

Chamber As Modern As Tomorrow's Newspaper, Mills Tells Jaycees

"The chamber of commerce movement has its roots in antiquity but is as modern as tomorrow's newspaper," members of the Sanford Jaycees were told at the luncheon meeting, held Thursday at the Civic Center.

The speaker was William A. Mills, executive vice president of the N. Y. State Chamber of Commerce before his retirement and a veteran of 40 years experience in the National Trade Assn. director and one of two commercial organizations executives listed in Who's Who.

Mills placed special emphasis on the need to identify business interests with the public interest and said that unless objectives are related and identified as being in the public interest they will not succeed.

"Downtown business no longer exercises the gravity force it once did in attracting people to the central shopping area," Mills said.

"Most cities have tolerated complacency too long and the center of the city has lost much of its appeal," he added.

Mills noted that the downtown business area, which was once considered the place to bank, find professional services, recreation and shopping, now has found itself competing with neighborhood drive-in theaters, out-lying shopping centers, specialty shops, night-clubs and motels, outside the city limits.

"This problem calls for business statesmanship within the merchant group and all others concerned with the problem of downtown deterioration, the speaker said, and included in this group, owners and investors in downtown real estate, financial interests, professional men and public officials.

"These persons should be aware," he said, "of the declining value of what is generally the highest rated taxable property in the city."

"Everyone seems to want new industries and the added business that expanded pay-rolls produce, and most chambers of commerce have this as one of their major objectives," Mills said.

"But you don't get new industries, by forming committees, printing attractive brochures, advertising in national publications or by huge billboards inviting industry to locate in your hometown."

"Today," he said, "industrial location is a very scientific procedure. It is the city with the best 'business climate' that will get the new plant."

"The city that has not examined its 'business climate,' the speaker pointed out, "is not taking full advantage of the growth potential that lies ahead for Florida."

The need for localized police action was stressed by W. W. Anderson, president of the North Orlando Civic Assn., at Tuesday's 8 p. m. meeting of the Village Council.

Anderson, who asked why the volunteer firemen could not be deputized as acting policemen, was advised by Mayor Frank Fasula that responsibility for their lives could not be put on the shoulders of the village. "Who would be responsible if these men shot someone or they got shot?" Fasula asked.

In other business the audience and council joined in a lengthy discussion on the question of preventing vandalism at the new recreation and play area with one resident reporting that two teenage boys not of the community were witnessed committing destructive acts to shelters at the shuffleboard court. The witness also reported that these boys had frightened a much smaller child by pinning it on top of the shelter and had been "exceedingly rude" to a woman when chastised for the act.

The mayor agreed to Anderson's request that specific rules be set for the play areas and that notices be sent to all residents. Fasula said that he had been advised that on Monday a small child was hurt at the playground and that there should have been no reason for the accident which resulted in the youth being hospitalized overnight. Blame was placed on the fact that older youngsters have been guilty of playing on the Toddlers' Playground although facilities for their age group have been provided. The mayor advised that he would to his utmost in cooperating with parents to keep order at the recreation center.

Both Anderson and Fasula again pointed out that children caught misusing the area and equipment will be picked up and taken to their parents and that the parents will be held totally responsible for all damages.

Plans still are underway for building a swimming pool and clubhouse with work to begin this week on moving the structure to be used as a Civic Building to the recreation park, Fasula reported.

In answer to a question from Volunteer Fire Chief Bob Stephenson, Fasula advised that there will be land for a firehouse and discussed plans with the firemen for an early fund raising drive for the building.

Fasula said that voter registration was "pretty good" and reminded residents again to be sure and register in order that they may vote in the March 20 election for two council members.

By Shirley Wentworth

Girl Scout Troop 497 of Bear Lake enjoyed an overnight stay at the Girl Scout House on Cella Lane in Orlando last weekend.

The group arrived at the house at 4 p. m. on Friday afternoon and after getting settled, planned and cooked the evening meal.

Later in the evening the girls enjoyed skits, songs and games while working for their Personal Health Badges.

On Saturday morning, they cooked their own breakfast and conducted a flag ceremony. They also learned how to whip the end of a rope in connection with their Camp Craft Badges. At the close of the session a "Scout's Own" was conducted with "friendship" as the theme.

Poems and stories read during the inspirational period brought the outing to a close with the group returning home on Saturday afternoon.

Attending were Vicky and Pelly Brannon, Leslie Carmichael, Sandra Elliott, Jane Epinger, Candace Harrington, Cheryl Hall, Mary Kilger, Janice Pioronek and Patty Stevenson.

Mrs. John Hall, leader of the troop, accompanied the girls on the trip for which Senior Scout Nancy Flahinger of Winter Park served as guide.

After many requests the Sanford Recreation and Parks Department has scheduled a charm school, to begin Feb. 14, at 7 p. m. until 9 p. m. at the Civic Center.

A well rounded program will be offered with a guest speaker appearing each week. The speakers will be: Mary Tyre, Beauty Counselor, to give demonstration and lectures on make-up and cosmetics; Betty Ann Howard, from Betty Ann's Hairstyling Salon, to discuss and demonstrate different hair styles; Miss Betty Mann, Home Ec Teacher at Junior High School, clothes, styles and accessories; Lucy Nowlin Nutrition and physical fitness; Lina Harrison, Social Graces and James Jerigan, Recreation Director, interests and hobbies.

Traffic Gains Put Strain On County Highways

$1.7 Million Gems Recovered By FBI

POMPANO BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—The FBI said today it has recovered $1,750,000 worth of jewels stolen from a Pompano Beach shop and arrested three men and two women charged with the theft. Miami FBI agent in charge Wesley G. Grapp said the recovery of the loot was one of the largest jewelry theft recoveries in history. Value of the stolen jewels previously had been reported at $500,000. The FBI said it arrested Sunday at Miami Beach three men who allegedly robbed the Taylor jewelry store Saturday after tying up the manager and a porter.

Smuggled Photos Show Horrors Of Castro's Prison

NEW YORK (UPI)—A Cuban underground fighter still in Havana has smuggled to New York a series of concentration camp type pictures of life in Fidel Castro's Cabana fortress. The photographs were taken by Hiram Gonzalez, a former Castro army lieutenant now a political refugee in the Argentine embassy in Havana. He fled the Cabana fortress prison a few weeks ago on his third escape attempt.

Gasparilla Crew Captures Tampa

TAMPA (UPI)—The pirate ship Jose Gasparilla sailed from Tampa Bay into the Hillsborough River today, unloading a raffish crew of 300 buccaners who took possession of the city amid gunfire and screams. His daughter, Sharon Booth, 14, was also admitted in the hospital with minor injuries. The driver of the other vehicle, Bernie Hughes, Avalon Apartments, was charged with reckless driving and leaving the scene of an accident, police said.

Tax Loophole Plugging Asked

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., said today that Congress should plug tax loopholes on U. S. business investments abroad before enacting President Kennedy's foreign trade program. Gore quoted a "very high official" in the Kennedy administration as warning that powerful special interests were trying to protect tax loopholes with "blackmail" aimed at the President's trade proposals. He did not elaborate.

1865 Herald (N.Y.) Tells Of Lincoln's Assassination

By Dot Higginbotham Today is the birthday of President Abraham Lincoln. The tragic and shocking assassination of the President is probably one of the blackest days in the history of the country. Mrs. Edgar Brooks, who lives at 438 Summerlin Ave., has in her possession an original copy of the New York Herald, with its account of the assassination on April 15, 1865. It was particularly interesting to note the composition of the front page story of this momentous occasion. No blazing banner headlines such as would be used today. All the multiple decked head line in the far left hand column, one line under the other in different sizes of type. The stories begin in the second column and continue on across the page for three columns. The fifth and sixth columns are concerned with the

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI)—Astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. and his 93-foot space machine were all set today for his scheduled orbital flight around the world Wednesday but weathermen were worried about rough seas in the Atlantic recovery areas. As the countdown for America's first attempt to put a man in orbit reached "minus 18 hours," forecasters at Miami reported "a couple of areas" in the Atlantic "that are very questionable."

The Builders Realty Inc. of Orlando was the apparent low bidder on construction of the new Alix of Miami Plant in Sanford. Price of the low bid could not be made public until the bid is officially awarded Feb. 20. At that time, Alex Schneidman, president of the firm will be in Sanford and meet with officials of the Sanford-Seminole Development Co. on awarding the bid. Construction of the facility is expected to get underway some 20 days after the bid is awarded. The plant will be located on Hwy. 17-92, just south of the city limits. Twenty bidders participated in the bid opening in Architect John Burton's office Friday afternoon.

Russia Ignored By Allied Planes

BERLIN (UPI)—Allied military and commercial planes flew the air corridors into West Berlin as usual today despite earlier Russian attempts to reserve parts of two of them for their own use. Western officials said there was no doubt the Communists were trying to undercut the West's most important links with the isolated city. The Allies were determined not to retreat an inch. Passengers aboard regular commercial flights over East Germany reported no unusual Russian activity in the corridors. However, commercial planes usually fly higher than the altitude the Russian had tried to restrict for their own flights.

U.S. Seeking Some Powers Answers

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The big question the United States wants answered in its interrogation of U2 pilot Francis Gary Powers is how his photo reconnaissance plane was downed.

Another issue—at least one raised in several quarters at the time of Powers' capture—is this: Did he help Russia embarrass the United States through information he provided. U. S. security agents will hold Powers in custody for a week to 10 days while they seek answers to these questions. Then presumably he will be allowed to tell his story to the public.

Powers was sequestered today with members of his family at a hideaway as top-secret as the U2 spy flights he once made over the Soviet Union. Powers, 32, freed by the Russians Saturday in exchange for master Soviet spy Rudolf Abel, was flown back to the United States first for a reunion with his wife and parents, and then for intensive government questioning.

SRD Reports Increases Up To 20 Percent

The State Road Department reported today a "booming" increase in traffic on all state roads through Seminole County. SRD engineers reported that the biggest percentage increase in traffic was over SR 436 west of Hwy. 17-92 where traffic jumped 20 percent last year as compared to 1960.

In 1960 the average traffic count was 3,200 cars daily and in 1961 that figure jumped to 3,800 cars per day.

County Engineer Carlton Bliss, on learning of the SRD figures, reported that "something is going to have to be done to handle all this traffic immediately."

The contract on SR 436 is supposed to be let in the spring.

Other figures reveal a 10 percent increase in traffic over the Osteen Bridge 10 percent increase in traffic on Hwy. 17-92. The study released by the SRD revealed that there is more than a five percent increase in cars going into the county than leaving the area.

Florida Warned On Storm Losses

ATLANTA (UPI)—Future hurricanes will take a "staggering" toll of damage in Florida coastal communities unless state and local interests take protective action, the South Atlantic Army Engineer Division engineers in a report to the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors in Washington, said that federal participation in hurricane protection was warranted in only five areas—Miami, Fort Lauderdale, Tampa, Naples, and Charlotte Harbor.

The report said further study was necessary before the federal government should undertake any work even in those five areas.

The engineers studied 250 urban areas in Florida. But in all except the five, it found that providing such protection as seawalls, levees, and breakwaters was "generally unfeasible and in many areas impracticable."

Students From Local Schools To See Research In Action

A group of 23 students from Seminole and Lyman High School science classes will have a rare opportunity to see medical research in action Friday during a guided tour of the research laboratories of the University of Florida School of Medicine.

The all-day tour, starting at 10 a. m., has been arranged by the Seminole-Delary Heart Council, local affiliate of the Florida and American Heart Associations and will be led by Dr. Lamar Crevasse, Jr., Chief Medical Resident at the University.

Dr. Crevasse, a career research investigator and teacher has been supported in his cardiovascular research with Research Fellowships from the Florida Heart Association.

Accompanying the students will be Don Reynolds, Seminole High biology teacher and faculty advisor for the SSS Science Club and Sal Manfre biology teacher and head of the Science Dept. at Lyman High School.

The students have been chosen for their aptitude and interest in the scientific field and will get a chance to see open-heart surgery investigations among other cardiovascular projects. They will be allowed to examine some of the intricate equipment used in heart research and will talk to investigators who are seeking solutions to the highly complicated problems of diseases of the heart and blood vessels.

In addition to the educational values of the tour, the Heart Assn. hopes to acquaint talented students with the exciting possibilities in medical careers, since a growing shortage of qualified research investigators in the medical field is one of the major problems of the Heart Assn., as is the nationwide shortage of physicians.

Arrangements have been made by Dr. Crevasse for luncheon and dinner for the students. The group will drive to Gainesville in the morning and return in the evening, accompanied by a number of parents.

Seminole High students attending will be John Boniface, Allison Blake, John Goers, Bob Williams, Debbie Scott, Merritt Phillips, Jo Ann Ziegler, Kenneth White, John Threast, Bill Ott, Desta

Hornor, Lynn Crabtree, Mike Carlo, Kay Adams, Eric Esterson, Owen Cunnack, Sharon Poff and Ruth Carlson.

Adults will be Mrs. Jack Hornor, Mrs. Michael Carlo, Mrs. G. B. Blake, Rev. Jack Adams, Mrs. E. S. Higginbotham and Kenneth Leffler.

From Lyman, students going on the trip are: Cheryl Eddy, Karen Hall, Paula Hicks, Virginia Humes, Sharon Clingan, Betsy Newman, Darlene Shea, Pat Walsh, Charles Dudley, Barbara Hart, Bill Taylor, Bruce Flowers, Marjorie McElmurry, Sharon Lovell and Gilda Pittinelli.

Parents who will accompany them will be Mrs. Glenn Humes, Mrs. Darwyn Shea and Gary Clingan, brother of Sharon Clingan.

Kiwanians Get Boost From Edwards

LI. Gov. Warren Edwards was the speaker at the meeting of Kiwanis last week, and he outlined the program of the year for the men of the Kiwanis organization.

"The primary emphasis is on youth," he said, "with the slogan, 'Prepare Youth Today for the Challenge of Tomorrow.'"

"We must lead them to have faith in themselves, to rever our national heritage, and at the same time extend aid to the underprivileged and handicapped."

Edwards counseled the Kiwanis to strengthen and reaffirm their support of the Key Club and promote closer bonds between the Key Club and the Kiwanis organization.

He admonished the vocational guidance committee to soundly guide young people to know that freedom is our best hope and extend the scholarship and loan foundation.

Encourage qualified youths to enter fields in which men are needed and to accept responsible citizenship, he said.

The agriculture and conservation committee was reminded that agricultural prosperity is the keystone of a sound economy and to teach conservation.

"Preserve and deserve freedom and free enterprise and uphold individual rights," Edwards told the public and business affairs committee.

"Learn to understand Communism in order to be able to cope with it."

The LI. Gov. told the committee on churches to stir up the public conscience to the significance of religious values, the spirit of brotherhood and strengthening of faith in God and country.

He touched upon the duties and responsibilities of all the various committees of the organization, urging greater effort and more faithful services in all phases of Kiwanis activities.

Teague Predicts Enrollment Of 2,169 For Oviedo School

By Jean Lyles

The Oviedo School, where enrollment has increased 82 per cent during the past eight years, can expect to have 2,169 students in the 1966-1967 school year, W. A. Teague, administrative assistant of the County School Board told Oviedo P-TO members Thursday night.

Teague, guest speaker for the group at its February meeting in the school auditorium, cited SNAS, Patrick and Orlando Air Force Base, Cape Canaveral and the Martin Co. Plant as reasons for the increased enrollment.

"Of the 2,500 employed at Cape Canaveral, we have 300 families living in Seminole County and many more will come with the Nova Project which is expected to employ 41,580 persons by 1965," he said.

Emphasizing the fact that there is very little planning time, he assured the parents, however, that every effort will be made to provide the very best teachers and programs for the school.

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. D. H. Ulrey after the flag salute lead by Principal Clyde Holder and the devotion read by Ralph Neely opened the meeting.

Following his address, the group was entertained by the School Drama Club under the direction of Jack Calvert. The boys and girls presented their versions of "misunderstood" TV commercials and did a "takeoff" on the program, "To Tell The Truth," concluding with their interpretation of "American Bandstand."

A nominating committee named to come up with recommendations for next year's officers consists of Beryl Holder, Mrs. Rex Clonts and Mrs. Lola Cole.

Reports on general business included those from the recreation committee on parties and dances held since the term opened and a treasurer's report which revealed that the P-TO has a total of $623.66 in available funds.

Holder explained junior and senior college board tests and asked parents to come to the school for discussions on these tests.

John Courier, president of the newly organized Oviedo Athletic Assn., Inc., announced progress on plans to build a football field and encouraged everybody to "be liberal" when the fund raising campaign begins next Thursday.

Refreshments of orange juice and cake were served at the close of the meeting.

Aid For Mentally Retarded To Be Expanded

Plans for the extension of services for the benefit of retarded children were outlined Thursday to the Seminole Assn. for Retarded Children by James Bowling, executive director of the Florida Council.

Bowling said that in the way of fulfilling their obligations the Council is planning summer camps to be established in Florida. Three of these camps are on the planning board now and the retarded children of Seminole County will be eligible to attend.

The camps will operate on a non-profit basis with an estimated cost of $15 per week per child, Bowling said.

Also on the agenda for the near future is a diagnostic evaluation clinic, Bowling told the association.

These facilities will be made available to parents seeking such services and to members of the school board in regard to children who are found to be retarded after entering school. The Council plans to staff the clinic with professional people of the highest degree, the director emphasized.

Recently developed P.K.U. tests, to determine at birth the presence of retarding influences have now been introduced in this area and are becoming a matter of routine in many places, the speaker said.

Bowling told the local association that they are the first line of offense in helping the retarded child and it is their obligation to educate the public as to what is being done, and also to voice the warning that mental retardation can strike any family.

There are many causes of mental retardation, Bowling said, and some of these can strike even in young adulthood.

"The retarded child is an individual," Bowling emphasized, "and has a right to be treated as one, as well as a right to expect every opportunity to develop to his highest potential."

"Retarded children can be helped," the state director said, "and that's not just a fancy slogan, but a very true fact."

Sanford Civitans Commended By State Executive

"Florida Civitans are doing the most outstanding job in their support of the mental retardation program of any organization in the nation," James Bowling, executive director of the Florida Council for Retarded Children told the Sanford Civitans Thursday.

Bowling said that the Pensacola Club was chosen as the most outstanding in their program last year, and the Hillsborough Civitans second most outstanding the year before.

Bowling commended the local Civitans for their undergirding support of the Little Red Schoolhouse here, saying that mental retardation is a far greater problem than even polio, cerebral palsy or rheumatic fever.

Bowling pointed out that there are 147,000 known retarded children in Florida, with hundreds more, who are kept hidden by their families that are not in any training school or program.

The three present Sunland training centers which now care for 7,200 children, will soon be enlarged by a fourth center in the summer to care for 800 more, with plans now underway in Dade County for another one to care for 1,000 more.

"But there are 20,000 applications on file right now, for admission to the centers," the speaker pointed out.

"The local school program such as has been set up here with the Little Red Schoolhouse only began seven years ago, and has been of great benefit," Bowling said.

He pointed out that such a program of individual community schools, coupled with a "sheltered workshop" in which the educable retarded can be taught simple skills can result in the savings of over $1,500 per year for the state.

"Many can be trained to earn all or part of their own income and support, after they reach 16 years of age," he said, "but it costs the state $2,000 per person per year to maintain each child in an institution."

Welfare rolls could be greatly relieved, Bowling pointed out, by special training of these persons to do some kind of work and here is where the need for a program of public information can be helpful.

Attending the Civitan meeting with Bowling were the president of the Seminole Assn. for Retarded Children, Kenneth McIntosh, the vice president, Mrs. John Barlow, the program chairman, Mrs. Al Carnes and a member of the board of directors, Mrs. John Galloway.

A Casselberry couple has a two-shift day going for shad fishing. Cecil Lindsley and his wife, Alice, have as their guests Lindsley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Art Lindsley of Guthrie, Okla., and the visitors really like the shad action.

Dr. W. H. Travham of Sanford took a friend of his, J. P. Woodville of Sweet Springs, Fla., out for a test with the shad this and they had one of the better roe percentages of the week.

When you're fishing the bottom, you never know exactly what's going to grab the bait, and that applies to the St. Johns, too.

Accidentally held your hands too far apart when describing the size of a fish? Failed to weigh your biggest fish, but estimated his weight, leaving a little to the heavy side? Admitted modestly that you hooked a fish so big your tackle just couldn't handle it?

ROBERT GONZALEZ

COLLEGE GRADUATE. Robert Thomas Gonzalez, formerly of Sanford, received his Bachelor of Science degree in Forestry at Mid-Term Graduation exercises held at the University of Florida.

Gonzalez, who graduated from Seminole High School with the class of 1955 is a member of Alpha Tau Omega and has accepted employment with the Forestry Dept. at the U. of F. in Gainesville.

He is married to the former Miss Jean Womack, also of Sanford and they have a daughter, Melissa. His mother, Mrs. Joseph M. Gonzalez now resides in Ocala. The new graduate and his family will reside in Gainesville.

DOUBLE FUN was the luncheon given by the Canasta Club recently for Annis Dominy, who is infatigable, Sally Williams, former resident of Sanford, now living in Starke, was able to come down for the day, to visit with the club members.

Sally also attended the tea given by Mrs. Robert Williams for bride-elect Jane Williams, while she was here. A gift of a bottle-sterilizer was presented to Annis by the group which included Melba Pigott, Clayda Jones, Lois Sloan, Joyce Sawyers, Elsa Ferguson, Nell Whitern, Beryl Dyal, Nell Atkinson and Lois Heckenbach.

AN OPPORTUNITY to spread a little joy is being offered you, friends and readers.

The Sunland Training Center in Gainesville is an institutional home for mentally retarded children. Most have some family, relatives or friends.

But there are quite a few who have no one at all. Some have no contacts because their families are dead but for some others, it is simply that they have been abandoned.

You can become a sponsor for one of these children. You need not make the trip up there unless you want to, but you can send them a birthday card or gift, a little remembrance on holidays and special occasions, or to some little things for them which take so little of your time but mean so much to someone who has no one.

If you write to L. C. Crooks at Sunland Training Center in Gainesville, he will assign you to your preference as to age, sex and race, and write you a letter concerning and describing the child.

The Seminole Assn. for Retarded Children has representatives who go up there quite frequently, if you would be interested in visiting.

Another thing that the school can use is men's old ties. And the use they put them too will work fine with the old fashioned wide ones that are out of style now. Here's your chance to put those cluttering up your tie rack to good use. Call Mrs. Frank Huhn or Mrs. John Galloway.

THETA EPSILON Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi is holding a very special kind of covered dish supper at the Shrine Club next Thursday at 7:30 p. m. with all proceeds going to the Little Red Schoolhouse.

The ladies are going to prepare their most special dishes, which will be served buffet style for a nominal fee, and top it all off with a style show from Playgirl Fashion Shop.

Sorority members will be the models for the lovely new spring clothes.

SPEAKING OF CLOTHES Jeanette Bonder owner of Playgirl Fashions (Fern Park) has just returned from the Pan American Fashion Show in Miami and reports that the patriotic red, white and blue "American" colors are going to be very strong this year.

Also very high style are the Florida citrus colors of orange, lemon, tangerine, lime green and other cool greens. The eyelet fabrics are staging a comeback, too. Jeanette says hem lines are going down again! (Sounds of hurra! from the women, and cries of dismay from the men are heard off-stage.)

If you haven't got last summer's hems turned up yet, skip it.

It's reported that jewelry is still big, beautiful and lavish and hats and bags are huge.

(Isn't it wonderful when capricious fashion designers, mostly men, will condescend to let women look like women?)

SANFORD HISTORY may well record this epidemic seizure of flu which is well into its third month here, as one of the longest the community has suffered.

Hardly a person has been spared an attack and there are still lots of folks in bed sick or undergoing complications of this most debilitating disease that is such a drain on the vitality.

Doctors we have talked to warn that it affects the entire body and weakens all its functions so that the little gremlins that lay in wait for us, find easy victims now. Get all the rest you can and pray for an early spring.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Tell the girl who got rid of her wart by what some people would call hocus-pocus that I believe her. I had a flower bed of warts on my hand and a girl friend told me to cut a potato in as many slices as I had warts, feed the slices to a pig, and the warts would disappear. Well, I did it and in two weeks the warts disappeared. And they never came back.

DEAR ABBY: If I told you all the degrees I had you would think I was bragging, but I only mention this so you won't think I'm a nut. I have had experience with curing warts with a potato and it does work. Only I cut the potato in half and rubbed my wart with it and buried the potato, cut side up. Within three weeks, my wart disappeared. Everyone I told this to got the same results.

DEAR ABBY: Please don't think I'm crazy but I got rid of a wart when someone asked if they could "buy" it from me for a nickel. We just shook hands, I took the nickel and, sure enough, the wart went away.

DEAR ABBY: The resident power within every human being to exercise his subconscious mind for relief of bodily ills has been recognized by medical science for several generations. It is called "auto-suggestion"—which is why the wart disappeared. It is neither voodoo nor new-doo.

DEAR ABBY: Why didn't you tell that stupid reader that the STRING she tied around her wart cut off the blood supply and killed it, and the potato she buried had nothing to do with it? How can anyone with any sense believe that potato hokey?

DEAR ABBY: Don't laugh. When I was a child I had a wart on my little finger. I was told by an old lady to steal a dish rag from a friend, rub it over the wart and then bury the dish rag after dark. I followed the instructions and the wart disappeared like magic.

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

One of the nice things about all bridge aphorisms is that you don't have to follow them all the time.

South had heard that ace were made to take kings and when East played his king of hearts at trick one South wasted no time grabbing it.

He thought awhile and then returned the jack. It looked as if West had led from three to the queen and South wanted to establish North's ten spot for a diamond discard.

South was right about the lead. West did take the queen but then shifted to a diamond. East collected two diamond tricks and got out with a heart. Later on South had to lose a club trick and was down one.

Highlights

7-7:30 p. m. ABC. Expedition. "Seadragon" under the ice. A vicarious cruise on the United States nuclear submarine Seadragon into arctic waters to test new electronic equipment, and to find a short undersea route connecting the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans. Commander George Steele, Seadragon skipper, narrates films of the voyage. Col. John D. Craig is the program's host.

8-8:30 p. m. CBS. Pete and Gladys. Our Kookie Gladys has integrity, believe it or not. Even though she gets a hair-dryer free, she refuses to endorse it when its performance is less than satisfactory. But Pete's insurance firm has the company for a client, and that is when the fun starts. Cara Williams and Harry Morgan star as Gladys and Pete in a better than average episode made even funnier by Richard Deacon, as promotion manager for the hair-dryer company.

8-8:30 p. m. ABC. The Hillman. "The Man from Salinas." Robert Culp fans will have to tune in for this episode in which he stars as a bounty hunter on the trail of a good catch. Seen with Culp is Jack Hogan as a cowboy who thinks he can get big money from a small bank — and almost does. Chuck Connors and Johnny Crawford are series stars.

9-9:30 p. m. CBS. The Danny Thomas Show. As Durango would say, "Everybody wants to get into the act," and tonight Kathy joins the crowd after being chosen entertainment chairman for her next P-T-A meeting. She interrupts Danny as he rehearses for a television show with her material for the P-T-A group. Danny thinks humor is a needed addition to her program and, when he adds it, the school system shakes to its aird foundations.

10-11 p. m. NBC. Thriller.

HEART FUND Twins of 1962, Jacelyn and Jeryln Pelletieri, 6, Milton N.J., examine bracelets given by Mrs. John F. Kennedy to Debbie and Donna Horst, 8, when they were Heart Fund Twins a year ago. All of the children have undergone corrective heart surgery.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millet

According to the latest figures, Americans are talking on the telephone more every year. That may be good news for the telephone company—but many a housewife could wish that the family telephone didn't ring quite so often.

Especially could she do without those little calls where an unknown voice informs her that she has won a free dance lesson, a sitting for a photograph, or that if she can name the first president of the United States she will have won some other such "prize."

She could also do without the calls that try to sell her magazine subscriptions, air conditioning, life insurance and so on.

And while she is hating her "intruders" she would "distrust" her husband who would make so many calls for the teenage members of the household.

The calls themselves wouldn't be so much trouble if the woman of the house weren't supposed to be social secretary to her children.

Such messages as, "When Bill comes in will you tell him to call Jim at home and if I'm not at home, to try Joe's house and if we aren't at Joe's we'll probably be at Ed's or Fred's." That kind of message is routine in any family where there are teenagers.

Another kind of call the average housewife wouldn't mind giving up is the one that wants her to solicit money for this drive or that one... or the one urging her to vote for a certain candidate... or the one from the voice taking a survey.

The telephone is to the housewife both a convenience and an annoyance—and unfortunately it seems to become more of an annoyance the more it rings.

Supper Program Well Attended In Enterprise

By Helen Snodgrass

The Fellowship Supper and repeat performance of "The Ole Man" sponsored by members of the Barnett Memorial Methodist Church of Enterprise on Feb. 2 in the school cafeteria was well attended and added a tidy sum to the church treasury.

Those attending enjoyed a variety of covered-dish foods at the supper and had many good laughs during the program.

Elementary Level Preparation Important To Child's Future

By Jane Casselberry

The value of preparing a child for his future at the Elementary School level was stressed by the guest speaker at Tuesday night's meeting of the South Seminole Elementary Council of Teachers and Parents.

Introduced by program chairman Bob Means, Ray Shreckengost, advanced program manager of Martin Co., emphasized that with today's rapid technological advances, the school and parents must adapt in order to prepare children for the changing, modern world.

Preceding the 8 p. m. meeting in the school auditorium, parents were invited to visit classrooms for a half hour period.

Mrs. Vernon Catron, president of the organization, presided during the business meeting. The devotional and pledge to the flag was led by Miss Helen McMullen and minutes of the November meeting were read by Mrs. William Cass, secretary. A report from Mrs. Charles Lockyer, treasurer, stated that the remainder of NDA Funds have been spent to obtain a movie projector now in use at the school.

Receipts from the "Gala Night in Paris" Fashion Show held the evening of Dec. 5 neared $300. Red and white checked table cloths used on tables at the show are now on sale for 10 cents each. The group voted to place in escrow the $200 pledge, set aside in this year's budget towards the purchase of a piano for the school, until after the County School Board holds its budget meeting next summer at which time it is hoped that matching funds will be made available.

Mrs. William Dunn gave a report on needs of the school library and new faculty members were introduced.

Parents were urged to attend the next County Council meeting on Feb. 15 at 8 p. m. in the Pinecrest Elementary School Auditorium at Sanford when George B. Stallings Jr. of Jacksonville will be the principal speaker. Stallings, member of the State Legislature, is author of the bill requiring Florida Schools to teach a course on Communism.

Refreshments were served by Third Grade Homeroom mothers in the cafeteria following the meeting.

Slavia 4-H Clubs Have Busy Month

Lynn Eustice

January 4th found the senior 4-H Boys of Slavia and their guests listening to Sgt. Vince Smallwood of the Florida Highway Patrol speak on safety on the highways and the Highway Patrol as a career. He was most interesting and many facts were learned at this meeting.

Do you know we have over three million licensed drivers in Florida? We are ninth in population in the nation? Over two and three-fourths million vehicles are licensed? In Florida in 1961 there were over 130,000 traffic accidents. Every four and-a-half minutes there is an accident, every 15 minutes someone is hurt, and every eight hours someone is killed. In 95 percent of the accidents the cause is a traffic law violation.

Florida has ten safety officers in the Highway Patrol giving talks to organizations and working on the prevention of accidents. All highway accidents are cataloged and discussed to decide just how they could have been avoided so we can have a safer Florida in the future.

In 1961 1,145 people were killed in accidents and 46,000 were hospitalized. The main objective of the Highway Patrol is to prevent accidents. However, it must have the cooperation of every driver.

We, who heard Sgt. Smallwood, are better drivers I am sure, for we realize the laws were made for our safety.

On January 16th the boys and girls presented an interesting program showing 4-H work to the Parent-Teachers League at St. Luke's Christian Day School. The girls gave talks on camping and most had made posters to illustrate the important facts.

They plan a camping trip this spring at which time they will try out their skills learned in 4-H. The boys held a mock meeting with regular business and reports to show the parents that they do follow parliamentary procedure and pay attention to the business at hand. Following the program Mr. Cecil Tucker, County Agricultural Agent, installed the officers of both Clubs.

He also announced that without the leadership of Mrs. Paul Lukas and Mrs. Paul Mikler and their helpers and pilots, the 4-H Clubs could not progress as they have done.

Regular meetings of the boys and girls clubs were held the second and fourth Wednesdays at school. The first meeting was used to prepare for the P. T. L. program—the second meeting of the girls was used to discuss the Sanford Fair. Miss Wilson was on hand to give details and answer questions.

The boys spent some time in their garden club. They are now selling vegetables and strawberries grown from seed and small runners (strawberries). All the boys have cooperated and completed their part in this project.

The Senior Boys met at the home of Paul Lukas, Jan. 21, to "Learn By Doing" — and both greased their cars and changed the oil under the direction of Mr. Lukas.

The 4-H girls and their mothers attended a special two-hour class at the Patricia Stevens Finishing School in Orlando.

Miss Anna Marie gave us a talk on introductions, how to walk, how to sit, how to dress, how to use makeup, how to fix your hair, how to diet and answered questions from both the girls and adults. We found that few of us were sitting and walking correctly — but it would take time to remember to "keep your lower ribs from leaning on your tummy," "keep your hips tucked under," and "keep your tummy in."

Plans are being made to attend the Tampa Fair in the school bus—including all three 4-H clubs — Boys — Girls and Seniors!

All three clubs are planning exhibits in the Sanford Fair—as well as individual exhibits. All the girls will take part in the County Demonstration Day on March 3, and the Dress Revue on May 3.

Looks like a busy spring as well as a busy January!

Graduation Date Changed

The Seminole County School Board Thursday approved a change in the date of high school graduation this year, because teachers complained that graduation exercises as set up now interfere with the planned program of work for seniors.

The new dates will set graduation day as June 11, a Monday, with baccalaureate services on the preceding Sunday, June 10.

Thursday, June 8, will be the last day of school for all students.

In other business, the board approved payment of a plumbing bill incurred by clogged up sewer lines at Lyman School, which proved expensive to repair, due to the age of the lines which had been installed in 1926 and were found to be crystallized. The plumbing bill was $488.

The board also accepted surplus funds from the hardware bids for Bear Lake School and South Seminole Junior High School after the plans for a cafeteria were cancelled due to insufficient funds and the low bid on the Bear Lake School was less than had been allowed. In all a total of $4,109 was accepted in surplus funds.

Bids for lunchroom trays by the Longwood School, which are being purchased by the Longwood P-T-O, were opened and the low bid of $504.50 accepted. Bids were turned over to Mrs. Charlotte Whitmore, lunchroom supervisor, for implementation.
