chain of mountains, the highest in the world, in order to establish bases in China.

Individual Income Taxes Of 10 Million People Are Slashed; Business Taxes Cut

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 (AP)—The White House announced today that President Truman had signed the bill giving individuals and business a slash of $5,920,000,000 in 1946 taxes. Thus he became the first President in 16 years to sign a general tax reduction measure. The last was in 1929 when Herbert Hoover put his signature on a "Christmas Present" slash.

The White House said Truman signed the bill yesterday. It removes 12 million low income persons from the tax rolls and assures a reduction of 10 per cent or more for individuals making up to $20,000 annually. It also clips $3,136,000,000 off the burdens of business next year, principally through the repeal of the corporation war-imposed 55 per cent excess profits tax. There is no change in the excess taxes on so-called "luxury items." It repeals the 55 auto use tax.

President Truman decided to forego his usual news conference today to get ready for the three power discussion on atomic energy this weekend. Prime Minister Atlee is expected to arrive tomorrow but the exact time is not certain.

The party will bring together the President, Atlee and Prime Minister King of Canada. A state dinner to honor the visitors will be given Saturday night at the White House.

Sunday there will be a visit to Arlington Cemetery. Then they will board the yacht Sequoia on the Potomac River for a conference on policy relative to atomic energy.

THIS IS THE SEASON

(From The Poetry Chap-Book)
This is the season when the earth concedes
An ancient covenant; it seals its living plants to seal the wounds of men—
Young mullen, rambles and feverweeds.
Deep in the wooded hollows tansy
rides
Deep in the satin leaves of lemon balm
Lie vistas, cool and green, of peace and calm;
The portals to the hills where strength abides.
Blown by the winds of Eden,
herbs have cured
The ills of animals since time began (A latent factor in a latent plan).
The very grass is like a friend
inured
To ways of man indefinite and dim—
It will at last come up and blanket him.

The government should enact

Having ordered some supply

got a reply the other day: "Hope

Imperial Guilt

Emperor Hirohito, sacred personage or not, may yet come to be labeled Japan's No. 1 war criminal. The date Dec. 7, for the Pearl Harbor attack was set long in advance and with the Emperor's complete knowledge and apparent acquiescence.

Imperial general headquarters plans and instructions for attacking Pearl Harbor on that date were found, duly signed, on a captured Japanese ship and were dated Nov. 5 and Nov. 7, 1941. On Nov. 5, Kurusu had been dispatched to Washington for "peace negotiations"; Secretary Hull's communication, criticized in some quarters as "an ultimatum" to Japan that forced her to declare war, was not sent until Nov. 26, three weeks after all this.

It has been further revealed by Japanese politicians since V-J Day that an Imperial conference, presided over by the Emperor, was held in Tokyo on July 2, 1941, just ten days after Germany attacked Russia. From then Japan planned steadily for Dec. 7, this date selected to avoid monsoons and other unfavorable weather conditions.

Hirohito knew of all these secret feverish plans for war, carried on behind a window dressing of peace to the world. It may be true that as a mere religious figure-head he had little power with the war gang. Nevertheless he acquiesced in their plans, which makes him a war criminal, responsible for that acquiescence.

Uncle's Wallet

Everybody seems to want help now from Uncle Sam. The biggest helping is asked for by Russia, (thinking she can get by for $6,000,000,000, and Britain, asking for $5,000,000,000,000. With the French, Chinese and various others putting in their requests, it is plain that Uncle will have to dig very deeply into his supposedly bottomless pocket. But, as was said of old, "Of him to whom much is given, from him shall much be required."

At the same time, it must be observed that Uncle's pocket isn't really bottomless. He has been writing I.O.U.'s for quite a while now; and his financing of two great wars, plus enough additional funds to keep Britain and France and a lot of lesser friends going, have produced a tremendous deficit. Our credit is still the best in the world, but at the spending rate of recent years it can't last forever.

Even when the vast outgo stops, we'll have more loose currency afloat than we like to think about. And probably nothing material in this impecunious world is more important than Uncle Sam's solvency.

O'Dwyer, Jeffries, Curley

The Democrats win in New York and the CIO is walloped in Detroit. Those are two results of Tuesday's municipal elections which ought to please the general American public. A good man was elected in New York and a bad man was defeated in Detroit.

William O'Dwyer, with an excellent record as a smash-up of criminal gangs, out-voted both of his opponents—although the defeated candidates are men of higher character and standing than the usual run of big city politicians. His election gives the Democrats of his state great encouragement in their political plans. It is far from encouraging to supporters of Governor Dewey, who may still be considered a possibility for a second nomination for President. It marks the retirement from New York's City Hall of one of the most virile personalities in America, Fiorella La Guardia.

In Detroit, Frankenstein, the first union official and leader to offer himself as a candidate for important public office, was soundly beaten by Mayor Jeffries, standing for a fourth term. Frankenstein was backed by the CIO Political Action Committee, which, in this instance, signally failed to "act." He was also supported by union labor generally, which saw a good opportunity to inject itself into high office-holding. These hopes were blasted by a 47,000 majority vote for Jeffries.

Another interesting development of Tuesday's voting was another political victory for the irrepressible "Jim" Curley of Boston, who maintained his record of successful candidacies by election as Mayor. Curley has been Governor three previous times Mayor and four times a member of Congress. Elected to a $20,000 job as Mayor of Boston, he still holds a $10,000 job as a member of the House of Representatives. Curley is 71, but he is not too old to run and win.—Tampa Tribune.

TERRACE TALK

From Helen Wright's Teens of Our Times comes the bold title "HOW TO PICK A WOLF". The human wolf has some recognizable characteristics, and every young girl should know them if you have to wait for him to howl, it may be too late. So we'll just kind as write down some of the distinguishing marks to help you keep the wolf from your door.

A Wolf always gives himself away. He's not dependable; he's seldom where he's supposed to be. He'll break a date without a good reason; he'll even stand you up, if he has the chance. But from the first skipped phone call, you should have been wary of him, preferably alone. He keeps a fresh eye out for new talent, even when he's with you. He's too good at Schmatz too. So pick a wolf, and let him lam!

SAM BYRD has written a new book, "Hurry Home to My Heart" published by the Houghton Mifflin Co. It is a story of a small town girl and her lover, a native of the same small town, who went to fight in the war. Red Sutherland returns resentful that the home town people seem to be taking things easy. He hears over a period of time what the war meant to the people at home and realizes that he and the home town people fought for the same things. SAM is now Lieutenant in the Naval Reserve. He wants to act in the European theater of war and is now an active duty in the Pacific.

CAPT. and MRS. BERNARD SCHIBARD are back in town. CAPT. JIMMY DYSON and PEG, his wife, are down for a few days but will return to New York shortly to attend the Syracuse Colgate football game. ROBERT WILSON is around again and looking swell. IRMA and GEORGE DANGLAMAN, JESSIE DURDEN and JOE MCCASLIN are now tennis fiends. Everyone has promised to give a party during the Xmas holidays to live in the old city when is yours scheduled? - C. E. T.

From the Celery Fed, Seminole High's monthly newspaper, the following profiles of new faculty members are taken: JESSIE DURDEN - one of our own alumni. She graduated from S. H. S. in 1941 and then attended F. S. C. W. for four years. She returned to serve her internship in Tallahassee. Miss DURDEN is a teacher and Socialized Math teacher was born and raised in Sanford and graduated from S. H. S. in 1941 and after graduating in 1940, he joined the Navy Air Corps. After being an instructor at the Naval Base in Pensacola, he was assigned patrol duty in the Atlantic. Later he spent a year and a half in the Pacific.

L. E. TEW, the new Algebra teacher and Socialized Math teacher was born and raised in Sanford and graduated from S. H. S. in 1941 and after graduating in 1940, he joined the Navy Air Corps. After being an instructor at the Naval Base in Pensacola, he was assigned patrol duty in the Atlantic. Later he spent a year and a half in the Pacific.

Mystery solved the murder of Mrs. Dorothy Dolan (above), a 35-year-old wife of a wealthy resident of Cleveland, O., who's body was found in her Cleveland home and brutally battered with an electric iron. Police could discover no motive for the crime. (Associated Press)

Top Chinese Nurse Studying Nursing In United States

By C. E. Butterfield
AP Radio Editor
NEW YORK—Some thing else is being added to radio: pulse time modulation.

Like amplitude modulation, as used in standard broadcasting, and FM (frequency modulation), it is a system of transmission that can be applied to the radio, telephone, broadcast and other services.

Its chief objective is multiplexing—that is, the use of a single transmitter to handle more than one telephone conversation or broadcast program simultaneously. Or it might even enable combination of the separate sound and sight transmitters of television into a single unit.

In process of development for nine years, pulse time, or PTM, is just becoming practical. It is particularly adaptable to the high frequencies. A recent test on an 80-mile radiophone circuit employed 1350 megacycles. This is the micro-ray band.

Short Test Made

For the test, a triangular circuit consisted of two repeater stations, besides the main transmitter to send the signals from New York to Nutley, N. J., and back. Engineers explained that it could carry 24 or more two-way telephone conversations, numerous telegrams or 12 or more different broadcast programs without getting any mixed up. Parabolic reflectors comprised the beam antenna apparatus.

The system, brainchild of E. M. Deloraine, E. Labin and others of the Federal Telecommunication Laboratories of the International Telephone and Telegraph Corp., gets its name, pulse time, from the way it functions. Early electronic, it is a tremendous advancement over the earlier mechanical multiplex methods employed in telegraphy.

Chops Up Programs

Pulse time, in effect, chops two or more conversations or programs, fed into the transmitter, into bits—short bursts or pulses

RETONGA CAN'T BE BEAT SAYS MRS. MITCHELL

Had Been Going Down Hill For Four Years, She States, Can Eat Plenty And Sleeps Fine Now; Feels Lots Stronger.

MRS. J. O. MITCHELL

"It is surely grand to feel as good as I do now and I cannot praise Retonga too much," gratefully declares Mrs. J. O. Mitchell, well known resident of 3222 Evergreen Ave., Jacksonville, Fla., in adding her name to the thousands happily praising this noted herbal stomachic and Vitamin B-1 medicine.

"During the past two years I seemed to go down a hill every day," continues Mrs. Mitchell. "My appetite left me and I was so restless at night I could get only a few hours sleep. Mornings I woke up feeling tired and worn out. I was almost a slave to strong laxatives, and my head would often swim from sluggish elimination until I had to sit down to get my balance. I felt weak and run down almost to the point of exhaustion.

"Retonga brought me such prompt relief I was able to again enjoy my life. I have very thing seems to agree with me. I sleep splendidly, too; and Retonga relieved that terrible sluggish elimination. I feel so much stronger that I even do my housework without feeling tired out. Retonga can't be beat."

Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to Vitamin B-1 deficiency, constipation, insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, and loss of appetite. Accept no substitute. Retonga may be obtained at Touchton Drug Co., Advs.

It was in pre-war years. These sugar men are said to have invested more than $5,000,000 in buying lands and developing the Florida sugar industry. Some of them have been operating a sugar mill in Fellsmere, Fla. Plans now under discussion, well-informed trade sources disclosed, call for an additional investment of $5,000,000 in that region next year.

Java Rebels Ask Moscow To Help Them

Battle Is Raging For Soerabaja Control; Chinese Civil War Enters New Phase

BATAVIA, JAVA, Nov. 12. (AP)—Indonesian Nationalist leader has addressed a radio appeal to Soviet Foreign Commissar Molotov to intervene on behalf of the unrecognized Indonesian republic. The appeal has been made by foreign Minister the unrecognized republic.

The Indonesian appeal for Soviet intervention comes after a similar appeal was addressed to President Truman and Prime Minister Attlee by President Soekarno of the unrecognized republic. It comes also as British Indian troops are engaged in a fierce battle with Indonesians in the streets of the Soerabaja Naval Base.

British Indian troops have gained control of practically all the Netherlands New agency Aneta big naval base of Soerabaja. The British asked British tank crews are turning back fanatic charges by Indonesian nationalists.

The Dutch said that many Indonesians have been killed in the charges. But there are no indications that the natives are ready to give up the fight. The British say their artillery has knocked out Japanese tanks manned by Indonesians in the fighting in Soerabaja.

Sosrodardjo, addressing himself to Soviet Foreign Commissar Molotov, asked Molotov's help in winning the struggle for the world for anti-British. The native leader to be more anti-Dutch than the Indonesians. But he appeared to say that while it was plain to see that the British were Dutch reassert their colonial rule, the Indonesians would be willing to tolerate the presence of British troops for a certain time.

CHUNGKING, Nov. 12. (AP)—The Chinese civil war flared with new violence today as Communist forces led by a new nationalist drive into Manchuria. According to Communist spokesmen, the drive is under way in Manchuria, where the government is using Chinese commando troops who received their training from the American office of strategic services.

At the same time it appeared China's warring Nationalists and Communists may be moving toward agreement at last. A spokesman for the Nationalists has disclosed that representatives for both sides have agreed to turn their differences over to a consultative council for settlement.

The council will be called into session about Nov. 15. However, the Communist official pointed out that the final issue of peace or civil war still rests with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek. He said the Communist dashed cold-water on peace hopes by calling a meeting of the national assembly for May 5. The announcement ignored the Communists, who have been asking representation.

Com. Dixie Kiefer, Naval Hero, Killed In Plane Crash

BEACON, N.Y., Nov. 12. (AP)—The Navy has officially confirmed that 49-year-old Dixie Kiefer was one of the six persons killed when a twin-engine plane crashed on Mount Beacon, N. Y., yesterday. The wreckage was found early today.

Local officials at Beacon have identified one of the victims of a plane crash as a Navy hero who survived one of the heaviest battles in the Pacific war. Commodore Dixie Kiefer has been identified as one of the six who died in the crash on Mount Beacon, N.Y., a local municipal official said.

Kiefer was wounded ten times during two World Wars. He was on the bridge of the aircraft carrier, the USS Tennessee, when a twin-engine plane crashed at noon yesterday en route to Quonset from Caldwell, N.J.

Kiefer was widely known as "Captain Dixie" of the documentary film "Flight-Lady." In the Naval attack off Formosa, Kiefer was struck by five pieces of shrapnel as he stood on the bridge of his carrier, the Tennessee. His official handling of the vessel as the day burning after the kamikaze attack kept her from being blown up by her own bombs, and saved her to continue the fight.

Sanford Observes Armistice Day At Memorial Service

The answer to future world peace for this country, the greatest nation in the world, is to have national preparedness. This was the theme of a memorial service for Armistice Day at the Sanford Municipal Handshaking ceremony.

Prevention of war by national preparedness is the only way we can keep face with the uncounted thousands of patriots who died in our country to make America strong," he asserted. Senator Lloyd F. Boyle, in introducing Capt. Eastin, also emphasized the need of preparedness, and told that America by disarming filled the sea who had fought in the last war. Comdr. J. J. Rocco of Campbell-Lessing Post introduced Senator Boyle.

Today has been proclaimed a holiday in Sanford and throughout the nation as there is a pause in the tempo of today's activity in order to observe Armistice Day, honoring the dead of World War I and World War II, two of the most devastating wars in history, and with in one generation.

Downtown Sanford was decorated this morning with flags, nobby wreaths prepared by Mrs. Leslie Went were placed at the Municipal flagpole and the Band Shell was put in readiness for the program at which Captain William T. Easton, commander of the Sanford Naval Air Station, and State Senator Lloyd F. Boyle were scheduled to speak.

By order of Supt. T. W. Lawton, all schools in Seminole County were closed for the celebration. Most stores, offices, banks and municipal and county departments were closed today in honor of the holiday.

Miami Is Having Greatest Influx Of Tourists Ever

Hotel Rooms Renting At $25 A Day And Houses Up To $2500

MIAMI, Nov. 12. (AP)—Ho-Hum, another story about the housing shortage. This time it's that warm and frothy city of the south, Miami, Florida. Miami is faced with two problems—this season and if you can't guess what they are, it's either because you live in a deserted ghost town, or own three or four assorted houses in town and country. Miami's problem, of course, is the greatest influx of tourists in its history, and no place to put them.

The Riviera of the Americas is already jam-packed, and they're warning tourists to have advance reservations before they start south. The Miami Beach Convention Bureau has asked no large conventions for the season, but already 22 are on schedule. You just can't keep visiting friends from visiting.

Because the Army has released some resort hotels along the Beach, the upper bracket customer will be helped somewhat. But don't let that encourage you unless you can pay the rent—starting at $25 a day. Even small houses and apartments are being quoted at $1500 to $2500 for season's rental. And that's only if you can find them.

Miami isn't the only garden city, however. Other spots in Florida are having their troubles with tourists. In Pompano Beach, Clearwater, Lakeland, Petersburg, Tampa, Daytona Beach—all of them are having their greatest season since the late thirties. If things continue this way, even the birds will have to advance reservations before they go south for the winter.

STATEWIDE CONFERENCE

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 12. (Special)—How well Florida is meeting its war production obligations will be plain for all to see at a 3-day statewide conference scheduled for Jacksonville, Dec. 2-4, declared Harold Cole, executive vice president of the Florida State Chamber of Commerce here today.

Leaders in every Florida business and agriculture pursuit will be presented at the conference, Cole declared, "in greater numbers according to invitations accepted, than has heretofore been the case." It will mark the 20th membership meeting of the organization.

Cole announced today for the first time that the banquet speaker on Dec. 4, would be the Hon. John D. Small, National Administrator of Civilian Production, only recently appointed by President Truman to take over the duties of the old War Production Board.

Two men were struck by their automobile when they were on a passenger train near Jacksonville today. These killed were Peter Gilmer, of Hilliard, Fla., 68-year-old retired Naval reservist, and his son-in-law, Ralph Aubuchon, 19-year-old miller of Boone Terra, Fla. Gilmer was a Spanish-American War veteran.

U.S. Studies Attlee's Plan On Atom Pool

Anglo-America May Keep Secret With Decision For Use Up To All Nations

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12. (AP)—President Truman today is studying British Prime Minister Attlee's plan for pooling atomic secrets among members of the United Nations Security Council. One big factor in the Allied Conference is said to be Russia's long-range territorial and diplomatic ambitions.

According to British officials, the Attlee plan for pooling atomic secrets is turned down, the Prime Minister will suggest instead that the Anglo-American nations keep the knowledge but promise to use it only in accord with decision of the United Nations Security Council.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12. (AP)—All eyes today are on the three chiefs of state, meeting in Washington to discuss atomic tonics policy. Prime Minister Attlee of Great Britain has picked up his bags and moved to the British Embassy from the White House where he had been staying since his arrival. Later in the day he's expected back at the White House again for more discussions with President Truman and Canadian Premier Mackenzie King.

Prime Minister Attlee is understood to have made three proposals during yesterday's meeting about the yachting. Several on the Potomac River. He is said to have emphasized the need for channeling the new atomic energy into peaceful channels. And to accomplish this end, he is understood to have advocated sharing the atomic secret with other nations, but only after effective safeguards have been established.

Although the actual talks are going forward in secrecy, the tone of the meeting was made clear at a state dinner in the White House last night. President Truman remarked that the three are approaching the problem, as he put it, prayerfully, and in the hope of making the United Nations organization a living program.

Prime Minister Attlee, then rose and told the gathering that what is needed is a universal foreign policy directed not to any immediate aim of any particular country but conceived in the interest of all the people of the world.

Next the General posed briefly four platitudes. "Suppose you said, 'Kiss Her, Hee,'" he said. "You take your pictures and let her take care of my business."

General Eisenhower was first to step from the plane and immediately embraced his wife who was waiting for him. The small crowd, mostly Navy personnel, cheered the couple. The General, smiling broadly, kissed his wife, then put his arms around her waist and lifted her. "If the ground..."

U.S. Studies Attlee's Plan On Atom Pool

Anglo-America May Keep Secret With Decision For Use Up To All Nations

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12. (AP)—President Truman today is studying British Prime Minister Attlee's plan for pooling atomic secrets among members of the United Nations Security Council. One big factor in the Allied Conference is said to be Russia's long-range territorial and diplomatic ambitions.

According to British officials, the Attlee plan for pooling atomic secrets is turned down, the Prime Minister will suggest instead that the Anglo-American nations keep the knowledge but promise to use it only in accord with decision of the United Nations Security Council.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12. (AP)—All eyes today are on the three chiefs of state, meeting in Washington to discuss atomic tonics policy. Prime Minister Attlee of Great Britain has picked up his bags and moved to the British Embassy from the White House where he had been staying since his arrival. Later in the day he's expected back at the White House again for more discussions with President Truman and Canadian Premier Mackenzie King.

Prime Minister Attlee is understood to have made three proposals during yesterday's meeting about the yachting. Several on the Potomac River. He is said to have emphasized the need for channeling the new atomic energy into peaceful channels. And to accomplish this end, he is understood to have advocated sharing the atomic secret with other nations, but only after effective safeguards have been established.

Although the actual talks are going forward in secrecy, the tone of the meeting was made clear at a state dinner in the White House last night. President Truman remarked that the three are approaching the problem, as he put it, prayerfully, and in the hope of making the United Nations organization a living program.

Prime Minister Attlee, then rose and told the gathering that what is needed is a universal foreign policy directed not to any immediate aim of any particular country but conceived in the interest of all the people of the world.

General Eisenhower was first to step from the plane and immediately embraced his wife who was waiting for him. The small crowd, mostly Navy personnel, cheered the couple. The General, smiling broadly, kissed his wife, then put his arms around her waist and lifted her. "If the ground..."
