Preservation Of Natural Beauty Underway!

Another attempt to save the wild and scenic areas of the state is in the making. This time it is the Seminole River valley, a stretch of about 20 miles in length, which is the subject of a bill introduced in the House last week. The bill is sponsored by Representative Tom Green, of Oklawaha, and it provides for the acquisition of the land by the state to be developed as a park. It is estimated that the cost of the project would be $3,000,000. The bill is expected to pass the House in the next few days.

The Seminole River valley is one of the most beautiful areas in the state. It is a stretch of about 20 miles in length, and it is home to some of the finest scenery in the state. The river flows through a lush, green valley, and the surrounding hills are covered in dense forest. The area is home to a variety of wildlife, including deer, turkeys, and wild birds. The bill would provide for the acquisition of the land by the state, and the land would be developed as a park. The park would be open to the public, and it would provide a place for people to enjoy the natural beauty of the area.

If school bus drivers just hung on a while longer, help is on the way. The school of Channahon, Ill., has perfected a device which provides for the elimination of long-hour driving and from school. The device is a dual recording system which enables the driver to channel programs to teens on one side of the bus and younger children on the other side. This project will not only provide for the needs of the long-suffering driver, it is obviously an audio educational tool of immense potential. — Tulsa (Okla.) Tribune

Long Hair Boys

If there is an unsightly — but more and more common — phenomenon it is a school boy with hair as long as a girl's. Only two things seem more out of place than a picture of George Washington telling a class that boys with long hair are un-American. The first is a Sunday school teacher standing in front of a picture of the man from Nazareth telling a class that boys with long hair are un-Christian. — Nashville (Tenn.) Tennesseean

THE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Interpretive Report

RMN's New Moves - Old Goals

Secretary of State William P. Rogers and for national security with Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird. But a broader and more institutional scope is given to determining and implementing policy in this field than under President Johnson. In domestic affairs, President Nixon's appointment of Arthur F. Burns, former economic adviser to President Eisenhower, as his chief economic counselor is a new departure.

In domestic affairs, the re-ordering process is not likely to be spectacular. It involves essentially like strengthening up the poverty program, making welfare payments more uniform in the states, combating crime in the nation's capital, government reorganization. But there are yet no magical formulas for "fixing" the economy to stop inflation, no instant remedies for racial strife, student disorder and the national crime rate. The President is following a plan which he obviously had well fixed in his mind before he assumed the presidency. First he would appoint his cabinet and chief subordinates. Then he would form them into major groups to attack a series of major problems. He would establish White House liaison with these groups and then they would work under general directives to find and implement solutions, with the President's approval. This process has resulted in the formation of three major groups, each with the White House as its headquarters and a procedure for coordinating government action. The first group is the President's group on domestic affairs and national security. The second group is the President's group on economic and fiscal policy. The third group is the President's group on foreign affairs and international security. The President is using, or intends to use, the National Security Council established by law as a greater agency than its predecessor. His liaison with this group is Henry A. Kissinger, former Harvard professor and government advisor. Major responsibilities for foreign policy remain with

Betrayal By "First Sight" Love

By GEORGE W. CRANE, FR. D. M. D. CASE 3-10: Larry P., aged 30, is a handsome fellow. "Dr. Crane," Larry began, "I fell in love with Larry at first sight, I felt he was the answer to all my hopes and dreams. "But my brother checked on Larry and told me he was no good. However, I couldn't believe it, for Larry was my knight in shining armor. "My father also warned Larry, but I decided it was just a case of jealousy, for Larry seemed a perfect angel to me. "Other friends also tried to get me to break off with Larry, but I was in a dreamy state and felt I'd do it if I didn't marry him. "We finally eloped 8 years ago. "Slowly my dream began to shatter and I was forced to look upon Larry as the brother and more friend than I had previously been divorced by two show girls. "And he had no special answer or job qualifications, or money to bet on the horses. "He ran through my small inheritance that an aunt had left me. Then he managed our household and furniture for more money with which to gamble. "And he chased around with

Wars' Inflationary Surges

By RAY CROWLEY, NEA Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON (NEA)—In the build-ups of World War II, Korea and Vietnam, the surge in demand for products and the manpower needed to produce them caused rapid price gains in a wide variety of products. In each case, this sprang from general inflation. If employment is high and surplus assets are invested, the law of the market is that prices of commodities will rise. Historically, the labor problem was solved in part by "Hoosier" rivermen and by drawing more men off the farms. These solutions are less workable today — with the farm population at a low level

Mayor Can't Lose $2.4 Million Investment

SANFORD, Fla. (AP) — Charles E. Spobski, mayor of Sanford, Fla., has said he cannot lose a $2.4 million investment in a shopping center on the city's north side.

Spobski, who is running for re-election as mayor on Feb. 12, said he would not be able to pay for the shopping center, which is being developed by the Miami-based National Shopping Center Development Corp. (NSCDC), if the city were to back out of the deal.

Spobski also is (1) a close personal friend of Robson, (2) owner of land on an island Robson would like to develop as a residential or resort site, and (3) a charter stockholder in a bank founded and headed by Robson.

Robson wasn't available for comment. Spobski said he has worked assiduously to while the Democrats controlled the Florida Legislature, and it was a political deal.

The Miami-based NSCDC was set up to build the shopping center on the city's north side. The NSCDC has a long history in the city, having developed the Miami Beach Mall and the Coral Gables Mall. The NSCDC also has developed the Miami Mall and the Coral Gables Mall.

Vince Whoops It Up... Redskins' Lombardi Makes Capitol Gain

Green Bay's executive committee advised Wednesday's emergency session of directors that, after his decade of contribution, it desired to offer him a pro club, something Lombardi couldn't have achieved under Green Bay's non-profit stock system.

Lombardi had said a return to coaching and ownership of a club were the chief appeals in the Washington package.

In his letter of resignation to the board, Lombardi told directors he had not been dissatisfied with his Green Bay income, but that he could no longer think of himself in terms of being a pro coach.

He's burned up cause you didn't give him enough publicity," adds Cooke. And by now I know that "I'm either being put on... or else, I really did get... RUTGERS."

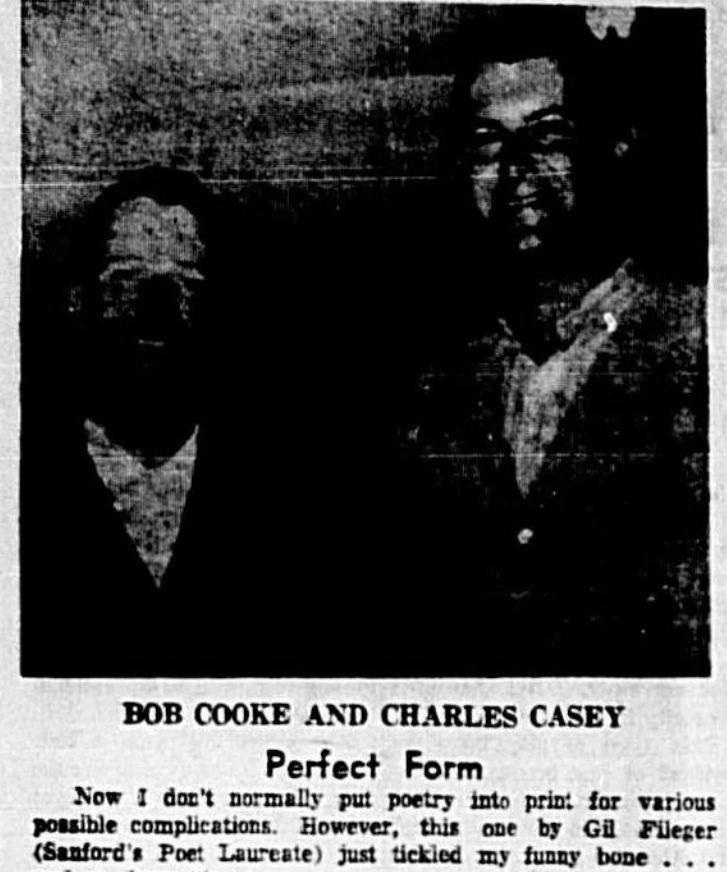

Sure enough, this time it was THE CHARLES CASEY. Yes, the very same one who used to catch all of those Steve Spolowski passes and still THE SAME ONE who was elected to the Air-Force Football Team (since 1952 when the SEC was formed) along with these other gridiron greats... Forrest Ferguson (end); Larry Gasner, John Barrow (guards); Charlie LaPrade, Vel Heckman (tackles); Jimmy Hayes at center; Charles Campbell and Walter Maberry were the linemen; Spurrer at quarterback and the one and only Rick Casares at fullback.

Cooksey is now coaching football at Tinsville High and enjoying it immensely, especially "not having to take those summer practice sessions any more."

For the records, Casey was a top draft choice of the Atlanta Falcons and was struck by the fickle finger of fate when he was practicing practice, he stepped into a hole on the playing field at the precise moment he was being tackled and did irreparable damage to his ankle.

Perfect Form

Now I don't normally put poetry into print for various possible complications. However, this one by GH Fieper (Sanford's Post Laureate) just tickled my funny bone... and so, here 'tis:

A pretty girl in mini-skirt
(I think her name was Sally)
Walked slowly to the 'foul' line
And heaved one down the alley.

In admiration for her form,
My eyes would flick and flutter,
I couldn't hit a blasted pin,
My mind was in the gutter.

Give 'em All A Boost

About four or five weeks ago I opined that the Major Leagues had their own S.O.S. troubles, what with their gate-bait... hitting and pitching stars, not wanting to be in a real hurry in returning this year's signed contracts.

Seminole's Raiders Are Out For Revenge!

By THE ALEXANDER
Special Sports Staff

"The game of the year." "A battle of Titans," and many other slogans could be applied to what will probably be the most exciting and spectacular basketball game played in Sanford this year.

Lake City Junior College comes to Sanford tonight with a fantastic 21 game winning streak, and a momentum they hope will carry them to the state trophy.

Seminole JC is proud of its 12-2 record, but tonight the Raiders have their backs against the wall, they must win in order to have a shot at the Division II championship. Otherwise they will have to play in the Regional tourney before they would be entitled to play in the state meeting. But Seminole Junior College, coached by Joe Sterling doesn't plan on losing. If they win tonight they will force Lake City into a playoff match to decide the Division championship, just as Lake City did to Seminole last year. That is Sterling's plan.

Ballgame fever has hit the Seminole County area and a capacity crowd is expected to be on hand in the Seminole High Gym at 8 p.m. this evening. The momentum hit the fever pitch after Lake City edged by Seminole 67-65 in the middle of January.

Both teams have been building for this crucial game since their practice sessions began last September.

Lake City will probably use similar tactics to the plays the Timberwolves used in their first defeat of Seminole. Lake City used a halfcourt press against the Raider offense and jammed the middle under the boards trying to shut down the heart of the Seminole offensive attack.

Lake City is a much slower team than Seminole and must rely on a consistent balanced attack instead of switching to a fast break as do the Raiders in many cases. Seminole will have a slight height advantage over the visitors tonight especially with the talented sky hooking Vernell Elzy keeping the Raider fast break.

Elzy is presently leading the SJC quintet in the scoring bracket with a per game average of 13 points. The sharpshooting sophomore is one of the most sought after players in Florida and makes tremendous use of his 6'3" frame.

Following Elzy in the SJC starting lineup is towering 6'5" Simon Farner who is averaging 10 points per outing. Farner also has proved to be an outstanding rebounder for the Raiders in many cases. Seminole will also be expected to see plenty of action tonight. Devoan is billed as one of the most aggressive defenders on the Raider team, but also has a 22 point per game average. Devoan will probably be calibrated at the center slot with Harper and C. Coach Sterling says his team needs more height, the New Bayern product may be elevated into a forward position.

At the other forward slot is 6'2" Jacob Wallace who has been the spotplayer for the Raiders on their last four outings, averaging 13 points per game. Overall the former Orlando Jones High star is averaging 10 points per game. Wallace is highly acclaimed for his outstanding defensive play and is one of the leaders of the SJC fast break offense.

At the guard slots will be 5'7" Gary Sabers and also Dever Wym, 5'7". Sabers is the four captain for the Seminole five while Wym usually plays the SJC scoring attack with his fine floor play.

Starting for Lake City will be Bernard Collier and James Parrish at the forward slots with Larry Quaries in the center post position. At the guard slots for the talented Lake City five will be Don Jackson and Ed Bollinger.

Seminole Junior College has a dream and they do not plan on having it interrupted tonight as the Raiders hope to give Lake City nightmares.

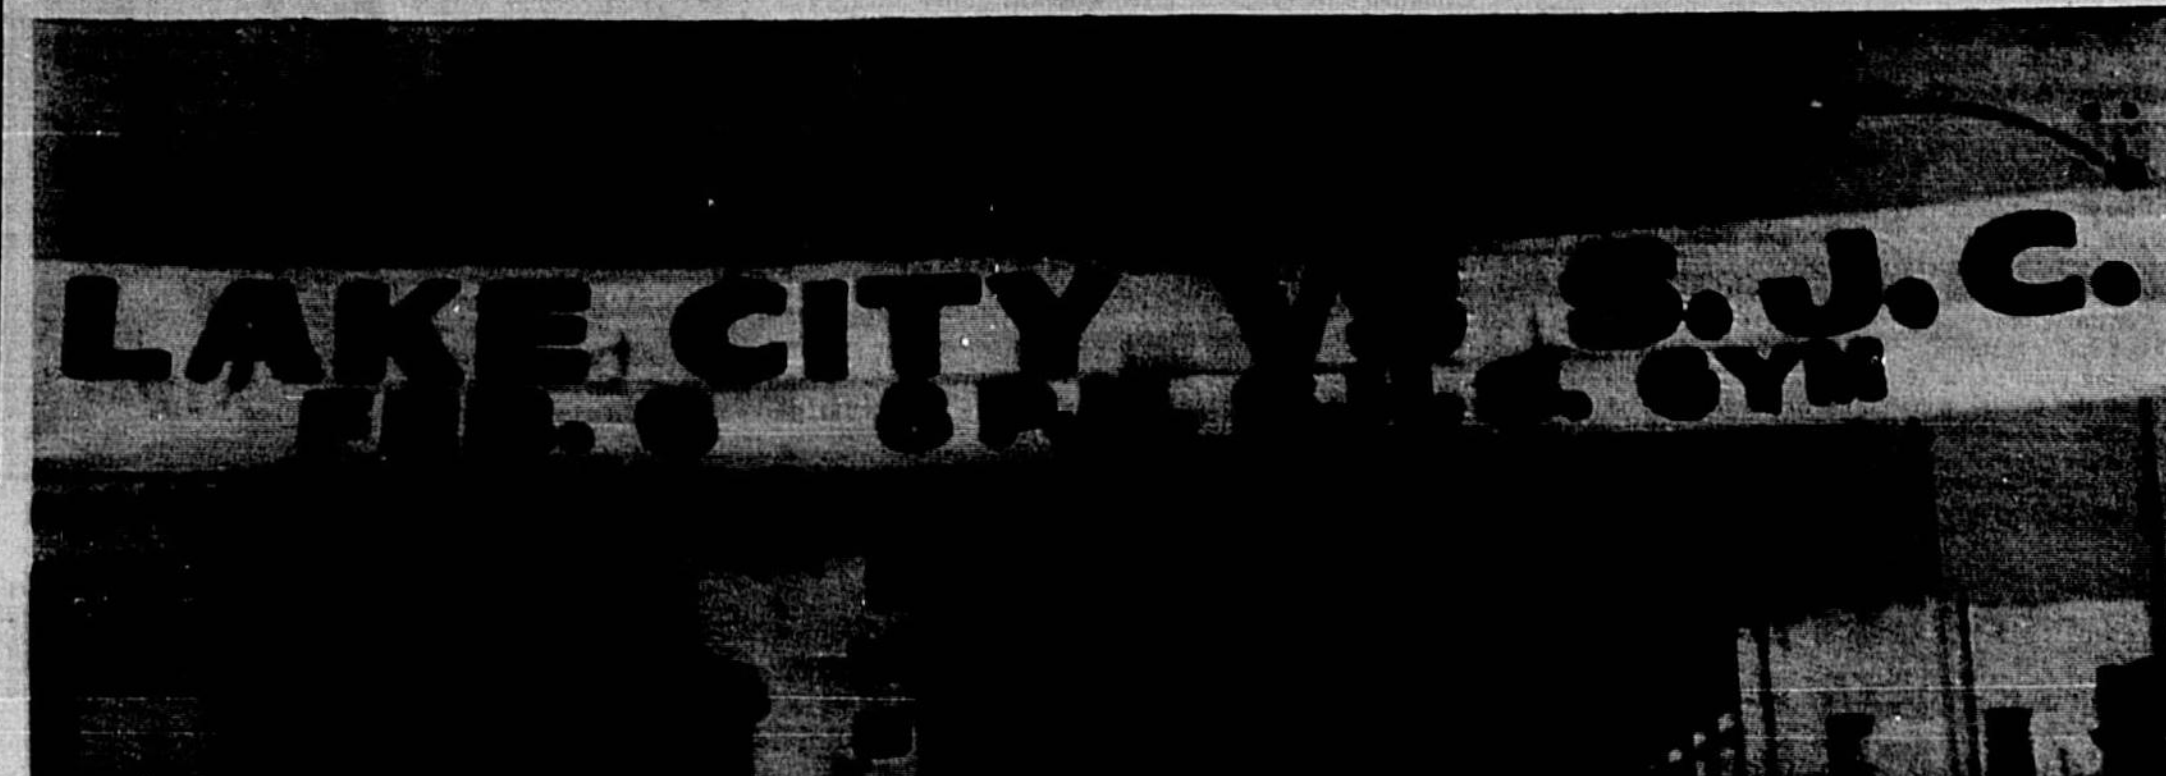

Tickets will be on sale at the top. Seminole Junior College students are admitted free.

UCLA's Lew Becomes Mobile Monster

Associated Press Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Lew Alexander, UCLA's 7-foot-11 center, occasionally amazes his coach, John Wooden, with his ability to score.

"He's awesome," says Wood, "but I don't know how it's going to affect my game." "I think my first year, the best thing I'll do is play defense. Scoring points—well, that's good for your salary, but I don't know if that wins all the games."

"I'm going to have to make three-foot hook shots, no matter what," Alexander says. "And that's a hard adjustment."

Florida After American Cup

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—A syndicate headed by designer-builder Charles E. Morgan Jr. says it will sponsor a 12-meter sailboat in a bid for the defender's role in the 1978 America's Cup competition.

Morgan, who heads a St. Petersburg yacht building firm, discussed the syndicate's plans Wednesday after returning from a New York meeting with officials of the New York Yacht Club, which oversees the sailing competition.

"This was no spur of the moment deal. I have been at work on this dream since 1962 when I crowded on the Columbia during the trials," Morgan said. "I have done some tank testing and am up to the road a bit from a standing start. I want to begin work as soon as possible."

Morgan said he has not decided where the craft will be built.

The St. Petersburg builder was the designer for Paper Tiger, a two-time winner in the 12-17 for Fran Leach; the 1-7 and 3-7-10 for Sharon Harkness; the 2-7 for Kay Thomson, and the 4-10, 5-10, and 6-10 for Al Kelley, Lena Morgan and Lenora Thiel.

Angel Coronado led North American Jockeys in 1968 with 345 winners.

Other high scorers were Lenora Thiel of the Lassies with 334, Vera Eichelberger of the Spoilers with 186/421 and gaining three out of four wins over the Tomatoes.

Rose Wiggins' 162 and Marjorie Perkins' 150, of the Sprinters led them to a three out

Major League Offices Moved?

By HAL ROCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Bowie Kuhn, baseball's brand new commissioner, hasn't even had time to get the feel of his new desk and already there is talk of moving it—and Kuhn with it—out of town.

Phil Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, suggested Wednesday night that his city should become headquarters for all of baseball.

"We have to see if we can confine the competition to the World Series, signing of players and publicity, and not carry it over into matters in which the Wrigley family and Walter O'Malley, owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers, have invested a shift to Chicago for eight years. "Somehow, it always was attracted."

Injuries Plague NBA

Gus Johnson Joins Cripples

Gus Johnson, Baltimore's All-Star forward, has joined Boston forward Bill Russell on the sidelines as injuries continue to plague the Eastern Basketball Association's National Division contenders.

Johnson, suffered a torn ligament in his left knee in a third quarter spill Wednesday night at the first place Bullets hunt a $112 setback on the crippled sidelines when the 6-foot-10 pivot man suffered strained knee ligaments in a game against New York.

Earlier, Cazzie Russell of the Knickerbockers and Luke Jackson of the Philadelphia 76ers were shelved for the season with injuries.

Johnson also was feared lost for at least six weeks. He collided with teammate Kevin Loughery and fell heavily to the floor. Physicians said the foot of Baltimore would undergo surgery today.

In Wednesday night's other games, the streaking Knicks trimmed the Milwaukee Bucks 111-102; the San Diego Rockets upended the Cincinnati Royals 118-83; the Chicago Bulls re-pulsed the Detroit Pistons 130-108 and the 76ers topped the Seattle SuperSonics 118-115.

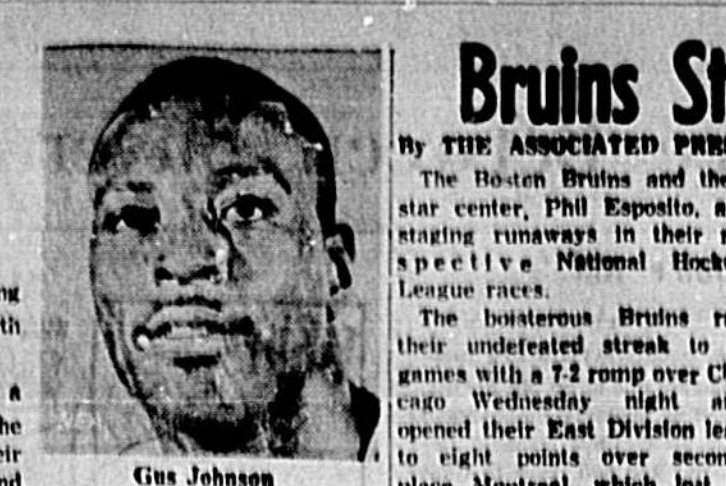

In American Basketball Association play, Indiana whipped Denver 125-108; Dallas edged Houston 128-116; New Orleans defeated Kentucky 114-108; Miami downed New York 111-99 and Los Angeles beat Minnesota 118-107.

Earl Monroe scored 30 points

The Knicks also survived a late rally in getting past Jack Martin 22 and Unseld 20 for the Bullets. Sam Jones topped Boston with 30 and John Havlicek had 28.

Bruins Stage Runaway In NHL

The Boston Bruins and their star center, Phil Esposito, are starting runaways in their respective National Hockey League races.

The bouterous Bruins ran their undefeated streak to 18 games with a 7-1 romp over Chicago Wednesday night and opened their East Division lead to eight points over second place Montreal, which lost to Oakland 5-1.

Esposito scored his 33rd and 34th goals of the season and latched on two assists, jumping to 51 on goals by the team to fall in the second.

Esposito's two third-period goals completed the scoring. The Bruins, who have not lost since Christmas night, are five games away from their own record undefeated streak set in 1941. Boston has won 13 and tied five during the stretch.

Ron Ellis had three goals for Toronto but Danny Grant's power play goal with less than five minutes remaining earned Minnesota its tie against Toronto. It was Grant's 21st goal of the season.

Late 'Fireball' Roberts Records Still Stand

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. — The high-banked 2.5-mile trioval—a sixth of records many believe was cut short by Roberts' tragic death from burns suffered in a fiery crash at Charlotte Motor Speedway on May 26, 1964.

It was the Daytona "Firecracker" Independence Day races three times — in 1959, 1962 and 1963 — and qualified on the pole for that race in 1959 and 1961. He drove to victory in the Daytona 500 in 1962.

But Roberts' most significant record at Daytona — and one that may never be surpassed — is his three-year string of qualifying records for the "500," set in 1960-1962.

It's hardly coincidental that the new Fireball Roberts Grandstand at Daytona International Speedway will be dedicated prior to Daytona 500 qualifying sessions on Sunday, Feb. 9.

Ceremonies opening the 4,250-seat structure, which replaces the temporary Segrave Annex, begin at 1:30 p.m. — just before the thundering stocker take to the trioval to decide who will sit at the two front positions for the "500." It was Fireball's best moment.

Morgan, who heads a St. Petersburg yacht building firm, discussed the syndicate's plans Wednesday after returning from a New York meeting with officials of the New York Yacht Club, which oversees the sailing competition.

"This was no spur of the moment deal. I have been at work on this dream since 1962 when I crowded on the Columbia during the trials," Morgan said. "I have done some tank testing and am up to the road a bit from a standing start. I want to begin work as soon as possible."

Morgan said he has not decided where the craft will be built.

The St. Petersburg builder was the designer for Paper Tiger, a two-time winner in the 12-17 for Fran Leach; the 1-7 and 3-7-10 for Sharon Harkness; the 2-7 for Kay Thomson, and the 4-10, 5-10, and 6-10 for Al Kelley, Lena Morgan and Lenora Thiel.

Member Trial For Day, 13

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP) — A 13-day trial for a member of the House of Representatives is set to begin today in a federal court in Washington.

Robert Everett Curtis is on trial for his 13th day of a 13-day trial for a member of the House of Representatives. Curtis is accused of having the right to a trial for a member of the House of Representatives.

Secession Is Cry In Collier

IMMOBILE, Fla. (AP) — Both towns may be in the same county, but it's a long way from the migrant workers housing projects in Immokalee to the lush condominiums of Naples.

And the distance is measured in more than miles, according to Stan Wisley, 51, editor of the Immokalee Bulletin.

He is leading a move in Immokalee to sever a 300-square-mile surrounding area from Collier County and merge it with farming-oriented Hendry County.

Auction Nets $66 For CTP

By JANE CARABELERRY
 The treasury of South Seminole Elementary School Council of Teachers and Parents was honored by $66.25 Tuesday night by means of a "surprise auction" held following the business meeting.

The bidders did not know what was inside the packages they were bidding on and items were donated by those attending.

Auctioneer was CTP President William Workman, who was assisted by his wife.

You owe it to yourself to pay yourself, too. Just as regularly as you pay your bills, pay yourself, too. Put at least five percent of your take-home pay in a savings account with us. Who deserves it more than you?

DATE FOR THE ANNUAL SPRING FESTIVAL was announced as April 26. School will be closed April 24 and 25 and the planning committee and workers will have time to prepare for the event.

An entertaining but fashion show is planned for the March 4 CTP meeting under the sponsorship of Sperry and Hutchinson Company.

An open house was held after the program Tuesday night to give parents a chance to visit their child's room.

IMMOBILE, Fla. (AP) — Both towns may be in the same county, but it's a long way from the migrant workers housing projects in Immokalee to the lush condominiums of Naples.

And the distance is measured in more than miles, according to Stan Wisley, 51, editor of the Immokalee Bulletin.

He is leading a move in Immokalee to sever a 300-square-mile surrounding area from Collier County and merge it with farming-oriented Hendry County.

"We just can't seem to get through to the Naples people. We're more ideally suited to Hendry County," says the editor.

He says more than 100 Immokalee residents have signed a petition urging the Legislature to authorize a referendum in Hendry County and the Immokalee area on the question of annexation.

Hendry officials have given no indication how they stand. But a Collier County official has said: "This is merely a continuation of a crusade by the editor of the local paper," said commission chairman Les Whitaker Sr. "He has been raving and ranting about the commission for a long time."

Naples has a population of about 9,000, considerably higher during the winter tourist season, and surrounding coastal communities boost the area population to around 18,000. Immokalee has about 7,000 residents. The towns are the only population concentrations in Collier.

Whitaker complains that Naples continually uses its dominant voting power to force unwanted public officials upon Immokalee.

PO, Politics Divorced

WASHINGTON (AP) — Postmasters across the nation hailed the Nixon administration's first move to divorce postal affairs from politics today.

The remarks of Symbol and Shaw, a Negro postal-service carrier man who came up through the ranks, were typical of the reaction in a cross-country survey to the Nixon administration's announcement Wednesday that henceforth all postmasters will be selected on merit.

"This is a good step, but it doesn't change much."

"It may give the postmaster general more latitude in selecting men who are real business managers, with Post Office Department needs real business managers," said Los Angeles Postmaster Leslie N. Shaw.

But, he added, "I am not sure just how much of a bite was taken was a little unclear."

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen said later that the immediate effect would be to withdraw 2,136 acting postmasterships and require the appointees to take new examinations for their jobs.

The political machinery, however, that locks postmasterships into the patronage system must be changed by legislation, not executive order and until the Senate votes to give up its power of confirmation over such appointments a lasting break with the past cannot be assured.

Under current practice, senators generally select from the top three candidates in their own cities who have qualified by Civil Service examination. Representatives choose the rest from the top three qualifiers in their districts.

As long as the power to veto a nominee lies with Congress, the preference of the postmaster general presumably could be blocked should local political needs momentarily eclipse postal merit.

Chairman Gale W. McGee, D-Wyo., indicated a favorable response by his Senate Post Office Committee, and noted that the Senate approved "this course of action" two years ago in a congressional reorganization bill that died in the House.

James Farley, postmaster general under Roosevelt, said all his appointments were made through political channels and he "never had reason to regret it."

Plane Goes To Museum

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — The X-37B research plane arrived at Wright-Patterson Air Force base from California Tuesday and is being prepared for placement in the Air Force Museum.

The plane was designed originally as an intercontinental bomber with a top speed of 4,000 miles per hour. It never went into production, however, and the X-37B prototype was used for research in the supersonic transport program.

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Soul singer James Brown returned to his hometown Tuesday to play a benefit show to raise funds for Pine College, which was damaged by fire last year.

A sellout crowd estimated at 4,000 paid $4 per ticket to hear Brown, who led a parade down the city's main street earlier in the day.

President Woos Europe, Russia

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has set out the first broad outlines of his policy toward the Soviet Union and the Middle East as he prepares to embark on one of the most extensive trips to Western Europe ever planned by an American president.

In his first major step in foreign affairs, the administration agreed Wednesday to a French proposal for four-power talks on the Middle East situation, but suggested the way be paved with preliminary discussions.

At the same time, Nixon called for quick Senate ratification of the long-pending nuclear non-proliferation treaty and repeated his inaugural promise of a policy toward Russia based on "negotiation rather than confrontation."

With Nixon's trip later this month to an expected five Western European countries still some weeks away, more details and more policy were expected, beginning with today's nationally televised news conference.

At his news conference last week Nixon laid down the preliminary outlines of his policy.

Peace Team Gets Military Adviser

WASHINGTON (AP) — A veteran Army field commander named to command U.S. forces in an 11-province corps area, including Saigon.

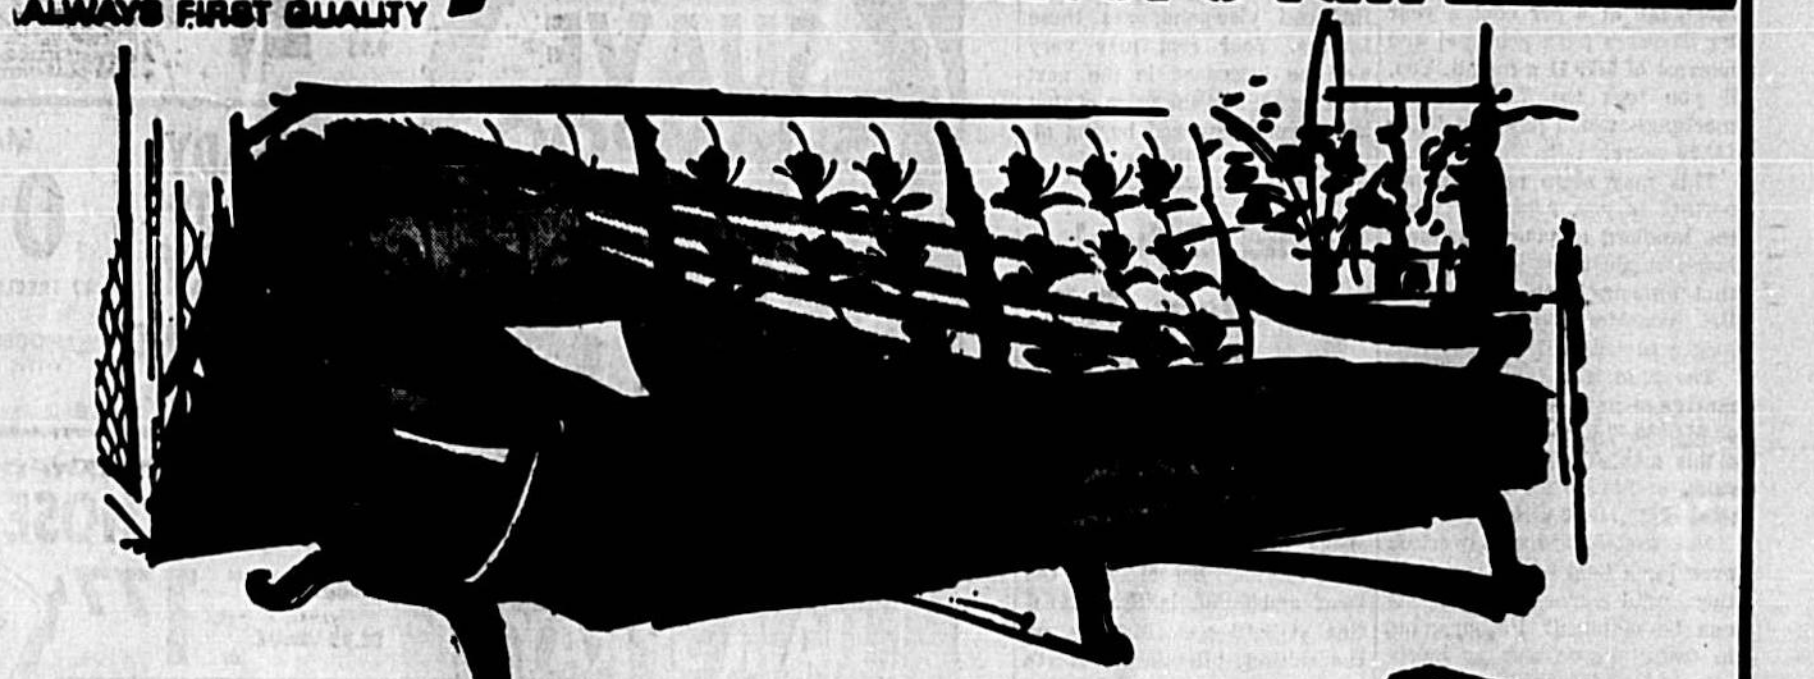

A request that Weyand be assigned to the U.S. delegation in Paris arrived about 18 days ago, Pentagon sources said they assumed the request came from Lodge.

Like other senior U.S. officers who served in Vietnam, Weyand feels the United States cannot just get up and leave after spending more than 31,000 lives and billions of dollars in South Vietnam.

He believes the South Vietnamese army is improving and progress is being made in pacification of the countryside. But he recognizes that U.S. authorities were late in getting Vietnam leaders to move firmly toward assuming the major role in the war.

Junior Officers Support Pueblo Skipper

CORONADO, Calif. (AP) — Junior officers from the USS Pueblo facing five admirals on a court of inquiry have declared support for their skipper. One said, "I'd follow him anywhere."

The statement came with determination from 21-year-old, freckle-faced Lt. J.S. Timothy Harris, one of three officers who testified Wednesday. He called Cmdr. Lloyd Bucher "an outstanding leader."

"I personally think Cmdr. Bucher is one of the finest officers I know—an outstanding skipper before and during the capture and certainly during detention," said Lt. Frederick Schumacher Jr.

"I don't think any of us could have made it through that eleven months in North Korean prison if it hadn't been for Cmdr. Bucher," he said.

CWO Gen. Howard Lacy said he agreed with Bucher's decision not to man the Pueblo's machine guns because "it would have been slaughter for anyone but on there."

"I am now going to ask you for your personal opinion," said Bucher's attorney, E. Miles Harvey. "Based on your experience and what you saw immediately prior to the time of capture, in your opinion did the commanding officer of the ship any longer have the power to resist the boarding and ultimate seizure?"

"No," said Lacy. "I, whose gray-crested hair reflected his years of service, said, 'I am now going to ask you for your personal opinion,' said Bucher's attorney, E. Miles Harvey. "Based on your experience and what you saw immediately prior to the time of capture, in your opinion did the commanding officer of the ship any longer have the power to resist the boarding and ultimate seizure?"

Several members of the crew were summoned to testify to how they exposed themselves to cannon and submarine gun fire from North Korean patrol boats and a submarine chaser to destroy classified papers on the Pueblo.

Schumacher said he was assisted by Communications Technician 1.C. Michael Thomas Barrett and Communications Technician 1.C. Steven J. Robin.

A first-year member of FFA is called a "Greenhand."

High Interest Rates Pose Tough Problems

By JOHN CUNIFF
 AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Inflation and high interest rates are presenting potential homeowners today with problems more suited to financial experts. But they, rather than the experts, must provide the answers.

Should you, for example, obtain a mortgage now at 7.5 per cent interest or wait until money prices come back down to 6 per cent or so, which is the rate your friend received a few years ago?

The question has no easy answer. The fellow with a $25,000 mortgage at 6 per cent a year for 20 years pays principal and interest of $179.11 a month. You, if you took the 7.5 per cent mortgage would pay $201.40, or $22.29 more.

This may seem rather unimportant to you, especially when the landlord of your apartment house might have your rent by that amount in the next lease. But consider the costs over longer periods of time.

The man with the 6 per cent mortgage pays $2,122.21 a year or $42,566.40 over the 20-year life of his loan. You pay $2,416.80 a year, or $48,336 for 20 years, a total of $25,740 more.

Now that's nothing to overlook even for a banker. Do you wait, then, until a more suitable rate can be obtained? Perhaps, but in doing so you risk an indefinite delay in purchasing. Nobody knows when rates will fall. They may, in fact, rise even higher during the next few months.

Evidence of how high are present rates is provided by the experience some months ago of Financial Publishing Co., which distributes to banks and savings and loan associations a tabular book called "Improved Payment Table for Monthly Mortgage Loans."

This little book listed almost every monthly payment for just about any conceivable mortgage—but it's interest rates went only to 7 per cent. It had to rush a new book into print, eliminating lower rates, adding higher ones.

Financial Publishing is prepared to go even higher, and has its fact published a similar

'Happiness Was Giving' For CP Victims

Amidst the warmth of Charles Brown and his many friends, which include Snoopy (the famous Red Baron), and the knowledge that Happiness is giving, the annual Silver Tea sponsored by the Deltona Woman's Club for the benefit of the United Cerebral Palsy Fund took place Sunday, Feb. 2.

Mrs. Anthony Wisniewski, first vice president, greeted the guests and Mrs. Jerry M. Robinson, general chairman, introduced the honored guests, which included the following representatives of United Cerebral Palsy of Central Florida: Jerry Lyons, president of the board of directors; Robert Green, executive director; Mrs. Cathie Bowman, residential chairman; Mrs. Doris Thomas, campaign co-ordinator, and little Miss April Waldrop, the six year old theme child of the current campaign.

Green gave a brief resume of the past year's activities and touched on the future aims of the organization, which included a new home for the clinic in Orlando.

The Community Center took on a new look with cutouts of the delightful friends of Charles Brown, placed under the direction of Mrs. Charles Schoenlaub, decorations chairman. The tea table was decorated with a red and white floral centerpiece, and a tempting array of sandwiches and cookies was served by Mrs. Frederick Wiegand and her committee.

LITTLE WOMEN — Lecky Jackson, Amy Routier and Becki Dickson, members of Little Women of Deltona, helped serve at the Deltona Woman's Club Silver Tea for the benefit of the United Cerebral Palsy Fund on Sunday, Feb. 2.

GREETING GUESTS — Mrs. McClain Post and Mrs. Anthony Borowski greeted arrivals at the Woman's Club Silver Tea. Mrs. Ruby Schaefer and Jessie Broomfield were among the first arrivals.

Miss Bateman Bride Of Peter C. Belford

Miss Susan Cheryl Bateman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bateman of Wilson Park, Sanford, became the bride of Peter C. Belford, son of Mrs. Jacqueline Wheelwright of St. Francis and of Joseph Belford of Boston, Mass., at 2 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 6, in the sanctuary of the First Presbyterian Church of Sanford.

The Rev. William E. Barron officiated the double ring ceremony as the couple knelt on the white kneeling bench before the altar. The altar was flanked by arrangements of white gladiolus and white chrysanthemums with natural foliage, all placed in Grecian urns on white pillars.

A 24-branch arch, candlestick and two nine-branch brass candlesticks on either side of the sanctuary formed the ceremony. The new markers were white satin bows and natural green foliage.

Organist Mrs. Joan Wilkie played traditional wedding music for the recital before the ceremony and for the wedding. The bride, given in marriage by her father and mother, wore a gown of white tulle, satin, lace and natural green foliage. Her high Empire band drawing the bodice close in front and releasing the back to a full cascade of white tulle, satin, lace and natural green foliage. Her train extended from the back yoke to chapel length. It was finished with a scalloped edge of Alcon lace.

The bride's veil was a cloud of imported silk fillet attached to a white satin wedding-head circle lavishly trimmed with delicate pearls.

The bride carried a cascading bouquet of white lilies, ranunculus and natural green foliage, centered with a renouveau corsage.

Miss Kay Kalersten of Clearwater, secretary of the bride, was honor attendant. Other attendants were Mrs. Mrs. Henry Bleser of Ocean and Miss Conny Corbman of Miami College classmate of the bride, and Miss Pam Bellard of St. Petersburg, sister of the bridegroom.

The attendants wore identical, floor length gowns of jewel-pink chevron silk. Each gown featured a wrap bodice and long short sleeves. The gowns half-way pulled the skirtmer close in front and laid the gathered back skirt, closing with three self-covered buttons on scallops in the center of the back bodice. Pretty rose veils attached to pink satin French loops formed their headpieces. They carried French hand bouquets of white pom pom chrysanthemums, pink roses, and natural foliage tied with matching pink ribbon.

Best man was Kenneth Johnson of Key West, a fraternity brother of the bridegroom. Groomsmen were L. Paul Bopp, USAF of Clearwater and Valdosta, Ga.; Ray Simons of Freeport; Grand Barbara Island and Richard Pace of Lakeland; fraternity brother of the bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed L. Cunningham spent the weekend with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bermonsky in Sarasota. Their daughter Jean returned home with them for a few days.

Mrs. Ida Burfoot of Ansonia, Va., is visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Avery.

Mrs. Hunter Garth of Virginia is the home guest of Mrs. James Richards.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother advised a misty blue coat with matching hat and shoes. The coat had a band of blue beaded pearls which were repeated on the dress. She carried white gloves and shoes.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a lime green jacket dress with bodice and jacket of the lace. She also wore a matching hat and shoes with white gloves and purse. Both mothers wore corsages of pink sweetheart roses.

The bridegroom's grandfather, Mrs. George Ooms of Largo, was attired in a turquoise dress and hat. She wore a corsage of pink carnations.

A reception following the ceremony was held at the Holiday Inn.

The buffet table was overlaid with white hand-crocheted cloths over pink with white arranged. A five-branched chandelier with a cascading arrangement of white chrysanthemums and pink roses centered the table, and silver punchbowl were at either end. The three-tiered bridal cake was in the center of a table draped with net and white satin bows. The cake was topped with white wedding balls.

Assisting in the serving were the Misses Barbara Wiant, Pattie Mark, Tina Lindberg, Bonnie Campbell, Molly Malloy, Sharon Devoanage, Mary Wyman and Linda Lee, all serving attendants of the bride.

The bride's best man was Miss Mary Wynona and Miss Linda Lee, also serving attendants of the bride.

For the couple's wedding trip to St. Petersburg, the bride chose a turquoise and white look dress with pearl accessories. She wore the corsage of white roses from her bouquet.

The couple will reside at 400 Ocean South Blvd., Atlantic Beach.

Mrs. W. L. Merritt, first vice president, opened the meeting by leading those present in the pledge to the flag of the United States and salute to the Confederate flag.

Members voted in favor of sponsoring a UDC Historical Essay Contest for high school students in the near future. Mrs. L. D. Hastings, club historian, will be in charge of this endeavor.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am 34 and Denny is 23. We have been married for a year, and I want to tell you that I am not a very good wife. I want to take it back. I want to tell you that I am not a very good wife. I want to take it back.

and I am nothing special, but there was a strong physical attraction from the moment we met. We were thrown together by a mutual friend, and I was attracted to her because of her intelligence, her sense of humor, and her ability to get along with everyone.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 32-year-old man, married 30 years to a 30-year-old woman. I have been married for 30 years, and I have been absolutely true until I met this woman I call "Myrtle". She is as married. We met when I was in the army and she was in the navy. They were now married.

Jacoby On Bridge

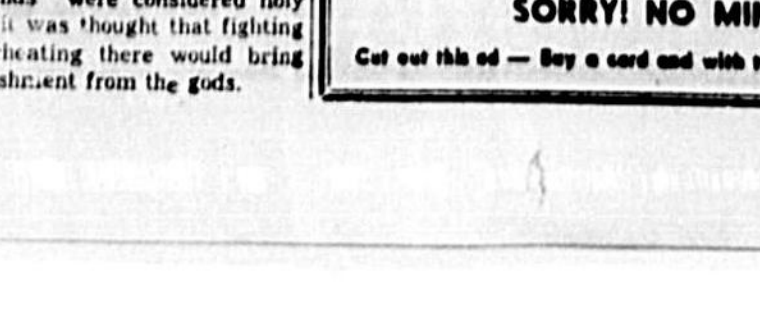

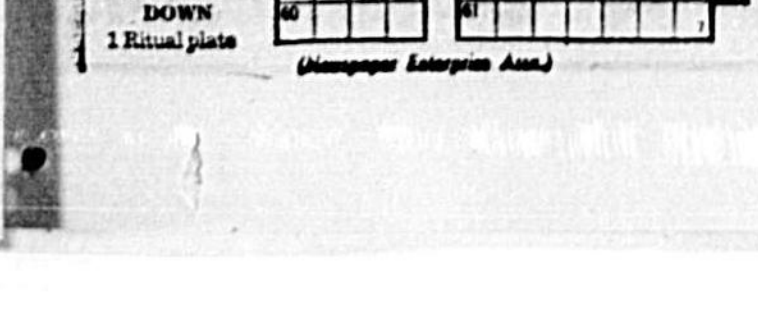

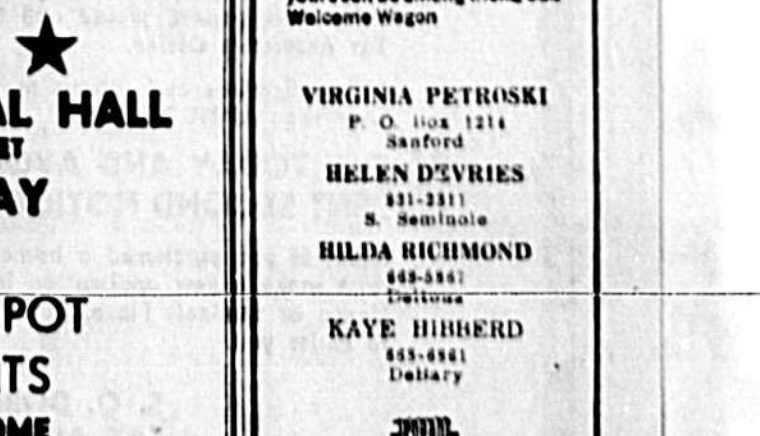

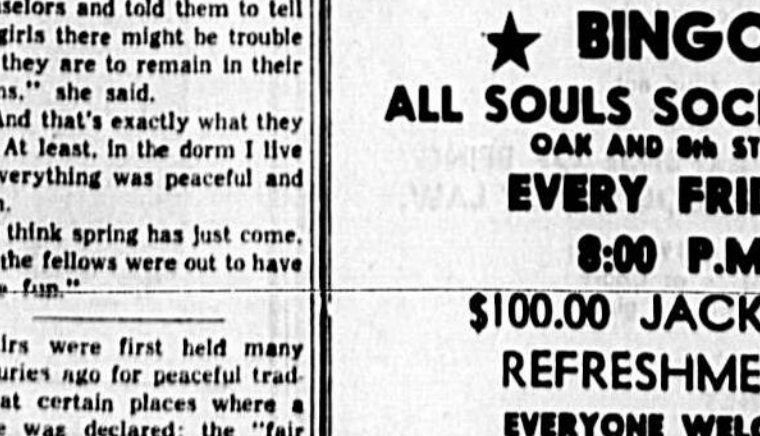

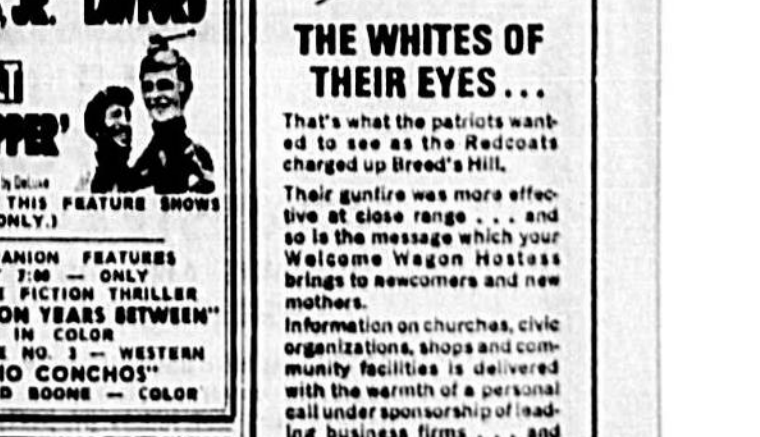

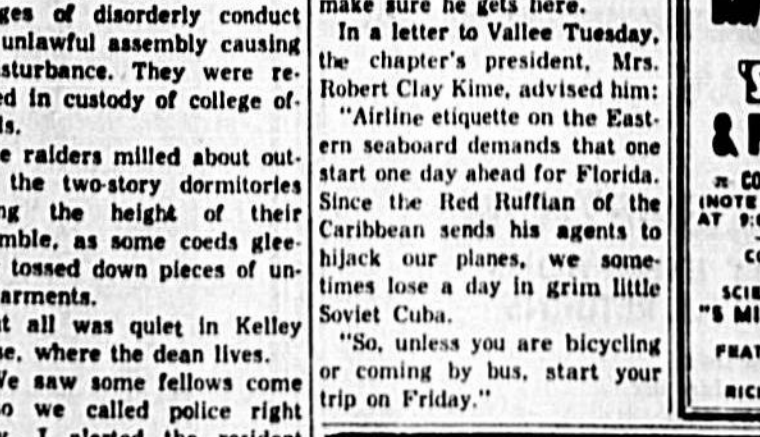

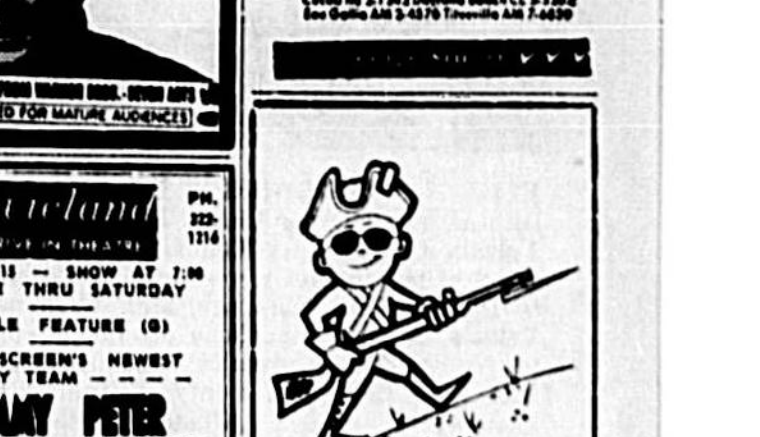

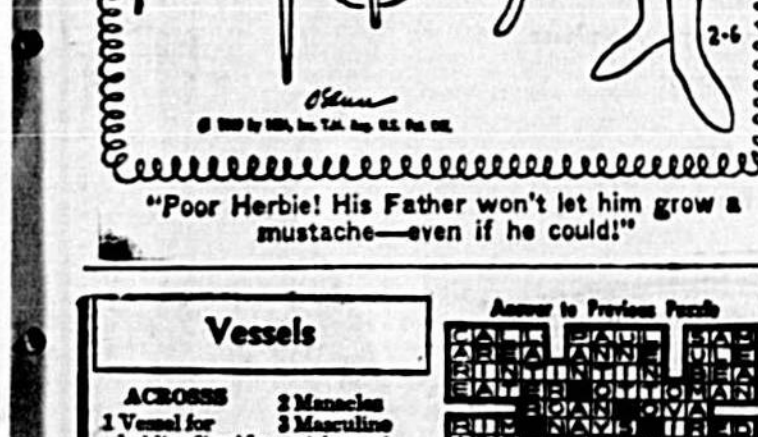

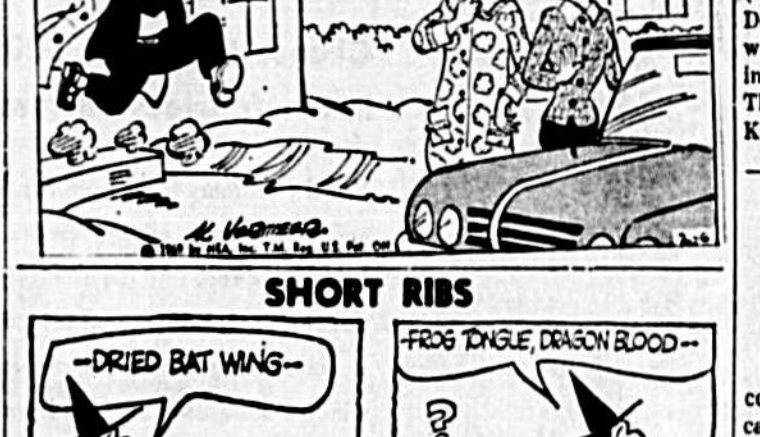

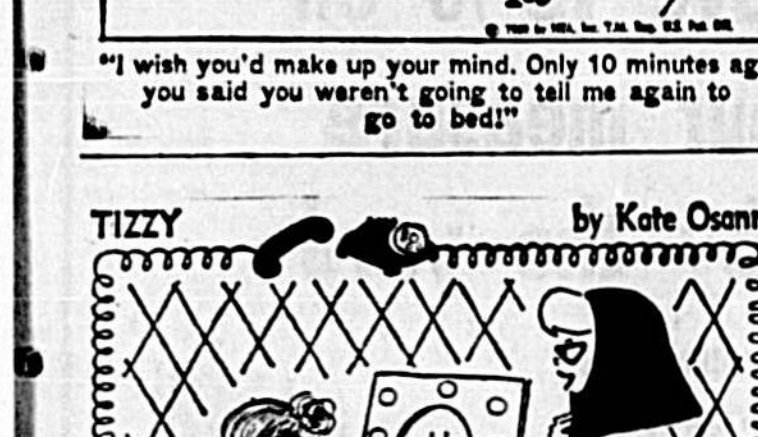

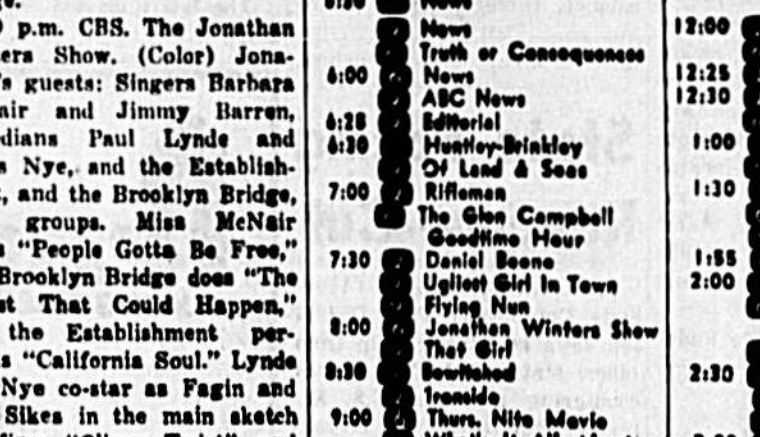

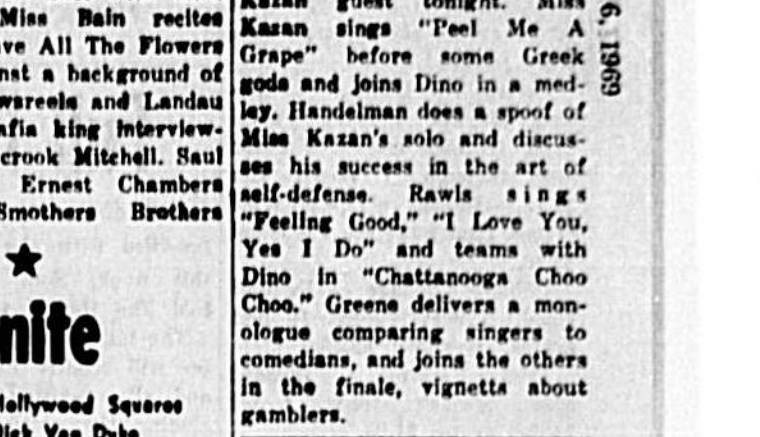

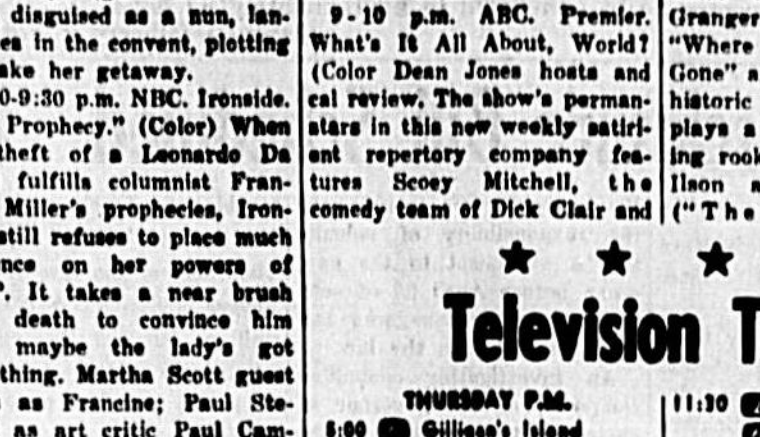

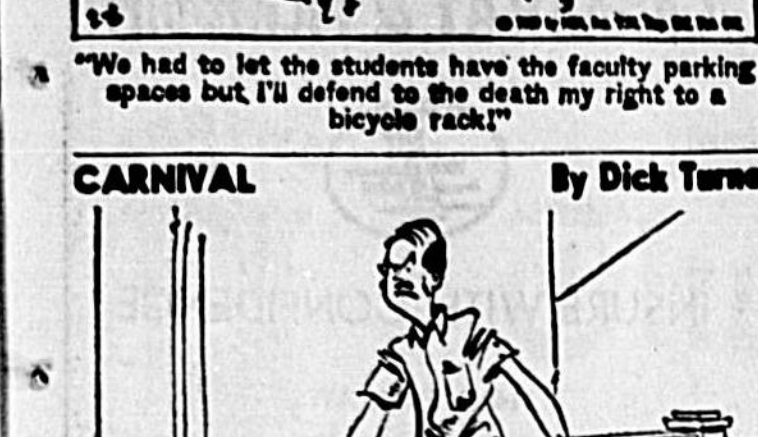

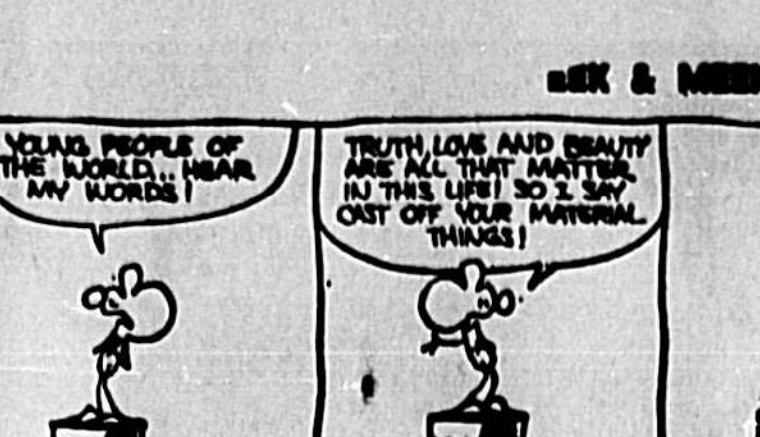

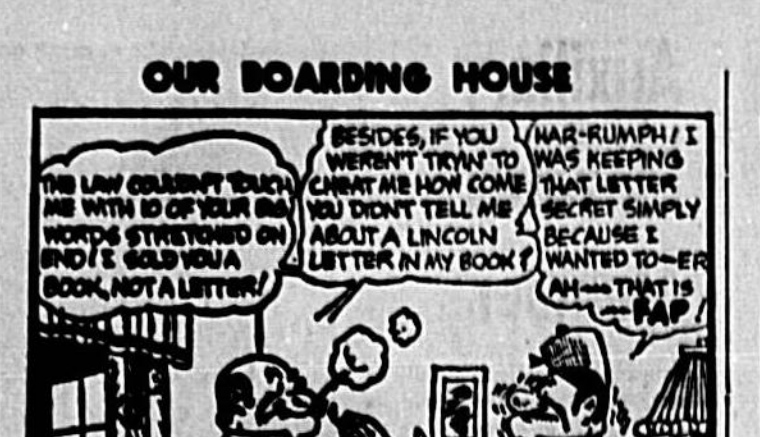

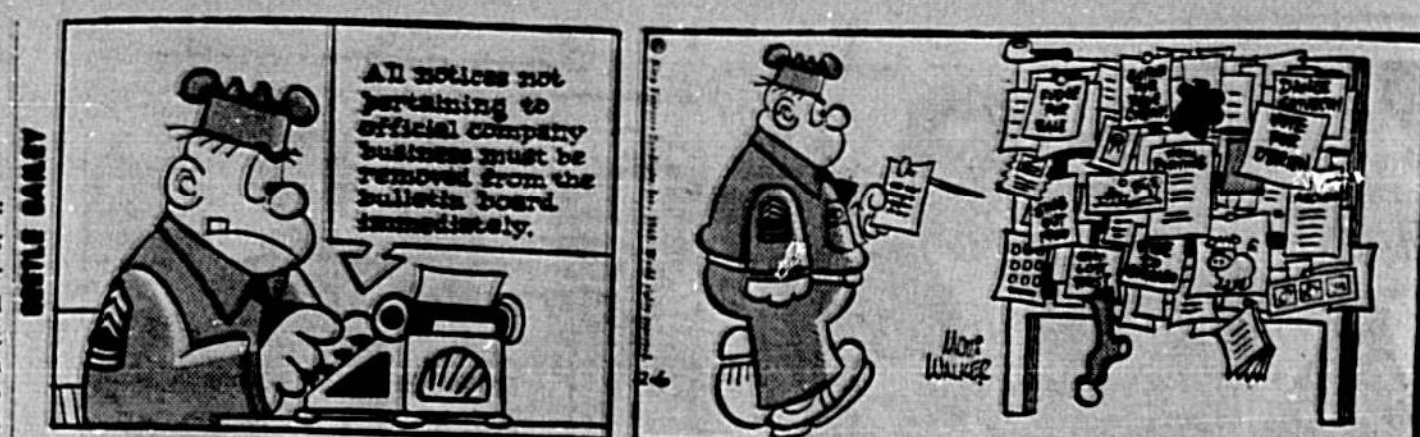

We wouldn't be inclined to criticize a pair that failed to reach six spades with today's North-South cards. North has only seven high card points and South 21 so that their 12 points held by East and West.

On the other hand, North has a six-orth spade suit and a singleton, and should have interest in a slam. This, while South has only 21 points he has two of the three top honor spades and control for one jack, the rest of his high cards are aces and kings.

Jacoby and Son

points and they appear to be golden. He decides to do something about the slam. A control point might bid a Blackwood four no-trump and leave right into six, but an expert South would be far more delicate.

North looks over his hand and decides that he does not have enough to warrant going past game or the signs off at four spades but South is not going to be denied. His five spades have large trumps and six North merely bids five spades. This passes the buck to North. North thinks awhile and finally decides to bid six spades. This is a desperate bid to try to never-never land between game and slam. He bids the slam and is well-rewarded when it comes.

Polly's Pointers

DEAR POLLY: My husband uses a clean pair of brown cotton work gloves for polishing and cleaning his shoes. One glove is for applying the polish and the other is for buffing. This keeps his hands nice and clean and it is better than all those cracks and creases on your shoes. Use different gloves for shoes of different colors. The gloves are so inexpensive—LORNA.

Full Disclosure Bill Scheduled

Full disclosure bill will be pre-filed with the Legislature this week, Sen. Bill Oester said. The bill is to be filed by Oester and will require all legislators and all executive officers including the governor, lieutenant governor and Supreme Court justices, to every year prior to April 15 file a sworn copy of their federal income tax returns with the secretary of state. Separate statements of all liabilities, assets, income tax returns will also be required filed as well as statements of income and liabilities of all dependents and minor children.

The secretary of state under the proposed law would have the responsibility of submitting a statement to the governor before April 15 of each year of all persons who had not complied with the law.

An investigating committee composed of the governor as chairman, two members of the cabinet, three members of the Supreme Court, two representatives and two senators, would meet together in public hearing to consider alleged violations of the law and take proper action to either acquit or suspend the violators of all pay and allowances for a period not to exceed six months.

The law if passed would become effective in 1970.

State Facing Revenue Cut

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—State Comptroller Fred Dickinson says he expects help from other states and Congress in countering a recent U.S. Supreme Court ruling that he said could cost Florida some $20 million in tax revenue.

He referred to the court's decision exempting both state and national banks from payment of intangible and documentary stamp taxes.

Addressing the State Cabinet, Dickinson said Tuesday he has asked Atty. Gen. Earl Fritch to petition for a rehearing of the case and, meanwhile, is seeking congressional relief.

"Many of our brothers in other states are joining us. I think we're going to get it (relief) from both sides of the aisle," Dickinson said.

"The ruling is in error. The sovereignty of our state has been attacked and we are prejudiced in an area of numerical loss of some $20 million," Dickinson said.

"It's the national government saying, simply because you are a state, you haven't the right to collect your own taxes," the comptroller added.

Students Speak On Sex Education

By DONNA ESTES

Strong defense and support of the health education course being taught by Mrs. Vance Ambrice at Lyman High School was stated by The Sanford Herald today by 45 students of the class.

The group emphasized the importance of continuation of the course as a credited subject. "For weeks now we have been the object of the violent reaction this course seems to have caused in this area and we think that now is the time for us to give our opinions," the students said in a written statement.

"Our health education course has been called a sex education course that is immoral in theory and practice. First of all, this course is entitled 'health education' and not 'sex education.' The first nine weeks were devoted entirely to health agencies and careers.

"In the second nine weeks we began our discussions about the family. The only discussions of basic elements of dating, the young people was that their survey revealed that less than five per cent of the students in the class had received information on sex from their parents.

"We have discovered that perhaps the greatest problem in today's society is a lack of information, or even more, misinformation, concerning the issue of sex. Both of these are great problems of teenagers. In our health education classes, less than five per cent of the students had been told about sex by their parents. Even this five per cent did not feel entirely free to discuss sex openly and freely with their parents. So, indeed, if sex should always be taught only in the home by parents, it appears that a great many parents are falling short of their goal to inform their children.

"Mrs. Elizabeth Piazza, who represents the Citizens for Moral Education, and her followers declare that sex education has a place only in the home and not in the schools. May we then be allowed to ask why Central Florida has such a high rate of VD? And why is it that most teenagers find out about sex from their friends, from movies or between the covers of paperback novels? It is time that students who must prepare for life away from home are told frankly and openly about sex, which is very much needed. We sincerely hope that it becomes part of the regular high school curriculum." The 45 students concluded.

Ministers Eye Sex Education

By JUDY WELLS

Local ministers will look into the controversial sex education program in Seminole County schools before forming a tentative opinion, Rev. Lowell W. Shaw, secretary-treasurer of the Sanford Area Ministerial Association, advised The Sanford Herald today.

Meeting Thursday in regular session, with new officers presiding, the association heard Fred Ganas, director of the pilot program now underway in county schools, explain materials used and how the program is taught.

"No objectionable materials are used in our approach," Ganas reported, also noting the high quality of both the teachers and the materials in the classes.

"We are working toward an enlarged program in which all resource materials will be approved by the principal in each school where the program is included in curriculum," he advised.

Following the presentation, which included project transparencies and texts used in the pilot project, a period of questions and answers was conducted during which the ministers voted to seek further information before forming an opinion on the matter.

One minister asked, "To what extent do you teach morals in these classes," to which Ganas replied, "I'm not sure we can teach morals—quoting a famous educator, 'moral, like character, probably are caught rather than taught.'"

True Love Never

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Mike Jones, 19, and Ross Lee Silmet, 19, were in love and wanted to get married. But they decided to wait until he fulfilled his military service.

Then Ross figured if Mike was going to wear a uniform he might as well, too. So they were both sworn into the Air Force Jan. 9 and traveled together to Texas.

Three days after Mike got to Lackland Air Force Base at San Antonio he aggravated an old hip injury. Now he's back home with a medical discharge.

Ross? She's still in basic training in Texas, with nearly four more years to serve on her enlistment.

Home Owners Get Warning

Home improvement racket may be about to flourish in the Sanford-Seminole area.

Lynn Risner, Sanford building official, revealed today that his office is being deluged by many requests for permits for work that Spring is around the corner, seeking permits for jobs that already have been signed by unsuspecting home owners.

Risner emphasized that not all home improvement firms are guilty of taking advantage of the property owners but all should check the contract offered by the operator before signing.

Risner said, "These firms operate within the law because unsuspecting owners sign the documents, not realizing what the contract terms specify and by the time they find out it is too late."

Some of the improvement people offer inducements such as cash upon completion of a job, which enables the owners to take a vacation or use the money for anything they might want to apply it, only to find out the interest is terrific and most of the firm's warranties are only as good as the paper upon which they are written, he informed.

Root caulking, spray coating, siding applications and other general improvement work is being offered by operators who hire lawyers to force their view on the owners. The name, Risner continued.

Bill consolidation is another lure held out to the unsuspecting, which the operator prom-

SAIGON (AP) — A Jacksonville helicopter pilot played a key role in a ambush that killed 44 Viet Cong soldiers, the U.S. Navy announced.

He was identified as Lt. (jg.) Tim Hayes.

The Navy said Hayes and Lt. Cmdr. David Blair of Grove City, Pa., surprised a column of enemy soldiers engaged in battle with an outnumbered force of South Vietnamese soldiers south of Saigon.

"We are anxious to come up." These were the sentiments of George Ehrstein, vice president of Orlando Steel and Supply, when questioned about reports the firm would move its Fort Lauderdale plant to the Sanford Naval Air Station as soon as the city obtains the 1,700-acre former military site from the Federal Aviation Agency, expected by March 1.

Ehrstein, contacted at the firm's Orlando location at 2335 Colledge Avenue, explained a lease must first be worked out with city before the steel fabrication of air conditioning and heating equipment could establish a more central location to service wholesalers over the state.

Ehrstein said the Sanford facility would employ approximately 20 persons at the start making steel elbows joints and other materials for the increasing demand for such products.

The vice president informed, "We have been talking with Leo Rabel, Sanford Industrial Commission director, about the move there and are hopeful that everything can be worked out."
