Count Plans Disarming Of Scopus Area

Armistice Will Expire July 9 As Neither Jews, Arabs React Officially To Plan

RHODES, July 2. (AP)—Count Folke Bernadotte said today he and his United Nations mediation aides have decided to demilitarize the Mt. Scopus area of Jerusalem.

Hebrew University and the American-supported Hadassah Hospital are in the area. He said the German Hospital which contains Augusta Victoria Hospital also is to be demilitarized.

"If the war should start again," the mediator said, "it is my hope that these areas will not be touched."

Bernadotte said he will fly to Cairo tomorrow to discuss his peace proposals for Palestine with Arab leaders. They have not yet reacted.

"Arab representatives are prepared to talk with me on the suggestions I have put forward," Bernadotte said. "I am to meet them tomorrow evening at 6:30 Cairo time (11:30 A. M. EST)."

The Count said he might return via Tel Aviv. He expects to be back on this Greek island Sunday or Monday.

The four-week armistice he arranged expires July 9. Bernadotte said neither Arabs nor Jews had given him official reaction to his peace plan. He had just returned from Jerusalem.

The Count said he attempted to bring about an agreement on the Jerusalem water supply, lines of which have been damaged. Arab commanders were unable to decide.

"The question so far has been put on a political level, but we hope in a couple of days to get it settled," he said.

Greek Forces Are Said Within Few Miles Of Joining

ATHENS, July 2. (AP)—Greek divisions comprising rebels in the Grammos Mountains were reported by press dispatches today to be within 15 or 16 miles of joining.

Meeting of troops moving from the north, south and east would dissect the hard core of Communist leader Markos Vafiadis' strength. The guerrillas, estimated at up to 7,000, when this offensive started, also would be ringed and cut off from escape into nearby Albania.

Dispatches said the Second Division moving from the Nestos area north of the pocket and the Givens region east of the rebels zone advanced to within seven miles of Samarina. The Ninth Division, striking north from Komitza along the Albanian frontier, captured Fournis, nine miles from Samarina, the reports said.

Samarina is a guerrilla concentration point. A junction of the Greek Ninth and Second Divisions there would cut Vafiadis' mountain fastness into two roughly equal parts.

Negro Given 3 Years For Felony Intent

Willie Mitchell, colored, pleaded guilty before Judge M. B. Smith in Circuit Court this morning to a charge of entering with intent to commit a felony and was sentenced to three years in Ruffalo Penitentiary. It was reported today by O. P. Harndon, clerk of the court.

The case of E. B. Smith, charged with setting up and operating a lottery was nolle prossed on motion of State Attorney Murray W. Overstreet for the reason, said Mr. Harndon, that James Rutledge, an essential state witness, could not be located.

B. J. Brown, young white man, charged with enticing away an unmarried woman, was shown to the Court as now legally married, having exhibited a marriage certificate from Georgia. The Court released him on his own recognizance, to report back when directed.

Bolivar Prepares For 2 Presidents

BOLIVAR, Mo., July 2. (AP)—Bolivar rushed through a state of "orderly confusion" today as it completed preparations for the day its 3,000 residents expect to be the biggest in its 112-year history. Next Monday the community will be host to President Truman and President Rumulo Gallegos of Venezuela as the latter presents to the United States a $100,000 statue of Simon Bolivar, for whom the city was named. The Pan-American friendship gesture will climax a three-day program beginning tomorrow with a fiesta in the best South American tradition. Dr. Fayle C. McGraw, the mayor, admitted today there still were many minor details to attend to, but gave the assurance that "any confusion that may exist is orderly."

60 Unsuspected Diabetes Cases Found In Duval

Report Says None Of Victims Was Aware Of His Sickness

TALLAHASSEE, July 2. (AP)—The first full diabetes case finding program in the United States has turned up 60 unsuspected cases of the disease in Duval county.

A report in the current issue of "Florida Health Notes," the State Board of Health publication, said none of the 60 knew he had diabetes. In addition, 30 persons with a tendency towards diabetes have been warned of their conditions.

The investigation has been conducted in Jacksonville for the past ten months by the U.S. Public Health Service as a demonstration project.

Director Malcolm J. Ford of the USPHS Diabetes Unit said most deaths from the disease "are entirely preventable."

"Yet in Florida 494 persons died of diabetes in 1947. It was among the 10 leading causes of death."

Ford reported no complete cure of diabetes has been recorded but that persons with the disease who are treated properly "have nothing to worry about."

He added scientists disagree on whether diabetes is a hereditary disease but said records show "people who are relatives of diabetics have three or four times more cases of diabetes than those who do not have diabetes in their family."

"If the families with diabetes among them are careful that their marriages are with families who have three or four times more cases of diabetes than those who do not have diabetes in their family."

"This is one of the methods of prevention of diabetes that are available to us. It is impractical to say that a diabetic should not marry but certainly he can be careful not to marry another diabetic."

POTATO BUG SOUTHAMPTON, Eng., July 2

(AP)—A ministry of agriculture expert, summoned by radio when the ship was still 800 miles at sea, met the liner Aquitania when she docked today with a dead potato bug on board.

Discovery of the Colorado beetle on the Aquitania's bridge after she left New York touched off a 24-hour search of every section of the ship. Almost free of the pest, Britain is waging a determined campaign to prevent its spread.

State Department To Be Held Responsible For Voice Programs

WASHINGTON, July 2. (AP)—Come October, the State Department will take over full responsibility for "Voice of America" broadcasts, some of which were blasted in Congress last month for "smearing" sections of the United States.

The department announced yesterday that the National Broadcasting Company—whose shoulder part of the blame for the criticized programs—will drop its connection with the voice on Oct. 1. So will the Columbia Broadcasting System.

The State Department's international broadcasting division then will write and broadcast all news and commentaries itself.

Private companies will continue to sell feature programs and short wave transmitting facilities to the department, but all privately prepared material will be subjected to "full and complete review" before going on the air, the announcement said.

For the past year, NBC and CBS have broadcast programs under contract in English, Spanish, Portuguese, German, French, Italian, Armenian, Russian and Indonesian.

New Coal Pact Is Refused By 18 Companies

Steel Companies File Unfair Labor Practice Charge Against John L. Lewis, UMW

WASHINGTON, July 2. (AP)—Eighteen major steel companies refused today to sign the new coal mining contract and filed charges of unfair labor practices against John L. Lewis and the United Mine Workers.

Their stand appeared certain to bring a strike at the so-called "captive" coal mines of the steel companies. What the miners will do will become known July 6 when the present mining holiday ends.

The contract the steel companies refused to sign is the one Lewis negotiated with major commercial coal mining companies. It became effective July 1.

The steel companies contend a provision for union shop is outlawed by the Taft-Hartley Act. That law permits a union shop if the workers vote for it in a National Labor Relations Board election. No such election has been held among the miners.

The charges of unfair labor practices were filed with the NLRB.

Harry M. Moses, negotiator for the captive coal mine operators, said they are "hopeful that immediate action will be taken by the general counsel of the National Labor Relations Board to have this issue judicially determined as early as possible."

All of the major steel companies, including Republic, Bethlehem and Jones and Laughlin joined in making the charges.

If general counsel Robert N. Denham of the NLRB upholds the charges, he may seek a court order to keep Lewis from putting into effect the union shop provision in the contract which became effective for the rest of the industry July 1.

The steel companies held up their signature on the contract. A statement clarifying the position of the steel "captive" mines was expected momentarily. This would clear up whether they intended to sign the agreement and possibly avert a shut down of their mines July 6, when the miners' 10 day vacation ends.

Meanwhile the White House resumed its efforts to settle the rail wage dispute.

President's Assistant John R. Steelman called union leaders into a morning conference and arranged to meet another group.

Escaped Convict Is Killed, 3 Are Hurt In Gun Fight

MIDDLEBORO, Ky., July 2. (AP)—An escaped Tennessee convict was killed and three persons, including a woman, were wounded in a gun battle here last night.

Police Chief Guy Herrell identified the dead man as Clarence Lettner, 23, of Morristown, Tenn. Lettner was slain in a battle with police in which assistant police Chief Clyde Guiley and Lettner's two companions were wounded.

Herrell said the shooting occurred when Guiley and Patrolman Russell Miracles answered a call that an automobile had struck a filling station and driven on.

The men found the car abandoned a few blocks away, the chief said, and bystanders told them two men and a woman had left the vehicle on foot.

U. S. Is Accepted As World Health Member

GENEVA, Switzerland, July 2. (AP)—The United States was unanimously accepted today as a member of the World Health Organization (WHO).

The legality of American membership had been in doubt since U. N. Secretary-General Trygve Lie refused to accept the U. S. Congress' conditional ratification of the WHO constitution.

The WHO American delegate, Dr. Thomas Parran, persuaded the Russians last night that U. S. ratification of the right to withdraw from the organization on one year's notice did not indicate halfhearted American support. As a result, Soviet delegate N. A. Vinogradov, Soviet deputy minister of health, himself formally announced acceptance of the United States.

RIT DRIVER SLAIN

PINEVILLE, Ky., July 2. (AP)—A bus driver for the Cumberland Coach Lines was shot and killed from ambush as he drove on a highway about 15 miles from here this morning, Deputy Sheriff W. R. Baker reported.

State School Program To Cost Florida $41,750,179 Next Year

TALLAHASSEE, July 2. (AP)—The school foundation program will cost the state of Florida $41,750,179 in contributions to its counties next year.

The counties will be required to add at least $11,963,964 to make up a minimum school operation cost of $33,714,143 by far the greatest on record in Florida.

State School Superintendent Colin Englehart sent the figures to Comptroller C. M. Gay in accordance with a provision of the law requiring a preliminary computation of school costs on July 1 of each year.

Payments for the first six months will be based on the schedule. If the budget commission releases all one money.

A final tabulation will be made Jan. 15 in the light of actual requis of teacher training qualifications and pupil attendance, which are the major factors used in determining how much each county costs.

Last year, the first department of education estimate of $35,379,736 was increased to $38,688,054 on the final statement. It can't go on that much this year, though, because the preliminary estimate of state contributions is only $24,821 below the ceiling fixed by law.

Full payment of the amount certified by English for this year will make the total outlay for schools during this biennium $40,138,000.

English said most of this year's

2 Women Savagely Beaten, 1 Killed, 2 Girls Attacked

42 Year Old Woman Is Slain With Heavy, Sharp Instrument

TULSA, Okla., July 2. (AP)—A 42-year-old woman was found brutally beaten to death in her apartment today only a few hours after another woman and two teenage girls living in the same neighborhood were discovered savagely bludgeoned in a similar attack.

Police identified the dead woman as Mrs. Ruth Norton, 42, an elevator operator in the National Park of Tulsa building.

Her body was found lying on the bed of her bedroom, nude from the waist down. The head had been beaten with a heavy, sharp instrument that inflicted deep gashes.

Police Commissioner J. Fred Lawrence, Jr., and Police Chief J. W. (Bud) Hollenworth termed the murder one of the most brutal the city has ever had.

Earlier Mrs. J. B. Cole, 38, her daughter Doris, 13, and a neighbor girl, Leona Galt, 14, who was spending the night with the Coles, were found savagely beaten in their apartment. Police said the assailant left the names of two teen age boys in indelible ink on the legs of the girls.

Doris was near death with a skull fracture. Her mother and Leona were hospitalized with severe head injuries.

The latter attacks occurred within a block and a half of a house in which a mother and daughter were found beaten to death in 1943 and only a block from another apartment where a woman was killed and a man was slain two years later.

These killings never have been solved.

Neighbors who summoned police said they found the car abandoned a few blocks away, the chief said, and bystanders told them two men and a woman had left the vehicle on foot.

Boy's State Member Tells Experiences At Lions Meeting

Termining Governor Millard Caldwell a "swell guy" rather than the "hi-falutin" man he expected to meet, Arnold Harrington, Seminole High School junior and honor student, today told the Lions club of the American Legion's Boys State, and thanked club members at their meeting at the Tourist Center, for sponsoring him and sending him to Tallahassee.

C. H. McNulty, International Lion director, praised the club for sending such a lad as Arnold Harrington to Boys State and declared that by so doing, they fulfilled the second major objective of the Lions, "to promote the principals of good government."

He commended District Deputy Governor Henry Witte, Jr. for his selection, also told of the growth of Lions clubs abroad, with Chile and Newfoundland the latest of 23 countries to start Lions clubs. Clubs have also been formed in Sweden and in Geneva, Switzerland, he declared.

Harrington, said that all of the boys had a fine time and learned a lot about politics by electing their own city, country and state officials.

Demos Urged To Draft Ike At Convention

Mahoney Says If Truman Is Nominated, Democratic Ticket Will Be Defeated

NEW YORK, July 2. (AP)—Former state Supreme Court Justice Jeremiah I. Mahoney, a delegate to the Democratic National Convention, urged today that the Democrats draft General Dwight D. Eisenhower for president.

In a letter to Democratic State Chairman Paul Fitzpatrick, Mahoney said he feared that if President Truman is the nominee, "the National Democratic ticket will be overwhelmingly defeated."

Meanwhile, three organizations of Democrats joined in a drive to boost U.S. Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas for the presidential nomination.

Mahoney wrote that he was "quite certain that Truman as the candidate that many congressmen, state senators, assemblymen and other local officers will be defeated who might have a good chance of winning if there was some democratic presidential candidate other than Truman."

"I feel that the strongest individual that could possibly run for the presidency on the Democratic ticket is none other than General Eisenhower," Mahoney added.

"There are many of us who feel that if General Eisenhower were actually nominated at the convention, he could not possibly turn down such nomination and that it would be his duty in the interest of all people of the country to accept the nomination."

The latest group to back Douglas is the committee of New York Democrats for Douglas, which was organized by Douglas.

Italian Reds Call Nationwide Series Of Labor Strikes

ROME, July 2. (AP)—A series of nationwide industrial strikes began in Italy at noon today. They were called by the Communist-led General Confederation of Labor.

Leaders of the CGIL, which boasts 4,000,000 members, called on "all workers of industry in general" to stage a half-day shutdown for higher pay.

A last-minute decision averted the walkouts by stores in the neighborhood. Representatives of the CGIL met with government labor officials, reached a partial accord.

Public services also were upped, but buses and street cars were scheduled to halt from 5 P. M. to midnight.

Industries affected include metal working, printing and publishing (except daily newspapers), building and coal.

Yugoslavs Appeal To Stalin To Deny Tito Accusations

Say Cominform Allegations Are Pack Of Unfounded Lies

By Associated Press
LONDON, July 2. — Yugoslav Communists appealed directly to Prime Minister Stalin today to repudiate the Cominform charges against Premier Marshal Tito and his leadership.

The Yugoslav appeal amounted to a request to Stalin to reverse the policies of one of his right hand men. Andrei A. Zhdanov, secretary of the central committee of the Soviet Communist Party and the guiding spirit of the Cominform.

Approximately 15,000 Communists meeting in Belgrade sent a message directly to Stalin which affirmed their faith in Premier Marshal Tito.

They asked Stalin to do everything in his power to bring out the truth in reply to the charges by the Cominform, the nine-nation Communist International Bureau. It has charged Tito and his leadership with being anti-Russian and traitors to Marxism.

The message to Stalin was tender in composition, but the effect was to underline Yugoslav Communist support for Tito.

"Our love towards you and the whole Soviet Union and everything you did for humanity is unlimited, as well as our belief that you will do everything in your power so that the truth will be brought out in a very short time," it said. "Long live your teacher of love towards the Soviet Union."

Dusty Boots Group Plans Races Sunday

Plans for horse races Sunday were made by the Dusty Boots Riding Association at its meeting last evening at the Club House at the Municipal Airport. Plans were also made for big events in which the riders will participate on Labor Day. It was reported by Miss Jean Riser.

The following races are scheduled to take place at the club's track next Sunday: Ballroom races for men and one for women; nine marble races for both men and women; relay combination race; cigarette race and a girl's dollar race.

Such prizes will be awarded to first prize winners. All horse lovers, both men and women, are cordially invited to attend. No admission will be charged. Prizes from soft drink sales will be given to Miss Catherine Rivers, member of the club, who is underwriting treatment in New Smyrna from injuries received during a race there. These proceeds, together with donations of members, are being used in defraying hospital expenses.

City To Meet As Tax Board Monday Night

The City Commission will meet as a tax equalization board Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock, it was announced today by H. N. Sayer, city manager.

Due to the appraisal of city property now being completed, and the fact that the tax role is not yet completed, the meeting will probably be adjourned until Aug. 1, said Mr. Sayer.

Information on assessments is now available at this time, but written notices containing any increase in values will be sent to the owners, allowing plenty of time so they can appear before the Board with complaints before the August meeting, he announced.

Reminder Offered Of Stores' Closing On 5th

Due to the fact that many visitors are expected here Wednesday, July 14, in connection with the Shrine Centennial, Sanford merchants have been requested to remain open all of the afternoon in order to serve the visitors, W. A. Morrison, vice president of the Sanford Merchants Association, announced this morning.

It is suggested also by the Association that stores close all day, July 5, and to close at noon on July 7.

"Since most establishments in the past have remained open all day on the Wednesday following a holiday, the above arrangement would enable our community to better serve our guests, and would not increase the number of hours worked by employees," Mr. Morrison stated.

No one appreciates gifts that he has not accepted. It is hard to tell which is the claimer, the recipient or the giver. To accept priceless gifts without gratitude is contemptible, but it is worse not even to realize that given us.—Ps. 133:2; Bless Jehovah, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits.

There is a product on the maris called Cook-Kill, a title which reminds us of some chefs we have

President Truman has no intention of withdrawing from the "race" for presidential nomination, he says for the hundredth time. And he will take Eisenhower, Eleanor, or anyone else
for a running mate who will have him. It's a brave front that he puts up on the eve of the Democratic convention. He can, of course, have the nomination if he wants it, but never before in American history will anyone have been nominated with less enthusiasm by so few people.

During the war the fear was often expressed that returning soldiers and sailors from the South Pacific where malaria was prevalent might start an epidemic which would cause a lot of trouble in this country. Due to the progress of science and medicine, however,
the exact opposite proved to be the case. Despite the greater ex-posure to malaria, the number of cases actually declined. Statistics reveal that in 1941 there were 68,075 cases of malaria in the United States. In 1947 there were only 17,317.

A famous Floridian, General
James A. Van Fleet, former head of the ROTC at the University of Florida, has been accused by the Communist radio of "ordering a reign of terror in Greece, of killing large numbers of women and children. Senator Holland, in the United States Senate, rises to the defense of General Van Fleet by pointing out that they have been friends all their lives, that they hunted and fished together as boys, and that as men they have worked together. Knowing the General as well as he does, Senator Holland declares that he is a true Christian gentleman who could not possibly be guilty of the child killings attributed to him
by the foul mouthings of Tass.

Now they are talking about Five Freedoms. Freedom from fore. Some 30,000,000 vehicles will be on the move, as restless residents seek the seashore, mountains and other resorts, and most of them will be in a hurry as they go or come. There were over 8,000 persons killed in accidents last year. How many will there be in 1948?

Flight Of The Kalmucks

"The unchanging East" is a familiar term, no longer
as applicable as formerly. Now and then, however an event occurs which seems to show that nothing has changed in all the years. The latest example is the flight of the Buriats, a tribe of Mongols who have been living in Siberia and have now migrated to China. This flight began 30 years ago, and has now been completed, at great loss of life in both men and livestock. The object, as it is not hard to guess, was to get away from the impositions of the Russian government.

On a smaller scale there have always been migrations in search of better pasture on the part of Central Asia's nomad population. The Buriat movement is something different, recalling the similar flight which the great English essayist, Thomas De Quincey, depicted in his "Revolt of the Tartars".

This took place in 1770, when the Mongolian tribe of the Kalmucks, to the number of 600,000, left the banks of the Volga and made their way for thousands of miles across Central Asia until they found refuge in China. They were persecuted by the Russians, who feared loss of prestige among the nomad tribes if this flight were successful, and who were particularly anxious to increase the scanty population of their vast Asiatic territories. Hardly a third of the Kalmucks survived this journey across trackless wastes, subjected to scorching heat and bitter cold, and often devoid of water, but attain their goal they did.

Much past history is carried by word of mouth among these Mongol herdsmen, and the feat of the Kalmucks nearly 180 years ago may have inspired the Buriats.

Overdigested

Should a great piece of literature be published under its own name in digested form? The British are turning from their other troubles to debate this one. An outburst of abridged classics is provoking the discussion, the extreme example being Dickens' "Oliver Twist", a work of 250,000 words now offered to the public in a form shortened to 50,000.

Obviously this is "Oliver Twist" only by courtesy.
Were it issued under some other name, with the remark,
"Based on 'Oliver Twist' by Dickens", no one could object.
As it is, a good many people will read the cut book and think they have read a book by Dickens. No wonder that there is complaint.

It happens, also in movies. For many reasons, some of them good, Hollywood finds it necessary to take marked liberties with great novels. Sometimes these liberties are so great that it is unfair to use the original name. While there is probably no legal redress, public opinion should exert itself to prevent greedy capitalization of famous names.

No Incentive

The people of Russia are suffering from the same lack that seemingly befalls those of any country in the grip of a government-dominated economy.

The emphasis on capital goods and war materials which is imposed by the men in the Kremlin leads to a grievous shortage of everyday articles from hammers to needles.
Criticism of this policy has been coming to light lately in the publications Pravda and Izvestia, showing that the government is becoming aware of the gravity of the situation. The people are urged by the newspapers to fight stubbornly for the production of consumer goods.

A common fault of the government-operated economy is failure to cope with the everyday problems of the people.
Government planning was set up with the idea of solving just those problems, but there seems to be a hitch somewhere. It could be that the whole theory is unworkable, and that only in the hazy-burly of a free-enterprise system is it possible to have the most prosperity for the most people.

China has the biggest population of any nation—more than one-fifth the people of the whole globe. She also carries the greatest burden of tribulation.

She is torn with terrible civil war involving Communism. She is afflicted with an economic crisis which presents a seemingly hopeless pit. Within that pit millions are dying of starvation
as they struggle for existence.

Indeed, conditions are so bad that they have baffled not only the Chinese government but all export efforts at repair by a deeply disturbed America. Therefore it is intriguing to find top Chinese officials turning as a final resort to moral rehabilitation for a solution. They figure they can get better on the basis of brotherly cooperation than by hostilities and the exploitation of one group by another.

Too idealistic, you say? Well, I'm not prepared to argue that point. I'm merely recording an extraordinary development which I encountered the other day for the second time when I met Dr.
Chen J. Fu, vice president of the Chinese parliament and one of the nation's leading statesmen.

Chen J. Fu, who is 49 years old, is a striking personality, as I discovered during a long conversation with him at the luncheon table
statesman, educator, philosopher and noted author. Chen during 1919-23 took a mining course in Peking University, Tianjin, and followed this with a degree of master of science at Pittsburgh University. Then he exhibited the thoroughness which is one of his outstanding characteristics; he joined the miners' union and dug coal underground for more than a year.

The doctor has stressed the spiritual factor in his writings.
He has expressed the belief that a durable world peace is possible if the moral principles of mutual trust, mutual respect and mutual assistance could be accepted by all peoples of the world as the very guidance of international relations. From this it is easy to see his interest in the world
assembly for moral re-armament.

"I am in moral re-armament," he said, "the meeting of East and West, China and America," he

repeated to me. "MRA deals with fundamental things—morality, sound home life, economic and political teamwork on a national and international scale. This is more than an idea. Here I see a dynamic force already in motion giving a pattern and a pace
to a new era of understanding.
On this level we Chinese and you Americans talk the same language."

Knowing Dr. Chen is a Confucian and not a Christian, I reminded him of the fact that Confucianism and Christianity are parallel on many moral questions. He nodded, and said that because of the similarities it could be easy for the Chinese people as a whole to accept the new teachings of the West. As he discussed this point I couldn't help thinking of my friend, the late Mahatma Gandhi, the Hindu, who once told me that the greatest influence in his life had been the meeting point of East and West, China and America," he

Sanford Fog Spray
Article Receives
Nationwide Notice

"This could happen to your house" a brief article which appeared in the June issue of Better Homes and Gardens Magazine and which describes a new fog spray manufactured by the Todd Shipyards which kills ants
and bugs, and written by Willard Connolly, has aroused national interest, according to Dr. Joseph E. Howland, associate editor of the magazine. The fog spray referred to was adapted for local use as a jeep by Irving Feinberg, manager of Southern Chemicals Inc.

"Your June story in Better Homes and Gardens certainly has aroused national interest," wrote Dr. Howland to Mr. Connolly. "We have answered several hundred letters, plus phone calls, and telegrams. The Todd Shipyards are preparing thousands of reprints of the story. The Aerial Engineers, Chicago distributors of the fog equipment, took a page ad in the Chicago Daily News to reprint your story in full."

Mr. Feinberg today estimated that from 250 to 300 inquiries concerning the article, had been received by or turned over to his firm. Letters came from 35 states and Canada. Many asked how to get into the fog spraying business. Others letters were from city officials inquiring for information about ridding their town of insects.

Grady Duncan, Sanford building inspector, who was mentioned in the article as having had his house fogged with good results, was literally swamped with inquiries, and turned about one hundred of these over to Southern Chemicals Inc.

The Seminole County Chamber
of Commerce received more than 50 inquiries, some estimated today by Miss Camilla Bruce, secretary to Manager Edward Higgins.
These were turned over to Mr.
Feinberg, also acknowledged by the Chamber of Commerce. Mayor R. A. Williams also received inquiries and R. A. Cobb of the J.
C. Hutchinson company, who was quoted in the article.

Mr. Feinberg today pointed out that while other cities had given the fog spraying with DDT an experimental try out, Sanford
was the first city in the country to give it a full trial.

He declared that Florida legislation passed last year limits operators of fog spraying machines
who must pass state examinations in Gainesville. To qualify for this examination they must have been pest control operators two years before the law went into effect last July, or employed by an operator for three years or are graduate entomologists. He stated that he had been compelled to print mimeographed forms in answer how to get into the fog spraying business, so numerous had been the requests.

Next week, Mr. Feinberg will give Sanford alloys another fog spraying treatment in accordance with the request of the City Commission at its recent meeting.

Battle Lines Form
For Next Fight In
FEC, ACL Conflict

JACKSONVILLE, July 2 (AP)— Battle lines were forming yesterday for the next skirmish in the long-fought war over control of the Florida East Coast Railway.

Yesterday was the deadline for filing in federal court here of objections to the Interstate Commerce Commission order merging the Flagler-built railway with the Atlantic Coast Line railroad.

So far 12 objections have been filed to the ICC order of Apr. 8, 1947, that reorganization of the FEC could be carried out by consolidating it with the ACL.

This order resulted in the Coast Line emerging victorious in its long fight with the Florida Du-Pont interests for control of the railway, but the decision was immediately headed for further attack in federal courts. The big battle on the objections and ICC's merger order will come in federal court before Judge Louis W.
Stanton, probably in September or October.

Objections to the reorganization plan as far have been filed by the St. Joe Paper Co., a DuPont owned company and owner of a majority of the $45,000,000 first and reducing bonds of the FEC; and other bondholders as follows: F.

Miss Batten greeted the guests wearing an attractive dress of white sharkskin with gold accessories.

Lovely arrangements of mixed summer flowers were used in decorating the rooms. Late in the evening Miss Batten was presented with many attractive and useful gifts from the guests. HAPPY BIRTHDAY
Mrs. Henry Tamm
Howard Harris
July 3
Mrs. H. N. Goodwin

Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Long have as their guests their niece and nephew Betty and Hugh Dawson of Hammond, Ind.

Mrs. H. H. Coleman left on Wednesday for Rockport, Me. where she plans to spend about two months.

Henry Tamm, a student at the University of Florida, arrived today to spend the weekend with his parents.

Ens. Herbert Moreland, USN arrived on Wednesday from San Diego, Calif. for his marriage to Miss Camille Batten, which will take place on July 13.

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Strickland and daughters, Marianne and Myra, are expected to arrive on Sunday to spend a few days in Sanford with Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Laney and other friends.

Miss Nancy Hooks of Macon, Ga. and Miss Jessie Moreland of Leesburg, Ga. are guests of Mrs. S. J. Davis and Mrs. C. E. McKee. Miss Hooks and Miss Moreland with Clarence McKee and Eugene Levy spent yesterday at Daytona Beach.

Use leftover potatoes casserole-style and serve with a platter of cold meat. To prepare dice potatoes, add to a cream sauce, turn into a casserole and top with cracker crumbs which have been mixed with melted butter and grated cheese. Sprinkle lightly with paprika and brown in a hot oven.

For sealing important letters, dry a dab of thick nail polish in place of sealing wax. It adheres as well as wax and doesn't have to be warmed in a flame.

Miss Batten Given Tea At Hofmann Home

One of the loveliest in a series of parties being given for Miss Camille Batten, bride-elect, took place yesterday afternoon when she was complimented with a tea given by Mrs. W. D. Hofmann, Mrs. H. N. Sayer and her daughter, Miss Jean Sayer, at the Hofmann home on Valencia Drive. Guests were met at the door by Mrs. J. B. Cogburn, Mrs. Julius Dingfelder and Miss Mary Ann Wheelchel and shown to the receiving line formed before the windows on the east side of the living room.

Composing the receiving line were Mrs. Hofmann, Mrs. Sayer, Miss Sayer, Miss Batten, Mrs. I. E. Batten and Mrs. H. A. Moreland. Mrs. Hofmann was gowning in a floor-length dress of dusty rose crepe trimmed with rhinestones. Mrs. Sayer in white crepe fashioned with a bolero jacket and slashed skirt. Miss Sayer in a dress of white silk pique of an off-the-shoulder design with full, deep skirt. Miss Batten wore an ankle-length gown of white lace and organza. Mrs. Batten in light blue linen trimmed with white organza and rhinestones and Mrs. Moreland was gowning in a dress of delicate pink crepe overlaid with a floral print.

Forming a lovely setting for the tea were graceful arrangements of pink and white roses and white gladioluses and greenery which were used in the living room. Candlelight cast a soft glow over the scene.

Ushering the guests into the dining room were Mrs. Robert A. Williams, Mrs. L. T. Doss, Mrs. S. D. Highleyman and Mrs. H. W. Rucker. The dining table was covered with a cream colored lace cloth and forming unusual and attractive decorations for the table was a bridal scene. From a bridal bouquet, consisting of small white asters and chrysanthemums placed at one corner of the table, extended a wide white satin ribbon forming an aisle for the miniature bride followed by her six bridesmaids gowning in pastel taffeta and tulle. Silver candelabra held white tapers and silver appointments were used. Other flower arrangements in the dining room were of asters, roses and greenery.

The crystal punch bowl, placed at one end of the table, was presided over during the afternoon by Mrs. Volie Williams, Mrs. Byron Fox and Mrs. Floyd Palmer. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Mason Wharton of Orlando and the Misses Audrey Bach, Mildred Robson, Margaret Dingfelder, Betty Jo Brock, Daphne Connolly, Polly Chezal of Ocala and Shirley Moreland.

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, July 2 (AP)—Gregory Peck, who has been one of Hollywood's busiest actors, can expect no let-up in the future. The latest film announced for him is Dickens' "A Tale of Two Cities." The much-demanded Peck will have a few weeks off after he finishes playing a Western badman in "Yellow Sky." He'll spend the time with his pet project, the La Jolla playhouse, where he'll do one or two plays. He'll then report to MGM for "The Gambler," in which he'll portray Russian novelist Dostoevski.

Next year, Peck will do "A Tale of Two Cities" for Selznick, playing the role performed by Ronald Colman in the Selznick-MGM version of 1935. "I'll do it on one condition that I don't have to say that line," he told me. He was referring to the time-honored curtain speech, "Tis a far, far better thing I do than I have ever done, etc."

Robert Young, who is playing a Protestant minister in "Baltimore Escape," will do the same in his own film, "12 Against the Underworld." Based on actual events in Steubenville, Ohio, the picture will show how a dozen clerics cleaned up a town's vice.

"The difficulty lies in dramatizing the Protestant religion," Bob observed. "There is drama and spectacle in Catholic services; priests dress differently from laymen. It isn't so easy to dramatize Protestantism." Still, he hopes the picture will be that long-awaited "Protestant 'Going My Way.'"

Abbott and Costello will have two innovations in their next film, which will be independently made. It will be their first in color, and they plan to use their own names in the film. Lou plays a big game hunter. . . . Eagle-Lion claims it has Johnston office trouble with a lace evening dress of Susan Hayward's in "Tulsa." It seems the holes between the lace are too large.

Bernadotte Seeks To Extend Armed Palestine Truce

Both Sides Are Said To Have Rejected Partition Plans; Treaty Ends 9th

CAIRO, July 5, (AP)—Count Folke Bernadotte asked Arabs and Jews today to extend the armistice in Palestine. Both sides were reported on good authority to have rejected his partition plan for a lasting peace.

The four-week truce which Bernadotte arranged as United Nations mediator expires Friday. He also asked the Jews and Arabs to agree that the Holy City of Jerusalem and the port, terminal and refinery facilities of Haifa be demilitarized.

Bernadotte appeared hopeful, despite the apparent rejection of his latest peace plan. If the Arabs and Israel agree to a truce extension, a conference will set the length of time it will last.

U.S. observers watched 2,000 Jews flee from the U.S. to Haifa. They came from internment camps in Cyprus, where about 20,000 other Jews await passage to Palestine. They had been interned there by the British during the mandate period while trying to enter Palestine without visas. The Pan Crescent was en route to Haifa with 2,000 more Jews.

Arabs gave Count Bernadotte their reply and a counter-proposal Saturday night. The formal Jewish answer was expected in Tel Aviv today or tomorrow.

The Cairo newspaper Al Masi published what it said was the text of the Arab note rejecting Bernadotte's proposals. The note, the newspaper said, listed these major Arab objections:

1. The mediator's plan regarding immigration would give the Jews more than they would receive under the original U.N. partition scheme.

2. It is a false assumption to consider Trans-Jordan a part of Palestine.

Laney Urges Truman Quit As Candidate

Says President Can Never Unite Party, But Will Aid It By Withdrawing Name

LITTLE ROCK, July 5, (AP)—Governor Ben T. Laney of Arkansas, chairman of the States Rights Democratic organization, today called upon President Truman to step aside and support General Eisenhower for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Laney predicted victory for the Republican ticket in November if Truman is nominated.

"If he loves the party," said the Arkansas governor in a formal statement, "and if he wants the country to become united and if he honestly desires political and military peace in the world, then why not sacrifice his own personal ambition and support the nomination and election of General Eisenhower?"

Laney contended that the retired chief of staff is the one American who can bring about unity. He said President Truman "can never unite the party and that he has an opportunity of making a real contribution to the nation and the world" by stepping aside.

The statement was issued through an aide of the governor. Laney is in a hospital for a physical examination.

Rescuers Attempt To Recover Victims In Mexican Crash

ORIZABA, Mex. July 5, (AP)—A recovery team begins a long climb up Orizaba, 18,225-foot volcano, today to bring out 15 victims of a plane crash, eight of them Americans.

The plane, used by a United States-Mexico commission fighting hoof-and-mouth disease in cattle, vanished Friday enroute from Minatitlan to Mexico City.

General Andres Zubiate, commander of the 26th battalion stationed in this city at the foot of the peak, said yesterday the wreckage had been found 12,000 feet up, at Cuavata Negra (Black Cave) at the snowline. He reported the plane apparently had hit the mountain side, exploded and burned.

The general said three to six days will be needed to recover the bodies. Troops are guarding the wreckage. Orizaba police and commission workers make up the recovery team. They plan to travel the first 40 miles by jeep, the second 40 on horseback and the rest of the way afoot.

Pro-Ike Leader Says General Will Be Nominated If He Runs

CHICAGO, July 5, (AP)—Jacob M. Arvey, pro-Eisenhower leader of Chicago Democrats, says General Dwight Eisenhower will be nominated for president on the first ballot at the Democratic convention—if he "doesn't take himself out of the race."

Arvey discounted as "very doubtful" the predictions by Mr. Truman and his aides that the President will be nominated on the first ballot at Philadelphia next week. He is confident that "many of the 60 Illinois votes are Eisenhower's if he will accept them."

The Cook county (Chicago) party chairman told a reporter last night that those who claim Mr. Truman has the nomination sewed up don't "know what they are talking about."

"If they were so confident," Arvey added, "they wouldn't say anything."

Arvey denied last night's statement by a Truman aide that the "Draft Eisenhower" movement is a cover for an attempt to give the No. 1 nomination to Associate Justice William O. Douglas.

Good Neighbors Get Together

FOLLOWING HIS ARRIVAL at the Washington National Airport, President Truman today met with President Eisenhower and the two leaders of the United States. The highlight of Gallegos' eleven-day stay in the United States will be when he presents a huge, bronze statue of Simon Bolivar to the Missouri town bearing the name of the famous South American liberator. President Holds Hope All World Will Be Like Western Hemisphere

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

BOLIVAR, Mo., July 5, (AP)—President Truman held out hope today for an eventual "world order" in which all nations will enjoy "the equality and friendship" that prevail in the Western Hemisphere.

Mr. Truman spoke at a ceremony in which he accepted a $100,000 statue of Simon Bolivar, the South American liberator, from President Romulo Gallegos of Venezuela who flew to the United States for the occasion.

Mr. Truman pointed happily to the fact that the 21 American republics in political, economic and cultural terms. "All 21 nations stand on equal terms," he declared. "Pan Americanism means equality of all nations, and sympathetic cooperation among all nations."

He spoke after President Gallegos formally presented the statue to this small southwestern Missouri town of 3,600. The dedication climaxed a three-day celebration, along with a Pan American fair, in Bolivar. It was the largest day in the town's 113-year history.

Mr. Truman, who brought President and Senora Gallegos here from Washington by train, emphasized his country's hope of spreading the hemispheric "good neighbor" policy to all the world. "Through the United Nations," he said, "We are seeking a world order under which all of the countries of the world will live together in the equality and friendship that prevails among the American nations."

He said cooperation in this hemisphere shows "We can succeed in establishing the same kind of cooperation with other countries in the United Nations."

"The way before us is not easy," he continued. "We must expect delays and disappointments. But we can succeed."

Truman Lash Falls Anew On GOP Congress

Says He Signed 3 Major Bills Only Because They Are Better Than Nothing

WASHINGTON, July 5, (AP)—President Truman has taken three more hefty swings at the Republican 80th Congress.

He added them to his growing list of attacks on the GOP lawmakers in signing three major bills—a pay raise for federal workers, a new and lower farm support system in 1950, and a two-year extension of the terms of the five atomic energy commissioners.

Mr. Truman said in effect that he signed the bills only because they are better than nothing.

The pay bill gives 480,000 postal workers an annual raise of $450 and about 840,000 classified Civil Service employees $150 a year more.

This bill, Mr. Truman said, "Meets neither the needs of the employees nor those of the government." But he said it was only that he should sign it since Congress failed to enact legislation to hold down the cost of living. He objected particularly to the same raise for everybody.

This, he argued, narrows the scope for advancement.

The farm bill extends the present support prices for crops until 1950. Then lower prices will go into effect.

The new law, Mr. Truman said, only partially meets the problems of American farmers. He said it should have included a standby program for improving the diets of farm families.

Pro-Tito, Russian Communists Clash In Trieste Zone

ROME, July 5, (AP)—Dispatches to Rome newspaper today said Tito and pro-Russian communists clashed yesterday in the Trieste free territory.

The independent Messaggero said the sharpest encounter took place at Mankle in the Yugoslav occupation zone, near the boundary with the British-American zone.

It said fighting broke out there between Italian Communists and Slovene Liberation Front, a nationalist organization. Police stopped the fight.

The trouble started, the paper said, when an Italian Communist rose and praised Stalin. The crowd was reported to have shouted, "Cowards," and forced him down from the speaker's stand.

The same paper said other disorders occurred at Mankle near the Yugoslav border. Thousands of Trieste anti-Tito Slovenes were meeting there and a speech against Tito was being made. It said, when Trieste Communists arrived singing party songs, a fight started. Police broke it up.

Police Search For Tot Missing 4 Days

SOMERSET, Pa., July 5, (AP)—Marching virtually shoulder-to-shoulder through forestland, volunteers renewed today their search for Donald Collier, 23-month-old boy missing from a mountain vacation site since Friday.

State police disagreed with fears of the boy's father, Lloyd Collier of Rural Ridge, that the youngster was kidnapped. The father is a coal miner.

"There's no motive," said Lieut. J. R. Dodson. "Mr. Collier isn't a wealthy man who could be expected to pay a ransom. It's just a complete mystery."

U.S., British Gain Strength In Flying Supplies To Berlin

Eaton Says Next Congress Job Is UN Strengthening

WASHINGTON, July 5, (AP)—The next foreign policy job ahead of Congress, Rep. Eaton (R-NJ) said today, is to help put big muscles in the United Nations.

Russia is aiming now for domination of the Orient and Far East, the chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee told a reporter. Only an effective United Nations, he said, can stop the drive of Communism "before the world goes back to the law of the jungle, tooth and claw."

The tall, white-haired congressman said legislation to strengthen the U.N. will have top priority when the new 81st Congress begins work in January.

Eaton is a veteran of 24 years on Capitol Hill. He was one of the key strategists in getting the European Recovery Program approved by Congress, and was chairman of the special house committee that studied economic conditions in Europe last summer.

The economic recovery act, which laid more than $6,000,000,000 on the line as first payment toward restoring such economies in Europe and China, "is undoubtedly the most important law ever passed by Congress," Eaton said.

But, to carry on the job begun by economic help, he added, "The United Nations must be made strong."

A bill outlining charter changes to improve the working of the U.N. was on the House calendar when Congress adjourned in June. It had the full backing of Eaton, but was never called up for debate.

Eaton said he considers the Orient and Far East an even more dangerous area, from the standpoint of growing Communist activity backed by Russia, than European countries in which Communism has had a foothold for many years, he said.

"Communists are working prodigiously in the Malay peninsula, in Burma and Indonesia, and are raising all sorts of trouble in Pakistan. They have split Korea; they have butchered Manchuria," he said.

Sheriff Carl F. Rayburn, who invited the motorcyclists to hold the event here, was one of the victims of brawls which engulfed the weekend.

When he remonstrated with a group of riders speeding down main street, they punched him and nearly tore his clothing off.
