

Republicans Plan State Primary To Select Candidates

Alexander of Ft. Meigs, chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, said today that it is the desire of the committee to have a primary for the selection of party candidates for constitutional offices in all categories.

"The officers and several specially designated members of the State Committee are starting today on trips throughout the state to organize the registration of all Republicans in the State," Alexander said.

He made these statements following a meeting yesterday of the committee officers with a number of prominent Republicans from over the State at the summer home of Charles Fisher, Piatt county chairman, on the Suwannee River near Ocala.

By Nov. 1 it is believed we will show the full strength of the party sufficiently to warrant calling a meeting of the State Executive Committee at that time for the purpose of spring and organizing candidates to run for county, State and national offices on the Republican ticket in next year's elections," the committee chairman said.

This meeting will be called, no doubt, in Tallahassee.

He said the meeting will give candidates an opportunity to announce themselves and receive the help of the Republican Party's state organization.

At the meeting on the Withlacoochee there was a discussion, Alexander stated, of methods by which the Republicans can help the teachers of Florida to secure their deserved $300 per year pay raise.

Rep. William C. Cramer of Piatt county stated at the conference that he favors a special session of the Florida Legislature to enact a law to provide the pay raise for teachers, provided that it is determined in advance that this can be accomplished without any further increase in taxes.

Newly elected Executive Vice-President of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company is Hal S. Dumas (left), a native of Macon, Ga., who has been President of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company since 1944. Succeeding him as President of Southern Bell, whose operations include the local telephone exchange, is Fred J. Turner (right), who has been Vice-President for financial and public relations matters. Mr. Turner is from Atlanta. Both men, occupying two of the telephone industry's top key positions, have for years held significant positions among business and civic leaders in the South. Both rose through the ranks to positions of increasing importance. Each has been in the telephone business more than 40 years. Mr. Dumas goes to the New York headquarters of the A. T. and T. Co. and Mr. Turner assumes direction of Southern Bell at the general headquarters in Atlanta, effective immediately.

Petaín Dies At 95 In Island Prison; Was Hero, Traitor

ILE D'YEU, France, July 23—(AP)—Marshal Henri Philippe Petaín, hero of Verdun in the first World War and condemned traitor for his Nazi-dominated Vichy regime in the second, died today on this bleak fortress prison and fishermen's island. He was 95 years old.

Bill a great controversial figure in death, he was denied burial at Verdun where he often had said he wanted to be put to rest among the French heroes he led to victory in 1918.

Petaín ousted by three days the army commander he defeated at Verdun, Crown Prince Wilhelm of Imperial Germany, the late Kaiser's son and field army commander at Verdun, died in Germany Friday.

The controversy over Petaín seemed bound to live in French sentiment and politics for some time to come. It is an issue to be faced by the new government now in the process of formation.

Burial at Verdun was turned down tonight in a message from the government answering an appeal of Republicans to work with the Florida congressional delegation and the Republican congressmen from other states to secure greater appropriations for flood control in South Florida was decided upon," Alexander said. "A similar effort in 1946 secured $208,000 for Florida."

It was announced that the election of delegates and alternates to the Republican National Convention next July will be arranged for at the meeting of the State Committee.

C. C. Spades of St. Augustine, Republican National Committee man and chairman of the party's finance committee, said a drive for campaign funds is now in progress.

Unretired 78-Year Old Discoverer Of Aureomycin Still Searches

NEW YORK (AP)—The law might be able to force a man to retire—but it can't make him quit.

If it could Dr. Benjamin Minge Duggar would never have discovered aureomycin.

At 78 Dr. Duggar is wondering where he can discover his second wonder drug. But at 70 he was wondering if he had a place in the world.

An estimated 1,000 dignitaries from neighboring Arab countries and from other parts of the world marched in the funeral procession behind the royal casket. Only those with special permits were permitted to take part in the procession. Others were kept away by machine gun and barbed-wire emplacements on the surrounding hills.

Seminole County is sincere, and that they will continue to give their aid in keeping within the law for the betterment of their business and of the county as a whole.

Following the vote, Sheriff Mero declared, "Now that the liquor situation is under control I intend to strenuously police the liquor selling establishments and will instantly make arrests for violations."

The County Commission met this morning for the purpose of acting as an equalization board in regard to taxes, and up to noon received no complaints.

The Commission approved 20 denials of Homestead Exemption made in regard to applications by Sanford P. Doudney, tax assessor. Among the reasons for rejection that he pointed out were filling the application too late. Another reason was that one applicant did not have a Florida tag on his car. Others were refused for not living on the property described.

A letter was read from a Miami resident offering to buy all or portion of the Big Tree at Longwood for museum purposes. This drew nothing but a laugh. However, upon the advice of Mr. Dodd, the Commission decided to do something about filling holes in the base of the tree caused by sawdills. Estimates of tree surgeons on this work will be asked.

H. B. Pope requested that the tree surgeons be asked also to work on the big oak on the mound at Indian Mound Village. Letters from the County School Board and Seminole County Teachers Club thanking the Commission for voting $30,000 toward increasing teachers salaries were read.

He was a professor of botany at the University of Wisconsin, and had reached the end of a 50-year teaching career.

"We don't have any old fossils around the university," he recalled dryly. "By legislative rule you have to retire at 70."

But Dr. Duggar didn't want to rack up his test tubes just because he was three scores and ten. "It takes a lot of time to get experience," he said, "and once you have it you ought to go on using it."

But what to do? His dilemma was solved by some of his former students. They got him a post as consulting scientist for the Lederle laboratories.

Dr. Duggar's pet specialty had been the physiology of the potato. But in his new job he had to pioneer in a fresh field. His assignment: "Find a better antibiotic."

The old teacher packed up his test tubes and set it to show the boys how. He collected and tested hundreds of soil samples. Three years after his painstaking quest began he found a golden-colored mold growing in one sample of earth from central Missouri.

It was his answer. It was known as "A-377" then. Today it is called Aureomycin, a cure for dozens of infections ranging from boils to pneumonia.

That would satisfy many men, but not Dr. Duggar. He still works seven days a week in his laboratory, and has now tested 3,000 soil samples in his search for his second wonder drug.

"I believe I'd be completely satisfied," he said, "if I could find a specific antibiotic effective against tuberculosis and the small viruses."

Small viruses cause such ailments as smallpox, mumps, rabies and the hoof-and-mouth disease in animals.

"I think the chances are good we will find it," he said. "There are many probabilities. It will take a great many laboratories."

"A few years ago there were fewer than 100 known antibiotics. Now more than 600 have been classified, and others are being turned up.

Scientists now believe their best soil samples come from ground that hasn't recently been disturbed or cultivated.

"Some of our best material comes from cemeteries," said Dr. Duggar cheerfully. "On one motor trip I made in 1948 I don't think I missed a single cemetery between here and Iowa."

He doubts in his heart he really give up his researches even if he finds a drug to whip tuberculosis. "I feel very happy, and I want to go on," he said. His hobbies include golf, gardening, bowling and playing with his 19 grandchildren.

The spry little elderly scientist amused up his own creed: "I don't think a man ought to coddle his defects. It's too easy in this world just to give up."

TODAY'S HIGHLIGHTS

In the end the stars in their course fight against the walls, while the lamb survives. Human wolves and nations might well learn to live within the law.

A Michigan Republican has launched a move to nominate FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover for the presidency. We hope it fails.

Federal tax collections are at a new high. The Internal Revenue Bureau reports that during the fiscal year of 1951 just closed, they reached the record smashing total of $50,396,000,000, or 15 percent more than ever before in the history of this country.

A New York paper headlines that it was responsible for the suspension of a Louisiana daily. "There is no basis in fact," its president declares.

This may not be the complete record of British Socialists, but it represents a Conservative point of view. "For the time being we have lost our rank among the nations," says Winston Churchill.

Russia is outbuilding the United States in bomber and fighter production at the rate of about 4 to 1, says Eric Cooke, national commander of the American Legion.

It was an unfortunate circumstance, writes Jim Powell in the Tampa Tribune, "that a man of (Fuller) Warren's personality, devotion to friends and sense of humor should have reached an office where these qualities are not particularly important."

Sunday's newspaper bill of money has been new getting ready way in Florida. "Cash and without fanfare," is the way one of them reads.

Broken Puppets

The premiers of two Communist satellite states have been stripped of their power, according to reports. Petru Groza, premier of Romania, and his counterpart in Bulgaria, Valko Chervenkov, still retain their titles but are said to be in disfavor with Russia and without authority.

Both are Communists of many years' standing. They were instrumental in the delivery of their countries into the Soviet camp and have governed under strict discipline from the Kremlin. It may be that some simple act in a thoughtless moment cost them Soviet disfavor.

Communism was once thought to be international in its philosophy and the eventual world Communist state it envisioned was to receive allegiance superior to that given to any one country.

Reports from London say that Princess Elizabeth, who some day is expected to reign as Queen, has lost twenty pounds as the result of following a rigorous diet recommended by television and newspaper publicity.

Princess Elizabeth, like her uncle the Duke of Windsor, has done much to make the British royal family seem more human to the rest of the world.

Appropriately enough it was an English poet, Rudyard Kipling, who wrote: "The Colonel's Lady and Judy O'Grady Are sisters under the skin."

A Royal Diet

The 64th annual convention of Oregon Newspaper Publishers Association adopted a condensed form of the Oregon Code of Ethics for Journalists.

We pledge ourselves to print the truth regardless of the consequences; to seek factual accuracy and simplicity, and to be fair.

We subscribe to the tenets of good taste; we reserve the right to decide what is fit to print, but the public interest, and not the private interest—even that of the newspaper—shall be the basis of such decision.

Freedom of the press guaranteed by the Constitution is a right of the people as well as of newspapers, and must therefore, conform always to the interest of the people.

The public is entitled to news of public interest whatever its origin.

High competency and thorough training are essentials for all in the newspaper profession.

Advertising must be as truthful as news and editorial.

In the interests of world-wide human freedom, we support all efforts to make the press free throughout the world.

We affirm that the printed word, medium of global communication, is a means to the end of freeing the human mind from bigotry, hate and intolerance, and for the establishment of better living, international peace, and justice for all.

School Lands Are Not Taxable For Street Repairs

TALLAHASSEE, July 24.—(AP)—Property acquired and used for school purposes may not be taxed for street improvements without special authority of the Legislature, attorney general Richard W. Ervin ruled today.

Ervin advised Thomas G. Hall, attorney for Nassau county commissioners that "lacking special legislation, the trustees of a special tax school district are powerless to expend school funds" for paying special assessments for paving a street in Callahan on which school property abuts.

The Attorney General added that even with a special act there would be the question of whether it supported the general law.

Cities have the power to arrange for confinement of city prisoners in the county jail, but there is no general law requiring counties to accept city prisoners, Ervin held in another opinion.

Bradley Fix

Altogether, 17 present or former players have been arrested here. Manhattan College was a fourth institution to be involved. Under the point system of fixing a basketball game, it is not necessary for one team to lose another outright, but just to lose points by a different margin.

Melchiorre was the leading scorer of the gambling fees, Hogan said. He got a total of $2,500 since he began to do business with gamblers in the 1948-49 season, the district attorney said.

Hogan said Preece got $1,400 while Mann and Grover got $500 each. At least two of the unnamed players got $500 each, while another got $100, Hogan added.

The bills amounts listed by Hogan totaled $1,200. It was not known immediately whether this figure would be increased as further details of the gambling plot became known.

The gamblers moved in on Bradley for the first time, so far as the authorities can discover, Hogan said, with the Garden game between Bradley and Bowling Green.

Melchiorre, Mann and an unnamed third player were to get $500 each for losing by six or more points, Hogan explained, but they failed to deliver so got nothing.

Hogan said the next tainted game was the Bradley-Washington State game at the Bradley Field House, apparently the first major game outside the Garden to be tainted with fixers.

Melchiorre, Mann and Grover were supposed to get $500 each if they won by fewer points than predicted by bettors, Bradley won off to a fast start in Brooklyn, but gave no further details, Police Hogan said that shortly after the basketball scandal broke here, the Bradley team voted 11 to 1 to refuse any Madison Square Garden post-season games because of the taint of fixing in the big arena.

The team decided to hold its championships in Peoria, Hogan said.

This was one case where those who pointed their finger at the players involved in the Madison Square Garden fixes proved to be affected with the same virus, Melchiorre, Hogan said.

Other congressional developments today: Rep. Bray (R-Ind.) said Congress should refuse to vote the State Department any funds until it "makes an honest, sincere and courageous attempt" to free Associated Press reporter William N. Galis, imprisoned in Czechoslovakia on spy charges.

A man named a Communist by a Boston area FBI undercover agent told the House Un-American Activities Committee he is not now a member of the Communist Party.

The witness, Harry Eugene Winner, 50, of Malden, Mass., drew high praise from top brass, including Lieut. General Fodge, who termed it the top division in the Third Army of which he is commanding general.

Former Commanding Lieut. General Russell of Macomb, Ga., declared that while he did not know how many more National Guard divisions will be called into active duty, if future calls are made on the basis of efficiency, the 48th Division might, as well pack up and be ready to go.

Among those who commended the 3rd Battalion for its maneuvers was Col. Maxwell C. Snyder of Jacksonville, regimental commander. The battalion included companies from Sanford, Orlando, Eustis, Deland and Daytona Beach.

Lieut. Robert Newman, company executive officer, stated that he lost weight, as did many of the men, but termed the encampment as very beneficial.

Comp. Gatchel pointed out today that the recent weekend training periods near Dade had prepared the men well for the rigors of camp and bivouac duty.

forces must be increased from 3,500,000, as President Truman suggested yesterday it probably will be.

The President, in his mid-year economic report, told Congress the present goal, now almost reached, may prove inadequate, regardless of what happens in the Korean truce talks.

Melchiorre got $2,000 for winning by only three points in the Bradley-Oregon State game in 1950 with $1,000 going to Preece and $500 each to two other unnamed players, Hogan said.

Hogan said suspicion pointed to Bradley during investigation of the scandal here, Assistant District Attorney Vincent A. G. O'Connor and two detectives went to Peoria last Wednesday and questioned the group until last night, Hogan said four players questioned "all gave confessions."

Hogan's office later announced the arrest of Tony English, brother of Nick English in Brooklyn, but gave no further details, Police Hogan said that shortly after the basketball scandal broke here, the Bradley team voted 11 to 1 to refuse any Madison Square Garden post-season games because of the taint of fixing in the big arena.

Dear Mr. Dean: Like yourself, many of us are eagerly waiting to hear the comment of Sen. H. H. Humphreys on the recent near-tragic going-on in the good old "South" at the 2. Circus, Miami.

This incident had a number of disgraceful angles—not the least of which was the apparent complete lack of regard for the senator's feelings shown in staging the riot right there in his own front yard.

Could it be, do you think, he may learn a little something from the incident? Or is there anything he doesn't already know?

Sincerely, B. H. Guthrie

"I Can Spot A Lady" By Bryce Poundexter Of Charles the Ritz

Everybody has manners. But it's discouraging how many people use them only part of the time turn them on and off to suit the occasion. When it's convenient, they can be the sympathetic listener, the considerate guest, the accommodating hostess.

But listen to them talk to people they know well—their husbands, children, for instance—or to those who might have something to lose by answering them back—servants, salesmen, employees and service people such as myself, a hairdresser. Of course, not only women are guilty of part-time manners, and certainly the majority of women aren't on-again-off-again ladies either. In my business you meet the good and the bad, and I'm happy to say most of my customers have been as nice as I could wish.

From them I've formed an opinion of what a real lady is: she is someone whose manners are turned on permanently, not just when she thinks she needs them. She arrives as punctually for a hairdressing appointment as she does for lunch with her best friend. She doesn't "forget" to cancel her manicure appointment when she can't make it, any more than she fails to arrive for a dinner party.

If she doesn't sneer at other people in public, she doesn't do it in the protection of the curtain behind the door. The woman who wouldn't make and receive personal calls in the middle of a bridge game wouldn't change her habits in a beauty salon. Nor does she argue about prices—she inquires about them first just as she does about the price of a dress before she buys it.

My firm opinion is that no man should get married without checking first with his wife's hairdresser. That way he might find out whether her manners are the kind that "wear off."

A few minutes before the big plane was airborne at 10:14 A. M., an Italian armed forces guard and band rendered last honors to the veteran officer whose 33-year Navy career began and ended in the Mediterranean. The plane, bearing his body in due in Washington at 3 P. M. tomorrow, the Navy said.

A black, silver and gold Italian hearse brought the casket, draped in the Stars and Stripes to Capodichino Airport. An Italian motor police escort led the funeral cortege from the U. S. Navy ship Mount Olympus in Naples harbor.

The 54-year-old Admiral, youngest man to become U. S. Chief of Naval Operations, died after two heart attacks Sunday morning in a Naples hotel suite. He had been making a rapid tour of Atlantic Pact countries and had just finished talks with Generalissimo Franco about U. S. sea and air bases in Spain.

A brief funeral service was held this morning on the Admiral's veranda of the Mount Olympus, flagship for Admiral Robert B. Carney in which Sherman's body was moved Sunday.

Admiral Carney, who commands Allied forces in southern Europe, led his staff officers and enlisted men to the service. Four U. S. destroyers, just back from Korea, formed a floating guard of honor around the ship.

A Navy chaplain, Lt. Comdr. G. J. Echard, conducted the 12-minute prayer service. A 24-piece band played.

At the airport four husky U. S. Marines and sailors carried the flag-covered coffin to a few miles south of Cape Girardeau near Castro, Ill.

Flood

About 250 persons had been forced out of their homes in a low lying residential section near the river. Water was on three sides of the Missouri utilities plant which produces electricity for several communities in the area. Sandbag barricades kept out the water and officials were confident the plant would be kept in service. The shoe factory closed down last week throwing some 1,200 persons out of work and through train service was discontinued because of the high water. The flood waters surrounded a huge riverfront stockpile of a sand company slowing construction in the area.

In Washington, a representative of the U. S. Corps of Engineers said "no difficulty is anticipated" along the lower Mississippi since the Ohio River is not at a high level. The Ohio empties into the Mississippi a
