89 Men Perish When Warship And Freighter Run Aground In Storm

Cargo Boat, Destroyer Lost Off Coast Of Newfoundland; Philippines Quiet

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The Navy announced today the destroyer Truxtun, a cargo ship, the U.S.S. Wadsworth, ran aground in a storm off the New Foundland coast with the Atlantic coast with an apparent loss of five lives.

At least 100 officers and men are believed to have perished.

The heavy toll of personnel was attributed by the Navy to "extremely difficult surf conditions caused by a raging gale in bitter winter weather."

Japs Bomb Air Bases And Java Troops

Invaders Meet Fierce Resistance Along Sumatra And Bali Fronts By Allies

(By Associated Press)
Japanese planes bombed Bandung, Dutch army headquarters on Java, and raided Java air fields but Dutch acknowledged only slight damage. Dutch and Allied troops were reported still resisting fiercely in Sumatra and Bali.

Australian planes bombed airfields and shipping of Japanese-occupied Rangoon, New Britain Islands.

The Japanese units on Bali undoubtedly are cut off from all sea-borne supplies, a Dutch informant said, but he admitted they would be able to live off the country indefinitely and seemed to have ample arms and equipment to hold the positions.

Dr. A. W. L. Van Starkenborgh Stachouwer, Governor-General of the Netherlands East Indies, said last night that an all-out attack on Java was imminent and called on the people to stand firm against it.

"After Borneo, Celebes and the Moluccas, the enemy also has occupied southern Sumatra and Bali," he said in a broadcast reported by the Aneta News Agency.

The moment approaches when the all-out attack will be launched on our main island.

The situation in Java is entirely different from that in the outer provinces. Putting a superior force up against the Dutch forces on Java will be much more difficult.

"We face the coming military operations with faith and an evident predominance of our own," he said.

Braving the elements, we not they will win the final battles;

we, not they, will make the final peace."

Despite crusty long distances involved, the President disclosed,

"a large number of planes" manning in daily contact with the enemy.

He said, "A thousand of American troops" are there in the area.

The President also said recent surveys had disclosed that the predictably high production goals established two months ago would be attained, and that he repeated his emphasis, "This is the key to victory."

Mr. Roosevelt spoke by radio from the White House in the third major address he has made since the country entered the war.

Among his millions of listeners was Washington's birthday dinner at which Democratic party gatherings throughout the country gathered to honor the Commanders-in-Chief.

A division of City aid to the Salvation Army was given, after Capt. Wood, head of the local unit, explained a plan in which he had hoped to raise a portion of the Salvation Army's budget without soliciting funds. Capt. Wood plans to not

VERSE FOR TODAY

YEAR GIVETH TORMENT: In quietness and confidence shall be your strength.—Isaiah 30:15.

THE MOMENT INCARNATE

(From The Christian Science Monitor)
The morning was muffed with fog.

The wordless moment
Was one of wonder,
And the friendly roadway under
Our feet was silent,

When out of the mist came
My spirit, a buck in easy rhythm Plodding over a fence to the right.

With bell-hoops so small and light,
Measuring the earth, fathom on fathom.

It was all so writhlike
And afterward to tax belief
And we would hardly dare
To see if his tracks were there
In the dirt and molded leaf.

FRANK CHEAVENS.

Those Nazi battleships seen heading north along the coast of Norway may be following in the footsteps (or wake) of the Bismarch.

That fellow Edward Marshall is writing some fine editorials for the Herald's school page. That one, last Saturday, on "Inside Latin America," would have done credit to any paper
in the state.

Jim-Dick plans to ask the City Commission for one more air raid siren. No doubt some of our newspapers will object about this additional expenditure of money, but after the Jap planes have ever, they'll object because we didn't get two more sirens.

Leon Henderson, price administrator, admits that some restriction in the 40-hour work day is necessary under war conditions. Having to work a half day for every pair means made after 40 hours of work naturally raises prices, which Mr. Henderson is supposed to hold in check.

The government is not yet sure how old men can be practical measures for collecting them have yet been decided. But it would be a good idea for all housewives to save any conceivable form of metal rubber they have, for the may soon come when the government will be asking for it back to use.

War came close to sunny Florida last week when a U. S. tank was sunk by a submarine in a few hours out of Jacksonville. One young fellow who was making his first trip to the state, came out of the narrow experience in which at least not their lives without a watch, says he is anxious to get back to sea.

Congratulations to Bill Green of the American Federation of Labor who says that Labor deserves special consideration for representatives under the Selective Service Act. As much as he said for newspapermen, the Florida Chain Stores Association
last week were asked, along with other trade associations, to make a contribution to help these employed in "essential" industries. We have no idea what newspapers are essential industries and that democratic government could not have asked us to do under the Selective Service Act.

A Fighting Speech

It was a none too happy picture of world conditions which President Roosevelt painted for his radio audience last night even as a Japanese submarine was shelling our Pacific coast, but it was immensely encouraging in that it was a fighting speech and one which showed plainly enough that the battle would be carried to the enemy and that this country would not be distracted from its main purpose despite sporadic raids on this side of the ocean and the claims of isolationists.

There are those, the President said, who would "pull our warships and our planes and our merchant ships into our own home waters and concentrate solely on last ditch defense . . . Now many of these same people, afraid that we may be sticking our necks out, want our national bird to be turned into a turtle. But we prefer to retain the eagle as it is—flying high and striking hard . . . We reject the turtle policy and will continue carrying the war to the enemy in distant lands and distant waters—as far as possible from our own home grounds."

To those civilians who have been wondering what they could do to help, to all Americans not actually engaged in the fighting, President Roosevelt laid down "three high purposes" for their guidance, as follows:

1. We shall not stop work for a single day. If any dispute arises we shall keep on working while the dispute is solved by mediation, conciliation or arbitration—until the war is won.

2. We shall not demand special gains or special privileges or advantages for any one group or occupation.

3. We shall give up conveniences and modify the routine of our lives if our country asks us to do so. We will do it cheerfully, remembering that the common enemy seeks to destroy every home and every freedom in every part of our land."

We understand that President Roosevelt's speech was carried to MacArthur's men fighting in the Philippines and we know they got a big kick out of his reply to the Axis propagandists who have been broadcasting over their radios that America is a nation of weaklings, of playboys who would hire British soldiers or Russian soldiers or Chinese soldiers to do our fighting for us."

"Let them repeat that now," said President Roosevelt in steel in his voice.

"Let them tell that to General MacArthur and his men."

"Let them tell that to the gallants who today are hitting hard in the far waters of the Pacific."

"Let them tell that to the boys in the flying fortresses."

"Let them tell that to the Marines!"

It was a fighting speech all the way through, the kind of a speech which the American public has been waiting to hear, the kind of a speech which could have brought little comfort to Hitler, Mussolini and Company. America's great industrial machine is under way, the President revealed, and our goal of 60,000 planes this year will not be reached. When that happens the last great battle will not be far away and that is the battle which we will win.

Hospital Benefit

Those who may wish to contribute to the Fernald-Laughton Memorial Hospital may do so, as well as enjoy an afternoon of entertainment, by attending the Woman's Club benefit party on Hospital Day Wednesday afternoon. This benefit is an annual occasion on Hospital Day and has resulted in many worthwhile improvements and additions to the supplies and equipment of the local hospital.

Despite repeated efforts to build a new hospital here, the Fernald-Laughton remains our sole means of securing hospitalization in this county of some 23,000 persons, and until this vital need for a new and more modern structure is met the Fernald-Laughton should continue to receive our unfaltering support to the end that its staff may serve the needs of our sick and injured as efficiently as possible.

Much can still be done to make the Fernald-Laughton a better place in which to get well. New beds, new surgical equipment, new supplies of all kinds would go a long way toward alleviating the suffering and hazards of those confined by illness or injuries to its care. The Woman's Club is performing a most creditable service by holding these annual benefits to raise funds for the hospital.

All But One

The sergeant strode into the squad room. "All right, you x% @!$ apes, fall out!" he exclaimed.

The soldiers grabbed their hats and swarmed out—all but one, who continued to lie on his bunk blowing smoke rings.

"Well," roared the sergeant.

"Well," remarked the rookie, "there were a lot of them, weren't there?" — The Northamptonian, Northampton, Mass.

Chain Stores Will Be Asked To Sell Citrus For Jap Assault

ORLANDO, Feb. 24.—(Special)—Answering an appeal from citrus growers and shippers, the Florida Chain Stores Association last week were asked, along with other trade associations, to make a contribution to help finance a national campaign to combat the citrus industry's chief enemy, the Japanese assault on Hawaii.

The announcement was made by C. E. Trexley, managing director of the chain store organization.

Appeals for a special sales campaign by chain stores came from Muri E. Pace, general manager of the United Growers and Shippers; C. C. Commandre, general manager of the Florida Citrus Exchange; and Arthur Walker, secretary of the Florida Citrus Producers Trade Association.

In asking for special efforts by chains to move a disastrous large surplus of mid-season oranges and grapefruits, Mr. Pace declared: "We have just received word from the exchange that the citrus situation has improved up to the point where

NEW YORK, Feb. 24. (WW) Choicest plums on Britain's or any fertile, lush land of 389,000,000 humans of assorted races and religions.

Japan is reaching hard for that plum. Already she has pushed her fist into Burma, gateway to India.

Meanwhile India argues, flound-ers. The Moslem minority is wants separate provinces for Moslems. The Hindus, who make up the majority have refused to go along with the majority of the Hindu Congress party. The Congress would like to take a vigorous stand at the side of the United Nations if only Britain would promise India her independence.

Japan, who has really reached Gandhi as its leader and chose him in place of Jawaharlal Nehru.

For three decades Nehru has been demanding a concrete promise of independence from Britain.

He has gotten promises, but all have contained what he considered to be catch clauses. Now he must decide whether to go ahead and join in the war on the Axis,
and with or without a promise.

Harkey-Southward Wedding Plans Told

Mrs. Rose Harkey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Harkey, has announced plans for her marriage to Ernest Southward, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Southward.

The wedding will be performed on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the First Methodist Church with the Rev. W. P. Buhman officiating. The bride will be given in marriage by her mother.

The bride will have for her maid-of-honor, her aunt, Mrs. R. C. Cole, and her maid-of-honor will be Miss Emmeline Thurston.

Bridesmaids include the Misses Esther Strange, Inez Williams and Myra Ann Southward. Little Mary Tanner will be the flower girl.

"Promise Me" and "At Dawnings" will be sung by Mrs. G. Fleming, accompanied by Mrs. J. L. McEvans organist, who will also render a program of nuptial music.

E. Morris will serve Mr. Southward at best man and ushers will be Bernard Herkis, Billy Southward, Roy Echols and Sheely Best.

Luncheon Is Given For Wedding Party

Miss Rose Harkey entertained at her home on French Avenue today with a luncheon for her wedding party.

The living and dining rooms were attractively decorated with a program of floating flowers and evidences of the approaching wedding were visible throughout.

The tables were setting featured a floral motif. Mink-trimmed bride and bridesmaids supported the place cards and an attractive flower arrangement formed the center piece.

After luncheon was served further plans for the approaching wedding were discussed. Miss Harkey was attractively dressed in navy blue with touches of white accentuating the filled flower of her gown.

Those attending were: the Misses Emmeline Thurston, Esther Strange, Inez Williams, Myra Ann Southward, junior and senior bridesmaids; little Mary Tanner, flower girl and Mrs. R. C. Cole, aunt of the bride, matron-of-honor; Miss Elizabeth Harkey who arrived by train from the West Coast, an hour prior to the occasion; Mrs. E.C. Simpson, Mrs. Ruth Abraham, and Mrs. L.S. Harkey.

Fed Cagers Have Some Fun with Tavares, Meet Leesburg Tonight

Sanford's on and off Celery Fed cagers, who have been running around considerably in the last couple of weeks, found themselves last night and wound up with an easy 23 to 16 triumph over Tavares in a tilt staged at Seminole High School. The Feds will seek their second victory over Leesburg here Saturday evening, May 24, which will start at 8:00 P.M. A game between the B squads of the two schools is slated to precede the varsity encounter.

Tavares simply "wasn't in the ball game" last night. The Bulldogs apparently left their shooting eyes and court generalship to home, and the Feds, never really pressed, had some fun for Forward Jack "Butterball" Herring played one of his best games for the locals. He was fighting hard throughout the fray and although he collected only four points, his ball handling techniques greatly aided his team.

Center Billie Piero, the high man for the Feds with right pointy also turned in his usual fine game.

Forward Charley "Dead-eye" Deen of Tavares didn't leave his basketball skill at home, however. Dosa's uncanny shooting was the only bright spot for the visitors. He made four field goals and four of his five foul shots clattered through the net to give him a total of 12 points.

The Feds jumped off to a 6 to 0 lead right at the start of the game, which was witnessed by a small crowd. They led at the half, 12 to 6, and at the end of the third quarter, 18 to 7. Strangely enough, when Coach L. L. McLucas sent his regulars back in the game mid-quarter, Tavares started its only drive, and it appeared likely for a few minutes that the Bulldogs might come up with the Feds. However, McLucas called a goal to remove the pressure about three minutes before the end of the tilt.

The line-ups:

SANFORD	TAVARES
Herring (4)	Dosa (12)
Dobbs (4)	St. Louis (2)
Brown (9)	Black (1)
Brock (5)	G. Wells (0)
Lyon (8)	G. Watson (0)
Subs: Sanford: Truluck (2),	Cleveland, Hicks, Brock; Tavares: Treadway, Pace (1), Lippen-cott.

Japs Threaten Australia, Hit At New Guinea

Enemy Drops Bombs On Java Harbor; Sharp Encounters Occur In Bataan

(By Associated Press) Japanese bombers struck again today at Port Moresby on the southern shore of New Guinea, less than 400 miles off the northeast tip of Australia. Australians reported they sighted a strong enemy war fleet off Dutch Timor, and acknowledged enemy paratroop landings near Koepang, 100 miles from the capital of Dutch Timor, 100 miles from the coast of Australia.

The government asked the opposition to agree to a joint statement of agreement until Mar. 5, so that the discussions can continue without interruption.

Australian defense authorities were determined to make the most of the time remaining to them:

They were paying particular attention to the Japanese forces in New Guinea. The Japs have been in that big island area for four weeks, and the fact that they now are operating fighter craft from occupied points is considered a clear indication that they rapidly are establishing formidable bases which could be used equally well against Australia and New Zealand.

Port Moresby, southern New Guinea's outpost less than 400 miles from the continent's north end, was attacked by both bombers and fighters Tuesday, with some damage to buildings but no hits on vital targets.

Sanford Women Aid U.S. Forces In War Effort

The field of women's war work in Sanford is said to be adequately serviced by the three organizations established here: Bundles for Britain and the American Red Cross. Mrs. A. W. Knox recalled this morning after attending a recent luncheon in Winter Park under the auspices of the Winter Park Chapter of Bundles for Britain,

It was decided at the luncheon meeting the organization of a Bundeis for America Chapter here would be overlapping with other groups, such as the Pioneers.

Mrs. Knox explained, "The Bundeis chapter was an auxiliary of Bundles for Britain, but now it is a branch of the Bundeis for America."

Mrs. Walter Latham, president of the Bundeis for America organization, was the honored guest at the meeting, which was attended by Mrs. L. D. Martin and Mrs. C. R. Kietley of Sanford. Mrs. Latham recently made a special trip to Washington to consult Navy officials concerning the need of the American organization. Mrs. Knox stated, As a result, the Navy Department has co-operated by establishing a War Department office in the building where the Bundeis for Britain is working with the Navy. The Bundeis for America Chapter will be an auxiliary of the Bundeis for Britain, but now it is a branch of the Bundeis for America.

The agreement was signed yesterday by Sumner Welles, acting secretary of State, and Lieutenant General Sir Archibald Sinclair, British ambassador.

U.S. And Britain Sign Agreement About Lease-lend

General Principles For Post War Settlements Arranged

(By Associated Press) An article in Le Nouvel Observateur said the influence of British propaganda and of United States Ambassador William D. Leahy were seen clearly in the broad obstructionist program in unoccupied France against re-operation with Germany.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25, 1942.—

The White House announced Tuesday that Great Britain and the United States had signed an agreement setting forth the general principles for the post war economic world and settlement of lend-lease accounts.

The agreement was signed only by the United States and Great Britain, it was specifically stated that all other nations may be some participants.

Bennie Nance, undersigned state, said that the new lend-lease documents was an extremely important instrument under authority granted to the President by the lend-lease act. As an executive agreement, he explained, it would not require ratification by the senate.

The document stated at the outset that it was the intention of the United States to continue supplying England with war materials under the lend-lease plan, and the Britain shall supply this country with such reciprocal aid and information as can give.

When the war is over such lend-lease implements as can be returned to this country shall be returned. If the United States wants to keep the lend-lease plan, it shall be such as not to burden commerce between the two countries, but to promote mutually advantageous economic relations between them and the termination of worldwide economic relations.

The objectives of the past were listed as:

Expansion of production, employment and the exchange and promotion of goods by appropriate international and domestic measures.

The elimination of all forms of discriminatory treatment in international commerce, and the reduction of tariffs.

General attainment of the economic objectives of the Atlantic charter.

The agreement was signed yesterday by Sumner Welles, acting secretary of State, and Lieutenant General Sir Archibald Sinclair, British ambassador.

Certificates Issued For Tires, And Tubes

Coordinator A. B. Peterson has issued certificates for 29 tires and 27 tubes recently according to an announcement at his office yesterday afternoon.

The list follows: Benny Williams, obsolete, four tires and four tubes; Evelyn Biggers, obsolete, two tires and two tubes; Howard C. Long, truck, two tires and two tubes; J. F. McClelland, truck, one tire and one tube; Irving Feinberg, obsolete, four tires and four tubes; George H. Hoge, obsolete, two tires and two tubes; William Harris, obsolete, one tire and one tube; H. A. Vaughn, obsolete, two tires and two tubes.

Also, C. W. Blow, obsolete, one tire; John E. Malcolm, obsolete, one tire; Mrs. Ben Smith, obsolete, two tires and two tubes; Gordon L. Shriner, obsolete, two tires and two tubes; George W. Johnson, obsolete, two tires and four tubes; and Leo M. Hamstrom, truck, one tire and one tube.

The local chapter was organized last night by Sumner Welles, acting secretary of State, and Lieutenant General Sir Archibald Sinclair, British ambassador.

The new organization will be an auxiliary of the Bundeis for America Chapter, which will be an auxiliary of the Bundeis for Britain, whose national commander is Jim Spencer.

Jim Spencer Is In Naval Reserve

Evans (Jim) Spencer, left last week for the United States Naval Training Station, where he will receive his basic training for the Naval Reserve.

Mr. Spencer was born in Sanford, and is a graduate of the Sanford High School. He has been a member of the University Club for many years, and has been connected with the Spencer family since he was born.

The local chapter was organized last night by Sumner Welles, acting secretary of State, and Lieutenant General Sir Archibald Sinclair, British ambassador.
