Lake Mary City Manager Quits Mayor Loses S&L Job, But Will Run Again

By Paul C. Schaefer
Herald Staff Writer

LAKE MARY — In a surprise move today, Lake Mary's city manager for the past three years resigned to take a like position in another Florida city because her present job is too demanding and she's ready for a career move. And, in another surprise move, Mayor Dick Fess revealed he was "terminated" by his employer, Freedom Savings & Loan Association.

Demands of her job "encouraged me to look for a bigger place with a larger staff that paid more money," city Manager Kathy Rice said. She added quickly, however, that while there has been an inadequate staff to handle the growth-related workload over the past couple of years. "Most of that was related to several time-consuming crises the city had to deal with, and I suspect my successor will have it easier. Especially since we're looking to hire a full time engineer, a full time bookkeeper and finance person and a deputy city clerk to help with that workload."

Mrs. Rice made the unexpected-move announcement at a 10 a.m. press conference at city hall today in conjunction with an announcement by Fess that he lost his job, but will seek reelection.

Mrs. Rice, 38, has been Lake Mary's city manager for almost three years, while Fess, 40, has been mayor for two years.

Mrs. Rice said her resignation is effective Aug. 15. She will immediately assume the city manager post in Gulfport, a West Coast Florida city of 12,000, incorporated in 1910 and situated just south of St. Petersburg.

Gulfport will pay Rice $37,000 a year with a possible 5 percent pay raise after a 90-day review and another possible 5 percent pay raise after six months. Her present salary in Lake Mary is

Gordon Plea Denied

By Deane Jordan
Herald Staff Writer

A former Lake Mary high school history teacher charged with selling cocaine lost his bid to have charges dropped against him because his case did not come to court in time.

Wilson Gordon Jr. is still scheduled for trial July 22 on charges stemming from his video-taped sale of cocaine to a Seminole County Sheriff's Department informant, Dec. 1, 1984. He asked that the charges be dropped against him because he was not tried within 175 days from when he said he was placed under arrest.

In his ruling Circuit Judge Kenneth M. Leffler said that on Dec. 5, 1984, four days after the crime and when undercover agents met with Gordon, he "was not then charged with a crime by indictment or information which, it would appear, is necessary before the defendant is entitled to be discharged if trial is not commenced within 175 days...."

Gordon was not arrested because he agreed to turn informant. Over a year later, agents decided Gordon had not lived up to his end of the bargain and filed charges against him.

In the ruling, Leffler said that even if Gordon had been formally arrested, it might not have started the 175 day clock.

"Under applicable case law, if an arrest with probable cause is of a short duration, and even though it may be harassing, vexatious, and apparently violative of the person's rights under the Fifth and Sixth Amendments to the Constitution, such an arrest does not trigger running of the time period during which trial must commence," Leffler wrote.

Gordon's attorney, Chris Ray of Sanford, argued that when the agents visited Gordon, he was placed under arrest. Undercover agents Jerry Capshaw and Todd Brown denied that they placed Gordon under arrest. In fact, Brown testified that Gordon specifically asked if he was under arrest and he was told he was not.

Assistant State Attorney William Cato argued that the undercover agents visited Gordon to elicit his cooperation as an informant. He said they got a tentative agreement, otherwise they would have arrested him.

Gordon was arrested in April 21 on the 1984 charges and jailed. He is out of jail awaiting trial.

Gordon was fired by the Seminole County School Board in June in a decision stemming from his arrest.

Sanford Budget

Values Go Up, Taxes Come Down

By Karen Talley
Herald Staff Writer

Sanford's property tax will go down 22 cents per $1,000 assessed valuation under the 1986-87 millage rate city commissioners tentatively set Monday night. The $4.16 rollback rate would be used to provide funding for the city's $16,059,109 budget proposal for the coming fiscal year.

Commissioners set a Sept. 8 public hearing for the budget proposal and a Sept. 22 session for its adoption. The 1986-87 budget becomes effective Oct. 1.

The $4.16 rollback rate represents a five percent decrease from the $4.38 property tax adopted to fund Sanford's 1985-86 budget, which was $13.5 million, or $2.5 million less than this year's budget proposal.

Increased revenues enabled Sanford to target budget expansion and a tax rate decrease for 1986-87. City Manager Frank Falson said.

During budget reviews last month, city commissioners tentatively endorsed a $4.17 property tax rate. This figure was pared by another penny on July 1, following word from the Seminole County tax assessors office that Sanford's taxable properties were worth nearly $1 million more than the office had

Body Remains Unknown

The identity of a man whose body was found floating in the St. Johns River near Mullet Lake Park on Friday has not been determined, but a fingerprint comparison has ruled out the possibility of the body being an Apopka man missing since July 29.

A Saturday autopsy showed the body had two small caliber bullet wounds behind the left ear.

Seminole County Medical Examiner Dr. G.V. Garay said he did not believe these two wounds alone would have caused the death of the man. The badly decomposed body was found by fishermen at about 8:15 p.m. Friday. Sheriff's Sgt. Ron Gilbert said the victim is probably at least 20, is white, had dark hair and was wearing shorts, a shirt and sneakers.

The body had been in the water at least four to five days and Gilbert said there is no indication where the shooting took place or when, where, or how the body ended up in the river east of Sanford.

Monday Seminole County Lt. Marty LaBrusciano compared the fingerprints of the body with samples of the missing Apopka man's fingerprints and said they don't match. —Susan Loden

Georgia Ave Homeowners Heartened

By Karen Talley
Herald Staff Writer

Georgia Avenue homeowners say they are heartened by measures Sanford commissioners called for Monday night to eradicate their flooding and garbage woes.

The seven Georgia Avenue residents who attended Monday's city commission meeting also say they are considering legal action against the contractor whose apartment complex is responsible for the flood conditions, which they allege have been deteriorating their backyards and correspondingly decreasing the value of their homes during the last year.

The flooding is attributed by both the city and the residents to the nearly-finished Parkside Place apartment complex, which fronts on Hartwell and Oscella avenues, and is located behind and next to the residents' homes. The residents say since construction of the complex began a year ago, their backyards have been flooded even during moderate rainstorms by the project's inadequate drainage system, which allows apartment rainwater to drain onto their properties.

They also said while city staff works with the contractor to eradicate the flooding problem, they'll be conferring with the attorney they've retained to determine if the contractor can be held legally accountable for the damage they contend the overflows have caused.

Georgia Avenue resident Nancy Strickland said during the last year, water spillover from the apartment complex has turned her backyard into "a wading pool," even during moderate rains.

Georgia Avenue resident Rene Keith said her swimming pool, wooden yard fence and shed are now "sloping" as a result of rainwater deterioration of ground soil.

City commissioners directed engineering staff on Monday to work with the contractor to take interim steps that will bring an end to the flooding prior to next month's anticipated completion of the 40 unit, seven structure apartment complex.

Sanford Engineering and Planning Director Bill Simmons said Monday night he is optimistic the efforts will enable complete eradication of the flooding and commissioners indicated they would be willing to take follow-up efforts if this does not prove to be the case once the entire project has been completed.

According to Simmons, the resident's flooding problems resulted because the complex was built on what had once been the repository for rainwater runoff from their backyards.

Commissioners on Monday also directed city staff to look into a Georgia Avenue resident's statement that sewage comes up through a city manhole cover during storms, and to help

Stone To Seek Seat

Casselberry City Councilman Frank Stone has announced his intention to run for the District 34 seat in the state House of Representatives in the Sept. 2 Republican primary. The seat is now held by Carl Selph, also of Casselberry.

Stone, 38, said he will resign from his city council seat effective Nov. 3 to run for the two-year term. House legislators are paid $18,000 a year.

The district takes in most of eastern Seminole County and parts of Orange and Brevard counties.

Among the issues Stone is especially interested in are research to discover the cause of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SID), improved handling of child abuse cases by the state Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, and improving the state's highways through the use of resort tax monies. He became active in a local SID support group, after his neighbors' baby — a twin — died suddenly last September.

A former Casselberry firefighter, Stone was elected to the city council in 1982 and would be up for re-election this year. He is employed by Air-Pak Products and Services, Inc., an Orlando air-conditioning firm.

Raised in Winter Park, Stone has lived in Casselberry for nine years. He is married and he and his wife have two children, Allison, 8, and Michael, 4.

Early Morning Crash

A Sanford woman was injured early today in a three car head-on accident in Sanford at 25th St. and Park Ave. Annette Klinger, 22, of 206 W. 7th St., was being treated at Central Florida Regional Hospital for injuries to her left leg. No one else was injured in the 8 a.m. incident. According to preliminary reports, Ms. Klinger's eastbound Comet went through a red light on 25th Street at Park Avenue. The light blue Comet grazed the front driver-side fender of a northbound white Nissan pickup, then crashed head-on into a westbound Ford pickup in a turn lane waiting to turn south. The yellow Ford was towing a stump chipper. Other identifications and possible charges were not immediately available.

Black Ambassador Praised By Left, Right

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A black North Carolina businessman, who may become the next U.S. ambassador to South Africa, draws high marks from the unlikely duo of the Rev. Jesse Jackson, a Democrat, and Sen. Jesse Helms, R-N.C.

Robert Brown, a former Nixon White House aide who runs a public relations firm in High Point, N.C., won praise from both the left and right Monday as government sources confirmed he is a candidate for the job.

"I know Bob Brown and have known him for years," said the arch-conservative Helms. "Certainly I would welcome a chance to support him."

Jackson, a civil rights leader and 1984 Democratic presidential candidate, called Brown "a decent man with integrity and great ability. If, in fact, appointing him as ambassador is a forerunner of a change of policy, it would be a step in the right direction."

But Randal Robinson, co-chairman of the Free South Africa Movement and a leading critic of the administration's policy toward the racially torn nation, dismissed the idea of appointing Brown as a public relations tactic.

"I don't think it serves any useful purpose to put a black face on what is perceived globally and particularly in South Africa to be an anti-black policy," Robinson said.

Brown, 51, is a Republican who has participated in the State Department's Working Group on South Africa. He could not be reached for comment Monday, but a spokeswoman stressed he was "not job hunting."

FLORIDA IN BRIEF

Senate President Claims Suit Proves Insurers Trying Blackmail

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Senate President Harry Johnston said a suit filed by insurance companies against Florida's new insurance and tort reform law is further evidence the industry is seeking to "blackmail" the state.

Johnston said Monday he plans to ask that the Senate be allowed to become a friend of the court on the side of the defendant, the Florida Department of Insurance, as soon as Leon Circuit Court Judge Charles Miner rules on an industry request for a temporary injunction.

The bill, which became law on July 1, included a $450,000 cap on damage awards and a reform of the legal doctrine of joint and several liability eagerly sought by the industry. But the bill also included several insurance reform measures that industry spokesmen say make it unprofitable for them to continue selling policies in Florida.

Some 43 companies and three trade organizations have filed suit to have the law declared unconstitutional. On Friday, they asked Miner to issue injunctions against five sections of the law until that constitutional challenge could be heard.

Indian Burial Ground Unearthed

AMELIA ISLAND — Archaeologists who recently unearthed an Indian burial ground in northeast Florida, including one mass grave containing at least 50 skeletons, are perplexed about their discovery.

The burial ground and mass grave are on the site of the 17th-century Spanish mission of Santa Catalina, north of Jacksonville.

Except for the mass grave, all the Indian skeletons they have exhumed were buried individually, some with their hands clasped as if in prayer, indicating they were of Christian faith.

Indians lived in villages just outside Santa Catalina, and Milanich said this increased their odds of catching diseases from the Spaniards. Diseases such as measles were totally foreign to Indians and they often died from these illnesses, since they had no natural resistance to them.

Today, not one heir of the mission Indians, the Christian descendants of the Guale Indians, is left on the face of the Earth.

Chinh Elected Vietnamese Party Leader

BANGKOK, Thailand (UPI) — President Truong Chinh, a tough Marxist ideologue, Monday won "unanimous" election as Vietnamese Communist Party leader, replacing the late Le Duan in the most powerful position in the country, official Radio Hanoi reported.

The election of the 79-year-old head of state combined the presidency and party leadership for the first time since the death of Ho Chi Minh in 1969 and appeared to indicate a desire for continuity among Vietnamese officials.

Prime Minister Pham Van Dong, 80, remains as head of the government. The Communist Party leader has traditionally been the most powerful position in Vietnam.

Radio Hanoi, monitored in Bangkok, said the party central committee held a special session

Monday, only four days after Duan's death, to make the appointment.

"In an atmosphere of solemnity and deep emotion, the participants observed a moment of silence for Comrade Le Duan, the outstanding leader of our party and people," the radio said.

The committee then "unanimously elected comrade Truong Chinh (as) general secretary of the party," it said.

It is the second time Chinh has held the post.

He was made party general secretary in 1941 when his predecessor was executed by the French colonial regime. But Chinh was sacked in 1956 after his harsh collectivization policies sparked a popular uprising. A detailed resume of Chinh's career given by the official radio Monday did not mention the dismissal.

In 1956, Chinh was replaced by Le Duan, an old rival who held the general secretary post until his death last Thursday.

Chinh, once an admirer of Chinese Communist Party Chairman Mao Tse-tung, survived another party purge in 1976 when Vietnam split from China and axed many pro-China party members.

He became president and head of state in 1981 after the death of President Ton Duc Thang. His new post officially makes him the most powerful man in Vietnam and his elevation appeared to be a defeat for younger leaders trying to reform the country's rigid economic system. Some diplomatic observers, however, pointed to Chinh's age and said he can only be a transitional figure.

Other recent party and government changes have indicated a slightly reformist faction, generally opposed to Chinh, was gaining ground, they said.

"The internal maneuvers of the party leadership are all very murky," one Bangkok-based diplomat said. "Hopefully, we will know more after the party congress" at the end of the year, he said.

Speaking after his election, Chinh "called on the party, people and army to strengthen unity around the party central committee, ensure victory of immediate, important tasks, bringing the revolutionary cause of our people to new victory," Radio Hanoi reported.

Top leaders from the Soviet Union, Cambodia and Laos — Vietnam's closest allies — laid wreaths on Duan's coffin, the radio said.

Funeral services for Duan were scheduled for Tuesday at the end of a five-day mourning period.

Crime Scene

A Seminole County Sheriff's Department investigator, wearing plastic gloves, enters an apartment Monday in south Seminole County where a 38-year-old woman was raped and killed by a throat-slitting intruder Sunday night. An autopsy was scheduled today on Eve Aguilar of #106 San Jose Apartments, 2353 Winter Woods Blvd., near Casselberry. The woman had lived in the apartment for three weeks with her sister and often left the door open for ventilation because they had not had electricity turned on at the apartment. The victim's sister moved out Friday, according to neighbors.

The fire, discovered by employees arriving for work in the area, was extinguished after an hour of hoisting, with no reported injuries.

—7:46 a.m., 103 Castle Brewer Court, rescue. A 58-year-old woman was reported as having possible diabetes, was transported to the hospital.

SUNDAY

—11:08 a.m., Lake Monroe and French Avenue, rescue. Dorothy Ruse, 58, 1908 S. Holly Ave., Sanford, reportedly drove her car off French Avenue, into Lake Monroe. She reportedly bit her tongue and received slight bruises during the incident. She was pulled from the lake by firemen and transported to the hospital. Florida Highway Patrol and Sanford Police directed traffic while a crane device on a tow truck lifted her car from the lake.

Convicted Killers' Executions Stayed

STARKE (UPI) — Convicted killers Raymond Stone and Robert Parker got stays from a federal court Monday to frustrate Florida's scheduled double execution just before dawn Tuesday.

U.S. District Judge Susan Black in Jacksonville gave Stone an indefinite stay of execution and set a date of July 22 to hear his appeal.

And U.S. District Judge Howell Melton granted an indefinite stay to Parker and set a hearing for July 24.

Stone, 47, was sentenced to die in Florida's electric chair for the beating death of Jacqueline Smith in Union County, Fla., Aug. 23, 1974. Smith's body, partially eaten by alligators, was found lodged between two tree trunks in the Santa Fe River.

Last November, the U.S. Supreme Court rejected an appeal by Stone's attorneys, who said his trial counsel was ineffective and failed to investigate and present evidence of a deprived and deprived childhood as mitigating circumstances.

Parker, 31, was sentenced to death for the 1982 drug-related murders of Richard Padgett, 22, and Nancy Sheppard, 17, both of Jacksonville, Fla.

The killings became known as the "Donut Lake Murders" after the two bodies were found Feb. 10, 1982, in Donut Lake in suburban Jacksonville. Both Padgett and Sheppard had been shot and stabbed, and Sheppard's throat had been slit.

According to court records, Parker and an accomplice in the murders, Tommy Groover, who also is on Death Row, killed Padgett and Sheppard over a argument stemming from a drug buy Padgett allegedly made from Groover, who was selling drugs for Parker.

Last Tuesday, the Florida Supreme Court refused to give Parker a stay. Parker's attorneys argued unsuccessfully that his conviction should be overturned because the prosecutor at his trial made cash payments for lunch, travel and loss of earnings to several state witnesses.

Both men were on their first death warrants.

Supreme Court Takes Step Back

The constitutional principle of equal protection under the law was eroded recently by the U.S. Supreme Court. In two rulings, the high court held that employers and labor unions can discriminate on the basis of race, ethnicity, and, presumably, gender to rectify previous discrimination.

The ominous rulings are being widely interpreted by the media as a rebuke to the Reagan administration. In truth, these rulings are a setback for the commendable goal of a color-blind society because they sanction reverse discrimination.

The court, in a 6-3 ruling, upheld a federal court-approved agreement between the City of Cleveland and black and Hispanic firefighters to give preference in hiring and promoting to minorities. Indeed, the accord guarantees minorities half the promotions in the fire department even if they are promoted over whites with more seniority and higher test scores. The high court's curious reasoning was that, even though the minority members were not victims of discrimination, they, nonetheless, deserve special treatment in light of the department's racial imbalance.

The justices, by a 5-4 margin, also upheld a federal court order establishing a 29.23 percent minority-membership "goal" for a sheet-metal union in New York City with a history of excluding nonwhite applicants. This finding is extraordinary both in its specificity and its scope. Writing for the majority, Justice William Brennan said the percentage was not so much a rigid quota as a voluntary goal to right past wrongs.

Such tortured reasoning is typical of the judicial activism that has stood the Constitution on its head during the last two decades in the guise of good intentions.

Affirmative action, as initially conceived 21 years ago, was intended to promote recruiting and training programs that would encourage qualified minorities to enter the work force. Unfortunately, what began as an equitable way of opening doors has turned into an arbitrary process whereby government determines the precise number of minorities who will pass through those doors. Euphemisms to the contrary notwithstanding, this numbers game mocks the spirit and intent of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

Columnist George Will was on target when he said "The acid of 'race-conscious' policies has been seeping into the law, eroding a bedrock principle of this republic, the principle that rights are inherent in individuals, not groups." The defenders of reverse discrimination gloss over this obvious truth, suggesting that some inequities are inevitable during a transitional period of compensating for the consequences of slavery, racism, sexism and the like. Of course, these social engineers are conspicuously silent as to when the millennium will be achieved. Thus we can reasonably conclude that, like most government dictates, racial, ethnic, and sexual entitlements will become a permanent part of the national landscape.

That prospect is particularly troublesome for the U.S. job market, given the intense economic competition this nation faces on the international front. American companies are having a tough enough time trying to keep their heads above water without being compelled to pause in midstream to ensure that the requisite percentage of minorities are aboard.

This isn't to say that all affirmative-action programs are wrongheaded. To the contrary, public and private employers should be encouraged to seek qualified minority applicants. Moreover, minority members who themselves are actual victims of discrimination ought to be given preferential treatment by their employers.

On the other hand, the Supreme Court has no business depriving innocent white males of job opportunities, promotions or seniority in the name of racial or sexual reparations. That will be the practical effect of the court's rulings on affirmative action.

Quick, Henry, Grab It ... It's The Morning Paper

WASHINGTON (UPI) — "Henry, light," the trainer commands, and the capuchin monkey immediately hits a switch.

Assuming the trainer wanted more illumination, this is all well and good. A trained dog probably would have fetched a light beer from the refrigerator. Otherwise, I don't see much difference between teaching simians and canines to do useful jobs around the house.

If the trainer could learn to drink light electricity, even that distinction would be wiped out.

Granted this monkey is female, Henry being short for Henrietta. But I've known dogs like that, too.

The concept of training monkeys to perform "simple tasks" around the house is said by the National Geographic Society to have originated in a Boston medical school.

Going outside for the paper on a snowy morning isn't so simple, believe me. Household-ers would be wise to teach their pet monkeys to "fetch."

Dogs are said to respond to 89 commands, give or take fetching the master's slippers. Among other things, they have been trained to push switches, press elevator buttons, open refrigerators and serve prepared sandwiches.

Teaching them to open beer cans and bottles is the next logical step, particularly in view of today's easy-opening containers. It might take them longer, however, to learn to distinguish between "light" and "regular" labels.

Monkeys, I gather from a Geographic "news feature," can be trained to tell the difference in almost no time.

Already, they are being taught to distinguish between book titles and to pick out certain magazines. Big deal! Any monkey that couldn't tell the difference between "Fortune" and "Newsweek" certainly doesn't deserve a backpack containing electronic devices operated by remote control, to say nothing of distinguishing between "Moby Dick" and "Little Women."

"While it's not hard to train monkeys to do a given task, it's another matter to keep them from being actively destructive the rest of the time," the Society says.

Yes, but monkeys also rarely bark at innocent callers who intend no harm or bay at the moon. "When a monkey misbehaves," the Society explains, "the trainer can activate the device in the backpack and it will sound an unpleasant tone and deliver a mild shock."

"In recent years," the Society continues, "there have been a number of experiments to use dogs for something besides pets."

My advice would be to stick to shaggy dog jokes. If, however, you're trying to train a short-haired animal, you're on your own.

According to agriculture scientists, even zigzagging insects may be following specific flight patterns that enable them to detect odors emitted by their prey.

But experiments thus far have mostly involved a non-stinging type of wasp. Those with stingers, I presume, still make a beeline for their prey — you.

The same goes for pet monkeys.

VIEWPOINT

Whither South Africa?

By Ronald de Valderano

LONDON — To the enormous and evident satisfaction of those who wish to see the destruction of public order in South Africa, the violence and chaos in the Republic continues to grow.

Emissaries such as Bishop Tutu, supplied with apparently inexhaustible funds, continue to travel around the world, urging that sanctions be imposed upon South Africa which would force the country to its knees.

Shouts of rage have erupted from such stalwarts of democracy as President Mugabe, the Marxist dictator of Zimbabwe, and Kenneth Kuanda in Zambia, who dub the South Africans as terrorists for their pinpoint, retaliatory attacks against African National Congress (ANC) terrorist bases near Zambia's capital of Lusaka and in Zimbabwe's capital of Harare. The Commonwealth Prime Ministers, who could certainly win a gold medal in any intergalactic contest in hypocrisy, froth with jury, Britain and America have joined the chorus.

What do they want? That ANC activist Nelson Mandela should be freed? While his crimes richly deserve a life sentence, Pretoria will probably free him. The Eminent Persons group, which has suspended its work in the Republic as a result of the raids into Zambia, Zimbabwe and Botswana, has survived and will make certain recommendations. The American initiative is not dead, either. Prime Minister Botha is certainly anxious to effect certain reforms, and he is probably willing, if pushed hard enough, to legalize the African National Congress if the ANC will suspend its violence. But Botha will not legalize the communist wing of the ANC or the military wing.

Since it is virtually impossible to separate the ANC nationalists from its communists and military sections, ANC leader Oliver Tambo would not agree to this partial legalization. Botha knows, however, that the electorate will only support him if the ANC abjures violence, and its communists and militants are excluded.

After all the talking, when all the wise men of Eminent Persons groups and other commissions seeking some solution to this problem have been heard, one fact is emerging more and more clearly: the concessions which Botha has brought in are considered to be too little and too late. They have not appeased, but rather whetted the appetite of the black nationalists, spurred on by marxist agitators and propagandists, urged forward by racial hatred and black nationalism which is rising like a tide and comes not only from Africa but from many groups around the world.

Pentagon Worries About Satellites

By Jack Anderson and Joseph Spear

WASHINGTON — Pentagon officials have yet another nightmare, and it's no pipe dream: A nuclear explosion in space could cripple the multibillion-dollar commercial satellite network the military uses for its worldwide communications.

The nuclear explosion could be intentional — a test by some aspiring member of the "nuclear club" — or accidental, as the malfunction of a nuclear generator used to power a reconnaissance satellite. Or it could be a deliberate "accident" staged by the Soviets, who agreed with the United States in 1963 to stop above-ground nuclear testing after a number of satellites were damaged.

Details of the Pentagon's concern are spelled out in an internal

JEFFREY HART

The Lost Kid

Stephen Bingham has now been declared not guilty by a San Francisco jury, having been charged with complicity in the 1971 shoot-out at San Quentin, in which Panther George Jackson and five others were killed. The case was a genuine 60's period piece in both its zaniness and its wild violence and George Jackson was a period piece movement hero, a Black Panther leader who was serving time for robbery and had also written a best-seller about prison life called "Soledad Brother." The title itself, with its pun on "soul" and the magic black word "brother," was well calculated to thrill the "honkies" as they were called in those days.

The plot alleged by the prosecution is pure Marx — Groucho not Karl.

Stephen Bingham, who was Jackson's lawyer, is alleged to have smuggled a gun into the prison concealed in a tape recorder, along with an Afro wig. This stuff he is supposed to have slipped to Jackson during a lawyer-client interview. Jackson concealed the pistol in the Afro wig. When this was shortly discovered, the shoot-out commenced, six people dying and Bingham going underground for 14 years. Why underground? He did not think he could get a fair trial, even though Bobby Dale got a fair trial — or, rather, was acquitted of murder.

Aw come on. No one shoots his way out of San Quentin. The odds are zero.

On the other hand, that's the way it was in the 1960s, just crazy. No one overthrows the government of the United States either. Not even Mark Rudd, remember him?

It is possible, more than possible, that George Jackson was so inflamed with anger that he wanted to go out shooting and take some honkies with him. That was 60's emotion, after all. Remember the riots at the Democratic convention, the later days of Rage with the Weathermen, the Ninth Street Kathy Boudin bomb factory that blew up with the Bombers, those who lived, running naked through Greenwich Village; remember the Symbionese Liberation Army Generation?

Stephen Bingham himself at the time was the perfect example of the 1960s jerk, and on top of that the perfect example of the decadence of significant segments of the American social and political elite.

He had gone to a fancy prep school, Milton Academy, then Yale, and after that law school at Berkeley. His family was near or at the top of the social pyramid, his grandfather a great archaeologist who had done important work on the Incas, and had also served as governor of Connecticut, his father Alfred a probate judge in Connecticut.

Bingham himself went through the entire liberal menu. Of course he "went to Mississippi" in the civil rights movement. Shockingly, he opposed the Vietnam war. He spent two years in the Peace Corps, and marched for Caesar Chavez and his grape pickers or whatever they were. But all this was not good enough. He had to become a Marxist and a revolutionary.

What a predictable nerd, without a single unpredictable opinion of his own, everything spoon-fed him by the counter-culture. That's 1960s stuff, too.

One of my favorite remarks of the period was made by the Argentine ambassador, in turning down an offer of American peace-corpsmen. "Why does Argentina need the Peace Corps?" he asked. "Do you send the Peace Corps to France?"

One tiny mystery. Bingham's 1960s friends in the courtroom regarded his acquittal as a "vindication" of the radical movement. Why?

DON GRAFF

The New Breed Of Savages

What is it about totalitarian regimes that brings out the utterly savage in apparently civilized man? An example of what I have in mind happened recently in Chile.

Two young opponents of the military dictatorship of Gen. Augusto Pinochet Ugarte were seized on a Santiago street by uniformed troops, doused with flammable material and set afire. One, 19-year-old Roderigo Rojas de Negri, died after delayed and inadequate medical treatment. The other, a young woman, clings to life at this writing.

Chilean authorities have denied responsibility, but no one outside their own ranks buys the disclaimer. Not even the Reagan administration, which is not noted for being quick to criticize the Pinochet regime but which, spokesmen say, is pressing the Chileans for an accounting.

This is not the only incidence of barbarism in the 13 years that Pinochet has misgoverned what was once South America's bellwether democracy. Nor is Chile the only place where such incidents take place. Examples of abominations against humanity abound in totalitarian regimes of both the right and left.

Aryeh Neier calls attention to the latter in The New York Review of Books. It is Castro's Cuba, Neier, former head of the American Civil Liberties Union and current vice chairman of Americas Watch, notes Cuba has confined large numbers of political prisoners for longer periods than any other country in the world — at least 15,000 at a time, according to Castro himself.

It is not the confinement that is the major complaint, but the brutal conditions in which prisoners are held and the torture to which they routinely are subject. Recently published accounts by former prisoners provide ample and grisly detail of these abuses.

There is also documentation, most recently from Amnesty International, of unpleasant practices in the prisons of Castro's pro-satellite, Sandinista Nicaragua, where Interior Minister Tomas Borge appears to be applying techniques picked up during time he served in Somoza prisons.

The new savagery is found in a variety of other regimes throughout the world, some hard to peg ideologically. What, for example, is Syria? A Soviet ally internationally, but at home President Hafez al-Assad's highly personalized rule has the stench of right-wing dictatorship. Whatever, he's very big on torture.

Defense Communications Agency study completed three years ago. Our associate Donald Goldberg obtained a copy.

"There exists today a very real concern that the current generation of commercial satellites with their extensive use of solid state devices (ss) significantly more susceptible than the 'Early Bird,' the report states. The reference was to satellites launched in the late 1950s and early 1960s that used vacuum tubes. The newer, solid state equipment is believed to be much more vulnerable to the electromagnetic pulse emitted by a nuclear blast.

Compounding this increased susceptibility," the report continues, "is an unstable global environment wherein a proliferation of Third World powers have, or are well on their way to having, the capability to test a nuclear device in space. These countries are not constrained by the current nuclear test ban agreements."

The report then warns bluntly: "Such a test, whether intended to do so or not, could deliver a decisive blow to our commercial satellite assets, severely or totally disrupting our national telecommunications system."

Any adversary with the necessary liftoff power could stage an apparent nuclear accident. "This threat pertains to any device tested in low Earth orbit by a Third World country or intentionally by the Soviet Union to test the survivability and endurance of our commercial satellite services," the report states. "An 'accidental' nuclear event might be associated with the disintegration of a radioisotopic thermoelectric generator used as a prime power source on an operational reconnaissance satellite."

Another threat would be a high-altitude explosion near the "geosynchronous" orbits used by most communications satellites. Traveling at the same speed as the Earth's rotation, the satellites appear to hover over one spot.

"Such an event could conceivably be called accidental and a singular event," the report states, adding ominously: "Its consequences would be devastating. ... Such an event would, could, possibly destroy the entire fleet (of satellites) if the event was positioned near the center of the commercial satellite orbital arc."

Paramilitary Group Has Shadowy History

By Dana Beyerle
And Bill Lohmann

FLINT CITY, Ala. (UPI) — The jungles of Nicaragua and the deserts of Arizona are both a long way from north Alabama, the home of a shadowy paramilitary outfit that operates on a shoestring but flexes its anti-communist muscles in faraway places. Civilian Materiel Assistance, organized three years ago by Thomas Vincent Posey, a wholesale grocer in Decatur, Ala., has provided military supplies and know-how to anti-communists in Central America, including government forces in El Salvador and Nicaraguan rebels.

CMA even lost two volunteers who were killed in 1984 when their medical evacuation helicopter was shot down near the Nicaraguan border with Honduras. Their latest exercise came along the U.S.-Mexican border in Arizona, where armed CMA patrols recently hit the headlines when armed volunteers rounded up a group of illegal aliens, turning them over to the immigration service. The CMA, which has no police or governmental authority, also said it was patrolling for drug smugglers.

CMA claims 5,000 members in all 50 states, many of them veterans of Vietnam, and says it collects "nickel-and-dime" donations to fund its stated mission: to stop communists and other undesirables who assault the political and geographical sanctity of the United States.

"I describe the CMA as American citizens ... stopping communism by the best way they know how and that's getting up and doing something," Posey said in an interview at his middle-class home in Flint City, a small residential community south of Decatur.

"It's time for Americans to stand up and fight for what they believe in," said Posey, 40, a balding ex-Marine.

Posey said CMA has many friends among conservatives in the federal government and he portrays its members as straight-arrow adventurers whose only compensation is the opportunity to help fight communism.

The original name was Civilian Military Assistance but the middle word was recently changed to "Materiel" to stress the group's donations of cash and supplies — CMA says it has raised $35,000 cash and another $4 million in supplies — to anti-communists. The group wanted to avoid any connection to actual combat, said Posey, who does not quite confront accusations that CMA is a platoon of mercenaries. "A mercenary gets paid," said Posey. "Do I look like I get paid?"

However, dark clouds hover over CMA. The group is trailed by hints of shadowy connections, ranging from the CIA to the Ku Klux Klan, and members have been charged with an assortment of Latin American mischief, including gun running, drug smuggling and assassination plots.

Investigators for Sen. John Kerry, D-Mass., uncovered allegations from former Nicaraguan contras who said Posey helped with an assassination plot in 1985 against Lewis Tamba, who then was U.S. ambassador to Costa Rica and now serves as ambassador to Colombia. According to Ron Rosenblith, a Kerry aide, Posey allegedly plotted the assassination with Maj. Gen. John Singlaub, a major Contra fund-raiser, and John Hull, an American who owns a large ranch in Costa Rica that is alleged to be used as a refueling point for drugs and guns smuggled by Contras. Also implicated by the Kerry probe was Adolfo Calero, who heads the U.S.-backed Contra group called the FDN (Nicaraguan Democratic Force).

In addition, a $23.8-million lawsuit filed by two journalists and the Christie Institute, a liberal public interest law firm in Washington, names Posey as one of 30 defendants, along with two former CIA officials, Calero and Singlaub. The suit, filed in May, alleges Posey plotted to kill former Contra leader Eden Pastora in late 1984. The alleged plot to kill Pastora was unsuccessful. A bomb set at a news conference in Nicaragua in 1984 killed eight people, but Pastora escaped unharmed. The suit also alleges Posey participated in a plot to bomb the U.S. embassy in Costa Rica in 1985. This plot, the suit said, never reached fruition.

Also, the FBI revealed in 1984 that CMA was under investigation for violation of the Neutrality Act in connection with arms being furnished to the Contras. However, CMA was never prosecuted.

Posey denies all of the charges. He said the lawsuit "has the makings of a C-rated movie" and attacked his accusers as "communists."

"We don't believe in terrorism in any fashion," Posey said.

Posey has known Calero since he started CMA.

Posey said he knows Singlaub and Hull only from occasional meetings and works for neither. However, CMA provided the security at the 1985 annual meeting of the World Anti-Communist League, of which Singlaub is chairman, according to The Resource Center in Albuquerque, N.M., a non-profit organization that questions U.S. actions in Central America.

Posey denied any connection with the CIA, but watchdog organizations that have looked into CMA say there are strong indications of a link.

"There is a strong suspicion that some of the money is coming clandestinely from the CIA or the military in this country," said Beth Sims, of The Resource Center. "But in terms of concrete evidence, we don't have that."

There is evidence of at least coordination between CMA and the U.S. government.

According to The Resource Center, an Army logistics officer stationed at the U.S. embassy in San Salvador sent a letter in 1984 to Posey, requesting a shipment of CMA supplies — including pistol belts, ammunition clips, first-aid-kits and camouflage uniforms — to the Salvadoran army.

Sims said the simple fact that CMA supplies have reached anti-communist fighters in Central America is significant. "All of these things would have to happen with U.S. government approval," Sims said.

CMA at least appears to be a mom-and-pop operation.

Posey, one of four original founders and its most visible leader, directs CMA's course from his home. Another original founder, Dana Parker, a police detective from nearby Huntville, was one of the CMA volunteers killed in Nicaragua.

Chernetsky's probable career field is electrical engineering.

Among his accomplishments in high school he was the Senior Academic Team Captain, and a member of the All County Academic Team. He was vice president of the Hi-Y Club, a chess champion, and took first place in math and science and second place in English essay in the Florida Academic Decathlon.

member of Students Against Drunk Drivers, won a principal's Award for Math, and a member of the Hall of Fame for Science. He was a two-year track team member and three-year soccer team member. He was also a Drama Club member.

5,800 Merit Scholarships worth over $21 million are being awarded in 1986. Chernetsky is among about 2,600 winners who will receive Merit Scholarships supported by 200 U.S. higher education institutions.

Winners were chosen from among Merit Program Finalists who plan to attend a sponsor institution by officials of that college or university. Each award ranges from $1,000 to $4,000 over the four years of undergraduate study.

Elizabeth Canterbury, owner of The Phase II Shop, Lake Mary, right, and Diane Harting, sales clerk.

The Phase II Shop Has Classy Consignments

Nobody likes to clean out clothes closets, but it can be profitable! In addition to a clean house, you could end up with some extra cash, too. If you bring your unused items to The Phase II Shop at 120 E. Lake Mary Boulevard at Country Club Road. They could be just right for someone else.

Elizabeth Canterbury, owner of The Phase II Shop, is always looking for new consignees. She is now accepting nice as new summer clothing on consignment.

Located in The Shoppes at Lake Mary, the clean and attractive re-sale shop features clothing for women size 1 to 20 and infant through size 12 in children's fashions.

A great chance to get acquainted with all Phase II has to offer and take advantage of some really low prices is the sidewalk sale on Saturday, July 19.

Elizabeth, who had a similar shop in Columbus, Ohio, for four years, opened her Lake Mary shop in October 1985. A resident of the city, she is a member of the Lake Mary, Greater Sanford and Greater Seminole chambers of commerce and the Community Improvement Association. She also owns Libby's Lace Lingerie in the same shopping center.

You like variety in your wardrobe, but at today's high prices for clothing, variety may only mean wearing a different stickpin or a different shade of lipstick.

The Phase II Shop offers gently worn, high quality, brand name clothing at a fraction of its original cost. Look your best, without paying an arm and a leg for it. At the Phase II Shop you can even get two or three pieces for the price of one sold elsewhere. Visit the Phase II Shop often, so you won't miss out on the new arrivals.

They have a good selection of women's dresses, blue jeans, shorts, rompers, jumpsuits, slacks, bathing suits, skirts, and blouses, as well as formal wear, wedding gowns and maternity dresses.

At Phase II, you will find accessories such as shoes, jewelry, purses, belts, and new pantyhose in fashion colors.

"We stress that the clothes at Phase II are 'gently used,'" Elizabeth said. "We won't accept anything in poor condition."

Designer labels are not at all uncommon at The Phase II Shop. "You figure the designer clothes are going to be a better deal," said Elizabeth. "since women who buy designer clothes are getting rid of them faster since the styles change faster and they will be in better shape."

At Phase II, consignees receive 50 percent of the selling price. After 30 days, prices will be reduced 20 percent, after 60 days, prices will be reduced 50 percent. At the end of 90 days, any items that have not been sold or picked up become the property of the shop. Clothing must be on hangers, clean and pressed, free of spots and holes, current style and current season. A maximum of 20 items will be accepted per visit.

Phase II is open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Tuesday through Friday and Saturday 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. They are closed on Mondays during summer.

Convicted FBI Spy Gets Two Life Prison Terms Plus 50 Years

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — A federal judge sentenced the first FBI agent convicted of espionage to two life prison terms plus 50 years, saying a man who "betrays his country cannot walk again in that country as a free man."

Richard Miller, 49, who was also fined $60,000 Monday, had been convicted of turning over a classified counterintelligence manual to his lover, convicted Soviet spy Svetlana Ogorodnikova.

Miller will be eligible for parole after serving one-third of the 50-year sentence — nearly 17 years, prosecutors said. Without the additional 50-year sentence, he would have been eligible for parole after serving 10 years of the concurrent life terms.

Miller was convicted June 19 on six counts of espionage and bribery after a second lengthy trial, and his lawyers said they have filed for an appeal. The first trial ended in November with the jury deadlocked, most favoring conviction.

Cameras To Survey Titanic

WOODS HOLE, Mass. (UPI) — Scientists in a mini-submarine descended miles into the sea for the first in-person look at the Titanic since it sank 74 years ago, setting the stage for a robot to photograph the interior of what was once the most luxurious ship afloat.

The scientists planned to deploy the robot today on a tether up the ship's grand staircase, using its searchlights to illuminate the ballroom for the first time since the light of its chandeliers was swallowed by the Inky North Atlantic after the Titanic struck an iceberg on its maiden voyage.

Today's trip into the ballroom was to mark the start of an 11-day probe of the interior by the self-propelled robot, named Jason Jr., which is laden with television cameras, resembles a lawnmower and is small enough at 20-by-24 inches to pass through the hatches of the 882-foot, 46,000-ton vessel.

On Monday, the three scientists in the mini-submarine peered into the ship through the hole left when the huge glass dome above the stairs leading to the ballroom imploded as the Titanic sank on April 15, 1912.

Suspect Arrested For Tampering

A Pennsylvania man was the first suspect arrested in a recent wave of tampering scares that have touched consumer goods ranging from soft drinks to non-prescription drugs, with the decongestant Sudafed marked as the latest target.

Norman Mark Allen, 21, of Honesdale, Pa., is scheduled to appear in court today on charges of making false claims in telephone calls to a local Acme store Friday night and Saturday, saying Jell-O brand gelatin and instant pudding had been poisoned. FBI spokesman Jim McIntosh said in Philadelphia.

It was the first arrest in the latest spate of contamination scares that began July 7, with anonymous claims saying that such products as Ac'cent flavor enhancer and the soft drink Slice had been poisoned.

Warlord Enters Negotiations For Release Of Missionary, 10 Nuns

MANILA, Philippines (UPI) — A Moslem political warlord today sent emissaries deep into the mountains of the southern Philippines to negotiate with the kidnapers of 10 nuns and an American missionary abducted in the predominantly Moslem city of Marawi.

Brig. Gen. Pedro Balbanero, the southern Philippine deputy commander, said the two emissaries dispatched by Mohammad Ali Dimaporo had gone to the mountains early today and were expected to return to Marawi by nightfall.

Dimaporo, ousted as governor of the province of Lanao del Sur during a purge of officials loyal to deposed President Ferdinand Marcos, was instrumental in negotiating the release of French priest Michel de Gigord, abducted in Marawi last month.

Soviet, U.K. Resume Talks

LONDON (UPI) — Foreign Secretary Sir Geoffrey Howe and Soviet Foreign Minister Eduard Shevardnadze met today for a second day of talks expected to focus on East-West relations and arms control issues.

The talks at Lancaster House came a day after Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher met with Shevardnadze and "warmly received" an invitation to visit Moscow in what was British officials said signaled an improvement in Anglo-Soviet relations.

Shevardnadze, making the first visit to Britain by a Soviet foreign minister in 10 years, also gave Thatcher, once dubbed the "Iron Lady" by Moscow, a personal message from Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev dealing with arms control.

He planned late today to look in on Thatcher during her twice-weekly verbal sparring match with political opponents at the House of Commons. The Soviet minister also planned meetings with opposition politicians. East-West relations and arms control issues likely were to be the main topics in today's talks, British diplomats said.

Israeli Warplanes Hit Targets

BEIRUT (UPI) — A 30-year-old Palestinian guerrilla commander surveyed the ruins of one of four Palestinian military posts leveled by Israeli warplanes in raids that left at least four people dead and 11 wounded.

Israeli warplanes struck at four Palestinian military targets outside Beirut Monday and scored direct hits on two. Police said the surprise strike killed two Palestinians and two members of the Druze Progressive Socialist Party and wounded 11 people, including six Palestinian fighters.

...Resigns

$28,000 a year.

Lake Mary's city commission is expected to act on Mrs. Rice's letter of resignation at this Thursday's regular city commission meeting in Lake Mary city hall, 158 N. Country Club Road, at 7:30 p.m.

Mayor Fess said he will recommend that Jim Orioles, 37, superintendent of public works, fill in as interim city manager pending the hiring of a replacement for Rice. Orioles said he would accept the temporary assignment, but that he's not interested in it permanently.

"The last pace, high growth rate, and rules changes have been fun and exciting, but it's been a killer as far as time and energy," Mrs. Rice said. "I've accomplished a lot of things I wanted to get done. I feel it's time to move on to a bigger place," Mrs. Rice added.

"This has been a fantastic opportunity, and I've been very lucky to have worked with excellent commissions here," she continued. "We've been able to get a lot done in a relatively short period of time. There has been a lot of good change."

Of Mrs. Rice's decision to leave the city, Fess said, "It's a great opportunity for her."

"She's done an admirable job in getting us through everything we've done," Fess said. He credited Rice with overseeing the day-to-day operation of the city, as well as dealing with growth-management related problems in the 13-year-old city of 5,000.

"I've seen cities larger than us take ten years to do what we've done in two," Fess said.

"I wish Kathy the very best. She's got an opportunity that is unbelievable. She has fifteen years' experience, and brings a lot to the table," Fess said.

"Our job now is to select a replacement and get the best we can get," Fess continued.

He said he expects finding a replacement for Mrs. Rice to take between two and three months. He said he would recommend to the city commission that the city manager's job be advertised statewide and nationally, and that the commission request a screening committee of area city managers be formed to review applicants and issue a list of finalists for the commission to interview.

Fess said the city commission would have to determine the salary to be offered to the new city manager.

The same system was used in selecting a new city police chief earlier this year. A Central Florida Police Chiefs Association screening committee reviewed about 50 applicants for the job, and recommended a list of six for final consideration by the commission.

Commissioners reacted with surprise this morning when they were asked by an Evening Herald reporter to comment on Rice's resignation prior to the 10 a.m. news conference at which the announcement was made.

Commissioner Ken King said, "I wasn't aware of that. I'm surprised. If she is going on to bigger and better things, I'm happy for her, and I wish her well. When somebody gets a career advancement opportunity, they should make their move. It will take the next city manager some time to adjust and learn about the city, but I expect the new city manager to carry on with some level of efficiency."

Buzz Patsos also expressed surprise. "I haven't heard it yet. I haven't been told by her. I talked to her yesterday, and I didn't hear anything. If it's true, I wish her the best of luck in the future. She did a lot for us with the Land Development Code, zoning regulations and Comprehensive Land Use Plan."

Patsos continued, "If there's a problem in finding someone quickly, we could possibly find an interim city manager."

Commissioner Russ Megonegal said, "I'm sorry she is leaving. I wish her the very best if this is what she wants. She has served us very well."

Megonegal said he would prefer the commission act as its own screening committee. "I would prefer advertising the position, reviewing applicants, and proceed with narrowing the field and conducting the interviews."

Commissioner Charlie Webster, who has sometimes criticized Rice during commission meetings, said, "If Kathy Rice is resigning, I think that it is going to be a loss for the city. She is a dedicated employee who has worked long hours and helped to author the Comprehensive Land Use Plan and Land Development Code, which are outstanding controls for the city's growth. She has been dedicated and hard working since the day she arrived, and she will be sorely missed. However, I understand her desire to move onward and upward. I only wish the best for her."

Commissioner Paul Tremel, an instructor at Seminole Community College, was in class this morning and could not be reached for comment.

Fess was a vice president for corporate banking at Freedom and the S&L's management decided to do away with the Corporate Banking Business Development Section to which he was attached, the mayor said.

Fess was first elected mayor in 1984.

Fess was first appointed to the city's Board of Adjustments in 1979 and was elected as commissioner in 1980. In 1982 he ran for mayor but was eliminated in a three-way race for the job, won by Walt Sorenson. He did not hold an elected city office between 1982-84.

According to city clerk Carol Edwards, commissioner Paul Tremel has picked up qualifying filing forms to run for re-election to his commission seat, as has John Percy, a city Planning and Zoning Board member, who is running for commissioner Russ Megonegal's seat. Megonegal said earlier this year he will not run for reelection because he is moving.

Mrs. Rice said she had been considering a job change for "the past three months."

According to Mrs. Rice, she was interviewed by Gulfport's city commission last Friday and by the time she returned to Lake Mary later that day, she got a phone call offering her the job. She said Gulfport's city council will officially vote tonight on hiring her.

Gulfport's city clerk, Lesley DeMuth, said the four councilmen and mayor Yvonne Johnson were in agreement Friday to offer the job to Mrs. Rice.

She said that former city manager Bruce Haddock left office March 24, after failing to be reappointed to a one-year term by the council. She said under Gulfport's city charter, the city manager is appointed annually.

Gulfport Mayor Johnson said Haddock was not reappointed to the city manager's job after a two-year stint. She said the vote was 3-2 to not reappoint Haddock. Haddock was the city's finance director before becoming city manager.

She said Haddock is now the city manager of Oldsmare, Fla.

Of Mrs. Rice's Friday interview, Ms. Johnson said, "The council felt she was very personable. Everybody was pleased and comfortable with her."

"Coming from a smaller town, she has more hands-on experience with dealing with department heads. She'll have a bigger staff here, but she'll have the hands-on experience in dealing with the various departments."

Ms. Johnson said the council screened 179 applicants from as far away as Oregon and Pennsylvania for the job, and narrowed the list to five to be interviewed. In narrowing the field of candidates, the council voted 3-2 to interview Mrs. Rice, Mrs. Johnson said.

In addition to a woman mayor and new woman city manager, other female officials in Gulfport government include the personnel director, the finance director, and two police officers, Mrs. Johnson said.

"One of the big things that attracted me is that Gulfport's city charter calls for a strong city manager," Mrs. Rice said. "The charter precludes the mayor and commission from direct dealings with department heads."

Fess is an advocate for the same type of system in Lake Mary, since the city manager oversees the day-to-day city functions.

Mrs. Rice said her starting salary was another selling point.

She listed many accomplishments of Lake Mary city government during the past three years, including the writing of the Land Development Code, updating the Comprehensive Land Use Plan, and the development of the Master Water Plan, the Master Sewer Plan, the Transportation Plan, awarding a one vendor garbage franchise, updating of personnel policies, the computer upgrade for more efficient use of city time, and the opening of the Harry Terry Water Plant last December.

For the future in Lake Mary, Mrs. Rice sees a need for consolidating all city departments under the direction of the city manager, as Fess has advocated. She also said that having a city engineer on staff will make the city manager's job easier. Tim Weaver, a Seminole County civil engineer, will start work for Lake Mary Aug. 11.

Mrs. Rice was hired as the city's second city manager, replacing Phil Kulbes on Oct. 28, 1983. Kulbes went on to become a Winter Springs city commissioner.

expedite completion of garbage problems that were partially eradicated during the last four days.

The Georgia Avenue residents formed an ad hoc committee last week and credit it with expediting clean-up of garbage that was piling up at property surrounding an abandoned Georgia Avenue home and on a city easement across the street from their homes.

The vacant home and lot were reportedly cleaned up Saturday by workers for the bank which is foreclosing on the property, although a car reportedly still remains at the site. Sanford Police Chief Steve Harriett said Monday night he will take measures to secure the vehicle's removal.

The city easements were reportedly cleared by city public works staffers contracted by the those responsible for the debris, although Mrs. Keith said Monday night she had again seen garbage at the site.

In their response to residents, commissioners also asked why they had contacted the news media instead of their elected officials. Residents said they thought city building and engineering staff were the proper channels to turn to and that staff would then report the situation to commissioners.

Commissioners, except for Mayor Bettye Smith, indicated Monday that news media coverage of the situation had been their first indication of the residents' problems.

Mayor Smith said she had first heard about the flooding problems eight months ago and thought they had since been corrected, until last week, when she said one of the Georgia Avenue residents called her at home.

Mayor Smith also said after Monday's meeting she was satisfied with staffs' response to the residents complaints. She cited Simmons having gone to Georgia Avenue last month, two days after he said residents had contacted him. Follow-up steps Simmons took led to the contractor's submission of drainage plan amendments, which will be further modified and their installation expedited following commissioner's actions Monday.

"I believe in our staff and that they were doing all they legally could to address the situation," Mayor Smith said. "I think the biggest problem we had was the residents are frustrated and that unfortunately, the solutions to their problems couldn't come overnight."

estimated last spring. This $1 million property value increase enabled a one cent property tax decrease from the $4.17 figure the office had tentatively set last month as representing Sanford's 1986-87 rollback rate.

A rollback rate factors in new construction to arrive at the millage rate a city would have to adopt to produce the same amount of property tax revenue as it did under the previous year's tax rate. —Karen Talley

'Hurry-Up' Roberts 2-Hits Ocala

By Chris Flister
Herald Sports Writer

LEESBURG — When a game involving the Sanford American League All-Stars lasts all of 58 minutes it means one of two things. Either rain cut the game short, or Anthony "Redman" Roberts was on the mound.

Roberts, who prefers to work in a hurry, tossed a two-hitter and retired the last 12 men in order and Sanford came back from a 2-0 deficit behind some clutch hitting from the bottom four hitters in the order in a 3-2 victory over Ocala Highlands Monday night in the opening game of the Florida Little Major League District 4 Tournament at the Leesburg Complex.

The Americans, 5-0 in tournament play, return to action tonight at 8 in the winners' bracket final against Ormond Beach which downed host Leesburg American, 11-0, in Monday's second game. Mike Maples, who won two games in the sub-district, will be the starting pitcher for Sanford.

In a losers' bracket game tonight at 6, Highlands goes up against Leesburg American.

Roberts kept Ocala off balance all night with his quick delivery and sizzling fastball. He allowed only base hits in the first and second innings, struck out six and walked three. Roberts had a hand in 15 of the 18 outs as he also got seven hitters to bounce back to the mound, caught one pop up and covered first base on a grounder to the first baseman.

"Redman" had it a little rough the first few innings but settled down and pitched a great game," Sanford manager Otis Raines said. "Once he shook off giving up the two runs, he was in control the rest of the game."

Roberts' counterpart on the mound, Ocala's Jason Pelham, also pitched well as he allowed seven hits, struck out six and walked just one.

Ocala jumped out to an early lead with one run in the top of the first and one in the second. In the first, Perry Athanason drew a one-out walk and Larry Mills followed with a single to left center. A wild pitch moved the runners up and Athanason then scored on another wild pitch. Roberts then struck out the next two hitters to end the inning.

After Pelham set Sanford down in order in the bottom of the first, Highlands made it 2-0 in the top of the second. Rick Spirea walked to lead off and Mike Lingle followed with a single to left. The two moved when Mark Ehman grounded to first baseman Matt Wilk who flipped to Roberts covering for the first out. Spirea then scored on another wild pitch. Roberts retired the next two hitters to strand Lingle on third.

The Americans came back to tie it with a two-run, two-out rally in the bottom of the second. After Pelham set down the first two hitters in the inning, Britt Henderson looped a single to left for Sanford's first hit. Wilk followed with an infield single and Leroy Kettl, the number eight hitter in the lineup, then got the Americans on the board as he lashed a single to right to score Henderson.

Bill Kerns, starting his second game at catcher, then stepped

Knee Injury Could Limit Raines' Time

Tim Raines, who was disappointed when he didn't make the starting National League outfield for tonight's All-Star Game at Houston, received another jolt to his playing time when he injured his knee Friday.

Raines played Saturday and went 2 for 4 to raise his average to .333. The Montreal left fielder sat out Sunday's game, which was suspended by rain with the Reds leading, 3-2, in the sixth inning.

"It's all right when I run straight ahead," Raines said. "But I can't make a cut very easily when I play the outfield."

Raines, who finished fourth in the fans' vote, was selected for the sixth consecutive year. His only start came in 1983. He has been a reserve the other six times, although he always plays at least half the game.

The injury may limit Raines to one at-bat.

N.L. manager Whitey Herzog, a big fan of Raines, said he doesn't expect to do much stealing either. "I'm going to play the game straight," he said. "The big thing is not to get anybody hurt, so I won't be stealing and doing a lot of stuff like that."

"I'd hate like hell to be the manager who got someone hurt in an All-Star Game."

A television audience of 51 million is expected. The game will be televised by Orlando's WFTV-9 at 8 p.m.

The rocking chair is where it's at in Little League Baseball's District 14 double-elimination process. The managers whose seat rests there can watch and rock to his heart's content.

Woody Woodard, the skipper for the Altamonte Seniors, knows. Woodard and his team reeled off three consecutive wins to move into the rocker. They patiently waited as Maitland fought its way through the losers' bracket. It wasn't that big of a fight since the Senior Division 2 has just six teams. Just the same, Altamonte came from behind to nail Maitland, 6-3, Saturday night for the title.

Woodard's team plays the waiting game again tonight. Apopka, which upended Winter Garden, 9-3, Monday, takes on Ocoee tonight. Apopka needs a win tonight and another Tuesday for the Division 1 title.

Ocoee or Apopka meets Altamonte Friday night at Deltona. Woodard said he would like the Division 2 to come into the showdown with a loss. Then, one Altamonte win would send it to the sectional.

Woodard has another rocking partner in Rudy Callahan. The Altamonte Americans' mentor has spent more time back and forth, however. There are a host of teams in the Division 2 Major League, so when the Americans tripped the Altamonte Nationals, 3-1, last Thursday, they earned four days off.

The Americans return to action tonight at 7 against Maitland. Manager Larry Jones' Majors knocked off the Nationals, 7-5, Monday to earn a spot opposite the Americans. Maitland needs two wins to take the division.

More often than not, the team in the rocking chair will win the tournament. It takes an awful good pitching staff and some potent hitters to fight through the losers' bracket.

Ormond Beach's Blake Byers, left, can't beat the tag from Derrick Taylor on a steal attempt of third base. Sanford caught Ormond this time, but not on 11 other attempts as Ormond cruised to a 9-2 win in the District 4 tournament.

Ormond Bops 'Uptight' Sanford

By Sam Cook
Herald Sports Editor

For the Sanford Juniors to be successful, manager Duane LaFollette figured they must combine speed on the base paths and power pitching. Unfortunately, the former can't be used without the latter.

So when Sanford dropped behind, 4-0, to Ormond Beach in the first round of the Florida Junior Major League District 4 Championship Monday, LaFollette expected the worst.

He got it. Sanford was limited to four hits and left 14 runners on base while its pitchers issued 11 walks and Ormond stole 10 bases en route to a 9-2 victory before 303 fans at Sanford's Chase Park.

"We were uptight playing in front of the home crowd," LaFollette said. "When we got behind, it took us out of our game plan. It's not too wise to run when you're behind."

Baseball

In Monday's second game, C.J. Haynes singled home two runs with one out in the bottom of the seventh inning to lift New Smyrna Beach/Edgewater to a 9-8 victory over Holly Hill. Two players, one from each team, and a NSB coach were ejected in the sixth inning.

Tonight at 6, Ormond Beach battles Daytona Beach. NSB/Edgewater takes on Port Orange at 8 p.m. Sanford plays the NSB-Port Orange loser Wednesday at 6 p.m. Holly Hill squares off with the Ormond-Daytona loser Wednesday at 8 p.m.

Ormond Beach used a combined four-hit effort from crafty

Tommy Lee and 6-2, 220-pound fireballer Bill Glenn to check the locals. Lee went the first four innings, giving up three hits for the win. He struck out eight and walked three. Glenn finished up with seven whiffs in three frames, allowing one hit.

"We were just overmatched," LaFollette said. "That first kid (Lee) was a smart pitcher and the second (Glenn) had the kids intimidated."

Sanford ace Mike Merthie had a disastrous first inning. "Mike was off and he blew up when he didn't get the calls," LaFollette said about his righthander who threw 42 pitches in the first inning alone.

Merthie pitched 4 1/2 innings, striking out seven, but walking eight. He was touched for five runs and five hits while absorbing the loss.

In the first, Merthie walked Randy Hearne and Blake Byers. Each stole a base to move to second and third. Merthie then reached back and struck out Lee and Glenn on fastballs. David Thomas, though, went up looking for the heater and he drilled the first pitch into left field to chase home both runs. Thomas went to second on the throw to the plate.

Perry Lyle followed with a base hit to right field which eluded Tim Hampson as the run scored and Lyle went to second. He promptly stole third and scampered home for a 4-0 lead when catcher Julius Bennett's throw went into left field.

Chris Hansen then reached on an error by second baseman James Jackson and Merthie walked Robby Brown before

Maitland Doesn't Crack, Ousts Nationals

EUSTIS — Maitland used a clutch pitching performance by Chad Wegeman and an impressive hitting display by Bobby Anderson to trim the Altamonte Nationals, 7-5, in an exciting District 14, Division 2 Major League All-Star Baseball losers' bracket final before 188 fans at the Eustis Recreational Center Monday.

"The kids played one heck of a game tonight," Maitland manager Larry Jones said. "A lot of teams crack under pressure just because they are playing Altamonte and we didn't. That was the key to the game."

Despite the setback, Altamonte coach Frank Harmer said that he will use the loss as a learning experience. "This game was a tremendous learning experience for me and

Victorious Starlings, Hawks Complete Metro Sweep

By Chris Flister
Herald Sports Writer

It was a clean sweep for the Seminole Softball Club this past weekend as all three of its all-star teams were crowned champions at the Metro Tournament at Lake Fairview Park in Orlando.

The 10 and under Starlings claimed their championship on Saturday while the 12 and under Hawks won Sunday as did the 15 and under Savages.

"It's the first time in history that anyone knows of that any one club swept the Metro," Seminole Hawks' manager Larry Risse said. "It was really a great tournament. When one team wasn't playing, they were pulling for another of our teams. And the parents were very supportive. We're really proud of all the girls and the program."

With a .495 team batting average and a defense that committed just five errors, the Seminole Hawks shredded the competition en route to the Metro Tournament title this past weekend at Lake Fairview Park in Orlando.

The tournament title advances the Hawks, Seminole Softball Club's 12 and under all-star team, to the ASA Southern Regional Tournament on Aug. 1-3 at Clearwater. The top three teams at regionals go on to the National 12 and Under Tournament later in August at Marietta, Ga.

"Since we have two weeks between now and the regionals, we'll play in the Titusville Tournament this weekend as a warm-up," Risse said. "We want the girls to stay sharp and two teams that we might face in regionals will also be at Titusville."

Softball

The Hawks, who have an overall tournament record of 34-5 for the summer, opened the Metro Tournament Saturday with a 9-1 victory over Conway. The Hawks pounded out 15 hits in the game. Tanya Lewis was 2 for 2 with two RBIs. Renee Sanville drove in two runs and scored a pair of hits. Kristy York was 2 for 3 with an RBI and Maria Mentelvo 1 for 2 with two RBIs.

Seminole then went up against arch rival West Orlando, the only team to beat the Hawks twice this season, and rapped out 20 hits en route to a 17-3 victory. The win put the Hawks in the final and gave them the first big to the Southern Regionals.

Nicole Rathbun had three hits and an RBI to lead the assault while Chrissy Mathieu had two hits and drove in two runs and Christine Risse and Nicole Gorzka had two hits and two ribbies apiece.

West Orlando came back through the losers' bracket to clinch the second regional berth. In the final, West Orlando scored six times in the top of the first but the Hawks stormed back with 18 unanswered runs for an 18-6 victory.

"We made four of our five errors in the tournament in the first inning against West Orlando," Risse said. "But the girls didn't get down on themselves and came back and won. I was really proud of the way they came back in that game."

Lewis had the hot stick for the Hawks in the final as she was 2 for 3 with four RBIs. Connie Bonaventure, Risse and Gorzka contributed two hits each. Risse was also the winning pitcher for third straight game.

For the tournament, April Manning had the top batting average at .625 as she was 5 for 8 with three doubles. Rathbun hit .600, drove in four runs and scored five while four hitters

Super Match: Clemens Gets Un For Gooden

HOUSTON (UPI) — Roger Clemens comes home tonight — and the American League hopes to make the most of the occasion.

The Boston Red Sox right-hander, pitching for the first time as a pro in his hometown, starts the 57th All-Star game tonight against Dwight Gooden, of the New York Mets in one of the more memorable recent matchups.

Dick Howser, manager of the champion Kansas City Royals, gave his AL team a short pep talk following Monday's workout as if it needed to be reminded the National League has won 13 of the last 14 games and holds a 36-19-1 lead.

Omen seekers might look nervously at the fact that the only NL loss of the past 14 games came when Whitey Herzog managed the team in 1983.

Herzog, already covered with lumps from the beating his St. Louis Cardinals have absorbed this year, brought a light moment to the pregame news conference by announcing the NL lineup from the bottom up — "because that's the way things have gone for the St. Louis Cardinals this year."

Or maybe Herzog announced Gooden's name first because his hopes for victory start with the reforming flame-thrower.

"I'll get them out however I can," Gooden said. "The main thing is I just want to pick Whitey up and get him a victory."

Gooden is 10-4 with a 2.77 ERA, has allowed 106 hits, 44 walks, and struck out 101 batters in 136 1/3 innings.

You'd take those numbers, right? But Gooden is plagued by his Cy Young Award season of 1985 — 24-4, 1.53 ERA, 108 hits in 277 innings, 268 strikeouts and 69 walks.

"Dr. K" is opposed by a pitcher some say is more than his equal in Clemens.

Clemens, who struck out a record 20 batters in one game earlier this season, has a 15-2 mark with a 2.48 ERA. He has walked just 35 and struck out 146 while allowing 97 hits in 145 innings. He also pitched on Saturday.

"I hope two days rest is enough for my arm," Clemens said. "Monday was my day to throw, but I don't know if I'll get the full three (innings) since I went nine innings Saturday."

"But no matter how long I go, I'm looking forward to it," he added. "It's been fun here."

"The 20 strikeouts brought me and the Red Sox a lot of attention and a lot of excitement. I put so much pressure on myself to do well, and that's a lot more than the pressure the fans and the media put on me."

Howser tailored his lineup to get Clemens some help. He decided to lead off with Minnesota's Kirby Puckett, who hasn't been hitting home runs like he did at the start of the season, and bat the speedier but perhaps more home run prone Rickey Henderson, New York Yankees' center fielder, second.

Wade Boggs of Boston hits third, followed by Detroit catcher Lance Parrish, rookie first baseman Wally Joyner of California, Baltimore shortstop Cal Ripken Jr., Yankees right fielder Dave Winfield, and Tiger second baseman Lou Whitaker.

Herzog has Tony Gwynn of San Diego leading off, Chicago Cubs second baseman Ryne Sandberg batting second, followed by the New York Mets' threesome of first baseman Keith Hernandez, catcher Gary Carter and right fielder Darryl Strawberry.

Canseco Flunks Homer Exam

— NL Wins, 8-7

By Mike Tully
UPI National Baseball Writer
HOUSTON (UPI) — Jose Canseco spent the day before the All-Star Game having some fun. He posed for pictures with Mets outfielder Darryl Strawberry. He met Hank Aaron.

After delighting baseball fans all year with long batting practice home runs, though, the Oakland outfielder flunked his first meeting with the Houston Astrodom.

He hit only one home run as the AL dropped the second annual home-run hitting contest to the National League, 8-7.

He matched neither the volume of Strawberry and Angels first baseman Wally Joyner, who hit four apiece, nor the distance of Strawberry, who hit the speaker in deep right field.

If Canseco was disappointed, he did not show it.

"It's something to break the ice," he said of the homer contest. "That's not an indication of how much power you have."

"It's a shame he didn't do what he can," said former White Sox executive Roland Hemond, currently working in the commissioner's office. "The first time I saw him, I thought, 'this guy has a chance to hit 500 homers.'"

Canseco has justified his pre-season buildup, leading the majors with 23 homers and 78 RBI.

His power potential made him one of the biggest attractions at Monday's workout. Even though he did manage one shot into the second deck in left field, he watched as Strawberry dominated the power hitting.

"He's a strong guy," Canseco said of Strawberry. "He's got a lot of power. Still, I was surprised."

Strawberry's most impressive shot was still rising when it disappeared into a speaker cage suspended well above the playing field.

After a few moments, it reappeared and dropped in right field.

"I've seen him hit them in batting practice," said Strawberry's teammate, Gary Carter. "He's awesome. He hits them as far as anybody."

After the home-run contest, Canseco mingled with Strawberry and Yankees first baseman

Then someone approached Canseco and asked him to pose with Aaron. They stood side by side, the all-time home-run king, and the apparent future king.

Canseco was surrounded by a few words while photographers worked. "He mentioned something about my size," Canseco said. "That was about it."

COMPUTER: NL TO ROUT AL

The National League will beat the American League for the 14th time in the last 15 years in Tuesday night's All-Star Game, a computer has forecasted.

The NL registered a 13-2 victory Monday in a computer simulation of the All-Star Game in Houston — thanks to a nine-run seventh inning.

Just to prove it was no fluke, the NL won a replay 6-1 with just four hits. Two of those hits were a two-run homer by Dale Murphy of Atlanta in the second and a grand slam by Houston's Glenn Davis in the fourth.

If there's a consolation for the AL, the computer had starter Roger Clemens of Boston performing well both times.

Clemens struck out six batters in hurling three shutout innings in the 13-2 game and fanned four — allowing only Murphy's homer — in the other.

Statistics through July 10 were fed into Micro League

Baseball software, and the game was then run on an IBM PC Jr.

A guess was made at a starting lineup since neither Manager Dick Howser of the AL or Whitley Herzog of the NL had made public his batting order when the game was run.

Substitutions were made on a realistic basis with pinch hitters and pitching changes used in an effort to get every player into the game.

The score was tied 1-1 at the time of the NL's nine-run rally in the first game. Charlie Hough of Texas gave up two scratch infield singles to Murphy, who had a solo home run in the fourth, and Davis to open the seventh.

Baltimore's Don Aase was brought in to pitch to Ozzie Smith of St. Louis, who sacrificed the runners up, Montreal's Hubie Brooks pinch hit for teammate Jeff Reardon, credited with the victory although he gave up a hit to one of the two batters he faced in relief in the top of the inning, and was walked intentionally to load the bases.

Steve Sax of Los Angeles got an infield single to drive in the tie-breaking run. Tim Lincecum, with the infield in, hit a fielder's choice to third on which Davis beat the throw to the plate to make it 3-1.

Clemens Makes Early Pitch For Cy Young, MVP Awards

CHICAGO (UPI) — The major-league baseball season spins out of the turn into the second half of the season this week with the race for individual awards beginning to take form.

Without benefit of projections, sample precincts or computer analysis, here are the first-half winners and front-runners for the postseason awards.

Cy Young Award

American League — Roger Clemens, Boston. A winner of 14 in a row, Clemens lost two straight after that but he is clearly the AL's premier pitcher for the first half. Baltimore's Mike Boddicker and Don Aase are dark horses.

National League — How about the entire New York Mets staff? Sid Fernandez is having the best season of the quartet of starters, including Dwight Gooden. However, voting among the Mets could prevent a New York victory. In that event, Shane Rawley of Philadelphia, Mike Krukow of San Francisco or Bob Knepper of Houston could sneak in.

Most Valuable Player

American League — Boston is leading the AL East and if that sticks Clemens or third baseman Wade Boggs should be at the top of the list. The Yankees' Don Mattingly is primed to defend his award.

National League — Gary Carter, New York Mets. Carter's RBI production is solid and so is his handling of the young pitchers. His problem could be a split in the vote among several Mets and his poor ratio of throwing out base stealers. Shortstop Hubie Brooks of Montreal is having the best all-round season and if the Expos some how get in the race he will be a factor.

Rookie of the Year

American League — How would you like to choose between Wally Joyner of California and Jose Canseco of Oakland? A slight nod to Joyner right now because Angels faring better and he has been better fielder than Canseco.

National League — Andres Gallarraga, Montreal. Rob Thompson of San Francisco and Kevin Mitchell of New York have been surprises, but Gallarraga is posting strong everyday numbers.

Fireman of the Year

American League — Don Aase, Baltimore. The former free agent quietly has amassed a league-leading total number of saves and has helped "save" an inconsistent Baltimore starting staff.

National League — Dave Smith, Houston. Jeff Reardon has more saves, but also more opportunities. This could go down to wire between Smith, Reardon and Rich Gossage of San Diego.

Manager of the Year

American League — Bobby Valentine, Texas. Few expected the Rangers to be anything but in the basement of AL West. Yet Texas is contending. Close nod over Pat Corrales of Cleveland. Look out for Jim Fregosi if White Sox sneak in.

National League — Roger Craig, San Francisco. The wizard of the forkball has served up a contender for the Giants. Hal Lanier is a close second. Winner of NL West could win award.

Executive of the Year

American League — Lou Gorman, Boston. Just

Randy Minkoff

by acquiring Tom Seaver, he prevented the New York Yankees from getting the right-hander.

National League — Frank Cashen, New York Mets. By putting together one of the best teams through adherence to the minor-league system and his willingness to make deals when they can add a contributor. Additions of Tim Lincecum and Bobby Ojeda through trades this year have fortified the Mets.

In 1954, the AL came from behind three times, including the eighth inning, when Nellie Fox blooped a bases-loaded two-run single to center to cap a three-run rally and give the AL an 11-9 triumph.

In 1956, the NL overcame a 5-0 deficit to win 6-5 on Stan Musial's 10th-inning home run off Tom Brewer.
In the first 1961 game, the NL pulled off the first extra-inning come-from-behind victory when Hank Aaron singled in the 10th, Willie Mays doubled and Roberto Clements singled, giving the NL a 5-4 victory.

In 1964, the NL trailed 4-3 entering the ninth, before Willie Mays scored the tying run on a bad throw to the plate by first baseman Joe Pagan and Johnny Callison belted a three-run homer with two out.
Eye on the Future
In 1943, AL manager Joe McCarthy, apparently resenting accusations that he favored his New York players in earlier All-Star games and wanting to prove he could win without them, did not play any of the six Yankees on the squad. McCarthy's club won 5-3.

Shutting the Ball Out
As the result of a campaign by a Cincinnati radio station, live Reds were named to the 1956 NL starting lineup. In 1957, 500,000 late votes from Cincinnati resulted in seven Reds regulars being the leading vote-getters at their respective positions. Commissioner Ford Frick intervened and ordered Cincinnati's Gus Bell and Wally Post out of the starting lineup.

IN BRIEF

Lucas, Joyce Combine To Hurl Legion To 7th Consecutive Win

Sanford American Legion Post 53, sponsored by Ball Motor Line, won its seventh consecutive game Sunday with a 4-2 victory over Orlando Evans at Evans High.

Sanford, which now stands at 9-3, will try to make it eight in a row when it returns to action tonight at 5:45 at Orlando Colonial.

Jimbo Lucas pitched the first five innings and allowed just one run on five hits to pick up the win. James Joyce pitched the last three innings for the save.

Jimbo Lucas

Manager Jim Lucas' club scored single runs in the third, fifth, seventh and ninth frames. In the third, Gary Derr socked a double, stole third and scored on an Evans error. In the fifth, Roy Jensen singled and later scored when Joyce hit into a force play.

In the seventh, Rick Kidd singled and came around to score on Derr's base hit. Sanford picked up an insurance run in the top of the ninth when Eddie Evans walked and later scored on a passed ball.

Willie McCloud had two doubles and a single for Sanford while Jensen, Derr and Joey Corsi had two hits each.

Scanlon Wins Hall Of Fame

NEWPORT, R.I. (UPI) — Bill Scanlon made the biggest step in his comeback bid Monday by winning the rain-delayed $100,000 Volvo Tennis-Hall of Fame Championships at the Newport Casino.

Scanlon, 29, of Dallas, ranked 151st in the world, upset No. 2 seed Tim Wilkison of Asheville, N.C., 7-5, 6-4, to collect $20,000. Wilkison received $10,000 as runnerup in this lone American stop on grass courts on the Grand Prix tour.

"I've only been in good shape two months now," said Scanlon, who was once ranked as high as 12th at the end of the 1983 season before suffering persistent knee injuries last year that tumbled him to 180th.

"I want to get my ranking to what I think it should be if I stay healthy and strong the whole year," he said. "How high do I think it should be? Ask me at the end of the year."

The victory was Scanlon's sixth in 14 finals on the men's tour, and his first in four years.

Rangers Name Esposito VP, GM

NEW YORK (UPI) — Phil Esposito has another chance to bring the Stanley Cup to the New York Rangers.

The 44-year-old Hall of Fame center, who retired from the Rangers in 1981 after 18 years in the NHL, Monday was named the team's vice president and general manager. He replaces Craig Patrick, whose grandfather, Lester, was the Rangers' first coach and general manager.

Esposito won two Stanley Cups with the Boston Bruins in 1970 and 1972 before being traded to the Rangers, who have not won a championship since 1940.

Versace To Remain At Bradley

PEORIA, Ill. (UPI) — Bradley basketball coach Dick Versace will be allowed to remain at his post until the end of the upcoming season despite misleading NCAA representatives investigating recruiting violations, the school president said.

NFL CAPSULES

NFC Central Division

United Press International

CHICAGO BEARS

Training site — Platteville, Wis. (first two weeks); Lake Forest, Ill. (final three weeks)

First exhibition game — Aug. 3 vs. Cowboys at London. 1985 record — 15-1, 1st NFC Central, beat Giants, Rams before defeating Patriots in Super Bowl.

Head coach — Mike Ditka — 3rd year, record 37-21. Overall NFL record — 37-21.

Strengths — Outstanding front seven headed by DE Richard Dent and MLB Mike Singletary. Solid QB in Jim McMahon. RB Walter Payton hasn't slowed with age. PK Kevin Butler among best in league.

Weaknesses — Defense may undergo change under new coordinator Vince Tobin, who replaces Buddy Ryan. Secondary will miss Leslie Frazier, out of action until at least December. Depth at WR also a question mark. Will William "Refrigerator" Perry get weight down by season start?

New Faces — Top draft pick Neal Anderson figures to be understudy for Payton at RB until Payton retires. WR Dave Williams of Illinois, the No. 3 pick, has shot to start.

Battle for positions — Team virtually set after Super Bowl season. CB may be open in wake of Frazier knee injury. WR may be open with injury to Dennis McKinnon.

Outlook — Bears unlikely to go 15-1, but still class of relatively weak NFC Central. If defense continues to excel and McMahon and Payton stay healthy, a return trip to Super Bowl is possibility.

DETROIT LIONS

Training site — Oakland University, Rochester, Mich.

First exhibition game — Aug. 8 vs. Eagles at Pontiac Silverdome.

1985 record — 7-9, tied 4th NFC Central.

Head coach — Darryl Rogers — 1 year, 7-9. Overall NFL record — 7-9.

Strengths — FB James Jones has made deal of tough spot — replacing Billy Sims. PK Eddie Murray and P Alto Black highlight outstanding special teams. Keith Dorney and Lomas Brown are quality OTs. Were Silverdome killers, including victories over Miami, San Francisco and Jets.

Weaknesses — NFL's next-to-worst rush defense. Retirement of DT Doug English does nothing to enhance statistic.

New Faces — QB Chuck Long expected to spend year learning. Speedy RB Gary James could have big impact and Devan Mitchell might help at S. Vet TE Mark Branner signed at free agent.

Battle for positions — Brown, Dorney and Rich Stronger fight for two OT spots with one probably spilling over to OG. Joe Ferguson will get chance to unseat Eric Hipple at QB.

Outlook — Club stepped up from four victories in Rogers' first year and to continue progress must improve on being easiest team in NFL to run on, especially up middle. Offense should improve with addition of slightly better WR speed and outside threat James brings to backfield.

GREEN BAY PACKERS

Training site — St. Norbert College, West De Pere, Wis.

First exhibition game — Aug. 9 vs. Jets at Madison, Wis.

1985 record — 8-8, 2nd NFC Central.

Head coach — Forrest Gregg — 2 years, 14-16. Overall NFL record — 14-16.

AFC East

Strengths — Running game led by Eddie Lee Ivory and bolstered by drafting of Kenneth Davis. James Lofton is anchored with double coverage of all times, but still one of game's most dangerous receivers. Phil Eason provides steady complement. Paul Coffman is consistently solid TE.

Weaknesses — Unsure QB situation will hurt whole team if not settled quickly. OL added Ken Ruetters last year, but is weak spot.

New Faces — QB Robbie Beese and LB Timothy Harris are draft choices who should challenge. Ca Vince Rafferty and Bill Cherry are free-agent pickups who should be heard from.

Battle for positions — Beese, Randy Wright, Jim Zorn and Vince Ferragamo at QB. Dennis Humphrey and Charlie Martin at NT. OL between George Curney, Guy Frazier, John Dorney and rookies Harris, Burnell Dorn, Brent Moore and Gary Spagn.

Outlook — If Packers can adapt to new coaching staff installed by Gregg, team should do better than 8-8 finishes of past two seasons.

MINNESOTA VIKINGS

Training site — Mankato State University, Mankato, Minn.

First exhibition game — Aug. 9 vs. Miami at Minneapolis.

1985 record — 7-9, 3rd NFC Central.

Head coach — Jerry Burns, first year.

Strengths — Depth at WR with Anthony Carter, Les Lewis, Mike Jones and Buster Rhymes. Experienced LBs led by healthy Scott Studwell and second-year strong side LB Chris Coleman.

Weaknesses — OL left QB Tommy Kramer unprotected and unable to carry out Burns' schemes as offensive coordinator last year. DL left the secondary to stop running attacks. No heir to PK Jan Stenerud.

New Faces — OT Gary Zimmerman, acquired from Giants in draft-day deal, plus eighth-round pick Gary Schepens should boost OL. No. 1 pick Gerald Robinson, speedy DE, provides immediate pass rush help.

Battle for positions — WRs should fight it out for the two starting positions.

Outlook — Bud Grant era seems to have finally ended. Vikings will change to 4-3 defense under new coordinator Floyd Peters to try and improve pass rush. Kramer is injury prone and offense is built around him. OL must come together for Minnesota to be threat.

TAMPA BAY BUCCANERS

Training site — Buccaneers Complex, Tampa, Fla.

First exhibition game — Aug. 9 vs. Cardinals at Tampa.

1985 record — 2-14, 5th NFC Central.

Head coach — Leeman Bennett — 1 year, 2-14. Overall NFL record — 2-14.

Strengths — Top workhorse runner in James Wilder. PK Donald Stephenson. TE James Giles rediscovered his early career success. Steve Young showed potential to be damaging passer.

Weaknesses — Weak pass rush. Secondary is slow and cautious. Line are defensive strawmats Lee Ray Seaman and Hugh Green who added stability.

New Faces — CB Rue Jones and LBs Kevin Murphy and Jackie Walker all drafted within first 40 picks. OT Marvin Powell lost a step last year, but former Jet still has savvy.

Battle for positions — Jones challenges incumbent CBs Jeremiah Castillo and John Holt. Steve DeBerg enters camp as No. 3 QB.

Outlook — Loss of Bo Jackson to baseball means lower fans at Tampa Stadium and another frustrating year for Bennett.

NBC President: No NFL Urging To Ignore USFL

Football

NEW YORK (UPI) — NBC Sports president Arthur Watson joined his network counterparts Monday by denying the NFL tried to pressure the network into ignoring the USFL.

Watson Monday was the NFL's eighth witness in its defense of antitrust claims brought by the USFL. The trial, in its 10th week in U.S. District Court in Manhattan, is expected to continue today with the testimony of the NFL's economist Bruce Owen.

Owen is expected to challenge the USFL's claim that it suffered damages from the NFL's alleged injuries that total between $301 million and $565 million over a 10-year period, 1983-1992. If the jury awards damages in the case, the amount will be tripled, a penalty imposed by the antitrust laws, and could go as high as $1.69 billion.

The USFL contends the NFL interfered with the USFL's attempts to secure network television contracts. The NFL has five-year contracts in the range of $650 million with each of the three national networks. Since the spring league decided to move to a fall schedule, no network has agreed to televise its games.

Watson said he negotiated in 1982 with the USFL's agent for rights to broadcast USFL games while at the same time negotiating with the NFL.

NBC offered a two-year contract for $16 million, but ABC won the USFL's rights with a two-year contract for $18 million and two option years.

Asked if NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle or other NFL representatives ever indicated NBC should not deal with the USFL, Watson replied, "Absolutely not. We had no conversation about that."

Roone Arledge, ABC group president of news and sports, testified five weeks ago the NFL had not tried to pressure him to end ABC's contract and also explained ABC turned down the USFL for the fall because "there's no appetite for more football in the fall."

However, USFL Commissioner Harry Usher and former ABC commentator Howard Cosell said Arledge alluded to NFL pressure on different occasions.

TENNANT OUT OF JOB?

BOSTON (UPI) — Newly named NFL drug adviser Dr. Forrest Tennant may have talked himself out of a job by disclosing plans to specially monitor six New England Patriots players for drug use, the Boston Herald reports today.

Hours after being named by NFL commissioner Pete Rozelle to head the league's new drug plan last Monday, Tennant told the Herald he planned to single out six Patriots players for frequent random drug tests and special education. The players had been identified as drug users after the Super Bowl.

STUMP TO OUTLAWS?

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Running back Stump Mitchell, one of the few bright spots for the 5-11 St. Louis Cardinals last season, was expected Monday to join the Arizona Outlaws of the U.S. Football League.

However, the Outlaws said Monday morning that Mitchell had yet to sign the three-year contract agreed to Sunday night and had not arrived in Phoenix.

"They've reached an agreement in principle," said Chris McMurry, an Outlaws' spokesman.

It's Back To Work For Bears

PLATTEVILLE, Wis. (UPI) — The Super Bowl champion Chicago Bears, enjoying an off-season of lucrative endorsements and personal appearances, will try to get their timing back Tuesday when they begin the grind of the training camp shuffle.

The goal Coach Mike Ditka and his free-spirited Bears, who capped an 18-1 campaign with a 46-10 rout of New England in Super Bowl XX, will strive for this season is to become the first NFL team in seven years to repeat as champs.

Ditka, who says he once dreamed of winning it all as a coach and now dreams of doing it again, is optimistic the Bears are capable of dominating the NFL in the 1980s the way the Green Bay Packers did in the '60s.

"The players are really enjoying the money and the notoriety that comes with being Super Bowl champions," Ditka said. "They just have to understand when it is time to turn all of that off and get ready to start knocking heads again."

Ditka promises a tough training camp. Two-day workouts for the Bears at the University of Wisconsin-Platteville begin this week.

Among the obstacles the Bears must deal with to return to the Super Bowl are:

- The departure of defensive coach Buddy Ryan.
- The ability to keep daring quarterback Jim McMahon healthy.

- The holes created by injuries to wide receiver Dennis McKinnon and defensive back Leslie Frazier.
- How they handle the rest of the league gunning for them.

The Bears also entered the week of training camp with several unsigned players, including Super Bowl most valuable player Richard Dent, first-round draft choice Neal Anderson, safeties Dave Duerson and Gary Fenwick and Frazier.

Bears general manager Jerry Vainial said this week he has a suspicion Dent will be at camp, but he said he thinks it will be a "long time" before Anderson joins the Bears.

Anderson's agent, Steve Rappenecker, rejected a four-year proposal during the weekend and the two sides reportedly were far apart. Anderson is expected to be groomed to replace perennial All-Pro running back Walter Payton, the NFL's all-time leading rusher.

Vainial said he has not spoken with Dent nor Dent's agent in more than two months, but he told a Chicago radio station "I have a gut feeling he'll negotiate while he's in camp."

finished at .571 (4 for 7) including Lewis, Risea, Montalvo and Gorzka. Lewis drove in six runs, Montalvo four and Gorzka and Risea three each. Mathieu, in a pinch hitting role, was a perfect 4 for 4 (1,000) with three RBIs.

The .495 team batting average was the highest of the summer for the Hawks. Defensively, the Hawks committed only five errors and turned four double plays.

MCCOY POPS 2 HOMERS

After dropping an 18-2 decision to Conway in the first game of the finals on Saturday, the Seminole Starlings bounced right back and played a dazzling defensive game en route to a 3-0 victory and the Metro Tournament title.

The Starlings, managed by Bobbie Lampella, opened the tourney with a 10-5 victory over West Orlando in which hard-hitting third baseman Sonja McCoy drilled two home runs and a triple.

Seminole then handed Conway a 3-2 defeat with Cara Wood the winning pitcher. Conway came back through the losers' bracket to get into the finals against the Starlings.

Conway took advantage of some heavy hitting and some Seminole defensive mistakes for an 18-2 victory, but Seminole tightened the defensive strings in game two and pitcher Tina Leman tossed a shutout in the Starlings' 3-0 victory. Amy Bourcier led the offense with two hits and drove in one run.

Also contributing to the Starlings' championship were Tammy Troyer, Andrea Godziaz, Tricia Panarello, Sunny Jaffin and Jenny Spires.

Lampella's assistant coaches were Jackie Miller, Melanie Bourcier and Ricky Panarello.

the boys," Harmer said. "We started the game off slow but we really came on at the end."

"Unfortunately, it was too little too late." Wegeman yielded only five hits while striking out five. Scott Davidson gave up six hits and took the loss for Altamonte.

The hitting star was the 5-10, 148-pound Anderson. He went 2 for 2 and cracked a two-run homer. Jones said he wasn't surprised since Anderson hit .748 during the season.

"We played pretty well tonight," Anderson said. "I think that we will give Altamonte a good game."

Maitland added two more runs in the second inning. Catcher Josh Jones walked and moved to second on a sacrifice bunt by Richard Coughlin. Jones scored when first baseman Cade Reaves hit a grounder underneath shortstop Frankie Harmer's glove for an error. Reaves ended up on second and moved to third on a single by Wegeman. Anderson was intentionally passed to load the sacks, but Todd Davis then walked giving him an easy RBI and Maitland a seemingly cozy lead.

Altamonte made the game interesting with three runs in the top of the third. Right fielder Jeremy Ludwig led off with a single to center. He took second when center fielder Mike Antaya bobbled the ball. Dan Anson reached when third baseman Rhy Daunic fumbled a grounder and Ludwig went to third. Ludwig scored on a passed ball and Anson moved to second. Shane Odom followed with a deep homer over the field fence to cut the deficit to 4-3.

Maitland put the game out of grasp in the fourth inning with three runs. Wegeman led off with a walk, Anderson singled up the middle, moving Wegeman to second. Davis walked to load the bases. Daunic singled to right scoring Wegeman and Anderson. Davis was tagged out in a rundown as Daunic snuck into second. He went to third when Galen Black hit a grounder that second baseman Chris Barfield couldn't handle. Antaya singled to center, scoring Daunic.

Altamonte added a run in the fifth to make the score 7-4, and had a chance to tie the game in the top of the sixth.

Kevin Scott started things off with a double to right. He took third when the ball went sailing past second base. Pinch-hitter Brian Saunders walked, Odom singled, scoring Scott with two out. Saunders went to third and Odom stole second, putting the winning runs in scoring position. Wegeman fanned Harmer, though, to end the action-packed game.

"We were hoping to play the Altamonte American team again," manager Harmer said after the game. "Even though we won't be we will still be there to support them."

INJURED OVIEDO TUMBLES

A pair of injuries to key players and a hard-hitting Ocoee team ended the season for the Oviedo Major All-Stars as they dropped a 9-7 decision to Ocoee Monday night in District 14, Division 1 All-Star Tournament action at Rolling Hills.

While the loss eliminated Oviedo, Ocoee advances to the Division 1 finals tonight against unbeaten Rolling Hills at 7 at Oviedo.

Oviedo lost catcher Chris Huff who was hit in the eye with a ball in the third inning and Craig Cozart was injured when he was hit in the head with a ball in the first inning. Cozart, however, still had three hits in the game. Tyson Crist also had three of the seven hits for Oviedo.

Ocoee had 13 hits off a pair of Oviedo hurlers. David Blanton pitched the first three innings and Crist the last three.

Korolyov Leads Soviet Medal Sweep

MOSCOW (UPI) — Gymnast Yuri Korolyov led a Soviet medal sweep in the men's individual all-round competition Monday and the Soviets captured first place in seven of 10 wrestling weight classes.

Korolyov, 23, won the all-round tournament with a total score of 117.150 points, ahead of countrymen Valentin Mogilny (116.550) and Vladimir Artyomov (116.450).

Mogilny, 20, took second despite a fall from the horse that caused the mostly Soviet audience to gasp. The judges gave him a 9.9 score out of a possible 10 for his performance on the parallel bars.

Korolyov held the lead throughout. The small, dark gymnast comes from Vladimir, Charles Lakes, 21, was the United States' best gymnastic performer. He earned two 9.7s, one in the floor exercise and one on the parallel bars. Lakes, a student at the University of Illinois, dropped to seventh place in the final round with a total of 114.100 points. Phil Cahoy of Omaha, Neb., finished 13th with 113.300 points.

In other Goodwill events, the U.S. women's handball team suffered a 23-22 loss to Denmark. The U.S. men's team defeated Iceland 22-19.

The Soviets lead the women's team handball tournament with four points. In the men's matches, the Soviet Union and United States are tied with four points each.

American freestyle wrestler Richard Salamone lost to Mongolia's Tumendemberel Sukhbaatar 9-5 on the last day of competition in the sport. The United States earned gold medals in the three wrestling weight divisions that the Soviets did not win.

In Tallinn, the capital of the Estonian Republic, the American crew of The John Kostecki took third place in the third yachting race. The Georgy Shaiduko of the Soviet Union caught the wind first.

striking out Mike Rocca to get out of further trouble.

In Sanford's first, Oscar Edward ripped a one-out single to left. Merthie followed with a liner back at the pitcher. Lee speared it and doubled Edwards off first base for complete the twin killing.

Sanford had its best opportunity in the second. Anton Reid hammered a triple into the left field corner before Derrick Taylor and Hampton walked to load the bases with none out. Lee, however, mixed his pitches well to strike out Bennett, Kerry Wiggins and Von Eric Small in succession to ease out of the jam.

Sanford had another threat going in the third when Jackson roped a single to center and stole second. Edwards, nevertheless, struck out. Jackson went to third on a wild pitch. Merthie took the first of three consecutive called strikes for the night, but Reid walked and stole second. Lee escaped further trouble by getting Taylor to ground out to shortstop.

The locals finally scored in the fourth — without a hit. Hampton drew a walk and George Frison pinch-ran. When Glenn couldn't handle Lee's pickoff attempt, Frison moved to second. A wild pitch moved Frison to third, but Bennett and Wiggins each whiffed. Small and Jackson received free passes to load the bases before Edwards walked on a 3-1 pitch to cut the deficit to 4-1. Merthie looked at a called third strike to end the inning.

Ormond Beach knocked out Merthie in the fifth as Hansen and Brown drew one-out walks. LaFollette summoned Taylor to relieve. Taylor walked Rocca to load the bases. With Hearne at bat, pinch-runner Tom Clemons tried to score on a wild pitch but Bennett's throw to Taylor was perfect for the out.

Taylor then struck out Hearne for the third out, but the ball got away from Bennett and Hearne reached to re-load the bases. Byers singled in one run and two more scored on an error by shortstop Merthie for a 7-1 Ormond lead.

Ormond picked up single runs in the sixth on a walk and Lyle's booming triple to right center and Lee's bloop RBI single.

Sanford struck across its final run in the seventh when Reid walked. Taylor reached on an error, Frison walked and two outs later, Eric Washington drew another free pass to force in the run.

Reid, Edwards, Taylor and Jackson had Sanford's four hits. "I thought Jackson did a good job at second base and hitting," LaFollette said. "He stood up under the pressure real well."

Sanford's Anton Reid takes a healthy cut and watches it go. Reid tripled in the second inning but couldn't score. It was the only extra-base hit in a loss to Ormond Beach.

Petersen Qualifies For TAC Meet

Lake Mary High's Eric Petersen qualified for the TAC Junior Olympics National Championships to be held in Lincoln, Neb., July 25-27. Petersen qualified in the 1,500 meters, placing second to earn himself the invitation to participate with the country's finest runners in his age division.

Petersen, a 16-year-old junior to be, will run in the semifinals on July 25, hoping to gain a berth into the finals on two days later.

Running a time of 4:19 in the 1,500 meters (close to a 4:38 mile), Petersen was able to hang close to state-ranked Trent Cook who finished with a time of 4:14. Petersen, who had been sick all week and lost 10 pounds, was able to pull things together for the meet.

"I think now he knows he can run close to Cook since he realizes he was not in very good shape," Lake Mary High coach Mark Magee said. "He didn't run very much prior to the meet and held back a little thinking of the possibility that he may pull up somewhere in the race."

The performance ranks Petersen as one of the top 16-year-olds in the state. Cook and Tampa Largo's Tom McDonough, who won the 2 mile in the state meet this past May at Showalter as a sophomore, return as the top two runners in their age division.

"Three Seminole County runners could be put in that third position," Magee said about Lake Howell's Anthony Howe, Lyman's Robin Rogers and Petersen. "If he makes it to the finals it should really boost his confidence since he is running with the best 16-year-olds in the nation. When he comes home he knows he can hold his own with the area competition."

Other area performers also showed their talents at the games as three earned positions on the Track Florida Relay teams.

Seminole High graduate Billy Penick, who is bound for Florida State, and Lake Howell's Jeff Van Buskirk each won an event and both will participate on the 2-mile relay team. Penick won the steeplechase with a time of 6:03.5. Van Buskirk won the 800 meters with a time of 1:59.7.

Penick, now adjusting to the steeplechase, will try to add on to his list of accomplishments in Nebraska as Van Buskirk, who will be a senior this fall, will attempt to get things rolling for cross country.

Seminole High's Eric Martin finished third in the 400 meters with a time of 51.1, which was good enough to earn him a trip to Lincoln. Martin was also invited to represent Florida on two different relay teams, both the 400 meter relay and the mile relay teams.

Lake Howell pole vaulter Dylan Rowe just missed a trip just missing 14-6. "He had trouble with the standards and wasn't comfortable as he had to come forward instead of leaning back," coach Doug Blackwell.

A pair of Silver Hawks who participated in the games were eighth-grader Marquett Smith and 10-year-old Thomas Blackwell.

In the long jump, Smith won with a leap of 20-9. "He won the Korbler meet the week before, jumping 20-10," Blackwell said. "He just scratched on a 21-9 effort this week."

The younger Blackwell won the 1,500 meters in 5:30.6.

Faulk Pockets $970 With 50-Lap Victory

Late-model point chase leader Lee Faulk drove the Champion TV Rentals Firebird to victory in the 50-lap feature on Saturday night at New Smyrna Speedway.

After moving up on the point on lap 21, when leader David Rogers experienced carburetor problems, Faulk, who led the early laps, went on for the win worth $970 dollars.

Finishing strong second was Melbourne's Pat "The Van Man" Dunn. During the red-flag period, Dunn nearly passed out from heat prostration, but was revived and held on to finish in the runner-up spot, although the race car, which had been parked since January, handled like a Mack truck.

Phil Dorman was third, followed by Dick Cornwell and Sanford's Harold "Fat Rat" Johnson.

Pete Starr stayed out of trouble and ruled over the thunder car division. With a lot of help from Koury Racing Engines and C & C Automotive, Starr turned fast time and won the fast heat.

In the 30-lap feature, he led every tour to take the win, beating Harry Brazee, Jerry Fitch, John Cochran and Jeff Earnhart. Second heat winner was Ronnie Roach.

Jerry Symons did the same in the four-cylinder division, with Mike Fitch scoring another victory in the roadrunner feature.

In the demolition derby, Peanut Northup and Mike Horton up and dropped a perfect bunt down the third base line for a base hit that scored Wilk with the tying run. Keitt and Kerns moved up to second and third on a wild pitch but Ocala got out of the inning when right fielder Athanason made an outstanding diving catch of a foul line drive off the bat of Roberts.

In the top of the third, Athanason drew a leadoff walk off Roberts. He was the last Ocala hitter to reach base. After Athanason stole second, he took third on Larry Mills' grounder but Roberts then fanned Clint Kremenbrink for the second out. Chad Monroe followed with a sharp grounder toward center field but shortstop Mike Maples snared it, spun around and threw Monroe out at first to end the inning.

The Americans put together another two-out rally in the bottom of the third and came away with one run for a 3-2 lead. With two outs, Corey Williams belted a single to right and Tyrone Williams then rapped a single to left. Henderson then stepped up and ripped Pelham's first offering into right field for a base hit that scored Corey Williams with what turned out to be the winning run.

The run turned out to be all Roberts needed as he retired the side in order in the fourth, fifth and sixth frames. In the fourth, the hard-throwing righthander struck out the first hitter and got the next two to bounce back to the mound.

In the fifth, Maples made a leaping catch of Pelham's liner for the first out. Ricky Henry popped to Roberts for the second out and right fielder Henderson made a nice running grab of Athanason's fly ball for the third out.

Roberts

Kerns

In the sixth and final frame, Roberts got Mills to hit back to the mound for out number one, retired pinch hitter G.D. Calloway on a called third strike and got Monroe to tap back to the mound for the final out.

All seven of Sanford's hits came in the second and third frames and five of them came from the last four hitters in the lineup. Number six hitter Henderson led the way as he was 2 for 2 with a run scored and the game-winning RBI. Number seven hitter Wilk, number eight man Keitt and number nine hitter Kerns were each 1 for 2.

"The guys in the bottom of the order really came through for us," Raines said. "A couple of those guys haven't been starting every game but they hit the ball well in practice and I gave them a chance tonight."

The hitters who carried the Americans in the sub-district, the top four hitters, were combined 1 for 11 Monday night. It was also the first time in five games Roberts and Maples were held hitless.

"The bats were a little quiet tonight," Raines said. "We should have hit the ball better but we did the same thing in the last tournament: when we got off to a slow start, I'm confident the kids will come around."

Turnabout Is Fair Play In Battle Of Junk Mail

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: For the benefit of "Too Much Mail," and others who want to know how to put a stop to being the recipient of unsolicited mail: punch five or six holes (use a large pin) in the card to be returned. The computer will reject it.

For years, my husband made contributions to a political party. After his death, I wrote "Deceased" on the card and returned it. Solicitations continued to come.

A friend had the same experience and passed the above information on to me. It worked beautifully. The rejected card was obviously read, and my name removed from the files. Sign me.

VOICE OF EXPERIENCE IN VA.

DEAR ABBY: You told "Too Much Mail" that once her name is "in the computer" she's automatically solicited, in which case her only defense would be to ignore the solicitation. Not true! Here's how I handle junk mail: I just take those postpaid envelopes and return everything — including the envelope!

It's lots of fun, and it forces the sender to pay first-class extra postage to get their own junk returned!

A. BUHRER, PORT CLINTON, OHIO

DEAR ABBY: I recently read the letter about the person receiving too much junk mail. Here is my solution to the problem at the sender's expense: Take the entire junk mail contents, including the outside envelope, tear it to shreds and mail it back to them in their postpaid envelope. Leave your name and address label in one piece so they'll know who it's from. They don't like the mess, or paying the postage. It worked for me!

NANCY J. KELLEY, HOT SPRINGS, ARK.

DEAR ABBY: Please advise "Too Much Mail" to write "Refused — Return to Sender" on the envelope or package. The postal service will return it to "sender" and collect the postage due. She will be removed from the list. I've had my name removed from lists this way.

HELEN SHEPHERD, YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO

DEAR ABBY: I have a good way to get off mailing lists, or at least a good share of them — especially the begging letters. If there is a U.S. stamp on the return envelope, I cut it off and use it. If it is a postage-guaranteed envelope, I seal the empty envelope, write my name on the back, and mail it. They'll get the message after a while.

NO NAME IN WEATHERFORD, TEXAS

DEAR ABBY: In answer to the lady who was upset when her mother-in-law referred to police officers as "pigs" in the presence of her 8-year-old daughter, and she (the child's mother) remained silent:

A dear friend who is a retired police officer was once asked if it bothered him to be called a "pig." He replied, "On our force, we don't mind being called 'pigs' because to us it stands for P-ride, I-Integrity and G-uts!"

A POLICEMAN'S FRIEND IN WINCHENDON, MASS.

DEAR FRIEND: Wonderful! Perhaps the lady can pass this on to her daughter, thus helping her to appreciate and respect the fine men and women who have chosen a profession that requires them to put their lives on the line daily in the line of duty.

DEAR ABBY: I have half a pillowcase filled with old love letters from different men over the years. There were some I knew when I was a beautiful young woman, and many I knew through three marriages, during, between and after. Some were well-known professional men in our town — doctors and lawyers and a judge, too. They are all signed.

I have grandchildren and great-grandchildren who might enjoy reading them.

Should I pass them on, or throw them in the garbage and forget about it? I will soon be 96, and most of these men are dead.

COLORFUL PAST

DEAR COLORFUL: It's all part of history now, so unless there are disclosures that could hurt their families, pass them on. I'm reminded of an old saying: Wrong no man, and write no woman.

Mr. and Mrs. David Alan Provencher

Unger-Provencher Nuptials Spoken

Wendy Anne Unger of Melbourne, and David Alan Provencher of Palm Bay are announcing their marriage today. The couple exchanged vows on April 12 in the Holy Trinity Church, Melbourne. The Rev. Father Lewis performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Walter Unger, 2903 S. Vassar St., Melbourne. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Provencher, 201 Mirror Drive, Sanford.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose for her vows a sheer gown over a tulle bodice with a bateau neckline. The matching train, bordered in wide ruffles, cascaded into a graceful chapel sweep. A halo held her tiered veil of imported illusion and she carried a bouquet of mixed flowers.

Following a wedding trip to the Virgin Islands, the newlyweds are making their home in Palm Bay.

Students Bring Back Victories

Seminole Community College received the greatest number of victories in the nation while competing against approximately 1,500 students from universities and community colleges in the Phi Beta Lambda National competition. SCC students Amy Todd, Corinne Sini and Barbara Warman returned this week from Washington, D.C. with the national honors.

This is the third straight year that Seminole Community College has received national recognition in the business competition.

Phi Beta Lambda is the largest post-secondary business organization and is dedicated to academic recognition, community service and leadership development. Instructors Sharon Fear and Lucinda Coulter are the sponsors of SCC's Phi Beta Lambda.

Amy Todd, Winter Park, walked away from the national competition with second place honors in the Job Interview Event. Amy, a veteran competitor, placed second in the state while representing Lake Howell High School several years ago. Last year, while representing SCC, Miss Todd placed second in state competition and this year placed first. Taking the top state honors won Amy the right to represent Seminole Community College and the State of Florida in national competition.

Corinne Sini, Geneva, also captured the first place honors for SCC in the state competition. She placed fourth in the National Economics competition.

Barbara Warman, Lake Mary, took the first place honors in the Business Communication State Competition. She also represented SCC in the National Competition and received fifth place honors.

Dr. Weldon, President of Seminole Community College, stated, "We are extremely proud of our Chapter of Phi Beta Lambda as they consistently achieve recognition for their excellence."

GOP, Dems Differ On Nighties

NEW YORK (UPI) — A survey of registered women voters shows that most Democrats like sleeping in pajamas and making love to their husbands, but Republicans prefer sexy nightgowns and watching TV, the Ladies' Home Journal reported Monday.

"When it comes to what these party-affiliated wives do when they have time alone with their husbands, it's the Dems who make love and the GOP respondents who watch TV," the magazine said after surveying 380,000 women in the past four years.

The magazine said its survey also determined: —Married couples don't use their cars just for carting kids and groceries. About 14 percent say they "sneak off for a little romance" in their buggies now and then. —The best way for a man to win his spouse's affection is to take up a dust mop. About 92 percent of the women whose husbands pitch in around the house say they are very happy.

—Women who consider themselves sexy generally have lengthy marriage records. About 67 percent of the women who described themselves as sensual were married three or four times. —No matter what shape they're in, 50 percent of the magazine's readers craved better bodies, but women who exercise regularly are less fearful of growing old.

Diagnosis Will Require Surgery

DEAR DR. GOTT - What is the difference between polyps of the uterus and fibroids? Is a hysterectomy necessary to correct these conditions? I don't really want one, since I have no menstrual problems or abdominal pain, but my doctor hasn't really offered any alternatives to surgery.

epinephrine (adrenaline), a natural substance that causes sweating, rapid heartbeat and elevated blood pressure.

If you have panic attacks, a beta-blocker drug may help you. The medicine can stabilize nervous discharges and prevent the feeling of overwhelming fear.

DEAR READER - A polyp is a tumorlike growth that arises from the surface of a mucous membrane. A fibroid is a benign muscular growth that sprouts from the wall of the uterus.

Some polyps are pre-malignant. This means that, with time, they can turn into cancer. Fibroids never undergo this type of change.

Polyps should be removed. Fibroids can be left alone unless they grow large and cause menstrual hemorrhage.

The difficulty your doctor faces is that he or she cannot know whether the lumps in your uterus are polyps or fibroids until a biopsy is taken and the tissue is examined under a microscope. I do not believe that hysterectomy is your only option. A gynecologist might well be satisfied with a scraping (dilatation and curettage, or D&C) to obtain tissue for analysis. In my opinion, some type of surgery will be necessary to clarify the tissue; in general, I suggest that the least risky and expensive procedure be used.

DEAR DR. GOTT - For seven or eight years I have had bouts with dizziness and nausea, especially in a crowd or in wide-open spaces. I've been treated by my doctor for inner-ear disturbances and by a chiropractor for neck strain, but I keep getting worse. I've heard that some people have a chemical imbalance that causes panic attacks. Could this be my problem?

DEAR READER - Panic attacks are poorly understood events that are associated with a discharge of nervous impulses, and they can be incapacitating. The chemical imbalance you mention is probably an excess of

WIN AT BRIDGE

By James Jacoby
After passing originally, North felt he could do no less than invite game. Despite his flat distribution, South felt that his 14 points and two 10-spots warranted a four-spade bid. A defensive error gave South a chance to bring home this shaky contract, but it required sleight of hand.

West chose a neutral lead - the heart seven. East won the ace and could have sunk declarer by returning a diamond, but made the friendly return of a second heart. There was now a straightforward play for the contract. Perhaps East held both the queen and the jack of spades and could be finessed out of them. South thought that unlikely, but perhaps the defender with a third spade would also hold the king of diamonds. If the other suits could be eliminated, a throw-in might work. Upon winning the heart in dummy, declarer played a club to the queen. West won and cleverly switched to the spade jack. But South wasn't about to be cajoled into playing East for the queen.

He won the spade ace, played a club to the jack and returned a spade to his king. Now he cashed the jack of hearts, pitching a diamond from dummy. Another club was played to the king. West discarding a diamond. Then the last club was ruffed. If West overruffed, he would be forced to lead away from the diamond king. When he discarded again, South simply played his last spade and our hapless defender was caught in the same bind. You can guess what West said to his partner about the heart return at trick two.
