Jury Charges Collazo With Guard Murder

Puerto Rican Assassin Accused Of Killing Guard While Trying To Murder Truman

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10—(AP)—A federal grand jury today indicted Oscar Collazo, 37-year-old Puerto Rican, for murder in connection with the Nov. 1 attempt on President Truman's life.

The charge is based on the killing of Leslie Coffelt, 40, White House guard, when Collazo and Griselio Torresola tried to shoot their way into Blair House, the President's temporary residence.

Torresola was killed in the rain of bullets from guards which felled Collazo with wounds in the chest and shoulder.

Conviction of murder carries the possibility of a death sentence in the District of Columbia.

From the stories of eye-witnesses, there is some evidence that Torresola actually shot Coffelt, but under District of Columbia law when two or more persons engaged in a felony and kill someone, all are considered equally liable to charges of murder.

The grand jury's four-count indictment charged the Puerto Ricans went to Blair House "with intent to murder the President of the United States, who was then within said dwelling and building."

The additional counts charged the two with felonious assault on the Blair House guard detail and on members of the Secret Service assigned there to guard the life of the President.

Finally, there was the charge that Coffelt was murdered.

The grand jury presented its indictment before U. S. Judge Edward A. Tamm who earlier this week appointed three attorneys for Collazo after being advised that the Puerto Rican is without funds.

The grand jury indictment described the assault on Blair House thus:

"On or about Nov. 1, 1950, at and within the District of Columbia, Oscar Collazo and Griselio Torresola (since deceased) attempted to perpetrate a homicide on the President of the United States."

San Bernardino Is Damaged By Fire; Winds Help Blaze

Six-Hour Fight Brings Holocaust Under Partial Control

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif., Nov. 10—(AP)—Hundreds fled their homes in the darkness today as a fire swept by 50-mile-an-hour winds threatened much of the city's northern residential sector.

Firemen said it was almost out after a six-hour fight.

At one point, police reported hundreds of homes burning, while pajama-clad residents—many of them women and children—played garden hoses on roofs. But as dawn came, only one home on a hilltop appeared a complete loss.

A half-dozen others were badly damaged and spot burn and charred paint showed on many more.

A two-mile strip, several blocks wide in places, but largely brushland near the foothills was blackened.

The fire department reported 11 men injured as a result of the flames and the high winds. Most of them suffered facial cuts and eye injuries from flying debris and embers.

All were given emergency treatment, and none of the injuries was described as serious.

So fierce was the wind that the point was blasted off one U. S. Forest Service truck.

"Sometimes you couldn't even see the fire, the dust was so bad," one fireman related. And another observed: "I hate to think what would have happened if this thing had got away from us. The whole town might have gone up."

Pickets Begin Nerve War In Phone Strike

Equipment Workers Use "Push Button" Techniques To Hit More Effectively

NEW YORK, Nov. 10—(AP)—Striking telephone equipment workers abruptly withdrew picket lines from some exchanges across the country today in an apparent launching of a new "push button" strike tactic.

Idea of the strategy was developed by union spokesmen who sought to bypass picketing concentration lines in some places, not in others, and picketing on some days and not on other days.

The strike, called yesterday by the U. O. Communication Workers of America to endorse demands for a "substantial" least a 50% wage increase from the Western Electric Company, allowed long distance service because operators refuse to cross picket lines. Local service generally was not affected.

The union, which represents 175,000 Western Electric employees, rejected a company offer of about 11% in a home additional in wages. Present wages average $4.55 to $4.62 an hour. The union has not disclosed its specific wage demands. Length of contract also is an issue.

First indication of the start of the new strike technique came when pickets suddenly left telephone buildings in Dallas, Tex., Denver, and Newark and other New Jersey cities. Pickets also failed to show up in Springfield, Mass., and other Massachusetts communities.

"We don't know what it means," said a Southwestern Bell Telephone official in Dallas. "We understand they will allow the other workers to be on the job today, and then maybe stop them again tomorrow."

He called the plan a "war of nerves."

As part of the plan, union spokesmen have said they intend to use noise, using 100 megaphones to concentrate on certain areas on certain days. There also will be "manned" local pickets. (Continued on Page Three)

Cold Wave Slows Down But Is Due To Arrive Sunday

Forecast For Tomorrow Florida To Be Brought and Saturday Mostly Cloudy

Forecast for tomorrow Florida to be brought and Saturday mostly cloudy with occasional light rain and cooler to north and central and cooler to south in the southern districts.

Forecast for Saturday, Florida to be cloudy with a few scattered light showers. Cooler in north and central and cooler to south in the southern districts.

The southeastern advance of the cold air mass has slowed down considerably. Therefore, there will be some delay in the cold air reaching Florida. Indications are for colder in all districts Saturday night, frost and freezing temperatures in northern districts, and light risk of frost in central districts.

The Federal State Frost Warning Service at Lakeland said there was no frost danger for tonight and tomorrow, although it will be good to get colder in north Florida tomorrow.

In addition to probable frost and freezing temperatures in north Florida Sunday morning, there is a "slight risk of frost" in central districts, the morning temperature bulletin said.

Council Is Asked To Order Chinese Red Withdrawal

United States And 5 Other Nations Demand U. N. Action

LAKELAND, Nov. 10—(AP)—The United States and five other nations formally demanded today that the United Nations Security Council call for the immediate withdrawal of Chinese Communist forces from Korea.

A resolution was circulated to council members shortly before a council meeting for 3 P. M. The proposal also reaffirmed previous U. N. appeals for all countries to refrain from aiding the North Korean Communists.

In addition to the United States, other sponsors of the proposal were Britain, France, Cuba, Norway and Ecuador. With the expected support of Nationalist China, the resolution was virtually assured the necessary seven-vote majority.

It was generally believed, however, that Russia would use the veto and throw the whole case over to the veto-free General Assembly under the newly adopted Acheson plan for meeting agreement.

The Council has invited Red China to send a representative here to explain why Chinese Communist troops are in Korea, but the United States and some other delegates were anxious to go ahead with debate without waiting for the Peking representative to arrive.

High Court Decision Orders Railroad To Halt Segregation

High School Sales Are Reported Good

The Supreme Court today ordered a railroad to halt segregation in its passenger cars.

The decision was handed down in a case involving the Southern Railway Co. and the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The court ruled that the railroad's segregation policy violated the Interstate Commerce Act.

The decision is expected to have a significant impact on the desegregation of public facilities in the South.

Mr. Gut appeared before the County Commission yesterday and in addition to a request for a regular $6,000 annual donation to the Chamber of Commerce, asked an additional $500 which is to be used by the Industrial Committee to bring new industries to Seminole County. The Commission approved both requests.

Mississippi's Faulkner, Britain's Russell Are Given Nobel Awards

Stoekholm, Sweden, Nov. 10—(AP)—American novelist William Faulkner and British philosopher Bertrand Russell were awarded Nobel Literatures today for 1949 and 1950.

The Swedish Academy elected Faulkner, of Oxford, Miss., as winner of the 1949 prize, withheld last fall. This year's prize was given to 78-year-old Russell, internationally famed philosopher, mathematician and moralist.

The winners were selected from among more than 50 candidates. They will receive the awards from the new Swedish King, Gustaf VI, when the Nobel Foundation celebrates its 50th anniversary Dec. 10.

This year's prize money totals 164,300 krona ($31,715), while the sum frozen last year totalled 164,225 krona ($30,007).

This was the first time two full literary prizes had been awarded simultaneously.

Body Of Seminole Hero Osceola May Be Returned To Everglades

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10—(AP)—South Carolina soon may be asked to give up the remains of Osceola, Seminole Indian hero, to his native Florida.

Osceola, who angered the United States by stalling his knife through a treaty when asked to sign it, died in prison at Fort Moultrie in January, 1838.

Now 112 years later, an interested group of Floridians led by Mrs. Elie Huguenin of Lakeland, Senator Holland and Rep. Peterson, Florida Democrats, and various women's organizations, want Osceola's remains reinterred in the peninsula state.

Peterson on a visit to Washington gathered pertinent information which he told a reporter he

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

If we slip into a church on week days to pray, God will be there by appointment. You may feel the presence of His presence; He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.—Psalm 91:1.

You will confirm yourself in your faith by expressing it. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made of salvation.—Romans 10:10.

You better get used to that name "Impeller" for he is going to be mayor of New York for the next two years at least.

We are sorry we misplaced the pre-election forecast of Drew Pearson as we would like to have explored this subject further in the light of election returns. Suffice it to say that as a crystal-gazer Pearson compares favorably with Dr. Gallup's 1948 predictions.

Senator Bob Taft didn't win by just a little bit in Ohio; he won by a whopping margin of over 430,000 votes. With organized Labor making the biggest fight against him it ever made against anybody in the history of this country, and with Ohio being a strongly industrialized state where a united labor vote can control elections, this surprise victory of Taft ran man but one thing. The rank and file of labor unions vote as free American citizens and can be controlled and voted like sheep by labor bosses.

Who is the best Republican prospect for President in 1952? That is what everybody is asking as they study the returns showing that Governor Dewey won handily in New York, Taft in Ohio, and Warren in California, all big men, all pivotal states. Two likely contenders not tested in Tuesday's voting were General Eisenhower and Harold Stassen. The former says he is not available and may be exiled to Europe. The latter has not been tested at the polls since he ran for governor of Minnesota ten years ago. And who will the Democrats put up? Well, after Tuesday election Truman may decide that nearly two terms is enough for any man.

We wonder if our political leaders in Washington realize that there are over 400,000,000 people in China, about three times as many as there are in this country. That China has an army of about five million men, most of whom are veterans and many seasoned under fire in the war with Japan, that China, though lacking in industries itself, is being supplied with arms and planes by Russia, and this overland, whereas the United States must ship every man and every ounce of supplies three thousand miles by water. What our pitifully small one hundred thousand man army in Korea could do against these vast hordes is depressing to contemplate. And how long will it take to raise the number even to 200,000?

Interesting things are beginning to happen in Florida politics. The former chairman of the State Democratic Committee is actually ousted from office as sheriff of Volusia county by our very Democratic Governor Fuller Warren. The man who succeeded Littlefield as chairman of the committee, Judge Donnell of West Palm Beach, is defeated for the office of state senator by a write in protest vote, and in Pinellas county 14 Republican candidates for county offices were elected in the great Republican landslide in that area since Reconstruction Days. The time is running out when the Democrats can do anything and get away with it. But where they have men in office like Holland, Smathers and Harlow, they have nothing to fear.

The Search For Peace

Recognized as the day of a war's end, Armistice Day once was supposed to be the beginning of peace. Now we know that the end of war is not automatically the start of peace, that something else needs to be done in order to prevent a complete end of fighting. The combatants realized themselves and went on in something called a "cold" war to differentiate it from the late "hot" war. It has not been easy, these last few months, to tell the difference.

What needs to be done to gain peace? Perhaps it is to put the same trust in the instruments of peace as in the armistice. It is no simple thing to carry out an armistice after long years of war; precisely timed instructions must go to each battle front, and on each side there must be complete trust that the armistice terms will be carried out to the letter by the other side. That trust and that careful fulfillment of terms are necessary to make an armistice work. They are equally necessary to make an armistice work. Why have we found them for armistice, yet lack them for peace?

Bound By Fear

A person who is secure and unafraid is never a bully. Fear and insecurity give rise to boastful, aggressive, violent acts designed to cover a basic lack of resources. This fact was in the mind of Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge when he recently made his maiden speech before the United Nations. The Senator's message to the Soviet leaders was: "Stop being afraid". Pointing out the dangers in a situation dominated by fear, he predicted a not-far-distant future when fear would disappear and a quiet and peaceful world result.

The Russians have constructed a bogey and named it United States. Their false notions about our philosophy and our motives have led them to believe that because we are big and resourceful we mean no good to the world. They believe that our affirmations of good intent are as false as their own. If it were possible for the men in the Kremlin to meet the other members of the United Nations on a basis of trust and understanding, their fears should vanish. Unfortunately there is small doubt that Senator Lodge's adjuration will fall upon deaf ears.

Higher Food Prices

Those who complain about present food prices haven't seen anything yet. The Department of Agriculture is authority for the prediction that by the middle of 1951 the prices may reach an all-time high. It's all because people eat so much, says the Department. It says there will be an increase in food supplies next year, but not enough to keep pace with increased appetites, for which the defense boom gets credit. Hence prices will be higher.

This simple explanation is not quite adequate, since the law of supply and demand is no longer permitted to control food prices. The point that people are expected to go on eating more is well put, however. Food prices bring cries of protest, and mention of price supports brings a disgusted nod of the head, but fewer Americans are eating what they like.

NEW YORK—We have come upon the one time of year when it is virtually impossible to disregard Central Park. In the winter, the weekends are for sleeping and getting over hangers and in the summer there are baseball games or Bucks county to take up a New Yorker's time. But in the autumn, in the autumn, the leaves begin to turn and fall, a phenomena that must be seen if one is to do autumn up right. And it is a well-known fact that except for a few rugged but forlorn specimens along East 85th street, there are no trees in New York except those in Central Park.

It is the time of year that is kindest to the old bat, too. Most of the time, Central Park looks as if it had just got up in the morning and hasn't taken the pin curlers from its hair.

This holds true especially in the springtime, when the sloping hills are awash with dirty snow, the trees still are bare and there is more mud on hand than the doughboys ever saw at Boissons or the GIs at Cassino.

In the autumn, however, most of the leaves are still on the trees, thus covering up the enormous number of bare patches on the park's ground, and since the weather is cool the citizens no longer pad around on the grass and leave their gigantic residue of old newspapers and banana peels.

There is, indeed, a certain amount of charm to the old bat and for a little while the New Yorker can hold up his head and get right into the conversation when the Parisian talks of the Bois de Boulogne or the Londoner of Hyde Park.

From the standpoint of the builder, Central Park undoubtedly resembles a huge, festering sore. Here is this big, sprawling plot of ground—barren except for such inconsequential items as zoos, museums, lakes and star-crossed lovers sitting on benches—going to waste when countless apartment developments might be thrown up on it. Without a doubt, the park is the most valuable piece of undeveloped—if that is the word—property in New York.

EVERY SO OFTEN, MY DECADENT EASTERN WAY of living fouls up my sense of proportion. You know, you can't go on eating opium, burning the candle at both ends and forgetting the simpler things of life indefinitely.

So it was the other day when, overlooking the man's basic magnetism and sheer animal attraction, I was so unfortunate as to poke heavy-handed fun at Vaughan Monroe, a band leader.

Among the screams of protest was one from Curt Gibson, a Shelbyville, Ind., radio announcer and disc jockey. "Of course," Curt conceded, "Vaughan is not as high class, maybe, as some other musicians (Ed. note—of course not) but he has succeeded in pleasing the masses, so he must have some appeal for us common folk."

I will admit my audacity, but not the brilliance of Curt's reasoning. William Shakespeare rarely pleased the masses and Edgar A. Guest almost always did.

This should mean that Edgar was a better writer than William, but I know a half-dozen hookies who will give you up to 100 to 1 against that one and insure your bet besides. Let us just say that a great many people are fond of the muscular Mr. Monroe and that I am not. It is that simple.

IT IS ENTIRELY POSSIBLE that the most unpoplar man in the east these days is a gent named Jacob Roper. Mr. Roper is the dog catcher for the town of Hempstead on Long Island, and as such has built up a reputation over the years that is rather dazzling.

His salary, you see, is based on the number of dogs he rounds up—piece work, so to speak—and Mr. Roper is forced into what may be an unnecessarily grim determination in his efforts, to pay the rent and keep the inner man fed.

It has been reported reliably that at one time his salary for a year exceeded that of the district attorney for Nassau county, in which area Hempstead is.

OBSCURE OF THE WALDORF, that legendary figure who supervised the Waldorf-Astoria's cuisine for more than 50 years, celebrated his 80th birthday up at New Paltz, N. Korean

Bombers and jet fighters carrying half-ton bombs smashed at Red supply lines near and south of the Yalu River boundary of Communist Manchuria.

American and Red jet fighters engaged in two flashing chases near the major red crossing point—the northwest border town of Sinuiju. No losses on either side were reported.

U. S. jets destroyed eight enemy tanks and damaged two in Red territory south and southeast of Sinuiju. Twenty-five trucks and other vehicles were destroyed and seven trucks damaged.

The puzzling lull in the ground action continued into its fifth day. There was only patrol action and minor skirmishing.

Inland from the east coast, the U. S. Marines observed the 175th Infantry of the Corps by rolling and unrolling tanks in a series of miles of the vital Changjin power dam. It was a gain of six miles.

There was no opposition. Abandoned packs indicated the haste of the Chinese retreat.

A U. S. First Corp. spokesman said the day's greatest advance—likewise unopposed—was registered by the South Korean Capital Division in the far northeast—11 miles thrust north of Kibong.

That's about 75 miles south of the Manchurian border. Elsewhere across the peninsula the Allies met the other members of the United Nations on a basis of trust and understanding, their fears should vanish.

A U. S. Eighth Army spokesman reported the Chinese appeared to be establishing a defensive line of the mountains. He added that they had taken some 100,000 tons of aerial and artillery fire.

An estimate of some 60,000 Chinese Red troops just across the Yalu river border in Communist Manchuria was revised upward to 300,000 by the spokesman.

General MacArthur's spokesman estimated Thursday 60,000 Chinese and 100,000 Koreans faced United Nations forces south of the Yalu in Korea.

Communist China radio broadcasts called the Chinese troops "volunteers."

The world anxiously awaited the U. N. security council's action on a resolution demanding that Red China withdraw its troops.

The U. S. State Department indicated that visas be issued to non-Chinese Communist agents, recently given en route to Lake Success for discussions of their charges of American aggression against Peking.

However, the U. S. asked that charges of China's intervention in the Korean conflict be taken up Friday—ahead of the Chinese delegations' arrival.

MacArthur's intelligence spokesman in Tokyo said the Chinese are continuing to cross the boundary in the rear of United Nations American F-80 jet fighter-bombers struck heavily at a major crossing point—a rail-highway bridge spanning the Yalu at bombarded Sinuiju in extreme northwest Korea.

The U. S. Fifth Air Force reported a direct hit on the bridge with a 1,000-pound general purpose bomb.

No mention was made of any hits on a newer railway bridge across the Yalu at Sinuiju. Both spans were targets in Wednesday's massive B-29 raid that virtually wiped out Sinuiju. U. S. Navy carrier planes made a follow-up attack on the two bridges Thursday and reported direct hits.

No Red fighter plane opposition was reported at Sinuiju, but American B-29s were attacked two miles to the northeast in a raid on Ulleung on the south bank of the Yalu.

High Court

While the case was pending before the commission, Southern Railway adopted a plan for partitioning off a section of its dining car for use of Negro travelers, and the ICC approved the arrangement.

This, however, was upset by the Supreme Court ruling against segregation practices in interstate commerce.

The ICC's order today carried out the court edict by directing Southern in the future not to refuse or deny dining car service to any person because of race when a dining car with an unoccupied seat or seats is available.

Shirley S. Alderman, vice president and general counsel for Southern said in a statement that the company "already has complied with the Supreme Court decision."

The Southern, on July 1, 1950, he said, "voluntarily ceased and desisted from the practices which the Supreme Court disapproved."

Since that date, passengers seeking dining car service are being seated at vacant seats in the diners in the order of their entrance, and no passenger seeking dining car service during the meal hour is refused such service when there is a vacant seat.

Alderman described this as "in full keeping with the order issued by ICC today."

Mennen Williams Goes Into Lead In Michigan Election

(Continued From Page One) Detroit, Nov. 10.—Mennen Williams, 59-year-old Democrat first term, edged into a lead of more than 300 votes today as a barrage of election errors and reversals by county canvassers cut the lead of Republican Harry F. Kelly.

It appeared that Williams' lead now is 343 to 327 votes, depending on how you figured it.

On the basis of one official tabulation of semi-official and unofficial returns from the counties Williams had a margin of 21 votes.

However, due to a peculiar method of tabulating the unofficial returns in Detroit the exact margin could not be determined.

Official election counters in Detroit long ago gave up attempting to keep totals for the two candidates.

Instead, they began reviewing their figures as canvassers were found on the basis of how they affected Kelly's lead.

Thus Williams appeared to have a net gain of approximately 180 votes over the actual statewide tabulation.

The actual tabulation gave Williams 344,228 votes to 327,471 for Kelly.

Proponents of the state were accused other municipalities, usually officially, but the major opposition in the county lay in the number of errors going uncorrected in the county canvassing teams were to seek across the state.

With the count so close and the margin of error so apparent in some areas a recount became a virtual certainty. However, neither Williams nor Kelly was ready to demand the official canvass about 30 days from now.

A further confusing factor was the fact that the entire vote in Republican Plymouth Township of Wayne County may be invalid. The would seat Kelly 280 more votes.

Arthur L. Robbins, chief of the Wayne county prosecutor's election division said, however, charged that the township election board did not require voters to sign ballots applications before voting.

Unions Call For End Of Ku Klux Violence

(CONWAY, S. C., Nov. 10.—49) Leaders of 22 unions have appealed to the federal government to halt Ku Klux Klan violence in South Carolina's Tobacco county.

Union officials in both South Carolina and North Carolina urged federal intervention. U. S. Attorney General J. Howard McGrath for immediate action to prevent further night-riding disorders.

Their action followed the disclosure by officers that Ku Kluxers had hounded a bedridden white farmer and forced his two sons to run a quarter of a mile in their underwear.

Officers said the masked and hooded Klansmen forced their way Tuesday night into the home of 82-year-old Rufus Lee, roused him from his sick bed, drove him off in an automobile, and beat whipped him.

Sinuiju Is Completely Destroyed By Precise U. S. Air Force Bombing

(By HAI HOYLE) In this age of power, and speed, the death can be as swift as it is terrible.

That was the way it was at Sinuiju. Yesterday it was a city of 100,000 lying on the Korean side of the Yalu River bordering Manchuria, Korea.

It was noon when the growing rumble of the approaching U. S. superforts gave the first warning of doom.

By 12:30, over 90 per cent of this Communist city lay in ruins. It was ripped and burned by more than 500 tons of fire bombs and high explosives.

My window for this awesome show was a plate-glass canopy of a training section of the F-80 shooting star jet.

It was piloted by Capt. William J. Egan, Norwich, Conn., aide to Maj. General Earle E. Partridge, U. S. Fifth Air Force Commander.

Flying between 500 and 600 miles an hour, this was what we saw.

The land lay wrinkled and lashed to me the whole situation seemed like a nightmare out of a horror story.

Business there below me was a river that crossed the Yalu—boundary between North Korea and Communist China's Manchuria. But it could also be called the Kaw.

The Kaw is a river that divides two states and two cities, but not two worlds. The Kaw is a tributary of the Missouri River. That separates Kansas swam slowly through flak to kill this town of Sinuiju, the focus point for the enemy.

They had to stay within a narrow line to do it. They did it with the skill of any other artisan who knows his tools and his trade.

At 12:07 the first flight of B-29 superforts let go with what they had brought. The bombs fell at the northeast edge of the city.

Flight by flight the bombers let go. Step by step the city below was destroyed.

The clay walls fell apart in the heat. The straw roofs burned. The wood flamed.

And the people died or fled.

Winless Sanford And New Smyrna Tangle Tonight

Determined Celery-feds Will Try For 1st Win Of Season

Local football interests will turn to New Smyrna tonight where the Seminole High School Celery Feds take on the Buccaneers in an effort to break into the win column for the first time this season.

Both teams have been victorious until the conference this season and should go all-out to take their first conference win. New Smyrna has dropped two conference titles as compared to Sanford's three.

The Feds should stage a good fight tonight after having two weeks practice behind them. They have showed up well in reorganizing this week and should present an offensive problem, being stronger tonight than any time since their season opened with Ocala.

Clarence Clause, regular left halfback who has been absent from the Fed squad in their last two appearances, has returned to the team and with Ed Gordon, Frankie Stratton and Martin Taylor will round out the Fed backfield to bring it up to the strength possessed prior to Frankie Stratton's injury in the opening contest.

Elsewhere around the conference for tonight's contests are: Kettering vs. Daytona Beach for a tilt with the local crabs. Palatka, the conference champs, journey to Jacksonville to meet Edehon High in a non-conference game. Highland returned at home last night to meet the Yellow Jackets of Leesburg in another non-conference bout.

The Feds' probable starting line-up for tonight's game which is slated to get underway at 8:00 P. M. is as follows:

Name	Position
Terry Coffell	center
Jack Schirard	right guard
Herman Swagerty	right tackle
Kenneth Gano	right end
Martin Taylor	quarter back
Clarence Clause	left halfback
Frankie Stratton	right halfback
Ed Gordon	fullback

Waitkus Is Named First Baseman Of Year For Comeback

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—(AP)—To Eddie Waitkus, slinky first baseman of the Philadelphia Phillies, goes the title of "comeback king" of 1950. And it was a story of courage in its rawest form.

The award was not given to Edward Stephen Waitkus because he had hit 254 last summer. It was because he was the best fielding first baseman in the league. Rather, it was given because of his determination to win the biggest battle of all: the battle for life.

Straight from the Horse's Mouth

By ED HARPER

Inebus Jones, Herald football star, dropped his weekly forecast on our desk and silently slipped away. Well he might after pecking only six out of ten in last week's predictions. Inebus now has 15 out of 20 or a 75 percent average. Some of his weekly claims will be bettered after this week.

No shrinking violet, Jones gives in when other forecasters fear to look and picks the winless Sanford Celery Feds to beat New Smyrna in the upset of the week. Inebus' opinion on the matter is based on his own observations. He thinks the Buccaneers will be in better condition than at any other time this season.

Jones took a long hard look at the Sanford Florida State article before picking the Seminoles to squeak by the Buccaneers but it may be close. FFB has won every game so far. However, its heavy line looked far from impressive against a mediocre and inexperienced Newsmar two weeks ago. The Indians had better be up for this.

Inebus' Lead Pipe Chuck is Miami over Louisville. The Kentucky team will be lucky to score on Louisville's unbeaten, undefeated Hurricanes. Although the odds are against Miami, the Hurricanes should win by 30 or 40 points in their last battle.

Up in Jacksonville the traditional game of the year between Georgia and Florida comes close to being a toss-up. Either team could win, but the heavier, more experienced Georgia line will probably give the Bulldogs a cupped Florida team will again have to depend almost solely on the ball game. Miami first string backfield is out with injuries. The Hurricanes should win by 30 or 40 points in their last battle.

Looking in on the campaigning Kentucky Wildcats the Herald prognosticator figures them 20 points better than a hapless Mississippi State team. Florida, which has a record of 10-0, is a sure bet to win. Since an early season upset victory over Tennessee, Parilla's deceptive ball handling and peerless passing in a rough combination to beat when shielded by the young and rangy Kentucky line. Big Bob Gain looks like a surefire All-American after last week's performance against the Gators.

Three beaten LSU, goes to Nashville to take on a rejuvenated Vanderbilt. The Commodores are still in the conference race, having lost only to Florida and should win if the Wade-Gaitis passing combination is clicking. But the Bengals have been coming back with a rush and this one could also be close.

Mike Wheeler, left guard and spark plug of the Fed line. A junior this year, he has been outstanding on the Fed squad and will be the starting line-up against the Buccaneers in New Smyrna tonight.

Marusic Leads In Five Times Beaten Savannah Tourney With 1st Round 64

SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 10.—(AP)—Milton Marusic of Albany, N. Y., led the field in the $10,000 Savannah Open Golf Tournament today after blanning out an opening round of 64, eight under par. At the same time, the assistant pro of Wolfert's Root Country Club broke the course competitive record in yesterday's third round.

Marusic was four strokes up on his nearest competitor, Bob Gould of Detroit. Doug Ford of Rochester, N. Y., and Tommy Bolt of Durham, N. C. The three trailed 68's.

In a three-way tie for third place were George Faris of Washington, D. C., Willie Grogan of White Plains, N. Y., and Fred Lee of St. Andrews, Ill., deadlocked with 69's.

Savannah amateur holds McLaughlin pulled the spotlight from several more widely known amateurs passing in a rough combination to beat when shielded by the young and rangy Kentucky line. Big Bob Gain looks like a surefire All-American after last week's performance against the Gators.

Three beaten LSU, goes to Nashville to take on a rejuvenated Vanderbilt. The Commodores are still in the conference race, having lost only to Florida and should win if the Wade-Gaitis passing combination is clicking. Gators To Depend On Aerial Attack Against Bulldogs

Heavier Georgia Line Gives Bulldogs Advantage On Ground

GAINESVILLE, Nov. 10.—(Special)—The "on paper" figures of past Florida and Georgia football accomplishments indicate the Gators will have the passing advantage and must concede the running edge to the Bulldogs when the two outfits clash before an expected sell-out crowd of more than 30,000 in Jacksonville Saturday.

Statistically, Florida's sophomore quarterback Hayward Sullivan was out front in the aerial department and Georgia's senior left halfback Billy Dixon holds a commanding lead on the ground.

Mixon, who was defeated by Alabama's Coach Red Drew as the most shattering runner Alabama has had this year, has posted an average of 5.2 yards per play in seven games. The 185 pound 120 Georgia boy has gained 428 yards on 82 running plays.

Florida's best approach to that on the ground is the 251 figure halfback Billy Redell has run up 60 tries for an average of 6.4 yards.

The Bulldogs have four ball carriers who have netted more than 100 yards each this year. In addition to Dixon, they are fullback Fred Bilyeu (172), fullback Luke Brunson (104) and halfback Lauren Hargrove.

The Gators also have four who have topped the 100-yard mark, but one of them, halfback Loren Brodus, will miss the Georgia game because of the shoulder injury that kept him out of the game and Kentucky clashes.

Other than top runner Billy Redell, the Gators who have run for upward of 100 yards this fall are fullback Floyd Huggins (335), halfback Sammy Dosterbrook (189) and halfback Loren Brodus (133).

Hurricanes Meet Revenge-Seeking Louisville Cards

Miami Is Favored By Twenty Points In Last Easy Contest

CORAL CABLES, Nov. 10.—(Special)—University of Miami's Hurricanes are ready as their perusing injuries will permit for their battle with offensive minded University of Louisville in the Orange Bowl Friday night. This Hurricane team has an opportunity of accomplishing something which none of its predecessors has been able to do, win its first seven games.

Though the Hurricanes are overwhelming favorites to win the game despite the loss of their ace quarterback Jack Hackett and injuries which have handicapped such offensive stars as Frank Smith, Bob Schneiderback, MacVean, Ralph Feler, Al Campbell, Ted Boynton and Harold Allen, the strength of the Cardinal attack could give the Hurricanes plenty of trouble.

The Cards have speed and power in their attack and have been rolling along at a close to four spite a flock of fumbles and untimely penalties. Since Coach Andy Gustafson has been forced to revamp his defense almost as much as his offense this week, some weak spots could show up in the Hurricane armor.

First Tom Lucia, Louisville's high scoring Little All American backs the chief breakthrough threat of the invaders but he gets potent help from Leonard Ray, John Brewer, Jim Williams and Bill Pence.

Though the Cards have shown defensive weakness at times this season, there is no assurance that the revamped Hurricane backfield can run wild against the Cardinals who have two important goals in this game beside the major one of scoring the greatest.

The passing comparison of the two teams shows Florida's Hayward Sullivan with 92 completions and 4 interceptions on 110 attempts that have gained 717 yards and eight touchdowns. The Green Wave had lost three interceptions on 47 passes for a gain of 427 yards and no touchdowns.

The 24th meeting of the Gators and Bulldogs in Jacksonville's Orange Bowl Stadium will be staged before a sell-out audience of some 30,000 folks. The kickoff is at 2:30 o'clock.

California Meets UCLA, Wisconsin Plays Buckeyes For Rose Bowl Bid

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—(AP)—If it were a prize fight, the authorities wouldn't allow it. But it's football, so harmless little New Mexico will take popcorn potatoes tomorrow at mighty top-ranking Army.

The odds makers refuse even to quote figures on this bantam-heavyweight match at West Point's Michie Stadium. Dudley Deagard's Lobos have won two games and lost five by top rated scores. Army, riding a 26 game unbeaten streak, has crushed six foes.

The spotlight then shifts from the No. 1 team in the country to the middle west and Pacific Coast where titanic struggles are expected to clarify the Rose Bowl picture.

The headline attraction is at Berkeley, Calif., where the unbeaten, untied Golden Bears of California clash with the single game victors of UCLA.

Pappy Waldorf's California have accumulated 31 straight victories in regular season play of punctuated by two Rose Bowl defeats and are shooting for their third straight Pasadena bid. If they beat UCLA, they're all set to get it.

The Big Ten's representative in the Rose Bowl remains pretty much of the puzzle with Ohio State, recognized as the league's outstanding team, ineligible to make a return trip west.

Wisconsin and Illinois are favored to have the inside track at the moment and both have important conference games on tap. The one-peat Wisconsin Badgers play Ohio State at Columbus, Illinois, the tenth best team, meets Iowa at Iowa City.

Wisconsin can lose to Ohio State the country's No. 2 team, and still qualify because it plays most of the 1950 football season. They are out to average a shutout in the Rose Bowl, which is the only white washing handed a Louisville team as long as it has been coached by Frank Campbell and also to keep alive a record of never having lost twice to the same football club with out a Louisville victory intervening.

The Cards arrived in the early afternoon Thursday by plane and worked out in Miami Field. The party is quartered at the New Surf hotel in Miami Beach.

A crowd approaching the 35,000 turnout for the Georgetown game is anticipated for Friday night as this will be the last time Miamiians get to see the Hurricanes play at home for two weeks.

Besides the six unbeaten teams in the top ten—Army, Oklahoma, Kentucky, California, Princeton and Miami—two other major elements have perfect slates to defend. Wyoming will try to produce a perfect mark, against Brigham Young and Loyola of California against Fresno State.

Notre Dame will play Pittsburgh at South Bend. Navy will entertain Tulane, one of the tough teams from the south.

Duke and Wake Forest will meet at Durham, N. C. in one of Dixie's top games. Vanderbilt and Louisiana State clash at Nashville in another.

Other games in the South include VMI at Georgia Tech, Davidson at North Carolina State, Georgia at Florida, Maryland at North Carolina, South Carolina at the Citadel, William and Mary at Virginia.

Heimerdinger Leads In Air, Ground Games

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—(AP)—Sunderlander, Bob Heimerdinger of North Illinois State Teachers College is the nation's small college total offense leader this week.

Heimerdinger, according to figures of the official NCAA service bureau, has gained 1,374 yards via land and air. He has picked up most of the yardage through the air, having completed 78 passes for 161 tries for 1,139 yards, making him the top thrower in the land.

John Yannes of the unbeaten St. Lawrence Lancers moved from third to first place among the ground gainers. Yannes, the only small-college player to gain 1,000 yards groundside—has gained 1,017 yards on 168 carries.

Milestone in a Career!

We see it happen over and over again—and it's one of the greatest satisfactions we enjoy in this happy business of selling Cadillac cars.

It's when a man comes into possession of his first Cadillac—and we see the wonderful things it does for him.

We see his happiness as he places his order—not as the result of a sudden inspiration, but because he has gradually reached the conclusion that he has earned the right to enjoy the unquestioned best.

And then we see him on that happy day when his car is available for delivery—and he settles himself so proudly behind the wheel.

He's a little quizzical, we sometimes note. Could it be, he wonders, that he has been buying a car too soon?

And then he looks in the mirror—looked for hours the long way round.

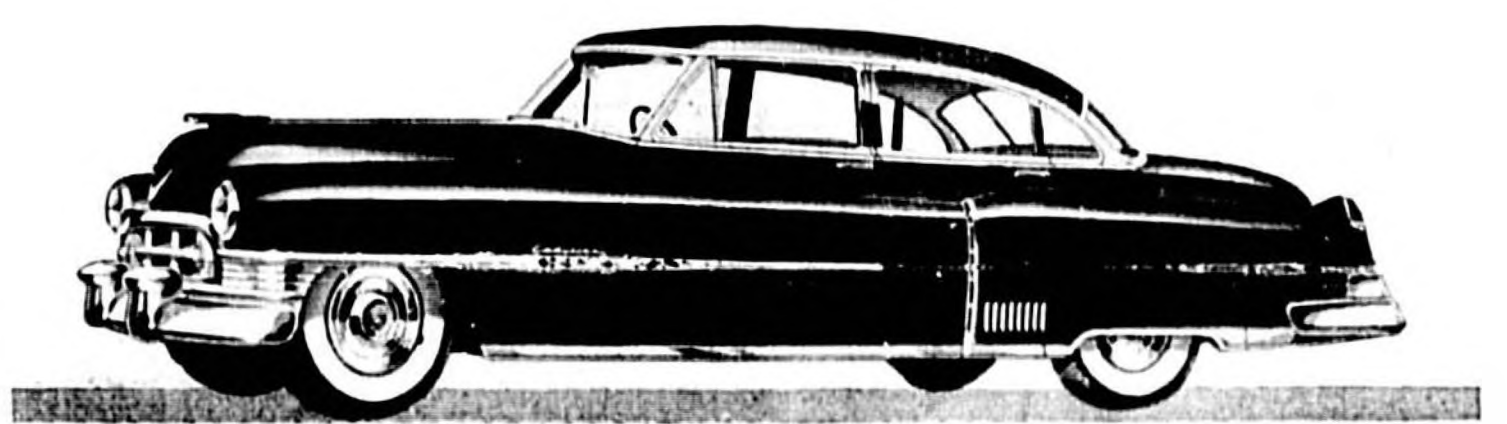

There are thrilling days that follow.

There's the thrill of going with the family—the first trip to the suburbs—and the time he learns, in an emergency, that his car is worth the money he paid for it.

And then, almost before he knows it, the delivery registers at the post office—and he's back to work as usual.

And he's a little quizzical again, when he's going to work—even to the office.

Yes, it's a little quizzical to watch all this. Makes a man feel that he's doing good.

Sales Of DeBary Home Sites Have Shown Marked Increase Over 1949

NEW YORK CITY, Nov. 10.—(Special)—Sales of homes and home sites at Plantation Estates, DeBary for the summer and early fall season increased substantially over the same period of 1949, according to Frederick L. Spurr, president of Plantation Estates, Inc. Due to increased selling activity, the company has moved into larger quarters on the 7th floor of 500 Fifth Avenue, its New York City headquarters, to start an aggressive winter selling campaign.

Home seekers in Plantation Estates on the day they arrive are welcomed by a committee of residents and given an invitation to attend a party at the Community Club and meet the neighbors. Gross from Brooklyn, captain of the Steamship "Excelsior" of the American Export Lines; G. Hart of Farming from Brooklyn who was associated with J. P. Staplehouses were operated regularly in New Mexico until 1881, when the first railroads were built into the state. More than 100 professional show companies tour the U. S. every year. The Webster-Ashton Treaty settled the Maine-Canada border in 1842 after a half century of huckering. The Limestone, Me., base of the U. S. Air Force is less than two miles from the Canadian border.

The historical Court DeBary Station, near the community club house, surrounded by acres of matured, rare tropical landscaping, is the center of social and civic activities. Here the recently organized Chamber of Commerce and the Property Owners Association, and the Volunteer Fire and Police Departments meet, also the Golf Club, the Amateur Theatre Club, the Saturday Night Dance Club, the Tarantula Club and the Bridge Club. The Mansion is the scene of frequent dances, polo club, bingo and other parties. The famous DeBary "Fountain of Youth" sulphur spring swimming pool near the mansion has recently been illuminated for night bathing.

San Bernardino

through narrow Cajon Pass which leads through the San Bernardino mountains to the Mojave desert.

Police estimated that nearly 300 persons were evacuated from the region and given refuge in a school. Most of them had time to don street clothes, although a few could be seen in bathrobes.

Police commanded city buses to evacuate the residents. Everybody was grumpy with soot and sand if not in your eyes, and you could feel the grit on your teeth. Mrs. John Baker, whose home was saved by a wood shift, said her neighbor was "a roaring inferno" — the heat was terrific. "One burned home was the 525, 600 colonial of Mr. Russell M. Gray. She and the awake about 1:30 A. M. and "I looked out the window and saw the garage alight. I grabbed my two children 16 and 18 and dashed out to highway. I found firemen and they went back and carried out my 5-year-old mother." The latter, Mrs. Anna Spierling was treated at a Red Cross emergency center for shock. She was not injured.

The winds swept stinging sands in the faces of some 300 firefighters and caused members for over a mile. At one point, the fire jumped eight blocks, setting a tool alight.

All the city's fire equipment, some 20 trucks, plus help from nearby communities of Redlands, Colton and Bimto, ranged along the fire line.

San Bernardino's northern section runs into the mountains, and it was there that the fire started, apparently from a power line blown down by the gale.

For a half dozen blocks just below where the mountains start their steep ascent to mile-high lake level, the district is largely brush-covered.

Then the city's better residential section starts, stretching a mile south to the country club. Fire equipment concentrated along this line, and although many spot fires were reported, apparently firemen managed to save most of the homes.

Residents, many in night dress, grabbed garden hoses to wet down roofs. Fire officials said typical California stress construction, largely fireproof, and the fact that many homes have tile roofs undoubtedly kept the loss from mounting.

The blaze burned in a southwesterly direction across the north city limit, finally hitting U. S. Highway 66 two miles west of its starting point. Its path, raked from a few feet to several blocks in width.

A sudden shift of the wind carried it around one new subdivision of 40 homes, as residents desperately played water on the roofs.

A junior high school was opened up by the Red Cross for those evacuated.

Police said there were some reports of minor burns, but hospitals reported no one seriously enough hurt to require treatment.

Isham Sheffield

(Continued From Page 7) of maintaining a gambling house, July 18, on the borderline of Seminole County near Orange County. The case will probably be tried next week, said Mr. Herndon.

Two informations were filed by the state attorney, Murray Overstreet and Hubert Griggs. One charges John Forrest Howarth with selling ballot lottery tickets.

He failed to appear in court, and his bond of $500 was estimated. The other information contains the charge that Foster Smith, allegedly embezzled from J. W. Knowles a boxing ring valued at $100. He entered a plea of not guilty, and will be represented by Karlisle Housholder at the trial.

Dan Keigan will be represented by John Leonard, G. W. Spencer will represent the defendants in the Sheffield, Baker, Hughes and Harper and Rockwell trials.

CHEVROLET TRUCKS with Chevrolet's Hypoid Rear Axle

Single-Unit Housing

Here's maximum strength... longer trouble-free service! Chevrolet rear axle housings are formed into tubular steel beams; no bolts or rivets to work loose.

Full-Size Inspection plates

Easy-to-remove, one-piece inspection plate saves time and labor... provides full view of rear axle gears when removed.

Splined Axle-to-Hub connection

Splines—not bolts—deliver the driving power evenly—without strain—on all heavy-duty models. Loose axle shaft bolts and costly grease leaks are eliminated.

Straddle-Mounted Pinion

Gears last longer... pinion gear is supported at each end by ball bearings to keep it in mesh. Adjustable thrust pad prevents distortion of ring gear when starting heavy-duty trucks with heavy loads.

4-Pinion Differential

Load and shock of heavy loads are distributed over four pinions instead of two in all Chevrolet medium- and heavy-duty trucks—for longer axle life and greater strength.

Chevrolet trucks are engineered to "take it" on the roughest, the toughest jobs. The single-unit design housing and splined axle-to-hub connection of Chevrolet's hypoid heavy-duty rear axle mean strength and stamina found in no other truck rear axle in Chevrolet's class. Combine that with other outstanding Chevrolet features... powerful Valve-in-Head engines, Synchro-Mesh transmissions, channel-type frames with alligator-jaw cross members! Here is the truck that can handle tough jobs... America's most popular truck. Come in and see these great Chevrolet trucks today.

Tibet Appeals To UN For Aid Against Reds

United Nations Mount Drive To Localize Korean War And To Reassure Chinese

BLAKE SUCCESS, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Secretary-General Trygve Lie today received an appeal from Tibet for United Nations aid against the Chinese Communist invaders.

The appeal was reported to have come from the Tibetan delegation in India. This group originally was sent to New Delhi by the government of Tibet to negotiate with the Chinese. It has remained in India since the invasion of Tibet.

The U. N. cannot act on the appeal unless it is sponsored by a member government. Tibet is not a U. N. member. Informed quarters said India definitely would not sponsor the Tibetan plea.

It was considered likely, however, that Nationalist China might take up the case because of China's close link to Tibet.

The United Nations also must act on a three-pronged diplomatic offensive seeking to neutralize Communist China and to prevent the present campaign from exploding into World War II.

On the eve of the departure from Peiping of a Red delegation to the Security Council, diplomats moved swiftly to keep the war localized.

The basic strategy was to reassure Chinese Communist leaders that U. N. forces had no designs on their territory, would not interfere with China's supply of electric power from North Korea, and would build a united, democratic, independent Korea which would present no threat to China.

This was combined with a clear warning, however, that continued Red Chinese intervention in Korea would lead to drastic action.

As though to point up these facts, a spokesman at General MacArthur's Tokyo headquarters announced that the United States would push toward the Yalu River is just a "limited offensive."

Informal observers here considered this indicated that the U. N. military command also was treating the situation as a limited offensive victory over the North Koreans while giving the Chinese an opportunity to withdraw with a minimum loss of face.

Phone Pickets Riot Briefly In Pittsburgh

Southern Telephone Centers Picketed As Union Shifts Operations To South

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Trouble broke out briefly on a picket line outside the Bell Telephone company's main office in Pittsburgh but eight mounted policemen quickly restored order. There were no injuries or arrests.

Police said the trouble began when a small Bell truck was halted in traffic in front of the building where 150 CIO communications workers union pickets were peering in a solid line.

A group of pickets surrounded the vehicle. The police on horseback pushed into the crowd and dispersed it. The truck was escorted away from the building.

Several pickets and two off-duty policemen were arrested the day the strike began last week for a disturbance outside the Pittsburgh office.

Meanwhile at the other end of the state in Philadelphia long distance operators reported for work in the absence of picket lines by striking telephone equipment workers but did not man the switchboards. They left the building after an hour.

A spokesman for the operators employed by the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. said arrangements were made for assurance they would not stay away from work if new picket lines are established.

The long distance operators are not striking but they have been honoring picket lines set up by CIO Communications Workers of America members who are employees of the Western Electric Co., an A. T. & T. affiliate. The strikers struck Thursday in an contract dispute.

An A. T. & T. spokesman said the operators were not asked to cross picket lines but were queried on whether they plan to remain on the job. Supervisory employees (Continued on Page 2)

Pastors Say Littlefield Did His Best

Ministers Blame Different Citizens For Open Gambling In Volusia County

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Former Sheriff James Littlefield today asked the Florida supreme court to throw out his indictment by a Dade county grand jury. The court made no immediate decision. Final arguments in the case were the same as those presented in written briefs and preliminary hearings. Jack K. Koe, attorney for the suspended sheriff, said the indictment was invalid because it does not charge a crime and was not signed by a state attorney as required by law.

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Two Baptist preachers today came to the defense of Sheriff Alex Littlefield and Constable W. M. Slaughter, who are under suspension from office for neglecting to enforce the gambling laws.

They told Governor Warren in a hearing on the Volusia county gambling situation that law enforcement in the county has been greatly improved in the past couple of years.

Rev. Lee Nichols, pastor of the Daytona Beach First Baptist Church, and a member of the civic affairs committee of the Halifax district which was organized to promote better law enforcement, said in recent months "our county was clean when other counties were wide open."

"If this suspension of our sheriff is sustained it will be a definite setback for good law enforcement because it is commonly held here it is here today because of political pressure," he declared.

Rev. L. A. Colting, pastor of the Deland Second Baptist Church, charged indifference to citizens for whom gambling laws exist in the county.

He said Constable Slaughter gave him a list of suspects to help him obtain evidence against them, but he couldn't even get his own brother to buy books to get on to testify to the purchase in court.

Governor Warren indicated he would not base his hearing on affidavits of gambling operations which he based on suspicion of the two officers.

He announced to a crowded hearing room audience that affidavits would not be received. However, many who signed the affidavits were present in the room.

John W. Moshell, one of the state's attorneys, asked by a reference by J. Walter Hawkins, former state representative, about the "alleged" charges against the two officers, he understood there were no charges and that "we are starting over with affidavits submitted in the past not to be considered."

He said in his opening statement "there is no presumption here of guilt. Nobody here is behind the eight ball. We're here to try to learn the truth and the facts."

Committee Will Probe Into Basic Causes Of Crime

Kefauver Says Gangs Wield Sinister Political Influence

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—(AP)—The Senate Crime Investigating Committee will follow up a survey of juvenile delinquency with an inquiry into the basic causes of crime, Chairman Kefauver (D-Tenn.) said today.

As for the probe's general findings in the nationwide crime picture, Kefauver said yesterday his group has found organized crime "a very sinister and very great influence of public officials."

He told a television audience that "organized crime in the country today would make kindergarten play out of the operations of the Capone boys."

His special Senate committee has facts to prove that well-organized, tough groups of criminals are operating throughout the country with "interlocking ownership and directorship between all groups," Kefauver said.

He declined to say whether there is one "overlord" of organized crime, but he said the committee's aim is to find out if there is a "crusade against gambling as such," he continued, but rather to uncover "the bigtime organized crime that in many cases has become so powerful that local law enforcement officers can't do anything about it."

The senator said Chicago was "perhaps the one most important center of criminal activities," although there were extensive organizations in New York, Philadelphia, Los Angeles, Miami, San Francisco and many other cities.

His committee published over the weekend a 250-page study of juvenile delinquency, with special attention on crime comic books.

Despite some exceptions here and there, the report reflected a general feeling of "off in the juvenile delinquency side of the war. But FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said the incidence of crime among young people still is "abnormally high."

The consensus of those replying to a questionnaire was that crime comics are not directly related to juvenile delinquency.

The committee itself drew no conclusions, simply publishing the answers it received from more than 40 juvenile court judges, child welfare workers, probation officers, police and prison authorities, child psychiatrists, publishers of crime comics and others.

Kefauver told reporters his general impression after reading most of the replies was that "the good comics are beautiful, the middle ones are so-so and the bad ones are deplorable."

Hutchison States U.S. Paid Bloody Price For Liberty

Armistice Day Crowd Is Told Of Danger Of 3rd World War

THE freedom and prosperity enjoyed in this country has been dearly bought with blood, Brig. General J. C. Hutchison told members of the U. S. Florida National Guard, and a group of Legionnaires, veterans and citizens at the Armistice Day program at the Handheld Saturday morning following the parade.

He pointed out that twice this country has been in real danger of being conquered, but was not defeated because thousands of men "were willing to risk an die give their lives to stop the aggressors."

Karlyle Housholder, commander of the Sanford Post 53, the American Legion, introduced him.

"We are in imminent danger of a third World War, General Hutchison declared. "There can be little doubt that ruthless plan of world aggression has been conceived, and that Korea is only the starting point. We must accept the imminence of World War III as a concrete fact; any delay, any hoping that Korea is an isolated local conflict, is, I believe, wishful thinking and costly thinking."

"What, then, should be our course?" he asked. "I do not think the American people will accept the action of preventive war. I do not advocate it. As certain as we may be of an intended aggression, we would never strike the first blow. It would destroy our moral purpose as a nation, which is the only thing we have fought for. But we can, and must, be so strongly and completely prepared for war, that, in the event of attack, we can retaliate in a matter of minutes."

"Our position is a great deal more dangerous and complex than we perhaps realize," said General Hutchison. "We are faced with the prospect of global war for which we must be completely prepared, and we are also faced with an extended period of preliminary fighting during which the world might well be financially ruined."

The float entered by the Business and Professional Women's Club won first place in the parade, which was viewed by a large crowd on First Street, Park Avenue and in the business section. Mounted on the flat truck, the float was of white decoration dotted with green, and on the front were words, "Measure Up."

Good Fruit Supply Will Be Available For Thanksgiving

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 13.—(Special)—Reports indicate a good supply of fresh Florida fruits and vegetables will be available for Thanksgiving in spite of the earlier unfavorable weather conditions. Oranges, grapefruit, tangerines, beans, corn, squash, okra, tomatoes, field peas and cucumbers are increasing in volume on the market.

William L. Wilson, director, advises, "Quality is steadily improving as shown by the following individual market reports."

"While it is not likely the strawberry volume will be sufficient to supply the Thanksgiving demand, the first pint produced this season was picked on November 6 at the Turkey Creek School, and sold at auction for $2.00," R. R. Alvarez, Acting Manager of the Plant City State Farmers' Market advises. Mickey is a young student in the Turkey Creek School, and he and his mother are sharing in the Turkey Creek area of Hillsborough County.

"Manager J. L. Warren announced the official opening of the Pompano State Farmers Market for the 1950-51 vegetable season Nov. 6. While volume is expected to be light for the next three weeks, the quality of beans, squash, cucumbers, okra, field peas and tomatoes is reported fair."

Sanford Market Sales Are Lower Than During 1949

SANFORD STATE MARKET SALES OF $221,110 July through October show a slight decline compared to the similar period last year when sales totaled $227,863, Manager Sandy Anderson pointed out today. Fruit sales were $110,000 as compared with $117,863 for the period last year.

He attributed this decrease largely to the hurricane of Oct. 18 when 10 percent of the bean crop was destroyed and other vegetables were set back. Bean receipts last month at the market were 30,586 hamper short of the October 1949 figure, he reported. Only 3,663 of the hamper were sold last month at an average of $2.25 a hamper.

Although twice as many boxes of oranges were sold, 35,818 during October, the average price, $2.75 a box was about half of that received in October, 1949. Oranges, with total receipts of $97,940, were the biggest seller. Grapefruit sales were $25,000, brought $10,919. Peppers brought $9,243 at an average of $2.25 a unit.
