A soldier, Cpl. Robert Howard of San Antonio, said all of a sudden there was a jar and he was thrown from his seat...

Two of the cars wound up in a "V" position astride the tracks and two others veered into a field.

At Little Rock, the Missouri Pacific division office estimated it would be late today before traffic over the line could be resumed.

Police Chief Bill Funk said it was a miracle that nobody was killed.

Prosecutor J. W. McCoy said the motorist, obviously drunk, caused the wreck by mistaking the railroad's main line for a road and driving his car 234 feet down the track.

The motorist was jailed, without charge, pending further investigation about 300 yards.

The streamliner was traveling about 75 miles per hour at the time of the accident.

The automobile was rolled up and carried about 300 yards.

McCoy said he was told that the wreck damage would range between $300,000 and $400,000.

Korean Talks

General Kim and Peng replied Monday that the presence of the troops was "a mistake and an accident."

Their joint statement, as broadcast by the Chinese Peking radio, referred to it as "a small incident" and accepted General Ridgway's conditions for resumption of the talks.

Ridgway's conditions were a "satisfactory explanation of this violation and assurance of non-recurrence."

After receiving the Red reply, Ridgway summoned four of his negotiators to Tokyo, instead of sending them back to Kaesong.

Ridgway conferred last night and again this morning with his chief delegate, Vice Admiral C. Turner Joy, before issuing his latest ultimatum.

His firmly worded message to the club's top Communist noted: "You state that orders have again been issued to your Kaesong area guards to adhere strictly to the regulation that no armed guards would enter the conference area..."

"I have also noted that you describe such incidents as minor, accidental and trivial. Such incidents are of fundamental importance, as I have before reported that the Lions Club General Fund now contains $115,877, the social fund $51, the Blind Fund $137.00 and the Tail Twister Fund $23.85. Outstanding bills total $66.

The Club agreed to take $5 donation cards from the Salvation Army to aid in a drive for funds for 1951-52. President Cecil Carlson urged every member to participate in the drive.

Malcolm MacNeill read a letter from Stetson Coach Joe McMullin offering the use of a film on "Hatter Football Highlights" and the club referred action on the matter to the board of directors.

The next directors meeting will be held on Aug. 17 at 7:30 P. M.

Palatka Azaleas Kill Giants' Hope For Longest Win Streak Of Year

PALATKA, Aug. 6.—(AP)—The Palatka Azaleas ruined the Sanford Giants' hopes for a six-game winning streak last night with a 12 hit barrage off Bill Ward and Manager Richie Klaus which netted them 8 runs to the Giants 3.

Mike Kasabian was a potent element in the Azaleas attack, collecting five hits and driving across five runs. Azaleas hurler Blas Arroyo held the Giants to five hits.

Ed Hrabecsk hurled a 12-inning, two-hit masterpiece as the Savannah Indians shaded Augusta, 4-0. The Philadelphia Athletics farmhand walked eight, three in the first inning. His opponent, Bill Ray Meyer, who just joined Augusta from semi-pro ranks, yielded eight hits and hung on grimly with Hrabecsk until a double by Joe Mangini and Itoh Hets' single handed him his heart-breaking defeat in the 12th.

George Dries attempted an "iron-man" stunt for Columbus in its doubleheader with the Columbus Red Sox. He batted three times, but had to give way to Bob Loch after seven innings of the second game. The Reds cupped the nightcap, 4-4, with Buzz Bell going the distance for his seventh success. He has dropped 12 games.

Leeburg and Daytona Beach celebrated Mickey Burnett night here last night with a knockdown, drag out ball game with Daytona winning, 9 to 6. Rocky Colavito, rookie center fielder for Daytona, smacked his twenty-first and twenty-second round tippers of the season and drove in five runs in a one-man hitting exhibition.

Red Hatz 4; Indians 3. COCOA, Aug. 6.—(AP)—The DeLand Red Hatz pushed a run over the top of the seventh inning to drop the Cocoa Indians 4 to 3 last night after Monte Barrow had hit a three-run homer in the seventh to come from behind to knock the count with the Indians.

Canada's hopes of an upset victory in a singles match against the United States in the North American zone Davis cup final this week rest with Brendan Macken, a crafty customer on a tennis court. That was the feeling among observers today as the Canadians and Americans continued to brush up on their strokes in practice sessions for the opening singles matches Friday.

Macken himself remains non-committal on his chances against the Americans. "They're good, very good," said 27-year-old veteran of seven cup teams, who is certain to draw a starting singles assignment. "But I'm confident of putting up a good game and I'm going to be there all the way no matter who I play against."

Meanwhile, the Americans polished up on their game. Captain Frank Shields had Lorenz, 26-year-old U. S. national champion, practice his backhand against Judge Patti, Savitt and others concentrated on perfecting their service. Both teams looked sharp in their periods back the Brian camp.

Straight from the Horse's Mouth

Don Bailey crouched casually behind the plate eyeing Jaunty little Pete Petraglia speculatively as the Deland second baseman knocked clay off his spikes and prepared to step into the batter's box.

It was the third inning and two men were out. But out on second base perched Joe Barrow who had lashed out a sizzling triple to center field to lead off the inning.

As the plat-sized Petraglia stepped into the original area marked off far right banded batter, Bailey pulled in his extended right leg and the runner started a real-life Hagline dance off second base.

On the mound a lean and rangy six foot four inch hurler moved into the mire, causing the slighter toeing the rubber. His cap pulled down over his eyes and a hard look on his face, big Swede Swiderski lifted his arms high in the air, causing momentarily as he brought them down and uncoiled his wiry frame in a symphony of motion which directed the ball unerringly toward the plate.

Swiderski glowering down at the batter like a long-legged spider after the pitch, came out of his tense crouch and backed crab-like, in a motion reminiscent of comedian Cary Grant, to the top of the red clay mound.

Again the Giant pitcher unleashed the tantalizing sphere toward the plate, but this time it was raw power rather than finesse which left Petraglia with nothing but air to meet his viciously swung bat. Two strikes and Swiderski had the slightly cocky attitude of a man who realizes his advantage and intends to take every advantage of it.

Swiderski, rookie behind the plate, lifted the short apron of his protective shield and the signal for another curve was acknowledged by Swiderski. This time his motion was swift and sneaky as the ball broke in a wide arc heading for the batter as it left his hand in what looked like a straight line.

Big Swede finally won that one and another shrewd throw giving him a record of 9 and 8—but even more impressive in the wild throwing Florida State League the big hurler has not walked a man in 26 full innings as this story goes to press.

Marriage Is Credited With Good Showing Of Cleveland's Garcia

CLEVELAND, Aug. 6.—(AP)—Pitcher Mike Garcia and outfielder Dale Mitchell—key men in making Cleveland the American League's hottest ball club during the past month and a half—have been given pay raises.

Garcia, winner of nine games against one loss since June 26, and Mitchell, who boosted his batting average 92 points to .290 during the same period, were the only two Indians whose pay was cut last winter.

That was beginning to seem unjust to Hank Greenberg, the Tribe's general manager. Especially after last night's game in which the Indians whipped St. Louis 5-1 for their 33rd victory in games.

Garcia held the Browns to four 10th victory of the campaign, a hit and no walks and posted his average 92 points to .290 during the same period, were the only two Indians whose pay was cut last winter.

Swiderski, rookie behind the plate, lifted the short apron of his protective shield and the signal for another curve was acknowledged by Swiderski. Paul Brown Opens Practice Session For All-Star Tilt

By FRITZ HOWELL

BOWLING GREEN, O., Aug. 6.—(AP)—Paul E. Brown is getting a bit testy!

And that looks no good for the collegiate all-stars in that Aug. 17 grid game in Soldiers Field at Chicago.

"As Brown goes, so go the Browns," and the five-time professional champions from Cleveland are getting in that "let's get 'em" mood.

For years the practice sessions at the Bowling Green camp have been near to average, but this week coach Brown clamped down and had the gentlemen clear the field of spectators. Afraid of spies, he said.

When the rains came, Brown kept his charges going full tilt. Otto Graham passed, Lou Groza punted right through the down-pour, while the others blocked, kicked and ran.

"Might rain in Chicago," Brown said, "and we have to learn to handle that ball under such conditions." He understood the 1941 game was played in fog. Wish we had one of those fog-making machines so we could prepare for that, too.

Herman Hickman, Yale's mentor who is boss of the All-Stars, came up with a suggestion that the goal posts for the annual clash be placed 10 yards back of the goal line, equidistant style. Instead of on the goal lines where the pros have 'em.

"Paul, seeing this attempt to out-guess a place-kicking outfit, countered with 'I'll be there' style. "Goal posts on the goal line didn't bother the All-Stars last year when they shellacked the Philadelphia Eagles 17-7. Maybe, we should understand the 1941 game in Chicago the day of the game, I'll request that the field be narrowed 10 yards. We're getting old, and don't care too well on wide plays."

Dressen Considers Dodgers Better Than Yankees In All Departments

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—(AP)—Charley Dressen, pepper-pot manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers, said today he's not a bit covetous—the mighty New York Yankees don't have a single player he'd want to strengthen his club.

"That is, in a straight swap deal," the little pilot added. "I'll take the men we have at every position—and that includes shortstop."

"I have always regarded Phil Rizzuto as one of the finest shortstops in baseball. But the way Peeewe Reese is going this year I'd have to take him over the Yankees' boy."

"Last year, when Phil was having such a great season, it might have been something else. But now Reese is hitting well over .300 and Rizzuto isn't. Both are good fielders and good base-runners. Peeewe has more power."

Dressen's comments were the result of some gentle coaxing after he was asked to compare his fly-ing Dodgers, position by position, with the team that may oppose them in the world series.

"If the Yankees have an edge at all it's in reserve strength, especially in the pitching," the Brooklyn manager said. "They have more men to throw at you and can do it without weakening themselves but man-for-man I think we've got a sounder club."

"I'll have to take Gil Hodges at first base. He's a better fielder than Johnny Mize, he's knocked in almost twice as many runs and you can't overlook those 31 home runs."

"There's no question about Jackie Robinson at second base over anybody the Yankees want to use—McDougal or Coleman—and at third I like Cox over Bobby Brown. Of course, the Yankees sometimes throw McDougal over there and he's a good man for the position."

Dressen, who served as coach of the Yankees during the regime of Larry MacPhail, then discussed the outfield.

"I think we've got 'em there, too, singly or collectively," he said. "Give me Swiderski, Pafko and Furillo over Woodling, DiMaggio and Collins, or even their second platoon. Somebody may want to argue about Pafko over DiMaggio but I'm talking about the big fellow as he is today, not as he used to be. He's slipped plenty, you know."

"The Yankees have a fine catcher in Yogi Berra—a smart, good arm and hits well—but I don't think anybody would trade Campanella for him. Roy can do everything just as well and has more power."

"I'm picking we run into a pitchers' situation. Our big three pitchers are as good, or better, than their big three. That is, Roy, Branca and Newcombe. I'll stick with the Yankees."

The 1904 Kentucky basketball team played only two games, 10 at Kentucky, 11, but lost to Cincinnati YMCA.
