Eighth Grade Rates High In Academic Tests

By MARYANN MILES The eighth grade graduating class from St. Mary Magdalen School of Altamonte Springs has achieved a very high standard of academic excellence. Recently the University of Dayton administered a standard achievement test to the class. When results of the test were announced they showed the class average in all subjects to be well above the actual grade level. Class overall averages were: Reading-Grade 10, first month; Language Arts-Grade 10, first month; Social Studies-Grade 9, sixth month; Mathematics -Grade 9, ninth month, and Science-Grade 9, third month. At the graduation, Fred Lauten and Cecelia Wicklin were recognized for their scholarship an dleadership and Michael Malatesta and Kathy Callahan cellence in study and practice
