Critical Balance Must For Health

DEAR DR. LAMB—I am hoping you can help me in some way. I'm a 60-year-old man. About six months ago I developed internal bleeding. This has subsided somewhat recently. My big problem is that my bone marrow has quit making blood; my corpuscles are almost zero. My doctors have failed to locate the trouble. I am living on blood transfusions now. I have a good appetite.

DEAR READER—The normal function of the human body often depends upon a critical balance. We all produce new blood cells every day and lose others. As long as the bone marrow produces an amount equal to the number lost we are in balance.

The balance can be upset because of a loss of too many blood cells, which apparently happened in your case. At first, the bone marrow may be able to keep up with the increased demand for blood cell replacement but eventually it may become exhausted.

You need certain vital elements to enable the bone marrow to function properly. These include adequate protein in your diet, enough iron and the ability to absorb sufficient vitamin B-12. Deficiencies in these nutrients, and even hormone deficiencies, can hamper your bone marrow's ability to respond.

The bone marrow may also be the main cause of an anemia simply because it stops producing a normal number of blood cells, even if there is no loss of blood. That can happen as a reaction to many different medicines that are commonly used, including those you can buy without a prescription.

The balance factors involved in an anemia are discussed in greater detail in The Health Letter number 43, Understanding the Anemias, which I am sending you. Others who wish a discussion can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 43, Sanford, Fla. 32771.

Medical World News reviewed this problem some time ago and pointed out that Dr. Victor Herbert, a nutritionist from Downstate Medical Center in Brooklyn, said that when it was mixed with salivary was mutagenic, meaning a cancer risk. Also Dr. Richard S. Rivlin, professor of medicine at Cornell, was quoted as saying, "B-12 has no proved benefit and some evidence of risk, so there should be no reason to expose the public to it."

Under the circumstances, I can't recommend anything. It was supposed to be an energizer. Good nutrition and good living habits are better approaches to enhancing energy.

Twilight and the early evening's rays transform the Seminole County Courthouse into a sun-splashed mirror. Clouds drift across flat reflective windows. Palm fronds rustle gently in the breeze. It's a peaceful world colored bright by the spring sun's fading fire. The colors fade quickly, however. Night creeps in. But then, with the coming of dawn, the show begins anew. And it's free to all who will but look.

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI)—Engineers ran into new countdown trouble early today, setting back by 11 hours preparations to launch two astronauts Friday on the first test flight of the space shuttle Columbia.

It also recommends the commission consider placing the issue of new construction of libraries in the county on an early ballot. He has estimated a cost of $4.8 million to build four county libraries, saying the facilities are needed.

Some $50,000 was set aside by the Legislature under a bill supported by State Rep. Robert Hattaway, D-Altamonte Springs, specifically for Seminole County a year ago, Percy said.

$390 Million For Jails

Graham Pushes 'War On Crime'

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UPI)—Gov. Bob Graham challenged the Legislature today to implement a massive attack on crime, including a $390 million program to build local jails, and act immediately.

Graham told legislators convening for the 1981 session he is so confident they will appropriate additional money for the crime fight he is instructing state agencies to start recruiting 150 additional Florida Highway Patrol troopers, 441 additional state's attorneys' staff, 141 additional public defenders' staff and 74 additional corrections officers.

He also asked lawmakers in his "State of the State" speech to authorize 27 additional judgeships by May 1, so the Judicial Nominating Commission can begin screening candidates.

He also imposed a May 1 deadline for changes in the juvenile justice law so authorities can detain troublesome youthful offenders.

This early action will enable Florida's intensified fight against major crime—which went up 18 percent last year—to begin almost immediately when the new fiscal year commences July 1.

"We will never turn Florida over to the mobsters, drug smugglers and thugs who would destroy the great state we have worked hard to build," the governor said.

"Without a safe and secure community in which to live, the hopes and efforts of our people for a more beautiful and bountiful state are vain. Domestic tranquility, peace and justice under the law—these are the foundation of our charge as public servants."

Graham renewed his call for tax increases to generate $390 million a year in additional transportation money and also emphasized the need for beefed up funding for education and economic development. But he made it clear he sees the crime issue as the most critical one facing the Legislature this year.

"We must guarantee that no convicted criminal ever is turned back into the street because we didn't have a jail cell put him in," he said.

He asked legislators to accept appropriations in his proposed state budget adding 1,768 beds to the critically overcrowded state prison system. And he proposed an existing solution to the crisis over crowding in most county and city jails.

The Legislature should place before the voters this November, he said, a constitutional amendment authorizing the state to issue bonds to raise money for local jails and pass a statute ordering a $390 million bond issue, contingent on passage of the amendment.

The $390 million would enable the state to provide 80 percent of the money for local jails constructed between now and year 2,000. In addition, the state would reimburse local governments for 80 percent of the costs for jails constructed or renovated since 1975. This state help will free property tax dollars to hire more policemen and sheriff's deputies.

Graham asked the Legislature to expand the state prison industries program, to locate future prisons near metropolitan areas where most criminals come from so inmates will be closer to their families and pass a law specifically authorizing the statewide victim-witness coordinating program.

He called for legislation letting local governments keep civil forfeitures collected under Florida's RICO, organized crime statute and to give judges more discretion in refusing bond to accused persons who have serious previous criminal records.

He renewed his demand that Cuban felons be taken to the U.S. Naval base at Guantanamo and pushed out the gates if necessary.

He blasted the federal government for not doing its fair share in the fight against drug smuggling and relocation of Cuban and Haitian refugees and for letting "known criminals" from Cuba and Haiti into Florida.

He renewed his demand that Cuban felons be taken to the U.S. Naval base at Guantanamo and pushed out the gates if necessary.

He asked House Speaker Ralph Haber and Senate President W.D. Childers to select a delegation "to travel with me to Washington to personally ensure that the federal government recognizes its responsibility to act on this (the refugee) issue."

Graham said he continues to stand behind his gas tax increase plan to provide additional money for transportation, but is willing to consider other options, including, presumably, the sales tax hike being proposed by Childers and other Senate leaders.

Music Teacher Faces Dismissal

By SYBIL MITCHELL GANDY

Robert Maguire, a Seminole High School chorus instructor who was suspended last week for "neglect of duty," faces possible job termination after nearly six years in the Seminole County School System.

Reprimanded by County Superintendent Robert Hughes for an unexcused April 1 absence, Maguire has been under suspension with pay for failing to report for work that morning.

Hughes suspended Maguire citing willful neglect of duty and "misconduct in office."

Maguire teaches at both Seminole and Croonis high schools on a continuing contract basis, therefore exempting him from direct dismissal action by the board. But if the board upholds a recommendation by Hughes to set dismissal procedures in motion through public hearings, Maguire may be ultimately fired.

Represented by John Shamblee, a Tampa attorney for the Seminole Education Association, Maguire declined to comment on the action he expected board members to take at tonight's preliminary hearing.

Trouble Delays Shuttle Launch 9-11 Hours

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI)—Engineers ran into new countdown trouble early today, setting back by 11 hours preparations to launch two astronauts Friday on the first test flight of the space shuttle Columbia.

The difficulty dealt with gaseous contamination in the ship's three fuel cell generators.

The problem meant the launch team probably would not be able to make up lagging countdown work by tonight as hoped. But there was no immediate indication that the difficulty would force a delay in the launch of astronauts John Young and Robert Crippen.

The agency said the bypass of a damaged electrical circuit in the shuttle's engine compartment was completed early today.

Study Could Net Funds To Save Downtown Library

By DONNA ESTES

Completion of the study on library needs in Seminole County could pave the way for state funding to expand and renovate the county's branch library in Sanford.

John Percy, director of county development, said today a $5,000 contract for the study was executed with Richard L. Waters, assistant director of the Dallas, Texas Library about two months ago with the idea of gaining the state money.

Yanks Join Feast Fit For King-in-Laws

LONDON (UPI)—Americans in search of the romantic, offbeat holiday are happily plunking down $2,300 apiece for a four highlighted by the privilege of dining with the in-laws of England's future king.

Snapping up a package offered by a New York travel agency, tourists from the United States will share a four-course meal, including wine, with the Earl and Countess Spencer. Their daughter, Lady Diana, is marrying Prince Charles in July.

"The chance to hob-nob with her folks is a huge attraction," said Wynn Oz, president of the Manhattan-based travel agency World of Oz.

Mrs. Oz said Saturday the tour was a sell-out.

The seven-day "Romantic World" holiday package also includes tea with romantic novelist Barbara Cartland, Lady Diana's grandmother.

Don't Stand Still Chase Ugly Veins

DEAR DR. LAMB—I'm 26 years old and would like to know what I can do about varicose veins. My legs started getting ugly when I was about 21. What caused this and what can I do to prevent them from getting any worse?

If they get any worse I couldn't stand it. I would never wear shorts or a bathing suit around people, including my husband, again. People say I look pretty good in a bikini but I don't want to be ashamed of my legs. I see a lot of women older than me who still have real pretty legs, especially "Charlie's Angels" or Suzanne Somers. I'm probably not on my feet as much as they are.

DEAR READER—Varicose veins are veins that have lost their natural elasticity, like an over-stretched balloon. That happens in part because the vein walls may be weak and because there is an accumulation of pressure from blood inside the veins. When you stand up, blood pools in your leg veins and builds up the internal pressure. Garters or anything that constricts the normal flow of blood through the thin-walled veins can increase the problem. Pregnancy obstructs the flow and increases varicose veins.

As you start walking, the leg muscles contract and squeeze the deep veins inside your legs, milking them and helping to pump blood uphill to your heart. This also milks the external veins that empty into your deep leg veins. The internal pressure falls. That is why walking is better than standing still.

Even if you inherit a tendency to have varicose veins, there are things you can do to help prevent them or keep them from getting so bad. These are explained in the Health Letter number 5-8, Varicose Veins, which I am sending you. Others who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long stamped, self-addressed envelope for it to me, in care of this newspaper.

County To Build Health Facility

By DONNA ESTES Herald Staff Writer A new health department facility, estimated to cost $15 million for site acquisition and construction, will be built in Sanford, preferably near the planned new hospital on the lakefront, during fiscal 1981-82.

County commissioners Tuesday, in workshop session, unanimously declared the new facility its number one priority in the Department of Human Services budget in the new fiscal year beginning Oct. 1.

The 30,000 square foot facility, expected to be adequate for more than 10 activities but also health department administrative staff. Currently, health related activities are handled through the Sanford clinic on U.S. 17-92 while administrative staff is housed at the Sanford Airport.

Shuttle Countdown 'In Great Shape'

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI) — The weather forecast improved and the countdown was pronounced in "great shape" today for Friday morning's launch of the space shuttle Columbia on a critical 54½-hour test flight around the Earth.

The Columbia's pilots, John W. Young and Robert L. Crippen, rose early in their health isolation trailer in Houston and prepared to fly to the space port later today.

At mid-morning, technicians began pumping super-cold liquid hydrogen and oxygen into small double-walled spheres in the Columbia's midsection to fuel the ship's three fuel cell electric generators during the 36-orbit mission.

That was a critical operation and launch director George Page said if problems were to crop up today, they probably would involve the fuel cell loading operation.

But test conductor Bill Schick said the "good," Schick said. "Today they are looking better. They are not ideal. We're keeping our fingers crossed."

The astronauts' stubby-winged, reusable spacecraft was rapidly being prepared for flight, after 2½ years of delays. Technicians even cleaned the ship's six airplane-like cockpit windows.

At sunrise, technicians were looking up explosive devices that would be used to blow up the shuttle's external fuel tank and solid fuel booster rockets after the crew ejected should the ship veer toward a populated area after lift-off.

Air Force rescue teams practiced astronaut recovery operations in a lagoon west of the oceanic launch pad. They rehearsed picking up crewmen from a life raft, and from a mockup representing a ditched shuttle.

Zoning Controls May Be Tried Against Adult Entertainment

Seminole County Commissioners have set a public hearing for May 12 to consider a new method of controlling adult entertainment in the county.

Prior to the commission hearing, the proposed new way — by using zoning controls — will be considered and acted upon by the county's planning and zoning commission on May 6.

Under a plan, recommended by Commissioner Bill Kirschhoff, an ordinance is being prepared requiring eight hours, but was cut to four hours so engineers could make up time lost Tuesday.

They made even better than expected progress and the countdown clock resumed at 10 p.m. after a 12-hour hold. A hold is given when the countdown clock is stopped to give technicians a rest, time to catch up with lagging work or time to seek the cause of problems.

Commissioners are seeing the tough reality about how much things cost, whether they can continue to render the same level of services they have been and the consequences if they do not," Neiswender said.

Clayton has been preparing the ordinance, processing of applications for special exceptions for alcoholic beverages establishments has been delayed.

The commissioners on May 12, immediately following the public hearing, may adopt the ordinance.

At this time there is only one establishment in the unincorporated area which has adult entertainment and it is located in the Fern Park area.

All Poland Welcomes Brezhnev's 'Reprieve'

WARSAW, Poland (UPI) — The Polish media, Solidarity and farmers seeking their own union joined today in welcoming Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev's apparent vote of confidence in Poland's ability to solve its own problems.

Newspapers praised Brezhnev's "far-sightedness" and called him a "consistent supporter of peace," and the unofficial independent farmers union Rural Solidarity said in a pledge of support to the Communist Party it would never strike.

Solidarity leader Lech Walesa, saying he wants to retire, called Tuesday for a moratorium on confrontation as the Soviet Union announced the end of the Warsaw Pact maneuvers that had raised fears of Soviet intervention to crush the free trade union movement.

Solidarity did not respond to Brezhnev's speech but a union source said initial reaction to his support of Polish efforts to solve their own problems was favorable. "If he had said something really bad, we would have issued a statement."

The Roman Catholic affiliated newspaper Slowo Powszechnie published a Rural Solidarity declaration that said, "We harbor no political ambitions and recognize the party as the leading political force in Poland."

The declaration, which said "nobody in our union wishes to undermine the principles of Poland's system," was submitted to a parliamentary commission Tuesday.

The official news agency PAP said Rural Solidarity leaders told the commission they would never strike "because this would be a crime against nature."

However, about 50 farmers demanding, among other things, legislation of Rural Solidarity, continued the sit-in at the headquarters of the Peasants Party in Bydgoszcz begun March 16.

"Leonid Brezhnev has again shown his far-sightedness in the evaluation of the complex processes under way in Poland, the countries of the Socialist community and all over Europe," the Zycie Warszawy newspaper said.

Brezhnev seemed during his speech in Prague Tuesday to give the Polish communist leadership another chance to control the unruly labor movement that has wrested much of the power from the ruling party.

Argument Doesn't Fly

DES MOINES, Iowa (UPI) — Louis Martin says he's not too good to fly coach class, just too wide.

"Because of my size, over 400 pounds, it is impossible for me to travel by coach," the state Civil Rights Commission worker said, in an appeal requesting the state pay first-class air fare for him instead of coach fare.

"The average seat within a coach is 20 inches wide. I am double that," he said. The argument, however, was rejected by the Iowa appropriations subcommittee on claims with little more than a chuckle.

After Brezhnev's speech, Walesa immediately urged his union to use the
