A SEMINOLE COUNTY POST OF THE AMERICAN LEGION WILL BE ORGANIZED HERE

Monday Night At 7:30 In Court House

ALL EX-SERVICE MEN

IN THE COUNTY ARE REQUESTED TO BE PRESENT AND JOIN THE POST

Seminole County will organize a post of the American Legion at the Court House, next Monday night at 7:30 and all ex-service men who served the world war in the navy or army are requested to be there at that time and become members of the organization that promises so much for these boys in the years to come. The American Legion has organized posts in every county in the state and it is the more reason for a great organization of ex-service men at this meeting. It is the more reason for every soldier and sailor in the county signing the roll at this meeting.

The Legion is doing wonderful things all over this great land today and it is the only organization that will keep alive the traditions of the army and navy in the years to come. The boys who have left the army and navy only a few months ago are anxious to forget their experiences just now but as the years go by they will become sweeter memories and they will want the Legion to look after them and their interests and they will want to meet once in a while and talk over the old times and see their "buddies" again and they will want to attend the big camps that will be given in every county and in every state and the national gathering that will take place each year will in a few years be one of the greatest meetings in our national life. It behooves every soldier and sailor that served in the world war either at home or abroad to join the Legion now. Be at the Court House next Monday night at 7:30 ready to sign up in the organization that means 100 per cent Americanism.

VA. CONSTABLES ARE GOOD MEN

CONSTABULARY OF WEST VIRGINIA MADE UP OF FORMER SERVICE MEN

Charleston, W. Va., Jan. 29.—Completed entirely of former service men, the West Virginia constabulary after six months of preparation and training has taken the field to enforce the law. Although recruited to only one half of its maximum strength, the men on duty are fully equipped and according to their officers are ready for any emergency.

Under the command of Colonel Jackson Arnold the men have been organized into provisional companies and assigned to 15 sub-postal stations. These cover all trunk-line railroads in the state for the purpose of facilitating mobilization should it become necessary to move the entire force to some point in a hurry. At each sub-station from three to five men will be on duty. All will be mounted on horses except the patrols at Wellsburg and Martinsburg who will be equipped with motorcycles.

The service has already attracted natives of 23 of the 55 counties in West Virginia. They are picked men whose intelligence, courage and endurance have been proved to the satisfaction of Colonel Arnold. The bill creating the state constabulary became a law six months ago.

POOR SERVICE CONTINUES

Southern Utilities Co., Making Repairs But Cutting Off The Juice

The Southern Utilities Co. are working at the plant trying to get it in first class shape and some time in the near future they will have it ready for business. Meantime the public and especially those who are depending on power are having the same old trouble for the current goes and comes and the Herald Printing Co., is forced to print when it can and trust to luck for the rest. The Herald has lost business and money by this service and the fact that they are getting in shape for better service is not helping us a bit. Other power plants in the city are suffering also and have suffered a loss all winter and there is no telling when the service will be better. The current is cut off almost every day for hours and when it is on the current is so weak that it will not pull a heavy plant such as the Herald Printing Co., is operating.

This is an old story and is worn threadbare by repeating it but the public is not getting service, our customers are not getting service and we want the public to know that the Daily Herald cannot be up to standard, our job printing cannot be turned out promptly and we cannot do business while this company is operating the kind of plant that they have been operating here. They may be in a position to do a better job of having that service now.

Germany Concerned Over Bill

KAISER'S CASE MEANS EXTRACTION OF ALL CONCERNED IN WAR OFFENSES

Berlin, Jan. 29. (By Associated Press) Indications of growing concern of the government over extradition of the Germans accused of war offenses given in a note sent to the allies yesterday asking for revision of the clauses of Versailles treaty. The attempted assassination of Minister Erzberger Monday is viewed in official circles as a precursor of what is likely to happen on a larger scale if the government in yielding to the allies appeals to force in arresting the men on the lists submitted by the entente.

Coal Production Low

Philadelphia, Jan. 8.—Production of anthracite coal in Pennsylvania in 1919 was the lowest in seven years. There were mined 86,200,000 tons compared with 98,826,000 tons in 1918. Bituminous coal production reached the lowest level since 1915 with 458,063,000 tons nearly 21,000,000 tons less than last year.

The soft coal mines in the first week of January reached normal for the first time since the miners returned to work after the strike agreement. Production was 107 percent of normal. This is a larger rate of production than for any similar period of the history of the Geological Survey, which gave out the figures.

GRAPEFRUIT IS CURE FOR INFLUENZA

STATE HEALTH OFFICERS SAY CITRUS FRUITS HAVE EXCELLENT PROPERTIES

The usefulness of grapefruit and oranges, widely demonstrated during the influenza epidemic of last winter, makes the present large Florida crop a matter of much importance to the entire country, according to Dr. Ralph Greene state health officer.

While citrus fruits were liberally prescribed by physicians and freely recommended by health officials at the time influenza swept over the United States in November, 1918, the supply on the market was not sufficient to meet the extraordinary demand and in many places grapefruit and oranges could not be obtained.

This year Florida has the largest crop of grapefruit and oranges in its history. These fruits are now fully tree-ripened, and are moving to markets in vast quantities. There will be plenty for everybody, Dr. Greene believes, so that Florida may assist materially in the fight on influenza, which apparently must be made again throughout the United States.

When influenza was most serious in Chicago, during the fall of 1918, Dr. Augustus O'Neil, chairman of the Spanish influenza committee of that city and one of its leading physicians, issued a bulletin urging use of grapefruit juice in the treatment of the disease. Dr. Henry P. Baker of New York City, Drs. Hawley and Wilfstein of Cincinnati, and leading physician in many other places, advocated the prescription of citrus fruit juices in influenza cases, according to dispatches carried by The Associated Press at the time.

Comment on the splendid results obtained from grapefruit and oranges became a noticeable feature of medical journals, the editor of one of which referred to them as "essential sick room requisites." Another said that "as a remarkable thirst quencher in fever cases the orange now is established as possessing certain properties, or at least, positive relieving powers in cases originating from what is known as a cold." A third observer declared that "oranges are being generally prescribed for sufferers by physicians," while a fourth averred that "grapefruit is just as beneficial for influenza as oranges."

That the health elements of Florida grapefruit and oranges make them useful in the influenza epidemic is doubly significant in view of the degree to which the food values and pre-war prices of these fruits are causing them to be used in the North in the campaign to check increases in living costs, following the recent appeal of the Florida Citrus Exchange to cabinet officers, governors and mayors. The newspapers of the country have quite generally carried stories emphasizing the fact that grapefruit are among the few food products now obtainable at prices no higher than those which prevailed before the war.

Centennial Commission Is Illegal

SUPREME COURT DECIDES COMMISSION HAS NO LEGAL STANDING

Tallahassee, Jan. 7.—The supreme court in an opinion by Chief Justice Browne, has today declared that Chapter 7920, Acts of the Legislature of 1909, creating the Florida Purchase Centennial Commission, is unconstitutional and void.

The court holds that the commissioners, undertaken to be appointed by said act, would be officers and the act was valid, but finds however, that the act violates the provision of the constitution, which limits the term of office to four years, and that it is also in violation of section twenty-seven, article three, of the constitution, in that instead of providing "for their election by the people, or appointment by the governor", the legislature appointed the commissioners in the first instance and gave them "the exclusive power to fill any vacancy occurring on the commission," and three of them are now claiming to hold their offices by virtue of appointments by other members of the commission. The court's opinion concludes as follows:

The legislature no doubt had a very different purpose in naming the act the persons who were to fill there offices in the first instance, instead of providing for their selection in the manner required by the constitution. The method of their appointment, their authority to fill vacancies and to appoint other officers, and other provisions of the act, are all parts of an harmonious whole, so interwoven as to be incapable of separating them from the rest of the act without destroying the palpable purpose and intent of the legislature. We are, therefore, constrained to declare the whole act to be unconstitutional and void."

INFLUENZA IS SPREADING THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY MORE CASES IN NEW YORK

An extension of nearly six months brought the commission apparently no nearer a solution of the question of how and where the proposed international exposition to commemorate the purchase of Florida from Spain should be held. Decision of the commission to hold four fairs instead of one provided for in the act of the legislature, which specified that the fair should be located in one city and continue for a period of twelve months, brought the matter to court, through John S. Beard of Pensacola, which city was a contender under the one-town idea. Mr. Beard a lawyer, held that the commission was illegally created, and the court has sustained his contention.

"Well, it seems that the centennial commission must wind up its affairs at once, since the supreme court has ruled that it is an illegally created body," said Chairman W. G. Brorein, of the commission, formed last night by The Tribune of the court's decree.

"It is a good thing," said Mr. Brorein, "that this question has been settled thus early, because the commission might have gone much further with its big task only to have the question of its legality come up and much more work and money have been expended for nothing." He had not decided last night just what step he would take in the matter of closing up the business of the commission.—Tampa Tribune.

Than In The Last Year Epidemic

THO' OF MILD TYPE

CANADIAN DOCTOR SAYS IT IS NOT 'FLU' BUT OLD GRIPPE

New York, Jan. 9.—Influenza cases reported here today totaled 5,589, or 250 more than developed on the worst day of the epidemic last year. There were 218 deaths, 100 from flu and 118 from pneumonia cases. Deaths today increased ten and six, respectively, over yesterday's figures. There were 1,200 influenza cases and 266 more pneumonia cases reported today.

The present outbreak of influenza is "measurably less violent in mortality than the epidemic two years ago," according to Dr. Royal S. Copeland, health commissioner. Today's figures, he said, "indicate an alarming invasion of the community by the disease so far as it concerns business and industry."

Among prominent theatrical men suffering from the disease John Barrymore, Florenz Ziegfeld and Lou Tellegen. Tellegen was brought here from Miami, Fla.

ARGENTINA HAS STRIKE TROUBLE

HIGH COST OF LIVING STRIKES SOUTH AMERICA CAUSING TROUBLE

Buenos Aires, Jan. 29.—Argentina has been the scene of numerous strikes in the past few months. In general these are attributed to the high cost of living particularly prohibitive rents for poor families. One economist declares that wages here are 66 percent higher than in England while the cost of living is 83 percent greater.

Twelve-thousand employes in various trades including shipyard workers and harbor workers have been on strike in Buenos Aires. There have been predictions of a general strike in this city and the police have made preparations to deal with violence. It is reported that 25 motorcars fitted for machine guns have been ordered from the United States.

Some of the strikes have been attended by violence. Two workmen who failed to join the strike of shipyard workers were murdered. General strikes have taken place in Mendoza and Cordoba in Mendoza a city of 60,000 inhabitants business was paralyzed for a week by a strike which grew out of the discharge of several school teachers alleged to be anarchistic in their teachings. It has been charged that the police transported some of the agitators into an arid and uninhabited section of the province and left them there without food or shelter. This caused a fierce debate in Congress resulting in the appointment of a congressional committee to investigate the Mendoza situation. President Frigoyen was criticized by Socialists and opponents of the administration for refusal to remove officials alleged to have given ground to the strike. A general strike in Cordoba a city of 135,000 was caused by a wage dispute between a tramway company and its employes. There was some shooting and rioting. The garbage collector's went on strike and the refuse littered the streets making the city a fearsome place. The strike ended when the tramway company made concessions.

More than half the stills were in Georgia. Mr. Gantt pointed out this work had been done without aid of the newly authorized prohibition enforcement organization which is yet to be established.

Radical In University of Florida Is Canned Played To Galleries

Prof. Sims Had Bolshe- viki Tendencies

HAS BEEN CANNED

BOLSHEVISM WAS BEING SCATTERED IN OUR STATE UNIVERSITY

The following is from the Gainesville News:

An investigation which has been carried on for the past month or six weeks, both by the United States Department of Justice and the Administration at the University of Florida, came to light this morning with the assurance of a search warrant for searching the home of Newell L. Sims, professor of sociology and political science at the University of Florida. A letter published below, which has been intercepted by the British and sent to the United States, started the investigation. In this letter Professor Sims, a teacher in Florida's own university, speaks of the "hellish American government and its espionage act." He also speaks of receiving twenty years for his utterance in favor of socialism. He favors the Soviets and speaks of Lenin and God in the same sentence.

United States Commissioner A. J. Dacosta issued the search warrant and turned it over to United States Deputy Marshal, in company with Mr. Richardson, in company with Leon E. Howe, a representative of the Department of Justice, proceeded to search Mr. Sims' home on East Church street. Much radical literature was found, but it was of a sort that might be called a scientific nature. The interview with Mr. Sims is said to have revealed the following facts:

He don't believe in the espionage act and he believes that today Germany is really the economic victor of the war. He was approached upon the subject of buying Liberty Bonds of the third issue. He refused to do so and is alleged to have stated that he hoped the issue would fall. He ordered "The Liberal" the most radical newspaper in the United States, for the University Library. He is alleged to believe that all newspapers, mails and everything else should be thrown open and let anyone speak their own mind.

Professor Sims was born in Indiana of English and Scotch descent. He has been a resident of Gainesville and a teacher in the University for about five years. He came here from Columbus, Ohio, where he was pastor of the Grand View Heights Congregationalist church. He is a graduate of Kentucky University and has studied at Harvard and at the Union Theological Seminary in New York. The professor met Hensen while a student at Kentucky University. He is the author of three books, two published and one unpublished. The unpublished book is the one he speaks of in his letter as being so radical he will sign it with a pseudonym. He resides on East Church street.

Professor Sims is alleged to have stated that he did not mean any harm by the letter and that he only wrote it to get into an argument with his friend, which he often did. He is alleged to believe that the faculty at the University has in it for him and that this is behind the whole story. The professor leaves the impression that he is extremely radical in both political and religious beliefs and bears the impression that he sits on a pedestal and others should look upon him. There is no doubt but that he is a very learned man but that he is a very biased man and is carrying out the wrong direction.

Special agent Howe has worked hard and diligently on this matter and has used the most profound secrecy in his working, in order that if Sims has committed a crime against the government he would be sure to be landed.

President Murphee of the University learned of the matter the latter part of December and since then has used every method possible both to aid the Department of Justice and to find out just what Sims believed. The doctor has used every precaution to prevent any Bolshevism teaching in the schools and the whole matter is a most regrettable incident to the school authorities. Doctor Murphee stated that when he learned of a copy of "The Liberator" being found in the library, Sims ordered all the papers for the library. An order was then issued that the faculty must approve all papers ordered and "The Liberator" immediately discontinued.

Doctor Murphee got all evidence possible together and submitted it and Sims to the Board of Control at its meeting here on January 12th. Part of the meeting was kept a secret for fear it might hurt the school. However, it was learned today that Sims was asked to resign, his resignation taking effect on February 1. Doctor Murphee states that Sims will teach no more classes and it is a most regrettable incident that he was ever connected with the school in any form. Doctor Murphee was much astonished when told that it was understood that Sims thought he had it in for him. The doctor said nothing could be further from the truth.

Mr. Howe stated that no arrest had been made and that it was very improbable that one would be made, as from all appearances Sims had just kept within the law. It is understood that Sims is now packing his effects with the intention of immediately leaving the city for new fields.

We understand Mrs. Ericson and Mrs. Andrew Bertleson were in town to have a little dental work done.

We were all pleased to welcome our old friend of the Sunday School, Miss Leenhour and her guests, Mrs. Hetson and her charming daughter of Columbia, Ohio, who are spending the winter with her at Twin Lakes at the services Sunday.

are extra burdens just now and cost of everything. Let us share some of our own blessings with them.

Mr. Dan and the son of Lake Mary visited the school, kindly bringing over Rev. R. W. Edwards who gave us another excellent discourse. We like to hear of the home life of our ministers and he tells us that he is on the road the most of the time, preaching a number of times each week, sometimes not able to be at his home in Jacksonville for two weeks at a time. His daughter Miss Margaret who was recently the dietitian at the Woman's College at Tallahassee is now earning her B. SANFORD IS OVERFLOWED WITH THROGS OF PEOPLE WHO WANT WINTER HOMES

Hotels Have Difficulty In Accomodations

NEW HOTELS TO OPEN

VALDEZ AND MONTEZUMA WILL RELIEVE THE SITUATION SOME

Neer in the history of Sanford were there so many people here looking for hotel accomodations for rooms for apartments and for houses as there are at the present time. There were several night this week when people actually slept at one of the hotels in chairs in the lobby and there are reports of people going to many of the private homes in the evenings and begging them to rent a room for the night.

This sounds well from the standpoint of many people being in the state for the winter but it does not sound well from the accomodation standpoint and the Herald is glad to announce that the Valdez Hotel will be ready for the visitors about the first week in February and the MonteZuma will be ready a week or more later.

These two new hotels will be able to accomodate many of the people and will relieve the situation some but they will be filled almost before they get ready to open and it behooves every family in Sanford that have a spare room to rent it out and take care of the visitors who are here now and who are coming by every train and every boat. They want to stop in Sanford and would become regular winter visitors if they could get any kind of accomodations here.

Give them a room and they will be able to get something to eat and by looking around a bit can soon get the kind of accomodations they want. Living in Sanford for a few weeks will make them regular Sanford citizens and they will soon be talking about building a home here and next season will see Sanford with a thousand new families all because of the fact that strangers were able to come here and get accomodations.

EAST SANFORD

There will be a new membership drive at Moore's Station Sunday night for 3 months. There will be two leaders, Miss Helen...

as leader of the Blues and Miss Virginia Long as the leaders of the Reds. The side gaining the largest membership will be entertained by the opposite side then will be a big treat of a fish fry or something equally as pleasant and a membership button for all. Come join a side and help the Sunday School grow. Come every body.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry May and child have come from Ocala to Cameron City to live.

Mr. and Mrs. Singletary and children have arrived from Ga., to take possession of their new home in Cameron City.

Mrs. Tina Warren Beatty was in Orlando Saturday at the hospital to see about further treatments from Dr. Christ.

Acres of Diamonds drew a large number of persons from East Sanford Monday night. A wonderful lecture was the verdict of all.

Mrs. May Haaty was hostess at a very pleasant gathering last Friday evening. It being the 18th birthday of her son "Ped" beside the neighbors Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hall and young people and Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Hart and daughter Miss Ruby were among those who enjoyed the evening's hospitalities.

Mrs. C. E. Chorpenev would very much like to know who entered her hen house the other night and carried off her fine big Rhode Island rooster. We seem to have thieves out here who take what ever they see that they can handle after dark.

The T. H. Johnson place on Railroad St., house, barn and 10 acres of land, 5 improved has been sold to the Tropical Produce Farming Co., for $4,500. A. P. Connelly made the sale.

The Tropical Produce Co., are cutting some fine looking celery at their farm corner of Beardall and Geneva aves. A good deal of celery is under bleaching boards or paper and next week will see a good deal being cut. Quite a large acreage of Irish potatoes are being planted. A good deal of lettuce is being shipped every day. Considerable cabbage and cauliflower are also being sent out. Pepper seed beds are looking fine, squash seed are being planted. This intensive farming job is sure enough a busy one.

Arcadia, Jan. 27.—Sheriff J. L. Dishong on his trip to Punta Gorda Thursday on official business visited the county poor farm and found that Supt. John Hagan is making good. The cane grinding for this year is finished with the exception of a small patch which is to be made into sugar. Supt. Hagan says the yield was 1,100 gallons of syrup. One acre of fine ribbon cane yielded 700 gallons of syrup. The cane was raised on cow-penned land with the addition of 600 pounds of commercial fertilizer applied in the summer. This one acre of cane brought $1,050 at $1.50 per gallon. How is that for Florida farming? The county poor farm has three fourths acre of eggplant which is at its best now. Sixty crates have been shipped and good returns are being made. There is also a small piece of bell pepper which is yielding fine. There are no signs of the recent frosts discernible.

Mrs. D. B. Clark and daughters, the Misses Elsie and Mattie May Clark, left here Thursday by automobile for Sanford, being called there by news of the death of Mrs. Clark's sister-in-law, Mrs. J. M. Morey. Mrs. Morey was operated upon for appendicitis on Wednesday. The case was hopeless, death coming Thursday morning. The death is a particularly sad one, as Mrs. Morey leaves four little girls. Mrs. Clark and daughters made the trip to Sanford in five hours on Thursday, experiencing no trouble whatever with the car or with the roads. Returning, they left Sanford Sunday at 12 o'clock noon, expecting to reach home before dark, but they had tire trouble and a succession of accidents, so did not get in St. Augustine until 5 o'clock Monday morning.—Sr. Augustine Record.

SANFORD'S RAPID GROWTH WONDER OF THE VISITORS WHO ARE COMING HERE

New Hotels Are Great Advertisement

LOCAL PEOPLE BUSY

BUYING UP PROPERTY AND IMPROVING IT FOR THE BIG RUSH

Sanford is the most talked of city in the state at the present time chiefly on account of the wonderful strides in progress that have been made during the past year. Probably the two greatest factors in this progress were the excellent prices made by the growers last season and the building of the new Valdez Hotel. The prices for the crops made it possible for the local people to start the new hotel and made it possible for them to purchase business property here and improve it in a manner that has caused most favorable comment from all the visitors.

The growth of Sanford is nothing short of phenomenal in the past six months and the fact that this city now has the finest hotel and the finest hospital in the land is the cause for congratulation to the people of Sanford who have made these

The celery crop is beginning to be as good of not better than last season. With the weather conditions favorable the growers here should make excellent profits again and this local money will all be spent here in investments.

The local merchants have done the finest business this season in their history and there is not a vacant store room to be obtained. There are no houses to be rented and if one appears it is gobbled up in a few hours and unless some public spirited citizen starts the building of many new houses this spring the city will be compelled to give the visitors tents next season for accommodations.

There are many new projects contemplated for the spring and summer months among them being the erection of several new and up to date apartment houses, another hotel, several factories and new business houses.

In truth the people of this city have cause for congratulations and the pace that has been set should be kept up all through the summer months and we should be ready to accommodate at least a thousand more people next season than this one.

NEWS OF THE GREAT STATE OF FLORIDA

Compiled In Tabloid Form For Busy Herald Readers

Serious as the housing problem, as well as the rooming problem in Palatka that Chairman George Gay, of the Putnam county Republican Committee, making arrangements for the State Convention here next Thursday day, is making a request that all citizens of Palatka who have a vacant room that might be used for entertaining one or more of the delegates next Wednesday night communicate with him at once. Mr. Gay says there will be at least a hundred delegates to the convention, the usual delegations being doubled this year, with each delegate having a half vote. Man of these will come to Palatka in their cars and leave Thursday afternoon. —Palatka News.

Mrs. S. W. Gane of Chicago, Ill., who is the guest at the Hotel Alcazar having come South with a party on the T. and S. Tours from Chicago, has tested the joys of aviation despite her seventy-five years. When questioned as to whether or not a great deal of courage was necessary for the flight, Mrs. Gane expressed her delight in the novel experience and declared it took no more courage than just walking across the street. Mrs. Gane made the flight with Pilot T. C. Fry of the Sun Line Air Transit Company, who is operating his flying boat in St. Augustine this winter, and has taken a great many people on flights during the winter. —St. Augustine Record.

S. L. Luffer, Sr., manager of the Osceola Hardware Company of this city and H. B. Moore, representing Hibbard, Spencer and Bartlett, of Chicago, were victims of reckless automobile driving Saturday evening about 6 o'clock, and both are confined to their homes suffering severely from injuries received. Mr. Luffer was hurt in the back and one hip and badly bruised and Saturday and Sunday nights was unable to obtain sleep, suffering intense pain. Mr. Moore had two ribs torn loose from the flesh but neither were broken. The driver of the car, a man about 60 years old, who, it is stated, did not understand handling the machine, is somewhat of a stranger here by the name of Sloan. He was arrested, but upon request of Mr. Luffer, was released by Sheriff Ingram. Eye witnesses to the accident state that Sloan had turned the corner of Emmett street, coming into Broadway at the rate of 15 miles per hour. Mr. Luffer and Mr. Moore were crossing the street for the store of the Osceola Hardware Company and were near the drinking fountain for horses when Sloan became excited, lost his head and ran the machine into both men knocking them down. Instead of applying the brakes he put the machine in low gear and roled the two men ahead of the auto until each became clogged in the front wheels acting as human chocking blocks and stopped the machine. —Kissimmee Gazette.

Marion County has a farmers' or-operative and educational organization in good working order. Lovals have been formed throughout the county with an aggregate membership of 160 members. The buildings of the Kentucky Military Institute at Eau Galle were totally destroyed by fire Monday night. No one was hurt. The future plans of the K. M. I., if any have been formed, have not been made public yet.

Ocala, Jan. 24.—Z. C. Chambliss, banker and stock-raiser and one of the best known men in this section of the state, died about 1 o'clock Thursday morning at his home here, after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Chambliss was vice-president of the Monroe & Chambliss Bank, Ills was one of the organizers of that institution. He was a native of Georgia and came to this state about thirty years ago. He had been prominently identified with the development of this city and section, and was one of the pioneer workers in the raising of better class of stock on the farms of this state.

Okeechobee voted almost unanimously to issue municipal bonds to the extent of $125,000 for water improvement. The bonds were sold when an attorney in Chicago discovered the bonds had not been advertised, and the sale is all off, and the whole thing has to be done over again, says the News of that city. Such things do happen. The News had its front page all dressed up in celebration of the bond sale, when the news was received from Chicago and had to kill the whole page.

The Tampa Rotary Club has committed itself to the task of raising $100,000 to give the Orphan Children's Home Society a new home and to create a fund which will insure the organization from any further necessity for making monthly solicitations of funds. The club expects to raise $25,000 and the City Council will be asked for the same amount and the board of county commissioners will be expected to give $50,000.

Ours, it seems, is fated to be a government of the people, for the people, and by the politicians.

Emma Goldman wants to write for some of the American newspapers. Not for the Sanford Herald, though. We have enough of that stuff in the waste basket now.

Moonshining in these sunny days of parched throats is not confined to the ancient habit of the wild mountaineer. It is apt to be right in your neighbor's aristocratic cellar.

Banquets, we opine, will not be so popular now as in the halcyon days of champagne, bourbon and gin-fizzes. Water, as yet, has not been mellowed to the proper taste.

John D. Rockefeller is staggering around under seven hundred million dollars worth of Standard Oil stock. The poor, unfortunate, overburdened man! No wonder, oil took another jump the other day.

Man is a taking animal, any way you look at him. The hustler takes to work, the laggard takes a snooze, the warrior takes a punch at his enemy and the coward takes to his heels. And, when there's nothing else to take, everybody takes offense.

Sometimes one can see a right good bull fight in an editorial office.

Much work is needed on the lake front if it is to be made presentable not only for this season but for the next season. The Woman's Club will do all they can to help this work but they have insufficient funds for the real work. It is a difficult problem just now with the scarcity of help and a scarcity of money.

Sanford needs a community building on the lake front. It would be fine if the Woman's Club, the Library, the Elks Club and the American Legion and several other organizations could all combine on one building and expend their energies and their money in a lump sum and erect a real club house. The different interests would not conflict at all one roof could shelter them all in comfort and convenience and harmony.

WAR FORTUNES AND TAXATION

How much are you paying in taxes this year? How much greater is it than the sum you paid in 1914? The poor man and the average citizen of modest means would not hesitate to make a frank reply to that query. He probably has a few thousand more than he had before the war, and he will be found paying his taxes accordingly. But what of our new crop of millionaires—those mushrooms in trousers who profited in the blood of humanity—who screwed the last penny from those who were compelled to have war munitions and food or go down in defeat?

How many of these newly rich—the plutocrats of calamity—will honestly pay in proportion to their gains? How many who have wrung millions in war gains from our own government will make a just return on their wealth? How much of this graft will be returned to the government in the form of honest taxation? It would be interesting to see a tabulated statement of the taxes paid for the years 1914 and 1919. If the government should suddenly decide to make this information public the roars of protest would be more ludicrous than the king of clowns at a circus. The comparison, we fear, would put old Annanias to shame.

FOREST FIRES A FLORIDA CURSE

Universally the most eminent agricultural authorities agree that the primary basis of soil fertility rests with humus. There was a day, not many years past, when the soil was considered to be so much dead, inert mineral and vegetable matter. But today, due to the modern researches in agricultural bacteriology, we find that the soil is very much alive, in fact, teeming with millions of micro-organisms, soil bacteria, many of which are absolutely essential to the proper development of higher plants.

Soil humus may be defined as the resultants of the slow process of decay of the breaking down of organic tissues, due to bacterial putrefactive and other agencies. Our average Florida soils, due to their dry and sandy nature, are deficient in humus, largely the result of annual and periodical forest fires. Because of these fires what would otherwise result in humus is completely destroyed. Nature has no possible means, when contesting with fire, to build up the fertility of our Florida lands.

Some authorities claim that our cattlemen are largely responsible for these annual forest fires, occurring every winter and spring, our dry season the object being to turn off the coarse, mature and dead grasses to encourage a rapid, succulent growth for the cattle. Our most progressive cattlemen, however, agree that forest fires are greatly detrimental to their interests, due to the fact that only the grasses persist and can resist the attacks of fire and these coarser and harder grasses, and invariably show the poorest pasturage values, whereas the most promising native Florida grasses from a livestock standpoint have no chance whatever to resist the attacks of fire. Many of these native grasses show great pasturage promise in Florida.

We may illustrate our point by referring to the carpet or blanket grass recently renamed Piper grass, after the noted grass specialist of Washington, Dr. Piper. This grass, due to its habits of growth, cannot resist the attacks of fire, and we are sure that if fire could be kept out of our woods that it would not be many years' time when Piper grass and other native Florida grasses of high pasturage values would largely replace our native coarse grasses, having a high fire-resisting qualities.

It is the utmost importance that our state legislative body pass measures, to lessen the possibilities of forest fires. Not only would a suitable law have to be passed, but provision should be made for the proper execution and enforcement of such law, and above a public opinion should be educated up to the point where setting fire to the forests would be considered a highly criminal act.

Another point that must be borne in mind is the fact that forest fires cause the loss of millions of dollars in valuable timber and naval stores products annually, in our state of Florida alone.

Again, there is no doubt that forest fires destroy more useful Florida birds than the sportsman's gun, in the destruction of nests and young birds.—Florida Grower.

RADICALS PLUS RADICALS

Look at Russia—a nation in the hands of radicals! Would you like to live in Russia? Would you like to see this country transformed into another Russia? Radicalism made Russia what it is today—radicalism on both sides. The czars of Russia have been the greatest radicals of modern times—probably of all times. Their radicalism was all in favor of plundering the poor in favor of the rich and favored class. Now the czar is rotting in an un-honored grave—murdered by another set of radicals—the peasant bolsheviks. The rich and favored are no longer rich or favored. They are being plundered and murdered by the very people whom they robbed a few short months ago. A case of dog eat dog.

But take a look at our own country

View the situation without malice and without passion. Capitalistic greed and radicalism are fomenting a dangerous radicalism among the laboring classes. Radical labor leaders are continually stirring up strife and enmity toward all. Each wants to swallow the other at a gulp, and neither is willing to meet the other half way and adopt a conservative basis of adjustment of difficulties. There are brains and common sense among both the capitalists and the laborers. But in both camps radicalism makes a big noise and conservatism dances to the music. Throw out the radicals on both sides and we Americans will be able to view bolshevistic Russia with pity rather than with apprehension. A radical is a radical, in whichever camp you find him.

LOOKING FOR FEATHERS

The more we hear of this proposition to lend Europe another ship load of money the more objectionable the whole scheme appears. Europe is not in good condition, we admit. But Europe has land, it has the tools and machinery for cultivating that land, and it has the men to use the tools. Of course, with so many men killed in the war, it might become necessary for a few of the gilded dandies to soil their hands with honest toil in order to secure the necessary production of foodstuffs. But that would do them good—it might eventually raise them to the status of real men.

Europe wants to feather its nest, but we fear it does not want to resort to manual labor to bring about this much desired result. It prefers that the United States furnish the feathers. But, somehow, we are forced to the conclusion that we have feathered enough nests on the other side of the Atlantic. Europe knows there is to be another great war, and wants to set its house in order to meet it. Being so busy, it can't spare its good foreign exchange for anything else.

It is easier to pluck them from Uncle Sam, even if Uncle Sam has to turn his pockets inside out in order to accommodate his good friends abroad. But Uncle's hundred million children can't see it from the same angle. They are distressingly perverse and stubborn. Then, too, Europe is pained at the volume of foreign trade American manufacturers have built up since the war began. They desire exceedingly to bolster up their own manufacturing interests, and to divert this flow of yellow metal toward their own empty coffers.

But to do this requires money—much money—and the easiest and simplest way is to pluck it from Uncle Sam. He has loaned our dear friends in Europe billions of dollars already, and he can't even collect the interest on the loans. When he will be able to collect the principal, the Lord only knows. Citizens of the United States are paying enormous income taxes in order to keep the ship of state afloat, and now word comes from Washington that we will have to cut expenses or raise taxes or sell more bonds.

Our great army has flown to the four winds, our navy is almost out of business for lack of men, and our millions of war material has been sold to the French. We are in the position of the juvenile giant who is so heavy and unwieldy he can not even flick the dust from his own shoes. We have money, yes; but if hell breaks loose again we will have dire need for every dollar of it. Feather Europe's nest again? Nothing doing! Self protection is the first law of nature. Keep those thirty-five billion dollars at home. Drop a few feathers in the eagles nest first.

FATE'S FAVORITE

To no man in all the history of the world has capricious Fate been so lavish of opportunity as to William Hohenzollern, the exile of Chateau Middachten. Destiny made him ruler of a people docile, patient, industrious, which followed him loyally in peace and in war. Fate decreed that he should have the choice of flight or defiance in a moment of danger. Had he chosen defiance his life might have been the price; he would have won relief from the existence he leads. But it is more likely that he would have survived, the ruler of his people, the idol of the cult which sees divinity in kings. He chose flight but with him went good fortune. To him this day Fate again presents golden opportunity. His enemies seek him. They approach his unwilling keepers demanding his person. They have arraigned him. They plan to prosecute him. They hope to punish him. Among them are some who contemplate his execution. He has but to say: "Fix the day, the place of my trial; I shall be there!" It might cost his life! What can mere life mean to an ex-emperor.—New York Sun.

ROCK-OIL ROADS 60 CENTS SQUARE YARD

St. Augustine has hurled a challenge to the various cities of the state, naming Leesburg specifically among others, to match her new rock-oil streets which have been put down under the city manager's personal direction at a cost of 60 cents a square yard. There isn't much data in the article which hurls the challenge and we do not know what guarantee has been given as to the life of the streets or the annual upkeep, but we do feel that the matter is worthy of investigation just now when we are contemplating some further improvements of our side streets.—Leesburg Commercial.

WHAT PROHIBITION PROHIBITS

Under constitutional prohibition it is unlawful: To buy or sell a drink anywhere except for sacramental or medical purposes. To give or take a drink anywhere except in the home of the man who owns it. To keep any liquor in storage anywhere but in your own home. To try to get such reserves out of storage. To carry a pocket flask.

To have more than two drinking residences—one in the country and one in the city. To restock your home supply when it runs out. To manufacture anything above one-half of one per cent. in your home. To move your home supply from one house to another without obtaining a permit. To get this you must prove that you came by the supply before July 1, 1909.

To display any liquor signs or advertisements on your premises. To buy, sell or use a home still or any other device for making liquor in the home.

To buy or sell any formulas or recipes for home-made liquor. To make a present of a bottle of liquor to a friend. To receive such a present from a friend.

Is Some Planet Trying To Signal Us By Wireless?

London, Tuesday, Jan. 27.—Interruptions of the Marconi wireless instruments by mysterious undecipherable signals, which were noted before the war and have been publicly referred to since, are especially featured in the Daily Mail this morning and discussed by Guglielmo Marconi in an interview published by the paper.

"We occasionally get very queer sounds and indications, which might come from somewhere outside the earth," said Signor Marconi. "We have them both in England and America. The Morse signal letters occur with much greater frequency than others, but we have never yet picked up anything that could be translated into a definite message.

The fact that the signals have occurred simultaneously at New York and London with identical intensity seems to indicate that they must have originated at a very great distance. We have not yet the slightest proof of their origin. They might conceivably be due to some natural disturbance at a great distance; for instance, an eruption of the sun causing electrical disturbances.

Asked whether possibly attempts were being made by another planet to communicate, Signor Marconi said: "I would not rule out the possibility of this, but there is no proof. We must investigate the matter much more thoroughly before we venture upon a definite explanation." He added that the mysterious sounds are not confined to any particular diurnal period; they are equally frequent by day and night.

American Churches Growing

New York, Jan. 27.—America's churches have gained nearly 3,000,000 members since the last church census was taken in 1916, but there has been a marked decrease in the number of Sunday Schools and Sunday school pupils, according to the "Year Book of the Churches" which will be issued tomorrow by the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

The total church membership has increased 2,779,667, the announcement says, with an increase of 3,519 ministers and 5,350 church organizations. The total number of churches is now 233,834. There are 195,513 ministers, priests and rabbis, with 44,769,521 members of their various organizations. The decrease in Sunday school membership is estimated at more than 3,500,000.

The total Protestant church membership is given at 25,980,456, and the Roman Catholic figures at 17,549,324. It is explained that the Protestant figures include only adult communicant members of a family, while the Roman Catholic statistics represents the entire family. Estimating four persons to a family, the Protestant constituency would be more than fifty million, the book says.

An estimate of members of Jewish synagogues is 260,000 and the two Mormon bodies report a membership of 494,388. The largest Protestant body represented was the Methodist Episcopal church with 4,175,602 members, and the smallest the Primitive Friends, with fifty members and two ministers. The National Baptist Convention (colored) is the second largest Protestant organization, with 2,938,579.

ONLY PERISHABLE GOODS BE SHIPPED OVER A. C. L.

All "Dead" Freight Handling Ordered—Stopped Until Further Notice—Much Inconvenience Caused

An embargo was placed yesterday afternoon on all dead freight handled by the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, according to a telegram received by W. R. Fuller last night from the railroad's superintendent at Jacksonville, the telegram reading as follows: "Embargo placed this afternoon on A. C. L. dead freight from all points to all points, including third division. Will stop loading to and from all points. Will keep you informed of situation. Embargo will probably last several days. (Signed) O. H. Page."

Mr. Fuller stated that the embargo will practically put all plants handling road building material out of business for a time, although some plants may have enough material on hand to enable them to continue for a short time. Five plants controlled by the Fuller company will shut down at once, and the embargo will greatly retard all the road building operations in this section of the country.

The present congestion of freight traffic on all lines is given as the cause of the order, although the Seaboard is not at present included, and will continue to handle these classes of freight as heretofore until further notice. The only freight shipments to be handled by the A. C. L. lines will be perishable goods, fruits and vegetables, crates and fertilizer.—Tampa Tribune, 26th.

Farmers Should Invoice

Books are kept and inventory taken on the farm in any well regulated household. This is done on the farm, which is an important business as any, the farmer should know what his profits are. It may be he has been working at a loss—the books will show it.

January is the month usually selected as the one in which to make the inventory. While it will show the profit or loss from the year's work, it will not show just where the profit or loss had come from. A system of simple accounts will have to be kept to show such sources, and the University of Florida college of agriculture insists that farmers open a system this month.

Plan the system carefully and follow it thru the year. It will furnish the information necessary to stop the leaks, eliminate the unprofitable animals and crops. The college will help in the planning.

"EVERMORE"

Will P. Kennedy in the Washington Star
Lately, in a midnight dreary, As I pondered of dear Billy Bryan, And of all his silver lore, Suddenly there came a rapping As of some one tapping, Tapping on my chamber door; And it slowly opened, creaking, And a silver voice came speaking "Billy's with you evermore!"

"Oh," in anguish, cried I, weeping; "I had thought you dead and sleeping Buried in a silver casket On some far and Stygian shore!" "No," said Billy, "only waiting; Now I'll join in your debating, I am with you evermore."

"Oh, Bill," cried I, have some pity! Thrice we've danced unto your ditty, Danced on plain, in town and city, And went basted, sad and sore; And wilt thou forever vex us? Wilt thou William still perplex us?" And quote William "Evermore!"

"Out," I cried, oh, ghost, upstarting Anger through my soul now daring— Anger deep and sad and sore, "Will you evermore outtalk us? Will you evermore still stalk us? Bust us up as heretofore?" And quote William "Evermore!"

Hard Luck, Indeed.

Robert was decided in his refusal to go with his family to a dinner at his uncle's house. When pressed for a reason he said: "Well, it's mighty tough on a guy to have nothing to play with but girls and them all relations, at that."
