Sanford Gets Spot In Florida League

Sanford again will have organized baseball. It officially became a member of the Florida State League yesterday.

A full working agreement with the Washington Senators will be signed later this week. Sanford will celebrate its return to the league in the opening game of the season, April 22, in a home game against Orlando.

The working agreement with Washington was scheduled to be signed today, but W. K. McRoberts, who posted the $1,000 franchise guarantee, is out of town. It will be signed upon his return.

John Krider, who represented Sanford interests at the league meeting at the Mayfair Inn yesterday, said that the local group had decided in favor of Washington "because we have been guaranteed the pick of Senator rookies." He added that Washington had assured Sanford of "number one choice."

Sanford made the league after Gainesville dropped out. The University City club announced early in the meeting that it planned to operate independently if no working agreement could be secured.

After this announcement, Krider told the league board of directors that Sanford was not interested in becoming a seventh member of the league. He added that Sanford was not interested in "pushing anyone out of the league," but was ready to operate if a franchise were available.

The Gainesville issue was settled by board members following a telephone conversation with Baltimore, which turned down a plea from Gainesville for a working agreement.

At the same time, Baltimore offered an agreement to Sanford, an offer which had been made earlier and turned down by the local group. Pittsburgh also had asked to be allowed to sponsor the local team.

Heavy Mud Delays Rescue, 36 Killed By Fire In Crash

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (UPI)—Fire, mud and rain combined Sunday to kill 36 persons in the crash of a German Lufthansa Super-Constellation in flames "hot enough to start a chain reaction."

Three crew members survived. All were reported out of danger today. The only American aboard, pilot Capt. Wren McManis of Westover Park, Stamford, Conn., died at the controls after he missed the runway at Galeao International Airport in a blinding rain storm.

The plane touched down in Rio Bay instead, bounced onto Tubiacanga Beach on Governor Island, exploded and split apart in flames.

Heavy mud delayed the rescue until it was too late. Most of the victims were burned to death.

Firemen who carried portable extinguishers several hundred yards through deep mud to the plane were forced to delay their operations until the flames died down.

They sought refuge from the rain beneath the unburned tail section. One shouted to officials: "No one's alive in there. It's hot enough to start a chain reaction!"

Officials said most of the victims were burned beyond recognition. Attempts at identification began in the Rio morgue today.

Search Under Way For Overdue Plane

KODIAK, Alaska (UPI)—The Coast Guard today launched a sea and air search for a C-124 Globemaster transport plane reported missing over the Gulf of Alaska 105 miles south of Anchorage.

A Coast Guard spokesman said two ships and one airplane were being used in the search.

Officials at Elmendorf Air Force Base at Anchorage said nine men were aboard the Military Air Transport plane which was reported missing on a flight from McChord Air Force Base at Tacoma, Wash., to the naval air installation here. However, the plane's home base, Travis Air Force Base, California, reported that 10 men left aboard the plane from there Thursday.

The huge plane failed to arrive here as scheduled at 10 p.m. e.s.t. Sunday. Radio contact with the plane was lost 28 miles east of Homer, Alaska, after it reported it was flying on two of its four engines.

The Air Force at Travis said the plane left with its regular crew of seven plus three pilots in training. The transport plane stopped at McChord Thursday for a two-day layover before departing for the naval air station here Sunday morning. The plane was reported to be carrying about 34,300 pounds of cargo.

With the satellite and its human occupant, the United States will be able to study the psychological and physiological effects of space flight on man.

Research will cover the reaction of a man to weightlessness as he travels around the earth in a virtually gravity-free state.

Studies of weightlessness up to now have been limited to manned flights in jet aircraft and to the launching of a monkey in an Army Jupiter missile.

Local Merchants Plan To Discuss 'Trade At Home'

Representatives from each type of Sanford business will meet Wednesday morning to organize methods of increasing retail sales in this city.

According to Francis Roumillat, chairman of the Retail Merchants' Division, "A large portion of Sanford payrolls is spent in Orlando and other nearby towns. There must be reasons."

The Division will seek ways of combating this trend to "shop away from home" which is a serious threat to all Sanford business people.

The meeting Wednesday is deemed "of the utmost importance" to the merchants, and all representatives are urged to attend. The group will meet at the Chamber of Commerce building.

Jim Spencer's Restaurant also was entered over the weekend. The kitchen door and the door to the office were forced sometime last night. About $10 in cash was taken from the cigarette machine.

Other weekend reports included a broken water main at 8th and Pecan. Alfred Ludell told police that another vehicle had forced his off the road, cutting the water pipe. The accident occurred at 6:34 p.m. Friday.

It will be up to Chief Judge Archibald Gardner of the 8th Circuit Court of Appeals at St. Louis to name the three-judge court if the complaint is relayed to him by Judge Miller.

The laws passed last August authorized Gov. Orval E. Fabus to close schools faced with integration and to withhold funds from any school district where schools are closed.

The complaint will be considered by Judge Miller next Saturday.

Reopen Schools, Negro Asks Court

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI)—An attorney for Negro students seeking to attend Little Rock's four closed high schools asked today for a three-judge court to open the schools immediately.

Wiley Branton, a Pine Bluff, Ark. attorney, filed a complaint with the federal clerk's office asking District Judge John E. Miller to call for a three-judge court to advance the case on its docket and to declare two state anti-integration laws unconstitutional.

It will be up to Chief Judge Archibald Gardner of the 8th Circuit Court of Appeals at St. Louis to name the three-judge court if the complaint is relayed to him by Judge Miller.

In the jets, pilots arched sharply upward and coasted weightless over the top of the plane's trajectory. Neither the men nor the monkey were weightless for more than a few minutes.

Thieves Stay Busy Here On Weekend

Thieves stole a display board full of pocket knives from Bennett Grocery, West 20th St. Saturday night, according to the Sanford Police Department.

Jim Spencer's Restaurant also was entered over the weekend. The kitchen door and the door to the office were forced sometime last night. About $10 in cash was taken from the cigarette machine.

Other weekend reports included a broken water main at 8th and Pecan. Alfred Ludell told police that another vehicle had forced his off the road, cutting the water pipe. The accident occurred at 6:34 p.m. Friday.

George Barr Ready For Umpire School

George Barr has arrived in Longwood to open another season with his famous umpire school. The six weeks course is held annually in Longwood, and includes lectures, discussions and field drill.

Barr was a National League umpire for 19 years. Graduates from the George Barr Umpire School are now found in leagues all over the U. S. Classes run from Jan. 15-Feb. 28. The school is in the Grand Hotel.

It will be up to Chief Judge Archibald Gardner of the 8th Circuit Court of Appeals at St. Louis to name the three-judge court if the complaint is relayed to him by Judge Miller.

Kidnaped Tot Is Found; Mother Of Eight Nabbed

NEW YORK (UPI)—A baby girl kidnaped from a hospital nursery 2 1/2 hours after her birth 10 days ago was found alive and well Sunday night. A 43-year-old grandmother was arrested for the kidnaping.

Even after the child had been positively identified as missing Lisa Rose Chionchio, police said the woman, Mrs. Jean Lavaronne, mother of eight children, continued to insist that she had given birth to the infant unattended in the Brooklyn apartment where she and the baby were found.

Police and F. B. I. agents recovered the infant after a telephone tip to police directed them to her apartment in the face of the woman's calm denial, however, they withheld action until the infant's blood-type and foot prints were checked with hospital records. They checked out perfectly.

Known by Bear

The child's father, Frank Chionchio, 28, an attorney, found his own identification — a tiny scar he had noticed above the baby girl's left eye in his brief first glimpse of her after birth.

2 Children Awake, Escape Fatal Blows

A quiet-spoken, slightly-built engineer today hacked two of his children and his wife to death with an axe in their fashionable home in South Seminole County.

Officers called the crime the "bloodiest in Seminole history."

Harry Gifford Higgins, 40, used an axe to kill two of his sons and fatally wound his wife around 6 a. m. officers said. The two boys, Richard 8, and Bryan 12, died instantly. Mrs. Higgins succumbed in an Orlando hospital at 10:20 a. m. She did not regain consciousness. The victims' heads were cut to the spinal cord by heavy blows.

Investigation Set Into Vice Scandal Of Police, Firemen

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI)—Police launched an intensive investigation today within their own ranks in a vice scandal allegedly involving the police and fire departments and a 15-year-old runaway girl.

Police Chief Frank Story said he would consult with the prosecutor regarding the issuance of warrants. He said the investigation of the girl's story might take several days.

He said she was unable to give names in every case, but was able to give accurate descriptions of the places where she allegedly met members of the two departments.

Rookie Patrolman James W. Kelly, 24, was stripped of his badge and jailed after signing a statement admitting he had shared a room with the girl last October.

An entire platoon of one fire department engine house was placed in a lineup for identification by the girl. Among those accused were four firemen, three patrolmen, a civilian ambulance driver and a suburban police chief.

The girl and Carl Galipo, 21, who police said admitted acting as the girl's procurer, told of their activities Sunday.

The girl's parents said they had spent $4,000 on medical and psychiatric care for their daughter since 1956. They said she had run away before but had not been guilty of such immoral behavior.

Ruth Ann went to her mother's room and flicked on the light. There she saw the picture of horror. She ran to a neighbor's who summoned Sheriff's deputies.

Higgins opened the back door to tell the assembled group that he would come out as soon as he made a phone call. He called his priest, and when investigating officers arrived, he was walking up and down the street with several neighbors.

Higgins is in Seminole County jail. Officers said he showed no remorse except that he was sorry he had not killed his wife instantly. He said, "I'm sorry that Ruth, whom I loved the most, had to suffer." He admitted that had the other two children not awakened he would have killed them too, officers said.

Authorities have two letters addressed to Waltham, Mass., written by Higgins last night. The letters contain bequests, dividing all furniture and household possessions among the recipients.

The Seminole County Sheriff's Department said this morning that the crime would be thoroughly investigated, and Higgins' background searched.

"We are not satisfied with the facts in this case," Vern Brewster said. "We feel that Higgins' past will shed more light on his actions."

Gramkow Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements for the deceased. Those investigating were Marion Driggers, Vern Brewster and J. L. Hobby of the sheriff's department and Grady Hall, Altamonte Springs policeman.

15 States Aleried For Burglary Ring

BLUEFIELD, W. Va. (UPI)—An alarm was out today for 100 members of a 15-state $500,000-a-year burglary ring and its leader who police said vowed death to any lawman who tried to capture him.

A 15-state alert was issued for Ira Mathena, 46, of Bluefield and Greensboro, N. C., after four alleged henchmen were charged in West Virginia and neighboring Tennessee County, Va.

Police said they learned the ring, working with duplicate keys, struck at numerous business establishments in Virginia, West Virginia and North Carolina during the past two years.

The group stole everything from television sets to ceramic bathroom tiles being used at a house under construction for a Virginia state trooper who helped crack the case.

Mathena, red-faced, 170 pounds, 6 feet, 8 inches tall, was described in a police bulletin as armed and dangerous. He was reported to have threatened members of the ring and their families.

Horse Turns Hound To Help Nab Cons

MARTINSVILLE, Va. (UPI)—A horse with the apparent instincts of a bloodhound pointed a posse to three escaped convicts Sunday.

The three, along with three companions, broke out of a state prison camp near here Saturday night. The fugitives apparently broke up into two groups.

Officers with bloodhounds followed one group to a farm near here. They stopped to question the farmer, who was feeding his horse.

While they talked, Dobbin raised his head from the feed trough, pawed the ground and started down a nearby railroad track.

Officers followed the horse's gaze, saw three figures and soon had in custody Johnny Jones Jr., Rudolph Jones and Richard L. Johnson, all Negroes.

Seminoles Split Pair, Play Tonight

By Jerry Costigan
The Seminole cagers found trouble here Friday night as the Apopka Blue Darters took advantage of every scoring opportunity in the first half and dropped the locals, 76-41. On Saturday night, Seminole beat Lyman, 71-31.

The Darters hit 90 per cent of their shots in the first half and controlled the boards and the Seminole never seriously threatened. The Darters experienced their hottest night of the season, but it is doubtful that the score would have been so high if a few of their first half shots had missed. The Darters could do no wrong and the Seminole could do no right in this one.

Big Jerome Shaw, a name that will be remembered from the Celery Bowl grid contest, was the big gun for the Darters as he poured in 23 points. The local attack was paced by Jimmy Gray, leading Seminole scorer for the season, Ray Lundquist, and Cecil Dandridge, all of whom, dumped in 10. Dandridge, who was so great against Apopka in the Celery Bowl, received calls from the Apopka fans to "remove his shoe." This bare foot was one of the biggest differences in the grid contest.

In the JV contests over the weekend Little George Perides continued to pour in the points to pace the Baby Seminole's attack. The small youngster has shown the ability to hit from every angle on the court and is probably the highest scorer in the history of JV basketball at SHS. He dumped in 15 against Apopka in the 39-32 win and 20 in the 47-32 victory over Lyman. He has hit 20 points in three games this season. Forward Mike Roberts also was a big gun in the contest against Lyman as he hit for 16 points. The big sophomore is the top rebounder on the JV team and shows great possibilities.

In the Lyman contest Saturday, Coach Bud Lyster's small cagers finally showed the aggressiveness that they displayed at the first of the season but had failed to show in the last two contests. They found their troubles in the first period and the Greyhounds held a one-point edge at the end of the initial period but then they went to work. Coach Lyster called on his entire squad and they all did a fine job.

Gracey continued to pump the ball through the strings to the tune of 20 points. He hit from all over the court and did his best job of the season on rebounding. He has hit over 20 points in four contests in the young season and is one of the top scorers in the area.

Senior forward Cliff McKibbin experienced his best night of the season as he dropped in 12 points. The small youngster stayed in there with the big boys and was probably the outstanding rebounder for the evening. Alex McKibbin second party to the Seminole brother act, hit six tallies and played a fine defensive ball game. He also got his share of the boards.

All-OBC guard Ray Lundquist was second to Gracey in the scoring department with 14 points. The small lad continued to direct the play-making and is the bright spot on the court. He is constantly stealing the ball and kills the opponents with his wings and set shots. Lundquist hit 10 and reached his peak yet, however, the Greyhounds showed plenty of hustle all evening and they made a contest in the first period but the faster Seminole began to pull away. Guard Keith Tennant paced the losers with 10 points.

The Seminole travel to Winter Park tonight for a scheduled doubleheader with the JV contest beginning at 7 o'clock. This is the second OBC contest on the season for the Seminole and it promises to be a top-notch ball game. The Parkers have a big height advantage but the Seminole could possibly outrun the highly rated Wildcats. The local squad will be seeking its first conference win.

'Witches' Hiding, Cult Leader Says

LONDON (UPI)—The high priest of a pagan cult in Britain whose members performed naked dances in an incense-filled temple said today two of his "witches" have gone into hiding, the tabloid Daily Sketch reported.

"They're not hiding because they are ashamed that people know they are witches," the newspaper quoted Jack Bracelin, 32, a paint salesman, as saying.

Bracelin said the cult's 40 men and women members meet once a month in a 16th century temple on privately-owned land to perform their ceremonies.

The cult has no dealings in black magic, is limited to "intellectuals" and membership is extremely difficult to obtain, Bracelin said in the Sketch interview.

"We follow a pagan rite which existed in Britain before Christianity," Bracelin told the newspaper.

"The sex act is part of the rite—but it doesn't take place in public," Bracelin was quoted as saying.

Whereas, the cost of trash removal from the primary highways of this nation exceeds $500,000,000 per year not including the cost of trash removal from county maintained roads and city streets; and

Whereas, such costs are a direct reflection upon those of us using the public roads of this nation and give us cause to reconsider our thoughtless and sometimes dangerous acts of littering such public roads with refuse; Now Therefore,

I, A. L. Wilson, as Mayor of the City of Sanford, Florida, do hereby proclaim January 14, 1959,

Seminole Is Seeking Engineer For Roads

Seminole County now is seeking a registered engineer to plan and supervise construction and maintenance of county roads.

The decision to hire a qualified man was spurred by a tour of county roads by commissioners. A full report on the status of the roads was not made. However, Commissioner David Gatchel referred to the roads as "What, those trails?" This would indicate that the roads in Seminole County are in a bad state of repair. In addition to Gatchel's statement, it was said at the meeting that roads only one month old are crumbling and full of pot holes.

We concur with Chairman John Krider's statement that Seminole County must give the new engineer assurances that he will be able to do his job without interference from politicians.

This charge was made by the last engineer the county had, William Hoag, a veteran engineer with the State Road Department, said that he was unable to perform his duties efficiently due to "interference" from officials.

He was fired by the Commission by 3-2 vote. The action produced a great deal of wrangling.

Now, the Commission plans to give job security as an inducement to get a qualified engineer, a commendable decision. It is unfortunate that the decision was not made last August. Had it been, the county would have had the services of a registered engineer during the past six months.

The Herald believes that commissioners are sincere in their desire to remove the county road program from politics. Officials should remember, however, that any engineer employed will disagree with them concerning road construction at one time or another.

Registered engineers know their business; they are experts in their chosen field. All know that a certain amount of public relations is necessary, but few will become "yes men" at the expense of a professional reputation.

Engel To Speak Here

The Seminole County Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors will hear a topflight promoter tomorrow night. Joe Engel of Chattanooga, often called the "Baron of Baseball," will be the speaker. As president of the Chattanooga baseball club in the Southern Association, Engel is well-known for his promotional ideas. Although his baseball team usually finds itself in the second division, Engel has discovered the key to financial success, year after year.

This success has been obtained by Engel-inspired "night" for various groups in Chattanooga and the surrounding area. In addition to baseball, Engel gives his fans a show.

Although his successful promotion has been limited to baseball, some of his ideas could be used by cities, civic and business groups. Promotion is promotion, whether it be in baseball or a Chamber of Commerce. No matter the endeavor, the fundamentals are the same: salesmanship and hard work.

The Chamber is to be commended for selection of such an outstanding speaker.

Ex-Sanford Man Gets Appointment

Altman is now a resident of Orlando. His appointment was effective Jan. 1.

BLOODY MERRY!

Inez Robb Says

By INEZ ROBB

In the past 30 years a great many American institutions have changed almost beyond recognition, but none has changed so dramatically as the American bank.

Today, a bank is nothing more or less than a tender trap where the banker is everybody's buddy and the teller is chuck-a-block with everybody.

In my childhood, the general architectural format of a bank was that of a cloistered morgue. That has given way today to a decor based on Versailles with overtones of Hollywood night club Baroque. In the old days, a banker wanted to be respected; today, he wants to be loved.

Now, instead of occupying an austere office far from the madening crowd, the banker is just big Daddy who sits right out in public like everybody else, listening kindly to your and my true confessions of why we need a quick buck for a winter vacation, to patch the roof or play the ponies. All bankers are now charm school graduates. A customer, on entering a financial institution, is met by an awesome display of teeth.

I have been giving some long, long thoughts to this situation since the holidays. Surely, no other city in the world is so beautiful as New York at that time. The decorations are magnificent and grow more so annually.

And who stole the show this year? Rockefeller Center? The department stores? Park Avenue? No, sir! The banks. One and all, they were gussied up with breath-taking decorations, including everything but wreaths of money. When I was a child, if a bank had squandered its funds on even one thin wreath, the examiners would have been in the back

Washington Calling

By MARQUIN CHILDS

WASHINGTON—After years of vituperation, suspicion and distrust a large obstacle in any high-level meeting between Russians and Americans is trying to determine what is real and what is propaganda in the Communist position.

Among those who appraise the cold war between East and West from a middle position of comparative neutrality the view is widely held that one reason for Anastas Mikoyan's visit is the situation in which his chief, Nikita Khrushchev, finds himself both in relation to his own power struggle in the Kremlin and to the satellites.

With the 21st Communist party congress coming at the end of this month Khrushchev would like to announce that a settlement of the cold war is in prospect. He could call this as one of the achievements of what some of his Communist critics have felt was "appeasement," being "soft on capitalism."

Foremost among his critics are Mao Tse-tung and the Chinese Communists who pursue a hard Stalinist line. They are rivals for the leadership of the Communist world and Khrushchev cannot ignore their threat. This is the belief, at any rate, of those who have followed the internal feuding within the Communist bloc with a long background of knowledge.

If Mikoyan does not bring back at least the prospect of a settlement, then Khrushchev will be driven, or so the theory goes, to prove that he can out-Stalin the Chinese Communists. The cold war will be stepped up to a fiercer pitch than ever and all hope of easing tensions in the foreseeable future will be gone.

The danger will be very great as Mr. K. demonstrates that he can be harder, tougher and more unyielding than Mao.

Men who seriously desire a relaxation of tensions and an abatement of the Communist grip on Eastern Europe subscribe to this appraisal. But how much of it is bluff? How much of it is propaganda line meant to intimidate American policy-makers so they will be willing to accept a settlement greatly beneficial to Moscow?

What makes this question more interesting and more troubling is the evidence of the past year and a half or two years that Mr. K. does want a settlement and a success in the cold war. He has said this to a number of Western visitors and often with great earnestness. This has seemed to mean more than the stereotyped peace

Graham Suffering Vision Impairment

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI)—Evangelist Billy Graham made plans today to fly to Rochester, Minn., to enter Mayo's Clinic for treatment of a "rare" eye ailment.

The religious crusader disclosed Sunday that vision has become blurred in his left eye and doctors have ordered him to enter the hospital for treatment.

Graham was in Dallas to attend the world evangelism conference of Texas Baptists. He told a crowd estimated at more than 12,000 at Dallas Memorial Auditorium that Americans have more to be happy about than the citizens of any nation but they are the world's most miserable and bored people.

The 40-year-old evangelist planned to fly to Rochester, Minn., to enter Mayo's Clinic for treatment of a "rare" eye ailment.

Graham made the disclosure of his eye ailment at a press conference. Asked whether he could see, he laughed and said, "Why, sure."

"Insofar as I know, I do not have cancer," he replied in answer to another question. "The doctors are as confused as the Republicans are nowadays."

"I place myself in God's hands," he said.

Marlene Hagge Nips 'Old Pros' For Mayfair Title

Five Iron Favored By Champ; Putter Got Win, However

Marlene Bauer Hagge claims that a five iron is her favorite club. Today, she could get a great deal of argument in favor of her putter from Mayfair Open spectators.

The 110-pound redhead chose her putter rather than a wedge on the 18th hole yesterday. The result was a 43-foot putt that gave her the first Mayfair Inn Ladies Professional Golf Association title, and top money of $413.25.

The putt wasn't supposed to go. Marlene Hagge was quick to admit this. Asked if she thought the putt would drop, she said: "Goodness, no. I was just trying to get down in two." Had she "lagged" as she attempted to do, a second true putt would have won.

However, had she not dropped the long one from off the green, Patty Berg might have gained a tie. After Mrs. Hagge plunked in the spectacular shot, Miss Berg two-putted the green, closing her round two strokes off the pace.

Mrs. Hagge, a "forgotten" challenger until the final three holes, dropped birdie putts on Nos. 16 and 17, in addition to the 43-foot-er on 18.

Mrs. Hagge proved a gain that consistency is the big part of her game. Her first two rounds were 77's. Yesterday, she toured the Mayfair course in a blistering 71, even men's par and four below women's par.

In 1958, she finished in the money in every tournament in which she competed. She missed only one on the LPGA tour, and this was due to illness. She was in the top 10 in 21 of the tournaments. Putting always has been one of her stronger points, but Mrs. Hagge said the putter has proved a bit troublesome at times. Yesterday was not one of those times, however.

The Mayfair title gave Mrs. Hagge a good sendoff on the LPGA tour, which moves to Tampa this week. Last year, she finished second only to Bev Hanson in money winnings and scoring average leadership.

Although she won't reach her 25th birthday until Feb. 16, she has a glittering golf record, including the enviable title of the all-time money winning mark for one year, $20,235. She also is the co-holder of the "most tournaments won" in one year—eight—shared by Louise Suggs.

In the past three golf seasons, Marlene Hagge has won $51,461.82, tops for the LPGA in the three-year span.

The Mayfair title joins quite a list of honors that golf has brought to her. Among these are the Amateur of the Year (1949), Gopher of the Year (1950), one of the Women of the Year and one of six Teen Agers of the Year.

TOP AMATEUR—Betty Kirby, Akron, Ohio, won the top amateur prize in the Mayfair Inn Open. Frank Mebane Jr., Mayfair manager, presented the prize. Miss Kirby had a 235 total for 18 holes, 10 strokes higher than the winning total for the professional ladies golfers.

43-Foot Putt Ends Long, Uphill Fight

By JAMES W. SMITH, JR., Herald Managing Editor

A 43-foot, off-the-green putt yesterday gave Marlene Bauer Hagge the first Mayfair Inn LPGA Open title.

The spectacular shot climaxed a successful uphill battle to overtake two "old pros," Patty Berg and Bev Hanson. Marlene's putt, which followed one of the tournament's worst chip shots, provided Mayfair with one of the greatest finishes that golf has ever seen.

Mrs. Hagge finished with a 34-hole total of 225, two strokes better than Miss Berg and Miss Hanson. Mary Lena Faulk, one-stroke leader going into the final 18, finished fourth with 231.

Mrs. Hagge's stretch drive rekindled Mayfair spectators of the gallant bid of Chick Harbert in the LPGA tourney in December, but where Harbert fell short, Mrs. Hagge made the grade.

A stymie on No. 18 was the turning point of the tournament. Mrs. Hagge's drive landed behind a tree. That gave Mrs. Hagge the inside track. The long putt on No. 18 dropped, picture perfect, although the champ admitted she was attempting to "lag" near the pin and "get down in two."

Her par four came the hard way. After gaining a stroke on Miss Berg due to the stymie, Mrs. Hagge attempted a chip shot from the right of the green. She got too much of the ball. It rolled across the green and into the loose sand to the left.

When she selected her putter, a murmur went up from the crowd. It was apparent that everyone thought she would chip again. She stroked the ball firmly and, 43 feet later, she had the Mayfair title.

Marlene started the final 18 a stroke behind Miss Faulk. She carded a 34 on the front nine, but blistered the back side with a 23. Her 71 total was even men's par, four under women's par.

Through 18 holes, the battle was between Berg and Hanson. On No. 14, Berg due to the stymie, Mrs. Hagge pulled even with Hanson, who had wrested the lead from Miss Faulk. Hagge also sank a fine put on No. 14 to give her a par.

Hagge was the "sleeper" in the tourney. Miss Hanson, in accepting her second-place check from Frank Mebane Jr., said, "All I could hear was Hanson and Berg and then I suddenly found out that Marlene had won."

Miss Berg, who played the final round with Mrs. Hagge, paid tribute to the champion by saying "she is one of the best competitors on the tour."

Tied for 10th place was long-hitting Mickey Wright, who was on even par in two, but couldn't sink a putt. The number of greens she three-putted was a record for her. Putting also took Miss Faulk out of the championship picture.

Ruth Jenson, tied for ninth with Marilyn Smith, was in the process of making a strong bid until she plucked two straight shots into the water on No. 12.

Betty Kirby, top amateur in the tourney, had one of the finest shots, a 60-foot chip-in on No. 12. Miss Hanson had a two-under 73 in the final round, despite a 106-degree temperature the night before. She said the virus, "which I brought from California," slowed her on the last 18 holes.

Mrs. Hagge had company on her "hot streak" on the back nine. Her 33 was equalled by Marilyn Smith, president of the LPGA.

Following Berg and Hanson were: Mary Lena Faulk, 213; Jackie Kirby and Joyce Hicks, 233; Betty King (amateur), 234; Ruth Jenson and Marilyn Smith, 235; Mickey Wright and Betty Bush, 237; Betty Jameson, 238; Fay Crocker, 239; Wanda Sanchez, 241; Bonnie Randolph, 242.

Kathy Cornelius, 243; Betty Rawls, Barbara Ronack and Betty Dodd, 244; Alice Bauer, Gloria Fecht, Frances Rich and Gloria Armstrong, 248; Kathy Whitworth, 250; Merle McKenzie, Sybil Griffin and Marge Burns (amateur), 251; Jo Anne Prudden, 252; Mary Ann Reynolds, 253; Roman Neundorff (amateur), 262.

Trudy Keel, (amateur), 268; Helen Smith, (amateur), 261; Jeanne Fouk (amateur), 260; Marian Bates (amateur) and Betty Houston, 226.

Sandspur League Resumes Bowling

The Sandspur Bowling League got off to a fine start to begin this half of the bowling season.

Three teams tied for first place, Roumillat & Anderson Drugs, Wilson-Maier Furniture Co., and Perfection Dairies. Each took two games from their opponents, leaving a three-way tie for second place, shared by ABC Garbage Service Co., Hobson's Sporting Goods, and Wade's Market.

Although there was much laughter and shouting going on, no outstanding scores appeared this first evening. Donna French rolled the highest scratch game, 169, and Faye Griffin had the highest handicap one with 194. High Series scratch went to Margie Woods, 424, and Jane Pruden bowled a 365 handicap series.

Lucille Harris claimed the lone turkey rolled. The 27 split seemed to be the favorite for the evening as Erma Webb, Donna French, Fran McPherson and Marian Adams picked it off. Betty Kupler went them one better with the 27-10 pick up, and Erma made the difficult 4-10.

ABC rolled the high scratch game, 474, for their only win, while both Hobson and ABC had the high handicap team game of 821. Roumillat's share? Series honors with no one as they took both scratch, 1893, and handicap, 2343, series.

This week's bowling will see Wade's Market battling Perfection Dairies on lanes 1 & 2, Wilson-Maier vs. Roumillat & Anderson on 3 & 4 and down on alleys 5 & 6, Hobson Sporting Goods will meet ABC Garbage Service.

Sports Parade

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—Australia, the amazing athletic land "down under," produced the world's outstanding athlete in 1958 in a raring, running automation named Herb Elliott.

There were eye-popping performances in every field of sports. Name your favorite and there was a top performer.

But Elliott, the health diet addict who trains by running 20 miles a day, stood head and shoulders over the field.

The 20-year-old kid ran 10 miles under the four-minute barrier. Then, at Dublin on Aug. 6, he lowered the world mile mark to a fantastic 3:51.5. They were efforts which stole the track thunder of Italer Johnson, who set a new world record in the decathlon which many regard as the toughest individual event of them all.

Lasts Top Athletes

Baseball—Bob Turley, whose "iron man" pitching swept the New York Yankees to their 18th world championship.

Football—Jimmy Brown of the pro Cleveland Browns and Pete Dawkins of Army.

Golf—Dow Finsterwald, the "professor" of the year, and Charley Coe, winner of the U.S. Amateur.

Tennis—Australia's Ashley Cooper.

Boxing—Ancient Archie Moore for his thrilling comeback knockout of Yvon Durelle.

Racing—Willie Shoemaker, the riding champion, and Round Table, the horse of the year.

Hockey—Maurice (The Rocket) Richard.

Basketball—Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain of Kansas and George Hardley of the pro Detroit Pistons.

Aids Yankee Comeback

Turley, a 20-game winner, was kayaked in the second game of the back out of the clubhouse to win World Series against the Milwaukee Braves. But he came back out of the clubhouse to win the fifth and seventh games and help "save" the sixth in a tremendous Yankee comeback made possible by Turley's strong arm.

Brown's 1,527 yards gained wrote pro football history for one year, smashing the old mark by 281 yards. Dawkins received the Heisman Trophy as the year's top player.

Finsterwald beat Sam Snead in a head - and - head final round match to win the PGA championship, ousting Tommy Bolt as golf's big man because of Tommy's spanking for unbecoming conduct.

Australia, which won the first world amateur golf team championship and cheered native son Peter Thomson's British Open triumph, had more to boast about as Ashley Cooper swept the big three in tennis by winning the Australian, Wimbledon and U.S. titles.

Moore Beats Durelle

Moore's triumph over Durelle, four times to one in the defense of the light heavyweight title, was a classic compared with the Dempsey-Firpo brawl. It took the play away from Ray Robinson's win over Carmen Basilio to regain the middleweight title.

"Willie the Shoe" recaptured jockey honors with close to 300 winners while Round Table set a world record in earnings of $1,136,364. Richard skated into the hockey history books with his 60th regular season goal and his 60th counting playoffs. And Chamberlain was the top college star while Yardley became the first player in pro basketball annals to score over 2,000 points in one season.

They were the big stars—and now it starts all over again.

Edge Of Nite Is Feature Favorite

Early odds says Edge Of Nite will edge her way into the winning first place spot tonight in the featured night race of Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club's 10-event schedule starting at 8:10.

The 52-pound black female finished sixth last time she raced, but posted two impressive victories in previous events. She'll have the advantage of speeding away from the first position, which is closest to the rail, and has been the starting point for more than 50 winners.

Second best morning line odds are given Gatebo, a 69-pound black dog who will shoot out from the second spot. In the fourth position will be a 12-lb-10-lb shot, Mentone.

Other dogs in the ninth race are Go Harry, Youn Pepper, Black Son, Taurus and Hailier. The kennel club is starting its fifth week in its 92-day state, and attendance and betting continues to increase as the fast greyhounds chalk up better times each week.

Dodger Night Life To Be Under Arcs

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The "night life" of the Los Angeles Dodgers will be pretty much restricted to the Memorial Coliseum in 1959, when the National League club plays a record 63 games under the arcs.

Only 11 of the Dodger home games during the coming season will be daylight affairs, with a single weekday game in September—before sundown.

E. J. (Buzzie) Bavasi, general manager and vice president of the Dodgers, said the large number of night games are scheduled "by popular demand of the fans."

It represents an all-time high for night games for a major league team to play at home, bettering that of the St. Louis Cardinals—56 in 1955.

Baltimore holds the American League mark with 48.

Blaik Offered Job As Sooner Coach

CORAL GABLES (UPI)—Miami Football Coach Andy Gustafson disclosed late Sunday that Hurricane Backfield Coach Bob Blaik has been offered a job at Oklahoma.

Blaik, 28-year-old son of Army Coach Earl (Red) Blaik, was in Norman, Okla., today conferring with Sooner Coach Bud Wilkinson.

"Whether Bob will leave the university, I don't know," said Gustafson.

He said both Blaik and Wilkinson approached him about the job offer at the recent coaches meeting in Cincinnati.

Blaik came to Miami in February, 1957, to take over as Hurricane backfield coach, replacing Perry Moss, who transferred to Wisconsin.

East Beats West In Pro All-Star Tiff

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—If quarterback Norm Van Brocklin and Coach Jim Lee Howell wanted "revenge" they had it today in the Eastern All Stars' 28-21 pro bowl victory over the Western Division football squad.

Both denied following Sunday's clash before 72,250 fans in Memorial Coliseum that they sought vengeance for anything in the past. But Howell, whose Giants lost the National Football League championship to the Colts appeared pleased that his all star squad beat that coached by Baltimore's Weeb Ewbank.

And for Van Brocklin the victory was a measure of satisfaction since the Los Angeles club was his former affiliation and rumored disagreements led to his departure and subsequent joining of the Eagles.

Van Ralies Forces

Van Brocklin, who had a less than average day until the final quarter, finally pulled together the Eastern squad to march 70 yards chiefly on his passes for the game-winning touchdown on a 15-yard throw to end Palmer Retzliff.

But Frank Gifford, who was appearing before a "hometown" crowd in the stadium where he played for the University of Southern California, was chosen the game's most valuable player for his ability as a passer, runner and pass catcher. Gifford, of the Giants, was involved in two scoring efforts to win his acclaim while Doug Atkins of the Bears was chosen the outstanding line-man for his play in the West squad.

Bill Wade, who had taken over as quarterback of the Rams when Van Brocklin departed, outshone the Colts' Johnny Unitas as he passed to one touchdown and ran for another only to see the West's 21-16 lead in the final quarter fall short.

Gang Tackle Brown

In that period the East scored three points on Lou Groza's second 25-yard field goal after Walt Michaels intercepted one of Wade's passes, scored a touchdown on Van Brocklin's passing drive and picked up a safety in the final five seconds when Hugh McPherson was tackled in the end zone by Tom Scell.

Although he scored no touchdowns, Jim Brown, the league's leading runner, netted 51 yards on the ground and had to be "gang tackled" to hold him in check. Gifford completed three passes on his option play, caught three passes and played an all-around top game.

Both Unitas and Jon Arnett were injured in the second half and their departure may have hampered the West club. Unitas hurt a knee while Arnett suffered rib injuries.

Haney Says Braves To Be Solid Again

EDITORS NOTE: This is the first of 16 dispatches by the major league managers giving mid-winter appraisals of their plans.

By FRED HANEY
Manager, Milwaukee Braves
Written For UPI

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Milwaukee should have a good, solid team again this year when the National League season starts if we are lucky and avoid the injuries that caused us so much trouble in 1958.

But we will miss that sparkling—that came through guy — Ted Schoendienst. I know he will be rooting for us and you can bet the entire Milwaukee club is pulling for him.

Even though Ted missed a lot of action, his presence even on the bench was an asset to us. He's a great competitor and I'm looking forward to having him back with the club in 1960.

Stranger On Mound

If all goes well, we should be stronger on the mound this year than we were in 1958. Obviously, Lew Burdette and Warren Spahn again will be the mainstays of our staff. But the Braves will have some good youngsters with a year more of experience like Carlton Willey, Joey Jay and Juan Pizarro. They should be ready to take their regular turns.

Gene Conley was probably the most unlucky pitcher in the majors last year. He pitched wonderful ball but somehow the team didn't win when he was throwing.

Bolt, Vossler Tie For Tijuana Lead

TIJUANA, Mexico (UPI)—Tommy Bolt and Ernie Vossler, tied for $2,800 pot of gold that goes to the winner of the $20,000 Tijuana Open golf tournament, head into the final round of competition today still tied for the leadership.

With 54-hole scores of 205 leading the pack, they still have strong competition to fear from at least 15 others, all of whom are no worse than four strokes back.

With the closely-bunched field it is possible that a sudden death playoff will be needed to decide the winner.

Right on the heels of the leaders are Jay Herbert, Sanford, Fla., and the new sensation of the tourney trail, John McMullin, of Alameda, Calif. They have 206 total. Three men are deadlocked with 207: Mike Souchak, Grossinger, N.Y., Art Wall, Pocono Manor, Pa., and Mike Fetelech, Yonkers, N.Y. Jack Fleck, former National Open champion, has 208.

Bolt and Vossler were into their deadlock at the end of 34 holes when they each had 134. Sunday's round failed to break the dead lock.

Father Mum, Girl Visitor

A 40-year-old Seminole County father, unable to explain why he hacked his wife and two of his children to death with an axe early yesterday, was allowed to talk to his 14-year-old daughter in the county jail here today.

Harry Gifford Higgins, technical writer for the Martin Co. plant in Orlando, last night was bound over to await grand jury action on first degree murder charges by a coroner's jury in Altamonte Springs. The coroner's jury recommended that Higgins be held without bond.

Today, Ruth Ann Higgins, who spread the alarm yesterday morning, was allowed to visit her father.

Through the coroner's jury hearing, and today, Higgins had only one statement to make: "I killed them, and that's all I have to say."

He appeared puzzled by his actions, saying, "It all seemed so crystal clear this (Monday) morning, but now my head is going around in circles."

Meanwhile, investigating officers (referred to as "hogs") reports carried by out-of-county news papers that Higgins claimed the FBI was watching him.

No motive for the triple slaying had been found today. Officers said a letter addressed to "The Bassett Gals, Waltham, Mass." Higgins' hometown, offered no clue.

Investigators said Higgins apparently went berserk in his fashionable South Seminole home. Killed as they slept were Richard Higgins, 8, and Bryan Higgins, 12. Fatally injured was Mrs. Ruth Higgins, 37, who died about four hours later in an Orlando hospital.

Officers said the case would be investigated by the next Seminole County grand jury. There has been no indication as to whether Higgins might seek court action to obtain his release from jail under bond.

Four Youths Fined For Firecracker; One Denies Charge

An 18-year-old Seminole High School graduate has denied having anything to do with throwing a firecracker at two boys on Sunday.

William Bernowsky said this morning that he did not see Patrick Erickson light the cherry bomb that injured Regie Boland.

"Harry Sturick and I were only passengers in the car," he said. "If I could have prevented what happened I would have done anything, to the point of holding the firecracker in my own hand."

Bernowsky said that he and Sturick were picked up by Charles Messer and the Erickson boy, and were "just taking a Sunday ride."

"I have four younger brothers of my own, and would never do anything to harm a child intentionally," Bernowsky said.

Bernowsky rescued tiny Nancy Nichols from Lake Mary last summer. The boy was cited for his quick thinking, when he rushed into the water, scooped her up and applied artificial respiration.

The four boys appeared in court last night before Municipal Judge Ambrose Oliff. The charge of possession of fireworks was changed to unlawful assembly in the cases of Bernowsky and Sturick. They were fined $102, as was Charles Messer, driver of the car. Messer pleaded guilty to the charge of possession of fireworks.

Patrick Erickson was fined a total of $202 after he was found guilty of discharging and possessing fireworks and assault with a deadly weapon.

The prank ended in remorse for all the boys. Bernowsky said this morning that he had visited Regie Boland, and wanted "to apologize for any part" he had in the matter.

The injured boy was treated for leg and hand wounds at Seminole Memorial Hospital after the accident, and released.

Officers Seeking Orlando Kidnap

MACON, Ga. (UPI)—Police and the FBI were conducting a wide-spread search today for a man who kidnaped a young woman and her 2-year-old son in Orlando Sunday.

Mrs. Dorothy Patrick told Macon police that she fled from her kidnaper when he became intoxicated and fell asleep in the back seat of his car.

She said the man had forced her and her young son into his car and told her that her husband paid him to "take you off somewhere and leave you."

Mrs. Patrick told officers Roy Harris and J. D. Bennett that they stopped at a concession stand in Lakeland, Ga., after driving all day Sunday and the kidnaper bought her beer and sandwiches.

The car ran out of gas in Macon and the driver became intoxicated after drinking the beer. She said she grabbed her son when he went to sleep and ran.

The kidnaper awoke and chased her but fled on foot when he saw several passersby on a nearby corner watching the chase.

The car was a 1956 Ford with Michigan license plates.

Red Peace Offer Termed Stupid, Brutal By Dulles

H-Bomb In Space To Dive On Target Termed Possible

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A scientific report circulating here conjures up a picture of H-bombs poised in space to dive at targets on earth whenever their masters feel there ought to be a war.

The report, prepared by Rand Corp. research experts for the House Space Committee, discusses "bombing from satellites." It says both the United States and Russia have taken note of this possibility.

All satellites launched so far have been peaceful instruments for gathering scientific information. Both this country and the U.S.S.R. have programs for satellites capable of returning instruments and film—or perhaps a man—safely to earth.

This, the Rand report says, "implies the possibility of bombing from a satellite." It would take refined propulsion equipment to accomplish this. You can't just dump something out of a satellite. If you did, it would just tag along in orbit.

But the idea of launching a warhead from a satellite in a long trajectory to earth is, the report says, "an entirely reasonable one."

"For unmanned satellites," the report continues, "the ejection operation can be initiated and controlled directly from a ground radar station in sight of the ejection point."

Or, it adds, "ejection and descent guidance could be carried out on a fully automatic basis in the satellite at any time after receipt of a general signal from the ground to proceed to the attack."

Two Wrecks, Car Blaze, Crazy Lights, Confusion

A big tractor trailer turned over and slid 80 feet on its side early this morning at the intersection of 17th and Lakeshore Blvd.

Police said the accident was caused by excessive speed on the part of the driver, Hilton Toomer, Crawford, Waycross, Ga.

The truck overturned when it hit the center island just beyond the Motors Inn, and skidded across the highway to the shoulder. Crawford was traveling south on French. He was charged with reckless driving by Capt. Arnold Williams.

Activity at the Motors Inn hit its peak during the dark hours. John Charles Erickson, Eustis, failed to stop at the stop sign as he turned off French. His car ended up hanging over the seawall at Lakeshore Blvd., and was removed by a wrecker. Erickson was put in jail and charged with driving while intoxicated. The incident occurred at 7:58 p.m.

And then there were the traffic lights. Power was interrupted in downtown Sanford causing a jam at First St. and French when the lights seemed to go amuck around 8:30 p.m. Confused drivers didn't know whether to stop or go, until Public Works Head Sid Richard repaired the signals.

Insurance covered the damage caused by Mrs. Pauline Hobby when she backed into a plate glass window at McRoberts Tire and Supply on West First St. Mrs. Hobby made a hole big enough to drive the squad car through, according to Capt. Arnold Williams. Her husband owns the adjoining service station.

Not so fortunate was the Rev. G. W. Phillips, 1302 Sheppard Ave. Vandalia set fire to his car, using a jar filled with gasoline. The fire department was summoned and doused the flames. Damage was about $10. No one has been injured.

Secretary Thinks Acceptance Could Bring Another War

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles today branded as brutal and stupid the Russian proposals for a German peace treaty. He said they would run the risk of plunging Europe into a new war.

Dulles told a news conference the United States was prepared to guarantee Russia against the possibility of resurgent German militarism if Germany were reunified under free elections.

But, he said, the Russian demand for a neutralized and demilitarized Germany is worse than brutal, it is stupid and unrealistic because it eventually might lead the Germans to try to play the East against the West and thereby again shatter world peace as it did in 1914 and 1939.

Dulles said he and other U. S. officials are not engaged in any specific negotiations with visiting Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan. But he added he hopes each side is getting a better understanding of what is really in the mind of the other.

Discussions important to Dulles said it was important to have the discussions with Mikoyan because they could lead to avoiding miscalculations which otherwise might plunge the two countries into real trouble with each other. There are enough real difficulties between Moscow and Washington, Dulles said, without adding to the problem by permitting misapprehensions to exist.

Dulles said the United States was conferring constantly with its Western Allies on the German and European situation. He said this government would offer 20 counter proposals to Russia unless they were agreeable to the Western Europeans, whom he described as equally or more concerned in the matter than the United States.

Father Won't Sign Kidnaping Charges

NEW YORK (UPI)—The father of infant Lisa Rose Chionchio refused today to sign a complaint against the 43-year-old grand mother charged with kidnaping the baby from her hospital crib and keeping her for nine days.

Frank Chionchio, 28, an attorney, made his refusal in Brooklyn felony court where Mrs. Jean Lavaronne, mother of eight, was arraigned on a kidnap charge which carries a possible penalty of 20 years to life imprisonment. Chionchio and his wife, Frances, 26, had previously expressed pity for the kidnaper who stole their daughter only 2 1/2 hours after birth. The child was recovered Sunday with evidence that Mrs. Lavaronne had tended her with no less concern than her own mother.

During the agonizing search for the child the parents had appeal ed to the kidnaper on the presumption she was a frustrated mother, promising that she might visit the child after she was returned to her family.

"Police had expressed belief that the kidnaping was done in order to trap the woman's sweetheart into marriage, and pave the way for getting four of her own children out of orphanages."

Florida Escapee To Be Returned

LAFAYETTE, La. (UPI)—Police Chief Carlo P. Lott said today his office had picked up Clifford Helton of Pensacola, an escapee from a Florida prison.

He said the 31-year-old man was picked up on suspicion and a fingerprint check revealed him to be a missing Florida convict. A federal marshal will return him in Florida this week.

Merchants To Plan Drive For Business

Representatives from each type of business in downtown Sanford will meet at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow to plan a proposed sales program. This will be the last Retail Merchants Division meeting before a general session with all merchants. Charles Staubitz, veteran merchandising expert, will present advertising and promotion ideas for approval. Staubitz is assisting the committee without charge. He already has offered many suggestions for improving downtown trade.

Headed by Chairman Francis Kowallik Jr., the committee and representatives are expected to suggest at least three general sales drives, with individual goals.

City Fills Posts On Various Boards

J. H. Vanlley was appointed to the Board of Bond Trustees by Sanford City Commissioners last night.

Vanlley joins Volle Williams Sr. and Herman Jacobson on the board.

Sidley, Vinton, Dan Hatten and W. A. Horn were appointed to the Electric Board and LeRoy Groover and W. D. Hawkins to the Plumbing Board.

Commissioners approved the ordinance abolishing the city utilities department, and putting its functions under the Public Works Department. The parks, zoo, cemetery and swimming pools were put into the Recreation Department. Sid Richard was confirmed as head of Public Works, and Ronald Perry as director of the Recreation and Parks Department.

Boy Says It's Tough To Be Tiny Guy

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—"Do you know what it means to be tiny?" Fighting back tears, the youth asked the question in the waiting room of the Hollywood police station.

Then, unable to contain his emotions, he buried his face in his dirty hands and sobbed.

"They're always laughing at me," he cried. "I'm almost 18, but they say I look like 9 or 10."

Truly, he did. That was why a YMCA clerk tipped off police when the youth, who identified himself as Christopher Panter, of Alberta, Can., tried to register Monday night.

Carrying a paper bag which contained blue jeans, some flannel shirts, a Menket and a guide map of Hollywood, the youth told officers he had run away from home in Vulcan, Alberta, and taken a bus here.

"That was last Friday," the youth said. "All I want is a chance to get a job where people won't make fun of me."

In the next room, Officer Jesse Tabbs, a young dark-haired policeman, pieced together the details.

The youth's height: 4 feet, 8 inches. Weight: about 80 or 90 pounds. Hair: blond and wavy. Wears glasses. Clothes: a ragged red and white flannel shirt and brown corduroy trousers.

"It was hard to believe the kid's story until he started talking," said Tabbs. "He's brilliant and sensitive. Maybe too brilliant."

"Ob, please, sir," the youth sobbed. "Don't put me back in there. I ran away once before and they caught me in Vancouver."

youth said. "I saved up my money and took all of it except 24 cents out of my savings account to buy the ticket."

"I'm experienced, you know. I've done a little grocery work, and a little accounting—simple, of course. I've even done a little acting."

Sounded for jail

The youth was almost smiling until Tabbs told him he would have to be looked as a transient.

"Does that mean juvenile jail?" the youth asked, his lips quivering.

"I'm afraid it does, son," Tabbs said. "Until we don't act your folks."

"Ob, please, sir," the youth sobbed. "Don't put me back in there. I ran away once before and they caught me in Vancouver."

CD Alert Slated Here Tomorrow

Sanford will participate in a national Civil Defense test tomorrow to measure the speed of local relay in air raid warnings.

The exercise will test the efficiency of state and local centers in relaying civil defense warnings of impending attack. Thirty-nine states and 9,000 cities will get the alerts.

There will be no public participation, radio and television stations will not be used. The National Warning System from the Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization will alert the nation.

Time of the test was not revealed. Reply cards from each city will be analyzed after the exercise to identify major sources of delay.

Driver Gets 10 Years

Woodson R. Smith, was convicted of manslaughter yesterday and sentenced to 10 years at hard labor by Circuit Court Judge Volle Williams Jr.

Smith was the driver of a car involved in a collision that killed three persons last September at the corner of First St. and French Ave.
