ARMY FLIERS REACH HONOLULU

Commander Byrd Hops Off On Paris Flight

Huge Fokker Speeds To Nova Scotia On 1st Leg Of Journey

Radio Reveals Crew Had Trouble With Compass Because Of Several Deflections
Gasoline Tanks Thrown Overboard
Steel Handles Thought To Have Been The Cause Of Troubles

ROOSEVELT FIELD, N. Y., June 29—(INS)—Average more than 100 miles an hour, the great silver and gold monoplane America is today winging its way toward Paris in a non-stop flight from New York. The big three-motored plane which hopped off at 5:11 A. M. was passing over Nova Scotia, some 600 miles away at 11 o'clock.

The America was flying over the island of Scatarie, northeast of Nova Scotia, about 5,000 feet above sea level, according to a radio message from Byrd received at the hangar here at 2:15 p. m. today.

Scatarie, flying about 5,000 feet, the radio flash said. Scatarie is a small island just east of the Breton Islands.

Radio messages are being flashed back to the hangar here. The first one direct from the ship received at 8:41 A. M. and signed by Commander Richard E. Byrd, reporting he was out of sight of land and encountering trouble. The message said:

"Half way between Cape Cod and Newfoundland out of sight of land. Weather clearing slightly. Extra gas on board. They can be thrown overboard."

Byrd's message was the first indication of trouble. Later Providence picked up a message signed by G. O. Noville, the radio expert aboard the plane, in which he asked stations to "please stand by. I am going to pump gas."

This was interpreted by Grover Whalen, vice-president of the American Trans-Oceanic Company, backers of the flight, to mean that Noville was transferring the gasoline from the 27 extra cans into the main tanks, so that these extra cans could be thrown overboard, thus eliminating the compass trouble.

All of these cans have steel handles. This steel affects the compass needles and puts it out of plumb.

No further word was expected from the American for two hours because Noville would be too busy with this job to take the time to send radio dispatches back to the hangar here.

The America is making about the same time as Charles A. Lindbergh did in the "Spirit of St. Louis" which averaged about 108 miles an hour in its flight to Paris. The great tri-motored plane headed west, into a murky mist, swept to the left in a huge semi-circle and came back with its black nose pointed due east to (Continued on Page Three)

Sidelights On The Byrd Ocean Flight

BOSTON, June 29—(INS)—"It's chilly flying half a mile above the Atlantic up the New England coast toward Nova Scotia, commander Richard E. Byrd wirelessly in a message picked up by South shore radio station shortly after 9 A. M. today. "All well aboard," the commander of the America reported.

BOSTON, June 29—(INS)—Commander Richard E. Byrd reported by wireless from the trans-Atlantic monoplane America shortly after ten o'clock today that he was off the Nova Scotia coast. He is approximately average speed of 108 miles an hour. He gave his position as west Lucher lightship, Yarmouth, N. S.

ST. JOHN'S, Newfoundland, June 29—(INS)—Conditions are far from ideal this morning for the flight to take the trans-Atlantic flight, according to radio reports received here from various sources along the line of his route.

BERLIN, June 29—(INS)—Commander Richard E. Byrd, commanding the flight of the monoplane America from New York to Paris today, may expect to buck light head winds for the first 600 miles of his flight, but after leaving the coast of Newfoundland probably will be favored with a strong following wind.

The velocity of the following wind will be from 6 to 18 miles per hour, the weather observatory said. This is somewhat lighter than the following winds which helped Colonel Lindbergh and Clarence Chamberlin to span the Atlantic in non-stop flights.

The observatory planned to advise the American commander by radio of weather conditions every hour throughout the day.

HALIFAX, N. S. June 29—(INS)—Paris-bound monoplane was sighted over Bedford about ten miles from here at 12:29 o'clock daylight saving time.

ROOSEVELT FIELD, MINEOLA, N. Y., June 29—(INS)—T. Harold "Doc" Kinkadee motor expert of the Wright Aeronautical Company who tested the motors on the America before it hopped off for Paris will sail this afternoon for Europe on the President Roosevelt. Kinkadee will test the American's motors again in Paris presumably for another flight—probably a return trip to the United States.

The smiling quartette pictured above is the crew of the "America," now winging its way across the Atlantic, enroute to Paris. From left to right you see: Commander Richard E. Byrd, Engineer, George Noville, Pilot Bert Acosta and Mechanician Bert Balchen. Byrd and Noville are naval officers, Acosta and Balchen belong to civilian aviation.

COOLIDGES WILL VISIT PLYMOUTH DURING SUMMER

President And Wife Expected To Visit Old Home Place In August; Return To Washington To Be Earlier This Year

RAID CITY, S. D., June 29—(INS)—From the Black Hills of South Dakota to the Green mountains of Vermont is a long vacation jump, but those attached to the summer who have here are going to wind up the season away from Washington at his birthplace at Plymouth.

Not earlier than August 15, not later than August 25, in their belief, the president will be found at the cross roads settlement high up in the north where he grew to manhood and where he took the oath of office as chief executive.

Since becoming President, Mr. Coolidge has never failed to visit Plymouth at least once in the course of a summer, and it is not thought that this year will be an exception. He no longer can look forward to a reunion with his father, who died a year ago last March but he likes to get back for a few days and review the scenes of his youth.

Mr. Coolidge also is anxious to spend a little time in the Green Mountains, it is understood. Bired alongside old Colonel Coolidge is her younger son Calvin Jr., and she wants to get back to make sure that proper attention is being given to the graves.

The return to Washington this year probably will be earlier than in any of the previous summers. Both in 1925 and 1926, the executive remained away until about the middle of September. The first of that month this year, however, is expected to find him under the newly imposed roof of the White House. The possibility of a special session of congress in October as a factor here.

Quite a number of engagements in various sections of South Dakota are being accepted for Mr. Coolidge, but none of them are later than the "first part of August." Participation in the "days of '99" celebration at Deadwood, August 4 and a witnessing of Sioux Ridge immediately thereafter are expected to bring his excursions around the state to an end, and he will thus be enabled to leave for the east at any time thereafter.

Kiwanians See Play At Noon Luncheon

A sketch arranged by E. J. Trotter, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, furnished entertainment for the members of the Kiwanis Club at their weekly luncheon at the Seminole Cafe today. The play was entitled "The Secretary" and revised the trials of a commercial secretary in the course of an ordinary day.

Federal Board's Refusal To Permit Forum To Have Radio Station Raises Row

WASHINGTON, June 29—(INS)—A new radio network's nest has been stirred up by the virtual refusal of the Federal Radio Commission to permit the operation of a broadcasting station by the fraternal publication widely supported by the Ku Klux Klan.

Agents of the Klan here today asserted that strong pressure would be brought to bear on the commission from many parts of the country for authority to open what has been heralded as a "patriotic protestant American station." The station, it is claimed, has been the intention to go on the air early next month with a 10,000 watt transmitter sufficient to give it a national range.

COUNTESS SALM DENIES PARENTS SEEKING DIVORCE

Former Millicent Rogers in Paris Tells Newspapermen Rumors Unfounded And That Parents Are Very Happy

PARIS, June 29—(INS)—Countess Millicent Rogers International News Service a report published in the United States that either her father, Colonel Henry B. Rogers, Standard Oil magnate, or her mother are contemplating a suit for divorce.

"You can say for me that neither mother nor father are planning suit for divorce," said the Countess, herself recently freed by the Paris courts from her marriage to Count Ludwig Salm Von Hoogstraeten.

"Mother and father are both living here with me, and are quite happy together. I cannot see what ever started such a rumor. They went out together last night to dinner, and appeared the happiest possible couple."

Here the Countess took occasion to say that she has not re-married and does not intend marrying just yet. This was in refutation of another report current in the United States.

MARTIN SAYS HE HAS RECEIVED NO WORD FROM DANN

State Executive Asserts Only Letter From Dann Was One Asking 24 Questions With Reference To The Bond Sale

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., June 29—(INS)—I have yet received no letter from Herman A. Dann, president of the Florida State Chamber of Commerce, in answer to my challenge of last Friday night.

The only letter that he had received, was one dated last week asking 24 questions in reference to the Everglades Drainage bond issue and matters relative to the drainage of the Everglades.

"All work in the 'glades is stopped because we have no more money," the Everglades Drainage Board writes in this information before the Everglades Drainage districts and we cannot turn a wheel to go ahead with the drainage until we get this money.

"An area larger than the State of Connecticut and Rhode Island put together rich in potential wealth, must not be given up and turned back into water and swamp lands. This empire must be reclaimed and given to the State of Florida with its productiveness."

Lieutenants Maitland And Hegenberger Greeted By Throngs At Wheeler Field

2400 Mile Flight Requires 26 Hours

Plane Makes Graceful Landing Amid The Shouts Of Crowds

HONOLULU, June 29—The Pacific has been "Lindberghed". Swooping down on Wheeler Field at 9:05 A. M. Pacific Coast time Lieutenants Lester Maitland and Albert Hegenberger completed the first non-stop flight between the Pacific coast and the Hawaiian Islands.
From take-off at 7:08 A. M. Pacific coast time at Oakland Calif., until it landed here, it had taken the big tri-motored Fokker army plane 26 hours to negotiate the 2,400 landless miles stretching between the mainland and the Islands.
Unescorted by an army patrol which was still out looking for their plane the big olive green air monster made a pretty landing at Wheeler Field. The plane was in excellent condition after its long flight and the aviators said they had followed the radio beacon route most of the way.
A huge crowd which had waited all night lifted a mighty shout as they circled the field and a salute of welcome was fired by guns at Schofield barracks.
"I'm hungry" were the first words of Lieut. Hegenberger as he stepped from the cabin of his plane.
"Let's have a cigarette" was the first request of Lieut. Maitland as he stuck his head from the pilot's compartment with a boyish grin.
"They put in coffee and sandwiches but we didn't find them," Hegenberger explained.
"Congratulations my boy," Gen. Edward Lewis, commander of the department of Hawaii, said to Maitland as he climbed from the plane.
"That's fine, thanks" responded Maitland "but give me a cigarette."
"We had a fine trip" the fliers chorused as officials hung leis of flowers about their shoulders and escorted them to the platform for their official welcome.
The two aviators were enthusiastically welcomed by their buddies to whom they confided that their "type E" compass was the only one that had worked on the trip.
Both men looked cheerful and happy as they walked to the platform amid cheers. Neither indicated any exhaustion. Neither indicated that the weather was none too good for the flight. Grace will also be handicapped in starting by the narrowness of the flying field.
The Los Angeles airman retired at 10 o'clock last night, saying he intended to get a good night's rest.
Grace narrowly escaped wrecking his plane when he landed here after his flight from Honolulu last night. He landed in a grove of low bushes on the banking sands, but managed to keep his machine in an upright position.

Florida Leads Again

Floridians who are interested in making the state something more than a tourist center will note with interest figures recently submitted by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics. According to the survey of the federal department, Florida leads the entire country in farm value increases during a period of five years. The period extends from 1922 to 1927 and the statistics gleaned from the department files reveal facts of which we may be justly proud.

Data covering sixteen states shows that Florida was one of the five states to show an increase in farm valuations. This information is made all the more significant when we consider that of the sixteen states nine showed a decrease and in one, Massachusetts, there was no change. Figures showing the value per acre are given as follows:

Table with 2 columns: State and Value per acre. Florida: 1922 $64, 1927 $100. Georgia: 1922 $35, 1927 $30. Delaware: 1922 68, 1927 66. Maryland: 1922 72, 1927 75. Virginia: 1922 73, 1927 56. West Virginia: 1922 47, 1927 44. North Carolina: 1922 56, 1927 58. South Carolina: 1922 47, 1927 45. Maine: 1922 84, 1927 51. New Hampshire: 1922 52, 1927 50. Vermont: 1922 50, 1927 44. Massachusetts: 1922 100, 1927 100. Rhode Island: 1922 90, 1927 100. Connecticut: 1922 70, 1927 77. New York: 1922 82, 1927 74. Indiana: 1922 104, 1927 86.

As pointed out by the Orlando Reporter-Star we may be especially proud of this showing of our state when we learn that Florida's increase is equal to fifty-six per cent as compared with the average increase of the other states placed at seven per cent. With this thought in mind, citizens of this state should continue their efforts toward the development of the state's agricultural resources. With unlimited possibilities as a farming center, Florida could be made one of the outstanding producing sections of the nation and as such add millions of dollars to its income.

The Reporter-Star also calls our attention to the fact that "it must not be forgotten that a great factor in fixing Florida farm land values is Florida climate, which makes it possible to grow things in Florida and put them upon the markets of the country when other places cannot do so and when, therefore, the demand is the best and the prices the highest."

The Martin-Dann Debate

Herman Dann, president of the Florida Chamber of Commerce, has signified his willingness to meet Governor John W. Martin in joint debate on the subject of the Everglades drainage issue. In a letter to the governor, Mr. Dann asks that date for the debate be set for July 10 if possible and complies with the chief executive's request that the meeting be staged at St. Petersburg.

The outcome of the debate will be interesting to watch. Its bearing on the Florida political situation is expected to definitely settle whatever political aspirations these two gentlemen may have. The debate may mean the vindication of one and the repudiation of the other or it may result in political demise for one and a bright political future for the other.

In view of these possibilities the meeting will not be lacking in fire and color. Politically speaking, each man will have everything at stake and for that reason both will summon every effort to make the most of their opportunities. Out of the meeting may spring a potential candidate for governor and potential candidate for United States senator.

DAUDET THE MAGNIFICENT NEW YORK HERALD-TRIBUNE

The incomprehensible Daudet, having surrendered himself to the Paris police as the hero of a so-called martyrdom—"to avoid a civil war"—now suddenly slips through their fingers as the hero of an uproarious farce. The government, having carefully maneuvered to spill the martyrdom by letting him out on Bastille Day, July 14, and suddenly discovers that he has already been let out by one of their own officials, through the "defect" manipulation of the Paris police system; and they find themselves in the face of this "jailbreak in French history," very definitely holding the bag, with the burly figure of M. Daudet, who appears to be the most agile will-o'-wisp away behind the Belgian border. Their formidable eloquence is set at naught, and there is a hasty Cabinet meeting which promptly revokes it; but the Royalists are cracking champagne bottles in the offices of "L'Action Francaise," the news is on every kiosk, and as these harassed statesmen must vividly appreciate it is a situation which will be appreciated by the boulevardiers.

THE DOG'S LIFE TAMPA TRIBUNE

Acts of cruelty to domesticated animals are less frequent today than homicides and prosecutions for the cruel treatment of human beings. There are some grounds for the statement that the public is less angered by the mistreatment of humans than by the mistreatment of dumb animals. Our heart strings are touched by the helplessness, in the way we explain this seeming anomaly. We of today take for granted that man has always been as kind and gentle with animals as he is today. But when we so think we forget that there must have been some extreme provocation for the many laws against cruelty to animals and some cause for the inception of the so well organized societies for the prevention of cruelty to animals. On second thought, to older spectators of life can probably recall a time when it was not an uncommon occurrence for drovers and drovers to cruelly beat their beasts-of-burden on the public highways, when it was a man's privilege to treat his animals

18-1-2 Miles a Second. Protect Children. Troubling Trotzky. Real Flying, Aug. 1. By ARTHUR BRIBBANE Copyright 1927 by Star Co.

YESTERDAY THE big Ponce-Winneco comet flew by the earth, only 3,500,000 miles away, traveling 18 and one-half miles per second. That speed, 66,600 miles an hour, is slow compared with the speed of light, which goes 186,000 miles a second.

And light travels slowly compared with thought, which can transport itself instantaneously to another universe in distant space. 1,000,000 light years away.

THE FOURTH of July comes soon, protect your children. Surgeons paint the skin thoroughly with iodine, that it may be absolutely disinfected, all germs on the surface killed before cutting into it. This makes operating safe. No germs go into the wound with the knife.

WHEN A FIRE cracker explodes in a child's hand, it blows disease germs into the flesh, beyond reach of iodine, and without immediate surgical attendance, serious consequences are probable. Lock-jaw is often caused by apparently trifling Fourth of July accidents.

FIRST KEEP your children from explosive firecrackers. Teach them to be patriotic without making noise. Second if an accident happens get a doctor, and one who understands his business, immediately.

HISTORY REPEATS itself in Russia. Leaders of the French revolution were destroyed by other leaders. Robespierre cut off Danton's head. Greater extremists cut off Robespierre's head. Charlotte Corday assassinated Marat, then Napoleon took charge.

IN RUSSIA, TROTZKY and Zinovieff, who would have called themselves "natural rulers" of Russia after Lenin's death, are accused of treason. Their expulsion from office is demanded, and they will be lucky if they only lose their offices, not their heads.

BEGINNING ON August 1 air passenger service from the Atlantic to the Pacific is promised, the trip to take 30 hours.

Others believe that God, having created man with thinking power animals with capacity for change, left it to them to develop the earth and the creatures on it.

TWO HUNDRED and seven Americans reported incomes of $1,000,000 a year or more in 1925. In 1924 only 75 reported incomes of $1,000,000 or over.

Once a man owning a million was a wonder. Now 207 have a million or more income and some have 50 millions of income and a good deal more through corporation ownership.

THE VERY DRYS plan a dry ticket in 1928, if neither party supplies them with a candidate dry enough.

IT would be enlightening to nominate at least one independent dry. The result would be instructive. Few candidates dare defy the dry, few would want an out and out dry nomination.

MUCH TO ITS credit the United States has 4000 aviation landing fields, scattered in every state and the District of Columbia. And much to its discredit New York city, richest congested spot in the world, with the most to lose in airplane war, possesses not one airport.

Notice To City Tax Payers! By Order of the City Commission time for payment of City Taxes without extra costs has been extended to September 1, 1927. Ellen Hoy, Tax Collector.

"DRIVEN TO IT" Credit should not be used by a debtor as a means of shifting the burden of personal or family expenses to the shoulders of his creditors. That is what is done when bills are not paid promptly. The purpose of credit is to accommodate customers for a limited time, such as the period between one pay day and another. Some people do not know that the World War put an end to long credit terms as between wholesalers and retailers. The retail merchants must now pay promptly on short terms or suffer in his credit. AFRAID TO EAT
Bloating Spells, from Indigestion, Put an Oklahoma Man in a Miserable Fix, But He Found Relief.

Swink, Okla.—In describing how he suffered from indigestion, Mr.
S. T. Strain, of this place, says:
"I have been a user of Black-Draught for four or five years. I have been taking it for stomach trouble. I suffered after eating with bloating and a 'tight feeling'.
"I had spells when I could not eat much of anything. I had severe headaches. I would be nauseated and hurt a lot. I was in a pretty bad fix.
"I began taking Black-Draught. It seemed to help me wonderfully. I hadn't found anything that benefited me as Black-Draught did. I certainly can recommend it.
"There were times when I just did without anything to eat until I was too weak to go. I was just miserable, and when I ate, my system seemed clogged.
"I had very severe headaches. So I didn't know just what to do. I knew I couldn't work if I didn't eat.
Seemed like what I spit up was bitter as could be. I took Black-Draught pretty regularly and got where I could eat, and I don't have to take it so regularly now." NC-177

SHAMING MR. ALADDIN

Aladdin had to rub his lamp to work his wonders; Judge Elbert H. Gary, head of the U. S. Steel Corporation, merely waves his hand. This photo, taken in his New York office, shows Gary setting in operation a great new electrified steel plant at Homestead, near Pittsburgh, Pa.—400 miles away. Within the glass sphere was a "Knowles grid-glow relay tube," an extremely sensitive electrical device. Through the relay tube, the wave of Gary's hand actuated electrical impulses which were transmitted by telegraph line and radio to Homestead. There the delicate "hook-up" threw a switch and started a 6000-kilowatt, 700-volt motor.
This motor, in-turn, set huge rolling mills machinery at the steel plant in motion.

Nationalists Defeated
By Northern Soldiers
Casualties Total 30,000
LONDON, June 29—(INS)—
The Chinese Nationalist armies under Gen. Chiang Kai-Shek have met with a severe reverse in the neighborhood of Hsuehchow, suffering 30,000 casualties, most of whom were killed according to dispatches from Shanghai.
The Nationalists admit the dispatches said that they had sustained the most staggering reverse of the present war. The northern general, Sun Chuan-Fang, whom Chiang Kai-Shek defeated before Shanghai, attacked Hsuehchow in force.
The nationalists, after four days of desperate fighting, were compelled to evacuate their positions and retire in the direction of Pen-pu, representing a loss of 30 miles of territory.
