

Family Congress In Arizona Seeks To Aid Americans

PHOENIX Ariz., Feb. 15.—Arizona's first contribution in the way of plans to aid America's economic life is the incorporation of the Family Congress of America, described as an organization to "further the safety, security and prosperity of the American People."

Howard N. Blazard, of Prescott, Ariz., head of the Family Congress, said it differed greatly from other such projects in that it featured a program for persons of all ages rather than for old people alone.

"Our program is for a permanent national plan toward uniting families of this country in a realization of the great and glorious privileges but which we are in danger of losing," Blazard said.

While the Family Congress is not primarily concerned with pensions, Blazard said, it does provide for a pension of $60 a month for every citizen of 60 who is not in an institution and who wishes to retire.

The Family Congress also would:

- 1—Promote real and actual social security "through an abundance of productive work and ready circulation of money."
 - 2—Make medical service actually available for all as an American right and a national economy.
 - 3—Build a financial strength in the Family Congress of America and an understanding among its members and the public generally "that will make it possible for the common man to be better heard in the protection and realization of his constitutional rights, privileges and opportunities."
 - 4—Seek an abundance of productive public work, well-paid and dependable for every citizen as an American right with no connection of relief or relief status.
- A tax on idle money and

Newspapers To Get Bank's Advertising

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—(AP) Newspapers will receive more than half of the advertising expenditures of the nation's banks this year, results of a survey by the National Advertisers' association indicated yesterday.

Thirty percent of the banks studied, the survey showed, were increasing their appropriations in 1945, while 65 percent were maintaining their budget set up in 1939 and only 5 percent were reducing them. Banks included in the survey ranged from the world's largest institutions to those with resources of around a million dollars.

Banks in the 25 and 50 million dollar class reported they would use 64 percent of their appropriation in newspapers, those in the 50 to 100 million dollar class, 54 percent; those under 25 million, 58 percent; and those of 100 million or more, 50 percent. The banks reported 15 to 27 percent would be used in direct mail advertising. Other media, such as sectional periodicals, novelties, car cards, outdoor advertising, displays, national magazines and radio will receive the remainder.

More Than One Million Is Given For Finns

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—(AP) Dr. Edmund A. Walsh, chairman of the Washington unit, said yesterday that more than $1,000,000 in $1 contributions had been received by the Finnish relief fund.

Calling this "a magnificent response from the man in the street," Walsh said it had induced leading industrialists and bankers to promise to duplicate this amount.

Work Expected To Be Resumed Soon On Channel Tunnel

LONDON, Feb. 15.—(AP) Work on a railroad tunnel beneath the English channel, suspended nearly 60 years ago, may be resumed after the war.

Anatole de Monsie, French minister of public works, declared in the French chamber of deputies that construction of the tunnel would be one of the first public works undertaken when peace comes.

The war has served to focus attention anew on the project at a possible national defense measure—to provide a lifeline attack from plane and submarine attack by which food may be sped to this island and by which troops may be sent to France.

More than a mile of the tunnel was bored some six decades ago before construction was halted in 1823 by Joseph Chamberlain, then Minister of Works. Chamberlain obtained a permanent injunction to restrain the Channel Tunnel company from boring any further toward the French coast without Parliamentary sanction.

Regularly since then, advocates of the tunnel have attempted unsuccessfully to obtain this sanction. The present prime minister only last year said he did not believe that the tunnel would provide any extra protection to the food supply of the country in the event of an air attack.

However, Winston Churchill wrote in 1926 that such a tunnel would be of inestimable value in wartime. And de Monsie in his French chamber speech said: "We see now the great international need of the tunnel."

A tunnel linking England and France first was proposed in 1802 by a French engineer named Mathieu, but it was not until 1873 that the first Channel Tunnel company was formed.

Hopkins Says British To Buy More Tobacco

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—(AP) Secretary of Commerce Harry L. Hopkins predicted last night early resumption of British purchases of American tobacco, relieving a serious crisis in the American tobacco market.

He said, in a statement, that his experts had advised him that Britain would resume buying American tobacco soon because of British preference for American tobacco and also because of the tariff revenue derived from importing it.

Finns Appeal To Swedes For Direct Armed Assistance

Scandinavian Nation, However, Rebuffs, Pleas On Grounds Of Endangering Self

Russians Achieve Admitted Results

Red Forces Occupy Shell-Shattered Village Of Summa

By Associated Press
Sweden disclosed today Finland had appealed to her for direct military assistance against the steady pounding of Russia's vast army but had been rebuffed.

Finland's call for help, which Sweden said she could not heed and still protect her own neutrality, sharply underlined the embattled land's difficulties under unrelenting Russian pressure which the Finnish high command now admits is achieving results.

A Finnish communique conceded that the Russians had penetrated the Mannerheim line defense system on the Karelian Isthmus in some places but at a heavy cost in men.

The Swedish newspaper Aftonbladet reported the Finns told Sweden they either must conclude peace with Russia on Russian terms or get help from the western powers if Sweden failed them.

But London offered little hope of British regulars being sent quickly in sizable numbers or of such aid from France.

"It would seem the present situation is too bleak on the scene," one British source said.

The Finns admitted the Russians had occupied the shell-shattered village of Summa.

Seminole Is Now In Orlando WPA District

Changes Are Made In Transfer Order In Washington

With the re-organization of the 11 Florida WPA administrative areas in 10 districts, Seminole County is no longer a part of the Daytona Beach area but has been placed in the Orlando district, according to information received from the office of K. Marion Googans, director of operations for the district.

There is no longer an area office in Daytona Beach, and Volusia county has been made a part of the Jacksonville district. It was pointed out by Rodney Thurbay, assistant area supervisor who supervised this county's WPA program, is now an assistant in the newly created Jacksonville district.

Replacing the assistant supervisor in the new setup will be the field engineer of the district office who will direct the progress of projects in the six counties of the Orlando district which are: Orange, Lake, Osceola, Sumter, Seminole and Brevard counties.

It was reported at the Orlando office that Mr. Googans has requested an allotment of funds for the City-sponsored project to replace the present wooden pipeline from the City wells to the new water plant. It was stated that an allotment for the recently approved sewer project will be requested as soon as there are more details on the project.

The changes made in the administration of the WPA in this state were in accordance with the recommendations issued from Washington, and the purpose of the rearrangement of counties in new districts was to provide a more compact division of the work to be done in each district, it was pointed out.

Officials of district No. 3, Orlando, include Mr. Googans, director of operations; Dorothy Hanson, director of projects; and Joseph C. Gregory, district employment officer, and James E. Keel, district finance officer.

KILLED IN ACTION

The name of Gunnar Hockert, Finland's great Olympic champion, has been added to those killed while defending the Karelian Isthmus against the Russians. Hockert set a new record in winning the 5,000-meter title in the 1936 games at Berlin and added the 3,000-meter mark in Stockholm the following year.

GOP Leader Hopes To See FDR In Race

Republican National Chairman Declares Action Would Give His Party Victory

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—(AP)—Republican Chairman John Hamilton today said he welcomed the possibility of Roosevelt's nomination for a third term, which he predicted would result in a Democratic defeat.

"We would have a clear cut issue, and once for all we would have a showdown on the New Deal, Franklin Roosevelt, and the third term—and we would finish all three," he said.

The Republican National Committee, meeting to set the time and place for the party's convention, He said all signs point to a Republican victory this year.

Third-term references climaxed his speech criticizing the New Deal, which he pictured as waging a "defensive retreat."

"Their own words confess their lack of candidates as the new leaders undertake to promulgate the doctrine of the one indispensable man—a doctrine which they would transplant here from the dictatorships abroad."

Republican National Committee Monday, June 24, as the date of the party's national convention, and arranged to choose its site later in the day. The last Republican convention in 1936, was held in Cleveland.

Validity Of State Citrus Laws Upheld

Judge Petteway Denies Injunction Asked In Independent's Challenge

Growers Request Law Enforcement

Relaxation Would Destroy Confidence, Association Says

LAKELAND, Feb. 16.—(AP)—Circuit Judge H. C. Petteway today upheld the constitutionality of Florida's citrus inspection, and maturity laws which group 236 independent growers had challenged.

He issued an order denying a temporary injunction which would have restrained the Citrus Commission and Commissioner of Agriculture Mayo from applying and enforcing the 1935 law on grading, stamping and certifying the fruit, and the 1939 law on maturity standards.

While the attack was not directed at all citrus laws, it was generally conceded that the whole program of State regulation would be undermined if it were successful.

Meanwhile a continuation of strict enforcement of federal and state citrus laws was urged yesterday by directors of the Florida Citrus Growers, Inc., at their monthly meeting here.

Directors adopted a resolution declaring attempts were being made to have present enforcement relaxed, and that any lowering of grades or relaxation of enforcement will result in "destroying the confidence in Florida fruit, now regained after five years of effective advertising, as well as nullifying the effect of future advertising."

The resolution asked the Florida Citrus Commission to maintain the present U. S. grade standards without change and Commissioner Mayo to enforce strictly the standards of these grades.

Frank H. Rex, vice president, said the industry now is operating under the federal-state citrus marketing agreement and not the so-called state frozen fruit law which was invoked recently to declare seven-day embargo on shipments.

Marvin Walker, Lakeland, executive secretary of the Florida Citrus Producers' Trade Association and F. G. Todd, Avon Park, member of the commission, explained provisions of both the marketing agreement and the state frozen fruit law.

Walter Rex, president of the Orange County Citrus Growers association, said efforts were being made to obtain a WPA project providing for investigators personally to survey on damage done during January freeze and the amount of financial assistance needed by citrus producers.

Proposal Made For Warships To Carry U. S. Mail

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—(AP)—Angry denunciations of Great Britain's interference with American shipping in her blockade against Germany rang in both House and Senate yesterday, climaxing by a proposal that the British be used to carry this country's overseas mail in future.

However, the Senate turned down, 46 to 25, an attempt by Senator Clark, Democrat, Missouri, to prohibit American air-mail planes from landing at the British possession of Bermuda where, Clark charged, British consuls were "refiling the mails."

Representative Mans, Republican, Minnesota, made the proposal that warships carry the mails. He charged that the real reason the British were extending American mail was to get cost data and other business information to enable their competitors to undercut this country in world markets.

Referring to Germany's recent warning that American ships which stop at Allied ports or contraband control stations would be kept prey for her submarines, Mans bluntly accused Great Britain of adopting her present contraband control policy in a deliberate attempt to drag the United States into the war.

The Minnesota led the House British warships carrying mail to be kept prey for her submarines, Mans bluntly accused Great Britain of adopting her present contraband control policy in a deliberate attempt to drag the United States into the war.

"Under the guise of protecting their blockade against Germany," Mans charged, "the British are doing the same reprehensible thing they did in 1914."

Cone Orders No Arrests Until March On Tags

TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 16.—(AP)—Governor Cone yesterday asked all Florida law enforcement officers to wait until March 1 before making arrests for failure to have a 1940 license tag on an automobile.

The governor already had extended the deadline from Jan. 15 to Feb. 1 and then added 15 additional days of grace. His request yesterday means another 15-day extension for tag buyers.

He explained that the motor vehicle license law does not permit him to grant another extension of the deadline for buying new tags but he said the recent "disastrous freeze" had caused many fruit growers and farmers to be hard hit financially.

The governor's letter said: "Section 1284, compiled general laws of 1927, prohibits the further extension of time for the purchase of motor vehicle license tags, but there has been a very disastrous freeze in the state which has caused a great financial loss to many of our citizens, particularly those interested in the citrus, vegetable and trucking industries.

"In my judgment an emergency now exists and because of such emergency I request and suggest that no arrests be made and no penalties be imposed for failure to purchase motor vehicle license tags prior to March 1, 1940."

Roosevelt Is On Mystery Cruise In Gulf Waters

ABOARD U. S. S. LANG IN THE GULF OF MEXICO, Feb. 16.—(AP)—President Roosevelt last night was aboard the U. S. S. Tusconoa steaming out into the gulf on a mystery cruise that will combine business and pleasure.

Great secrecy surrounds his plans. Reports were current that he would deny or confirm any of the reports. Informed by reporters that his "no comment" would intensify the mystery the president remained silent.

The mystery element deepened when he said it would be fair to assume that he might combine business with his vacation. He added that he intended to fish sporadically. The President dodged questions on whether his business would be the routine handling of White House mail or whether he had in mind a new peace move to end the European war.

With a straight face he told reporters he had heard reports that he might touch at a number of islands—Andaman, Celebes, the south Shetlands, or the Chuburle group. He said that some of these islands would not be found on most charts.

Then he cautioned reporters not to go so far out on a limb that they might be sawed off. But he refused to dismiss reports of a possible conference at sea on international affairs, or disclose into what waters he might cruise.

After parrying all questions about his cruise, Roosevelt discussed at length the important lessons the United States has learned on national defense from the off-shore activities of the neutrality patrol during the last six months.

The President said it was learned it took much longer than had been anticipated to put reserve destroyers into active service; that activities of light surface craft can be coordinated with patrol airplanes; and that never before has so vast an area of ocean been systematically patrolled.

After the press conference Roosevelt boarded the cruiser and the fleet he called out into the gulf for an unannounced mission. Observing the Tusconoa was the destroyer Lang and Janet.

Coughlin Wants To Talk Before House Committee

Seminole Oil Men Set Forth Tax Principles

The Seminole County Oil Men's Association last night set forth a six-point program setting out fair principles of taxation for oil men and motorists at a meeting here. The association is composed of wholesale and retail dealers in petroleum and other motorists supplies.

"As one of the most important points in our program," said M. R. Strickland, chairman of the local association, "we are urging the adoption of a constitutional amendment in Florida to effectively prevent the continued diversion of highway funds for non-highway purposes."

The President of the association set forth the following:

General Committee: Chairman: M. R. Strickland, Standard Oil Co., Sanford; Vice Chairman: H. E. Pope, Orange State Oil Co., Sanford; Secretary: Henry English, S. S. Operator, Sanford.

Legislative Committee: Chairman: W. A. Patrick, The Texas Co., Sanford; Vice Chairman: J. Palmer, Sinclair Ref. Co., Sanford; Secretary: A. J. Peterson, Seaboard Oil Co., Sanford.

Local Affairs Committee: Chairman: C. C. Whittington, S. S. Operator, Sanford; Vice Chairman: F. D. Scott, S. S. Operator, Sanford; Roy Britt, S. S. Operator, Sanford.

Public Relations Committee: Chairman: W. H. Rette, American Oil Co., Sanford; Vice Chairman: C. W. Ferguson, Gulf Oil Co., Sanford.

Taxes currently paid by motorists would be more than adequate to insure the construction and maintenance of highways," said Mr. Strickland "if such large sums of money were not diverted to other purposes. During 1938 the state collected $22,801,000 from the tax of 7 cents per gallon on gasoline. Fees for the registration of motor vehicles accounted for an additional $6,432,000, and special fees upon motor carriers added another $275,000. Yet out

Candidates Need Not Pay Poll Taxes Now

TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 16.—(AP)—Attorney General Gibbs said yesterday that candidates for nomination to political office in Florida are no longer required to pay poll taxes as a legal qualification.

The 1939 legislature, he pointed out, eliminated the section of the 1927 law providing that each candidate should swear "he has paid his poll taxes legally due."

The 1937 legislature provided that payment of poll taxes no longer would be a prerequisite for voting candidates in the 1938 primaries were required to swear they had paid the levy because the form they filled out in qualifying still contained the oath of payment.

More Snow Expected Tomorrow In East

By Associated Press
With more snow expected late tomorrow, the North Atlantic seaboard today speeded efforts to clear away the great St. Valentine's day snow—the heaviest of this winter, in some sections the heaviest in years. The death toll was estimated at more than 60.

Overnight, more than 5,000 men, at work in New York City alone, were ridding streets and sidewalks of drifts and ice. The weather was clear, the temperature rising, Hudson River barges frozen solid to West Point, 50 miles north of New York City, New England, which suffered the brunt of the storm, was counting on rain and snow fighting its way back to normal.

Home Demonstration Notes

By REVA D. ANDREWS

In no other phase of her work does the ability of the homemaker stand out more forcefully than in the preparation of biscuits, muffins, and delicious cakes. To produce these appetizing and appealing foods is an accomplishment of first rank and a homemaker may well be proud of her ability in this line.

To achieve success one must, to a great extent, follow directions in recipes that have been developed through careful and painstaking study. Even those who may be classed as experts in cookery have found that it is best to measure all ingredients accurately and to follow directions.

So, today, we are going to emphasize some of the standards and directions which pertain to quick breads, yeast breads, cookies and cakes.

Because they can be prepared in a short time, biscuits, muffins, gingerbread, cornbread and nutbread are called "quick breads."

Baking powder biscuits should be light, smooth, evenly topped and of two thicknesses, with tender, golden brown crusts, creamy, fluffy insides, and texture characterized by small, evenly distributed holes.

Varying from standard biscuit recipes, one may use a little more liquid and omit kneading to make drop biscuits, use graham flour and produce cranberry biscuits, add half a cup of grated cheese and have cheese biscuits, spread on cinnamon and butter and have cinnamon or pin-wheel biscuits, or add favoring to make butter, scotch biscuits.

Standard muffins should be light, golden brown, "pebbly" on top, symmetrical, and should have holes of uniform size when cut. Proper measuring and handling (without beating) go a long way toward success with muffins. Flavor and taste may be varied by adding blueberries, dates, graham flour, figs, bacon or jelly. Symmetry, smooth golden crust, lightness, fine grain, elasticity and softness, crispness and creamy insides are characteristics of good yeast bread, but double fat and sugar requirements. One can vary yeast breads by using or adding graham, nuts, raisins, cinnamon, or butter scotch.

Winter Travel In Autos Increasing

NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—(AP)—Motorists use their automobiles almost as much in winter as they do in summer, according to a new report on seasonal motoring trends. Figures on monthly gasoline consumption, compiled by J. Newman vice-president of the B. F. Goodrich Co., show that automobile travel is increasing 11 percent faster in winter than in summer.

"The spread of the winter vacation idea, hard-surfacing of 85 percent of the national highway network, and the scientific advances made in automobile and tire building during the past decade have combined to boost the average monthly winter consumption of gasoline from 44 gallons per car in 1930 to an estimated 64 gallons per car in 1940, or to within less than seven gallons of the high summer average," the report declares.

CRIME NEVER PAYS

PUEBLO, Colo., Feb. 16.—(AP)—The thief who stole 14 hens and two roosters from Mary Terlip's coop feathered his trail instead of his neck, and so police caught up with him. Officers said the chickens made such a fuss as the raider carried them away that feathers were scattered from the coop to the house where, the thief disposed of his loot. The officers easily followed the trail and eventually captured the guilty man.

Hamlet To Be Given Tonight At School

Scott Tennyson, romantic actor from the New York legitimate stage, will play the part of the Prince of Denmark tonight when the Avon Players, under the direction of Joseph Selman, present Shakespeare's "Hamlet" in the Seminole High School Auditorium at 8:00 P. M.

Other featured members of the company are Miss Boris Edwards, a clever and talented actress, who will play Ophelia; Whitney Haley, who began his theatrical career with the late David Belasco as King Claudius; Miss Eugenie Dubois as Queen Gertrude; Harold Selman as Polonius; Robert Baines as Laertes; Charles Trumbo as Horatio; Jack Vinsen as the First Grave-digger; Miss Muriel Gallik as the Player Queen. Also, in the cast will be Curtis Rollin, Dennis Laverne and Michael Weldon.

Special scenic and lighting effects will be used in the presentation and authentic costuming provides the proper atmosphere for the talented group.

Helps For Housewives

By REVA D. ANDREWS

See that all the leftovers from your holiday feasts are carefully stored. Every scrap can be wisely utilized to help ease the strain on our budget. Gravies and sauces become main dishes when mixed into fish, fowl, meat or vegetable. Salad dressings, combined with dash of cheese, dates, nuts and raisins, come out as first rate sandwich fillings for the lunch box or an informal tea. And a pudding with a new topper, heat stale cake for 10 minutes in a covered double boiler, serve it hot spread with a medley of the pudding sauces.

Always tightly cover fish stored in the refrigerator to prevent its flavor from penetrating other foods. As soon as the fish is received, remove from its paper wrappings, wipe off with a damp cloth and place in a covered dish, or securely roll up in waxed paper. Store in the coldest part of the refrigerator. Left over fish should also be tightly covered and stored in the coldest spot.

Try this for an informal winter dessert: Cover freshly made hot waffles with crushed pineapple, mixed with finely sliced bananas. Top with a hot orange-pineapple sauce. Serve it with plenty of hot coffee after a fish or fruit salad served for the club luncheon or bridge foursome.

If canned molasses is hard to pour in cold weather, heat it for several seconds by placing the can over low heat. The molasses will then run freely. To prevent molasses from sticking to a measuring cup, rinse the cup in warm water just before using it.

A dash of chili sauce gives pep to lamb, pork or veal gravy for chops, meat loaf or roasts. A teaspoon is enough for about 1-2 cups of gravy.

With the income available to them for living, farmers in 1939 could buy about as much goods for their families as they could in the favorable period of the '20's.

and measure flour, then add baking powder and salt and sift again. Beat fat until light and creamy, then mix sugar gradually and beat until all sugar is mixed with fat and mixture is fluffy. Beat egg yolks thoroughly and mix with fat-sugar mixture. Beat egg whites until stiff. Add flour, figs, bacon or jelly. Mix thoroughly and beat well. Fold in egg whites and beat well. Bake for about 30 minutes, remove as soon as done and place on cooling rack.

Train Wreck Cause Of Friends' Reunion

PHESANT INCIDENT

GREELEY, Colo., Feb. 16.—(AP)—A passenger train traveling 60 miles an hour collided head-on with a pheasant flying in the opposite direction at about 20 per. The hen crashed through the headlights and jammed into the concave head lamp so tightly that it was damaged almost beyond repair.

The best way to obtain early, high quality cantaloupes is to keep the plants growing. Providing adequate fertilizer at all times and spraying to keep down disease are necessary for this.

Appeal To Swedes For Direct Armed Assistance

Swedish troops from the village of Summa—initial objective in the great offensive—three days ago, but said that it represented the high watermark in the invading wave. The security of the Mannerheim line southeast of Finland remained unimpaired, it was said.

The Russians announced the capture of 55 more Finnish "deserters" making a total of 153 claimed taken in the 16-day drive. They said the Finns were retreating to the rear, abandoning arms, war materials, and suffering "grave losses."

On the Western Front there were snowstorms, and action was confined to artillery exchanges. A new cabinet took office in Bulgaria, and political observers expected the new ministry to seek to lessen economic dependence on Germany.

HELSINKI, Feb. 16.—(AP)—Russia's great offensive rumbled last night over a literal carpet of its own dead the entire breadth of the Mannerheim line, behind a murderous screen of artillery fire that dumped 20,000 shells into the battered Finnish positions in a single hour.

Again the Finns said they were holding fast to all vital positions and inflicting terrible losses upon the enemy.

He asserted that Finnish casualties from shells were "phenomenally low" because the Finns had deep dugouts and superbly camouflaged machine-gun nests.

In its report yesterday's activity the high command said the Russian's attacked fruitlessly on land and ice across the isthmus from the frozen fringes of the coast of the Gulf of Finland, through the Summa sector and the corridor between Lake Muonio and the Vuoksi river, to the Taipale river, on the northeast flank of the Mannerheim line, near

Boys' Choir To Sing At Holy Cross Sunday

The Apollo Boys' Choir, most famous organization of its kind in America, will appear at the Holy Cross Episcopal Church Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock under the direction of Coleman Cooper.

The group of about 25 boys, ranging from 8 to 15 years of age, has appeared in many parts of the country and has made three trips to Florida. They appeared at Rollins College last year.

For the past two weeks the boys, with their teachers and director, have been making Sanford their headquarters while they give concerts at nearby cities.

Victor Gombos, director of the world famous Vienna Boys' choir, has declared "the intonation of the Apollo Boys' Choir is as nearly perfect as I have heard demonstrated by an American choir."

With stark brevity the army gave these details of the isthmus battles:

"The enemy tried to advance over the ice along the coast of the Gulf of Finland but was thrown back."

"In the Summa sector and on the east side of it our forces repelled all enemy attacks. On the ice at Lake Muonio the enemy lost about 1000 killed and 15 wrecked tanks in the unsuccessful attacks."

"In the narrow stretch of land between Lake Muonio and the Vuoksi river the enemy made numerous attacks but all were repulsed. Two tanks were captured and immediately put into operation by our own men."

"A fierce battle raged at Taipale all day. Our forces repelled one wave of attackers after another. It is estimated the enemy lost 2500 killed during the day."

Elsewhere, it was announced attacks were repulsed northeast of Lake Ladoga and at Kahmo, on the eastern front, where "enemy losses amounted to more than 500 killed." The Finns said a supply column of about 100 motor vehicles was destroyed at one place.

The Finnish air force was active yesterday both in fighting against invading warplanes and in bombing Russian troop concentrations and supply bases.

Shoe Factory Is Built In U. S. By Czech Refugee

Jan Bat'a Envisions Factory To Build Millions Of Shoes

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
 BELCAMP, Md., Feb. 12.—(AP)—Bright winter sunlight floods through the huge shoe factory window, and the girl in the factory is an active 18-year old says "I like the work fine."

But upstairs—inside a room with the sign "Keep closed this door"—two boys—also Americans say the work is too monotonous.

The brick-and-mortar factory is the "second Zia" of Jan Bat'a, a Czech refugee with jobs in his pocket, and a vision of the world as four billion human feet.

Bat'a says Belcamp may become the international headquarters of his $375,000,000 shoe industry, replacing his center at Zia in former Czechoslovakia.

But he threatens to close down the United States government holds to an order to send home 62 of his 72 Czech instructors.

Immigration Commissioner James L. Houghaling says American workers can perform the supervisory jobs for which Bat'a insists he needs his countrymen.

Most of the 800 employees here, half of them girls, are high-school graduates. Scarcely any of them are over 20. Few know of the second paternalistic plan Jan Bat'a has for them in buildings unshrouding up on the flat fields overlooking the Bush River, 20 miles from Baltimore. Only last July the fields were vacant.

Two hundred yards from the factory is an unfinished combination hotel, cafeteria, and stores, and farther off are 20 snug little brick double houses. Down a road is rising a three-story office building, and peering in the woods to the home of Bat'a, his wife, and four young children.

In plans are a school for workers, three more community buildings, eight more factory units, an administration building, and still more homes.

Bat'a is a six-footer, blond, blue-eyed, thick in girth, almost smiling in gait. He is friendly but cheerful.

"There are 2,000,000,000 people in the world," he says. "Only 100,000,000 wear shoes. I want to put shoes on the rest."

He would do it by mass production of cheap shoes, an idea borrowed from America, by the late Thomas Bat'a, his half-brother and founder of the firm.

Bat'a is a refugee. When Hitler took Austria, Bat'a's funds, once in a Vienna bank, had been whisked to safety. When Czechoslovakia fell, Bat'a fled by airplane.

An estimated $2,000,000 already invested here, and it was "all cash" with no American backers.

The initial plan was for a $10,000,000 factory employing 50,000 workers, to make shoes for North, Central and South America.

When war stopped production in Bat'a's 15 European plants, he contemplated making here most of the 50,000,000 pairs of shoes exported annually to his 75 agencies throughout the world.

At one assembly line there is a sign "Department 421. Foreman Polasek. We make today 720 pairs."

"The conveyor belt is 90 feet long, shaped like a lax rubber band. It consists of a metal tray and two rows of holders for shoes. On each side are machines and workers. The belt jerks along slowly, and the worker takes a shoe, does his little job, puts the shoe back."

"These workers started last September, producing 50 pairs a day. They will soon make 1,000, says Vladimir Chlud, production manager. They work steadily, not hurriedly.

"They learn fast. Yes, perhaps better than other nationalities," Chlud says.

A few Czechs are in the room, showing young workers how to do their jobs. A machine breaks

MOTHER, SON WIN AT GOLF

NEW BRITAIN, Conn., Feb. 12.—It's not always "like father like son." Mrs. F. William Berry and her son, William, won first place in a mixed Scotch foursome of the Stanley Golf club to dispute the old adage.

"See," says Chlud. "There is one reason we need these instructors. Most of these machines we make ourselves. It is not like other shoe factories, where the machines are leased, where you do not have this same assembly line method."
