Capt. Reedy Praises Friendly Relations Of Community, Navy

Captain James R. Reedy was relieved as Commander of Heavy Attack Wing One yesterday by Captain James D. Ramage in a Change-of-Command ceremony at the U. S. Naval Air Station, Sanford.

In conjunction with the Change of Command ceremony, presentation of trophies were made for the Fifth Heavy Attack Bombing Derby which was held between June 4 and 6 and commendations were given to personnel for outstanding professional merit and contributions to the Navy. During the year that Captain Reedy commanded the Navy's Heavy Attack Wing One, which flies the twin engine jet A3D Skywarrior, many records and advances were made. A Heavy Attack Wing One squadron, VAH-5, captured first place in the Heavy Attack Bombing phase of the All-Navy Gunner Meet held at El Centro, Calif., during the week of April 14, 1958. VAH-5 contributed tanker support for a Navy Crusader fighter which established a new cross-continent speed record during 1957.

Before coming to Sanford, Captain Reedy was a student at the Naval War College in Newport, R. I., the Navy's top school in Naval strategy and sea power. Prior to attending the War College, Captain Reedy served two years in Paris, France, as Chief of Plans and Policies Branch, Intelligence Division, Supreme Headquarters, Allied Powers, Europe. On the 6th of July, Capt. Reedy will board the USS Lexington (CVA-16) on the Pacific coast. On July 19 he will take over as Commanding Officer of that ship. During the time the carrier is deployed away from the continental U. S., Capt. Reedy's family will remain in Sanford.

Capt. Ramage assumed command after duty at the National War College in Washington, D. C. He is a U. S. Naval Academy graduate of the class of 1939.

During the presentation of awards, immediately prior to the Change of Command ceremony, Commander C. Fernandez, Commanding Officer of Heavy Attack Squadron Eleven, was presented the Conover Trophy, signifying victory in the 5th Heavy Attack Bombing Derby. Top crew trophies were awarded to Lt. L. D. Tension, plane commander, Lt. Jig B. B. Weber, bombardier, navigator, and M. T. Lewis, AOI, third crewman, VAH-11 for a 1st place finish in the Bombing Derby. Cdr. J. M. Tully, Commanding Officer of Heavy Attack Squadron Five, received a Top Squadron Plaque. VAH-5 was judged the best squadron in the Atlantic Heavy Attack Program during the last year.

Commendations were presented to two Sanford based personnel by Captain Reedy. Cdr. C. O. Donaud, VAH-5, received a commendation from the Commander Naval Air Force, U. S. Atlantic Fleet as the outstanding heavy attack pilot in the United States Navy for 1958. This award was based on Cdr. Donaud's superior performance in the Fleet Gunner Meet at El Centro, Calif.

Lawrence E. Leeper, ADC, received a commendation from the Commander of Heavy Attack Wing One for his outstanding effort in developing a radar prediction system which has been adopted by the Navy.

On each occasion, however, along with regret on leaving there is the expectation of the challenge of a new duty, and the excitement of stepping into new surroundings.

"This time, facing new duty, my emotions are more mixed than ever before. I am going to command USS Lexington, one of the Navy's most modern attack carriers since her recent overhaul. This assignment is certainly one to be proud of, but it will be difficult to surpass even at the end of a successful cruise the immediate feeling of pride and satisfaction I have for having been Commander, Heavy Attack Wing One.

"Superlatives are not easily come by in this Navy—the traditional accolade being 'well done'—but units of this wing have earned them. I am continually impressed by the intelligent, aggressive pursuit of excellence in the primary mission of the squadrons that has been shown to me over the past year.

"I don't have to urge you to keep on with this way of doing business for Capt. Ramage. I know you will because you've demonstrated to me that it is your traditional way of doing things, and in turning over this fine command I congratulate him on receiving it and you on getting an outstanding naval officer as your wing commander. I look forward to hearing more wonderful things about Heavy Attack Wing One.

"Lastly, no change of command here in Sanford would be a satisfactory one if no mention were made of the wonderful relationship that exists between the citizens of the community, and the Navy. Whatever success we have, my friends, is due in no small measure to the wonderful support and reception we have from you. None of us will leave here without sincere pangs of regret, and a firm intention to return. I feel fortunate myself that I am able to leave my family in this city in which we have quickly come to feel at home, while I am out of the continental U. S.

"In parting, let me wish all of you, Naval personnel and civilians alike continued success and happiness."

Commendations were presented to two Sanford based personnel by Captain Reedy. Cdr. C. O. Donaud, VAH-5, received a commendation from the Commander Naval Air Force, U. S. Atlantic Fleet as the outstanding heavy attack pilot in the United States Navy for 1958. This award was based on Cdr. Donaud's superior performance in the Fleet Gunner Meet at El Centro, Calif.

Geneva Talks Face First Major Showdown

GENEVA (UPI)—The Geneva nuclear conference faced its first major showdown today that may show whether Russia is genuinely prepared to negotiate a workable scheme for policing nuclear test explosions.

Scientists of the Western and Soviet blocs meet again this afternoon after a 48-hour recess to resume work on a nuclear inspection scheme.

They do so in an atmosphere made tense by these developments.

The Soviets Thursday renewed their demands for pledges by the U. S. to call off nuclear test explosions immediately.

Russia hinted she may pull out of the Geneva conference altogether if the U. S. does not comply.

Both Western and Soviet delegations maintained tight secrecy over the talks, indicating that they were heading into a difficult, perhaps a crucial stage.

The conference opened Tuesday and then recessed for 48 hours without explanation after only two working sessions.

During the intervals the Western delegation was reported to have prepared a detailed plan for policing test explosions. They spent nearly four hours working on it and were expected to present it to the Russians this afternoon.

Committees Are Set For Summer Jaycee Projects

Three members of the Sanford delegation to Boys State spoke to the Sanford-Seminole County Junior Chamber of Commerce at its noon luncheon meeting yesterday.

Walter Middleton, Wally Phillips Jr., and Gary Baker told the Jaycees of their day-by-day activities during the week-long stay at FSU and the State Capitol.

"During the city elections," said Walter Middleton, as he gave a rundown of some of the activities "the boys became so interested and enthused that a third party was formed."

Gary Baker told the Jaycees that "We met the Governor and heard addresses by the Secretary of State and the State's Attorney General."

"Wally Phillips Jr. explained "In that one week we crammed more than I would cram into a month at home."

The speakers were introduced by John Alexander, program chairman for the meeting.

Tom McDonald, Jaycee president, named committees for the Jaycee summer projects.

Committees have been formed for the School Bond Issue, Fishing Rodeo, Get Out The Vote, and the Jaycee Information Building and Park.

Chairmen said McDonald, are M. L. Naborn Jr. for the School Bond Issue committee; Everett Harper for the Fishing Rodeo; Bill Gramkow for the Get Out The Vote committee; and Art Harris for the Jaycee Information Building and Park.

McDonald urged Jaycees to take an active part in the committees regardless of the amount of time one could find to spend on one of more projects.

COMEDIAN DANNY THOMAS was greeted yesterday by Mayor Merle Warner when the TV star made a brief stop-over here at First St. and Park Ave. Despite the heavy downpour of rain, Danny Thomas was besieged with fans for autographs. (Staff Photo)

Rains Slow Work On New Clubhouse

CASSELLBERRY—Building operations on the new Casselberry Country Clubhouse, slowed down because of frequent rains, are proceeding at a satisfactory pace, according to publicity chairman Paul J. Smith.

The building, a 60x80 foot structure is expected to be under roof within the coming week. Cliff Overman, chairman of the building committee is supervising construction of the $30,000 clubhouse which will be completely air-conditioned and heated.

Ground breaking ceremonies, held two weeks ago were interrupted by a heavy downpour of rain, causing the crowd estimated at 125 people to scurry into the Women's Club Building for shelter at home, while I am out of the continental U. S.

The Men's Golf Association of the club will sponsor a flag tournament for members Sunday, according to Bob Harvey, tournament chairman.

AN EDITORIAL

4th Of July Should Be Celebrated Joyously

Let us begin with the words that set this day apart: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute a new government . . ."

Those of us now living are six generations removed from the men who thus declared their independence from tyranny and pledged their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor to uphold that declaration. This great document of human freedom was engrossed on parchment 182 years ago, momentous years that have been witness to the greatest changes in all the long history of mankind.

Yet the bitter truth is that though the American Declaration of Independence has been a beacon of hope to peoples throughout the world, uncounted millions are still trampled by the boots of tyranny. Vast numbers not enslaved by tyrannical governments are yet in bondage to privation. To half the human race, the unalienable rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness are a dream far removed from reality.

This is a thing to occupy the minds of men of good will on Independence Day, 1958. It is good to celebrate that day joyously, for independence is a joyous thing. It is good, also, to remember that the Declaration of Independence will not have borne its richest fruits until all men are indeed equal in dignity and freedom.

No Accidents So Far In County

Despite rains-soaked highways in Seminole County there were no traffic accidents, so far, in the beginning hours of the July 4th week-end.

The Seminole County Sheriff's office reported that "there were no accidents last night" and added "we hope that there aren't any accidents during the holiday week-end."

With prospects of rain and overcast skies for the holiday, Florida's long holiday weekend got underway with a grim start as four persons were killed and one injured in a two car collision in Central Florida.

The crash occurred on rain-soaked U. S. Highway 441 five miles south of Orlando, just minutes after the highway patrol began keeping count of highway deaths over the July Fourth week-end.

The victims were identified as Van C. Ivey, 63; his wife, Catherine; and William Feldes, all of Spartanburg, S. C.; and William C. Burton, 32, of Eagle Lake, Fla.

The Ivey couple, Feldes and his mother, Mrs. Lucia Manning, 68, were riding in the same car, police said. Mrs. Manning, the only survivor, was taken to a nearby hospital.

Burton was alone in the other car, according to patrolman R. G. Merry. Ivey died en route to the hospital.

The highway was slick from an all-day rain at the time of the crash.

Asher Frank, director of the Florida Safety Council, predicted some 20 persons would die in traffic accidents on Florida highways before the long weekend comes to a close Sunday night. The state highway patrol estimated 18 traffic deaths.

SNAS Gets Secretary Of Navy Safety Award

Rear Admiral W. G. Switzer, Commander Naval Air Base, Sixth Naval District, during ceremonies held aboard the Sanford Naval Air Station Thursday, presented the Secretary of Navy Award for Achievement in Safety for the calendar year 1957.

The Secretary of Navy Award was presented for the first time as a combined Industrial Safety and Motor Vehicle Safety Award. The Naval Air Station has won the Motor Vehicle Safety Award three times previously and the Industrial Safety Award four times previously.

Captain L. A. Arthur, Commanding Officer, NAS, Sanford, Florida, opened the formal ceremonies with the introduction of Rear Admiral Switzer at which time the Admiral read the Secretary of the Navy's letter to the Commanding Officer, stating:

"This award covers all aspects of accident prevention except flight safety. In earning this award you have not only completed the year without having a disabling injury accident but have also achieved a motor vehicle accident rate which was lower than the Navy-wide average. This safety record is one in which you may well take pride."

In closing, Captain Arthur thanked the Admiral and stated: "It is indeed an honor and it gives me great pleasure to receive the Secretary of Navy Award for achievement in safety for NAS Sanford for the year, 1957. It is to you, the supervisors and operators, that the credit goes for achieving this high degree of safety as honored by the Secretary of Navy; and I want to thank you all for the fine spirit of cooperation and team work you have shown. Keep up the good work."

Chuluota To Get Telephone Service

A project to furnish telephone service to Chuluota will get underway soon, said Sanford Area Manager Bob Shadden of Southern Bell Telephone Co.

Shadden said late yesterday that a large feeder cable, along with the distribution cable in the actual housing area will be installed.

The feeder cable, Shadden explained, will be underground. The project will cost in the neighborhood of $30,000, the local manager said, and will provide telephones for approximately 300 homes.

The Oviedo Central Office, Shadden stated, will handle this expansion. There are possibilities that additions to the Oviedo Central Office will be necessary if further growth warrants additional cable and service.

"Already one addition has been made to the Oviedo office and another one is slated for January," he said.

Local Citizens Are Told To Keep Registration Cards

"In spite of repeated announcements, many local citizens of Seminole County are returning their registration and identification card to my office," said Mrs. Camilla Bruce, Seminole County Supervisor of Registration.

"Please keep your registration card," Mrs. Bruce said late yesterday.

Pointing out the cards, which may be detached long perforated lines from the postal card sent to each qualified voter, she said "these cards will serve as identification at precincts during elections."

Mrs. Bruce said that those who do not receive registration cards by Monday should check the list of names disqualified for the coming elections. "Possibly because some failed to send back their registration card early this year, they have become disqualified and must now appear at the Office of the Supervisor of Registration to qualify," she said.

Rabies Shot Must Be Issued Before License Of Dog License

City officials said yesterday that many people are applying at the Sanford City Hall for license tags for their dogs without first securing rabies shots for them.

The public has been officially notified for several successive weeks, the City Manager's office said, that rabies shots are necessary before a dog license will be issued.

Dog owners should first get the rabies shots for their dogs from a local veterinarian and bring a certificate that the shots have been given when applying for the license.

All dogs must be licensed, the City Manager said. If they are not, they will be picked up and impounded. If not claimed the dog will be destroyed in 10 days. When claimed, an impounding fee will be charged.

Stray dogs are creating a nuisance, it was reported yesterday, throughout the city. Any dog will be picked up if complaints are received that a nuisance is being created whether they are wearing a dog license tag or not.

Another complaint, at the Sanford City Hall, is that dogs are tied up and howling at night and creating a public nuisance.

Credit Goes To Armed Forces Committee For Job Well Done

As we enjoy the fruits of the Declaration of Independence today our attention is centered on The Sanford Naval Air Station. There is, no doubt, no more formidable group of men and equipment anywhere in this country of ours designed to protect the Independence our forefathers set out to create.

Right now, throughout the area occupied by the Sanford Naval Air Station, there is in progress building, construction, remodeling, and additions planned in the Interim Expansion Program amounting to approximately $8 million.

In other words, the Sanford Naval Air Station has grown from the point just a little over a year ago which meant disaster for the Sanford area to security in that the local Navy base has been declared a permanent station.

So seldom do we give credit to those who are primarily responsible for accomplishing such a gigantic task that has meant so much to Sanford and Seminole County this past year and is destined to be for the area in years to come.

The Armed Forces Committee of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce spent many hours in the huge undertaking that was marked "Keep the Naval Air Station in Seminole County."

The reality of their labors were brought home yesterday when many citizens, aboard the Sanford Naval Air Station for a Change of Command ceremony, noticed the men and machines assigned to the task of building.

The committee members are Andrew Caraway, Mack N. Cleveland Jr., T. E. Tucker, Kariyle Housholder, J. Bralley Odham, M. L. Raborn Jr., and Clifford McKibbin, augmented by Chamber of Commerce Manager John Krider.

It must be realized that $12 million annually is poured into Sanford's economic funnel and without this enormous help the condition of Sanford's commercial, business, professional and industrial picture could not be estimated.

No doubt, the finest job ever done by the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce is in the efforts expended in keeping the Sanford Naval Air Station here in Seminole County.

Wherever you find people talking about the Sanford Naval Air Station, they all agree — and that is including statements made by Navy people right on up to the Pentagon—that Sanford is the finest place for Navy personnel.

To be sure we are happy—happy that the Navy is an integral part of the community in every respect whether it be civic, social, religious or whatnot.

Not only are we, the citizens of Sanford and Seminole County happy, but it is believed that the Navy people are happy.

Today, of all days, is a good time to stop and give due credit for the very fine job, the excellent work, the thought and ability, in helping to keep the Sanford Naval Air Station here.

Play It Safe! Drive Safe!

For goodness sake—be careful! That's a greeting to all of you folks who are planning to be using your automobile over the July 4th weekend.

Officials have predicted there will be 21 deaths on Florida highways during the weekend celebration.

We hope that not one of that figure will be a Seminole County fatality. There have been too many fatalities on Seminole County Highways already this year.

All of us must agree that accidents are caused by carelessness or just willful and wanton negligence—they are the only two brackets into which we can place the cause of automobile mishaps.

This time we're begging the citizens of our community to take care of themselves. We don't want to lose one person in the growing population of the community for each one is so important that we value their lives above all else.

One Sanford citizen said yesterday "I'm going to stay home all day tomorrow in order to be safe."

123 Register For Recreation

By MARIAN JONES
 OVIEDO — Coach Paul Mikler, head of the Recreation program for the Oviedo area, is announcing that a meeting of approximately 200 held Tuesday evening at Sweetwater Park resulted in the election of the following to work with Mikler on the recreation program and parties for same: Peggy Fleming, a sophomore at FSU, Tallahassee; Jimmy Brookshire, a senior at Oviedo High School and one of Mikler's helpers for the summer program; Benny Wainright, a junior at Oviedo High; Julie Gorre and Gladys Alford, sophomores at Oviedo High; and Linda Harris, a Freshman at Oviedo High.
 Mikler said he believed the first party will be held Friday week. One hundred twenty three have registered to date for the recreation program. On Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays they swim at the pool. This was the ninth time at the pool, and the average attendance has been about 50 for the swimming. All day programs, including the afternoon program at the school, have yielded an average attendance of 50 to 60 per day.

 This is very good, due to the fact that many have gone at some time or other on vacations and some who were here at the first of the season have gone to camp.

The Lighter Side Of Congress

By Frank Eleanor
 United Press International
 Washington (UPI) — The lighter side of Congress:

The biggest shock most people get when they visit the Capitol is that the giant voices of the Senate frequently turn out to be speaking in whispers.

Let's face it. You can't hear most of what goes on in the Senate, and sometimes the senators can't either. That's why Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis.) is proposing to install a public address system in the chamber.

Covering the Senate tends to be like watching TV when the picture is clear but the audio's dead. In these circumstances one lip reader could be more useful in the press gallery than a platoon of Pulitzer prize winners.

Senate debate often consists of two members talking to each other at a distance of three feet. Nobody gets it but the official reporter and even he better get into the huddle if he wants to make sure.

Not A Word
 When Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.) has something to say he might as well forget it unless he has copies in hand for the press. Sen. Thomas E. Martin (R-Iowa) can't be heard in the galleries even answering aye or no to a roll call.

Democratic leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex) is properly regarded for his backstage management of the Senate's affairs. However, he is inclined to legislate into his vest, and among Wiley's complaints is that although he sits only two rows behind Johnson he frequently can't catch a word.

Wiley is a member who wouldn't need a microphone addressing a mob on a beach in a whole gale. So everybody got the message when he stood up in the chamber the other day and said it was high time some changes were made.

However, this doesn't mean his advice will be heeded. The Senate is a place where they still keep the snuff boxes filled, and on each member's desk is a vestigial sand pot that reportedly was useful for blotting purposes 100 or so years ago. Change comes hard in the Senate.

Strain To Hear
 The silence with which Wiley's proposal has been received is matched only by the deathly still that continues to settle over the chamber daily as senators, reporters, and spectators (you can hardly call 'em audience) cup their ears to hear a muffled pronouncement by Johnson on the program ahead, or a muted revelation on skulduggery in high places by Sen. John J. Williams (R-Del), the Senate's one-man investigating committee.

It isn't all the fault of the whispering senators. When the Senate chamber was rebuilt eight years ago its sound barrier was supposed to have been broken. It wasn't.

House members, across the Capitol, have been making good use of an amplifying system for years, and Wiley points out that the government hasn't collapsed as a result.

News Of Men In Service

SEoul (AP)—Army PFC Morris D. Buckner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herschel V. Buckner, Route 2, Sanford, recently arrived in Korea and is now a member of the Korean Military Advisory Group in Seoul.
 Buckner, a repairman in the group, entered the Army last July, completed basic training at Fort Gordon, Ga., and arrived in the Far East the following June.
 The 19-year-old soldier attended Seminole High School and is a former employe of Central Florida Sanitarium and Hospital, Orlando.

Jennifer Castello Becomes Wife Of Eoghan Neuman Kelly

On Saturday, June 28, Miss Jennifer Carroll Castello, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Castello of Eau Gallie, became the wife of Eoghan Neuman Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kastner of Sanford.
 The Rev. Dominic Barry officiated at the double ring ceremony and the Nuptial Mass immediately following the service which was held in Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church, Melbourne.
 Mrs. D. C. Talbot of Melbourne accompanied the soloist, Peter Farmer of Eau Gallie who sang several selections among which were "Lord Bless Us All," "Come Holy Ghost," and "Lord, Who at Cana's Wedding Feast."
 The bride was given in marriage by her father in the church which was beautifully decorated with tall baskets of white flowers. The main altar was embellished with white gladioli, chrysanthemums, and carnations.
 Miss Jennifer Carroll Castello chose to wear a full length gown which ended in a chapel length train. The gown of chantilly lace applied on nylon tulle featured a sabrina neck-line and lace cap sleeves. She wore elbow length gloves of matching chantilly lace and her only jewelry was a pair of pearl earrings. Her finger tip veil of pure silk illusion was attached to a crown of chantilly lace edged with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The bridal bouquet of white carnations was attached to a white satin-covered Bible from which hung a shower of satin streamers and baby's breath.
 Serving as maid-of-honor for her cousin was Miss Jean Carroll of Flint, Michigan. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Elaine Sheridan and Mrs. Helen Brinson Glass; the bridesmaid, Miss Kay Cottrell; and the junior bridesmaid, Miss Paula Beer wore identical mint green taffeta sheaths fashioned with over skirts of mint green crystal-lette. Accessories consisting of matching mitts of crystal-lette, hats designed by Mrs. Cora Lehman of Saginaw, Michigan, who is an aunt of the bride, and mint green shoes completed the attendants' costumes.
 The maid-of-honor carried a cascade of yellow chrysanthemums and the other attendants carried nosegays of the same type and color of flowers. The flower girls, Cathy Farmer and Cathy Talbot carried baskets of white chrysanthemums which they scattered in front of the bride.
 Nick Kovacevic of Melbourne was the groom's best man. Ushers were Jim Joyner of Gainesville, Art Ullman also of Gainesville, Kerok Fairman of Melbourne, and Henry More of Orlando. The bride's brother Gregory Castello acted as junior usher.
 The mother-of-the-bride chose to wear a dusty rose tulle dress fashioned with a fitted bodice and skirt. As accessories she wore a picture hat and matching gloves and shoes. Her corsage was centered with a white orchid.
 The groom's mother, Mrs. Harold Kastner, wore a street length beige taffeta dress featuring an elongated bodice, scoop neckline and wrist length sleeves. The self-covered buttons down the bodice back led to a full skirt. She wore matching accessories and a brown orchid.
 Following the Nuptial Mass, the bride's parents gave a reception at the Barcelona Hotel. The bride's table featured the three-tiered Colonnade wedding cake decorated with tiny white cherubs, love birds, swans, roses, lilacs-of-the-valley, and silver leaves.
 The Kellys left directly from the reception for a wedding trip to Saint Leo, Fla. where they were guests of Abbot Marlan at the Saint Leo Abbey. For her going away outfit Mrs. E. N. Kelly wore a light blue silk shantung sheath dress, a half hat, white accessories and a white rose corsage.
 After the wedding trip the Kellys were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kastner before leaving for Gainesville where they will make their home for the next year.

Chicken Barbecue Dinner Marks Double Celebration

OVIEDO—The dinner party held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jones on Wednesday, July 2, was the occasion of a double celebration. Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Raines celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary, and it was J. B. Jones' birthday.
 The guests assembled in the dining room to enjoy the chicken barbecue dinner.
 Those present for the occasion included: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Raines, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Jones, Robert A. Dewberry, Mrs. Hettie Ragadele, Mrs. J. N. Thompson, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cole, of Sanford.
 Add extra flavor to an omelet by stirring a heaping tablespoon of sour cream into well-beaten eggs. Sour cream also gives finer texture and flavor to batter for cookies, pies and pastry.

THE CARD OF THANKS

Very often a Card of Thanks in The Sanford Herald meets a need which is difficult to fill in any other way. Not only is it a gracious expression of gratitude to those who have been helpful, but it also courteously acknowledges the services and kindnesses of the many to whom a personal note of thanks cannot be mailed.

Newspaper Cards of Thanks are accepted as socially correct. Emily Post, the noted authority on etiquette, feels they serve many good uses.

There is no prescribed form for a Card of Thanks. It can be as brief or as detailed as you desire. When the occasion comes you will find a sympathetically understanding member of our staff to assist you.

THE "IN MEMORIAM" NOTICE

It is the custom of many families in this country to commemorate a bereavement by an "In Memoriam" notice in newspaper classified columns. They find a real solace therein. Preservation of selection of a suitable verse brings back to them tender, pleasant recollections. As Eliza Cook, the English poet, has so beautifully expressed it:

"How cruelly sweet are the echoes
That start
What memory plays an old tune
On the heart."
Most frequently an In Memoriam is inserted on the anniversary of death. However, other dates, which it is felt are appropriate or meaningful are also selected. The birthday of the departed, the wedding anniversary, Memorial Day, even Christmas are times when other significant occasions chosen.

If you are hesitant to express your tender thoughts in poetic form, you may avail yourself of The Herald's collection of original verses. These express in poetic beauty the emotions of the heart-strings. Among them are verses appropriate to any circumstance.

THE RATE
Cards of Thanks and In Memoriam notices, due to the fact they may run to considerable length, are billed at $1.00 per column inch.

 FARMERS' ASSOCIATION FOR SECURITY OF MANAGEMENT (FARM) seeks a greater price for the farmer in administering his own farm program. Over $6 1/2 Million In Construction Is Reported In County

There was over $6 1/2 million in construction in Seminole County during the first six months of 1936, according to a report from the Seminole County Zoning Commission and its director, Robert S. Brown.

There were 726 single dwelling permits issued during the first half of 1936, said Brown, with an estimated valuation of $5,074,500. Additional permits issued included 17 for commercial construction at an estimated valuation of $150,000; five permits for the construction of churches, educational buildings, and parish houses etc. at an estimated valuation of $22,000; and 19 permits for the construction of duplexes with an estimated valuation of $229,500.

Total estimated construction for the county came to $5,544,000. This is the first half-year reporting period with no experience with which to compare. However, construction has continued from month to month with no let-up and at an average pace of over $1 million a month.

The heaviest construction, shown in the report, is for single family dwellings and it is expected that this part of the report will continue to form the largest part of the release each month.

For the month of June, the last reporting month in the period, there were 178 building permits issued at an estimated valuation of $1,164,900.

In addition to the building permits there were 128 electrical permits and 143 plumbing permits issued by the Seminole County Zoning office.

Out-going president, W. Hugh Duncan gave his report of Lions Club activities for the past year. He reported that the Sanford club began and completed 54 separate activities for community betterment.

Among the projects, reported Duncan, was the spending of $300 for the underprivileged who were in need of eye glasses; 41 eye examinations were made to determine corrections for eyes; and two red and white canes were given to blind persons of the community.

In addition, the club sent a local boy to Boys State, sent a boy representative to the annual Salvation Army camp, completed the 31st consecutive year of "Little League" baseball which is the oldest among Lions Clubs in Florida; sent a contribution to a Lions Club in Brazil to help in the building of a school house, sent a full quota of delegates to the State Convention, and the club was represented on the District Cabinet by W. Hugh Duncan who served as District Zone Chairman.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A spokesman for Bernard Goldfine said today that the hotel room of Goldfine's secretary, Mildred Paperman, had been "ransacked" and a number of important financial records stolen.

Roger Robb, attorney for the Boston millionaire, said the records had a bearing on Goldfine's testimony before the House committee probing his relationship with Presidential Assistant Sherman Adams.

Robb said he had notified Washington police of the incident. Goldfine also lodged a complaint with the Federal Bureau of Investigation over secret recordings made by a subcommittee investigator and an associate of columnist Drew Pearson.

The investigator, Baron Shacklette, and Jack Anderson, Pearson's assistant, were discovered eavesdropping with a microphone in a hotel room adjoining that occupied by Goldfine's new publicity man, Jack Lotto.

Subcommittee Chairman Owen Harris (D-Ark.), describing the incident as "very serious," called his subcommittee into an emergency session to consider the matter.

Lotto said the FBI has assigned agents to investigate the eavesdropping complaint. Goldfine, through his staff, also filed a complaint with Oliver Gasch, U.S. district attorney for Washington.

Lotto said that Miss Paperman, who probably knows more than any other person about Goldfine's operations, discovered that books, records with correspondence, lists, cancelled checks, photo copies, and other documents had been removed from the closet of her room.

According to Lotto, here's what happened: Miss Paperman returned to the Sheraton Carlton Hotel at about 10:30 p.m. Sunday after she and the Goldfines flew in from Boston.

When Miss Paperman entered her room, she noticed that the bolt on the door leading to an adjoining room was open. The adjoining room had been retained and occupied by a member of Goldfine's staff. She thought no more of it and went to bed.

This morning when she got up, dressed and began assembling papers needed in Goldfine's testimony this week, she discovered that her files in the closet had been ripped open and a number of papers removed.

The group of county civic leaders were appointed early this year to survey the problems of Seminole County and make its recommendations to the Board of County Commissioners to correct the existing problems.

First of the problems to be tackled by the group of civic leaders was the tax inequities, assessment procedure, and high millage.

Meeting regularly to discuss the first phase of the survey, the commission brought before it various heads of departments and elected officials to delve into the immediate problems.

One of the members, Vernon Dunn of Casselberry, suggested a proposed recommendation. However, most members would not endorse the recommendation as a whole.

They fell, as it was expressed last Monday night in a lengthy meeting, that "additional study be given the proposal."

Frank Wheeler Jr., of Oviedo, chairman of the group, appointed a sub-committee to look into the proposed recommendation and "come up with a resolution" that could be presented to the Board of County Commissioners at a future meeting.

The sub-committee, composed of George A. Soper Jr., Mark N. Cleveland Jr., Robert P. Lamont, and Richard McCanna will present its recommendations and a proposed resolution at tonight's meeting.

Other members of the 11-man committee other than the chairman and the four members of the subcommittee are: Vernon Dunn, F. D. Scott, W. G. Kilbe, Denver Cordell, Al Lee, and Randall Chase.

One Dies In Local Holiday Accident

One death and one serious injury marred the long holiday weekend in Seminole County.

Dead is Ernest B. Mook, 54, of the Oviedo section, and injured is Mrs. Violet DePew, 66, of Maitland.

Mook, said Florida Highway Patrolman Olin Garrett, died in an Orange County Hospital at 10:40 p.m. Saturday night from injuries received when his car, a 1931 Ford coupe, plowed into the abutment of a bridge three miles west of Oviedo.

The automobile, the FHP officer said, left the road for about 80 feet before crashing into the bridge abutment. Mook was lying in the seat when officers arrived at the scene with a crushed chest and fractured skull.

Mook was first brought to Seminole Memorial Hospital for emergency treatment and then immediately transferred to the Orange County hospital. The accident occurred about 8:30 p.m.

Officers said the automobile was completely demolished. It was traveling west at the time of the accident. There were no passengers in the car.

In addition to the badly injured neck received by Mrs. DePew, there was property damage estimated at $1,000 in a two-car accident at the intersection of Highway 178 and State Road 626.

Mrs. DePew was thrown from her car as she drove out in front of an oncoming car after stopping at the intersection. She was traveling east on 626.

According to witnesses, said Florida Highway Patrolman J. L. Sikes, Mrs. DePew was traveling alone and when thrown out of her automobile it went out of control and circled behind the Glass Tower hitting a propane gas tank, hit a power pole causing wires to short, hit the building breaking a jalousie window, and then smashed into a shed tearing out a hot water heater.

Patrolman Sikes said the Casselberry Fire Department was called to the scene because of leaking gas and possibilities of fire, the power company and Suburban Gas Co. were also called to the accident scene.

Mrs. DePew pulled out in front of an automobile driven by Sidney Carroll Parker, 33, Blount Road, Pompano Beach, accompanied by his wife and daughter, traveling south to Mimssee.

Holiday traffic was routed around the wreckage in the center of the two-lane southbound road. It took 90 minutes to clear away and clean up the accident area.

In addition to the badly sprained neck, Mrs. DePew also received cuts and abrasions. "Damage is estimated at $1,000," said Patrolman Sikes.

Kelsey, Prison Guard Go On Trial This Morning

ORLANDO (UPI)—A Seminole County constable and an Oviedo state road camp prison guard went before federal court today on charges of depriving two escaped fugitives of their civil rights in connection with a 1935 shooting.

The trial started this morning for Constable George Kelsey of Oviedo and prison guard A. D. Stanley, accused of inflicting punishment without due process of law. Federal Judge Roger Barker was on the bench.

Kelsey, also an Oviedo policeman and Stanley sided in the capture March 7, 1935, of two Negroes who escaped three days earlier from the state road camp at Oviedo. In the apprehension, one of the Negroes, Johnnie Young, was shot and killed, and the other, Marvin Merritt, wounded.

Merritt claimed the two men had their hands up and were surrendering when they were shot. Merritt also said he was beaten and kicked after he was wounded.

A Seminole County coroner's jury ruled that the shooting was justifiable.

DeBaryte Has Interesting Musical Career

"It's been a lot of fun—music and sewing," says Mrs. Ludwig Kupecz who lives on Bonita Road in DeBary.

And that statement becomes reality when Mrs. Kupecz sits at the piano to demonstrate her unusual musical talent.

Mrs. Kupecz was born in the suburbs of Vienna, Austria in 1922. She really wanted to study at the Conservatory in Vienna, but as she put it "being the youngest of six children, this was impossible."

In her eighth year she began studying piano with the best teachers they could get, and then when her family moved to Vienna proper, she attended a special school that also taught sewing.

Her instructors and the director of this school encouraged her to take up teaching, so in 1913 she entered the Teachers Training School. In 1915 she graduated and began teaching in the very same school in which she had studied years before.

During the war years, Mrs. Kupecz's knowledge of shorthand provided a position as parliament stenographer with the Austrian War Department, a position she held until the end of World War I.

However, all through these years she worked diligently at her music. She attended every concert in Vienna and became acquainted with almost every branch of music: piano, violin, voice and orchestration.

At the Vienna Opera House, famous the world over, she attended every performance possible. In 1918 a pupil of one of the best known singing teachers gave Theresa Kupecz the opportunity to accompany him. She played for this baritone singer for four years.

During the bitter war years she had to do without her piano for a time but begged one of her neighbors for the chance to practice on their piano.

In April 1922 Theresa Kupecz and her husband came to America and among the first pieces of furniture they bought was a second hand upright piano. As soon as her knowledge of English improved she began teaching piano.

It was in Springfield Gardens, L.I., where the Kupecz's bought their first home and present piano, that she had many pupils. She started to play with chamber music groups in New York and Brooklyn.

Moving to Baldwin, L. I., she helped in the founding of the Long Island Symphony Orchestra under a Mr. Jaffe who had been playing first violin with the NBC Orchestra for Toscanini.

Coming to DeBary a few years ago, Theresa Kupecz has worked with Leslie Pitts Brown and Roger Casini, the conductor of the DeBary Symphony Orchestra. She is a member of the chamber music group, teaches piano students, is the accompanist for the DeBary Women's Club Choral Group, sings in the alto section of the DeBary Choristers, and has accompanied many local singers and soloists.

Theresa Kupecz has enjoyed a fabulous music career, created by that early desire to study and know music. "It's been fun," she said. Not only is Mrs. Kupecz a fine musician but a dressmaker of note.

Heart Disease No. 1 Cause Of Deaths In Seminole County

Heart disease is Seminole County's number one cause of death, according to a report released by the Florida State Board of Health for the first four months of 1936, January through April.

The report, analyzing the causes of death in Seminole County, reveals that during the reporting period there were 31 deaths from heart disease as 66 deaths from all other causes.

Cancer, according to the report, was responsible for only 17 deaths in Seminole County, 18 deaths were caused by cerebral vascular disease, and 16 from all other accidents other than traffic fatalities.

Heart disease, as in past years, was Florida's number one cause of death in 1937, accounting for a third of all mortality in the state, according to a preliminary report issued by the Bureau of Vital Statistics of the State Board of Health. Nearly one-third of these deaths, or 4,330 out of 14,272, occurred in the 45 to 64 age group, the report shows.

"A discussion of the various types of diseases of the heart and related organs would be of little concern to the ordinary layman," says State Health Officer, Wilson T. Sower. "Such a study would show that modern medicine knows a good deal about the diagnosis and care of heart disease, and that the victims of heart disease can live long and useful lives with proper caution. The impact on the family and community when a wage earner is incapacitated at the height of his earning power is well known to everyone."

"Heart disease deaths among middle aged people are the health authorities' greatest source of alarm in this field," the doctor indicated. "No specific means of prevention is now known. Millions of dollars are going into research each year, but until this research has borne more fruit, we can offer only the most general advice to those wishing to avoid heart trouble."

A sensible diet, not loaded with fats, proper exercise and sufficient sleep, with not too much stress and strain, and a happy outlook on life, are the best prescriptions for good general health and a healthy heart, says the doctor.

Dr. Sower went on to say that researchers felt there was greater tendency toward some forms of heart disease among stockily built people, and among the overweight. He emphasized that this was only a tendency, and did not indicate that such persons would necessarily develop heart disease.

He said that the apparent increase in heart disease deaths in recent years was due partly to the virtual elimination of many other diseases that used to be fatal, and to better diagnosis and reporting procedures. The actual increase does exist, he says, but it is not as great as some people think.

Farmers' Market Featured In July Issue Of Journal

Sanford received another big share of publicity when the Sanford State Farmers Market building was featured in the July issue of "The Florida Architect," official journal of the Florida Association of Architects.

A series of three pictures, one of the fire-damaged building, another when the new building was under construction, and the third of the completed building.

Pictures and story of the local market were featured in an advertisement of a cement company which pointed out that "Florida's original State-Owned Farmers Market" at Sanford is now its most modern, both in appearance and planning. The entire building is designed around prestressed concrete.

The advertisement, a full page on the magazine's first sheet, gave details of the building's construction and the use of various types of prestressed concrete units.
