Commissioners retain control of cops.. for now

By MARIA OREM Herald Staff Writer

SANFORD Despite a consultant's recommendation to place the Sanford Police Department under the control of the city man ager, the city commission is not yet ready to relinquish the reins.

We need to see this through and finish solving the problem," said Commissioner Whitey Eckstein during the city's work session Monday. 'It's our responsibility. We started it Eckstein reminded commissioners that Sanford residents previously voted against placing the SPD under the city manager. He said the commission has not interfered with the police department, adding that after speaking with Chief Joe Dillard he felt, the city should give the police department to chance to straighten itself out."

Lake Mary Pee Wee chearleaders soar to victory

Special to the Herald

Eighty-eight cheerleading teams from across the region gathered Sunday, Nov. 16 to compete at the 97 Mid Florida Pop Warner Cheerleading Championships at the Orlando

Lake Mary's PeeWee division, headed by Coach Nancy Swann, ruffled the feathers of 23 squads and walked away with a flist place trophy.

The 29 member squad has been under the wing of Swann since Aug. 1 Swann, a gradu-ate of UCF, is a certified Physical Education Teacher. Coaching for Pop Warner is a volunteer position. Swann has dedicated three years to serving as a coach to the girls and hopes to continue on the next two years with them.

Countless hours of practice along with preparation for the championship were all part of the final first place outcome. Swann feels the credit needs to be shared with her two Jr. Coaches, Julie Johnson and Jacklyn Rafferty, both Lake Mary High School students who arraigned and choreo-graphed most of this years winning routines. ## Make reservations for LMHS medieval dinner

Roll back the hands of time and journey to a century when knights roamed the land looking for dragons to slay and ladies where taught all the basic skills needed to run a cas-

For those who don't have a time machine, a simple trip to Lake Mary High School will accomplish the feat. The Lake Mary High School Choir will be nosting a medieval dinner on Friday and Saturday, Dec. 5 and 6, in the cafeteria. The feast will consist of delectable roast beef, bakes po-tatoes, vegetable, rolls, salad drinks and luscious cake for dessert. All for a paltry sum of $15.

Entertainment will, course, be provided. There will be madrigal singers to serenade you, just as madrigals serenaded royalty during medieval time. Seating for dinner will begin at 6 and the festivities will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Reservations for the feast must be made by Dec. 1. To place your reservation. call the choir room at 320-9561 and leave a message on their voice mail. You can also call or fax 767-5099.

AAA, Audubon team up to promote eco-tourism

Special to the Herald

AAA Clubs of Florida and the Florida Audubon Society announced on Wednesday a new partnership that will give travelers what they've been increasingly asking for--an easy route to discovering Florida's natural beauty. The program, called AAA Audubon National Florida Journeys, combines the environmental knowledge of the Florida Audubon Society with the travel expertise of AAA Clubs of Florida to help people plan vacations that allow them to learn more about Florida's diverse wildlife.

Through AAA Audubon Natural Florida Journeys, people will be able to find reputable. environmental tour guides, discover where they can go to explore some of the state's most pristine and beautiful places, and arrange hotel stays. AAA and the Audubon Society created the program because both organizations have seen an increasing number of requests from the public for information about Florida's environment.

"We know that there's a growing niche of travelers who want to spend at least part of their vacations each year learning more about the environment and escaping neon lights, billboards and traffic jams," said Bill Dodd, Staff Director of Public and Government Relations for AAA Florida. "In a world saturated with cellular phones, conference calls, and faxes, more and more people have the desire to get back to nature, even if it's just for a few days. We want to help our members find what they're looking for."

Similarly, Florida Audubon Society President Clay Henderson said that his office receives e-mails, phone calls and faxes from people all over the country who want to know where they can go to enjoy things like bird-watching or

This is the first time we've entered a partnership like this with another organizaone tion," Henderson said. "We feel that this program is going to provide a much-needed service to the public and raise awareness of Florida's beautiful and delicate ecosystem."

Because this is a new program, AAA and the Audithon Society decided to limit the number of destinations to eight for the first year. The destinations are Cedar Key. Melbourne and Merritt Island, Naples, Okeechobee, Seminole County, Sanibel, Steinhatchee, and Vero Beach. In choosing destinations, these Audubon Society looked for diversity in scenery and experiences as well as places where they knew of professional, responsible environmental tour

There's a right way to teach people about the environment and there's a wrong way, Henderson said. Part of the reason we wanted to be part of this program is because we wanted to help set the precedent for responsible ecotourism. The guides who are recommended in the AAA Audubon National Florida Journeys brochures genuinely care about the environment."

Once the Florida Audubon Society named the destinations, AAA Clubs of Florida chose the hotels. Accommodations include the Ritz-Carlton in Naples, Disney's Vero Beach Resort, Park Place Motel in Cedar Key. Holiday Inn Melbourne Oceanfront, Holiday Inn Express in Okeechobee, Santbel Harbour Resort & Spa, the Marina Hotel and Conference Center, and Steinhatchee Landing Resort.

We chose hotels that range from the very luxurious to extremely rustic," Dodd said. We did this because we know that some members like to slip into the lap of luxury after a long day of exploring, and other travelers prefer a more minimal setting. This program suits a wide range of budgets."

Sheriff warns residents about traveling criminals

From Staff Reports

SANFORD - The Sheriff's Of fice is issuing a warning to all Seminole County citizens to be aware of the traveling criminals who normally frequent Central Florida at this time of

The traveling criminals, or Gypsies as they are sometimes called, target Central Florida in the cold weather months. They specialize in residential burglaries and home improvement scams. Last March, Sheriff's Office Investigators arrested two of the traveling criminals after a vehicle pursuit through Longwood and Altamonte Springs Adamo Marielo and Ewa Krol were accused of committing residential burglaries in Seminole County.

The females normally work in pairs with a male driver They will target a residential neighborhood in the daytime. seven days a week. They will enter a house through an unlocked door or force entry Once inside, the females will steal eash, jewelry and silver If confronted by the homeowner they will say they are looking for a lost dog

The males also work in pairs. They will solicit unannonneed in a residential neighborhood. The males will offer to fix a leaky roof or repave a driveway for a reduced price. They use cheap materials and do shoddy work. The traveling criminals will often try to increase the price once the work is finished.

The Sheriff's Office recom mends that homeowners

Altamonte Springs man charged in woman's beating

BY DAVID FRAZIER Herald Stall Writer

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS - A 31 year -old Altamonte Springs man is currently in the Seminole County fail on multiple charges after allegedly beating and tying up a woman who had came to his home Saturday morning, Nov. 22.

According to Altamonte Springs Senior Police Officer Karan Gilroy, Idalia Gardner, 34, went to visit her acquaintance, Casey Hemmings, at his home around 12 a.m. Saturday morning. When she arrived, Hemmings allegedly pulled her into his apartment, threw her on the couch and punched her in the face. Another, unidentifled female inside the apartment, tried to unsuccessfully help Gardner, and then left. Gardner attempted to leave but Casey continued to punch her in the face, Gilroy said. He then dragged her upstairs to the bathroom where he allegedly choked her, kicked her, and then forced her to the bedroom where he tied her hands and feet to the bedpost and continued to batter her. Gardner awoke at 2:30 a.m. still fied to the bed and noticed her hands were numb. She asked Hemmings to until her hands and he complied. She waited for Hemmings to fall asleep, and then she untied tions and bruises were found on her face, wrists and legs-Hemmings was arrested and charged with attempted murder, aggravated battery and false imprisonment. According to Gilroy. Gardner might have been going over to Hemmings to confront him over some ongoing dispute. It is unknown what really led into the altercation and the investigation by the Altamonte Springs Police Department is still continuing.

Volunteer of the Week

Sharing center is her labor of love

Herald Staff Writer

The Sanford Christian Sharing Center is proud to call Billie Tillis one of its volunteers, Irene Brown, director of the organization, highly recommenda her.

Tillis retired in 1987 from the Health Department where she worked as a chief deputy registrar. Since losing her husband some four years ago she has found that her volunteer efforts keep her busy, happy and occupied as well as feeling that she is helping a person in

Initially, Tillie shared that her Aunt, Verne Smith, stirred her interest. "She's the one that got me started," said Tilits. "She encouraged me to get out and work with her here. She wanted me to keep busy."

Now, after three years of working with the center, Tillin adds that, "Irene Brown is great! I love working with the people and seeing the people that come in. I like sharing with them. Some people remember me from working at the Health Department. It's nice to see those people again too. I guesa I have a face you can't forget."

She also cites that she was the "grandma" at the Health Department and used to play with all the babies. "I really love to nee the little kids that come into the center," she said.

"I love them most. It's great to see their faces light up when we find something they need. People are real appreciative and thankful for the help."

Working in the clothes division of the center, Tillis is responsible for "hanging up sorting and sesisting those clients find the proper size and At needed. She will direct those in need to the correct area to locate necessary items.

"Some people come in for clothes and I can help them" she said. "Others may come in because they are hungry and need food. We can help them with that too."

According to Tillia, every third Thursday and every fourth Monday she can be found volunteering at the Sanford Christian Sharing Center. Many times during the last week in a month Tillis and her aunt will come in if needed to provide further direction. She works from eight to 12 hours per month in what she feels in her labor of love.

Tillia has two daughters. Kathie and Patti, five grandchildren and four greatgrandchildren. She has been a member of Central Baptist Church in Sanford for 15

Poinsettia a popular Christmas symbol

The poinsettia, first intro-duced from Mexico in 1825, has become one of the most popular symbols of the Christmas season. It makes a great gift and is an inexpensive way to add festive color to your holiday decorations. And if cared for properly, can be used next year or placed in the landscape. Flowers: The poinsettia became popular as a Christmas holiday plant because it naturally blooms at this time of year. But the blooms are not what make the poinsettia so popular. Many of us assume that the colorful red portions of the plant are the flowers. However, the true flowers are nothing to get excited about, they are small, green and yellow and inconspicuous. The showy red parts, often mistaken for flowers, are not parts of the flower; instead, they are highly modified petal-like leaves which are called bracts. These bracts are formed below each flower.

Care: Once you get your poinsettia home it is important to care for it properly so you can enjoy it as long as possible. The poinsettia is especially sensitive to chilling temperatures. Prolonged exposure to cold temperatures will cause the plant to drop its lower leaves. Excessive heat can have the same effect. The poinsettia should be placed in a cool place in your home away from extreme heat or cold drafts. This means placing it away from radiators, fireplaces and other heat sources. The ideal night temperatures is be-

Watering: Watering practices are equally important and can determine the life expectancy of your poinacttia. Proper watering involves applying water in sufficient quantities to thoroughly sock the noti until it runs out the bottom the soil feels thy to the such. Your finger stuck in she soil a few inches is the best indicator of soil moisture. If your poinsettia la in a plantic alceve, make sure the water does not accumulate in the bottom. Standing water, in a sleeve or drain tray, can cause root rot and should be emptied-out after each watering. Plants placed in the home can dry out

This can be done by immersing the cut end of the stem in very hot water for one minute or flaming the cut end for a few seconds then placing it immediately in cool water. The commissioners will be asked this afternoon to rank the top three firms in an Auditing Services RFP and authorise the chairman to execute a contract with a selected firm (not to exceed $100,000).

On the 7:30 p.m. agenda, the Board will hear more about the U.S. Highway 17-82 Community Redevelopment Plan from Capital Programs Analyst Kevin Fall.

Connell and Connelly have restored the original porch that had been enclosed to create an apartment. Many of the original windows have been retained including some with original glue chip glass. The upstairs has oversized windows that offer a bird's eye view of SPD to be dynfunctional and below average. Hubier offered three options: to fix the department from within; to fix the department with the help of the Seminole County Shertiffs Office; or to turn operations over to the sheriff completely. Hubber also said for a smoother, more updated operation, the SPD should report to the city manager and not the city commissioners.

A Law Enforcement Options Committee, tasked with narrowing down the options, is its final meeting last week decided to let the SPD fix itself with Dillard maintaining command. Dillard's performance would be evaluated in six months and then in one year after that. Initially, the city had discussed placing a special referendum before voters to change the city's charter assigning management of the SPD under the city manager. The cost of placing the issue on a special ballet would be between $8,000 and $0,000. The date of the proposed referendum would be early next year, according to Jan Dougherty, city clerk.

Deciding to take a more active role in the overhaul of the SPD, commissioners agreed to postpone a referendum until 1990, an election year. The city officials also decided to held a series of workshops with SPD representatives to discuss the department's reorganization. The first meeting will be Dec. 1 at 4 p.m. at City Hall.

Commissioner Brady Lessard said he did not think the commission should second guess the voters and the referendum that failed. Lessard said he wouldn't be opposed to placing the referendum on a future ballot but not yet because voters needed to become more aware of the is-

"I agree with Whitey," Lessard said. "I don't affect the day to day affairs of the police de-

Echatels said he supported the city manager running the SPD, but not yet.

'I think the SPD will run more efficiently under the city manager,' he said. 'I'm all for the city manager running it but I want to be part of solying the problem. I think the citizens what us to hold the chief accountable.'

Commissioner Kerry Lyons said he wants the referendum to be separate from the city charter. Lyons said holding a referendum now until be too soon because of voter turnout.

'It doesn't matter a hill of beans to me any-suly because the commission is ultimately responsible,' Lyons said.

Commissioner Velms Williams said she didn't feel problems in the SPD were related to the command structure. Saying the commission was not to blame for police problems, williams said she did not see the urgancy for a referendum at this point because the city minager, as public safety director, already has unit active role with the police department.

'If I were an employee, I would much rather have four or five people deciding my destiny than one,' Williams said.

Clianging his initial stance, Mayor Larry Dale said he agreed that the commission needed to stay involved with the SPD's restructuring.

'My mindest was to have a special election,

Tify mindert was to have a special election, but now after listening to all of you, I'm thinking let's carry on through with what we started and place this on the ballot for the next regular election." Dale said.

However, Dale said the SPD should be like any other department of the city reporting to the city manager. He said City Manager Bill Stramons should be the administrative arm of the commission and should oversee the SPD because there is so much confusion there now.

The city manager should be the administrative arm in every facet of business," Dale said.

SANFORD Half-N-Half proved that their regular season champtonship was no fluke as it rolled to the title of the post-senson tournament of the Sanford Recreation Department Co-Ed Fall Slowpitch Softball League at Pinehurst Park Monday night.

Jerry Camus had four hits and Mike Davis drove in five runs as Half-N-Half scored in every trining and won the championship game 16-4 in six innings over Change Car Care.

Half-N-Half had gotten a free ride into the fi-nals the easy way when C & L Timber decided not to compete in the tournament.

Change Car Care had earned the right to take on Half-N-Half as Red Garner drove in three nums with four hits, three for extra bases, and John Stewart, Debbte Berning and Bruce Sellera added three RBI each in a 22-7, six-inning thumping of Beer :30.

The final standings, including the results from the tournament, were: Half-N-Half (9-2). Chang's Car Care (7-4), Beer :30 (3-7) and C & L

Pine Ridge rallies past Lake Howell

By COURTHET LEFFEW

Herald Correspondent WINTER PARK _ It begun as a blow away game for the Lake Howell girls basketball team but soon turned into a fight for points on the Silver Hawks fell last night to Pine Ridge, 62-54. Lake Howell dominated the first half of the game with a strong performance from Kurry Kane (14 points) and Vale Mears (11 points). Lake Howell ended the second quarter with the lead, 30-27.

Just when everything seemed to be going perfect for the Silver Hawks their luck changed.

Pine Ridge found their opening in the third quarter with lots of help from Lissette Alamo, who is only 5-foot tall, and Kerdu Arbet, a 6-foot-2 transfer student from Estonia, who made the difference in the game scoring 24 points.

Lake Howell could not put points on the board until Mears scored a most needed three-pointer that kept the Silver Hawks in the game.

The fourth quarter started with tone of enthusiasm. Both Lake Howell and Pine Ridge fought for every gont. Despite the Silver Hawks effort, they loss a victory that started out as theirs.

I amfreey impressed with Pine Ridge. We had difficulties on the boards and lost it in the third quarter," said Lake Howell coach Dennia Codrey.

ORLANDO _ Normally, the last thing an NBA team wants to do in the middle of a winning streak is change the team's chemistry. But when that change involves Penny Hardaway played 38 minutes and had 15 points to go with three assists in his first game since suffering tendonitis in his left knee. He hadn't played since the Magic's last loss, a home blowout by the lowly Sacramento Kings.

"My knees feel pretty good right now," said a heavily iced Hardaway after the game. "I'm back to normal now and it feit good to get back out. I missed the guys." Some of the Magic players felt Hardaway's absence may have been good for a team that relies so strongly on Hardaway's presence.

We can't always put the pressure on Penny Hardaway," Darrell Armstrong said. "There's always going to be a lot of pressure on him and we can't do that to all the ume." him Armstrong has taken a lot of that pressure off of Hardaway, racking up minutes, especially in crunch time. Mark Price has seen action as the starting point guard but it has been "Armstrong who has played the minutes down the stretch and had taken over as leader during the late minutes. With 45 seconds remaining, and Orlando up by five. Armstrong stole a pass and slammed home the points which virtually iced the win.

He's been playing great," center Rony Seikaly (game-high 24 points) said. "He's won some games for us and it's the sign of a good team that players lie him are coming off the bench. Orlando dashed out to an early 33-27 lead in the first quarter as Price had a pair of three-pointers to lead the way. but the Magic offense stalled in the second quarter, allowing the Wizards to tie it at 49-49 at halftime.

The game stayed close and was tied. 80-80 with 3:44 remaining in regulation when Seikaly hit on a short jumper and free throw to put the Magie up by three, then after Washington's Rod Strickland missed a short jumper, Seikaly laid it in off the glass to make it a five-point game.

groups submit application for bear

"conserve wildlife" license plate is one step closer to reality today because of the efforts of four state wildlife organizations.

Defenders of Wildlife, the Florida Chapter of the Sierra Club, the Wildlife Foundation of Florida and the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission (OFC) submitted over 15,000 signatures and $30,000 to the Florida Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles (DMV) to apply for establishment of a new license plate.

Under Florida law, sponsors applying for creation of a new license plate are required to submit 10,000 signatures and a $30,000 application fee to initiate the process. Rules also require sponsors to submit a marketing plan, plate design and proposed legislative lan-

The license plate will feature the image of a Florida black bear and a snowy egret with the slogan "Conserve Wildlife." GFC officials expect the new plate to generate millions of dollars in coming years to fund conservation for the full array of Florida's unique wildlife.

"All groups have worked diligently to garner support for the proposed new plate," said L Ross Morrell, director of GPC's Office of Informational Services. "Revenue from the tag would fund a broad array of GFC programs, including law enforcement, habitat management, wildlife research and public education.*

The funds would be dispersed through restricted grants by the Wildlife Foundapersed tion of Florida, Inc., which was authorized by the Florida Leg-islature in 1986 and established in 1994 to provide fiadministered by the GFC. The next hurdle for the proposed plate is passage by the Florida legislature. Rep. Sharon Merchant R-N. Palm Beach and Sen. Charite Crist, Jr., R-St. Petersburg are sponsors of legislation to establish the new plate during the 1996 ecssion.

Daunte will be a better player next year than he was this year and was he outstanding this year," UCF head coach Gene McDowell said. "He played the last half of the season better than he's ever played. Obviously we're going to be a whole lot better football team with Daunte than without Daunte."

Culpepper, who was Florida's "Mr. Football" as a senior at Vanguard High School, chose UCF because of the commitment made by the coaching staff to stick by him even though he was in danger of not qualifying academically. After it appeared he was going to qualify a lot of the bigger schools tried to persuade him to back away from his decision to sign with UCF.

When he came here he ma a big commitment to a small program to take it where it needed to be and he's done that." UCF offensive coordinator and quarterback coach Mike Kruczek said, an NFL veterun. My obligation to him was to take him from this level to the next level. Physically he's got all the tools to be great. He could go into the NFL right now, but the honing in on the mental aspect of things are really going to give him a chance to be successful fast at that level."

DEAR READER: This common condition, which is marked by con-traction of the sheath that covers the leaders of the second that tweet her leaders of the muncles that first the fingers, can lead to a handleap as the finger (or fingers) progressively fiez. The cause is unknown, but the affliction tends to run in families and is more prevalent in people who con-

If you can gently and regularly stretch your fingers into full extension, you may be able to counteract the effects of the contractures. However, even though many patients choose to put up with the disorder, corrective surgery may be necessary if the finger-flexion progresses to the point at which use of the hand is com-

DEAR DR. GOTT: Is there any cure for Poyronia's diseas?

DEAR READER: This common affiction often affects mon in middle age and beyond, leading to fibrosis (scarring) of the erectile cylinder on either side of the penis. Peyronie's disease causes crooked erections that may be points and can make sexual relations difficult. The cause is

Some urologists prescribe Vitamin E supplements (about 1800 units a day) as an inexpensive remedy. If this fails to improve the condition, injections of cortions into the scar tissue may help. In severe cases, the fibrosis may have to be replaced with a pros-thesis.

To give you more information, I am sending you a copy of my Health Report "Vitamin E: Myths & Facts." Other readers who would like a copy should send $2 plus a long, selfaddressed, stamped envelope to P.O. Box 2017, Murray Hill Station, New York, NY 18156. Be sure to mention the little

DEAR DR. GOTT: I am 64 years old. About five years ago, my wife died and I have been celibate ever since. Recently, I've noticed an occasional clear, painless discharge from my penis, especially when I sit for extend-ed periods.

I saw a urologist. During the examination, I was very emberrassed to find myself becoming aroused. Even though he reassured me that this is normal (and all the tests were normal, too). I think that I need a psychiatrist. DEAR READER: I disagree.

A gentle genital examination can often be stimulating to male patients; this does not indicate that you suffer from any problem or "hang-up." Such a reaction is particularly common in men who, for one reason or another, to not obtain regular sexual release The clear fluid that you noted is also

WIN AT BRIDG

Still writing after all these years

By Phillip Alder .

Bridge newsletters have a small but I receive is put out by Edith McMullin and Mike Lawrence. Every month, subscribers get 12 entertaining pages. My only quibble is that there is too much on dding and not enough on card play.

Here is a deal supplied by Lawrence that is easy for someone who counts. You move into South's chair after his aggressive four heart bid. Fortunately, partner tables a very suitable dummy. West leads the diamond 10. East wins with the queen and tries to cash the ace, but you rull. What now?

Evidently you must avoid losing two trump tricks. From his opening bid, you expect East to have the heart ace, but what about the queen? If East has her majesty, you need to finesse on the first round. But if West has the queen, you must play a heart to the king. Which will it be?

Start by counting the high-card points. You can see 20, so West could easily have the heart queen. Before committing yourself, though, lead the spade king from hand — a discovery play. Here, West wiss with the ace. Now all is clear. If West has four points, East must have the rema 16. So, East has both the heart queen

After ruffing West's diamond exit, play a club to dummy and run the heart five, placing your two or three under East's four. When the five wins, as you know it will play another trump
