Smith, Former Rider, o Out Of Run With Shoulder Injury

MIAMI, Feb. 22.—(F)—Danking Don Meside, long one of the top jockeys at Hislash park and as old favorits of Owney E. R. Bradley, drew the prized as. aignment of riding highly favored Bimelech in the $50,000 Widener stake Saturday.

An old shoulder injury has been bothering F. A. Smith, who urged the big hay to his great triumphs as a two-year-old and a three-year-old, and a change in riders was decided upon.

change in riders was decided upon.

Meade was the natural choice. He won the 1933 Kentucky derby for Bradley with Broker's Tip, and the elderly sportsman long has liked Meade's heady horse handling.

Bimelech and Meade got acquainted with each other last Su t u r d ay. The combination scored with case in a $2500 trial race. The victory was one of 40 for Meade in the first 43 days of the Hisleah meeting.

Only young jockey to crash the select group of those entrusted with mounts in the hig stake was Lilliputian Comm Mc-Creary, a recent graduate from apprentice ranks.

He will handle the Weedvale farm's Haltal, which got in a low weight of 108 pounds—to 126 for Bimmy—and will carry, a wad of longshot money.

His unexpectedly semantional showing at Hallesh was the chance for McCreary.

Bulgaria's adherence to the Rome-Berlin-Tokyo axis might, on first thought, appear to be another of a long series of reverses for the British, but a closer consideration of the actual situation would seem to vitiate the Balkan The Art nation's action.

It is recognized that Italy's apparently feeble efforts in Africa have been in part due to the critical lack of oll for her airplanes, her tanks, and her navy. And it must be apparent that any interruption of a free flow of vital oil supplies to Germany might easily spell the collapse of that country's very formidable military establishment.

A negative approach, possibly, but while acting as though personal libertles had been removed, 450 students had an opportunity to understand more intimately the libertles guaranteed them under America's Bill of Rights.

That it was difficult for these students to see the full implications of actually living in a dictatorship is understandable; It is grim fear that keeps the tragedy going in dictatorships; obviously such fear was lacking in these American youths. They laurind as abrupt and ruthless decisions were handed out.

While it had its lighter moments, this attempt to give routiffl Americans a more articulate grasp of the fundamentals of democratic living was significant. NO. 28
DEDUCTION FOR TRAVELING EXPENSES
To obtain a deduction for traveling expenses, which form an important item in the returns of many taxpayers, certain regulations must be observed. The taxpayer is required to attach to his return a statement showing the nature of husiness in which engaged, number of days away from home during the taxable year on account of business, total amount of expense incidental to meals and lodging, and total amount of "other typenses" incident to travel and claimed as a deduction. Among the "other expenses" are tips, provided they are reasonable in amount.

Traveling expenses are deducin amount.

Traveling expenses are deductible only when the trip is on business. They are limited to such expenses as are reasonable and necessary in the conduct of the business and directly attributable to it.

Traveling expenses incurred in connection with a journey to another city to accept or seek employment are not deductible. Suburbanites who commute daily from their homes to their places of tusiness are not permitted to deduct the cost of transportation, it being a personal expense.

Claims for deduction for traveling expenses must be substantiated, when required by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, showing in detail the amount and nature of the expenses incurred.
