FORD DISCLOSES HIS DEDUCTIONS UPON EDUCATION

Declares Vocational Schools To Be Panacea For Children

FT. MYERS, Mar. 16.—(AP)—Radical changes in principles of education and what, when, and how to eat holds the attention of Henry Ford. Dietetics is a new field of endeavor in the world today he said in explaining his interest in the subject.

On the other hand the problem of education demands attention if youngsters of each generation are to benefit. He urged establishment of vocational schools through the nation as a panacea for wasted effort by school children.

He would combine practical and technical instruction with teaching.

The younger generation must be looked out for if its members are to look up to the older generation, Harvey S. Piretine, tire manufacturer said yesterday.

His comments were occasioned by a discussion by Henry Ford of educational methods at the schools conducted by the latter at his Dearborn plant.

Piretine said the problem of educating the younger generation is of far greater importance than any other in industry, for it should meet in the same fashion the needs of the future.

Theater Owner Has Novel Plan To Aid People In Distress

Acting upon the suggestion of E. J. Sparks, Jacksonville capitalist and movie theater owner, who offers to match dollar for dollar any sum raised by the employees of his various Florida theaters, for the benefit of needy and unfortunate families in the state, all the employees of the Princess and Milano Theaters will, effective today, set aside one percent of their monthly earnings to a fund which will be used for such purposes.

Jos. L. Marquette, manager of the Sanford theaters, said this morning that every Sparks-owned theater in Florida will soon join Mr. Sparks' crusade in the interest of unfortunate residents of this state, and that it was his hope that the movement would spread to other firms and businesses.

Locally the fund will be turned over to Mrs. Helen T. Motse, welfare director, who will use it at her discretion among the needy within the city limits.

"I'd like to see this idea taken up by every business, house and firm in this city," said Mr. Marquette, "because without any appreciable hardship a community fund could be raised here in short order, and every case of distress could be attended to with the required amount of attention."

Mr. Sparks, who owns more than 50 Florida theaters, has often urged progressive movements of this kind, and his welfare activities, particularly in Jacksonville, are said to be well known.

TAX RETURNS UPON INCOMES DUE TONIGHT

4,000,000 Citizens Are Involved In Wholesale Reports As To Financial Receipts

WASHINGTON, Mar. 16.—(AP)—More than 4,000,000 citizens must have their income tax returns for 1930 in the mails by midnight tonight or suffer penalty for delinquency.

In addition, other receipts by the treasury, together with expenditures, will show the turnover to more than $3,000,000,000, making it the largest government financial transaction since the World war.

A total of $2,000,000,150 will be received and $1,130,000,000 expended through income tax receipts, the sale of bonds and certificates of indebtedness and the retirement of obligations.

Of the 4,000,000 persons who file returns, approximately 2,500,000 will have to pay taxes. The balance, though they must make returns, have sufficient exemptions to escape payment of the tax. Finally, however, may be imposed upon those of this class for failure to make return.

Treasury officials expected payments for the first quarter of 1930 income taxes to aggregate $525,000,000, compared with $628,000,000 for the corresponding period a year ago.

This reduction was despite an increase of one percent in the tax, and was attributed to business depression. The tax is one and one-half percent of the first $4000 of net income, three percent on the next $4000 net income and five percent on all normal income above that amount.

The government will retire $1,100,000,000 of the treasury notes, pay $20,000,000 in interest on the public debt and on the other side of the ledger sell $200,133,000 in 3-3-8 percent bonds, $300,179,000 in 1 1/2 percent certificates of indebtedness and $623,891,500 in 2 percent certificates.

Master Rum Fleet Loses 2 Boats And Big Liquor Supply

NEW LONDON, Conn., Mar. 16.—(AP)—A master fleet of rum runners, which for several days has been reported hovering outside the 12-mile limit of the New England coast last night attempted to outgeneral the Coast Guard.

It ended maneuvers minus two vessels, six men and 1700 sacks of liquor. One of the vessels was captured and the other sank in 120 feet of water.

Constantly in motion to avoid the shifting searchlights of the Coast Guard, the fleet, the largest reported here in many months, sent decoys to lure the guards off the rum routes. Unloaded ships dashed back and forth through the patrol boat lines, where they broke through they were followed by heavily laden liquor vessels.

At midnight the fisherman trawl, Notus, with three men and 700 bags of liquor aboard was cornered and forced to beach on the shores of Fort Pond Bay. The men and liquor were captured.

Soon the runner sped back to sea. The runner was seen in a valley of fire from patrol boat searchlights. Suddenly it attempted to reverse its course to flight in the 12-mile limit, was caught in the backwash and sank. As it went down the CG-808 drew alongside and captured its three men crew and some of the 1000 sacks of liquor aboard.

Two weeks ago the steamer Yarnouth reported that the master rum runner was flying outside the 12-mile limit, preparing for a dash with heavily loaded ships. If any runner got through last night, the success was not revealed.

CURRAN BLAMES PROHIBITION FOR CAUSING BIG TAX AVERS REVENUES FROM LIQUOR WOULD HELP CUT INCOME TAXES

WASHINGTON, Mar. 16.—(AP)—An attack upon prohibition as necessitating payment of income taxes by 2,000,000 American taxpayers was made yesterday by Henry H. Curran, president of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment.

Curran estimated that had the Eighteenth Amendment been repealed a year ago the government would be the recipient of internal revenues this year on wine, beer and spirits of $382,000,000. He contended this would have allowed personal income tax payments of $2 for every $10 now paid.

At the same time, a statement was issued by the Congressional District Modification League holding by the next action toward repeal of the prohibition amendment "is almost entirely unlikely event," and urging a drive for modification as a more ready, eventually.

Curran argued that in addition to the savings of 80 percent of all personal income taxes, repeal of the dry laws would bring in additional revenue in wet states "from their own properly controlled liquor systems."

"As things are now," he said, "all of this possible revenue goes in the pockets of bootleggers, gunmen, racketeers and their highly organized employers, except for such part of it as goes to prohibition agents and the police in graft and bribes."

He contended further the four states of Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey and Illinois, which he described as wet, are now paying 58 percent of the total revenue from personal income taxes.

The states which are most clamorous for prohibition are (Continued On Page Six)

Second Cast Of "A Full House" Does Equally As Well As First Players

Evidently seeking not to be outdone by the players of the preceding night, those taking part in the second cast of "A Full House" which was given again Saturday night at the Seminole High School auditorium by the Senior Class, displayed ability and training equaling that which made the first performance such an outstanding success. Directed by Miss Helen Vernay, senior class sponsor, the play was produced by special arrangement with Samuel French of New York.

Adding greatly in making the play more amusing and interesting were Miss Hazel Maxwell who took the part of the maid and Miss Julia Higgins who portrayed the role of the bride, while George Moya as the crook and Howard Lindsey as the bridegroom, also did their part exceedingly well.

Others deserving special mention for their character portrayals were: Miss Ruth Martin as the

Committee Probes Death Of Girl Who Got Ill Treatment

BIRMINGHAM, Mar. 16.—(AP)—The death of an 18-year-old girl at the Alabama training school for girls while confined to quarters for infraction of regulations is under investigation today by a legislative committee. Representative Hugh McElderry, chairman, and the committee had testimony that the girl died from influenza.

After being confined to her room three weeks and that the school physician had not been called until she was dead.

He said several girl inmates testified that the girl was "on punishment" and before she died she "pulled her hair and prayed to be taken out of her misery."

They told the committee, he added, that Mrs. Ira Champion, superintendent, warned them not to mention the incident in letters they mailed from the school. McElderry said the charges are being forwarded to the governor with recommendations that Mrs. Champion be replaced because of alleged cruel treatment of inmates.

LAND PLANE GETS BATH IN LAKE AS IT IS TAKING OFF

Pilot And 2 Passengers Unhurt In Accident Yesterday

A thrill which was as unexpected as it was dramatic, was the taking of a bath by a land plane yesterday afternoon, when a stunt and passenger carrying airplane flying, was recovered at the emergency landing field on the lake front yesterday afternoon at about 6:00 o'clock, when Pilot John B. Kratzer, taking his Curtiss Challenger plane into the air for a flight, was forced to make a quick landing in the shallow waters of Lake Monroe just off the eastern boundary of the field.

A slight cut on the forehead, suffered by one of the two passengers, was the only visible indication that the three men were any the worse for their sudden descent.

Pilot Kratzer said that after making a short run in a northerly direction, into the wind, he set the controls for the take-off when he noticed that the motor was not responding to the increased gasoline acceleration needed for leaving the ground. The plane in the meantime, in the air about 10 feet, cleared the bulkhead wall. Seeing that the motor would not pick up, he made ready for the impact of striking the water. The plane nosed into the water, its tail in the air.

The three men were made to shore after being dumped from the plane, and with darkness approaching, Pilot Kratzer decided that the removal of the plane from the water last night was impossible. This morning, wreckers from local garages, pulled the plane ashore, and back to the field, where an examination revealed that only slight damage was done.

Pilot Kratzer has been in Sanford for the past three months, and has carried hundreds of passengers over the city. He is a resident of Clarion, Pa., where he received much of his air experience. It was the first accident he has ever had of that type.

Repairs will be completed in a few days, he said this morning, and the drone of the motor will soon be heard over the city.

Leo Brothers Goes On Trial For Death Of Lingle Reporter

CHICAGO, Mar. 16.—(AP)—Leo Brothers went on trial for the Jake Lingle murder today amid excitement such as the new criminal court building had never seen before. Although no evidence is expected for at least a week, a large crowd jammed the corridors leading to the courtroom.

Extra bailiffs were needed to keep order. After newspapermen and veterans entered, little room remained for the spectators. The trial held unusual interest. Not only was the assassination of Lingle, Tribune crime reporter, one of the most spectacular of gang killings but also the first big gang shooting actually to result in a murder trial.

Added to this was the fact that the Lingle slaying last June resulted in the greatest drive against crime in recent Chicago history. The defendant, a fugitive from St. Louis, was calm. The first voir dire examination was conducted on the grounds he had formed an opinion.
