BIRTH VERBS FOR TODAY

TALK IS CHEAP. DEEDS SPEAK LOUDER THAN WORDS. WE SHOULD GIVE OUR LIVES FOR THE BRETHREN ONE DAY AT A TIME. PARENTS DO THAT EVERY DAY. FOR THEIR CHILDREN: Hereby know we love, because he laid down his life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.— 1 John 3:16.

There are nine Floridians graduating from West Point next month.

The Tampa Tribune predicts that no senator or representative who votes for the slot machine bill will be re-elected, and "We'll do our utmost to make that prediction come true." So say we all.

The Senate has voted to cut personal income taxes, effective July 1, by four billion dollars, and for you that probably means a 20 percent cut. However, don't spend the money yet; the President may veto it.

Senator Barkley insists that "no tax reduction can be sound that is based upon political expediency." And conversely, one might almost assume, no public expenditures can be sound that are based on political expediency.

It must be embarrassing to the President of the United States to have these Kansas City friends in connection with the election of a friend of his come up just at this time. As one has said, "May the good Lord deliver me from my friends; I can take care of my enemies myself."

Congratulations to the Pilot Club for having the courage to come out in favor of law enforcement. Some civic organizations refrain from taking sides in any controversial question, though why a matter of law enforcement should be controversial is a little hard to see. One would think that when a law has been passed by representatives of the people, and a sheriff takes an oath to enforce the law, the subject has passed beyond the point of controversy. But unfortunately not everyone agrees with this philosophy.

The Texas City disaster which killed and injured hundreds of persons was caused by carelessness, a Coast Guard investigation reveals. Carelessness among workers, who insisted on smoking though "No Smoking" signs were plainly visible, carelessness among officials who did not notify the ship's captain in advance that a dangerous cargo was to be handled, carelessness among foremen who did not instruct longshoremen in the proper handling of explosive materials. One might say that the whole affair was a sloppy exhibition of ill conceived and misdirected effort.

That the South is making progress with respect to lynch law, despite the recent Greenville lynching, is shown by John Temple Graves who recalls statistics revealing that 115 negroes were lynched in 1900, a number which declined to 76 by 1910. But there were only 3 in 1945, only 2 in 1946, only 1 in 1947, and 6 in 1948. This latter figure would seem to indicate that there is need for caution lest the situation get out of hand again; need for caution among that small group of persons who provoke lynchings, need for caution among those who participate in lynchings, need for caution among those who make lynchings possible, need for caution among those who do anything about lynchings.

Plowshare Prophecy

It was a great day when word came to the embattled forces on the Western Front that the war was won. But it was a day no less great when the Allies turned apparently without rancor to feed their hungry foes. Since then, British and American representatives have been pouring out food like water, and with it necessities of a hundred kinds, to a degree never matched in human history.

"If thine enemy hunger, feed him," says the Scripture. "If he thirst, give him to drink." Surely that lesson will not be lost on the millions of men and women throughout the world, who saw the generous words turned to reality. Such deeds, along with the spirit impelling them, give hope for the condition forecast so long ago, of beating our swords into plowshares and our spears into pruning hooks.

Memorial Day is a good occasion on which to meditate on human kindness and end of war. On that day we honor those who have given more than food and raiment — those who have given life itself that man may live in freedom and rise to his full stature and dignity.

Petty worries, petty fears must give way this day to the glorious sense of unity, of brotherly love, of one world, of making good prophecy come true.

Eagle Or Turkey

The eagle became the official bird of the United States through the suggestion of William Barton of Philadelphia, in the early days of the Republic. His, however, was the crested eagle, which was changed to the bald headed, true American type, by Charles Thomson, secretary of the Continental Congress, which adopted the modified bird on June 10, 1782. Ever since, this species has been the symbol of this country.

Not everyone was pleased with the choice. In Jared Sparks' compilation, "The Works of Benjamin Franklin," a letter written two years later by Franklin to his daughter says: "I wish the bald eagle had not been chosen. He is a bird of bad moral character."

Franklin continues at some length, accusing the eagle of being "too lazy to fish for himself," and of robbing other diligent smaller birds of food they have procured for their young. "Like those among men, who live by sharpening and robbing, he is generally poor, and often very lousy. Besides, he is a rank coward."

Smaller birds are able to drive him off. Franklin would have preferred the turkey as the national emblem, "a true native of America whereas eagles are found in many countries." Though a little vain and silly, he is a bird of courage and would not hesitate to attack a grenadier of the British guards who should invade his farm yard with a red coat on.

A good many people will agree with Franklin. But maybe the turkey has become in reality, though not officially, a national emblem after all. Certainly at Thanksgiving and Christmas feasts he has given more pleasure to his countrymen than ever could be claimed at any time by the eagle.

College Without Classes

There is plenty of talk about exchange of students between nations. We are glad to see people beginning to talk about a comparable exchange between management and labor. Harvard University had a useful idea when it inaugurated trade-union fellowships some years ago. Across the Charles River, its Graduate School of Business Administration educates young business men in the problems they will encounter as the executives of tomorrow. But at present more than the Charles flows between these two parallel activities. Considerable interest is being expressed in the suggestion of the dynamic young business man, Charles Luckman, for a $1,000,000 round table fund to bring together annually 1,000 promising young leaders of business and labor for a year of joint study in college. They would live together, eat together, and study the means and methods of making the American economy produce a higher standard of living for all. The suggestion makes plenty of sense. It is foolish not to recognize the gulf of ignorance that separates economically determined groups as well as politically divergent nations. We favor any sound educational effort that will help to enlighten tomorrow's leaders as to the common interests of every class and people. —Christian Science Monitor.

(Continued from Page One) self defense, today's figure of overseas dead would be much smaller," he asserted. Starr said that "viewing the Red menace on the international scene" it is "easy to understand, and needs no explanation on my part, why the Communists are opposed to military preparedness in the United States."

He said there are "not too many" card holding members of the Communist party in the United States, but that "there were very few avowed Bolsheviks when the Czarist regime was overthrown in Russia."

Papy Resigns

(Continued from Page One) seat across the aisle to help Papy's secretary clean up the veteran Monroe county legislators' deal. She took a letter basket stacked with papers out of the chamber. The Grand Jury presentation accompanying the indictment of Papy yesterday said:

"We have heard evidence from one Thomas D. Beasley new Speaker of the House of Representatives to the effect that on the 29th day of May 15 (the day following the nomination of Beasley at a caucus to be the Speaker of the House of Representatives for the 1947 session) that he was offered the sum of five thousand ($5,000.00) dollars to appoint Bernie C. Papy chairman of the Committee on Public Amendments in the House of Representatives at its 1947 session by a man whose name is unknown to this jury and whose identity is still unknown to this jury after a very diligent inquiry."

"Mr. Beasley promptly refused this offer and stated to the party who offered the money as well as to Bernie C. Papy that: 'You boys have enough money to buy me and I don't handle things that way anyway.'"

Mr. Beasley has given us a very accurate and detailed description of a man whose name is unknown to this jury and whose identity is still unknown to this jury after a very diligent inquiry. The jury said when this 05,000

Legislative Bills

The legislators, still groping for new sources of revenue, heard a suggestion from an out-of-state tax expert that a gross receipts tax might solve their problems.

A bill to re-enact the present seventh cent gasoline tax was passed by the House today 61 to 5 and sent to the Senate. It has been levied every two years since 1931 as an emergency tax. Half the income from the tax goes to the general revenue fund and half to county schools.

The House today rose and observed a moment of silence in memory of the late U. S. Senator Charles O. Andrews of Orlando who died in office, Sept. 18, 1946.

Survivors Of Crash Remain In Jungle

GUATEMALA CITY, Guatemala, May 30, (AP)—Authorities announced that the last of the 15 U. S. soldiers who parachuted from a burning Flying Fortress still were held by the fastnesses of a Nicaraguan jungle.

Supplies have been dropped and large contingents were hacking their way toward the men. Seven of their companions previously had been found and taken to Managua, Nicaragua.

The bomber, which caught fire at 14,000 feet has not been located, so dense is the jungle growth. The men dropped in a 50-square-mile area through tropical darkness, many of them landing 10 miles from the nearest expression. Of those in the jungle, about midway between Managua and Puerto Cabezas, apparently only two had made contact with each other.

Premier Of Hungary Hands In Resignation

BUDAPEST, May 30 (AP)—An official government said today that Premier Ferenc Nagy had resigned. A high Hungarian informant said he had been "pushed from an office" in what some sources called a "communist coup d'etat."

The announcement of the resignation, furnished by the official news agency, was only one sentence. It said the premier, on vacation in Switzerland, had called at the Hungarian legation in Bern and had asked that President Zoltan Tilly be informed of the resignation.

Imre Oltványi, a left-wing member of Nagy's small holders party, was understood to have been chosen tentatively as premier.

Simon Dingfelder Given Buffet Supper

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Dingfelder entertained on Wednesday evening at their home in Rose Court in honor of their son, Simon, who will graduate from Seminole High School with the class of 1947. The group gathered on the outdoor terrace of the Dingfelder home at 6:30 o'clock for a buffet supper.

In the center of the long table on the terrace was a graduating scene including a miniature boy and girl graduate complete with mortar board mounting an improvised staircase. At the top of the steps stood a clay model of Principal H. E. Morrison, created by Miss Carol Stone. This figure caused much admiring comment from the guests present. The tiny figure wore a white suit and held graduation diplomas. A huge horseshoe of red and white gladioli, the class colors, surrounded the scene.

The menu consisted of hamburgers and fried onions, corn-on-the-cob, potato salad, cole slaw, pickles, relishes and individual cakes decorated with "47" in red and white icing.

AZALEAS DEFEAT FEDS IN 3 TO 2 12 INNING GAME

By ARTHUR BECKWITH, JR.
 Herald Sports Editor
 The Celery Fed symphony of defeats continued at the Municipal Park last night as the Palatka Azaleas tripped the local aggregation by a 3 to 2 margin and extended to five their consecutive losses.
 Johnny Tomat went the route for the Sanford aggregation, and should have received credit for a victory, but the Fed's inability to hit with men on the basepaths left 18 men stranded.
 Palatka drew first blood in the top of the seventh. Theobald singled, Vinejeras drew a free duck and Napoli singled. Theobald drove Vinejeras home with the final marker of the frame.
 Sanford came to life in the bottom of the seventh to push one run across. Johnny McManus walked, Dave Bride was safe at first when McManus was fouled out at second. Manager Buddy Lake singled and Mayo Lanest drew a free ticket. Jerry Silverman forced Langston at second, but on the play Bride crossed the plate.
 In the eighth frame the locals added a run. Al Bryant walked, stole second and on the play the Palatka catcher tossed the ball into centerfield and Bryant moved to third. McManus singled Bryant home.
 The final and winning run of the contest came in the top of the 12th frame. Lastres singled and Gomez blasted a triple down the right field foul line to drive Lastres home.
 The Fed's invade the Azaleas bow in Palatka tonight and return to the Municipal Park tomorrow night for a tilt with the Gainesville G-Men. Saturday night has been designated as "Ladies Night" at the local park.

Plane Crashes

and a crew of eight bound from Korea, was sighted by aerial observers. It apparently had exploded as it approached for a landing.
 Nine members of a 12-man crew escaped when a B-29 plane crashed shortly after the takeoff from Fairbanks, Alaska, yesterday.
 In Iceland, searching parties in trucks, planes and boats hunted for an Icelandic Airways DC-3 plane with 25 persons aboard, missing since the takeoff yesterday at 8:40 A. M. (EST). Many of the passengers were women and children.
 Thirty-eight persons were killed immediately last night and another died early this morning after a Cleveland-bound United Airlines plane, with 48 aboard, crashed and burned just after its take-off from La Guardia Field. The disaster was the worst in the history of American commercial aviation. The City's worst air accident before occurred July 28, 1945, when an army plane struck the Empire State Building, killing 14 persons.
 Victor Levin, Queens county assistant district attorney, said that the pilot of the airliner, Capt. Benton R. (Lucky) Baldwin, told him he "tried to get it off the ground but nothing happened."
 First fire, then heavy rain, impeded rescuers who sought to determine which of the passengers were still alive and rush them to hospitals. Thirty-seven were taken dead from the plane and another, Stewardess Helena Klein of New York City, was declared dead upon arrival at a hospital.
 Hundreds of spectators at La

Guardia Field, including relatives of the passenger, saw the fatal takeoff of the plane. Minutes later, Grand Central Parkway above the crash site was lined with the curious, watching the rescue work proceed below them.
 Levin said he talked to the 28-year-old pilot before he was given sedatives and isolated from visitors at hospital.
 "He took off at 7 P. M. Eastern Standard Time, with a capacity overall load of 60,000 pounds on Runway 18, which is 4,150 feet long, which he claims is the shortest runway on the field," Levin said. "The plane should rise from 2,500 to 3,000 feet.
 "He said he tried to get it off the ground but nothing happened. The plane continued through a wire fence and across a highway and crashed into a ravine on the other side of the highway. The next thing we knew there were flames," he argued.
 "He saw a puddle of water in the plane and was able to walk. His neck hurt and some people came along and helped him. He is suffering from first degree burns of the face and neck and shock, and his condition is not serious."
 Theodore Alexy, 27, of Yonkers, N. Y., died of his injuries today. His father told reporters that his son, a former Navy lieutenant who saw service in the Admiralty Islands, had boarded the plane to go to Cleveland to marry Ruth Santner, of Cleveland.
 William F. Riordan, a merchandising manager of New York department store, said he watched the plane take off and "it had just cleared the runway when three of its engines caught fire." Other witnesses, however, said they saw flames until the crash.
 "When it crashed, flames shot about 400 feet up in the air," Riordan said. "Within two minutes there were three explosions, apparently from gasoline igniting."
 Riordan said he drove to the scene, found ambulances and fire apparatus already there, and "there was a pouring rain, with very heavy thunder and lightning, but the plane kept burning brightly."

Caldwell Differs With Senate Group On Finance Needs

Governor Appeals To Legislature For Nearly 35 Million In More Revenue

TALLAHASSEE, June 2. (AP)—A $24,500,000 difference in estimates of state fund needs appeared to be developing between Governor Caldwell and legislative financial leaders today as the Governor prepared to deliver a special message to the Legislature.

Finance and Taxation Committee members who conferred with the Governor today said he indicated to them that $34,812,000 in additional revenue must be supplied for the next two years if the Legislature is to cover its appropriations and provide the $10,000,000 cushion against declining revenue that he has requested.

The legislators indicated however, they thought $10,000,000 would supply the essential needs.

At a joint Senate-House subcommittee meeting, there was little support for the $10,000,000 cushion. There seemed to be, too, a general agreement to disregard the $10,000,000 set up in the building bill for second priority construction, mostly at the colleges.

There also was a suggestion to base the amount necessary for schools under the new general education law on $78,000,000, instead of $82,000,000 set up in a statement of receipts and expenditures furnished by Budget Director Homer Graham.

TALLAHASSEE, June 2. (AP)—Governor Caldwell prepared today to go before the Florida Legislature to speak about financial needs.

Allan F. Powers Dies As Result Of Auto Accident

Allan F. Powers of Maitland, formerly of Belmont, Mass., died early Friday morning as he was being rushed to the hospital in the Erickson ambulance following the wrecking of his 1942 Buick sedan at Twenty-fifth Street and the Orlando Highway.

According to police, Mr. Powers, while approaching the intersection at 240 A. M. heading north, lost control of his automobile when he suddenly applied his brakes as the traffic light went red. He skidded 135 yards from the point where the brakes were set, smashed a palm tree in the small park, crossed over three times and came to a stop against another palm tree.

Genard Loring, who first noticed the wreck, motored quickly to the Police Station, where Desk Sergeant George C. Fellows, after receiving the information, radioed City Patrolmen Wayne Raulerson and Jack Hichon to proceed to the wreck in their car from where they were parked on Commercial Avenue. The ambulance was then summoned. State Highway Patrolman L. C. Bender and Sheriff P. A. Mero also investigated the accident.

The Buick which was badly wrecked, was taken to Rattiff's. In the car were two, foot chests and groceries. The widow of Mr. Powers has been located and notified of the death by the Erickson Funeral Home, but as yet no instructions have been received regarding the funeral arrangements. It was stated this morning.

George P. McNear, president of the Peoria, Peoria and Western Railroad, was fatally shot from a train near his home the night of March 10 while a strike of 15 railroad brotherhoods was in progress.

Senate Approves Bill Extending Rent Control

Legislation On Income Tax Slash Is Approved By House

WASHINGTON, June 2. (AP)—The Senate passed on a voice vote today legislation to extend federal rent controls through next Feb. 29. The measure now goes to a conference with the House to iron out broad differences in the two versions of the bill.

Chairman Tobey (R-NH) of the Banking Committee declared the legislation is in such shape that it is in the "best interests of all the people of the country."

Tobey objected particularly to an amendment which permits a 15 per cent increase in rents in cases where the landlord and tenant agree on a lease to carry through 1948. He said this will "nullify rent control."

The Senate shouted down an effort by Senator Kilgore (D-W.Va.) to reconsider the amendment. In attacking the provision, Tobey shouted that real estate and landlords' interests "are singing a ta-deum and a halloo" over its adoption. It is similar to a provision written into the bill before it was approved by the house.

He urged continuation of "rent-to-God rent controls" after Senator Taylor (D-Idaho) had proposed a simple extension of all present regulations through June 30, 1948. This would conform to a recommendation of President Truman.

Meanwhile, the House stamped its final approval today on Republican-backed legislation to reduce income taxes July 1 by $4,000,000 annually. Routine Senate sanction is expected to follow tomorrow. The vote was 320 to 99. The bill then would go to President Truman, confronting him with one of his biggest decisions since the GOP took control of Congress—the question whether to veto it. The President has contended this is not the time for tax-cutting.

Supreme Court Denies Review Of Curley Conviction

Prominent Bostonian's Sentence For Mail Fraud Still Stands

WASHINGTON, June 2. (AP)—The Supreme Court today in effect upheld the conviction of Mayor James M. Curley of Boston on mail fraud charges. The high tribunal refused a request by Curley that it review and reverse a decision by the U. S. Court of Appeals here which affirmed his conviction. The refusal leaves the Court of Appeals decision in effect.

The 72-year-old mayor was sentenced to 6 to 18 months in jail and fined $1,000. Curley's attorneys may ask the Supreme Court to reconsider its refusal, but such requests are rarely granted. Court rules allow them 25 days to act.

The Supreme Court also denied a review to Donald Waksfield Smith, a former member of the National Labor Relations Board who was convicted with Curley. Smith was sentenced to 4 to 12 months and fined $1,000.

He is survived by two children: Mrs. Vannie Hall and Ira Smith of Holy Hill; four sisters, Mrs. Ada E. Kennedy of Sanford, Mrs. S. L. Knight, Mrs. Effie Semoni and Mrs. Anna Bethea.

Airline Crashes And Tornado Help Boost Holiday Death Toll

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Violent deaths during the nation's three-day Memorial Day holiday totaled 498 today, with automobile mishaps causing 223 fatalities.

Ninety-five deaths in the country's two worst airline crashes and 48 known dead in tornadoes in Arkansas and Oklahoma boosted the toll from miscellaneous violent causes, homicides excepted, to 213 drownings totaled 62.

A "gloves-off" investigation of commercial airline crashes during the last week was demanded today in the House by Rep. Edward T. Miller (R-MD).

Forty-two persons perished Thursday in the crash of a United Airlines ship at Luffkinville Field, New York, and 53 others lost their lives in the crash of an Eastern Airlines plane near Port Deposit, Md., on the following day. They were the worst accidents in commercial aviation's history.

Miller told the house the La Guardia Field crash was "inexcusable" and the Civil Aeronautics Board and the Civil Aeronautics Administration were guilty of "gross negligence" and "dereliction of duty."

R. H. Smith, 93, Dies After Long Illness

Robert H. Smith, 93, died last Thursday following a long illness. Mr. Smith resided in Sanford for 20 years prior to his removal to Holy Hill in 1928. He returned to Sanford several years ago and lived on the Orlando Highway. He was born in Scriven, Ga., on July 11, 1859, and was a member of the Church of Christ.

He is survived by two children: Mrs. Vannie Hall and Ira Smith of Holy Hill; four sisters, Mrs. Ada E. Kennedy of Sanford, Mrs. S. L. Knight, Mrs. Effie Semoni and Mrs. Anna Bethea.

Funeral services were held May 30 at the graveside at Southside Cemetery and were arranged by the Erickson Funeral Home with Rev. A. L. Butler officiating.

Armed Services Rev. J. McKinley Unification Bill Addresses Junior Slated For Action High Graduates

WASHINGTON, June 2. (AP)—President Truman's continued proposal to put the armed forces under a single Cabinet secretary was assured today of reaching a vote at this session of Congress as the Senate Republican policy committee docketed it for action.

The committee's decision came on the heels of a Presidential commission's report calling for an immediate universal military training law. With such a training law, supporters of unified armed services unification advanced their projects as a partial answer, at least, to the commission's recommendation.

Here are the highlights of a presidential commission's report urging compulsory military training:

The Army has been "disembodied" and "our military forces are a hollow shell."

Absentees can expect to be sent from four to ten years of training from an atomic "bomb attack" on its own cities. After that, an attack could hit with "indistinguishable horror," and in that case the nation would need "trained men in every part of the country ready and able to meet disaster, sabotage and even invasion."

"We recognize that weakness is an invitation to extermination. And failure to take precautionary now might result in loss of our possessions, our liberties, our lives, and the destruction of mankind's hope for an enduring peace."

The "precipitate drop" in military readiness will have the "unthinkable effect of encouraging those to whom weakness of the part of the peace-loving nations is a passport to aggression."

Project Advanced As Partial Reply To Military Training

Hungarian Aid Is Cancelled By Marshall

Newly Organized Non-Communist Government Of Italy Is Promised U. S. Help

WASHINGTON, June 2. (AP)—Secretary of State Marshall said today the United States "wishes every success for the new non-Communist Italian regime formed by Prime Minister Alcide De Gasperi. 'We shall continue to give aid,' he declared, 'to the Italian people who have demonstrated their sincere and abiding faith in democratic processes for the preservation of their individual liberties and basic human rights.'"

WASHINGTON, June 2. (AP)—Secretary of State Marshall today ordered cancellation of an unused half of a $30,000,000 credit to Hungary, where a pro-Communist regime has just been set up with Russian support.

The $30,000,000 credit was granted Feb. 15, and about $15,000,000 has not yet been utilized. The Hungarian credit was granted for the purpose of buying American surplus property. The suspension of the unused half was announced as a tentative step, pending clarification of developments in Hungary, where Premier Ferenc Nagy and other non-Communist government officials were ousted last week.

In addition, Hungary recently was promised a $7,000,000 credit to buy American cotton. A State Department official said the status of this has not been decided.

Ferenc Nagy's friends said today the Communists have threatened Hungary's erstwhile premier with a treason prosecution to keep him from telling how he came to resign.

They declared yesterday that a trial in absentia was in store for Nagy if he violated a reported
