Virginia Businessman To Make Home Here; Forms Realty Firm

After having been all over the state viewing the possibilities of locating permanently, J. D. Brown, business man of Bluefield, Va., has selected Sanford, he declared today.

Markell Optimistic About Celery Crop, He Tells Rotarians

In a report on the celery situation in this section, as compared to other localities, E. L. Marshman, chairman of the Rotarian Public Affairs Committee told members of the Sanford club yesterday that while the crop this year is slightly lighter than the average, high prices and an active market combined to furnish an encouraging outlook for the Seminoles county growers.

Stores Not to Close

Stores and business houses in Sanford will not be closed on Thursday, according to an announcement made by A. C. Carter, head of the Sanford Credit Bureau. This announcement was made after a rumor to the contrary had been circulated here.

B. F. Whitner, Sr., Back From Trip, Tells Of New Orleans Convention

B. F. Whitner, cashier of the First National Bank of this city, has returned to his desk after a month's vacation, part of which was spent in the environs of Chattanooga, Tenn., and the remainder in New Orleans, where he and Mrs. Whitner attended the triennial convention of the Episcopal church women's societies.

Cancellation Of War Debts Opposed By Raffled In Address

Showing good reasons why the United States government should not cancel European debts at the request of the various countries, Mr. Raffled today made an address on the subject before members of the Sanford Kiwanis club at their weekly luncheon.

Dinner and Business Meet on Legion Card

The attention of Sanford Legionnaires is directed to the announcement of the chicken plan to be given by the Campbell-Lossing Post at the American Legion clubhouse on Commercial Street tonight at 8 o'clock.

Blame Each Other

Continuing today to blame the other country for starting the Balkan war, both Greek and Bulgarian representatives told the council that they wanted reparations. M. Carapanos, for Greece, insisted that the real reason Bulgaria was having trouble with her neighbors was that she had been unable to comply with the disarmament clauses of the treaty of Neuilly, which made it possible for roving bands of irregulars to provoke conflict.

Mr. and Mrs. Forster Leave On Annual Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Forster have gone to New York where they will spend the next four weeks on their annual vacation trip. Besides visiting friends in the metropolis, Mr. and Mrs. Forster will also visit in several other cities in the east before their return about Dec. 1.

Fletcher Advised Of Tax Reconsideration

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—(AP)—The Treasury Department is reconsidering the basis upon which income taxes are levied on deferred payments of real estate transactions, and an amendment to existing regulations may be issued soon, Senator Fletcher, Democrat of Florida, has been advised by C. R. Nash, acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

SANFORD FACTS

POLICE DEPARTMENT
The City of Sanford maintains a Police Department consisting of a chief, a motorcycle officer, two desk sergeants and eight patrolmen. This force is augmented during the winter months. During the last year a telephone alarm system has been installed in the residential section of the city for the purpose of facilitating the work of the department.

Line Haul Rate Case To Be Heard In Orlando Before Hillyer In November

ORLANDO, Oct. 27.—(P)—The Florida growers and shippers, according to Secretary Robinson, but the amount so gained by the shippers would be off set for the railroads by the use of the increased minimum load which the shippers are offering.

The complaint against the line haul rates on citrus fruits and vegetables shipped from Florida was filed by the state railroad commission on March 30, last after several consultations with Secretary Robinson of the Growers and Shippers League of Florida. Hearing was assigned by the Interstate Commerce Commission for Orlando on Nov. 4, next.

The entire railroad commission consisting of R. Hudson, Burr, chairman; A. S. Wells, E. S. Matichew, and J. H. Tench, rate expert, will participate in the hearing. These will be in addition to Secretary Robinson and attorneys Marshall and Davis.

"This case promises to be the largest rate case on fruits and vegetables ever presented before the Interstate Commerce Commission with the possible exception of the case brought several years ago by the California citrus industry," Mr. Robinson asserted. "It is of very great importance not only to the growers and shippers of fruits and vegetables in Florida but to all the business interests as well."

State Law Body To Amend Statutes At Special Meet Soon

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Oct. 27.—(P)—The state legislature, at its forthcoming extraordinary session, may be called upon to amend certain laws dealing with the filing of papers by court clerks in realty deals, until such papers have been acknowledged.

Two lawyers of Miami visited the offices of several justices of the state supreme court recently to ask for a writ of mandamus against the filing of such papers before acknowledgment, it was learned later. The attorneys cited an instance where such filing would greatly endanger the title to the property.

The attorneys, whose names were not announced by the justices who supplied the information, sought the writ to show why the court clerk of Dade county should not be restrained from filing the papers for public record. Not only is such a law an encumbrance in Dade county, they said, but in other sections of Florida.

The writ of mandamus was refused, the justices said, because, in the opinion of the judges, the procedure was illegal. They told the attorneys, they said, that the case would have to be taken through the proper channels in the form of a civil suit, and first carried to the lower court.

Coral Gables Mayor Commences Working On 19 Hour Schedule

CORAL GABLES, Fla., Oct. 27.—"Brisker than a bee on washing day!"

Such, according to himself, is the condition of Dr. Edward Dammers, Mayor of Coral Gables, who completed this morning the first week of his 19-hour-a-day work program. Dr. Dammers has been rising regularly at 4 a. m. since last Saturday, and declares that as a result he feels fitter than ever.

Dr. Dammers' program, which would seemingly kill most ordinary men, consists in making a thorough tour of his Central Miami development before breakfast, reaching his office at 8:30 a. m. and remaining there until 5:30 p. m. with only a brief luncheon interval, returning to his Coral Gables home for dinner at seven o'clock, back to his Flagler Street office for two hours in the evening, and finally, by way of recreation, changing into his evening clothes and dancing to Jan Garber's Orchestra at the Coral Gables Country Club.

Follow the shrewdest business men in America make an investment in Coral Gables—now!

Five years ago Coral Gables was a tropical fruit grove adjoining Miami, Florida.

Today thousands are finding life and happiness under its glorious skies. Thousands are finding beauty of form and color in a city built by home-lovers who have seen the house of their dreams take shape in coral rock against a background of brilliant shrubbery and the flaming flowers of the tropics. . . .

And thousands have found in this marvelous, ever-growing city unlimited opportunities for investment. Properties in this district have risen consistently in value. Some have shown an increase of 100 per cent every year. And authorities are agreed that the greatest advance is yet to come.

Constant Growth
Must Increase Values

Month by month, as ground is broken for the new hotels, the new University of Miami, the new homes and businesses, values increase steadily. Year after year, as long as sleet and slush and ice drive millions southward, the money value of property in the only American tropics is bound to rise.

Men who are in a position to know advocate Florida. Men such as Arthur Brisbane, B. C. Forbes, Edmonds, Untermyer, Livermore and a score of others know and appreciate Florida real estate.

Roger Babson says: "Florida during the next few years offers the greatest opportunity for money making of all the states in the Union."

Coral Gables
is an Assured Success

Coral Gables is an opportunity such as rarely comes to any individual. The one investment for those who believe in "playing safe." It is no dream of what may happen in the future. No chimera. It is an unequalled opportunity for home-seekers and investors. A thriving city already built by the most conservative and shrewdest buyers in the country—the wealthy class.

Yet, building plots in Coral Gables may now be secured by a payment of only a small investment. These plots are offered in a wide range of prices, which include all improvements such as streets, street lighting, electricity and water.

Don't miss this chance. Invest today at Coral Gables and ride with thousands to success.

Rex Beach was Won by the Charm of Coral Gables

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY RICHES HAVE WINGS:—Labour not to be rich: cease from thine own wisdom. For riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away. Proverbs 23:4-5.

PRAYER:—We thank Thee, O God, that we are fellow-workers with Thee in labors that build us for time only but for Eternity.

EVENING BY THE SEA
 The giant waves unheeded crash and die,
 With sob and echoes of eternity, On sands that heard the sorrow of the sea.

When lonely cave wolves howled forlorn reply,
 Not less forsaken even now they lie, Sad dunes where breakers make perennial din, Except that, where the surf comes splashing in,
 A child and dog like silent ghosts go by.

Mist and the night are theirs, a peace profound,
 But night comes never here, beyond the beach, Where in a blaze of light and glare of sound,
 The myriad-eyed amusement towers reach—Halls where wan faces flutter round and round, Searching for pleasure, boredom stamped on each.

How drearily they flicker to and fro,
 Like languid toilers in the yellow glare,
 Some that with empty laughter stare and stare At girls like caged orang-utans on show;
 Some that in jarring chariots drown their woe, Some that for gaudy tinklers slink the dice—
 And all, all purposeless as captive mice

Squealing before their captor lays them low!
 But still, unwatched, the breakers foam and fall, A long white line against the vacant gloom, As once they murmured round the rocky wall
 Of towns, now nameless, ages in the tomb,
 And while gray billows sound their horn of doom,
 Only a child and dog can hear them talk.

—Stanton A. Coblenz.

More About the "Bubble"

We have heard a great deal lately about the so-called "Florida bubble", the possibility of its bursting and when the burst may be expected to occur. Some writers on northern newspapers in the smaller cities, have said that Florida really has reached the peak and are counseling against further investments in this state.

It has been discovered, however, that most of these "investigators of Florida conditions" did not fail to make little investments here and there themselves while in this state, and the articles they have written condemning Florida, after returning home, have had little, if any effect upon the continuous flow of automobiles which are daily making their way into this state.

A Chicago man, speaking recently before the Tampa Board of Trade and Civitan Club, accurately described when the "bubble" is going to burst. He said:

"When the Northern business man becomes a perpetual-motion machine and can stand the rush and roar of city life twelve months a year without a let-up or recreation, when the sun in the south at meridian height, no longer sheds its beauty and glory to the Winter months and its beams come struggling through a murky atmosphere of smoke, fog and dirt; when the silver fades from your azure skies and the golden grandeur of western panorama is no more; when your air loses the fragrance of orange blossoms and honeysuckles and the bouquets of hibiscus, oleanders, and bouganvillea fade from the landscape; when the melody of the whip-poor-will no longer breaks the silence at even tide or the cooing dove calls to its mate at dawn, the mimicry of the cardinal no longer heralds the break of day; when your sovereign alchemist refuses to restore youth to the aged and happiness to the ailing; when the Southern man loses his chivalry and hospitality, becomes obsessed with the greed of gain and resorts to unfair tactics in his dealings with his neighbor from the North; when America ceases to grow in population and wealth so that travel and recreation are no longer possible—when these things happen then the Florida boom will be over and it will be a good time to get out.

We are not sure where the Chicago man got his information, but he has been accurately informed. In other words the "Florida bubble" will never burst; for if "bubble" it is, it is not the bursting kind. And Florida will continue to grow and prosper and be a safe and wise place for investment just as long as any other state in the Union, or the United States itself, remains in that condition.

The Balkan Trouble

According to the meagre information coming to this country, a Greek soldier killed a Bulgarian, then a Bulgarian killed a Greek soldier, with the result of a general free-for-all. Greece, always more or less militaristic depending largely upon the size of the opponent, demanded immediate reparations, disclaiming all responsibility for the trouble. When Bulgaria hesitated, Greece invaded.

It was something similar to this, it may be recalled, which precipitated the World War in 1914. Archduke Ferdinand of Austria was assassinated in Sarajevo, a small town in northern Serbia. Austria demanded immediate reparations. Serbia hesitated; Austria declared war. Then ensued a world conflict.

A similar result may have been averted in the present instance by the immediate and wise action of the council of the League of Nations. That body, informed of trouble on the Bulgarian frontier, at once took steps to put a stop to it. Both Greece and Bulgaria have been given orders to hastily evacuate each other's territory and they have been allowed sixty hours in which to inform the council that such evacuation has actually taken place.

There are many of us who are not in favor of an American membership in the League of Nations. There are perhaps some who are not in favor of a league of nations even among European countries. Some will say that in the present Balkan trouble the United States, if a member, might have been called upon to send troops to southern Europe to settle the foreign squabble.

But the sagacious and expedient manner in which the league disposed of the Balkan difficulty speaks well for it, and shows the possibilities the thing might have if lent the united support of all the larger nations of the world.

SOMEONE HAS SENT us a copy of Forbes Magazine of September 15, with an article by Barron Collier on "Why I Have Invested Heavily in Florida." Naturally, it is devoted largely to the section in which the writer is interested, but it tells much that is boosting to the entire state. Such articles as that, written by men who know, will do more good than all the envious writers who do not know Florida and don't want to know anything about the state, can ever undo. —Dade City Banner.

ALL TOLD, WHAT with those who come for sight-seeing and those who come to settle, the expectations are that travel into Florida for the year will range somewhere around the million mark, and set a new mark in travel movements. This in a state which, in 1920, had less than a million inhabitants. —Arthur Evans in Chicago Tribune.

MY FAVORITE STORIES

By IRVIN S. COBB

About once in so often I heard was befitting his original environ-one which has the double merit of being good and being true. I personally vouch for the authenticity of the offering which follows: I know a Kentucky lawyer, a brilliant man, who outgrew the small town where he was reared and where he began the practice of his profession. An offer came to him to go to Chicago and become the attorney for a big lumber concern. He went, taking his family with him.

Always he had lived comfortably but in a simple fashion as was befitting his original environment. But he felt the position he now occupied called for more distinction than formerly. So he rented a large house and installed a staff of servants, including a colored butler. On his first day of service the butler came to his new master for instructions.

"Master Blank," he asked in his most buttered manner, "does you desire me to wear my full dress suit every night at dinner?"
 "Well, no," said the Kentuckian, "on nights when we have company I'd like for you to lend it to me."

A Two-Billion Crime Wave.
 Mayor Hague's Grammar.
 Prosperity, Judge Garry.
 Love (Stories) For Girls.

MR. RATHBONE, vice chairman of the National Surety Company, says "It's a $2,000,000,000 crime wave." Insurance companies are refusing insurance against theft. won't insure fur stores or certain lines of jewelry.

Vigilance committees are suggested for big cities. Three bootleggers killed each other in New York yesterday. And that happens often. But there are always two live bootleggers to take the place of a dead one.

FRANK HAGUE is mayor of Jersey City, and any city that lacks "action" in its affairs ought to hire for mayor a brother or sister of Frank Hague.

Cyrus H. Curtis is disturbed by Mayor Hague, who managed New Jersey's Democratic party elects Democratic governors and senators in place of customary Republicans.

Having "investigated" Frank Hague, Mr. Curtis finds nothing against him, but doesn't approve of the mayor's grammar." This writer can testify that the mayor's grammar is at least as good as the average, and one sample is recommended to mayors in general.

DURING A coal strike families in Jersey City were unable to get coal, although it was piled up in Jersey City yards for New York's use. The mayor put his police at the ferries with orders "not to allow a load of coal to go to New York until we have all we want for the people in Jersey City."

One of New York's high financial powers asked by what right Mayor Hague acted in so rude a manner.
 Mayor Hague replied: "By the right of the end of a night stick.
 Come on over and let's see what you are going to do about it."

THAT "GRAMMAR" suited the people of Jersey City. They got coal. And in a few days Mayor Hague will elect a Democratic governor of New Jersey, further demonstrating the efficiency of his kind of grammar.

JUDGE GARY, as conservative as the Ten Commandments, promised magnificently greater prosperity. Chicago is building, growing, as never before. In a thousand places there are a thousand booms.

CONSIDER THAT spot taken so much for granted, New York City.
 Ask a citizen 1,000 miles from New York what he knows about "Queens" or "The Bronx." He will know little or nothing.

BUT QUEENS and The Bronx, little boroughs tucked away in Greater New York, are each one bigger in population than Los Angeles.

AND the yearly increase in New York's population is more than that of any other city in the marvelous Miami. Don't forget New York is adding up Uncle Sam's valuable assets.

AND CONSIDER Henry Ford, another asset. His output of cars is now 7,500 a day and by November 1 his factories expect to go on a 9,000 basis.

If Ford only made a profit of $50 on a car on the 9,000 cars, his net income would be $150,000 a day. Enough to support any family of three.

THE "SATURATION" point in the automobile industry is still remote. In September 5,000 more automobiles were made than in August. Production and sales are increasing.

There will be no "saturation point" for a long while. The public can use and ought to have at least three times as many automobiles as are now running. A man without an automobile is like a bird without wings, a wagon without wheels.

Buy a car, but don't gamble in motor stocks, or anything else—you'll be sorry.

A POOR girl in Boston commits suicide because she could not get winter finery. And libraries in London say that modern young girls with hair and skirts bobbed still demand love stories, as did former generations of girls with hair and swirls long.

They want moonlight scenes and big, strong silent men as lovers.

WHAT'S THE USE OF UITTING QNOW?

"Don't Say Anything In The Paper Yet" Ocala Star

When the carrier boy passes by your home in the late afternoon and flings your Star on the porch or out on the lawn under the mist from the sprinkler and you rush out to retrieve it before it is beat into a pulp by the water or blown away by the wind, your curiosity is always whetted to find out what has happened since the last issue of the day before.

You subscribe to the paper to read the news of the town. Very often it brings to you the first intelligence of some happening that you know nothing of. Some prominent citizen has passed to his eternal rest, an auto or railway accident has occurred in which one of your friends has been injured, or some one has let the contract for the building of a handsome residence on the vacant lot down the street that has been overgrown with weeds and an eyesore for lo-these many years.

All these things are news items that the reporters have gathered throughout the city, often spending several hours on one item that seemingly is of no great importance, in order that the exact facts may be obtained. The process of gathering news is a tedious one, requiring infinite patience and some diplomacy, and not as easy task as some people think.

When the paper arrives at your home and you scan its pages sometimes you throw it down and say: "Why, there isn't a thing in the Star about Mr. So-and-So's new house." We grant you a better correctness of your statement, but

Mr. So-and-So, for some uncountable reason told the reporter, when he was asked about the new house he was going to build, "Don't say anything in the paper about it yet." A business deal is pending. The reporter hears of it and goes to the interested parties.
 They reply, "We are not ready to say anything yet," and request him to wait a few days. Walking down the street later in the day he meets a friend who tells him about the transaction about to be completed and he finds in making his rounds of the city that the negotiations under way are known to a number of citizens, but the paper has been requested to refrain from publishing the story.

The Star is endeavoring to print the news of the town and its people and while it doesn't wish to make premature publication of anything that is to happen, or give undue publicity to things that are better left unsaid or which would be embarrassing to the parties interested, it asks the citizens of Ocala to cooperate with its reporters in obtaining news of the city.

Very often some attaché of the paper knows of an interesting occurrence and in attempting to get detailed information at first hand is asked to refrain from printing what he has learned until a later date, only to find that the whole town knows about it before it gets into the news columns.

Cooperate with the reporters.
 They are trying to make the Star a better paper and Ocala a better city.

The Case Of Dade County's Sheriff

BRADENTON HERALD

Sheriff Chase of Dade county has been before the governor under charges of misconduct in office, said a misnomer being in one of having his deputies shoot into a bunch of prisoners who were attempting to stage a jail break. Two of the prisoners were killed and several wounded, and a citizen who happened to be in the vicinity but who had nothing to do with the situation at the jail also was wounded by a stray bullet.

We do not know the inside story of the affair at Miami. The news accounts sent out stated that the sheriff, being apprised by a "stool pigeon" among the prisoners that members of the Ashley bandit gang in jail were to attempt their freedom and to be aided by other members of the gang on the outside, posted armed deputy sheriffs in strategic position, and when the prisoners made their break for liberty these officers pumped lead into them.

What we do not quite see is why the sheriff laid the ambush for these desperate men. He could have separated the plotters and put them in a safe place. The necessity for slaughter does not appear on the surface.

Governor Martin has heard the accusers' side. They want Chase removed. The governor intends to sift the matter to the bottom before acting. On the other hand a Dade county grand jury was prompt to act. It indicted the sheriff and deputies for murder.

Some time ago it was discovered that a number of federal prisoners, indicted for rumrunning and bootlegging and turned over to the Dade county jail for safekeeping were allowed to go out at night and return to the jail before morning—presumably they attended to their infamously and illegal business during the hours of darkness. The sheriff was out of his county when this state of affairs was discovered, and his statement that it was all news to him seems to have been accepted by the governor.

Then followed the slaughter, at the jail.

It looks to a man on the sidelines as though there is something damnably rotten in connection with Dade county shrievalty.

When Is a Rabbit Not a Rabbit?

WILSON FOLLETTE IN THE SATURDAY REVIEW

Now, it is abundantly clear that the picturesque term "Welsh rabbit" started as a deliberate mild joke. It was a piece of intentional whimsy and mystification in nomenclature, of the sort illustrated by the strictly analogous Yankee expression "Cape Cod turkey" for codfish. Parallel forms are "Pope's nose" and "Adam's apple." Unlike other similar instances of terminology, "Welsh rabbit" has become an accidental victim of the process known to historians of the language as "folk-etymology"—the tendency to take a perfectly good term which happens not to be understood and force it into a fictitious analogy with some more familiar term. Thus "quelque chose" becomes "kickshaw," the pickax is christened on the supposition that it is a kind of ax, the timorous is given a plural which relates it fancifully to "mouse" and "mice," and the Latin "fronti spice" (look at the beginning) is evolved into "frontispice" by analogy with "piece" and asparagus becomes "the unlearned ear," "narrow-grass." If the Welsh rabbit had first been styled "Welsh hare" folk-etymology might have turned it, on precisely the same principle, into "Welsh fare."

The curious aspect of this particular example is the motive involved in the fancied correction.
 What generally accounts for such popular thanamorphifications is pure ignorance—ignorance, usually, of French, or Latin, or Old English, or simply of some earlier usage in English itself. But in this instance the motive is ignorance plus something much more corrosive—a proud affectation of refinement, of linguistic fastidiosaness. "Rabbit" is solemnly explained as a crude and ignorant mistake for—"what?" No analogy existing, one is invented out of whole cloth—the spurious and nearly meaningless "arbitr."

LATEST FASHION HINTS FOR MILADY

BY MARY MARSHALL
Copyright McClure Syndicate

She Wears Shades of Brown to match her Pekingeses.

Few women of fashion could hope to have a different dog to match every gown in their wardrobe. This would necessitate an elaborate and complicated kennel, and the pets might object to having their bella dyed mauve or green, bolts de rose or Burgundy, according to the process of the up-to-date fur dyers. It's all very well to dye moleskin to match the violet, and white rabbit for a passionate rose color, but what little terrier wants to be dipped in the dye vat?

All this talk about dogs to match one's clothes started in Paris a few weeks ago when a charming young woman went walking down the Avenue des Champs-Elysees with a spotted Dalmatian dog. The lady wore a white frock boldly spotted with black and a hat to match. Her shoes and stockings were likewise of black and white. Then it became apparent that other women were doing the same and a little later there was a dog parade in the Bois de Boulogne at which a number of women appeared dressed to match their favorite dogs. The brown Pekingeses, the wire-haired fox terrier and a white and gray bull dog were among the dogs thus represented.

A dog that ought to be exceedingly popular this winter, if this fad for including one's dog in the ensemble continues, is the red setter, for the tones of his silky coat blend excellently with some of the new bois-de-rose tones. A brindle bull of stalwart build would go very well with the masculine-looking mixed tweed suit.

Undoubtedly this ensemble idea as applied to hats, frocks, gloves and footwear—though of course not necessarily to doggy pets—is one of the best developments of recent fashions. It is an oft-repeated rule of present fashions that hats should always exactly match in color the frock or the prevailing trimming. To strike a color not introduced in the costume would be quite wrong.

And yet as you look about you, even among women who spend a great deal on their clothes, you see how far from universal such ingenious dog traverses five counties. Twenty-one miles of the road has already been built, it was said.

She wears kid oxfords, silk stockings, felt hat and kid bag and gloves in shades to match her pekese dog.

Restaurant Closed By Hotel Commissioner

TALLAHASSEE, Oct. 28.—(AP)—E. A. Fleming, deputy hotel commissioner, returned recently from Fort Myers, where he supervised the closing of one restaurant, because of over-crowded conditions. Mr. Fleming was assisted by S. P. Young, of the Hotel Department.

The closing took place following complaints reaching the department against operation of the restaurant at a capacity beyond its ability.

Conditions generally at Fort Myers were found in excellent shape, Mr. Fleming said. The city is humming with activity and the hotel and restaurant industry is particularly thriving, he said.

FREE SCHOOL BOOKS

TALLAHASSEE, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Plans are being drawn up at the department of public instruction for Florida's entry into the ranks of states furnishing public school students with free text books.

The text books are to be furnished free up to and including the sixth grade, under a law passed at the last legislature. The law becomes effective July 1, 1926.

SOCIAL DEPARTMENT MEMBERS ARE ENTERTAINED BY MRS. PEABODY

Graceful sprays of goldenrod, together with Black eyed Susans and other field flowers were used with pleasing effect on Tuesday afternoon, when the members of the Social Department were entertained at Bridge, with Mrs. Mildred Peabody as hostess.

The approach of Hallowe'en was suggested with many large Jack-o'-lanterns and other symbols of witchery in the decorations, score cards, and other details.

Of exceptional interest was the game of bridge played during the afternoon and since the usual number of progressions had been made, the scores were counted and the prize, a quaint cream and sugar set in black and yellow, was awarded Mrs. L. P. McCuller. After the game, refreshments of baked apples, topped with whipped cream, doughnuts, and coffee were served.

Mrs. Peabody was assisted in serving and entertaining by Mrs. W. Theodore Langley, Mrs. Fred Daiger, Mrs. J. B. Coleman, and Mrs. Paul Biggers. There were eight tables of players and the afternoon was most enjoyable, not only to the members, but to the number of out of town guests present.

The business meeting which was scheduled to have been held before the bridge game, was postponed on account of the indisposition of the chairman, but will be held the second Wednesday in November.

Barron Collier Erects Long Telephone Line

TALLAHASSEE, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Barron G. Collier, millionaire property holder in Florida, is erecting a telephone line from Miami to Fort Myers, a distance of 165 miles, according to word received here.

Mr. Collier, it was stated, is also constructing a highway from Everglades, in Collier county, to Wacahula, Hardee county, which

Mrs. Terheun Gives Hallowe'en Supper In Honor of Mrs. Stewart

Mrs. R. A. Terheun entertained delightfully with a Hallowe'en supper on Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Nancy Stewart of St. Petersburg, department chairman of the Auxiliary of United Spanish War Veterans. Invited to meet Mrs. Stewart were the local members of the council of administration and officers of Col. Theodore Roosevelt Auxiliary.

The rooms were charmingly decorated with the Hallowe'en colors and symbols. Streamers of orange and black draped the windows and doors, and upon the walls bats and chimes chased owls and witches in riotous glee. The dining room was transformed into a pumpkin filled by the magic art of the decorator.

The table was lovely with its covers of yellow and black, Hallowe'en nut cups, place cards, and other goblin features. Bowls and baskets of goldenrod completed the charms of the decorations. The favors were Hallowe'en caps. Guests were received by the "skeleton at the feast," whose cold and clammy hands extended a ghostly welcome.

The day being the birthday of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, which is annually observed by the United Spanish War Veterans and their auxiliaries, an interesting Roosevelt program was enjoyed later in the evening by the supper guests and other members of the local auxiliary.

Truth Seekers Class Holds Regular Meeting With Mrs. G. W. Spencer

On Monday afternoon the Truth Seekers' Class of the Methodist Sunday School held its regular business and social meeting at the home of Mrs. G. W. Spencer on Hughey Street. There was an attendance of 35 members and visitors. This was the first meeting held since the election of officers in September.

The annual reports showed a decided increase in class activities in 1925, and from the interest manifested by the members and the newly elected officers, together with the good reports from chairmen of the different communities, it is believed the class will show an even greater gain this coming year.

After the business meeting, refreshing fruit punch and cakes were served. The hostesses were Mrs. G. W. Spencer, Mrs. J. D. Parker, Mrs. Lola Le Gette, Mrs. T. E. Wilson, Mrs. G. W. Bailey and Mrs. L. Went.

This class extends a cordial invitation to newcomers and visitors in Sanford to attend the class on Sunday mornings, and to the regular social and business meetings the fourth Monday afternoon of each month.

Pipe Organ Members Are Entertained By Mrs. Huff On Tuesday

The Pipe Organ Club met Monday afternoon with Mrs. George Huff at her home on Laurel Avenue. Mrs. Huff and Mrs. Culpepper were hostesses. Lovely yellow goldenrod was displayed to advantage in large vases and baskets throughout the rooms. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Francis Bolz acted as chairman during the business session.

Miss Martha Fox gave an interesting talk on bazar work, introducing some novel ideas for the Christmas bazar. At roll call each member responded with a gift. There was a surprisingly large number of beautiful handkerchiefs and dainty baby clothes. In two weeks there will be another gift shower and the chairman asked that all club articles be turned in as soon as possible.

The club was delighted to welcome Mrs. Howard Berg as a new member, and to have as guests, Mrs. Myers, Mrs. Wolff, Mrs. Hughes, and Mrs. George. At the conclusion of the business session, the hostesses served dainty refreshments.

The club will meet next Monday with Mrs. J. J. Dickinson on Magdalena Avenue. Mrs. Forrest Gatchell will assist Mrs. Dickinson as hostess.

Guild Making Plans For Card Party

The St. Agnes Guild met with Mrs. B. L. Perkins Monday afternoon. A most enthusiastic meeting was held. The members present were: Mesdames J. N. Robson, Raymond Phillips, Ben Whitner, John McKee, John Minarik, Belding, Leonard, Preiman, Overlin, and Zeigler.

The house was beautifully decorated with yellow Cosmoss and ice cream and cake were served. Committees were appointed for the Hallowe'en card party to be held at the Woman's Club the first Thursday in November.

Tickets were given out to be sold for the Hallowe'en dance at the City Hall Friday night.

Island Where Prince Languished Connected To Mainland By Dam

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Wieringen, which achieved world-wide notoriety through the place of prince William, is an island no more.

It now forms part of the great Zuyderzee drainage scheme. A length now unites Wieringen with the mainland. This is, however, only a small beginning. It may take Holland 30 years before reclaiming her ambition to add 1,000 square miles to her territory by reclaiming the Zuyderzee, a project estimated to cost $110,000,000.

RED CROSS DATA SHOWS DEATHS IN WATER LESS

Increased Interest In Aquatic Sports Given As Cause For Decline In Total Cases Of Drowning By Reviewers

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—(AP)—In the face of a growing popularity of all-the-year-around water sports, the annual report of the American Red Cross today revealed that there is a gradual decline in the thousands who died annually by accidental drowning in the United States. This is due, in its opinion, to the adding of 22,892 swimmers trained in water life saving science to the thousands the Red Cross has already enrolled in its Life Saving Corps.

Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick Instruction Given to 51,121 Students in the United States, and the Red Cross Nutrition Service, which has instructed 114,001 school children and 20,359 adults, has impressed the relation of food to health.

There were 1,200 meetings with the traveling First Aid Car for demonstrations, these being attended by 146,827 persons and 20,601 First Aid certificates were issued to as many qualified persons. This compared with not quite 14,000 completing the First Aid course the year previous. The car visited 137 cities.

Cancellation Of War Debts Opposed By Raffeld In Address

(Continued From Page One.) The local club, who were the official representatives of the Sanford Kiwanians at the state convention held last week at Daytona. Their reports of the activities and plans of the state societies, as reviewed at the convention, is said to have been interesting.

Among the visitors at the meeting today were Bloomfield Hulick, Dr. J. E. Abbott and J. W. Smock, both of DeLand, and A. H. Moses, of Sanford and New York. Mr. Abbott, who is the pastor of the DeLand Presbyterian Church, gave a few minutes of humorous entertainment, while Mr. Hulick, who is associated with his brother in the ownership of the new Hotel Forrest Lake, told the Kiwanians that he has come to this city as a permanent resident, being a firm believer in the future growth and prosperity of Sanford.

Members present at the meeting today represented approximately 80 per cent of the total membership, according to the secretary. The list in full, is given and includes:

Dr. E. D. Brownlee, R. H. Berg, L. C. Bebout, C. A. Byrd, A. P. Connelly, Dr. B. D. Caswell, R. B. Chapman, A. C. Carter, Fred A. Clark, R. G. Davey, W. S. Entzinger, A. C. Fort, Raymond Fox, L. F. Secretary To Governor Has State Affairs Catalogued In Her Mind

TALLAHASSEE, Oct. 27.—(AP)—The governmental affairs of Florida at her finger tips. That is the position enjoyed by Mrs. Bessie Gibbs Porter, one of the few women secretaries to governors of states of the country.

Mrs. Porter, secretary to Governor John W. Martin, has seen three chief executives come and go. She began her services in the governor's office on Oct. 1, nine years ago, when she was made stenographer to Governor Trammell. She assumed the same post when Governor Catts was elected, and Governor Hardee also found her at the old desk.

In October, 1918, however, Mrs. Porter took over additional duties. She was made executive clerk, which position she held until last July when Governor Martin made her his acting secretary. She took over the desk made vacant with the appointment of Dr. Foss A. Hathaway as chairman of the State Road Department.

Mrs. Porter has been more than simply a secretary to the governor. She has held the position of secretary of the board of commissioners and the pardon board. A tremendous volume of work has faced her at all times. The many appointments to major and minor offices have found their way through Mrs. Porter's hands, to say nothing of the great amount of other matters which would find any ordinary man quaking under the strain. Governor Martin's secretary is an exemplification of the somewhat unpopular opinion that a woman cannot keep a secret. Mrs. Porter steadfastly refuses to give any information to newspapermen, unless it is sanctioned by the chief executive.

"You see the governor about that," is the secretary's reply to a majority of the questions asked. The secretary to Florida's governor is likewise immune to bribery. She will, of course, accept the good things offered from outsiders, such as candy, fruit and other delicacies, as "payment" for her good will, but that is as far as the situation develops. There is no reciprocity, unless the governor sanctions it.

At the recent meeting of the board of pardons, Mrs. Porter was the recipient of several fine boxes of candy. The donors were of the opinion that their generosity would reflect itself in the decisions of the board.

"I get those things every once in a while," Mrs. Porter said. "People don't seem to realize that, I cannot help them; cannot use any influence in their behalf. But still they come. Naturally, I appreciate the gifts, and don't mind having them come to me at all."

Swimming Pool At Kissimmee Will Be Largest In World

KISSIMMEE, Fla., Oct. 28.—(AP)—Site for what is said will be the largest swimming pool in the world has been staked out six miles south of here by a group of real estate dealers as an added attraction to their development. Plans call for an oval building of Moorish architecture, 1,400 feet by 1,200 feet, while the pool itself will be 1,200 feet by 1,000 feet. This aquatic amphitheater will be situated less than one half mile from the Dixie highway.

State Story To Be Screened For Use Of Farming Bureau

TALLAHASSEE, Oct. 27.—(AP)—A development company of Florida is arranging to place upon the screen a picture based upon an article written by T. J. Brooks, of the Department of Immigration, for Florida's Resources and Industries, published by the Department of Agriculture for the period of 1923-24.

The article, entitled "Around the World with Florida," which shows parallels of latitude between Florida and countries of the world. The parallels, Mr. Brooks pointed out, lead through fourteen different nations.

The Florida zone, the article says, passes through Northern Africa, from the Sahara desert to the Mediterranean sea, Arabia, Palestine, Persia, China and thence back to America.

Although the "scenario" for the picture has not as yet been made known, it was stated at the Department of Immigration that it will be based as far as possible on the zone parallel of Florida with the foreign countries, bringing out in all detail the isothermal zone of the state in its course about the world.

Capitol Briefs

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Oct. 26.—(AP)—William Brown, negro, sent up from Duval county in April, 1916, for a long term for robbery, breaking and entering and assault to murder, and who escaped from a road camp near Arcadia in June, 1918, has been located in Nebraska, where he is serving time. The state prison bureau has been notified by the chief probation officer of Nebraska that Brown will be turned over to Florida at any time. Papers are being prepared for his return.

The cry "Look out for the glass" greets folks at the governor's office. The reason is entirely obvious. Two fine plate glass tops, used as covering for as many desks in the office, have been broken by those who would drape themselves over the corners.

The officer of Charles W. Hunter, adjoining the Senate chamber, is believed to be the only one in the Capitol building which possesses the distinction of having curtains hung at the windows. The curtains, of course, are due largely to a woman's touch, Miss Ann Friedman. Mr. Hunter's stenographer, being largely instrumental in getting them placed.

Captain R. A. Gray, assistant comptroller, announced recently that during the state bar examination he had the pleasure of meeting an old classmate whom he had not seen in a number of years. This school chum, W. Furr, who took the examination for a license to practice law in Florida, attended the Georgetown University Law School with Captain Gray.

DREADFUL PAINS

Georgia Lady, Who Had Lost Too Much Weight, Was Advised to Take Cardui and Is Now Well.

Columbus, Ga.—Mrs. George S. Hunter, of this city, writes: "After I married, thirteen months ago, I suffered with dreadful pains in my sides during ... My side hurt so bad it nearly killed me. I had to go to bed and stay sometimes two weeks at a time. I could not work and I just dragged around the house.

"I got very thin—I went from 126 pounds down to less than 100. My mother had long been a user of Cardui and she knew what a good medicine it was for this trouble, so she told me to get some and take it. I sent to the store after it and before I had taken the first bottle I began to improve.

"My side hurt less and I began to improve in health. ... The Cardui acted as a fine tonic and I do not feel like the same person. I am so much better. I am well now. I have gained ten pounds and am still gaining. My sides do not trouble me at all.

"I wish every suffering woman knew about Cardui." NC-160

LAW SPECIFIES FISH LICENSE IN SOME COUNTIES

Local Statutes Provide For Resident Permit, Royall Explains In Answering Inquiries Regarding Status

TALLAHASSEE, Oct. 28.—(A) Certain counties of the state require a resident to obtain a license for sport fishing, Commissioner of Fish and Game J. B. Royall is pointing out, in answering numerous inquiries as to whether such a license is necessary.

The state, however, Mr. Royall said, does not require such a license. The county restrictions exist through local laws, he added.

Forms of issuing the licenses have been supplied by the Game and Fresh Water Fish Department to each county judge in the state. Non-resident fishing licenses, county and state, and resident and non-resident trapper licenses will be sent to the county judges from the state department within a short time.

For the convenience of the public, Mr. Royall said, arrangement has been made whereby application blanks for license may be obtained from hardware stores, sporting goods establishments, and deputy game commissioners, in addition to the county judges. If an application for a license is accompanied by an attested description of the person applying, it is not necessary for the person applying to appear before the judge to whom application is made, the commissioner explained.

The commissioner called attention to the fact that the game season opens on Nov. 20. Licenses should be secured at an early date, he reminded. Escambia county has placed its original allotment of resident county hunting licenses, and has called for more, Mr. Royall said.

Hunting Bag Limit Called To Nimrod's Mind By Game Head

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Oct. 28.—(A) With the near approach of the hunting season, State Game Commissioner J. B. Royall is calling attention to the bag limit, fixed by law in the state of Florida. It follows:

For the year: Two deer, 5 turkeys, 500 of any other game birds during a hunting season; November 20 to February 15.

Bag limit for a day: One deer, 2 turkeys, 20 quail, 25 ducks, 8 geese, 8 brant, 25 Wilson snipe, 8 woodcock 25 in all of rails, coots and gallinules; 15 in all of plovers and yellowlegs, 25 doves in a day. Camping or hunting party of three or more, limit for a day is 2 deer; 2 turkeys.

Possession of migratory birds permitted during the first 10 days of close season; other game during first 5 days thereof. Export of all protected game is prohibited, except that non-resident license may carry out game as personal baggage, but not more than two days limit of migratory game birds may be exported in any one calendar week.

E. W. Garris, state supervisor of agriculture, will leave shortly for West Florida, where he plans to visit schools at Gonzalez, Baker, Laurel Hill, Allentown, Graceville and other points. He will be accompanied on much of his trip by Miss Elois D. Berry, supervisor of home economics, who also plans to visit Chipley and Pensacola.

Stetson Students Making Plans For Homecoming, Nov. 7

STETSON UNIVERSITY, DeLand, Oct. 28.—Hundreds of former students of Stetson University from over the State of Florida will make their way back to the campus of their Alma Mater on Nov. 7, to greet old acquaintances, to re-act familiar scenes of by-gone days, and to take part in the celebration of what is being planned for and looked forward to as one of the greatest home coming events ever fostered by members of the institution.

A gridiron clash between the Stetson Hatters and the strong Carson-Newman eleven will provide the classic attraction of the day. This contest is being looked forward to with keen interest and anticipation by followers of the Green and White aggregation of Stetson warriors, and it is generally believed that the affair will prove to be one of the hardest fought struggles to take place on the home field this season.

Captain McQuillan and his squad of gridsters are at present in Tifton, Ga., where they met the South Georgia A. and M. eleven on Monday. They will observe practice periods and regular daily workouts during their stay over in Tifton preparatory to moving into Alabama territory to meet the Spring Hill outfit in Mobile Saturday. Immediately upon the return of the Hatter aggregation from the 8-day trip, Coach McQuillan will plunge them into a period of strenuous practice work, anticipating the battle with the Carson-Newman machine on Home Coming Day.

Highway Board Will Convene Tomorrow

TALLAHASSEE, Oct. 28.—(A) The quarterly meeting of the State Road Department will be held here tomorrow when business of importance to highway construction is expected to be brought up.

In 1925 taxes for the entire state totaled $181. This is less than the assessment against the personal property alone of many of Florida's present day citizens.

Lakeland Hotel Is Closed For Failure To Use Sanitation

TALLAHASSEE, Oct. 28.—(A) The Lakeland Hotel, a hostelry at Lakeland, was closed recently because of failure to live up to the sanitary requirements of the law, it was announced at the Hotel Department. The closing was supervised by S. P. Young, one of the department's deputies.

The hotel manager, according to Jerry W. Carter, the hotel commissioner, sought the aid of the department here in reopening but Carter stated that he had advised him to take the matter up with the deputy.

"Please say for me," Mr. Carter said, "that I will not use my influence to right alleged wrongs done and that when hotels or restaurants are closed by the department's deputies, only the deputies themselves can adjust the matter."

Fort Pickens, located in Escambia county, is the only fort in the southern states that was not captured by the Confederacy during the civil war.

HAZING

HON. ED. WALTHALL,
Care Seminole Hudson-Exsex Co., Sanford, Fla.
Dear Ed:

The average boy who starts to college these days takes his old man's bank roll in one hand and his own life in the other, and he's lucky if he isn't soon empty-handed.

It is the custom in most colleges to submit the freshmen to 3rd, 4th and up to the seventh degree, and if that doesn't kill him or maim him him for life, to hit him on the head with a sledge hammer.

Hazing seems to be a very silly thing to a man who is out of college or a man who has never been to college, but it is really the thing that carries many a boy back to college year after year until he graduates.

A bashful, mild-mannered boy who has been tied to his mother's apron strings for 17 or 18 years will go to college. A bunch of roughnecks will pay him a friendly call and take him out to show him a pleasant evening.

When he is hauled back home in an ambulance the next morning, his mother wouldn't recognize her angel child. He looks like he has been run through a meat-grinding machine. If there is anything the upper classmen didn't do to him, it was simply because they didn't happen to think about it.

They have beat him till he's black and blue, cut his hair, singed off his eyebrows, pulled out his eye lashes, notched his ears, put a hole in his nose, tattooed his arms and broken his leg. He has been given a large evening.

And the memories of that evening haunt him.

He lives through his freshman year on the hope of what he will do to the new boys when he gets to be a Soph. He figures that it will take three years for him to get revenge on other boys for the hazing he got, so he comes back for his junior and his senior years.

That's why football has no dread for a college man. After hazing, it's a regular pink tea.

College boys have been developed stand a lot of punishment. The Essex Coach is the same. It has been developed to stand a lot of punishment. It looks like the harder you drive 'em, the better they run.

Yours,
BILL.
