$106 Million For County In Graham Budget Plan

By Britt Smith
Herald Staff Writer

Seminole County would get a $106.5 million slice of Gov. Bob's Graham's $12.9 billion budget pie if the record spending plan for 1984-85 is approved. The county's share represents .8 percent of the total state budget.

The lion's share of the local allocation — $97.1 million — would be for routine funding of the public school system. But there are several million dollars planned for road and school construction, plus improvements to the Sanford Airport and the Sanford Farmer's Market.

Among the four-counties making up the Central Florida area, Seminole's $106.5 million was second only to Orange County's $262.3 million. Volusia County was next with $98.1 million, followed by Lake County's $55.7 million.

Next to the school funding, the largest chunk of the proposed state money for Seminole — $3.6 million — is slated for new school construction.

But most of the money will go toward paying off the $14 million cost of building Lake Mary High School three years ago. According to Bennie Arnold, assistant superintendent for facilities and transportation, 80 percent of the $3.6 million, or roughly $2.9 million, would, if the governor's budget is approved, be used for the LMHS payment. The debt should be paid by 1987, Arnold said.

That leaves about $733,500 for new school construction, money which would probably be used to help pay for Middle School X, a new $7.5 million middle school scheduled to be built next year in the Lake Mary area and ready for classes by the fall of 1985 or a permanent classroom addition to the badly overcrowded Oviedo High School, Arnold said.

Naturally, both new and old schools require maintenance and routine repairs and Graham's proposal offers $560,245 for that. Maintenance and repair at Seminole Community College is budgeted at $51,534.

Rivaling school construction in the size of its proposed funding is a total of $3.5 million for three major road improvement projects, the largest of which is the four-laning of a nearly two-mile stretch of State Road 431 from the Orange County line to State Road 436.

State Department of Transportation (DOT) Deputy District Engineer Charlie Sylvester said the $1.9 million job would begin around July, 1985 and take "18 months to two years" to complete.

As part of that project, a bridge on SR 431 over the Little Wekiva River, about one mile south of SR 436 near Forest City, would have to be replaced to accommodate the extra lanes of traffic. Graham's budget sets a $600,000 pricetag on the work.

The DOT also plans to widen both lanes and reconstruct the shoulders on SR 419 from U.S. Highway 17-92 to State Road 434.

The 2½-mile project, budgeted at $1 million, would take "maybe 18 months" to complete after work gets underway in December of this year, Sylvester said.

A combination of state, federal and local funds totaling $1.1 million is earmarked for improvements at the Sanford Airport, including new taxiways, repair of old ones, and new taxiway lighting and resurfacing of the north-south runway.

The runway resurfacing has already begun and should be completed "within 60 days," according to the airport aviation director, J.S. "Red" Cleveland.

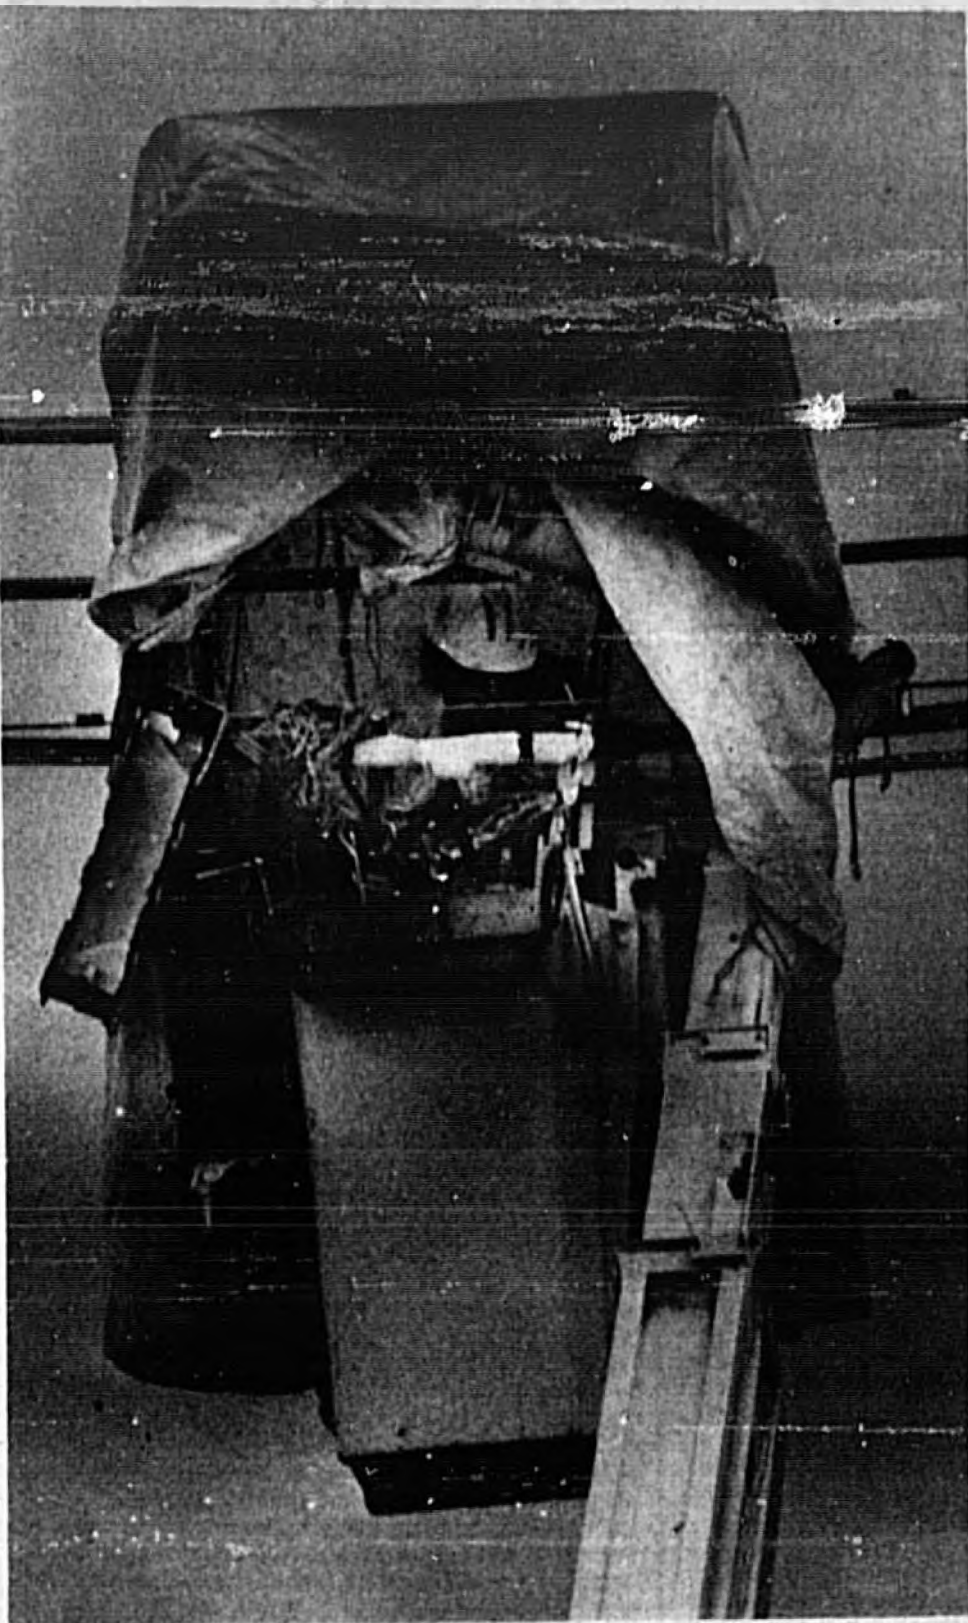

The farmer's market is slated to receive a total of $461,000 in Graham's proposed budget, $286,000 for a new roof and $175,000 for a new 2,400-square foot fruit/produce cooler.

Market manager Wendell Moore said the roof is 27 years old and it leaks badly. "It's unrepairable," Moore said.

He said work on the roof could begin "as quickly as the money is available," but he predicted the work would not be completed "probably until this time next year."

As for the cooler, "there's more business around here, at least there was until the Christmas freeze, so we need the extra space," Moore said. "The damage from the freeze won't last forever, so business will pick up again."

Moore said most of the coolers at the 50-year-old market are "old and small. We wouldn't have produced sitting out here rotting if we didn't get it (the cooler), but we sure could use it."

Dry Splice

The storm front passing through the county Wednesday dumped 2.8 inches of rain on Sanford in the 24-hour period ending at midnight, but Jerry Robertson, Southern Bell 20-year veteran, managed to stay dry while splicing cable in front of the Kmart shopping center, French Avenue, Sanford, by going undercover.

5 Netted In Drug Bust

By Susan Loden
Herald Staff Writer

A DeBary couple and three Georgia men were netted Wednesday in a Seminole County undercover drug bust which culminated in an unprecedented investigation begun in early January.

The investigation was unique because, according to sheriff's spokesman John Spolski, it was the first time five area undercover drug task force officers have ever entered and been accepted in a single drug deal.

The three Georgia men were taken in to custody Wednesday morning. With them the lawmen retrieved 500 pounds of marijuana, which they had allegedly sold to the suspects, and $55,800 cash. Five passenger vehicles were also seized in the bust.

Lawmen became aware of the group's involvement with drugs, Spolski said, after they allegedly approached two Seminole County undercover agents in January and asked them to "do physical harm to someone they selected as a victim." In negotiating with the suspects about the assault deal the agents, Spolski said, learned that the group had a primary interest in dealing drugs.

The agents, four men and a woman representing various area law enforcement agencies, gained the confidence of the group by offering to supply them with a large quantity of marijuana which was expected to be transported to Georgia by the interstate dealers, Spolski said.

Wednesday at about 11:30 a.m. three undercover agents met with Richard T. Patton, 28, of Riverdale, Ga., near the Interstate 4 and State Road 46 interchange, Sanford. Patton allegedly accepted 500 pounds of pot from the lawmen and paid for the drug. Patton had, according to Spolski, selected the location of the transaction in an area where he could make a quick get-away to Georgia.

After the deal was made Patton was taken into custody. But his father, Tom H. Patton, 54, also of Riverdale, Ga., and James D. Veal, 61, of Decatur, Ga., who had witnessed the transaction and arrest, attempted to flee.

Their vehicle was stopped at the end of a dead-end road in the Interstate 4 Industrial Park, Sanford, when it approached a sheriff's department van, which held five members of the Seminole County SWAT (Special Weapons and Tactics) team, who had been called out to catch the pair. No one was injured in the arrests, Spolski said.

The Georgia men were booked into the Seminole County jail around noon Wednesday and the two other suspects were taken into custody at about 6 p.m. Wednesday.

SWAT team members converged on the Holiday Inn on State Road 46, Sanford, and arrested Robert P. Adcock, 35 of 63 Estrella Drive, DeBary. Within minutes, agents arrested Janie W. Kaseab, 32, of 154 Angels Road, DeBary, as she allegedly waited for Adcock in the parking lot of a Longwood shopping center at on State Road 434 at Interstate 4.

The Georgia men were charged with trafficking in marijuana, possession with intent to sell marijuana and possession of a controlled substance. The DeBary couple face charges of conspiracy to traffic in marijuana, conspiracy to possess a controlled substance and conspiracy to possess with intent to sell. All five were being held without bond in the Seminole County jail, scheduled to make a first appearance in court at 1:30 p.m. today.

Previously, he said they were bringing peace to Lebanon.

Since the Marines arrived, 265 servicemen have died, 241 in a bombing attack Oct. 23.

"I don't think, first of all, that you can say we have lost as yet," he said, beginning his long answer. "I know that things don't look bright, as bright as they have at some times in this last year-and-a-half since they've been there."

Referring to the Marines as "a stabilizing force," Reagan said their presence achieved a withdrawal from Lebanon of Palestinian guerrillas, a phased pullback of Israeli troops, peace talks in Geneva and the now-forsaken agreement for a withdrawal of all foreign troops.

Reagan: No Regrets In Sending Marines To Lebanon

By Ira R. Allen

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Reagan says he has no regrets over sending in the Marines to Lebanon, but their departure under threat of more terrorism does not mean "we're bugging out."

At a nationally broadcast news conference Wednesday night — the first of the campaign year — that was dominated by questions about Reagan's decision to return the remaining 1,000 or more Marines to their ships, the president lectured reporters on the recent history of the factionalized Mediterranean nation.

In a six-minute answer to the first question, the president gave a new rationale for the dispatch of Marines in September 1982: "We wanted to prevent a war between Syria and Israel."

$3,000 Teachers' Bonus

Without A Master's Degree You Need Not Apply

By Donna Estes
Herald Staff Writer

While some teachers around the state are concerned that they may be ineligible for the planned merit pay raise approved by Gov. Bob Graham and the Cabinet this week, Seminole County's Teacher of the Year for 1983 — Linda Henderson — has a better shot at it.

At least Ms. Henderson, 38, a first grade teacher at Woodlands Elementary in Longwood, has a master's degree, a prime requirement for the $3,000 annual bonus pay.

"I think the point about having a master's degree is good, but there are a lot of excellent teachers in the Seminole County system who do not have master's degrees and still are qualified teachers," Ms. Henderson said today.

She said she doesn't know as yet what the other requirements are for the merit pay.

"All I know about it is what I have read in the newspaper," she said.

Neither Orange County's nor Brevard County's teachers of the year have

...there are a lot of excellent teachers in the Seminole County school system who do not have master's degrees...

Henderson

master's degrees and thus both are ineligible for the bonus.

Ms. Henderson's masters from the University of Central Florida is in early childhood and elementary education. She plans to go back to school to get a specialist degree and ultimately a doctorate.

Other requirements for the merit pay announced so far are at least four years experience, good scores on performance evaluations and on the National Teachers Examination and no more than 18 absences during the past two years.

Ms. Henderson has 13 year's teaching experience, 8½ of those years at Woodlands Elementary. Of the county's 2,277 public school teachers, some 833 have master's degrees, said Ann Nelawender, director of personnel services.

And the fact a teacher has a master's degree does effect how much money they are paid, Mrs. Nelawender said, although she could not say how much more on the average those teachers are paid over ones with just bachelor's degrees.

Seminole County's Teacher of the Year for 1984 is yet to be selected. Friday is the deadline for the county's 42 schools to send in their nominations to the county school office in Sanford.

After the nominations are narrowed to six, a special committee goes into the classrooms of those teachers to observe their teaching methods and recommends three teachers. From those three recommended, School Superintendent Robert Hughes and members of his staff select the winning teacher.

The name of the winning teacher locally is submitted to the state for consideration as the state's teacher of the year.

Lost Custody After Marrying Black

White Mother Wants Child Back

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The "pressure of prejudice" should not keep the Supreme Court from overturning a Florida judge's ruling that stripped a white woman of custody of her daughter because she married a black man, a lawyer told the court.

Attorney Robert Shapiro Wednesday argued that Linda Sidoti Palmore, who lost custody of Melanie Lynn, 6, was "punished for deciding to marry outside her race. The interracial marriage triggered forfeiture of the child with no facts to support it."

"A court can't bow to the public pressure of prejudice," Shapiro argued.

A Florida judge removed the child from her mother's care because he concluded "social stigmatization" was sure to result from the mother's marriage to a black.

The lawyer for the girl's father, Anthony Sidoti, said race was a secondary reason for changing the custody arrangement. John Hawtrely said Mrs. Palmore could not cope with how the marriage affected the child.

Several justices peppered Hawtrely with questions trying to pin down what factors other than race the judge used in making the custody decision.

Justice William Brennan read from divorce court Judge Morison Buck's opinion, which said, "It is inevitable that [this child] will, if allowed to remain in her present situation and attain school age and thus more vulnerable to peer pressures, suffer from the social stigmatization that is sure to come."

After court, Hawtrely told reporters it was a flawed "mother-child relationship," not the interracial marriage, that was the judge's primary concern.

The girl lived with her mother until her father filed to take back custody on grounds his former wife had "created a bad environment" for Melanie by her sexual activity before she married Clarence Palmore of Seffner, Fla.

Sidoti, who installs air conditioning and insulation in Mulberry, Fla., claimed the child was neglected and said she had lice and mildewed clothes.

A decision by the high court is expected before July.

NATION IN BRIEF

Death Penalty Bill Faces House Opposition

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Death penalty supporters won their biggest victory in 10 years on Capitol Hill with the Senate's passage of a bill to reinstate capital punishment for federal crimes. The victory may be only symbolic because of staunch opposition stifling the chances for passage of any death penalty bill in the House. On a 63-32 vote, senators Wednesday passed and sent the House a bill backed by the Reagan administration providing execution as punishment for treason, espionage, murder and attempted assassination of the president. It was the first time in a decade either house of Congress had voted to legalize capital punishment for federal crimes after the Supreme Court's 1972 ruling nullifying death penalty laws then on the books.

Johnny Carson Settlement

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Comedian Johnny Carson and his estranged wife have reached an out-of-court divorce settlement that gives her far less than the $2.64 million a year she originally claimed was necessary to maintain her lifestyle, attorneys say. The settlement reached Wednesday, which also specifies division of the couple's property, did not give details on the exact amount of the monthly payments or how long they would be made. Court documents showed that Mrs. Carson, the comedian's third wife, originally sought $2.64 million a year, saying she needed $220,000 a month in spousal support to continue the lifestyle she enjoyed while married to Carson.

Industrial Economy Up

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Orders for heavy duty factory products jumped 1.1 percent in January on top of an even larger 1.7 percent increase in December, a boost to the U.S. industrial economy in the months ahead, the government said today. The December figure was revised upward sharply for the second time by the Commerce Department. It had originally been reported down 1.1 percent. Then later data on Feb. 1 pushed it up to 0.2 percent.

Orders totaled $99.2 billion in January, up $1.1 billion from December after seasonal adjustment, the department said. "This is an important signal that industrial production in future months will remain strong," White House spokesman Larry Speakes said, "and today's durable goods orders shows the recovery has depth by reaching the basic items such as steel, auto and appliances."

Bubble-Boy David Dies

HOUSTON (UPI) — David, the 12-year-old "bubble" boy who spent all but the last 15 days of his life in sterile isolation because he was born without an immunity system, died of complications of a bone marrow transplant doctors had hoped would give him a normal life. As doctors had feared all along, his first illness killed him. The longest living victim of Severe Combined Immune Deficiency Syndrome died at 8 p.m. CST Wednesday. He was forced from his germ-free environment 15 days ago when an attempt to cure him turned into the first illness he ever had. Doctors decided they could beat treat him outside the germ-free atmosphere he had lived in all his life.

FLORIDA IN BRIEF

Mondale, Gov. Graham Advisers: Quit, Askew

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Former Vice President Walter Mondale's Florida campaign chief and adviser and Gov. Bob Graham's top political adviser said today ex-Gov. Reubin Askew should start thinking about quitting the presidential race. Bill Fleming, Mondale's state campaign coordinator, and Garry Smith, Graham's campaign manager and former chief of staff, said Askew could improve his chances of a major job in a Mondale administration — maybe the vice presidency — by dropping out if he does not revive his campaign in New Hampshire. Smith predicted Mondale, the big winner in the Iowa caucuses and expected leader in the New Hampshire primary next Tuesday, will beat Askew in his home state March 13. Georgia and Alabama also have primaries that day.

Alvarez Violated Rules

MIAMI (UPI) — A training officer says policeman Luis Alvarez was taught not to hand-cock his revolver when confronting a suspected felon and not to release his hand after grasping a concealed gun on a suspect. The state contends that Alvarez violated both teachings when he fatally wounded Nevell Johnson Jr., a 20-year-old black man, in a ghetto video game room. The Cuban-born Alvarez, 24, is on trial for manslaughter in the Dec. 28, 1982 shooting that set off a riot.

Man Re-Arrested In Fatal Fire Case

Just a month after having second degree murder and arson charges dropped against him in the burning death of his brother in Casselberry, the man was re-arrested and charged with conspiracy to commit arson. William Earl Fogle, 52, of Houston, Texas, was arrested Wednesday in room 200 of the Seminole County Courthouse on charges he conspired with his brother, Robert Joseph Fogle, in December 1981, and June, 1982, to burn down a house owned by Robert J. Fogle and his wife Joyce, at 830 Spring St., Oviedo. Robert J. Fogle died in a June fire at the house — he reportedly used gasoline rather than kerosene for fuel which exploded — and after a lengthy investigation William Fogle and his sister-in-law Joyce Fogle were arrested and charged with arson, second degree murder and burning to defraud an insurer. The charges were dropped against the pair in January because of insufficient evidence. William Fogle was scheduled to be in court Wednesday on charges of extortion when he was arrested. He has entered a not guilty plea to the conspiracy charge and has an April 23 court date. Fogle was released from Seminole County jail on $1,500 bond.

'Shoot To Kill' Order For Escapees

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) — Hundreds of lawmen with license to "shoot to kill" hunted through snow and rain in the East Tennessee mountains today for two escaped convicts who killed a Sunday school teacher, abducted his wife and fled vowing never to be captured alive. State troopers set up roadblocks and a police stake out neighborhoods where the fugitives once lived, but there was no sign of Robert Freeman and James Clegg. Authorities said they may have left the state. "We've got nothing to go on," Sullivan County detective Curtis Tackett said in Bristol. "There's so many doggone backroads. ## The Barn Sued For Song Royalties

By Deane Jordan
Herald Staff Writer
The company owning a Sanford entertainment business has been sued for copyright infringements. Sportsman's Den Inc., doing business as The Barn, 1200 S. French Ave., has been sued in federal court by Broadcast Music Inc., a licensing company headquartered in New York City. BMI has asked for minimum damages of $4,250 or $250 for each of 17 songs the company says Sportsman's Den did not pay royalties on when performed by bands at The Barn. Jim Whipple, regional representative for BMI, said it is the responsibility of the business owner, not the bands, to pay royalties due on music performed. He said the procedure his company uses to determine if a business is allowing BMI songs to be performed without paying copyright fees, is to send a person with a tape recorder into an establishment and record the music played. The songs recorded are then checked against the company's holdings. That was the procedure used at The Barn, Whipple said. Dale Gustafson, owner of Sportsman's Den, said while the Den is named in the suit, The Barn is not. He said if Sportsman's Den owes BMI royalty money it is for songs played at a defunct nightclub in Casselberry owned by the same company called The Entertainer. Gustafson said he would probably pay BMI for the music played at The Entertainer adding that he thought The Barn paid royalties through another licensing agency, the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers, ASCAP. Whipple, however, insisted the copyright infringements occurred at The Barn and said he has never heard of an establishment called The Entertainer. BMI alleges the following songs they own have been performed at The Barn without royalties being paid: "Angel Flying too Close to the Ground," written by Willie Nelson, "Night Life," by Willie Nelson, Paul Buskirk and Walt Breeland, "Outlaw Women," and "Dixie on My Mind," by Hank Williams Jr., "Rocky Top," by Boudleaux Bryant and Felice Bryant, "Rose Colored Glasses," by John W. Conlee and George F. Baber, "Silver Wings," by Merle Haggard, "Don't The Girls All Get Prettier at Closing Time," by Baker Knight, "We Can't Go On Living Like This," by Eddie Rabbit and Even Stevens, "The Long Black Veil," by Marjohm Wilkin and Danny Dill, "Fire On The Mountain," by George McCorkle, "Gimme Three Steps," by Allen Collins and Ronnie Van Zant, "Green River," by John C. Fogerty, "La Grange," by Billy Gibbons, Dusty Hill, and Frank Beard, "Louisiana Saturday Night," by Bob McDill, "Mountain Music," by Randy Owen, and "If You Don't Like Hank Williams," by Kris Kristofferson. BMI filed the action Feb. 17 in Orlando and has asked to be awarded attorney fees in addition to damages. According to information supplied by BMI, it is the largest music licensing organization in the world representing more than 70,000 writers and publishers. More than half the music played on American radio stations is licensed by BMI, according to the company.

Preschoolers Killed In Fires

(UPI) — A 2-year-old playfully igniting magazine pages on a kitchen stove and then tossing them on a stack of magazines in the living room touched off a blaze that killed himself and four other toddlers in Dallas — one of four fires in four states that left 11 preschoolers dead. The apartment blaze Wednesday in Dallas also seriously injured the wheelchair-bound grandfather of three of the victims. Four of the Dallas children were dead on arrival at hospitals and the fifth died a short time later. Fire Capt. Earl Rowe said one child tore pages from a magazine, ignited them on a gas stove in the kitchen then brought the burning paper into the living room and dropped it on a stack of magazines. He did not identify the child. Vanessa Hartfield, mother of three of the children, was asleep in a bedroom when the fire started, Rowe said. She was forced to flee through a back window. The children who died were identified as Victor Hartfield, 3, Cheryl Hartfield, 1, and Robert Hartfield, 4. Two other victims, Johnny Walker, 2, and Ruby Husband, 2, were members of another family. In Pittsburgh, fire officials said Kelsey Shaver, 2, died Wednesday of smoke inhalation and burns in a fire at her home. Her mother and two brothers escaped.

High Court: Murder Confession Can Be Used

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court revived a Minnesota rape-murder case Wednesday, ruling 6-3 that a suspect's confession to his parole officer can be used in court.

The justices reversed a Minnesota Supreme Court ruling that prosecutors could not use Marshall D. Murphy's confession to his parole officer that described the 1974 rape and murder of a 17-year-old Minneapolis woman.

The ruling allows Minnesota prosecutors to proceed with the case against Murphy, who was on parole from a conviction for false imprisonment when he confessed.

The case turned on how the high court defined the Fifth Amendment, which allows a suspect to refuse to answer questions from law enforcement officials if the answers may incriminate him.

The court ruled that if a suspect fails to claim his Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination, even when not in police custody, he is not protected against use of incriminating statements.

Writing for the court, Justice Byron White said that because Murphy "had not been compelled to incriminate himself, he could not successfully invoke the privilege to prevent the information he volunteered to the parole officer from being used against him in a criminal prosecution."

The high court ruling rejected the state supreme court's reasoning that the parole officer should have warned Murphy of her intent to contact the police and of his privilege against self-incrimination.

White noted Murphy was not held in police or custodial interrogation that would have automatically triggered his rights against self-incrimination.

"Murphy's regular meetings with his probation officer should have served to familiarize him with her office and to insulate him from the psychological intimidation that might overbear his desire to claim the privilege," he wrote.

White said the fact Murphy "apparently expressed no surprise on being informed that his statements would be made available to the police, moreover, strongly suggested that he was not misled by any expectation that his statements would remain confidential."

Justice Thurgood Marshall led John Paul Stevens and William Brennan in dissent; Marshall said he would throw out Murphy's confession because law enforcement officials had threatened him with a penalty for refusing to respond to questions.

Local GOP To Elect Four Delegates To Convention

Four delegates and three alternates to the August 20 GOP national convention in Dallas will be elected at a 5th congressional district caucus in Longwood at 10 a.m., March 24.

Persons participating in the caucus at the Quality Inn, 2025 W. State Road 434 near Interstate 4 will be: Seminole County state committeeman Fred Streetman and committeewoman Maryanne Morse, both of Longwood and county executive committee chairman Bill Kinane, Fern Park; Lake County committeeman Vince Fechtel and committeewoman Dorie Hostetter and party chairman from that county, Bob Lovell; and Orange County committeeman, Michael Welborn, and committeewoman Jeanne Austin and party chairman Russ Crawford.

While other congressional districts in Florida are being allocated three delegates and three alternates, the 5th district has been given an additional delegate because it has a Republican congressman, Bill McCollum.

Usual practice is that the congressman is named a delegate.

A total of 57 delegates and alternates will be elected in congressional district caucuses around the state prior to March 31.

Another 19 delegates and 25 alternates will be elected by the executive board of the state Republican Party in late March. Persons interested in those delegate or alternate slots should send a notarized qualifying oath to the state party office, P.O. Box 311, Tallahassee, 32302, by March 1.

To qualify as a delegate one must be a registered Republican residing in the congressional district from which he or she applies. There is no application fee, said Henry Saylor, state party chairman.

Florida will be sending 82 delegates and 82 alternates to the Aug. 20 convention in Dallas.

"This is a big jump from the 51 we were allocated in 1980," Saylor said, noting only six states have more delegates than Florida.

Iran-Iraq War Is Raging On

The bloody three-year war between Iran and Iraq has taken a turn for the worse with each side bombing the other's civilian population centers. Iraq's earlier offer of a seven-day cease-fire was answered by Iran with an announcement that it had bombed suburban Baghdad.

While it would be remembered that the regime of Iraqi President Saddam Hussein initiated the conflict with an invasion of an ethnic Iraqi province in Iran, a major escalation of the war or total victory for the forces of Iran's Ayatollah Khomeini could spell disaster for the Mideast and the Western world.

At this point, escalation of the fighting by either side could close the Persian Gulf to all shipping, thus threatening oil shipments to Japan and Asia and with that the world economic recovery so far fueled by the oil glut.

An even worse scenario would be total victory for Iran. So far, the ayatollah and his mullahs have succeeded in consolidating popular support for an Iranian theocratic state in spite of economic hardships brought on by their reign of terror and war with Iraq. But the ayatollah's commitment to export his Islamic revolution to neighboring Arab nations has resulted in no concrete victories outside of bothersome terrorist activity.

That is why it is so important that Iran does not succeed in conquering Iraq, which has a large population adhering to the ayatollah's Shi'ite branch of Islam and which appears to be losing ground in the war. Control of the strategic "Fertile Crescent" by the aged ayatollah, or a similarly radical successor, could also bottle up much of the world's oil and imperil neighboring moderate Arab nations which now subsidize Iraq out of fear of Khomeini.

Iraq has offered peace terms before, only to be told by Iran that Hussein must go and pay huge reparations. Iran also has resisted similar peace overtures from the United Nations and Islamic organizations. Yet such overtures must continue.

Both sides have suffered battered economies and the loss of thousands of lives from a needless conflict that appears to defy resolution. President Hussein certainly is not the only person who must wish he could turn back the clock on his stupid invasion gamble.

Coyotes, Condors

The federal Endangered Species Act prohibits the government from carrying out its programs in a way that threatens endangered species. The Environmental Protection Agency's regulations specifically prohibit the use of batted sodium cyanide devices, intended to poison coyotes in areas where endangered species might be adversely affected.

Yet it turns out that the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service for some time has been allowing the use of these poisons in the range of the condor, the giant bird of prey that biologists have been trying painstakingly to rescue from extinction. Until it became public that one of the species' last remaining young females had died in late January — the service was not even bothering to camouflage the coyote bait so that it couldn't be seen from the sky.

Now, Fish and Wildlife officials say they will make the cyanide less attractive to the birds, and they promise to further study their policies on endangered species in general, as well as the cause of death of this particular condor. But progress is still exceedingly slow. Fish and wildlife hasn't yet even taken responsibility for the condor's death — although it's hard to imagine what besides the cyanide devices might have produced the symptoms the condor showed or the residue of the coyote poison in the condor's mouth.

As far as scientific research goes, the agency's deliberate pace may be admirable. But in the end, regardless of what any study turns up, the question will still be whether sodium cyanide devices should be set out in the condor range. And regardless of how the lingering controversy over the best way to deal with coyotes is finally resolved, the law on condors is very clear already: They must not be threatened by any government program. It should be the business of the Fish and Wildlife Service to immediately implement that law; whatever else it wants to study is secondary.

BERRY'S WORLD

"Winter can't last much longer. We've got to enjoy it while we can."

By Deane Jordan

There are 201,000 people in Seminole County — half of us growing bald.

From Sanford to Oviedo to Forest City, you can tell the balding ones: We have no dandruff, we get angry at barbers who charge us full price for hair cuts and we wear our hats everywhere... even to bed.

For those who don't lose their locks, growing bald is no hair-raising experience.

There are no awards for the best-kept scalp, no bald fall fashions or catchy phrases such as "bald is beautiful," "skin's in," or "Scalp Power." You'll never see a movie called "The Bald Ones," or an article about the 10 best bald men in America.

Creeping baldness is sometimes so frustrating that men would tear their hair out if they dared.

Male pattern baldness attacks when a man and his body chemistry have a falling out. The chemical that separates the men from the boys, women and those in between, collects around hair roots of the middle head causing each tiny factory to go on terminal strike, combful after combful.

There is no vote on the issue. Baldness is dictatorial.

Women, who nature had graciously designated to be the unbald ones, determined what to do about the bald-gene eons ago. They pass it on to the next generation as quickly as possible.

Fortunately for balding men, women have also learned misplaced graciousness about a man's thinning mane.

When the beloved first notices hair on a man's shoes and he mumbles something about growing bald faster than the Titanic sank, the sensitive woman usually cuddles close and in an understanding tone says "I've always liked bald men," as if until that very moment a full head of hair was revolting and she will shave her head immediately out of true love.

Men, for all our shortcomings, have not responded in kind to such soothing remarks.

A man would not progress beyond a second glance if when a woman complained about a tiny wrinkle, he said: "There's nothing you can do about it. Besides I've always found wrinkled women attractive," or "my mother was prematurely wrinkled and it made her look very distinguished."

Somewhat when it comes to balding, what is bad for the goose, is good for the gander.

While bald may be streamline — note the bald eagle — it is not romantic.

When you're bald, women with hair — hence all women — are taller and no member of softer sex dreams about that special someone who is tall, dark and bald.

Women during amorous moments don't run their fingers across your scalp. And candlelight dinners must be avoided. That gleam in her eye is a reflection of the wick off your shiny brow.

And just as balding can temper romance, it also, with little regard, hairlessly exposes a man to the elements.

WASHINGTON WORLD Defense Of The Press ...

By Helen Thomas
UPI White House Reporter
WASHINGTON (UPI) — In recent history, the role of the news media and its relentless probing has become an issue.

Because of their instant identity, television anchormen and many correspondents have become celebrities. The media also have been selected by some presidents for an all-out attack or for wooing, depending on the goals.

The most prominent relationships between presidents and the press were manifested by Lyndon Johnson, where it was a case of love and hate, and by Richard Nixon, whose contempt for the press is well documented.

A fascinating book, erudite and at the same time down to earth, explains the role of the media in a modern society, and its raison d'être. "Straight Stuff", which has just hit the stands, was written by veteran White House correspondent James Deakin, whose insights and irreverence are based on covering presidents from Dwight D. Eisenhower to Jimmy Carter.

He deals with the premise that reporters seek the truth. "There is much evidence that the American people deeply thirst for truth," he wrote. "They want their politicians, newspapers, television and networks and Howard Cosell to tell it like it is. The truth is desired, but each person defines the truth."

"The journalists present a portrait of a world that is confused, untidy and dangerous," Deakin says. "The journalist defines his professionalism as the pursuit of facts and explanations. If there is a pre-eminent reason for the endless controversy over media bias, it is this unhappy insistence. Because facts are uncomfortable things. They embarrass officials and institutions and organizations. They nag at ordinary people. They disturb the status quo. They challenge accepted practices. They affront complacency."

He does not skirt the fallibility of the press and the limitations under the pressure of time and space, often having to go with bare facts, and no explanations because the explanations are not available from the people who are paid to give them.

A White House reporter inevitably must touch on the growth of the imperial presidency in modern times. The regality and lack of accountability of presidents, except when they write their memoirs in their own terms, is depicted.

"Straight Stuff" also deals with the question of "leaks" and says that "national security is what a president says it is."

Deakin lists the so-called national security revelations doled out by presidents over the years for their own purposes.

He said the Eisenhower administration leaked the Yalta papers to The New York Times, seeking to show that FDR's negotiations with Josef Stalin led to all the superpower problems since 1945.

John Kennedy "leaked parts of a highly classified presidential memorandum" to Ben Bradley of the Washington Post, who was then a reporter for Newsweek.

Nixon's New Move Will Cost Taxpayer

WASHINGTON — Richard Nixon is moving again — and as usual, his itchy feet will cost the taxpayers a bundle.

Although Nixon resigned in disgrace, he is still entitled to the same generous perquisites lavished on every ex-president, including round-the-clock protection by the Secret Service. His latest move will be the third time he has pulled up stakes since he left the White House for San Clemente in August 1974.

Every time Nixon moves, the Secret Service has to remove the elaborate security devices it had installed at his home and either move them to the new location or put in new equipment. The bill for all this paraphernalia around the country will run into the millions by the time his latest relocation is completed.

Nixon's decision to leave his estate at Saddle River, N.J., and buy a $1.8 million cooperative apartment in a fashionable section of Manhattan is turning into a nightmare for the Secret

The GOP's Strategy

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Although the Democratic primaries are just starting, Republican strategists are already planning the fall campaign — and assuming that Walter Mondale will be the Democrats' standardbearer.

The GOP campaign strategy will be simple: The Republicans beat Jimmy Carter in 1980, and they believe they can beat Mondale, his vice president, by linking him with Carter.

Reporters got a preview of the strategy in several recent meetings with GOP officials. Whenever Mondale's name was mentioned, so was Carter's — and if you didn't listen closely, you might have thought that Carter was running again in 1984.

In addition, internal GOP memos show that the party is ready to spend a record amount in 1984 — $52 million, more than twice the amount spent to get Ronald Reagan elected in 1980 and almost twice what the Democrats say they'll spend this year.

This 2-to-1 ratio actually reflects a substantial increase in Democratic fundraising: In 1980, the GOP outspent the Democrats by about 5 to 1.

THE FEDERAL ELECTION Commission is still up to its ears in disputes over "independent expenditures," the result of a loophole in federal election-financing laws. This loophole lets groups spend any amount on behalf of a candidate or against his opponent, as long as they have no direct contact with the candidate or the candidate's staff.

Many of the FEC's problems concern the National Conservative Political Action Committee (NCPAC), which spent millions in 1980 and 1982 on behalf of conservative candidates and plans to do the same in 1984.

The FEC joined in a federal suit against NCPAC and another conservative organization, seeking a ruling that independent expenditures must be subject to the same limits as donations to official campaign committees. The FEC lost the suit at the district-court level but is appealing it.

Now the FEC plans to file another suit against NCPAC — a civil suit seeking the recovery of $73,755 that NCPAC spent on behalf of Bruce Caputo, a conservative candidate for New York's GOP Senate nomination in 1982.

Caputo has admitted that NCPAC representatives were present at his campaign-planning meetings, has signed a consent agreement admitting election-law violations and has agreed to pay a $3,000 fine. The FEC will now sue NCPAC to recover its "illegal" expenditures.

A related matter involves Rep. Phil Gramm, the Texas Republican who is running for his party's Senate nomination. Gramm asked the FEC to bar an independent organization, Americans for Phil Gramm, from raising and spending funds on his behalf in the primary. Gramm is worried that the group's fundraising might cut into his own and that the group might do something that will embarrass him in the very close race.

This is the first time in which the FEC has confronted the question of whether a candidate can prevent independent fundraising and expenditures on his behalf.

In an initial ruling, the FEC told Gramm that he couldn't prevent the group from raising and spending funds as long as it complied with the "no contact" laws. However, the FEC will give Gramm a copy of the official donor list filed by the group. This will let him tell donors to the group that they may ask for refunds, since their contributions to the independent organization have not gone to Gramm's official campaign committee. However, under the ruling, Gramm may not directly ask for contributions if he gets the donor list from the FEC.

In addition, one portion of the ruling is sure to be appealed and will be of major importance to other campaigns: The FEC ruled that any money given to the pro-Gramm independent group must count towards the $1,000 contribution limit an individual can give to a candidate.

This apparently is the FEC's backdoor way of getting around its loss in the NCPAC suit.

ROBERT WALTERS Unruly Schools Analysis

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (NEA) — For the third time in as many months, President Reagan has used a major speech to invoke the image of public schools wracked by rampant disorder and uncontrollable disruptions.

The most recent reference came during the president's speech here in early February to the annual convention of the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

In that address, Reagan said the education and justice departments had been enlisted in his campaign "to combat school violence" and "to prevent school crime."

In early January, the president devoted a Saturday radio address to the subject, calling for an end to "crime and violence" in the nation's schools.

In early December, the president was even more emphatic in an Indianapolis address before the National Forum on Excellence in Education:

"In too many schools across the land, teachers can't teach because they lack the authority to make students take tests, hand in homework or even quiet down in their class."

"In some schools, teachers suffer verbal and physical abuse. I can't say it too forcefully: This must stop."

Reagan clearly plans to incorporate into his re-election campaign a personal crusade to rescue public schools he depicts as paralyzed by terror, awash in crime and riddled with violence.

The president may view that strategy as good politics but it isn't a very faithful portrayal of reality.

The principal document upon which Reagan relies to substantiate his allegations is a 23-page-long White House memo which originally carried the semi-hysterical title of "Chaos in the Classroom." It was renamed "Disorder in our Public Schools" before being made public in early January.

Amital Etzioni, an authority on school discipline and director of the Center for Policy Research at George Washington University in Washington, D.C., aptly characterizes the White House document as "an amazing concoction of figures whose interpretations are grossly overblown."

Adds Etzioni: "The report is an undisciplined hodgepodge of evidence from single localities, brief statements by researchers taken out of lengthy reports and self-reporting of crime — a source of evidence widely acknowledged as unreliable."

Although the White House report is a curious mélange of statistics, anecdotes and quotations, its principal source of data is a 5-year-old National Institute of Education report on "Violent Schools — Safe Schools."

Citing the NIE report, both Reagan and the White House memo claim that "3 million secondary school children were victims of crime each month." In fact, the NIE report refers to slightly less than 2.8 million incidents a month.

The majority of those "crimes" — 2.4 million incidents monthly — relates to theft of personal property. The figure is inflated because the NIE report counted every case in which something valued at $1 or more was stolen.

official complained that Nixon's office generally discloses the ex-president's intentions one day and expects to have everything taken care of the next.

As with the move to Saddle River (more room for the grandchildren), Nixon has given a reasonable explanation for this move: Mrs. Nixon's poor health. But Nixon critics suspect it's all part of his persistent effort to gain greater media exposure in his chosen role as an elder statesman. A "salon" in New York City is better suited to this than a home out in the suburbs.

Footnote: Nixon faces a congressional challenge today on an unrelated expense: his proposed presidential library at San Clemente. Rep. Glenn English, D-Okla., will conduct hearings on legislation requiring former presidents to raise enough private funds to maintain the presidential libraries, which are now kept up at taxpayers expense.

IN BRIEF

Angry Motorists Attack Rig Roadblocks In France

PARIS (UPI) — Angry motorists hurled firebombs and charged through big rig roadblocks in a truckers' strike that paralyzed traffic today on highways across France, isolating towns and posing supply problems in some areas.

The strike by the truckers, who want compensation for the effects of an Italian customs officers strike and a cut in fuel taxes, has turned into a political crisis for President Francois Mitterand.

Mitterand's Socialist Party voiced concern that because of the strike, "serious damage could result for the economy and the living conditions of most French people."

The highway information service reported the number of truck roadblocks had risen from 240 to 271 today, paralyzing traffic on roads in more than half of France's 95 administrative departments.

Iran Launches Attack

LONDON (UPI) — Iraq said Iranian forces launched a third attack in 24 hours in the Persian Gulf war, which has intensified and renewed fears of a disruption in Western oil supplies.

Baghdad television was interrupted late Wednesday with the news that a major Iranian offensive in the border war was under way, pointed toward the southern Iraqi town of Basra.

Soldiers of the Iraqi Third Corps were confronting the enemy and destroying its forces, Baghdad radio said.

Earlier, Iraqi President Saddam Hussein had called on his forces to be on alert. There was no word from Iran on the latest fighting and no independent news of the scale and extent of the latest battle in the 3-year war between the two Middle Eastern neighbors.

Israeli Warplanes Strike

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — Israeli warplanes today bombed "terrorist" targets in the mountains east of Beirut for the third time this week, the Israeli military command said.

"Two buildings in Bahamdoun which served as terrorist bases and headquarters were attacked as was a 130mm artillery position northeast of Mansouriyeh," the command said.

The announcement added, "All Israeli planes returned safely to base."

The Israelis have warned they would continue raids in Lebanon in an effort to keep Palestinian guerrillas from infiltrating Druze positions.

Renegade Lebanese Patrol Moslem West Beirut

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — Lebanese army units sympathetic to anti-government forces today patrolled Moslem west Beirut as warring factions in the city ignored an appeal from the nation's Christian and Moslem leaders to lay down their arms.

The troops, led by a Shiite Moslem officer, guarded the streets of the Moslem half of the city after a night of heavy shelling and clashes along the Green Line dividing the city killed at least 15 people and wounded 70 others, police said.

The renegade troops stayed away from the Green Line, where their former comrades who remain loyal to the nation's Christian President Amin Gemayel clashed with Moslem militiamen. The Green Line divides the Moslem and Christian halves of the city.

Moslem and Christian religious leaders joined Wednesday for the first time in nine years to urge Lebanon's warring factions to lay down their arms, but their appeal went unheeded.

The fighting involved exchanges of heavy machine gun and mortar fire. Police said dozens of shells crashed into residential areas away from the war zone.

"It was one of the noisiest nights in weeks. The shelling and fighting was most intense before midnight. It is sporadic now. There is also some sustained sniping," an east Beirut housewife said from her

Police said by midnight Wednesday, Beirut hospitals had reported at least 15 people killed and 70 wounded.

Among the casualties was a French soldier hit at a post in the southern suburbs. A French spokesman said he did not know whether the fire that hit the soldier was aimed at the French peace-keeping position.

The French are the only participants of the original four-nation peace-keeping force that have not announced a withdrawal from Beirut.

Other Lebanese Army units sympathetic to anti-government rebels were poised to take over positions being evacuated by U.S. Marine peace-keepers.

Cardinal Warns Of 'Blood Running In Our Streets'

MANILA, Philippines (UPI) — The nation's leading churchman, warning of the possibility of "blood running in our streets," today urged President Ferdinand Marcos to give "last powers" before key May parliamentary elections.

In his strongest statement yet on the May 14 National Assembly elections, Cardinal Jaime Sin said Marcos should agree to six conditions set by his opponents for participation in the voting. The conditions include an end to Marcos's powers to legislate by decree; the end of martial law; and an end to detention of alleged subversives without trial.

"The demands are reasonable and without the power of the president to grant, and he must grant them not out of charity but out of justice," said Sin, who is the Roman Catholic archbishop of Manila.

"If we do not solve this problem through the ballot, we are just too afraid that we might solve it through violence," he said.

4 Years For Robbery

A Casselberry man who robbed a food store but lost all the money before he got out of the store has received a four-year sentence.

David Wallace Vick, 25, of 502 Grandview Way, was sentenced Tuesday to four years by Circuit Judge Dominick J. Salfi.

According to court records on Oct. 31, 1982, Vick, while in the North Orlando Food Store, at state road 415 and 434, Winter Springs, grabbed a bag containing $970 from a clerk Nickie Ilene Roth, 52, of 237 Ruth Blvd., Longwood. While Vick was dragging Ms. Roth who clung to the bag, a second clerk, Leslie Battering 22, of 417 Boxwood Circle, Winter Springs, struck the bag dumping the money on the floor.

Vick escaped with the empty bag dashing to a car and driving off.

With an outstanding warrant for his arrest, Vick turned himself in at the Seminole County Jail on Oct. 24, 1983.

He was found guilty by a six-member jury Jan. 19 of the robbery.

Vick, who was recommended to serve his time at the Lantana correctional facility, was also sentenced by Salfi to 360 in the county jail for obtaining property by worthless check on Sept. 17, 1982.

The state prosecutor was Mike Peacock.

Sanford Man Pleads To Violating Probation

A Midway man has pleaded guilty to violating his probation by stealing a car in November.

Nicholas Bruce Brown, 22, of 2485 20th St., pleaded guilty Tuesday to a charge of grand theft of a car Nov. 19 from Joe Creamons Inc., 3700 U.S. Highway 17-92, Sanford, and violating his probation on a prior petty theft conviction.

Pleading before Circuit Judge S. Joseph Davis, Brown could receive up to five years imprisonment for the auto theft and each of the two probation violations and leaving the county without telling his probation supervisor.

Brown was found guilty of felony petty theft in 1981 for stealing two bottles of cough syrup from the Medco drug store.

He is scheduled for sentencing at 8 a.m. March 28.

Women Tell Of Sex Phone

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (UPI) — An Indiana University professor set up a special "sex line" telephone and operated a ring of more than 20 prostitutes, two call girls testified.

Linda Sparks and Pamela Koons, both of Bloomington, testified Wednesday during the first day of John R. Krueger's trial in Monroe Circuit Court on charges of promoting prostitution and soliciting prostitutes.

Krueger, a professor of language for 22 years, pleaded innocent to the charges. He is on sabbatical leave from the university.

Clarification

In a story carried Sunday regarding the dismissal of a civil suit brought against Circuit Court Judge Dominick J. Salfi over a divorce ruling, it was reported that the presiding judge, James F. Minnet said the plaintiff — Mrs. Laurel K. Ising, of 3202 Holiday Ave., Apopka — did not follow accepted procedures when submitting new evidence to be considered in her divorce case.

Judge Minnet did not state so. It was the attorney from the Department of Legal Affairs, Jim Peters, representing Salfi. Peters asserted the motion for new evidence brought before Salfi by Mrs. Ising was not proper and was not properly brought before the court.

Further, Judge Minnet did not say the civil suit should not have been filed while the divorce case was in the appeals process. He said the appeals court would be reviewing the items that prompted the civil suit.

The suit against Salfi was dismissed.

Raiders Are Ready For Part 2 Of 3-Part Season

The second part of what SCC cage coach Bill Payne hopes will be a three-part season renews tonight when the Raiders host Daytona Beach at the SCC Health Center. Tip-off is 9 p.m., following the Lake City-Valencia game at 7 p.m.

Payne has to be pleased with part one. SCC started slowly, then came on strong to almost win the Mid-Florida Conference championship and an automatic spot in next week's state tournament.

At one stretch the Raiders won seven straight and 10 of 11. The big bummer came Saturday when they were blown out at Lake City which cost them a tie for the title with Florida Junior. "The kids took it well, though," Payne is quick to point out. "They bounced back and are ready to play."

The regular season ended with a 21-10 record. It was Payne's second 20-game year. And since he's only been at the job two years, that's quite an accomplishment — even though SCC is used to winning 20 per year. His first, full recruiting year turned up some nice ones in Linny Grace, Artis Johnson and Mike Phillips.

Grace, from Orlando Boone, has been a perfect complement to the team. He is averaging 12.9 points and four assists a game. Johnson, a Greenville, S.C. product, has won several games coming off the bench. He is a strong rebounder for 6-3 and plays good defense. Phillips, from Groveland, has turned around several games with his strong defense on the 1-3-1 trap.

The team began to jell when Payne inserted Mike Tolbert in the starting five. It took the orchestration away from Jimmy Payton (14.0 ppg) and let him shoot. Since he began putting it up, Payton's average is close to 20 ppg. Luis Phelps (12.4 ppg and 6.6 boards) and Delvin Everett (10.0 ppg) take care of the inside game. Bernard Merthle (5.2 rebounds) is SCC's best all-around player and he always gives the Raiders a shot in the arm off the bench.

But the regular season is behind the Raiders now. Their next goal — part two — is to win the post-season tournament and earn a spot at the state tournament. The Raiders should make it. Some conference teams have more talent, but none plays better as a team than the Raiders. Call it unselfishness or whatever you want, but these kids have the ball around, play pretty good defense and rebound. They score enough to keep you honest.

Sam Cook
Sports Editor

The two-game route to Stetson University, however, will not be easy. Daytona Beach is a talented ballclub which can be deadly when it gets ahead.

"(Coach) Ray Ridenour's a disciple of (former UCF coach) Torchy Clark," said

Payne. "If they get ahead, they'll hold the ball and try to get you to play one-on-one basketball."

Payne said the key to beating the Scots twice already this year is getting ahead of them and not letting them hold the ball. The Raiders did this in their first meeting and then applied enough pressure in their second to come from behind and win.

"It's hard to beat a good team like Daytona three times," Payne said about the 20-11 Scots. "That makes me nervous. But we're not going to let them hold the ball and put everybody to sleep. We'll get after them with a halfcourt trap."

The Scots can score in bunches when the feeling hits them. They ran up 72 in Tuesday's qualifying round against St. Johns River, 41 of which came in the second half.

Edwin Haynes, who played at Stetson last year, was an all-state guard while 6-4 Sam Smith is a streak shooter. Charles Stevenson, a 6-4 swingman, joins 6-3 John Ramsay and 6-6 Jim Grable in starting five. "They didn't look very good in the first half," said Payne. "But they looked great in the second half. We're going to have to play well early and maintain a lead."

A win Thursday would propel SCC into Friday's championship, probably against Lake City (24-7), which should handle Valencia (10-18) despite its awesome scoring punch of Cleve Williams and Tony Fluker. Fluker only got 55 in Tuesday's qualifier against Santa Fe. Fluker and Williams, the second-leading scorer in the nation with around 35 per outing, both went to Orlando Evans last year.

SCC nipped Lake City in two games when they played at home. The SCC Health Center has been a nice play to play Mid-Florida Conference teams. The Raiders are a perfect 7-0 at home against conference teams.

Payne hopes to add two more by Saturday which will set the stage for part three — a battle with the state's elite beginning next Thursday at Stetson.

Tribe Burns Rams; Creek Routs Howell

4A DISTRICT 9 TOURNAMENT At Lake Mary High

Seminole, 70, Lake Mary 63

By Chris Fister
Herald Sports Writer

Sanford's Fighting Seminoles can come at you from so many different directions that, if you concentrate on one, your going to get burned. Behind the hot shooting of Willie Mitchell, Seminole took an eight-point lead in the fourth quarter Wednesday night against Lake Mary's Rams.

The Rams fought back to tie the score at 59-59 with 1:27 remaining and, when Seminole came down the floor it again went to Mitchell. This time, three Lake Mary players converged on Mitchell expecting him to fire up a jumper. But, Mitchell passed off to Jimmy Gilchrist underneath for an easy layup and a 61-59 Seminole lead.

The 'Noles never lost the lead after that as they claimed a 70-63 victory over the Rams in the first round of the 4A District 9 Tournament at Lake Mary High. It was the third straight victory for Seminole over the Rams after Lake Mary won the first meeting between the cross-county rivals.

Seminole advances to Friday night's semi-final at 8:30 against Spruce Creek's Hawks, a 76-46 winner over Lake Howell in Wednesday's first game.

Mitchell pumped in 12 of his game-high 24 points in the fourth quarter and he was joined in double figures Wednesday by James Rouse with 21 points and Gilchrist with 13. Gilchrist also pulled down a game-high 11 rebounds.

Darryl Merthle led Lake Mary, with 21 points, Fred Miller added 20 and Billy Dunn tossed in 10.

The Tribe built its lead up to eight points, 57-49, with five minutes remaining in the game as Mitchell swished in a jumper. Lake Mary then reeled off six straight points to pull within two, 57-55.

Seminole went back up by four, 59-55, as Mitchell tipped in a missed shot and, after Merthle missed two free throws, Seminole had the ball back and spread its offense out to look for a good shot. Seminole turned the ball over three times in its spread offense, enabling Lake Mary to tie the score at 59-59 with 1:27 left to play.

The Tribe called a time out to regroup and set up a play. Mitchell got the ball at the free throw line in position for one of his patented turn around jumpers. But, three Lake Mary defenders converged on Mitchell and he fired a pass to Gilchrist who dropped in a layup for a 61-59 lead with 1:15 remaining.

On Lake Mary's next possession, Miller was whistled for an offensive foul and Seminole got the ball back. Donald Grayson fouled Mitchell on the inbound pass, his fifth foul of the game, and Mitchell went to the line for a one-and-one with 1:03 left to play.

Mitchell hit both free throws to give the Tribe a 63-59 lead, but Lake Mary pulled back to within two, 63-61, as Merthle made two free tosses with 48 seconds left. Lake Mary sent Mitchell back to the line with 42 seconds left and he again made both free throws to put Seminole back up by four, 65-61.

Lake Mary then failed to cut the lead back to two points and Gilchrist was fouled with 33 seconds left. Gilchrist missed the front end of a one-and-one, but Gordon alertly grabbed the rebound and was fouled on the follow up shot. Gordon made one of two free throws for a 66-61 Seminole lead and Lake Mary put another nail in its own coffin by committing a turnover with 27 seconds remaining.

Bruce Franklin then sewed up the victory for the 'Noles as he connected on two free throws with 25 seconds left for a 68-61 Seminole lead.

"We were patient on offense and it resulted in a lot of good shots," Seminole coach Chris Marlette said. "And we boxed out well on the boards, we didn't give them (Lake Mary) a lot of second and third shots."

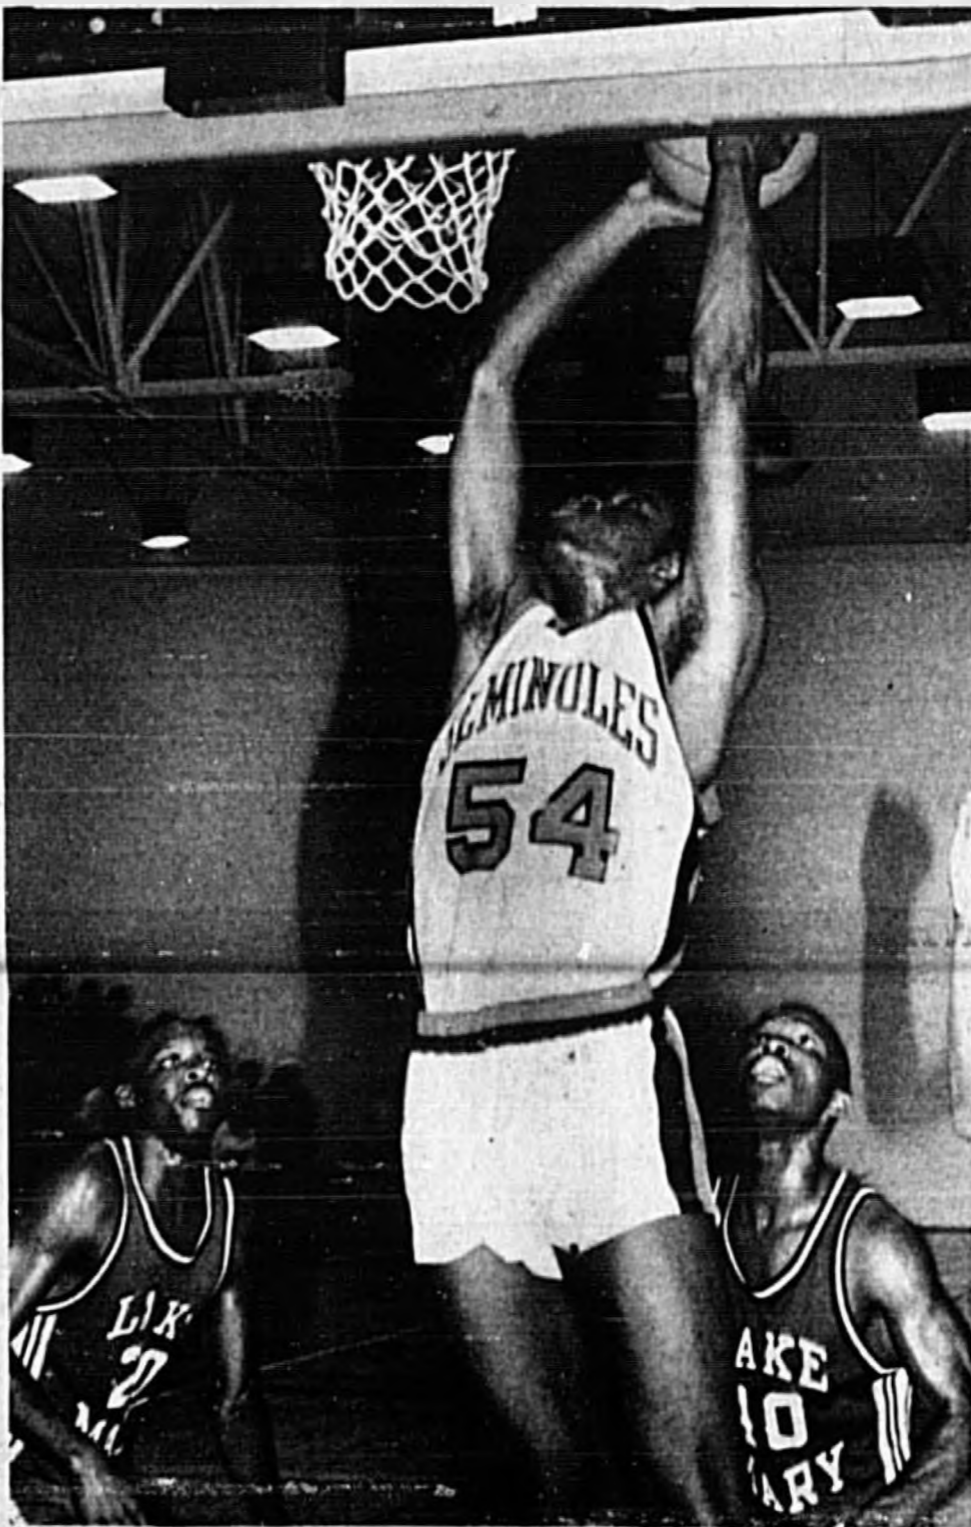

Top seeded Spruce Creek got 20 points each from Rod "Snowbird" McCray and Ray Lee Wednesday night and 15 points from John Fedor in a 76-46 rout of Lake Howell's Silver Hawks.

CORRECTION — The statement about the district tournament pairings in Wednesday's Herald incorrectly reported that Lyman principal Carlton Henley changed the pairings when no record of the coaches' meeting could be found.

There was a record of the meeting, but since there was no formal vote on the pairings, they were not included in the meeting minutes. All coaches received a copy of the meeting indicating the pairings and the dates of play, but none of them filed an objection. Henley did not change the pairings. The Herald regrets the error.

Injury Will Keep Turner Out Of State

Seminole High freshman wrestler Troy Turner injured his wrist during practice and will be unable to wrestle in the 4A State Meet Friday at Clearwater Countryside High. Turner qualified for the state meet at the 159-pound class after finishing second at the Region 1 meet last week, losing to Lake Brantley's Joe Waresak in the finals.

Turner's injury leaves James Morgan the only Seminole wrestler in the state meet. Morgan won the regional title at 189 pounds over Apopka's Mark Murray. District and region champion Lake Mary will take six wrestlers to the state tourney while Lyman qualified five wrestlers, Lake Howell three and Lake Brantley and Seminole one each.

Lake Mary's Jack Likens will go for his second straight state title, 3A last year. Likens won the region crown at 116 pounds by pinning DeLand's Kenneth Gillespie in 4:45 in the finals. Robert Rawls was Lake Mary's other region champion as he pinned DeLand's John Brown in 1:35 at the unlimited class.

Also going to the state meet for the Rams are Bob Olson (142 pounds), Ivan Carbia (109 pounds), Brent Blakely (159 pounds) and Ned Kolbjornsen (224 pounds).

Going to state for Lyman's Greyhounds are Chad Dublin (102 pounds), Juhon Lee (130), Jay Hunziker (136), Don Lockwood (149) and Derek Smith (159).

Lake Howell will take Steve Cina (171), David Collyer (130) and Gary Buckley (142) while Waresak will represent Lake Brantley.

Shula May Not Replace Woodley

MIAMI (UPI) — A third round draft choice doesn't sound like much to get for a quarterback who once started the Super Bowl, but Coach Don Shula figures that was as much as he could get for David Woodley.

And besides, he might not have to replace Woodley, who was traded to the Pittsburgh Steelers Wednesday.

Woodley led the Dolphins to Super Bowl XVII — a loss to Washington — in 1982. But then he began his fourth season as a disappointment and lost his starting position to rookie sensation Dan Marino in the fifth game.

Since the Dolphins already have a proven "relief pitcher" in veteran Don Strock, Woodley was bounced all the way to No. 3. Now that he's gone, Shula says there is a possibility he could be replaced in that role by Jim Jensen.

Jensen has seen almost no action as a wide receiver in three years with the Dolphins, but has been a standout on special teams and now is being groomed as a wide receiver.

"Jensen has looked real good in his opportunities as a receiver and we're giving him an opportunity at

Stambaugh Lifts Rollins Over Nova Lady Knights 18th

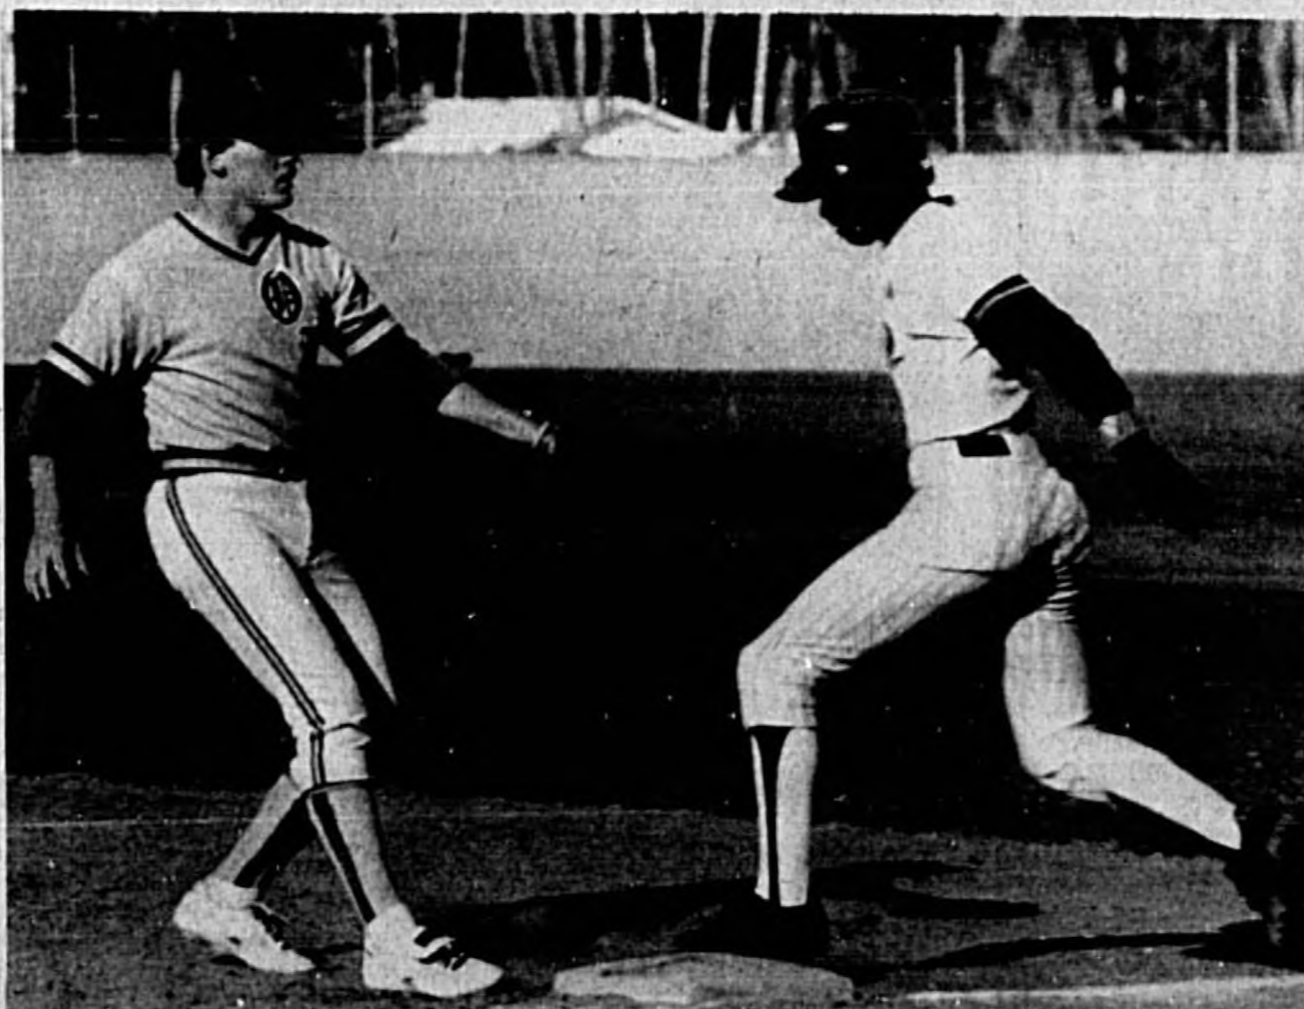

Former Seminole High standout Glenn Stambaugh hit four straight free throws down the stretch to lead Rollins College to a 87-84 victory over Nova College Wednesday night at Rollins College in Winter Park.

Basketball

Stambaugh hit 4 of 8 field goals and 6 of 6 free throws on the night for a total of 14 points. Rollins' last 10 points of the game came from the free throw line.

In women's basketball news, the University of Central Florida's Lady Knights moved into 18th place in the nation's women's Division II college basketball rankings after an impressive victory over third-ranked Valdosta State (Ga.). The Lady Knights now stand at 20-6 for the season.

Lyman High standout Valerie "Pam" Jackson was selected along with Orlando Edgewater's Tris Bell to represent the Central Florida area in a girls high school all-star game. Jackson averaged 18 points per game this past season for the Lady Greyhounds.

As was the case with most other outdoor activities Wednesday, Seminole's baseball game against Orlando Evans was postponed due to torrential downpours.

Pro Football

position," Shula said. "But if he's not No. 1 at receiver and plays with special teams, he can back up at quarterback."

Shula said he was pleased the Woodley had the chance to go to Pittsburgh because he was too good to be third at Miami and too proud to play for the United States Football League.

"Our situation is that Marino came on strong and when we have to go to a relief man it'll be Strock, because he's proven his reliability and that's why we have him aroa Shula said.

"That means Woodley is No. 3 and he's just too good a quarterback to be in that capacity," Shula said. "I'm glad David is able to go to a team where he can be No. 1."

Shula said he felt he thought he made the best deal he could.

"I didn't have the luxury of a lot of options," he said. "I feel like I did the best I could in return for David in the situation I was in."

Shula said he also was not surprised Woodley did not sign with a USFL club despite reports that at least two of them made offers.

"Woodley's got a lot of pride. He wants to play in the best league," Shula said. "I believe David is a proven winner and belongs in the NFL."

An obviously delighted Woodley said in a telephone news conference with south Florida media he and agent Howard Slusher had talked with two unnamed USFL clubs, but one didn't appear to be financially stable and the other contacted him after conversations with the Steelers had begun.

Although Woodley earlier refused to confirm or deny reports in the Pittsburgh Press he was given a three-year, $2 million contract, he indicated to the Miami media that wasn't true.

The Koch's BMX Family; Gracey Captures 2 More

Have you ever wondered what it would be like to be a "BMX Family?" Dick Koch and his kids, Mark and Susan, have been involved in BMX for about four years. Dick is the owner of the cycle Connection in Sanford.

"I always wanted my own business, and when my son Mark got real active in BMX, I decided that I would open a shop specialized in BMX," said Dick.

After he opened his shop, he found a lot of kids that wanted to race, but had no way back and forth to the track on Saturdays. That's when he decided he would start a race team for kids who didn't have a ride and take them over to the track himself. "I never regret not having a Saturday to myself. I enjoy watching as much as they enjoy racing."

Mark Koch first got interested in BMX about four years ago after his dad bought him a Mongoose bike. He got real interested in the sport and not too long after started racing.

Mark, a 16-year-old junior at Seminole High School, races a champion 14-inch cruiser. Mark says the thing he likes best about BMX is the jumps.

Susan, an 11-year-old powder puff, is in the fifth grade at Idylwild Elementary. "Mark had already started racing, and I decided that I wanted to try it out," said Susan. "Racing was scary at first, I had butterflies in my stomach."

There were a few butterflies and victories at Barnett Park in Pine Hills this past Saturday, too. There were quite a number of racers, and, as usual, many from the Sanford area.

In the 11-year-old beginner class, Jamie Dellarco, of Lake Mary, placed first in his very first beginner race.

Also a newcomer to the 12-beginner class was Wade Dellarco. Wade placed second while another Lake Mary racer placed first. Chris Cullen raced his second beginner race and came in first.

Christy Davis
Herald BMX Writer

In the 12-year-old novice class, Jason Overall, of Sanford, placed second.

In 13-novice class, John "Avalanche" Eoatwright raced novice and open class. In the novice class, John placed fourth, and in open class, he placed fifth.

Also racing 13-novice was David "The Ripper" Johnson. David also raced novice and open. In the open he placed second and first in the novice class.

In the fifteen-novice class, Jimmy Williams, of Sanford, came in first again this week, with John Poole, of Lake Mary coming in second.

In the powder puff class, 11-year-old Susan "Slash" Koch, slashed her way across the finish line in first place.

In the cruiser classes, 15-year-old Shane McFadden, of Sanford, raced both cruiser and cruiser open. He placed first in 15-cruiser, and second in the cruiser open.

In the 16-cruiser class, Mark Koch, of Sanford, placed first. Mark also raced the cruiser open and placed second.

In NPSA action this week, the Triple Crown was held in DeLand this past Saturday, and Sanford's W.L. Gracey brought in first place in both class and open. W.L. is a 10 expert, and he also raced the 10-11 open.

Congratulations riders.

Gross Gets Nod Today For Patriots In Tourney

By Sam Cook
Herald Sports Editor

Youth is the rule and not the exception around Seminole County baseball diamonds this spring. And that doesn't bother first-year Lake Brantley coach Gary Smith a bit. His Patriots can play with the youngest and the best around.

Smith, who is taking over for Sam Momary, lost two top players — pitcher Mark Cochran (UCF) and first baseman Marty Coffey (military) — but returns just about everybody else.

Lake Brantley has played one game but has a 1-1 record. The Patriots lost a 1-0, 10-inning game to Oviedo but picked up a win when Edgewater forfeited because of a scheduling mistake.

Today at 3:30 p.m., Smith will send senior righthander Kevin Gross against Brooksville Hernando in the Lyman Baseball Tournament. Lyman plays Leesburg at 7 p.m. In the second game, Games run through Saturday.

The Patriots' top returnee is shortstop Jimmy Robbins. The strong-armed senior batted .372 last year with four homers. His running mate at second base is Brennan Asplen. The senior second sacker was one of the top sophomores in the county two years ago, but was hampered by a severe ankle injury last spring and never did get completely well.

Two hotshots from the junior varsity team help fill out the infield. Kevin Bass, a 6-4 junior, will split his time between catcher and first base. Bass has excellent power and was a good RBI man for the Altamonte Senior All-Stars last summer.

Another Altamonte standout, Mike "Pooh Bear" Pinckes, takes over at third base. Pinckes is a junior who makes good contact and possesses a strong arm.

Alan Wing, a slick-fielding senior, will share duty at first base while Blair Patten, who caught last year, will do the same behind the mask.

Smith is counting heavily on a young outfield, anchored in center by Mike Beams. The flashy sophomore is coming off a strong football season and Smith said, "he can run them down in center." Beams, like Pinckes and Bass, hit over .400 on the JV last year.

Junior Scott Salmon will patrol left field with backup help from Bobby Garrison. Brad Dunn is the right fielder which depth coming from Allen Perkins. Lee Bernbaum is behind Beams in center.

More depth will come from pitcher-outfielder Bill Neville and outfielder-catcher Joe Waresak who will pull on his spikes after wrestling season ends Saturday.

Smith's biggest question mark is his pitching staff. "Our pitching is especially young except for Gross," said Smith. "I just hope they'll come through."

Gross was 7-4 last year with a 1.95 earned run average with 72 strikeouts in 75 1/3 innings. Behind him is sophomore Kenny Chapelatine, who also had a fine year with Altamonte. Dunn, a lefty, will also start. Robbins, too, may be called on.

If the loss to Oviedo was any indication, Smith should feel all right with Chadelaine and Dunn. Each pitched five innings, giving up just the one run on a suicide squeeze in the 10th.

DePaul Trounces Dayton

ROSEMONT, Ill. (UPI) — Fifth-ranked DePaul was leading by only two points at halftime Wednesday night and it appeared the Blue Demons might be heading for a repeat of their upset loss to Dayton four days earlier.

But the second half was another story. DePaul regrouped to play superlative defense and went on to trounce Dayton 79-59 — avenging its 1-point defeat by the Flyers Saturday.

"We played some of our best defense of the year in the second half," said DePaul coach Ray Meyer. "We didn't allow them anything in the second half."

The victory was DePaul's 21st consecutive win at home and clinched its seventh consecutive 20-victory season. The Blue Demons are now 20-2 while Dayton slipped to 15-9.

"It's the best I've ever seen a DePaul team play against us," said Dayton coach Don Donoher. "I thought they played good defense against us in the first game."

Roosevelt Chapman scored 27 points to lead Dayton but was plagued by foul trouble, picking up his fourth foul in the opening minutes of the final half.

"We could use that as an excuse (Chapman's foul trouble) but we don't have any excuses," Donoher said. "We couldn't get much done offensively. They can come out at you in so many different ways."

Kevin Holmes scored 18 points and Dailay Comegys added 14 and grabbed 14 rebounds for DePaul. Damon Goodwin added 12 for Dayton.

In two upsets Wednesday night, No. 13 Memphis State lost to Virginia Tech 89-69, and Boston College edged No. 16 Syracuse in overtime.

At Blacksburg, Va., Dell Curry scored 25 points to lead Virginia Tech to its Metro Conference win. Virginia

College Basketball

Tech, which lost to Memphis State earlier in the year, is 16-8 overall and 8-4 in the conference. Memphis State is 20-5 and 10-2.

"We came to play this time," said Tech coach Charlie Moir. "After our last loss, we had a team meeting where everybody was damn frustrated."

At Newton, Mass., St. Primus scored the tying and winning baskets to lead Boston College to its overtime win, ending a three-game Syracuse winning streak and snapping their own three-game losing streak.

"We made a great comeback and we got beat on an 18-footer by Primus," said Syracuse coach Jim Boheim. "It's the kind of shot we wanted to force them into, rather than have (Jay) Murphy get inside. I've never seen Primus make that shot."

"They won a big ballgame," said the Orangemen's Rafael Addison, who had a game-high 33 points. "We'll just have to take this loss in stride."

Murphy led the Eagles with 24 points. "Syracuse denied me the ball, but Stu responded in the clutch."

In other Top 20 action, Tim McCallister scored 31 points to give No. 8 Oklahoma at least a tie for the Big Eight championship with a 92-82 overtime victory over Kansas. ... Michael Young scored 22 points and No. 3 Houston easily rolled to their 37th consecutive Southwest Conference victory Wednesday night, a 70-54 decision over Rice Owls.

Jackson Heights Wins 2 Big Ones; Cain, Bowers, Clifford Take Honors

The Jackson Heights Knights won a pair of games to move closer to second place in the National Division Inter-County Basketball Association varsity play and thus earn a preferable playoff seeding. The Knights toppled the Westmonte Patriots 54-31 and then took the Tuskawilla Warriors, 34-29.

Robbie Bowers, the league's leading scorer, came up with 18 against the Pats. Petey Lingard added 12, Dwight Everett 10 and Frank Sanchez 6. Daren Shackelford had 12 for Westmonte. Henry Kellom 9. In the Tuskawilla game Everett threw in 14, Langard and Bowers eight each. Alan Greene led Tusky with 13. Gary Peterson had eight. Darryl Starks seven.

They defeated Tuskawilla, 57-44 as eleven different players hit the scoring column. Willy Daunic led the way with 15. Garth Bolton had 12, Rick Wright eight, Eric Wright five, Joey Thompson and Brian Dill four each. The Wrights had 26 rebounds between them. Greene threw in 20 for Tusky. Jeff Brewer had nine. In JV action the South Seminole Tomcats and Winter Park both won their regular season finales to finish with identical 9-1 records. They will flip for top seed in the playoffs. South Seminole beat the Eastmonte (Milwee) Greyhounds, 47-38. Brad Bolton and Willy Daunic were top guns with 13 each. Larry Watkins and Danny Rubin had six each and along with Delmon Simpson and J.J. Miller, dominated the backboards with 36 rebounds between them. Mike Whittington led Eastmonte with 16, Jarvis Watkins had 12.

Eastmonte came back to defeat the Eatonville Lakers, 38-21. Frank Dixon was the high scorer with 14. Whittington had eight, Anthony Bailey, Steve Jerry and Marvin Reed all chipped in with 4. Alton King, Quincy Howard, Darius Alexander and Ed Woods all scored four for Eatonville.

The Tuskawilla Warriors won their first game of the season by beating the Jackson Heights 76-ers, 28-21. The Tusky men held an early 20-2 lead and then held off a furious rush by the Sixers. Mark Clifford was the big man for Tusky, with 16. Doag Welton added eight. Vince Hollis topped Jackson Heights with eight. Jim London and Keith London had four each.

Inter-County Basketball

In girls action the South Seminole Kittens stayed unbeaten with a hard fought win over the Walsie Ward Girls Club, 31-26. Bobbie Kelley, the tough redheaded rebounder was the top cat with 14 points. Erika Cain added eight, Shari Siegrist five, Eva Miranda, Tamara Lewis and Gail Veal led the defense and ballhandling chores. Mary Jo Sanchez weaved and whirled her way through the "Cat" traps to score 12 for the Ward girls. Sandy Rodriguez added eight.

The Jackson Heights Blue Bandits won a pair of games to stay in contention, two games behind the Kittens. They nipped the Tuskawilla Warriors 22-19 and beat Trinity Lutheran, 23-9. Bridget Jennerette was the biggest Bandit of them all as she "stole" 14 and 11 points in the two games. Loan Le added 10 against Tusky; Lisa Taube hit eight in the Trinity game. Shannon Pierson was the Tusky top tosser with eight.

Trinity won their first of the season by stopping Tuskawilla, 20-14. Laura Jones led with eight. Christina Meyer added six, Prochnow four. Messer and Bridget Dey had four each for Tusky.

The ICBA playoffs will begin midweek next week, winding up with the championship games at Oviedo High School on Wednesday, March 7 with a trippleheader. The girls finale will start things off at 6:00 p.m. followed by the JV Championship game and followed by the Varsity boys title game as the nightcap.

ICBA All-star games will be held the following week, also at Oviedo High School, on Wednesday, March 14 with the championship teams meeting a collection of all-stars from the other teams in each division. The final ICBA event of the season — an award banquet, will be held at the Altamonte Civic Center late in the month.

The Burger King "ICBA Players-of-the-Week" for week seven of the rapidly ending season were named Monday. Robbie Bowers of the Jackson Heights Knights and Mark Clifford of the Tuskawilla Warriors were co-winners of the Boys' award. For the girls, Erika Cain of the South Seminole Kittens was the winner.

Bowers led the Heights Knights to a pair of wins, scoring 26 points and rebounding very well. Clifford scored 16 in Tuskawilla's first win of the year in the JV Division. Erika "raised" Cain with her South Seminole opponents with her defense (seven steals), rebounding (seven) and scoring (eight points) as the Kittens remained undefeated in league play.

All-Day Benefit Set For Accident Victim

Citizens and friends of the Geneva community are banding together in an all-day benefit, Saturday, Feb. 25, to help Ralph Hays Jr., 23, a Geneva resident of 13 years. Hays suffers from a compound fracture of the right leg sustained in a motorcycle accident on Jan. 14.

Hays, an aluminum construction worker, is expected to be out of work from six to nine months resulting from the single vehicle accident. The mishap occurred in the woods near his home in Geneva the day after he purchased the bike, according to his mother, Dorothy Hays. There is no insurance.

To date, medical expenses are in excess of $13,000. Hays will return to the hospital in three to four weeks for removal of pins and to have a cast put on his leg.

Mrs. Hays said, "This community is wonderful. I tell you, they are something else."

CFRH Birthing Room Site Of Open House

Special To The Herald

"Birth is a celebration of life and a beautiful beginning. There is happiness in babies," Joni Altomose, a registered nurse in Central Florida Regional Hospital's Obstetric Department, said as she explained why she loved working in OB. She was, in fact, echoing the philosophy of her department.

Programs include prenatal and Lamaze Method of Childbirth classes, a course dealing with caesarean birth, exercises (Mama...size) before and after birth, sessions on preparation for parenthood, and getting siblings ready for the new baby. There is even classes for grandparents now.

The classes are free to those delivering at CFRH except the Lamaze classes.

Although Altomose now resides in Deltona, she graduated from Forest Lake Academy and then went on to finish nurse's training at the Fletcher School of Nursing in Asheville, N.C. Having worked in neonatal, intensive and pediatric units, Joni is well suited for the OB Department.

Birth is a joyous occasion. Mrs. Altomose continued. It is woven into the very fabric of the department's attitude and extended into their many services and educational programs. CFRH makes it as special as possible, allowing patients to choose options that previously were not open for their selection, she adds.

Altomose, who says she "loves teaching," evidently is in the right field. After a recent baby sitting course presented by CFRH at Deltona Junior High School at which Joni spoke, one of the teenagers said, "I liked the lady who told us how to diaper the baby. She comes across more like a mother than a nurse."

A true professional at work! And one who cares enough to spend hours of her own time creating a bedspread to make strangers feel welcome and at home during that special time in their lives.

And Mrs. Altomose has chosen to show her caring attitude in a very graphic way — she made the lovely ruffled and quilted white eyelid bedspread that enhances the brass bed in the newly decorated birthing room.

Joni says that education is vital. "It allays their fears and makes the mother more relaxed, thus making it easier for all concerned." According to Arlon Beauregard, RN, OB's head nurse, the department is compiling a fact sheet to dispel myths and "old wives' tales" about birth. "You have no idea how many of our expectant mothers come in, frightened to death due to tales they have heard from others, including their mothers and grandmothers."

"However, it is encouraging to see husbands interested, participating, and asking questions," Beauregard continued. Dr. Juan Ravelo, one of the OB/GYN specialist on the CFRH medical staff, finds that his patients and their families are more intelligent about birthing experience. "Their at-

The public will be able to view the birthing room as OB will hold open house Saturday, Feb. 25, when the Healthcare Express will also be on display for the public free of charge.

Joni made the bedspread and pillow sham which is the focal point in the birthing room. Working during off hours, the mother of two little boys, ages 3 and 4, also sewed the baby quilt and pillow case for the bassinets.

Bathed in soft lighting, the room features a brass birthing bed, pastel drapes, soft muted rug, two reclining chairs, a brass lamp, floral arrangements and plants

What The Day Will Bring...

YOUR BIRTHDAY FEBRUARY 24, 1984 This coming year you will set objectives for yourself that you would never have dared to attempt in the past. Friends in the right places will put you on the path to success. PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Some promising developments where your career is concerned could suddenly pop today. If you're not alert, they'll catch you napping. Areas of special significance to you personally are revealed in your year-ahead Astro-Graph predictions. ARIES (March 21-April 19) A promising new idea may start to formulate in your mind today. It will pertain to something that you hope to bring about in the very near future. TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Conditions may not be too stable today in an involvement that you have. Do nothing erratic that could rock the boat. GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Persons who are supportive of your ideas today might not be equally enthusiastic about them tomorrow. Make your moves while they're on your side. CANCER (June 21-July 22) Try to be a shade more adventuresome today instead of letting yourself be too tied into old habits just because they are easy. LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Social situations today will have some rather unique undercurrents. This could lead to pleasant experiences you'll long remember. VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) By using your ingenuity today, you should be able to find new ways to get certain household items you've been unable to acquire until now. LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Your mental antenna should be fully operational today. This will enable you to detect valuable facts in conversations that go over the heads of others. SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Conditions are choice for you today in the material sense. Explore all avenues that could add to your resources. You could uncover hidden opportunities. SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Today is a time for action. Don't let any grass grow under your feet if you have new ideas that could further your personal ambitions. CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) There is a strong possibility that you may learn of something today quite by accident. You'll know it has value, yet you might not know how to use it. AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Don't be hesitant to tackle projects today that you haven't attempted before. Your competency in these new ventures may startle even you.

The Pill After 40: Is It Still Safe?

DEAR DR. LAMB — Is it safe to take birth control pills until menstruation has ceased? My doctor led me to believe this. But my gynecologist told me a woman must stop taking the Pill when she reaches 40. He said the side effects become too severe at that age. What are the side effects? DEAR READER — I think new information about the birth control pill supports the idea that many women are able to take the Pill through menopause and that the benefits from using hormones, if needed after menopause, outweigh the dangers.

Women who are overweight, smoke and have high blood pressure should either lose weight, stop smoking and control their blood pressure, or they probably shouldn't use the Pill after 40. If you don't have these problems, then there's no good reason not to use the Pill. I'd much rather see a woman correct her lifestyle and health and continue taking the Pill than keep on smoking and doing nothing about her weight and stopping the Pill.

The danger is an increased risk of heart attack. But as one study showed, only four in 1,000 women older than 45 who didn't smoke, didn't have high blood pressure and had normal cholesterol levels developed any evidence of heart disease in the following six years. If these same women used oral contraceptives and there were five who developed heart disease in six years, it would be reported as 125 percent of the rate in non-users. That's how you get some of those wild news stories. In reality, there was only one in 1,000 more in users vs.

non-users. The risk of cancer from using oral contraceptives has actually decreased. The question of uterine cancer was always limited to endometrial cancer, not cervical cancer. Endometrial cancer is rarely a cause of death. There are only about 3,000 endometrial cancer deaths a year in the United States, compared to more than 30,000 deaths from breast cancer.

DEAR DR. LAMB — I have cold sores on my lip. A neighbor told me they were herpes and said smallpox vaccinations would cure them. Is this so? I've never found anything to relieve these sores when they come.

DEAR READER — That was an old idea that's no longer supported. Smallpox and herpes viruses have no basic relationship to each other. The only licensed maker of smallpox vaccine in the United States is Wyeth Laboratories. They have discontinued the distribution of smallpox vaccines for the civilian population.

The morbidity and mortality weekly report from the Centers for Disease Control in Atlanta stated that the lack of a availability of the smallpox vaccine for the civilian population should end its misuse in attempts to prevent or treat herpes.

WIN AT BRIDGE

tricks if West doesn't open with the heart lead. We can't fault South for not finding the ace of diamonds right away. Everybody has blind spots. However, his three no-trump jump was for the vulture-type birds, not for the beautiful singing ones. South should have made a forcing jump response of two diamonds. If South had done so, North would have raised him to three. Now South would have a natural rebid of four clubs and the hand would eventually play at a minor suit game, which is a laydown. The only losers are two heart tricks. Strangely enough, if South had opened one diamond, there is a good chance that North-South would have stopped at a minor suit part score, reached a minor suit slam or bid the same three no-trump. Here is a sequence that leads to three no-trump bids one diamond, North two clubs, South three clubs, North three spades, South three no-trump. We don't approve of the three no-trump call, but numerous bridge players would make it and hope that three hearts to the jack would protect that suit.

By Oswald Jacoby and James Jacoby According to South's story, he passed in second seat because at first glance he did not see his ace of diamonds. By the time the bidding got back to him, he found that ace. When asked about his three no-trump bid, he replied, "How else could I show my strength?" Most of the time his three no-trump would make. Dear Abby

Bride-To-Be Upset By Blood Test Results

DEAR ABBY: I am so upset I can hardly write this. I am a widowed senior citizen who recently met a wonderful man whose companionship I would like to have for the remaining years of my life.

We made plans to marry, then I got the shock of my life. My blood test showed "positive" and now we can't get married. The positive on my blood test means that I have syphilis!

Abby, I have never in my life had syphilis or any other kind of venereal disease. How can I account for this terrible situation?

I have offered to take a polygraph test to prove my innocence, but my fiance has refused to put me through that kind of humiliation.

What could cause this circumstance to happen? If this letter can help even one other person, you have my permission to print it, but I beg you, please don't use my name or town.

TERRIBLY UPSET

DEAR UPSET: Please don't panic. Your case is not unusual. People who at some time in their lives have had malaria, scarlet fever, infectious mononucleosis, lupus erythematosus (and many other diseases) are apt to show false-positive for syphilis.

See a dermatologist or hematologist for a more thorough blood study. You will be given tests to rule out the false diagnosis of syphilis.

When you produce the doctor's report of the additional blood tests, you will be able to marry without delay.

DEAR ABBY: The things busybodies worry about I am referring to "No Names, Please," who wonders how a woman could play cards on the night of a loved one's funeral.

I think I can tell her because my husband and I, our son, age 21, and our daughter — a twin to the 23-year-old son who was killed in a car accident — played cards the very night our son was killed.

One can do only so much crying, pacing and praying. We all sat around the table so we could touch each other. Instead of filling our glasses with booze or chain-smoking, we were at least keeping our hands busy. We didn't know whose turn it was to deal and we weren't even sure what we were playing. The tears ran onto the cards sometimes, but at least we were together.

JOE'S MOTHER

DEAR ABBY: My niece's co-workers gave her a lovely bridal shower. We were told it was a "general" shower, which meant the guests could bring anything they wanted.

Well, somebody brought a box filled with items such as disposable diapers, rattles, booties and so on.

Everybody laughed. If this was supposed to be funny, I didn't get the point. How do you feel about a gift like that for a bride?

AUNT KATH

DEAR AUNT KATH: If your niece isn't infantile-patting, it was a practical joke. If she is, it's a practical gift.

In 'Night Court,' Everything's Orderly

By David Handler

NBC's Night Court is a pleasantly daffy little sitcom from Rhenold Weege, one of the talents behind Barney Miller. He has assembled the show around the gifts of Harry Anderson, the boyish, whimsical magician-comic who has frequently appeared on Cheers as Harry the con man.

Anderson plays Harry Stone, a young New York City lawyer who happened to be home. Sec. it was the mayor's last day in office and there were still judgechips to be handed out.

Admittedly, Harry's name was at the very bottom of the list, but nobody else was home to answer the call to service. That's how he got appointed.

He doesn't fit the mold for judges. He wears sweatshirts, jeans and sneakers. His manner is as informal and playful as his dress. He is a jokester and an amateur magician. He wears headphones.

"I own every Mel Torme record ever made," he reveals. "I'm going to marry the girl who's impressed by that."

Most of the show's action takes place in Harry's courtroom, which serves as an arena for oddball legal and domestic squabbles. As a bonus there's a gallery of barflies and hookers who've come in out of the cold. They are quick and loud with their comments.

They mustn't get too unruly, though, or they'll arouse Bull (Richard Moll) the 8-foot, 8-inch ballfish with a shaved head and permanently crazed expression.

Bull is into self-improvement. Every month he chooses a new word at random from the dictionary and uses it as often as he can. Right now he's on "mercurial."

Harry's late for his first session. "I don't know what's holding the judge up," apologizes Lana (Karen Austin), his cute, plucky clerk, who actually mistook him for a delivery boy when he first arrived in his chambers.

"A diaper change, perhaps," sneers Daniel (John Larroquette), the cold, stiff assistant district attorney.

Daniel is not impressed by Harry — especially Harry's antics. Like the way Harry jumps back up after everyone has waited for him to sit down. "Got ya!" Harry cries out, delighted. Daniel doesn't like Harry's card tricks.

He especially doesn't like Harry's bright idea for handling a husband-wife squabble in which the wife fired a shot at her spouse. Harry sends them out for coffee with their lawyers. "Sit down, relax, try to work out this thing," suggests Harry.

"Your honor," protests Daniel. "This is highly irregular." "Thanks," beams Harry. "What do murderers get?" the assistant D.A. demands. "Brunch?"

Yes, Harry's unorthodox. He even produces the "coin of justice" and proceeds to flip it. "Heads I fine you. Tails you go to jail." Of course, it's all a ruse to get a dialogue going between the husband and wife. "I'm just talking," Harry explains. "Talking to people. Are there any English-speaking people out there tonight?"

His methods work. As he heads back to his chambers to do some "judge stuff," doubling Lana stops him. "It would be an honor to call you Harry," she declares. "Then it's fortunate that I have that name," he fires back.

There's a spirit of fun to Night Court. Anderson is warm and appealing, and the subsidaries are strong.

Night Court could really grow into something with creative nurturing and support from NBC.

Accused Child Molester Set For Trial In April

A Sanford man accused of sexually molesting a child is scheduled to be tried in April.

Wallace Leroy Oglesby, 34, of 841 Upsala Road, has had a tentative trial date of April 2 set on the charges of child abuse, sexual battery, and lewd assault on a child.

According to sheriff's reports, a suspect was arrested Jan. 12, one day after a 12-year-old girl and her mother gave investigators information regarding two alleged incidents of fondling and one of forced oral sex.

The incidents reportedly occurred at the girl's home at 9 p.m. Jan. 3 and 3 p.m. the following day.

Oglesby is out of the Seminole County Jail on a $3,000 bond awaiting trial.

In separate cases, four other defendants have had an April trial date set on charges ranging from selling controlled drugs to interfering with a police officer.

One of two North Carolina men who allegedly sold prescription drugs, including codeine capsules, to Seminole County drug agents has had an April 23 trial date set.

Carl Fabin Felts III, 21, of Asheville, arrested at 10:15 p.m. Jan. 12, is charged with two counts of selling or delivering a controlled substance and one count of carrying a concealed firearm. A second man arrested at the same time, Marshal Allen Williams, 24, also of Asheville, had his arraignment on charges of selling a controlled substance continued until Friday.

According to undercover drug agents, they made contact with a suspect Jan. 12 at the Scott's Pub, U.S. Highway 17-92, Casselberry, who allegedly offered to sell them a variety of prescription drugs. The agents reported that they paid the man $9 and received eight pills and capsules, some of which contained codeine and a tranquilizer, tempazepam.

After being arrested, the suspect reportedly told the officers he had 5,000 additional illegal prescription pills in his motel room.

Agents went to room 1 at the Oak Ridge Motel, Fern Park, and made contact with a second suspect who reportedly invited them in and sold them four codeine capsules.

The second suspect was arrested and both men were jailed.

Williams is being held in the Seminole County jail in lieu of a total of $13,000 in bonds and Felts is being held in lieu of $8,000 bond.

A Casselberry woman arrested for drunk driving and later for allegedly removing marijuana and two resin-filled pipes from the Winter Springs police station has had a tentative trial date of April 2 set.

Maree G. Brown, 33, of 1393 La Paloma Drive, is charged with tampering with evidence, driving under the influence and possession of less than 20 grams of marijuana.

A Winter Springs policeman arrested a woman Feb. 1 for driving under the influence after he saw her car weaving on State Road 419 at S.R. 434. During the arrest, the officer seized the pipes and a bag of marijuana, then transported the suspect and the contraband to the police station.

Later, as he took the suspect to his patrol car for the trip to the county jail, he reported saw items in the woman's pants and took her back to the police station and charged her with removing confiscated property.

How the woman allegedly retrieved the items was not stated in the report.

Ms. Brown was released from jail Feb. 1 on a $5,500 bond.

A Haines City man, and the man in whose drunk driving arrest he reportedly tried to interfere, have had April 23 trial dates set.

James Edward Bagley, of Haines City, and Timothy Allen Jones, 30, of Orlando, are both charged with battery on law enforcement officers and resisting arrest with violence stemming from the Jan. 31 arrest of Jones for driving under the influence. Jones faces additional charges of driving with a suspended or revoked driver's license, possession of a suspended driver's license, failure to drive in a single lane, and speeding.

According to two Altamonte Springs officers, they were arresting a suspected drunk driver on Interstate 4 at Spring Lake Hills when a man drove up, got out of his vehicle and began harassing them and encouraging the DUI suspect, whom he called by name, to escape.

The interfering man refused an officer's order to stay away from the patrol car where the DUI suspect, who had been handcuffed, was sitting. As the DUI suspect began to scream and kick the windows of the patrol car, the second man grabbed an officer and began to struggle.

The second officer joined in and as the men fought, the suspect escaped from the patrol car and ran towards a marsh, but fell and was captured and subdued by a third officer who had arrived to assist.

The officers received minor cuts on the hands and arms in the fight and one reported losing his revolver in the marsh. The gun was later found. Neither of the suspects were seriously injured.

Bagley and Jones are out of the Seminole County jail on $1,000 bond each while awaiting trial.

Supreme Court Free Family Loans May Be Taxed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Internal Revenue Service may levy gift taxes against interest-free loans that one family member makes to another, the Supreme Court has ruled.

The 7-2 ruling upheld a lower court decision that the interest-free loan by parents of hundreds of thousands of dollars to their son and a family business is a taxable gift.

The lower court held a Florida couple liable for gift taxes on the value of the interest that ordinarily would have been charged for the loans.

Wednesday's high court ruling, written by Chief Justice Warren Burger, is expected to reduce such transfers of money, often made to limit tax liability by shifting money to family members in lower income brackets.

The IRS has cases involving more than $5.5 million transferred by wealthy family members to less affluent relations.

"A substantial no-interest loan from parent to child creates significant tax benefits for the lender quite apart from the economic advantages to the borrower," Burger noted.

"This is especially so when an individual in a high income tax bracket transfers income-producing property to an individual in a lower income tax bracket, thereby reducing the taxable income of the high bracket taxpayer at the expense ultimately, of all other taxpayers and the government.

"Subjecting interest-free loans to gift taxation minimizes the potential loss to the federal (treasury) generated by the use of such loans as an income tax avoidance mechanism."

Justices Lewis Powell and William Rehnquist dissented, saying such significant changes in tax law should be left to Congress.

Powell said the ruling could create problems, including the possibility that "the generous use by friends or family of property such as homes and even spare bedrooms could result to the imposition of gift tax liability."

...Bond Case In For Legal Fight

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court says it will appoint a special judge to consider whether the federal government has the right to tax interest on billions of dollars in unregistered state and municipal bonds.

The decision will stall a ruling on a heated financial battle between 24 states and the federal government until a judge is appointed and hearings are held.

The court Wednesday refused to rule outright that states do not have to register bonds to get tax-exempt status, but also refused to accept the government's position that it has the power to deny tax exemptions for unregistered bonds.

The Treasury Department made the suggestion to the government so it would be more difficult for bondholders to hide interest earned on the securities from the Internal Revenue Service.

Dozens of states argued that making the tax-exempt status of bonds contingent upon their registration would devastate the state and municipal bond market. In 1982 alone, a total of $74.9 billion in municipal securities were issued with states selling $19.3 billion of the total.

Led by South Carolina, 24 states challenged the constitutionality of a law passed by Congress, arguing it infringed on the sovereign power to run their own financial affairs.

Under the act, holders of bonds issued to "the bearer" — without a name attached to the sale — would no longer be exempt from taxes on the interest earned from the bond.
