Florida Officials Begin Task Of Registering 8,000 Students For Classes Today

GAINESVILLE, Sept. 23. (Special)—With applications of admission for more than 8,000 students on file, officials of the University of Florida will begin today the task of registering and assigning sections and classes the largest student body in the history of the state university. Former students register today Tuesday and Wednesday and all first-time students will be registered beginning Thursday and continuing Friday and Saturday classes will meet Sept. 30. Although the majority of the problems of expansion for an unprecedented enrollment had been solved on the eve of the registration period, the housing shortage in Gainesville remained the biggest headache for University officials and students alike. Officials urged that students who have not definite assurance of a place to live defer their college entrances until the second semester. Even over-night rooming scarce, they pointed out. All available on-campus housing has been assigned. Lewis Slack, assistant registrar, emphasized, and the City of Gainesville is filled to capacity. Until additional temporary housing not under construction is completed, there will be no more room space for the first of the year, the school year, he said. Qualified former students, all of whom have been notified and registration permits, will report Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, according to their individual card assignment. They will report to Room 204, Language Hall, and must present their registration permit before they can proceed with registration. First-time students at the University will report Thursday morning, September 20, at 9:00 o'clock, at the University auditorium for orientation and registration. The registration period or them will continue Friday and Saturday morning. Meanwhile at Tallahassee officials at Florida State College for Women were making arrangements to temporarily take care of some of the University's overflow. Students will be assigned to the University of Florida ranch at Tallahassee on a voluntary basis, it was emphasized. More than 2,000 students, all of whom were enrolled in the summer session, registered for classes the latter part of August and the second summer session term ended. No other registrations or applications have been accepted since then.

Employment Service Begins Drive To Obtain Thousands Of Citrus Workers

With the largest and earliest citrus crop in recent years which will require several thousand more workers during the current season than last year, the United States Employment Service has started its recruitment drive to supply these workers. The Employment Service is requesting women interested in work in the citrus industry to register for employment at their nearest office. Some plants expect to open early in October and others will get under way as the season progresses. The local United States Employment Service offices who have orders in their files from citrus employers will supply all details concerning the location, types of jobs, wages, living accommodations, and other desired employment information. While the majority of the increased demand for workers will be for women sectionizers, there will also be an increased demand for peelers and floor workers. Sectionizers remove sections of fruit from peeled oranges, tangerines, and grapefruit with a small knife. Skilled workers can start on a piece-work basis, while unskilled or less skilled personnel begin on an hourly scale and change to piece-work basis as they become skilled. Near Record Milk Supply Available For County Diets

Seminole County residents will consume more than 5,376,000 quarts of milk and milk products this year in maintaining the County's high nutritional standards, it was predicted today by the nation's leading distributor of dairy products. "With a near record supply of milk coming from the nation's dairy farms, consumption of dairy products this year is expected to equal that of 1945 when more than 60,000,000 quarts were consumed," said G. W. Diehl, head of A. & P. Food Stores national dairy department. "A 22 percent increase in per capita consumption of milk during the war years helped overcome the loss of nutrition caused by curtailed supplies of fats and oils and helped bring about the nation's high nutritional wartime levels." A greatly increased supply of most cheese products is now available in many sections of the country and other milk products are expected to continue plentiful during the fall and winter months, Diehl said. These products contain nearly 14 percent of the calories, 24 percent of the proteins, 19 percent of the fats, 74 percent of the calcium and 45 percent of the riboflavin consumed by the average individual. The pioneering efforts of food chains in developing a streamlined distribution system, Diehl said, have made possible the quick movement of milk and milk products from dairy centers of densely populated consumer areas. Modern refrigeration equipment and improved handling methods were also cited as instrumental in maintaining the high nutritional qualities of dairy products. Seminole County's 700 farms are expected to produce more than 1,000,000 quarts of milk this year.

Stalin Tells World That Threat Of New War Does Not Exist

Russian Policies In Germany Not To Be Directed Against Britain And U. S.

MOSCOW, Sept. 24, (AP)—Prime Minister Stalin put up a calming hand today and told the world that he did not think there would be another war in the near future because he believed there was no real danger of a new war and that the threat of war does not exist at the present.

Stalin suggested that the rumors and alarms about a possible new war were just so much talk—but for a purpose. He blamed the talk on what he called naive politicians and military-political intelligence agents who, he said, need this clamor to do their things.

To help their government ward more concessions, to make it hard to cut the military budgets of their countries, and to put a brake on the demobilization of troops and thereby evade the quick growth of unemployment in their countries.

Stalin did not mention the countries he had in mind. There were many things that he said, in reply to a list of questions submitted to him by the Moscow correspondent of the London Sunday Times, in which the United States was mentioned specifically.

The Russian Prime Minister said the United States now holds a threat to peace in having a monopoly of atomic weapons. Stalin minimized this by declaring that he does not believe the atomic bomb to be as serious a force as certain politicians are inclined to regard it; that atom bombs merely are intended to intimidate weak nerves and that in themselves they can not decide the outcome of a war, and that the atomic bomb monopoly will not last for very long and besides, use of the bomb will be prohibited.

Stalin was asked whether he believed the earliest withdrawal of all American troops from China is vital to future peace. Stalin answered, "Yes, I do." In reference to Henry A. Wallace's recent foreign policy speech, Stalin was asked whether western Europe and the United States can be assured that Soviet policies in Germany will not be directed against them. The Prime Minister replied that the use of Germany as a weapon against the west is excluded by both the Potsdam agreements and by the Soviet pact with Britain and France against German aggression. He added: Any such use of Germany would be against the Soviet Union's best interest. Stalin talked about demilitarizing Germany as one step toward a stable and lasting peace.

The Soviet leader also commented that he does not believe that the United States and Britain are trying to encircle Russia with a capitalist ring. They could not do that, he added, even if they wanted to.

Southern Political leaders offered varied comments today on Stalin's statement. Florida's Senator Claude Pepper, who is one of America's foremost advocates of cooperation with Russia, agreed with the Soviet leader. Pepper said Stalin's foreign policy expressions seemed to be very forthright and very encouraging.

The Florida Democrat said the speech simply confirms the belief he had all along that a sensible and honorable basis of understanding and cooperation could be found between the United States and Russia.

Senator Walter George was no quite so quick to form an opinion. The senior Georgia statesman, a former chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said the real difficulty is what to believe, because "only pleasant predictions come out of Russia."

Senator George said he cannot foresee a war in the immediate future between Russia and the western democracies. He qualified this, however, by saying that Russian policies are such that they may cross the dead line at some unexpected point and bring on a conflict.

George said that today's expressions from Stalin were "a definite part of the system of Russian propaganda. Russia probably will get all she can, but to get short of war."

Kaiser Requests Additional Time To Make Replies Shipbuilder Disputes Group's Figures On Company's Profits

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24, (AP)—Industrialist Henry J. Kaiser today asked for more time to answer questions in a government inquiry into the wartime record of his shipbuilding firms.

The House Merchant Marine Committee was told yesterday that Kaiser shipbuilding enterprises received $125,000,000 in profits from the government on a capital investment of $2,500,000. The committee asked Kaiser how this happened.

Today the shipbuilder replied in a statement that he could not answer on short notice what he termed an endless number of detailed and technical questions about five years of transactions by Kaiser Company, Inc. He declared that counsel for the committee had brought up points which call for a staff of accountants, engineers and others to answer.

In a statement Kaiser said: "We want this committee to understand that there isn't a single thing we aren't happy to disclose that is in our books and corporate records."

Then he added, that as a practical matter, there isn't a single man in the Kaiser organization qualified to answer questions on the complicated corporate financial and business transactions over a five-year period. Kaiser has disputed the figures relating to profits made by his organization. He said that combined net profits after taxes of the four Kaiser shipbuilding yards were less than one-tenth of one percent of the total volume of work done for the Maritime Commission. That, he emphasized, is after deducting all losses.

Suits Filed Against Florida Slaughters

MIAMI, Sept. 24, (AP)—The OPA today filed eleven suits against South Florida slaughters. Chief enforcement attorney Paul Hyman says six more suits are in the process of being filed. The suits were prepared by the food enforcement attorney on reports from nine OPA investigations. The suits, filed in Federal District Court at Tampa, Orlando and Fort Pierce, ask the court to enjoin the defendants from slaughtering over their quotas and from failing to maintain OPA required records of their activities.

Warren Says U.S. On Brink Of New War

Urges Prevention Of Conflict Even To Point Of Appeasement If Necessary

Declaring that the United States is on the very brink of war with the most powerful nation on earth, Fuller Warren, Jacksonville attorney and 1940 candidate for governor, told the inter-city meeting of Rotary clubs at the Seminole Country Club last night, that everything possible should be done to prevent this war even to the point of appeasement and added that we cannot leave it to our diplomats, our senators, our military leaders and the heads of our government to perfect a lasting peace.

Pointing to the fourth object of Rotary which is "the advancement of international understanding, good will and peace," Mr. Warren told the members of the New Smyrna, Deland and Sanford Rotary clubs that it is their duty and the duty of every other civic and fraternal organization in the country to find a way out of this unnecessary misunderstanding with Russia since the next war, if it comes, will be the last one and "there won't be enough people left on earth to start another war."

Mr. Warren emphasized the terrific destructive power of the atomic bomb which he declared could not remain a secret of the United States for long. He also pointed to the increasing speed and range of air power and the destructiveness of V-bombs, disease bombs and many other secret weapons which he never been used yet. And declaring that, if we cannot find a way to make peace permanent, we should at least do everything we can to insure peace for our time.

Although suggesting that there is greater danger of war today than there was in the summer of 1938, Mr. Warren insisted that there is no basic cause for war between this country and Russia. The basic causes of war, he stated, are: (1) The desire of one country for the land of another, (2) desire of one country for the trade of another, and (3) hangover of grudges from some past war.

None of these conditions exist today to cause trouble between this country and Russia. He said that Russia wants no part of Russia and Russia does not covet any of our territory, there are no trade conflicts and relations between the two countries have been traditionally friendly.

Declaring that he did not like the Russian form of government, he stated that it is much better than the government which the Russians had under the czars and that they are still making progress. He urged the people to wake up and stop this terrible trend toward a new war, which he said is not a plain democracy, to only destroy civilization.

"The last war settled nothing," he declared, "and neither will the next one."

Mr. Warren's remarks followed an address of welcome by President G. W. Speer to the visiting clubs from New Smyrna and Deland and responded from Paul Southward, immediate past president of the New Smyrna club and Gerald Frierson, president of the Deland club.

G. W. Spencer, chairman of the golf tournament committee, announced the winners in the tournament and presented prizes to Harry Tooke for low gross, Jake Jacobs and E. D. Scott for low net, and Gerald Frierson and Robert Cornell for highest scores. Charles Morrison led the club in singing with Harry Kudell at the piano.

Continuation Of City Commission Adopts 1946-47 High Taxes Urged By Snyder Today

Treasury Secretary Speaks to Bankers Association Meet

CHICAGO, Sept. 24, (AP)—Treasury Secretary John W. Snyder called today for a continuation of high taxes. He said that for our common good, our present tax levels must be maintained for some time.

In an address before the American Bankers Association in Chicago, the Treasury Secretary said that "high taxes must continue if we are to balance the federal budget and reduce the national debt. Said Snyder: "I think that it is pure fantasy, if not plain demagoguery, to talk of tax reduction and debt reduction in the same breath."

The Treasury Secretary added that the federal government should strive not only to balance the budget but also to achieve a substantial surplus for paying off the debt. These are the views he expressed when he entered the Treasury, Snyder remarked, and they have the full support of President Truman.

Snyder said that in the six months ending Sept. 1, the Treasury had reduced the debt by about $14,000,000,000. He predicted that so far as cash is concerned, the government will tap in more money than it spends this year.

The overall deficit for the current fiscal year, Snyder asserted, will be slightly less than $2,000,000,000—a great improvement over the $4,500,000,000 estimate of last January.

Big Four Ministers Receive Criticism From Col. Hodgson, Australian Delegate

PARIS, Sept. 24, (AP)—The Allied peace conference has taken steps to ease the tension along the southeastern frontier of Slavic Europe in the Balkans. The Military Commission of the conference voted today to remove all fortifications along Bulgaria's frontier with Greece.

The action was taken with the approval of an amendment to the suggested Bulgarian peace treaty. Greece had offered the amendment.

This decision came as an American spokesman hinted at a speedup in the work of the peace-makers. So far, not a single treaty has been completed with any of the former enemy nations involved. Italy, Romania, Finland, Hungary or Bulgaria.

The Foreign Ministers of the Big Four plan to sit down today to consider the question of what to do about Italy's colonial possessions. They also announced their intention of speeding out other treaty amendments in order to save time.

Just a few hours before the Big Four Ministers were scheduled to meet, they were criticized in scathing terms by Australian delegate, W. R. Hodgson. Long champion of the smaller nations, Col. Hodgson attacked the ministers of the United States, Britain, France and Russia for agreeing among themselves on a number of key issues.

He declared that the Foreign Ministers' decision that the final disposal of Libya, Eritrea and the Italian Somaliland were to be determined jointly by the Big Four.

The Australian berated the major powers for stipulating that the United Nations would dispose of those Italian colonies if the Big Four could not agree among themselves.

Declared Hodgson: "They already had in mind that they were going to disagree."

Greek Police, Troops Fight Long Battle

ATHENS, Sept. 24, (AP)—The Greek government announced today that Greek troops and gendarmes have fought a 15-hour battle with a band of 2,000 leftists in Thessaly. The conflict occurred in an area where the Greek Third Army Corps has been carrying out mopping-up operations against leftists.

The outlaws are estimated to have lost 120 killed and more than 200 wounded. Government casualties include two killed, eight wounded and 84 missing.

Pastor Suggests Daily Prayer For Dodger Ball Club

NEW YORK, Sept. 24, (AP)—Brooklyn is another of those places where the residents are proud to boast that anything can happen. Right now, Flatbush is pulling with might and main to get the Dodgers at the top of the National League heap.

So a grassroots pastor—the Rev. Benney Benson—has turned up with an idea of how to help the cause. Rev. Benson suggests that the people of Brooklyn observe a minute of prayer each day at noon this week in an effort to help the Dodgers win the pennant. Says Rev. Benson: "We've prayed for military victories and everything else, so why not 'pray for the Dodgers'?"

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

WE CAN LISTEN TO OUR CONSCIENCE IF IT IS GOD'S VOICE DON'T GO AGAINST IT. I will hear what God the Lord will speak.—Psalm 85:8.

Football in Eastia. Snow in Wyoming. It won't be long now.

We wonder if President Truman enjoys the responsibilities of the White House as much as he does its prerogatives.

The OPA decontrol board has decided not to put ceilings back on milk and butter. It evidently figures that as long as the people can't have meat, they may need daily products.

The State Chamber of Commerce reveals that more people with more money are living in Florida today than ever before in its history. That is very refreshing as one contemplates the current trend of the stock market.

The Tampa Tribune is delighted to have Henry Wallace out of the cabinet. "For Mr. Byrnes' sake, for the country's sake, for the world's sake," says the Tribune, "getting a trouble-maker like Mr. Wallace out of the Cabinet is a good thing." Better, late than never.

Winston Churchill advocates a United States of Europe... in place of a Disunited States. It's great idea... just to imagine Spain, Germany, Italy, Yugoslavia sitting down together in the same congressional building. May be in a thousand years from now. Not any time soon, we fear.

Stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange regained a billion dollars in one day on news of Henry Wallace's resignation from the cabinet. Now, if it was worth a billion dollars to get rid of one man, how much would the country gain if it turned all the racials out!

Crime increased in Florida during the past year, but Alabama still holds the record for murders. A number of interesting reasons are given by the FBI for the increase in the number of crimes and for the most part the war had nothing to do with it.

Eve Garrett pays high tribute to the people who represent us in Washington in the magazine "Today's Women". She calls Congress a mecca for cheap political hacks, mental mauls and bewildered bluffers, with nothing to recommend them for the high office of member of Congress except to an ability to get elected to it.

The appointment of W. Averell Harriman as Secretary of Commerce will give the Communists something else to howl about since he inherited a hundred million dollars some years ago from his father, but most business men will agree that he is better equipped for the commerce job than his predecessor Henry Wallace. And even the Communists should not find Harriman too objectionable despite his wealth; he was pretty popular over there as ambassador during the war.

Bummer Welles, former U. S. Under Secretary of State, condemns the British policy in Palestine and urges the United States to take a strong hand in settling the Jewish-Arab problem. "If the present crisis in Palestine continues," says Mr. Welles, "Israel in the Near East may soon grow beyond control." The British no doubt would welcome American assistance in dealing with the Palestine problem. But the United States can hardly participate in the solution without assuming some of the responsibility for the results.

The International Committee for the Study of European Problems sees the United Nations organization as a hollow shell and predicts its failure in averting war. With scarcely a year as a test the United Nations have already proved themselves united in name only and utterly incapable of doing anything constructive so long as the veto power remains. Unless there is unanimous agreement, virtually nothing can be done toward finding a solution for the troubles of the world.

It is anyone who has had a moment's reflection that the only way to solve the world's problems is to get the nations to work together in a common effort. It is to obtain unanimous agreement on anything under the sun.

Children's Accidents

Death by accident claims the lives of about 6,500 school-age children in the United States every year, and, despite marked declines in the rate in recent decades, accidents are now the leading cause of death among children ages 5 to 14 years.

Motor vehicle accidents—the great majority of which occurred while the children were playing or crossing the street—headed the accident fatality list among children in 1945, accounting for more than one third of the deaths among the boys and more than two fifths of the deaths among the girls insured with the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

Drownings ranked second as a cause of accidental death. Nearly one half the deaths from burns and conflagrations, which were third in importance, resulted from children being trapped in burning homes. Firearm mishaps, falls, and railway accidents were other leading types of accidents among children of school age.

"The decline in the death rate from accidents among youngsters has not kept pace with the reduction in the rate of death from disease," the Metropolitan points out. "Among the insured of school age, accidents now account for about 40 percent of all deaths among white boys, whereas 30 years ago the proportion was only 22 percent and the same period among white girls deaths by accident have risen from eight to 20 per cent of the total."

Jobs Ahead

High school girls thinking about what to do next after they graduate would do well to consider fields in which there is a great need for more trained workers. It is important for them to be interested in the kind of career they pick, but it is also a decided advantage to train for a business or profession which is sure to have jobs to offer for some years to come.

Today the crving needs are for teachers and nurses. Both professions have been notoriously underpaid and overworked in the past, but the general furor over the situation and the rate at which women left for other jobs in the last few years have brought about a change in public attitude. As a result, salaries are going up and hours are coming down. More improvement is needed, but the trend is started in the right direction.

Girls who are interested in either teaching or nursing have a sure career ahead of them, because the country greatly needs them and is beginning to recognize the importance of adequate recompense.

Future Of Education

American colleges, starting a new academic year this month, report phenomenal enrollments. Many youths who had hoped to enter college could find no place. The available 1,600,000 college seats were competed for by 2,080,000 men and women.

This, apparently, is not a post-war educational boom, as was at first thought. Authorities like Frederick E. Robin, assistant director of the American Civil Liberties Union, predict that there will be 3,000,000 by 1950 and 6,000,000 by 1960 seeking higher education. Colleges see no promise of increased facilities to meet such demands.

Inside WASHINGTON

Kilgore Truman's Friend | LaFollette Cool to Plea But He's No "Yes" Man | He Run as an Independent

Special to Central Press

WASHINGTON—Senator Harley M. Kilgore (D) of West Virginia, slated to move up to head the former Truman War Investigating Committee, is a close friend of President Truman.

However, Kilgore does not hesitate to give the president an argument when he does not like the way things are moving. A case in point was the battle over military-versus-civilian control of atomic energy.

It did not leak out at the time, but Kilgore, arrayed with scientists in behalf of civilian control of atomic energy, arranged a dinner conference attended by a dozen prominent atomic scientists and an equal number of senators.

Then, armed with the information frankly exchanged at the conference, Kilgore went straight but quietly to the White House. He recently told a reporter:

"I felt that the facts presented by the scientists were so compelling that, without delay, I communicated them personally to President Truman, with whom I had previously discussed the problem."

The president, shortly afterward, reversed himself and withdrew the support he originally gave to the Army-backed May-Johnson bill, attacked by the scientists as giving atomic control to the military. Few know the part Kilgore played in turning the tide.

Kilgore, for whom the stage is set to succeed Senator James Mead (D) of New York as chairman of the important investigating group, worked closely with Mr. Truman when the latter was a senator.

FRIENDS OF "YOUNG BOB" LAFOLLETTE have been urging him to run as an independent candidate since his defeat for the Republican senatorial nomination in Wisconsin by Judge Joseph McCarthy.

However, they failed to influence him. Young Bob is taking his time about deciding on his future. He feels that having disbanded his Progressive party to seek the Republican nomination precludes the independent race.

Thus he is following much the same course as that adopted by his long-time friend, Senator Burton K. Wheeler (D) of Montana, who also lost in his state primary. Wheeler also wanted to run as an independent.

Political observers feel that LaFollette has far from closed his political career. They doubt if the LaFollette name has lost its mighty magic permanently in Wisconsin.

Whether LaFollette intends to double in state politics remains to be seen. At the moment, he occasionally appears in various capacities of law and to watch developments across the country with a keen political eye.

OFFICIALLY THE STATE DEPARTMENT IS AGGRIEVED at the refusal of France to let it maintain its propaganda broadcast service in Algiers—where it would strike with sharp words at the "soft underbelly" of the Soviet satellite.

Actually, however, the department never was too antagonistic about the project.

Negotiations served more as a measure of France's devotion to the United States and its democratic standards. It is believed that there are better points from which United States can get its views across behind the iron curtain, since it is established that the peoples living there have radios and all eyes to use them.

THINGS ARE PRETTY QUIET around Harry Peters' meat store in New York, so he's settled himself in a comfortable chair with his pet cat and is going to take things easy for a while. That sign in his display case tells the story. The meat industry blamed the shortage on the recently restored OPA ceilings and the city's trucking strike. (International)

DRIVE SAFELY

When taking a drivers examination, there are two important phases of the test an applicant must pass.

He must satisfactorily pass a road test. The written questions based on information contained in a booklet entitled "The Drivers Handbook." This booklet can be obtained from any State Highway Patrolman.

He must also pass a driving demonstration. He is asked to drive and to do such things as are experienced in ordinary driving. During the road test the applicant is asked to do anything that is skilful and safe.

Capital Airport Manager Builds Castles In Air

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Hervey F. Law, manager of Washington's National Airport, forecasts that eventually will gross more than $1,000,000 annually. The monthly non-aviation business.

The $15,000,000 plant, opened in 1941, has shown steady financial gains every year since 1942, when there was a deficit of $40,000. Last year the profit was $23,495.

Law has plans for boosting the non-aviation income to even higher levels, a garage, a shopping center, a filling station, shops in the terminal building itself and an exhibition center.

A record 120,000 passengers on 16,000 aircraft arrived or took off at the airport during June. The restaurant, operated by Air Terminal Services, Inc., served 2,072,708 meals from July, 1945, through last June.

On March 9, 1942, President Roosevelt wrote a note to his friend, Elmer L. Irey, retiring coordinator of the Treasury's law enforcement agencies. Irey is very proud of this letter and has photographic copies made of it.

"On March fifteenth neither you nor I are particularly popular," wrote the President.

"On this coming March fifteenth we will be unpopular with more millions of taxpayers than ever before. Since we are to be companions in misery, I feel I should take a moment to tell you of my pride in the work of the Intelligence Unit."

"It has just come to my attention that twenty-three years ago this coming Friday, March thirteenth, you organized the Intelligence Unit under my old friend, Dan Roper, who at that time was commissioner of internal revenue. As the years have gone by the Intelligence Unit has become a shining mark not only of incurability but what is just as important, of A-1 efficiency."

Seven Accredited Schools In State Can Still Accommodate 2,000 Veterans

TALLAHASSEE, Sept. 24.—(Special)—Seven accredited universities and colleges in Florida still have accommodations for 2,000 veterans for this fall term, according to a survey conducted by the Veterans Education Section of the State Department of Education.

Heading the list in available openings is the University of Miami which advises that both housing and classroom facilities will be ready Nov. 1 for 1100 unmarried men to begin the first semester.

The University is using the additional freshmen may enroll Oct. 1 in the business, music, or education departments, if they provide their own housing. Full accommodations will be available, however, for 100 more students in liberal arts, business administration, education, law, music, and pre-engineering.

Stetson University at Deland can still enroll 25 students in its college of law and the registrar believes the university can find suitable housing.

Seven Accredited Schools In State Can Still Accommodate 2,000 Veterans

Negro veterans have already found the Florida Agricultural Experiment Station at Tainthassee unable to accept new enrollments. However, the Florida Normal and Industrial Institute at St. Augustine can enroll new students and will be able to house them upon completion of off-campus facilities which are under construction. This is a 4-year college.

Enrollment is available now for 100 negroes at the Bellamy-Cookman College in Daytona Beach, a 2-year college, with the accommodations reasonably assured in the immediate future.

Hints To Housewives

Practical Pockets
Pockets in women's clothes may be practical as well as decorative. House dresses, aprons, and garden aprons, if they will be more convenient and satisfactory if pockets are made fully useful.

On the skirt, pockets should be placed where the hands slip in naturally without yumbling for the opening. Many pockets on ready-made dresses and patterns are too high. Because some differ in length, the location of the pocket needs to be tried out before final stitching is done. A patch pocket is more accessible to the hand if the top is slanted downward the side rather than cut straight across. Slanted pockets placed comfortably low on skirts are not only more convenient but also safe, because they are less likely to catch on handles and doorknobs.

The primary purpose of a pocket is to hold and carry. Therefore, skirt pockets should be roomy enough for a clenched fist to go in and out easily. This requires cutting the pocket large enough and then placing it on a loose part of the garment. If placed where the dress fits the body closely—over the rounded line of hips or just for example—the curves of the body will fit into the pocket and any article forced in, even a handkerchief, will make an unattractive bulge and strain the garment.

To make pockets durable, reinforce top corners where the greatest strain comes. A strip of tape, laid on the under-side of the dress across the top pocket added strength against pull at this line can be stitched on with the point.

THESE WOMEN

By BETTY CLARKE
AP Newsfeatures Beauty Editor
Have you ever noticed how wrinkled you look when your feet ache? Yet when your feet are comfortable, you are more likely to feel good all over and wear a happy face.

Tired or sore feet can make your eyes become dull and your smile weak. Tired feet from pain or weariness settle into permanent wrinkles.

Begin at an early age to give your feet as much attention as your face and you will be well rewarded in your good grooming program.

Teen-age girls who have been lounging in increasing and casual sandals during the summer months should get their feet in readiness for heavier, trimmer shoes to go with fall and winter ensembles.

Soothe your feet regularly, scrubbing them well with soap and water and dry them thoroughly. Here's a good trick to raise the circulation. Plunge the feet into a pan of hot water, then into cold. Repeat this action several times until you feel them tingle. Then after you dry them, massage some baby oil or mineral oil into them and massage the feet and legs from the ball of the foot up past the ankle and knee.

After leaving the oil on to penetrate the skin for five minutes or more, wipe off the excess with a soft cloth and massage again with good quality witch hazel which will tone and seal. While the flesh is still soft, get after those spots if they have appeared.

After the foot treatments you can think of, however, will not add the feet unless you are properly shod at all times. Make sure that shoes are always correctly fitted. While in your teens your feet are still growing, so have the size and width checked each time you buy a new pair of shoes.

No Extension Of Oct. 1 Deadline For Beverage Licenses Is Made

No extension of the Oct. 1 deadline for placing state and beverage licenses on the walls of liquor selling places has been made, and wholesale distributors are under bond to sell only to those who have licenses, such as are now on sale at the office of Tax Collector Jno. D. Jinkins at the Court House, according to word received from the director of the State Beverage Department by Mr. Jinkins.

State and county beverage licenses were issued to 120 places of business in Seminole county during the past year. These included licenses to 13 bars, five package stores and 102 licenses for sale of beer and wine. Total revenue was $10,515, equally divided between the state and county and representing an increase of 30 licenses or $3,317 over the previous year. There is also an additional tax per quart in addition, based on alcoholic content.

All funds collected by the state from sale of beverages are, aside from necessary expenses, used for old age assistance and pensions and to blind needy children and any surplus goes to county school funds.

The State Beverage Department may revoke licenses for violations by licensees, whether or not convicted in any criminal court. Other reasons for revoking a license may be maintaining unsanitary premises or permitting disorderly conduct on the premises. After a license is revoked, another one may not be legally secured within two years.

If a place of business is located in a town, a town or city license must first be secured and presented to the county tax collector's office before a state and county license may be issued. All such licenses are issued over the signature and seal of the county judge and are countersigned by the tax collector.

Love Finds A Way To Change Town Name

NOTOM, Utah — (AP) — This Wayne county community owes its name to an unsuccessful suitor, according to a popular local story. It was originally named Pleasant Creek, but because so many other Utah towns have "Pleasant" in their names, civic officials changed it to Notom.

The story is that the swain kept after a girl to marry him but her stock answer was, "No, Tom."

PARATROOPER'S WORK

MANCHESTER, N. H. — (AP) — After three years in Uncle Sam's painting a cathedral steeple. Formerly an assistant to his father, a boss painter, he said the trade was nothing new to him. But the high work is. When he first slid out of a 110-foot-high window in a boss's chair, he felt, "a little scared." But now it's "a good spot to view the city from."

MILK MAID, NO DOUBT

DECATUR, Ill. — (AP) — The staff in the county clerk's office received a request from Denison, Tex., for a copy of the birth certificate of a woman who was born in 1909 in a pasture. Obviously, the staff agreed, this was an error. But the records showed the woman got her start in life in "the northeast corner of Powers' Pasture."

Florida - Georgia Fans Await Start Of Playoff Series

Real Test Of Strength To Be Displayed Since No Men Will Be Added

by LEAGUE SERVICE BUREAU
Florida and Georgia baseball fans now awaiting opening game of the seventh annual inter-league series between the Georgia Florida and Florida State League winners can be assured of seeing a real test of strength between the two leagues for neither club roster will be added with stars from other clubs.

That was agreed upon during the week by Florida State League president E. L. Padgett and Georgia Florida president W. T. Anderson.

Only players who will be allowed in uniform during the scheduled seven game series will be those who were on club rosters 15 days before the season ended, and not over 18 men, including the manager, can be in uniform. The same 18 will be eligible for all games.

Both club presidents agreed that only in case of injury or serious illness, where the loss of a player would obviously detract from the club's usual standard of play, would a replacement be permitted, and the replacement then should be a player of the same classification.

That is, if a rookie became injured or ill, a rookie substitute would be permitted. If a limited service or unlimited class man went out of action, his replacement should be from that field.

Here are the players eligible for the series as certified by heads of the two leagues:

FLORIDA: Manager, Jack Sanford; Thomas J. Adair, unlimited veterans; James M. Turner, Charlie Dykes, American League; Crawford Howard, John Amer, Lewis West, limited service; Joseph S. Lull, William V. Givens, John P. Cusick, Frank Whalen, Kenneth Corie, John Utko, Robert Palantino, William Murray, Charles Dommer, rookies.

Bill McKechnie Will Sever Connections With Reds Sept. 25

CINCINNATI, Sept. 24. (AP)—Bill McKechnie will sever connections with the Cincinnati Reds at St. Louis on Wednesday night. General Manager Warren Giles announced that McKechnie's resignation would take effect at that time after he conferred with the Cincinnati manager this morning.

McKechnie is expected to appoint Coach Jimmy Wilson as acting manager before he leaves the team. One of the names being mentioned for manager next season is Terry Moore of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Kentucky's Allen Will Be Ineligible

NASHVILLE, Sept. 24. (AP)—A Nashville, Tenn., newspaper quotes President John Tigert of the Southern Conference as saying that Kentucky's Ernie Allen will be ruled ineligible by the conference executive committee.

Tigert was quoted as saying that he had not followed the rules of procedure in referring the case to the executive committee last week because of lack of time. A ruling that Allen was eligible was handed down and he played Saturday against Mississippi.

In Lexington, Ky., meanwhile, a conference secretary, Doctor W. B. Funkhouser, said that Allen will remain eligible until all schools in the conference concur in the conference decision of last week. He said it may take two weeks or longer for all schools to act in the case.

SPORTS LAUGH

When Riggs Stephenson was playing with the Cleveland Indians early in his career, he and a number of teammates were discussing a trade which sent another player to the high-flying New York Yankees. One of the teammates mentioned that the player was moving right into the world series now and asked: "Which they trade me to the Yankees?" Another teammate agreed, and so did a third and a fourth. Stephenson, however, shook his head and said: "If we were all traded to the Yankees, that would make the Yanks a second-division club and there would be no series at all."

Cooperation From Mates Would Help Record Says Feller

CLEVELAND, Sept. 24. (AP)—Bob Feller believes he would have a better chance of establishing a new straight record if he would get a little cooperation from his teammates, and if the opposition would stop deliberately trying to prevent him from making such a mark.

After losing to Hal Newhouser in a hurling duel Sunday, Feller had two complaints. One is that the Tigers were not cutting at his offerings as they normally do. Instead, they were punching at the ball in a deliberate attempt to keep him from garnering as many strikeouts as possible.

The other complaint is that his teammates failed to get any runs, which made it easy for the Tigers to use their tactics.

Feller says he has had all of his stuff in recent games, and that he has felt as strong as ever. He points out that he has allowed only one extra-base blow in his last four games, and that was a double by Buddy Lewis of the Washington Senators.

Feller adds: "Did you notice the way Newhouser stood at the plate? He even tried to hunt to get on. The only guy swinging was Dick Wakefield, because that's the only way Dick knows how to hit. The Senators did the same thing to me last week. In the first eight innings, he was trailing, 1 to 0, and I had only two strikeouts. Then we made five runs in the last of the eighth and they were forced to swing, so I struck out the side."

Feller and Newhouser are scheduled to meet again next Sunday. Feller remarked for the occasion: "And I'll bet you're right now that I get shut out again."

All-American football star, Byron R. "Whizzer" White, stands outside the U. S. Supreme Court Building in Washington after it was announced he will be law clerk to Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson. White turned down many grid offers to study law. He received $15,000 for a single season with the Pittsburgh Steelers, after a spectacular career at the University of Colorado. (International)

INSIDE SPORTS REPORT

By ARTHUR BECKWITH, JR.

The Sanford High School football team's 1946 campaign opened their 1946 campaign on the local field Friday night in a game that was not only impressive in the highest sense for working as a team, but also in the highest sense of the word of events.

The Feds had the makings of a good half working, winning aggregation, with more polish.

Willis Anderson was, as usual, the standout player in the Sanford backfield, Anderson had a punt average of 36.5 yards per kick and gained 79 yards from scrimmage to pace the local boy's attack.

Holly Perry also made a valiant effort on the behalf of his team. Perry gained 15 yards from scrimmage and would have had more than that had his teammates not committed miscues to bring about a penalty after he had turned in a long run.

The Fed attack was not up to par. The boys were sluggish and less and, apparently not in condition.

The Fed linemen were in there working all the time and, not too much praise can be given those linemen. Bonnie Sparsman and Nollie Trapp were on almost every play and the short of amazing.

The Feds' defense was a big bruising to back, and will place in the conference this year and from all indications will really be in there giving opponents plenty of trouble. Ray Gatch is the youngster who packs 220 over his six foot two inch frame, and he really moves it along.

With a good bit of added polish the Feds will be as good a team as they were last year. They have the material and the ability to do so, and they will.

The Baseball Team With Sunday's game in Orlando the Sanford baseball team ended their 1946 season.

All in all, the 1946 edition of the Feds was more successful than the most of us ever expected at the beginning of the year.

At the outset of the season the team was not team and there was not even a player signed to a contract nor was there a mother club to send us players. The

Packers Pack Big Punch In National Football League

By WILLIAM A. WEEKES

GREEN BAY, Wis.—Green Bay's Packers—unless Coach Curley Lambeau's optimism is without foundation—will be the Packers of old in the 1946 National Football League struggle.

Lambeau, starting his 27th year as head coach, says that a Packer era ended last year when the club finished lower than it had in 12 years, but a new era is about to dawn. Such old standbys as Lou Brock, Joe Lays, Buckets Goldenburg and the incomparable Don Hudson have played their last.

Last of a Series "This is what we have been waiting for," they wily Belgian says. "We had some good squads before the war and some pretty fair ones during the war, but this is as good as we've ever had—and maybe better. We are younger in overall age, we have balance in our line, and I believe we'll show them more good running backs than we ever had."

Dwelling on newcomers at the club's new 53-acre estate near Green Bay, Lambeau beams over four new two huge former Minnesota tackles, Urban Olson and all America Dick Widdling, Center Mervin Pregulman of Michigan and Walt Schwaninger from Texas Tech. He thinks Schlingman may approach the achievements of Clark Hinkle, the fullback standard of comparison in those parts.

Along with Pregulman, the Packers have veteran all-league Charlie Brock, one of the game's top centers for years; Buddy Galbreath of Baylor, Andy Kosma of Louisiana State and Tom Hand of Iowa. Veteran tackles are Tiny Croft, Bill Lee and Ed Lipscomb. Halldover guards are Charlie Tolleson, Bill Kusisto, Solon Brantley, Ross E. and Glen Stevenson. After jobs are held by M. Lavin from nearby St. Norbert, Toby Collins of Tulsa, Al Sparta from U.L.A., Joe Caniglia of Georgetown, Joe Harris of West Texas and Joe Bennett of Hardin-Simmons.

Byde Goodnight, Nolan Lahn and Carl Mullenhead head the ends with Stan Kramer from Harrison of North Carolina, Hal Prescott of Hardin-Simmons, Don Wells of Georgia, Bill Johnson of Minnesota and Henry Miller of Iowa, the other candidates.

The running backs about whom Lambeau talks are halfbacks Tony Hunter, Steve Ray, Meloy, Bruce Smith, Herman Rohrig and Bruce Nussbamer of Michigan, Bob Forte of Arkansas and Cliff Anderson, Bob Adkins and Ken Keener, veterans, and Horace Year of Southern Methodist and Jay Hough of Clemson are quarterbacks.

Along with Schlingman, who is counted on to make Fullback Ted Fritch-hustle for his job, Lambeau has Bob Kabat, Ed Olds of Michigan State and Al Zupke from Lawrence College, Appleton, Wis.

University of Miami's 1946 football squad has four brother teams each made up of one freshman and one man with squad experience. Don, halfback and Leon Jones, blocking back, from Miami, Al Jackle and Jack Adlor, and from Red Bank, N. J.; George, guard and Jack Carfio, center, Haverhill, Mass.; and Edward, end, and Leo Houck, tailback from Lancaster, Pa. make up the double quartet.

Big Four Group To Dispose Of Italy's Colonial Holdings

Italian Territorial Commission Votes To Allow Ministers To Make Decisions

PARIS, Sept. 25, (AP)—The Italian Territorial Commission at the Paris Peace Conference today adopted the article which assigns the final disposition of Italy's colonial holdings in Africa to the Big Four nations.

Gladwyn Jebb, the British delegate, speaking for the Foreign Ministers' Council, promised that the countries which fought with the Allies in Africa will be consulted fully on their claims.

Jebb referred to Ethiopia, Egypt and Australia, but added that he received Britain's right to speak before the United States and Russia on the ground that the British fought alone in Libya and stopped Marshal Rommel at El Alamein.

The conservative press in Rome was angry over Paris dispatches which decided that the peace treaty had decided to give Eritrea to Ethiopia. The editorials called this an outrage against justice, an offense against the dignity of the European peoples, and that Eritrea will thus be doomed to become a slave province.

The United States favored independence as soon as possible for the majority of the Italian colonies.

British Foreign Secretary Bevin conferred today with Secretary of State Byrnes, presumably to clarify the positions of the two countries on this issue. Byrnes was due to meet this afternoon with W. Averell Harriman, the new Secretary of Commerce, who is leaving his ambassadorial post in London.

Duquesne Power Employees Fail To End Walkout

Steel Firm Workers Protest Sentence Given To Mueller

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 25, (AP)—The Duquesne Light Company in Pittsburgh today announced that its employees have failed to end their walkout as ordered by the Allegheny County Common Pleas Court. The court yesterday set the deadline for the end of the walkout at 10:00 A. M. Eastern Daylight Time today.

The decision stated that the court would hold nine independent leaders guilty of contempt unless they called off the strike. At that time it also sentenced the president of the striking union, George Mueller, to one year in jail for contempt of court.

Mueller has refused to end the strike which has crippled business and industry in the Pittsburgh area. When today's deadline arrived, the court gave the strikers one extra hour to return to work.

Workers at the Jones and Laughlin steel corporation have begun a sympathy strike. Apparently it is in protest against the jail sentence given Mueller.

Workers at the Jones and Laughlin plants belong to the CIO Steel Workers Union. So far, about 700 men have left their jobs at one of the plants. Some have been quoted as saying they are going to stay out until Mueller gets out of jail.

Reds In China Still Refuse To Enter Peace Talks

NANKING, China, Sept. 25, (AP)—Chinese Communists still refuse to participate in peace talks until a cease fire order is issued and an armistice arranged.

A communist spokesman in Nanking said today that the Communist peace negotiator, General Chou En-Lai, will remain on the sidelines in Shanghai until the demands are met. The spokesman, Wang Ping-Nan, said that either General George C. Marshall or United States Ambassador J. Leighton Stuart could get a cease-fire guarantee from Generalissimo Chiang.

If this were done, said the Communist, then terms of an armistice could be established by the group known as the Marshall-Communist military committee.

General Marshall is acting as special envoy from the United States.

Supplies Are Flown To Burning Tanker

NEW YORK, Sept. 25, (AP)—The Coast Guard sent two amphibian planes out into the Atlantic to deliver medical supplies to a burning tanker this morning. At least one of the planes succeeded in its mission. The tanker, the Bennington, has radioed that the fire is being brought under control but three members of the crew are dead, three are missing and two others are burned seriously.

The 10,000-ton vessel is heading slowly under her own power toward Wilmington, N. C. The planes were dispatched from Charleston, S. C., and Cherry Point, N. C., and were to parachute supplies to the ship.

Legionaires To Leave Thursday For Convention

Melton, Caton Complete Legion Tour In South Florida

A. Heid Mann, state Legion adjutant, together with Joel S. Field, Sanford postmaster and Campbell Loising Post 53 delegate, will leave Thursday morning for the national Legion convention which opens Monday at San Francisco. They will motor to Ocala and pick up Ed Martin, a delegate, and then to Jacksonville where they will embark on a Delta Airline plane to Dallas, Texas, then to El Paso, Los Angeles and San Francisco.

At the convention city they will be joined by Mrs. Field and Mrs. Martin who have been motoring through the west, and by Mrs. Mann who has been visiting in Seattle, Wash.

The Orange Horse special left Jacksonville last evening at 9:00 o'clock with between 300 and 400 delegates aboard. Among them were 85 members of the Miami Harvey W. Seels Post, three time national and one time international champions (Paris, 1927). They are out again to bring home the honor," said Reid Mann. There will also be a 20 piece drum band of the Miami Auxiliary Police and a color guard and rifle team, in the all day parade on Oct. 2.

Assistant Department Adjutant Holmes Melton returned Tuesday evening from what he described as a very successful speaking tour made in behalf of Legion stabilization and expansion in Pinellas and Hillsborough counties. With him was Department Vice Commander Frank Caton, one time professional magician, whose magic went over big, he said. They were at Pinellas County Post, in Clearwater, Friday evening, and were joined by Walter Woolfolk, assistant State attorney of Lake Wales and 7th District Department commander, who made a short talk.

Saturday night they appeared at Brookville, Sunday afternoon at Mulberry and Monday at Ybor City Post where they were hosts to all of Hillsborough County posts. There was very good attendance, especially of World War I veterans, and lots of enthusiasm, said Mr. Melton.

Stalin's Statements Bring Varied Reaction Among South's Newspapers

Jews Decide Not To Take Part In London Conclave

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
The recent statement of Joseph Stalin today brought a varied reaction among newspaper editors in the South. Some editorial writers said Stalin's views are intriguing, but others took a more wary attitude.

In Atlanta, the Constitution came forth with high praise. The paper said "On the whole, it is a frank, encouraging statement. It gives fresh hope to all those who fear war."

In Jacksonville, the Times Union was not so optimistic. An editorial said Stalin still leaves the world perplexed as to the full meaning of his statements, because they do not jibe with the actions of Russian representatives in America and in Paris.

The New Orleans Times Picayune said Stalin's statements by no means are full enough to quench the American thirst for enlightenment. Along the same line, the Memphis Commercial Appeal decried Stalin's not repudiated the Marxist objective of world communism. That, the newspaper said, is just enough for the rest of the world to stay alert and stay strong.

In Paris, Prime Minister Stalin's question and answer statement still commends a wide attention in the newspapers today. However, most morning editions confined themselves to a news presentation.

Secret Records Are Introduced At Trial

TOKYO, Sept. 25, (AP)—Secret records were introduced today at the Japanese war crimes trial which disclosed the imperialistic aims of former Prime Minister Hideki Tojo. The records were made at a meeting in 1940 at which the Privy Council approved a pact with Germany and Italy.

Tojo was prime minister at the time. The record quoted Tojo as saying: "Any race that dies out under the rule of survival of the fittest is not worth existing in this earth. If we fail to accomplish our grand mission of spreading the imperial way at the time it should be done then it cannot be helped even if we go out of existence."

SALONIKA, Greece, Sept. 25, (AP)—The premier of Greece, Constantinos Tsaldaris, has described the violence in northern Greece as actual war against the state. He declared that the turmoil created by attacks of leftist bands in Thessaly and Macedonia was not a question of order but a question of war.

LONDON, Sept. 25, (AP)—A spokesman for the British Foreign Office today described the fighting in Greece as a "small scale civil war." Initial Flight Of Flying Post Office Is Started Today

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25, (AP)—The government's first flying post office took off today on an experimental flight. If the experimental works, Postmaster General Robert Hannegan hopes that within five years, the United States can deliver air mail anywhere in the world within 40 hours.

Here is what is happening on that experimental flight today. The plane has a cabin that's been fitted out like a railway mail car. Six mail clerks are aboard. With them is a "ton of first-day covers" bearing the brand-new 6 cent air mail stamp.

The covers were sent by stamp collectors to Washington for a special post mark indicating the first flight. The clerks will sort the covers while the plane is in the air on its way to Dayton, Chicago, Pittsburgh and New York.

It may sound simple but sorting mail in the air has never been done by the Post Office Department before. It is a necessary step in handling the increased volume of air mail the government expects when the new 6 cent rate for domestic air mail goes into effect on Oct. 1.
