Enabling Act Called Key To Getting Port

"Get the enabling act (for the Sanford Port Authority) and it won't be 10 or 15 years before you'll be moving. It'll be snowballing."

Lucas E. Bannon, semi-retired engineer, alerted the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce's Port Authority Committee to this Thursday afternoon.

The committee met to continue plans for the Port Authority and reported steady steps being taken to reach the goal.

The group will meet again "in about a month" to hear from its legislative subcommittee, headed by Atty. Gordon Frederick, and a feasibility committee, headed by Scott Burns.

Frederick said his group would have a "rough draft" of the enabling act at that time for the full committee's consideration.

Francis Roumillat, Port Authority Committee chairman, said arrangements are being made for a trip to Bainbridge, Ga., where a completely-barge terminal is in operation.

This would most closely parallel the facility scheduled for the St. Johns River area.

The area terminal would be located west of Sanford; the Sanford municipal dock area and much of the Lake Monroe section would be rearranged into a giant marina.

Roumillat reported to the committee on the recent trip to Brunswick, Ga., and a thorough examination of that port setup.

"One of the most impressive things we learned was that one-way barging is profitable. Some of us had feared return trips with the barge empty would rule this out."

"This is not so," Roumillat continued. "If the haul is of about 300-mile duration or more, the barges always pick up cargo for the return trip."

FLORIDA STATE BANK is celebrating its silver jubilee with open house today and with installation of $50,000 in automatic bookkeeping machinery.

Florida State Bank Observes 25th Year

The rain may have cut the size of visitors to the Florida State Bank this morning, but spirits were high as the bank marked its 25th anniversary of serving the Sanford area.

Florida State began its service to the community at the Park Avenue and First Street intersection. In subsequent years it outgrew that site and moved to the sparkling quarters it now occupies.

When the doors opened for the first time 25 years ago, A. B. Peterson Sr. supplied flowers for the festivity. He did the same today. Another "first" visitor to the original bank was Mrs. Doris Spencer.

Tonight at 7:30 the special gifts will be awarded to some of those who registered this morning. At 8 p. m. the bank will close.

Long blue balloons probably dominated the eyes as they were presented to children who carried them around while their parents visited the various banking facilities.

Other than the registration table, where visitors signed for either a color television set or one of five dining silver sets, the place most visited was the new IBM machines which the bank recently purchased.

At a cost of $50,000, the machines will provide magnified numbered checks to customers to help facilitate the banking process. The installation is the first for Seminole County.

While some banking employees continued their routine duties, others, aided by Welcome Wagon hostesses, explained the operations to visitors.

Sanford Mayor A. L. Wilson recalled the "vast wealth of information readily available for us at all times" which was offered by the Brunswick port officials.

Jobs Found For 60 Residents Of Seminole

Production operations of Southern Fiberglass Products with an annual payroll of $200,000, will get under way Monday at the Williams building in Sanford Industrial Park.

Earl Smith, vice president of the Orlando-based firm, said today some 60 Seminole County residents have been employed through Joe Foy, local manager of the Florida State Employment Service.

Smith said eight key personnel have been transferred from the Orlando plant to supervise production here of fiber glass boats. All other employees will be Seminole County residents, he pointed out.

The Orlando plant, according to Harold Slama, president has been producing nine boats daily. With the opening Monday of the local plant, the Sanford facility will produce five boats daily and the minimum of 10 boats daily.

Production will open Monday locally on a limited basis, Smith said, but will move into higher gear by the end of next week. He said some machinery must be installed and tooling is necessary before operations are commenced.

The company manufactures the Cobia line of fiber glass boats, 15- to 22-foot craft along with off-shore fishing boats.

Smith also assured Seminole County business houses that all materials and supplies for the new Southern plant here will be purchased locally, whenever possible.

The 25-year-old Bryan was quoted by authorities when he was put on the FBI's 10 most wanted men list as saying he likes "to see young boys tied up and screaming."

He is charged with kidnapping 10-year-old John David Robinson of Mount Pleasant, S. C. Feb. 27. The Robinson boy's skeleton was found March 31 in a mangrove swamp near Hallandale.

North Orlando Names Brewer Village Marshal

Eugene Brewer of Lake Mary Thursday night was employed as North Orlando village marshal by the deciding vote of Mayor Irene Van Epoei which broke the tie of Councilmen Arthur Ferrin and Arthur Rhodes, for, and Mrs. Mona Grinstead and Dave Tilson, against.

The action took place in a special called council session at 6 p. m. in the village office.

Mrs. Van Epoei requested that the amount of Brewer's monthly salary be withheld from publication. However, Councilman Rhodes assured that a thorough review of the village financial structure revealed that the marshal could be hired without any cost or increase in taxes to the residents.

Rhodes estimated that, broken down, costs would average something like $2 to $3 cents per household which already is being paid in utility taxes.

Meeting was adjourned and immediately called back into session by the mayor to administer the oath of office to Brewer. Although two voting members, Donald Wilcox and Henry Ward, were in attendance with expectations of also being sworn in at the meeting, action was postponed for the regular May council session which is scheduled for 8 p. m. Tuesday in the Civic Building. Those interested in attending the meeting will note that time of Tuesday's meeting is one-half hour later than usual.

Seven Boys Jailed In School Breakin

Seven boys ranging in age from 14 to 16 were remanded to the county jail Thursday afternoon after they admitted breaking and entering the South Seminole Junior High School at Casselberry and causing considerable damage to it.

The entry and vandalism occurred the previous Thursday night when the boys admitted taking part in a wave of destruction. Three of the youths admitted entering the building while the others admitted waiting outside.

Windows were broken in the library and school cafeteria, a soft drink machine was broken, the teachers' lounge entered and ransacked and money was taken from the cafeteria.

Deputies said the boys took six transistor radios and a tape recorder. The radios have been recovered but the deputies said the boys reported tossing the tape recorder away while driving on Interstate 4.

John G. Angel, school principal, estimated damages totaling $230, including the loss of the tape recorder.

Two of the youths had previously been sentenced to the industrial school but had been released in custody of their parents pending transportation to the school.

Two others learned they would go to the school following Thursday's hearing in the courtroom. Three more will know Monday at 9 a. m. what disposition will be made in their case.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

School Issue

A large number of inquiries as to the status of a constitutional amendment vote coming up next November has prompted The Sanford Herald to offer this explanation to its readers.

The question for statewide vote on Nov. 3 is: Shall the school superintendent (of Seminole and seven other counties—Escambia, Lake, Martin, Okaloosa, Palm Beach, Putnam and Taylor) be elected by the people or appointed by the School Board?

The question is not an issue in this year's election of a school superintendent for Seminole County. Whoever is elected in November of this year will serve until January 1969.

The 1963 Legislature approved an act bringing the proposed constitutional amendment before state voters throughout Florida in November. It must be approved by a majority of the state's electors to become law. AND IT MUST BE APPROVED BY THE SEMINOLE COUNTY ELECTORS TO BECOME LAW IN THIS COUNTY. Even though approved statewide, if voted down in Seminole County it will become a dead issue here.

If approved statewide and in Seminole County in November, the Seminole County School Board may exercise its prerogative and call for a special "local option" election for Seminole County voters only. If finally approved, the school superintendent then would be appointed on a four-year trial basis.

Purpose of the proposed change is to give the School Board the assurance of having a trained, experienced administrator to direct and guide Seminole County's biggest business, a multi-million-dollar enterprise.

No Rewards In Religion?

Clergymen are very much aware of the fact that some people feel that their own religion lacks much in fulfilling their need. A popular excuse is that there is a lack of relevancy of their faith to the world. One may contend that his church is trying hard enough or he may even go as far as to feel that he may be at fault somewhere.

It is my conviction that many people are very sincere in wanting an honest answer to the problem or a lack in their spiritual life. When one is sincere in such a feeling he should seek help from a clergyman whose training and time is aimed at diagnosing trouble, but for at least one possibility it may be that there is a lack of discipline in one's spiritual life. Perhaps there was never a time in our country when so many believers were so frustrated for one single reason.

Every top athlete knows the value of discipline in his game if he is to succeed. Recently I was told that the golfers who win the big tournaments practice and play an amount of golf each day that equals 36 holes. Of course, this would vary but it does say that without any doubt discipline is important. The musician who is sought after for concerts spends hour after hour, day after day, at the instrument. We can think of the many professions that require years of discipline if proficiency is to be accomplished.

Why should one expect anything as important as their religion to be rewarded if no discipline is used to keep it vital and fresh?

I have known a great number of people who have refused to worship God regularly and there is not one that I can name who found their religion completely rewarding. When this has been explained to them so many excuses have been made, but all point to the fact that spiritual discipline is sadly lacking.

The discipline of personal devotions is very important if one is to find his religion meaningful.

Another spiritual discipline that is needed is the one that puts faith to work seven days a week. It takes a strong will to carry one's faith into his business, politics, recreation and other factors of life.

Your faith can be rewarding but only if discipline is an outstanding ingredient.

Sanlando Baptists Have Bonds Sale

The recently chartered First Baptist Church of Sanlando Springs initiated its building fund bond sale at a kick off dinner held at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Blalack near Lake Mary.

Rev. J. E. Murray, assisted by the minister, Rev. Lewis D. Haines, spoke at length on functions of bond sales and bond sales financing.

Rev. Murray, bond sales chairman, reported that $10,900 of the $18,000 first series bonds were sold during the dinner.

The sales are being continued under direction of two teams headed by Dan Coward, captain of the green team and Harold Blalack captain of the red team. The church is offering negotiable bonds bearing six per cent interest. Those desiring to acquire bonds are asked to contact either team captain.

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the new church will be held at the building site, which is located one-half mile west of the Sanlando Springs Post Office, at 2 p. m. on Mother's Day, May 10.

Victory Sunday Services, with completion of the bond sales drive, will be held one week later on May 17.

Jet-smooth Luxury Chevrolet makes crooked roads feel like going straight

Your Chevrolet resists leaning on turns. Its Full Coil suspension makes the crookedest S-curve seem on the level. And with its low-friction Ball-Race steering system you waltz over twisting roads as gracefully as a ballerina.

Your Chevrolet resists bouncing on bumps. Chevrolet's Safety-Girder X-built frame soaks up jolts at its sturdy tubular center member. Its double-acting shock absorbers take the jumps out of bumps.

Your Chevrolet resists squatting on starts. The rear-end suspension with 4-link leveling control gives it Jet-smooth acceleration.

FOR THE GREAT HIGHWAY PERFORMANCE

Your Chevrolet resists nose diving on stops. The front-end suspension with built-in anti-dive control gives it Jet-smooth stops.

Your Chevrolet resists shaking and vibrating. All seven Chevrolet engines are precision balanced for smooth operation. And because your Chevrolet has over 700 insulators and sound deadeners, you don't have to shout to have yourself heard.

Now it's Trade 'N' Travel Time at your Chevrolet dealer's—the perfect time to try the Jet-smooth ride. Find the meanest stretch of road you can. Then see for yourself how straight a crooked road can feel.

Chuluota Church Sets Dedication Service

Dedication services will be held in the completed section of the Chuluota Community Church on Sunday, May 3, at 10 a. m., Rev. Gerald Shearon, pastor, has announced.

Among the honored guests will be Rev. Billy McDaniel, the first pastor and founder of the church. Invitations have been sent also to former members of the church who have moved to other localities.

The building is being constructed in sections. The wing which has been completed and which will be the Fellowship hall and kitchen, the utilities and rest rooms, will serve the congregation while construction of the sanctuary and the Sunday School rooms is underway. The next step in the program will be building of the Sunday School wing, and finally the sanctuary in the center which will connect Fellowship hall and the school wing.

With the exception of a very few current bills, the church is free and clear of debt. Asked how, in these times, a fireproof, concrete block building could be constructed without a mortgage, George R. Boulden, treasurer of the church said:

"When the first shovel full of dirt was dug, we asked for divine assistance. Our prayers were heard because the whole community has helped us, regardless of creed. With the exception of the electrical and some of the masonry work, most of the actual building was done by our members and other residents of the community. "We are especially indebted to William Lampinen, not a member of our congregation, who acted as our builder, worked with hammer and saw and supervised the entire job."

"Among other non-members who have given unstintingly of their time and talents are Robert Burns, Newton Cello, William Fox, Cyrus Willard, Roland Millette, Arnold Jackson and Verne Black. We would not have been able to accomplish this without their help and that of Kenneth Rice, chairman of our building committee, who acted as our purchasing agent and worked with the following members on the building: Robert Meyers, Arthur Portier, Robert Abbott, Norrick Matson, Edward Kullman, Edward Richardson and J. A. Bean.

"We are deeply grateful," Boulden said, "to the Dorcas and Priscilla Circles of our Fellowship for the money they have turned in to the treasury. These women have been untiring in their activities, running bake sales, rummage sales, bazaars and suppers. They have provided refreshments for the men who were working and even dug trenches, painted and cleaned."

This first wing of the Chuluota Church stands as a monument to cooperative effort in the community.

Lake Mary UPW Has Association Meeting

By Frances Wester
The April Association Meeting of the UPW of the Community Presbyterian Church of Lake Mary was held at the home of Mrs. Joe Smathers on Lake Emma Tuesday night with Mrs. Harry E. Sandusky as co-hostess.

The group devotion was led by Mrs. Richard Keogh using the scripture reference John 1: 10-14 with the theme for the evening, "Highlight Of An Inspiration." The program was also presented by Mrs. Keogh who emphasized the highlights of Christian living. An interesting report of the Presbyterian Meeting of the UPW held at Clermont was given. Mrs. Kay Sussman reported on a talk made by Rev. Laura Luz A. Bacarra, a representative attending from an island of the Philippines. She wore native dress and told of the Christian work done in the Philippines.

Mrs. Keogh reported on the address made by Mrs. Dorothy Wagner of New York City who served on the Board of the Women's Ecumenical Commission.

A business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. W. C. Hopkins. Committee reports were given. The recommendations made by the executive board were accepted. A program of special interest on Medical Missions is planned for June. Mrs. P. D. Anderson will be in charge. A film strip will be shown and a special offering received for medical missions.

The president announced that the Women's Synodical will meet June 8-11 at Daytona Beach and urged all members to plan to attend if possible.

Other members present were Mrs. Emma Bashara, Mrs. Ted Brooklyn, Mrs. Richard Beebe, Mrs. F. E. Donaldson, Mrs. H. M. Givson, Mrs. Marion Lee, Mrs. Fannie Leffer, Mrs. Ruby Linden, Mrs. Rowland Goble, Mrs. Lena Elth, Mrs. John Reeves, Mrs. Ruby Sjoblom, Mrs. Earl Unger, Mrs. Ed Zimmerman, Mrs. Robert Hugenstein, Mrs. John Ulmer, Mrs. LuVera Harrison, Mrs. Anderson, and Mrs. James M. Thompson. Two guests, Mrs. Tom Freeman and Mrs. W. N. Kieffer, also attended.

McCanna Flays Tax Returns

"Tangible Personal Property Tax Returns for householders are wasteful, distasteful and unnecessary", Richard E. McCanna, Candidate for Seminole Assessor, stated recently. "They are not required in Orange or Volusia Counties and should not be in Seminole. The insistence for filing these returns in Seminole is a direct affront to the Homeowners of the County." Pd. Pol. Politically Speaking..

The race is pretty well run . . . there's little more but for the voters to cast their ballots and have them counted.

The item in Tuesday's "Clock" column about Seminole County being a political orphan in state circles should ring a bell with local political bigwigs.

It's too late now, in the closing campaign, but the local supporters of governor candidates missed a bet . . . they should have had their leaders promise something big for Seminole County. True, it may have been only an empty promise but it would have brought in many of those oft-spoken-of undecided votes next Tuesday.

Seminole County seems to be lacking in that certain something which demands attention from Tallahassee. The nearest thing in many years to a state handout for Seminole was the new university. And that cannot truly be classed as a handout since the county would have had to invest well over $1 million in a land gift to the state.

After the state officials narrowed it down to Orange and Seminole for the University site, many local people "gave up," knowing it would go to bigger Orange. Many of the local leaders continued confident because they had been "assured" a majority of the state officials were for Sanford's Lake Ada site. But one of those officials crossed up the local people and changed his vote.

The state officials, though, offered a sop to Seminole . . . they gave the university to Orange but at the county line.

Now maybe the local leading supporters of the successful candidate for the next governor's term will swing sufficient weight to include Seminole in the state pork barrel.

Attorney General James W. Kynes, on his visit here last week, said his opponent's chief claim to the office of attorney general is the fact he is from Dale County. "This, of course," says Kynes, is a ridiculous reason." He added this office is one of the "most sensitive to be voted on May 5." Incidentally, he has a most intriguing campaign slogan: "Be kind to Kynes."

There has been little or no publicity throughout Florida about this state's participation in the presidential election. Florida voters in the second primary on May 26 will have the opportunity of expressing some choice.

Democrats will vote for a slate of delegates pledged to President Johnson. This slate includes delegates at-large and district delegates, none of which are from Seminole County.

A slate pledged to Sen. Strom Thurmond was withdrawn from the ballot at the request of the colon, himself. This slate had included Leon R. Bass, James T. Talmadge Jr., Minnie Bass and LaVerne N. Bass, all of Sanford.

Republicans will have two slates before them, one group of delegates to go to the GOP national convention unpledged to any candidate and a second slate preferring Sen. Barry Goldwater. There are no local people on either slate.

Rep. Jan Fortune has been elected chairman of the Seminole County Republican Executive Committee. Serving with him will be Mrs. O. G. Bryant, vice chairman; Mrs. E. Pope Bassett, secretary, and William P. Medcalf, treasurer.

Fortune named these committee chairmen: Mr. and Mrs. Russell J. Hammond, campaigns and issues; Medcalf and Mrs. A. F. Keeth, registration, and Mrs. Bryant, public relations.

A new public poll group, Florida Institute of Public Opinion, has come out with its first report of a sample

Ebenezer Plans Loyalty Dinner This Sunday

Ebenezer Methodist Church will climax a month of stewardship emphasis with the annual loyalty dinner to be held of state voters' thoughts. It holds that Sen. Spessard Holland will win hands-down over Brailey Odham. The poll gives Seminole County to Odham.

The Institute shows the Democratic candidates for governor lined up thusly: Hayden Burns, Scott Kelly, Fred Dickinson, John Mathews, Robert High and Fred Karl. It predicts that Burns and Kelly will be in the May 26 runoff.

A paragraph from one of Mathews' latest news releases reads: "Mathews has developed a real stronghold in Orange, Seminole and Lake Counties with the help of Sens. Mack Cleveland and 'Tar' Boyd."

Dickinson has been tied in other candidates' charges with Gov. Farris Bryant. The Governor in a press conference on April 16 denied he is supporting Dickinson or any other candidate. "I have no plans to become involved in the governor's race at all," said Bryant, "other than as a citizen to go behind the green mantle and cast my vote for a person whose name shall be unknown."

It seems the Governor is pretty much alone, then, because preachers, businessmen, (some) newspapers and just about everybody else is getting into the picture by voicing their respective choices and trying to swing votes.

The Florida Conference of AAA Motor Clubs polled all nine candidates for governor — six Democrats and three Republicans — on questions ranging from the increased auto license tax to gasoline tax hikes, more toll roads and other matters pertaining to motoring.

The Florida Conference of the American Association of University Professors polled the candidates on questions pertaining to education and published their replies.

It all winds up to this: The voters, themselves, hold the answers and will voice their choices starting next Tuesday.

this Sunday at 12:30 following the morning worship service. During the month of April, at each morning service, a special reading period was given in which members were asked to read stewardship leaflets. Sermons for the month also have been on that theme.

All members are urged to come to the dinner and bring a covered dish of food. After the meal the filmstrip, "Two Dollars," will be shown. The budget of the new year, June, 1964-June, 1965, will be presented by W. L. Hiers, chairman of the commission on stewardship and finance. A pledge service will follow during which every member is asked to pledge financial support for the new year. Blanks will be provided on which pledges can be made by the week or by the month. At the close of this service each person will place the pledge blank on the altar.

Rev. Ray Gregory, pastor, in making the announcement, said "This service of dedication is most important to the life of our church and we are counting on the support of every member."

A work day at the Lake Mary Church of the Nazarenes has been set for Saturday beginning at 9 a. m. All members of the church are urged to come and bring a covered dish for a dinner on the grounds at noon.

Entertainment for Everyone in the Sanford Area

BB Stars In Comedy

Take sexy Brigitte Bardot poking fun at herself. Take a clever writer poking romantic fun at the audience. Take a nutty situation with not a semblance of cold logic. And add the special excitement of BB doing the most exotic striptease dance ever put on film. The result is "Please-Not Now," a slaphappy picture in the great American comedy tradition of Mack Sennett, Harold Lloyd and Buster Keaton.

"Please-Not Now," in Cinemascope, will open Sunday at the Movieland Drive-In Theatre and run through Tuesday. It is the first Sanford showing and is adult entertainment only.

Co-featured will be James Mason and Sue Lyons in "Lolita."

A Naval war drama, "Under Ten Flags," starring Van Heflin, and "Come Blow Your Horn," in color, with Frank Sinatra will be shown Wednesday and Thursday.

The triple color feature for Friday and Saturday, May 8-9, will be "Guns of the Timberland," starring Alan Ladd; "Muscle Beach Party," with Frankie Avalon and Annette, and "The Wheeler Dealers," starring James Garner and Natalia Wood.

There's no question that "Please-Not Now" will be one of the highlights of BB's fabulous career. She proves not only that she has lost none of her sex allure, but also that she's one of the world's best and funniest comedienne. She's done comedy before, but never with such abandon. Audiences will get an eyeful, for this is Bardot in the kind of part she herself enjoys most—the girl who dangles her charms without being quite aware of them herself. At the same time, she gets caught in situations which give her a maximum chance for hilarious fun. In short, she proves that she has become a mature actress, capable of shifting from highly dramatic roles to rib-tickling comedy.

The highlight of the situations in "Please-Not Now" comes with the dance in a night club, a dance called the Brigitte Striptease Blues. She has stripped before, but this is the first time that she has done a strip dance and presents a new facet of the talented actress.

REGULING and bewitching Brigitte Bardot demonstrates that she is not only one of the world's best comedienne, but also that she is an exceptional exotic dancer in her newest picture, "Please, Not Now," a rip-roaring comedy in the great American tradition which International Classics, Inc. is releasing starting Sunday at the Movieland Drive-In Theatre.

Cinema Feature

DANIELA BIANCHI plays the voluptuous girl friend of James Bond (Sean Connery) in the Ian Fleming story of international intrigue, "From Russia With Love." Filmed in Technicolor, the United Artists release opened Thursday at the Seminole Cinema Theatre and will run through Wednesday.

"From Russia With Love," strictly for the business of movie-making. For the first time in Technicolor, audiences will see such Turkish delights as the St. Sophia mosque, built by the Roman Emperor Justinian in 548 A. D., the 3,000 teeming shops of the Covered Bazaar, and the unforgettable sky-lines of an historic city that spreads onto two continents—Europe and Asia.

Under the sidewalks, in fact—is the thousand year old underground cistern used by ancient Byzantine Emperors of Constantinople to store drinking water—and this, too, was used for a key scene in the exciting film.

The traditional director's call for "Quiet" was almost meaningless during above ground scenes: five times a day the mezzin of the nearby mosques came out onto their minarets to deliver their resounding call, or "Call to Prayer." One of

TABLE HOPPING

BY JUDY TURNER

Thank goodness the rains finally came to turn everything green. Now that the weeds are all up you can expect the flowers any day. And speaking of flowers, why not put one in your lapel this May Day and step out . . .

To Jean's Spaghetti House where the treat for this weekend is veal Parmigiana served with spaghetti at just $1.65. Jean's serves a complete meal from "soup to mint" and are open from 11 a.m. 'til 10 p.m. Take the drive up to Orange City and enjoy a real Italian meal.

Thought we'd have some big news from the Caribe this weekend but you will just have to wait a bit longer . . . they are lining up some entertainment for your weekend evenings though and before long you'll be able to listen to "live" music at this popular downtown lounge. Since the Caribe is downtown, it is also the ideal spot to stop in for a leisurely lunch with food from Rose and Wilk's restaurant and liquid refreshment whipped up by Lou in the daytime . . . Jack at night.

Had a beautiful steak dinner at Spencers the other night . . . preceded by a pretty pink Bacardi whipped up by that master of the art, Ed. Ordered our meal while having the cocktail in the bar so that when it was ready all we had to do was go into the dining room and sit down. Of course with such friendly company as Jim, Ed and Doris you just don't mind waiting anyway.

Popular as a meeting and eating place, the Trade Winds also offers the finest in group luncheon or dinner facilities if your group is looking for something in that line. The large banquet room is cool and quiet and the food is served right to the table. Don't forget steak night is tomorrow night . . . a three quarter pound steak for a dollar.

Don't be misled by the name because Freddie's Steak House also has one of the most complete seafood menus in the area. Freddie's owner, Steve Larsen, spent a long time with a seafood restaurant in New Jersey and really knows his crustaceans.

Manager Joy is working hard at the Capri since Betty is on vacation, opening and closing the busy restaurant six days a week. She reports that luncheons are really picking up, and in fact business in general is booming. Dave Rowley is back during the evenings working on the meat and the broiler and Joy is delighted with his tasty offerings, as are the customers. Another customer pleaser is the Jack Rossman Trio who play on Friday and Saturday nights for dining and dancing pleasure.

Family night is Thursday night at Cook's Corner . . . they'll serve you half a fried chicken with French fries, rolls and cole slaw for just 85 cents. Other interesting items of note . . . all the catfish you can eat tonight for just $1.35 . . . served with the usual go-withs, fries, rolls and slaw.

One of the nicest things that has happened around here lately is the free delivery service from the Rex Liquor Store . . . a real addition to comfortable living and especially nice when unexpected guests drop in. Of course you can always stop at the modern store in the Pinecrest center and pick up what you need.

Most people call it "the friendliest spot in town" — that's George's Tavern, of course. Laura Stephens and her co-workers offer courtesy service—and all your favorite brands of beer, wines and liquors—at either the bar or package store. Plenty of free parking, too.

'Advance To The Rear' At Ritz

If General Sherman could have seen the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, "Advance to the Rear," starring Glenn Ford, Stella Stevens and Melvyn Douglas, he would have changed his famous dictum of "War Is Hell!" to "War Is Hilarious!"

"Advance to the Rear" opens Sunday at the Ritz Theater and will show through Wednesday.

There was never such a conflict as that which takes place in this rib-tickling entertainment during the Civil War between Rebs and Union soldiers, the latter represented by an outrageous and outlandish company of misfits as ever turned a debacle into a glorious victory, with a glamorous southern Mata Hari thrown in for good measure! Consider the nature of this company: Colonel Brackenby (Melvyn Douglas), its commander, is a West Pointer who has never known combat duty and whose idea of the proper procedure of war is to fire enough volleys not to irritate the enemy into making more than a token return. Captain Jared Heath (Glenn Ford), willing but completely frustrated by his wooden-headed superior, heading a company which includes such unique specimens as a Tennessee turned Yankee who refuses to shoot at what might be a relative; a corporal with an irresistible attraction for horses, including one who leads him in the wrong direction; plus such privates as the one who hicups at the sound of a gunshot, a bone-crunching musclem who has an aversion to being touched, an arsonist, a kleptomaniac and a soldier who (accidentally?) blows up his own officers' quarters.

Blanton-Burfeind Vows Exchanged

By Donna Kates
April 25, 1964 at Christ Episcopal Church, Longwood with the Rev. Charles Stewart, Jr. performing the impressive ceremony.
The church was decorated with a profusion of white calla lilies white glads and white mums.

Mrs. Charles Petherbridge arranged and played the traditional nuptial music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a lovely white silk bengaline street-length dress with matching jacket. She wore a white crown hat and veil and her accessories were white. She carried a purple-throated white orchid and a white prayer book.

Mrs. Carol Hartledge served as matron of honor and was smartly attired in a beige linen suit with brown accessories. She wore a brown crown hat and pink mum corsage.

Thomas W. Blanton Jr., brother of the bride was best man, and ushers were Richard Benton and John Blanton, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a yellow and white summer cotton with white accessories and a yellow mum corsage. The mother of the groom chose a blue silk dress with matching accessories and a yellow mum corsage.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the Parish house of the church, which was decorated with red roses and white snow balls.

Mrs. Pauline Stevens and Mrs. Velma Harper served the cake and Mrs. Robert Hammond and Miss Judy Harper presided over the punch bowl.
For her going away outfit, the bride chose a beige silk suit with brown accessories and the orchid from her wedding bouquet.
Following a tour of various points of interest in the state, Mr. and Mrs. Burfeind are at home at the Fairy Lake Apartments in Longwood.
Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Al Miller from Ships' Bottom, N.J., and friends and relatives from Orlando and Winter Park. Following the wedding rehearsal last Friday evening,

Birthday Party Honors Becky Pearson

By Doris Dean
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fasula of Moss Road in the North

PRETTY RED HAired Becky Pearson, attired in a blue check empire dress, cuts her birthday cake bearing 16 candles at a delightful dinner dance given in her honor.

Orlando Ranches recently entertained at a birthday dinner dance honoring their daughter, Becky Pearson, who celebrated her sixteenth birthday.

The garage was converted into a ballroom with burning torches leading to the entrance. Suspended from the ceiling were balloon clusters and crepe paper streamers surrounding a blue light centering the area. Games and dancing to the juke box highlighted the evening events.

A late dinner was served from the dining table which was overlaid with white linen and centered with a bowl of pink fruit punch floating ice cubes with cherry centers and flanked on each side by silver candlesticks holding blue candles.

After the delicious dinner consisting of fried chicken, relishes, pink and blue bite size sandwiches, potato salad, chips, dips, candies and nuts, the guests sang "Happy Birthday" to Becky as she blew out the candles on the white, pink and green birthday cake, which was ornately decorated with teen age figurines surrounded by musical notes and records.

Becky's guests presented her with a Good Luck Mascot Troll for her new automobile, which was given her for her birthday by Mr. and Mrs. Fasula. Becky's father, Harry L. Pearson, gave her a diamond dinner ring.

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Fasula were Mr. and Mrs. J. D.

Someone asked for a sherbet dish easy to make and freeze. We found this one and it sounds very good.

ROYALTY SHERBET
1 pkg. (3 oz.) blackberry gelatin
1 cup boiling water
1/2 cup currant jelly
1 cup cold water
1 tsp. lemon juice
1 egg white
Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Stir in currant jelly until melted, then add cold water and lemon juice. Pour into two refrigerator trays. Freeze until firm. Beat egg white until stiff but not dry. Turn frozen gelatin mixture into a bowl and beat with a rotary beater until mushy. Fold in beaten egg white. Return to refrigerator trays and freeze until firm. This will make one quart. Why not try this with different gelatins and jelly.

While looking for this recipe we found several others that are good for this summer weather. These JELLIED MINCEMEAT TARTS take only 10 minutes to prepare and chill in two hours.

1 pkg. (3 oz.) orange gelatin
1 cup boiling water
1/2 cup cold water
2 cups prepared mincemeat
1 tsp. lemon juice
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 baked tart shells
Dissolve orange gelatin in boiling water. Stir in cold water, mincemeat, lemon juice and salt. Chill until slightly thickened. Spoon into tart shells and chill until firm. To serve, garnish with whipped cream or thinned cream cheese, or for a special treat, soak 8 sugar cubes in lemon extract and set aflame. Serves 8.

Here's another one that can be kept in the freezer.
MOCK CHEESE PIE
1 pkg. instant lemon pie filling
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup boiling water
2 cups sour cream
1 baked 9-inch crumb crust
Combine pie filling and sugar. Add boiling water and beat with a rotary beater until thoroughly dissolved. Beat in sour cream. Fill into crumb crust. Chill thoroughly. Serves 8.

LIVER LOAF WITH PAN GRAVY
1 1/2 lbs. beef liver
1 1/2 cups boiling water
2 slices salt pork, 1/2 inch thick
1 medium onion
1/4 cup chopped parsley
2 eggs, slightly beaten
1 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper
2 tbsps. flour
1 1/2 cups cold water
2 cups soft bread crumbs
Rinse liver, cover with boiling water and let stand 10 minutes, drain. Grind with salt pork and onion. Add parsley, crumbs, eggs, salt and pepper and mix thoroughly. Press into baking pan and bake in moderate oven 350 degrees about 1 hour. Remove loaf to hot platter. Stir flour into drippings and brown; add water gradually and cook 4 to 5 minutes, until thickened, season and pour over loaf. Serves 6.

For those parties coming up real shortly for those graduating girls here's a GRADUATION PUNCH. This recipe makes 2 quarts.
1 qt. rejuvinated instant nonfat dry milk crystals (according to directions on pkg.)
1 qt. orange sherbet, softened
1/2 cup instant nonfat dry milk crystals
1/2 cup chilled fresh orange juice
2 tbsps. lemon juice
Strawberries or cherries for garnish
Beat rejuvinated instant nonfat crystals and sherbet together until blended. Stir 1/2 cup instant crystals into orange juice in bowl. Whip until soft peaks form (3 to 4 minutes). Add lemon juice. Continue whipping until stiff peaks form (3-4 minutes longer). Fold into sherbet mixture. Garnish with strawberries or cherries.

Lou Magli's ROLLED MEAT PANCAKES
1/2 lb. ground beef
1/2 lb. ground sausage
1/2 medium sized onion, finely chopped
1 clove garlic, minced
1 cup chopped cooked spinach
1 small carton sour cream
2 eggs
1/2 tsp. salt
1 cup milk
1/2 cups flour
2 cans (8 oz.) tomato sauce grated cheese
Fry meat, onion and garlic until lightly browned and meat is crumbly. Add spinach, sour cream, season to taste and mix well. Beat eggs with 1/2 tsp. salt and stir in milk. Sift flour and measure and beat into egg mixture until smooth. Pour about 1/4 cup of this thin batter into a greased 6-inch skillet, turn and tilt pan so batter covers entire surface. When pancake is brown on one side remove from pan. Spoon about 1/4 cup of meat mixture into center of pancake, roll pancake around meat and place in shallow baking dish. Continue until all batter and meat are used, greasing pan before each pancake is fried. When all pancakes have been fried, fill and arranged in baking dish, pour tomato sauce over rolls and sprinkle with grated cheese. Bake in moderate oven 350 degrees for 30 minutes. Serves 6.

These pancake rolls can be made early in the day and baked at serving time. Do not put tomato sauce and grated cheese over rolls until just before baking.

ICE BOX FRUIT CAKE
As made by Mrs. A. E. Curry Sr.
1 lb. vanilla wafers (crumbled)
1 small bottle cherries
1 qt. pecans
1 lb. white raisins
1 can condensed milk
3 tbsps. cherry juice
Mix all ingredients well, and let stand in icebox overnight before using.

Mary Lemon's MEXICAN WEDDING CAKE sounds very tempting.

Braves Wrap It Up With A Win

The Sanford Junior High Braves closed out one of their most successful baseball seasons Thursday afternoon when they pushed over a run in the top of the last frame to edge the South Seminole Hurricanes by a score of 5 to 4.

The Braves powered eight safeties off the deliveries of Hurricane hurler, Mark Brewer.

Kiwanis Nine Loses Second Straight Game

The Kiwanis nine of the City Recreation Department's Junior Boys League absorbed its second straight defeat in as many days when Thursday afternoon the Kiwanians dropped a 3 to 1 decision to the CPO's. Danny Lee set the Kiwanians down with only one hit—a sixth inning double by Wally Jernigan.

Lee now has allowed only one hit over the past 15 innings he has worked on the mound. John Butts, Lee and Dick Mamele were the mainstays at the plate for CPO.

In the Junior League battle between the Elks and the Rotary, the Elks tallied three unearned runs in the sixth to trim the tough Rotarians, 2-2. The Elks solidified their hold on first place as Chris Akers picked up the win, in going the route he whiffed 13.

The first round of the Men's Six-Pitch Softball circuit came to an end Thursday night with a four-way tie for second place. It came about when Wilson Maier grabbed a 17 to 11 win from McRaney Palata.

Kingswood went through the first round undefeated and is definitely the club to whip for the loop title. Second round title starts Monday night. All teams are scheduled for 28 games during the regular season which ends July 16.

Perfection Dairy presented George's with their third straight loss in the Little American League, 9 to 5, behind the pitching of Tommy Gracy and the hitting of Ben Tryman.

Meanwhile, in the Little National the Locomotive Engineers and the First Federal Savingsmen teamed up to play a great game at Bay Avenue Park with the Trainmen coming out on top 3 to 1. David Lee, ace righthander, now has been touched for only six hits in his last three mound appearances. Thursday afternoon he held the Savingsmen to two safeties.

The Engineers are a game and a half out of first place. Their only two losses have been at the hands of Hunt's Lincoln-Mercury.

Hounds Slung By Jackets In 1-0 Game

The Leesburg High School Yellow Jackets have had their slingers sharp and strong for the Lyman Greyhounds all season long.

In two regular Orange Belt Conference games the Jackets slung the 'Hounds. In the Orange Belt baseball tournament, the Greyhounds were eliminated—again by Leesburg. And the Lyman nine was ousted from the Class tourney at Leesburg Thursday night—again by the slinging Yellow Jackets, despite the fact that Lyman's Donnie Smith hurled a one-hitter.

The score was 1 to 0 in one of the finest games the two clubs played all season. Two Leesburg hurlers, John Mason and Mike Carroll, teamed up to no-hit the 'Hounds.

But it was one ball game the Longwood nine should have captured. In all but two of the seven potential runs on the bases. They stranded two in the first, second and fourth, three in the third and another in the sixth. All together, 10 men were left on the bases.

In the bottom of the third Lyman had the sacks jammed with only one away. A pick-off play at first nabbed one runner and a fly ball ended the frame.

Leesburg tallied its only run in its half of the third.

With two away, Wolf fanned but Lyman's receiver, Neufield, muffed the pitch and Wolf made it safely to first. The next hitter grounded to Joe Pavelchak at third who overthrew first and Wolf crossed the plate with the ill-fated only marker.

Score by innings:

Lyman 000 000 0-0 0 2

Touring Pros Foment War On Nation's Golf Establishment

By MURRAY OLDERMAN NEW YORK — (NEA)—A cleaver is being aimed at the lucrative world of golf.

The 150-odd regular performers of the tour are in a state of acute foment. They want to break away from the Professional Golfers Association, which clutters up their private little money cart stretching across 43 tournaments, with some 5,000 club pros who stay at home and straighten out slices.

Bugging them particularly is $400,000 in the bulging PGA piggy bank, none of it collected any interest, most of it contributed by the touring pros in entry fees, all of it controlled by the PGA.

Giants Head South On Sports Mission

NEW YORK (UPI)—Y. A. Title, Del Shofner and Don Chandler will head a group of New York Giant football players who depart for Puerto Rico today for a government sponsored "Sports Mission to San Juan."

The group will include Tony Lema, "Lema and Palmer weren't there."

"McCormack's waiting until he gets 20 top players," a tour regular told me. "Then he'll break away. He already has 10."

"The other day I was playing with Gene Littler, and a guy comes up and asks him some deal. 'You'll have to see McCormack,' he says. 'You know what that means.'"

The pro wasn't happy about McCormack's Big Brother image. Maybe because, although he makes his $35,000 a year, he's not one of Mack's chosen people.

A split between the touring pros and the PGA appears inevitable, and when it does happen, McCormack, with all the attractions at the end of his string, will be in the driver's seat. The television possibilities alone what the imagination.

The package deal is the thing in sports. Professional football has it. Baseball is working on it. The PGA is aware of it, with a special committee set up to see that the players get their share of the revenue.

But think of McCormack offering his special troupe, containing almost all the prime attractions.

"It might be attractive to us," admitted Perry Smith, the sports director at NBC, which beams the Bing Crosby Open, the Tournament of Champions at Las Vegas, the U.S. Open and the World Series of Golf. "I don't know if people would get tired of seeing the same 20 every week. But then," he reflected, "they see the same 20 anyhow."

"If he could pull it off,"

Lions Now Go Into Second Round Play

Jim Courier was nicked for six hits Thursday afternoon in the Group V, class B baseball tournament in Tavares but the sensational Oviedo moundsman was able to scatter them enough so that the Lions were able to register a 4 to 0 shutout over Brooksville.

As a result of Thursday's victory, Oviedo goes into the second round of the tourney today. The Lions were slated to meet Tavares at 3 p. m.

Oviedo got into the scoring column early Thursday afternoon when they pushed over two runs in the initial stanza. Charlie Miller tallied on a fielder's choice and Wayne Jacobs crossed the plate on a walk with the bases jammed.

The Lions posted their other two runs in the sixth frame when Colbert and Steward worked Brooksville hurler, Sharp, for free tickets. Miller doubled in Colbert and Steward hit the plate on a wild pitch.

Billy Mikler was the big stick for the Lions, getting a single and a double in a pair of hits. Oviedo got only four hits. Aside from Mikler's pair, Courier and Miller recorded the others.

Courier, hurling Oviedo to his 12th win of the season, whiffed nine and walked four. The Lions miscued four times behind Courier but a pair of fast twin-killings kept Courier from getting into deep water.

Score by innings:

Brooksville 000 000 0-0 6 2

Oviedo 200 002 x-4 4 4

Griffin, Sharpe and Vohun; Courier and Brooks.

Crooms In 8th Straight Win

Tommie Joseph plucked the Crooms High Panthers to their eighth straight win of the season as they whipped the Hungerford Bobcats by a score of 8 to 5.

Joseph fanned eight and walked two as he limited the 'Cats to only five hits. He was a three-run blast by William Cleveland.

The Panthers got four runs in the opening frame, added a pair in the third and one in each of the fifth and seventh innings.

George Bush and Nathaniel White were the leading sluggers for Crooms, each getting two hits in four trips.

The Panthers have yet to drop a contest this season.

Wynn when Old Gus was pitching for Cleveland (he's now the Tribe's mound coach). Early staggered around like a drunk, slumped a piece of tape on the wound and finished his stint. Next day a photog brought Vaidy over to the Indian dugout for a picture with Wynn. Ten feet away, Early spotted the shortstop and let a flood of invective that made Jose wish he had never studied English. Wynn took the accident as a personal affront.

Speaking of getting hit, left-hander Jim Kaat of Minnesota still has a ball which struck him in the mouth off the bat of Bubba Morton, and eventually parted him and seven teeth.

John David Crow, the high-salaried and much-injured running back of the St. Louis football Cardinals, was within one defensive back of being sent to the Philadelphia Eagles. The Cards wanted tackle Riley Gunnels, which was O.K., and corner back Irv Cross, which wasn't. And Crow is still a cinch to be dealt to some other club.

Dig the British-inspired narration that went with the new release of "The Grand Olympics," a film of the 1960 Rome games; e.g., the reference to decathlon champ Rafer Johnson as "Olympic star and philosopher"; the description of shotputter Parry O'Brien's bulk as "222 pounds displacement."

Between you'n'me, the unretired among the Chicago White Sox over contract difficulties was serious enough to force Al Lopez to call a meeting this spring and advise them not to discuss their dissatisfaction in public. One Chisoxer was cut $6,000 because he didn't produce last year. He was out three months with a broken collar bone.

KC's Rookie Tom Reynolds Beats Tigers With 3-Run Homer

'Forgotten Man' Has Three RBIs

United Press International
Does the name Tom Reynolds ring a bell?
Probably not, but neither did the name Tom Jones with many until the Academy Awards.
Tom Reynolds and Tom Jones have only one thing in common. They're both real swingers, but the comparison ends right there.

Jones, a cinematic sexpot, never cared anything about base hits. Reynolds, on the other hand, is a level-headed 22-year-old Kansas City rookie who lives for the day he can nail down a regular job.
He certainly went about it the right way Thursday when he blasted a three-run homer over the center field fence in the first inning and singled home another run in the third to pace the Athletics to a 10-3 victory over the Detroit Tigers.

Par's The Pace In Mary Esther

The Mary Esther sponsored women's golf tourney was highlighted with par golf when the competition got underway Thursday at the Mayfair Country Club.
The tournament, a full handicap — best ball of two-some — is being played over three consecutive weeks with the same partners. Some of the lowest scores posted included a 67 by Ida B. Wilson and Jan Johnson in addition to a 67 also by Myrtle Adams and Edie Ware. Lorraine Miller and Jo McDaniel registered 68 and Marion Cox and Jane McKibbin had a 71.
Jimmie Livingston and Augie Russell had a 72, Elsie Mero and Barbara Morrison also posted a 72. Merle Truitt and Hazel Durso registered a 73 and Helen Carraway and Susie Dickey also came in with a 73.

Little League Calls Meeting

The South Seminole Little League will hold a meeting for parents and other interested persons at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, at the Lyman High School Auditorium in Longwood.
The program will feature a 30-minute motion picture film entitled "This is Little League." The meeting was called by Bill Livingston, league president.

Dodger Discard Farrel Rubs It In On Old 'Pals'

United Press International
Dick Farrell, a guy with the memory of an elephant, stomps all over the Dodgers every chance he gets.
He admits he enjoys it, too, and that's becoming obvious because he now has beat them more times than he has any other club in the National League.

The hard-throwing, 30-year-old Houston right-hander took particular relish in snapping the Dodgers' four-game winning streak, 7-3, Thursday night for his third straight victory without a loss.

Farrell, owner of a 14-8 lifetime record against the Dodgers, has nursed a deep-seated resentment against them since they dumped him into the NL player expansion pool at the end of the 1961 season.

He didn't mind being thrown into the pool so much as he did being blamed by the Dodgers for their failure to win the pennant that year. Farrell had an 8-7 record that season, with a 5.18 earned run average and the Dodgers let it get around that he cost them a shot at the World Series.

He clipped for nine hits Thursday night but struck out nine and had the added satisfaction of boosting the seventh-place Colts a full game ahead of the Dodgers.

The first-place Philadelphia Phillies beat the Cincinnati Reds, 3-1, in the only other NL game played as rain washed out the Pittsburgh-Milwaukee and San Francisco-Chicago contests.

Liston May Get His Fight Cut This Weekend

CHESTER, Pa. (UPI)—Although he hasn't received "a quarter" yet from his heavy-weight championship fight with Cassius Clay, Sonny Liston expects to be $100,000 richer by the weekend.

Jack Nilon, Liston's adviser, announced Thursday night that the ex-champion should receive the money as part of a payment owned Inter-Continental Promotions, Inc., by Bill MacDonald of Miami, who helped stage the bout. MacDonald owes $400,000 as part of the title fight guarantee.

"This indebtedness arose because of levies filed by the Internal Revenue Service, which prohibited further payment by MacDonald to Inter-Continental," Nilon said.

But they have no monopoly on anxiety, although Tenney claims he doesn't solve anything," he said. Finnegan, who didn't have too much of a horse in Jean's Joe and one with unsound legs in Finnegan, this time has a rugged runner in Hill Rise, who is as sound as a bell and easy to train.

"He settled down shortly after he got here and he is as ready as I can make him. This one race is 50 per cent horse and 50 per cent jockey and I am glad I have Willie Shoemaker to ride. Experience counts here," he said.

Mickey, Marilyn Favored

ALEXANDRIA, La. (UPI)—Top money-winner Mickey Wright and Titleholders title Marilyn Smith reigned as co-favorites among 35 women pro golfers who teed off today in the Clifford Ann Creed Invitational.
But the field held plenty of upset potential including the former Alexandria school-teacher for whom the tourney is named and Mary Lena Faulk, who led the top foursome in Thursday's pre-am preliminary.

Partly cloudy and mild weather was expected to continue throughout the three-day tournament.
This would be an ideal opportunity for Miss Creed to win her first Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) tournament. She has a hometown gallery rooting for her and she knows the course.
Miss Smith won the Titleholders tournament at Augusta, Ga., last weekend. Miss Wright finished second.

The current tourney, a 54-hole event, ends Sunday.

NOTICE VOTERS!

OF REFERENDUM ELECTION MAY 5

A FAR REACHING ACT PROVIDING FOR WATER CONSERVATION, CONTROL AND DRAINAGE FACILITIES, GENERAL OBLIGATION BONDS, SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS, AND AD VALOREM TAXES.

The SEMINOLE COUNTY SPORTSMEN'S ASSOCIATION, believing that the County Referendum

Election to be voted upon May 5th concerning Water Conservation and Control should be voted upon by a well-informed electorate, offers the following summarized explanation of important parts of the proposed 45 page Water Conservation & Control Act.

PURPOSE OF ACT

To acquire, construct, improve, maintain and operate water conservation and control facilities in Seminole County and to have exclusive control of water conservation and control facilities; to regulate the supply of water, to divert excess water from one area and water conservation and control facility to another area; to establish and maintain lake levels and to carry out purposes of the act in navigable and non-navigable lakes; to acquire by eminent domain or otherwise, lands, water, riparian rights, and personal property as deemed necessary for construction, reconstruction, maintenance and operation of water conservation and control facilities and to dispose of same; to make and enforce rules for maintenance and operation of water conservation and control facilities; to require permits, to suspend or deny permits, including building permits when in conflict with the purposes of the Act; to join with other counties, cities or other political subdivisions, public agencies or authorities in exercise of common powers; to cooperate with neighboring counties in projects to accomplish the purposes of the Act; to use funds authorized or received under the Act, including funds from sale of general obligation bonds, (special) assessment bonds, taxes obtained from special assessments and ad valorem taxes; to acquire, construct, improve, maintain and operate primary water conservation and control facilities in neighboring counties and in primary and secondary water conservation and control facilities of Seminole County.

BONDS

Upon approval of freeholders to issue general obligation or (special) assessment bonds or any combination thereof, provided the total amount of all general obligation indebtedness of the County issued and outstanding at any time, shall not exceed 4% of the assessed value of the taxable property in the County at the time of issuance of general obligation bonds or any assessments bonds for which full faith and credit of the County are pledged an additional security. At the present (total assessed valuation of approximately 200 million dollars, this Act would limit bonds at this date to approximately 8 million dollars.

MILLAGE

To levy and assess ad valorem taxes without limitation of rate or amount on all taxable property within County for paying principal and interest on any general obligation indebtedness lawfully issued for the purpose of this Act.

SPECIAL AD VALOREM TAX

"Section 15. In addition to the ad valorem taxes authorized to be levied to pay the principal and interest on general obligation bonds, or an additional security for assessment bonds, said County is authorized to levy, assess and collect a special ad valorem tax each year of a sufficient number of mills upon the dollar of assessed valuation of property subject to taxation in the County to pay all or part of the cost of acquisition, construction, reconstruction, improvement, maintenance and operation of such water conservation and control facilities, and to carry out the purposes of this Act; provided, however, that such special ad valorem tax shall be in no event in excess of two (2) mills during any one year. ***"

SPECIAL DRAINAGE DISTRICTS

The County Board is authorized to create special tax districts, whose boundaries shall be coextensive with any secondary water conservation and control facility and assess, levy and collect a special assessment tax not to exceed 3/10 of a mill each year for operation and maintenance of said secondary water conservation and control facility.

MANDATORY REDUCTION OF TAXES

Tax Assessor is required to reduce the amount of millage assessed and levied under Section 15 of the Act (up to 2 mills) in the same amount and rate as the millage lawfully imposed upon Seminole County property by the U.S. or any agency thereof, district, authority or political subdivision of the State of Florida or combination thereof.

SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS

Said County may provide for the construction or reconstruction of assessable improvements and for levying of special assessments upon benefited property for the payment thereof and may use ad valorem taxes levied under Section 16 of the Act for construction of assessable improvements and issuance of assessment bonds payable out of such special assessments levied when collected, and the County may pledge its full faith and credit and taxing powers for the payment of principal and interest on such assessment bonds if approved by the qualified freeholder electors. All special assessments shall constitute a lien upon the property so assessed to the same extent as a lien for general county taxes, and provide for collection of such liens.
The Act provides for primary and secondary water conservation facilities in any area, district, water basin or project.

Come to Church Every Week

NO Pictures?

Don't be sad, sweetheart. The book has no pictures, but it's a wonderful story... the most wonderful story in the world! You'll hear about it in Sunday School, and when you're older you'll be able to read it for yourself.

Her eager young mind is ready to learn, and she'll find it easy to understand the glorious truths of the Bible if they are presented to her in pictures, stories and songs. The happy hours she spends in Sunday School could be the beginning of an unshakable Christian faith that will sustain her all her life.

You feel that your children deserve the best. Give them an early introduction to the beauty of the Christian religion... give them the security of a loving Christian home... and know that these are the greatest gifts you could provide.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Twined Hearts - Automated

Romance is one field of human endeavor which you might think would be immune to the advances of technology. And yet match-making machines—kissing cousins to computers—are programming Cupid right out of a job.

It all started when some unromantic soul went into partnership with an electronic business machine and set it to work pairing off young men and women in compatible twosomes.

As a result, matchmaking centers have been set up in several major cities. Business, according to the boy-meet-girl people, couldn't be better.

"Miss Brown," the machine might say, "meet Mr. Smith. Both of you like jazz, hate olives, are allergic to cats and take long walks. You're ideally suited to each other. Have fun."

Actually, the machines don't match personality to personality but, by the unromantic process of card elimination, find two or three suitable mates for the inquiring client. Someone who's looking for a mother-inage, for example, wouldn't be happy with a clinging vine.

If automated romance becomes fashionable, where will it all end?

Perhaps your great-grandchildren will depend for introductions on the local computer, instead of today's overworked mutual friends. Or young couples may have to apply to a computer for compatibility tests before being issued a marriage license.

But be of good cheer: A computer will never be able to program so unpredictable an item as love in the male-female relationship. And love, they say, conquers all. Even computers.

Thought For Today

And now, O Lord, thou art God, and thou hast promised this good thing to thy servant;—I Chron. 17:28.

At some time, his good time, I shall arrive;
He guides me and the bird
In his good time.

To The Editor

Editor, Herald:
Dear Sir:
In The Herald for Apr. 22 you published a summary of the "Seminole County Water Conservation and Control Act" written by Mr. Avery, Chairman of the County Commission—which act was approved by the Legislature in July 1963.

You rendered a real public service by publishing Mr. Avery's summary, for you have made at least some of the electors aware that on May 8 they must decide if they wish the right and costly control of this Act to be imposed on them.

There is no escape from this decision by the usual method of no voting at all on the bill, for only a majority of negative votes can prevent it from immediately becoming law.

When one realizes that this Act has been in the hands of the County Commission since July '63, with no public mention of it, or of the fact that the Commission intended to use the coming primary election as a referendum, where it would become law by a simple majority of those voting "yes", whether one or 10,000, one must conclude that the County Commission did not have any serious desire to enlighten the public itself or the referendum to make it a law.

It was the duty of the County Commission to publicize the Act in detail, long before your article and before placing it on the ballot. Mr. Avery's inference that the Commissioners were "interested in disseminating its content to the electors" but were held back by the problem of the legal terms and the length of the bill, is unconvincing to say the least.

Why has the public been kept in ignorance of the details of this Act? One can only assume that it is because its sponsors know that the voters would reject it if they were aware of the dangers to which it exposes County citizens through the granting of such broad and arbitrary powers to any County Commission.

Why the effort to rush this bill through to law at this primary, when the present Commission has but eight months to serve? One can only suppose that if the Act becomes law as of May 8, the Commission expects to sponsor and start projects and districts, etc., not only to impose their will on the public, but also to deliver projects already begun into the hands of a new Board of Commissioners who, although they may not favor either the projects or the way in which they have been forced upon the County by the provisions of the Bill, will be obligated to see them through.

Mr. Avery states (and I could not agree more completely) that the Act "grants very broad and general powers to the County, almost without limitation." He might better have phrased it "powers to the County Commission" instead of "County," and added that if this becomes law, there is virtually no court of appeal open to the public.

No thinking person is opposed to water conservation and control in a growing community. But the powers "without limitation" which this bill grants to the County Commissioners are not, in the opinion of many, the way to handle the matter. This bill makes almost any act of the Commission legal, if it can come under the general heading of "water" and, furthermore, offers no Board of Authority or referendum back to the public as relief against arbitrary and dictatorial action by the Commission.

The wide scope of the powers given the Commission is frightening. The County Commissioners may set up special tax districts, assess and collect taxes in assessment districts for improvement and maintenance of "secondary facilities," all of which Mr. Avery waves aside as coming to only 3/10 of a mill per year in taxes. Since he leaves it at that, he gives the impression, intentionally or otherwise, that 3/10 of a mill per year is the maximum tax that can be imposed on each freeholder through this Act.

You will find that this is not the case. The County Commissioners have the power to issue bonds, both assessment and general obligation bonds, and to levy special and ad valorem taxes up to two mills during any one year. Furthermore, (Page 14 of the bill) "for the payment of principal and interest on any general obligation bonds . . . shall . . . authorize and require the levy annually of a special tax upon all taxable property within the County—over and above all other taxes authorized or permitted by law, sufficient to pay such principal and interest as shall become due and payable."

The Board of County Commissioners may create departments, boards, etc., if they deem necessary. The Engineer's Department will have to be enlarged. Bids on expenditures up to $1,500 will be made without competition or permission of the County Commissioners. Is all this coming out of a 3/10 of a mill tax? Of course it isn't.

But even this would not seem so incredible and dangerous if the freeholders of the land included in the projects had any say in the matter. Surely we should stand by democratic principles to the extent that a majority of the freeholders have an opportunity to declare themselves in favor of the proposed improvement before having it forced on them by the County Commissioners.

So, I urge delay, more talk, and open debate on the matter. I feel it is, to put it mildly, unethical to try to force this bill through on May 8, on a simple majority "yes" vote, when not half of the voters will know anything about the bill because they have, apparently ignorantly, been kept in ignorance.

Nevertheless, it is on the ballot. Usually, if an elector doesn't know about a bill, he just doesn't vote on it. But in this case, that isn't enough. Those who don't want this bill in its present form, who want to know more about it before it becomes the law of the County, should vote "NO," because those who do want it, are going to vote "yes" and a simple majority, however obtained, will be enough to force it through.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—With economy-conscious officials turning out the lights all over town, it's a bit of a surprise to hear anybody dare to argue for "more Indians" in some agencies. But the case is pleaded here and there.

The State Department, long a whipping object for both the Congress and the public, is one such place.

A young department official who has to remain anonymous, is somewhat astonished to note how often highly qualified junior officers have to turn from substantive matters to doing their own filing and other routine chores.

In his view, the lack of a judicious sprinkling of secretaries makes part-time clerks out of men who should be focusing totally on the department's creative business.

The official here quoted used to work on Capitol Hill. The clerical help he could call upon then makes those days seem a luxury. He recalls the bland assumption that a telephoned request from a lawmaker's office would set hordes of otherwise under-used bureaucrats scurrying to supply answers.

From his new vantage point, he sees that department employes do indeed scurry when a request is made. But the task is not handled by Indians resting on the bench. People often set aside basic, important foreign policy work to satisfy a query.

The young department officer estimates that perhaps a fifth of the department's time is taken up in its relations with Congress—preparing for appropriations and authorization bills, answering mail and other inquiries, keeping records with a particular eye on next year's congressional hearings.

The situation, he says, is not far from that complained of ruefully in World War II by a young chair-bound lieutenant who said: "I've got so many reports to make out I haven't got time to do the things I'm supposed to report about."

The penalty for all this, it is suggested, is that many men who should be thinking and planning ahead simply do not have the time for it. When a foreign policy crisis develops, these gaps in preparation are quickly revealed.

Ironically, when trouble brews and the department's response is sometimes less than adequate, loud protests inevitably are heard in Congress. An old, tired question is put again: "What are those striped-pants boys doing down there?"

The answer, some would say, is spending too much time attending to Congress.

Many who move from a congressional setting to the executive branch are struck hard by another thing. The anonymous State Department man expresses it:

"It's a shock to come from the relative simplicity of Capitol Hill to the complexities involved in operating the government."

The late President Kennedy and some of his key aides often remarked the difference, especially in the foreign policy field. In the White House and the many agencies, government has a tangled, gray look that no outsider, no matter how long on Capitol Hill, seems wholly able to comprehend.

If this notion needs further underscoring, that seasoned lawmaker, President Johnson, seems now to be providing it. Testimony is ample that he has found the intricacies of foreign policy to be his hardest lessons. There is no short course.

Editor, Herald:
Mr. James P. Avery Jr. did a masterly job (in The Sanford Herald) of summarizing the water conservation bill.

But I find after reading the bill and the summary that there is nothing in it about money for recreation specifically. Of course, some recreational benefit will accrue as a matter of course from any water conservation measure.

I also find that this bill was lifted almost intact from the Flood Control Act, Florida Statutes 378.01 and 378.52, with two important differences:

1. It gives local control. This is fine. It is the base of our states rights philosophy.
2. It leaves out that portion about pollution in which no one person, corporation, firm, municipality or anyone in their employ may put rubbish or any deleterious substance, fill or poisonous substance in the water. This is not good.

So I'm still wondering how the County Commission is to get the money to implement the recreational planning committee's proposals.

Water, unpolluted, and recreational areas make up the most important base for the future growth of our county.

CASE 5-433: Polly P., aged 20, is an attractive blonde. But she has one striking fault that alienates men.

"Ugh," a college man exclaimed under his breath when Polly entered the room, "look at those bird claws!"

Whereupon I glanced at her fingernails. This man was right.

For Polly's nails extended a full half inch beyond the ends of her fingers.

"Claws like that make me sick at my stomach," this young man added, as he turned away from Polly.

And Polly probably wondered why some of the most attractive boys in the crowd shunned her.

Many girls are "mental goose steppers." They don't think for themselves but just follow fads uncritically.

If any radical fashion designer tells them to stain their nails bloody red, they meekly follow, sheeplike.

"Why did the fad ever arise for women to wear clawlike nails?" you may inquire.

Well, it was supposed to be a "status symbol" of the wealthy or aristocratic women.

For any girl who actually worked would break off her nails.

So clawlike nails were supposed to indicate a "kept" or "idle rich" girl.

But in modern America, there is a general aversion to people who do not carry their end of the load in life, so clawlike fingernails are doubly repulsive.

And that is also true of the abnormal red fingernails that suggest blood!

Many girls thus attend parties with hands that look as if they had been butchering hogs, for their nails reek with blood red polish.

Others present a harsh, artificial appearance with their mascara, eye shadow and other evidences of bizarre fads.

The average man does not object to a reasonable amount of makeup.

But by "reasonable," he means just enough to look natural!

Whenever you women go to extreme, your cosmetic aids thus attract attention to their own artificiality.

Make-up should always be regarded as merely the frame around the picture.

No artist would think of letting the frame detract from the canvas or oil painting that it surrounds.

That would be a gross violation of the basic rules of art.

But many nitwit girls and women will violate this rule of art every time they dress up.

And the more desperate they are to have a boy friend, the thicker they apply their artificial cosmetic aids.

Stage actresses obviously must overdo in the matter of make-up, for it takes excess paint and lipstick to be evident on the rear rows, but in social groups, NEVER let the frame detract from the picture!

So send for the 200-point "Rating Scale for Sweethearts," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20c.

It offers the frank advice of 1,144 engaged men about their fiancées!

YOUR VOTE FOR SPESSARD L. HOLLAND WILL ASSURE:

SENIORITY—Senator Holland ranks 12th in seniority among 67 Democratic Senators, which gives him a powerful voice on three major committees vital to Florida's future... Appropriations, Agriculture and Forestry, and Space Committees.

INTEGRITY—Holland has an enviable, proven, 18 year record of forthrightness and moral leadership.

MEDICAL ASSISTANCE—Spessard Holland strongly supports medical assistance for our senior citizens via the Kerr-Mills Act. Kerr-Mills offers broader coverage than Medicare. Kerr-Mills pays hospital and doctor bills for those in need.

BETTER HARBORS—As a result of Holland's work in Washington, every one of the 17 major Florida Harbors has been improved.

FLOOD CONTROL—Holland has been effective in securing Federal Funds for South and Central Florida Flood Control.

SPACE DEVELOPMENT—Everyone knows the influence the Space Program has had on Florida's economic development. Spessard Holland is a member of the Space Committee whose prime responsibility it is to handle legislation in the space field.

CROSS FLORIDA BARGE CANAL—Senator Holland has been instrumental in getting one million dollars in Federal funds for construction of the Cross Florida Barge Canal.

CITIZEN'S RIGHTS—Holland's vigilance where all our citizen's rights are concerned is known to all. He is against any law that deprives of basic liberties such as the present Civil Rights Bill.

INTERSTATE HIGHWAYS—Spessard Holland supported the Highway Act of 1956 increasing Federal contributions to Interstate Roads.

Record Vote Forecast For Seminole Tuesday

Seminole County is expected to top the state's anticipated record high vote of 55 per cent of the registered voters in Tuesday's party primary election.

This indication stems from the high number of absentee ballots, 350, already filed with Registrar Camilla Bruce.

Seminole County has a total of 18,240 registered voters, an all-time high, including 15,278 Democrats and 2,928 Republicans. Other registered voters include two Prohibitionists.

Secretary of State Tom

Adams, Florida's chief election official, has predicted that 1.2 million of the state's registered 2.2 million voters will go to the polls Tuesday.

Civil rights, an interesting Senate race and a strong field of gubernatorial candidates are expected to draw the record number of voters in the state.

But Adams admitted that bad weather or some other unforeseen event on election day could knock his prediction into a cocked hat.

Seminole Democrats will vote for candidates for party nominations as follows:

will be closed until 7 p.m. Tuesday.

The county's 23 polling places (listed elsewhere on this front page) will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Tuesday.

All Seminole County electors will vote on the water conservation and control act.

Seminole Republicans will vote for a candidate for governor from among Ken Folks, H. B. Foster and Charles R. Holley.

Seminole Democrats will vote for candidates for party nominations as follows:

For U. S. senator—Spessard L. Holland and Bralley Odham.

For governor—Haydon Burns, Fred Dickinson, Robert King High, Frederick B. Karl, Scott Kelly and John E. Mathews.

For attorney general—Earl Faircloth and James W. Kyne.

For public utilities commissioner—Phillip S. Brewer and Edwin L. Mason.

For state representative—S. J. Davis Jr. and Robert G. Petree.

For tax collector—James P. Avery Jr., W. B. Ellerbe, Troy Ray, Marjorie C. Shepard, Rudy L. Sloan and Roy R. Wright Jr.

For tax assessor—Richard E. McCanna and Mary Earle Walker.

For county judge—Karllye Housholder and Harlan Tuck.

For prosecuting attorney—Kenneth W. McIntosh and Thomas A. Speer.

For superintendent of public instruction—R. T. Milwee and Jim Pigott.

For county commissioner, District 1—Hal Colbert, J. C.

Hutchison, A. C. Smith Jr. and Edward Yarborough.

For county commissioner, District 3—George Bobrow, Ford Cavanaugh and W. Lawrence Swofford.

For county commissioner, District 5—George W. Bell, Harry F. Cushing, John M. Fitzpatrick, Ruth H. Gallacher and J. O. Gregory.

District Democrats only will vote for these party nominations:

For constable, District 4—Joe Baggerly, R. E. Carroll, J. U. Lee, Charles M. Scott and Charlie Thomas.

For justice of the peace,

For constable, District 6—Charles Fagan, Grady L. Hall, George W. Reek and Billy Joe Young.

Where more than two candidates are in a race the successful nominee must receive 50 per cent plus one of the total votes cast for that office. Should any one candidate fail to receive 50 per cent plus one of the total vote, then the top two candidates will oppose each other in the second or runoff primary on May 26.

General election will be held on Nov. 3. Robert Hoover, Republican, will oppose Davis or Petree for state representative. Guy Allen, Republican, will face McCanna or Mrs. Walker for assessor. E. Pope Bassett, Republican, will run against Bobrow, Cavanaugh or Swofford for county commissioner from District 3. Jim Birkenmeyer Jr., Democrat, and Walter R. Hoberg, Republican, will run for School Board member from District 3. Charles E. Kern, Republican, will oppose Cox, Davis, Morris or York for justice of the peace for District 6.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Vote Tuesday!

You've heard it before, but because of its importance we beg your pardon if we sound repetitious.

You alone could decide the election for a candidate. Your one vote Tuesday is that vital. It's been proved before. Today you are looked up to by each candidate running for public office. They have been doing all in their power to let you know their qualifications. Tuesday you can't be undecided for your vote is that important.

The most important thing you may do this year is cast your ballot for the candidate of your choice. No matter what your choice may be, The Herald sincerely urges you to VOTE TUESDAY.

For Tuesday, you are King for a Day.

Water Control

In 1961 a clamor arose in Seminole because County Commissioners did not have the authority for water control. At that time, as it is now, if your living room were two-feet deep in water the only legal assistance you could get from the Commission would be sympathy.

To combat this problem, the Commission set up an investigating committee which made recommendations that are included in the water control measure Seminole residents will vote on Tuesday.

Further, in 1962 the Commission requested HIFA funds to study water control. The request was denied because the Commission had no authority to put a plan, based on the study, in effect. "First," they said, "get your authority."

Orange County had the authority by virtue of action by its County Commission without a vote of the people. Seminole's governing board devised an act—identical to that of Orange, except for two factors.

First, the Seminole Commission wanted the people to vote on it, and, secondly, the Seminole bill has no retroactive tax powers.

A few have criticized the measure as having powers too broad for the County Commission. True, there are broad powers in the first four pages of the 46-page document. The rest of the bill specifically limits powers. Actually, the Commission's powers under this act are not as broad as it has in many other areas, including roads and bridges.

It has been charged that the Commission would have unlimited power to flout general obligation bonds. This, also, is true. But all bonds must be issued in accordance with Florida statutes and by a referendum vote of freeholders.

Basically the act will enable the Commission to obtain federal funds for devising a master plan—something vitally needed. It's on the ballot now because the law specified that it should be put before the people on the first primary or general election.

There can be no gray area in the matter of water control for Seminole County. It will either be white or black. The Herald has studied this bill and finds that it is a good one and that it is needed. Also, we are convinced that five elected officials are not going to start digging canals all over the county without a responsible plan and without the authority of people in special assessment districts who will foot the bill for the projects from which they alone benefit.

It will take at least 18 months to two years to devise a master plan. We believe the people have asked for this measure and that the Commission has devised the best possible act.

The Herald also commends the Commission and legislative delegation for including in the referendum the specific recommendations asked for by the Commission, including the right of the people to vote on the measure. After all, that's the democratic way. The Herald, therefore, urges the adoption of the proposed water control act on Tuesday.

Killed was Mrs. Joseph Norecki, 29, of Jacksonville. Joseph Norecki, 39, was in critical condition at a hospital.

Investigators said the car struck the engine of an Atlantic Coast Line train at 12th Street and Lane Avenue. The couple was thrown from the car, which ended in a ditch 50 feet away.

Gubernatorial Candidates Racing Down To Final Wire

By United Press International Florida's candidates for governor roamed the state today, hopping from one big voting center to another in a final thrust for a berth in the runoff after Tuesday's first primary election.

Not even a night cut to two hours sleep and badly-damaged vocal cords could stop Sen. John Mathews Jr. of Jacksonville from an all-out campaign finale.

After a 4 a.m. arrival in Jacksonville from Pensacola, where he appeared on television and shook hands with factory workers, Mathews mixed humor and earnestness in an appeal to campaign workers at a breakfast in Jacksonville.

He said he listened to the car radio between stops and "I never heard such campaign gibberish, silly jingles and wild claims." He said that his local rival, Mayor Haydon Burns, is taking credit for everything that happened in Jacksonville.

"But when Haydon dug the St. Johns River through here, he got a little mixed up and ran it under the Mathews bridge," Mathews told the local crowd of supporters. They roared with laughter.

Sen. Scott Kelly, in a statement issued before leaving his hometown of Lakeland for a final day of campaigning in Palm Beach county, said there would be no retail price-fixing on milk if he is elected.

He said one of his first acts would be to ask the legislature to revoke retail price-fixing authority of the commission and "if the legislature fails to do it, then I will appoint only those persons to the commission who will pledge in writing that they oppose retail price-fixing. If any member of my commission votes to fix retail prices on milk, I'll immediately fire him."

On Sunday the candidates had little rest. In hectic campaigns the candidates hustled in and out of towns in an effort to meet as many voters as possible before Tuesday's primary.

Kelly flew from Lakeland to the Tampa area. Rep. Fred Karl and Miami Mayor Robert King High talked to voters throughout the Southeast Florida area.

Fred Dickinson was at home in West Palm Beach where he addressed a large rally. Jacksonville Mayor Haydon Burns appeared to be shifting his campaign to a race for the May 26 runoff.

Dickinson moved into Dade and Broward counties today where he will wind up the 11-week campaign that covered the state's 67 counties.

Scott Kelly told supporters he will have an "overwhelming majority of the votes" Tuesday.

Karl, in Miami, said he would continue discussing all issues up to the last minute and would not allow the race to degenerate into a name calling contest on the last day.

Burns' supporters are so confident of victory Tuesday they have begun seeking backing from supporters of other candidates with an eye to the runoff election.

High continued his fight against the big interests, who spend hundreds of thousands of dollars during the final days of the governor's campaign to elect their favorite candidate. These candidates spend $7,000 a day. It would take a citizen earning $125 an hour, the minimum wage, three years to earn that much."

3 Youths Put On Probation; 4 To Be Confined

Three of the seven youths who admitted breaking and entering an area school were placed on strict, indefinite probation this morning by Juvenile Court Judge Vernon Mize.

The other four are in the county jail awaiting transportation to the Florida Industrial School for Boys.

All seven were nabbed shortly after they entered the South Seminole Junior High School, ransacking several offices, taking six transistor radios and a tape recorder.

The judge ordered the three boys arraigned today to pay a proportionate share of the damages estimated at $200. The money, he insisted, must come from work performed by the boys.

Strict terms of the probation were spelled out this morning by Judge Mize who warned the youths they would "definitely" be sent to the industrial school should they violate the terms.

The boys' parents or close friends were in the judge's chambers this morning.

Voters In 6 States Go To Polls Tuesday

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Voters in six states go to the polls Tuesday in primary elections, with most interest centered on Alabama. George C. Wallace's presidential test in Indiana.

A right-to-work issue in Oklahoma shared attention with the Indiana contest. The four other states balloting Tuesday are Alabama, Florida, New Mexico, and Ohio.

Tuesday's primary in Florida is for state and congressional offices. The state's presidential primary will be held May 26.

Other primaries will be held later this month in Nebraska, West Virginia, Oregon, Maryland, Kentucky and North Carolina.

The District of Columbia also will hold a primary Tuesday to elect delegates to the national political conventions this summer. However, no presidential candidate is involved.

The primaries usher in a month of heavy politicking in which 12 states will vote for real or phantom candidates for the presidency and for candidates for state offices and Congress.

The Republican schedule lists nine states choosing national convention delegates in May at state conventions, including four this weekend and others to come in Wyoming, Michigan, Vermont, Alaska and Mississippi.

Suspect Faces Robbery Count

A Bookertown Negro, Eddie Lee Smith, 49, will answer to charges of armed robbery and breaking and entering before Justice of the Peace Hugh Duncan this afternoon.

Constable Bob Carroll arrested Smith early Saturday in a Bookertown bar after Mrs. E. S. Gardner had been robbed in her grocery at Lake Monroe.

Carroll said a thief broke into Mrs. Gardner's adjoining apartment, forced her at gunpoint into the grocery and made off with between $100 and $150 and a revolver.

From the description supplied by Mrs. Gardner, Carroll said he arrested Smith 45 minutes later in the bar. The constable said he recovered Mrs. Gardner's wallet from Smith's shoe.

Observers Sent To 6 Counties

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Bay and Washington counties were added today to counties to which Secretary of State Tom Adams will send deputies to watch Tuesday's balloting for any sign of irregularities.

Adams said he was requested to send the observers by candidates whom he identified as a Mr. Thurmond, running for sheriff in Washington County and a Mr. Hodges, candidate for supervisor of registration in Bay County.

Adams previously had assigned deputies to Nassau, Clay, Santa Rosa and Monroe counties, also at the request of candidates or Democratic officials.

Gang Suspect In Race Slayings

NEW YORK (UPI)—Police sought today to link the unsolved slayings of two white men in Harlem to a racist gang of young Negro hoodlums.

Evidence indicates the gang was formed in recent months and had dedicated itself to attacking whites in the largely Negro area for reasons of race alone.

One of the murdered men was a missionary, the other a fruit peddler.
