SANFORD NEEDS PUBLICITY

Maine Man Writes About Our Advantages

Augusta, Me., May 9, 1916.

Editor Herald: I regret very much that I am not privileged to be in your city that I might see and realize the many improvements that have been made since I left there three years ago. I read the Herald with interest and I note all the improvements that are there mentioned and from that and from correspondence with friends there I can see in my mind's eye many changes. I can see new business blocks, I can see new churches, I can see new and beautiful residences in all parts of the city, I can see the new Elks Home, I can see newly paved streets, I can see new walks, I can see new brick roads and above all I can see the tall, head extending from Sanford across the west to French avenue. What a vast change there must be in the lake front. Now I am looking forward to see that grand boulevard and to see the lake front beautified. When I look back to Sanford as it was when I left there and realize that all of these improvements, and many more which I know not of, have been made in the comparatively short time of three years, it seems to me that Sanford has been doing something after all.

But is she doing all that could be done? Is she awake to all the opportunities that are opening up before her? More and more as the years go by, people of the north are flocking southward, some to escape the cold winters, but many to seek a land where there are more and better opportunities. Of the vast number who reach Florida, does Sanford get her proportion? Of the hundreds who go from Maine to Florida every winter, how many stop at Sanford? Would it not be a good business proposition to advertise your city so that the people of Maine might know something of the opportunities you have to offer? If the Herald could be judiciously circulated through Maine it would bring results. If such issues as that of April 4th could reach the homeseeker it would make him sit up and take notice.

Perhaps I may be a chronic booster of Sanford. But I have faith in Sanford and I regret that I am not one of your citizens. I have reasons for being a booster. I have been on the ground. I know something of her opportunities, I know something of her soil. I have seen her growing crops; I have seen the harvest. I have learned something of the cost of production; I know something of the market, and more, I know something of her climate. Her soil and sunshine work for her every day.

Florida! What means in the name? The land of the fabled "Fountain of Youth" of waving palms of beautiful flowers and the bluest of skies? And with Sanford the city beautiful, and the center of the greatest celery growing section in the United States? If the truth could be conveyed to the homeseekers of the north, all available land in and around Sanford would soon be under cultivation.

I believe in advertising. Think of the cities in the west that have grown up through advertising. Look at Los Angeles. Her location was not in any way appealing. It was located in a desert fifteen miles from the ocean. But what she lacked in location was made up in the enterprise of her citizens. In 1885 Los Angeles was a town of less than 10,000 population. About that time they began to advertise. They sent traveling exhibits through the middle-west. They engaged lecturers to describe her one great asset, her climate. They published literature and spread it broadcast. They built a permanent exhibit at Atlantic City which is now self supporting and is visited by thousands every year. Today Los Angeles has a population of over 500,000. A great city has grown out of a desert and it has been done through advertising.

I regret that I am not one of your citizens that I might help, in my humble way, in the building up of your city. But while conditions are such that I must continue to live in Maine for a time, I shall continue to boost Florida and particularly Sanford at every opportunity.

For the good and upbuilding of your city, I am, Yours respectfully, J. F. Spaulding.

Price of Power. A remarkable play is "The Price of Power," the Fine Arts Triangle production. It is full of realism in showing a modern cotton mill in full operation, a strike in which brickbats and clubs figure and a thrilling struggle between a worthless cotton mill factory girl and a bean.

Swiss Factory girl. There is such swift action in the play and it is so lightened with touches of humor that any too intensely tragic feature is endeared and the whole effect is appealing and worth while. Orrin Johnson plays with versatility three different roles, representing the same man under different circumstances and at different times in his career.

Lyric Theatre, Wednesday.

"Topaz." The word topaz comes from the Greek verb signifying to guess. The Jewel was brought from the east and was reported to have come from an island and men guessed at the location of the island which produced such beautiful gems.

The Real Thing. Little Lenny—"Say, paw, what are the spoils of war?" Paw—"The money the heroes get for writing magazine stuff that appeared as news in the daily papers months before, son."

Must Go Together. It is futile to attempt to live in sections, separating business from religion and work from faith.—Hugh Black.

Frederick Perry in the Family Stain. At the Star Wednesday.

Figuratively Speaking. "What you need is elbow grease," said the lady, after watching the tramp's languid efforts to split a stick of wood. "A purely figurative term, leddy," he responded. "If I know where elbow grease could be purchased I'd buy some. But you can't purchase a purely metaphorical commodity." "Oh, I don't know. You evidently know where to buy nose paint."

Achieving Civilization. To achieve civilization a race must conquer itself and each individual must master the savage existing within him. The fact that we have not yet succeeded in doing this Doctor Mayer advances as the reason why cultured man has never civilized a primitive race. Under our domination, as is well known, the savage either dies or becomes a worthless parasite or a helpless slave.

We All Know That. "Your dad is an old crank," said the youth who had been told by her father that it o'clock was time to go. Dad overheard the remark. "A crank is necessary in case of the lack of a self-starter," he retorted.

Profit by Others' Wisdom. He who calls in the aid of an equal understanding, doubles his own; and he who profits by a superior understanding, raises his powers to a level with the height of the superior understanding he unites with.

Go to School on Skis. Sixteen children in western Montana go to school on skis from October to June. The snow is sometimes so deep that the telegraph wires are right beside the children. Willows stuck in the snow mark the trail to and from the school.

Optimistic Thought. Every lot is to be overcome by endurance.

BIG PRESBYTERIAN MEET IN ORLANDO

GENERAL ASSEMBLY BRINGS HUNDREDS TO THE LAND OF SUNSHINE AND FLOWERS

Orlando, Fla., May 19.—Reports of permanent committees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States to be submitted to the assembly which met here today show progress in all branches of endeavor. The commission committee has a report that it had accomplished more in the past year than ever before, the foreign mission committee sent out through new missionaries, now for was entered by the Sunday Extension League and the Board of Christian Education and ministerial relief told of attainment.

Candidates for the ministry are increasing in the south and they are being helped more financially, the relief committee reported. More than $14,000 was paid to the relief committee last year. More than $14,000 was paid to the relief committee last year.

Foreign mission committee reported the fact that 19,000 copies of the Bible had been distributed in the south and that $251,000 had been applied to the support of the work. The church has a membership of 1,000,000.

The committee reported that the division of its work into four parts, work among the "front" people, work among the "middle" people, work among the "back" people, and work among the "unreached" people.

Dr. A. McK. Alexander, pastor of the Presbyterian church in New Orleans, the retiring moderator, who delivered the moderator's sermon. The sessions will continue until May 26.

Among the more important matters to be considered is the proposed union with the Northern Presbyterian church and other Presbyterian bodies. The General Assembly is made up of 85 presbyteries.

Dr. Thomas Law, of Spartanburg, S. C., and Rev. J. D. Leslie, D. D., of Houston, Texas, reached here yesterday and began the work of enrolling the delegates so that this work might be as nearly completed as possible when the moderator opened the convention this morning.

Taking for the text of his sermon, 1 Cor. 15, 3-4, the retiring moderator declared that the only proof that a religion comes from God is the proof from miracles. "Make the resurrection of Christ a lie," he said, "and it vitiates all the other evidence."

The human mind is so constituted that it must believe the effect will correspond to its cause. If God acts it must be in a supernatural or superhuman manner or the mind will refuse to believe that God is acting. The only rational proof that a religion can have that it came from God is that it is accompanied with miracles, superhuman, supernatural and worthy of God. The resurrection of Christ is such a miracle.

Death of Tom Anderson. Seldom do we record the action of the grim reaper with more sorrow than today when the news is given of the death of Thomas Anderson, a boy of thirteen, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John I. Anderson. Young Tom was an honor pupil of the Sanford schools and upon the eve of commencement exercises he was called away. Stricken with appendicitis last week he was taken to the Orlando hospital where everything possible was done for him but it seemed that the boy was too good for this world and he was taken with the ripened grain into the realm of glory. He was a bright and promising boy and was beloved by all who knew him.

The funeral services will occur from the Methodist Church at four o'clock, interment being made in Lakeview cemetery. Rev. Steinmeyer, pastor of the Methodist church will have charge of the services.

Strenuous Tom's lay friends will get well to rest and refreshment at the hotel where they are staying. The committee will hold all the people of the church to account for the payment of their dues.

Barbecue at Chuluota. Big Time Promised Every One at Picnic Tomorrow. The picnic is expected to be a big one and will be held at Chuluota.

Historical at Gault. Presented to the Presbyterian General Assembly at Orlando. The gospel being used by the most prominent of our people, Rev. J. D. Leslie, D. D., of Houston, Texas, and Rev. J. D. Leslie, D. D., of Houston, Texas.

Christian Science Services. Regular Christian Science services will be held next Sunday at 11 o'clock, at the Woman's Club between 3rd and W 4th streets. Subject, Soul and Body. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

At the Baptist Church. Dr. John I. Armstrong of Nashville, Tenn., a prominent Presbyterian minister who is attending the Presbyterian Assembly in Orlando will preach at the Baptist Temple next Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock. The pulpit will be filled by another prominent Presbyterian minister at 7:40 Sunday evening.

Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. B. Y. P. U. No. 1, Temple B. Y. P. U. and Jr. B. Y. P. U. will meet at 6:30 p. m. You are cordially invited to attend all of these services.

Miss Alice Tetherly of Orlando was a visitor in the city Wednesday. Her many Sanford friends are always glad to see her in their midst.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES IN THE SANFORD SCHOOLS

ENTIRE WEEK GIVEN OVER TO RECITALS, PLAYS, ORATORY AND CLASS DAY EXERCISES

The extent of the season is the commencement exercises of the Sanford schools and is anticipated by the pupils and patrons of the school. The exercises this year were unusually good and attracted many people from a distance to the city. From the first recital on Monday night until the actual commencement on Friday, the schools have been the center of attraction.

The piano recital was given by Mrs. Emma Abbot Lyman, soprano, of Altamonte, was the assistant talent to this piano recital. Mrs. Lyman possesses a rich, velvety voice of rare sweetness. The piano recital that is given annually by the pupils of Mrs. Emma Stone, teacher of music, is a most interesting and instructive feature of the week.

Robert Preston, a teacher of music, and also Brown, impromptu Nellie Preston, the bride, were simply immense and added much to the fun of the play. Stan by Palmer and Hawkins the butler was cleverly done by Walter Brown who had been substituted almost at the last minute for Bob. Lundy who presented his appearance in the play.

Frances Aspinwall was a clever young schemer and portrayed the part of "Louise Ross," known as Miss Grayson, remarkably well. Frances Leavitt as the mother of Louise and step mother of Douglas Browne was good in her part. Marion Dayton, with Etta West in the role of the ward of Lawyer Preston was adorable with Gladys Morris, a football enthusiast acted as Gladys always does. She never fails to interpret her part with the natural instinct of dramatic talent.

Next came the Class Prophecy by Frances Aspinwall, the wit of the class. Frances was an adorable little figure standing upon the steps, twirling the magic crystal in which she saw the future careers of her fellow graduates. Her prophecies were clever and characteristic of the members of the class. She prophesied for a world renowned contractor, for Etta West a spinster, sole agent for somebody's chewing gum, Hume Runph appeared as a wizened, dried up druggist but always immaculately dressed; Alina Goertz would be a hospital nurse and Anna McLaughlin a dancer, the rival of Pavlawa, John Murrell appeared in that magic globe as a famous criminal lawyer and Joe Laing the rolly polly John Bunny of the movie screen and so on down the line, the clever little prophet with charming wit found for each classmate a fortune characteristic, but for herself there was just a blank; it was whispered, however, in the class that her brilliant wit and musical ability would solve Life's problem for her if Dan Cupid failed.

The presentation oration given by Gladys Morris was a gem of fun and laughter and happy thought. Car. (Continued on Page 4) and catchily. The girls were charming in their pretty frocks and their singing added greatly to the entertainment. The girls were Maud Entzinger, Virginia Brady, Marjorie Rhodes, Ruth Kanner, Edna Thomson, Ruth Steiner, Edna Chittenden, Alice Vales, Annie Walters, Fern Ward and Helen Peck. The play was undoubtedly one of the best that has ever been presented at the High School auditorium. Especial mention and the thanks of the officers and faculty of the school were expressed by Mr. Ezell to the W. W. Abernathy Furniture Co. and to the French Millinery Shop for the use of furniture and hats. The den in the "Theta Phi House" was most attractive, the painting for this and other scenes being done by Mr. C. J. Rumph, a teacher, extended the beautiful play.

A packed audience greeted the artists, whose planities long and loud testified by their appreciation of the cleverness of the comedians. The class day exercises were held at the High School, always one of the most delightful events of the year. As a rule, these exercises are held with a more or less of a religious character, but this year they were held with a more or less of a secular character.

The spring term of circuit court that was to have opened here next week has been postponed until Tuesday, June 13th and all those who intended to attend can be expected accordingly. It seems that this was a case of court interfering with court, as it was postponed to the same date as the court was to be held. The court had resumed the seven term of its way.

The spring term of court will have an unusually light docket and is not expected to occupy much time but many from the county had expected to attend and were making arrangements to come to Sanford next week. Therefore this notice is given that they may know the time has been changed and the court will not meet here until June 13th.

CONSULS INSTRUCTED ON NEUTRALITY

AMBASSADOR WANTS FRIENDLY RELATIONS CONTINUED BETWEEN GERMANY AND THE UNITED STATES

Washington, May 19.—Germany, through Count Von Bernstorff has instructed all German consuls in the United States to admonish German citizens in their districts to scrupulously observe American laws. This was done in an effort to end various alleged violations of American neutrality.

The ambassador cited in various instances the Berlin message which was a high commendation today in the office of the German minister to the United States. "In consequence of cases which have occurred of late the German ambassador has sent instructions to all German consuls in the United States to admonish German citizens in their districts to scrupulously observe American laws. CONSULS INSTRUCTED ON NEUTRALITY

Washington, May 19.—Germany, through Count Von Bernstorff has instructed all German consuls in the United States to admonish German citizens in their districts to scrupulously observe American laws. This was done in an effort to end various alleged violations of American neutrality.

The ambassador cited in various instances the Berlin message which was a high commendation today in the office of the German minister to the United States. "In consequence of cases which have occurred of late the German ambassador has sent instructions to all German consuls in the United States to admonish German citizens in their districts to scrupulously observe American laws. This was done in an effort to end various alleged violations of American neutrality."

The date, July 13-16th is coming quickly, and we should be getting ready to go and send off or more delegates from EVERY society in Florida.

At the last business meeting held by United Brethren workers in Tampa, 17 members were present, much business transacted and a pleasant climax, ice-cream and cake. It was decided to hold the regular business meeting every month during its first week, and that the devotional prayer meeting committee meet this same evening and arrange and appoint leaders for a month in advance. Mrs. Earl Cayton, wife of the district president, and state treasurer, George Cayton, are of this society. Mrs. Cayton is to take a well deserved vacation from state union official duties, but is yet very useful nearer home.

Mr. Marcus C. Fagg, our friend from the Children's Home Society is taking a vacation from his Jacksonville office, to return about May 31st.

SAND ASPHALT IS ENDORSED BY CITIZENS

STRONG PETITIONS, FROM RESIDENTS OF GENEVA AND CHULUOTA

Geneva, Fla., May 16, 1916. Editor Sanford Herald, Sanford, Fla.

Dear Sir: I read your article in the 13th issue of the Sanford Herald regarding a change in road building with much interest. This is just what we need. This is just what you know went against the local people in the election of 1914. It is a well known fact that the roads in this district are in a very poor state of repair. We need a good road leading to Ovidio, Chulusta and Lake Haro. By using a cheaper material such as sand asphalt we could have a good road for the same cost. want and make them pay the bill. We do not want to have any friction, or make any trouble, but if there is any way whereby we can have more miles of roads we want it. Give the people an opportunity to express their wishes, and I believe that nine-tenths of the property owners in this district would be opposed to brick. Shall we be heard or shall we be forced to take brick?

Yours truly,
H. H. Pattinall.

Possible Beneficiary.

"What is the trouble with this telephone?" said the grouchy person. "Every time I want to talk to somebody the line goes down. Well, to please the person I don't know if it will be any better. I'll try an ill wind may blow us a better road. May be it's a better for the party you were going to talk to."

The merchants of Leesburg and of Orlando and of other cities in Florida are contemplating a busy summer ahead by organizing trading days and upon these certain days all the merchants offer special bargains thereby obtaining a good trade during the summer months. There is no reason why Sanford should not be a central trading point for a radius of fifty miles around here and it is up to the merchants to make it such a point. But they will never do it by shutting off advertising in the summer.

THIS IS IN MINE WEEK
 "Be kind to animals week" is being observed during the seven days beginning Monday, May 15, as a result of the request made by the American Humane Association of many cities. The school authorities have arranged for the observance with special exercises in the schools, the introduction of an illustrated human talk or the writing of human essays. In some cities a program is being carried out every day. The week will close with a parade of the children and their parents.

OF THE SAME MIND
 The Florida people responded to advertising. The receive catalogues from mail order houses and away they go. The Florida people are not the only ones who do this. The people of every state do it. The Florida people are not the only ones who do this. The people of every state do it.

criticized, when there is no such thing as "freedom of the press."—Pensacola News.

OUR ROAD PROBLEM
 The idea advanced in The Herald last Tuesday regarding the sand asphalt or any good hard surfacing that would give us more mileage in the county for the money seemed to meet with instant response showing that other tax payers in the county have been studying the situation and think that something should be done before the contract for brick roads is let. A wise man changes his mind, the fool never, is an old saying and it is good to be placed in the wise man's class because our idea on this road question might place us in the other. The editor of The Herald has always been a firm advocate of brick roads but we have also maintained that should any other material ever be offered that would stand the wear and tear of fifth traffic at a cheaper cost we would certainly investigate it. We are absolutely against the proposition of the railroads getting the bond money for freight on brick. The exorbitant rate extracted by the railroads for brick makes this material cost the tax payers entirely too much. If there is any material that we can use and save those unreasonable freight charges we have accumulated something for the people. We leave the matter this week with this thought only but will go deeper into it in another issue.

RELATING SUMMER BUSINESS
 Florida cities as a rule are closed to summer tourists. The merchants especially seem to think that after the winter season is over all is over and it is unnecessary to advertise or attempt to do any business.

rying a basket tied with the class colors of green and white, that was laden with funny little gifts for the members of the graduating class. Miss Morris presented her gifts with pleasing remarks and captivating brilliancy. As each name was called the "candidate for execution" stood before their tormentor in attitudes shy, dignified or pleading, but withal laughing at her pertinent sallies. A tin horse for Ham Rumph that he might never be left behind a shovel for John Murrell indicative of his persistent digging for knowledge, a powder puff for Frances Levitt, a tea set for Alma Goertz; a switch for Oscar Browne with the remark of its need, "the rod having been spared and the child spoiled in the past"; to Anna McLaughlin a pencil; to pretty Etta West a stick of chewing gum and to Susie Brown a ring. Each class mate in turn received some suggestive gift amid the amusement laughter and hearty applause of the appreciative audience. At the conclusion of the oration, Ruth McDaniel presented the charming orator with a tiny rasket. The reference is clear.

Eighth Grade Graduation
 With all the week's splendid program, the eighth grade graduation exercises were not considered with greater interest than those of the eighth grade. The exercises were held in the school building on Wednesday night. The hearty applause and interest of the audience were a fine compliment to the efforts of the eighth graders.

Strong and Newton Lovell, three of the pupils to which charming accompaniment the class marched into the hall and took their places upon the stage. Carrying out in detail the topic for the exercises, "Florida," the decorations were peculiarly adapted, a beautiful setting for the group of winsome lassies and manly boys about to plit behind them the first milestone in their school careers. Green moss was graciously draped above the stage and Florida trees were placed about at the rear. Tall branches of bamboo, white overhead in yellow margolds hung the word "Florida," and above this were sprays of the purple Bougan Villa, carrying out the two colors of purple and gold. To complete the charm of the setting, the flowers sent to the young ladies of the senior class were placed in the center of the stage.

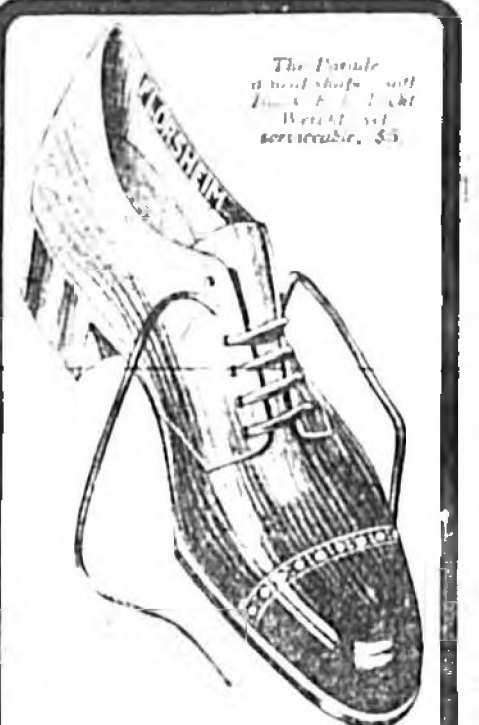

upon the Suwannee River" with Serita Lake accompanist closed the graduates part upon the program. The address of Dr. Thomas A. Neal was wonderfully interesting. He held the attention of his audience throughout and developed suggestions and splendid food for thought as he proceeded. He chose as his subject, "Preparedness," first touching upon the physical, mental, and spiritual preparedness with respect to war. The unfolded step to preparedness would solve its problems from day to day. Mental, spiritual and health preparedness are the three that provide education and health protection. The equanimity of the Florida people is a result of the preparation of the Florida people.
