

First Baptist Church News

The Watch Night service of the First Baptist Church on Tuesday night was well attended by a large group of young people as well as program of songs, games, stunts, pictures and devotionals. During the past year strides have been made in developing the music program of the church under the direction of Mrs. Guy Bishop and W.L. Harmon. The church now has six choirs all of which participated in the Christmas music program. Also during the past year, according to the church report the First Baptist Church organized two other churches in this area—the Elder Springs Baptist Church and the Pinecrest Baptist Church.

The week of Jan. 12 is known throughout the Southern Baptist Convention and Women's Missionary Society as focus week and will be observed here in the First Baptist Church. Also a high light in January will be the School of Missions week beginning Jan. 26. There will be classes each afternoon for the boys and girls in mission studies and a talk by a missionary. At night the young people and adults will have mission studies and an address by a different missionary each evening. During the week of Feb. 16 the church will have its annual Bible Study week. This year the study will be in the book of Hosea and taught each evening by Dr. Earl Joiner of the School of Religion

SOKC Schedules 11 Races Tonight

Two of the most promising young greyhounds ever to break in at the Sanford-Olando Kennel Club are slated for action tonight. Fable Contessa, owned by John Graves, will parade postward in the featured 10th while King Ivy, from Fred Whitehead's kennel, will compete in the ninth event. Each of these brilliant pups has flashed to four straight wins since making the first official start after the season opened Dec. 14. Fable Contessa has been the more impressive so far, for she already has a Grade A win to her credit. In advancing up the ladder from the maiden class, the 85-pound brindle miss skipped Grade B and therefore reached the top level ahead of King Ivy. There will be 11 races tonight instead of the usual 10.

Lake Mary Church To Dedicate New Hymnals Sunday

The Community Presbyterian Church will observe the sacrament of the Lord's Supper Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service. New hymnals have been purchased and will be used for the first time in this service. A ritual of dedication, setting these books aside for their special purpose will be participated in by minister and congregation. The choir has chosen for their anthem, "God's Love" by Lorenz. Tuesday night a group of 22 met at the church at 11 o'clock for a watch night party and worship service to sing the old year out and the new year in. During the service Betty Edwards sang, "In the Garden"; Walter Piper sang, "The Ninety and Nine"; and a quartet made up of Mrs. H. M. Cochran, Mrs. Robert E. True, Mr. Piper and the Rev. Alexander Linn, sang, "My Jesus, I Love Thee". Coffee and doughnuts were served at the half hour before midnight, the church bell was rung, the benediction pronounced, and the meeting closed at 12:05 a. m. New Year's Day.

Two women's meetings are scheduled for the coming days: Tuesday night at the church at 8 o'clock the executive committee of the Presbyterian Women's Organization will meet; on Wednesday, the Business Women will meet at the home of Mrs. H. M. Cochran at 8 p. m.

Bowes Re-Opens Mar-Lou Today

The newly redecorated Mar-Lou Dining Room and Cocktail Lounge reopens today under the direction of Frank Bowes of Gettysburg, Penn., brother of Charles (Chuck) Bowes, long-time Sanford resident. Bowes, until his resignation recently, was Night Manager and Auditor of the Hotel Gettysburg in Gettysburg, Penn. and well versed in catering management.

He is married and has five children ranging in ages from 6 months to 12 years. The family will make their home in Sanford. The remodeled kitchen will be presided over by Shirille Lougee, a chef of international experience. His former connections include: Chef at the Hawaiian Country Club in Honolulu, the Malson luxury liners, and more recently at the Hotel Gettysburg, where he became associated with Bowes. Under Chef Lougee's direction the dining room will offer French and Italian as well as traditionally American cuisine.

The 1948 annual convention of the Soil Conservation Society of America will be held in Rapid City, S. D.

Program Planned For Tourist Club Session Tuesday

The first meeting of the year 1948 for the Sanford Tourist Club next Tuesday night will feature a covered fish supper prepared by the women of the organization; a short business meeting and a program of entertainment staged by Charles Morrison, well known local public relations man. It was announced this morning by Don Brooks, club president.

Supper, Brooks said, will be served at 8:00 o'clock with the business meeting scheduled to get underway about 7:30. Morrison will take charge at 7:45 and will present "Musical Memories" featuring Glen Nelson at the Hammond chord organ with Roger Gregory doing the narration. A short period of community singing will follow, after which Morrison will stage one of his "silver dollar quizzes" awarding "G o g g i Bucks" (the term sometimes given silver dollars) to those who correctly answer the questions in the categories they select.

Jaycees

Winner of the contest, Mrs. Pryor said, will receive a five to seven day vacation at the Holiday Hotel in Ft. Lauderdale.

Mrs. Pryor, representing the Women's Auxiliary of the Seminole Memorial Hospital, explained that there will be a thermometer in the downtown area showing the standings of candidates in the contest.

Jaycees received compliments from Harold Kastner, who received a Christmas Lighting Contest prize, when he said "You are certainly wonderful with all of these projects in which you take such a sincere interest."

A letter from the Lutheran Haven in Blavia also complimented the Jaycees for their shopping tour given children of the home. "The Board of Trustees appreciate the fact that you have made this an annual affair," said Pastor Stephen M. Tubby, Superintendent of Lutheran Haven.

In a letter from the City of Sanford the Jaycees were lauded for their efforts in furnishing funds for the renovation of the Deer Pen in the Sanford Zoo.

M. L. Raborn Jr., president of the local Jaycee organization, explained that the week of Jan. 12 is Jaycee Week "A week when we loot our own horn" he said. Raborn explained that "Jaycee Week is for the purpose of letting the public know what we do."

Other projects discussed included "Courtesy Week" Jan. 6-12 and the annual speedboat regatta on Jan. 18.

Also announced was a meeting of wives of Jaycees on Thursday night at 8 p. m. at the Yacht Club when plans will be discussed relative to organizing the Jayceettes.

ASKS STRIP BAN
MALACCA, Southwest Malaya (UP)—A newly formed National Cultural Council today called on the government to ban strip tease shows, rock 'n roll and other "objectionable" forms of entertainment. CARDIFF, Wales (UP)—The Welsh football association has announced that its home world cup match with Israel will be played at Cardiff. The date for the match will be worked out later after consultations with the Israeli soccer authorities.

Chapel To Become Prairie Lake Baptist Church

On Sunday, Jan. 3, the Methodist Baptist Chapel in South Fern Park will become the Prairie Lake Baptist Church. Since Aug. 28, 1933, the Chapel has been a branch of the Hillcrest Baptist Church in Geneva. Under the guidance of the pastor, the Rev. Leonard Jones, the church has grown to include 126 members in the congregation, besides a sizable Sunday School.

At 3 p. m. on Sunday the church will be organized and become an independent co-operating Southern Baptist Church. Organization for the constitution will take place at 2:45 p. m. with the Seminole Baptist Association conducting the business.

Dr. Paul A. Melis, executive secretary of Baptist Missions and Evangelism for the State of Florida, will be the guest speaker in the program which follows.

The service will open with prayer and scripture by the Rev. J. W. Farham. An explanation of the purpose of the meeting will follow. During the service there will be special music and messages, closing with the "Hand of Fellowship" by all members of the congregation.

The Prairie Lake Baptist Church has a new building and all services. Sunday school is at 9:45 a. m., morning worship, 11 a. m., prayer union at 6:30 p. m., training meeting Wednesday night, 7:30 p. m. and evening worship Sunday at 7:30 p. m.

to recommend rates for reimbursement," she said, "a good many schools were giving 30c lunches for 25c this fall."

Asked about the distribution of money received for school lunches, Mrs. Whitmore said that of the 30c charged for lunches 70 per cent is spent for food, 25 per cent for labor, and 5 per cent for supplies.

"We tried to hold our prices as they were," she explained. "But we are required to serve a 'Type A' lunch in order to participate in the reimbursement program. This requirement means that we must serve, with every lunch, two ounces of meat or meat substitute, 1/2 of a cup of fruit and of a vegetable, a serving of enriched bread and butter, plus a half-pint of milk—and the milk alone costs us 7 cents."

"We believe that with each lunch we serve we are also including a lesson in good food habits," Mrs. Whitmore explained. "We are very proud of our program in Seminole County and we want parents and friends of the school lunchroom program to know what we are serving and how we serve it," she said.

Pinecrest Church Slates Revial

The brand new Pinecrest Baptist Church is ready for one of the largest revivals in the history of Sanford which will get underway Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, according to Rev. Joe M. Courson, pastor of the church.

Everyone is invited to attend the meetings, Rev. Courson said this morning.

Dr. E. J. Daniels has been invited to conduct the meeting. He is a native of Florida, having been reared on a farm in the northern part of the state. During the past few years Dr. Daniels has become internationally known as an evangelist, having conducted revivals throughout America and in many foreign countries. He is author of some 15 books and editor of a religious magazine. Dr. Daniels has been awarded two first prizes in worldwide sermon contests.

Assisting Rev. Daniels will be Lowell Leistner, the music director. He is known as one of the top revival singers of the nation.

One outstanding feature of the revival, which will continue through Sunday, Jan. 12, will be the showing of a series of color movies depicting the life of Christ. They are said to tell His story from birth through miracles, trials, crucifixion and resurrection. "All who have seen these movies declare them to be a marvelous addition to the program of a revival," Rev. Daniels said.

Rev. Courson said this morning that a "childrens revival" will be conducted each evening at 7 o'clock preceding the week-long revival meetings. All children who attend every service will receive a free airplane ride at the conclusion of the revival meeting.

The color movies will be shown each evening at 7:15 p. m.

A nursery will be open each night for children, Rev. Courson said. The evening revival services will get underway at 7:30 p. m.

Rev. Courson pointed out this morning "We want as many people of Sanford as possible to hear Rev. Daniels and the message he has to tell."

Public Lecture Will Be Given Here Sunday

How to gain freedom from fear will be the topic of a free public lecture on Christian Science to be given in Sanford on Jan. 3 by J. Hamilton Lewis of Concord, N. H. Lewis will speak in Pinecrest School Auditorium, 400 W. 27th St. at 3 P. M. under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Sanford. His subject will be "How Christian Science Brings Security and Peace."

A member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship, Lewis is currently on a nationwide speaking tour. Prior to entering the public practice of Christian Science healing in 1937, he was active for a number of years as public relations and campaign manager for Community Chest, Chambers of Commerce, Boy Scouts of America, and youth organizations throughout New England. He served for four years as Christian Science Committee on Publication for the State of New Hampshire.

Sheriff Conducts Discussion Period At Ministerial Meet

The Seminole County Ministerial Association held its first meeting yesterday at the First Presbyterian Church in Sanford. An informal Fellowship period was observed before the business meeting. At this time coffee and doughnuts were served.

The meeting was conducted by the president, the Rev. Perry Stone. Discussed was the course for members, which will be held at the Alliance Church Jan. 26 and 27. The course will be presented by the University of Florida Extension Service. Times for the two, two hour sessions will be announced later. Under discussion at the meeting Thursday was the problem of promoting interest in the course among lay people of the community.

One of the choral groups of the University of Florida is slated to sing Feb. 3 in the Pinecrest School, under the auspices of the Seminole County Ministerial Association. The concert will be of sacred music and will be held in co-operation with Seminole High School.

The program for the meeting had been arranged by the Rev. Joe Courson and dealt with the co-operation of local churches with the law enforcement agencies in the county. The Rev. Courson introduced Sheriff Luther Hobby, who conducted an informal discussion period.

Sheriff Hobby outlined the various problems confronting his department and asked for the backing of the Ministerial Association in matters of backing and prosecution. Discussed at length was the problem of alcohol, and the problems that arise from its misuse.

The meeting closed with a general agreement to co-operate wherever possible on the part of ministers and law officers.

Nazarenes Open Golden Anniversary Year On Jan. 5

In every one of 4,300 Nazarene churches in the U. S. and around the world, special hymns, testimonials and sermons of praise will arise at simultaneous worship services Sunday, Jan. 5, opening the denomination's golden anniversary year.

Heart-felt thanksgiving to God will be offered by Nazarenes everywhere for the amazing progress of the past 50 years.

Since the Nazarene church started at a union service in a small tent at "Hot Point, Tex., on Oct. 13, 1898, it has literally girdled the world with its messages and slogan, "Holiness unto the Lord." It has become one of the fastest growing Protestant churches in the world.

Among U. S. Protestant denominations, Nazarenes now stand both in membership, 125,000 in Sunday school enrollment, and ninth in publishing house business.

The story of its growth is graphically told as follows: Membership has increased about 30 times—from 10,000 to nearly 300,000 in 50 years; Sunday school enrollment has increased nearly 100 times, from about 7,000 to 632,000;

Per capita giving has increased 10 times, from $13.44 to $133.77; The value of all church property has increased about 340 times, from $360,000 to $129,708,000. These figures include the 1937 calendar year.

One of the discoveries of the Geophysical Year is that the aurora occurs simultaneously at both the North and South Poles.

The meeting closed with a general agreement to co-operate wherever possible on the part of ministers and law officers.

Coolidge, 30th President, Remembered As Man Of Few Words

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Twenty-five years ago, Calvin Coolidge, Vermont, died.

Most American presidents are remembered for what they said. Coolidge is remembered because he never said very much. There are hundreds of stories about his New England taciturnity.

Once his train stopped in a small town, a local official tried to shush a noisy crowd. "Now everybody keep quiet. I want ab-olute silence. The President is going to address us."

Coolidge said, "Good bye. That's all."

Another time a newsreel cameraman ordered Coolidge to "say something."

The President quipped back, "That man gets more conversation out of me than all Congress."

America's 30th President. In the early morning hours of Aug. 3, 1923, Coolidge, then vice president, was awakened at his Plymouth, Vt., home by a telegraph messenger. President Harding had died. Coolidge was America's 30th President.

His only comment was, "I believe I can swing it."

At 2:45 that morning, by the light of an oil lamp, Coolidge took his oath of office from his father, a notary public.

His rise in politics was rapid. In quick session he was elected mayor of Northampton, Mass., state senator, lieutenant governor, and in 1919, governor of Massachusetts.

A year after he became governor, he made national headlines, and became a hot presidential candidate, by quelling the Boston police strike.

Harding's Running Mate The Republicans picked him that year as Harding's running mate. He ran for President in 1924 and defeated Democrat John W. Davis and Progressive Robert M. LaFollette.

Coolidge's administration was marked by revelations of scandals in the Harding government, efforts to preserve peace, and great prosperity.

Before the 1928 election, he issued a typically terse, and now famous, statement, "I do not choose to run for President in '28."

After he left the White House, Coolidge returned to Northampton where he wrote his autobiography and a syndicated newspaper column.

On Jan. 5, 1933, he spent about an hour at the office he maintained, then went home, complaining that he didn't feel well. Later in the day his wife found him on the floor at home, dead at 60 of a heart attack.

Coolidge's biographer, William Allen White, commented, "He who lived aloof, died alone."

Coolidge had been president during one of America's greatest booms. He died in the midst of one of the biggest busts.

Widow Died Last Year Coolidge is remembered as cold, last year.

Coolidge is remembered as cold, humorless, emotionless and conservative.

Actually, this incident took place shortly after Calvin Jr. died, better the Coolidge character. A Secret Service man little boy loitering near the White House gate what he wanted. The lad replied, "I came to see the President. I want to tell him I'm sorry his little boy died."

The boy was taken to the President.

Later Coolidge told the Secret Service men, "Whenever a boy wants to see me, always bring him in. Never turn one away or make him wait."

The President's lip was quiver-

City Manager Foresees Good Year For Sanford

City Manager Warren E. Knowles predicted a good year for the City of Sanford during 1938.

Speaking before the Sanford Kiwanis Club Friday at its noon luncheon meeting, Knowles pointed out the outstanding achievements "we can look for."

He said the "completion of the Sanford Civic Center" and the economic use of the new facility was the "number one project" to be completed this year. Also he pointed out that the Fire Station No. 2 project will also be completed.

Atlas Missile Set Up For Firing At Cape

CAPE CANAVERAL (UP)—A brawny Atlas intercontinental missile might reply to Russian rocket threats by setting the new session of Congress, was poised to fly again today.

Harsh winds lashing the cape and its great steel missile towers were expected to continue at least another day, however, and could defer the first test launchings of the new year.

Best guess for triggering of the blunt-nosed, 90-foot Atlas was Wednesday, the day after Congress reconvenes to consider the staggering sums needed for holstering the nation's defenses—in particular the guided missile development program.

Board Organization Meeting Tomorrow

The Board of Sanford City Commissioners will hold its organizational meeting tomorrow night.

A newly elected commissioner will be sworn in and seated and a commissioner reelected to the board will be sworn in and seated. Commissioner Robert S. Brown was elected last fall and Commissioner A. L. Wilson was reelected.

However, before any organizational meeting of commissioners is taken up, all old business must be handled by the outgoing commission with Commissioner F. D. Scott sitting in.

The prepared agenda for tomorrow night's session lists only two items to be handled. The first is for the transfer of beer and wine licenses from W. E. Pratt to S. P. Griffin at H&C Grocery Co. and from Wm. M. Brown to Vernon and Estella Erickson at Angel's Eat Shack.

The second item of business can cover a multitude of complaints, business, or contracts brought over from last year. The item reads "Any further old business to come before the City Commission."

Following the swearing in and seating of the two commissioners elected last November by Sanford citizens, a Mayor will be elected.

Mayor David Gatchel can be reelected to serve another term as "Honorary Head" of the City of Sanford, but such an election must be with the unanimous approval of all commissioners.

So far, there has been no "unofficial campaigning" for the seat as Mayor of Sanford and the outcome of tomorrow night's meeting cannot be predicted. Commissioners have been mum as to who will serve as Mayor of Sanford for 1938.

The meeting will be held in the commissioners' room of the city hall beginning at 8 o'clock.

Michigan Couple Is Arrested As 'Guests' Youngster Gives George Swain Bike

A Jackson, Mich., couple, Mr. and Mrs. Wendall Saines, were arrested this morning by Sanford Police Department Sergeant Leo Rock and Chamber of Commerce representative Charlie Morrison, for "attempting to pass through Sanford without stopping to see our wonderful city."

The Jackson, Mich., milkman and his wife were traveling north on their way home from a Florida vacation when stopped on French Ave. near Commercial.

Mrs. Saines remarked to her husband as Sgt. Rock waved them to the curb "What are they stopping us for?" and the husband said "I'm not speeding."

Charlie Morrison told the couple "The only reason we stopped you is because you looked like a likely couple to be guests of Sanford."

The whole idea is a part of Sanford's Courtesy Week event. Mr. and Mrs. Saines were presented gifts, will enjoy an overnight stay at the Mayfair Inn, and will be taken on a tour of Sanford and Seminole County by Charlie Morrison.

The traveling couple was taken to the Sanford Police Station where they were booked on charges Morrison placed against them, met Police Chief Roy G. Williams, and where they were also greeted by Mayor David Gatchel, M. L. Raborn Jr., president of the Jaycees, and Howard McNulty, chairman of the Courtesy Week event.

After the charges were placed the Jackson, Mich. couple, still bewildered over their arrest, were taken to the Mayfair Inn.

Manager Frank Mebane greeted the guests at the hotel's entrance along with Chamber of Commerce Manager John Krider, James Singletary, representing Seminole County Sheriff J. L. Hobby and others.

Funeral Mass For P. Mahoney Tuesday Morning

James Patrick Mahoney, 13, passed away suddenly at his home in Loch Arbor Saturday night at 7:15 p. m.

He had lived in Sanford for the past three years. He was born Nov. 23, 1924, in Corpus Christi, Tex., and attended the eighth grade of Sanford Junior High School.

He was a member of All Souls' Catholic Church.

Survivors are his father and mother, AMC Max Mahoney and Mrs. Mahoney, Sanford; one brother, Mike Mahoney, and one sister, Shannon Mahoney, of Sanford; the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Criswell, Palatka, and Mrs. Katherine Mahoney of Greenfield, O.

Funeral Mass will be held at 9:30 a. m. Tuesday at All Souls' Catholic Church with Father Richard Lyons officiating.

The Rosary will be recited at 7:30 tonight at Brisson Funeral Home.

Burial will be in All Souls Cemetery.

Nine Boards Ship For Deployment

Heavy Attack Squadron Nine departed from Sanford January 3 to board the aircraft carrier USS Saratoga for a lengthy operation as part of the powerful US 6th Fleet in the Mediterranean area. Sanford's busiest squadron under the command of Cdr. W. R. Hazlett, USN, will be returning to familiar surroundings. It was on the Saratoga that the squadron participated in last fall's gigantic NATO exercise "Strikeback" in the frigid waters north of the Arctic Circle.

Returning to Sanford late in October the squadron was honored to be chosen to participate in the snakedown cruise of the Navy's newest aircraft carrier, the USS Ranger, during November and early December. Less than one week later VAH-9 placed six of its aircraft on board the USS Forrestal for a short operation, thus becoming the first navy squadron to operate from all three of the Navy's newest class aircraft carriers.

The USS Saratoga with its angled flight deck of approximately four acres resembles a huge floating city. It carries 2,000 men, nearly 100 aircraft and displaces more than 70,000 tons when fully loaded. The ship's four steam catapults handle the thirty-five ton Skywarriors of VAH-9 like toys.

They pick up an A-1D from a standing start and hurl it into the air at more than 140 miles an hour in a run of 235 to 267 feet. The anchors on the giant ship weigh thirty tons apiece. She carries two million gallons of fuel oil and, has 2,300 telephones installed. For better crew efficiency the Saratoga has most of its working spaces and virtually all of its living spaces air conditioned.

While this will be the home of the members of Sanford's first jet Heavy Attack Squadron for the next several months, their thoughts will be of Sanford where the majority will be leaving their families.

Admiral Lauds Citizens For Noise Tolerance

The Chief of Naval Operations, Admiral Arleigh Burke, has expressed his appreciation for noise tolerance to the parishioners of the Holy Cross Episcopal Church and "the many kind citizens of the city of Sanford."

The Rev. John W. Thomas, Rector, Holy Cross Episcopal Church, has received a letter from Admiral Burke which stated in part:

"I have noticed a copy of 'The Envoy,' which was issued by your church, dated Nov. 3, 1937.

"The comments concerning the jet planes based at Sanford are appreciated far more than you will ever know. It expresses an enlightened view which I wish could be shared by a greater proportion of the citizens of this country. I know the pilots appreciate it.

"Your message is of such import that I am taking the liberty of calling it to the attention of our Chief of Chaplains with the request that he make it available to other church organizations. I hope this meets with your approval." Signed Arleigh Burke.

Early in November, "The Envoy" issued by the Holy Cross Church stated the special need for noise tolerance in the jet age and requested parishioners to offer a prayer for the safety of the aircraft pilots rather than to complain because of the nuisance of noise. This gesture was brought to the attention of Captain Lionel A. Arthur, Commanding Officer, Naval Air Station, Sanford, who recognized its impact as one kind thought among a multitude of complaints.

Captain Arthur directed it be forwarded to the Chief of Naval Information who in turn brought it to the attention of the Chief of Naval Operations.

Captain Arthur has expressed his continued hope for the favorable acceptance of jet noises in communities wherein military air bases are located.

Lions To See Film Called 'Operation Three-M's' Tuesday

The Sanford Lions Club, at its noon luncheon meeting tomorrow at the Yacht Club, will see a movie released by the Post Office Department called "Operation Three-M's."

The three M's, said Postmaster Joel Field, are men, mail and machines.

Purpose of the film, said Sanford Postmaster Field, is to show the public the need for mechanization in the Post Office Department, especially here in Sanford where the postal operations is conducted in a building more than 40 years old.

Several members of the local Post Office staff will accompany Postmaster Field to the Lions Club meeting to conduct a question and answer session following the film.

"It is quite a show," said Postmaster Field, "which lasts only 13 1/2 minutes."

Registration Of Arthritics Set In Miami

A state-wide registration of arthritics will be conducted during the month of January, 1958, according to Mrs. Robert Boone Hovey, Miami, president of the Florida Chapter of the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation.

In a recent meeting of the executive committee of the Florida State Pharmaceutical Association, it was voted unanimously to assist the Arthritis Foundation to secure the names and addresses of all arthritics in the state.

Mrs. Hovey explains that this is a free registration and is for census purposes. The purpose of the registration is to secure the names and addresses of all arthritics in the State of Florida in order that they may receive the latest authentic literature to encourage arthritics who are not now receiving medical attention to see their family physician as often for many victims may be saved from the crippling effects of the disease if they see their doctor early, and to give encouragement to arthritics that their case may not be hopeless for even with the limited knowledge we now have of the disease, many arthritics through medical attention may be restored to active normal lives through the proper use of drugs and with the aid of physical therapy.

Grover F. Ivey, president of the Florida State Pharmaceutical Association, states that the pharmaceutical industry is pleased to cooperate with the Florida Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation in providing this service to arthritics. After the registration is completed, a report will be made to County Medical Societies and to the public on the number of arthritics in the state, number partially disabled, number totally disabled, and information which will be helpful to the Arthritis Foundation in bringing improved services to the arthritics in the state.

Solar Flare Study At U. Of Chicago

CHICAGO—A University of Chicago physicist reports that studies of a giant solar flare have proved that some cosmic rays come from the sun and that magnetic fields exist between the planets.

John A. Simpson, professor of physics at the Luntz Term Institute for Nuclear Studies, reported on a study of the solar flare that occurred Feb. 23, 1948. He said such flares release in 20 minutes the energy of a billion of the largest hydrogen bombs.

The energetic and powerful solar flares are thought to be the source of cosmic rays, which are thought to be the cause of auroras and other atmospheric phenomena.

The University of Chicago physicist reported that the solar flare that occurred Feb. 23, 1948, was the most powerful ever recorded. It released energy equivalent to 100 million hydrogen bombs.

Communism Drives People To Drink

BERLIN (U.P.)—Communism is driving people to drink. East Europeans are drinking more than ever before.

In the Soviet Union, Poland, East Germany and other Soviet satellite countries, drinking is on the increase.

People drink not socially but to get drunk and get drunk fast. They drink to release the boredom of life under Communism, to escape the constant droning of propaganda, to forget harsh economic conditions.

Taking too many drinks almost has become an art of Communism. Youngsters are doing the drinking in bars just as they are spreading resistance in other parts in colleges and factories.

With all free political and intellectual expression barred, the drinking is a relief for an oppressed people.

In East Germany, drinking is a common habit. They are a party in West Germany.

The East Berlin prosecutors of five estimates excessive drinking is one of the main causes of juvenile crime.

Thirty per cent of factory accidents involving youths are attributed to drunkenness.

The government has threatened severe punishment for those who serve liquor to youths under 18 and is considering raising the legal drinking age from 16 to 18.

Boy Accidentally Strangles To Death In Shower Saturday

A three-year-old boy, son of a Sanford Naval Air Station man, was accidentally strangled to death Saturday night shortly before 8 p. m. as he played in the shower room of his home.

James Patrick Mahoney, son of AMC and Mrs. Max Mahoney, according to a report of the Peace W. Hugh Danson, was playing in the shower of the bathroom when a towel with which he was playing caught over the shower head and under the nozzle's rim as he fell. Danson said this morning that the incident was necessary.

AMC Mahoney, the boy's father, was attached to AMC and was on a mission aboard an aircraft carrier at Maxport. Mahoney was flown back to Sanford from the carrier by the Navy.

Band Assn. Plans Barbecue Jan. 18

The Seminole Band Association announces plans for another chicken barbecue scheduled for Saturday, Jan. 18 at the Elk Grounds.

A large crowd is anticipated and tickets are being distributed to members of the band and the association. Serving time will be extended to 3:30 p. m., one hour earlier than previous barbecues held by the association and the organized delivery service will be discontinued.

However, the popular "take-out" line will be operated and all proceeds will be used for the band's uniform fund. Earl Tesey is general chairman for the event.

4 Alarms Answered Saturday, Sunday; Damage Is Small

The Sanford Fire Department answered four alarms Saturday and Sunday. However, damage was small.

A trash fire at 12:10 p. m. Saturday at First St. and Mangostine Ave. followed by a similar blaze at 3:35 p. m. Saturday at 312 Chapman Ave. caused no damage.

"Quite a bit of damage inside" was the result of an alarm answered in P.O. Quartermaster, 313 1/2 East 8th St. at 1:30 a. m. Saturday morning. The frame dwelling was vacant.

A car fire at 4th and Sanford at 2 a. m. Sunday morning caused little damage.

for planning is eminent and city planning is the only way to meet the challenge.

Off-street parking areas are needed for First St., Sanford Ave. and in the area of 2nd or 3rd St. Knowles said. This will come in 1938 with the proposed to use parking meter funds solely for purchase and upkeep of these areas.

"Possibly our best public relations and publicity source is the Sanford Zoo," said Knowles. And the need for expansion with some of it coming in 1938 will be seen in the New Year.

The biggest year the city has ever had in street development will be 1938, Sanford's city manager told the Kiwanis Club. They will be 18 miles of streets provided with the reconstruction of 7th St. from Mellenville to Sanford Ave. the main item.

"There will be growth, national and international," Knowles predicted. "The police force will be expanded to provide protection at the time of a car and three on foot officers."

The boat basin will be completed in 1938, the City Manager said, but it will continue to be built and 1939 will see its completion.

The most complex and costly of the projects to come before the Board of Sanford City Utilities will be the large canal and sewage disposal plant, Knowles said.

"There is no doubt that some action will be taken on most items of these," he predicted. The city's Sewage Treatment Plant is by mandate of the state and will go out on a limb. He said that the plant will be constructed with no increase in utility rates.

"On the docks and terminals project," Knowles said, there will be some rough shodding with the business community.

"I feel that in 1938 an agreement will become a reality," Knowles predicted and predicted that another sign will come about early and with much more satisfaction than expected.

City Manager Knowles will be replaced by Sgt. George H. Swartz, who was the Kiwanis Club program chairman for the banquet.

Kiwanians Purchase SHS Band Uniform

The Sanford Kiwanis Club recently contributed $40 to the Seminole High School Band Uniform Fund. This amount being the cost of one band uniform, a label will be worn in a uniform coat, which will read "The purchase of this uniform for our band was made possible by the generous contribution of the Kiwanis Club of Sanford. With this label we express our gratitude and appreciation to our sponsor."

The Kiwanis Club is the second organization to contribute the amount of a band uniform and Bandmaster Ernest Coxley expressed the band's desire for other organizations to come to their aid by further purchasing uniforms.

Presently the uniform fund is far behind the scheduled amount for this year. The goal of $5,000 is about $1,000, an amount the band expects to raise in the near future in order to receive the next uniform the school year.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

"I will praise Thee, O Lord, among the people."

The Words "Courage Mounteth With Occasion" Are Useable Now

More than three hundred years ago the great Francis Bacon wrote: "The virtue of prosperity is temperance; the virtue of adversity is fortitude; which in morals is the more heretical virtue."

A few weeks ago the Vice President of the United States held a press conference, directly following the failure of this country's first attempt at launching an earth satellite. Mr. Nixon said: "Sure we failed. We have before and we will again. But we need to keep our sense of proportion. We haven't overnight lost our scientific know-how, our ability to get things done. Let's get away from our weeping walls and act like Americans. We've got work to do. Let's get on with it like Americans."

There is a great gulf of time and language between these two quotations. But both of the men from the same attitude — the same outlook on life and the demands of life.

Some Americans met the Russian scientific successes in ostrich-style — by trying to ignore them or depreciating them. Some, at the other extreme, reacted with panic and despair — an all-is-lost attitude. They showed themselves lacking in "the virtue of adversity" of which Francis Bacon wrote. Or they went to the "weeping walls" of which Richard Nixon spoke.

But these people were very much in the minority. The great majority of Americans The problem, then, is how to do it, and we must get on with it.

fully understand that there is work to do Russia has been showing the world some of the fruits of a harsh materialistic system. Her achievements — and only the foolish will not try to minimize them — efficiently and rigorously channeled into whatever avenues best serve the purpose of the state. The rewards for success are often very great; the penalties for failure are often extremely severe. In any event, the individual has small command over his own destinies. The state makes the important decisions and provides the directions.

Can a free people rival and surpass the achievements of such a system — and still keep their freedom, their traditions, and their national heart and soul?

History tells us that we can. Time and again the forces of freedom have defeated the forces of tyranny.

But the exact opposite has occurred. Great civilizations have fallen to barbarian hordes. This has happened when those civilizations grew soft and sleek, contented and slack, immersed in luxury and degenerate in character. It has happened when faith was lost in principles and institutions that led to greatness — to be replaced by overwhelming cynicism. It has happened, in sum, when fortitude did not come out of adversity, when defeatism prevailed, and citizens turned to the "weeping walls."

We do not yet know the extent of the efforts that will be needed to build and to maintain the strength necessary for survival. But we do know that they will be great, and the future events may demonstrate that they will be greater than anyone realizes now. The burden will fall upon all — on industry, labor, government. Restraint and wisdom will be needed by all — the national interest must come ahead of self-interest. But no one should look on this burden with distaste or fear. The times have brought challenge and opportunity — and a people which value freedom and honor will rise voluntarily and in full willingness to meet the challenge and exploit the opportunity.

Here another thing that was said many centuries ago is perfectly in keeping. Shakespeare put into the mouth of one of his characters: "Courage mounteth with occasion."

The occasion is at hand. We must now prove our courage.

We Can Call It Tabula Rasa 1958

The year 1958 has now been launched, with libations suitable and otherwise, on a sea of predictions that it will be a fateful year. And so it will. Every year is a fateful year. Saying so is less useful, however, than seeking ways to make this year serve truth, justice and human dignity.

Woman Wakes Up To Find Elephant Coming In House

NOTTINGHAM, England (AP) — Mrs. Noreen Linley crawled out of bed the morning after New Year's Eve and shuffled to the front door to see who was making all that noise.

She switched on the light and saw an elephant waving its trunk through the front door paneling.

Mrs. Linley screamed, grabbed her two children and took off for her neighbor's on the run.

"We've got an elephant in the house," she reported.

"Oh, go back to bed and sleep it off," the cross and sleepy neighbor answered.

Mrs. Linley left the children and ran back home where she saw what she thought were two elephant trunks, snoring. It was only her husband trying to ward off the elephant with the hose from which vacuum cleaner.

News Of Men In Service

FORT GREENLY, ALASKA (AP) — Pvt. Leonard Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Anderson, 200 Lake-Marion Rd., Sanford, recently arrived in Alaska and is now a member of the U. S. Army Arctic Test Board at Fort Greeley.

Lidley seemed to be holding his own so Mrs. Linley sped to the police station.

"We've got an elephant in the house," she told the first bobby she saw.

"What color?" asked the bobby. "You come and have a look."

The bobby did. He called reinforcement and eventually they persuaded the elephant to leave the front door. It lumbered down the street, pushed an empty automobile 50 yards and tried unsuccessfully to uproot a lamp post.

A hero arrived in the form of its trainer from the circus from which Jumbo had escaped.

Anderson, a cannoneer with the test board, entered the Army last July and received basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C. He was last stationed at Fort Chaffee, Ark.

Nikita S. Khrushchev is strengthening Communist Party domination of all Russian governmental, is strengthening his own personal authority as first secretary of the party in control of its machinery.

At the same time, Khrushchev military and economic affairs.

The operation has been in progress for several weeks. It has been marked by a number of transfers of government and party officials and by increased emphasis on the role of the Communist Party as the supreme power over all aspects of administration in the Soviet Union.

The effect is to restore the situation which existed between the death of Josef Stalin in 1953 and Khrushchev's sensational denunciation of Stalin in February, 1956.

No Stalin-era Restoration

It cannot be said that the Stalin-era situation has been restored. Stalin made himself the sole authority in the government, the armed forces, economic affairs and the party itself.

Khrushchev is making the central committee of the party and its ruling presidium the supreme authority.

Of course, Khrushchev is at the head of the committee and the presidium. And it appears that his position is unchallenged. But there is no sign that he either wants to be or could be a dictator like Stalin.

The increasing authority given the Communist Party is a confession that Khrushchev's attempt to liberalize Russian life after his denunciation of Stalin was a failure.

Liberalism Can Be Dangerous

Even a little liberalism can be dangerous in a country like Russia. First intellectuals and workers get too enthusiastic over the loosening up of the dictatorship. Then Georgi K. Zhukov, made defense minister and restored to his one-time status of Russia's No. 1 war hero, got obstreperous. He wanted no Communist Party interference with his direction of the armed forces, even though he had been a Communist since his youth.

Now, since Zhukov has been ousted, the armed forces are being subjected to strict party control, and Communist indoctrination of officers and men is being intensified.

Khrushchev is making the central committee of the party and its ruling presidium the supreme authority.

The increasing authority given the Communist Party is a confession that Khrushchev's attempt to liberalize Russian life after his denunciation of Stalin was a failure.

Liberalism Can Be Dangerous

Even a little liberalism can be dangerous in a country like Russia. First intellectuals and workers get too enthusiastic over the loosening up of the dictatorship. Then Georgi K. Zhukov, made defense minister and restored to his one-time status of Russia's No. 1 war hero, got obstreperous. He wanted no Communist Party interference with his direction of the armed forces, even though he had been a Communist since his youth.

Now, since Zhukov has been ousted, the armed forces are being subjected to strict party control, and Communist indoctrination of officers and men is being intensified.

Khrushchev is making the central committee of the party and its ruling presidium the supreme authority.

Of course, Khrushchev is at the head of the committee and the presidium. And it appears that his position is unchallenged. But there is no sign that he either wants to be or could be a dictator like Stalin.

Finland Militarily Neutralized

By A. E. PEDERSEN JR.

United Press Staff Correspondent

HELSINKI (AP) — Whatever the merits or drawbacks of the Soviet plan for troop withdrawals of East and West from Central Europe, the fact remains that a militarily neutralized area already exists in Europe. It is Finland.

Finland does not belong to NATO. She turned down an invitation to join the Warsaw Pact. There are no foreign troops on Finnish soil. And Finland has managed to retain friendship with East and West through an uneasy postwar period.

Soviet diplomats have privately admitted that they would have had more friends if they had treated Central Europe as they treated Finland.

Peace Price Heavy

The price for peace with Russia in 1944 was a heavy one — a reparations bill equal to a full year's Finnish government budget, loss of 10 per cent of her territory, almost half a million persons to resettle, drastic cuts in armed strength, and the uncertainty of what lay ahead.

The Leningrad military district continues to send amateur spies across the border, and the Finns just as regularly arrest them and apply one or two-year jail terms. Finland is shunned by Iron Curtain refugees who know Finnish authorities would have to send them back if picked up.

Finland-Soviet trade is regulated by five-year pacts.

Finland's armed forces total less than 40,000 — with no tanks, bombers, guided missiles, submarines or large naval craft.

Peace Policy Pasture

All these are the pawns of postwar Finnish-Soviet policy. But there are other aspects, too.

Finland kept her independent republican form of government.

There are no occupation forces. Britain is still Finland's biggest trading partner, although the Russians run a close second.

Finland is a member of the United Nations and also a member of the Nordic Council, which links five northern European states.

Despite the irritations, Soviet policy toward Finland appears to be one of genuine desire to make friends.

There is no indication that the Russians would like to make Finland a satellite — even if the opportunity presented itself.

Katherine Stubbings Wed Here Saturday To Willis Terry Bird

In a double ring ceremony Saturday Miss Katherine Beatrice Stubbings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Stubbings, became the bride of William Terry Bird, son of Dr. and Mrs. Terry Bird.

The First Methodist Church in Sanford was the scene of the 7:00 P. M. service. Dr. E. Rutland officiated.

The church was decorated with glitter sprinkled fern palms, and baskets of white gladioli and crysanthemums. Lighted lanterns in eggshells shone behind the altar and in the windows of the church.

The organist was Mrs. Albert Jackson. Soloist Gerald Covington sang "Walk Hand in Hand," "Oh, Promise Me," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an avocado gown with a scalloped hip yoke, which formed an apron effect in the back. Her fingertip veil of pure silk illusion was attached to a crown of re-embroidered alencon lace, scalloped and trimmed with pearls. She carried a cascade of white camellias.

Maid of honor was Miss Cullen Engelbrecht. She wore an avocado gown with a sash around the waist. The sash draped to the hemline of the waltz length dress. She wore elbow length mitts of dark green and a tiny lace trimmed veil in pale green. She carried a cascade of pale yellow Figli crysanthemums.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert J. Dutton, Miss Marilyn Snyder of Fern Park, and the bride's sister, Miss Suzanne Stubbings. Their gowns were identical to that of the maid of honor except the colors were reversed. They carried pale yellow Figli crysanthemums.

Dr. Terry Bird was his son's best man. Ushers were Leonard Montgomery, Orlando Robert J. Dutton, Robert L. Willis Jr., Robert G. and Earl H. Stubbings, brothers of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding—Mrs. Stubbings chose a sea-green tulle gown with portrait neckline, fitted waist and bouffant skirt. The satin yoke featured a design in pearls, gold and crystal embroidery. She wore beige accessories.

The groom's mother was gowned in beige lace. Her full skirt and jacket were enhanced by coral accessories.

The reception was held in McKinley Hall. Assisting at the bride's table were Mrs. Arthur Coplin, Mrs. W. B. Evans, Mrs. H. H. Tyre, and Mrs. Roy Wall. The bride's book was kept by Miss Irene Zwarykin.

For her wedding trip the bride wore a black wool suit trimmed in velvet. Her hat and bag were of leopard.

The couple will live in San Antonio, Texas, where Mr. Bird is stationed at Kelly Air Force Base.

Cunninghams Have Wild Turkey Dinner

By Helen Snodgrass

ENTERPRISE—All of the Cunningham family enjoy hunting so when early in the season Mrs. Cunningham killed a wild turkey, she dressed it and put it in the deep freeze until some later day, hoping maybe all the time that some other members of the family might get another to go with it—so sure enough they did, Thursday or Friday last week it came two more, and now they could have a dinner and invite quite a group of their neighbors and friends to join them for these delicacies. And thus dreams came true because Sunday evening at the Florida Power Club a group totaling 42 had a most delicious dinner. Most of the ladies added a dish of salad, cake and other things to make the dinner complete and everyone was happy. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harris and Mel of Angola, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Ford, Miss Emma Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ford, Dr. and Mrs. Smith and children, Garet, Nancy, Susan, and Tinsley, Mr. and Mrs. Monso Tatum and sons, Monty, Frank and Jimmy, of DeLand; Mr. and Mrs. Alva Hayman and Mrs. Norton of Orange City; Mr. and Mrs. Toby Denby of Geneva; Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Hayman and Lovick Jr., Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Ryan, Miss Helen Snodgrass, Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Harris, Carroll Peterman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bender, Mrs. E. C. Snodgrass, Mrs. Ida Padgett and Mr. and Mrs. Ed L. Cunningham and Junior and Jean of Enterprise, and Mrs. Lucy Dobson of Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hahn of McLeod, L. I. are now occupying the Cox cottage on Lake Shore Dr. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Tyler and Linda spent Thursday with Mrs. Tyler's mother, Mrs. E. C. Vaughan and sister, Mrs. Tom Rivers and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Bayne returned Wednesday to their home on Stone Island after having visited with relatives in Miami.

Miss Jean Cunningham has been spending several days with her sister, and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Toby Denby in Oviedo.

These articles and supplies, as the name suggests, are available on a loan basis to individuals and families who may have need of them for a short or undetermined period of time.

As these articles are to be on loan free of charge, and there is no fund to draw on to supplement the stock, the Women's Auxiliary is requesting voluntary donations to build up the supply.

The following is a list of suggested articles that could be found useful to shuttles both sick and convalescent: backrests, bedside tables (stretching over bed), portable radios and TV's, also bedpans, commodes, rubber rings, vaporizers, crutches, wheelchairs, walkers, etc.

The Seminole County Chapter, American Red Cross, 122 1/2 Palmetto Ave., has offered to store these articles at their headquarters.

Contact for both donating articles and receiving articles on loan should be made with Mrs. Orville L. Barks, Phone FA 2-5025, or Headquarters, local Red Cross, Mrs. Mary D. Knox, Phone FA 2-4123.

The Red Cross Chapter has two hospital beds available for loan purposes.

New Year Diet; Five Pounds Off In Five Days Eating Of Bananas

A new diet published this month in Vogue magazine is designed to peel off five of the pounds gained so easily during the holiday festivities. The diet has been medically checked, and is a variant of the famous banana diet introduced in the thirties by Dr. George Harrop of Johns Hopkins Hospital.

The article states that bananas are not "fatteners", but contain a mere 110 calories at their largest. The average count is 88.

The simple five day plan for Monday to Friday dieters calls for five bananas a day three days out of the five. The other two days have appealing low calorie meals, including a banana for lunch.

Bananas are extremely digestible, assimilated easily by the body and are a fine source of quick energy. Vogue claims that this is because of their protein and carbohydrate content. The bananas may be eaten in any way for this diet "nooney-fashion; sliced; broiled; or baked."

The calorie intake is the thing, thus, the half and half instead of skim milk. The dieter need not be confined to skimmed milk as long as she counts the total number of calories.

Water, unsugared tea, coffee and low-calorie carbonated drinks may be taken at will with the banana diet. The chart may be followed for longer than five days, but a physician should be consulted before pursuing it for more than two weeks.

Vogue offers several tips and pointers to make the diet easier and the weight loss more beneficial.

1. "Eat slowly—the feeling of fullness depends partially on chewing."

2. "Follow a moderate exercise plan."

3. "Restrict food portions as indicated on chart."

The article closes with an encouraging word from a "distinguished New York physician".

"Just five a day! You needn't watch your protein intake and your starch."

Boat, Ski Club Discusses Regatta Financial Problems

Johnny King Born Hundred Years Too Late

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Johnny King was born 100 years too late—but he's making up for it today with a three-year vengeance.

Johnny is a tall, handsome fellow out of Cleveland who looks like and probably should have been a Mississippi steamboat gambler. He'll bet on anything in general and on his bowling in particular.

The top keepers in the country will tell you it's a bad bet when you wager against him.

Up until three years ago, dark-haired, blue-eyed Johnny worked in a machine shop and bowled on the side. Then he gave it up to follow bowling as a career and in a brief span of time he has become one of the nation's top stars.

Rolled 23 300 Games

To give you an idea, Johnny has rolled 23 perfect 300 games, 10 of them in the last nine months. He has averaged 223 in league play the last two years and has a night series of 134 on games of 300-268-266.

"It took me a while to gain confidence in myself when I decided to take the plunge into professional bowling," Johnny says, "but after I won a couple of matches, I decided that I had done the right thing."

Finance Chairman Harry Robson and officials of the Sanford Boat and Ski Club met over the weekend in an attempt to solve the financial problems connected with bringing the national spotlight of speedboat racing to Sanford on Jan. 19, for the Second Annual Sanford Outboard Regatta.

According to Robson, the Club has a promise of $650 from downtown Sanford merchants. "We need $800 to cover the races," Robson said.

According to Sanford Boat and Ski Club Commodore, Dr. A. W. Woodall, the races are promoted by the local club and sanctioned by the American Power Boat Association. "The quicker we send the APBA the check for minimum coverage the races, the more far-reaching publicity we will have for Sanford before the races," Woodall said.

"We will draw more and better racing drivers with the additional publicity," Robson declared.

Robson pointed out that drivers are notified when the financial clearance through the APBA is obtained. "The sooner we get the financial business cleared up, the sooner we are officially sanctioned, and the more drivers will make plans to be here," he pointed out.

Confidence is, however, one of the strong points of the slender six footer whose trademark is a cigar clamped constantly in the corner of his mouth. He learned to believe in himself during 18 months in Germany with a combat and heavy mortar company of the Fifth Division during World War II.

Good as Next Fellow

"I've just got to figure I'm as good as the next fellow or I wouldn't last long," says the level-eyed 36-year-old.

Johnny currently is appearing on "Bowling Stars," a nationally televised bowling competition which can be seen Sunday afternoons. This Sunday he'll be seen against Frank Clause of Old Forge, Pa.

The show has made national sports celebrities out of the stars appearing in front of its cameras. Fellows like Johnny, Billy Veto, Dick Weber and Lee Jougard have become household by-words in a nation which every year becomes more and more bowling conscious. The pay is good, too, with the winner of each head-and-head match receiving $1,000, plus $10 for each pin over 700 while the loser gets $1 a pin and anybody rolling 300 gets a $10,000 bonus.

Johnny, who gives 150 exhibitions a year, sums up bowling in one short sentence: "Bend down and reach out."

Boxer Of Year

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—Middleweight champion Carmen Basilio, who wrestled the crown from veteran Ray Robinson during a "lion-hearted" performance, has been named "boxer of the year" for 1957 by the National Boxing Assn.

Basilio was given the honorary title in the NBA's first ratings of 1958. Fred Saddy, chairman of the NBA's rating committee, said in citing the former welterweight champion:

"Basilio, a lion-hearted fighter, gave away height, weight and cleverness to Robinson and still whiplined him. Basilio bears himself with the dignity of a champion. He has been a careful trainer and a courageous fighter."

Saddy had New Year's advice for fighters in the heavyweight division, especially title contenders.

"Interest in the heavyweight division is important to boxing and, with complications involving the champion, there is no reason why those listed as contenders should be searching in the backwoods for competition while avoiding each other," he said.

Saddy said a "natural" bout to establish the rightful top man to challenge champion Floyd Patterson would be between Eddie Machen and Zora Folley, rated one and two in that order.

Flying Dutchman Officially Retires

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Famous mauler star Norman Van Brocklin of the Los Angeles Rams has officially gone into retirement after nine seasons as one of the National Football League's top quarterbacks.

The "Flying Dutchman," as Van Brocklin became known in professional football, declared he still felt he had "a season or two" left in him but decided to quit while at the top of his game.

"It began to be a mental strain each season," Van Brocklin told a hastily-called press conference late Thursday. "I'm about the last of the guys I came up with and I decided it was time to retire."

"I began thinking of retiring in mid-season for no particular reason other than I decided that this was my last season and my last moment to make a name for myself."

Sports Parade

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
PLEASANTVILLE, N. J. (AP)—Tony Anthony did neck exercises until everybody watching began to get dizzy—and then he did more.

"That's right," said Ernie Braca, his manager. "Keep at it."

For, as Braca sees it, that neck could well determine the future of boxing's light heavyweight and heavyweight divisions.

There is a theory in this wind-swept boxing camp not far from Atlantic City that these exercises will assist young Tony in building up a resistance to a knockout punch. And it is an ability, they admit, which he needs desperately.

"He has all the talents that any fighter has ever had," Braca asserted fondly. "He can hit with anybody and box with anybody, and that includes Floyd Patterson."

Tony Glass-Jawed

But Tony, a slender, hard-muscled picture fighter who carries horse shoes in either hand, is as suspect as a three-time loser when it comes to absorbing a wallop to the whiskers.

Right now he is training to take on Yvon Durelle at Madison Square Garden on Jan. 10. It is a bout which could lead Tony back to the threshold of great opportunity. He stubbed his toe the last time, a pappy guy named Archie Moore.

Van Brocklin said he had no desire to embark on a coaching career and instead will continue to act as a sales and public relations representative for a pipeline company in Portland, Ore., where he will make his home.

"I don't feel I'm leaving the Rams in a lurch," Van Brocklin said. "They've got two or three quarterbacks coming up."

General Manager Pete Rozelle of the Rams disclosed the club agreed to let Van Brocklin retire even though he still had a year to go on his current contract because the quarterback has made up his mind.

Symphonic Handicap Tonight At SOKC

Orioles See Good Year

The ninth race at the Sanford-Orlando Kannel Club tonight has been designated as the "Symphonic Handicap" in honor of a large group of special guests expected for the 10-event program.

Visiting the track tonight will be close to 100 representatives from the Symphonic Radio and Electronic Corporation of New Brunswick, N. J.

The group, consisting of company executives and distributors from throughout the United States, is currently making its headquarters at Sanford's Mayfair Inn.

Mrs. Ray Clemons and Mrs. Al Leon have been chosen from the "Symphonic" group to present a silver platter to the owner of the winning greyhound following the special race.

Among the favorites in the five-sixteenths mile trophy test at Black Elaine, Free Copy and Willard J.

WAXAHACHIE, TEX. (AP)—The Orioles should finish somewhere around the middle in the standings, near the first division, next season.

And, who knows, we might even make it this time after coming so close last time.

It all depends on who comes through for us and who does not come through for some of the other clubs.

We've got some boys who should improve—Gus Triandos, Billy Gardner, Al Pilarcik and Brooks Robinson.

And the addition of Larry Doby from the White Sox gives us a little more authority with the bat and a little better balance in the batting order.

Right now, I'm planning on keeping Doby despite the trade rumors to the contrary although the broad expanses of Memorial Stadium may not be quite to Larry's liking.

We had fairly good pitching last year and I hope to be a little stronger next season with lefty Don Ferrarese and right-hander Charlie Beaman coming up after good showings with Vancouver.

Also our bonus boy—Jerry Walker—looked pretty good in the 10 to 12 games he worked last season. Especially, that 10-inning 1-0 job against Washington. I really think the boy is going to help us.

Too, I look for Billy O'Dell to be improved and we should get some good pitching out of standbys like Billy Loes, Connie Johnson and Harold Brown, along with the relievers George Zuverink and Kenny Lehman.

We got by to a great extent on defense last season, even running up a new league record in number of errorless ball games. That defense should be as good or better this season with additional sea-

House Hunter Should Beware Of Future Slums

BY LEROY POPE
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK —(UP)—A well-known architect says the main thing a house-hunter should worry about is staying out of the "slums of tomorrow."
Wyatt C. Hedrick of Hedrick & Stanley, New York and Fort Worth, planners, says far too many of the home developments since World War II will become slums that breed juvenile delinquency and other bad conditions because the houses are too small and alike.
Other builders, however, disagree—they say people—not buildings—make slums, that many low price "all alike" houses built in the 1920's still are not slums.
Hedrick said the tragedy of it is that haste rather than economy caused much of the bad building after World War II. "If people hadn't been in such a hurry for a new house, much better houses could have been built for the same money—and in a much more pleasing variety."

Hedrick said that when you go house-hunting be sure to take along a flashlight for dark places and a 50-foot tape measure for accurate measures.

Look At Neighborhood
He gave these other rules for house-hunters:

Never pay more than three times your annual income nor less than one and one-half times your income for a house.

Get out of your car and look around the neighborhood; see how people thereabouts keep up their houses, lawns and sidewalks. Make sure the lot is zoned to keep out undesirable businesses and factories, and that the drain-

83,000 Aliens Are Expected To Report Addresses In '58

District Director, Joseph Savoretti, of the Immigration and Naturalization Service estimated today that approximately 83,000 aliens will report their address under the Federal Alien Address Report Program.
The Immigration official said that 71,508 aliens reported their address during January 1957.
Savoretti said that all non-citizens, except those in diplomatic status, foreign representatives of certain international organizations and those admitted temporarily as agricultural laborers, are required to file the address report.

He added that any alien who willfully violates the address report requirement may be fined up to $200, imprisoned for 30 days, and deported. In addition aliens who are not in the United States during January must report their address to the Service within 10 days after their return.

The District Director, Joseph Savoretti, said that address report cards will be available at all Immigration Service offices and all local United States Post Offices throughout the State beginning Jan. 1, 1958.

Age runs away from the house properly.

Be sure to check on water, sewer and storm sewer connections and fireplugs as well as utilities. Inquire about schools. If there aren't any you can bet new ones will be built and that will send your tax rate up.

Check the heating plant and make sure it is big enough and also modern enough to be economical.

And of course check the size of every room and its orientation and be sure you are not letting yourself in for unpleasant surprises after you have lived in it awhile.

Government Asked To Alter Slum Aid

CHICAGO —Eleven experts have called for the government to change its stand on providing federal aid for slum clearance.

The experts said present federal laws should be changed to enable cities to treat commercial and industrial slums on an equal basis with housing blight.

The experts, in answer to a questionnaire distributed by the National Association of Housing and Redevelopment, said industry would continue to build outside cities unless commercial and industrial slums are cleared and space made available for redevelopment.

They pointed out the existing laws provide for federal aid in slum clearance only when residential slums are cleared for industrial and commercial use or when industrial and commercial slums are cleared for residential redevelopment.

The experts maintained industrial and commercial slums in many cities are unsuitable for housing after clearance because of their location.

They also said it is not always possible under present laws to develop areas cleared of slums for their best maximum use.

Funds Too Limited
Those who favored modification of the federal aid laws included

Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa.); Robert Moses, chairman of the New York City Committee on Slum Clearance; Fred Kramer, president of Draper and Kramer, Inc., Chicago; Grady Clay, Louisville Courier-Journal real estate editor; Patrick Healy Jr., executive director, American Municipal Assn.; James J. Scheuer, New York City developer; George Duggar, University of California, and L. P. Cookingham, city manager of Kansas City, Mo.

Other experts, including Sen. Jacob K. Javits (R-N. Y.), agreed with the need for modification of the laws but did not favor immediate or complete removal of the "predominantly housing" provision without some restriction.

Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.) and Boris Shiklin of the AFL-CIO Housing Committee objected to any change at this time in the laws.

They said federal funds now available are too limited to go beyond the need for slum clearance. Douglas and Shiklin also said commercial and industrial developments are more easily financed without government aid than are housing developments and new laws might swing the emphasis to commercial and industrial work at the expense of eliminating residential slums and rebuilding with standard housing.

Farm Research Helps Everyone

WASHINGTON —The Agricultural Research Service (ARS) says in an editorial in the November issue of its monthly bulletin that agricultural research has benefited everyone—farmers and consumers—in work done primarily for farmers.

"Sure, agricultural research is done for farmers," ARS said. "But it benefits them only when it helps to meet the needs and preferences of consumers."

The service said Agricultural research has benefited farmers "by shortening their work-day and lightening their labors" and has helped increase their purchasing power.

"It has elevated the dignity of farming, given farm young people better educational, social, and business opportunities," it added. "All this farm progress has benefited the whole country. Farm labor has been released for producing other kinds of goods and services."

To Meet A Demand
"Our urban-industrial economy, with its high standard of living, could never have come about except for the research development of an efficient, technical, and specialized system of producing and marketing our farm and forest products."

ARS said improvements in agriculture just don't happen, but result from research undertaken because farmers and consumers want something better. To a large extent, it said, consumers' needs and preferences set the course and encourage farmers to apply the re-

Mobile Unit Caters To Locomotives

CHICAGO —A mobile refueling unit which supplies complete engine "catering service" to railroad locomotives has gone into service in the Chicago area.

The unit, which can refuel, lubricate or even replenish a locomotive's hoppers with the sand it needs for wheel-rail traction, was made by the Farrell Manufacturing Co., Joliet, Ill.

The refueler is able to complete its job within 20 minutes and get on its way to handle the needs of another locomotive.

Richard Duchossois, president of the firm, said that the new unit eliminates the need for many large permanent fueling and sanding stations in the yards. It further saves time consumed by "dead-heading" from outlying areas to yards for refueling, he said.

The unit, mounted on a standard truck chassis, has a capacity of 1,600 gallons of fuel oil, 25 gallons of lubrication oil and 23 cubic feet of sand.

ARS pinpointed one commodity which is now available year-round because of research.

"We eat lettuce without a thought," it said. "But year-round lettuce took plenty of thought by scientists. Plant breeders had to find out ways to develop disease-resistant varieties. Other scientists had to find out ways of growing lettuce efficiently in both winter-crop and summer-crop areas. And they had to learn how to keep lettuce during long hauls to markets."

ARS said the same can be said of nearly everything Americans eat.

Annual Alien Address Report Program Underway

Joseph Savoretti, District Director of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, at Miami, advised today that the annual alien address report program is again under way.

According to Savoretti, 71,508 aliens reported their addresses last year in the State of Florida. The number this year is expected to be slightly larger. Savoretti attributes this anticipated increase to the fact that official Service records indicate approximately 1,000 additional aliens have established residence in the state each month during the past year.

The Immigration officials pointed out that the address reports are required by law and willful failure to comply with these requirements may lead to serious consequences.

Forms with which to make the reports are available at all Post Offices and Immigration Offices. It is an easy matter to fill out one of the cards and return it to the same office.

Savoretti added that trained personnel will be on hand in all Immigration Offices to answer any questions the reporting aliens may have regarding immigration and naturalization matters. Sufficient trained personnel are not available to furnish this service in all Post Offices.

Aquarium Society Meets Wednesday At Billhimer Home
The Central Florida Aquarium Society will meet Wednesday in the home of the president, Miss Betty Billhimer at 806 Catalina Drive.

The meeting is scheduled for 8 p. m. and program chairman George Dahms plans a roundtable discussion of the challenge, care and maintenance of the aquarium in the home. The society will hold monthly meetings in the homes of various members in order to display aquaria in their home surroundings.

The society to include persons living in Sanford and surrounding cities is open for membership and all persons becoming members at the Wednesday meeting will be considered as charter members.

Advantages of membership in the society include a subscription to the "Tropical Fish Hobbyist" magazine, a discount at "Aqua-Pets" store, and the sharing of aquatic experiences with fellow aquarists and experts in the field through discussions, lectures and film.

Anyone interested in membership is urged to be present at the

Blacksmith Trade Needs Young Men

KANSAS CITY.—(UP)—It will be a sad day when horses have to go barefooted in the United States.

And that's probably what will happen before long, said Bill Coons of Linwood, Kan., unless some young men enter the blacksmith trade.

Coons, a 48-year-old smith travels in eastern Kansas, shoeing horses by appointment only. For 33 years, he's been doing the same job—and 15 years of that time was spent in apprenticeship in El Dorado, Kan. Coons said there are a lot of beginners trying to shoe horses.

"But," he added, "none of them have enough experience to do a real job."

In this modern age of science, even the engineering experts haven't invented a horseshoeing machine. There are still no substitutes for a strong right arm and an old nail on which the shoes are shaped.

Psychology figures

But there have been some changes, Coons pointed out, such as an electric forge instead of a bellows-fanned fire to heat the horseshoes.

Coons has shod every kind of horse from a Clydesdale to thoroughbred. And it takes an expert to know which of the 150 varieties of horseshoes to use for each customer.

Nor is the trade just a matter of heaven. Psychology also enters into Coons' business.

"A horse will know if you're afraid of him and react accordingly," he said. "You've got to treat each one differently, just like people."

For boys undecided on a trade, Coons has a word of advice.

"If a young fellow want take up the business and stick with it, he'd make a good living. He'd get the best of it going to be around much longer."

Household Worker Employes Must File Return By Jan. 31

Employers of household workers must file a return for the October through December 1957 quarter on or before January 31, 1958, the District Director of Internal Revenue for the Jacksonville district reminded them today.

At the same time, Colonel Byron R. Patton, district manager of the Central Florida social security office, pointed out that this obligation to file a return applies to every household employer who paid $50 or more in cash wages to a cook, maid, laundress, or any other household employe during the calendar quarter. Returns must be filed after the close of each calendar quarter and are due April 30, July 31, October 31, and January 31 every year.

Most household employers will make their reports on Form 942. This is a special simplified form printed on the back of a return envelope. If you are a household employer who is already on the mailing list of the District Director of Internal Revenue, one of these forms was mailed to you before the end of December. If social security taxes are due from a household employer who is not now on the mailing list, the employer should ask the District Director for the form and give him her name and address to be added to the mailing list before the next quarterly return is due.

The amount of the social security tax is 4 1/2% of the total cash wages paid to a household worker in a calendar quarter. The employe is expected to share this tax with the employer, however, it is the obligation of the employer to report and remit the total tax of 9% to the District Director of Internal Revenue. While the $50 cash wage test applies separately to each household worker in your employ, no report or social security tax is due on any household worker to whom you pay less than $50 in cash during the calendar quarter, Colonel Patton pointed out.

'58 Could Be Rough Tumble Political Year For Florida

By BARBARA FRUE
United Press Staff Correspondent
TALLAHASSEE, Fla.—The year 1958 would normally be considered an "off-year" for elections in Florida, but a proposed new Constitution, a possible three-cornered race for the U. S. Senate and the growing Republican threat could turn it into a rough-and-tumble political year.

Elections without the governorship, Cabinet offices and major local positions at stake normally do not generate much statewide steam, although congressional races have pepped up in recent years with the growing strength of the Republican Party.

Only statewide race on next year's ballot is for the U. S. Senate seat held by Sen. Spessard L. Holland. The senator, a former governor of Florida, has not said whether he will seek re-election.

Possible Opponents

Nor have definite statements come from former House Speaker Ted David and ex-Sen. Claude Pepper, but both have indicated they have "serious" intentions.

A Holland-David-Perpper race could spark a real old-fashioned political clambake and make 1958 a banner year in political interest.

Also at stake are the eight congressional seats, which come up every two years. Headline attention will center on the 1st District seat of Republican William C. Cramer of St. Petersburg, where the Democrats will make an all-out fight to return Florida to the ranks of the solidly Democratic South.

Cramer has given some thought to running for Holland's Senate seat, but observers believe he will make a bid to hang on to the position he has. However, it will depend on whom the Democrats put up against him.

So far, no Democratic candidate has come forth for the Cramer seat, but the party has served notice it will go all-out to try to attract a proven vote-getter to the race.

Seats at Stake

Other congressional seats for which the Republicans are expected to make a strong bid include the 5th District seat of Rep. A. S. Herlong, Leesburg and the 6th District seat of Rep. James A. Haley, Sarasota. Also at stake are seats of Reps. Charles Bennett, Jacksonville, Bob Sikes, Crestview; Dante Fascell, Miami, and D. R. Matthews, Gainesville.

Campaigns for and against the proposed new state Constitution, including a new formula for reapportionment of the Legislature, are expected to reach into many local legislative races.

Gov. LeRoy Collins, who has no race of his own, has served notice he will stump the state if

4 Children Die In Virus Outbreak At Ft. Lauderdale

FORT LAUDERDALE (UP)—A near-epidemic outbreak of virus pneumonia has crippled this resort community, killing four young children in the last two weeks with little or no warning.

Ronald C. Mickle said the disease, particularly deadly to infants, is difficult to diagnose. In the beginning stages it appears to be a common cold with no high temperatures.

Dr. Mickle said a mother may notice her child has the sniffles and a few hours later the child will be dead.

He warned parents in the area to contact a doctor if their children show signs of catching a cold.

Dr. Mickle emphasized that earlier reports that the virus pneumonia had reached epidemic proportion "were exaggerated." He said the outbreak was considered serious but not an epidemic.

The medical examiner pointed out that an average of about one person a month is killed by the disease.

GYPSY ROSE FINED

NEW YORK.—Entertainer-author Gypsy Rose Lee paid a $50 fine Friday for violating the multiple dwelling law in her six-room Manhattan house. She declared she would evict the tenants after the house was ruled to have been converted to apartments because the tenants paid rent and the rooms had private baths. She said she would use the entire building herself.

OFF DUTY

BUFFALO, N. Y.—While George A. Watts, Jr., 32, was taking off two weeks from his job as a railway mail clerk to perform jury duty, the New York Central Buffalo-Chicago train on which he normally works was involved in a derailment at White Pigeon, Mich. The wreck took the life of one mail clerk and injured five.

KKK WARNED

LONDON (UP)—Home Secretary R. A. Butler has warned that "appropriate action" would be taken if necessary against writers of "Ku Klux Klan letters" to British members of Parliament and other persons. The letters, purportedly coming from the Klan, have been reported received here in recent months. All have commented on racial matters.

DOMESTIC BURGLARS
CHICAGO (UP)—Burglars who looted the Robert Anderson residence apparently planned to set up housekeeping. They carried out a coffee maker, a waffle iron, an electric knife sharpener, a wall clock, a bedroom clock, several suits, 20 watches, 80 pounds of frozen meat and four bottles of whiskey. They also took an empty piggy bank and $37 in cash.

TRADE AGREEMENT COMING
BONN, Germany (UP)—A West German delegation will return to Moscow next month ready to sign a $2 billion mark (760-million dollars) trade agreement with Russia, government officials said today. The three-year agreement will call for a total volume of imports and exports of 100 million rubles the first year, one billion rubles the second year and 1,500,000 the third year, officials disclosed.

BRAVE HUNTER MISSES
RAKITNO, Yugoslavia (UP)—Mirko Milicevic, Rakitno's greatest hunter of wolves, foxes and other wild animals, decided to shoot his first rabbit. Mirko caught a hare barehanded as it ran from its burrow. He tied it to a tree with a piece of string and took aim with his trusty gun. Mirko's bullet missed the rabbit, cut the string, and set the animal free.

DOMESTIC BURGLARS
CHICAGO (UP)—Burglars who looted the Robert Anderson residence apparently planned to set up housekeeping. They carried out a coffee maker, a waffle iron, an electric knife sharpener, a wall clock, a bedroom clock, several suits, 20 watches, 80 pounds of frozen meat and four bottles of whiskey. They also took an empty piggy bank and $37 in cash.

TRADE AGREEMENT COMING
BONN, Germany (UP)—A West German delegation will return to Moscow next month ready to sign a $2 billion mark (760-million dollars) trade agreement with Russia, government officials said today. The three-year agreement will call for a total volume of imports and exports of 100 million rubles the first year, one billion rubles the second year and 1,500,000 the third year, officials disclosed.

BRAVE HUNTER MISSES
RAKITNO, Yugoslavia (UP)—Mirko Milicevic, Rakitno's greatest hunter of wolves, foxes and other wild animals, decided to shoot his first rabbit. Mirko caught a hare barehanded as it ran from its burrow. He tied it to a tree with a piece of string and took aim with his trusty gun. Mirko's bullet missed the rabbit, cut the string, and set the animal free.

First Homestead Site Is Attraction

By MURRAY M. HOLER
Staff Correspondent
BEATRICE, Neb. — Travel to the Homestead National Monument, one of Nebraska's lesser known but most interesting points of historical interest, will set a new record this year.

Ralph K. Shaver, monument superintendent for the National Park Service, told United Press that visitors to the unique establishment four miles northwest of Beatrice would exceed 10,000 in 1957.

The monument's claim to fame centers around a handwritten document filed by an on-leave Union soldier, Daniel Freeman, with the U. S. Land Office at Brownville, Nebraska Territory, just after midnight on Jan. 1, 1863.

Freeman's filing was "Homestead Entry No. 1"—the first application for free land under the Homestead Act passed by Congress after much controversy and signed by President Abraham Lincoln to become effective on the same date as his immortal Emancipation Proclamation.

After filing his claim, Freeman had to go on with the Civil War and didn't get to settle on his 160 acres of fertile prairie until his military service was completed. He obtained his formal title to the land under Homestead Act Patent No. 1—on Sept. 1, 1868, after completing five year residence and making the improvements required by law.

Tract Restored
Since Freeman obtained his Nebraska land, more than one million other American citizens—or emigrants who had filed their declaration of intention to become citizens—have secured homesteads.

America's No. 1 homestead soon lost its identity as the prairie around Beatrice was settled, farmed and flourished. Freeman initially built a log and sod home, then improved his residence until he had a comfortable dwelling where he lived until his death in 1904. He and his wife, their graves marked by a granite stone, are buried near their home.

Some years ago, historical groups began a movement to have the site of Freeman's farm set aside and restored, as nearly as possible, to its original condition. In 1936, Congress approved purchase of the homestead by the government from Freeman's descendants, and the National Monument was formally established in Jan. 3, 1939.

Planting of native grasses, has helped the long-farmed land to lose its agricultural appearance and take on the look it had when Freeman turned his first shovel of sod. The grasses flourished particularly in this year's wet weather.

8-Year-Old Spreads Christmas Cheer

WASHINGTON — Mike Strong spread a singular kind of Christmas cheer this year—for an 8-year-old.

He found the courage to help someone else, even though he is about to have his right eye removed.

The operation worried his parents. They didn't know how it would affect Mike—a low-headed third grader who likes to play football and who shows a keen interest in science.

Mike, who lives in suburban Silver Springs, Md., injured his eye in 1953 when he jabbed it with a pocket knife while cutting a rope. Doctors thought they could save it with one operation. But scar tissue detached the retina, forcing the recent decision to remove it.

The bad time came then. It was a tough one to swallow for an 8-year-old with a lifetime ahead of him.

Mike's parents knew he was scared. They waited to see how he would take it. His answer came in a Christmas card written by Mike to someone he knew.

It said: "I felt real bad when my mother and daddy told me what happened to you. I know everything will be all right because my grandfather has an artificial eye and he can do everything."

"I already have had an eye operation and soon I am going to have one eye taken out."

The card was addressed to free lance sportswriter Carroll Hall of Washington. Hall was struck by a flying hockey puck Dec. 15 and had his right eye removed.

1958 Foreseen As Good Year

WASHINGTON — Wendell B. Barnes head of the Small Business Administration, said today that "continuing prosperity is inevitable" even though the nation is experiencing "some slackening in overall business activity."

Barnes said in a speech to the Washington Rotary Club that his "reading of the business barometer indicates that 1958 will be another relatively good year."

He said a mild economic downturn now in progress "undoubtedly" will continue into the early months of next year. But he added "I do not expect that this correction phase will be one of long duration."

Barnes said prosperity will continue because "we are entering a new age . . . of thermo dynamics, astrophysics, satellites, jet planes and atomic energy."

"Here alone is untold opportunity for business in the fields of research and development," he said. "This continuing prosperity is inevitable and rests on our accomplishments, not only in the fields of science, but in economics, which has leveled the boom and bust cycles, and the sound leadership of your government."

Barnes said 1958 will be a "year of golden opportunities, and bearing unexpected upheavals, a year of wholesome prosperity tied to the astounding frontiers of science, and the sound fiscal policies of our federal government."

BY THE FOOT

PROVIDENCE, R. I. — (UP)—Richard J. Ricci told Judge Luigi DePasquale in district court that he had gone only 50 feet from his backyard when police stopped him for having no plates on the car. "Tan cents a foot," the court said, "for a total fine of $6."

A DELAY
OLD SAYBROOK Conn. — (UP)—After 104 years of service, the Coast Guard decided to replace the Cornfield Lightship on Long Island Sound with radar buoys. But it had to delay deactivation of the lightship indefinitely when the buoys wouldn't function properly.

Although the moon is more amphibious than the caribou and feeds in water while the caribou feeds on land, the caribou's buoyant coat makes it a better swimmer.

Musical Shows On TV Fall Into 3 Classifications

By WILLIAM EWALD
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK (UP)—The musical shows on TV fall roughly into three classifications—small town, suburban and big city.

Thursday night is a study in all three types. And strangely enough, all three follow each other not only in respect to time but in terms of sophistication. They are the ABC-TV Pat Boone show and the NBC-TV Tennessee Ernie Ford and Rosemary Clooney shows.

The Boone show, like another ABC-TV offering, the Guy Mitchell Show, shuns sophistication. Boone is a young fellow with a frank, open face and he has when the ladies call "a nice manner." And they are right: He is nice.

But his ABC-TV 30-minute lacks the drive and aggressive qualities that the Ford Show (suburban) has to some extent and the Clooney Show (big city) has in even greater degree.

Production Flat Fare
From the production standpoint the Boone show is pretty flat fare. Thursday night, he sang "All The Way" in front of a potted plant and "Long Tall Sally" while he was standing to the side of some steps. He gave out with "Stardust" while he stood in front of a guitar player.

The dancing on the Boone show is pretty stale and the jokes are about on a par with the dancing. The Ford show, on the other hand, is a little more glossy. Oh, I know Tennessee started out as a country singer, but his folksiness is pretty polished by now and even though he'll bless "the little pea pickin' hearts" of his audience, he's pretty much a station wagon man right now.

The theme of Ford's show is a kind of suburban togetherness and Thursday night, he and guest MacDonaid "trotted" through a rather long routine about Christmas presents in a rather slickly furnished living room.

Too, there is a singing group, "the Top 20," on the Ford show that are strictly chrome plated. Thursday night, they did "Lonesome Road," against a stark background with a rather wiled tree hanging over the back of the set. It was not the sort of thing you might see on "Ozark Jubilee."

Late Evening Manners
Rosemary Clooney's show comes on late and it has late evening manners. Thursday night Miss Clooney had the Hill-Lo's with her and they helped open the show with "Great Day," while tons of balloons dangled in the air and dancers dressed in carnival outfits fandangoed. "That was sure a mover" Miss Clooney said at the close of the number and she was right.

Billy De Wolfe, another guest, went through a routine about making a 90¢ call to London on a pay phone and the Hill-Lo's came back in English coat sweaters to sing, "Heather on the Hill." All of it very stylish. Miss Clooney herself is a very knowing and swinging singer who dresses pretty formally in keeping with the character of "r show."

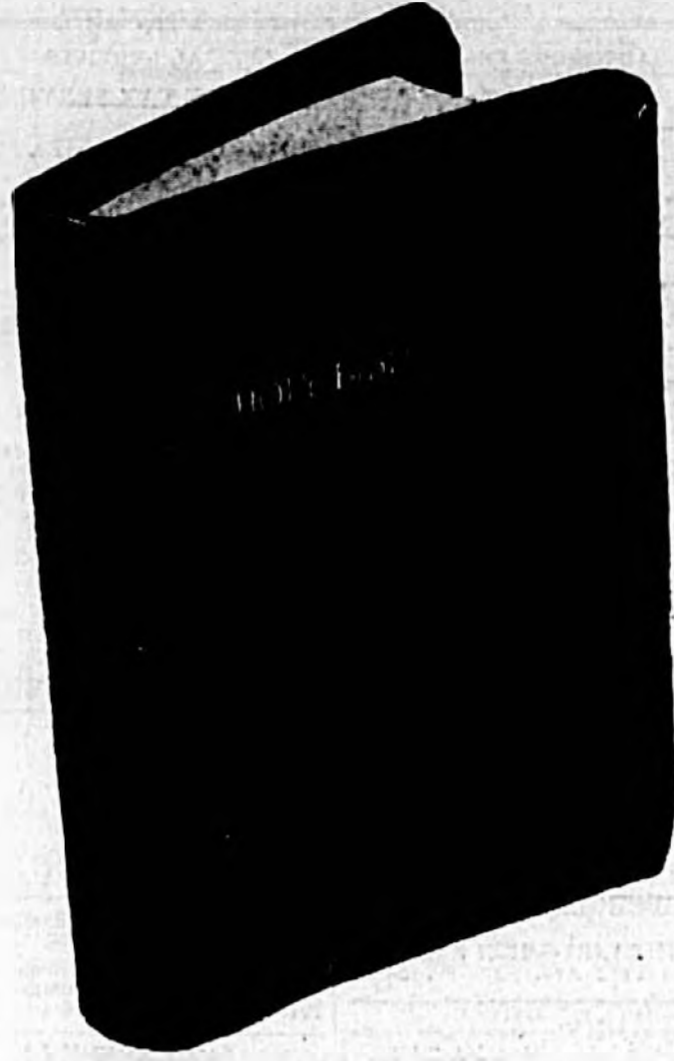

I suppose there is room on TV for all three types, but frankly I have to make a choice. I like English coat sweaters and "Heather on the Hill" over "Long Tall Sally" and a night of steps every time.

Gavin Says '50-50 Chance' Won't Quit Job Leading Missile Fight

WASHINGTON (UP)—Lt. Gen. James M. Gavin said today there is still a "50-50 chance" he won't quit his job of leading the Army's fight to match Russia's missile might.

At the same time the outspoken three-star general stepped up his public attack in the Army's behalf—calling for money to increase weapons research and double Army manpower to 25 divisions.

Gavin expressed his views in an interview after he was reported to have told Senate investigators Monday he decided to retire after being informed he was "no longer being considered for promotion... to a more responsible position."

Wants Gavin To Remain Army Secretary William M. Brucker issued a statement saying he wants Gavin to remain on as chief of Army research and development. He said Gavin "has a brilliant future in the Army and is certainly four-star material."

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex.), chairman of the Senate preparedness subcommittee before which Gavin appeared, warned today against "even a hint of reprisal" against military men who oppose administration policies before Congress.

He said Gavin's treatment "certainly will make others hesitant to speak frankly and candidly." Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.), a subcommittee member, said Congress must protect officers "who speak sincerely and openly."

He urged Brucker to refuse to rehire Gavin and give him "the promotion he deserves." Adm. Rickover "Worried" Another officer, Rear Adm. Hyman G. Rickover, told the inquiry that lagging research programs and a lack of a sense of urgency among top officials have left him "very much worried that it is almost too late to match the achievements of the Soviet Union."

In a related development, key congressmen forecast defeat for proposals to create a single military chief of staff. Chairman Carl Vinson (D-Ga.) of the House Armed Services Committee said if such a bill gets to his committee "it won't get out."

Weather
Cloudy, windy and cool today; clearing and much colder tonight with low 20 to 45. Wednesday fair, continued windy and cold.

Krider Named County Commission Chairman

James D. Longwell First Baby Of '58

James David Longwell is today the luckiest baby in town! The baby was born at 12:22 p. m. Jan. 1, which made him the first of the year in Seminole County. James David is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burrell Longwell, 550 Plumosa Drive.

John Krider, Seminole County Commissioner and Manager of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, was named chairman of the Board of Commissioners in the first order of business this morning.

Commissioner Homer Little was named vice-chairman of the group. Commissioner Krider was nominated for the post and was elected unanimously to the position as chairman. He took over immediately as commissioners congratulated him on his election.

Mrs. George Otto, first appearing before the group this morning, asked for improvements to the Canning Kitchen on 25th St. which is used as a meeting place for the Home Demonstration Clubs and 4-H Clubs. Mrs. Otto represented the Home Demonstration Club group.

The Board of commissioners agreed to take bids on the painting of the interior, waterproofing the exterior, and furnishing some type of heat for the building.

Courtesy Week Guests Enjoy Tour Of County

Mr. and Mrs. Wendall Saines, guests of the Sanford-Seminole County Jaycees, Seminole County Chamber of Commerce and the Mayfair Inn following their arrival in Sanford for "attempting to pass through Sanford without stopping" left for their home in Jackson, Mich., today.

Charlie Morrison, representing the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, took the visiting couple on a whirlwind tour of the county this morning to point out places of interest and to show them the many attractions of the county.

They visited Lake Mary, Geneva, Oviedo, Longwood as well as Henry Simpson's Lychee Farm, Elbert Cammack's Dairy, and stopping by to see "celery growing" and some of the county's citrus groves.

COURTESY WEEK PROCLAMATION is displayed by Mayor David Gatchel. He set aside the week of Jan. 6-12 as Courtesy Week in Sanford and called on every citizen to participate. (Staff Photo)

Sanford merchants will present the baby and his parents with a variety of useful and beautiful gifts. A $10 bank account will be started at the Florida State Bank; a family dinner of their choice at the Pinecrest Inn; suit and dress cleaned and pressed at Gene's; Seminoles Dry Cleaners; sterling silver milk cup from Wm. E. Kadner, Jeweler; 25 printed birth announcements from the Progressive Printing Co.

Five suits washed, ironed and finished, from Seminole County Laundry; a comfort crib blanket, from Roumiltal and Anderson; set of pillows from Sanford Jewelry and Luggage Co.; Thayer car bed from The Furniture Center; an electric iron from Bagerly Appliance Center; an 8 by 10 portrait of the baby from Bergstrom Photo Service; an "Even-Flow" baby bottle sterilizer from Touchette's Drug Co., and one year's subscription to The Sanford Herald.

Mr. Longwell is employed by the Burpee W. Atlee Co. U. S. EMPLOYEE JAILED BELGRADE (UP)—Miguel Sambek, 30, an employee of the U. S. Embassy here, was arrested last Dec. 12 for spreading false news on internal politics, security police revealed Monday night. They said Sambek was one of six persons arrested on the charge.

Work on Center is progressing on schedule. The Sanford Civic Center is progressing on schedule, Architect John Burton IV reported. The 200 structural members in which all arches of the auditorium's huge roof rests was installed last Saturday.

Laminated wood arches weighing more than two tons arrived by way of the Atlantic Coast Line and were set in place Saturday afternoon.

There were two sections of the proscenium arch which together gives a stage clearance of 11 feet, the width of the stage is 22 feet.

The laminated wood arches were manufactured by Rileco Laminated Products, Inc., of Albert Lea, Minn. and the erection is being supervised by Yeandle and Fox Laminated Products, Inc. of Fort Lauderdale.

General contractor for the Sanford Civic Center is Carroll Daniels Construction Co. of Sanford. Firemen Answer Alarm Early Today The Sanford Fire Department reports a quiet 24-hours ending this morning.

Only one alarm was answered when, at 7 o'clock this morning, sparking electric wires at 512 East 8th St. created a scare. There was no damage, it was reported.

City Planning For Sanford Nears

City planning is one step nearer for the City of Sanford following a joint meeting of the Board of Sanford City Commissioners and the city's Zoning and Planning Commission to hear Milton Foides, assistant planner in the planning division of the Florida Development Commission.

Foides, discussing the matching fund plan of the federal government administered by the agency outlined for members of both groups the details required to obtain the aid for city planning.

15 SHS Glee Club Members To Attend State Music Clinic

The federal government does not sit in judgment over your program," Foides explained, and added "we will not, in any way, dictate to you the type of planning for your city."

Fifteen members of the Seminole High School Glee Club, nine girls and six boys, have been chosen to attend the State Music Clinic in Tampa, Jan. 9, 10 and 11.

"It is up to you to adopt the program submitted by the consultant employed," he said.

Both the Board of Commissioners and the City Zoning and Planning Commission agreed that interviews should be conducted immediately anticipating an application for the federal aid planning before the end of January.

"We have filed only one application thus far," Foides explained, "which included request for funds for approximately eight cities. We are planning our second request and would like to include Sanford."

The group leaves Thursday and returns Sunday. A dance will be held for them Friday night, along with other planned entertainment Sunday.

Four members of the group have been chosen to participate in the experimental chorus. Attending the clinic will be Diana Fleischer, Linda Anderson, Shirley Morgan, Lynda Yeackle, Marela Loecheit, Connie Brown, Ellen Vihlen, Janice Luxon, Marla Bumgarner, Teddy Walker, Pat Donahoe, Johnny Barley, Al Collins, David Stanley and Don Carter.

Miss Ollie Reese Whittle, glee club director, and Miss Sadie Williams will go with the group.

Possibility loomed high last night that an engineer "or one capable of carrying on the program for the city" would be employed to assist the consultant and become (Continued on Page 8)

Who Will Be Mayor Of Sanford In '58?

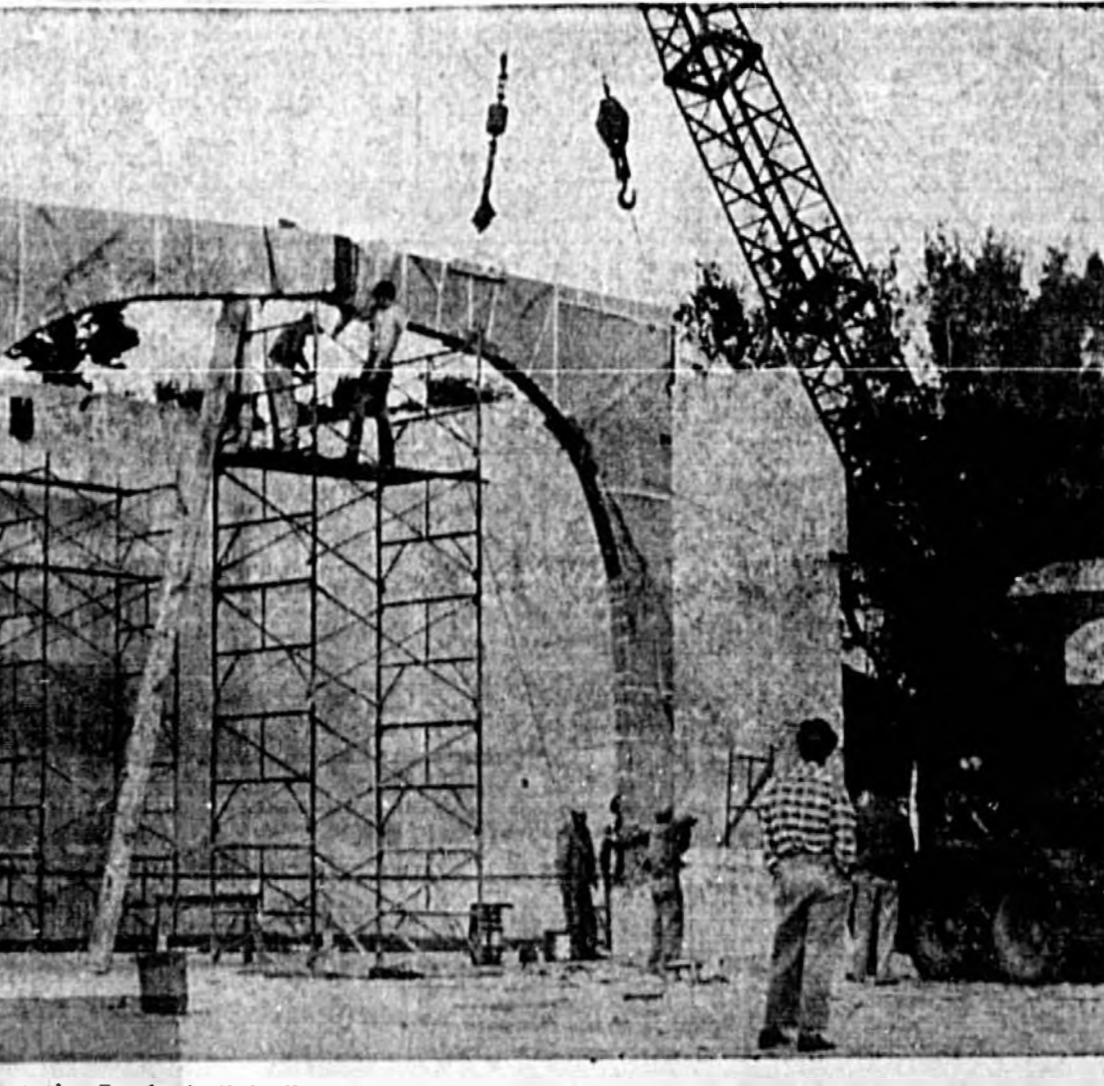

By J. Marion Harman Sr. Who will be Mayor of the City of Sanford for 1958? That question may or may not be answered tonight at the organizational meeting of the Board of Sanford City Commissioners.

Rotarians Hear Top 10 Stories

"News travels so fast in these modern times that big stories sometimes run into each other on their way to editorial newsrooms of the nation's newspapers, radio stations, TV stations and other information outlets," J. Marion Harman Sr., Executive Editor of The Sanford Herald told the Sanford Rotary Club yesterday.

Firemen Answer Alarm Early Today

The Sanford Fire Department reports a quiet 24-hours ending this morning. Only one alarm was answered when, at 7 o'clock this morning, sparking electric wires at 512 East 8th St. created a scare. There was no damage, it was reported.

THE PROSCENIUM ARCH at the Sanford Civic Center is set in place. Workmen can be seen at top bringing the two sections together to form the key on which all other arches of the roof rest.

Mayor David Gatchel will officially take his office as president of the local civic club along with other officers and directors of the local organization.

Whether or not a mayor will be elected tonight rests in the power of politics and whether or not any one man has been able to sway enough votes to claim the election in the first balloting or later balloting of the evening.

There are remote possibilities, according to rumbly rumors, that there will be two factions in the 1958 Board of Sanford City Commissioners.

Attorney Edwin Shinholser is the retiring president.

Should such politics come up in tonight's meeting it will be the first in the past several years. The Board of Sanford City Commissioners has been a "quiet" board for several years with no concerted action by any one man, faction, or clique—even city elections have been quiet, with few votes and no issues.

It could be possible that to elect a mayor this year the City Clerk, H. N. Sayer, will find it necessary to use the City Charter's "draw a name out of the hat" rule. The City Attorney, William C. Hutchison, will, more than likely, be keeping a close eye on the election. Other elections have been successful when the "sustained" vote or the "no vote" was used to complete the majority in a "tight" election.

There has been no open discussion or open "politicizing" for the honorary post of Mayor of Sanford.

The question is continuing to circulate: "Who will be Mayor of Sanford for 1958?"

of his school which he found folded in a discarded cake wrapper. "I'll wager that those bills looked to Rickie as the national debt would look to you and me," he said.

"The young man was honest—and with that event there was a lesson—a big news story that should carry over from 1957 to 1958 and to other years ahead of it. It was one of the biggest news stories of the year overshadowed by other events of the moment," Harman commented.

Nominations for the 10 biggest news stories of the year 1957 were largely sombre, the Rotary Club speaker pointed out. "That is to say, most of the big ones were bad news for somebody, although there was a sprinkling of stories that were generally pleasant or hopeful," he said.

Many of the developments of the year, Harman explained, were of the good-for-one-and-bad-for-another sort. Moscow rejoiced over its Sputniks, but Washington was depressed. The Braves gave Milwaukee its biggest celebration in October, but their world series victory was a blow to Yankee fans in New York.

"However," he said, "it would be hard to see anything good at all in Ike's stroke, Hurricane Audrey, the spate of 1957 plane disasters and earthquakes, the Asian Flu epidemic, turmoil in the Middle East, the economic crisis in France, the stock market break, or the
